CHAPTER CXXVI.

[S. B. No. 274.]

PROHIBITING MINORS FROM ENTERING SALOONS AND OTHER PLACES.

AN ACT to prohibit minors from entering saloons and places where intoxicating liquors are sold, or offered for sale, and houses of prostitution, or places where gambling is conducted, whether public or otherwise, and providing a penalty for the violation of this act.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons conducting, owning or maintaining any building, rooms, tents or places where spirituous, vinous, malt or other intoxicating liquors are sold or offered for sale, to permit any child or children, boy or girl, under the age of eighteen years, to enter the same to deliver any papers, messages, or for any other purpose whatsoever.

SEC. 2. It shall be unlawful for any child or children, boy or girl, under the age of eighteen years, to enter into or become an inmate of any house or houses of prostitution, or room or rooms where the same is conducted, either as messengers, servants, or for any other purpose whatever, whether the same be under license or otherwise.

SEC. 3. It shall be unlawful for any child or children, boy or girl, under the age of eighteen years, to enter in, as messenger or otherwise, any gambling house or houses, room or rooms, where any games of chance are played, either for money or for any other consideration whatever.

SEC. 4. Any person or persons owning, operating or maintaining any of the places enumerated in sections one, two and three of this act, permitting or allowing in any way whatever any child or children, boy or girl, under eighteen years of age, to enter the same, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred and fifty dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding ninety days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

SEC. 6 [5]. Any person or persons owning, operating or maintaining any saloon or place where spirituous liquors are sold, house of prostitution, or where gambling or gaming is conducted, shall cause a sign to be put in a conspicuous place on the outside of such building or room, with the words thereon, "minors not allowed within," in plain, legible letters in the English language.

Passed the senate, March 12, 1895.

Passed the house, March 14, 1895.

Approved March 20, 1895.
