VEHICLES TO STOP AT INTERSECTING HEAVILY TRAVELED ROADS AND HIGHWAYS.

AN ACT relating to county and township roads intersecting heavily traveled state highways or county roads, providing for the stopping of vehicles traveling thereon, and providing penalty for violation.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

County or township road intersecting state highway.

Vehicle on county road to stop at intersection.

Commissioners to post notices.

SECTION 1. Whenever any county or township road intersects any heavily traveled state highway or heavily traveled county road, it shall be the duty of all persons driving or operating any vehicle on the intersecting county or township road to bring such vehicle to a complete stop at the point of intersection. The boards of county commissioners of the respective counties shall determine the particular county or township roads of their counties upon which stops shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this act; and upon such determination the said boards shall cause to be posted and maintained on such intersecting county or township road, at a point actually or approximately three hundred feet distant from such heavily traveled state highway or county road, a printed or painted notice, which shall be plainly visible from such intersecting road, to the effect that such heavily traveled state highway or county road is three hundred feet distant; and shall also cause to be posted and maintained on said intersecting county or township road at the point of intersection, a sign, plainly visible from said intersecting county or township road, upon which shall be printed or painted the word "Stop". All such signs shall be uniform as adopted by the state highway department.

"Stop" signs uniform.

SEC. 2. Any person driving or operating any vehicle upon any county or township road upon which has been posted the "Stop" notice herein provided for, who shall fail to bring the vehicle so driven or operated to a complete stop at the point where such county or township road intersects such heavily traveled state highway or county road, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Failure to stop.

Penalty.

Passed the House February 21, 1927.

Passed the Senate March 9, 1927.

Approved by the Governor March 19, 1927.
