(c) Recognition of Gain or Loss. Upon the sale or exchange of property the gain or the loss thereon shall be recognized to the same extent and under

In the case of property acquired before the effective date of this chapter, if the basis otherwise determined under subsection (f) of this section, adjusted (for the period prior to the effective date of this chapter) as therein provided, is less than the fair market value of the property as of said effective date, then the basis for determining gain shall be such fair market value. In determining the fair market value of stock in a corporation as of the effective date of this chapter, due regard shall be given to the fair market value of the assets of the corporation as of that date.

(e) Basis for All Other Cases. For the purpose of determining gain in the case of property acquired from and after the effective date of this chapter, and for the purpose of determining loss in the case of property, whenever acquired, the basis, unadjusted and adjusted, shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of subsection (f) of this section.

Income attributable to the recovery during the taxable year of a bad debt, prior tax, or delinquency amount, to the extent of the amount of the recovery exclusion with respect to such debt, tax, or amount. That proportion of the amounts paid or credited during a taxable year to its members or depositors by a savings and loan association, mutual savings bank or organization of like character operating on a mutual plan upon withdrawable shares, savings accounts or deposits, which the number of days in such taxable year bears to three hundred and sixty-five.

(gg) Discriminatory Deductions. If any deduction provided for in this section is finally adjudged discriminatory against a national banking association contrary to Title 12, section 548, United States Code, or is for any reason adjudged invalid, in that event the tax of the favored taxpayer shall be recomputed by the commission for each taxable year in question, as of the time of allowance of the deduction, by disallowing the deduction, and any difference between the amount of the tax as recomputed and the amount of the tax as originally computed shall be subject to the provisions hereof relating to original computations.
(h) Allocation of Deductions. The deductions allowed under subsections (a) to (e) inclusive, of this section shall be allowed only if, and to the extent that, they are connected with income arising from sources within the state and allocable to the state under the provisions of subsections (a), (b) and (c) of section 22 of this act. The proper apportionment and allocation of the deductions with respect to sources of income within and without the state shall be determined under rules and regulations to be prescribed by the tax commission.

Sec. 17. Deductions—Losses From Wash Sales. Any loss claimed to have been sustained from the sale or other disposition of stock or securities under the circumstances stated in section 118 of the internal revenue code shall be allowed only to the extent permitted under the terms of said section 118. The tax commission shall prescribe regulations conforming as nearly as may be with those prescribed under the federal law for the purpose of making this section effective.

Sec. 18. Deductions—Basis. (a) Losses and Bad Debts. The basis for determining the amount of deduction for losses sustained, to be allowed under section 16(a) (3), and for bad debts, to be allowed under section 16(a) (4), shall be the adjusted basis provided in section 12(f) for determining the loss from the sale or other disposition of property.

(b) Depreciation. The basis upon which exhaustion, wear and tear, and obsolescence are to be allowed in respect of any property shall be the adjusted basis provided in section 12(f) for the purpose of determining the gain upon the sale or other disposition of such property.

(c) Depletion. (1) The basis upon which depletion is to be allowed in respect of any property shall be the adjusted basis provided in section 12(f) for the purpose of determining the gain upon the sale or other disposition of such property, except as provided in paragraph (2) of this subsection.

(2) To the extent permitted under the provisions of section 114(b)(2) of the internal revenue code and subject to the restrictions and limitations imposed under the provisions of the said section 114(b)(2), the tax commission may provide by regulation that the basis for depletion in the case of mines of the type prescribed in said section 114(b)(2) discovered by the taxpayer from and after the date when this chapter becomes effective, shall be the discovery value of such mines.

Sec. 19. Deductions—Return of Total Income.
A corporation shall receive the benefits of the deductions allowed to it under section 16 only by filing or causing to be filed with the tax commission an accurate and true return of its total income received from all sources, whether within or without the state.

Sec. 20. Gross Income—Items Not Deductible.
In computing net income under this chapter no deduction shall be allowable in respect of any item which, under the provisions of section 24 of the internal revenue code, is not allowed as a deduction for the purpose of computing net income under the said code.

Sec. 21. Capital Gains and Losses. (a) Amount Taken Into Account. In the case of a taxpayer subject to the provisions of this chapter the entire amount of the gain or loss recognized upon the sale or exchange of a capital asset shall be taken into account in computing net capital gain, net capital loss, and net income.

