

CHAPTER 53.

[H. B. 187.]

RELATING TO THE TRESPASS OF SHEEP ON CERTAIN LANDS.

AN ACT to amend sections 3482 and 3483 of Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington relating to the trespass of sheep on certain lands, and providing a punishment therefor.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Unlawful
to enter.

SECTION 1. That section 3482 of Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington, be amended to read as follows: Section 3482. It shall be unlawful in this state for sheep to enter any enclosed lands belonging to or in the possession of any person other than the owner of such sheep, unless by the consent of the owner of such land, other than the public lands of the United States, or upon any unenclosed land or lands of another without such consent, where the limits thereof are marked by a furrow, or where such furrow is impracticable, then by some other discernible mark or line. Where a furrow is used to mark the boundaries or limits of such unenclosed land the soil from such furrow shall be thrown inward onto such land.

Penalty.

SEC. 2. That section 3483 of Ballinger's Arnotated Codes and Statutes of Washington is hereby amended to read as follows: Section 3483. Any person being the owner, or having in his possession, charge, or control as herder, or otherwise, any sheep, who shall herd or drive such sheep upon the lands of another, as described in section one of this act, for the purpose of pasture, against the consent of the owner of such land, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding three hundred dollars ($300.00) or imprisoned in the county jail not exceeding thirty days, or both such fine and imprisonment, which fine, when collected, shall go into the county school fund of the county.
