CHAPTER 63.

[H. B. 104.]

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON STUDENT FEES.

AN ACT relating to a system of student fees in the University of Washington and providing for the collection and disposal of the same and amending sections two, three, four, five and six of chapter 66 of the Laws of 1915.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. That section 2 of chapter 66 of the Laws of 1915 be amended to read as follows:

SEC. 2. The board of regents of the University of Washington is hereby authorized to establish a system of student fees in the university and to modify the same from time to time, and to charge and collect the fees so established from students registering in the university. Said fees, so established, charged and collected to consist of the following: (a) General tuition fees to be paid by each student registering in the university. (b) Special tuition fees to include: law, short course, marine station, correspondence or extension, special or individual instruction, fees and such other special tuition fees as may be established by said board from time to time. These special tuition fees to be paid by each student registering for the special studies for which student in whole or in part. Fees mentioned in subdivision (a) of said section one are not returnable except in case of sickness or causes entirely beyond the control of the student. No portion of the returnable fees shall be returned for voluntary or enforced withdrawal after sixty days from the date of registration of the student. Students withdrawing under discipline forfeit all rights to the return of any portion of the fees. In no case shall more than one-half of the fee be refunded.

SEC. 5. That section 6 of chapter 66 of the Laws of 1915 be amended to read as follows:

Free
scholarships.

Section 6. The board of regents may appoint to free scholarships those deserving students who after a term in residence have shown a marked capacity for the work done by them in school. The number of free scholarships shall not in any term exceed ten per centum of the attendance. The appointment of a free scholarship shall release the student appointed from the payment of fees mentioned in subdivision (a) of section one of this act.

Passed the House February 3, 1919.

Passed the Senate February 19, 1919.

Approved by the Governor March 3, 1919.
