Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. Section 1, chapter 340, Laws of 1955, and RCW 43.03.028 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created a committee to be known as the governor's advisory committee on salaries, to Governor's advisory committee on salaries.

consist of seven members as follows: The dean of the College of Business Administration of the University of Washington; the dean of the School of Economics and Business of Washington State University; the chairman of the State Personnel Board; the president of the Association of Washington Industries; the president of the Pacific Northwest Personnel Managers’ Association; the president of the Washington State Bar Association, and one representative from organized labor. The committee herein created shall study the duties and salaries of the directors of the several departments and the members of the several boards and commissions of state government who are subject to appointment by the governor, the director of game, the director of highways, the director of aeronautics, the director of parks and recreation, the director of the veterans’ rehabilitation council and the statutory assistant directors of all departments the executive head of which is an individual appointed by the governor, and to recommend to the governor the salaries to be fixed for each respective position. Such recommendations shall be submitted to the governor in writing at least once in each fiscal biennium on such date as the governor may designate.

The committee shall also make a study of the duties and salaries of all state elective officials including members of the supreme and superior courts and of the members of the legislature and report to the governor and the legislative council not later than sixty days prior to the convening of each regular session of the legislature and recommend the salaries to be established for each position by the legislature.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 224, Laws of 1937, as last amended by section 2, chapter 340, Laws of 1955, and RCW 43.03.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The directors of the several departments and members of the several boards and commissions, who are subject to appointment by the governor, the director of game, the director of highways, the director of aeronautics, the director of parks and recreation, the director of the veterans' rehabilitation council and the statutory assistant directors of all departments the executive head of which is an individual appointed by the governor, shall each severally receive such salaries, payable in monthly installments, as shall be fixed by the governor, in an amount not to exceed the recommendations of the advisory committee on salaries created in RCW 43.03.028, upon the basis of official responsibility.

SEC. 3. Section 3, chapter 340, Laws of 1955, and RCW 43.41.010 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created in the office of the governor the office of "director of budget." The director of budget shall be appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate; shall hold office during the pleasure of the governor, and shall receive an annual salary to be fixed by the governor in accordance with the provisions of RCW 43.03.040. He shall have the power to appoint such assistants, deputies and other personnel as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter. As the personal representative of the governor with respect to fiscal matters it shall be his duty to attend the meetings of the administrative board.

SEC. 4. Section 80.01.010, chapter 14, Laws of 1961 and RCW 80.01.010 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created and established a state commission to be known and designated as the Washington public service commission, and in this chapter referred to as the commission.

The commission shall be composed of three members appointed by the governor, with the consent of the senate. Not more than two members of said commission shall belong to the same political party.

The members of the first commission to be appointed after taking effect of this section shall be appointed for terms beginning April 1, 1951, and expiring as follows: One commissioner for the term expiring January 1, 1953; one commissioner for the term expiring January 1, 1955; one commissioner for the term expiring January 1, 1957. Each of the commissioners shall hold office until his successor is appointed and qualified. Upon the expiration of the terms of the three commissioners first to be appointed as herein provided, each succeeding commissioner shall be appointed and hold office for the term of six years. One of such commissioners to be designated by the governor, shall, during the term of the appointing governor, be the chairman of the commission.

Each commissioner shall receive a salary as may be fixed by the governor in accordance with the provisions of RCW 43.03.040.

Any member of the commission may be removed for inefficiency, malfeasance or misfeasance in office, upon specific written charges filed by the governor, who shall transmit such written charges to the member accused and to the chief justice of the supreme court. The chief justice shall thereupon designate a special tribunal composed of three judges of the superior court to hear and adjudicate the charges. Such tribunal shall fix the time, place and procedure for the hearing, and the hearing shall be public. The decision of such tribunal shall be final and not subject to review.

If the tribunal specified herein finds the charges of the governor to be true, the governor shall have the right to immediately remove the commissioner from office, to declare the position of the commissioner vacant, and appoint another commissioner to the position in accordance with the provisions of the law.

Any vacancy arising in the office of commissioner shall be filled by appointment by the governor, and an appointee selected to fill such vacancy shall hold office for the balance of the full term for which his predecessor on the commission was appointed.

