CHAPTER 108

[Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2619]

FAMILY MEDICINE EDUCATION AND RESIDENCY PROGRAMS

AN ACT Relating to family medicine; adding a new chapter to Title 70 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to Title 70 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) "School of medicine" means the University of Washington school of medicine located in Seattle, Washington;

(2) "Residency programs" mean community based family practice residency educational programs either in existence or established under this chapter;

(3) "Affiliated" means established or developed in cooperation with the school of medicine;

(4) "Family practice unit" means the community facility or classroom used for training of ambulatory health skills within a residency training program; and

(5) "Advisory board" means the family practice education advisory board created by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to Title 70 RCW a new section to read as follows:

There is established a state-wide medical education system for the purpose of training resident physicians in family practice. The dean of the school of medicine shall be responsible for implementing the development and expansion of residency programs in cooperation with the medical profession, hospitals, and clinics located throughout the state. The chairman of the department of family medicine in the school of medicine, with the consent of the advisory board, shall determine where affiliated residency programs shall exist; giving consideration to communities in the state where the population, hospital facilities, number of physicians, and interest in medical education indicate the potential success of the residency program. The medical education system shall provide financial support for residents in training for those programs which are affiliated with the school of medicine and shall establish positions for appropriate faculty to staff these programs. The number of programs shall be determined by the board and be in keeping with the needs of the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to Title 70 RCW a new section to read as follows:

There is created a family practice education advisory board which shall consist of eight members with the dean of the school of medicine serving as chairman. Other members of the board will be:

- (1) Chairman, department of family medicine, school of medicine;
- (2) Two public members to be appointed by the governor;
- (3) A member appointed by the Washington state medical association;
- (4) A member appointed by the Washington state academy of family physicians;
- (5) A hospital administrator representing those Washington hospitals with family practice residency programs, appointed by the governor; and
- (6) A director representing the directors of community based family practice residency programs, appointed by the governor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to Title 70 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The dean and chairman of the department of family medicine at the University of Washington school of medicine shall be permanent members of the advisory board. Other members will be initially appointed as follows: Terms of the two public members shall be two years; the member from the medical association and the hospital administrator, three years; and the remaining two members, four years. Thereafter, terms for the nonpermanent members shall be four years; members may serve two consecutive terms; and new appointments shall be filled in the same manner as for original appointments. Vacancies shall be filled for an unexpired term in the manner of the original appointment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to Title 70 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The advisory board shall advise the dean and the chairman of the department of family medicine in the implementation of the educational programs provided for in this chapter; including, but not limited to, the selection of the areas within the state where affiliate residency programs shall exist, the allocation of funds appropriated under this chapter, and the procedures for review and evaluation of the residency programs. On or before January 15 of each year the advisory board shall provide the governor and the legislature with the report on the status of the state-wide family practice residency program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to Title 70 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The moneys appropriated for these state-wide family medicine residency programs shall be in addition to all the income of the University of Washington and its school of medicine and shall not be used to supplant funds for other programs under the administration of the school of medicine.

(2) The allocation of state funds for the residency programs shall not exceed fifty percent of the total cost of the program.

(3) No more than twenty-five percent of the appropriation for each fiscal year for the affiliated programs shall be authorized for expenditures made in support of the faculty and staff of the school of medicine who are associated with the affiliated residency programs and are located at the school of medicine.

(4) No funds for the purposes of this act shall be used to subsidize the cost of care incurred by patients.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 1 through 6 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW.

Passed the Senate April 9, 1975.

Passed the House May 20, 1975.

Approved by the Governor May 28, 1975.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State May 28, 1975.
