lotteries and gambling in the State of Washington. It is elementary, therefore, that no act of this legislature can overrule or circumvent the mandate contained in the constitutional provision mentioned above.

"I have deliberately refrained from vetoing an emergency clause contained in Senate Bill 360 in order to allow the constitutionality of this measure to be tested at once. This emergency clause permits the bill to take effect immediately; therefore, allowing a court test of the constitutionality of this bill at once by anyone who might desire to do so.

"I wish to emphasize that nowhere in its provisions does Senate Bill 360 expressly repeal the numerous state statutes against gambling. These statutes continue to exist and to have full force and effect. Anyone found gambling in any part of the state still is subject to arrest and prosecution.

"While I continue to question the need of Senate Bill 360, nevertheless it has been requested by many local public officials. Furthermore, the elected representatives of the people have approved this bill by an almost two-thirds margin in both Houses of the Legislature. With the partial vetoes that I have executed, the bill now has proper safeguards against gambling. It is primarily because of these factors that I have allowed most of Senate Bill 360 to become law without my signature.

"Senate Bill 360 does allow cities and counties to license and regulate the use of certain amusement devices, trade stimulants, and certain card playing. Senate Bill 360 does not, nor could it, constitutionally, allow wagering by means of these devices.

"Under this act, as vetoed by me, no one can engage in activities covered by this act without first obtaining approval of local public officials. This applies to past licensees and future applicants.

"I am against gambling and will continue to do everything within my power to see that the gambling laws of this state are enforced. The laws of our state place the primary responsibility for law enforcement on local enforcement agents. This is as it should be. But be assured that I would not hesitate a moment to use state law enforcement officials to enforce state anti-gambling laws if local enforcement agents cannot or do not do the job.

"I am proud of Washington's fine record as a clean state, free of syndicates and the crime and vice associated with them. I have been privileged to have a part in establishing this record during my years as deputy prosecuting attorney in King County, as a State Senator, as chairman of the Legislative Crime Committee, and as Governor. I wish to assure the citizens of Washington that I shall continue to do everything within the power invested in me as chief executive to guarantee that Washington will remain a state that is free of gambling."

ALBERT D. ROSELLINI, Governor.
