CHAPTER 182.

[H. B. 193.]

PROHIBITING THE TAKING OF GAME BIRDS FROM CERTAIN COUNTIES.

AN Act to prohibit the taking away, shipment, or transportation of certain game birds from the islands of the State of Washington comprising the present counties of San Juan and Island, and fixing a penalty for the violation thereof.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

San Juan and Island counties.

SECTION 1. Any person, persons or corporation who shall take away, ship or transport from the islands comprised within the limits of the boundaries of either San Juan or Island counties in the State of Washington, any quail or bob white, or any Chinese, English, golden, Reeves, Mongolian, silver, black neck, or Japanese pheasants shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction of any violation of the provisions of this act, shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars ($10.00) or more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each offense, or imprisonment in the county jail for a period of not less than thirty days, nor more than six months, or by both fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

Penalty.

Offenses.

SEC. 2. Each bird so shipped, taken away, or transported from said islands as aforesaid shall constitute a separate offense under this act.

Application of act.

SEC. 3. The provisions of this act shall not apply to any person, or persons or corporation who may be engaged, or shall hereafter be engaged in the business of propagation, raising or breeding of any aforesaid described birds; or to any of said birds which may have been propagated, bred and raised in captivity for commercial or domestic purposes.

SEC. 4. This act only applies and is intended to apply to wild game birds, such as have been described herein. Same.

Passed by the House March 3, 1909.
