The registration officer shall by registered mail immediately notify the voter concerned that a challenge has been made. Should the challenged voter fail to register anew or transfer his registration within the time prescribed by law, the registration officer shall cancel the registration record and so notify the voter concerned.

Should the challenged voter deny the allegation, he shall so notify in writing the registration officer who shall immediately notify the challenger and the challenged voter to appear at a meeting to be held in the registration office at a day and hour certain to be stated in the notice. The hearing shall take place not less than two days nor more than five days after the date of such notice.

At the meeting to be held by the registration officer, he shall hear both parties according to the facts presented and his ruling shall be final, unless ordered otherwise by a court of competent jurisdiction. If the challenger fails to appear at the meeting, the registration in question shall remain in full effect. If the challenged voter fails to appear at the meeting, then the registration shall be cancelled and the voter so notified: Provided, however, That any voter who transfers his registration or registers on or after the fifty-ninth day prior to any primary or election, shall be subject to challenge on the grounds of residence alone at the polling place.
