BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 1, chapter 183, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 1, chapter 167, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 49.60.010 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter shall be known as the "law against discrimination". It is an exercise of the police power of the state for the protection of the public welfare, health and peace of the people of this state, and in fulfillment of the provisions of the Constitution of this state concerning civil rights. The legislature hereby finds and declares that practices of discrimination against any of its inhabitants because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, marital status or age are a matter of state concern, that such discrimination threatens not only the rights and proper privileges of its inhabitants but menaces the institutions and foundation of a free democratic state. A state agency is herein created with powers with respect to elimination and prevention of discrimination in employment, in credit and insurance transactions, in places of public resort, accommodation or amusement, and in real property transactions because of race, creed, color, national origin, sex, marital status or age; and the board established hereunder is hereby given general jurisdiction and power for such purposes.

Sec. 2. Section 12, chapter 183, Laws of 1949 as amended by section 2, chapter 37, Laws of 1957 and RCW 49.60.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter shall be construed liberally for the accomplishment of the purposes thereof. Nothing contained in this chapter shall be deemed to repeal any of the provisions of any other law of this state relating to discrimination because of race, color, creed, national origin, sex, marital status or age; other than a law which purports to require or permit doing any act which is an unfair practice under this chapter. Nor shall anything herein contained be construed to deny the right to any person to institute any action or pursue any civil or criminal remedy based upon an alleged violation of his civil rights. (However, the election of a person to pursue such a remedy shall preclude him from pursuing those administrative remedies created by this chapter))

Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 183, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 2, chapter 167, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 49.60.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(I) The right to be free from discrimination because of race, creed, color, national origin, or sex is recognized as and declared to be a civil right. This right shall include, but not be limited to:

((I)) (a) The right to obtain and hold employment without discrimination;

((I)) (b) The right to the full enjoyment of any of the accommodations, advantages, facilities or privileges of any place of public resort, accommodation, assemblage or amusement;

((I)) (c) The right to engage in real estate transactions without discrimination;

(I) The right to engage in credit or insurance transactions without discrimination;

(I) Any person deeming himself injured by any act in violation of this chapter shall have a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin further violations, to recover the actual damages sustained by him or both, together with the cost of suit including a reasonable attorney's fees or any other remedy authorized by this chapter or the United States Civil Rights Act of 1964; and

(I) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, any act prohibited by this chapter which is committed in the course of trade or commerce in the state of Washington as defined in the Consumer Protection Act, chapter 19.86 RCW, shall be deemed an unfair practice within the meaning of RCW 19.86.020 and subject to all the provisions of chapter 19.86 RCW as now or hereafter amended.

procedures in general and in specific instances, and for programs of formal and informal education which the board may recommend to the appropriate state agency.

Such advisory agencies and conciliation councils shall be composed of representative citizens, serving without pay, but with reimbursement for actual and necessary traveling expenses, and the board may make provision for technical and clerical assistance to such agencies and councils and for the expenses of such assistance.
