STATE HIGHWAYS.

An Act relating to abandoned state highways, and authorizing conveyance thereof.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. Whenever any state highway is relocated across any lands and by reason thereof the existing highway across said lands will be useless to the state and will be abandoned, the state highway engineer may, if the owner of the lands embraced within the relocated highway is also the owner of the abutting lands on both sides of the abandoned and useless highway right of way, agree with such owner, as the consideration, or as a part of the consideration for the conveyance to the state of the lands required for the relocated highway right of way, to cause to be made to such owner a deed of conveyance of the abandoned and useless right of way.

Sec. 2. Whenever the state highway engineer shall make an agreement with any property owner such as he is authorized to do by section 1 hereof, and shall certify to the Governor that he has made such an agreement and give a description of the abandoned and useless highway right of way agreed to be conveyed to such owner, the Governor may execute and the Secretary of State shall attest and deliver to such owner a deed of conveyance on behalf of the state of such abandoned and useless highway right of way.

Passed the Senate February 20, 1923.
Passed the House March 5, 1923.
Approved by the Governor March 14, 1923.
