Section 5187. The method of voting at such primary election shall be by ballot, and all ballots voted shall be printed as herein provided. On the fifteenth day before the primary election the county auditor shall group all the candidates for each party by themselves, and shall prepare at once in writing, a separate sample ballot for each party for public inspection, which he shall post in a conspicuous place in his office. He shall proceed to have printed a separate primary election ballot for each political party which has qualified as hereinbefore provided. These ballots to be prepared in the following manner: Every ticket shall be absolutely uniform in color and size, shall be white and printed in black ink. Across the head of each ballot shall be printed in plain black type, first, the name of the political party, on each ticket following the words, "Primary Election Ballot." On the next line shall be printed the name of the political party, and below that the county in which the ballot is to be used. Then shall follow the words, "To vote for a person mark a cross in the first square at the right of the name of the person for whom you desire to vote." Beginning at the top of the left-hand column, at the left of the line, in black type, shall appear the position for which the names following are candidates, and to the extreme right of the same line the words, "Vote for," then the word "one," "two" or a spelled number designating how many persons under that head are to be voted for. Following this shall come the name of each candidate for that position enclosed in a light-faced rule, with a square to the right of said name, said square being separated by a heavy black-faced rule, the parallel rules containing the names and squares to be one-sixth of an inch apart. Each position with the name running for that office, shall be separated from the following one by a black-faced rule to separate each position clearly. The positions shall be arranged as follows: Provided, Nominees for such positions are to be selected in said county under the provisions of this act as hereinafter provided. First, United States senator; next, congressional; next, state; next, legislative; next, county officers; next, precinct officers; next, precinct committeemen; in all cases following under each heading here given, the rotation used in the make-up of the various ballots at the general election. In the city elections it shall be the duty of the city clerk to prepare the ballots and arrange the position of the candidates on such ballots, commencing with the office of mayor and following with the offices for which candidates are to be selected, using his reasonable discretion as to such arrangement. The duties provided for in this act to be performed by the county auditors with reference to candidates for county and district offices or either of them shall in like manner be performed by the city clerk in each city with reference to the preparation of ballots and primary elections for candidates for city offices. The form of ballot shall be substantially as follows:
