Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 2, chapter 132, Laws of 1973 and RCW 70.95A.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds:

- (1) That environmental damage seriously endangers the public health and welfare;

- (5) That such lower costs benefit the public with no measurable cost impact;

(6) That the method of financing provided in this chapter is in the public interest and its use serves a public purpose in (a) protecting and promoting the health and welfare of the citizens of the cities, towns, counties, and port districts and of this state by encouraging and accelerating the installation of facilities for abating or controlling and preventing environmental damage and (b) in attracting and retaining environmentally sound industry in this state which reduces unemployment and provides a more diversified tax base.

(7) For the reasons set forth in subsection (6) of this section, the provisions of this chapter relating to port districts and all proceedings heretofore or hereafter taken by port districts pursuant thereto are, and shall be deemed to be, for industrial development as authorized by Article 8, section 8 of the Washington state Constitution.

Sec. 3. Section 5, chapter 132, Laws of 1973 and RCW 70.95A.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All bonds issued by a municipality under the authority of this chapter shall be secured solely by revenues derived from the lease or sale of the facility. Bonds and interest coupons issued under the authority of this chapter shall not constitute nor give rise to a pecuniary liability of the municipality or a charge against its general credit or taxing powers. Such limitation shall be plainly stated upon the face of each of such bonds. The use of the municipality's name on revenue bonds authorized hereunder shall not be construed to be the giving or lending of the municipality's financial guarantee or pledge, i.e. credit to any private person, firm, or corporation as the term credit is used in Article 8, section 7 of the Washington state Constitution.

(2) The bonds referred to in subsection (1) of this section, may (a) be executed and delivered at any time and from time to time, (b) be in such form and denominations, (c) be of such tenor, (d) be in registered or bearer form either as to principal or interest or both, and may provide for conversion between registered and coupon bonds of varying denominations, (e) be payable in such installments and at such time or times not exceeding forty years from their date, (f) be payable at such place or places, (g) bear interest at such rate or rates as may be determined by the governing body, payable at such place or places within or without this state and evidenced in such manner, (h) be redeemable prior to maturity, with or without premium, and (i) contain such provisions not inconsistent herewith, as shall be deemed for the best interest of the municipality and provided for in the proceedings of the governing body whereunder the bonds shall be authorized to be issued.

(3) Any bonds issued under the authority of this chapter, may be sold at public or private sale in such manner and at such time or times as may be determined by the governing body to be most advantageous. The municipality may pay all expenses, premiums and commissions which the governing body may deem necessary or advantageous in connection with the authorization, sale and issuance thereof from the proceeds of the sale of said bonds or from the revenues of the facilities.

(4) All bonds issued under the authority of this chapter, and all interest coupons applicable thereto shall be investment securities within the meaning of the uniform commercial code and shall be deemed to be issued by a political subdivision of the state.

(5) The proceeds from any bonds issued under this chapter shall be used only for purposes qualifying under Section 103(c)(4)(f) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. This 1975 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

- Passed the House March 13, 1975.
- Passed the Senate March 11, 1975.
- Approved by the Governor March 17, 1975, with the exception of section 16 which is vetoed.
- Filed in Office of Secretary of State March 17, 1975.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith without my approval as to one section Substitute House Bill No. 111 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to expenditures by state agencies; adopting a supplemental budget for the fiscal biennium beginning July 1, 1973, and ending June 30, 1975."

Section 16 appropriates $13,200,000 to the Legislative Budget Committee as a contingency fund, to be released as that committee deems necessary to support certain programs of the Department of Social and Health Services. I am not opposed to the idea of appropriating contingency funds to an administrative agency for expenditure or grant to another agency, pursuant to appropriate constitutional or legislative standards. However, for reasons I have stated on several previous occasions, I believe that the manner in which the legislature has attempted to do so in this case is questionable.

In the first place, the attempted appropriation is, in form, an appropriation to a legislative committee for functions which are clearly executive and administrative. I have stated my opposition to that idea in several previous messages on the ground that it is inconsistent with the doctrine of separation of powers and, at best, violates the fundamentals of good government by interposing legislative interference in the administrative process. (See for example, section 3, chapter 210, Laws of 1973, 1st Ex. Sess.; also sections 21, 24, 25 and 26, chapter 197, Laws of 1974, 1st Ex. Sess.)

Second, I am advised that the delegation of such a function in this case would transform the Legislative Budget Committee into a "civil office" within the meaning of Article II, section 13 of the Washington State Constitution. This would prohibit any member of the legislature from being appointed to serve on that vital committee from the effective date of the appropriation to the end of the 1973-1975 biennium. I am certain the legislature did not intend that result and I would feel obliged to veto the section for that reason, if for no other.

Finally, I have some doubt that section 16 would be upheld as a valid appropriation, if it were attacked on constitutional grounds. Section 16 in its present form would delegate to a legislative committee, in its sole discretion, the function of determining whether or not to "release" all or any part of the $13,200,000 in question. Considering the nature of appropriation measures as legislation, and the traditional constitutional role of the legislative process, I question whether section 16 would be viewed as a completed appropriation, or whether it would instead be viewed as an improper attempt to delegate legislative power to a committee.

I would propose that the legislature consider as an alternative to section 16 as written an appropriation to the Department of Social and Health Services in contingency funds to be expended only upon certification by that agency to the Legislative Budget Committee and to the Office of Program Planning and Fiscal Management that there exists a need for those funds, and that funds previously appropriated which could have been used for the purposes stated have been exhausted prior to the use of the contingency funds. I believe such an appropriation would accomplish the desired purpose of the legislature in assuring that the funds are expended only upon the occurrence of certain contingencies.

With the exception of section 16, which I have vetoed for the foregoing reasons, the remainder of Substitute House Bill No. 111 is approved."

