CHAPTER CXX.
[H. B. No. 217.]
REGULATING THE BUSINESS OF LOGGING.

An Act regulating the business of logging, and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. That it shall be lawful for any person or company interested in logging to make such improvements on any stream used for logging within the State of Washington as may be necessary to carry on said logging business; that such improvements may consist in clearing out obstructions and straightening the channel by cutting across sand or gravel bars, and that side dams and sheer booms may be used in making such improvements.

Sec. 2. Vetoed by the governor.

Sec. 3. That owners of land or their agents shall have the right to fence across all unmeandered streams at any time when such streams are not used for a public highway, or by making a fence that will not be an obstruction.

Sec. 4. Whereas, the season when logs are cast upon land will not for this year otherwise have passed before this act would go into effect, an emergency now exists for the immediate taking effect of this act; the same shall be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 7, 1891.