If a vacancy occurs while the senate is not in session, the governor shall make a temporary appointment until the next meeting of the senate, when he shall present to the senate his nomination or nominations for the office to be filled.

Sec. 5. Section 3, chapter 97, Laws of 1933, as last amended by section 12, chapter 340, Laws of 1955, and RCW 43.78.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The public printer shall use the state printing plant, upon the following conditions, to wit:

(1) He shall do the public printing, and charge therefor the fees as fixed by the director of budget, but in no instance higher than provided by law. He may print the Washington reports for the publishers thereof under a contract approved in writing by the governor.

(2) The gross income of the public printer shall be deposited in an account designated "state printing plant revolving fund" in depositaries approved by the state treasurer, and shall be disbursed by the public printer by check and only as follows:

First, in payment of the actual cost of labor, material, supplies, replacements, repairs, water, light, heat, telephone, rent, and all other expenses necessary in the operation of the plant: Provided, That no machinery shall be purchased except on written approval of the governor;

Second, in payment of the cost of reasonable insurance upon the printing plant, payable to the state and of all fidelity bonds required by law of the public printer;

Third, in payment to the public printer of a salary which shall be fixed by the governor in accordance with the provisions of RCW 43.03.040;

Fourth, in remitting the balance to the state treasurer for the general fund, after quarterly audits which shall be conducted by the director of budget: Provided, That a reasonable sum to be determined by the governor, the public printer, and the director of budget shall be retained in the fund for working capital for the public printer. Copies of the audits shall be furnished to the governor and state treasurer as soon as completed.

Sec. 6. Section 3, chapter 215, Laws of 1957, and RCW 43.31.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The executive head of the department shall be the director of commerce and economic development. He shall be appointed by the governor, with the consent of the senate, and hold office at the pleasure of the governor. He shall be paid a salary fixed by the governor in accordance with the provisions of RCW 43.03.040.

Sec. 7. Section 63, chapter 62, Laws of 1933 extraordinary session, as last amended by section 8, chapter 5, Laws of 1949, and RCW 43.66.010 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be a board, known as the “Washington state liquor control board,” consisting of three members, to be appointed by the governor, with the consent of the senate, who shall each be paid an annual salary to be fixed by the governor in accordance with the provisions of RCW 43.03.040. The governor may, in his discretion, appoint one of the members as chairman of the board, and a majority of the members shall constitute a quorum of the board.
SEC. 8. Section 51.52.010, chapter 23, Laws of 1961 and RCW 51.52.010 are each amended to read as follows:

There shall be a “board of industrial insurance appeals,” hereinafter called the “board,” consisting of three members appointed by the governor as hereinafter provided. One shall be a representative of the public and a lawyer, appointed from a mutually agreed to list of not less than three active members of the Washington state bar association, submitted to the governor by the two organizations defined below, and such member shall be the chairman of said board. The second member shall be a representative of the majority of workmen engaged in extrahazardous employment and selected from a list of not less than three names submitted to the governor by an organization, state-wide in scope, which through its affiliates embraces a cross section and a majority of the organized labor of the state. The third member shall be a representative of employers engaged in extrahazardous industry, and appointed from a list of at least three names submitted to the governor by a recognized state-wide organization of employers, representing a majority of employers who are substantial contributors to the industrial insurance and accident fund. The initial terms of office of the members of the board shall be for six, four, and two years respectively.

Thereafter all terms shall be for a period of six years. Each member of the board shall be eligible for reappointment and shall hold office until his successor is appointed and qualified. In the event of a vacancy the governor is authorized to appoint a successor to fill the unexpired term of his predecessor. All appointments to the board shall be made in conformity with the foregoing plan. Members shall devote their entire time to the duties of the board and shall receive for their services a salary as fixed by the governor in accordance with the provisions of RCW 43.03.040 which shall be in addition to reasonable travel allowance. Headquarters for the board shall be located in Olympia. The board shall adopt a seal which shall be judicially recognized.