DEPARTMENT OF NATURAL RESOURCES LANDS— FIREWOOD CUTTING PERMITS

AN ACT Relating to the department of natural resources; amending section 1, chapter 97, Laws of 1945 and RCW 76.20.010; amending section 3, chapter 97, Laws of 1945 and RCW 76.20.030; adding a new section to chapter 97, Laws of 1945 and to chapter 76.20 RCW; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 1, chapter 97, Laws of 1945 and RCW 76.20.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((commissioner of public lands))~~ department of natural resources may issue ~~((annual))~~ licenses to residents of this state ~~((who are citizens of the United States or have declared their intention to become such))~~ to enter upon lands ~~((belonging to the state))~~ under the administration or jurisdiction of the department of natural resources for the purpose of removing therefrom ~~((dead))~~, standing or downed timber which is unfit for any purpose except to be used as firewood.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 97, Laws of 1945 and RCW 76.20.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The application may be made to the ~~((commissioner of public lands or his duly qualified representative for that purpose))~~ department of natural resources, and if deemed proper, the license may be issued upon the payment of ~~((one dollar))~~ two dollars and fifty cents which shall be paid into the treasury of the state by the officer collecting the same and placed in the ~~((state general fund))~~ resource management cost account; the license shall be dated as of the date of issuance and authorize the holder thereof to remove between the dates ~~((of October 15th and February 15th of the following year))~~ so specified not more than ~~((twelve))~~ six cords of wood not fit for any use but as firewood for the use of himself and family from the premises described in the license under such regulations as the ((~~commissioner of public lands~~)) department of natural resources may prescribe.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 97, Laws of 1945 and to chapter 76.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Whenever the department of natural resources determines that it is in the best interest of the state and there will be a benefit to the lands involved or a state program affecting such lands it may designate specific areas and authorize the general public to enter upon lands under its jurisdiction for the purposes of cutting and removing standing or downed timber for use as firewood for the personal use of the person so cutting and removing without a charge under such terms and conditions as it may require.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This 1975 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.*

Passed the House February 11, 1975.

Passed the Senate March 6, 1975.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State March 20, 1975.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith without my approval as to one section House Bill No. 124 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to the department of natural resources."

Section 4 of the bill declares an emergency and provides for the act to take effect immediately. Our constitution states that bills shall take effect ninety days after adjournment of the legislative session at which it was enacted. The purpose for this is to allow the people to exercise their right of referendum. Only one exception to this is recognized: laws "necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety, support of the state government and its existing public institutions." Art. II(1)(b).

House Bill No. 124 does not meet the constitutional criteria required to take effect immediately and to remove thereby the right of referendum. In fact, I am advised by the department of natural resources that the emergency clause is unnecessary.

I would remind the legislature that our state constitution requires more circumspect use of emergency clauses.

With the foregoing exception, I have approved the remainder of House Bill No. 124."

Said petition shall be signed by at least ten registered voters residing in the aforesaid school district, and shall be presented to the intermediate school district superintendent. It is declared to be the public policy of the state of Washington to direct financial resources of this state toward the support and aid of the wildlife resources existing within the state of Washington in order that the general welfare of these inhabitants of the state be served. For the purposes of this chapter, wildlife resources are understood to be those species of wildlife other than that managed by the department of fisheries under their existing jurisdiction as well as all unclassified marine fish, shellfish, and marine invertebrates which shall remain under the jurisdiction of the director of fisheries. The legislature further finds that the preservation, protection, perpetuation, and enhancement of such wildlife resources of the state is of major concern to it, and that aid for a satisfactory environment and ecological balance in this state for such wildlife resources serves a public interest, purpose, and desire.

It is further declared that such preservation, protection, perpetuation, and enhancement can be fostered through financial support derived on a voluntary basis from those citizens of the state of Washington who wish to assist in such objectives; that a desirable manner of accomplishing this is through offering personalized license plates for (~~motor~~) certain vehicles and campers the fees for which are to be directed to the state treasury to the credit of the state game fund for the furtherance of the programs, policies, and activities of the state game department in preservation, protection, perpetuation, and enhancement of the wildlife resources that abound within the geographical limits of the state of Washington.

In particular, the legislature recognizes the benefit of this program to be specifically directed toward those species of wildlife including but not limited to song birds, protected wildlife, rare and endangered wildlife, aquatic life, and specialized-habitat types, both terrestrial and aquatic, as well as all unclassified marine fish, shellfish, and marine invertebrates which shall remain under the jurisdiction of the director of fisheries that exist within the limits of the state of Washington.

The term "unprofessional conduct" as used in this chapter and RCW 18.71-.120 and 18.71.140 shall mean the following items or any one or combination thereof:

~~(1) ((Conviction in any court of any offense))~~ The commission of any act involving moral turpitude, ((in which case the record of)) dishonesty, or corruption, whether the same be committed in the course of his or her relations as a physician, or otherwise, and whether the same constitutes a crime or not; and if the act constitutes a crime, conviction thereof in a criminal proceeding shall not be a condition precedent to disciplinary action. Upon such conviction, however, the judgment and sentence shall be conclusive evidence at the ensuing disciplinary hearing of the guilt of the respondent physician of the crime described in the indictment or information, and of his or her violation of the statute upon which it is based;

(2) The procuring, or aiding or abetting in procuring a criminal abortion;

(3) ~~((Fraud or deceit))~~ Misrepresentation or concealment of a material fact in the obtaining of a license to practice medicine or in reinstatement thereof;

(4) All advertising of medical business which is intended or has a tendency to deceive the public or impose upon credulous or ignorant persons and so be harmful or injurious to public morals or safety;

(8) The offering, undertaking, or agreeing to cure to treat disease by a secret method, procedure, treatment, or medicine, or the treating, operating, or prescribing for any human condition by a method, means, or procedure which the licensee refuses to divulge upon demand of the board;

~~((10) The wilful betrayal of a professional secret;~~

~~(11) Repeated acts of immorality, or repeated acts of gross misconduct in the practice of the profession;~~

(14) Wilful violation of section 2 of this amendatory act or wilful disregard of the subpoena or notice of the Washington state medical disciplinary board; or

(15) Gross, wilful, and continued overcharging for professional services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 202, Laws of 1955 and to chapter 18.72 RCW a new section to read as follows:

It shall be the duty and obligation of a physician against whom a complaint is made and who is being investigated by the medical disciplinary board to cooperate with the board as requested by it by:

- (1) Furnishing any papers or documents;
- (2) Furnishing in writing a full and complete explanation covering the matter contained in such complaint;
- (3) Appearing before the board at the time and place designated.

Should such physician fail to cooperate with the board in the manner herein provided, such conduct shall be deemed to be unprofessional conduct.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 202, Laws of 1955 and to chapter 18.72 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) In the event that a physician is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be mentally incompetent or mentally ill, such physician shall automatically have his or her license suspended by the board upon the entry of such judgment, regardless of the pendency of an appeal.

(2) If it appears to the disciplinary board that there is reasonable cause to believe that a physician who has not been judicially determined to be mentally incompetent or mentally ill is unable to practice medicine with reasonable skill and safety to patients by reason of illness, drunkenness, excessive use of drugs, narcotics, chemicals, or any other type of material or as a result of any mental or physical condition, a complaint in the name of the board shall be served upon such physician for a hearing on the sole issue of the capacity of the physician to adequately conduct his or her practice. In enforcing this paragraph the board shall, upon probable cause, have authority to compel a physician to submit to a mental or physical examination by two or more physicians designated by the board and at least one of whom may be designated by the charged party if he or she chooses. Failure of a physician to submit to such examination when directed constitutes grounds for immediate suspension of such physician's license, unless the failure was due to circumstances beyond his or her control, consequent upon which a default and final order may be entered without the taking of testimony or presentation of evidence. A physician affected under this paragraph shall at reasonable intervals be afforded an opportunity to demonstrate that he or she can resume the competent practice of medicine with reasonable skill and safety to patients.

For the purpose of this subsection (2), every physician licensed under this chapter who shall accept the privilege to practice medicine in this state shall by so practicing or by the making and filing of annual registration to practice medicine in this state, be deemed to have given his or her consent to submit to a mental or physical examination when directed in writing by the board and further to have waived all objections to the admissibility of the examining physicians' testimony or examination reports on the ground that the same constitute a privileged communication.

In any proceeding under this subsection (2), neither the record of proceedings nor the orders entered by the board shall be used against a physician in any other proceeding.

Sec. 4. Section 15, chapter 202, Laws of 1955, and RCW 18.72.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall have the following powers and duties:

- (1) To adopt, amend and rescind such rules and regulations as it deems necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter;
- (2) To investigate all complaints and charges of unprofessional conduct against any holder of a license and to hold hearings to determine whether such charges are substantiated or unsubstantiated;
- (3) To employ necessary stenographic or clerical help;
- (4) To issue subpoenas and administer oaths in connection with any investigation, hearing, or disciplinary proceeding held under this chapter;
- (5) To take or cause depositions to be taken as needed in any investigation, hearing, or proceeding;
- (6) To investigate complaints and charges of malpractice and unsafe conditions and practices, to analyze equipment, procedures, and training, in such cases, and to direct corrective action.

except that any such officer shall disclose the names and addresses of persons reported as involved in an accident or as witnesses thereto, the vehicle license plate numbers and descriptions of vehicles involved, and the date, time and location of an accident, to any person who may have a proper interest therein, including the driver or drivers involved, or the legal guardian thereof, the parent of a minor driver, any person injured therein, the owner of vehicles or property damaged thereby, or any authorized representative of such an interested party, or the attorney or insurer thereof. No such accident report or copy thereof shall be used as evidence in any trial, civil or criminal, arising out of an accident, except that any officer above named for receiving accident reports shall furnish, upon demand of any person who has, or who claims to have, made such a report, or, upon demand of any court, a certificate showing that a specified accident report has or has not been made to the chief of the Washington state patrol solely to prove a compliance or a failure to comply with the requirement that such a report be made in the manner required by law: PROVIDED, That the reports may be used as evidence when necessary to prosecute charges filed in connection with a violation of section 16 of this amendatory act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. There is added to chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 46.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

No person shall wilfully fail or refuse to comply with any lawful order or direction of any duly authorized flagman or any police officer or fire fighter invested by law with authority to direct, control, or regulate traffic.

Sec. 18. Section 7, chapter 155, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The driver of any vehicle, every bicyclist, and every pedestrian shall obey the instructions of any official (~~((traffic-control))~~) traffic control device applicable thereto placed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, unless otherwise directed by a traffic or police officer, subject to the exception granted the driver of an authorized emergency vehicle in this chapter.

(2) No provision of this chapter for which (~~((signs))~~) official traffic control devices are required shall be enforced against an alleged violator if at the time and place of the alleged violation an official (~~((sign))~~) device is not in proper position and sufficiently legible or visible to be seen by an ordinarily observant person. Whenever a particular section does not state that (~~((signs))~~) official traffic control devices are required, such section shall be effective even though no (~~((signs))~~) devices are erected or in place.

(3) Whenever official (~~((traffic-control))~~) traffic control devices are placed in position approximately conforming to the requirements of this chapter, such devices shall be presumed to have been so placed by the official act or direction of lawful authority, unless the contrary shall be established by competent evidence.

(4) Any official (~~((traffic-control))~~) traffic control device placed pursuant to the provisions of this chapter and purporting to conform to the lawful requirements pertaining to such devices shall be presumed to comply with the requirements of this chapter, unless the contrary shall be established by competent evidence.

Sec. 19. Section 8, chapter 155, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.055 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever traffic is controlled by (~~traffic control~~) traffic control signals exhibiting different colored lights, or colored lighted arrows, successively one at a time or in combination, only the colors green, red and yellow shall be used, except for special pedestrian signals carrying a word legend, and said lights shall indicate and apply to drivers of vehicles and pedestrians as follows:

(1) Green indication

(a) Vehicular traffic facing a circular green signal may proceed straight through or turn right or left unless a sign at such place prohibits either such turn. But vehicular traffic, including vehicles turning right or left, shall yield the right of way to other vehicles and to pedestrians lawfully within the intersection or an adjacent crosswalk at the time such signal is exhibited.

(b) Vehicular traffic facing a green arrow signal, shown alone or in combination with another indication, may cautiously enter the intersection only to make the movement indicated by such arrow, or such other movement as is permitted by other indications shown at the same time. Such vehicular traffic shall yield the right of way to pedestrians lawfully within an adjacent crosswalk and to other traffic lawfully using the intersection.

(c) Unless otherwise directed by a (~~pedestrian control~~) pedestrian control signal, as provided in RCW 46.61.060 as now or hereafter amended, pedestrians facing any green signal, except when the sole green signal is a turn arrow, may proceed across the roadway within any marked or unmarked crosswalk.

