RELATING TO THE ASSESSMENT OF PROPERTY FOR TAXATION.

An Act relating to taxation and amending section 9112 of Remington & Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. That section 9112 of Remington & Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 9112. All property shall be assessed at not to exceed fifty per cent. of its true and fair value in money. In determining the true and fair value of real or personal property, the assessor shall not adopt a lower or different standard of value because the same is to serve as a basis of taxation; nor shall he adopt as a criterion of value the price for which the said property would sell at auction, or at a forced sale, or in the aggregate with all the property in the town or district; but he shall value each article or description of property by itself, and at such sum or price as he believes the same to be fairly worth in money at the time such assessment is made. The true cash value of property shall be that value at which the property would
