created. If there is a need for two additional judges in King County, they are needed now. On the other hand, if there is a need presently for only one additional judge, it would not seem to be the business of this legislature to predict what the need may be two years hence respecting another judge. This more properly is a matter for the decision of the next legislature.

"I realize that the effect of the veto of section 2 of this bill would advance the time of the judicial vacancy of the second position by almost two years. I entertain some doubt as to whether this may or may not constitute an act of affirmative legislation. Consequently I do not intend to make any appointment to the second position. If this veto has such an affirmative effect and is therefore invalid, the original bill would stand as passed. This would still leave open the question of whether or not the act is invalid as an unconstitutional infringement upon the appointive power of the Chief Executive. This is a judicial question and I make no effort to resolve it. In my opinion, at least to the extent that the legislature intended to create one immediate additional judicial office in King County, the legislative intent is clear. Beyond that I consider both the intent and the legal effect of this act to be somewhat doubtful.

"For these reasons section 2 is vetoed and the remainder of the bill is approved."

Sec. 3. Section 10, chapter 200, Laws of 1947 and RCW 46.48.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(RCW 46.48.100) It shall be unlawful to operate any combination of vehicles upon the public highways of this state at a rate of speed in excess of fifty miles per hour. Section 5. There shall be a new section added to RCW 46.48 to be known as RCW 46.48.041, which shall read as follows:

(RCW 46.48.041) Notwithstanding any law to the contrary or inconsistent herewith, the Washington state highway commission shall have the power and the duty to fix and regulate the speed of vehicles within the maximum speed limit allowed by law for state highways, designated as limited access facilities, regardless of whether a portion of said highway is within the corporate limits of a city or town. No governing body or authority of such city or town or other political subdivision may have the power to pass or enforce any ordinance, rule or regulation requiring a different rate of speed and all such ordinances, rules and regulations contrary to or inconsistent therewith now in force are void and of no effect: Provided, That a maximum speed above thirty-five miles per hour may be established in cities or towns only when the findings of a traffic engineering investigation by the state highway department warrants such increase in speed.