(b) Internal Revenue Code Provisions Incorporated. For the purpose of this section, all of the provisions of subsections (a), (d)(1), (e)(1), (f), (g), (h), (i), (j), (k), (l), and (m) of section 117 of the internal revenue code shall apply, to the extent that such provisions are not in conflict with the express provisions of this chapter, as though fully set forth herein.

SEC. 22. INCOME—ALLOCATION AND APPORTIONMENT. (a) Allocation—Property, Business and Personal Service. Interest, rents, royalties, gains, profits and income (less related deductions) received or derived in connection with property owned, or a trade or business carried on and compensation for personal services performed in the state of Washington shall be allocated to the state, and where received or derived in connection with property owned, or with a trade or business carried on or service performed without the state shall be allocated without the state.

(b) Allocation—Separate Accounting. Where the trade or business of a taxpayer is carried on both within and without the state the tax shall be computed upon such portion of the taxpayer's entire net income as is received or derived from sales wherever made of goods, wares and merchandise manufactured or originating in the state, and also from other business done or property located within the state. Such portion of the net income allocable to the state shall be determined by an allocation and separate accounting based upon the books of the taxpayer.

(c) Apportionment of Net Income. The state shall be apportioned all net income of domestic corporations with no places of business outside the state. In cases where the books of the taxpayer do not in the opinion of the tax commission clearly and accurately state all of the factors so as to reflect clearly and accurately the allocation of business done and income received or derived, to the state, then the tax shall be computed upon such proportion of the entire net income of such taxpayer as the sales, payroll, and value of tangible property located in the state on the last day of the taxable year bears to sales, payroll, and value of tangible property within and without the state. In determining the fair market value of property situated without the state, the tax commission may accept the values as given in the taxpayer's books, if in its opinion, the same are reasonably correct, and the commission may also require the taxpayer to furnish under oath such other evidence of the fair market value of such property as it may find to be necessary. If, however, in the opinion of the tax commission the methods of allocation hereinabove provided do not clearly and accurately reflect the actual amount of the net income received or derived from any and every source in the state or from all property owned and every trade or business carried on in the state by the taxpayer, then the same shall be determined, allocated and apportioned under such rules and regulations, processes and formulae as the tax commission shall prescribe.

Sec. 23. Accounting Periods—General Rule.

The net income shall be computed upon the basis of the taxpayer's annual accounting period (fiscal year or calendar year, as the case may be) in accordance with the method of accounting regularly employed in keeping the books of such taxpayer; but if no such method of accounting has been so employed, or if the method employed does not clearly reflect the income, the computation shall be made in accordance with such method as in the opinion of the tax commission does clearly reflect the income. If the taxpayer's annual accounting period is other than a fiscal year as defined in section 5, or if the taxpayer has no annual accounting period or does not keep books, the net income shall be computed on the basis of the calendar year. If the taxpayer makes a federal income tax return, its income shall be computed, for the purposes of this chapter, on the basis of the same calendar or fiscal year as in such federal income tax return.

SEC. 24. PERIOD IN WHICH ITEMS OF GROSS INCOME INCLUDED. The taxable year in which the amount of any item of gross income shall be regarded as gross income for the purposes of this chapter shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of section 42 of the internal revenue code.

SEC. 25. ACCOUNTING PERIODS—DEDUCTIONS AND CREDITS. The taxable year in which any deduction or credit allowed under this chapter shall be taken shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of section 43 of the internal revenue code.

SEC. 26. ACCOUNTING PERIODS—INSTALLMENT BASIS. (a) Dealers in Personal Property. Under regulations prescribed by the commission, a corporation which regularly sells or otherwise disposes of personal property on the installment plan may return as income therefrom in any taxable year that proportion of the installment payments actually received in that year which the gross profit realized or to be realized when payment is completed, bears to the total contract price.

(b) Sales of Realty and Casual Sales of Personality. In the case (1) of a casual sale or other casual disposition of personal property (other than property of a kind which would properly be included in the inventory of a taxpayer if on hand at the close of the taxable year), for a price exceeding $1,000 or (2) of a sale or other disposition of real property, if in either case the initial payments do not exceed 30 per centum of the selling price, the income may, under regulations prescribed by the commission, be returned on the basis and in the manner above prescribed in this section. As used in this section the term "initial payments" means the payments received in cash or property other than evidences of indebtedness of the purchaser during the taxable period in which the sale or other disposition is made.

