

support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

RCW 82.38.080 was amended twice during the 1972 extraordinary session, each without reference to the other.

1972 ex. sess. c 49 sec. 1 amended the definition of "urban transportation system" contained in the last sentence.

1972 ex. sess. c 138 sec. 2 amended subsection (4) pertaining to the exemption for fuel used in power pumping units or other power take-off equipment.

As the two amendments appear to be in different respects, it is the purpose of this bill to give effect to both amendments.

Passed the House February 8, 1973.

Passed the Senate February 22, 1973.

Approved by the Governor March 6, 1973.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State March 7, 1973.

CHAPTER 43

[House Bill No. 321]

ATTORNEY GENERAL--PRIVATE PRACTICE PROHIBITED

AN ACT Relating to state government; prohibiting the attorney general and full time deputy and assistant attorneys general from the practice of law in their private capacity as attorneys; amending section 43.10.010, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.10.010; adding new sections to chapter 43.10 RCW; and providing penalties.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

Section 1. Section 43.10.010, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.10.010 are each amended to read as follows:

No person shall be eligible to be attorney general unless he is a qualified practitioner of the supreme court of this state.

Before entering upon the duties of his office, any person elected or appointed attorney general shall take, subscribe, and file the oath of office as required by law; take, subscribe, and file with the secretary of state an oath to comply with the provisions of section 2 of this 1973 amendatory act; and execute and file with the secretary of state, a bond to the state, in the sum of five thousand dollars, with sureties to be approved by the governor, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties and the paying over of all moneys, as provided by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 43.10 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The attorney general shall not practice law for remuneration in his private capacity:

(1) As an attorney in any court of this state during his continuance in office; or

(2) As adviser or advocate for any person who may wish to become his client.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 43.10 RCW a new section to read as follows:

No full time deputy or assistant attorney general shall practice law for remuneration in his private capacity:

(1) As an attorney in any court of this state during his continuance in office; or

(2) As adviser or advocate for any person who may wish to become his client.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 43.10 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Special assistant attorney generals employed on less than a full time basis to transact business of a legal or quasi legal nature for the state, such assistants and attorneys may practice law in their private capacity as attorney.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. None of the provisions of this 1973 amendatory act shall be construed as prohibiting the attorney general or any of his full time deputies or assistants from:

(1) Performing legal services for himself or his immediate family; or

(2) Performing legal services of a charitable nature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. If any provision of this 1973 amendatory act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Passed the House February 17, 1973.

Passed the Senate February 22, 1973.

Approved by the Governor March 6, 1973.
