CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES.

PREAMBLE.

We, the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this constitution for the United States of America.

CHAPTER I.

OF THE LEGISLATIVE POWER.

SECTION 1. All legislative powers herein granted, shall be vested in a congress of the United States, which shall consist of a senate and house of representatives.

OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

SEC. 2. The house of representatives shall be composed of members chosen every second year by the people of the several states, and the electors in each state shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the state legislature.

No person shall be a representative, who shall not have attained to the age of twenty-five years, and been seven years a citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an inhabitant in that state in which he shall be chosen.

Representatives and direct taxes shall be apportioned among the several states which may be included within this Union, according to their respective numbers, which shall be determined by adding to the whole number of free persons, including those bound to service for a term of years, and excluding Indians not taxed, three-fifths of all other persons. The actual enumeration shall be made within three years after the first meeting of the Congress of the United States, and within every subsequent term of ten years, in such manner as they shall by law direct. The number of representatives shall not exceed one for every thirty thousand, but each state shall have at least one representative; and until such enumeration shall be made, the State of New Hampshire shall be entitled to choose three, Massachusetts eight, Rhode Island and Providence Plantations one, Connecticut five, New York six, New Jersey four, Pennsylvania eight, Delaware one, Maryland six, Virginia ten, North Carolina five, South Carolina five, and Georgia three.

When vacancies happen in the representation from any state, the executive authority thereof shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies.

The house of representatives shall choose their speaker and other officers; and shall have the sole power of impeachment.

OF THE SENATE.

SEC. 3. The senate of the United States shall be composed of two senators from each state, chosen by the legislature thereof, for six years; and each senator shall have one vote.

Immediately after they shall be assembled in consequence of the first election, they shall be divided as equally as may be into three classes. The seats of the senators of the first class shall be vacated at the expiration of the second year; of the second class at the expiration of the fourth year; and of the third class at the expiration of the sixth year, so that one-third may be chosen every second year; and if vacancies happen by resignation, or otherwise, during the recess of any legislature of any state, the executive thereof may make temporary appointments until the next meeting of the legislature, which shall then fill such vacancies.

No person shall be a senator who shall not have attained to the age of thirty years, and been nine years a citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an inhabitant of that state for which he shall be chosen.

The vice president of the United States shall be president of the senate, but shall have no vote, unless they be equally divided.

The senate shall choose their other officers, and also a president pro tempore, in the absence of the vice president, or when he shall exercise the office of president of United States.

The senate shall have sole power to try all impeachments. When sitting for that purpose, they shall be on oath or affirmation. When the president of the United States is tried, the chief justice shall preside; and no person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present.

Judgment in cases of impeachment shall not extend further than to removal from office, and disqualification to hold and enjoy any office of honor, trust, or profit under the United States; but the party convicted shall nevertheless be liable and subject to indictment, trial, judgment and punishment, according to law.

MANNER OF ELECTING MEMBERS.

SEC. 4. The times, places, and manner of holding elections for senators and representatives, shall be prescribed in each state by the legislature thereof; but the congress may at any time by law make or alter such regulations, except as to the place of choosing senators.

CONGRESS TO ASSEMBLE ANNUALLY.

The congress shall assemble at least once in every year, and such meeting shall be on the first Monday in December, unless they shall by law appoint a different day.

POWERS.

SEC. 5. Each house shall be the judge of the elections, returns and qualifications of its own members, and a majority of each shall constitute a quorum to do business; but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and may be authorized to compel the attendance of absent members, in such manner, and under such penalties as each house may provide.

Each house may determine the rules of its proceeding, punish its members for disorderly behavior, and, with the concurrence of two-thirds, expel a member.

Each house shall keep a journal of its proceedings, and from time to time publish the same, excepting such parts as may in their judgment require secrecy; and the yeas and nays of the members, of either house on any question shall, at the desire of one-fifth of those present, be entered on the journal.

Neither house, during the session of congress, shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn for more than three days, nor to any other place than that in which the two houses shall be sitting.

COMPENSATION, ETC., OF MEMBERS.

SEC. 6. The senators and representatives shall receive a compensation for their services, to be ascertained by law, and paid out of the treasury of the United States. They shall in all cases, except treason, felony and breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest during their attendance at the session of their respective houses, and in going to and returning from the same; and for any speech or debate in either house, they shall not be questioned in any other place.

No senator or representative shall, during the time for which he was elected, be appointed to any civil office under the authority of the United States, which shall have been created, or the emoluments whereof shall have been increased during such time; and no person, holding any office under the United States, shall be a member of either house during his continuance in office.

SEC. 7. All bills for raising revenue shall originate in the house of representatives; but the senate may propose or concur with amendments as on other bills.

Every bill which shall have passed the house of representatives and the senate, shall, before it become a law, be presented to the president of the United States; if he approve he shall sign it, but if not he shall return it with his objections to that house in which it shall have originated, who shall enter the objections at large on their journal, and proceed to reconsider it. If after such reconsideration, two-thirds of that house shall agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, together with the objections, to the other house, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered, and if approved by two-thirds of that house, it shall become a law. But in all such cases the votes of both houses shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the persons voting for and against the bill shall be entered on the journal of each house respectively. If any bill shall not be returned by the president within ten days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall be a law, in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the congress by their adjournment prevent its return, in which case it shall not be a law.

Every order, resolution or vote to which the concurrence of the senate and house of representatives may be necessary, (except on a question of adjournment) shall be presented to the president of the United States; and before the same shall take effect, shall be approved by him, or being disapproved by him, shall be re-passed by two-thirds of the senate and house of representatives, according to the rules and limitations prescribed in the case of a bill.

POWERS OF CONGRESS.

SEC. 8. The congress shall have power to lay and collect taxes, duties, imposts and excises, to pay the debts and provide for the common defense and general welfare of the United States; but all duties, imposts and excises, shall be uniform throughout the United States;

To borrow money on the credit of the United States;

To provide for organizing, arming, and disciplining the militia, and for governing such part of them as may be employed in the service of the United States, reserving to the states respectively, the appointment of the officers, and the authority of training the militia according to the discipline prescribed by congress;

To exercise exclusive legislation in all cases whatsoever, over such district (not exceeding ten miles square) as may, by cession of particular states, and the acceptance of congress, become the seat of the government of the United States, and to exercise like authority over all places purchased by the consent of the legislature of the state in which the same shall be,

for the erection of forts, magazines, arsenals, dockyards, and other needful buildings; and,

To make all laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into execution the foregoing powers, and all other powers vested by this constitution in the government of the United States, or in any department or officer thereof.

LIMITATION OF THE POWERS OF CONGRESS.

SEC. 9. The migration or importation of such persons as any of the states now existing shall think proper to admit, shall not be prohibited by the congress prior to the year one thousand eight hundred and eight, but a tax or duty may be imposed on such importation, not exceeding ten dollars for each person.

No money shall be drawn from the treasury, but in consequence of appropriations made by law; and a regular statement and account of the receipts and expenditures of all public money shall be published from time to time.

No title of nobility shall be granted by the United States; and no person holding any office of profit or trust under them, shall, without the consent of the congress, accept of any present, emolument, office, or title of any kind whatever, from any king, prince or foreign state.

LIMITATION OF THE POWERS OF THE INDIVIDUAL STATES.

SEC. 10. No state shall enter into any treaty, alliance or confederation; grant letters of marque and reprisal; coin money; emit bills of credit; make anything but gold and silver coin a tender in payment of debts; pass any bill of attainder, ex post facto law, or law impairing the obligation of contracts, or grant any title of nobility.

No state shall, without the consent of congress, lay any imposts or duties on imports, or exports, except what may be absolutely necessary for executing its inspection laws, and the net produce of all duties and imposts, laid by any state on imports or exports, shall be for the use of treasury of the United States; and all such laws shall be subject to the revision and control of congress. No state shall, without the consent of congress, lay any duty of tonnage, keep troops, or ships of war in time of peace, enter into any agreement or compact with another state, or with a foreign power, or engage in war, unless actually invaded, or in such imminent danger as will not admit of delay.

ARTICLE II.

EXECUTIVE POWER.

SECTION 1. The executive power shall be vested in a president of the United States of America. He shall hold his office during the term of four years, and, together with the vice president, chosen for the same term, be elected as follows:

MANNER OF ELECTING.

Each state shall appoint, in such manner as the legislature thereof may direct, a number of electors, equal to the whole number of senators and representatives to which the state may be entitled in the congress; but no senator or representative, or person holding an office of trust or profit under the United States, shall be appointed an elector.

The electors shall meet in their respective states, and vote by ballot for two persons, of whom one at least shall not be an inhabitant of the same state with themselves. And they shall make a list of all the persons voted for, and of the number of votes for each; which list they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the seat of the government of the United States, directed to the president of the senate. The president of the senate shall, in the presence of the senate and house of representatives, open all certificates, and the votes shall then be counted. The person having the greatest number of votes shall be the president, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed; and if there be more than one who have such majority, and have an equal number of votes, then the house of representatives shall immediately choose by ballot one of them for president; and if no person have a majority, then from the five highest on the list the said house shall in like manner choose the president. But in choosing the president, the votes shall be taken by states, the representation from each state having one vote; a quorum for this purpose shall consist of a member, or members from two thirds of the states, and a majority of all the states shall be necessary to a choice. In every case, after the choice of the president, the person having the greatest number of votes of the electors shall be the vice president. But if there should remain two or more who have equal votes, the senate shall choose from them by ballot the vice president.

[NOTE. The above paragraph annulled by amendments which prescribe mode of election.]

The congress may determine the time of choosing the electors, and the day on which they shall give their votes; which day shall be the same throughout the United States.

WHEN THE PRESIDENT'S POWER DEVOLVES ON THE VICE PRESIDENT.

In case of the removal of the president from office, or of his death, resignation, or inability to discharge the powers and duties of the said office, the same shall devolve on the vice president, and the congress may by law provide for the case of removal, death, resignation, or inability, both of the president and vice president, declaring what officer shall then act as president, and such officer shall act accordingly, until the disability be removed, or a president shall be elected.

PRESIDENT'S COMPENSATION.

The president shall, at stated times, receive for his services a compensation, which shall neither be increased or diminished during the period for which he shall have been elected, and he shall not receive within that period any other emoluments from the United States, or any of them.

He shall have power, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, to make treaties, provided two-thirds of the senators present concur; and he shall nominate, and by and with the advice and consent of the senate, shall appoint ambassadors, other public ministers and consuls, judges of the supreme court, and all other officers of the United States, whose appointments are not herein otherwise provided for, and which shall be established by law; but the congress may by law vest the appointment of such inferior officers, as they think proper, in the president alone, in the courts of law, or in the heads of departments.

The president shall have power to fill up all vacancies that may happen during the recess of the senate, by granting commissions which shall expire at the end of their next session.

SEC. 3. He shall from time to time give to the congress information of the state of the union, and recommend to their consideration such measures as he shall judge necessary and expedient; he may, on extraordinary occasions, convene both houses, or either of them, and in case of disagreement between them, with respect to the time of adjournment, he may adjourn them to such time as he shall think proper; he shall receive ambassadors and other public ministers; he shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed, and shall commission all the officers of the United States.

ARTICLE III.

SECTION 1. The judicial power of the United States shall be vested in one supreme court, and in such inferior courts as the congress may from time to time ordain and establish. The judges, both of the supreme and inferior courts, shall hold their offices during good behavior, and shall, at stated times, receive for their services a compensation which shall not be diminished during their continuance in office.

SEC. 2. The judicial power shall extend to all cases, in law and equity, arising under this constitution, the laws of the United States, and treaties made, or which shall be made, under their authority; to all cases affecting ambassadors, other public ministers and consuls; to all cases of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction; to controversies to which the United States shall be a party; to controversies between two or more states; between a state and citizens of another state; between citizens of different states; between citizens of the same state claiming lands under grants of different states, and between a state, or the citizens thereof, and foreign states, citizens or subjects.

In all cases affecting ambassadors, other public ministers and consuls, and those in which a state shall be a party, the supreme court shall have original jurisdiction. In all the other cases before mentioned, the supreme court shall have appellate jurisdiction, both as to the law and fact, with such exceptions, and under such regulations as the congress shall make.

OF TRIALS FOR CRIMES.

The trial of all crimes, except in cases of impeachment, shall be by jury; and such trial shall be held in the state where the said crimes shall have been committed; when not committed within any state, the trial shall be at such place or places as the congress may by law have directed.

OF TREASON.

SEC. 3. Treason against the United States shall consist only in levying war against them, or in adhering to their enemies, giving them aid and comfort.

No person shall be convicted of treason unless on testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act, or in confession in open court.

The congress shall have power to declare the punishment of treason, but no attainder of treason shall work corruption of blood, or forfeiture, except during the life of the person attainted.

ARTICLE IV.

FUGITIVES TO BE DELIVERED UP.

No person held to service or labor in one state, under the laws thereof, escaping into another, shall, in consequence of any law or regulation therein, be discharged from such service or labor, but shall be delivered up on claim of the party to whom such service or labor may be due.

NEW STATES.

SEC. 3. New states may be admitted by the congress into the union; but no new state shall be formed or erected within the jurisdiction of any other state; nor any state be formed by the junction of two or more states, or parts of states, without the consent of the legislatures of the states concerned, as well as of the congress.

TERRITORIAL AND OTHER PROPERTY.

The congress shall have power to dispose of and make all needful rules and regulations respecting the territory or other property belonging to the United States; and nothing in this constitution shall be so construed as to prejudice any claims of the United States, or any particular state.

SEC. 4. The United States shall guarantee to every state in this union a republican form of government, and shall protect each of them against invasion; and, on application of the legislature, or of the executive (when the legislature cannot be convened), against domestic violence.

ARTICLE V.

AMENDMENTS.

The congress, whenever two-thirds of both houses shall deem it necessary, shall propose amendments to this constitution, or, on the application of the legislatures of two-thirds of the several states, shall call a convention for proposing amendments, which, in either case, shall be valid to all intents and purposes, as part of this constitution, when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states, or by conventions in three-fourths thereof, as the one or the other mode of ratification may be proposed by the congress; provided that no amendment which may be made prior to the year one thousand eight hundred and eight shall in any manner affect the first and fourth clauses in the ninth section of the first article; and that no state, without its consent, shall be deprived of its equal suffrage in the senate.

ARTICLE VI.

DEBTS.

The senators and representatives before mentioned, and the members of the several state legislatures, and all executive and judicial officers, both of the United States and of the several states, shall be bound, by oath or affirmation, to support this constitution; but no religious test shall ever be required as a qualification to any office or public trust under the United States.

ARTICLE VII.

PROVISIONS COMMON TO ALL THE TERRITORIES.

SEC. 1839. Nothing in this Title shall be construed to impair the rights of person or property pertaining to the Indians in any territory, so long as such rights remain unextinguished by treaty between the United States and such Indians, or to include any territory which, by treaty with any Indian tribe, is not, without the consent of such tribe, embraced within the territorial limits or jurisdiction of any state or territory; but all such territory shall be excepted out of the boundaries, and constitute no part of any territory now or hereafter organized until such tribe signifies its assent to the president to be embraced within a particular territory.

SEC. 1840. Nor shall any thing in this Title be construed to affect the authority of the United States to make any regulations respecting the Indians of any territory, their lands, property, or rights, by treaty, law, or otherwise, in the same manner as might be made if no temporary government existed, or is hereafter established, in any such territory.

He may grant pardons and reprieves, and remit fines and forfeitures, for offences against the laws of the territory for which he is appointed, and respites for offences against the laws of the United States, till the decision of the president can be made known thereon. He shall commission all officers who are appointed under the laws of such territory, and shall take care that the laws thereof be faithfully executed.

If, after such reconsideration, two-thirds of that house agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, together with the objections, to the other house, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered; and, if approved by two-thirds of that house, it shall become a law. But in all such cases the votes of both houses shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the persons voting for or against the bill shall be entered on the journal of each house. If any bill is not returned by the governor within three days, Sundays excluded, except in Washington and Wyoming, where the term is five days, Sundays excluded, after it has been presented to him, the same shall be a law, in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the legislative assembly, by adjournment sine die, prevent its return, in which case it shall not be a law.

SEC. 1843. There shall be appointed a secretary for each territory, who shall reside within the Territory for which he is appointed, and shall hold his office for four years, and until his successor is appointed and qualified, unless sooner removed by the president. In case of the death, removal, resignation, or absence of the governor from the territory, the secretary shall execute all the powers and perform all the duties of governor during such vacancy or absence or until another governor is appointed and qualified.

SEC. 1846. The legislative power in each territory shall be vested in the governor and a legislative assembly. The legislative assembly shall consist of a council and house of representatives. The members of both branches of the legislative assembly shall have the qualifications of voters as herein prescribed. They shall be chosen for the term of two years and the sessions of the respective legislative assemblies shall be biennial. Each legislative assembly shall fix by law the day of the commencement of its regular sessions. The members of the council and of the house of representatives shall reside in the district or county for which they are respectively elected. * * *

ACTS OF CONGRESS APPLICABLE TO THE TERRITORIES.

CHAP. 114.—An act to protect all citizens in their civil and legal rights.

Whereas, It is essential to just government we recognize the equality of all men before the law, and hold that it is the duty of government in its dealings with the people to mete out equal and exact justice to all, of whatever nativity, race, color, or persuasion, religious or political; and it being the appropriate object of legislation to enact great fundamental principles into law: Therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That all persons within the jurisdiction of the United States shall be entitled to the full and equal enjoyment of the accommodations, advantages, facilities, and privileges of inns, public conveyances on land or water, theaters, and other places of public amusement; subject only to the conditions and limitations established by law, and applicable alike to citizens of every race and color, regardless of any previous condition of servitude.

SEC. 2. That any person who shall violate the foregoing section by denying to any citizen, except for reasons by law applicable to citizens of every race and color, and regardless of any previous condition of servitude, the full enjoyment of any of the accommodations, advantages, facilities, or privileges in said section enumerated, or by aiding or inciting such denial, shall, for every such offense, forfeit and pay the sum of five hundred dollars to the person aggrieved thereby, to be recovered in an action of debt, with full costs; and shall also, for every such offense, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than five hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, or shall be imprisoned not less than thirty days nor more than one year: Provided, That all persons may elect to sue for the penalty aforesaid or to proceed under their rights at common law and by state statutes; and having so elected to proceed in the one mode or the other, their right to proceed in the other jurisdiction shall be barred. SEC. 3. That the district and circuit courts of the United States shall have, exclusively of the courts of the several states, cognizance of all crimes and offenses against, and violations of, the provisions of this act; and actions for the penalty given by the preceding section may be prosecuted in the territorial, district, or circuit courts of the United States wherever the defendant may be found, without regard to the other party; and the district attorneys, marshals, and deputy marshals of the United States, and commissioners appointed by the circuit and territorial courts of the United States, with powers of arresting and imprisoning or bailing offenders against the laws of the United States, are hereby specially authorized and required to institute proceedings against every person who shall violate the provisions of this act, and cause him to be arrested and imprisoned or bailed, as the case may be, for trial before such court of the United States, or territorial court, as by law has cognizance of the offense, except in respect of the right of action accruing to the person aggrieved; and such district attorneys shall cause such proceedings to be prosecuted to their termination as in other cases: Provided, That nothing contained in this section shall be construed to deny or defeat any right of civil action accruing to any person, whether by reason of this act or otherwise; and any district attorney who shall willfully fail to institute and prosecute the proceedings herein required, shall, for every such offense, forfeit and pay the sum of five hundred dollars to the person aggrieved thereby, to be recovered by an action of debt, with full costs, and shall, on conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be fined not less than one thousand nor more than five thousand

SEC. 5. That all cases arising under the provisions of this act in the courts of the United States shall be reviewable by the Supreme court of the United States, without regard to the sum in controversy, under the same provisions and regulations as are now provided by law for the review of other causes in said court.

[Approved March 1, 1875.]

CHAP. 37.—An act to make persons charged with crimes and offenses competent witnesses in the United States and territorial courts.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That in the trial of all indictments, informations, complaints, and other proceedings against persons charged with the commission of crimes, offenses, and misdemeanors, in the United States courts, territorial courts and courts-martial, and courts of inquiry in any state or territory, including the District of Columbia, the person so charged shall, at his own request but not otherwise, be a competent witness. SEC. 49. An action against a corporation may be brought in any county where the corporation has an office for the transaction of business, or any person resides upon whom process may be served against such corporation, unless otherwise provided in this code.

SEC. 50. In all other cases the action must be tried in the county in which the defendants, or some of them reside at the time of the commencement of the action, or may be served with process, subject, however, to the power of the court to change the place of trial, as provided in this act. If the county in which the action is commenced is not the proper county for the trial thereof, the action may, notwithstanding, be tried therein, unless the defendant, at the time he appears and demurs or answers, files an affidavit of merits, and demands that the trial be had in the proper county.

SEC. 51. The court may, on motion, in the following cases, change the place of trial when it appears by affidavit, or other satisfactory proof:

SEC. 52. If the motion for a change of the place of trial be allowed, the change shall be made to the county or district where the action ought to have been commenced, if it be for the cause mentioned in subdivision one of section fifty-one, and in other cases to the most convenient county where the cause alleged does not exist. Neither party shall be entitled to more than one change of the place of trial, except for causes not in existence when the first change was allowed.

SEC. 53. Any party in a civil action pending in any district court of a county out of whose limits a new county, in whole or in part, has been created, not attached to any other county for judicial purposes, and in which a district court has been created by law, may file with the clerk of such district court an affidavit setting forth that he is a resident of such newly created county, and that the venue of such action is transitory, or that the venue of such action is local and that it ought properly to be tried in such newly created county; and upon the filing of such affidavit, the clerk shall make out a transcript of the proceedings already had in such action in such district court, and certify it under the seal of the court and transmit such transcript, together with the papers on file in his office connected with such action to the clerk of the district court of such newly created county, wherein it shall be proceeded with as in other cases.

The costs and fees thereof and of filing the papers anew, must be paid by the party at whose instance the order was made, except in the cases mentioned in subdivision one, section fifty-one, in which case the plaintiff shall pay costs of transfer. The court to which an action or proceeding is transferred has and exercises over the same the like jurisdiction as if it had been originally commenced therein.

SEC. 55. Notwithstanding the provisions of section fifty-one all the parties to the action by stipulation in writing or by consent in open court entered in the records may agree that the place of trial be changed to any county or district in the territory, and thereupon the court must order the change agreed upon.

SEC. 56. If such papers be not transmitted to the clerk of the proper court within the time prescribed in the order allowing the change, and the delay be caused by the act or omission of the party procuring the change, the adverse party, on motion to the court or judge thereof, may have the order vacated, and thereafter no other change of the place of trial shall be allowed to such party.

SEC. 57. Upon the filing of the papers with the clerk of the court to which the cause is transferred, the change of venue shall be deemed complete, and thereafter the action shall proceed as though it had been commenced in that court.

SEC. 100. In an action mentioned in the last section, the defendant may, in his answer, allege both the truth of the matter charged as defamatory, and any mitigating circumstances to reduce the amount of damages; and whether he prove the justification or not, he may give in evidence the mitigating circumstances.

SEC. 101. In an action to recover the possession of property distrained doing damage, an answer that the defendant or person by whose command he acted, was lawfully possessed of the real property upon which the distress was made, and that the property distrained was at the time doing the damage thereon, shall be good, without setting forth the title to such real property.

SEC. 102. The plaintiff may unite several causes of action in the same complaint, when they all arise out of

1. Contract, express or implied; or,
2. Injuries, with or without force, to the person; or,
3. Injuries, with or without force, to property; or,
4. Injuries to character; or,
5. Claims to recover real property, with or without damages, for the withholding thereof; or,
6. Claims to recover personal property, with or without damages, for the withholding thereof; or,
7. Claims against a trustee, by virtue of a contract or by operation of law.

But the causes of action, so united, must affect all the parties to the action, and not require different places of trial, and must be separately stated.

SEC. 103. Every material allegation of the complaint, not controverted by the answer, and every material allegation of new matter in the answer, not controverted by the reply, shall, for the purpose of action, be taken as true; but the allegation of new matter in a reply, is to be deemed controverted by the adverse party, as upon a direct denial or avoidance, as the case may require.

SEC. 104. A material allegation in a pleading is one essential to the claim or defense, and which could not be stricken from the pleading without leaving it insufficient.

CHAPTER VIII.

MISTAKES IN PLEADINGS: AMENDMENTS.

SECTION	SECTION
105. Variance, when shall be deemed material.	111. Pleading not verified, and cause of action, not separately pleaded, stricken out.—Terms.
106. When the variance is not material.	112. When defendant's name is unknown, he may be designated by any name.
107. Difference between variance and failure of proof, deemed a case of variance.	113. Errors not affecting substantial rights to be disregarded.
108. Action to recover possession of personal property, when plaintiff shall be permitted to amend.	114. Supplemental pleadings may be allowed.
109. Power of court to allow amendments.
110. If allowed new pleading shall be filed, what

SEC. 105. No variance between the allegation in a pleading, and the proof, shall be deemed material, unless it shall have actually misled the adverse party to his prejudice in maintaining his action or defense upon the merits. Whenever it shall be alleged that a party has been so misled, that fact shall be proved to the satisfaction of the court, and in what respect he has been misled, and, thereupon, the court may order the pleading to be amended upon such terms as shall be just.

SEC. 106. When the variance is not material, as provided in the last section, the court may direct the fact to be found according to the evidence, or may order an immediate amendment without costs.

SEC. 107. When, however, the allegation of the cause of action or defense, to which the proof is directed, is not proved, not in some particular or particulars only, but in its entire scope and meaning, it shall not be deemed a case of variance within the last two sections, but a failure of proof.

SEC. 108. Where the plaintiff in an action to recover the possession of personal property on a claim of being the owner thereof, shall fail to establish on trial such ownership, but shall prove that he is entitled to the possession thereof, by virtue of a special property therein, he shall not thereby be defeated of his action, but shall be permitted to amend, on reasonable terms his complaint, and be entitled to judgment according to the proof in the case.

SEC. 109. The court may, in furtherance of justice, and on such terms as may be proper, amend any pleadings or proceedings, by adding or striking out the name of any party, or by correcting a mistake in the name of a party, or a mistake in any other respect; and may, upon like terms, enlarge the time for answer or demurrer. The court may likewise, upon affidavit showing good cause therefor, after notice to the adverse party, allow, upon such terms as may be just, an amendment to any pleading or proceeding in other particulars; and may upon like terms, allow an answer to be made after the time limited by this code; and may upon such terms as may be just, and upon payment of costs, relieve a party, or his legal representatives from a judgment, order or other proceeding taken against him through his mistake, inadvertence, surprise or excusable neglect; and when for any cause satisfactory to the court, or the judge at chambers, the party aggrieved has been unable to apply for the relief sought during the term at which such judgment, order or proceeding complained of was taken, the court, or the judge at chambers, in vacation, may grant the relief upon application made within a reasonable time, not exceeding five months after the adjournment of the term.

SEC. 110. When any pleading or proceeding is amended before trial, mere clerical errors excepted, it shall be done by filing a new pleading, to be called the amended complaint, or otherwise, as the case may be. Such amended pleading shall be complete in itself, without reference to the original, or any preceding amended one.

SEC. 111. Any pleading not duly verified and subscribed, may, on motion of the adverse party, be stricken out of the case. When any pleading contains more than one cause of action or defense, if the same be not pleaded separately, such pleading may, on motion of the adverse party, be stricken out of the case. When a motion to strike out is allowed, the court may, upon such terms as may be proper, allow the party to file an amended pleading; or, if the motion be disallowed, and it appear to have been made in good faith, the court may, upon like terms, allow the party to plead over.

SEC. 112. When the plaintiff shall be ignorant of the name of the defendant, it shall be so stated in his pleading, and such defendant may be designated in any pleading or proceeding by any name, and when his true name shall be discovered, the pleading or proceeding may be amended accordingly.

SEC. 113. The court shall, in every stage of an action, disregard any error or defect in pleadings or proceedings which shall not affect the substantial rights of the adverse party, and no judgment shall be reversed or affected by reason of such error or defect.

SEC. 114. The court may, on motion, allow supplemental pleadings, showing facts which occurred after the former pleadings were filed.

SEC. 115. No person shall be arrested or held to bail in any civil action, except upon the order of the court where the action is brought, or a judge of the supreme court.

SEC. 116. The defendant may be arrested in the following cases:

1. In an action for the recovery of damages, on a cause of action not arising out of contract, where the defendant is a non-resident of the territory, or is about to remove therefrom, or where the action is for an injury to person or character, or for injuring, or for wrongfully taking, detaining or converting property.

2. In an action for a fine or penalty, or on a promise to marry, or for money received, or property embezzled, or fraudulently misapplied, or converted to his own use, by a public officer, or by an attorney, or by an officer or agent of a corporation in the course of his employment as such, or by any factor, agent, broker, or other person in a fiduciary capacity, or for any misconduct or neglect in office, or in a professional employment.

3. In an action to recover the possession of personal property unjustly detained, when the property, or any part thereof has been concealed, removed, or disposed of, so that it cannot be found or taken by the sheriff, and with intent that it should not be so found or taken, or with the intent to deprive the plaintiff of the benefit thereof.

4. When the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt, or incurring the obligation for which the action is brought, or in concealing or disposing of the property, for the taking, detention, or conversion of which, the action is brought.

5. When the defendant has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors.

6. When the action is to prevent threatened injury to, or destruction of property, in which the party bringing the action has some right, interest, or title, which will be impaired or destroyed by such injury or destruction, and the danger is imminent that such property will be destroyed, or its value impaired, to the injury of the plaintiff.

7. On the final judgment or order of any court in this territory, while the same remains in force, when the defendant, having no property subject to execution, or not sufficient to satisfy such judgment, has money which he ought to apply in payment upon such judgment, which he refuses to apply, with intent to defraud the plaintiff, or when he refuses to comply with a legal order of the court, with intent to defraud the plaintiff; or, when any one or more of the causes exist for which an arrest is allowed, in the first class of cases mentioned in this section.

SEC. 117. The court or judge making the order of arrest, shall first be satisfied by the affidavit of the party, or his agent or attorney, and other proof, that the case is one in which an arrest is provided for in section one hundred and sixteen, and that one or more of the prescribed causes exist, which proof shall be in writing, and, together with the order, be filed with the clerk, before he shall issue any warrant for the arrest.

SEC. 118. The court or judge making the order shall, in all cases, specify therein the amount in which the defendant shall be held to bail, which shall, in no case, exceed the demand of the plaintiff, and one hundred dollars in addition thereto, which amount the clerk shall endorse upon the writ, and the court shall also, in the order, fix the amount of the bond to be given by the plaintiff, as provided in the next succeeding section, which amount shall in no case be less than one hundred dollars.

SEC. 119. Before any clerk shall issue a warrant for the arrest of the defendant, he shall require the plaintiff to place on file in his office, a copy of the order granting the warrant, unless the same was made in open court and appears in the minutes; the original affidavit and proofs, upon which the order was made, and a bond on behalf of the plaintiff, in such an amount as the court or judge may have fixed in the order, with sureties to the satisfaction of the clerk, conditioned to pay to the defendant all damages which he shall suffer, and all expenses he shall incur by reason of such arrest or imprisonment, if the order shall be vacated in the manner provided for in the next succeeding section, or if the plaintiff fail to recover in his action.

SEC. 120. The defendant may, on motion, apply to the court to vacate the order of arrest, on the ground of insufficiency of the proof, or he may show that the facts alleged, upon which the order issued, are untrue, or he may apply to have the amount of bail reduced. If the court, upon any such motion, shall vacate the order, the defendant shall be discharged from the arrest, and any bond he may have given shall be canceled, but the action, unless dismissed for other cause, shall be conducted in the same manner as in cases where complaint and notice were duly served and filed.

SEC. 121. When an order of arrest is granted prior to the filing of the complaint, the warrant shall not issue until the complaint is filed with the clerk, and a copy of said complaint shall be served on the defendant with the warrant; but an order of arrest may be granted at any time after the action is commenced and before judgment is satisfied, when the party seeking the order shall comply with the preceding provisions in regard to arrests.

SEC. 122. The warrant must be delivered to the sheriff, who, upon arresting the defendant, must deliver to him a copy thereof.

SEC. 123. The sheriff shall execute the warrant by arresting the defendant, and keeping him in custody until discharged by law. And the plaintiff, in the first instance, shall be liable for the sheriff's fees, for the food and maintenance of any person, under arrest, which, if required by the sheriff, shall be paid weekly in advance. And such fees, so paid, shall be added to the costs taxed or accruing in the case, and be collected as other costs. And if the plaintiff shall neglect to pay such fees for three days after a demand, in writing, upon the plaintiff or his attorney, for payment, the sheriff may discharge defendant out of custody.

SEC. 124. The defendant may give bail by causing a bond to be executed by two or more sufficient sureties, stating their places of residence and occupations, conditioned that the defendant shall at all times render himself amenable to the process of the court during the pendency of the action, and to such as may be issued to enforce the judgment rendered therein; or, if he be arrested for the cause mentioned in the third subdivision of section one hundred and sixteen, it shall be further conditioned that the specific article of property, or instrument of writing which is the subject matter of the writ, shall be forthcoming, to abide any order which shall be made therein; or, if he be arrested for the cause mentioned in the sixth subdivision of said section it shall be further conditioned that he will not commit the injury or destruction alleged to be threatened in the affidavit or proofs on which the arrest is ordered.

SEC. 125. The warrant shall, in all cases, contain a short statement of the alleged causes for which the order was granted, and also the amount for which bail is required.

SEC. 126. At any time before a failure to comply with their bonds, the bail may surrender the defendant in their exoneration, or he may surrender himself to the sheriff of the county where he was arrested, in the following manner:

1. A certified copy of the bail bond shall be delivered to the sheriff, who shall retain the defendant in his custody thereon as upon an order of arrest, and by a certificate in writing, acknowledge the surrender.

2. Upon the production of a copy of the bail bond and sheriff's certificate, a judge of the district court may, upon a notice to the plaintiff of eight days, with a copy of the certificate, order that the bail be exonerated, and on filing the order and the papers used on such application, they shall be exonerated accordingly. But this section does not apply to an arrest for the cause mentioned in the sixth subdivision of section one hundred and sixteen.

SEC. 127. For the purpose of surrendering the defendant the bail, at any time or place before they are finally discharged, may themselves arrest him, or, by written authority, indorsed upon a certified copy of the bond, may empower any person of suitable age and discretion to do so.

SEC. 128. In case of failure to comply with the condition of the bond, the bail can be proceeded against by action only.

SEC. 129. The bail may be exonerated, either by the death of the defendant, or his imprisonment in the penitentiary, or by his legal discharge from the obligation to render himself amenable to the process, or by his surrender to the sheriff of the county where he was arrested, in exoneration thereof, within twenty days after commencement of the action against the bail, or within such further time as may be granted by the court.

SEC. 130. Within the time limited for that purpose, the sheriff must deliver the order of arrest to the clerk, with his return endorsed thereon, and the bond of the bail, or a copy thereof. The plaintiff, within ten days thereafter, may serve upon the sheriff a notice that he does not accept the bail, or he must be deemed to have accepted it, and the sheriff shall be exonerated from liability.

SEC. 131. On the receipt of notice, the sheriff or defendant may, within ten days thereafter, give to the plaintiff or his attorney notice of the justification of the same, or their bail, (specifying the places of residences and occupations of the latter), before judgment of the court or justice of the peace, at a specified time and place, the time to be not less than five days nor more than ten thereafter. In case other bail be given, there must be a new bond in the form prescribed in section one hundred and twenty-four.

SEC. 132. The qualifications of the bail shall be as follows:

1. Each of them shall be a resident of the territory; but no counsel or attorney at law, sheriff, clerk of the district court, or other officer of such court, shall be permitted to become bail in any action.

2. Each of the bail shall be worth the amount specified in the order of arrest, or the amount to which the order may be reduced, as provided in this chapter, over and above all debts and liabilities, and exclusive of property exempt from execution; but the judge or justice, on justification, may allow more than two sureties to justify, severally, in amounts less than that expressed in the order, if the whole justification be equivalent to that of two sufficient bail.

SEC. 133. For the purpose of justification, each of the bail must attend before the judge or justice of the peace at the time and place mentioned in the notice, and may be examined on oath on the part of the plaintiff touching his sufficiency, in such manner as the judge or justice of the peace, in his discretion, may think proper. The examination must be reduced to writing and subscribed by the bail, if required by the plaintiff.

SEC. 134. If the judge or justice find the bail sufficient, he shall endorse his allowance thereof on the bond and cause it to be filed with the clerk, and the sheriff shall thereupon be exonerated from liability.

SEC. 135. The defendant may at the time of his arrest, instead of giving bail, deposit with the sheriff the amount mentioned in the order.—The sheriff must thereupon give the defendant a certificate of deposit, and the defendant shall be discharged from custody.

SEC. 136. The sheriff shall, within ten days after the deposit, pay the same into court, and take from the officer receiving the same two certificates of such payment, the one of which he must deliver to the plaintiff and the other to the defendant. For any default in making such payment, the same proceeding may be had on the official bond of the sheriff to collect the sum deposited, as in case of delinquency.

SEC. 137. If the money be deposited, as provided in the last two sections, bail may be given and justified, upon notice as hereinbefore provided, at any time before judgment; and thereupon the judge before whom justification is had, shall direct in the order of allowance that the money deposited be refunded by the sheriff or clerk to the defendant, and it shall be refunded accordingly.

SEC. 138. When money shall have been so deposited, if it remain on deposit at the time of an order or judgment for the payment of money to the plaintiff, the clerk shall, under the direction of the court, apply the same in the satisfaction thereof, and, after satisfying judgment, refund the surplus, if any, to the defendant. If the judgment be in favor of the defendant, the clerk shall refund to him the whole sum deposited and remaining unapplied.

SEC. 139. If, after being arrested, the defendant escapes or be rescued, the sheriff himself shall be liable as bail; but he may discharge himself from such liability, by giving bail at any time before judgment.

SEC. 140. If the judgment be recovered against the sheriff upon his liability as bail, and an execution thereon be returned unsatisfied, the same proceedings may be had on the official bond of the sheriff to collect the deficiency, as in other cases of delinquency.

SEC. 141. The bail taken on arrest shall, unless they justify, or other bail be given or justified, be liable to the sheriff, by action, for the damages which he may sustain by reason of such omission.

CHAPTER X.

CLAIM TO RECOVER PERSONAL PROPERTY.

SECTION

142. Plaintiff may claim delivery of personal property.
 143. When delivery claimed; affidavit required.
 144. Security on the part of the plaintiff.
 145. Exception to sureties. proceedings.
 146. Defendant; when entitled to re-delivery.
 147. Justification of defendant's sureties.

SECTION

148. Qualification and justification of sureties.
 149. Sheriff to take property concealed; how.
 150. Sheriff to keep property, and deliver; to whom and when.
 151. Claim by other than the defendant.
 152. Sheriff to file affidavit; with whom and when.

SEC. 142. The plaintiff in an action to recover the possession of personal property may, at the time of issuing the summons, or at any time before answer, claim the immediate delivery of such property as herein provided.

SEC. 143. When a delivery is claimed, an affidavit shall be made by the plaintiff, or by some one in his behalf, showing:

1. That the plaintiff is the owner of the property claimed, (particularly describing it,) or is lawfully entitled to the possession thereof, by virtue of a special property therein, the facts in respect to which shall be set forth.

2. That the property is wrongfully detained by defendant.

3. That the same has not been taken for a tax, assessment, or fine pursuant to a statute, or seized under an execution or attachment against the property of the plaintiff; or if so seized, that it is by law exempt from such seizure. And,

4. The actual value of the property.

SEC. 144. Upon the receipt of the affidavit, and a bond to the defendant, executed by one or more sufficient sureties, approved by the sheriff, to the effect that they are bound in double the value of the property, as stated in the affidavit, for the prosecution of the action, for the return of the property to the defendant, if return thereof be adjudged, and for the payment to him of such sum as may, for any cause, be recovered against the plaintiff, the sheriff shall forthwith take the property described in the affidavit, if it be in the possession of the defendant or his agent, and retain it in his custody. He shall also, without delay, serve on the defendant a copy of the affidavit and bond, by delivering the same to him personally, if he can be found, or his agent, from whose possession the property is taken; or if neither can be found, by leaving them at the usual place of abode of either, with some person of suitable age and discretion: or, if neither have any known place of abode, by putting them in the post-office, directed to the defendant, at the post-office nearest his place of residence.

SEC. 145. The defendant may, within three days after the service of a copy of the affidavit and bond, give notice to the sheriff that he excepts to the sufficiency of the sureties; if he fail to do so, he shall be deemed to have waived all objections to them. When the defendant excepts, the sureties shall justify on notice, in like manner as bail on arrest, and the sheriff shall be responsible for the sufficiency of the sureties until the objection to them is either waived as above provided, or until they shall justify, or new sureties shall be substituted and justify. If the defendant except to the sureties, he cannot reclaim the property, as provided in the next section.

SEC. 146. At any time before the delivery of the property to the plaintiff, the defendant may, if he do not except to the sureties of the plaintiff, require the return thereof, upon giving to the sheriff a bond executed by one or more sufficient sureties to the effect that they are bound in double the value of the property, as stated in the affidavit of the plaintiff, for the delivery thereof to the plaintiff, if such delivery be adjudged, and for the payment to him of such sum as may, for any cause, be recovered against the defendant. If a return of the property be not so required within three days after the taking and service of notice to the defendant, it shall be delivered to the plaintiff, except as provided in section one hundred and fifty-one.

SEC. 147. The defendant's sureties, upon a notice to the plaintiff or his attorney, of not less than two, nor more than six days, shall justify in the same manner as bail upon arrest; upon such justification, the sheriff shall deliver the property to the defendant. The sheriff shall be responsible for the defendant's sureties until they justify, or until justification is completed, or expressly waived, and may retain the property until that time; but if they, or others in their place, fail to justify at the time and place appointed, he shall deliver the property to the plaintiff.

SEC. 148. The qualification of sureties and their justification shall be as prescribed in respect to bail upon an order of arrest.

SEC. 149. If the property or any part thereof be concealed in a building or enclosure, the sheriff shall publicly demand its delivery. If it be not delivered, he shall cause the building or enclosure to be broken open and take the property into his possession, and if necessary, he may call to his aid the power of his county.

SEC. 150. When the sheriff shall have taken the property as herein provided, he shall keep it in a secure place and deliver it to the party entitled thereto, upon receiving his lawful fees for taking, and his necessary expenses for keeping the same.

SEC. 151. If the property taken be claimed by any other person than the defendant or his agent, and such person make affidavit of his title thereto, or his right to the possession thereof, stating the grounds of such title or right, and serve the same upon the sheriff before the delivery of the property to the plaintiff, the sheriff shall not be bound to keep the property or deliver it to the plaintiff, unless the plaintiff, on demand indemnify the sheriff against such claim by a bond, executed by two sufficient sureties, accompanied by their affidavits that they are each worth double the value of the property, as specified in the affidavit of plaintiff, over and above their debts and liabilities, exclusive of property exempt from execution, and freeholders or householders of the county; and no claim to such property by any other person than the defendant or his agent shall be valid against the sheriff, unless made as aforesaid; and notwithstanding such claim, when so made, he may retain the property a reasonable time to demand such indemnity.

SEC. 152. The sheriff shall file the affidavit, with the proceedings thereon, with the clerk of the court in which the action is pending, within twenty days after taking the property mentioned therein; or if the clerk reside in another county, shall mail or forward the same within that time.

CHAPTER XI.

161. A writ of, not necessary.	171. When dissolved, damages shall include.
162. Release of errors; how made.	172. Court may reinstate.
	173. Power of judge in vacation.

SEC. 153. Restraining orders and injunctions may be granted by the district court in term time, or by any judge of the supreme court in vacation.

SEC. 154. When it appears by the complaint that the plaintiff is entitled to the relief demanded and the relief, or any part thereof, consists in restraining the commission or continuance of some act, the commission or continuance of which during the litigation would produce great injury to the plaintiff; or when during the litigation, it appears that the defendant is doing, or threatened, or is about to do, or is procuring, or is suffering some act to be done, in violation of the plaintiff's rights respecting the subject of the action tending to render the judgment ineffectual; or where such relief, or any part thereof, consists in restraining proceedings upon any final order or judgment, an injunction may be granted to restrain such act or proceedings until the further order of the court, which may afterwards be dissolved or modified upon motion. And where it appears in the complaint at the commencement of the action, or during the pendency thereof, by affidavit, that the defendant threatens, or is about to remove or dispose of his property with intent to defraud his creditors, a temporary injunction may be granted to restrain the removal or disposition of his property.

SEC. 155. The injunction may be granted at the time of commencing the action, or at any time afterwards, before judgment in that proceeding.

SEC. 156. No injunction shall be granted until it shall appear to the court or judge granting it, that some one or more of the opposite party concerned, has had reasonable notice of the time and place of making application, except that in cases of emergency to be shown in the complaint, the court may grant a restraining order until notice can be given and hearing had thereon.

SEC. 157. On the hearing of an application for an injunction, each party may read affidavits.

SEC. 158. Upon the granting or continuing an injunction, such terms and conditions may be imposed upon the party obtaining it as may be deemed equitable.

SEC. 159. No injunction or restraining order shall be granted until the party asking it shall enter into a bond, in such a sum as shall be fixed by the court or judge granting the order, with surety to the satisfaction of the clerk of the district court, to the adverse party affected thereby, conditioned to pay all damages and costs which may accrue by reason of the injunction or restraining order. The sureties shall, if required by the clerk, justify in like manner as bail upon an arrest, and until they so justify, the clerk shall be responsible for their sufficiency.

SEC. 160. When an injunction is granted upon the hearing, after a temporary restraining order, the plaintiff shall not be required to enter into a second bond, unless the former shall be deemed insufficient, but the plaintiff and his surety shall remain liable upon his original bond.

SEC. 161. It shall not be necessary to issue a writ of injunction, but the clerk shall issue a copy of the order or injunction duly certified by him, which shall be forthwith served by delivering the same to the adverse party.

SEC. 162. In application to stay proceedings after judgment, the plaintiff shall endorse upon his complaint a release of errors in the judgment whenever required to do so by the judge or court.

SEC. 163. An order of injunction shall bind every person and officer restrained from the time he is informed thereof.

SEC. 164. When notice of the application for an injunction has been served upon the adverse party, it shall not be necessary to serve the order upon him, but he shall be bound by the injunction as soon as the bond required of the plaintiff is executed and delivered to the proper officer.

SEC. 165. Money collected upon a judgment afterward enjoined, remaining in the hands of the collecting officer, shall be paid to the clerk of the court granting the injunction, subject to the order of the court.

SEC. 166. Whenever it shall appear to any court granting an order of injunction, or judge thereof in vacation, by affidavit, that any person has willfully disobeyed the order after notice thereof, such court or judge shall award an attachment for contempt against the party charged, or a rule to show cause why it should not issue. The attachment or rule shall be issued by the clerk of the court, and directed to the sheriff, and shall be served by him.

SEC. 167. The attachment for contempt shall be immediately served, by arresting the party charged, and bringing him into court, if in session, to be dealt with as in other cases of contempt; and the court shall also take all necessary measures to secure and indemnify the plaintiff against damages in the premises.

SEC. 168. If the court is not in session, the officer making the arrest shall cause the person to enter into a bond, with surety, to be approved by the officer, conditioned that he personally appear in open court, on the first day of the next term thereof, to answer such contempt, and that he will pay to the plaintiff all his damages and costs occasioned by the breach of the order; and in default thereof, he shall be committed to the jail of the county until he shall enter into such bond with surety, or be otherwise legally discharged.