(c) Change From Accrual to Installment Basis. If a taxpayer entitled to the benefits of subsection (a) elects for any taxable year to report its net income on the installment basis, then in computing its income for the year of change or any subsequent year, amounts actually received during any such year on account of sales or other dispositions of property made in any prior year shall not be excluded.

(d) Gain or Loss Upon Disposition of Installment Obligations. If an installment obligation is satisfied at other than its face value or distributed, transmitted, sold, or otherwise disposed of, gain or loss shall result to the extent of the difference between the basis of the obligation and (1) in the case of satisfaction at other than face value or a sale or exchange—the amount realized, or (2) in case of a distribution, transmission, or disposition otherwise than by sale or exchange—the fair market value of the obligation at the time of such distribution, transmission or disposition. Any gain or loss so resulting shall be considered as resulting from the sale or exchange of the property in respect of which the installment obligation was received. The basis of the obligation shall be the excess of the face value of the obligation over an amount equal to the income which would be returnable were the obligation satisfied in full. If an installment obligation is distributed by one corporation to another corporation in the course of a liquidation, and under section 112(b)(6) of the internal revenue code no gain or loss with respect to the receipt of such obligation is recognized in the case of the recipient corporation, then no gain or loss with respect to the distribution of such obligation shall be recognized in the case of the distributing corporation.
SEC. 27. ACCOUNTING PERIODS—CHANGE OF PERIOD. If a taxpayer changes its accounting period from fiscal year to calendar year, from calendar year to fiscal year, or from one fiscal year to another, the net income shall, with the approval of the tax commission, be computed on the basis of such new accounting period, subject to the provisions of section 28 of this act.

SEC. 28. ACCOUNTING PERIODS—LESS THAN TWELVE MONTHS. (a) Change of Accounting Period. If a taxpayer, with the approval of the tax commission, changes the basis of computing net income from fiscal year to calendar year, or from calendar year to fiscal year, or from one fiscal year to another fiscal year, separate returns shall be filed and income computed in the manner provided in subsections (a), (b) and (c) of section 47 of the internal revenue code and the regulations thereunder.

(b) Returns When Taxpayer Not in Existence for Twelve Months. In the case of a taxpayer not in existence during the whole of an annual accounting period ending on the last day of a month, or, if the taxpayer has no such annual accounting period or does not keep books, during the whole of a calendar year, the returns shall be made for the fractional part of the year during which the taxpayer was in existence.

SEC. 29. ACCOUNTING RECORDS. It shall be the duty of every taxpayer to keep and preserve, for a period of five years, such suitable records as may be necessary to determine the amount of tax for which it may be liable under the provisions of this chapter; and all books and records shall be open for examination at any time by the tax commission or its duly authorized agent. In case a taxpayer does not keep the necessary books and records within the state, it shall be sufficient if it produces within the state such books and records as shall be required by the tax commission, or bears the cost of examination by an agent authorized or designated by the commission at the place where such books and records are kept. Any taxpayer who shall fail to comply with the requirements of this section shall be forever barred from questioning, in any court action or proceeding, the correctness of any assessment of taxes made by the tax commission and based upon any period for which such books and records have not been so kept and preserved.

Section 30. Accounting Methods—Allocation of Income and Deductions. In the case of two or more organizations, trades, or businesses (whether or not incorporated, whether or not organized in the state, and whether or not affiliated) owned or controlled directly or indirectly by the same interests, and one or more of such organizations, trades or businesses is or are required to file a tax return under this chapter, the commission may require each such reporting taxpayer to accompany its return with a return for the same period for each of such other organizations, trades or businesses, which last-mentioned return may be required to be as complete as that required under this chapter from a taxpayer taxable thereunder. Upon receipt of such returns (or without such returns if the same be not filed as provided by this section), the tax commission is authorized to distribute, apportion, or allocate gross income or deductions between or among such organizations, trades, or businesses, if it determines that such distribution, apportionment, or allocation is necessary in order to prevent evasion of taxes or clearly to reflect the income of any such organizations, trades, or businesses.

Section 31. Tax Additional. Taxes imposed by this chapter shall be in addition to any and all other licenses, taxes and excises levied or imposed by the state or any municipal subdivision thereof.
SEC. 32. LICENSE FEES—OFFSET. Against the tax computed in conformity with the provisions of this chapter, the taxpayer shall be entitled to an offset in the amount of current annual corporate license fees actually paid to the state during the income year for which the return is made.

