

by reason of one act of negligence, and ((one)) twenty-five thousand dollars for damage to property of any person other than the assured, with a good and sufficient surety company licensed to do business in this state as surety and to be approved by the director, conditioned for the faithful compliance by the principal of said bond with the provisions of this chapter, and to pay all damages which may be sustained by any person injured by reason of any careless negligence or unlawful act on the part of said principal, his agents or employees in the conduct of said business or in the operation of any motor propelled vehicle used in transporting passengers for compensation on any public highway of this state.

Sec. 2. Section 46.72.050, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 83, chapter 32, Laws of 1967 and RCW 46.72.050 are each amended to read as follows:

In lieu of the surety bond as provided in this chapter, there may be deposited and kept on file and in force with the director a public liability insurance policy covering each and every motor vehicle operated or intended to be so operated, executed by an insurance company licensed and authorized to write such insurance policies in the state of Washington, assuring the applicant for a permit against property damage and personal liability to the public, with the premiums paid and payment noted thereon. Said policy of insurance shall provide a minimum coverage equal and identical to the coverage required by the aforesaid surety bond, specified under the provisions of section 1 of this 1973 amendatory act. No provisions of this chapter shall be construed to limit the right of any injured person to any private right of action against a for hire operator as herein defined.

Passed the Senate February 19, 1973.

Passed the House February 27, 1973.

Approved by Governor March 6, 1973.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State March 7, 1973.