SEC. 169. Motions to dissolve or modify injunctions may be made in open court, or before a judge of the supreme court in vacation, at any time after reasonable notice to the adverse party.

SEC. 170. When an injunction to stay proceedings after judgment for debt or damages shall be dissolved, the court shall award such damages not exceeding ten per cent. on the judgment, as the court may deem right, against the party in whose favor the injunction issued.

SEC. 171. SEC. 175. The writ of attachment shall be issued by the clerk of the court in which the action is pending; but before any such writ shall issue the plaintiff or some one in his behalf, shall make and file with such clerk an affidavit, stating that a cause of action exists against the defendant in favor of the plaintiff, and the nature thereof, and that the defendant is indebted to the plaintiff thereon, specifying the amount of said indebtedness, as near as may be, over and above all set offs and counter claims, and that the same is not secured by any mortgage or lien upon real or personal property, or any pledge of personal property, or if originally so secured, such security has, without any act of the plaintiff's, become inadequate.

SEC. 176. Before the writ of attachment shall issue, the plaintiff, or some one in his behalf, shall execute and file with the clerk a bond or undertaking, with two or more sureties, in a sum not less than two hundred dollars and equal to the amount for which plaintiff demands judgment, conditioned that the plaintiff will pay all costs that may be adjudged to the defendant and all damages which he may sustain by reason of the attachment not exceeding the amount specified in such bond or undertaking, should the same be wrongful or oppressive. With the bond or undertaking, there shall also be filed the affidavit of the sureties, from which it must appear that such sureties are qualified and that, taken together, they are worth the sum specified in the bond or undertaking over and above all debts and liabilities and property exempt from execution. No person, not qualified to become bail upon arrest, is qualified to become surety upon a bond or undertaking for an attachment.

SEC. 177. The writ shall be directed to the sheriff of any county in which property of such defendant may be, and shall require him to attach and safely keep all the property of such defendant within his county not exempt from execution, or so much thereof as may be sufficient to satisfy the plaintiff's demand, the amount of which shall be stated in conformity with the complaint, together with costs and expenses. Several writs may be issued at the same time, to the sheriffs of different counties. After the return of any writ of attachment, by the sheriff executing the same, the plaintiff, notwithstanding such return, may have other writs of attachment issue in the same action, without further proceedings, the same to be executed in the same manner as original writs.

SEC. 178. The rights or shares which such defendant may have in the stock of any association or corporation, together with the interest, and profits thereon, and all other property in this territory of such defendant not exempt from execution, shall be liable to be attached. The sheriff shall note upon the writ the date of its delivery to him, and shall make a full inventory of the property attached, and return the same with the writ.

SEC. 179. The sheriff to whom the writ is directed and delivered shall execute the same without delay, as follows:

1. Real property shall be attached by filing a copy of the writ, together with a description of the property attached, with the county auditor of the county in which the attached real estate is situated.
2. Personal property, capable of manual delivery, shall be attached by taking into custody.
3. Stock or shares, or interest in stock or shares, of any corporation or company, shall be attached by leaving with the president, or other head of the same, or the secretary, cashier or managing agent thereof, a copy of the writ, and a notice stating that the stock or interest of the defendant is attached in pursuance of such writ.

4. Debts and credits, and other personal property, not capable of manual delivery, shall be attached by leaving with the person owing such debts, or having in his possession, or under his control such credits, or other personal property, a copy of the writ, and a notice that the debts owing by him to the defendant, or the credits and other personal property in his possession, or under his control, belonging to the defendant, are attached in pursuance of such writ.

SEC. 180. Upon receiving information in writing from the plaintiff or his attorney, that any person has in his possession or under his control any credits or other personal property belonging to the defendant, or is owing any debt to the defendant, the sheriff shall serve upon such person a copy of the writ, and a notice that such credits or other personal property or debts, as the case may be, are attached in pursuance of such writ.

SEC. 181. All persons having in their possession or under their control any credits or other personal property belonging to the defendant or owing any debts to the defendant at the time of service upon them of a copy of the writ and notice, as provided in the last two sections, shall be, unless such property be delivered up or transferred or such debts be paid to the sheriff, liable to the plaintiff for the amount of such credits, property or debts, until the attachment be discharged, or any judgment recovered by him be satisfied.

SEC. 182. Any person owing debts to the defendant or having in his possession or under his control any credits or other personal property belonging to the defendant, may be required to attend before the court or judge, or referee appointed by the court or judge, and be examined on oath respecting the same. The defendant may also be required to attend for the purpose of giving information respecting his property, and may be examined on oath. The court or judge may, after such examination, order personal property capable of manual delivery to be delivered to the sheriff, on such terms as may be just, having reference to any liens thereon or claims against the same, and a memorandum to be given of all other personal property containing the amount and description thereof.

SEC. 183. The sheriff shall make a full inventory of the property attached, and return the same with the writ. To enable him to make such return as to debts and credits attached, he shall request, at the time of service, the party owing the debt or having the credit to give him a memorandum, stating the amount and description of each; and if such memorandum be refused, he shall return the fact of the refusal with the writ. The party refusing to give the memorandum may be required to pay the cost of any proceedings taken for the purpose of obtaining information respecting the amount and description of such debt or credit.

SEC. 184. If any of the property attached be perishable, the sheriff shall sell the same in the manner in which such property is sold on execution. The proceeds and other property attached by him shall be retained by him to answer any judgment that may be recovered in the action unless sooner subjected to execution upon another judgment recovered previous to the issuing of the attachment. Debts and credits attached may be collected by him, if the same can be done without suit. The sheriff's receipt shall be a sufficient discharge for the amount paid.

SEC. 185. If judgment be recovered by the plaintiff, the sheriff shall satisfy the same out of the property attached by him which has not been delivered to the defendant or claimant, as hereinbefore provided, or subjected to execution on another judgment recovered previous to the issuing of the attachment, if it be sufficient for that purpose:

1. By paying to the plaintiff the proceeds of all sales of perishable property sold by him, or if any debts or credits collected by him, or so much as shall be necessary to satisfy the judgment.

2. If any balance remain due, and an execution shall have been issued on the judgment, he shall sell under the execution so much of the property, real or personal, as may be necessary to satisfy the balance, if enough for that purpose remain in his hands. Notice of the sales shall be given; and the sales conducted as in other cases of sales on execution.

SEC. 186. If after selling all the property attached by him remaining in his hands and applying the proceeds, together with the proceeds of any debts or credits collected by him, deducting his fees, to the payment of the judgment, any balance shall remain due, the sheriff shall proceed to collect such balance as upon an execution in other cases. Whenever the judgment shall have been paid, the sheriff, upon reasonable demand, shall deliver over to the defendant the attached property remaining in his hands, and any proceeds of the property attached unapplied on the judgment.

SEC. 187. If the execution be returned unsatisfied in whole or in part, the plaintiff may proceed as in other cases upon the return of an execution.

SEC. 188. If the defendant recover judgment against the plaintiff, all the proceeds of sales and money collected by the sheriff, and all the property attached remaining in the sheriff's hands shall be delivered to the defendant or his agent. The order of attachment shall be discharged and the property released therefrom.

SEC. 189. Whenever the defendant has appeared in the action, he may at any time before judgment therein, have the attached property delivered to him, by executing and delivering to the officer holding said property, a bond or undertaking, to be approved by such officer, in a sum at least two hundred dollars more than the amount claimed in plaintiff's affidavit, with at least two sureties, who shall be residents of this territory, to the effect that the parties executing such bond or undertaking will pay to the plaintiff the amount of any judgment, costs and interest thereon, which the plaintiff may recover against the defendant in the action, which bond or undertaking shall run to the plaintiff. Before the officer shall approve the bond or undertaking the sureties to the same shall make and deliver to such officer an affidavit from which it must appear that they are residents of the territory of Washington, and are worth, over and above all debts and liabilities and exemptions in property within this territory, the sum specified in said bond or undertaking; which affidavits shall be endorsed upon or annexed to such bond or undertaking and returned by the officer taking the same, to the clerk of the court issuing the writ of attachment. In case the plaintiff recover judgment in said action, he may bring an action on said bond or undertaking against all or any of the parties executing the same, and shall be entitled to recover the amount recovered against the defendant named in the writ of attachment.

SEC. 190. The sheriff shall return the writ of attachment with the summons, if issued at the same time; otherwise, within twenty days after its receipt, with a certificate of his proceedings endorsed thereon, or attached thereto.

SEC. 191. Whenever property has been taken by an officer, under a writ of attachment, in pursuance of the provisions of this chapter, and it shall be made to appear satisfactorily to the court, or a judge thereof, that the interest of the parties to the action will be subserved by a sale thereof, the court or judge may order such property to be sold, in the same manner as property is sold under an execution, and the proceeds to be deposited in court, to abide the judgment in the action. Such order shall be made only upon notice to the adverse party or his attorney, in case such party have been personally served with a notice in the action.

SEC. 192. The judge of the district court shall have power to make every order in vacation which, by the provisions of this chapter, may be made by the court in term time.

CHAPTER XIII.

2. In an action between partners, or other persons jointly interested in any property or fund.
3. In all actions where it is shown that the property, fund or rents and profits in controversy are in danger of being lost, removed or materially injured.
4. In an action by a mortgagee for the foreclosure of a mortgage and the sale of the mortgaged property, when it appears that such property is in danger of being lost, removed, or materially injured; or when such property is insufficient to discharge the debt, to secure the application of the rents and profits accruing, before a sale can be had.
5. When a corporation has been dissolved, or is insolvent, or is in imminent danger of insolvency, or has forfeited its corporate rights.
6. And in such other cases as may be provided for by law, or when, in the discretion of the court it may be necessary to secure ample justice to the parties, provided that no party or attorney or other person interested in an action, shall be appointed receiver therein.

SEC. 194. Before entering upon his duties, the receiver must be sworn to perform them faithfully, and with one or more sureties, approved by the court, execute a bond to such person as the court may direct, conditioned that he will faithfully discharge the duties of receiver in the action, and obey the orders of the court therein.

SEC. 195. When it is admitted by the pleading or examination of a party, that he has in his possession, or under his control, any money, or other thing capable of delivery, which being the subject of the litigation, is held by him as trustee for another party, or which belongs or is due to another party, the court may order the same to be deposited in court, or delivered to such party, with or without security, subject to the further direction of the court.

SEC. 196. Whenever, in the exercise of its authority, a court shall have ordered the deposit or delivery of money or other thing, and the order is disobeyed, the court, besides punishing the disobedience as for contempt, may make an order requiring the sheriff to take the money or thing, and deposit or deliver it, in conformity with the direction of the court.

SEC. 197. Money deposited, or paid into a court in an action, shall not be loaned out, unless, with the consent of all parties having an interest in, or making claim to the same.

SEC. 198. The receiver shall have power, under control of the court, to bring and defend actions, to take and keep possession of the property, to receive rents, collect debts, and generally to do such acts respecting the property, as the court may authorize.

SEC. 199. When the answer of the defendant admits part of the plaintiff's claim to be just, the court, on motion, may order the defendant to satisfy that part of the claim, and may enforce the order by execution or attachment.

1. Upon a material allegation in the complaint, controverted by the answer; or
1. Upon new matter or a set-off, controverted by the reply; or
3. Upon new matter in the reply.

SEC. 203. Issues both of law and fact may arise upon different parts of the pleading in the same action. In such cases, the issues of law shall be first tried, unless the court otherwise direct.

 237. Mode of taking verdict.
 238. Jury may be polled.
 239. Verdict, when complete and entry.

SEC. 204. An issue of law shall be tried by the court, unless referred as provided in this chapter. An issue of fact shall be tried by a jury, unless a jury trial be waived, or a reference be ordered, as provided in this chapter. The waiver of a jury, or agreement to refer, shall be by stipulation of the parties filed, or the oral consent of parties given in open court and entered in the records: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to restrict the chancery powers of the judges, or to authorize the trial of any issue by a jury, when the complaint alleges an equitable claim, and seeks relief solely upon the ground of the equities of the demand made by the pleadings in the action.

SEC. 205. A motion to continue a trial on the ground of the absence of evidence, shall only be made upon affidavit, showing the materiality of the evidence expected to be obtained, and that due diligence has been used to procure it, and also the name and residence of the witness or witnesses. The court may also require the moving party to state, upon affidavit the evidence which he expects to obtain; and if the adverse party admit that such evidence would be given, and that it be considered as actually given on the trial, or offered and overruled as improper, the trial shall not be continued. The court, upon its allowance of the motion, may impose terms or conditions upon the moving party.

SEC. 206. When the action is called for trial, the clerk shall prepare separate ballots, containing the names of the jurors summoned, who have appeared and not been excused, and deposit them in a box. He shall then draw from the box twelve names, and the persons whose names are drawn shall constitute the jury. If the ballots become exhausted, before the jury is complete, or if from any cause, a juror or jurors be excused or discharged, the sheriff, under the direction of the court, shall summon from the bystanders, citizens of the county or district, as many qualified persons as may be necessary to complete the jury. Whenever it shall be requisite for the sheriff to summon more than one person at a time from the bystanders or body of the district or county, the names of the talesmen shall be returned to the clerk, who shall thereupon write the names upon separate ballots and deposit the same in the trial jury box, and draw such ballots separately therefrom, as in the case of the regular panel. The jury shall consist of twelve persons, unless the parties consent to a less number. The parties may consent to any number not less than three, and such consent shall be entered by the clerk on the minutes of the trial.

SEC. 207. Either party may challenge the jurors, but when there are several parties on either side, they shall join in a challenge before it can be made. The challenge shall be to individual jurors, and be peremptory or for cause. Each party shall be entitled to three peremptory challenges.

SEC. 208. A peremptory challenge is an objection to a juror for which no reason need be given, but upon which the court shall exclude him.

SEC. 209. A challenge for cause is an objection to a juror, and may be either:

1. General; that the juror is disqualified from serving in any action;
- or
2. Particular; that he is disqualified from serving in the action on trial.

SEC. 210. General causes of challenge are:

1. A conviction for a felony.
2. A want of any of the qualifications prescribed by law for a juror.
3. Unsoundness of mind, or such defect in the faculties of the mind, or organs of the body, as renders him incapable of performing the duties of a juror.

SEC. 211. Particular causes of challenge are of two kinds:

1. For such a bias as when the existence of the facts is ascertained, in judgment of law disqualifies the juror, and which is known in this code as implied bias.

2. For the existence of a state of mind on the part of the juror in reference to the action, or to either party, which satisfies the trier in the exercise of a sound discretion, that he cannot try the issue impartially and without prejudice to the substantial rights of the party challenging, and which is known in this code as actual bias.

SEC. 212. A challenge for implied bias may be taken for any or all of the following causes, and not otherwise:

1. Consanguinity or affinity within the fourth degree to either party.
2. Standing in the relation of guardian and ward, attorney and client master and servant or landlord and tenant, to the adverse party; or being a member of the family of, or a partner in business with, or in the employment for wages, of the adverse party, or being surety or bail in the action called for trial, or otherwise, for the adverse party.
3. Having served as a juror on a previous trial in the same action, or in another action between the same parties for the same cause of action, or in a criminal action by the territory against either party, upon substantially the same facts or transaction.

4. Interest on the part of the juror in the event of the action, or the principal question involved therein, excepting always, the interest of the juror as a member or citizen of the county or municipal corporation.

SEC. 213. A challenge for actual bias may be taken for the cause mentioned in the second subdivision of section two hundred and eleven. But on the trial of such challenge, although it should appear that the juror challenged has formed or expressed an opinion upon what he may have heard or read, such opinion shall not of itself be sufficient to sustain the challenge, but the court must be satisfied, from all the circumstances, that the juror cannot disregard such opinion and try the issue impartially.

SEC. 214. An exemption from service on a jury shall not be cause of challenge, but the privilege of the person exempted.

SEC. 215. The jurors having been examined as to their qualifications, first by the plaintiff and then by the defendant, and passed for cause, the peremptory challenges shall be conducted as follows, to-wit:

The plaintiff may challenge one, and then the defendant may challenge one, and so alternately until the peremptory challenges shall be exhausted. The panel being filled and passed for cause, after said challenge shall have been made by either party, a refusal to challenge by either party in the said order of alternation, shall not defeat the adverse party of his full number of challenges, but such refusal on the part of the plaintiff to exercise his challenge in proper turn, shall conclude him as to the jurors once accepted by him, and if his right be not exhausted, his further challenges shall be confined, in his proper turn, to talesmen only.

SEC. 216. The challenges of either party shall be taken separately in the following order, including in each challenge all the causes of challenge belonging to the same class:

1. For general disqualification.
2. For implied bias.
3. For actual bias.
4. Peremptory.

SEC. 217. The challenge may be excepted to by the adverse party for insufficiency, and if so, the court shall determine the sufficiency thereof, assuming the facts alleged therein to be true. The challenge may be denied by the adverse party, and if so, the court shall try the issue and determine the law and the facts.

SEC. 218. Upon the trial of a challenge, the rules of evidence applicable to testimony offered upon the trial of an ordinary issue of fact shall govern. The juror challenged, or any other person otherwise competent may be examined as a witness by either party. If a challenge be determined to be sufficient, or found to be true, as the case may be, it shall be allowed, and the juror to whom it was taken excluded: but if determined or found otherwise, it shall be disallowed.

SEC. 219. The challenge, the exception and the denial may be made orally. The judge of the court shall note the same upon his minutes, and the substance of the testimony on either side.

SEC. 220. As soon as the number of the jury has been completed, an oath or affirmation shall be administered to the jurors, in substance that they and each of them, will well, and truly try, the matter in issue between the plaintiff and defendant, and a true verdict give, according to the law and evidence as given them on the trial.

SEC. 221. When the jury has been sworn, the trial shall proceed in the following order:

1. The plaintiff must briefly state the cause of action and the evidence by which he expects to sustain it. The defendant may in like manner state the defense and the evidence he expects to offer in support thereof, but nothing in the nature of comments or argument shall be allowed in opening the case. It shall be optional with the defendant whether he states his case before or after the close of the plaintiff's testimony.

2. The plaintiff or the party upon whom rests the burden of proof in the whole action, must first produce his evidence; the adverse party will then produce his evidence.

3. The parties will then be confined to rebutting evidence, unless the court for good reasons, in furtherance of justice, permits them to offer evidence in their original case.

4. When the evidence is concluded, either party may request the judge to charge the jury in writing, in which event no other charge or instruction shall be given, except the same be contained in the said written charge; or either party may request instructions to the jury on points of law, and if the court refuse to give the same, the party requesting may except. Either party shall also be entitled to require of the judge that all interlocutory orders, instructions or rulings upon the evidence during the progress of the trial of a cause, shall be reduced to writing, together with any exceptions that may be made thereto, and the same shall be made a part of the record of the case, and any refusal on the part of the judge trying the cause or making the order to comply with all or any of the provisions of this section shall be regarded error, and entitle the party whose request shall have been refused to a reversal of the judgment on a writ of error: Provided, always, That the instruction or ruling so requested is pertinent and consistent with the law and evidence of the case, and that such refusal has worked an injury to the party requesting the same.

5. After the conclusion of the evidence and the filing of request for charge in writing or instructions, the plaintiff or party having the burden of proof may, by himself or one counsel, address the court and jury upon the law and facts of the case, after which the adverse party may address the court and jury in like manner by himself and one counsel, or by two counsel, and be followed by the party or counsel of the party first addressing the court. No more than two speeches on behalf of plaintiff or defendant shall be allowed.

6. The court shall then charge the jury upon the law in the case. If no request has been made for said charge to be in writing, or if no instructions have been requested, said charge may be oral; but either party at any time before the jury return their verdict, may except to the same or any part thereof; but no exception shall be regarded by the supreme court, unless the same shall embody the specific parts of said charge to which exception is taken. In charging the jury, the court shall state to them all matters of law necessary for the information of the jury in finding a verdict; and if it become necessary to allude to the evidence, it shall also inform the jury that they are the exclusive judges of all questions of fact.

Sec. 222. Any party may, when the evidence is closed, submit in distinct and concise propositions the conclusions of fact which he claims to be established, or the conclusions of law which he desires to be adjudged, or both. They may be written and handed to the court, or at the option of the court, oral, and entered in the judge's minutes.

Sec. 223. All questions of law including the admissibility of testimony, the facts preliminary to such admission, and the construction of statutes and other writings, and other rules of evidence, are to be decided by the court, and all discussions of law addressed to it.

SEC. 224. All questions of fact other than those mentioned in the section preceding, shall be decided by the jury, and all evidence thereon addressed to them.

SEC. 225. Whenever in the opinion of the court it is proper that the jury should have a view of real property which is the subject of litigation, or of the place in which any material fact occurred, it may order the jury to be conducted in a body, in the custody of a proper officer, to the place which shall be shown to them by the judge or by a person appointed by the court for that purpose. While the jury are thus absent no person other than the judge, or person so appointed, shall speak to them on any subject connected with the trial.

SEC. 226. The jurors may be kept together in charge of a proper officer, or may, in the discretion of the court, at any time before the submission of the cause to them, be permitted to separate; in either case they may be admonished by the court that it is their duty not to converse with any other person, or among themselves, on any subject connected with the trial, or to express any opinion thereon, until the case is finally submitted to them.

SEC. 227. If after the formation of the jury, and before verdict, a juror become sick so as to be unable to perform his duty, the court may order him to be discharged. In that case, unless the parties agree to proceed with the other jurors, a new juror may be sworn and the trial begin anew; or the jury may be discharged and a new jury then or afterwards formed.

SEC. 228. A juror may be examined by either party as a witness, if he be otherwise competent. If he be not so examined, he shall not communicate any private knowledge or information that he may have of the matter in controversy, to his fellow jurors, nor be governed by the same in giving his verdict.

SEC. 229. After hearing the charge, the jury may either decide in the jury box or retire for deliberation. If they retire, they must be kept together in a room provided for them, or some other convenient place under the charge of one or more officers, until they agree upon their verdict, or are discharged by the court. The officer shall, to the best of his ability, keep the jury thus separate from other persons, without drink, except water, and without food, except ordered by the court. He must not suffer any communication to be made to them, nor make any himself, unless by order of the court, except to ask them if they have agreed upon their verdict, and he shall not, before the verdict is rendered, communicate to any person the state of their deliberations or the verdict agreed on.

SEC. 230. If, while the jury are kept together, either during the progress of the trial or after their retirement for deliberation, the court order them to be provided with suitable and sufficient food and lodging, they shall be so provided by the sheriff, at the expense of the county.

SEC. 231. Upon retiring for deliberation, the jury may take with them the pleadings in the cause, and all papers which have been received as evidence on the trial, (except depositions,) or copies of such parts of public records or private documents given in evidence, as ought not, in the opinion of the court, to be taken from the person having them in possession.

SEC. 232. After the jury have retired for deliberation, if there be a disagreement between them as to any part of the testimony, or if they desire to be informed of any point of law arising in the case, they may require the officer having them in charge to conduct them into court. Upon their being brought into court the information required shall be given in the presence of or after notice to the parties, or their attorneys.

SEC. 233. The jury may be discharged by the court on account of the sickness of a juror, or other accident or calamity requiring their discharge, or by consent of both parties, or after they have been kept together until it satisfactorily appears that there is no probability of their agreeing.

SEC. 234. In all cases where a jury are discharged or prevented from giving a verdict by reason of accident or other cause, during the progress of the trial, or after the cause is submitted to them, the action shall be continued to the next term, unless both parties demand an immediate trial, in which case it shall go to the foot of the trial list.

SEC. 235. While the jury are absent the court may adjourn from time to time, in respect to other business, but it is nevertheless to be deemed open for every purpose connected with the cause submitted to the jury until a verdict is rendered or the jury discharged. A final adjournment of the court discharges the jury.

SEC. 236. When the jury have agreed upon their verdict they shall be conducted into court by the officer having them in charge. Their names shall then be called, and if all do not appear, the rest shall be discharged without giving a verdict.

SEC. 237. If the jury appear, they shall be asked by the court or the clerk whether they have agreed upon their verdict, and if the foreman answer in the affirmative, he shall on being required declare the same.

SEC. 238. When a verdict is given and before it is filed, the jury may be polled at the request of either party, for which purpose each shall be asked whether it is his verdict; if any juror answer in the negative the jury shall be sent out for further deliberation. If the verdict be informal or insufficient, it may be corrected by the jury under the advice of the court, or the jury may again be sent out.

SEC. 239. When the verdict is given and is such as the court may receive, and if no juror disagree or the jury be not again sent out, the clerk shall file the verdict. The verdict is then complete and the jury shall be discharged from the case. The verdict shall be in writing, and under the direction of the court shall be substantially entered in the journal as of the day's proceedings on which it was given.

241. When and how jury may assess value of property, and damages.	243. Special shall control general verdict; when.
242. When verdict general or special at discre-	244. When jury may assess amount of verdict.

SEC. 240. The verdict of a jury is either general or special. A general verdict is that by which the jury pronounces generally upon all or any of the issues either in favor of the plaintiff or defendant. A special verdict is that by which the jury find the facts only, leaving the judgment to the court.

SEC. 241. In an action for the recovery of specific personal property, if the property has not been delivered to the plaintiff, or the defendant by his answer claim a return thereof, the jury shall assess the value of the property if their verdict be in favor of the plaintiff, or if they find in favor of the defendant and that he is entitled to a return thereof, they may at the same time assess the damages, if any are claimed in the complaint or answer, which the prevailing party has sustained by reason of the detention or taking and withholding such property.

SEC. 242. In every action for the recovery of money only, or specific real property, the jury, in their discretion, may render a general or special verdict. In all other cases, the court may direct the jury to find a special verdict in writing upon all or any of the issues, and in all cases may instruct them, if they render a general verdict, to find upon particular questions of fact, to be stated in writing, and may direct a written finding thereon. The special verdict or finding shall be filed with the clerk and entered in the minutes.

SEC. 243. When a special finding of facts shall be inconsistent with the general verdict, the former shall control the latter, and the court shall give judgment accordingly.

SEC. 244. When a verdict is found for the plaintiff in an action for the recovery of money, or for the defendant when a set-off for the recovery of money is established beyond the amount of the plaintiff's claim as established, the jury shall also assess the amount of the recovery; they may also, under the direction of the court, assess the amount of the recovery when the court gives judgment for the plaintiff on the pleadings.

CHAPTER XVII.

TRIAL BY THE COURT.

SECTION
245. How trial by jury may be waived.
246. Decision of court to be filed; how given.

SECTION
247. Finding of facts equivalent to verdict;
new trial.

SEC. 245. Trial by jury may, with the assent of the court, be waived by the several parties in the manner following:

1. By failing to appear at the trial.
2. By written consent, in person or by attorney, filed with the clerk.
3. By oral consent in open court entered in the minutes.

SEC. 246. Upon the trial of an issue of fact by the court, its decisions shall be given in writing and filed with the clerk. In giving the decision, the facts found and the conclusions of law shall be separately stated. Judgment upon the decision shall be entered accordingly.

SEC. 247. The order of proceedings on a trial by the court shall be the same as provided in trials by jury. The finding of the court upon the facts shall be deemed a verdict, and may be set aside in the same manner and for the same reason as far as applicable, and a new trial granted.

CHAPTER XVIII.

TRIAL BY REFEREES.

SECTION 248. Issues may be referred by consent of parties. 249. When a reference may be directed, without consent. 250. Reference may be ordered to one or more. 251. Qualification of a referee.	SECTION 252. Referees, right of challenge to. 253. " trial by, how conducted. 254. " report of, exceptions to, etc. 255. Report to be filed with clerk. 256. Court may affirm or reject in whole or in part.
---	--

SEC. 248. All or any of the issues in the action, whether of fact or law, or both, may be referred upon the written consent of the parties; but either party shall have the right in an action at law, upon an issue of fact, to demand a trial by jury.

SEC. 249. Where the parties do not consent the court or judge may upon the application of either, direct a reference in all cases formerly cognizable in chancery in which reference might be made:

1. When the trial of an issue of fact shall require the examination of a long account on either side, in which case the referees may be directed to hear and decide the whole issue, or to report upon any specific question of fact involved therein; or,

2. When the taking of an account shall be necessary for the information of the court, before judgment upon an issue of law, or for carrying a judgment or order into effect; or,

3. When a question of fact other than upon the pleadings shall arise, upon motion or otherwise, in any stage of the action; or,

4. When it is necessary for the information of the court in a special proceeding.

SEC. 250. A reference may be ordered to any person or persons not exceeding three, agreed upon by the parties. If the parties do not agree the court or judge may appoint one or more, not exceeding three.

SEC. 251. When the appointment of referees is made by the court or judge, each referee shall be:

1. Qualified as a juror as provided by statute.
2. Competent as juror between the parties.
3. A duly admitted and practicing attorney.

SEC. 252. When the referees are chosen by the court, each party shall have the same right of challenge as to such referees, which shall be made and determined in the same manner and with like effect as in the formation of juries, except that neither party shall be entitled to a peremptory challenge.

SEC. 253. Subject to the limitations and directions prescribed in the order of reference, the trial by referees shall be conducted in the same manner as a trial by the court. They shall have the same power to grant adjournments, administer oaths, preserve order, punish all violations thereof upon such trial, compel the attendance of witnesses, and to punish them for non-attendance or refusal to be sworn or testify, as is possessed by the court.

SEC. 254. The report of the referees shall state the facts found, and when the order of reference includes an issue of law, it shall state the conclusions of law separately from the facts. The referees shall file with their report the evidence received upon the trial. If evidence offered by either party shall not be admitted on the trial and the party offering the same except to the decision rejecting such evidence at the time, the exceptions shall be noted by the referees and they shall take and receive such testimony and file it with the report. Whatever judgment the court may give upon the report, it shall, when it appears that such evidence was frivolous and inadmissible, require the party at whose instance it was taken and reported, to pay all costs and disbursements thereby incurred.

SEC. 255. The report shall be filed with the clerk. If it be filed in term time, either party may within such time as may be prescribed by the rules of the court, or by special order, move to set the same aside, or for judgment thereon, or such order or proceeding as the nature of the case may require. If the report be filed in vacation the like proceedings may be had at the next term following.

SEC. 256. The court may affirm or set aside the report either in whole or in part. If it affirms the report it shall give judgment accordingly. If the report be set aside, either in whole or in part, the court may make another order of reference as to all or so much of the report as is set aside, to the original referees or others, or it may find the facts and determine the law itself and give judgment accordingly. Upon a motion to set aside a report, the conclusions thereof shall be deemed and considered as the verdict of the jury.

CHAPTER XIX.

EXCEPTIONS.

SECTION 257. Exceptions; no particular form of required. 258. May be settled at time of decision complained of, or noted and settled afterward. 259. Settlement of bills of exceptions. 260. After judgment, how settled.	SECTION 261. When trial judge refuses, supreme court may order exceptions settled. 262. Judge may settle bill after he ceases to hold office. 263. Decision of referee deemed excepted to.
--	---

SEC. 257. No particular form of exception is required. The objection must be stated with so much of the evidence or other matter, as is necessary to explain it and no more. But when the exception is to the verdict or decision upon the grounds of the insufficiency of the evidence to sustain it, the objection must specify the particulars in which such evidence is alleged to be insufficient.

SEC. 258. A bill containing the exception to any ruling may be presented to the judge, at the time the ruling is made, or the exception may be entered on the judge's minutes and afterward settled. The bill must be conformable to the truth, or be at the time corrected until it be so, and signed by the judge and filed with the clerk.

SEC. 259. If a bill is not presented at the time of ruling, a bill containing the exceptions or any of them, relating to any ruling had up to the time of the entry of judgment, may upon three days' notice to the adverse party, at any time after such ruling is made, and within ten days after the entry of judgment or such other time as may be fixed by the court or judge, be presented to the judge and settled.

SEC. 260. Exceptions to any decisions made after judgment, may be presented to the judge at the time of such decision, and may be settled or noted as provided in section two hundred and fifty-eight, and a bill thereof may be presented and settled afterwards as provided in section two hundred and fifty-nine, and within like periods after entry of the order upon appeal, from which such decision is reviewable.

SEC. 261. If the judge, in any case, refuse to allow an exception in accordance with the facts, the party desiring the bill settled may apply by petition to the supreme court, to approve the same. The application may be made in the mode and manner and under such regulations as that court may prescribe, and the bill when proven, must be certified by a justice thereof as correct, and filed with the clerk of the court in which the action was tried, and when so filed it has the same force and effect as if settled by the judge who tried the cause.

SEC. 262. If the judge who presided at the trial ceases to hold office before the bill is tendered or settled, he may nevertheless settle such bill or the party may as provided in the preceding section, apply to the supreme court to prove the same.

SEC. 263. When a cause has been tried by the court or by referees, and the decision or report is not made immediately after the closing of the testimony, the decision or report shall be deemed excepted to, on a motion for a new trial, or on appeal, without any special notice that an exception is taken thereto.

Said award, together with the written agreement to submit, shall be sealed up by the arbitrators and delivered to the party in whose favor it shall be made, who shall deliver the same, without breaking the seal, to the clerk of the district court of the district including the county wherein said arbitration is held, who shall enter the same on record in his office. A copy of the award, signed by said arbitrators, or a majority of them, shall also be delivered to the party in whose favor it is rendered, who shall, if the matter be not settled, serve a copy of the same on the adverse party at least twenty days before the commencement of the next term of the said district court, and if no exceptions be filed against the same, by or before the second day of said term, the judgment of the court shall be entered as of a jury, and execution may issue there-

And any arbitrator failing to attend on the day appointed, unless delayed by sickness or unavoidable accident, shall forfeit and pay the sum of five dollars to the school fund of the county, to be recovered by action before a justice of the peace, in the name of the county commissioners of the county.

1. That the arbitrators or umpire misbehaved themselves in the case.
2. That they committed an error in fact or law.
3. That the award was procured by corruption or other undue means.

SEC. 269. If upon exceptions filed it shall appear to the said district court that the arbitrators have committed error in fact or law, the court may refer the cause back to said arbitrators, directing the amendment of said award forthwith, returnable to the current term of said court, and on the failure so to correct said proceedings, the court shall be possessed of the case and proceed to its determination.

SEC. 270. Arbitrators, or a majority of them, shall have power:

1. To compel the attendance of witnesses duly notified by either party and to enforce from either party the production of all such books, papers and documents as they may deem material to the cause.
2. To administer oaths or affirmations to witnesses.
3. To adjourn their meetings from day to day, or for a longer time, and also from place to place, if they think proper.

SEC. 274. Such award, when so affirmed, shall be in all respects like any other judgment of the district court, and a transcript of such judgment, or execution issued thereon, recorded in the county auditor's office in the same manner as other judgments, shall be a lien upon real estate in said county.

The court shall thereupon enter judgment for the amount claimed, against the defendant or defendants, or against one or more of the several defendants in the cases provided for in section sixty-eight. Where the defendant, by his answer, in any such action, shall not deny the plaintiff's claim, but shall set up a counter claim amounting to less than the plaintiff's claim, judgment may be had by the plaintiff for the excess of said claim over the said counter claim.

2. In other actions the plaintiff may, upon the like proof, apply to the court after the expiration of the time for answering, for the relief demanded in the complaint. If the taking of an account, or of the proof of any fact be necessary to enable the court to give judgment, or to carry the judgment into effect, the court may take the account or hear the proof, or may, in its discretion, order a reference for that purpose. Where the action is for the recovery of damages, in whole or in part, the court may order the damages to be assessed by a jury; or if to determine the amount of damages, the examination of a long account be necessary, by a reference as above provided. If the defendant give notice of appearance in the action, before the expiration of the time for answering, he shall be entitled to five days' notice of the time and place of application to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint.

3. In action where the service of the summons was by publication, the plaintiff, upon the expiration of the time for answering, may, upon proof of service by publication, apply for judgment; and the court must thereupon require proof of the demand mentioned in the complaint, and must require the plaintiff or his agent to be examined on oath respecting any payments that have been made to the plaintiff, or to any one for his use on account of such demand, and may render judgment for the amount which he is entitled to recover, or for such other relief as he may be entitled to.

SEC. 290. The court may, in its discretion, before final judgment, set aside any default, upon affidavit showing good and sufficient cause, and upon such terms as may be deemed reasonable.

SEC. 321. The real estate of any judgment debtor, and such as he may acquire, shall be held and bound to satisfy any judgment of the district or supreme court, or any judgment of a justice of the peace, authorized by law to be levied upon real estate, for the period of five years from the day on which said judgment was rendered, said lien to commence as follows: On judgments of the district court of the district including the county or counties in which real estate of the judgment debtor is situated, from the date of the rendition, but within twenty days from the date of such rendition, a transcript thereof certified by the clerk of the said district court, shall be filed and recorded in the county auditor's office of the county where the said lands are situated, and if not so filed within said period of twenty days, the lien of said judgment shall be suspended until the filing of said transcript. In all other judgments which are by law a lien upon real estate, the lien upon lands in any particular county commences and attaches from the date of filing the transcript in the county auditor's office of said county, and continues for the period of five years from the date of rendition of the judgment.

SEC. 322. An appeal to the supreme court, writ of error, or stay of execution shall not affect any existing lien; and in all cases of an appeal or writ of error, the date of final judgment in the supreme court shall be the time from which said five years shall commence to run. Personal property shall only be held from the time it is actually levied upon.

ON REVIVAL AND CONTINUANCE OF JUDGMENTS.

SECTION

323. Motion for, who may make and procedure.

324. Proof must be furnished of existing debt, order of court, judgment, etc.

SEC. 323. If any judgment shall remain unsatisfied in whole or in part, at the end of five years after the date of its rendition, the lien thereof may be revived and continued, as in this section provided:

1. The judgment creditor, his assignee, or the party to whom said judgment is due and payable, shall file a motion with the clerk of the court where judgment is entered, to revive and continue the lien of the same, with leave to issue an execution. The motion shall state the names of the parties to the judgment, the date of its entry, the amount claimed to be due thereon, or the particular property, of which the possession was thereby adjudged to such party, remaining undelivered. The motion shall be subscribed and verified in the same manner as an original complaint.

2. At any time after filing such motion, the party may cause notice to be served on the judgment debtor in like manner and with like effect as a summons; said notice shall be attached to a copy of said motion, by the clerk of the court, and be served by the sheriff or other officer as an original summons. It shall cite the judgment debtor to appear and show cause why the said motion should not be allowed. The time in which the judgment debtor shall be required to appear, shall be the same as is prescribed for answer to a complaint, and the law applicable to service of a summons, shall apply to the service of such notice. In case the judgment debtor be dead, the notice may be served upon his legal representatives.

3. The judgment debtor, or in case of his death, his representatives, may file an answer or demurrer to such motion within the time allowed by law to answer a complaint, alleging any defense to such motion which may exist. If no answer be filed within the time prescribed, the motion shall be allowed as of course. The moving party may demur or reply to the answer. The pleadings shall be subscribed and verified, and the proceedings concluded as in original actions.

4. The word "representatives," in this section shall be deemed to include any or all of the persons in whose possession property of the judgment debtor may be which is liable to be taken and sold or delivered in satisfaction of the execution, and not otherwise.

5. The order shall specify the amount due upon such unsatisfied judgment for which execution is to issue, or the particular property, possession of which is to be delivered; it shall be entered in the journal and docketed as a judgment, and a final record shall be made of the proceedings in the same manner as a judgment.

SEC. 324. Such motion shall not be granted unless it be established by oath of the party or other satisfactory proof that the judgment, or some part thereof remains unsatisfied. The order of court granting such leave shall operate as a revival of the judgment for amount found due at the time of such revival, and the same shall be and continue a lien upon real estate of the judgment debtor for a period of five years from and after the date of such order, in like manner with the original judgment: Provided, That a transcript thereof shall within twenty days be filed in the office of the county auditor of the county where the lands lie of such judgment debtor, or said lien shall be suspended till such transcript be filed. Revived judgments shall bear the same interest and be in all respects similar to original judgments, as to lien and enforcement or collection.

SECTION

326. Execution within five years.
327. How judgments may be enforced.
328. Four kinds of executions. Order to collect costs.

SECTION

330. To what counties execution may be issued.
331. Returnable within sixty days.
332. Execution against the person.
333. What property liable to execution.
334. Assignment of judgment.

SEC. 325. The party in whose favor judgment is given, may at any time, within five years thereafter, have a writ of execution issued for its enforcement, as prescribed in this chapter; if the period of five years shall have elapsed, an execution shall not issue thereafter, without such judgment shall have been revived as provided in the next preceding chapter, on revival and continuance of judgment.

SEC. 326. When a judgment requires the payment of money, or the delivery of real or personal property, the same may be enforced in those respects by execution, as provided in this chapter. When it requires the performance of any other act, a certified copy of the judgment may be served on the party against whom it is given, or the person or officer who is required thereby, or by law, to obey the same, and a writ shall be issued commanding him to obey or enforce the same. If he refuses, he may be punished by the court as for a contempt.

SEC. 327. There shall be four kinds of execution; one against the property of the judgment debtor, another against his person, the third for the delivery of the possession of real or personal property, or such delivery with damages for withholding the same, and the fourth, commanding the enforcement of or obedience to any special order of the court. And in all cases there shall be an order to collect the costs.

SEC. 328. The writ of execution shall be issued in the name of the United States, sealed with the seal of the court, and subscribed by the clerk, and shall be directed to the sheriff of the county in which the property is situated, or coroner, when the sheriff is a party, or interested, and shall intelligibly refer to the judgment, stating the court, the district or county where judgment was rendered, the names of the parties, the amount of the judgment, if it be for money, and the amount actually due thereon, and shall require substantially as follows:

1. If it be against the property of the judgment debtor it shall require the sheriff to satisfy the judgment, with interest, out of the personal property of the debtor, and if sufficient personal property cannot be found, out of his real property, upon which the judgment is a lien.

2. If it be against real or personal property in the hands of personal representatives, heirs, devisees, legatees, tenants of real property or trustees, it shall require the sheriff to satisfy the judgment, with interest, out of such property.

3. If it be against the person of the judgment debtor, it shall require the sheriff to arrest such debtor and commit him to the jail of the county, until he shall pay the judgment, with interest, or be discharged according to law.

4. If it be for the delivery of the possession of real or personal property, it shall require the sheriff to deliver the possession of the same, particularly describing it, to the party entitled thereto, and may, at the same time, require the sheriff to satisfy any charges, damages, or rents and profits recovered by the same judgment, out of the personal property of the party against whom it was rendered, and the value of the property for which the judgment was recovered, shall be specified therein. If a delivery thereof cannot be had, and if sufficient personal property cannot be found, then out of his real property. When it is to enforce obedience to any special order, it shall particularly command what is required to be done, or to be omitted. When the nature of the case shall require it, the execution may embrace one or more of the requirements above mentioned. And in all cases, the execution shall require the collection of all interest, costs, and increased costs thereon.

SEC. 329. When the execution is against the property of the judgment debtor, it may be issued to the sheriff of any county in this territory, but it shall not be issued in the first instance, to the sheriff of any county out of the district in which the judgment is rendered, unless the plaintiff or his attorney, shall first make and file with the clerk an affidavit that the defendant has not subject to execution, sufficient property, real or personal, in any county in said district, to satisfy the judgment, but that he has property subject to execution in some other county or counties. But after an execution has been returned "no property found" in the district or county in which judgment was rendered, an execution may be issued to any county outside of said district, upon the plaintiff or his attorney making oath that the defendant has property subject to execution in such county. When it requires the delivery of real or personal property, it shall be issued to the sheriff of the county where the property, or some part thereof, is situated.

SEC. 330. The sheriff shall indorse upon the writ or execution, the time when he received the same, and such execution shall be returnable within sixty days after its date, to the clerk who issued the same. And no sheriff shall retain any moneys collected on execution, more than twenty days, before paying the same to the clerk of the court who issues the writ, under penalty of twenty per cent. on the amount collected, to be paid by the sheriff; the one-half to the party to whom the judgment is payable, and the other half to the county commissioners of the county wherein the action was brought, for the use of the school fund of said county. And the clerk shall immediately after the receipt of any moneys collected on any judgment, notify the party to whom the same is payable, and pay over the amount to the said party on demand. On failure to so notify and pay over, without reasonable cause shown for delay, the clerk shall forfeit and pay the same penalty, to the same parties, as is above prescribed for the sheriff.

SEC. 331. If the action be one in which the defendant may be arrested, as provided by law, an execution against the person of the judgment debtor may be issued to any county in the territory: Provided, That the sheriff shall not arrest the defendant if he shall deliver to him the property subject to levy, sufficient to satisfy said judgment.

SEC. 332. A person arrested on execution, shall be imprisoned within the jail, or the liberties thereof, and kept at his own expense until satisfaction of the execution, or his legal discharge; but the plaintiff shall be liable to the sheriff, in the first instance, for such expense, as in other cases of arrest in the same manner, and to the same extent as therein prescribed.

SEC. 333. All property, real and personal, of the judgment debtor, not exempt by law, shall be liable to execution.

SEC. 334. In all cases in which a judgment has been recovered in any of the courts of this territory, which shall have been assigned to any person, execution may issue in the name of the assignee, upon the assignment being recorded in the execution docket by the clerk of the court in which the judgment is recovered, and the provisions of this section shall extend to all judgments heretofore recovered as well as to those hereafter to be recovered.

due, and have an execution therefor, upon which no stay shall be allowed.

SEC. 338. The sureties upon a bond for stay of execution shall possess the same qualifications, and justify in the same manner as bail upon arrest in civil actions.

SEC. 352. The officer shall return the affidavit, bond and justification if any, to the office of the clerk of the district court, and the clerk shall place the same upon his trial docket at the first term, which shall commence ten days or more after it was accepted by the sheriff or officer as above provided for, and it shall stand for trial at that term.

SEC. 353. The person claiming the property shall be plaintiff, and the sheriff and plaintiff in the execution, defendants.

SEC. 354. If the claimant makes good his title to the property, the bond shall be canceled; if to a portion thereof, a like proportion of the bond shall be canceled; but if he shall not maintain his title, judgment shall be rendered against him and his sureties for the value of the property, or for such less amount as shall not exceed the amount due on the original execution or attachment. When the judgment is in favor of the sheriff for the entire property, the claimant shall pay the costs; when the claimant recovers all the property, judgment shall be given in favor of the claimant for costs; when the claimant recovers a portion of the property only, the costs shall be apportioned. When the plaintiff prevails, the costs may be taxed against the defendant who was plaintiff in the execution or attachment, or the court may, if it shall be of opinion that the sheriff attached or levied upon said property without the exercise of due caution, adjudge him to pay the costs or any portion thereof.

2. If the judgment is not then satisfied, and property has been attached and remains in his custody, he shall sell the same, or sufficient thereof to satisfy the judgment.

3. If then any portion of the judgment remains unsatisfied, or if no property has been attached or the same has been discharged, he shall levy on the property of the judgment debtor, sufficient to satisfy the judgment.

4. Property shall be levied on in like manner and with like effect as similar property is attached.

5. Until a levy, personal property shall not be affected by the execution. When property has been sold or debts received by the sheriff on execution, he shall pay the proceeds thereof, or sufficient to satisfy the judgment, as commanded in the writ.

6. When property has been attached and it is probable that such property will not be sufficient to satisfy the judgment, the execution may be levied on other property of the judgment debtor without delay. If after satisfying the judgment any property, or the proceeds thereof, remain in the custody of the sheriff, he shall deliver the same to the judgment debtor.

SEC. 356. In the case of property in the possession of, or owing from any garnishee, the sheriff shall proceed as follows:

1. If it appear from the certificate of the garnishee that he is owing a debt to the judgment debtor which is then due, if such debt is not paid by such garnishee to the sheriff, on demand, he shall levy on the property of the garnishee of the amount thereof, in all respects as if the execution was against the property of the garnishee. But if such debt be not then due, the sheriff shall sell the same, according to the certificate, as other property.

2. If, in like manner, it appear that the judgment debtor has rights or shares in the stock of the garnishee, as provided in subdivision 3 of section 179, the sheriff shall sell the same according to the certificate as other property.

3. If in like manner it appear that the garnishee has other personal property of the judgment debtor in his possession, and the same has not been bailed to such garnishee for a period then unexpired, unless the same be delivered to the sheriff on demand, he shall levy upon the same wherever he may find it. But if such property is in the possession of such garnishee upon a bailment then unexpired, the sheriff shall sell the same, or the interest of the judgment debtor therein according to the certificate, as other property.

SEC. 357. When a sheriff with an execution levies upon any of the personal property mentioned in subdivision three of section one hundred and seventy-nine, and if the same is not delivered, paid or transferred to him at the time, he shall proceed thereafter in reference to such property as provided in the preceding section. Such property may be delivered, paid or transferred to the sheriff at the time of the levy, or sufficient thereof to satisfy the execution; and the sheriff's receipt to the person, association or corporation, as the case may be, shall be a sufficient discharge therefor.

SEC. 358. When the sheriff shall levy upon personal property, by virtue of an execution, he may permit the judgment debtor to retain the same, or any part thereof, in his possession until the day of sale, upon the defendant executing a written bond to the sheriff with sufficient surety, in double the value of such property, to the effect that it shall be delivered to the sheriff at the time and place of sale, and for non-delivery thereof, an action may be maintained upon such bond by the sheriff or the plaintiff in the execution; but the sheriff shall not thereby be discharged from his liability to the plaintiff for such property.

SEC. 359. Before the sale of property on execution, notice thereof shall be given as follows:

1. In case of personal property, by posting written or printed notice of the time and place of sale in three public places of the county where the sale is to take place, not less than ten days successively.

2. In case of real property, by posting a similar notice, particularly describing the property, for four weeks successively, in three public places of the county where the property is to be sold, and publishing a copy thereof, once a week for the same period, in a newspaper of the county, if there be one, or if there be none, then in a newspaper published nearest to the place of sale.

SEC. 360. All sales of property upon execution, shall be made by auction between nine o'clock in the morning and four o'clock in the afternoon. After sufficient property has been sold to satisfy the execution, no more shall be sold. Neither the officer holding the execution nor his deputy, shall become a purchaser or be interested in any purchase at such sale. When the sale is of personal property capable of manual delivery, and not in the possession of a third person, association or corporation, it shall be within view of those who attend the sale, and be sold in such parcels as are likely to bring the highest price; and when the sale is of real property and consisting of several known lots or parcels, they shall be sold separately or otherwise as is likely to bring the highest price, or when a portion of such real property is claimed by a third person, and he requires it to be sold separately, such portion shall be sold separately. Sales of real property shall be made at the court house door.

SEC. 361. If at the time appointed for the sale, the sheriff should be prevented from attending at the place appointed, or being present should deem it for the advantage of all concerned to postpone the sale for want of purchasers, or other sufficient cause, he may postpone the sale not exceeding one week next after the day appointed, and so from time to time for the like cause, giving notice of every adjournment by public proclamation made at the same time, and by posting written notices of such adjournment under the notices of sale originally posted by him. The sheriff for like causes may also adjourn the sale from time to time, not exceeding thirty days beyond the day at which the writ is made returnable, with the consent of the plaintiff endorsed upon the writ.

SEC. 362. When the purchaser of any personal property, capable of manual delivery, and not in the possession of a third person, association or corporation, shall pay the purchase money, the sheriff shall deliver to him the property, and if desired shall give him a bill of sale containing an acknowledgment of the payment. In all other sales of personal property the sheriff shall give the purchaser a bill of sale with the like acknowledgment.

SEC. 363. The form and manner of sale of real estate by execution shall be as follows: The sheriff shall proclaim aloud at the place of sale, in the hearing of all the bystanders: "I am about to sell the following tracts of real estate (here reading the description,) upon the following execution:" (here reading the execution). He shall also state the amount which he is required to make upon the execution, which shall include damages, interests and costs up to the day of sale, and increased costs. He shall then offer the land for sale, the lots and parcels separately or together, as he shall deem most advantageous. All land except town lots shall be sold by the acre.

SEC. 364. When the land is sold by the acre and any less number of acres than the whole tract or parcel is sold, it shall be measured off to the purchaser in a square form, from the north-east corner of the tract or parcel, unless some person having an interest in the land shall, at the sale, or prior thereto and before the bidding is made, request that the land sold shall be taken from some other part, or in some other form; in such case, if such request is reasonable, the officer making the sale shall sell accordingly.

SEC. 365. When an entire tract or parcel of land is sold by the acre, it shall not be measured but shall be deemed and taken to contain the number of acres named in the description, and be paid for accordingly; and when the number of acres is not contained in the description, the officer shall declare according to his judgment how many acres are contained therein, which shall be deemed and taken to be the true number of acres.

SEC. 366. The officer shall strike off the land to the highest bidder, who shall forthwith pay the money bid to the officer, who shall return the money with his execution and his doings thereon, to the clerk of the court from which the execution issued, according to the order thereof: Provided, however, That when final judgment shall have been entered in the supreme court and the execution upon which sale has been made issued from said court, the proceedings on execution and return shall be docketed for confirmation in the district court in which the action was originally commenced, and like proceedings shall be had as though said execution had issued from the said district court.

SEC. 367. Upon the return of any sale of real estate as aforesaid, the clerk shall enter the cause on which the execution issued, by its title, in the docket of the term next after such return, and mark opposite the same "sale of land for confirmation," and the following proceedings shall be had:

1. The plaintiff shall be entitled, on motion therefor, to have an order confirming the sale at the term next following the return of the execution, or if it be returned in term time, then at such term, unless the judgment debtor, or in case of his death, his representatives, shall file with the clerk, ten days before such term, or if the writ be returned in term time, then five days after the return thereof, his objections thereto.

2. If such objections be filed the court shall notwithstanding allow the order confirming the sale, unless on the hearing of the motion, it shall satisfactorily appear that there were substantial irregularities in the proceedings concerning the sale, to the probable loss or injury of the party objecting. In the latter case, the court shall disallow the motion, and direct that the property be resold in whole or in part, as the case may be, as upon an execution received of that date.

3. Upon the return of the execution, the sheriff shall pay the proceeds of the sale to the clerk, who shall then apply the same or so much thereof as may be necessary, in satisfaction of the judgment. If an order of resale be afterwards made, and the property sell for a greater amount to any person other than the former purchaser, the clerk shall first repay to such purchaser the amount of his bid out of the proceeds of the latter sale.

4. Upon a resale, the bid of the purchaser at the former sale shall be deemed to be renewed and continue in force, and no bid shall be taken except for a greater amount. If the motion to confirm be not heard and decided at the term at which it is made, it may be continued and heard and determined before the judge, or at any term thereafter. An order confirming a sale shall be a conclusive determination of the regularity of the proceedings concerning such sale as to all persons in any other action, suit or proceeding whatever.

5. If after the satisfaction of the judgment, there be any proceeds of the sale remaining, the clerk shall pay such proceeds to the judgment debtor or his representative, as the case may be, at any time before the order is made upon the motion to confirm the sale, provided such party file with the clerk a waiver of all objections made or to be made to the proceedings concerning the sale; but if the sale be confirmed, such proceeds shall be paid to such party of course, otherwise they shall remain in the custody of the clerk until the sale of the property has been disposed of.

SEC. 368. If the purchaser of real property sold on execution, or his successor in interest, be evicted therefrom in consequence of the reversal of the judgment, he may recover the price paid with interest and the costs and disbursements of the suit by which he was evicted, from the plaintiff in the writ of execution.

SEC. 369. When property liable to an execution against several persons is sold thereon, and more than a due proportion of the judgment is levied upon the property of one of them, or one of them pays without a sale more than his proportion, he may compel contributions from the others; and when a judgment is against several, and is upon an obligation or contract of one of them as security for another, and the surety pays the amount or any part thereof, either by sale of his property or before sale, he may compel repayment from the principal. In such case the person so paying or contributing, shall be entitled to the benefit of the judgment to enforce contribution or repayment, if within thirty days after his payment, he file with the clerk of the court where the judgment was rendered, notice of his payment and claim to contribution or repayment. Upon filing such notice, the clerk shall make an entry thereof in the margin of the docket where the judgment is entered.

SEC. 370. Upon a sale of real property, when the estate is less than a leasehold of two years unexpired term, the sale shall be absolute. In all other cases, such property shall be subject to redemption, as hereinafter provided in this chapter. At the time of sale the sheriff shall give to the purchaser a certificate of the sale, containing:

1. A particular description of the property sold.
2. The price bid for each distinct lot or parcel.
3. The whole price paid.
4. When subject to redemption, it shall be so stated. The matters contained in such certificate shall be substantially stated in the sheriff's return of his proceedings upon the writ.

SEC. 371. Property sold subject to redemption, as provided in the last section, or any part thereof separately sold, may be redeemed by the following persons or their successors in interest:

1. The judgment debtor or his successor in interest, in the whole or in any part of the property separately sold.
2. A creditor having a lien by judgment, decree or mortgage on any portion of the property, or any portion of any part thereof, separately sold, subsequent in time to that on which the property was sold.

The persons mentioned in subdivision two of this section are termed redemptioners.

SEC. 372. The judgment debtor or redemptioner may redeem the property within six months from the date of the order confirming the sale, by paying the amount of the purchase money, with interest at the rate of two per centum per month thereon from the time of sale, together with the amount of any taxes which the purchaser may have paid thereon, and if the purchaser be also a creditor having a lien prior to that of the redemptioner, the amount of such lien with interest.

SEC. 373. If the property be so redeemed by a redemptioner, either the judgment debtor or any other redemptioner may, within sixty days from the last redemption, again redeem it on paying the sum paid on the last redemption, with interest at the rate of two per centum per month thereon, from the date of the last preceding redemption, in addition together with the amount of any taxes which the last redemptioner may have paid thereon, and unless his lien be prior to that of such redemptioner, the amount of such lien with interest. The property may be again and as often as a debtor or a redemptioner is disposed, redeemed from the last previous redemptioner, within sixty days from the last redemption, on paying the sum paid on the last previous redemption, with interest at the rate of two per centum per month thereon from the date of such previous redemption, together with the amount of any taxes paid thereon by such last redemptioner, and the amount of any liens held by such last redemptioner, prior to his own, with interest. Notice of redemption shall be given to the sheriff.

SEC. 374. If no redemption be made within six months from the confirmation of the sale, the purchaser shall be entitled to a conveyance from the sheriff, or if so redeemed, whenever sixty days has elapsed, and no other redemption has been made, the time for redemption shall have expired and the last redemptioner shall be entitled to a conveyance from the sheriff. If the judgment debtor redeem at any time before the time for redemption expires, the effects of the sale shall be determined and he shall be restored to his estate.

SEC. 375. The mode of redeeming shall be as provided in this section:

1. The person seeking to redeem shall give the purchaser or redemptioner, as the case may be, two days' notice of his intention to apply to the sheriff for that purpose. At the time and place specified in said notice, such person may redeem by paying to the sheriff the sum required. The sheriff shall give the person redeeming a certificate as in case of sale on execution adding therein the sum paid on redemption, from whom redeemed and the date thereof. A party seeking to redeem shall submit to the sheriff the evidence of his right thereto, as follows:

2. Proof that the notice required by this section has been given to the purchaser or redemptioner, or waived.

3. If he be a lien creditor, a copy of the docket of the judgment or decree under which he claims the right to redeem, certified by the clerk of the court where such judgment or decree is docketed, or if he seeks to redeem upon mortgage, the certificate of the record thereof.

4. A copy of any assignment necessary to establish his claim, verified by the affidavit of himself or agent, showing the amount then actually due on the judgment, decree or mortgage.

5. If the redemptioner or purchaser have a lien prior to that of the lien creditor seeking to redeem, such redemptioner or purchaser shall submit to the sheriff the like evidence thereof, and of the amount due thereon, or the same may be disregarded.

SEC. 376. When two or more persons apply to the sheriff to redeem at the same time, he shall allow the person having the prior lien to redeem first, and so on. The sheriff shall immediately pay the money over to the person from whom the property is redeemed, if he attend at the redemption, or if not, at any time thereafter when demanded. Where a sheriff shall wrongfully refuse to allow any person to redeem, his right thereto shall not be prejudiced thereby, and upon the submission of the evidence and the tender of the money to the sheriff, as herein provided, he may be required by order of the court or judge thereof, to allow such redemption.

SEC. 377. Until the expiration of the time allowed for redemption, the court or judge thereof may restrain the commission of waste on the property by order granted, with or without notice, on the application of the purchaser or judgment creditor, but it shall not be deemed waste for the person in possession afterwards, during the period allowed for redemption, to continue to use it in the same manner in which it was previously used, or to use it in the ordinary course of husbandry, or to make the necessary repairs to buildings thereon, or to use wood or timber on the property therefor, or for the repair of fences, or for fuel in his family while he occupies the property.

SEC. 378. The purchaser, from the day of sale until a resale or redemption, and the redemptioner from the day of his redemption until another redemption, shall be entitled to the possession of the property purchased or redeemed, unless the same be in the possession of a tenant holding under an unexpired lease, and in such case shall be entitled to receive from such tenant the rents or the value of the use and occupation thereof during the same period.

SEC. 379. In all cases where real estate has been or may hereafter be sold, in pursuance of law, by virtue of an execution or other process, it shall be the duty of the sheriff or other officer making such sale to execute and deliver to the purchaser, or other person entitled to the same, a deed of conveyance of the real estate so sold, as follows:

1. When such other execution or process issues upon an ordinary money judgment, such sheriff or other officer shall execute and deliver such deed within six months after the confirmation of such sale.

2. When such execution or other process issues upon a decree for the foreclosure of a mortgage, such sheriff or other officer shall execute and deliver such deed within five days after the confirmation of such sale.

3. In case the term of office of the sheriff or other officer making such sale shall have expired before a sufficient deed has been executed, then the successor in office of such sheriff or other officer shall, within the time specified in this act, execute and deliver to the purchaser or other person entitled to the same, a deed of the premises so sold; and such deed shall be as valid and effectual to convey to the grantee the lands or premises so sold, as if the deed had been made by the sheriff or other officer who made the sale.

SEC. 380. The party to whom such sheriff's deed is given, shall upon the receipt thereof, take the same to the clerk of the district court, who shall enter in his book of levies where the levy is recorded, the sale of real estate therein conveyed, and shall endorse the fact upon the deed, with the date when presented to him and when made. And no county auditor shall record any such deed without such endorsement.

SEC. 381. After the issuing of an execution against property, and upon proof by affidavit of a party, or otherwise, to the satisfaction of the court or of a judge thereof, that any judgment debtor has property which he unjustly refuses to apply towards the satisfaction of the judgment, such court or judge may, by an order, require the judgment debtor to appear at a specified time and place, before such judge, or a referee appointed by him, to answer concerning the same; and such proceedings may thereupon be had for the application of the property of the judgment debtor, toward the satisfaction of the judgment, as are provided upon the return of an execution. Instead of the order requiring the attendance of the judgment debtor, the judge may, upon affidavit of the judgment creditor, his agent or attorney, if it appear to him that there is danger of the debtor absconding, order the sheriff to arrest the debtor and bring him before such judge. Upon being brought before the judge he may be ordered to enter into a bond with sufficient surety, that he will attend from time to time before the judge or referee, as shall be directed during the pendency of proceedings and until the final determination thereof, and will not, in the meantime, dispose of any portion of his property, not exempt from execution. In default of entering into such bond, he may be committed to prison.

SEC. 382. After the issuing of an execution against property, any person indebted to the judgment debtor may pay to the sheriff the amount of his debt, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the execution, and the sheriff's receipt shall be a sufficient discharge for the amount so paid.

SEC. 383. After the issuing or return of an execution against property of the judgment debtor, or of any one of several debtors in the same judgment, and upon proof by affidavit or otherwise, to the satisfaction of the judge, that any person or corporation has property of such judgment debtor, or is indebted to him in an amount exceeding fifty dollars, the judge may by an order require such person or corporation, or any officer or member thereof to appear at a specified time and place, before him or a referee appointed by him, and answer concerning the same.

SEC. 384. Witnesses may be required to appear and testify before the judge or referee, upon any proceeding under this chapter, in the same manner as upon the trial of an issue.

SEC. 385. The judge or referee may order any property of the judgment debtor, not exempt from execution, in the hands of such debtor or any other person, or due to the judgment debtor, to be applied towards the satisfaction of the judgment; except that the earnings of the debtor for his personal services, at any time within sixty days next preceding the order, shall not be so applied, when it shall be made to appear by the debtor's affidavit or otherwise, that such earnings are necessary for the use of a family supported wholly or partly by his labor.

SEC. 386. If it appear that a person or corporation alleged to have property of the judgment debtor, or indebted to him, claims an interest in the property adverse to him, or denies the debt, the court or judge may authorize, by an order to that effect, the judgment creditor to institute an action against such person or corporation for the recovery of such interest or debt; and the court or judge may by an order forbid a transfer or other disposition of such interest or debt, until an action can be commenced and prosecuted to judgment. Such order may be modified or vacated by the judge granting the same, or the court in which the action is brought, at any time upon such terms as may be just.

SEC. 387. If any person, party or witness, disobey an order of the referee, properly made in the proceedings before him under this chapter, he may be punished by the court or judge ordering the reference for a contempt.

SEC. 399. Such failure to attend as required by the subpoena, shall also be considered a contempt, and upon due proof, the witness may be punished by a fine not exceeding fifty dollars, and stand committed until said fine and costs are paid or until discharged by due course of law.

SEC. 400. The court, judge, justice of the peace or other officer, in such case, may issue an attachment to bring such witness before them to answer for contempt, and also testify as witness in the cause in which he was subpoenaed.

SEC. 401. If the witness be a prisoner confined in a jail or prison within this territory, an order for his examination in prison, upon deposition, or for his temporary removal and production before a court or officer, for the purpose of being orally examined, may be issued.

SEC. 402. Such order can only be made upon affidavit, showing the nature of the action or proceeding, the testimony expected from the witness, and its materiality.

SEC. 404. Instead of the examination being had at the trial, as provided by the last section, the plaintiff, at the time of filing his complaint or afterwards, and the defendant, at the time of filing his answer or afterwards, may file in the clerk's office interrogatories for the discovery of facts and documents material to the support or defense of the action, to be answered on oath by the adverse party.

Such notice shall be at least three days, and in addition one day, Sundays excepted, for every ten miles of the distance from the place of examination to the residence of the person to whom notice is given.

SEC. 412. Depositions may be taken out of the territory by a judge, justice or chancellor or clerk of any court of record, a justice of the peace, notary public, mayor or chief magistrate of any city or town, or any person authorized by a special commission from any court of this territory.

SEC. 413. Any court of record in this territory or any judge thereof, is authorized to grant a commission to take depositions within or without this territory. The commission must be issued to a person or persons therein named by the clerk under the seal of the court granting the same, and depositions under it must be taken upon written interrogatories, unless the parties otherwise agree, upon notice to the adverse party as required in section 411.

The notice shall be served so as to allow the adverse party sufficient time, by the usual route of travel to attend, and one day for preparation, exclusive of Sundays and the day of service; and the examination may, if so stated in the notice, be adjourned from day to day.

SEC. 415. When the party against whom the deposition is to be read is absent from or a non-resident of the territory, and has no agent or attorney of record therein, he may be notified of the taking of the deposition by publication. The publication must be made three consecutive weeks, in some newspaper printed in the county where the action or proceeding is pending, if there be any printed in such county; and if not in some newspaper printed in this territory of general circulation in that county. The publication must contain all that is required in the written or printed notice, and may be proved in the manner prescribed in case of the publication of summons.

SEC. 416. The deposition shall be written by the officer taking the same, or by the witness, or by some disinterested person in the presence and under the direction of such officer. When completed it shall be carefully read to or by the witness, corrected if desired, and subscribed by him and certified by the officer substantially as follows:

TERRITORY OF WASHINGTON, }
County of _____; } ss.

I, A. B., justice of the peace in and for said county, (or judge, clerk, etc., as the case may be,) do hereby certify that the above deposition was taken before me, and reduced to writing by myself, (or witness as the case may be,) at _____, in said county, on the _____ day of _____, 18____, at _____ o'clock, in pursuance of notice hereto annexed; that the above named witness, before examination, was sworn (or affirmed) to testify the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, and that the said deposition was carefully read to (or by) said witness, and then subscribed by him.

A. B., (Justice of the Peace.)

Dated at _____, the _____ day of _____ 18____.

SEC. 417. The deposition shall be enclosed in a sealed envelope, by the officer taking the same, and directed to the clerk of the court, arbitrators, referee, or justice of the peace before whom the action is pending, or to such person as the parties in writing may agree upon, and either delivered to the clerk of the court or other person, or transmitted through the mail or by some private person.

SEC. 418. Such deposition may be used by either party upon the trial or other proceeding against any party giving or receiving the notice, subject to all legal exceptions, to the competency or credibility of the witness, or the manner of taking the deposition. But if the parties attend at the examination, no objection to the form of an interrogatory shall be made at the trial, unless the same was taken at the time of the examination. It shall be the duty of the person taking the deposition to propound to the witness every question proposed by either party, and to note all objections to the form of any interrogatory, and when any interrogatory is objected to on account of form, unless the form is amended and the objection waived, he shall write after the question and before the answer the words "objected to," and when any witness declines to answer a question on the ground that it will criminate himself, that fact shall also be noted after the question if written down. The deposition may be taken in the form of a narrative, or by question and answer, or partly in either form, as either party present at the examination shall require. When taken by question and answer, the officer shall first write down the question and then the answer, as nearly as may be in the language of the witness; but when the deposition is read to the witness previous to signing it, he shall be permitted to amend his answer to any question or any part of his deposition; such amendment, however, unless both parties shall otherwise agree, shall not be made by way of interlining or erasing, but shall be added at the end of the deposition under the title "amendment by the witness," and such amendment shall intelligibly refer to the part so amended.

SEC. 419. No deposition shall be used if it appear that the reason for taking it no longer exists: Provided, however, That if the party producing the deposition in such case shall show any sufficient cause then existing for using such deposition, it may be admitted.

SEC. 420. When the plaintiff in any action shall discontinue it, or when it shall be dismissed for any cause, and another action shall afterwards be commenced for the same cause between the same parties, or their respective representatives, all depositions lawfully taken in the first action may be used in the other, in the same manner and subject to the same conditions and objections as if originally taken for such other action: Provided, That the deposition shall have been duly filed in the court where the first action was pending, and shall have remained in the custody of the court, from the termination of the first action until the commencement of the other.

SEC. 421. When any action shall have been appealed from one court to another, all depositions lawfully taken to be used in the court below, may be used in the appellate court, in the same manner and subject to such exceptions for informality or irregularity, and none other, as were taken in writing to such depositions in the court below.

SEC. 422. Any witness may be subpoenaed and compelled, by any officer authorized to take depositions, to appear and give his deposition at any place within twenty miles of the abode of such witness, in like manner as he may be subpoenaed and compelled to attend as a witness in any court, and he shall suffer the same penalties for a failure to attend as are prescribed in chapter 37 of this act.

If the subject of the proposed deposition relate to real estate within this territory, the statement shall be filed in the county where the lands, or any part thereof lie, otherwise in the county where the parties interested, or some of them reside. Upon such statement an application may be made to such court or judge thereof, to allow the examination of such witness.

SEC. 424. The court or judge shall appoint a time and place for hearing such application, and shall order notice thereof and of the statement, to be served on all persons mentioned therein as adversely interested in the matter. The notice shall be served personally on all those living in the territory at least twenty days before the time of hearing the application. Upon those who are not residents of the territory, it shall be served by publication or otherwise, in the same manner as a notice is served upon a non-resident.

SEC. 425. If upon hearing of the parties or of the applicant alone, should no adverse party appear, the court or judge shall be satisfied that there is sufficient cause for taking the deposition, an order shall be made allowing the examination of the witness; and such court or judge may direct a commission to issue therefor, in like manner as a commission to take the testimony of witnesses as in other cases.

SEC. 426. The deposition of such witness, whether residing in this territory or not, shall be taken upon written interrogatories filed by the applicant, and cross interrogatories filed by any party adversely interested, if he shall think fit, and it shall be taken and returned substantially in the same manner as if taken upon commission, to be used in any cause pending in the same court.

SEC. 427. The deposition when returned shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the court by whom the commission was issued, and if a trial be had between the person, at whose request the deposition was taken, and the person named in the statement, or any of them, or their successors in interest, upon proof of the death or insanity of the witness, or his inability to attend the trial by reason of age, sickness, or settled infirmity, the deposition, or a certified copy thereof, may be used by either party, subject to all legal objections. But if the parties attend at the examination, no objections to the form of the interrogatory shall be made at the trial, unless the same were taken at the time of the examination.

If compliance with the order be refused, the court may exclude the book, document or paper from being given in evidence, or if wanted as evidence by the party applying, may direct the jury to presume it to be such as he alleges it to be, and the court may also punish the party refusing as for contempt. This section shall not be construed to prevent a party from compelling another to produce books, papers or documents where he is examined as a witness.

SEC. 429. If either party at any time before trial allow the other an inspection of any writing, material to the action, whether mentioned in the pleadings or not, and deliver to him a copy thereof, with notice that he intends to read the same in evidence on the trial of the cause, it may be so read without proof of its genuineness or execution, unless denied by affidavit before the commencement of the trial. If such denial be made, of any writing not mentioned in the pleadings, the court may give time to either party to procure evidence, when necessary for the furtherance of justice.

SEC. 430. In actions affecting real estate, such certificate shall be prima facie evidence that the title of the lands mentioned or described in such receipt is in the person or persons named therein.

1. By granting a new trial for the cause, within the time and in the manner, and for any of the causes prescribed by the sections relating to new trials.

2. By a new trial granted in proceedings against defendant served by

3. For mistakes, neglect or omission of the clerk, or irregularity in obtaining a judgment or order.

4. For fraud practiced by the successful party in obtaining the judgment or order.

5. For erroneous proceedings against a minor person of unsound mind, when the condition of such defendant does not appear in the record, nor the error in the proceedings.

6. For the death of one of the parties before the judgment in the action.

7. For unavoidable casualty, or misfortune preventing the party from prosecuting or defending.

8. For error in a judgment shown by a minor, within twelve months after arriving at full age.

SEC. 437. When the grounds for a new trial could not with reasonable diligence have been discovered before, but are discovered after the term at which the verdict, report of referee, or decision was rendered or made, the application may be made by petition filed as in other cases, not later than the second term after the discovery, on which notice shall be served and returned, and the defendant held to appear as in an original action. The facts stated in the petition shall be considered as denied without answer. The case shall be tried as other cases by ordinary proceedings, but no motion shall be filed more than one year after the final judgment was rendered.

SEC. 438. The proceedings to correct mistakes or omissions of the clerk or irregularity in obtaining a judgment or order, shall be by motion served on the adverse party, or on his attorney in the action, and within one year; and when made to vacate a judgment because of irregularity in obtaining it, must be made on the second day of the succeeding term.

SEC. 439. The proceedings to obtain the benefit of subdivisions four, five, six, seven and eight of section 436, shall be by petition, verified by affidavit, setting forth the judgment or order, the facts or errors constituting a cause to vacate or modify it, and the facts constituting a defense to the action, if the party applying was a defendant; and such proceedings must be commenced within one year after the judgment or order was made, unless the party entitled thereto be a minor or person of unsound mind, and then within one year from the removal of such disability.

SEC. 440. In such proceedings the party shall be brought into court in the same way, on the same notice as to time, mode of service, and mode of return, and the pleadings shall be governed by the principles, and issues be made up by the same form, and all the proceedings conducted in the same way, as near as can be, as in original action by ordinary proceedings, except that defendant shall introduce no new cause, and the cause of the petition shall alone be tried.

SEC. 441. The judgment shall not be vacated on motion or petition until it is adjudged that there is a valid defense to the action in which the judgment is rendered; or, if the plaintiff seeks its vacation, that there is a valid cause of action; and when judgment is modified, all liens and securities obtained under it shall be preserved to the modified judgment.

SEC. 442. The court may first try and decide upon the grounds to vacate or modify a judgment or order, before trying or deciding upon the validity of the defense or cause of action.

SEC. 443. The party seeking to vacate or modify a judgment or order may obtain an injunction suspending proceedings on the whole or part thereof, which injunction may be granted by the court or the judge upon its being rendered probable, by affidavit or petition sworn to, or by exhibition of the record, that the party is entitled to have such judgment or order vacated or modified.

SEC. 444. In all cases of affirmance of the judgment or order, when the proceedings have been suspended, judgment shall be rendered against the plaintiff in error for the amount of the former judgment, interest and costs, together with damages at the discretion of the court, not exceeding ten per cent. on the amount of the judgment.

SEC. 445. The supreme court has appellate jurisdiction over all judgments and decisions of all other courts of record, as well cases of civil actions as in proceedings of a special or independent character.— For the exercise of such appellate jurisdiction, section 1869 of the revised statutes of the United States, providing for the allowance of writs of error, bills of exception and appeals, and for the exercise of chancery as well as common law shall govern. Every final judgment, order or decision of a district court or judge thereof, in actions at law, as the same are known and recognized, may be re-examined by writ of error in the supreme court, for error in law. In such cases the supreme court shall hear and determine the cause upon the errors assigned in the notice of the plaintiff in error. The party suing out such writ of error, shall be called the plaintiff in error and the adverse party shall be called the defendant in error. Every final judgment, order, or decision of a district court, or judge thereof, in actions of an equitable nature, where equitable relief is sought, or where chancery jurisdiction has been exercised, shall be reviewed in the supreme court by appeal. In all such equitable causes, the party taking or prosecuting the appeal shall be known as the appellant; the adverse party the appellee. When both parties appeal, the cause shall be docketed as it was in the court below. In suits of error and appeals, subject always to the distinction herein recognized, the practice shall be as hereinafter prescribed.

SEC. 446. An appeal or writ of error may also be taken to the supreme court from the following orders:

1. An order made affecting a substantial right in an action, when such order, in effect, determines the action and prevents a judgment from which an appeal might be taken.

2. A final order made in special proceedings affecting a substantial right therein, or made on a summary application in an action after judgment.

3. When an order grants or refuses, continues, or modifies a provisional remedy; or grants, refuses, dissolves, or refuses to dissolve an injunction or attachment; when it grants or refuses a new trial, or when it sustains or overrules a demurrer.

4. An intermediate order involving the merits and materially affecting the final decision.

5. An order or judgment on habeas corpus. If any of the above orders are made by a judge, the same is recorded in the same way as if made by a court.

SEC. 447. The court may also, in its discretion, prescribe rules for allowing appeals or writs of error on such other intermediate orders or decisions as is deemed expedient, and for permitting the same to be taken and tried during the progress of the trial in the court below; but such intermediate appeals or writs must not retard proceedings in the court from which the appeal is taken.

SEC. 448. A mistake of the clerk shall not be ground for an appeal or writ of error, until the same has been presented and acted upon by the court below.

SEC. 449. A judgment or order shall not be reversed for an error which can be corrected on motion in an inferior court, until such motion has been made and overruled.

SEC. 450. The supreme court may review and reverse on appeal, or writ of error, any judgment or order of the district court, although no motion for a new trial was made in such court.

SEC. 451. When a cause is tried by the court, it shall not be necessary in order to secure a review of the same in the supreme court, that there should have been any finding of facts or conclusions of law stated in the record; but the supreme court shall hear and determine the same whenever it shall appear from a certificate of the judge, agreement of parties, or their attorneys, or, in case the evidence consists wholly of written testimony, from the certificate of the clerk, that the transcript contains all the evidence introduced by the parties on the trial in the court below.

SEC. 452. The court may issue all writs and process necessary for the exercise and enforcement of its appellate jurisdiction.

SEC. 543. Appeals and writs of error from the district court may be taken to the supreme court at any time within six months from the rendition of the judgment or order appealed from, or complained of, and not afterward. But nothing herein contained shall prevent the district judge who tried the cause, to make certificate that the cause involves the determination of a question of law, upon which it is desirable to have the opinion of the supreme court. In such cases said judge may direct a special verdict to be found, and in all cases the parties may make an agreed statement of facts, signed by themselves or their attorneys, which shall be entered of record, which shall have the effect of a special verdict, and may under the direction of the judge of the district court, be taken to the supreme court, and for that purpose the district court shall render a judgment in form only, which shall not be executed until the final decision of the cause. The supreme court, on hearing such cases, may give judgment or remand the cause for further proceedings in the district court.

SEC. 454. A part of several co-parties may appeal or prosecute a writ of error; but in such case they must serve notice thereof upon all the other co-parties and file the proof thereof with the clerk of the supreme court.

SEC. 455. If the other co-parties refuse to join, they cannot nor can any of them, take an appeal or writ of error afterwards; nor shall they derive any benefit from the appeal, or suit in error unless from the necessity of the case.

SEC. 456. Unless they appear and decline to join, they shall be deemed to have joined and shall be liable for their due proportion of costs.

SEC. 457. An appeal or writ of error from part of an order, or from one of the judgments of a final adjudication, or from part of a judgment, shall not disturb or delay the rights of any party to any judgment or part of any judgment, or order not appealed from, but the same shall proceed as if no such appeal had been made.

SEC. 458. An appeal, or writ of error is taken by filing with the clerk of the court in which the judgment or order appealed from is entered a notice, stating the appeal from the same, or some specific part thereof, and serving a copy of said notice on the adverse party or his attorney. Every notice of appeal or writ of error must be signed by the party taking the same, or his attorney of record, and must contain the title of the district court in which the proceedings sought to reviewed were had; the title of the cause as in the district court; a particular description of the judgment, decree or order sought to be reviewed; and, in case of appeal, a particular description of every decision, ruling, order or decree by which the appellant claims to have been aggrieved and which he relies upon as ground for a reversal or modification of the judgment, order or decree; and in case of a writ of error, a particular description of the errors assigned.

SEC. 459. An appeal shall not be perfected until the notice thereof has been served upon the adverse party, or his attorney of record. Upon payment of his fees, the clerk shall forthwith transmit by mail, express, or messenger, not a party, nor the attorney of a party, a transcript of the record in the cause, or so much thereof as the appellant, or plaintiff in error, in writing, in the notice has directed, to which shall be appended copies of the notice of appeal, and the supersedeas bond, if any.

SEC. 460. The notice of appeal or suit in error, must be served at least thirty days, and the cause filed and docketed at least fifteen days before the first day of the next term of the supreme court, or the same shall not then be tried unless by consent of parties. If the appeal or writ of error is taken less than thirty days before the term, it must be so filed and docketed, before the next succeeding term.

SEC. 461. If the appellant fails to file a transcript, and have the cause docketed, as provided in the preceding section, the appellee or defendant in error may file a certified copy of the judgment or order appealed from, and of the notice served, and, on motion, have the appeal, or suit in error dismissed, or the judgment or order appealed from affirmed: Provided, That when the failure to file the transcript is owing to the fault or omission of the clerk of either the appellate or inferior court, or other circumstance, over which the appellant has no control, the court shall not dismiss the cause, but shall fix such time for hearing the same, as will insure a fair trial.

SEC. 462. If the transcript has been sent up, but the appellant or plaintiff in error does not file the same when the same should be filed, as herein provided, the appellee or defendant in error may file the same, and may, on motion, have the appeal dismissed or judgment affirmed, as the court from the circumstances of the case shall determine.

SEC. 463. If the transcript has been sent up, and errors have not been assigned in the notice as hereinbefore required, the appellee or defendant in error may have the appeal or writ of error dismissed or the judgment or order affirmed, unless good cause for the failure be shown by affidavit.

SEC. 464. In an action by ordinary proceedings, and in an action by equitable proceedings, tried in whole or in part on oral testimony, all proper entries made by the clerk, and all papers pertaining to the cause and filed therein, except subpoenas, depositions, and other papers which are used as mere evidence, are to be deemed part of the record. But in an action by equitable proceedings, tried upon written testimony, the depositions and all papers which were used as evidence, are to be certified up to the supreme court, and shall be so certified, not by transcript, but in the original form. But a transcript of a motion, affidavit or other paper, when it relates to a collateral matter, shall not be certified unless by direction of the appellant. If so certified, when not material to the determination of the appeal or writ of error, the court may direct the person blameable therefor to pay the costs thereof.

SEC. 465. The appellant or plaintiff in error shall file a perfect transcript, and to that end the clerk of the court below must, at any time on his suggestion of the diminution of the record and on the payment of fees, certify up any omitted part of the record, according to the truth, as the same appears of record in his office; and such appellant shall not be entitled to any continuance in order to correct the record, unless it shall clearly appear to the court that he is not in fault. Subject to which requirement, either party may, on motion before trial day, obtain an order on the clerk below, commanding him to transmit at once to the supreme court a true copy of such imperfect or omitted part of the record as shall be in general terms described in the affidavit or order. Such motion must be supported by affidavit, unless the diminution be apparent or admitted by the adverse party, and must not be granted unless the court is satisfied that it is not made for delay.

SEC. 466. An appeal or writ of error shall not be dismissed for any informality or defect in the notice or the service thereof, if from the transcript it can be reasonably understood that the adverse party has had sufficient notice of the pendency of the suit in error or appeal, and the notice recites the errors alleged or the order or judgment complained of with such certainty, that his substantial right would not be prejudiced by the hearing of the cause. And the supreme court shall, upon reasonable terms, allow all amendments in matters of form, curative of such defects, to the end that substantial justice be secured to the parties.

SEC. 467. An appeal or writ of error shall not stay proceedings on the judgment or order or any part thereof, unless the appellant shall cause to be executed before the clerk of the court which rendered the judgment or order, a bond with one or more sureties to be approved by the clerk, to the effect that the appellant or plaintiff in error shall pay to the appellee or defendant in error all costs and damages that shall be adjudged against the appellant on the appeal; also that he will satisfy and perform the judgment or order appealed from, in case it shall be affirmed, and any judgment or order which the supreme court may render, or order to be rendered by the inferior court, not exceeding in amount or value the original judgment or order, and all rents or damages to property during the pendency of the appeal, out of the possession of which the appellee is kept by reason of the appeal. If the bond is intended to stay proceedings on only a part of the judgment or order, it shall be varied so as to secure the part stayed alone. When such bond has been approved by the clerk, and filed, he shall issue a written order commanding the appellee and all others to stay proceedings on such judgment or order, or on such part as is superseded as the case may be. No appeal or stay shall vacate or affect the judgment not appealed from.

SEC. 468. In cases wherein the appellant or plaintiff in error has perfected his appeal or writ of error to the supreme court, and the clerk of the district court has unjustly refused to approve the appeal bond offered, or makes the penalty therein too large, or the conditions thereof unjust, the appellant may move the supreme court if in session, or in its vacation a judge thereof, on giving to the appellee such written notice as the court or judge thereof may prescribe, to determine the conditions, fix the penalty, and approve the appeal bond. The motion, verified by the affidavit of the appellant or plaintiff in error, or his attorney, shall contain a brief statement of the nature of the action in which the appeal or writ of error was taken, of the judgment or order appealed from, of the steps taken by the appellant or plaintiff in error with reference to his appeal, and of his giving, or offering to give, an appeal bond, of the action of the clerk of the court below, with reference to such bond, and wherein he has acted wrongfully; and if the supreme court, or any judge thereof, considers that the clerk has made unjust conditions in the bond, or the penalty thereof too high, or has wrongfully refused to approve the same, such court or judge shall issue an order prescribing the conditions of the appeal bond, fixing the penalty thereof and either approve it or direct the clerk of the supreme court so to do, which bond shall be filed with the officer last named. The supreme court, or judge thereof, may order that all or any part of the papers and records in the cause appealed, or certified copies thereof, be produced on the hearing of such motion, and pending the disposition thereof, may make an order staying the enforcement of the judgment or order appealed from, and on such terms as are just. The order, if made by the judge, shall be in writing and signed by him, and upon the service thereof, or of a certified copy, when made in court, upon the clerk of the court below, all proceedings in the court appealed from shall be stayed, and all orders, all processes, executions, or other papers issued therefrom shall be recalled, and the appellant or plaintiff in error be placed in the same condition that he was when the judgment or order appealed from was made or rendered.

SEC. 469. If the appellee or defendant in error believe the bond defective, or the sureties insufficient, he may move the supreme court, if in session, or in its vacation, on ten days' written notice to the appellant, may move any judge of said court to discharge the bond, and if the court or such judge shall consider the sureties insufficient, or the bond substantially defective in securing the rights of the appellee, the court or such judge shall issue an order discharging such bond, unless a good bond with sufficient sureties, be executed before a day by him fixed. The order, if made by a judge, shall be in writing and signed by him; and upon his filing, or the filing of a certified copy of the order, when made in court, in the office of the clerk of the inferior court, execution and other proceedings for enforcing the judgment or order may be taken if a new and good bond is not filed and approved by the day as aforesaid.

SEC. 470. But another order staying proceedings may be issued by the clerk, upon execution before him, of a new and lawful bond with sufficient sureties as hereinbefore provided.

SEC. 471. If the judgment or order is for the payment of money, the penalty shall be in at least twice the amount of the judgment and costs. If not for the payment of money the penalty shall be sufficient to save the appellee or defendant in error harmless from the consequences of taking the appeal or writ of error. But it shall in no case be less than one hundred dollars.

SEC. 472. The taking of the appeal from a part of a judgment or order, and the filing of a bond as above directed, does not cause a stay of execution as to any part of the judgment or order not appealed from.

SEC. 473. If execution has issued prior to the filing of the bond above contemplated, the clerk shall countermand the same.

SEC. 474. Property levied upon and not sold at the time such countermand is received by the sheriff, shall forthwith be delivered up to the judgment debtor.

SEC. 475. The supreme court may reverse, affirm or modify the judgment or order below, or the part of either appealed from, or may render such judgment or order as the inferior court or judge should have done, according as it may think it proper.

SEC. 476. The supreme court, when it affirms the judgment, shall also, if the appellee or defendant in error moves therefor, render judgment against the appellant or plaintiff in error and his sureties on the bond above mentioned for the amount of the judgment, damages and costs referred to therein, in case such damages can be accurately known to the court without an issue and trial.

SEC. 477. Upon the confirmance of any judgment or order for the payment of money, the collection of which, in whole or in part has been superseded by bond as above contemplated, the court shall award to the appellee, or defendant in error, damages upon the amount superseded; and, if satisfied by the record that the appeal or writ of error was taken for delay only, must award such sum as damages, not exceeding fifteen per cent. thereon, as shall effectually tend to prevent the taking of appeals or writs of error for delay only.

SEC. 478. If the supreme court affirm or modify the judgment or order, it may send the cause to the court below to have the same carried into effect, or it may itself issue the necessary process for this purpose, and direct such process to the sheriff of the proper county as the party may require.

SEC. 479. If, by the decision of the supreme court, the appellant or plaintiff in error becomes entitled to a restoration of any part of the money or property that was taken from him, by means of such judgment or order, either the supreme court, or the court below, may direct execution or writ of restitution to issue for the purpose of restoring to such appellant or plaintiff in error, his property or the value thereof.

SEC. 480. Property acquired by a purchaser in good faith, under a judgment subsequently reversed, shall not be affected by such reversal.

SEC. 481. The supreme court shall have power to enforce its mandates upon inferior courts and officers by fine and imprisonment, which imprisonment may be continued until obeyed.

SEC. 482. If a petition for rehearing be filed, the same shall suspend the decisions of the court on its presentation, or one of the judges, if in vacation, shall so order, in either of which case such decision shall be suspended until the next term.

SEC. 483. The petition for rehearing shall be the argument of the applicant therefor, and if the court think that such argument requires a reply, it shall so indicate to the other party and he may make reply within such time as said court shall allow, and with a view to a rehearing the court may extend the suspension of proceeding yet farther, if need be.

SEC. 484. The clerk shall docket the causes as the same are filed in his office, and shall arrange and set a proper number for trial each day of the term, placing together those from the same judicial district, and shall cause notice of the manner he has set such causes to be published and distributed in such manner as the court may direct.

SEC. 485. The court shall hear all the causes docketed, when not continued by consent, or for cause shown by the party, and the party may be heard orally or otherwise, in his discretion.

SEC. 486. No cause is decided until the opinion in writing is filed with the clerk.

SEC. 487. If remanded to the inferior court to be carried into effect, such decision and the order of the court thereon, being certified thereto and entered on the records of the court, shall have the same force and effect as if made and entered during the session of the court in that district.

SEC. 488. An assignment of error need follow no stated form, but must in a way as specific as the case will allow, point out the very error objected to; among several points in a demurrer, or in a motion, or instructions, or rulings in an exception, it must designate which is relied on as an error; and the court will only regard errors which are assigned with the required exactness; but the court must decide on each error assigned.

SEC. 489. All motions must be entered in the motion book, and shall stand over till the next morning after the morning on which entered; and till after having been publicly called by the court, unless the parties otherwise agree, and the adverse party shall be deemed to have notice of motion.

SEC. 490. When a review of an original paper in the action may be important to a correct decision of the appeal, or writ of error, the court may order the clerk of the court below to transmit the same, which he shall do in some safe mode to the clerk of the supreme court, who shall hold the same subject to the control of the court.

SEC. 491. The death of one or all of the parties shall not cause the proceedings to abate, but the names of the proper persons shall be substituted, as is provided in such cases in the district court, and the case may proceed. The court may also, in such case, grant a continuance when such a course will be calculated to promote the ends of justice.

SEC. 492. When an appellant, or plaintiff in error has no right, or further right to prosecute the appeal or writs of error, the appellee or defendants in error may move to dismiss; and if the grounds of the motion do not appear in the record, or by writing purporting to have been signed by the appellant or plaintiff in error and filed, they must be verified by affidavit.

SEC. 493. The appellee or defendant in error may, by answer filed and verified by himself, agent or attorney, plead any facts which render the taking of the appeal or writ of error improper, or destroy the right of appellant or plaintiff in error further prosecuting the same, to which answer the appellant or plaintiff in error may file a reply, likewise verified by himself, his agent or attorney, and the questions of law or fact therein shall be determined by the court.

SEC. 494. The service of all notices of appeal or writs of error, or in any way growing out of such rights, or connected therewith, and all notices in the supreme court, shall be in the way provided for the services of like notices in the district court, and they may be served by the same person and returned in the same manner; and the original notice of the appeal or writ of error must be returned immediately after service to the office of the clerk of the district court where the suit is pending.

SEC. 495. Executions issued from the supreme court shall be the same as those from the district court and attend with the same consequences, and shall be returnable in the same time.

SEC. 496. Whenever, in the foregoing chapter the words appeal, appellant or appellee, are used, they shall be construed when so required and applicable to law proceedings as contradistinguished from equitable actions, as suit in error, plaintiff in error or defendant in error.

SEC. 498. If the plaintiff be a trustee to any other, or if the action be in a name of the plaintiff who has no real interest in the contract upon which the action is founded, so much of a demand existing against those whom the plaintiff represents or for whose benefit the action is brought, may be set off as will satisfy the plaintiff's debt, if the same might have been set off in an action brought by those beneficially interested.

SEC. 499. In actions brought by executors and administrators, demands against their testators and intestates, and belonging to defendant at the time of their death, may be set off by the defendant in the same manner as if the action had been brought by and in the name of the deceased.

SEC. 500. When a set-off shall be established in an action brought by executors or administrators, and a balance found due to the defendant, the judgment rendered thereon against the plaintiff shall have the same effect as if the action had been originally commenced by the defendant.

SEC. 501. In actions against executors and administrators and against trustees and others, sued in their representative character, the defendants may set off demands belonging to their testators or intestates or those whom they represent, in the same manner as the person so represented would have been entitled to set-off the same, in an action against them.

