CHAPTER 139.
[S. B. 238.]

ELECTION OF SHERIFFS.

An Act relating to the election, qualification, term of office, and bonding of Sheriffs; prescribing the duties of certain officers; and amending section 4155, Remington’s Revised Statutes.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 4155, Remington’s Revised Statutes, is amended to read as follows:

Section 4155. There shall be elected in each county in this state a Sheriff, who shall possess the qualifications of a voter, and hold his office for the term of four years, and shall, before he enters upon the duties of his office, execute a surety company bond, executed by a surety company duly authorized to do business in this state, in a penal sum not less than two thousand dollars nor more than twenty-five thousand dollars.

Sec. 2. Whenever under the laws of this state the company acting as surety in the official bond of a Sheriff shall be disqualified, insolvent, or the penalty of such bond shall become insufficient on account of recovery had thereon, or otherwise, it shall be the duty of the Sheriff to submit a new or additional bond for approval to the Board of County Commissioners, if in session, or, if not in session, for the approval of the chairman of such board, and file the same, when approved, in the office of the County Clerk of his county, and such new or additional bond shall be in a penal sum sufficient in amount to equal the sum specified in the original bond when added to the penalty of any existing bond, so that under one or more bonds there shall always be an enforceable obligation of the surety on the official bond or bonds of the Sheriff in a penal sum of not less than the amount of the bond as originally approved.
