[S. B. 332.]
ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION, CONTENTS AND FILING.
AN ACT relating to the organization and management of private corporations and amending section 3679 of Remington & Balllinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. That section 3679 of Remington & Balllinger's Annotated Codes and Statutes of Washington be amended to read as follows:

Section 3679. Any two or more persons, who may desire to form a company for one or more of the purposes specified in section 3677, shall make and subscribe written articles of incorporation in triplicate, and acknowledge the same before any officer authorized to take the acknowledgment of deeds, and file one of such articles in the office of the secretary of state, and another in the office of the county auditor of the county in which the principal place of business of the company is intended to be located, and retain the third in the possession of the corporation. Said articles shall state the corporate name of the company, the objects for which the same shall be formed, the amount of its capital stock, the time of its existence, not to exceed fifty years: Provided, That this limit of existence shall not apply to any life, accident and health insurance company, the number of shares of which the capital stock shall consist, the number of trustees and their names, who shall manage the concerns of the company for such length of time (not less than two nor more than six months) as may be designated in such certificate, and the name of the city, town, or locality and county in which the principal place of business of the company is to be located.
Amendments may be made to the articles of incorporation by a majority vote of its trustees and the vote or written assent of two-thirds of the capital stock of such corporation. If the written assent of two-thirds of the capital stock has not been obtained then the vote of said stock may be taken at any regular meeting of the stockholders or at any special meeting of the stockholders called for that purpose in the manner provided in the by-laws of such corporation for special meetings of the stockholders. The president and secretary of said corporation shall certify said amendments in triplicate under the seal of said corporation to be correct and file and keep the same as in the case of original articles and from the time of filing said amendments such corporation shall have the same powers and it and the stockholders thereof shall be subject to the same liabilities as if such amendments had been embraced in the original articles of incorporation. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to cure or amend any defect existing in any original articles of incorporation in that such articles did not set forth the matters required to make the same valid at the time of filing, nor to cure or amend any defect in the execution thereof.
The time of existence of such corporation shall not be extended by amendments beyond the time fixed in the original articles of incorporation:

Provided, That when valid articles of incorporation have heretofore been duly filed with the secretary of state and errors have been made in the duplicate filed with the county auditor, such defects may be cured by filing with said county auditor, a certified copy of the original articles filed with the secretary of state, and when said certified copy is filed, it shall have the same force and effect as though the duplicate had been filed with the county auditor at the same time the original was filed with the secretary of state.

Passed the Senate March 1, 1915.
Passed the House March 9, 1915.
Approved by the Governor March 16, 1915.

CLASSIFYING AND LABELING EGGS.

AN ACT relating to and regulating the sale of eggs providing for the classification, labeling and marking thereof and providing penalties for violation thereof.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. For the purposes of this act, eggs shall be classified and branded as follows:

(a) Cold storage eggs shall include all eggs which have been in cold storage for more than ninety days, and before being offered for sale shall be branded or stamped with the words “storage.”

(b) Preserved eggs shall include eggs in which the natural deterioration has been prevented or retarded by any means, process or treatment whatsoever, and before being offered for sale shall be branded or stamped with the word “preserved.”

(c) All eggs imported into the State of Washington from foreign countries shall be sold as such. The case or container in which they are shipped shall have the words “foreign eggs” displayed thereon in letters two inches high. All retailers of said eggs shall sell them from the container in which he received them and shall inform each purchaser that said eggs are foreign eggs. All restaurants, hotels, cafes, bakeries and confectioners using or serving foreign eggs must place a sign in letters not less than four (4) inches in size in some conspicuous place