(2) Steady yellow indication

(a) Vehicular traffic facing a steady circular yellow or yellow arrow signal is thereby warned that the related green movement is being terminated or that a red indication will be exhibited immediately thereafter when vehicular traffic shall not enter the intersection.

(b) Pedestrians facing a steady circular yellow or yellow arrow signal, unless otherwise directed by a (~~pedestrian control~~) pedestrian control signal as provided in RCW 46.61.060 as now or hereafter amended, are thereby advised that there is insufficient time to cross the roadway before a red indication is shown and no pedestrian shall then start to cross the roadway.

(3) Steady red indication

(a) Vehicular traffic facing a steady circular red signal alone shall stop at a clearly marked stop line, but if none, before entering the crosswalk on the near side of the intersection or, if none, then before entering the intersection and shall remain standing until (~~a green~~) an indication to proceed is shown: PROVIDED, That such traffic may, after stopping cautiously proceed to make a right turn from a one-way or two-way street into a two-way street or into a one-way street carrying traffic in the direction of the right turn; or a left turn from a one-way or two-way street into a one-way street carrying traffic in the direction of the left turn; unless a sign posted by competent authority prohibits such movement; but vehicular traffic making such turns shall yield the right of way to other vehicles and to pedestrians lawfully within the intersection or an adjacent crosswalk at the time such signal is exhibited.

(b) Unless otherwise directed by a (~~pedestrian-control~~) pedestrian control signal as provided in RCW 46.61.060 as now or hereafter amended, pedestrians facing a steady circular red signal alone shall not enter the roadway.

(c) Vehicular traffic facing a steady red arrow indication may not enter the intersection to make the movement indicated by such arrow, and unless entering the intersection to make such other movement as is permitted by other indications shown at the same time, shall stop at a clearly marked stop line, but if none, before entering a crosswalk on the near side of the intersection, or if none, then before entering the intersection and shall remain standing until an indication to make the movement indicated by such arrow is shown: PROVIDED, That such traffic may, after stopping cautiously proceed to make a right turn from a one-way or two-way street into a two-way street or into a one-way street carrying traffic in the direction of the right turn; or a left turn from a one-way street or two-way street into a one-way street carrying traffic in the direction of the left turn; unless a sign posted by competent authority prohibits such movement; but vehicular traffic making such turns shall yield the right of way to other vehicles and to pedestrians lawfully within the intersection or an adjacent crosswalk at the time such signal is exhibited.

(d) Unless otherwise directed by a pedestrian signal, pedestrians facing a steady red arrow signal indication shall not enter the roadway.

(4) In the event an official (~~traffic-control~~) traffic control signal is erected and maintained at a place other than an intersection, the provisions of this section shall be applicable except as to those provisions which by their nature can have no application. Any stop required shall be made at a sign or marking on the pavement indicating where the stop shall be made, but in the absence of any such sign or marking the stop shall be made at the signal.

Whenever special (~~pedestrian-control~~) pedestrian control signals exhibiting the words "Walk" or "Don't Walk" are in place such signals shall indicate as follows:

(1) WALK—Pedestrians facing such signal may proceed across the roadway in the direction of the signal and shall be given the right of way by the drivers of all vehicles.

(2) STEADY DON'T WALK or FLASHING DON'T WALK—No pedestrian shall start to cross the roadway in the direction of either such signal, but any pedestrian who has partially completed his crossing on the walk signal shall proceed to a sidewalk or safety island while the don't walk signal is showing.

(3) (~~Pedestrian-control~~) Pedestrian control signals having the "Wait" legend in use on August 6, 1965, shall be deemed authorized signals and shall indicate the same as the "Don't Walk" legend. Whenever such (~~pedestrian-control~~) pedestrian control signals are replaced the legend "Wait" shall be replaced by the legend "Don't Walk".

Sec. 21. Section 10, chapter 155, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.065 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever an illuminated flashing red or yellow signal is used in a traffic sign or signal it shall require obedience by vehicular traffic as follows:

(a) FLASHING RED (STOP SIGNAL). When a red lens is illuminated with rapid intermittent flashes, drivers of vehicles shall stop at a clearly marked stop line, but if none, before entering ((the nearest)) a marked crosswalk ((at an)) on the near side of the intersection ((or at a limit line when marked)), or, if none, then at the point nearest the intersecting roadway where the driver has a view of approaching traffic on the intersecting roadway before entering the intersection, and the right to proceed shall be subject to the rules applicable after making a stop at a stop sign.

(b) FLASHING YELLOW (CAUTION SIGNAL). When a yellow lens is illuminated with rapid intermittent flashes, drivers of vehicles may proceed through the intersection or past such signal only with caution.

(2) This section shall not apply at railroad grade crossings. Conduct of drivers of vehicles approaching railroad grade crossings shall be governed by the rules as set forth in RCW 46.61.340.

Sec. 22. Section 16, chapter 155, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.105 are each amended to read as follows:

Drivers of vehicles proceeding in opposite directions shall pass ~~((to the right of))~~ each other to the right, and upon roadways having width for not more than one line of traffic in each direction each driver shall give to the other at least one-half of the main-traveled portion of the roadway as nearly as possible.

(1) The driver of a vehicle may overtake and pass upon the right of another vehicle only under the following conditions:

(a) When the vehicle overtaken is making or about to make a left turn;

(b) Upon a ~~((street or highway))~~ roadway with unobstructed pavement ~~((not occupied by parked vehicles))~~ of sufficient width for two or more lines of ~~((moving))~~ vehicles ~~((in each))~~ moving lawfully in the direction~~((;))~~ being traveled by the overtaking vehicle.

~~((c) Upon a one-way street, or upon any roadway on which traffic is restricted to one direction of movement, where the roadway is free from obstructions and of sufficient width for two or more lines of moving vehicles.))~~

(2) The driver of a vehicle may overtake and pass another vehicle upon the right only under conditions permitting such movement in safety. ~~((in no event shall))~~ Such movement shall not be made by driving off the ~~((pavement or main-traveled portion of the))~~ roadway.