SEC. 503. If the amount of the set-off, duly established, be equal to the plaintiff's debt or demand, judgment shall be rendered that the plaintiff take nothing by his action; if it be less than the plaintiff's debt or demand, the plaintiff shall have judgment for the residue only.

SEC. 504. If there be found a balance due from the plaintiff in the action to the defendant, judgment shall be rendered in favor of the defendant for the amount thereof, but no such judgment shall be rendered against the plaintiff when the contract, which is the subject of the action, shall have been assigned before the commencement of such action, nor for any balance due from any other person than the plaintiff in the action.

SEC. 539. The defendant shall not be allowed to give in evidence any estate in himself or another in the property, or any license or right to the possession thereof unless the same be pleaded in his answer. If so pleaded, the nature and duration of such estate, or license or right to the possession, shall be set forth with the certainty and particularity required in a complaint. If the defendant does not defend for the whole of the property, he shall specify for what particular part he does defend. In an action against a tenant, the judgment shall be conclusive against a landlord who has been made defendant in place of the tenant, to the same extent as if the action had been originally commenced against him.

SEC. 540. The jury by their verdict shall find as follows:

1. If the verdict be for the plaintiff, that he is entitled to the possession of the property described in the complaint, or some part thereof, or some undivided share or interest in either, and the nature and duration of his estate in such property, part thereof, or undivided share or interest, in either, as the case may be.

2. If the verdict be for the defendant, that the plaintiff is not entitled to the possession of the property described in the complaint, or to such part thereof as the defendant defends for, and the estate in such property or part thereof, or license, or right to the possession of either established on the trial by the defendant, if any, in effect as the same is required to be pleaded.

SEC. 541. The plaintiff shall only be entitled to recover damages for withholding the property for the term of six years next preceding the commencement of the action, and for any period that may elapse from such commencement, to the time of giving a verdict therein, exclusive of the use of permanent improvements made by the defendant. When permanent improvements have been made upon the property by the defendant, or those under whom he claims holding under color of title adversely to the claim of the plaintiff, in good faith, the value thereof at the time of trial shall be allowed as a set-off against such damages.

SEC. 542. If the right of the plaintiff to the possession of the property expire, after the commencement of the action and before the trial, the verdict shall be given according to the fact, and judgment shall be given only for the damages.

SEC. 543. The court or judge thereof, on motion, and after notice to the adverse party, may, for cause shown, grant an order allowing the party applying therefor to enter upon the property in controversy and make survey and admeasurement thereof, for the purposes of the action.

SEC. 544. The order shall describe the property, and a copy thereof shall be served upon the defendant, and thereupon the party may enter upon the property and make such survey and admeasurement; but if any unnecessary injury be done to the premises, he shall be liable therefor.

SEC. 545. An action for the recovery of the possession of real property against a person in possession, cannot be prejudiced by any alienation made by such person either before or after the commencement of the action; but if such alienation be made after the commencement of the action, and the defendant do not satisfy the judgment recovered for damages for withholding the possession, such damages may be recovered by action against the purchaser.

SEC. 546. A mortgage of real property shall not be deemed a conveyance so as to enable the owner of the mortgage to recover possession of the real property, without a foreclosure and sale according to law.

SEC. 547. In an action by a tenant in common, or a joint tenant of real property against his co-tenant, the plaintiff must show, in addition to his evidence of right, that the defendant either denied the plaintiff's right or did some act amounting to such denial.

SEC. 548. When in the case of a lease of real property and the failure of tenant to pay rent, the landlord has a subsisting right to re-enter for such failure; he may bring an action to recover the possession of such property, and such action is equivalent to a demand of the rent and a re-entry upon the property. But if at any time before the judgment in such action, the lessee or his successor in interest as to the whole or a part of the property, pay to the plaintiff, or bring into court the amount of rent then in arrear, with interest and cost of action, and perform the other covenants or agreements on the part of the lessee, he shall be entitled to continue in the possession according to the terms of the lease.

SEC. 549. In an action to recover the possession of real property, the judgment therein shall be conclusive as to the estate in such property and the right to the possession thereof, so far as the same is thereby determined, upon the party against whom the same is given, and against all persons claiming from, through or under such party after the commencement of such action, except as in this section provided. When service of the notice is made by publication, and judgment is given for failure to answer, at any time within two years from the entry thereof, the defendant or his successor in interest as to the whole or any part of the property, shall, upon application to the court or judge thereof, be entitled to an order vacating the judgment and granting him a new trial, upon the payment of the costs of the action.

SEC. 550. If the plaintiff has taken possession of the property before the judgment is set aside and a new trial granted, as provided in the preceding section, such possession shall not be thereby affected in any way; and if judgment be given for defendant in the new trial, he shall be entitled to restitution by execution in the same manner as if he were plaintiff.

CHAPTER XLVII.

SEC. 551. In an action at law, for the recovery of the possession of real property, if either party claim the property as a donee of the United States, and under the act of congress approved September 27th, 1850, commonly called the "Donation law," or the acts amendatory thereof, such party, from the date of his settlement thereon, as provided in said act, shall be deemed to have a legal estate in fee, in such property, to continue upon condition that he perform the conditions required by such acts, which estate is unconditional and indefeasable after the performance of such conditions. In such action, if both plaintiff and defendant claim title to the same real property, by virtue of settlement, under such acts, such settlement and performance of the subsequent condition shall be prima facie presumed in favor of the party having or claiming under the elder certificate, or patent, as the case may be, unless it appears upon the face of such certificate or patent that the same is absolutely void. Any person in possession, by himself or his tenant, of real property, and any private or municipal corporation in possession by itself or its tenant of any real property, or when such real property is not in the actual possession of any one, any person or private or municipal corporation claiming title to any real property under a patent from the United States, or during his or its claim of title to such real property under a patent from the United States for such real estate, may maintain a civil action against any person or persons, corporations or associations claiming an interest in said real property or any part thereof, or any right thereto adverse to him, them, or it, for the purpose of determining such claim, estate, or interest; and where several persons, or private or municipal corporations are in possession of, or claim as aforesaid, separate parcels of real property, and an adverse interest is claimed or claim made in or to any such parcels, by any other person, persons, corporations or associations, arising out of a question, conveyance, statute, grant, or other matter common to all such parcels of real estate, all or any portion of such persons or corporations so in possession, or claiming such parcel of real property may unite as plaintiffs in such suit to determine such adverse claim or interest against all persons, corporations or associations claiming such adverse interest.

SEC. 552. When several persons hold and are in possession of real property as tenants in common, in which one or more of them have an estate of inheritance, or for life or years, an action may be maintained by one or more of such persons, for a partition thereof, according to the respective rights of the persons interested therein, and for sale of such property, or a part of it, if it appear that a partition cannot be made without great prejudice to the owners.

SEC. 553. The interest of all persons in the property shall be set forth in the complaint specifically and particularly as far as known to the plaintiff, and if one or more of the parties, or the share or quantity of interest of any of the parties be unknown to the plaintiff, or be uncertain or contingent, or the ownership of the inheritance depend upon an executory devise, or the remainder be a contingent remainder, so that such parties cannot be named, that fact shall be set forth in the complaint.

SEC. 554. The plaintiff may, at his option, make creditors having a lien upon the property or any portion thereof, other than by a judgment or decree, defendants in the suit. When the lien is upon an undivided interest or estate of any of the parties, such lien, if a partition be made, is thenceforth a lien only on the share assigned to such party; but such share shall be first charged with its just proportion of the costs of the partition, in preference to such lien.

SEC. 555. The notice shall be directed by name to all the tenants in common, who are known, and in the same manner to all lien creditors who are made parties to the suit, and generally to all persons unknown, having or claiming an interest or estate in the property.

SEC. 556. If a party, having a share or interest in, or lien upon the property, be unknown, or either of the known parties reside out of the territory or cannot be found therein, and such fact be made to appear by affidavit, the notice may be served by publication, as in ordinary cases. When service is made by publication, the notice must contain a brief description of the property which is the subject of the suit.

SEC. 557. The defendant shall set forth in his answer, the nature, and extent of his interest in the property, and if he be a lien creditor, how such lien was created, the amount of the debt secured thereby and remaining due, and whether such debt is secured in any other way, and if so, the nature of such other security.

SEC. 558. The rights of the several parties, plaintiffs as well as defendants, may be put in issue, tried and determined in such suit, and where a defendant fails to answer, or where a sale of the property is necessary, the title shall be ascertained by proof to the satisfaction of the court, before the decree for partition or sale is given.

SEC. 559. If it be alleged in the complaint and established by evidence, or if it appear by the evidence without such allegation in the complaint, to the satisfaction of the court, that the property or any part of it, is so situated that partition cannot be made without great prejudice to the owners, the court may order a sale thereof, and for that purpose may appoint one or more referees. Otherwise, upon the requisite proofs being made, it shall decree a partition according to the respective rights of the parties as ascertained by the court, and appoint three referees, therefor, and shall designate the portion to remain undivided for the owners whose interests remain unknown or are not ascertained.

SEC. 560. In making the partition, the referees shall divide the property, and allot the several portions thereof to the respective parties, quality and quantity relatively considered, according to the respective rights of the parties as determined by the court, designating the several portions by proper landmarks, and may employ a surveyor with the necessary assistants to aid them therein. The referees shall make a report of their proceedings, specifying therein the manner of executing their trust, describing the property divided and the shares allotted to each party, with a particular description of each share.

SEC. 561. The court may confirm or set aside the report in whole or in part, and if necessary, appoint new referees. Upon the report being confirmed a decree shall be entered that such partition be effectual forever, which decree shall be binding and conclusive:

1. On all parties named therein, and their legal representatives who have at the time any interest in the property divided, or any part thereof as owners in fee, or as tenants for life or for years, or as entitled to the reversion, remainder or inheritance of such property or any part thereof, after the termination of a particular estate therein, or who by any contingency may be entitled to a beneficial interest in the property, or who have an interest in any undivided share thereof, as tenants for years or for life.

2. On all persons interested in the property to whom notice shall have been given by publication.

3. On all other persons claiming from or through such parties or persons or either of them.

SEC. 562. Such decree and partition shall not affect any tenants for years or for life, of the whole of the property which is the subject of partition, nor shall such decree and partition preclude any persons, except such as are specified in the last section, from claiming title to the property in question, or from controverting the title of the parties between whom the partition shall have been made.

SEC. 563. The expenses of the referees, including those of a surveyor and his assistants, when employed, shall be ascertained and allowed by the court, and the amount thereof, together with the fees allowed by law to the referees, shall be paid by the plaintiff and may be allowed as costs.

SEC. 564. If the referees report to the court that the property, of which partition shall have been decreed, or any separate portion thereof is so situated that a partition thereof cannot be made without great prejudice to the owners, and the court is satisfied that such report is correct, it may thereupon by an order direct the referees to sell the property or separate portion thereof.

SEC. 565. When a part of the property only is ordered to be sold, if there be an estate for life or years in an undivided share of the property, the whole of such estate may be set off in any part of the property not ordered sold.

§ SEC. 566. Before making an order of sale, if lien creditors, other than those by judgment or decree, have not been made parties, the court, on motion of either party, shall order the plaintiff to file a supplemental complaint, making such creditors defendants.

SEC. 567. If an order of sale be made before the distribution of the proceeds thereof, the plaintiff shall produce to the court the certificate of the auditor of the county where the property is situated, showing the liens remaining unsatisfied, if any, by judgment or decree upon the property or any portion thereof, and unless he do so the court shall order a referee to ascertain them.

SEC. 568. If it appear by such certificate or reference, in case the certificate is not produced, that any such liens exist, the court shall appoint a referee to ascertain what amount remains due thereon or secured thereby respectively, and the order of priority in which they are entitled to be paid out of the property.

SEC. 569. The plaintiff must cause a notice to be served at least twenty days before the time for appearance on each person having such lien by judgment or decree, to appear before the referee at a specified time and place to make proof by his own affidavit or otherwise, of the true amount due or to become due, contingently or absolutely on his judgment or decree.

SEC. 570. The referee shall receive the evidence and report the names of the creditors whose liens are established, the amounts due thereon, or secured thereby, and their priority respectively, and whether contingent or absolute. He shall attach to his report the proof of service of the notices and the evidence before him.

SEC. 571. The report of the referee may be excepted to by either party to the suit, or to the proceedings before the referee, in like manner and with like effect as in ordinary cases. If a lien creditor be absent from the territory, or his residence therein be unknown, and that fact appear by affidavit, the court or judge thereof may by order direct that service of the notice may be made upon his agent or attorney of record, or by publication thereof, for such time and in such manner as the order may prescribe.

SEC. 572. If the report of the referee be confirmed, the order of confirmation is binding and conclusive upon all parties to the suit, and upon the lien creditors who have been duly served with the notice to appear before the referee, as provided in section 569.

SEC. 573. The proceeds of the sale of the encumbered property shall be distributed by the decree of the court, as follows:

1. To pay its just proportion of the general costs of the suit.
2. To pay the costs of the reference.
3. To satisfy the several liens in their order of priority, by payment of the sums due, and to become due, according to the decree.
4. The residue among the owners of the property sold, according to their respective shares.

SEC. 574. Whenever any party to the suit, who holds a lien upon the property or any part thereof, has other securities for the payment of the amount of such lien, the court may in its discretion, order such securities to be exhausted before a distribution of the proceeds of sale, or may order a just deduction to be made from the amount of the lien on the property on account thereof.

SEC. 575. The proceedings to ascertain the amount of the liens, and to determine their priority as above provided, or those hereinafter authorized to determine the rights of parties to funds paid into court, shall not delay the sale, nor affect any other party, whose rights are not involved in such proceedings.

SEC. 576. The proceeds of sale, and the securities taken by the referees, or any part thereof, shall be distributed by them to the persons entitled thereto, whenever the court so directs. But if no such direction be given, all such proceeds and securities shall be paid into court, or deposited as directed by the court.

SEC. 577. When the proceeds of sale of any shares or parcel belonging to persons who are parties to the suit and who are known, are paid into court, the suit may be continued as between such parties, for the determination of their respective claims thereto, which shall be ascertained and adjudged by the court. Further testimony may be taken in court, or by a referee at the discretion of the court, and the court may, if necessary, require such parties to present the facts or law in controversy, by pleadings as in an original suit.

SEC. 578. All sales of real property made by the referees shall be made by public auction, to the highest bidder, in the manner required for the sale of real property on execution. The notice shall state the terms of sale, and if the property, or any part of it is to be sold, subject to a prior estate, charge or lien, that shall be stated in the notice.

SEC. 579. The court shall, in the order of sale, direct the terms of credit which may be allowed for the purchase money of any portion of the premises, of which it may direct a sale on credit; and for that portion of which the purchase money is required by the provisions hereinafter contained, to be invested for the benefit of unknown owners, infants or parties out of the territory.

SEC. 580. The referees may take separate mortgages, and other securities for the whole, or convenient portions of the purchase money, of such parts of the property as are directed by the court to be sold on credit, in the name of the clerk of the court, and his successors in office; and for the shares of any known owner of full age, in the name of such owner.

SEC. 581. When the estate of any tenant for life or years, in any undivided part of the property in question, shall have been admitted by the parties, or ascertained by the court to be existing at the time of the order of sale, and the person entitled to such estate shall have been made a party to the suit, such estate may be first set off out of any part of the property, and a sale made of such parcel, subject to the prior unsold estate of such tenant therein; but if in the judgment of the court, a due regard to the interest of all the parties require that such estate be also sold, the sale may be so ordered.

SEC. 582. Any person entitled to an estate for life or years in any undivided part of the property, whose estate shall have been sold, shall be entitled to receive such sum in gross as may be deemed a reasonable satisfaction for such estate, and which the person so entitled shall consent to accept instead thereof, by an instrument duly acknowledged and filed with the clerk.

SEC. 583. If such consent be not given, as provided in the last section, before the report of sale, the court shall ascertain and determine what proportion of the proceeds of the sale, after deducting expenses, will be a just and reasonable sum to be invested for the benefit of the person entitled to such estate for life, or years, and shall order the same to be deposited in court for that purpose.

SEC. 584. If the persons entitled to such estate, for life or years, be unknown, the court shall provide for the protection of their rights in the same manner, as far as may be, as if they were known and had appeared.

SEC. 585. In all cases of sales in partition, when it appears that any person has a vested or contingent future right or estate therein, the court shall ascertain and settle the proportionate value of such contingent or vested right or estate, and shall direct such proportion of the proceeds of sale to be invested, secured or paid over in such manner as to protect the rights and interests of the parties.

SEC. 586. In all cases of sales of property the terms shall be made known at the time, and if the premises consist of distinct farms or lots, they shall be sold separately or otherwise, if the court so directs.

SEC. 587. Neither of the referees, nor any person for the benefit of either of them, shall be interested in any purchase, nor shall the guardian of an infant be an interested party in the purchase of any real property being the subject of the suit, except for the benefit of the infant. All sales contrary to the provisions of this section shall be void.

SEC. 588. After completing the sale, the referees shall report the same to the court, with a description of the different parcels of land sold to each purchaser, the name of the purchaser, the price paid or secured, the terms and conditions of the sale, and the securities, if any, taken. The report shall be filed with the clerk.

SEC. 589. The report of sale may be excepted to in writing by any party entitled to a share of the proceeds. If the sale be confirmed, the order of confirmation shall direct the referees to execute conveyances and take securities pursuant to such sale.

SEC. 590. When a party entitled to a share of the property, or an encumbrancer entitled to have his lien paid out of the sale, becomes a purchaser, the referees may take his receipt for so much of the proceeds of the sale as belong to him.

SEC. 591. When there are proceeds of sale belonging to an unknown owner, or to a person without the territory who has no legal representative within it, or when there are proceeds arising from the sale of an estate subject to the prior estate of a tenant for life or years, which are paid into the court or otherwise deposited by order of the court, the same shall be invested in securities on interest for the benefit of the persons entitled thereto.

SEC. 592. When the security for the proceeds of sale is taken, or when an investment of any such proceeds is made, it shall be done, except as herein otherwise provided, in the name of the clerk of the court and his successors in office, who shall hold the same for the use and benefit of the parties interested, subject to the order of the court.

SEC. 593. When security is taken by the referees on a sale, and the parties interested in such security by an instrument in writing under their hands, delivered to the referees, agree upon the share and proportions to which they are respectively entitled, or when shares and proportions have been previously adjudged by the court, such securities shall be taken in the names of and payable to the parties respectively entitled thereto, and shall be delivered to such parties upon their receipt therefor. Such agreement and receipt shall be returned and filed with the clerk.

SEC. 594. The clerk in whose name a security is taken, or by whom an investment is made, and his successors in office, shall receive the interest and principal as it becomes due, and apply and invest the same as the court may direct, and shall file in his office all securities taken and keep an account in a book provided and kept for that purpose in the clerk's office, free for inspection by all persons, of investments and moneys received by him thereon, and the disposition thereof.

SEC. 595. When it appears that partition cannot be made equal between the parties according to their respective rights, without prejudice to the rights and interests of some of them, the court may adjudge compensation to be made by one party to another on account of the inequality of partition; but such compensation shall not be required to be made to others by owners unknown, nor by infants, unless in case of an infant it appear that he has personal property sufficient for that purpose, and that his interest will be promoted thereby.

SEC. 596. When the share of an infant is sold, the proceeds of the sale may be paid by the referees making the sale, to his general guardian, or the special guardian appointed for him in the suit, upon giving the security required by law, or directed by order of the court.

SEC. 597. The guardian who may be entitled to the custody and management of the estate of an insane person, or other person adjudged incapable of conducting his own affairs, whose interest in real property shall have been sold, may receive in behalf of such person his share of the proceeds of such real property from the referees, on executing a bond with sufficient sureties, approved by the judge of the court, conditioned that he faithfully discharge the trust reposed in him, and will render a true and just account to the person entitled, or to his legal representative.

Sec. 598. The general guardian of an infant, and the guardian entitled to the custody and management of the estate of an insane person, or other person adjudged incapable of conducting his own affairs, who is interested in real estate held in common or in any other manner, so as to authorize his being made a party to an action for the partition thereof, may consent to a partition without suit and agree upon the share to be set off to such infant or other person entitled, and may execute a release in his behalf to the owners of the shares or parts to which they may respectively be entitled, and upon an order of the court.

Sec. 599. The costs of partition, including fees of referees and other disbursements, shall be paid by the parties respectively entitled to share in the lands divided, in proportion to their respective interests therein, and may be included and specified in the decree. In that case there shall be a lien on the several shares, and the decree may be enforced by execution against the parties separately. When, however, a litigation arises between some of the parties only, the court may require the expense of such litigation to be paid by the parties thereto, or any of them.

CHAPTER XLIX.

OF WASTE AND TRESPASS.

SECTION	SECTION
600. Wrongs heretofore remediable by action of waste, actionable as other wrongs.	603. If trespass casual or involuntary, judgment.
601. Action for waste and judgment therein.	604. Of injunction to restrain waste.
602. Action for trespass in particular cases and

Sec. 600. Wrongs heretofore remediable by action of waste shall be subjects of actions as other wrongs.

Sec. 601. If a guardian, tenant in severalty, or in common, for life or for years, of real property, commit waste thereon, any person injured thereby may maintain an action at law for damages therefor against such guardian or tenant; in which action there may be judgment for treble damages, forfeiture of the estate of the party committing or permitting the waste, and of eviction from the property. But judgment of forfeiture and eviction shall only be given in favor of the person entitled to the reversion against the tenant in possession, when the injury to the estate in reversion is determined in the action, to be equal to the value of the tenant's estate or unexpired term, or to have been done or suffered in malice.

Sec. 602. Whenever any person shall cut down, girdle or otherwise injure, or carry off any tree, timber or shrub on the land of another person, or on the street or highway in front of any person's house, village, town or city lot, or cultivated grounds, or on the commons or public grounds of any village, town or city, or on the street or highway in front thereof, without lawful authority, in an action by such person, village, town or city against the person committing such trespasses or any of them, if judgment be given for the plaintiff, it shall be given for treble the amount of damages claimed or assessed therefor, as the case may be.

Sec. 603. If upon trial of such action it shall appear that the trespass was casual or involuntary, or that the defendant had probable cause to believe that the land on which such trespass was committed was his own, or that of the person in whose service or by whose direction the act was done, or that such tree or timber was taken from uninclosed woodlands, for the purpose of repairing any public highway or bridge upon the land or adjoining it, judgment shall only be given for single damages.

SEC. 604. When any two or more persons are opposing claimants under the laws of the United States to any land in this territory, and one is threatening to commit upon such land waste which tends materially to lessen the value of the inheritance and which cannot be compensated by damages and there is imminent danger that unless restrained such waste will be committed, the party, on filing his complaint and satisfying the court or judge of the existence of the facts, may have an injunction to restrain the adverse party. In all cases he shall give notice and bond as is provided in other cases where injunction is granted, and the injunction when granted shall be set aside or modified as is provided generally for injunction and restraining orders.

CHAPTER L.

NUISANCE.

SECTION

605. Nuisance defined; is actionable.
606. Who may bring action; abatement of.

SECTION

607. Warrant for abatement.
608. Stay of warrant by giving bond.

SEC. 605. The obstruction of any highway or the closing of the channel of any stream used for boating or rafting logs, lumber or timber, or whatever is injurious to health or indecent or offensive to the senses, or an obstruction to the free use of property, so as to essentially interfere with the comfortable enjoyment of the life and property, is a nuisance, and the subject of an action for damages and other and further relief.

SEC. 606. Such action may be brought by any person whose property is injuriously affected or whose personal enjoyment is lessened by the nuisance. If judgment be given for the plaintiff in such action, he may in addition to the execution to enforce the same, on motion, have an order allowing a warrant to issue to the sheriff to abate such nuisance. Such motion must be made at the term at which judgment is given, and shall be allowed of course, unless it appear on the hearing that the nuisance has ceased or that such remedy is inadequate to abate or prevent the continuance of the nuisance, in which latter case the plaintiff may have the defendant enjoined.

SEC. 607. If the order be made, the clerk shall thereafter, at anytime within six months, when requested by the plaintiff, issue such warrant directed to the sheriff, requiring him forthwith to abate the nuisance at the expense of the defendant, and return the warrant as soon thereafter as may be, with his proceedings endorsed thereon. The expenses of abating the nuisance may be levied by the sheriff on the property of the defendant, and in this respect the warrant is to be deemed an execution against property.

SEC. 608. At any time before the order is made or the warrant issues, the defendant may, on motion to the court or judge thereof, have an order to stay the issue of such warrant for such period as may be necessary, not exceeding six months, to allow the defendant to abate the nuisance himself, upon his giving bond to the plaintiff in a sufficient amount with one or more sureties, to the satisfaction of the court or judge thereof, that he will abate it within the time and in the manner specified in such order. The sureties shall justify as bail upon arrest. If the defendant fails to abate such nuisance within the time specified, the warrant for the abatement of the nuisance may issue as if the same had not been stayed.

CHAPTER LI.

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

SECTION	SECTION
609. Mortgage may be foreclosed, when and in what court.	617. When property cannot be sold in parcels, proceedings to be had.

SEC. 609. When default is made in the performance of any condition contained in a mortgage, the mortgagee or his assigns may proceed in the district court of the district or county where the land, or some part thereof, lies, to foreclose the equity of redemption contained in the mortgage.

SEC. 610. When there is no express agreement in the mortgage nor any separate instrument given for the payment of the sum secured thereby, the remedy of the mortgagee shall be confined to the property mortgaged.

SEC. 611. In rendering judgment of foreclosure the court shall order the mortgaged premises, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to be sold to satisfy the mortgage and costs of the action. The payment of the mortgage debt, with interest and costs at any time before sale, shall satisfy the judgment.

SEC. 612. When there is an express agreement for the payment of the sum of money secured contained in the mortgage or any separate instrument, the court shall direct in the decree of foreclosure that the balance due on the mortgage, and costs which may remain unsatisfied after the sale of the mortgaged premises, shall be satisfied from any property of the mortgage debtor.

SEC. 613. The decree may be enforced by execution, as an ordinary decree for the payment of money. The execution shall contain a description of the mortgaged property. The sheriff shall endorse upon the execution the time when he receives it, and he shall thereupon forthwith proceed to sell the mortgaged premises, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the judgment, interests, and costs, upon giving the notice prescribed in section 359, relating to sales of property under execution. And if any part of the judgment, interest and costs, remain unsatisfied, the sheriff shall forthwith proceed to levy upon any property of the defendant, not exempt from execution, and all subsequent proceedings under said execution shall conform, except as herein provided, to the provisions regulating sales of property upon executions.

SEC. 614. The plaintiff shall not proceed to foreclose his mortgage while he is prosecuting any other action for the same debt or matter which is secured by the mortgage, or while he is seeking to obtain execution of any judgment in such other action; nor shall he prosecute any other action for the same matter while he is foreclosing his mortgage or prosecuting a judgment of foreclosure.

SEC. 615. Whenever a complaint is filed for the foreclosure of a mortgage upon which there shall be due any interest or installment of the principal, and there are other installments not due, if the defendant pay into the court the principal and interest due, with costs, at any time before the final judgment, proceedings thereon shall be stayed, subject to be enforced upon a subsequent default in the payment of any installment of the principal or interest thereafter becoming due. In the final judgment, the court shall direct at what time and upon what default any subsequent execution shall issue.

SEC. 616. In such cases, after final judgment, the court shall ascertain whether the property can be sold in parcels, and if it can be done without injury to the interests of the parties, the court shall direct so much only of the premises to be sold, as will be sufficient to pay the amount then due on the mortgage with costs, and the judgment shall remain and be enforced upon any subsequent default, unless the amount due shall be paid before execution of the judgment is perfected.

SEC. 617. If the mortgaged premises cannot be sold in parcels, the court shall order the whole to be sold, and the proceeds of the sale shall be applied first to the payment of the principal due, interest and costs, and then to the residue secured by the mortgage and not due; and if the residue do not bear interest, a deduction shall be made therefrom by discounting the legal interest; and in all cases where the proceeds of the sale shall be more than sufficient to pay the amount due and costs; the surplus shall be paid to the mortgage debtor, his heirs and assigns.

SEC. 618. The provisions herein contained, so far as the same shall be applicable, shall govern in actions for the foreclosure of chattel mortgages or bills of sale creating liens on personal property.

SEC. 619. The mortgagee or holder of the lien may proceed upon his mortgage or lien, if there be a separate obligation in writing to pay the same, secured by said mortgage or lien, he may bring suit upon such separate promise. When he proceeds on the mortgage, if there be a specific agreement therein contained for the payment of a certain sum, or there is a separate obligation for the said sum, in addition to a decree of sale of mortgaged property, judgment shall be rendered for the amount due upon said mortgage or other instrument, the payment of which is thereby secured. The decree shall direct the sale of the mortgaged property, and if the proceeds of said sale be insufficient under the execution, the sheriff is authorized to levy upon and sell other property of the mortgage debtor, not exempt from execution, for the sum remaining unsatisfied.

SEC. 620. In all actions of foreclosure where there is a decree for the sale of the mortgaged premises or property, and a judgment over for any deficiency remaining unsatisfied after applying the proceeds of the sale of mortgaged property, further levy and sales upon other property of the judgment debtor may be made under the same execution. In such sales it shall only be necessary to advertise notice for two weeks in a newspaper published in the district or county where the said property is located, and if there be no newspaper published therein, then in the most convenient newspaper having a circulation in such county.

SEC. 621. When sales of other property not embraced in the mortgage or decree of sale are made under the execution to satisfy any deficiency remaining due upon judgment, two weeks' publication of notice of such sale shall be sufficient. Such notice shall be published in a newspaper printed in the district or county where the property is situated, and if there be no newspaper published therein, then in the most convenient newspaper having a circulation in said district or county.

SEC. 622. Judgments over for any deficiency remaining unsatisfied after application of the proceeds of sale of mortgaged property, either real or personal, shall be similar in all respects to other judgments for the recovery of money, and may be made a lien upon the property of a judgment debtor as other judgments, and the collections thereof enforced in the same manner.

SEC. 624. On filing and presentation of a petition of any person claiming to be entitled to such conveyance under such contract, setting forth the facts upon which such claim is predicated, the district court or the judge thereof, shall make an order appointing a time and place for hearing such petition, which shall be at some day of a regular term of said district court and shall also order notice of the pendency thereof and the time and place of the hearing, to be published four successive weeks next before such hearing, in such newspaper in the territory as the court shall designate.

SEC. 625. At the time and place appointed for such hearing or at such other time as the same may be adjourned to, upon proof by affidavit of the publication of the notice, the court shall proceed to a hearing, and all persons interested as creditors, heirs, devisees or personal representatives, may appear and resist such petition, by filing their objections in writing, and the court may examine on oath the petitioners, and all witnesses who may be produced on the hearing by any interested party for that purpose.

SEC. 626. After a full hearing upon such petition and objections, of the facts and circumstances of the claim, if the court is satisfied that the petitioner is entitled in equity to a conveyance of the real estate described in the petition, or any part thereof, or any interest therein, the court shall make a decree authorizing and directing the execution and delivery of a conveyance to the petitioner.

SEC. 627. Such conveyance shall be executed by the executor or administrator of the estate of the deceased, if the deceased was a resident of or had his place of abode at the time of his death in this territory, or if he died therein; but in such case no decree for conveyance shall be made, unless the executor or administrator shall have been personally served with a copy of the said petition and the notice provided for in section 624 for at least two weeks prior to the time appointed for the hearing.

SEC. 628. If the deceased died out of the territory and not having been a resident thereof at the time of his death, such conveyance shall be executed by a commissioner to be appointed by the court in the decree, for that purpose, but in such case in addition to the notice provided for in section 624, it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court at the hearing, that the executor, or administrator of such deceased duly appointed in another state, territory or country, or his heirs or devisees shall have had reasonable notice personally of the pendency of said petition, and of the time and place appointed for such hearing. And such foreign executor or administrator shall have the same right at the hearing, or on appeal, to file objections and resist the claim of the petitioners, as an executor or administrator appointed under the laws of the territory would have; and it shall not be necessary in such case that an administration of the estate of the deceased be had in the territory, to authorize the decree of conveyance prayed for, if the district court upon the hearing shall so find.

SEC. 629. A conveyance executed under the provisions of this chapter shall so refer to the decree authorizing the conveyance that the same may be readily found, but need not recite the record in the case generally, and the conveyance made in pursuance of a decree shall pass to the grantees all the estate, right, title and interest contracted to be conveyed by the deceased, as fully as if the contracting party himself were still living and executed the conveyance in pursuance of such contract.

SEC. 630. Any party interested may, within six months from the rendition of the decree, appeal therefrom to the supreme court, in the same manner as appeals are taken and prosecuted from final decrees or judgments in equity causes; but if no appeal be taken from such decree, within the time limited therefor, or if such decree be affirmed on appeal, it shall be the duty of the executor, administrator or commissioner to execute and deliver the conveyance according to the directions contained in the decree; and a certified copy thereof shall be recorded with the deed in the office of the auditor of the county where the lands lie, and shall be conclusive evidence of the correctness of the proceedings and of the authority of the executor, administrator or commissioner to make such conveyance.

SEC. 631. A copy of the decree for the conveyance made by the district court and duly certified and recorded in the office of the auditor of the county wherein the land is situate, shall give to the person entitled to the conveyance a right to the immediate possession of the land contracted for and of holding the same according to the terms of the intended conveyance, in like manner and with like effect, as if they had been conveyed in pursuance of the decree.

SEC. 632. If the person to whom the conveyance was to be made shall die before the commencement of the proceedings according to the provisions of this chapter, or before the completion of the conveyance, any person who would have been entitled to the conveyance under him, as heir, devisee or otherwise, in case the conveyance had been made according to the terms of the contract, or the executor or administrator of such deceased person, for the benefit of persons entitled, may commence such proceedings or prosecute the same if already commenced; and the conveyance shall be so made as to vest the estate in the same persons, who would have been entitled to it, or in the execution or administration for their benefit.

SEC. 633. The testimony of witnesses in support of the claim of the petitioner may be taken by deposition before any officer authorized to administer oaths, whenever the deposition of such witnesses might be taken to be used in the trial of a civil action in the district court. But notice of the particular time and place of taking such deposition shall be published by the petitioner, in the paper required to be designated by section 624, for three successive weeks prior to taking the same, which notice shall also state the name of the officer before whom the deposition is to be taken, and the name of the witnesses whose testimony is proposed to be taken, at such time and place. Any party interested in the estate may appear and cross-interrogate such witnesses, and the manner of examination and the form of such deposition shall be in conformity with the chapter regulating depositions of witnesses residing in the territory, although such witnesses may not reside therein.

SEC. 634. Any party interested in the estate and resisting the claim of the petitioner, may, after filing his objections, take the testimony of witnesses in his behalf in like manner, and as in an affidavit for continuance in civil actions upon good cause shown and for that purpose the court may postpone the final hearing of such petition until the testimony can be taken.

SEC. 637. Upon such affidavit being filed, the clerk shall issue an order of arrest and bail, directed to the sheriff, which shall be issued, served and returned, in all respects as such orders in other cases; before such order shall issue, the plaintiff shall file in the office of the clerk a bond with sufficient surety to be approved by the clerk, conditioned that the plaintiff will pay the defendant such damages and costs as he shall wrongfully sustain by the occasion of the suit, which sureties shall justify as bail upon an arrest.

SEC. 638. The sheriff shall require the defendant to enter into a recognizance of special bail, with sufficient surety, personally to appear on the first day of the court at its next term, and abide the order of the court, and in default thereof the defendant shall be committed to prison until discharged in due course of law; such special bail shall be liable for the principal and shall have a right to arrest and deliver him up, as in other cases, and the defendant may give other bail.

SEC. 639. Instead of giving special bail, as above provided, the defendant shall be entitled to his discharge from custody if he will secure the performance of the contract to the satisfaction of the plaintiff.

SEC. 645. If the creditor or obligee shall not proceed within a reasonable time to bring his action upon such contract, and prosecute the same to judgment and execution, the surety shall be discharged from all liability thereon.

SEC. 646. SEC. 647. If the finding upon such issue be in favor of the surety, the court shall make an order directing the sheriff to levy the execution upon, and first exhaust the property of the principal before a levy shall be made upon the property of the surety, and the clerk shall indorse a memorandum of the order upon the execution.

SEC. 648. When any defendant, surety in a judgment or special bail or replevin or surety in a delivery bond or replevin bond, or any person being surety in any bond whatever, has been or shall be compelled to pay any judgment or any part thereof, or shall make any payment which is applied upon such judgment by reason of such suretyship, or when any sheriff or other officer or other surety upon his official bond shall be compelled to pay any judgment or any part thereof by reason of any default of such officer, except for failing to pay over money collected, or for wasting property levied upon, the judgment shall not be discharged by such payment, but shall remain in force for the use of the bail, surety, officer or other person making such payment, and after the plaintiff is paid, so much of the judgment as remains unsatisfied may be prosecuted to execution for his use.

SEC. 649. Any one of several judgment defendants, and any one of several replevin bail having paid and satisfied the plaintiff, shall have the remedy provided in the last section against the co-defendants and co-sureties to collect of them the rateable proportion each is equitably bound to pay.

SEC. 650. SEC. 653. When a public officer by official misconduct or neglect of duty, shall forfeit his official bond or render his sureties therein liable upon such bond, any person injured by such misconduct or neglect, or who is by law entitled to the benefit of the security, may maintain an action at law thereon in his own name against the officer and his sureties to recover the amount to which he may by reason thereof be entitled.

SEC. 654. Before an action can be commenced by a plaintiff, other than the territory, or the municipal or public corporation named in the bond, leave shall be obtained of the court or judge thereof where the action is triable. Such leave shall be granted upon the production of a certified copy of the bond and an affidavit of the plaintiff, or some person in his behalf, showing the delinquency. But if the matter set forth in his affidavit be such that, if true, the party applying would clearly not be entitled to recover in the action, the leave shall not be granted. If it does not appear from the complaint that the leave herein provided for has been granted, the defendant, on motion, shall be entitled to judgment of non-suit; if it does, the defendant may controvert the allegation, and if the issue be found in his favor, judgment shall be given accordingly.

A recovery of a judgment for a penalty or forfeiture by collusion between the plaintiff and defendant, with intent to save the defendant wholly or partially from the consequences contemplated by law, in case when the penalty or forfeiture is given wholly or partly to the person who prosecutes, shall not bar the recovery of the same by another person.

SEC. 660. Fines and forfeitures not specially granted or otherwise appropriated by law, when recovered, shall be paid into the school fund of the proper county. Whenever, by the provisions of law, any property real or personal shall be forfeited to the territory, or to any officer for its use, the action for the recovery of such property may be commenced in Disobedience by an inferior tribunal, magistrate or officer, of the lawful judgment, decree, order or process of a superior court, or proceeding in an action, suit or proceeding, contrary to law, after such action, suit or proceeding shall have been removed from the jurisdiction of such inferior tribunal, magistrate or officer.

Sec. 726. Every court of justice, and every judicial officer has power to punish contempt by fine or imprisonment, or both. But such fine shall not exceed three hundred dollars, nor the imprisonment six months; and when the contempt is not of those mentioned in sub-divisions one and two of the last section, it must appear that the right or remedy of a party to an action, suit or proceeding was defeated or prejudiced thereby, before the contempt can be punished otherwise than by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars.

SEC. 727. When a contempt is committed in the immediate view and presence of the court or officer, it may be punished summarily, for which an order must be made reciting the facts as occurring in such immediate view and presence, determining that the person proceeded against is thereby guilty of contempt, and that he be punished as therein prescribed.

SEC. 728. In cases other than those mentioned in the preceding section, before any proceedings can be taken therein, the facts constituting the contempt must be shown by an affidavit presented to the court or judicial officer, and thereupon such court or officer may either make an order upon the person charged to show cause why he should not be arrested to answer, or issue a warrant of arrest to bring such person to answer in the first instance.

SEC. 729. If the party charged be in custody of an officer by virtue of a legal order or process, civil or criminal, except upon a sentence for a felony, an order may be made for the production of such person by the officer having him in custody that he may answer, and he shall thereupon be produced and held until an order be made for his disposal.

In all cases of public interest, the proceeding may be prosecuted by the district attorney on behalf of the territory, and in all cases where the proceeding is commenced upon the relation of a private party, such party shall be deemed a co-plaintiff with the territory.

SEC. 731. Whenever a warrant of arrest is issued pursuant to this chapter, the court or judicial officer shall direct therein whether the person charged may be let to bail for his appearance upon the warrant, or detained in custody without bail, and if he may be bailed, the amount in which he may be let to bail. Upon executing the warrant of arrest, the sheriff must keep the person in actual custody, bring him before the court or judicial officer and detain him until an order be made in the premises, unless the person arrested execute and deliver to the sheriff, at any time before the return day of the warrant, a bond with two sufficient sureties, to the effect that he will appear on such return day and abide the order or judgment of the court or officer thereupon.

SEC. 732. The sheriff shall return the warrant of arrest and the bond, if any, given him by the defendant, by the return day therein specified. When the defendant has been brought up or appeared, the court or judicial officer shall proceed to investigate the charge by examining such defendant and witnesses for or against him, for which an adjournment may be had from time to time, if necessary.

SEC. 733. Upon the evidence so taken, the court or judicial officer shall determine whether or not the defendant is guilty of the contempt charged; and, if it be determined that he is so guilty, shall sentence him to be punished as provided in this chapter.

SEC. 734. If any loss or injury to a party in an action, suit or proceeding prejudicial to his rights therein, have been caused by the contempt, the court or judicial officer, in addition to the punishment imposed for the contempt, may give judgment that the party aggrieved recover of the defendant a sum of money sufficient to indemnify him, and to satisfy his costs and disbursements, which judgment, and the acceptance of the amount thereof, is a bar to any action, suit or proceeding by the aggrieved party for such loss or injury.

SEC. 735. When the contempt consists in the omission or refusal to perform an act which is yet in the power of the defendant to perform, he may be imprisoned until he shall have performed it, and in such case the act must be specified in the warrant of commitment.

SEC. 736. Persons proceeded against according to the provisions of this chapter, are also liable to indictment for the same misconduct, if it be an indictable offense, but the court before which a conviction is had on the indictment, in passing sentence shall take into consideration the punishment before inflicted.

SEC. 737. When the warrant of arrest has been returned served, if the defendant do not appear on the return day, the court or judicial officer may issue another warrant of arrest; or may order the bond to be prosecuted, or both. If the bond be prosecuted and the aggrieved party join in the action, and the sum specified therein be recovered, so much thereof as will compensate such party for the loss or injury sustained by reason of the misconduct for which the warrant was issued, shall be deemed to be recovered for such party exclusively.

SEC. 738. Either party to a judgment in a proceeding for a contempt, may appeal therefrom in like manner and with like effect as from judgment in an action, but such appeal shall not have the effect to stay the proceedings in any other action, suit or proceeding, or upon any judgment, decree or order therein, concerning which, or wherein such contempt was committed. Contempts of justices' courts are punishable in the manner specially provided for in the "act relating to justices of the peace and to their practice and jurisdiction" from justice, or any other person charged with felony or any other crime in this territory, and whenever an application shall be made to the governor for that purpose, the prosecuting attorney or any other prosecuting officer of the territory, when required by the governor, shall forthwith investigate the ground of such application and report to the governor all material circumstances which may come to his knowledge, with an abstract of the evidence and his opinion as to the expediency of the demand, but the governor may, in any case, appoint such agents without requiring the opinion of, or any report from the prosecuting attorney, and the accounts of the agents appointed for such purpose, shall in all cases be audited by the territorial auditor and paid from the territorial treasury.

SEC. 972. When a demand shall be made upon the governor of this territory by the executive of any state or territory, in any case authorized by the constitution and laws of the United States, for the delivery over of any person charged in such state or territory with treason, felony or any other crime, the prosecuting attorney or any other prosecuting officer, when required by the governor, shall forthwith investigate the ground of such demand, and report to the governor all material facts which may come to his knowledge as to the situation and circumstances of the person so demanded, especially as to whether he is held in custody or is under recognizance to answer for any offense against the laws of this territory or of the United States, or by force of any civil process, and also whether such demand is made according to law, so that such person ought to be delivered up; and if the governor be satisfied that such demand is conformable to law and ought to be complied with, he shall issue his warrant under the seal of the territory, authorizing the agents who make such demand, either forthwith or at such time as shall be designated by the warrant, to take and transport such person to the line of the territory at the expense of such agents, and shall also by such warrant require the civil officers within this territory to afford all needful assistance in the execution thereof.

SEC. 971. Whenever any person shall be found within this territory charged with an offense committed in any state or territory, and liable by the constitution and laws of the United States, to be delivered on the demand of the executive of such state or territory, any court or magistrate authorized to issue warrants in criminal cases, may, upon complaint under oath, setting forth the offense, and such other matters as are necessary to bring the offense within the provisions of law, issue a warrant to bring the person so charged before the same or some other court, or magistrate, so authorized within the territory, to answer such complaint as in other cases.

SEC. 974. If, upon the examination of the person charged, it shall appear to the court or magistrate, by proof in addition to the oath of the complainant, that there is reasonable cause to believe that the complaint is true, and that such person may be lawfully demanded of the governor, he shall, if not charged with a capital crime, be required to recognize with sufficient sureties, in a reasonable sum, to appear before such court or magistrate at a future day, allowing a reasonable time to obtain a warrant of the executive, and to abide the order of the court or magistrate, and if such person shall not so recognize, he shall be committed to prison and there be detained until such day, in like manner as if the offense charged had been committed in this territory; and if the person so recognizing shall fail to appear according to the conditions of his recognizance, he shall be defaulted, and the like proceedings shall be had as in the case of other recognizances entered into before such court or magistrate; but if such person be charged with a capital crime, he shall be committed to prison, and there be detained until the day so appointed for his appearance before the court or magistrate.

SEC. 975. If the person so recognized or committed shall appear before the court or magistrate upon the day ordered, he shall be discharged, unless he be demanded by some persons authorized by the warrant of the executive to receive him, or unless the court or magistrate shall see cause to commit him, or require of him to recognize anew for his appearance at some other day; and if, when ordered, he shall not so recognize, he shall be committed and be detained as before provided. Whenever the person so appearing shall be recognized, committed or discharged, any person authorized by the warrant of the executive may at all times take him into custody, and the same shall be a discharge of the recognizance, if any, and shall not be deemed an escape.

SEC. 976. The Complainant in such cases shall be answerable for the actual costs and charges, and for the support in prison of any person so committed, and shall advance to the jailor one week's board at the time of commitment, and so from week to week, so long as such person shall remain in jail; and if he fails to do so, the jailor may forthwith discharge the person from his custody.

SEC. 978. Challenges to individual grand jurors may be made by such person for reason of want of qualification to sit as such juror; and when, in the opinion of the court, a state of mind exists in the juror, such as would render him unable to act impartially and without prejudice.

SEC. 979. If a challenge to the panel be allowed, the panel shall be discharged, and the court may order the sheriff to summon from the bystanders and the body of the county a sufficient number of persons to act as grand jurors at such term of the court.

SEC. 980. If a challenge to an individual juror be allowed, he shall be discharged and the panel filled.

SEC. 981. The following oath shall be administered to the grand jury: "You, as grand jurors for the body of the (district or county, as the

SEC. 986. If a member of a grand jury knows, or has reason to believe, that a public offense, triable within the county, has been committed, he must declare the same to his fellow jurors, who may thereupon investigate the same, if a majority so order.

SEC. 987. No complainant who may institute a prosecution shall be competent to be present at the deliberations of a grand jury, or vote for the finding of an indictment.

SEC. 991. No grand jury shall disclose the fact that an indictment for a felony has been found against any person not in custody or under recognizance, until such person has been arrested.

SEC. 992. No grand jury shall be allowed to state or to testify in any court in what manner he or any member of the jury, voted on any question before them, or what opinion was expressed by any juror in relation to such question, or what question was before them; and in charging the grand jury the court shall remind them of the provisions of this and the preceding sections.