Sec. 9. Section 77.04.060, chapter 36, Laws of 1955, as amended by section 1, chapter 352, Laws of 1955, and RCW 77.04.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The state game commission shall hold regular meetings on the first Mondays of January, April, July, and October of each year, and special meetings at such times as may be called by the chairman or by two-thirds majority of the members.

The commission at its first regular meeting after the appointment and qualification of its membership, shall meet at the state capitol and organize by electing one of its members as chairman to serve for a term of two years, and until his successor is elected and qualified, and biennially thereafter the commission shall meet at its office and elect one of its members as chairman, who shall serve for a term of two years and until his successor is elected and qualified.

At such meeting, and at any other meeting after a vacancy in the office of the director of game has occurred, the commission shall elect a director of game by a two-thirds vote of its membership, who shall hold office at the pleasure of the commission. The director shall receive such salary as shall be fixed by the governor in accordance with the provisions of RCW 43.03.040. The said director shall be ex officio secretary of the state game commission, attend its meetings, keep a record of the business transacted by it, and perform such other duties as the commission may direct.

Each member of the commission shall receive twenty-five dollars for each day actually spent in the performance of his duties and his actual necessary traveling and other expenses in connection therewith, including all expenses in going to, attending, and returning from meetings of the commission: Provided, That such expenses shall not exceed fifteen dollars per diem exclusive of necessary traveling expenses, not to exceed eight cents per mile.

The commission shall, on or before the last Monday of October in each odd-numbered year, make a full and complete report of the official business transacted by it, which report shall be published in pamphlet form.

The commission shall maintain its offices in the principal office of the department of game.

Sec. 10. Section 12, chapter 247, Laws of 1951, as amended by section 31, chapter 172, Laws of 1957, and RCW 43.27.180 are each amended to read as follows:

The salary of the director of highways shall be as fixed by the governor in accordance with the provisions of RCW 43.03.040.

Note: See also section 47.01.140, chapter 13, Laws of 1961.

Sec. 11. Section 4, chapter 165, Laws of 1947, and RCW 14.04.040 are each amended to read as follows:

A director of aeronautics shall be appointed by the commission and shall serve at the pleasure of the commission. He shall be appointed with due regard to his fitness, by aeronautical education and by knowledge of and recent practical experience in aeronautics, for the efficient dispatch of the powers and duties duly vested in and imposed upon him. He shall devote his entire time to the duties of his office and shall not be actively engaged or employed in any other business, vocation, or employment, nor shall he have any pecuniary interest in or any stock in or bonds of any civil aeronautics enterprise. He shall receive a salary as fixed by the governor in accorance with the provisions of RCW 43.03.040 and shall be reimbursed for all traveling and other expenses incurred by him in the discharge of his official duties.

He shall be the executive officer of the commission and under its supervision shall administer the provisions of this chapter and the rules, regulations and orders established thereunder and all other laws of the state relative to aeronautics. He shall attend, but not vote at, all meetings of the commission. He shall be in charge of the offices of the commission and responsible to the commission for the preparation of reports and the collection and dissemination of data and other public information relating to aeronautics. At the direction of the commission, he shall, together with the chairman of the commission, execute all contracts entered into by the commission.

The director shall appoint, subject to the approval of the commission such experts, field and office assistants, clerks, and other employees as may be required and authorized for the proper discharge of the functions of the commission and for whose services funds have been appropriated.

The commission may, by written order filed in its office, delegate to the director any of the powers or duties vested in or imposed upon it by this chapter. Such delegated powers and duties may be exercised by the director in the name of the commission.

Sec. 12. Section 5, chapter 271, Laws of 1947, as amended by section 3, chapter 391, Laws of 1955, and RCW 43.51.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission may: (1) Make rules and regulations for the proper administration of its duties;

(2) Accept any grants of funds made with or without a matching requirement by the United States, or any agency thereof, for purposes in keeping with the purposes of this chapter; accept gifts, bequests, devises and endowments for purposes in keeping with such purposes;

(3) Require certification by the commission of all parks and recreation workers employed in state aided or state controlled programs;

(4) Act jointly, when advisable, with the United States, any other state agencies, institutions, departments, boards, or commissions in order to carry out the objectives and responsibilities of this chapter;

