Upon the basis of such examination the board shall determine whether such disability beneficiary is still totally and permanently incapacitated, either physically or mentally, for service in the office or department of the city where he was employed or in any other position in that city, the duties of which he might reasonably be expected to carry out.

(b) If the board shall determine that said beneficiary is not so incapacitated his retirement allowance shall be cancelled and he shall be reinstated forthwith in city service. Should the earning capacity of such beneficiary be further altered, the board may further alter his retirement allowance as indicated above. When said disability beneficiary reaches age sixty-two (62), if included in the miscellaneous personnel, or age sixty (60), in the uniformed personnel, his retirement allowance shall be made equal to the amount upon which he was originally retired, and shall not again be modified for any cause except as provided in section 25 hereof.

before defined, as he shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the board, his accumulated contributions less any payments therefrom already made to him. Such payment may be made in one lump sum or may be paid in installments over a period of not to exceed five (5) years, as may be designated by the member or his beneficiary, with such rate of interest as may be determined by the board.

(d) If a former member shall, within one (1) year from date of discontinuance of service, be employed by another city participating in this retirement system he shall have the privilege of redepositing and the matching contributions deposited by the city or cities in which he was formerly employed shall again be held for the benefit of such member. Sec. 20. Released Matching Contributions. Whenever a member withdraws his accumulated normal contributions the matching contributions of the city so released shall be transferred to a reserve account created for the purpose of showing the amount of credits due each city through such operation. Such credits may be used by the city to apply on any charges made against the city but only so much thereof as will insure leaving in such account an amount estimated to be sufficient to again match contributions redeposited by employees returning to service as contemplated in section 19 herein. The board may credit such reserve accounts with interest at such rate as the board deems equitable.

Cost of this benefit shall be determined by actuarial calculation and prorated equitably to each city. This benefit shall be exclusive of any other benefits due the member under this act. The provisions of this section in so far as it provides benefits from death in the performance of duty shall not apply in the case of any member who is within and entitled to the benefits of the State Workmen’s Compensation Act and Medical Aid Act.

SEC. 25. Suspension of Retirement Allowance.
The payment of any retirement allowance to a member who has been retired from service shall be suspended during the time that the beneficiary is in receipt of compensation for service to the State of Washington, any municipal corporation, or other public service thereof paid from direct or indirect, state or municipal taxes or revenues, or revenues of publicly owned utilities, except as to the amount by which such retirement allowance may exceed such compensation for the same period. It is the intent of this section to prevent any retired person from being able to receive both his retirement allowance and compensation for service to public institutions in the State of Washington: Provided, however, That nothing in this section shall prevent county or state welfare departments from furnishing to any retired employee under the terms of this act the hospital, medical, dental and other benefits granted to pensioners under the provisions of section 15 of chapter 1, Laws of 1941, as amended by chapter 159, Laws of 1943, or any amendments thereof.

SEC. 26. Constitutionality. If any provision of this act, or the application thereof to any person or circumstance, is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the provision or application so held invalid, and for such purposes the provisions of this act are declared to be severable.