SEC. 993. Whenever the grand jury shall have been dismissed at any term of the court for which they shall have been impaneled, before the final adjournment, they may be summoned to attend, again at the same term, if necessary; and if a full jury do not attend, the number may be completed from the bystanders.

FINDING AND PRESENTATION OF THE INDICTMENT.

SECTION

994. Cannot be found without twelve concur.

995. Witnesses names must be endorsed on.

996. When found at instance of private prosecutor, indictment must so state.

997. How presented and filed.

SECTION

998. No juror must disclose facts concerning.

999. Jury must destroy papers, when.

1000. If no bill is found, charge is dismissed.

1001. Presentment, requisites of.

SEC. 994. An indictment cannot be found without the concurrence of at least twelve grand jurors, and when so found, it must be endorsed "a true bill" and such endorsement signed by the foreman of the jury.

SEC. 995. When an indictment is found, the names of the witnesses examined before the grand jury must be inserted at the foot of the indictment, or endorsed thereon, before it is presented to the court, and the clerk of the court must, within one day after demand made, furnish the defendant or his counsel a copy thereof without charge, or permit the defendant's counsel, or the clerk of such counsel, to take a copy.

SEC. 996. When an indictment is found at the instance of a private prosecutor, the following must be added to the endorsement required by the preceding section, "found at the instance of," (here state the name of the person,) and in such case, if the prosecution fails, the court trying the cause may award costs against the private prosecutor, if satisfied, from all circumstances, that the prosecution was malicious or without probable cause.

SEC. 997. An indictment, when found by the grand jury, must be presented by their foreman, in their presence, to the court, and filed by the clerk, and remain in his office as a public record; but if the defendant has not been held to answer the charge, neither the indictment or any order or process in relation thereto, must be inspected by any person other than the judge of the court or an officer thereof in the discharge of a duty concerning the same, until after the arrest of the defendant.

SEC. 998. No grand juror or officer of the court must disclose any fact concerning such indictment while it is not subject to public inspection; and a violation of this section or the foregoing section is punishable as a contempt.

SEC. 999. When a person has been held to answer a criminal charge, and the indictment in relation thereto is not found "a true bill," it must be endorsed "not a true bill", which endorsement must be signed by the foreman, and presented to the court and filed with the clerk, and remain a public record; but in the case of an indictment not found "a true bill," against a person not so held, the same, together with the minutes of the evidence in relation thereto, must be destroyed by the grand jury.

SEC. 1000. When an indictment, endorsed "not a true bill," has been presented in court and filed, the effect thereof is to dismiss the charge; and the same cannot be again submitted to or inquired of by the grand jury, unless the court so order.

SEC. 1001. A presentment is made to the court, by the foreman, in the presence of the grand jury, and with the concurrence of twelve of their number; but being a mere informal statement of facts, for the purpose of obtaining the advice of the court as to the law arising thereon, is not to be filed in court or preserved beyond the sitting of the grand jury.

SEC. 1002. All the forms of pleading in criminal actions heretofore existing, are abolished; and hereafter, the forms of pleading, and the rules by which the sufficiency of pleadings is to be determined, are those prescribed herein.

SEC. 1003. The first pleading on the part of the territory is the indictment.

SEC. 1004. The indictment must contain:

1. The title of the action, specifying the name of the court to which the indictment is presented, and the names of the parties.
2. A statement of the acts constituting the offense, in ordinary and concise language, without repetition, and in such manner as to enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended.

SEC. 1005. The indictment may be substantially in the following form:

"THE TERRITORY OF WASHINGTON, vs.
A — B —

} District court for the —
} holding terms at —.

A B, is accused by the grand jury of the _____, by this indictment, of the crime of _____," (here insert the name of the crime, if it have one, such as treason, murder, arson, manslaughter or the like, or if it be a crime having no general name, such as libel, assault and battery, and the like, insert a brief description of it as given by law,) "committed as follows:

"The said A B, on the ——day of ——, 18—, in the county of —— in the district aforesaid," (here set forth the act, charged as a crime). Dated at ——, in the district aforesaid, the—— day of ——, A. D. 18—. (Signed) "C D, district attorney." (Endorsed) "a true bill."
 (Signed) "E F, foreman of the grand jury."

SEC. 1006. The indictment must be direct and certain, as it regards:

1. The party charged.
2. The crime charged; and,
3. The particular circumstances of the crime charged when they are necessary to constitute a complete crime.

SEC. 1007. When a defendant is indicted by a fictitious or erroneous name, and in any stage of the proceedings his true name is discovered, it may be inserted in the subsequent proceedings, referring to the fact of his being indicted by the name mentioned in the indictment.

SEC. 1008. The indictment must charge but one crime, and in one form only, except that where the crime may be committed by use of different means, the indictment may allege the means in the alternative.

SEC. 1009. The precise time at which the crime was committed need not be stated in the indictment; but it may be alleged to have been committed at any time before the finding thereof, and within the time which an action may be commenced therefor, except where the time is a material ingredient in the crime.

SEC. 1010. When the crime involves the commission of, or an attempt to commit a private injury, and is described with sufficient certainty in other respects to identify the act, an erroneous allegation as to the person injured or intended to be injured is not material.

SEC. 1011. When a crime involves the taking of or injury to an animal, the indictment is sufficiently certain in that respect if it describe the animal by the common name of its class.

SEC. 1012. The words used in an indictment must be construed in their usual acceptation, in common language, except words and phrases defined by law, which are to be construed according to their legal meaning.

SEC. 1013. Words used in a statute to define a crime, need not be strictly pursued in the indictment, but other words, conveying the same meaning, may be used.

SEC. 1014. The indictment is sufficient if it can be understood therefrom:

1. That it is entitled in a court having authority to receive.
2. That it was found by a grand jury of the county or district in which the court was held.
3. That the defendant is named, or if his name cannot be discovered, that he is described by a fictitious name, with the statement that his real name is to the jury unknown.
4. That the crime was committed within the jurisdiction of the court, except where, as provided by law, the act, though done without the county in which the court is held, is triable therein.
5. That the time [crime] was committed at some time previous to the finding of the indictment, and within the time limited by law for the commencement of an action therefor.
6. That the act or omission, charged as the crime, is clearly and distinctly set forth, in ordinary and concise language, without repetition, and in such a manner as to enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended.

7. The act or omission, charged as the crime, is stated with such a degree of certainty as to enable the court to pronounce judgment, upon a conviction, according to the right of the case.

SEC. 1015. No indictment is insufficient, nor can the trial, judgment or other proceedings thereon, be affected by reason of any of the following matters, which were formerly deemed defects or imperfections:

1. For want of an allegation of the time or place of any material fact, when the time and place have been once stated;

2. For the omission of any of the following allegations, namely: "with force and arms," "contrary to the form of the statute, or the statutes," or "against the peace and dignity of the territory."

3. For the omission to allege that the grand jury was empaneled, sworn or charged;

4. For any surplusage or repugnant allegation, or for any repetition, when there is sufficient matter alleged to indicate clearly the offense and the person charged; nor,

5. For any other matter which was formerly deemed a defect or imperfection, but which does not tend to the prejudice of the substantial rights of the defendant upon the merits.

SEC. 1016. Neither presumptions of law, nor matters of which judicial notice is taken, need be stated in an indictment.

SEC. 1017. In pleading a judgment or other determination of, or proceeding before a court or officer of special jurisdiction, it is not necessary to state the facts conferring jurisdiction; but the judgment, determination or proceeding may be stated to have been duly given or made. The facts conferring jurisdiction, however, must be established on the trial.

SEC. 1018. In pleading a private statute, or right derived therefrom, it is sufficient to refer to the statute, by its title and the day of its passage, and the court must thereupon take judicial notice thereof.

SEC. 1019. An indictment for libel need not set forth any intrinsic facts, for the purpose of showing the application to the party libelled, of the defamatory matter on which the indictment is founded; but it is sufficient to state generally that the same was published concerning him; and the fact that it was so published must be established on the trial.

SEC. 1020. When an instrument which is the subject of an indictment for forgery, has been destroyed or withheld by the act or procurement of the defendant, and the fact of the destruction or withholding is alleged in the indictment, and established on the trial, the misdescription of the instrument is immaterial.

SEC. 1021. In an indictment for perjury or subornation of perjury, it is sufficient to set forth the substance of the controversy or matter in respect to which the crime was committed, and in what court, or before whom, the oath alleged to be false, was taken, and that the court or person before whom it was taken had authority to administer it, with proper allegations of the falsity of the matter on which the perjury is assigned; but the indictment need not set forth the pleadings, record or proceedings with which the oath is connected, nor the commission or authority of the court or person before whom the perjury was committed.

SEC. 1022. Upon an indictment against several defendants, any one or more may be convicted or acquitted.

SEC. 1023. In an indictment for larceny or embezzlement of money, bank notes, certificates of stock or valuable securities, or for a conspiracy to cheat or defraud a person of any such property, it is sufficient to allege the larceny or embezzlement or the conspiracy to cheat and defraud to be of money, bank notes, certificates of stock, or valuable securities, without specifying the coin, number, denomination or kind thereof.

SEC. 1024. An indictment for exhibiting, publishing, passing, selling, or offering to sell, or having in possession with such intent, any lewd or obscene book, pamphlet, picture, print, card, paper, or writing, need not set forth any portion of the language used or figures shown upon such book, pamphlet, picture, print, card, paper or writing, but it is sufficient to state generally the fact of the lewdness or obscenity thereof.

SEC. 1025. In prosecutions, under the provisions of sections 833, 839 and 916, where the owner of the property is unknown, the ownership of such property, shall for the purpose of this code be deemed and held to be in the territory of Washington, and in all cases where the indictment alleges the territory to be the owner of such property and the proof on the trial discloses the name of the actual owner, it shall not be deemed a variance, or failure of proof unless the defendant is the actual owner.

SEC. 1045. In answer to the arraignment, the defendant may move to set aside the indictment, or he may demur or plead to it, and is entitled to one day after arraignment in which to answer thereto if he demand it.

SEC. 1046. The motion to set aside the indictment can be made by the defendant on one or more of the following grounds, and must be sustained.

1. When it is not endorsed "a true bill," and the endorsement signed by the foreman of the grand jury as prescribed by this code.

2. When the names of all the witnesses examined before the grand jury are not endorsed thereon.

3. When it has not been presented and marked "filed" as prescribed by this code;

4. When any person, other than the grand jurors, was present before the grand jury when the question was taken upon the finding of the indictment, or when any person, other than the grand jurors, was present before the grand jury during the investigation of the charge, except as required or permitted by law.

5. That the grand jury were not selected, drawn, summoned, empaneled, or sworn as prescribed by law.

SEC. 1047. The ground of the motion to set aside the indictment mentioned in the fifth subdivision of the preceding section is not allowed to a defendant who has been held to answer before indictment.

SEC. 1048. If the motion be denied, the defendant must immediately answer the indictment, either by demurring or pleading thereto.

SEC. 1049. If the court direct that the case be re-submitted, the defendant, if already in custody, must so remain unless he be admitted to bail; or, if already admitted to bail, or money has been deposited instead thereof, the bail or money is answerable for the appearance of the defendant to answer a new indictment.

SEC. 1050. An order to set aside the indictment as provided in this chapter, shall be no bar to a future prosecution for the same offense.

SEC. 1051. The defendant may demur to the indictment when it appears upon its face either:

1. That it does not substantially conform to the requirements of this code.

2. That the indictment contains any matter which, if true, would constitute a legal defense or bar to the prosecution.

SEC. 1052. If the demurrer is sustained because the indictment contains matter which is a legal defense or bar to the indictment, the judgment shall be final, and the defendant must be discharged.

SEC. 1053. If the demurrer is overruled the defendant has a right to put in a plea. If he fails to do so, judgment may be rendered against him on the demurrer, and, if necessary, a jury may be impaneled to inquire and ascertain the decree of the offense.

SEC. 1054. There are but three pleas to the indictment. A plea of:

1. Guilty.

2. Not guilty.

3. A former judgment of conviction or acquittal of the offense charged, which may be pleaded with or without the plea of not guilty.

SEC. 1055. The plea may be entered on the record, substantially, in the following form:

1. A plea of guilty. "The defendant pleads that he is guilty of the offense charged in the indictment."

2. A plea of not guilty. "The defendant pleads that he is not guilty of the offense charged in the indictment."

3. A plea of former conviction or acquittal. "The defendant pleads that he has formerly been convicted or acquitted (as the case may be,) of the offense charged in the indictment, by the judgment of the court of _____ (naming it,) rendered on the _____ day of _____ A. D., 18—, (naming the time.)"

SEC. 1056. The plea of guilty can only be put in by the defendant himself in open court.

SEC. 1057. At any time before judgment, the court may permit the plea of guilty to be withdrawn, and other plea or pleas substituted.

SEC. 1058. The plea of not guilty is a denial of every material allegation in the indictment; and all matters of fact may be given in evidence under it, except a former conviction or acquittal.

SEC. 1059. A conviction or acquittal by a judgment upon a verdict shall bar another prosecution for the same offense, notwithstanding a defect in form or substance in the indictment on which the conviction or acquittal took place.

SEC. 1060. The judgment for the defendant on a demurrer, except where it is otherwise provided, or for an objection to its form or substance taken on the trial, or for variance between the indictment and the proof, shall not bar another prosecution for the same offense.

SEC. 1061. If the defendant fail or refuse to answer the indictment by demurrer or plea, a plea of not guilty must be entered by the court.

SEC. 1062. If, on the arraignment of any person, he shall plead guilty, if the offense charged be not murder, the court shall, in their discretion, hear testimony, and determine the amount and kind of punishment to be inflicted; but if the defendant plead guilty to a charge of murder, a jury shall be empaneled to hear testimony, and determine the degree of murder and the punishment therefor.

SEC. 1063. If the defendant appear without counsel, he shall be informed by the court that it is his right to have counsel before being arraigned, and he shall be asked if he desire the aid of counsel, and if it appear that he is unable to employ counsel by reason of poverty, counsel shall be assigned to him by the court.

SEC. 1064. When the defendant is arraigned, he shall be interrogated, if the name by which he is indicted be not his true name; he shall then declare his true name, or be proceeded against by the name in the indictment.

SEC. 1065. If he allege that another name is his true name, it must be entered in the minutes of the court, and the subsequent proceedings on the indictment may be had against him by that name, referring also, to the name by which he is indicted.

SEC. 1066. If the indictment be [for] a misdemeanor, punishable by fine only, the defendant may appear upon arraignment by counsel.

SEC. 1067. Witnesses may be compelled to attend and testify before the grand jury; and witnesses on behalf of the territory, or of the defendant in a criminal prosecution, may be compelled to attend and testify in open court, if they have been subpoenaed, without their fees being first paid or tendered, unless otherwise provided by law; the court may recognize witnesses, with or without sureties, to attend and testify at the same or the next term of the court, or at the term of a court within the territory, and any person accused of any crime in this territory by indictment or otherwise, may in the examination or trial of the cause, offer himself or herself as a witness in his or her own behalf, and shall be allowed to testify as other witnesses in such case, and when such accused shall so testify he or she shall be subject to all the rules of law relating to cross examinations of other witnesses: Provided, That nothing in this act shall be construed to compel such accused persons to offer himself or herself as a witness in such case: And provided further, That it shall be the duty of the court to instruct the jury, that no inference of guilt shall arise against the accused if the accused shall fail or refuse to testify as a witness in his or her own behalf.

SEC. 1068. The clerk shall, at the time of issuing a warrant for the defendant, issue a subpoena for all the witnesses whose names are endorsed on the indictment, and any others required; but in no case shall a continuance be granted to the territory on account of the absence of any witness whose name is not endorsed on the indictment.

SEC. 1069. Witnesses competent to testify in civil cases shall be competent in criminal prosecutions, but regular physicians or surgeons, clergymen or priests, shall be protected from testifying as to confessions, or information received from any defendant, by virtue of their profession and character; Indians shall be competent witnesses as hereinbefore provided, or in any prosecutions in which an Indian may be a defendant.

SEC. 1070. The confession of a defendant made under inducement, with all the circumstances, may be given as evidence against him, except when made under the influence of fear produced by threats; but a confession made under inducement is not sufficient to warrant a conviction without corroborating testimony.

SEC. 1071. The rules of evidence in civil actions, so far as practicable, shall be applied to criminal prosecutions.

CHAPTER LXXXVI.

SEC. 1073. When the affidavit is founded on prejudice of the judge, the court may, in its discretion, grant a change of venue to some county in another district, or may continue the cause to the next term of the court, which may be held by any other district judge; if the affidavit is founded upon excitement or prejudice in the county or district against the defendant, the court may, in its discretion, grant a change of venue to the most convenient county or district. The clerk must thereupon make a transcript of the proceedings and order of court, and having sealed up the same with the original papers, deliver them to the sheriff, who must without delay deposit them in the clerk's office of the proper county, and make his return accordingly.

SEC. 1074. No change of venue from the district shall be allowed on account of the prejudice of the inhabitants of any particular county, but where a party or his attorney shall make his affidavit, and prove to the satisfaction of the court, or judge, that the inhabitants of any particular county are so prejudiced or excited, or so particularly interested in the cause or question, that he believes the party cannot have justice done by a jury of that county, then no juror for that particular case shall be taken from that county, unless by consent of the party making the objection, but the case shall be tried by the jurors from the other counties who may be in attendance as grand and petit jurors, and if, from challenges or any other cause, there shall not remain twelve competent jurors, then the case may be tried by a number less than twelve: Provided, That the defendant and prosecuting attorney consent to so try the case.

SEC. 1075. The court may at its discretion at any time order a change of venue or place of trial to any county or district in the territory, upon the written consent or agreement of the prosecuting attorney and the defendant.

SEC. 1076. When a change of venue is ordered, if the offense be bailable, the court shall recognize the defendant, and, in all cases, the witnesses to appear at the term of the court to which the change of venue was granted.

mit that such evidence would be given, and that it be considered as actually given on the trial or offered and overruled as improper the continuance shall not be granted.

SEC. 1078. Issues of fact joined upon an indictment shall be tried by a jury of twelve persons, and the law relating to the drawing, retaining and selecting jurors, and trials by jury in civil cases, shall apply to criminal cases.

SEC. 1079. In prosecution for capital offenses, the defendant may challenge peremptorily twelve jurors; in prosecution for offenses punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary, six jurors; in all other prosecutions, three jurors. When several defendants are on trial together, they must join in their challenges.

SEC. 1080. The prosecuting attorney, in capital cases, may challenge peremptorily six jurors; in all other cases, three jurors.

SEC. 1087. No person prosecuted for an offense punishable by a fine only, shall be tried without being personally present, unless some responsible person, approved by the court, undertakes to be bail for stay of execution and payment of the fine and costs that may be assessed against the defendant. Such undertaking must be in writing, and is as effective as if entered into after judgment.

SEC. 1088. The court shall decide all questions of law which shall arise in the course of the trial. The same laws in relation to giving instructions to the jury by the court, and the argument of counsel and taking exceptions, as is now provided in the civil practice act, shall also govern in criminal cases, except as herein specially provided.

SEC. 1089. Juries in criminal cases shall not be allowed to separate, except by consent of the defendant and the prosecuting attorney, but shall be kept together, without meat or drink, unless otherwise ordered by the court, to be furnished at the expense of the county.

SEC. 1091. When two or more defendants are indicted jointly, any defendant requiring it shall be tried separately.

SEC. 1092. When two or more persons are included in one prosecution, the court may, at any time before the defendant has gone into his defense, direct any defendant to be discharged, that he may be a witness for the territory. A defendant may also, when there is not sufficient evidence to put him on his defense, at any time before the evidence is closed, be discharged by the court, for the purpose of giving evidence for a co-defendant. The order of discharge is a bar to another prosecution for the same offense.

SEC. 1093. When it appears, at any time before verdict or judgment, that a mistake has been made in charging the proper offense, the defendant shall not be discharged if there appear to be good cause to detain him in custody; but the court must recognize him to answer the offense shown, and if necessary, recognize the witnesses to appear and testify.

SEC. 1094. When it appears at any time before verdict or judgment, that the defendant is prosecuted in a county not having jurisdiction, the court may order the venue of the indictment to be corrected, and direct that all the papers and proceedings be certified to the proper court of the [proper] county, and recognize the defendant and witnesses to appear at such court on the first day of the next term thereof, and the prosecution shall proceed in the latter court in the same manner as if it had been there commenced.

SEC. 1095. When a jury has been empaneled in either case contemplated in the two last preceding sections, such jury may be discharged without prejudice to the prosecution.

SEC. 1099. On an indictment against several, if the jury cannot agree upon a verdict as to all, they may render a verdict as to those in regard to whom they do agree, on which a judgment shall be entered accordingly.

SEC. 1100. When there is a verdict of conviction in which it appears to the court that the jury have mistaken the law, the court may explain the reason for that opinion, and direct the jury to re-consider the verdict; and if after such re-consideration they return the same verdict, it must be entered, but it shall be good cause for new trial; but where there is a verdict of acquittal, the court cannot require the jury to re-consider it.

SEC. 1101. When any person indicted for an offense shall, on trial, be acquitted by reason of insanity, the jury, in giving their verdict of not guilty, shall state that it was given for such cause; and thereupon, if the discharge, or going at large of such insane person shall be considered by the court manifestly dangerous to the peace and safety of the community, the court may order him to be committed to prison, or may give him into the care of his friends, if they shall give bonds with surety to the satisfaction of the court, conditioned that he shall be well and securely kept, otherwise he shall be discharged.

SEC. 1102. When the jury have agreed upon their verdict, they must be conducted into court by the officer having them in charge. Their names must then be called, and if all appear, their verdict must be rendered in open court; and if all do not appear, the rest must be discharged without giving a verdict, and the cause must be tried again at the same or next term.

SEC. 1103. When the defendant is found guilty, the court, and not the jury, shall fix the amount of fine and the punishment to be inflicted. The verdict of the jury may be substantially in the following form:

"We, the jury, in the case of the territory of Washington, plaintiff, against —, defendant, find the defendant (guilty or not guilty, as the case may be.) (Signed,) A B, foreman."

SEC. 1104. When the defendant is found guilty, the court shall render judgment accordingly, and the defendant shall be liable for all costs, unless the court or jury trying the cause expressly find otherwise.

1. No legal authority in the grand jury to inquire into the offense charged, by reason of its not being within the jurisdiction of the court.

2. That the facts as stated in the indictment do not constitute a crime or misdemeanor.

SEC. 1108. The court may also, on its view of any of these defects, arrest the judgment without motion.

SEC. 1109. When judgment is arrested in any case, and there is reasonable ground to believe that the defendant can be convicted of an offense, properly charged, the court may order the defendant to be re-committed, or admitted to bail anew, to answer a new indictment.

SEC. 1110. Exceptions may be taken by the defendant, as in civil cases, on any matter of law by which his substantial rights are prejudiced.

SEC. 1320. Every person who shall sign the testator's or testatrix's name to any will by his or her direction, shall subscribe his own name as a witness to such will, and state that he subscribed the testator's name at his request.

SEC. 1321. No will in writing, except in cases hereinafter mentioned, nor any part thereof, shall be revoked except by a subsequent will in writing, or by burning, canceling, tearing or obliterating the same, by the testator or testatrix, or in his or her presence, or by his or her consent or direction.

SEC. 1322. If, after making any will, the testator shall marry and the wife shall be living at the time of the death of the testator, such will shall be deemed revoked, unless provision shall have been made for her by marriage settlement, or unless she be provided for in the will, or in such way mentioned therein as to show an intention not to make such provision, and no other evidence to rebut the presumption of revocation shall be received.

SEC. 1323. A bond, covenant or agreement made for a valuable consideration by a testator to convey any property, devised or bequeathed in any last will previously made, shall not be deemed a revocation of such previous devise or bequest, but such property shall pass by the devise or bequest, subject to the same remedies on such bond, covenant or agreement, for specific performance or otherwise, against devisees or legatees, as might be had by law against the heirs of the testator or his next of kin, if the same had descended to him.

SEC. 1324. A charge or incumbrance upon any real or personal estate for the purpose of securing the payment of money, or the performance of any covenant or agreement, shall not be deemed a revocation of any will relating to the same estate, previously executed. The devises and legacies therein contained shall pass and take effect, subject to such charge or incumbrance.

SEC. 1325. If any person make his last will and die, leaving a child or children, or descendants of such child or children, in case of their death, not named or provided for in such will, although born after the making of such will; or the death of the testator, every such testator so far as he shall regard such child or children or their descendants, not provided for, shall be deemed to die intestate, and such child or children or their descendants, shall be entitled to such proportion of the estate of the testator, real and personal, as if he had died intestate, and the same shall be assigned to them and all the other heirs, devisees and legatees shall refund their proportional part.

SEC. 1326. If such child or children, or their descendants, shall have an equal proportion of the testator's estate bestowed on them in the testator's lifetime, by way of advancement, they shall take nothing by virtue of the provisions of the preceding sections.

SEC. 1327. When any estate shall be devised to any child, grandchild or other relative of the testator, and such devisee shall die before the testator, leaving lineal descendants, such descendants shall take the estate, real and personal, as such devisee would have done in case he had survived the testator.

SEC. 1328. If, after making any will, the testator shall duly make and execute a second will, the destruction, canceling or revocation of such second will shall not revive the first will unless it appears by the terms of such revocation that it was his intention to revive and give effect to the first will, or unless he shall duly republish his first will.

SEC. 1329. No nuncupative will shall be good when the estate bequeathed exceeds the value of two hundred dollars, unless the same be proved by two witnesses, who were present at the making thereof, and it be proven that the testator, at the time of pronouncing the same, did bid some person present to bear witness that such was his will, or to that effect, and such nuncupative will was made at the time of the last sickness, and at the dwelling house of the deceased, or where he had been residing for the space of ten days or more, except where such person was taken sick from home and died before his return. SEC. 1331. All beneficial devises, legacies and gifts whatever, made or given in any will to a subscribing witness thereto, shall be void unless there are two other competent witnesses to the same, but a mere charge on the estate of the testator for the payment of debts shall not prevent his creditors from being competent witnesses to his will. If such witness, to whom any beneficial devise, legacy or gift may have been made or given, would have been entitled to any share in the testator's estate, in case the will is not established, then so much of the estate as would have descended or would have been distributed to such witness, shall be saved to him, as will not exceed the value of the devise or bequest made to him in the will; and he may recover the same from the devisees or legatees named in the will in proportion to and out of the parts devised and bequeathed to him.

SEC. 1332. Every devise of land in any will shall be construed to convey all the estate of the devisor therein, which he could lawfully devise, unless it shall clearly appear by the will that he intended to convey a less estate.

SEC. 1333. If any person, by last will, devise any real estate to any person for the term of such person's life, such devise vests in the devisee an estate for life, and without the remainder is specially devised to the heirs of said devisee, it shall revert to the heirs-at-law of the testator.

SEC. 1334. Any estate, rights or interest in lands acquired by the testator after the making of his or her will, shall pass thereby, and in like manner as if it passed at the time of making the will, if such shall manifestly appear by the will to have been the intention of the testator.

SEC. 1335. When any testator in his last will shall give any chattel or real estate to any person, and the same shall be taken in execution for the payment of the testator's debts, then all the other legatees, devisees and heirs, shall refund their proportional part of such loss to such person from whom the bequest shall be taken.

SEC. 1336. When any devisees, legatees or heirs shall be required to refund any part of the estate received by them, for the purpose of making up the share, devise or legacy of any other devisee, legatee or heir, the probate court, upon the petition of the person entitled to contribution or distribution of such estate, may order the same to be made, and enforce such order.

SEC. 1337. The term "will," as used in this act, shall be so construed as to include all codicils attached to any will.

SEC. 1338. All courts and others concerned in the execution of last wills, shall have due regard to the direction of the will, and the true intent and meaning of the testator in all matters brought before them.

SEC. 1369. If, before or during the pendency of an application to prove a lost or destroyed will, letters of administration be granted on the estate of the testator, or letters testamentary of any previous will of the testator be granted, the court shall have authority to restrain the administrators or executors so appointed from any acts or proceedings which would be injurious to the legatees or devisees claiming under the lost or destroyed will.

SEC. 1394. Every person to whom letters testamentary or of administration are directed to issue must before receiving them, execute a bond to the territory of Washington with two or more sufficient sureties to be approved by the probate judge. In form the bond must be joint and several, and the penalty must not be less than twice the value of the personal property, and twice the probable value of the annual rents, profits and issues of the real property belonging to the estate; which values must be ascertained by the probate judge by examining on oath the party applying, and any other persons.

SEC. 1395. The probate judge must require an additional bond, whenever the sale of any real estate belonging to an estate is ordered by him; but no such additional bond must be required when it satisfactorily appears to the court, that the penalty of the bond given, before receiving letters, or of any bond given in place thereof, is equal to twice the value of the personal property remaining in or that may come into the possession of the executor or administrator, including the annual rents, profits and issues of real estate and twice the probable amount to be realized on the sale of the real estate ordered to be sold.

SEC. 1396. The bond must be conditioned that the executor or administrator shall faithfully execute the duties of the trust according to law.

SEC. 1397. When two or more persons are appointed executors or administrators, the probate judge must require and take a separate bond from each of them.

SEC. 1398. The bond shall not be void upon the first recovery, but may be sued and recovered upon from time to time, by any person aggrieved in his own name, until the whole penalty is exhausted.

SEC. 1399. In all cases where bonds or undertakings are required to be given under this title the sureties must possess the qualifications and justify thereon in the same manner as required by the civil practice act for bail upon an arrest and the certificate thereof must be attached to and filed and recorded with the bond or undertaking. All such bonds or undertakings must be approved by the probate judge before being filed or recorded.

SEC. 1400. Before the probate judge approves any bond required under this title, and after its approval, he may of his own motion, or upon the motion of any person interested in the estate, supported by affidavit that the sureties, or some one or more of them are not worth as much as they have justified to, order a citation to issue, requiring such sureties to appear before him at a designated time and place, to be examined touching their property and its value; and the judge must, at the same time, cause notice to be issued to the executor or administrator, requiring his appearance on the return of the citation, and on its return he may examine the sureties and such witnesses as may be produced touching the property of the sureties and its value; and if upon such examination he is satisfied that the bond is insufficient he must require sufficient additional security.

SEC. 1401. Such additional bond when given and approved, shall discharge the former sureties from any liability arising from the misconduct of the principal after the filing of the same, and such former securities shall only be liable for such misconduct as happened prior to the giving such new bond.

SEC. 1402. If sufficient security is not given within the time fixed by the judge's order the right of such executor or administrator to the administration shall cease, and the person next entitled to the administration on the estate, who shall execute a sufficient bond must be appointed to the administration.

SEC. 1403. When it is expressly provided in the will that no bond shall be required of the executor, letters testamentary may issue and sale of real estate be made and confirmed without any bond, unless the court for good cause require one to be executed, but the executor may at any time afterwards, if it appear from any cause necessary or proper, be required to file a bond, as in other cases.

SEC. 1404. Any person interested in an estate may by verified petition represent to the probate judge that the sureties of the executor or administrator thereof, have become or are becoming insolvent, or that they have removed, or are about to remove from the territory, or from any other cause the bond is insufficient, and ask that further [security] be required.

SEC. 1405. If the probate judge is satisfied that the matter requires investigation citation must be issued to the executor or administrator, requiring him to appear, at a time and place specified, to show cause why he should not give further security. The citation must be served personally on the administrator or executor, at least five days before the return day. If he has absconded, or cannot be found, it may be served by leaving a copy of it at his last place of residence, or by such publication as the court or judge may order.

SEC. 1406. On the return of the citation, or at such other time as the judge may appoint, he must proceed to hear the proof and allegations of the parties. If it satisfactorily appears that the security is from any cause insufficient, he may make an order requiring the executor or administrator to give further security, or to file a new bond in the usual form, within a reasonable time, not less than five days.

SEC. 1407. If the executor or administrator neglects to comply with the order within the time prescribed, the judge must by order revoke his letters, and his authority must thereupon cease.

SEC. 1408. When it comes to his knowledge that the bond of any executor or administrator is, from any cause insufficient, the probate judge, without any application, must cause him to be called to appear and show cause, why he should not give further security, and must proceed thereon as upon the application of any person interested.

SEC. 1409. No judge of the probate court, no sheriff, clerk of a court, or deputy of either, and no attorney at law, shall be taken as security in any bond required to be taken in proceeding in probate courts.

SEC. 1410. The judge of the probate court shall take special care to take as securities, men who are solvent and sufficient, and who are not bound in too many other bonds; and to satisfy himself, he may take testimony, and examine, on oath, the applicant or person offered as security.

SEC. 1411. The judge of the probate court shall cause his clerk to record in a well-bound book, kept for that purpose, all bonds given by executors and administrators, and preserve the originals in regular file.

SEC. 1412. No bond required under the provisions of this act, and intended as such bond, shall be void for want of form or substance, recital, or condition; nor shall the principal or surety on such account be discharged, but all the parties thereto shall be held and bound to the full extent contemplated by the law requiring the same, to the amount specified in such bond. In all actions on such defective bond, the plaintiff may state its legal effect, in the same manner as though it were a perfect bond.

SEC. 1413. The application, and acts, authorized by the foregoing sections may be heard and determined in term time, or in vacation. All orders made therein must be entered upon the minutes of the court.

SEC. 1414. Whenever the probate judge has reason to believe from his own knowledge, or from credible information, that any executor or administrator has wasted, embezzled or mismanaged, or is about to waste or embezzle the property of the estate committed to his charge or has committed, or is about to commit a fraud upon the estate, or is incompetent to act, or has permanently removed from the territory, or has wrongfully neglected the estate, or has long neglected to perform any acts as such executor or administrator, he must by order entered upon the minutes of the court suspend the powers of such executor or administrator, until the matter is investigated.

SEC. 1415. When such suspension is made, notice thereof must be given to the executor or administrator, and he must be cited to appear and show [cause] why his letters should not be revoked. If he fail to appear in obedience to the citation, or if appearing the court is satisfied that there exists cause for his removal, his letters must be revoked, and letters of administration granted anew as the case may require.

SEC. 1416. At the hearing, any person interested in the estate may appear and file his allegations in writing, showing that the executor or administrator should be removed, to which the executor or administrator may demur or answer.

SEC. 1417. If the executor or administrator has absconded or conceals himself, or has removed or absented himself from the territory, notice may be given him of the pendency of the proceedings by publication, in such manner as the court may direct, and the court may proceed upon such notice, as if the citation had been personally served.

SEC. 1418. In the proceedings authorized by the preceding section for the removal of an executor or administrator, the court may compel his attendance by attachment, and may compel him to answer questions, on oath, touching his administration, and upon his refusal so to do, may commit him to jail, until he obey, or may revoke his letters, or both.

SEC. 1419. When by reason of a suit concerning the proof of a will, or from any other cause, there shall be a delay in granting letters testamentary or of administration, the judge of the probate court may, in his discretion, appoint a special administrator, (other than one of the parties,) to collect and preserve the effects of the deceased; and in case of an appeal from the decree appointing such special administrator, he shall, nevertheless, proceed in the execution of his trust, until he shall be otherwise ordered by the district court to which such appeal is taken.

SEC. 1420. Every such administrator shall, before entering on the duties of his trust, give bond with sufficient surety or sureties, in such sum as the judge of the probate court shall order, payable to the territory of Washington, with condition as required of an executor, or in other cases of administration, to make and return into the probate court as soon as practicable, a true inventory of the goods, chattels, rights and credits of the deceased, which have or shall come into his possession or knowledge; and that he will truly account for all the goods, chattels, debts and effects of the deceased that shall be received by him as special administrator, whenever required by the probate court, and will deliver the same to the person who shall be appointed executor or administrator of the deceased, or to such other person as shall be lawfully authorized to receive the same.

SEC. 1421. Such special administrator shall collect all the goods, chattels and debts of the deceased and preserve the same for the executor or administrator who shall thereafter be appointed; and for that purpose may commence and maintain suits as an administrator, and may also sell such perishable and other goods as the probate court shall order sold, and he shall be allowed such compensation for his service as the said court shall deem reasonable.

SEC. 1422. Upon granting letters testamentary or of administration, the power of the special administrator shall cease, and he shall forthwith deliver to the executor or administrator all the goods, chattels, money and effects of the deceased in his hands, and the executor or administrator may be admitted to prosecute any suit commenced by the special administrator, in like manner as an administrator de bonis non is authorized to prosecute a suit commenced by a former executor or administrator.

SEC. 1423. Such special administrator shall not be liable to an action by any creditor of the deceased, and the time for limitation of all suits against the estate shall begin to run from the time of granting letters testamentary or of administration in the usual form, in like manner as if such special administration had not been granted.

SEC. 1424. The special administrator shall also render an account under oath of his proceedings, in like manner as other administrators are required to do.

SEC. 1425. If any executor or administrator, having first settled his accounts, shall publish for six weeks in some newspaper in this territory in general circulation in the county wherein his letters were granted, a notice of his intention to apply to the probate court to resign his letters, and the court on proof of such publication believe that he should be permitted to resign, it shall so order.

SEC. 1426. Such person shall then surrender his letters, his power from that time shall cease, and he shall pay the expense of publication and of all the proceedings on such application.

SEC. 1427. If there be more than one executor or administrator of an estate, and the letters to part of them be revoked or surrendered, or a part die or in any become disqualified, those who remain shall perform all the duties required by law.

SEC. 1428. If the executor or administrator of an estate shall die, resign, or the letters be revoked before the settlement of the estate, letters of administration of the goods remaining unadministered, shall be granted to those to whom administration would have been granted if the original letters had not been obtained, or the person obtaining them had renounced administration, and the administrator de bonis non shall perform the like duties and incur the like liabilities as the former executors or administrators.

SEC. 1429. If any executor or administrator resign or his letters be revoked, or he die, he or his representatives shall account for, pay and deliver to his successor, or to the surviving or remaining executor or administrator, all money and property of every kind, and all rights, credits, deeds, evidences of debt and papers of every kind of the deceased, at such time and in such manner as the court shall order, on final settlement with such executor or administrator or his legal representatives.

SEC. 1430. The succeeding administrator, or remaining executor or administrator, may proceed by law against any delinquent former executor or administrator, or his legal representatives, or the securities of either, or against any other person possessed of any part of the estate.

SEC. 1431. All suits against securities shall be commenced within six years after the revocation or surrender of letters of administration or death of the principal.

SEC. 1432. If any executor or administrator fail to make either annual or final settlement as required by law, and do not show good cause for such failure, after having been cited for that purpose, the probate court shall order such executor or administrator to make such settlement and may enforce obedience to such order by attachment, and may revoke his letters.

SEC. 1433. If any person who has surrendered his letters testamentary or of administration, or whose letters have been revoked, or the legal representatives of any deceased executor or administrator shall fail to make final settlement as required by law, after being cited for that purpose by the probate court, it shall order such delinquent to make such settlement, and may enforce obedience to such order by attachment.

SEC. 1434. In all cases where citations or attachments may be issued against any executor, administrator or other person for failing to settle his accounts, such delinquent shall pay all costs incurred thereby, the collection of which costs may be enforced by attachment.

SEC. 1435. The executor or administrator of a deceased person who was a member of a co-partnership, shall include in the inventory of such person's estate, in a separate schedule, the whole of the property of such partnership; and the appraisers shall estimate the value thereof, and also the value of such person's individual interest in the partnership property, after the payment or satisfaction of all the debts and liabilities of the partnership.

SEC. 1436. After the inventory is taken, the partnership property shall be in the custody and control of the executor or administrator for the purposes of administration, unless the surviving partner shall within five days from the filing of the inventory, or such further time as the court may allow, apply for the administration thereof, and give the bond therefor hereinafter prescribed.

SEC. 1437. If the surviving partner apply therefor, as provided in the last section, he is entitled to the administration of the partnership estate, if he have the qualifications and competency required for a general administrator. as may be adjudged necessary, and most to the interest of all concerned,

SEC. 1500. If the probate court shall be satisfied after a full hearing upon the petition, and on examination of the proofs and allegations of the parties interested, that a sale of the whole or some portion of the real estate is necessary for the payment of the allowance to the family, and all valid claims against the estate and charges of administration, or if such sale be assented to by all the parties interested, he shall make an order of sale authorizing the executor or administrator to sell the whole or so much and such parts of the real estate described in the petition as he shall judge necessary or beneficial.

SEC. 1501. The order shall specify the lands to be sold and the terms of sale, which may be either for cash or on credit, and not exceeding six months, as the court may direct. If it appear that any part of such real estate has been devised and not charged in such devise with the payment of debts, the court shall order that part descended to heirs to be sold, before that so devised.

SEC. 1502. If the executor or administrator shall neglect to apply for an order of sale whenever it may be necessary, any person interested in the estate may make application therefor in the same manner as an executor or administrator, and notice thereof shall be given to the executor or administrator before the hearing.

SEC. 1503. Upon making such order, the clerk of the probate court shall deliver it to the executor or administrator, who shall thereupon be authorized to sell the real estate as directed.

SEC. 1504. When a sale is ordered, notice of the time and place of sale shall be posted in ten of the most public places in the county where the land is situated, at least twenty days before the day of sale, and shall be published in some newspaper in this territory, in general circulation in said county, for three successive weeks next before such sale, in which notice the lands and tenements shall be described with proper certainty.

SEC. 1505. Such sale shall be in the county where the lands are situated, at public auction, between the hours of ten o'clock in the morning and the setting of the sun the same day; but if the executor or administrator shall deem it for the interest of all concerned that the sale should be postponed, he may adjourn it for any time not exceeding fourteen days.

SEC. 1506. In case of such adjournment notice thereof shall be given by a public proclamation at the time and place first appointed for the sale; and if the adjournment shall be for more than one day, further notice shall be given by posting or publishing as the time and circumstances may admit.

SEC. 1507. The executor or administrator shall, when the sale is on credit, take the note or notes of the purchaser for the purchase money, with surety, and mortgage on the property to secure their payment.

SEC. 1508. The executor or administrator making any sale of real estate shall, at the next term of the court thereafter, make a return of his proceedings to the probate court, who shall examine the same, and if he shall be of opinion that the proceedings were unfair, or that the sum bid-den is disproportionate to the value, and that a sum exceeding such bid at least ten per cent., exclusive of expenses of a new sale, may be obtained, he shall vacate such sale and order another to be had, of which notice shall be given, and the sale shall be conducted in all respects as if no previous sale had taken place.

SEC. 1509. When the return of the sale is made any person interested in the estate may file written objections to the confirmation of the sale, and may be heard and produce witnesses in support of his objections.

SEC. 1510. If it appear to the court that the sale was legally made and fairly conducted, and that the sum bidden was not disproportionate to the value of the property sold, or if disproportionate, that a greater sum as above specified, cannot be obtained, the court shall make an order confirming the sale and directing conveyances to be executed; and such sale, from that time, shall be confirmed and valid.

SEC. 1511. Such conveyances shall thereupon be executed to the purchaser by the executor or administrator. They shall refer to the original order authorizing a sale, and the order confirming the sale and directing the conveyance; and they shall be deemed to convey all the estate, rights and interest of the testator or intestate at the time of his death.

SEC. 1512. Before any order is entered confirming the sale, it shall be proven to the satisfaction of the probate court that notice of the sale was given, as herein prescribed, and the order of confirmation shall state that such proof was made.

SEC. 1513. When a testator shall have given any legacy by will that is effectual to charge real estate, and his goods, chattels, rights and credits shall be insufficient to pay such legacy, together with its debts and charges of administration, the executor or administrator, with the will annexed, may obtain an order to sell his real estate for that purpose in the same manner and upon the same terms and conditions as are prescribed in this act, in case of a sale for the payment of debts.

SEC. 1514. If the testator shall make provision by his will, or designate the estate to be appropriated for the payment of his debts, the expenses of administration, or family expenses, they shall be paid according to the provision of the will, and out of the estate thus appropriated, so far as the same may be sufficient.

SEC. 1515. When any division has been made, or any property directed to be sold, the executor or administrator with the will annexed, may proceed to sell without the order of the probate court; but he shall be bound as an administrator, to give notice of the sale, and to proceed in making the sale in all respects as if he were under the order of the court, unless there are special directions given in the will, in which case he shall be governed by such directions; but in all cases he shall make return of the sale to the probate court, who shall vacate such sale unless the same shall appear in all respects to be made according to law in like manner as upon sales made by administrator.

SEC. 1516. If the provision made by the will or the estate appropriated be not sufficient to pay the debts and expenses of administration and family expenses, such part of the estate as shall not have been disposed of by the will, if any, shall be appropriated for that purpose, according to the provisions of this act.

SEC. 1517. The estate, real and personal, given by the will to any legatees or devisees, shall be held liable for the payment of the debts, the expenses of administration, and of the family, in proportion to the value or amount of the several devises or legacies, if there shall not be other sufficient estate, except that specific devises or legacies may be exempted if it appear to the court necessary to carry into effect the intention of the testator.

SEC. 1518. When the estate given by any will has been sold for the payment of debts and expenses, all the devisees and legatees shall be liable to contribute according to their respective interests, to any devisee or legatee from whom the estate devised to him may be taken for the payment of the debts or expenses; and the probate court when distribution is made, shall by decree for that purpose, settle the amount of the several liabilities and decree how much each person shall contribute.

SEC. 1519. If the deceased person at the time of his death was possessed of a contract for the purchase of lands, his interest in such lands under such contract, may be sold on the application of his executor or administrator, in the same manner as if he had died seized of such lands; and the same proceedings may be had for that purpose as are prescribed in this act, in respect to lands of which he died seized, except as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 1520. Such sale shall be made subject to all payments that may thereafter become due on such contract, and if there be any such payments thereafter to become due, such sale shall not be confirmed by the probate court until the purchaser shall have executed a bond to the executor or administrator for his benefit and indemnity, and for the benefit and indemnity of the persons entitled to the interest of the deceased in lands so contracted for, in double the whole amount of the payments thereafter to become due on such contract, with such sureties as the probate court shall approve.

SEC. 1521. Such bond shall be conditioned that the purchaser will make all payments for such land as shall become due, after the date of such sale, and will fully indemnify the executor or administrator and the person so entitled, against all demands, costs and charges and expenses by reason of any covenant or agreement contained in such contract; but if there be no payments thereafter to become due on such contract, no bond shall be required of the purchaser.

SEC. 1522. Upon the confirmation of such sale, the executor or administrator shall execute to the purchaser an assignment of the contract, which assignment shall vest in the purchaser, his heirs and assigns, all the right, title and interest of the persons entitled to the interest of the deceased in the land sold at the time of the sale; and such purchaser shall have the same rights and remedies against the vendor of such lands as the deceased would have had if living.

SEC. 1523. If any person die, having mortgaged any real or personal estate, and shall not have devised the same or provided for the redemption thereof by will, the probate court, upon the application of any person interested, may order the executor or administrator to redeem the estate out of the personal assets, if it should appear to the satisfaction of the court that such redemption would be beneficial to the estate and not injurious to creditors.

SEC. 1524. If such redemption be not deemed expedient, the court shall order such property to be sold at public sale, which sale shall be with the same notice, and conducted in the same manner as required in other cases of real estate provided for in this act, and the executor or administrator shall thereupon execute a conveyance thereof to the purchaser, which conveyance shall be effectual to convey to the purchaser all the right, title and interest which the deceased would have had in the property had not the same been mortgaged by him, and the purchase money, after paying the expenses of the sale, shall first be applied to the payment and discharge of such mortgage, and the residue in due course of administration. If said sale of the mortgaged premises shall be insufficient to secure the mortgage debt, the mortgagee shall file a claim for balance, authenticated as other claims and payable in due course of administration.

