

CHAPTER 88.

[S. B. 54.]

PUBLIC PRINTING.

AN ACT relating to public printing, and amending section 3, chapter 168, Laws of 1905, as last amended by section 1, chapter 129, Laws of 1917 and RCW 43.78.030.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

RCW 43.78.030 amended.

SECTION 1. Section 3, chapter 168, Laws of 1905, as last amended by section 1, chapter 129, Laws of 1917 and RCW 43.78.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Public printer, duties.

The public printer shall print and bind the session laws, the journals of the two houses of the legislature, all bills, resolutions, documents, and other printing and binding of either the senate or house, as the same may be ordered by the legislature; and such forms, blanks, record books, and printing and binding of every description as may be ordered by all state officers, boards, commissions, and institutions, and the supreme court and officers thereof, as the same may be ordered on requisition, from time to time, by the proper authorities: Provided, That this section shall not apply to the printing of the supreme court reports: Provided further, That where any institution or institution of higher learning of the state is or may become equipped with facilities for doing such work, it may do any printing: (1) For itself, or (2) for any other state institution when such printing is done as part of a course of study relative to the profession of printer: And provided further, Any printing and binding of whatever description as may be needed by any institution of higher learning, institution or agency of the state department of institutions not at Olympia, or the supreme court or any officer thereof, the estimated cost of which shall not exceed two hundred dollars, may be done by any private printing company in the general vicinity within the state of Washington so ordering, if in the judgment of the officer of said agency so ordering, the saving in time and processing justifies the award to such local private printing concern.

Passed the Senate February 17, 1959.

Passed the House March 4, 1959.

Approved by the Governor March 9, 1959.