Sec. 24. Section 22, chapter 155, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.135 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The state highway commission ~~((may designate any state highway or any separate roadway under its jurisdiction and local authorities may designate any city street or county road under their respective jurisdictions for one-way traffic and shall erect appropriate signs giving notice thereof))~~ and local authorities with respect to highways under their respective jurisdictions may designate any highway, roadway, part of a roadway, or specific lanes upon which vehicular traffic shall proceed in one direction at all or such times as shall be indicated by official traffic control devices.

(2) Upon a roadway so designated ~~((and signposted))~~ for one-way traffic, a vehicle shall be driven only in the direction designated at all or such times as shall be indicated by official traffic control devices.

(3) A vehicle passing around a rotary traffic island shall be driven only to the right of such island.

Sec. 25. Section 27, chapter 155, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.160 are each amended to read as follows:

The state highway commission may by resolution or order, and local authorities may by ordinance or resolution, with respect to any limited access roadway under their respective jurisdictions prohibit the use of any such roadway by funeral processions, or by parades, pedestrians, bicycles or other nonmotorized traffic, or by any person operating a motor-driven cycle.

The state highway commission or the local authority adopting any such prohibitory regulation shall erect and maintain official ~~((signs))~~ traffic control devices on the limited access roadway on which such regulations are applicable and when so erected no person shall disobey the restrictions stated on such ~~((signs))~~ devices.

(1) When two vehicles approach or enter an intersection from different highways at approximately the same time, the driver of the vehicle on the left shall yield the right of way to the vehicle on the right.

(1) Preferential right of way ~~((at an intersection))~~ may be indicated by stop signs or yield signs as authorized in RCW 47.36.110.

(2) Except when directed to proceed by a duly authorized flagman, or a police officer, or ~~((traffic control signal))~~ a fire fighter vested by law with authority to direct, control, or regulate traffic, every driver of a vehicle approaching ~~((a stop intersection indicated by))~~ a stop sign shall stop ~~((as required by RCW 46.61.360 subsection (2)))~~ at a clearly marked stop line, but if none, before entering a marked crosswalk on the near side of the intersection or, if none, then at the point nearest the intersecting roadway where the driver has a view of approaching traffic on the intersecting roadway before entering the roadway, and after having stopped shall yield the right of way to any vehicle ~~((which has entered))~~ in the intersection ~~((from another highway))~~ or ~~((which is))~~ approaching on another roadway so closely ~~((on said highway))~~ as to constitute an immediate hazard during the time when such driver is moving across or within the intersection or junction of roadways.

(3) The driver of a vehicle approaching a yield sign shall in obedience to such sign slow down to a speed reasonable for the existing conditions and if required for safety to stop, shall stop at a clearly marked stop line, but if none, before entering a marked crosswalk on the near side of the intersection or if none, then at the point nearest the intersecting roadway where the driver has a view of approaching traffic on the intersecting roadway before entering the roadway, and then after slowing or stopping, the driver shall yield the right of way to any vehicle in the intersection or approaching on another ((highway)) roadway so closely as to constitute an immediate hazard during the time such driver is moving across or within the intersection or junction of roadways: PROVIDED, That if such a driver is involved in a collision with a vehicle in the intersection or junction of roadways, after driving past a yield sign without stopping, such collision shall be deemed prima facie evidence of his failure to yield right of way.

(a) The department of highways and local authorities in their respective jurisdictions may designate a two-way left turn lane on a roadway. A two-way left turn lane is near the center of the roadway set aside for use by vehicles making left turns in both directions from or into the roadway.

(b) Two-way left turn lanes shall be designated by distinctive uniform roadway markings. The department of highways shall determine and prescribe standards and specifications governing type, length, width, and positioning of the distinctive permanent markings. The standards and specifications developed shall be filed with the code reviser in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW. On and after July 1, 1971, permanent markings designating a two-way left turn lane shall conform to such standards and specifications.

movement, shall be made at least one hundred feet before the actual left turn movement is made. Any maneuver other than a left turn from or into this center lane will be deemed a violation of this section.

(4) The state highway commission and local authorities in their respective jurisdictions may cause official ~~((traffic-control))~~ traffic control devices to be placed ~~((within or adjacent to intersections))~~ and thereby require and direct that a different course from that specified in this section be traveled by turning vehicles ~~((turning at an intersection))~~, and when such devices are so placed no driver of a vehicle shall turn a vehicle ~~((at an intersection))~~ other than as directed and required by such devices.

(2) No vehicle shall be turned so as to proceed in the opposite direction upon any curve, or upon the approach to or near the crest of a grade, where such vehicle cannot be seen by the driver of any other vehicle approaching from either direction within five hundred feet ~~((within residence or business districts and within one thousand feet in all other locations))~~.

(1) No person shall turn a vehicle ~~((at an intersection unless the vehicle is in proper position upon the roadway as required in RCW 46.61.290, or turn a vehicle to enter a private road or driveway, or otherwise turn a vehicle from a direct course))~~ or move right or left upon a roadway unless and until such movement can be made with reasonable safety ~~((No person shall so turn any vehicle))~~ nor without giving an appropriate signal in the manner hereinafter provided.

(2) A signal of intention to turn or move right or left when required shall be given continuously during not less than the last one hundred feet traveled by the vehicle before turning.

(3) No person shall stop or suddenly decrease the speed of a vehicle without first giving an appropriate signal in the manner provided herein to the driver of any vehicle immediately to the rear when there is opportunity to give such signal.

(4) The signals provided for in RCW 46.61.310 subsection (2), ~~((shall be used to indicate an intention to turn, change lanes, or start from a parked position and))~~ shall not be flashed on one side only on a ~~((parked or))~~ disabled vehicle, ~~((or))~~ flashed as a courtesy or "do pass" signal to operators of other vehicles approaching from the rear, nor be flashed on one side only of a parked vehicle except as may be necessary for compliance with this section.

Sec. 31. Section 48, chapter 155, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as amended by section 7, chapter 100, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.350 are each amended as follows:

(1) The driver of any motor vehicle carrying passengers for hire, other than a passenger car, or of any school bus or private carrier bus carrying any school child, or other passenger, or of any vehicle carrying explosive substances or flammable liquids as a cargo or part of a cargo, before crossing at grade any track or tracks of a railroad, shall stop such vehicle within fifty feet but not less than fifteen feet from the nearest rail of such railroad and while so stopped shall listen and look in both directions along such track for any approaching train, and for signals indicating the approach of a train, except as hereinafter provided, and shall not proceed until he can do so safely. After stopping as required herein and upon proceeding when it is safe to do so the driver of any said vehicle shall cross only in such gear of the vehicle that there will be no necessity for changing gears while traversing such crossing and the driver shall not shift gears while crossing the track or tracks.

