CHAPTER 121.

[H. B. 234.]

APPOINTMENT AND POWERS OF PARK COMMISSIONERS.

An Act relating to the appointment and powers of Park Commissioners in cities of the second, third and fourth class, and amending Section 9200 of Remington's Compiled Statutes of Washington.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 9200 of Remington's Compiled Statutes of Washington is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 9200. City councils of cities of the second, third and fourth class, are authorized to provide by ordinances, for a board of park commissioners, not to exceed three in number, to be appointed by the mayor, with the consent of the City Council, from citizens of recognized fitness for such position. No person shall be ineligible as a commissioner by reason of sex and no commissioner shall receive any compensation. The first commissioners shall determine by lot whose term of office shall expire each year, and a new commissioner shall be appointed annually to serve for a term of years corresponding in number to the number of commissioners in order that one term shall expire each year. Such board of park commissioners shall have control and supervision of all parks belonging to such city and shall have power to prescribe rules and regulations for the government and management thereof, which rules and regulations shall be enforced by the police department of the city.

Passed the House December 15, 1925.
Passed the Senate January 5, 1926.
Approved by the Governor January 12, 1926.
