Passed the House March 13, 1947.

Approved by the Governor March 22, 1947, with the exception of a certain item which is vetoed.

CHAPTER 287.
[ H. B. 383.]

GENERAL APPROPRIATIONS.

An Act making appropriations for the payment of salaries of certain officers and employees of the state and for the operation, maintenance and other expenses of certain state institutions, departments and offices, for the purchase, condemnation and improvement of land, the construction of buildings and improvements for the various state institutions designated and mentioned, and for emergencies, and for refunds, and for sundry civil expenses of the state government, and for public assistance, and for purposes specified in certain acts of Congress, and for miscellaneous purposes, for the fiscal biennium beginning April 1, 1947, and ending March 31, 1949, except as otherwise provided, defining terms, limiting allowances and payments, prescribing penalties, and declaring that this act shall take effect immediately.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. The words “capital outlay,” whenever used in this act, shall mean and include the purchase, condemnation and improvement of land and erection of buildings, including necessary salaries and wages incident thereto.

The words “salaries and wages,” whenever used in this act, shall mean and include salaries of executive officers and employees of state offices, departments and institutions, and all compensation for direct labor or personal service rendered to the state.
The word "operations," whenever used in this act, shall mean and include necessary traveling expenses of officers and employees, and all expenses necessary for housing cost, supplies, material, services and maintenance of the various institutions, departments and offices of the state government, other than salaries and wages: Provided, That no portion of the appropriations made hereunder shall be expended for coupon or scrip books, or other evidences of advance payment for future delivery: Provided further, That allowances made for subsistence and lodging for the elective or appointive officers and employees while away from their domicile on state business shall equal actual expenses incurred therefor or per diem rates as provided by law, but in no event shall actual expenses claimed exceed such per diem rates provided by law.

Sec. 2. The following sums, or so much thereof as shall severally be found necessary, are hereby appropriated out of any of the monies in the several funds in the State Treasury hereinafter named for the payment of salaries of certain officers and employees of the state, and for the operation of certain state institutions, departments and offices, and for the purchase, condemnation and improvement of land and construction of buildings, and improvements for the various state institutions, and for emergencies, and for refunds, and for sundry civil expenses of the state government, and for public assistance, and for purposes specified in certain acts of Congress, and for miscellaneous purposes hereinbelow designated and mentioned and hereinafter expressed, for the fiscal biennium beginning April 1, 1947, and ending March 31, 1949, except as otherwise provided: Provided, That no part of any appropriation contained in this act shall be used to pay the salary or wages of any person who engages in a strike against the State of Washington, or any office, department or agency thereof, or against any political subdivision of the state; nor to any person who is a member of an organization of government employees that asserts the right to strike against the United States, state, or local governments, or who advocates, or is a member of an organization that advocates the overthrow of the government of the United States by force or violence: Provided further, That for the purposes hereof an affidavit shall be considered prima facie evidence that the person making it has not acted contrary to the provisions herein set forth: And provided further, That any person who engages in a strike against the state or any office, department or agency thereof, or against a political subdivision of the state, or who is a member of an organization of government employees that asserts the right to strike against the United States, state, or local governments, or who advocates, or is a member of an organization that advocates, the overthrow of the government of the United States by force or violence, and accepts employment the salary or wages for which are paid from any appropriation contained in this act, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor and shall be fined not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than one (1) year, or both.