(2) ~~(No stop need be made at any such crossing where a police officer or a traffic control signal directs traffic to proceed)~~ This section shall not apply at:

(a) Any railroad grade crossing at which traffic is controlled by a police officer or a duly authorized flagman;

(b) Any railroad grade crossing at which traffic is regulated by a traffic control signal;

(c) Any railroad grade crossing protected by crossing gates or an alternately flashing light signal intended to give warning of the approach of a railroad train;

(d) Any railroad grade crossing at which an official traffic control device gives notice that the stopping requirement imposed by this section does not apply.

(1) No person shall operate or move any crawler-type tractor, steam shovel, derrick, roller, or any equipment or structure having a normal operating speed of ten or less miles per hour or a vertical body or load clearance of less than one-half inch per foot of the distance between any two adjacent axles or in any event of less than nine inches, measured above the level surface of a roadway, upon or across any tracks at a railroad grade crossing without first complying with this section.

(2) Notice of any such intended crossing shall be given to the station agent of such railroad located nearest the intended crossing sufficiently in advance to allow such railroad a reasonable time to prescribe proper protection for such crossing.

(3) Before making any such crossing the person operating or moving any such vehicle or equipment shall first stop the same not less than fifteen feet nor more than fifty feet from the nearest rail of such railroad and while so stopped shall listen and look in both directions along such track for any approaching train and for signals indicating the approach of a train, and shall not proceed until the crossing can be made safely.

~~((3))~~ (4) No such crossing shall be made when warning is given by automatic signal or crossing gates or a flagman or otherwise of the immediate approach of a railroad train or car. If a flagman is provided by the railroad, movement over the crossing shall be under his direction.

The governing body or authority of any such city or town or political subdivision shall place and maintain upon each and every ~~((public))~~ highway intersecting a ~~((public))~~ highway where an increased speed is permitted, as provided in this chapter, appropriate stop or yield signs, sufficient to be read at any time by any person upon approaching and entering the highway upon which such increased speed is permitted and such city street or such portion thereof as is subject to the increased speed shall be an arterial highway.

Sec. 34. Section 46.48.023, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 5, chapter 16, Laws of 1963 and RCW 46.61.440 are each amended to read as follows:

Subject to RCW 46.61.400(1), and except in those instances where a lower maximum lawful speed is provided by this chapter or otherwise, it shall be unlawful for the operator of any vehicle to operate the same at a speed in excess of twenty miles per hour when operating any vehicle upon a ~~((public))~~ highway either inside or outside an incorporated city or town when passing any marked ~~((public))~~ school or playground crosswalk when such marked crosswalk is fully posted with standard ~~((portable))~~ school ~~((or))~~ speed limit signs or standard playground speed ~~((control))~~ limit signs. The speed zone at the crosswalk shall extend three hundred feet in either direction from the marked crosswalk.

Sec. 35. Section 66, chapter 155, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.570 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except when necessary to avoid conflict with other traffic, or in compliance with law or the directions of a police officer or official traffic control device, no person shall:

(a) Stop, stand, or park a vehicle:

(i) On the roadway side of any vehicle stopped or parked at the edge or curb of a street;

(ii) On a sidewalk or street planting strip;

(iii) Within an intersection;

(vii) Upon any bridge or other elevated structure upon a highway or within a highway tunnel;

(viii) On any railroad tracks; ~~((or))~~

(x) At any place where official signs prohibit stopping.

(vi) At any place where official signs prohibit standing.

(c) Park a vehicle, whether occupied or not, except temporarily for the purpose of and while actually engaged in loading or unloading ~~((merchandise))~~ property or passengers:

(i) Within fifty feet of the nearest rail of a railroad crossing; or

[Engrossed Senate Bill No. 2082]

FIRE PROTECTION DISTRICTS— FIRST AID VEHICLE SERVICES—CHARGES

AN ACT Relating to fire districts; and adding new sections to chapter 52.36 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 52.36 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any fire protection district which provides first aid vehicle service pursuant to RCW 52.08.030, may pursuant to a resolution establish and collect reasonable charges for such services in order to reimburse the district for its costs of providing such services.

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 52.36 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any fire protection district which provides ambulance service pursuant to RCW 52.08.030, shall pursuant to a resolution establish and collect charges for such services in order to reimburse the district for all costs of providing such service: PROVIDED, That any fire protection district which provides ambulance service supported by an excess levy may waive such charges for service during such time that no private ambulance service operates in the district.

Passed the Senate March 12, 1975.

Passed the House March 10, 1975.

Approved by the Governor April 5, 1975 with the exception of section 2 which is vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 5, 1975.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith without my approval as to one section Senate Bill No. 2082 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to fire districts."

Section 2 of the bill mandates a fire district to set charges which would cover all costs of providing ambulance services. There is no question but that fire district commissioners should have the authority to set charges for such services in amounts as they deem appropriate. I believe, however, that such action should be taken at the discretion of the locally elected fire commissioners rather than being mandated by the legislature.

In addition, I am advised that there are districts which have acquired first aid vehicles from funds donated by their communities. On those occasions of clear emergency when the district's vehicle must transport a person to a hospital without waiting for a private ambulance operating in the area, the district would be required to charge what would effectively be a private ambulance rate to a person who may have donated funds toward purchase of the vehicle in the first place. This type of situation can easily be avoided by the use of permissive, rather than mandatory language in the legislation.

With the exception of section 2, which I have vetoed for the reasons herein stated, the remainder of Senate Bill No. 2082 is approved."