Sec. 1525. If there shall be any neglect or misconduct in the proceedings of the executor or administrator in relation to any sale, by which any person interested in the estate shall suffer damages, the party aggrieved may recover the same in a suit upon the bond of the executor or administrator, or otherwise, as the case may require.

Sec. 1526. Any executor or administrator who shall fraudulently sell any real estate of his testator or intestate, contrary to the provisions of this act, shall be liable in double the value of the land sold, as damages, to be recovered in an action by the person or persons having an estate of inheritance therein.

Sec. 1527. When property is directed by will to be sold, or authority is given in the will to sell property, the executor may sell any property of the estate without the order of the probate court, and, either at public or private sale, and with or without notice, as the executor may determine; but the executor must make return of such sales as in other cases; and if directions are given in the will as to the mode of selling, or the particular property to be sold such directions must be observed. In either case no title passes unless the sale is confirmed by the court.

SEC. 1538. Every executor or administrator shall be chargeable in his accounts with the whole estate of the deceased which may come into his possession, at the value of the appraisement contained in the inventory, except as provided in the following sections, and with the interest, profit and income of the estate.

SEC. 1539. He shall not make profit by the increase nor suffer loss by the decrease or destruction, without his fault, of any part of the estate. He shall account for the excess when he shall have sold any part of the estate for more than the appraisement, and if any has been sold for less than the appraisement he shall not be responsible for the loss if the sale has been justly made.

SEC. 1540. No executor or administrator shall be accountable for any debts due the estate if it shall appear that they remain uncollected without his fault.

SEC. 1541. He shall be allowed all necessary expenses in the care, management and settlement of the estate, and for his services such fees as the law provides, but when the deceased, by will, shall have made some other provision for the compensation of his executor, that shall be deemed a full compensation for his services, unless he shall by a written instrument, filed in the probate court, renounce all claim for compensation provided by the will.

SEC. 1542. No administrator or executor shall purchase any claim against the estate he represents, and if he shall have paid any claim for less than its nominal value, he shall only be entitled to charge in his account so much as he shall have actually paid.

SEC. 1543. In all cases such further allowance may be made as the probate court shall deem just and reasonable for any extraordinary services not required of an executor or administrator in the common course of his duty: Provided, That the total amount of such allowance shall not exceed the amount of commission allowed in this section.

SEC. 1544. Within six months after his appointment, and thereafter at any time when required by the court, either upon its own motion or the application of any person interested in the estate, the executor or administrator shall render for the information of the court an exhibit under oath, showing the amount of money received and expended by him, the amount of all claims presented against the estate, and the names of the claimants, and all other matters necessary to show the condition of its affairs.

SEC. 1545. If the executor or administrator fail to render an exhibit within six months, as required in the last preceding section, it shall be the duty of the probate court to issue a citation requiring him to appear and render it.

SEC. 1546. Any person interested in the estate may at any time before the final settlement of accounts, present his petition to the probate court praying that the executor or administrator be required to appear and render such exhibit, setting forth the facts showing that it is necessary and proper that such an exhibit shall be made.

SEC. 1547. If the probate court be satisfied, either from the oath of the applicant or from any other testimony that may be offered, that the facts alleged are true, and shall consider the showing of the applicant sufficient, a citation shall be issued to the executor or administrator requiring him to appear on some day named in the citation, which shall be during the term of a court, and render an exhibit as prayed for.

SEC. 1548. When an exhibit is rendered by an executor or administrator, any person interested may appear, and by objections in writing, contest any account or statement therein contained. The court may examine the executor or administrator, and if he have been guilty of negligence, or wasted, embezzled or mismanaged the estate, his letters shall be revoked.

SEC. 1549. If any executor or administrator neglect or refuse to appear and render an exhibit after having been duly cited, an attachment may be issued against him, or his letters may be revoked, in the discretion of the court.

SEC. 1550. Every executor or administrator shall render a full account of his administration at the expiration of one year from the time of his appointment. If he fail to present his account, it shall be the duty of the court to compel the rendering of such account by attachment, and any person interested in the estate may apply for and obtain an attachment, but no attachment shall issue unless a citation shall have been first issued and returned, requiring the executor or administrator to appear and show cause why an attachment should not issue.

SEC. 1551. Whenever the authority of an executor or administrator shall cease, or be revoked for any reason, he may be cited to account before the probate court, at the instance of the person succeeding to the administration of the estate, in like manner as he might have been cited by any person interested in the estate, during the time he was administrator or executor.

SEC. 1552. If the executor or administrator resides out of the county, or absconds or conceals himself so that the citation cannot be personally served, and shall neglect to render an account within thirty days after the time above prescribed, or if he shall neglect to render an account within thirty days after having been committed where the attachment has been executed, his letters shall be revoked.

SEC. 1553. In rendering his account the executor or administrator shall produce vouchers for the expenses and charges which he shall have paid, which vouchers shall be filed and remain in court; and he may be examined on oath touching such payments, and also touching any property and effects of the deceased, and the disposition thereof.

SEC. 1554. On the settlement of his account, he may be allowed any item of expenditure not exceeding twenty dollars for which no voucher is produced, if such item be supported by his own oath, positive to the fact of payment, specifying when, where, and to whom payment was made, if such oath be uncontradicted; but such allowances, in the whole, shall not exceed three hundred dollars for payment in behalf of any one estate.

SEC. 1555. Executors and administrators of the estates of deceased persons are hereby authorized by and with the consent of the probate court of the proper county, to expend a reasonable sum out of the estate of the decedent, to erect a monument, or tombstone, suitable to mark the grave of said decedent, and the expense thereof shall be paid as expenses of administration are paid.

SEC. 1556. The notice shall set forth the name of the estate, of the executor or administrator, and the day appointed for the settlement of account, which shall be on some day of a regular term of court. The court may order such further notice to be given as he may deem proper.

SEC. 1557. On the day appointed, or on any subsequent day to which the hearing may have been adjourned by the court, any person interested in the estate may appear and file his exceptions in writing to the account, and contest the same.

SEC. 1558. If there be any minor interested in the estate, who has no legally appointed guardian, the court shall appoint some disinterested person to represent him, who, on behalf of the minor, may contest the account, as any other person interested might contest it, and who shall be allowed by the court a reasonable compensation for his services.

SEC. 1559. The hearing and allegations of the respective parties may be adjourned from time to time as shall be necessary.

SEC. 1560. The settlement of the account and the allowance thereof by the court, or upon appeal, shall be conclusive against all persons in any way interested in the estate, saving, however, to all persons laboring under any legal disability, the right to proceed against the executor or administrator, either individually or upon his bond, within two years after their respective disabilities shall have ceased, and in any action brought by any such person, the allowance and settlement of the account shall be deemed presumptive evidence of its correctness.

SEC. 1561. The account shall not be allowed by the court until it be first proven that notice has been given as required by this act, and the decree shall show that such proof was made to the satisfaction of the court, and shall be conclusive evidence of the fact.

SEC. 1562. The debts of the estate shall be paid in the following order: 1. Funeral expenses. 2. Expenses of the last sickness. 3. Debts having preference by the laws of the United States. 4. Taxes or any dues to the territory. 5. Judgments rendered against the deceased in his lifetime on which execution might have issued at the time of his death, and mortgages in the order of their date. 6. All other demands against the estate.

SEC. 1563. The preference given in the preceding section to a mortgage, shall only extend to the proceeds of the property mortgaged; if the proceeds of such property be insufficient to pay the mortgage, the part remaining unsatisfied shall be classed with other demands against the estate.

SEC. 1564. If the estate be insufficient to pay the debts of any one class, each creditor shall be paid a dividend in proportion to his claim, and no creditor of any one class shall receive any payment until all those of the preceding class shall have been fully paid.

SEC. 1565. It shall be the duty of the executor or administrator, as soon as he may have sufficient funds in his hands, to pay the funeral expenses, and expenses of the last sickness, and the allowance made to the family of the deceased, and he may retain in his hands the necessary expenses of administration, but he shall not be obliged to pay any other debt or any legacy, until as prescribed by this act, the payment has been ordered by the court.

SEC. 1566. Upon the settlement of the accounts of the executor or administrator at the end of the year, as required by this act, the court shall make an order for the payment of the debts, as the circumstances of the estate shall require. If there be not sufficient funds in the hands of the executors or administrators, the court shall specify in the decree the sum to be paid each creditor.

SEC. 1567. If there be any claim not due, or any contingent or disputed claim against the estate, the amount thereof, or such part thereof as the holder would be entitled to if the claim were due, established, or absolute, shall be paid into the court, where it shall remain to be paid over to the party when he shall become entitled thereto; or if he fail to establish his claim, to be paid over or distributed, as the circumstances of the case may require: Provided, That if any creditor whose claim has been allowed, but is not yet due, shall appear and assent to a reduction therefrom of the legal interest for the time the claim has yet to run he shall be entitled to be paid accordingly.

SEC. 1568. Whenever a decree shall have been made by the probate court for the payment of creditors, the executor or administrator shall be personally liable to each creditor for his claim, or the dividend thereon; and the execution may be issued on such decree, as upon a judgment of the district court in favor of each creditor; and the same proceedings may be had under such execution, as if it had been issued from the district court. The executor or administrator shall be liable on his bond to each creditor.

SEC. 1569. When the accounts of the executor or administrator have been settled, and an order made for the payment of the debts and distribution of the estate, no creditor whose name was not included in the order of payment, shall have any right to call upon the creditors who have been paid, or upon the heirs, legatees or devisees to contribute for the payment of his claim; but if the executor or administrator shall have failed to give the notice to creditors as prescribed in this act, such creditor may recover on the bond of the executor or administrator, the amount of his claim, or such part thereof as he would have been entitled to, had it been allowed: Provided, That this section shall not apply to any creditor whose claim was not due one year before the day of settlement, or whose claim was contingent and did not become absolute, one year before such day.

SEC. 1570. If all the debts shall have been paid by the first distribution, the court shall proceed to direct the payment of legacies, and the distribution of the estate among the heirs, legatees, or other persons entitled; but if there be debts remaining unpaid, the court shall give such extension of time as may be reasonable, for the final settlement of the same.

SEC. 1571. At the time designated, or sooner, if within that time all property of the estate shall have been sold, or there shall be sufficient funds in his hands to pay all the debts due by the estate, the executor or administrator shall render a final account and pay a settlement of the estate.

SEC. 1572. If he neglect to render his account the same proceedings may be had as are prescribed in this act, in regard to the first account to be rendered by him, and all the provisions of this act relative to the last mentioned account, and the notice and settlement thereof, shall apply to his account presented for final settlement.

SEC. 1576. If, on the hearing, it appear to the court that the estate is but little in debt, and that the share of the parties applying, may be allowed without injury to the creditors of the estate, the court shall make a decree in conformity with the prayer of the applicant or applicants: Provided, Each one of them shall first execute and deliver to the executor or administrator, a bond in such sum as shall be designated by the probate court, and with sureties to be approved by the judge thereof, to the executor or administrator, conditioned for the payment by the devisee or legatee, whenever required, of his proportion of the debts due from the estate.

SEC. 1577. Such decree may order the executor or administrator to deliver to the heir, devisee or legatee, the whole portion of the estate to which he may be entitled, or only a part thereof.

SEC. 1578. If, in the execution of such decree, any partition be necessary between two or more of the parties interested, it shall be made in the manner hereinafter prescribed.

SEC. 1579. The costs of the proceedings authorized by the preceding section, shall be paid by the applicant, or if there be more than one, shall be equally apportioned among them.

SEC. 1580. Whenever any bond has been executed and delivered under the provisions of the preceding sections, and the executor or administrator shall ascertain that it is necessary for the settlement of the estate, to require the payment of any part of the money thereby secured, he shall petition the court for an order requiring the payment, and shall have a citation issued and served on the party bound, requiring him to appear and show cause why the order shall not be made. At the hearing, the court, if satisfied of the necessity of the payment, shall make an order accordingly, designating the amount and giving the time within which it shall be paid; and if the money be not paid within the time allowed, an action may be maintained by the executor or administrator on the bond.

SEC. 1581. Upon the settlement of the account of the executor or administrator or at any subsequent time, upon the application of the executor or administrator, or any heir, devisee or legatee, the court shall proceed to distribute the residue of the estate among the persons who are by law entitled.

SEC. 1582. In the decree the court shall name the person and the portion or part to which each shall be entitled; and such persons shall have the right to demand and recover their respective shares from the executor or administrator, or any person having the same in possession.

SEC. 1583. The decree may be made on the application of the executor or administrator, or of any person interested in the estate, and shall only be made after notice has been given in the manner required in regard to an application for the sale of land by an executor or administrator. The court may order such further notice to be given as it may deem proper.

SEC. 1584. When the estate, real or personal, assigned to two or more heirs, devisees or legatees, shall be in common and undivided, and the respective shares shall not be separated and distinguished, partition and distribution may be made by three disinterested persons, to be appointed commissioners for that purpose by the probate court, who shall be duly sworn to the faithful discharge of their duties, and the court shall issue a warrant to them for that purpose.

SEC. 1585. If the real estate be in different counties, the probate court may, if it shall judge proper, appoint different commissioners for each county; and in such cases the estate in each county shall be divided separately, as if there were no other estate to be divided, but the commissioners first appointed shall, unless otherwise directed by the probate court, make division of such real estate wherever situated within the territory.

SEC. 1586. Such partition and distribution may be ordered on the petition of any of the persons interested in the estate; but before any partition shall be ordered, as directed in this act, notice shall be given to all persons interested who shall reside in this territory, or to their guardians and to agents, attorneys or guardians, if there be any in this territory, of such as reside out of the territory, either personally or by public notice, as the probate court may direct.

SEC. 1587. Partition of the real estate may be made as provided in this act, although some of the original heirs or devisees may have conveyed their shares to other persons, and such shares shall be assigned to the person holding the same, in the same manner as they otherwise would have been to such heirs or devisees.

SEC. 1588. The several shares in the real and personal estate shall be set out to each individual in proportion to his right, by such metes, bounds and descriptions, that the same may be easily distinguished, unless two or more of the parties shall consent to have their shares set out so as to be held by them in common and undivided.

SEC. 1589. When any such real estate cannot be divided without prejudice or inconvenience to the owners, the probate court may assign the whole to one or more of the parties entitled to share therein, who will accept it, providing the party so accepting the whole shall pay to the other parties interested their just proportion of the true value thereof, or secure the same to their satisfaction, and the true value of the estate shall be ascertained by the commissioners appointed by probate court, and sworn for that purpose.

SEC. 1590. When any tract of land or tenement shall be of greater value than either party's share of the estate to be divided, and cannot be divided without injury to the same, it may be set off by the commissioners appointed to make partition, to either of the parties who will accept it, giving preference as prescribed in the preceding sections; providing the party so accepting shall pay or secure to one or more of the others, such sums as the commissioners shall award to make the partition equal, and the commissioners shall make their award accordingly; but such partition shall not be established by the court until the sums so awarded shall be paid to the parties entitled to the same, or secured to their satisfaction.

SEC. 1591. When it cannot be otherwise fairly divided, the whole or any part of the estate, real or personal, may be recommended by the commissioners to be sold; and if the report be confirmed, the court may order a sale by the executor or administrator, and distribute the proceeds.

SEC. 1592. When partition of real estate among heirs or devisees shall be required, and such real estate shall be undivided and in common with the real estate of any other person, the commissioners shall first divide and sever the estate of the deceased from the estate with which it lies in common; and such division so made and established by the probate court, shall be binding upon all the persons interested.

SEC. 1593. Before any partition shall be made, or any estate divided, as provided in this act, guardians shall be appointed for all minors and insane persons interested in the estate to be divided; and some discreet person shall be appointed to act as agent for such parties as reside out of the territory, and notice of the appointment of such agent shall be given to the commissioners in their warrant; and notice shall be given to all persons interested in the partition, their guardians or agents, by the commissioners, of the time when they shall proceed to make partition.

SEC. 1594. The commissioners shall make a report of their proceedings in writing, and the court may, for sufficient reasons, set aside such report and remit the same to the same commissioners or appoint others; and the report, when finally accepted and established, shall be recorded in the records of the probate court, and a copy thereof attested by the judge, under the seal of the court, shall be recorded in the office of the county auditor in the county where the land lies.

SEC. 1595. When the probate court shall make a decree assigning the residue of any estate to one or more persons entitled to the same, it shall not be necessary to appoint commissioners to make partition or distribution of such estate, unless the parties to whom the assignment shall have been decreed, or some of them, shall request that such partition be made.

SEC. 1596. All questions as to advancements made, or alleged to have been made by the deceased to any heirs, may be heard and determined by the probate court, and shall be specified in the decree assigning the estate, and in the warrant to the commissioners, and the final decree of the probate court, or in case of appeal, of the district or supreme courts, shall be binding on all parties interested in the estate.

SEC. 1597. When any estate shall have been assigned by decree of the court, or distributed by commissioners, as provided in this act, to any person residing out of this territory, and having no agent therein, and it shall be necessary that some person should be authorized to take possession and charge of the same for the benefit of such absent person, the court may appoint an agent for that purpose, and authorize him to take charge of such estate, as well as to act for such absentee in the partition and distribution.

SEC. 1598. Such agent shall give a bond to the county in which such estate shall be situated, to be approved by the court, conditioned faithfully to manage and account for such estate, before he shall be authorized to receive the same, and the court appointing such agent may allow a reasonable sum out of the profits of the estate for his services and expenses.

SEC. 1599. When the estate shall have remained in the hands of the agent unclaimed for one year, it shall be sold under order of the court, and the proceeds, deducting the expenses of the sale, to be allowed by the court, shall be paid into the county treasury. When the payment is made the agent shall take triplicate receipts, one of which he shall file with the county auditor, and another with the probate court.

SEC. 1600. The agent shall be liable on his bond for the care and preservation of the estate while in his hands, and for the payment of the proceeds of sale as required by the preceding section, and may be sued thereon by any person interested.

SEC. 1601. When any person shall appear and claim the money paid into the treasury, the probate court making the distribution, being first satisfied of his right, shall grant him a certificate under its seal, and upon the presentation of the certificate to the county auditor, he shall draw his warrant on the county treasurer for the amount.

SEC. 1602. When the estate has been fully administered, and it shall have been shown by the executor or administrator, by the production of satisfactory vouchers, that he has paid all sums of money due from him, and delivered up, under order of the court, all property of the estate to the persons entitled, the court shall make a decree discharging him from all liability to be incurred thereafter.

SEC. 1603. The final settlement of the estate shall not prevent a subsequent issuance of letters of administration, should other property of the estate be discovered, or it should become necessary and proper from any cause that letters should be again issued.

SEC. 1724. Every justice of the peace shall keep a docket in a well bound book, in which he shall enter:

SEC. 1725. Whenever the plaintiff is a non-resident of the county, the justice may require of him security for the costs before the commencement of the action.

SEC. 1726. In an action for the recovery of money, the plaintiff, at the time of filing his claim or complaint with the justice, or at any time afterwards, may have the property of the defendant attached in the manner hereinafter prescribed, as a security for the satisfaction of such judgment as he may recover.

SEC. 1727. A writ of attachment shall be issued by any justice with whom a complaint or claim has been filed, whenever the plaintiff, his attorney or agent, shall make and file with such justice an affidavit stating that a cause of action exists against the defendant in favor of the plaintiff, together with the nature thereof, and that the defendant is indebted to the plaintiff thereon, specifying the amount of such indebtedness, as near as may be over and above all just set-offs and counter claims, and that the same is not secured by any mortgage or lien upon real or personal property, or pledge of personal property, or if originally so secured, such security has, without any act of plaintiff's, become inadequate.

SEC. 1728. The plaintiff, or some one in his behalf, shall, before the writ issues, execute a bond in a sum equal to the amount claimed, with sufficient surety, to be approved by the justice, payable to the defendant, to the effect that the plaintiff will duly prosecute his proceeding in attachment, and will pay all damages which may be sustained by the defendant, if the proceedings of the plaintiff shall be wrongful and oppressive.

SEC. 1729. The writ shall be directed to the sheriff or constable, and shall be delivered to such officer or such other person as may be specially authorized to execute the same. It shall require such officer to seize and take into his possession the property of the defendant in his county not exempt from execution, or sufficient thereof to satisfy the amount of the plaintiff's claim and costs.

SEC. 1730. Upon receipt of the writ, the sheriff, constable or other person authorized to serve the same, shall proceed to attach the property, goods and chattels of the defendant, subject to execution, in the manner hereinafter provided.

SEC. 1731. Personal property, capable of manual delivery, shall be attached by taking it into custody; stock or shares, or interest in stock or shares of any corporation or company, shall be attached by leaving with the president or other head of the same, or the secretary, cashier or managing agent thereof, a copy of the writ, and a notice stating that the stock or interest of the defendant is attached in pursuance of such writ; debts and credits and other personal property, not capable of manual delivery, shall be attached by leaving with the person owing such debts, or having in his possession, or under his control such credits, or other personal property, a copy of the writ, and a notice that the debts owing by him to the defendant, or the credits, and other personal property in his possession, or under his control belonging to the defendant, are attached in pursuance of such writ.

SEC. 1732. Upon receiving information from the plaintiff or his attorney, that any person has in his possession, or under his control, any credits or other personal property belonging to the defendant, or is owing any debt to the defendant, the sheriff or other person or officer having the writ shall serve upon such person a copy of the writ and a notice that such credits or other property or debts, as the case may be, are attached in pursuance of such writ.

SEC. 1733. All persons having in their possession or under their control, any credits or other personal property belonging to the defendant, or owing any debts to the defendant, at the time of service upon them of a copy of the writ and notice, as provided in the last two sections, shall be, unless such property be delivered up or transferred, or such debts be paid to the sheriff, constable, or other officer or person having the writ, liable to the plaintiff for the amount of such credits, property,

SEC. 1734. Any person owing debts to the defendant, or having in his possession or under his control any credits or other personal property, belonging to the defendant, may be required to attend before the justice of the peace by whom the writ was issued, and be examined on oath respecting the same. The defendant may also be required to attend, for the purpose of giving information respecting his property, and may be examined on oath. The justice may, after such examination, order personal property capable of manual delivery to be delivered to the sheriff, constable or other officer or person having the writ, on such terms as may be just, having reference to any liens thereon or claims against the same, and a memorandum to be given of all personal property containing the amount and description thereof.

SEC. 1735. The sheriff, constable, or other officer, having the writ, shall make a full inventory of the property attached and return the same with the writ. To enable him to make such return as to debts and credits attached, he shall request, at the time of service, the party owing the debt or having the credit, to give him a memorandum, stating the amount and description of each; and if such memorandum be refused, he shall return the fact of the refusal with the writ. The party, refusing to give the memorandum, may be required to pay the cost of any proceedings, taken for the purpose of obtaining information respecting the amount and description of such debt or credit.

SEC. 1736. If any of the property attached be perishable, the officer or person having the writ shall sell the same in the manner in which such property is sold on execution. The proceeds and other property attached by him shall be retained by him to answer any judgment that may be recovered in the action, unless sooner subjected to execution upon another judgment recovered previous to the issuing of the attachment. Debts and credits attached may be recovered previous to the attachment. Debts and credits attached may be collected by the officer or person having the writ, if the same can be done without suit. The officer's receipts shall be a sufficient discharge for the amount paid.

SEC. 1737. If any property attached be claimed by any other person than the defendant or his agent, and the claimant make affidavit of his title thereto, or his right to the possession thereof, stating the ground of such title or right, and serve the same upon the officer or person having the writ, while the property is in his possession; such officer or person shall not be bound to keep the property unless the plaintiff, on demand, indemnify him against such claim by a bond executed by at least two sufficient sureties, who must be residents of the county, and able to prove that they are each worth double the value of the property attached, over and above all debts and liabilities, exclusive of property exempt from execution, and no claim to property attached shall be valid against the officer, unless made as aforesaid, and notwithstanding such claim when so made, he may retain the property a reasonable time to demand such indemnity.

SEC. 1738. When a claim is made to property in the manner provided in the last section, the officer shall at once make a return of the writ with his doings endorsed thereon, and deliver the claimant's affidavit to the justice, who shall file the same and cause notice thereof to be given to the plaintiff or his attorney, and if the property be not released for failure on the part of the plaintiff to indemnify the officer, he shall set the case for hearing, upon the allegations of the affidavit; and the case shall be tried as a new action between the claimant as plaintiff, and the officer and the plaintiff in the attachment suit, as defendants, and the case shall proceed as in other civil actions, and, if either party demand it, a jury may be empaneled as in other cases.

SEC. 1739. If in such suit, the claimant establish his title or right to the possession of the property, judgment shall be rendered in his favor for possession of the property and for costs against the plaintiff in the attachment; if he fail to establish his title or right to the property, judgment shall be rendered against him for costs.

SEC. 1740. After judgment in the attachment suit, the property attached shall be disposed of in the same manner as provided by law for similar cases in the district courts.

SEC. 1741. Property attached may be released by the defendant giving a bond in such amount as the justice may designate, with good and sufficient sureties, conditioned for the payment of any judgment that may be recovered against him in the action and the costs thereof; or by claiming that the property is exempt, in which case the question of exemption shall be tried by the justice summarily: Provided, however, That if either party demand it, a jury may be empaneled and the matter may be tried before the court and jury as other civil actions, and so much of the property, as shall be decided to be exempt, shall be released and delivered to the defendant.

SEC. 1742. The plaintiff shall not have judgment for costs of such attachment except in some of the following cases, viz:

1. When the defendant shall have been personally served with process; or.
2. When the property of the defendant shall have been attached; or.
3. When a garnishee shall have been summoned in the county, who shall be found to be indebted to the defendant, or to have property or assets in his hands subject to the attachment.

SEC. 1743. A writ of attachment may be issued and executed on Sunday, if the plaintiff will show in his affidavit that the defendant is about to abscond on that day, to the injury of the plaintiff.

SEC. 1744. A writ of attachment binds the defendant's property from the time it is served.

SEC. 1745. If after a writ of attachment is placed in the hands of the officer or other person authorized to serve the same, any property of the defendant's is removed from the county, the officer or other person so having such writ may pursue and seize the same in any county in the territory within five days after the removal thereof.

SEC. 1746. A justice of the peace shall issue a warrant of arrest in all such cases within his jurisdiction, and for such causes, and upon such proof as is provided for an order for a warrant in the act regulating civil actions.

SEC. 1747. Before issuing the warrant of arrest the justice shall require a bond on part of the plaintiff, with one or more sureties, to the effect that if the defendant recover judgment, the plaintiff will pay all costs that may be awarded to the defendant, and all damages which may be sustained by reason of the arrest, not exceeding the sum specified in the bond, which shall be at least one hundred dollars.

SEC. 1748. The warrant shall be served by arresting the defendant and taking him before the justice of the peace who issued the same; but if such justice, at the return thereof, be absent or unable to try the action, the officer shall immediately take the defendant to the nearest justice of the same county, who shall take cognizance of the action, and proceed thereon as if the warrant had been issued by himself.

SEC. 1749. The officer making the arrest shall immediately give notice to the plaintiff, his agent or attorney, and indorse on the warrant the time of the arrest, and the time of serving notice on the plaintiff.

SEC. 1750. When a defendant is brought before a justice on a warrant he shall be detained in the custody of the officer until he shall be discharged according to law; but in no case shall the defendant be detained longer than twenty-four hours from the time he shall be brought before the justice, unless within that time the trial of the action shall be commenced, or unless it has been delayed at the instance of the defendant.

SEC. 1751. If the defendant, on his appearance, demand a continuance, the same may be granted on condition that he remain in custody or execute and file with the justice a bond, with one or more sufficient sureties, to be approved by the justice, to the effect that he will render himself amenable to the process of the court; or that the sureties will pay to plaintiff the amount of any judgment which he may recover in the action. On filing such bond, the justice shall order the defendant to be discharged from custody.

SEC. 1752. If any officer, without showing good cause therefor, fail to execute any process to him delivered, and make due return thereof, or make a false return, such officer, for every such offense, shall pay to the party injured ten dollars, and all damage such party may have sustained by reason thereof, to be recovered in a civil action.

SEC. 1753. No action shall be commenced by an infant plaintiff except by his guardian, or until a next friend for such infant shall have been appointed. Whenever requested, the justice shall appoint some suitable person, who shall consent thereto in writing, to be named by such plaintiff, to act as his next friend in such action, who shall be responsible for the costs therein.

SEC. 1754. After service and return of process against an infant defendant, the action shall not be further prosecuted, until a guardian for such infant shall have been appointed. Upon the request of such defendant, the justice shall appoint some person who shall consent thereto in writing, to be guardian of the defendant in defense of the action; and if the defendant shall not appear on the return day of the process, or if he neglect or refuse to nominate such guardian, the justice may, at the request of the plaintiff, appoint any discreet person as such guardian. The consent of the guardian or next friend shall be filed with the justice; and such guardian for the defendant shall not be liable for any costs in the action.

SEC. 1755. The parties shall be entitled to one hour in which to make their appearance after the time mentioned in the notice for appearance, but shall not be required to remain longer than that time, unless both parties appear; and the justice being present, is actually engaged in the trial of another action or proceeding; in such case he may postpone the time of appearance until the close of such trial.

PLEADINGS AND ADJOURNMENTS.

SEC. 1756. The pleadings in justice's court shall take place upon the appearance of the parties, unless they shall have been previously filed or unless the justice shall, for good cause shown, allow a longer time than the time of appearance.

SEC. 1757. The pleadings in the justice's court shall be:

1. The complaint of the plaintiff, which shall state in a plain and direct manner the facts constituting the cause of action.
2. The answer of the defendant, which may contain a denial of the complaint, or any part thereof; and also a statement, in a plain and direct manner, of any facts constituting a defense.
3. When the answer sets up a set-off, by way of defense, the reply of the plaintiff.

SEC. 1758. The pleadings shall be in writing, when the action is for one of the following causes:

1. For a forcible or unlawful entry upon, or a forcible or unlawful detention of lands, tenements or other possessions.
2. To recover the occupancy or possession of a mining claim. In all other cases the pleadings may be oral or in writing.

SEC. 1759. When the pleadings are oral, the substance of them shall be entered by the justice in his docket. When in writing they shall be filed in his office and a reference made to them in his docket. Pleadings shall not be required to be in any particular form, but shall be such as to enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended.

SEC. 1760. A statement in an answer or reply, that the party has not sufficient knowledge or information, in respect to a particular allegation in the previous pleadings of the adverse party to form a belief, shall be deemed equivalent to a denial.

SEC. 1761. When the cause of action, or set-off, arises upon an account or instrument for the payment of money only, it shall be sufficient for the party to deliver the account or instrument, or a copy thereof, to the court, and to state that there is due to him thereon, from the adverse party, a specified sum, which he claims to recover or set-off. The court may, at the time of pleading, require that the original account, or instrument, be exhibited to the inspection of the adverse party, with liberty to copy the same; or if not so exhibited, may prohibit its being given in evidence.

SEC. 1762. Every complaint, answer or reply shall be verified by the oath of the party pleading; or if he be not present, by the oath of his attorney or agent, to the effect that he believes it to be true. The verification shall be oral, or in writing, in conformity with the pleading verified.

SEC. 1763. Every material allegation in a complaint, or relating to a set-off in an answer, not denied by the pleading of the adverse party, shall, on the trial, be taken to be true, except that when a defendant, who has not been served with a copy of the complaint, fails to appear and answer, the plaintiff cannot recover without proving his case.

SEC. 1764. Either party may object to a pleading by his adversary, or to any part thereof that is not sufficiently explicit for him to understand it, or that it contains no cause of action or defense although it be taken as true. If the court deem the objection well founded, it shall order the pleading to be amended; and if the party refuse to amend, the defective pleading shall be disregarded.

SEC. 1765. A variance between the proof on the trial, and the allegations in a pleading, shall be disregarded as immaterial, unless the court be satisfied that the adverse party has been misled to his prejudice thereby.

SEC. 1766. The pleadings may be amended at any time before the trial, or during the trial, or upon appeal, to supply any deficiency or omissions in the allegations or denials, necessary to support the action or defense, when by such amendment substantial justice will be promoted. If the amendment be made after the issue, and it be made to appear to the satisfaction of the court that a continuance is necessary to the adverse party in consequence of such amendment, a continuance shall be granted. The court may also, in its discretion, require as a condition of an amendment, the payment of costs to the adverse party.

SEC. 1767. To entitle a defendant to any set off he may have against the plaintiff, he must allege the same in his answer; and the statutes regulating set offs in the district court, shall in all respects be applicable to a set off in a justice's court, if the amount claimed to be set off, after deducting the amount [found] due the plaintiff, be within the jurisdiction of the justice of the peace; judgment may, in like manner, be rendered by the justice in favor of the defendant, for the balance found due the plaintiff.

SEC. 1768. When the set off of the defendant proved shall exceed the claim of the plaintiff, and such excess in amount exceed the jurisdiction of a justice of the peace, the court shall allow such amount as is necessary to cancel the plaintiff's claim, and give the defendant a judgment for costs; but in such case, the court shall not render judgment for any further sum in favor of the defendant.

SEC. 1769. When the pleadings of the parties shall have taken place, the justice shall, upon the application of either party, if the defendant be not under arrest, and sufficient cause be shown on oath, continue the case for any time not exceeding sixty days. If the continuance be on account of absence of testimony, it shall be for such reasonable time as will enable the party to procure such testimony, and shall be at the cost of the party applying therefor, unless otherwise ordered by the justice; and in all other respects shall be governed by the law applicable to continuance in the district court.

CHAPTER CXIX.

SECTION

1770. Either party may demand jury; proviso.

1771. Number of jurors.

1772. Justice shall issue venire.

1773. Sheriff or constable to execute venire.

1774. Either party may challenge jurors.

1775. Challenges for cause.

SECTION

1776. Justice to administer oath to jury.

1777. Verdict to be delivered to justice, and entered on docket.

1778. Jury unable to agree. may be discharged, and new venire issue.

1779. Penalty of juror failing to attend.

SEC. 1770. Before the justice shall commence an investigation of the merits of the cause either party may demand that the cause be tried by a jury: Provided, That the party demanding the jury shall first pay to the justice the sum of six dollars which shall be paid over by the justice to the jury before they are discharged, and said amount shall be taxed as costs against the losing party.

SEC. 1771. The jury shall consist of six persons, unless the parties agree upon any number of jurors less than six, to try the cause; in which case the jury shall consist of such number, not exceeding six, as the parties may agree upon.

SEC. 1772. The justice shall issue a venire, directed to the sheriff, or any constable of the county where the cause is to be tried, commanding him to summon six (or such number as the parties may have agreed upon) good and lawful men of the county, qualified to serve as jurors in the district court of the same county, who shall be in no wise of kin to either party, nor interested in the action, to appear before said justice, at a time and place to be named therein, to make a jury for the trial of the cause between the parties therein named.

SEC. 1773. The sheriff or constable shall execute such venire fairly and impartially, and shall not summon any person whom he has reason to believe is biased or prejudiced, for or against either of the parties. He shall summon the jurors personally, and make a list of the persons summoned, which he shall certify and annex to the venire and return the same to the justice. If a sufficient number of competent jurors cannot be obtained from the panel returned, the sheriff or constable shall immediately summon others to serve in their place, and all jurors summoned under the provisions of this act, shall receive the same compensation from the time they are summoned until discharged, as is allowed to witnesses under the provisions of this act.

SEC. 1774. Either party may challenge the jurors, but when there are several parties on either side, they shall join in a challenge before it can be made. The challenges shall be to individual jurors, and shall be peremptory, or for cause. Each party shall be entitled to three peremptory challenges.

SEC. 1775. Challenges for cause may be taken on any ground that would be a good cause of challenge on the trial of an action in the district court. Challenges for cause shall be tried by the justice.

SEC. 1776. When the jury is selected, the justice shall administer to them an oath or affirmation, well and truly to try the cause.

SEC. 1777. When the jury have agreed on their verdict, they shall deliver the same to the justice, publicly, who shall enter it on his docket.

SEC. 1778. SEC. 1779. Every person who shall be duly summoned as a juror, and shall not appear nor render a reasonable excuse for his default, shall be subject to a fine not exceeding ten dollars.

SECTION 1780. When action may be dismissed without prejudice. 1781. Upon failure of defendant to appear. 1782. If jury not demanded, justice to hear cause.	SECTION 1783. Judgment, when to be rendered. 1784. Defendant may offer in writing to allow judgment for specified sum. 1785. Costs to go to prevailing party.

1. When the plaintiff voluntarily dismisses the action before it is finally submitted.

2. When he fails to appear at the time specified in the notice, upon continuance, or within one hour thereafter.

3. When it is objected at the trial, and appears by the evidence that the action is brought in the wrong county; but if the objection be taken and overruled, it shall be cause only of reversal or appeal; if not taken at the trial it shall be deemed waived, and shall not be cause of reversal.

SEC. 1781. When the defendant fails to appear and plead at the time specified in the notice, or within one hour thereafter, judgment shall be given as follows:

1. When the defendant has been served with a true copy of the complaint, judgment shall be given without further evidence for the sum specified therein.

2. In other cases, the justice shall hear the evidence of the plaintiff, and render judgment for such sum only as shall appear by the evidence to be just, but in no case exceed the amount specified in the complaint.

SEC. 1783. Upon the verdict of a jury, the justice shall immediately render judgment thereon. When the trial is by the justice, judgment shall be entered immediately after the close of the trial, if the defendant has been arrested and is still in custody; in other cases it shall be entered within three days after the close of the trial.

SEC. 1784. If the defendant, at any time before the trial, offer in writing to allow judgment to be taken against him for a specified sum, the plaintiff may immediately have judgment therefor, with costs then accrued; but if he do not accept such offer before the trial, and fail to recover on the trial of the action, a sum greater than the offer, such plaintiff shall not recover any costs that may accrue after he shall have been notified of the offer of the defendant, but such costs shall be adjudged against him, and if he recover, deducted from his recovery. But the offer and failure to accept it, shall not be given in evidence to affect the recovery, otherwise than as to costs, as above provided.

SEC. 1785. When the prevailing party is entitled to costs, by this act, the justice shall add their amount to the judgment; or in case of the failure of the plaintiff to recover, or in case of dismissal of the action, he shall enter up judgment in favor of the defendant for the amount of such costs.

SEC. 1786. The execution upon a judgment by a justice of the peace may be stayed in the manner hereinafter provided, upon reasonable notice to the opposite party, and for the following periods of time, to be calculated from the date of the judgment:

1. If the judgment be for any sum not exceeding twenty-five dollars, exclusive of costs, one month.

2. If it be for more than twenty-five dollars, two months.

SEC. 1787. To entitle any person to such stay of execution, some responsible person, to be approved by the justice, and not being a party to the judgment, must, within five days after rendering of the judgment, enter into a bond, before the justice, to the adverse party, in a sufficient sum to secure the payment of the judgment and costs, conditioned to be void upon such payment, at the expiration of the stay.

SEC. 1788. Such bond shall be signed by the person entering into the same, and may be in the following form:

Whereas, A B, has obtained a judgment before J P, one of the justices of the peace in and for — county, on the — day of —, 18—, against C D, for — dollars; now, therefore, I, E F, acknowledge myself bound to A B in the sum of — dollars; this bond to be void if such judgment shall be paid at the expiration of — month after the time it was rendered.

Dated the — day of —, 18—.

— — —, E F.

SEC. 1789. If at the expiration of such stay, the judgment be not paid, the execution shall issue against both the principal and bail. If the principal do not satisfy the execution, and the officer cannot find sufficient property belonging to him upon which to levy, he shall levy upon the property of the bail, and in his return shall state what amount of money, collected by him on the execution, was collected from the bail, and the time when the same was received.

SEC. 1790. After the return of such execution, the bail shall be entitled, on application to the justice, to have the judgment, or so much thereof as may have been collected from him in satisfaction of the execution, transferred to his use; and he may collect the same from the defendant by execution, together with the interest at the rate of twelve per cent. per annum.

SEC. 1791. If judgment be stayed in the manner above provided, after an execution has been issued thereon, the justice shall revoke such execution, in the same manner, and with like effect as he is hereinafter directed to revoke an execution, after an appeal has been allowed; and if the defendant have been committed, shall order him to be discharged from custody.

SEC. 1792. If there be mutual justice's judgments between the same parties, upon which the time for appealing has elapsed on judgment, on the application of either party, and reasonable notice given to the adverse party, one may be set off against the other, by the justice before whom the judgment against which the set-off is proposed, may be.

SEC. 1793. If the judgment proposed as a set-off was rendered before another justice, the party proposing such set-off shall produce before such justice a transcript of such judgment, upon which there is a certificate of the justice before whom such may be, that it is unsatisfied in whole or in part, and that there is no appeal, and that such transcript was obtained for the purpose of being set-off against the judgment to which it is offered as a set-off. The justice granting such transcript shall make an entry thereof on his docket, and all further proceedings on such judgment shall be stayed, unless such transcript be returned with the proper justice's certificate thereon, that it has not been allowed in set-off.

SEC. 1794. If any justice shall set off one judgment against another, he shall make an entry thereof on his docket, and execution shall issue only for the balance which may be due after such set-off. If a justice shall allow a transcript of a judgment rendered by another justice to be set-off, he shall file such transcript among the papers relating to the judgment in which it is allowed in set-off. If he shall refuse such transcript as a set-off, he shall so certify on the transcript, and return the same to the party who offered it.

SEC. 1795. Execution for the enforcement of a judgment in a justice's court, may be issued on the application of the party entitled thereto, in the manner hereinbefore prescribed; but after the lapse of five years from the date of the judgment, no execution shall issue except by leave of the justice before whom such judgment may be, upon reasonable notice, to the defendant.

SEC. 1796. When any judgment shall have been rendered by any justice of the peace, and the same not be satisfied during his continuance in office, and the docket of such justice shall have been transferred to another justice, or to the successor of the justice rendering such judgment, the justice to whom the docket shall be delivered shall issue execution upon such unsatisfied judgment in the same manner, and with like effect as if he himself had rendered the judgment.

SEC. 1797. If the defendant have not goods and chattels in the county in which judgment was rendered, sufficient to satisfy the execution, the justice before whom such judgment may be, shall, at the request of the party entitled, make out a certified transcript of the same, which may be delivered to a justice in any other county, who shall make an entry thereof in his docket, and issue execution thereon for the amount of the judgment, or such part as shall be unsatisfied, with costs as in other cases.

SEC. 1798. The execution shall be directed (except when it is otherwise especially provided,) to the sheriff or any constable of the county where the justice resides; shall be dated on the day it is issued, and made returnable within thirty days from the date; and it shall be against the goods and chattels of the person against whom the same is issued.

SEC. 1799. Before any execution shall be delivered, the justice shall state in his docket, and also on the back of the execution, the amount of the debt, or damages and costs, and of the fees due to each person separately, and the officer receiving such execution shall indorse the time of the reception of the same.

SEC. 1800. If an execution be not satisfied, it may, at the request of the plaintiff, be renewed from time to time by the justice who issues the same, or by the justice to whom his docket is transferred, by an indorsement thereon to that effect, signed by him, and dated when the same shall be made. If any part of such execution has been satisfied the indorsement of renewal shall express the sum due on the execution. Every such indorsement shall renew the execution in full force in all respects for thirty days, and no longer; and an entry of such renewal shall be made in the docket of the justice.

SEC. 1801. The officer, after taking goods and chattels into his custody by virtue of an execution, shall, without delay, give public notice by at least three advertisements, put up at three public places in the county, of the time and place, when and where they will be exposed for sale. Such notice shall describe the goods and chattels taken, and shall be put up at least ten days before the day of sale.

SEC. 1802. At the time and place so appointed, if the goods and chattels be present for inspection of bidders, the officer shall expose them to sale at public vendue to the highest bidder; he shall return the execution and have the money before the justice at the time of making such return, ready to be paid over to the persons respectively entitled thereto.

SEC. 1803. No officer shall directly or indirectly purchase any goods or chattels at any sale made by him upon execution, and every such purchase shall be absolutely void.

SEC. 1804. If the action be one in which the defendant might have been arrested upon a warrant, an execution against the person of such defendant may be issued after the return of an execution against his property unsatisfied in whole or in part. An execution against the person may likewise be issued after such return, where the defendant has been arrested upon a warrant and not discharged according to law.

SEC. 1805. If there be no property found, or if the goods and chattels levied on be not sufficient to satisfy such execution, the officer shall, on demand of the plaintiff, summon in writing as garnishees, such persons as may be named to the plaintiff or his agent, to appear before the justice on the return day of the execution, to answer such interrogatories as may be put to them, touching their liabilities as garnishees, and the like proceedings shall be had thereon before the justice to final judgment as in the proceedings by attachment.

SEC. 1806. Any justice of the peace may issue an execution against the prevailing party, to collect fees and costs for which such party may be liable, after an execution has been first issued against the other party, and returned "no property found."

SEC. 1807. If any property levied on be claimed by any other person than the defendant in the execution, and the claimant make affidavit of his title or right to the possession of the same, stating the ground of such title or right, and serve the same upon the sheriff or constable, while the property is in his possession, said sheriff or constable shall not be bound to keep the property unless the plaintiff on demand indemnify him in the same manner as provided in this act for cases where property held under attachment is claimed by persons not parties to the suit and when such claim is made, the sheriff or constable shall immediately file the claimant's affidavit with the justice, and notify the plaintiff thereof, and unless the property be at once released, the justice shall set the case for trial upon the allegations of the claimant's affidavit, and the case shall proceed and be determined in the same manner as provided in this act for cases where property held under attachment is claimed by persons not parties to the suit.

SEC. 1808. Nothing contained in the last section shall be so construed as to prevent the claimant of property levied on by execution from resorting to any legal remedy he may choose to pursue, instead of proceeding in the manner therein prescribed.

Upon the receipt of the affidavit and order with a bond, executed by two or more sufficient sureties, approved by the sheriff or constable, to the effect that they are bound in double the value of the property as stated in the affidavit, for the prosecution of the action, for the return of the property to the defendant, if return thereof be adjudged, and for the payment to him of such sum as may for any cause be recovered against the plaintiff, the sheriff or constable shall forthwith take the property described in the affidavit, if it be in the possession of the defendant or his agent, and retain it in his custody. He shall also without delay, serve on the defendant a copy of the affidavit, order and bond, by delivering the same to him personally if he can be found within the county, or to his agent from whose possession the property is taken, or if neither can be found in the county, by leaving them at the usual abode of either within the county, with some person of suitable age and discretion; or if neither have any known place of abode in the county, by putting them into the post office, directed to the defendant at the post office nearest to him.

SEC. 1813. The defendant may, within two days after the service of a copy of the affidavit, order and bond, give notice to the officer that he excepts to the sufficiency of the sureties. If he fail to do so, he shall be deemed to have waived all objection to them. When the defendant excepts, the sureties shall justify upon one day's notice before the justice; and the officer shall be responsible for the sufficiency of the sureties, until the objection to them is either waived as above provided, or until they justify, or new sureties be substituted, and they justify. SEC. 1816. If the property, or any part thereof, be concealed in a building or inclosure, the officer shall publicly demand its delivery, and if it be not delivered, he shall cause the building or inclosure to be broken open and take the property into his possession.

SEC. 1818. If the property taken be claimed by any other person than the defendant or his agent, and such person make affidavit of his title thereto, or his right to the possession thereof, stating the ground of such title or right, and serve the same upon the officer before the delivery of the property to the plaintiff, the sheriff shall not be bound to keep the property or deliver it to the plaintiff, unless the plaintiff, on demand of him or his agent, indemnify the officer against such claim by a bond executed by two sufficient sureties accompanied by their affidavits, that they are each worth double the value of the property, as specified in the affidavit of the plaintiff, over and above their debts and liabilities, exclusive of property exempt from execution, and freeholders or householders

The jury shall consist of six persons, unless the parties agree on a less number; and when duly empaneled and sworn, the justice shall cause the complaint to be read to them, and then call on the plaintiff to support the same by proof, but the plaintiff shall not be required to make further proof of the forcible entry and detainer than that he was lawfully possessed of the premises, and that the defendant unlawfully entered and detains the same.