(5) Grant franchises and easements for any legitimate purpose on parks or parkways, for such terms and subject to such conditions and considerations as the commission shall specify;

(6) Charge such fees for services, utilities, and use of facilities as the commission shall deem proper. All fees received by the commission shall be deposited with the state treasurer in the state parks and parkway fund;

(7) Enter into agreements whereby individuals or companies may rent undeveloped parks or parkway land for grazing, agricultural, or mineral development purposes upon such terms and conditions as the commission shall deem proper, for a term not to exceed ten years; and

(8) Determine the qualifications of and employ a director of parks and recreation who shall receive a salary as fixed by the governor in accordance with the provisions of RCW 43.03.040, and upon his recommendation, a supervisor of recreation, and determine the qualifications and salary of and employ such other persons as may be needed to carry out the provisions hereof;

(9) Without being limited to the powers hereinbefore enumerated, the commission shall have such other powers as in the judgment of a majority of its members are deemed necessary to effectuate the purposes of this chapter: Provided, That the commission shall not have power to supervise directly any local park or recreation district, and no funds shall be made available for such purpose.

Sec. 13. Section 2, chapter 110, Laws of 1947, and RCW 43.61.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The council shall select one of its number as chairman. The council shall employ a director, who shall serve as executive officer of the council and who shall receive such salary as shall be fixed by the governor in accordance with the provisions of RCW 43.03.040, and shall employ such additional persons as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter. The council shall maintain an office at the state capital but shall have power to meet at such other places as it may provide by resolution from time to time. A majority of the members shall constitute a quorum.

Passed the House March 4, 1961.

Passed the Senate March 8, 1961.

Approved by the Governor March 21, 1961, with the exception of Section 11, which is vetoed.

NOTE: Excerpt of Governor's veto message reads as follows:

"This bill increases the Governor's Advisory Committee on salaries from 6 to 7 members. It authorizes the Committee to study the duties of the directors and assistant directors of the various code departments under the jurisdiction of the chief executive. It further authorizes the Committee to study the duties of the executive heads of the various commissions and committees of the State which are salaried. In addition, the Committee is empowered to study the duties of the various elected officials including those of the Supreme and Superior Court judges, and of the members of the Legislature, with reference to the members of the Supreme and Superior Courts, and to the members of the Legislature, the Committee is to report its recommendation to the Governor and to the Legislative Council with recommendations of salaries to be established for their respective positions. The bill further provides that the Governor and the Commissions, respectively, shall not exceed the recommendations of salaries made for any of the positions under the control of the governor or under the control of each of the Commissions.

"Section 11 of this bill amends RCW 14.04.040 which fixes the salary of the Director of Aeronautics. This identical section is being amended by House Bill No. 207 which fixes the maximum salary of the Director of Aeronautics at $9,500, and makes a change in the duties to be assigned by the Aeronautics Commissioner to the Director of Aeronautics.

"In order to effectuate the intent of the Legislature relative to the change of duties imposed by House Bill No. 207 upon the Director of Aeronautics, it became necessary for me to veto section 11 of this bill. "For the reasons indicated, section 11 of this bill is vetoed, and the remainder of this bill is approved."

ALBERT D. ROSELLINI, Governor.

CHAPTER 308.
[S. B. 95.]

JOINT COMMITTEE ON URBAN AREA GOVERNMENT.

An Act relating to state government; creating a joint committee on urban area government of the legislature; providing for the selection, term, and reimbursement of certain expenditures of the members of the committee, and conferring rights, powers, duties and prescribing the functions of the committee; providing for advisory committees; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. As used in this act "committee" means the joint committee on urban area government of the legislature of the state of Washington, and the term "urban area" shall mean incorporated cities and towns and peripheral areas which have become substantially urban in character.

Sec. 2. There is hereby created the joint committee on urban area government of the legislature of the state of Washington which shall meet, act, and conduct its business at any place within the state of Washington during interim periods prior to the 1963 session of the legislature.

Sec. 3. The committee shall consist of five senators and five representatives who shall be selected as follows:

(1) The president of the senate shall nominate five senators to serve on the committee, who shall be residents of urban areas of the state, and shall submit the list of nominees to the senate for confirmation. In the event that the president does not
