[H. B. 54.]

SECURITY FOR COSTS IN JUSTICE COURTS.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. That section 1725 of the Code of Washington Territory of 1881, as amended by chapter 10 of the Laws of 1905, page 27, (section 1777 of Remington’s Compiled Statutes) be amended to read as follows:

Section 1725. Whenever the plaintiff in an action, or in a garnishment or other proceeding is a non-resident of the county or begins such action or proceeding as the assignee of some other person, or of a firm or corporation, as to all causes of action sued upon, the justice may require of him security for the costs in the action or proceeding in a sum not exceeding fifty dollars, at the time of the commencement of the action, and after an action or proceeding has been commenced by such non-resident or assignee plaintiff, the defendant or garnishee defendant may require such security by motion; and all proceedings shall be stayed until such security has been given.

SEC. 2. In lieu of separate security for each action or proceeding in any court, the plaintiff may cause to be executed and filed in the court a bond in the penal sum of fifty dollars ($50.00) running to the State of Washington, with surety approved by the court, and conditioned for the payment of all judgments for costs which may thereafter be rendered against him in that court. Any defendant or garnishee who shall thereafter recover a judgment for costs in said court against the principal on such bond shall likewise be entitled to judgment against the sureties. Such bond shall not be sufficient unless the penalty thereof is unimpaired by any outstanding obligation at the time of the commencement of the action.