Proof of such filing with the United States secretary of agriculture shall be by filing a certified copy of such bond with the department)).~~

Sec. 23. Section 9, chapter 124, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 2, chapter 132, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 22.09.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Before any person shall be granted a license pursuant to the provisions of this chapter such person shall give a bond to the state of Washington executed by the warehouseman as principal and by a corporate surety licensed to do business in this state as surety. The bond shall be in the sum of not less than ~~((ten))~~ twenty-five thousand dollars nor more than ~~((two))~~ five hundred thousand dollars. The department shall, after holding a public hearing, determine the amount of the bond which shall be computed at a rate of not less than ~~((ten))~~ fifteen cents nor more than ~~((twenty-five))~~ thirty cents per bushel multiplied by the number of bushels of licensed commodity storage capacity of the warehouses of the licensee furnishing the bond, or at the rate of not less than six percent nor more than twelve percent of the gross sales of agricultural commodities of such licensee, whichever is greater. ~~((The department shall, in determining the rate per bushel in fixing the amount of the bond, take into consideration the bonding requirements of the United States Warehouse Act (7 USCA § 241 et seq.);))~~

(2) The bond shall be approved by the department and shall be conditioned upon the faithful performance by the warehouseman of the duty to keep in the warehouse for the depositor the commodity delivered, and to deliver the commodity to, or ship it for, such depositor, and such additional obligations, including merchandising, as a warehouseman may assume with the respective depositors ~~((of commodities in such warehouse))~~ as defined in RCW 22.09.010(9) as now or hereafter amended. In case a person has applied for licenses to conduct two or more warehouses in the state, the assets applicable to all warehouses, but not the deposits except in case of a station, shall be subject to the liabilities of each. The total and aggregate liability of the surety for all claims upon such bond shall be limited to the amount specified in the bond.

(3) The warehouseman may give a single bond meeting the requirements of this chapter, and all warehouses operated by the warehouseman shall be deemed as one warehouse for the purpose of the bond required under such section. Any change in the capacity of a warehouse or installation of any new warehouse involving a change in bond liability under this chapter shall be immediately reported to the department prior to the operation thereof.

~~(4) (If a bond has been filed with, and approved by, the department of agriculture of the United States, as required by the United States Warehouse Act (7 USCA § 241 et seq.), then such bond shall be considered as in lieu of the bond required by this section only when:~~

~~(a) Satisfactory proof of the filing and approval of the bond is filed with the department;~~

~~(b) The surety is a corporation authorized to do business as a surety in this state.~~

~~(5) The department may when the sum of such surety bond is less than that required in this chapter accept in addition thereto a surety bond whose sum when added to the sum of the surety bond filed with the United States department of agriculture shall satisfy the requirement of this chapter.~~

~~(6))~~ Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, the license of a warehouseman shall automatically be suspended in accordance with the provisions of RCW 22.09.100 for failure at any time to have or to maintain a bond in the amount and type required herein. The department shall remove the suspension or issue a license as the case may be, when the required bond has been obtained.

~~((7))~~ (5) Any warehouseman required to submit a bond to the department pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall have the option to file a policy of insurance with the department in lieu of the warehouseman's bond. Such insurance policy, before being accepted, shall be approved by the attorney general and the insurance commissioner of the state of Washington if they deem the coverage provided thereby is equivalent to or greater than the coverage for depositors provided by the warehouseman's bond. If such an insurance policy is accepted in place of the bond, such insurance policy, as between the department, warehouseman, and the depositors, shall be treated exactly the same as if it were a bond filed with the department. It is the intention of the legislature in this subsection to have the insurance policy replace the bond, as between the department, warehouseman, and the depositors, for all purposes as though the term bond used throughout the several sections of this chapter were to contain instead the term insurance policy.

Sec. 24. Section 18, chapter 124, Laws of 1963 and RCW 22.09.180 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ((A licensee operating another business in conjunction with, or in proximity to, his warehouse shall keep a complete set of records for all commodities stored. The warehouseman shall maintain current and complete records at all times with respect to all agricultural commodities handled, stored, shipped, or merchandised by him, including commodities owned by him. Such records shall include, but not be limited to, a daily position record showing the total quantity of each kind and class of agricultural commodity received and loaded out and the amount remaining in storage at the close of each business day, and the warehouseman's total storage obligation for each kind and class of agricultural commodity at the close of each business day.

(2) No warehouse receipt issued by any warehouseman as defined in this chapter and no negotiation, transfer, or pledge of any such receipt shall be defeated by reason of the fact that the goods covered by the receipt were owned, in whole or in part, by the warehouseman at the time the receipt was issued.

(3) Every warehouseman purchasing any agricultural commodity from a depositor thereof shall promptly make and keep for one year a correct record showing in detail the following:

(a) The name and address of the depositor;

(b) The date purchased;

(c) The terms of the sale; and

(d) The quality and quantity purchased by the warehouseman, and where applicable the dockage, tare, grade, size, net weight, or quantity.

But if, after such article has been so embargoed, the director shall find that such article does not involve a violation of this chapter, such embargo shall be forthwith removed.

(1) Any poisonous or deleterious pesticide chemical, or any pesticide chemical which generally is recognized among experts qualified by scientific training and experience to evaluate the safety of pesticide chemicals as unsafe for use, added to a raw agricultural commodity, shall be deemed unsafe for the purpose of the application of clause (2) of RCW 69.04.210 unless:

(a) A tolerance for such pesticide chemical in or on the raw agricultural commodity has been prescribed pursuant to subsection (2) hereof and the quantity of such pesticide chemical in or on the raw agricultural commodity is within the limits of the tolerance so prescribed; or

(b) With respect to use in or on such raw agricultural commodity, the pesticide chemical has been exempted from the requirement of a tolerance pursuant to subsection (2) hereof.

While a tolerance or exemption from tolerance is in effect for a pesticide chemical with respect to any raw agricultural commodity, such raw agricultural commodity shall not, by reason of bearing or containing any added amount of such pesticide chemical, be considered to be adulterated within the meaning of clause (1) of RCW 69.04.210.