SEC. 1831. If the jury on the trial find the defendant guilty, the justice shall record the verdict, and give judgment thereon, with costs, and also issue a writ of restitution, directed to the sheriff or constable, to cause the plaintiff to be re-possessed of the premises, to which shall be added a clause commanding the officer to levy the costs of the goods and chattels of the defendant.

SEC. 1832. The verdict of the jury shall be in writing, and shall be in the form, or to the effect following:

"We, the jury, find the defendant guilty," or, if in favor of the defendant, "not guilty of said forcible entry and detainer, in manner and form as the plaintiff in his complaint hath alleged;" or the jury may find the defendant guilty as to part, and not guilty as to the balance of the charge, as laid down in the plaintiff's complaint; if so, they shall state it specially in their verdict.

SEC. 1833. When the jury find a verdict of "not guilty" for the defendant, the verdict shall be so recorded, and the justice shall enter judgment against the plaintiff for costs, and issue execution therefor against his goods and chattels.

SEC. 1838. When the plaintiff shall file a complaint for an unlawful detainer, for any one of the causes mentioned in the last section, it shall not be necessary for the justice to issue a venire for a jury, at the time of issuing the summons; but the justice shall, at the time of trial proceed to hear and determine the complaint, unless either party shall call for a trial by jury, in which case the justice shall issue a venire, in the same manner, and the same proceedings shall thereupon be had as in cases of forcible entry and detainer.

SEC. 1839. When the action shall be brought to recover the possession of premises demised or let, for the reason that the tenant or person in possession has refused or neglected to pay the rent due, it shall be lawful for the defendant, at any time before judgment, to pay to the justice for plaintiff, the rent then in arrear, with interest and the costs of the action, and thereupon, no writ of restitution shall be awarded.

SEC. 1840. The justice shall have the same power to continue actions for forcible entry and detainer, as in other cases.

SEC. 1890. In all trials for offenses within the jurisdiction of a justice of the peace, the prisoner or the territory may demand a jury, which shall consist of six, or a lesser number, agreed upon by the territory and accused to be empaneled and sworn as in civil cases, or the trial may be by the justice. When the complaint is for a crime or misdemeanor in the jurisdiction of the district court, the justice hears the case as a committing magistrate, and no jury shall be allowed.

SEC. 1891. Such justice or jury, if they find the prisoner guilty, shall assess his punishment, or if in their opinion the punishment they are authorized to assess, is not adequate to the offense, they may so find; and in such case, the justice shall order such defendant to enter into recognizance to appear at the next term of the court, having jurisdiction thereof, and shall also recognize the witnesses, and proceed as provided by the act regulating criminal proceedings in like cases.

SEC. 1892. The defendant may plead guilty to any offense charged.

SEC. 1893. No justice shall assess a fine or enter a judgment thereon until a witness or witnesses have been examined, to state the circumstances of the transaction; and he shall have power either to enter judgment and assess a fine, or order the defendant to enter into recognizance to appear at the next term of the district court; and where the offense charged is an injury to the person or property, the party injured in person or property must be present and examined as a witness, unless prevented by sickness, or beyond the reach of process.

SEC. 1894. In all cases arising under this act, it shall be the duty of the justice of the peace to summon the injured party, and all others whose testimony may be deemed material, as witnesses at the trial, and to enforce their attendance by attachment if necessary.

SEC. 1895. Continuance may be granted, either on application of the prisoner, or the prosecuting attorney, or prosecuting witness, under the same rules as in civil cases; the cost of such continuance shall abide the event of the prosecution in all cases and the justice shall recognize the defendant and the witnesses to appear from time to time, in the same manner as is provided in other criminal examinations before him.

SEC. 1896. In all cases of conviction, under the provisions of this act, the justice shall enter judgment for the fine and costs against the defendant, and may commit him to jail to be placed at hard labor until the judgment is satisfied, or the payment thereof be secured, and further proceedings therein shall be had as in like cases in the district court.

SEC. 1897. Every defendant may stay the execution for the fine and costs for thirty days, by procuring sufficient sureties, to be approved by the justice, to enter into recognizance before him for the payment of the fine and costs; the entry of such recognizance shall be made on the docket of the justice, and signed by the sureties, and shall have the same effect as a judgment, and if the same be not paid in thirty days, the justice shall proceed as in like cases in the district court.

SEC. 1898. Every person, convicted before a justice of the peace of any offense, may appeal from the sentence within ten days thereafter, to the district court then next to be holden for the district embracing the county. The appeal shall be taken by orally giving notice thereof at the time the judgment is rendered, or by serving a written notice thereof upon the justice at any time after the judgment and within the time allowed for taking the appeal; when the notice is given orally, the justice shall enter the same in his docket. The appellant shall be committed to abide the sentence of said justice until he shall recognize or give a bond to the territory, in such reasonable sum with such sureties as said justice may require, with condition to appear at the court appealed to, and there prosecute his appeal, and to abide the sentence of the court thereon if not revised by a higher court, and in the mean time to be of good behavior.

SEC. 1899. The justice shall also recognize the witnesses, or if they are not present, endorse their names on the copy of proceeding. The justice, on such appeal, shall make a copy of the conviction and other proceedings in the case, and transmit the same, together with the recognizance and an abstract bill of the costs, to the clerk of the court appealed to, who shall issue a subpoena for the witnesses, if they are not under recognizance.

SEC. 1900. The appellant shall not be required to advance any fees in claiming his appeal, nor in prosecuting the same; but if convicted in the appellate court, or if sentenced for failing to prosecute his appeal, he may be required, as a part of the sentence, to pay the costs of prosecution. If the appellant shall fail to enter and prosecute his appeal, he shall be defaulted on his recognizance, if any was taken, and the district court may award sentence against him for the offense whereof he was convicted, in like manner as if he had been convicted thereof in that court; and if he be not then in custody, process may be issued to bring him into court to receive sentence.

SEC. 1901. It shall be the duty of every justice, on the first Mondays in January and July in every year, and on going out of office, to pay over to the treasurer of his county all money he may have received on account of fines, and all fees which may have remained unclaimed in his hands for twelve months; and he shall, at the same time, deliver to such treasurer a statement in writing, showing by items the sources from which such money was derived, and shall append thereto an affidavit that he has received no other money for fines, not before paid over to such treasurer, and has no other fees unclaimed for twelve months, in his hands; and the treasurer's receipt therefor he shall file with the auditor, who shall give him a quietus.

Sec. 1924. If the defendant shall not enter into recognizance with sureties, the magistrate shall proceed to hear and examine the complaint, and may adjourn the examination from time to time, not exceeding in all ten days from the time such defendant shall have been brought before him, and in case of such adjournment, the magistrate may, if the offense be bailable, take a recognizance with sufficient sureties for the appearance of the defendant at such further examination; and if he fail to enter into such recognizance, he shall be ordered into custody until the time appointed for such examination.

Sec. 1925. If it should appear upon the whole examination that no offense has been committed, or that there is not probable cause for charging the defendant with an offense, he shall be discharged, and if in the opinion of the magistrate, the complaint was malicious, or without probable cause, and there was no reasonable ground therefor, the costs shall be taxed against the party making the complaint.

Sec. 1926. If it should appear that an offense has been committed, of which a justice of the peace has jurisdiction, and one which would be sufficiently punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, if the magistrate having the complaint is a justice of the peace, he shall cause the complaint to be altered, and proceed as in like cases before a justice of the peace, or any other magistrate; he shall certify the papers with a statement of the offense appearing to be proved, and recognize the witnesses and the defendant to appear before the nearest justice of the peace, at the time appointed, who shall proceed as herein provided.

If the magistrate shall be satisfied that there is good cause to believe that any such witness will not perform the condition of his recognizance unless other security be given, such magistrate may order the witness to enter into recognizance with such sureties as may be deemed necessary for his appearance at court.

SEC. 1931. When any married woman or a minor is a material witness, any other person may be allowed to recognize for the appearance of such witness, or the magistrate may, in his discretion, take the recognizance of such married woman or minor in a sum not exceeding fifty dollars which shall be valid and binding in law, notwithstanding the disability of coverture or minority.

And if the witness is not present when required to testify in the case, either before the grand jury or upon the trial in the district court the deposition shall be submitted to the judge of such district court, upon the objections noted by the justice, and such judge shall suppress so much of said deposition as he shall find to be inadmissible, and the remainder of the deposition may be read as evidence in the case, either before the grand jury or upon the trial in the court.

SEC. 1933. The testimony of the witness examined, shall be reduced to writing by the magistrate, or under his direction, when he shall think it necessary, and shall be signed by the witnesses.

SEC. 1934. All examinations and recognizances taken by any magistrate in pursuance of the provisions of this law, shall be certified and returned by him to the clerk of the district court, on or before the first day of the next term thereof, and if such magistrate shall neglect to return the same, he may be compelled forthwith by rule of court, and in case of disobedience, may be proceeded against by attachment, as for contempt.

SEC. 1935. When any person shall be committed to prison, or shall be under examination or recognizance to answer any charge for a misdemeanor for which the party injured may have a remedy by civil action, except where the offense was committed upon a sheriff or other officer, justice, or violently, or with intent to commit a felony, if the party injured shall appear before the magistrate who made the commitment or took the recognizance, or is conducting the examination, and acknowledge in writing that he has received satisfaction for the injury, the magistrate may, in his discretion, on payment of all costs which may have accrued, discharge the recognizance, or supersede the commitment by an order under his hand, and may also discharge all recognizance and supersede the commitment of all witnesses in the case.

SEC. 1936. When any person under recognizance in any criminal prosecution, either to appear and answer before a justice, or to testify in any court, shall fail to perform the condition of any recognizance, his default shall be recorded; and it shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney to proceed at once, by action against the person bound by recognizance, or such of them as he may elect.

SEC. 1937. SEC. 1949. The county auditor must record any claim filed under this chapter in a book kept by him for that purpose, which record must be indexed as deeds and other conveyances are required by law to be indexed, and for which he may receive the same fees as are allowed by law for recording deeds, or other instruments.

SEC. 1950. SEC. 1958. Any person who, at the request of the owner of any lot in any incorporated city or town, grades, fills in, or otherwise improves the same or the street in front of or adjoining the same, has a lien upon such lot for his work done and materials furnished.

SEC. 1959. The land upon which any building, improvement or structure is constructed, together with a convenient space about the same or so much as may be required for the convenient use and occupation thereof, to be determined by the court on rendering judgment, is also subject to the lien, if, at the commencement of the work or of the furnishing of the materials for the same, the land belonged to the person who caused said building, improvement or structure to be constructed, altered or repaired; but if such person owned less than a fee simple estate in such land then only his interest therein is subject to such lien.

SEC. 1965. Should the owner or owners of any land desire to prevent the lien from attaching as herein provided for in cases where he or they have not themselves contracted for the construction, alteration or repair of the works mentioned in section 1957, he or they may do so by giving a notice in writing posted in some conspicuous place upon said land or improvement to the effect that he or they will not be responsible for said improvement; said notice to be posted within ten days after said owner or owners come to a knowledge of the making of said improvements.

SEC. 1966. SEC. 1967. In every case in which different liens are asserted against any property, the court in the judgment must declare the rank of each lien or class of liens which shall be in the following order: (1) All persons other than the original contractors and sub-contractors; (2) The sub-contractor; (3) The original contractors. And the proceeds of the sale of the property must be applied to each lien or class of liens, in the order of its rank; and whenever on the sale of the property subject to the lien there is a deficiency of proceeds, judgment may be rendered for the deficiency in like manner and with like effect as in actions for the foreclosure of mortgages.

SEC. 1968. Any number of persons claiming liens may join in the same action, and when separate actions are commenced the court may consolidate them. The court may also allow as part of the costs the moneys paid for filing and recording the claim, and reasonable attorney's fee in the district and supreme court.

SEC. 1971. The liens provided for in this chapter may be enforced in a civil action in the same manner, and under the same proceedings as govern in the foreclosure of a mortgage on real estate.

SEC. 1997. The right of the mortgagee to foreclose, as well as the amount claimed to be due, may be contested by any person interested in so doing, and the proceedings may be transferred to the district court, for which purpose an injunction may issue if necessary.

the court sufficient, and the court shall be satisfied that the parties can no longer live together.

SEC. 2001. When there is any doubt as to the facts rendering a marriage void, either party may apply for, and on proof obtained, a decree of nullity of marriage.

SEC. 2002. Any person who has been a resident of the territory for one year may file his or her complaint for a divorce or decree of nullity of marriage under oath in the district court of the county where he or she may reside, and like proceedings shall be had thereon as in civil cases.

SEC. 2003. When the defendant does not answer, or answering, admits the allegations in the complaint, the court shall require proof before granting a divorce or a decree of nullity.

SEC. 2004. The defendant may, in addition to his or her answer, file cross complaint for divorce, and the court may in such case grant a divorce, if any, in favor of either party or as an application of both.

SEC. 2005. Both parties shall be considered as applying for a divorce, when the complaints of both are filed at the same term of the district court, and when the defendant by his or her cross complaint, also applies for a divorce.

SEC. 2006. Pending the action for divorce, the court or judge thereof, in vacation, may make, and by attachment, enforce such orders for the disposition of the persons, property and children of the parties as may be deemed right and proper, and such orders relative to the expenses of such suit as will insure to the wife an efficient preparation of her case, and a fair and impartial trial thereof; and on decreeing or refusing to decree a divorce, the court may, in its discretion, require the husband to pay all reasonable expenses of the wife in the prosecution or defense of the petition, when such divorce has been so granted or refused, and give judgment therefor.

SEC. 2007. In granting a divorce, the court shall also make such disposition of the property of the parties as shall appear just and equitable, having regard to the respective merits of the parties, and to the condition in which they will be left by such divorce, and to the party through whom the benefit [property] was acquired, and to the burdens imposed upon it for the benefit of the children, and shall make provision for the guardianship, custody, and support and education of the minor children of such marriage.

SEC. 2008. Whenever judgment of divorce from the bonds of matrimony is granted by the court, in this territory, the court shall order a full and complete dissolution of the marriage as to both parties: Provide. That neither party shall be capable of contracting marriage with a third person, until the period in which an appeal may be taken under the provisions of the civil practice act, has expired; and in case an appeal is taken then neither party shall intermarry, with a third person, until the cause has been fully determined.

SEC. 2009. In all suits for a divorce, if a divorce be granted, the court may, for just and reasonable cause, change the name of such female, who shall thereafter be known and called by such name as the court shall in its order or decree appoint.

SEC. 2010. Whenever a petition for divorce remains undefended, it shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney to resist such petition; but no prosecuting attorney shall be employed in, or allowed to conduct any suit for a divorce on the part of the petitioner or applicant in the courts of this territory; nor shall any prosecuting attorney be allowed to resist a petition for divorce in those cases where the defendant does not appear, or appearing admits allegations of the complaint, if the attorney for the petitioner is a partner in the practice of law, or keeps his office with such prosecuting attorney, but in all such cases the court or judge before whom the case is to be heard shall appoint an attorney to resist the petition, who shall be entitled to the compensation allowed by law to prosecuting attorneys in such cases.

SEC. 2011. In all instances where a district court shall grant a divorce, it shall be for cause distinctly stated in the complaint, and proved and found by the court, and the court shall state the facts found, upon which the decree is rendered; and when either party shall signify a desire to appeal from any of the orders of the court, in the disposition of the property, or of the children, the court shall certify the evidence adduced on the trial, and the supreme court shall be possessed of the whole case as fully as the district court was, and may reverse, modify, or affirm said judgment according to the real merits of the case.

SEC. 2012. The practice in civil actions shall govern all proceedings in the trial of divorces, except the trial by jury is dispensed with, and as may be otherwise modified by this act.

SEC. 2013. Writs of error shall be the proper mode of removing causes mentioned in this act from the district to the supreme court, but errors of facts as well as errors of law may be corrected.

SEC. 2014. Every insolvent debtor may be discharged from his debts, as hereinafter provided, upon executing an assignment of all his property, real, personal or mixed, for the benefit of all his creditors, and upon compliance with the several provisions of this chapter: Provided, Said assignment be made bona fide and without fraud. The district court only shall have original jurisdiction in the subject matter herein contained.

SEC. 2015. Such insolvent debtor shall petition the judge having original jurisdiction within the place of his domicile or usual residence, which petition shall briefly state the circumstances which compel him to surrender his property to his creditors, and shall conclude with a prayer to make a cession of his estate, and to be discharged from his debts, in pursuance of the provisions of this chapter.

SEC. 2016. The debtor shall annex to said petition his schedule, that is to say, a summary statement of his affairs, with a list of losses he may have sustained, giving the names of his creditors, if known; the amount due to each creditor, and the cause and nature of such indebtedness and when it accrued, and a statement of any existing judgment, mortgage, collateral or other securities for the payment of any such debt. Said schedule shall also contain a full, complete and perfect inventory of all his property, real, personal and mixed; of all choses in action, debts due or to become due, and all moneys on hand of such insolvent; said schedule shall also contain a full statement of all incumbrances existing upon the property of the insolvent. The said debtor shall, as nearly as possible, estimate the property by him surrendered, and set it forth in the schedule at its true cash value.

SEC. 2017. The said schedule shall be signed by the debtor, and be by him sworn to before the judge having jurisdiction of the failure, or other officer, authorized to administer oaths, in the following words, to-wit:

"I, (A B) do, in the presence of Almighty God, truly and solemnly swear, that the schedule now delivered by me, doth contain a full, perfect and true discovery of all the estate, real, personal and mixed, goods and effects to me in any way belonging, all such debts as are to me owing, or to any person or persons in trust for me, and all securities and contracts whereby any money may hereafter become payable, or any benefit or advantage accrue to me or to my use, or to any other person or persons in trust for me; that I have no lands, money, stock or estate, reversion or expectancy besides that set forth in my schedule; that I have in no instance created or acknowledged a debt for a greater sum than I honestly and truly owed; that I have not directly or indirectly sold, or otherwise disposed of in trust, or concealed any part of my property, effects or contracts; that I have not in any way compounded with my creditors, whereby to secure the same, or to receive, or to expect any profit or advantage therefrom, or to defraud or deceive any creditor to whom I am indebted in any manner whatever, so help me God."

SEC. 2018. The judge receiving such petition, schedule and affidavit, shall make an order requiring all the creditors of such insolvent to show cause, if any they can, why an assignment of the insolvent estate should not be made, and he be discharged from his debts. Said schedule being signed and sworn to by the petitioner, the judge shall certify the same and cause it to be filed in the office of the clerk of the court in the county where the assignment was made, there to remain for the information of the creditors.

SEC. 2019. The insolvent debtor, on a surrender of his property, shall include and set forth in his schedule his whole estate, including his homestead, if any he has, and all such property as may be by law exempt on execution from seizure and forced sale, and it shall be the duty of the judge having jurisdiction of the failure, to exempt and set apart for the use and benefit of said insolvent, such real and personal property as he is by law authorized to retain to his own use or that of his family.

SEC. 2020. The insolvent shall, either before or on the day appointed for the meeting of the creditors, deliver to the court all the commercial or other books he may have kept, which books shall be deposited in the clerk's office of said court. Said insolvent shall also deliver to the court at the same time, all vouchers, notes, bonds, bills, securities or other evidence of debt in any manner relating to or having any bearing upon or connection with the property surrendered by said debtor, and all such papers or securities shall be deposited in the clerk's office of said court, and the clerk shall hand them over, together with the books of the insolvent, to the assignees who may be appointed.

SEC. 2021. The judge granting the order for the meeting of the creditors, shall direct the clerk of the court to issue a notice calling the creditors of the insolvent to be and appear within thirty days from the date of publication of such notice, before such judge at chambers or in open court, to show cause why the prayer of said insolvent should not be granted. Said notice shall be published at least thirty days in a newspaper printed in the county in which application is made, if there be one, and if there be none, then a newspaper printed nearest to such county.

SEC. 2022. When issuing the order for the meeting of the creditors, the judge shall order that all proceedings against the debtor be stayed: Provided, however, That the said stay of proceedings shall not prevent the judge, who shall have granted it, from appointing a receiver to take possession of all property of the debtor for the benefit of all his creditors, if one or more of his creditors or his attorney shall apply for such appointment, and swear that he has reason to believe, and does believe, that the debtor may avail himself of the stay of proceedings and keep his property from his creditors, if no cause sufficient, in the judgment of the court, shall have been shown why the debtor should not have the benefit of this chapter and shall produce satisfactory proof of the facts on which the affidavit is founded.

SEC. 2023. At a meeting of creditors, the said creditors after having certified on oath that their respective claims are legitimate and true, shall proceed to the appointment of one or more assignees, not exceeding three. In appointing assignees, the opinion of the majority of said creditors in sums or in claims shall prevail. At such meeting any creditor may be represented by his duly authorized agent or attorney.

SEC. 2024. When the assignee or assignees shall have been duly appointed in the meeting of creditors, and the surrender of the property shall have been duly accepted of, it shall be the duty of the said assignees to deposit in the clerk's office of the court who shall have issued the order for a call of the creditors, a certified statement of the deliberations of said creditors on the appointment of the said assignees.

SEC. 2025. The judge shall require from the assignees a bond, with one or more good and sufficient sureties, on which bond the parties therein shall be liable, jointly and severally, for the amount thereof, conditional for the faithful performance of the duties devolving upon said assignees. The amount of said bond shall be determined by the majority of creditors, and should not the creditors so determine, the amount of said bond shall be fixed by the judge having jurisdiction of the failure.

SEC. 2026. The assignees shall apply by petition to the court or judge who shall have ordered a meeting of creditors, to be authorized to sell at public auction, and to the best and highest bidder for cash, all the insolvent debtor's property, of whatever nature or kind, and said assignees shall give at least twenty days' public notice, in the same manner as a notice for a meeting of creditors, of all sales of the property of said insolvent, giving at the same time a full description of the property to be disposed of: Provided, however, That if any of the property surrendered be of a perishable nature, the assignees shall be authorized to sell the same on giving at least five days' notice of such sale by publication, or notice of such sale as in sale on execution.

SEC. 2027. Assignees shall deposit all funds belonging to the failure in their joint names, so that nothing can be drawn without the consent of all. Said funds shall remain inviolable, and shall never be loaned, used or mixed with the personal affairs of the assignees; and finally the said assignees shall make a distribution of the proceeds of the property of the insolvent agreeably to the direction of the court or judge. Said assignees may sue and be sued, either as plaintiffs or defendants, in everything which respects the rights and actions which may belong to the insolvent or which may concern the mass of creditors. All suits brought against the insolvent anterior to his surrender of property, before the courts of other counties, shall be transferred to the court having jurisdiction in the county in which said insolvent shall have presented his schedule and may be continued on motion and notice against his assignees.

SEC. 2028. Whenever a dividend shall be declared, the assignees shall make out a statement containing the names of the several creditors, mentioning the sums which are due them respectively, and the said statements shall, besides, contain pro rata sums to be divided among all the creditors. Said assignees shall deposit said statement in the clerk's office of the court, who shall order that notice be given to the creditors in the same manner as for the meeting, that they show cause before the judge within fifteen days next following the publication, why the statement should not be accepted and the distribution made agreeably to its contents.

SEC. 2029. One or more creditors may at any time make a motion to know if the assignees have funds in their hands, and the assignees shall be required to present their accounts, and if they have funds they shall distribute them without delay.

SEC. 2030. Should the assignees refuse or neglect to render their accounts as required by the preceding section, or to pay over a dividend when they shall have, in the opinion of the court or judge, sufficient funds for that purpose in their hands, the court or judge shall immediately discharge such assignees from their trust, and shall have power to appoint others in their place. The assignees so discharged shall deliver over to those appointed by the court or judge all the funds, property, books, vouchers and securities belonging to the insolvent, without charging any commission or expenses thereon, and shall also be condemned to pay the new assignee, for the benefit of the mass of the creditors, twenty per cent. in addition to the amount of funds in their hands.

SEC. 2031. If on the day appointed for the meeting, the creditors, although duly summoned, do not attend, or refuse to appoint one or more assignees, it shall be lawful for the judge before whom the said meeting may take place, to authorize the sheriff of the county to receive the surrender of the property offered by the debtor, and to perform in every respect the functions of assignee, and for the faithful performance of said trust, he shall be responsible on his official bond: Provided, That if any of the creditors should choose to take that charge, the judge shall appoint said creditor for that purpose, upon said creditor giving a bond with good and sufficient security proportioned to the value of the property committed to his charge.

SEC. 2032. The assignees, collectively, shall be entitled to charge and receive for their services, to-wit: Ten per centum upon a sum not exceeding ten thousand dollars; eight per centum upon sums above ten thousand dollars, and not exceeding thirty thousand dollars; six per centum upon sums above thirty thousand dollars, and not exceeding sixty thousand dollars, and four per centum on all sums exceeding sixty thousand dollars: Provided, That the said commissions shall be allowed only on such net sums of money as shall actually come into their hands, or be distributed by them. The mass of creditors shall in no manner be liable for the fees of counsel of the insolvent debtor in conducting a surrender of the property.

SEC. 2033. That in case after the appointment of said assignees any one of the creditors of the insolvent debtor should deem necessary to oppose it on the ground of some fraud having been committed by the said insolvent debtor, or of the appointment not having been legally made, he shall within ten days next following the appointment of said assignees, lay before the court or judge which has already taken cognizance of the case, his written opposition, stating especially the several facts of nullity of the said appointment, or of fraud by him alleged against the insolvent debtor; whereupon in case of accusation of fraud, after having received said insolvent debtor's answer, the court or judge shall order a jury to be summoned of not less than six men, to be summoned in the same manner as jurors are summoned in the district court, for the purpose of deciding on the said accusation.

SEC. 2034. On the day, or any time appointed in such order, or any subsequent day or term, the court or judge shall proceed to hear the proofs and allegations of the parties; and before any other proceedings be had, shall require proof of the publication of the notice as herein provided.

SEC. 2035. Upon such an accusation of fraud, the creditor who shall have brought the same, shall have the right to interrogate the insolvent debtor on oath, and put to him such written questions as to the state of his affairs and the several transactions in which he may have been engaged anterior to his failure, as he shall think proper; and the insolvent shall answer in writing the said interrogatories in a pertinent and distinct manner, and every equivocal answer on his part shall be construed against him.

SEC. 2036. If the jury summoned for the purpose of deciding on the accusation of fraud against such insolvent debtor, declare in their verdict that said insolvent has been guilty of fraud, the said debtor shall forever be deprived of the benefit of the laws passed for the relief of insolvent debtors in this territory.

SEC. 2037. If the accusation of fraud brought against the debtor is declared to be unfounded, or if there be no opposition to the surrender of his property, and provided said surrender has been made according to the provisions of this chapter, said debtor shall be released and fully discharged from any and all debts then existing and included in said schedule.

SEC. 2038. If the judge before whom the accusation of fraud is brought, or an opposition to the appointment of assignees is made, thinks that the interest of the mass of creditors of the insolvent may suffer by a delay of the approval of the appointment of the assignees, it shall be lawful for said judge, all opposition notwithstanding, to approve previously the said appointment, if he finds that it has been made agreeably by law.

SEC. 2039. That all persons shall be considered as fraudulent bankrupts who shall be convicted of having concealed their property with the intention to keep it from their creditors, as also those who shall be convicted of having concealed or altered their books or papers with the same intention.

SEC. 2040. That every insolvent debtor shall also be considered as a fraudulent bankrupt who shall be convicted of having passed sham deeds for the purpose of conveying the whole or any part of his property and depriving his creditors thereof, or having intentionally omitted any of his property, rights or claims in his schedule, or of having purloined his books, or any of them, or having altered, changed or made them anew, with an intent to defraud his creditors, or of having fraudulently alienated, mortgaged or pledged any of his property, or of having committed any other kind of fraud to the prejudice of his creditors.

SEC. 2041. If any debtor shall be convicted of having at any time within three months next preceding his failure, fraudulently sold, engaged or mortgaged any of his goods or effects, or of having otherwise assigned, transferred or disposed of the same, or any part thereof, or confessed judgment in order to give a preference to one or more of his creditors over others, [whereby to receive any advantages in anticipation of his failure.] to the prejudice of his creditors, he shall be debarred the benefits of this chapter.

SEC. 2042. All insolvent debtors owing, or accountable in any manner for public funds or property of whatever nature or kind; all unfaithful depositories; all such as refuse or neglect to pay up all funds received by them as bankers, brokers, commission merchants, or for money, goods or effects received by them in a fiduciary capacity, shall be denied the benefit of this chapter.

SEC. 2043. If after presentation of his petition, the insolvent shall sell, or in any manner transfer or assign any of his property, or collect any debts due him, and shall not give a just and true account of the property so sold or transferred and the money so collected, and pay the same over to the assignees within ten days after their appointment and demand made by them, said debtor shall not receive the benefit of this chapter.

SEC. 2044. Whenever any insolvent debtor has had the benefit of this chapter, if thereafter at any time it is made to appear that he has concealed [any part of his property or estate, or given a false schedule,] or committed any fraud under the provisions of this chapter, it is hereby declared that he shall forfeit all benefit and advantage which he would otherwise have had by virtue of this chapter, and he cannot avail himself of any of its provisions, in bar to any claim that may be instituted against him.

SEC. 2045. No person can apply for, or receive the benefit of this chapter, through an agent or attorney in fact.

SEC. 2046. From and after the surrender of the property of the insolvent debtor, all property of such insolvent shall be fully vested in his assignee or assignees for the benefit of his creditors, and shall not be liable to be seized, attached, taken or levied on by virtue of any execution issued against the property of said insolvent; and the assignees who may be appointed shall take possession of, and be entitled to claim and recover, all the said property, and to administer and sell the same as herein provided.

SEC. 2047. If there be any creditors residing without (in) the limits of this territory who have no agent or attorney therein, the judge shall appoint an attorney to represent them; but the fees of said attorney shall in no case be paid by the mass of creditors, but shall be levied on the amount of the sums which shall be recovered for the account of such non-resident creditors, at the rate of ten per centum: Provided, That in no case shall the whole fees allowed to counsel appointed on behalf of said creditors, exceed the sum of three hundred and fifty dollars.

SEC. 2048. In case the debtor who applies for the benefit of this chapter should have no property to surrender to his creditors, or if the appraised value of the property exhibited in his schedule should not amount to more than one-third of his debts then existing and contracted during the next year preceding, the judge before whom the application is made shall not admit him to the benefit of this chapter, unless it be proven to the said judge, by affidavit sworn and subscribed to by two credible and disinterested witnesses, that the debtor, in their opinion, has really experienced the losses by him stated, and that the said losses may have reduced him to the situation in which he finds himself: Provided, All legal mortgages and liens bona fide, existing on such property at the time of surrender aforesaid, shall remain good and valid, and may be enforced in the same manner as though no such surrender had been made.

SEC. 2049. All the goods, titles and claims which the insolvent debtor shall have declared in his schedule, shall be delivered up to the assignees as soon as they shall have been appointed; and in case the debtor should refuse to deliver up the goods, titles, effects or estates in his possession, the judge shall oblige the delivery, either by ordering the sheriff to seize the said property, to be by him delivered up to the assignees, or causing the said insolvent to be imprisoned until the said delivery shall be effected.

SEC. 2050. The assignee or assignees appointed under this chapter shall make out a true account of all disbursements made by them in the discharge of their duties as assignee or assignees, which shall be verified by the oath of such assignee or assignees, and shall deliver the same to the judge having jurisdiction of the subject matter; and such judge shall, in writing, certify such part or parts of the same as he shall deem to be just and necessarily expended by said assignee or assignees in the discharge of their duty, which amount so allowed shall be paid out of the property of such insolvent debtor.

SEC. 2051. One member of a firm or co-partnership may make assignment of the co-partnership property with the consent in writing of the other member, and when all the members join in the petition, and include in the assignment all the individual as well as the partnership property, they may be discharged from their individual and partnership debts in one and the same proceeding; but in such proceeding the partnership property shall be applied towards the payment of the partnership debts, and the individual property to the payment of the individual debts.

SEC. 2052. No assignment of any insolvent debtor, otherwise than is provided in this chapter, shall be legal or binding upon creditors.

When any person shall be brought before a court, justice of the peace or other committing magistrate of any district, county, city or town in this territory, having jurisdiction of the alleged offense, charged with the commission of a crime or misdemeanor, and such complaint upon examination shall appear to be unfounded, no costs shall be payable by such acquitted party, but the same shall be chargeable to the county, city or town for or in which the said complaint is triable, but if the court, justice of the peace or other magistrate trying said charge, shall decide the complaint was frivolous or malicious, the judgment or verdict shall also designate who is the complainant, and may adjudge that said complainant pay the costs. In such cases a judgment shall thereupon be entered for the costs against said complainant, who shall stand committed until such costs be paid or discharged by due process of law.

SEC. 2104. When a grand jury, upon a complaint submitted to them for investigation, fail to find a bill of indictment for an offense against the laws of the territory, they shall also inquire whether the complaint is frivolous or malicious, and decide whether the county or complainant shall pay the costs, and make return of their finding in open court. Any complainant adjudged by said grand jury as liable for the costs, shall forthwith be brought into court and sentenced to pay the same or stand committed until such judgment is satisfied or complied with.

SEC. 2105. Every person convicted of a crime or held to bail to keep the peace, shall be liable to all the costs of the proceedings against him, including, when tried by a jury in the district court, twelve dollars for a jury fee, and when tried by a jury before a committing magistrate, six dollars for jury fee, for which judgment shall be rendered and collection had as in cases of fines. The jury fee, when collected for a case tried by the district court, shall be paid to the clerk, to be by him applied as the jury fee in civil cases is applied.

SEC. 2106. In all convictions for felony, whether capital, or punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary, the clerk of the district court shall forthwith, after (silence) [sentence.] tax the costs in the case. The cost bill shall be made out in triplicate, and be examined by the prosecuting attorney of the district, embracing the county in which the trial was had; after which the judge of the district court shall audit and allow such bill or so much thereof as is allowable by law. The clerk of the district court, shall thereupon, under his hand, and the seal of the court, certify said triplicate cost bills, and shall file one with the papers of the cause, and shall transmit one to the county auditor, and one to the county treasurer of the county in which said felony was committed.

SEC. 2107. Upon the receipt of the cost bill, as provided for in the preceding section, the county auditor shall draw warrants for the amounts due each person, as certified in said cost bill, which warrants shall be paid as other county warrants are paid. And the county treasurer shall transmit to the territorial treasurer the cost bill received by him from the clerk of the court, and he shall credit said county with the amount thereof, as so much paid on account of territorial tax, and transmit to the treasurer of the county his receipt for the same. The county treasurer shall reserve the amount stated in said cost bills, by him from time to time transmitted to the territorial treasurer, from the territorial tax, coming into his hands, and charge the same to the territorial treasurer, as so much paid on account of territorial taxes; and he shall notify the county auditor, that so much money collected as territorial fund, [has been transferred to the general fund] of the county for the payment of such cost bills.

SEC. 2108. In the necessary, and actual transportation of prisoners to await or attend trial the sheriff may employ necessary guards, not to exceed one for each prisoner. Said guard shall be allowed two dollars per day and mileage. The sheriff shall be allowed in conveying prisoners to and from the county to the place of trial, or to and from the place of confinement, the mileage of officer, guard, or guards, and prisoner or prisoners, or else the actual expenses incurred.

SEC. 2109. Whenever a juror, witness or officer is required to attend a court, or travel on official business out of the limits of his own county, and entitled to mileage, in lieu thereof he may at his option receive his actual and necessary traveling expenses by the usually traveled route in going to and returning from the place where the court is held, or where the business is discharged. At the close of each term of the district court, the clerk shall ascertain the amount due each juror for his mileage and per diem; and he shall also certify the amount of fees that may be due to the sheriff of any other county than that in which the court is held, who may have attended the term, having a prisoner in custody charged with or convicted of a crime, or for the purpose of conveying such prisoner to or from the county, which, when approved by the court or judge, shall be a charge upon the county to which the prisoner belongs; and he shall also certify the amount which may be due witnesses attending from another county in a criminal case for their fees, which, when approved by the court or judge, shall be a charge upon the county to which the case belongs.

SEC. 2110. Each county shall be liable to pay the per diem and mileage, or other compensation in lieu thereof, to jurors of the county attending the district court; the fees of the sheriff for maintaining prisoners charged with crimes, and his costs in conveying them to and from the district court, as well as their board while there; the per diem and mileage, or such other compensation as is allowed in lieu thereof, of the sheriff of the county, when in criminal cases he is required to attend or travel to the district court out of the limits of his own county; the costs in criminal cases taken from the county to the district court: Provided, That none shall be so paid by the treasurer unless the particular items shall be approved by the judge and certified by the clerk under the seal of the court: And, provided further, That for the time or travel which may be paid by the parties or United States, no payment from the county fund shall be allowed, and no officer, juror or witness shall receive from the county double pay as a per diem for the same time, or as traveling expenses or mileage for the same travel, in how many different capacities, or in however many different causes they may be summoned, notified or called upon to testify or attend in.

SEC. 2111. The county in which the court is held shall furnish the court house, a jail or suitable place for confining prisoners, books for record, stationery, lights, wood, attendance, and other incidental expenses of the court house and court which are not paid by the United States.

SEC. 2405. Neither husband or wife is liable for the debts or liabilities of the other incurred before marriage, nor for the separate debts of each other, nor is the rent or income of the separate property of either liable for the separate debts of the other.

SEC. 2406. Contracts may be made by a wife and liabilities incurred, and the same may be enforced by or against her to the same extent and in the same manner as if she were unmarried.

SEC. 2407. The expenses of the family and the education of the children are chargeable upon the property of both husband and wife, or either of them, and in relation thereto they may be sued jointly or separately.

SEC. 2408. Property and pecuniary rights owned by the husband before marriage, and that acquired by him afterwards by gift, bequest, devise or descent, with the rents, issues and profits thereof, shall not be subject to the debts or contracts of his wife, and he may manage, lease, sell, convey, encumber or devise by will such property without the wife joining in such management, alienation or encumbrance, as fully and to the same effect as though he were unmarried.

SEC. 2409. Property not acquired or owned, as prescribed in sections 2400 and 2408 acquired after marriage by either husband or wife or both, is community property. The husband shall have the management and control of community personal property, with a like power of disposition as he has of his separate personal property, except he shall not devise by will more than one-half thereof.

SEC. 2410. The husband has the management and control of the community real property, but he shall not sell, convey or encumber the community real estate, unless the wife join with him in executing the deed or other instrument of conveyance by which the real estate is sold, conveyed or encumbered, and such deed or other instrument of conveyance must be acknowledged by him and his wife: Provided, however, That all such community real estate shall be subject to the liens of mechanics and others for labor and materials furnished in erecting structures and improvements thereon as provided by law in other cases, to liens of judgments recovered for community debts, and to sale on execution issued thereon.

SEC. 2412. In case no testamentary disposition shall have been made by the deceased husband or wife of his or her half of the community property, it shall descend equally to the legitimate issue of his, her or their bodies. If there be no issue of said deceased living or none of their representatives living, then the said community property shall all pass to the survivor, to the exclusion of collateral heirs, subject to the community debts, the family allowance and the charges and expenses of administration.

But if the husband neglect or refuse to select such homestead then the wife may select the same: Provided, That but one homestead shall be selected or held by husband or wife, and it must embrace the dwelling house in which one or both of them reside.

SEC. 2416. Nothing contained in any of the provisions of this chapter or in any law of this territory, shall prevent the husband and wife from jointly entering into any agreement concerning the status or disposition of the whole or any portion of the community property, then owned by them or afterwards to be acquired, to take effect upon the death of either. But such agreement may be made at any time by the husband and wife by the execution of an instrument in writing under their hands and seals, and to be witnessed, acknowledged and certified in the same manner as deeds to real estate are required to be, under the laws of the territory, and the same may at any time thereafter be altered or amended in the same manner: Provided, however, That such agreement shall not derogate from the right of creditors, nor be construed to curtail the powers of the district court to set aside or cancel such agreement for fraud or under some other recognized head of equity jurisdiction, at the suit of either party.

SEC. 2417. The rule of common law that statutes in derogation thereof are to be strictly construed has no application to this chapter. This chapter establishes the law of this territory respecting the subject to which it relates, and its provisions and all proceedings under it shall be liberally construed with a view to effect its object.

SEC. 2418. This chapter shall not be construed to operate retrospectively and any right established, accrued or accruing or in any thing done prior to the time this chapter goes into effect shall be governed by the law in force at the time such right was established or accrued.

It shall be competent at any time for two thirds of the stockholders of any corporation organized under this chapter to expel any trustee from office and to elect another to succeed him. In all cases where a meeting of the stockholders is called for the purpose of expelling a trustee and electing his successor, such notice shall be given of the meeting as the by-laws of the company may require. Whenever any vacancy shall happen among the trustees by death, resignation, or otherwise, except by removal and the election of his successor as herein provided, it shall be filled by appointment of the board of trustees.

The stock of the company shall be deemed personal estate, and shall be transferable in such manner as shall be prescribed by the by-laws of the company; but no transfer shall be valid except between the parties thereto, until the same shall have been entered upon the books of the company, so as to show the names of the parties, by and to whom transferred, the numbers and designation of the shares and the date of the transfer.

SEC. 2430. The stockholders of any corporation formed under this chapter may in the by-laws of the company prescribe the times, manner and amounts in which payments of the sums subscribed by them respectively shall be made; but in case the same shall not be so prescribed, the trustees shall have the power to demand and call in from the stockholders the sums by them subscribed, at such time and in such manner, payments or installments, as they may deem proper. In all cases notice of each assessment shall be given to the stockholders personally, or by publication in some newspaper published in the county in which the principal place of business of the company is located; and if none be published in such county, then in the newspaper nearest to said principal place of business in the territory. If after such notice has been given any stockholder shall make default in the payment of assessments upon the shares held by him, so many of said shares may be sold as will be necessary for the payment of the assessment upon all the shares held by him, her or them. SEC. 2433. It shall not be lawful for the trustees to make any dividend except from the net profits arising from the business of the corporation, nor divide, withdraw, or in any way pay to the stockholders, or any of them, any part of the capital stock of the company, nor to reduce the capital stock of the company unless in the manner prescribed in this chapter, or the articles of incorporation or by-laws; and in case of any violation of the provisions of this section, the trustees, under whose administration the same may have happened, except those who may have caused their dissent therefrom to be entered at large on the minutes of the board of trustees at the time, or were not present when the same did happen, shall, in their individual or private capacities, be jointly or severally liable to the corporation and the creditors thereof in the event of its dissolution, to the full amount so divided, or reduced, or paid out: Provided, That this section shall not be construed to prevent a division and distribution of the capital stock of the company which shall remain after the payment of all its debts upon the dissolution of the corporation or the expiration of its charter.

SEC 2434. No corporation organized under this chapter shall, by any implication or construction, be deemed to possess the power of issuing bills, notes or other evidence of debt for circulation as money, except bonds by railroad companies, which shall at no time exceed double the amount of paid up stock issued by said company. Each and every stockholder shall be personally liable to the creditors of the company to the amount of what remains unpaid upon his subscription to the capital stock and not otherwise.

SEC. 2435. No person holding stock as executor, administrator, guardian or trustee, or holding it as collateral security, or in pledge, shall be personally subject to any liability as a stock holder of the company; but the person pledging the stock shall be considered as holding the same, and shall be liable as a stockholder, and the estate and funds in the hands of the executor, administrator or guardian or trustee shall be liable in like manner and to the same extent as the testator, or intestate, or the ward or person interested in the trust fund would have been if he or she had been living and competent to act and hold the stock in his or her name.

SEC. 2436. It shall be the duty of the trustees of every company incorporated under this chapter, to keep a book containing the names of all persons, alphabetically arranged, who are or shall be stockholders of the corporation and showing the number of shares of stock held by them respectively, and the time when they became the owners of such shares, which book, during the usual business hours of the day, on every day excepting Sunday and the legal holidays, shall be open for the inspection of stockholders and creditors of the company at the office or principal place of business of the company; and any stockholder or creditor of the company shall have the right to make extract from such book, or to demand and receive from the clerk or other officer having the charge of such book, a certified copy of any entry therein, or to demand and receive from any clerk or officer a certified copy of any paper placed on file in the office of the company, and such book and certified copy shall be presumptive evidence of the fact therein stated in any action or proceeding against the company or any one or more of the stockholders.

SEC. 2437. If at any time the clerk or other officer having charge of such book shall make any false entry or neglect to make any proper entry therein, or having the charge of any papers of the company shall refuse or neglect to exhibit the same or allow the same to be inspected, or extracts to be taken therefrom, or to give a certified copy of any entry as provided in the preceding section, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall forfeit and pay to the injured party a penalty of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars and all damages resulting therefrom, to be recovered in any action of debt in any court having competent jurisdiction; and for neglecting to keep such book for inspection as aforesaid, the corporation shall forfeit to the people the sum of one hundred dollars for every day it shall so neglect, to be sued for and recovered in the name of the people in the district or probate court of the county in which the principal place of business of the corporation is located.

SEC. 2438. Any company incorporated under this chapter may, by complying with the provisions herein contained, increase or diminish its capital stock to any amount which may be deemed sufficient and proper for the purposes of the corporation; but before any corporation shall be entitled to diminish the amount of its capital stock, if the amount of its debts and liabilities shall exceed the sum to which the capital is proposed to be diminished, such amount shall be satisfied and reduced so as not to exceed the diminished amount of the capital.

SEC. 2439. Whenever it is desired to increase or diminish the amount of capital stock, a meeting of the stockholders shall be called by a notice signed by at least a majority of the trustees, and published at least eight weeks in some newspaper published in the county where the principal place of business of the company is located; or if no newspaper is published in the county, then the newspaper nearest thereto in the territory, which notice shall specify the object of the meeting the time and place where it is to be held, and the amount to which it is proposed to increase or diminish the capital, and a vote of two-thirds of all the shares of the stock shall be necessary to increase or diminish the amount of capital stock.

SEC. 2440. If at a meeting so called a sufficient number of votes have been given in favor of increasing or diminishing the amount of capital, a certificate of the proceedings showing a compliance with these provisions, the amount of capital actually paid in, the whole amount of debts and liabilities of the company, and the amount to which the capital stock is to be increased or diminished, shall be made out and signed and verified by the affidavit of the chairman and secretary of the meeting, certified to by a majority of the trustees, and filed as required by the section 2422 and when so filed the capital stock of the corporation shall be increased or diminished to the amount specified in the certificate.

SEC. 2441. Upon the dissolution of any corporation formed under the provisions of this chapter the trustees at the time of the dissolution shall be trustees of the creditors and stock holders of the corporation dissolved, and shall have full power and authority to sue for and recover the debts and property of the corporation by the name of the trustees of such corporation, collect and pay the outstanding debts, settle all its affairs and divide among the stock holders the money and other property that shall remain after the payment of the debts and necessary expenses.

SEC. 2442. Any corporation formed under this chapter may dissolve and disincorporate itself by presenting to the district judge of the judicial district in which the office of the company is located, a petition to that effect, accompanied by a certificate of its proper officers and setting forth that at a meeting of the stock holders called for the purpose, it was decided by a vote of two-thirds of all the stock holders to disincorporate and dissolve the corporation. Notice of the application shall then be given by the clerk, which notice shall set forth the nature of the application, and shall specify the time and place at which it is to be heard, and shall be published in some newspaper of the county once a week for eight weeks, or if no newspaper is published in the county, by publication in the newspaper nearest thereto in the territory. At the time and place appointed, or at any other time to which it may be postponed by the judge, he shall proceed to consider the application, and if satisfied that the corporation has taken necessary preliminary steps and obtained the necessary vote to dissolve itself, and that all claims against the corporation are discharged, he shall enter an order declaring it dissolved.

