CHAPTER 103.

[H. B. 287.]

LICENSING OF PUBLIC GRAIN WAREHOUSES.

AN ACT relating to the licensing of public grain warehouses and requiring insurance on all grain accepted for storage by operators of public grain warehouses.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Application for license.

SECTION 1. Each person, firm, corporation or association of persons making application for an annual license to operate a grain warehouse in the State of Washington shall, at the time of making such application, file satisfactory evidence with the Director of Agriculture of the existence of an effective policy of insurance issued by an insurance company authorized to do business in this state, insuring all grain and other commodities that may be stored or accepted for storage on the premises for which such license is sought for the full market value of such grain against loss by fire, internal explosion, lightning or tornado. If such evidence of the existence of an effective policy of insurance is accepted by the Director of Agriculture, he shall immediately advise such insurance company thereof and request ten days' advance notice by registered mail from said company of any proposed cancellation of said policy. In the event of any such cancellation, the Director of Agriculture shall immediately suspend the license of such person, firm, corporation or association of persons to operate a public warehouse in this state, and such suspension shall not be removed until satisfactory evidence of the existence of an effective policy of insurance, conditioned as above set out, has been submitted to the Director of Agriculture.
