

Distribution of copies.

fore provided, the secretary of state shall deliver to each of the officers of the executive department of this state, one copy; to each of the judges of the supreme court of this state, one copy; and to the state librarian, for use in the library and for exchange with the librarians of other states and territories, one hundred copies; and he shall forward by mail post-paid to the librarian of congress, two copies; to each of the justices of the supreme court of the United States, one copy; to the libraries of the department of justice and of the interior of the United States, one copy each; to each of the judges of the superior courts of this state, one copy; to each member of the legislature of this state, one copy; to each county clerk, auditor, sheriff, treasurer, prosecuting attorney, superintendent of schools and justice of the peace of this state, one copy; and to the library of the state university, one copy. Before sending such volumes to the said county officers and justices of the peace, the secretary shall indelibly mark each of such volumes with the name of the county and the office for which it is intended, and said volumes must be, by the officer so receiving them, turned over to his successor in office. The secretary shall retain for such further distribution as may be provided by law one hundred copies, and the remaining copies he is hereby empowered to sell at the price of ten dollars per set.

Copies must be marked.

Approved March 6, 1891.

CHAPTER XC.

[H. B. No. 222.]

TO AMEND COUNTY ROAD BOND LAW.

AN ACT to amend section two of an act entitled "An act to authorize county commissioners to issue bonds for road purposes," approved March 22, 1890, and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. Section two of an act entitled "An act to authorize county commissioners to issue bonds for road purposes," approved March 22, 1890, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Sec. 2. Such election may be held at the times and in the manner provided for holding general elections in this state, and it may be held as a special election at such time as the board of county commissioners may designate: Provided, That no special election shall be held under this act at any time after the general election of November, 1892. The ballots used must contain the words "bonds, yes" or "bonds, no." If three-fifths of the legal ballots cast on the question of issuing bonds for the improvement contemplated in section one of the act of which this act is amendatory shall be in favor of bonds, the said commissioners must issue said bonds in due and legal form and negotiate or float the same to the best advantage for the county, at not less than par value. Such bonds must bear the signature of the chairman of such board of commissioners and be countersigned by the county auditor of the county in whose name they are issued, with the seal of the county thereunto attached, and the coupons must be signed by said chairman and said clerk, and each bond so issued must be registered in the office of the county treasurer in a book provided for that purpose, which must show the date, number and amount of the bond, and the name and address of the person to whom the same is issued.

Time and manner of holding election.

Special elections.

Majority necessary.

Requirement of register.

SEC. 2. On account of the impassable condition of highways in many counties, an emergency is hereby declared to exist; therefore, this act shall be in force from and after its passage and approval by the governor.

Emergency.

Approved March 6, 1891.