SEC. 2443. All corporations now existing or hereafter formed under the laws of other states and territories for the conducting and transaction of marine, life, or fire insurance business, with an authorized agent residing in and having an office in this territory, shall have ample power to do and transact such insurance business within this territory, not inconsistent with the organic act of this territory, with ample power by their corporate name and style to enjoy all such rights not inconsistent with the organic act as aforesaid, and to maintain and defend the same in any court or place within this territory as fully as though said companies were domestic corporations, incorporated by and in accordance with the laws of this territory.

SEC. 2444. Any corporation desiring at any time to remove its principal place of business into some other county in the territory, shall file in the office of the county auditor a certified copy of its certificate of incorporation. If it is desired to remove its principal place of business to some other city, town, or locality within the same county, publication shall be made of such removal at least once a week for four weeks in the newspaper published nearest to the city, town or locality from which the principal place of business of such corporation is desired to be removed. The formation or corporate acts of any corporation hereafter formed under this chapter shall not be rendered invalid by reason of the fact that its principal place of business may not have been designated in its certificate of incorporation: Provided, That within three months from the passage of this chapter, such corporation shall cause publication to be made once a week for at least four weeks in the newspaper published nearest the city, town, or locality, and where the principal place of business of such corporation has been in fact located, designating the city, town, or locality and county where its principal place of business shall be located. On compliance with the provisions of this section in the several cases herein mentioned, the principal place of business of any corporation shall be deemed established, or removed at or to any designated city, town or locality, and county in the territory.

SEC. 2445. All persons who have organized themselves as a corporation under the provisions of this chapter for purposes other than those enumerated in section 2421, are hereby declared incorporate bodies, with all the powers the same as they would enjoy had they been incorporated for the purposes set forth in said section 2421.

SEC. 2446. deemed to have subscribed such an amount to the capital stock of such corporation as under its by-laws will represent the value of so much of his interest in said mining claim, the legal title to which he may by deed, deed of trust or other instrument vest, or have vested in such corporation for mining purposes; such subscription to be deemed to have been made on the execution and delivery to such corporation of such deed, deed of trust, or other instrument; nor shall the validity of any assessment levied by the board of trustees of such corporation be affected by the reason of the fact that the full amount of the capital stock of such corporation, as mentioned in its certificate of incorporation, shall not have been subscribed as provided in this section: Provided, That the greater portion of said amount of capital stock shall have been so subscribed: And, provided further, That this section shall not be so construed as to prohibit the stockholders of any corporation formed, or which may be formed, for mining purposes as provided in this section, from regulating the mode of making subscriptions to its capital stock and calling in the same by by-laws or express contract.

SEC. 2447. The provisions of this chapter shall extend to and apply to all associations already formed under any law of this territory, or hereafter to be formed under the provisions of this act, for the purpose of supplying any cities or towns in this territory, or the inhabitants thereof with pure and fresh water.

SEC. 2520. In order to appoint said commissioners for the purposes mentioned in section 2519 said two-thirds majority shall make and sign four written notices of their desire to improve land as aforesaid, describing in said notices the metes and bounds of the land to be diked or drained and the general nature and extent of the proposed improvement. Three of said notices must be posted in three conspicuous places on or in the vicinity of the land to be improved. The said notices shall also fix a time and place on or in vicinity of said land where a meeting of the owners of said land will be held to vote on the question of the proposed improvement and for the selection of the commissioners mentioned in section 2519 which meeting shall be held not less than ten days after the posting of said notices. The person posting said notices shall return the fourth to the meeting called thereunder, with his affidavit endorsed thereon or attached thereto showing the posting of said three notices, where posted and the time of posting.

SEC. 2521. The meeting called under said notices before proceeding to act shall select a president to preside over their deliberation, and a secretary. The secretary shall keep a record of the proceedings of the meeting and he shall also record the notice returned in said record. SEC. 2522. When the meeting has been organized as provided in section 2521 the president shall put it to vote whether the proposed improvement shall be made or not. The secretary shall keep a record of said vote showing the names of the persons voting for and against the improvement and the number of acres represented by each voter. The owner of the land to be improved shall be entitled to cast one vote for each acre to be improved. If a two-thirds vote is in favor of said improvement then it shall be made. The owner of the land may vote by agent as well as in his own proper person. If the vote is in favor of the improvement the meeting shall at once in the same manner proceed to elect three commissioners to carry on, superintend and make the proposed improvement, but a majority vote only in place of a two-thirds vote shall be necessary to elect said commissioners.

SEC. 2523. The commissioners elected as aforesaid shall have power to cause to be established, located and constructed the said proposed improvement and shall have full supervision over the same. They shall locate said improvement in the best possible manner for the interest of the owners of the land affected by the location of the same. They shall estimate the amount of damages, if in their opinion the construction of said improvement will damage any owner of land more than the amount of benefits accruing to him by reason of the construction of the same, which should be paid to said owner. They shall assess the land benefited by said improvement for the cost and expenses of making the same, including therein, the compensation to be paid to said commissioners and other officers created by this chapter and also the damages heretofore mentioned. The said assessment shall be made upon the land improved in proportion to the benefit which in their judgment the owner of said land will receive from the construction of said improvements. The sum assessed against said land by said commissioners shall be a lien upon the land improved to the extent of the sum assessed. The said lien may be enforced, if the sum so assessed is not paid by the owner of said land, by a suit in the district court having jurisdiction in the county in which such land is situated. The said suit shall be brought in the name of said commissioners against said land and the owner, and the costs of said suit shall likewise be a lien upon said land. Before said assessment is made, the said commissioners shall notify all persons interested that on a day and at a place certain they will proceed to make and levy the assessment herein provided for. At said time and place any person interested may attend and if he feels himself aggrieved by said assessment, he may appeal to the said district court in the same manner as an appeal is taken from an order made by the board of county commissioners. The notice of appeal may be served on the secretary of the commissioners or on the chairman of the board created by this chapter. The notice that the assessment will be made and levied as in this section provided for shall be given by posting three written notices on or in the vicinity of the land to be improved, which notices must be posted at least ten days before said assessment and must be under the hand of the secretary of the commissioners.

SEC. 2524. The commissioners created by this chapter shall at their first meeting appoint one of their number to act as chairman. At said meeting they shall also elect a secretary and treasurer. The secretary shall keep a record of all the proceedings of said commissioners. The chairman has power to call a meeting of the commissioners or of the owners of lands to be improved, in the manner provided in the rules and regulations of said commissioners. The commissioners, in case a vacancy occurs in their number by death, removal, or otherwise, may fill such vacancy. The commissioners shall receive for their services the compensation agreed upon by the owners of the land at any meeting held by said owners. The commissioners shall fix the compensation to be paid to the secretary and treasurer. The treasurer shall receive into his hands all moneys levied and collected under this chapter and shall pay out the same on the order of said commissioners. The commissioners may require the treasurer to execute a bond for the faithful discharge of his duties.

SEC. 2525. On the first Saturday in June, in each year, after the first election of commissioners provided for in this chapter, a meeting of the owners of the land to be improved or being improved shall meet and they may then elect other commissioners in place of those theretofore elected; the election to be held in the same manner as the first election for commissioners.

SEC. 2527. The commissioners created by this chapter shall have power to make all needful rules and regulations necessary to carry out the provisions hereof. They shall have power in case of danger from the breaking of dikes to order out all male persons in the district of land under their charge, over the age of eighteen years and under sixty, to attend at the place of danger for the purpose of repairing such dike, in the same manner as the supervisor of roads orders out persons to work on the road in case of emergency; and if any person so ordered out refuses or neglects to attend, he shall be subject to a penalty of twenty dollars for each day he so refuses or neglects, to be recovered by an action in the name of said commissioners; and money so recovered shall be used in keeping said dike in repair. When ditches become obstructed they shall have like power to order out the persons aforesaid to remove said obstructions, under a like penalty; and money so recovered shall be used in keeping such ditch open.

SEC. 2528. If any person shall dam or obstruct the passage of water, in any ditch; or break or injure any dike constructed under the provisions of this chapter, the person so offending shall, on conviction therefor, be fined in any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, as well as be liable to the persons injured by such wrongful act in the amount of damages sustained by reason thereof.

SEC. 2529. The said commissioners, when they levy the assessment under this chapter, must cause to be made out by their secretary a roll, which he shall keep in his office, which roll must show the name of the owner of the land, number of acres improved, and the amount assessed against said land for said improvement. This roll shall be received in evidence in all the courts of this territory. The said commissioners may divide the district of land to be improved by them, into three or more districts if they deem it proper so to do, and they may make one or more assessments to pay for making said improvements and paying the other expenses herein provided for. The commissioners also have power to make assessments for the repair of any dike or ditch constructed under this chapter, in the same manner, to the same extent and with like effect as in originally constructing the same.

SEC. 2530. This act shall not apply to Chehalis county nor to incorporated cities or towns.

Nor shall any other county officer or his deputy act as auditor or deputy, or perform any of the duties of said office.

SEC. 2723. In case the auditor is unable to attend to the duties of his office during any session of the board of county commissioners and having no deputy by him appointed in attendance, the said board may temporarily appoint a suitable person not herein disqualified to perform the auditor's duties.

He shall also keep a well-bound book in which shall be platted all maps of towns, villages, or additions to the same, within the county, together with the description, legend, acknowledgment or other writing thereon. He shall keep an index to such book of plats, which shall contain the name or names of the proprietor of such town or village, or addition, and the name of the town, village or addition.

The board must also direct the clerk to place upon and add to the assessment roll any property, real or personal, subject to taxation, which it may discover to have been omitted by the assessor, and must assess the same to a just and uniform value, as compared with the average valuation of property of the same or similar kind as made by the assessor.

SEC. 2879. During the session of the board for the equalization of taxes and the correction of the assessment roll, any person or his attorney or agent may attend and apply for the correction of any alleged error in the listing and valuation of his property, and a failure to so attend and apply shall bar said person from further recourse in law, as to the valuation, but not as to error in description or to double assessment.

SEC. 2894. The county treasurer, within ten days after the receipt of the "duplicate assessment roll," must publish an official notice specifying: (1.) That the "duplicate assessment roll," of the county for the year 18—, is now in his possession for collection of the taxes levied therein. (2.) SEC. 2896. No demand for taxes shall be necessary, but it shall be the duty of every person subject to taxation under this act, to attend in person, or by agent or attorney at the office of the county treasurer and pay his taxes before the same become delinquent.

SEC. 2897. The county treasurer of each county, or his deputy, must attend at the county seat at all times during office hours, to receive the taxes not yet paid, and he is also required to receive and collect as far as practicable the taxes remaining unpaid on the delinquent list of any former year or years.

SEC. 2898. The treasurer must note opposite of the tax paid, and in the column prepared for that purpose, the date of the payment of said tax.

SEC. 2899. The treasurer must give a receipt to the person paying any tax, specifying the amount of the assessment, amount paid, date of payment, year for which the tax was assessed, to whom assessed, county assessed in, by whom paid, and, if required, a description of the property assessed.

SEC. 2900. The probate judge must require every administrator and executor to pay out of the funds of the estate all taxes due from such estate; and no order or decree for the distribution of any property of any decedent among the heirs or devisees must be made until all taxes against the estate are paid.

SEC. 2901. On the thirty-first day of December in each year, at six o'clock P. M., all unpaid taxes are delinquent, and thereafter the sheriff must collect thereon, at the same time and in the same manner, that the tax is collected, ten per cent. additional, as penalty, and interest at the rate of ten per cent. per annum from said date until paid.

SEC. 2902. On the first Tuesday in January in each year, the treasurer of each county must attend at the office of the county auditor with the duplicate assessment roll, and every item marked "paid" in such duplicate assessment roll must be marked "paid" in the "original assessment roll," with the date of payment of each; and every item marked "error" or "double assessment" in the duplicate must be marked the same in the original: Provided, The auditor shall be satisfied that the same are "errors" or "double assessments;" and the delinquent taxes must then be extended on each roll in the columns prepared for the same, with the ten per cent. penalty added, and the footings of the delinquent taxes in the original and duplicate rolls must agree: Provided, That the treasurer shall not be the collector of taxes, after the first day of January of each year, but shall, after he has made his comparison with the auditor, turn over the duplicate assessment roll to the sheriff of the county, who shall collect the delinquent taxes, as in this act provided, and the auditor shall charge the sheriff with the amount of delinquent taxes turned over to him, and shall credit the treasurer with the same amount; and the sheriff shall have the ten per cent. penalty for the collection of all the delinquent taxes.

SEC. 2903. Immediately after taxes have become delinquent in each year, and the footings are made as required in the preceding section, the sheriff must proceed to collect the same by distraint and sale of the personal property of the persons whose taxes are delinquent on his list: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to exempt any property from sale for the payment of taxes.

SEC. 2904. When the sheriff distrains personal property for taxes he may collect mileage at the rate of ten cents per mile for each mile necessarily traveled in going to and returning from the place of sale, and the amount so collected must be entered on the duplicate roll in the column of "mileage."

SEC. 2905. When the sheriff distrains personal property for taxes he may keep it at the expense of the owner until the sale thereof unless the tax, penalty, interest due and all costs and expenses be sooner paid.

SEC. 2906. As soon as the sheriff distrains personal property for taxes he must give notice of the time and place of sale of the property distrained by posting written or printed notices thereof, in three public places in the county, one of which shall be at the place of sale; the time to be stated in the notice shall not be less than three nor more than ten days from the day of seizure, but he may adjourn the sale from day to day, for a period not exceeding three days, and shall adjourn at least once when there are no bidders; and in case of an adjournment for want of bidders, he must post a notice thereof at the place of sale. The sheriff must sell the least amount of the personal property distrained or the smallest interest in the same, that any person will take and pay all of the taxes against the person whose property is distrained, whether in real or personal property, or both, including the penalties, interest and all expenses and costs of sale. The sheriff must, if required, give a bill of sale in the name of the county in which the tax was levied, of the property or interest purchased to the purchaser, and such bill of sale shall be valid against all other claims.

SEC. 2907. Unsold property may be left at the place of sale at the expense of the owner.

SEC. 2908. The sheriff must sell sufficient of the personal property of a person whose taxes are delinquent to satisfy said taxes and accrued penalties, interest, and costs before he advertises the real property of said person for his taxes, and he must use due diligence and search to find said personal property.

SEC. 2909. When the treasurer or sheriff discovers an error or double assessment in the duplicate assessment roll, he must note the same in ink opposite the "error" or "double assessment" in the column under "remarks," and if a "double assessment," refer to the name or line and page where said assessment is correctly listed.

SEC. 2910. If the sheriff or his deputy be impeded or resisted in the execution of any of the duties of his office, he may require any suitable person or persons to aid him therein, and if any such person refuse to aid the sheriff, or his deputy, when so required to do by either, he or they shall each forfeit and pay the sum of twenty dollars, to be recovered by civil action in any court having jurisdiction of the case; the action to be prosecuted by the county as plaintiff; the amount recovered to be for the use of the common school fund, and the person or persons resisting shall be liable as in case of resisting the sheriff in the execution of civil process.

SEC. 2912. Whenever the treasurer or sheriff shall discover that any person is disposing of or removing from the county any personal property on which a tax has been assessed and not paid, and no real estate is held for said tax, it shall be the duty of such officers to immediately proceed to collect the taxes due from the owner thereof, whether the same are delinquent or not, by levying upon and making sale of such personal property in the manner herein provided for the collection of delinquent taxes.

SEC. 2913. If during the collection of taxes the treasurer or sheriff or his deputy shall discover that an error has been made in entering the initials or name of any person, or in the description of his property on the duplicate assessment roll, he may correct such error so that the tax may be collected from the person intended, and the description of property correspond with the property owned by the person taxed.

SEC. 2914. Whenever the treasurer or sheriff discovers that any land or other taxable property has been omitted from the last assessment roll, in his hands, he must list the same on said roll, under the head of "treasurer's or sheriff's supplemental assessment for the year (naming it)," estimate the tax thereon according to the last levy, by the board of county commissioners, and collect said taxes the same as other taxes are collected.

SEC. 2915. On the first Monday in April of each year, the sheriff or his deputy must enter in the "duplicate assessment roll" immediately following his supplemental assessment, the following affidavit and subscribe to the same before the county auditor or his deputy, to-wit:

TERRITORY OF WASHINGTON, }

I, —, sheriff (or deputy, as the case may be) do solemnly swear or affirm that I have made due and diligent search to find sufficient personal property, subject to levy, belonging to and owned by each person whose tax is now delinquent, on this "duplicate assessment roll," and that I have been unable to find any such property from which to make said tax, so help me God.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this — day of —, 18—.

—, Auditor for — county, W. T.

SEC. 2916. On the first Monday of May in each year, at 10 o'clock A. M., at the county seat of each county, the sheriff thereof, or his deputy, must commence the sale, at public auction, of real estate upon which taxes have been levied and not paid. The sale of real estate for delinquent taxes may be at the office of the sheriff, or at the court house of the county, as the sheriff may elect, by notice duly given at the time of publication of the delinquent list.

SEC. 2917. The sheriff must give notice of the sale of real property for taxes by publishing for three consecutive weeks the delinquent list, with total amount of taxes, including penalty, interest and costs to date of sale, in the weekly newspaper published in the county or supplement thereto, if there be one; or if there be two or more newspapers published in said county, then in the official paper published in said county or supplement thereto; or if there be no paper published in the county, then in some newspaper published in the territory and having a general circulation in the county, for which said printing is done, or the sheriff of such county may give said notice by posting printed or written notices, in at least six of the most public places in the county, for three consecutive weeks, prior to the first day of sale. Said notices must contain a notification that all real estate upon which the taxes for the preceding year, (naming it) have not been paid, will be sold at public auction, or a sufficient portion thereof, to satisfy all taxes, penalties, interest and costs due to the county from the owners thereof for said year; the time and place of such sale; a description of all lands, city and town lots to be sold, and the names of the persons to whom the same are assessed, or to "owners unknown," as the case may be.

SEC. 2918. On the day fixed for sale, and on each subsequent day adjourned to, the sheriff, between the hours of 10 o'clock A. M., and 3 o'clock P. M., must offer for sale the property advertised, (unless all taxes, penalty, interest and costs against any specific tract thereof have been previously paid), commencing at the head of the list and continuing alphabetically with the names of the persons whose taxes are delinquent, and must sell to the persons who will take the least quantity of land offered, or in case an individual interest is assessed, then the smallest portion of the interest, and pay all the taxes, penalty, interest and costs.

SEC. 2919. The land assessed to each person, corporation or company whose taxes are delinquent on said advertised list, must be twice offered for sale, if not sold on the first offer, and if there be no bidder for any parcel or lot, of a sum sufficient to pay all taxes, penalty, interest and costs, including cost of advertising, that the sheriff is required to collect by sale of such parcel or lot of land, the same shall be struck off to the county for the whole amount of such taxes, penalty, interest and costs.

SEC. 2920. When a person offers to take a less quantity than the whole tract, lot or parcel of land offered for sale by the sheriff for delinquent taxes, he must not make his selection from or near the center of any division or subdivision assessed, but must start from one of the descriptive points of said tract or lot and run his lines so that they will not divide any building situated on said land.

SEC. 2921. If the purchaser does not pay the taxes and costs before 10 o'clock A. M. of the following day, the property must then be re-sold, or, if the tax sale is closed, entered as "sold to county."

SEC. 2922. The bid of any person refusing to make the payment for property purchased by him, must not again be received on the sale of any property advertised in the delinquent list of that year.

SEC. 2923. Lands or lots once advertised and sold for taxes must not be advertised and sold again for the same taxes unless by order of the board of county commissioners, but must remain charged to the sheriff and may be redeemed by any person by paying to said sheriff all taxes, penalty, interest and costs charged against such lands or lots.

SEC. 2924. Whenever the sheriff sells any property for taxes he must enter in the appropriate columns on the duplicate assessment roll, the amount of interest and costs, date of sale, to whom sold, or, if to the county, "sold to county."

SEC. 2925. After receiving the amount of the taxes and costs and one dollar for the certificate, the sheriff must give to the purchaser a certificate of sale, dated on the day of sale, describing the land so purchased, stating that it was sold for taxes, the date of sale, the amount paid therefor, and, when known, the name of the person assessed for said taxes. The certificate must be signed by the sheriff in his official capacity, and shall be prima facie evidence of the regularity of all prior proceedings.

SEC. 2926. Within ten days after the annual sale of lands for taxes, the sheriff must attend with the duplicate assessment roll at the office of the county auditor, and the auditor must enter in the original assessment roll all entries made by the sheriff (including affidavits), since the last day of comparison, and must at the same time charge the sheriff with the amount of advertising as shown by the entries in the duplicate roll, with the amount of interest collected to date.

SEC. 2927. The sheriff must attach to the duplicate assessment roll in an appropriate place, a printed list of the lands advertised for the year in which the taxes on said roll were listed, and must furnish the auditor with a printed list of said lands, and the auditor must attach the same to the original roll.

SEC. 2928. The purchaser acquires a lien on the land or lot sold for taxes, for the amount paid by him at the sale, and if he subsequently pay any tax levied upon the same, whether for any year or years previous or subsequent to the sale, he shall have the same lien for the taxes so paid, and he shall be entitled to interest on the amount of taxes paid by him, at the rate of twenty per cent. per annum from date of payment.

SEC. 2929. The certificate of purchase of any land or lot sold for taxes assessed thereon, may be assigned by the purchaser, his heirs, executors or administrators, to any other person.

SEC. 2930. All lands, city and town lots sold to actual purchasers, shall be subject to redemption by the former owner thereof within three years thereafter, on the payment of the delinquent taxes with twenty per cent. per annum interest, costs, charges and the accruing tax, to the purchaser, who shall receipt therefor, or to the county treasurer for the use of such purchaser, and if no receipt of such purchaser shall be filed with such treasurer, or no such payment be made to him, the holder of the certificate of purchase shall be entitled to receive a deed.

SEC. 2931. Lands, and city and town lots sold to the county may be redeemed by the former owner thereof by such owner obtaining from the county auditor a certified statement of the amount of all taxes, interest, costs and accrued taxes charged to such land or lots, and paying such amount to the county treasurer, who shall give him a receipt therefor, and the county auditor, on filing such receipt, shall give to such owner a certificate of redemption of such land, city or town lots, signed by him in his official capacity, and sealed with the seal of the board of county commissioners, and shall charge such treasurer with the amount of such receipt, and shall omit such land, city or town lots, so redeemed, from his list of county lands.

SEC. 2932. The owner, or his agent, of any lands, city or town lots advertised for sale for delinquent taxes thereon, may, before the sale thereof, pay all taxes, interest, penalty and costs due from the owner thereof, and stop the sale.

SEC. 2933. Land heretofore sold to county for taxes must not be advertised again for sale for the same taxes unless by order of the board of county commissioners, duly entered of record, and when so advertised and sold, the entries, taxes, penalties, interest, costs and all transactions relating to the same must be kept and held separate and distinct from the taxes levied on said lands and the collections of the same under this act.

It shall be the duty of the viewers and surveyor, appointed as aforesaid, after receiving at least five days' previous notice from the county auditor, to meet at the time and place specified in the order of the board of county commissioners aforesaid, or within five days thereafter, and after taking an oath or affirmation faithfully and impartially to discharge the duties of their appointments respectively, they shall proceed to view, survey and lay out or alter said road, as prayed for in the petition, as near as in their opinion a good road can be made at a reasonable expense, taking into consideration the utility, convenience or inconvenience and expense which will result to individuals, as well as to the public, if such road shall be established and opened or altered; and the surveyor shall survey such road under the direction of the viewers, and cause the same to be conspicuously marked throughout, noting the angles and distances. A sufficient number of trees shall be blazed to mark the line of the road plainly. The beginning and termination of such road, and the termination of each mile thereon, shall be designated by a tree, if one is found at the point, if not, then by a stone containing at least 1,728 solid inches, if such stone can be found in the vicinity, if not, then by post of durable wood, at least four inches square and three and a half feet long, and firmly planted not less than eighteen inches in the ground. When posts are used two bearing trees shall be chosen and the course and distance of each of which from the post, the direction of the tree, and the kind of wood shall be noted by the surveyor. The beginning and terminating points of the road, whether trees, posts or stones, shall be marked by the letter "R." The termination of each mile shall be marked by a figure indicating the number of the mile from the beginning of the road, followed by the letter "M." The surveyor shall also make out and deliver to one of the viewers without delay, a certified return of the survey of the said road, and a plat of the same, and the viewers or a majority of them shall make out and sign a report in writing, stating their opinion in favor of or against the establishment or alteration of such road, and set forth the reasons of the same, which report, together with the plat and survey of said road, or alteration, shall be delivered to the county auditor by one of the viewers, on or before the first day of the term of said board then next ensuing, and it shall be the duty of the said board of county commissioners, on receiving the report of the viewers aforesaid, to cause the same to be publicly read twice at the same meeting, and if no remonstrance with a greater number of remonstrators than there are names on the petition, (the names on the remonstrance or petition to be confined to the road district or districts established, or to be established where the proposed change is to be made) or petitions for damages be filed, and the commissioners being satisfied that such road will be of public utility, the report of the viewers being favorable thereto, the commissioners shall cause said report, survey and plat to be recorded, and from thenceforth said road shall be considered a public highway, and the commissioners shall issue an order directing said road to be opened.

SEC. 2975. In all cases where any oath or affirmation is required to be taken by any person under the provisions of this chapter, the same may be administered by the surveyor or by one of the viewers, who has previously been sworn or affirmed.

SEC. 2976. If any person through whose lands county roads may be viewed or marked out shall feel that he or she would be injured by the opening of the same, such person may make complaint thereof in writing to the board of county commissioners, during the term at which the report of the viewers appointed to view said road is received, and if such complaint be made the county commissioners shall appoint three disinterested freeholders of the county, who shall meet at such time as may be designated by the county commissioners, or at such time as may be agreed upon by such freeholders, and after having been duly sworn or affirmed to discharge their duty faithfully and impartially, shall proceed and view said proposed road the whole distance through the premises of the complainant and assess and determine how much less valuable such premises of the complainant would be rendered by the opening of said road, and they shall report the same in writing to the county commissioners at the next regular term.

SEC. 2977. If the board of county commissioners are satisfied that the amount of damage so assessed is just and equitable and that the proposed road will be of sufficient importance to the public to cause the damages so assessed and determined to be paid by the county, the commissioners shall order the same to be paid to the complainant out of the county treasury, but if in the opinion of the county commissioners such proposed road is not of sufficient importance to the public to cause damages to be paid by the county, the commissioners may refuse to establish the same as a public highway unless the expense or damages or such part thereof as the commissioners may think proper shall be paid by the petitioners.

SEC. 2978. Any complainant who may conceive himself aggrieved by the assessment of damages, as prescribed by the two preceding sections, may, within three months after such report is adopted by the county commissioners, appeal therefrom to the district court of the proper county. SEC. 2979. All county roads shall be sixty feet in width unless the county commissioners shall, upon the prayer of the petitioners for the same, determine on a less number of feet in width.

SEC. 2980. When the place of beginning or true course of any public road shall become uncertain by reason of the removal of any marked tree or monument by which such road is designated, or from any other cause, the county commissioners of the proper county may appoint two disinterested freeholders of the county to re-view and if they deem it necessary to straighten such road; and the re-viewers shall cause the said road to be correctly surveyed and marked throughout, as in case of a new road, and shall make a return of the survey and plat of such road to the county commissioners of the proper county; the commissioners shall cause the same, if approved, to be recorded as in other cases; and from thenceforth such road surveyed as aforesaid shall be considered as a public highway.

SEC. 2981. If any person or persons through whose lands any public highway is or may be established shall be desirous of turning such road through any other part of his or their lands, such person or persons may upon the notice and petition as presented in sections 2971 and 2972 of this chapter, apply to the county commissioners of the proper county to permit him or them to turn such road through any other part of his or their land, on as good ground and without materially increasing the distance to the injury of the public; and on receipt of such petition, accompanied by a sufficient bond to pay the costs and expenses to be incurred thereby, the commissioners may appoint two disinterested freeholders and a surveyor as re-viewers who, or a majority of such re-viewers, shall proceed to re-view the ground over which the road is proposed to be turned, and ascertain the distance such road will be increased by the proposed alteration, and make out a report in writing, stating the several distances so found, together with their opinion as to the utility of making such alterations; and if the re-viewers, or a majority of them, shall report to the commissioners that the prayer of the petitioner or petitioners is reasonable, and upon receiving satisfactory evidence that the proposed new road has been opened a legal width and in all respects made equal to the old road for the convenience of travelers, the commissioners may declare such new road a public highway, and make record thereof, and at the same time vacate so much of the old road as is [not] embraced in the new, and the person or persons petitioning for the alteration shall pay all the costs and expenses of the view, survey and return of the alteration.

SEC. 2982. If any viewer or viewers shall refuse or neglect to perform the duties required by this chapter, without making satisfactory excuse for such refusal or neglect, he shall be fined in any sum not exceeding ten dollars, to be recovered by an action before a justice of the peace of the proper county, which fine, when collected, shall be paid over without delay into the county treasury, and shall be placed in the road fund.

SEC. 2983. Upon application being made under the provisions of this chapter, for a view or re-view of any public road proposed to be laid out, altered or vacated, the county commissioners shall, before issuing an order to the viewers, require a bond to be executed by one or more of the petitioners for such view or re-view, with surety sufficient, to be approved by the commissioners, and made payable to the county in such sums as the commissioners shall direct, not exceeding two hundred dollars, conditioned that if the prayer of the petitioners be not granted and allowed, the person executing such bond will pay all costs and expenses that may be incurred by reason of such view or re-view.

SEC. 2984. Any person or persons whose land shall be so situated that it has no connection with any county road, may make application in writing to the county commissioners of his county, at a regular term, for a public road leading from his premises to some convenient county road, by first posting three notices fifteen days before said meeting in the district where said road is to be located, and thereupon the commissioners shall appoint three disinterested freeholders of the county as viewers, and cause an order to be issued directing them to meet on a day named in such order, to view and locate a public road, according to the application and notice, and to assess the damage to be sustained thereby; and after being duly sworn, or affirmed, faithfully and impartially to perform the duties of their appointment, and after at least three days' notice given to all persons through whose land such public road is to be located, such viewers shall proceed to locate and mark out a public road thirty feet wide, from some certain point on the premises of the applicant to some certain point on the county road, so as to do the least damage to the lands through which such public road is located, and they shall also at the same time assess damages sustained by the person or persons owning such land.

SEC. 2985. The viewers appointed in accordance with provisions of the preceding section shall have power to determine in all cases whether or not gates shall be placed at proper points on said road, and assess damages in accordance with that determination.

SEC. 2986. The viewers so appointed, or a majority of them, shall make a report to the county commissioners, at the next regular term, of the public road so located by them, and also, the amount of damages, if any, assessed by them, and the person or persons entitled to such damages; and if the county commissioners are satisfied that such report is just, and after payment by the applicant of all costs of locating such road and the damages assessed by the viewers, the commissioners shall order such report to be confirmed, and declare such road to be a public road, and the same shall be recorded as such, and any person aggrieved by the assessment of damages, may appeal within ninety days after such confirmation of the report to the district court.

SEC. 2987. The board of county commissioners shall, as often as they may deem necessary, but not oftener than once a year, divide their respective counties, or any part thereof, into suitable and convenient road districts, and cause a brief description of the same to be entered on the county records.

SEC. 2988. The supervisor of each road district in this territory shall, at least ten days before the first Monday in April of each year, cause three notices to be posted up in three conspicuous places in his road district, giving notice that there will be an election held in such district on the first Monday in April, at two o'clock in the afternoon, at some convenient place in said district to be specified in said notice, for the purpose of electing a road supervisor for the next succeeding year, at which election the old supervisor shall act as chairman, if present, if not present a chairman shall be elected by the voters present. The meeting shall also elect a secretary who shall record the proceedings of the meeting, and all male persons in the district who are required to labor on the roads or who have road taxes to pay, may vote at such election, and the person receiving the highest number of votes shall be considered elected supervisor for that year, who shall within ten days, and before entering upon the duties of said office, take an oath to faithfully discharge the duties of his office, and if required by the county commissioners, shall enter into bond to the county, with one or more sureties, in any sum not exceeding one thousand dollars, to be approved by the county commissioners, to the effect that he will faithfully account for all money coming into his hands by virtue of his office; Provided, however, If from any cause there is no election on the first Monday of April, the supervisor or any qualified elector who is a taxpayer of the district may call a special election by giving notice as provided in this section, which election shall be held on the third Monday of the same month. It shall be the duty of the chairman and secretary of such meeting to notify the county auditor in writing, before the next regular meeting of the board of county commissioners, that the district has elected a supervisor and give his name in full; but in case any road district shall fail to notify the county auditor in writing that they have elected a supervisor, it shall be the duty of the county auditor to report what districts have failed to elect to the county commissioners at their regular May meeting, and they shall appoint supervisors to fill all vacancies in such road districts.

SEC. 2989. The county auditor shall furnish the several supervisors or roads in his county with their respective road lists, on or before the second Monday in April of each year. Said list shall be properly ruled with the spaces for names and amount and containing directions to supervisors when to return the same.

SEC. 2990. It shall be the duty of every supervisor of roads to obtain the names and make out in alphabetical order a list of all persons liable to perform labor on the public roads within his road district, and file the same with the county auditor on or before the first Monday in May in each year, whose duty it shall be to affix to each name the amount of taxable property owned by each person residing or owning property therein, which list shall be returned to the road supervisors in the second assessment district, on or before the first day of each year, and in the first assessment district, on or before the first day of September.

SEC. 2991. The road supervisors shall proceed to collect the road taxes in their respective districts in the manner hereinafter provided, and it shall be the duty of each supervisor of roads in the several counties in this territory to return their road lists to the county auditors of their respective counties on or before the thirty-first day of December in each year, properly certified to, showing the amounts paid thereon, by whom paid, and whether the amounts so paid were paid in work or money. They shall also, at the same time, return to the auditors a delinquent list, showing the names of all persons who have failed to pay their road taxes for the current year, together with the amount due from each. The county auditors shall add a penalty of twenty-five per centum to all road taxes so returned delinquent, and shall place the names of the persons so delinquent, together with the amount due from each on the regular delinquent tax list, and charge the amount of such delinquent road taxes to the sheriff, who shall collect the same in the manner and at the time he collects other delinquent taxes: Provided, That in the counties of Columbia, Klickitat, Skamania, Spokane, Stevens, Walla Walla, Whitman and Yakima the road supervisors may retain their road lists for the period of twelve months before returning their delinquent lists, and such delinquent road taxes shall be added to the next regular delinquent list, and collected as hereinbefore provided. All moneys so collected shall be paid into the county treasury of the proper county, and the respective county treasurers shall turn the same over to the supervisor of the road district to which such tax belongs, to be expended in that district.

SEC. 2992. Whenever the supervisor shall, from any cause, have neglected or omitted to place on his list the name of any person or property within the time required by law, he may at any time afterwards place the name of any such person or property on the list and assess the road tax due, which assessment shall in all respects be valid as if made in due form. It shall be the duty of the county commissioners of the several counties to levy and assess a road tax of four dollars on every male person liable to perform labor on the public roads, between the ages of twenty-one and fifty years, except persons that are a public charge or too infirm to perform labor, idiotic and insane persons, and an active fireman who has been a member of any fire company in this territory for a period of one year preceding the assessment of taxes; also assess not less than one nor more than five mills on every dollar's worth of property as returned by the county assessment, which tax shall be paid in money, or in labor at the rate of two dollars per day: Provided, That the county commissioners may, in addition, levy a special tax of two mills, on every dollar's worth of property, as returned by the assessor, which tax shall be paid in money, at the time and in the manner provided for the payment of county and territorial taxes; and the money arising from said tax shall be known and designated as the "road and bridge fund," and may in the discretion of the county commissioners be applied to build or repair public bridges, or roads: Provided further, That in the county of Lewis the above two mills shall be used for the purpose of building bridges only.

All money so collected shall be for the benefit of the road district of which said employes were residents at the time the tax became due.

SEC. 2994. Every person notified to labor on the public roads, under the provisions of this chapter, shall be required to appear at the place appointed by the supervisor, at the hour of eight o'clock in the forenoon, with such necessary tools and implements as said supervisor may direct, and work industriously and diligently, doing at least eight hours' faithful labor in each day, at such work and in such manner as shall be directed by the supervisor; and such supervisor may, if he deem it necessary, order any person owning the same to furnish a team of horses, mules or oxen and wagon, scraper or plow, to be employed or used on the roads under the direction of the supervisor, who shall allow such person a reasonable compensation for the use of such team, wagon, cart, scraper or plow, in discharge of any labor due from such person.

The supervisor of roads shall open, or cause to be opened, all public roads which have been or may hereafter be laid out and established according to law, in any part of his road district, and shall keep the same in as good repair as the means at his command will allow; (the labor in his district as assessed as provided in section —); and he shall have authority to purchase for the use of the road district, any plows, scrapers, or other implements, which he may think proper, and to enter upon any lands adjoining or near the public road, and may gather, dig and carry away any stone, gravel or sand, and cut down and carry off any trees or wood necessary for the making and repairing of any public road, and to purchase any timber, plank or other material necessary for making or repairing any public road in his district, and to enter upon any land adjoining or lying near any public road in his road district and cut, open or construct such drains and ditches as he shall deem necessary for the making or preservation of such roads, doing as little injury as may be to such lands; and any person stopping or obstructing the drains or ditches so made shall forfeit the sum of twenty dollars for each offense, to be recovered and appropriated as provided in this chapter: Provided, That in all suits decided adversely to the supervisor, hereby authorized to be instituted by him, he shall be allowed a credit, in his yearly settlement, of costs he may have been compelled to pay on account of such adverse decision or decisions: And, provided further, If any person shall feel aggrieved by the act of any supervisor cutting or carrying away timber or stone as aforesaid, he may make complaint thereof in writing to the county commissioners at any regular meeting within six months after the cause of such complaint shall exist, and such commissioners shall proceed to assess and determine the damages, if any, sustained by the complainant and cause the same to be paid out of the county treasury.

SEC. 2996. Every supervisor shall erect and keep up at the forks of every highway and every crossing of public roads within his road district, a guide or finger board, containing an inscription in legible letters, directing the way and specifying the distance to the next town or public place situated on each road respectively.

SEC. 3000. Any supervisor of roads, who shall neglect or refuse to perform the several duties enjoined upon him by this chapter, or who shall, under any pretense whatever, give or sign any receipt or certificate purporting to be a receipt or certificate for money paid or labor performed, unless the money shall have been paid or the labor performed prior to the giving or signing of such receipts or certificate, shall forfeit for every such offense not less than five nor more than fifty dollars, for the use of his county, to be recovered before any justice of the peace having jurisdiction of the same, in the name of the county; and it is hereby made the duty of the commissioners to sue for the same.

SEC. 3005. Every person intending to apply for a license to keep a ferry at any place, shall give notice of such intention by posting up at least three notices in public places in the neighborhood where the ferry is proposed to be kept, twenty days prior to any regular session of the

Sec. 3010. The county commissioners of the several counties are hereby authorized to fix, alter and establish, from time to time, the rates of ferriage to be levied and collected at all ferries now established, or hereafter

SEC. 3015. Any person who shall maintain any ferry and receive ferriage without first obtaining a license for the same, shall pay a fine of ten dollars for each offense, to be collected for the use of the county, by suit before any justice of the peace having jurisdiction; and any person is hereby authorized to bring such suit: Provided, That it shall not be considered unlawful for any person to transport any other person or his property over any stream for hire, when it shall be made evident that there is no ferry, or that the ferry established at such place was not in actual operation at the time, or in sufficient repair to have afforded to such person or his property a safe and speedy passage.

For mal-conduct on the part of the board of judges or any member thereof. (2.) When the person whose right to office is contested, was not, at the time of election, eligible to such office. (3.) When the person whose right is contested shall have been previous to such election convicted of an infamous crime, by any court of competent jurisdiction, such conviction not having been reversed nor such person relieved from the legal infamy of such conviction. (4.) When the person whose right is contested has given to any elector or inspector, judge or clerk of the election, any bribe or reward, or shall have offered any such bribe or reward for the purpose of procuring his election. (5.) On account of illegal votes.

SEC. 3106. No irregularity or improper conduct in the proceedings of the board of judges or any one of them shall be construed to amount to such mal conduct as to annul or set aside any election, unless the irregularity or improper conduct shall have been such as to procure the person whose right to the office may be contested, to be declared duly elected when he had not received the highest number of legal votes.

SEC. 3107. When any election held for an office exercised in and for a county is contested on account of any mal-conduct on the part of the board of judges of any precinct election, or any member thereof, the election shall not be annulled and set aside upon any proof thereof, unless the rejection of the vote of such precinct or precincts shall change the result as to such office, in the remaining vote of the county.

SEC. 3108. Nothing in the fifth ground of contest, specified in section 3105 shall be so construed as to authorize an election to be set aside on account of illegal votes, unless it shall appear that an amount of illegal votes has been given to the person whose right to the office is contested, which, if taken from him would reduce the number of his legal votes below the number of votes given to some other person, for the same office after deducting therefrom the illegal votes which may be shown to have been given to such other person.

SEC. 3109. No person shall be competent to contest an election unless he is a qualified elector of the district, county or precinct, as the case may be, in which the office is to be exercised.

SEC. 3111. When the reception of illegal votes is alleged as a cause of contest, it shall be sufficient to state generally that illegal votes were cast, which, if given to the person whose election is contested in the specified precinct or precincts, will, if taken from him reduce the number of his legal votes below the number of legal votes given to some other person for the same office; but no testimony shall be received of any illegal votes unless the party contesting such election shall deliver to the opposite party, at least three days before such trial, a written list of the number of illegal votes and by whom given, which he intends to prove on such trial and no testimony shall be received of any illegal votes, except such as are specified in such list.

SEC. 3112. No statement of the cause of contest shall be rejected, nor the proceedings thereon dismissed by any court before which such contest may be brought for trial, for want of form, if the particular cause or causes of contest shall be alleged with such certainty, as will sufficiently advise the defendant of the particular proceedings, or cause for which such election is contested.

SEC. 3113. Upon such statement being filed it shall be the duty of the clerk to inform the judge of the district court who may give notice and order a special term of said court, to be held at the usual place of holding said court, on some day to be named by him, not less than ten nor more than twenty days from the date of such notice, to hear and determine such contested election: Providing, That if no special term is called, such contest shall be determined at the first regular term of said court after such statement is filed.

The said clerk shall issue subpoenas for witnesses in such contested election, at the request of either party, which shall be served by the sheriff or constable, as other subpoenas, and the district court shall have full power to issue attachments to compel the attendance of witnesses who shall have been duly subpoenaed to attend, if they fail to do so.

SEC. 3116. Said court shall meet at the time and place designated to determine such contested election, by the rules of law and evidence governing the determination of questions of law and fact, so far as the same may be applicable, and may dismiss the proceedings, if the statement of the cause or causes of contest is insufficient, or for want of prosecution. After hearing the proofs and allegations of the parties, the court shall pronounce judgment in the premises, either confirming or annulling and setting aside such election, according to the law and right of the case.

SEC. 3117. If in any such case it shall appear that another person than the one returned, has the highest number of legal votes, said court shall declare such person duly elected.

SEC. 3118. The judge, clerk, sheriff, or constable and witnesses, shall receive respectively the same fees from the party against whom judgment is given, as are allowed for similar service in the district court.

SEC. 3122. Either party, feeling himself aggrieved by the judgment of said court, may appeal therefrom to the supreme court, as in other cases of appeal thereto.

SEC. 3123. Whenever an election shall be annulled, and set aside, by the judgment of the district court, when no appeal has been taken therefrom within ten days, such certificate or commission, if any have been issued, shall be thereby rendered void.

The person contesting such election, shall, within thirty days after election, file with the clerk of the district court of the district in which the alleged cause, or causes of the contest originated, a concise statement of the grounds on which he intends to rely, verified by affidavits.

SEC. 3127. Immediately on the filing of such statement in the clerk's office, the said clerk shall issue a commission directed to two justices of the peace in the contestant's district, to meet at such time and place, as shall be specified in such commission, not less than twenty, nor more than thirty days from the time of issuing the same, for the purpose of taking depositions of such witnesses as the parties to such contest may wish to examine.

Written notice of such contest, specifying the time and place of taking depositions, and before whom to be taken, and a copy of the statement certified by the clerk of said court shall be delivered to the person whose election is contested, or if he cannot be found, it shall be left at the house where he last resided, by the sheriff of the county in which such person claims his residence, within ten days after such statement shall have been filed in the clerk's office.

SEC. 3129. The sheriff, into whose hands such notice and certified copy may come, shall make due service thereof, and shall return to the proper clerk, a certified copy of such notice, with the manner and time of service endorsed thereon, for which he shall be entitled to receive from the party contesting such election, the same fees for service and mileage, as are allowed in the district court for service of original writs.

SEC. 3130. Either of said justices of the peace shall have power, at any time, to issue subpoenas for witnesses, at the request of either party, to be served by the sheriff as other subpoenas, and such justices, when met at the time and place appointed to take such depositions, shall have the same power to issue attachments, and assess fines against witnesses, as is given to justices of the peace in the trial of suits instituted before them.

SEC. 3131. Said justices of the peace shall meet at the time and place appointed to take the depositions of witnesses produced by the parties, which shall be reduced to writing by said justices, and sworn to and subscribed by said witnesses respectively, and duly certified by said justices as depositions are in other cases, noting in the caption of each deposition by which party the witness was called.

SEC. 3132. Said justices may continue said examination from day to day, if the business shall require it, and when the same is closed they shall deliver the depositions taken before them, together with their said commissions, to the clerk of the district court by whom the same was issued.

SEC. 3133. If at any time, either of the said justices shall become unable to proceed in such examination, said clerk may supply the vacancy by designating any other justice of the peace of the district in the place of such justice.

SEC. 3134. The sheriff, for the service of such subpoenas, and the justice for issuing the same and taking the deposition, shall receive from the party at whose instance such services are performed, the same fees as are allowed them for similar service in other cases.

SEC. 3135. It shall be the duty of said clerk to seal up such depositions together with the original statement of the grounds of such contest, and the copy of notice served upon the party, whose right is contested, and the commission issued to the justices of the peace and transmit the same by mail to the secretary of the territory, endorsing thereon the names of the contesting parties, and the branch of the legislature before which such contest is to be tried.

SEC. 3137. Each house of the legislature is the judge of the qualifications and election of its members, and shall try all contested elections of its members in such manner as it may direct.

SEC. 3138. At any time after notice of any contest shall be given and before the trial of such contested election before the proper branch of the legislature, it may be lawful for either party to such contest, to take depositions to be read on the trial thereof, in like manner and under the same rules as are allowed and required in the cases of depositions to be read on any trial pending in the district court, and such deposition when thus taken shall be sealed up by the officer taking the same and directed to the secretary of the territory, who shall keep the same unopened, and deliver them to the presiding officer of the house in which such contest is to be tried, to be disposed of by such officer as the depositions specified in section 3135.

SEC. 3139. Nothing contained in this chapter shall be so construed as to abridge the right of either branch of the legislature trying any contested election, from granting commissions to take testimony, or from sending for and examining before such branch any witnesses it may desire to hear on such trial.

The county treasurer shall place any tax so collected to the credit of the district to which it belongs, and shall receive, as compensation for collecting the same such sum, not more than two per cent. of the tax collected, as may be allowed by the county commissioners; such compensation to be paid from the amount of said district tax so collected: Provided, That such commission shall not be paid when a county treasurer receives salary in lieu of commission.
