CHAPTER 95.
[S. B. 218.]

GENERAL APPROPRIATIONS.

An Act making appropriations for the payment of salaries of certain officers and employees of the state and for the operation, maintenance and other expenses of certain state institutions, departments and offices, for the purchase of land, the construction of buildings and improvements for the various state institutions designated and mentioned and for sundry civil expenses of the state government and creating a penitentiary revolving fund and for miscellaneous purposes for the fiscal year beginning April 1, 1926, and ending March 31, 1927, except as otherwise provided, and declaring that this act shall take effect immediately.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. The following sums, or as much thereof as shall severally be found necessary, are hereby appropriated out of any of the monies in the several funds in the state treasury hereinafter named for the payment of salaries of certain officers and employees of the state, and for the operation of certain state institutions, departments and offices, and for the purchase of land and construction of buildings, and improvements for the various state institutions, and for sundry civil expenses of the state government and creating a penitentiary revolving fund, and for miscellaneous purposes hereinbelow designated and mentioned and hereinafter expressed for the fiscal year beginning April 1, 1926, and ending March 31, 1927, except as otherwise provided.

Sec. 2. The word "operation," as used herein, includes salaries and wages of officers and employees, and all expenses necessary for supplies, material, services and maintenance of the various institutions, departments and offices of the state government, including necessary traveling expenses.
