PUBLICATION AND DISTRIBUTION OF SESSION LAWS.

AN ACT relating to the printing, binding, publication and distribution of the laws of the state, amending sections 6944 and 8618 of Remington & Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington and declaring that this act shall take effect immediately.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. That section 6944 of Remington & Ballinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington be amended to read as follows:

Section 6944. When all of the acts of any session and initiative measures enacted by the people since the next preceding session have been published in temporary form, the attorney general shall make the proper headings, side annotations and index of such acts or laws and shall after such work has been completed, have published and bound in good buckram at least twenty-five hundred copies of such acts and laws with such headings, annotations and indexes and such other matter as may be deemed essential, including a title page showing the session at which such acts were passed, the date of convening and adjournment of the session, and any other matter deemed proper including a certificate of such referendum measures as may have been enacted by the people since the next preceding session. When published as above provided the secretary of state shall deliver the same to the person authorized by law to have the custody and distribution thereof, who shall distribute the same as provided by law, the surplus copies to be sold at ten per cent above the cost thereof; and in determining such cost no account shall be made of the material and press work of the advance sheets or temporary publication of the session laws and acts.