SEC. 33. TAX RETURNS—CORPORATIONS AND BANKS. (a) In General. Every corporation subject to taxation under this chapter shall make a return, stating specifically the items of its gross income and the deductions and credits allowed by this chapter and such other information for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this chapter as the tax commission may by regulations prescribe. The return shall be sworn to by the president, vice-president, or other principal officer and by the treasurer, assistant treasurer, or chief accounting officer. In cases where receivers, trustees in bankruptcy, or assignees are operating the property or business of corporations, such receivers, trustees, or assignees shall make returns for such corporations in the same manner and form as corporations are required to make returns. Any tax due on the basis of such returns made by receivers, trustees, or assignees shall be collected in the same manner as if collected from the corporations of whose business or property they have custody and control.

(b) Definition. As used in subsection (a) of this section, the word “corporation” includes banks, federal savings and loan associations, and national banking associations.

SEC. 34. RETURN FORMS—DUTY TO FILE. (a) On request, blank forms of return for income shall be supplied by the tax commission.

(b) It shall be the duty of the commission to obtain an income tax return from every taxpayer who is liable under the law to file such return; but this duty shall in no manner diminish the obligation of the taxpayer to file a return without being called upon to do so.

SEC. 35. RETURNS—TIME AND PLACE OF FILING.
(a) General Rule. Returns made on the basis of the calendar year shall be filed with the tax commission on or before the fifteenth day of March following the close of the calendar year. Returns made on the basis of the fiscal year shall be filed with the tax commission on or before the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of the fiscal year.

(b) Extension of Time. The tax commission may grant a reasonable extension of time for filing returns whenever good cause therefor exists and shall keep a record of every such extension. No such extension shall be granted for more than six months. Extension of time for filing a return shall not extend the time for payment of the tax unless such an extension is also requested and granted under the provisions of section 38(c) of this chapter. If the time for filing the return and payment shall be extended, interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from the date when the return was originally required to be filed to the time of payment shall be added and paid.

SEC. 36. RECORDS AND SPECIAL RETURNS. (a) Records, Returns and Statements. Every corporation liable to any tax imposed by this chapter shall keep such records, render under oath such statements, make such returns, and comply with such rules and regulations as the tax commission from time to time may prescribe. Whenever the commission judges it necessary it may require any corporation, by notice served upon it, to make a return, render under oath such statements, or keep such records as such commission deems sufficient to show whether or not such corporation is liable to tax under this chapter and the extent of such liability.
(b) Federal Income Tax Return. Any taxpayer upon request by the tax commission shall furnish to such commission a true and correct copy of its tax return or returns for a taxable year filed or to be filed with the collector of internal revenue pursuant to the requirements of the laws of the United States.

(c) Adjustment of Federal Tax Liability. Every taxpayer shall notify the tax commission in writing of any alteration in or modification of its federal income tax return and of any recomputation of tax or determination of deficiency (whether with or without assessment). A full statement of the facts shall accompany this notice, which shall be filed within twenty days after such modification, recomputation or determination of deficiency.

SEC. 37. COPIES TO TAXPAYERS. The tax commission, upon written request, shall furnish to the taxpayer a copy of its return upon payment of a fee of one dollar.

SEC. 38. PAYMENT OF TAX. (a) Time of Payment. The total amount of tax imposed by this chapter shall be paid on the fifteenth day of March following the close of the calendar year of, if the return should be made on the basis of the fiscal year, then on the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of the fiscal year.

(b) Installment Payments. If the total amount of tax shall be twenty-five dollars or more, the taxpayer may elect to pay the tax in two equal installments, in which case the first installment shall be paid on the date prescribed for the payment of the tax by the taxpayer, and the second installment shall be paid on the fifteenth day of the third month after such date. If any installment is not paid on or before the date fixed for its payment, the whole amount of the tax unpaid shall be paid upon notice and demand from the tax commission.
(c) Extension of Time. At the request of the taxpayer the tax commission may extend the time for payment by the taxpayer of the amount determined as the tax, for a period not to exceed six months from the date prescribed for the payment of the tax or an installment thereof. In such case the amount in respect to which the extension is granted together with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum shall be paid on or before the date of the expiration of the period of the extension.

(d) Advance Payment. A tax imposed by this chapter, or any installment thereof, may be paid, at the election of the taxpayer, prior to the date prescribed for its payment.

(e) Fractional Parts of Cent. In the payment of any tax under this chapter a fractional part of a cent shall be disregarded unless it amounts to one-half cent or more, in which case it shall be increased to one cent.

(f) Tax Commission to Collect. The tax provided under this chapter shall be collected by the tax commission and the revenues derived therefrom shall be transmitted to the state treasurer and credited to the state general fund.

(g) Receipts. The tax commission, upon written request, shall give to the corporation making payment of any tax collected under this chapter, a full written or printed receipt therefor.

(h) The amount of tax payable under this chapter by any corporation for any fiscal year shall be reduced by a credit equal to fifty per cent of the amount of the business and occupation tax paid to this state by it with respect to such fiscal year.

Sec. 39. Payment—Taxable Year Closed. (a) Tax in Jeopardy—Departure or Concealment. If the tax commission finds that a taxpayer designs quickly to remove its property from the state, or to conceal its property therein or to do any other act tending to prejudice or to render wholly or partly ineffectual proceedings to collect the tax for the taxable year then last past or the taxable year current unless such proceedings be brought without delay, the commission shall declare the taxable period for such taxpayer immediately terminated and shall cause notice of such finding and declaration to be given the taxpayer, together with a demand for immediate payment of the tax for the taxable period so declared terminated and of the tax for the preceding taxable year, or so much of such tax as is unpaid, whether or not the time otherwise allowed by law for filing return and paying the tax has expired, and such taxes shall thereupon become immediately due and payable. In any proceeding in court brought to enforce payment of taxes made due and payable by virtue of the provisions of this section, the finding of the commission made as herein provided, whether made after notice to the taxpayer or not, shall be for all purposes presumptive evidence of the taxpayer's design.

(b) Tax in Jeopardy—Corporation in Liquidation. If the tax commission finds that the collection of the tax of a corporation for the current or last preceding taxable year will be jeopardized by the distribution of all or a portion of the assets of such corporation in the liquidation of the whole or any part of its capital stock, the tax commission shall declare the taxable period for such taxpayer immediately terminated and shall cause notice of such finding and declaration to be given the taxpayer, together with a demand for immediate payment of the tax for the taxable period so declared terminated and of the tax for the last preceding taxable year or so much of such tax as is unpaid, whether or not the time otherwise allowed by law for filing return and paying the tax has expired; and such taxes shall thereupon become immediately due and payable.

(c) Security for Payment. A taxpayer who is not in default in making any return or paying any tax to the state may furnish to the state, under regulations to be prescribed by the commission, security, approved by the commission, that it will duly make the return next thereafter required to be paid. The commission may approve and accept in like manner security for return and payment of taxes made due and payable by virtue of the provisions of this section, provided the taxpayer has paid in full all other taxes due to the state. If security is approved and accepted pursuant to the provisions of this subsection and such further or other security with respect of the tax or taxes covered thereby is given as the commission shall from time to time find necessary and require, payment of such taxes shall not be enforced by any proceedings under the provisions of this section prior to the expiration of the time otherwise allowed for paying such taxes.

(d) Addition to Tax. If taxpayer violates or attempts to violate this section there shall, in addition to all other penalties, be added as part of the tax twenty-five per cent of the total amount of the tax or deficiency in the tax, together with interest at the rate of one per cent a month from the time the tax became due.

[Rem. Supp. 1941, § 8370-187 part (1st para.); R.C.W. 82.32.030 was derived from Rem. Supp. 1941, § 8370-187, part (2nd para.); R.C.W. 82.32.270 was derived from Rem. Supp. § 8370-205.]

[R.C.W. 84.40.270 to 84.40.310 were derived from secs. 28 to 32 incl., ch. 130, L. 1925 Ex. Sess. (R.R.S. §§ 11151 to 11155 incl.).]

SEC. 42. VALIDITY AND CONSTITUTIONALITY—SAVED. If any title, section, subdivision of a section, paragraph, sentence, clause, or word of this act for any reason shall be adjudged invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder of this act but shall be confined in its operation to the title, section, subdivision of a section, paragraph, sentence, clause, or word of the act directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered. If any tax imposed under this act shall be adjudged invalid as to any corporation, association or class of corporations or associations included within the scope of the general language of this act, such invalidity shall not affect the liability of any corporation, association, or class of corporations or associations as to which such tax has not been adjudged invalid. It is hereby expressly declared that had any section, subdivision of a section, paragraph, sentence, clause, word or any corporation, association, or class of corporations or associations as to which this act is declared invalid been eliminated from the act at the time the same was considered, the act would have nevertheless been enacted with such portions eliminated.