(2) The regulations promulgated under section 408 of the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act, as of ~~((the effective date of this amendatory act))~~ July 1, 1975, setting forth the tolerances for pesticide chemicals in or on any raw agricultural commodity, are hereby adopted as the regulations for tolerances applicable to this chapter: PROVIDED, That the director is hereby authorized to adopt by regulation any new or future amendments to such federal regulations for tolerances, including exemption from tolerance and zero tolerances, to the extent necessary to protect the public health. The director is also authorized to issue regulations in the absence of federal regulations and to prescribe therein tolerances for pesticides, exemptions, and zero tolerances, upon his own motion or upon the petition of any interested party requesting that such a regulation be established. It shall be incumbent upon such petitioner to establish, by data submitted to the director, that a necessity exists for such regulation and that the effect of such regulation will not be detrimental to the public health. If the data furnished by the petitioner is not sufficient to allow the director to determine whether such a regulation should be promulgated, the director may require additional data to be submitted and failure to comply with this request shall be sufficient grounds to deny the request of the petitioner for the issuance of such regulation.

(3) In adopting any new or amended tolerances by regulation issued pursuant to this section, the director shall give appropriate consideration, among other relevant factors, to the following: (a) The purpose of this chapter being to promote uniformity of state legislation with the federal act; (b) the necessity for the production of an adequate, wholesome, and economical food supply; (c) the other ways in which the consumer may be affected by the same pesticide chemical or by other related substances that are poisonous or deleterious; and (d) the opinion of experts qualified by scientific training and experience to determine the proper tolerance to be allowed for any pesticide chemical.

Sec. 27. Section 4, chapter 198, Laws of 1963 and RCW 69.04.394 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A food additive shall, with respect to any particular use or intended use of such additives, be deemed unsafe for the purpose of the application of clause (2)(c) of RCW 69.04.210, unless:

(a) It and its use or intended use conform to the terms of an exemption granted, pursuant to a regulation under subsection (2) hereof providing for the exemption from the requirements of this section for any food additive, and any food bearing or containing such additive, intended solely for investigational use by qualified experts when in the director's opinion such exemption is consistent with the public health; or

(b) There is in effect, and it and its use or intended use are in conformity with a regulation issued or effective under subsection (2) hereof prescribing the conditions under which such additive may be safely used.

While such a regulation relating to a food additive is in effect, a food shall not, by reason of bearing or containing such an additive in accordance with the regulation, be considered adulterated within the meaning of clause (1) of RCW 69.04.210.

(2) The regulations promulgated under section 409 of the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act, as of ~~((the effective date of this amendatory act))~~ July 1, 1975, prescribing the conditions under which such food additive may be safely used, are hereby adopted as the regulations applicable to this chapter: PROVIDED, That the director is hereby authorized to adopt by regulation any new or future amendments to the federal regulations. The director is also authorized to issue regulations in the absence of federal regulations and to prescribe the conditions under which a food additive may be safely used and exemptions where such food additive is to be used solely for investigational purposes; either upon his own motion or upon the petition of any interested party requesting that such a regulation be established. It shall be incumbent upon such petitioner to establish, by data submitted to the director, that a necessity exists for such regulation and that the effect of such a regulation will not be detrimental to the public health. If the data furnished by the petitioner is not sufficient to allow the director to determine whether such a regulation should be promulgated, the director may require additional data to be submitted and failure to comply with this request shall be sufficient grounds to deny the request of the petitioner for the issuance of such a regulation.

(3) In adopting any new or amended regulations pursuant to this section, the director shall give appropriate consideration, among other relevant factors, to the following: (a) The purpose of this chapter being to promote uniformity of state legislation with the federal act; (b) the probable consumption of the additive and of any substance formed in or on food because of the use of the additive; (c) the cumulative effect of such additive in the diet of man or animals, taking into account any chemically or pharmacologically related substance or substances in such diet; and (d) safety factors which in the opinion of experts qualified by scientific training and experience to evaluate the safety of food additives are generally recognized as appropriate for the use of animal experimentation data.

Sec. 28. Section 6, chapter 198, Laws of 1963 and RCW 69.04.396 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A color additive shall, with respect to any particular use (for which it is being used or intended to be used or is represented as suitable) in or on food, be deemed unsafe for the purpose of the application of RCW 69.04.231, unless:

(a) There is in effect, and such color additive and such use are in conformity with, a regulation issued under this section listing such additive for such use, including any provision of such regulation prescribing the conditions under which such additive may be safely used;

(b) Such additive and such use thereof conform to the terms of an exemption for experimental use which is in effect pursuant to regulation under this section.

While there are in effect regulations under this section relating to a color additive or an exemption with respect to such additive a food shall not, by reason of bearing or containing such additive in all respects in accordance with such regulations or such exemption, be considered adulterated within the meaning of clause (1) of RCW 69.04.210.

(2) The regulations promulgated under section 706 of the Federal Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act, as of ~~((the effective date of this amendatory act))~~ July 1, 1975, prescribing the use or limited use of such color additive, are hereby adopted as the regulations applicable to this chapter: PROVIDED, That the director is hereby authorized to adopt by regulation any new or future amendments to the federal regulations. The director is also authorized to issue regulations in the absence of federal regulations and to prescribe therein the conditions under which a color additive may be safely used including exemptions for experimental purposes. Such a regulation may be issued either upon the director's own motion or upon the petition of any interested party requesting that such a regulation be established. It shall be incumbent upon such petitioner to establish, by data submitted to the director, that a necessity exists for such regulation and that the effect of such a regulation will not be detrimental to the public health. If the data furnished by the petitioner is not sufficient to allow the director to determine whether such a regulation should be promulgated, the director may require additional data to be submitted and failure to comply with this request shall be sufficient grounds to deny the request of the petitioner for the issuance of such a regulation.

(3) In adopting any new or amended regulations pursuant to this section, the director shall give appropriate consideration, among other relevant factors, to the following: (a) The purpose of this chapter being to promote uniformity of state legislation with the federal act; (b) the probable consumption of, or other relevant exposure from, the additive and of any substance formed in or on food because of the use of the additive; (c) the cumulative effect, if any, of such additive in the diet of man or animals, taking into account the same or any chemically or pharmacologically related substance or substances in such diet; (d) safety factors which, in the opinion of experts qualified by scientific training and experience to evaluate the safety of color additives for the use or uses for which the additive is proposed to be listed, are generally recognized as appropriate for the use of animal experimentation data; (e) the availability of any needed practicable methods of analysis for determining the identity and quantity of (i) the pure dye and all intermediates and other impurities contained in such color additives, (ii) such additive in or on any article of food, and (iii) any substance formed in or on such article because of the use of such additive; and (f) the conformity by the manufacturer with the established standards in the industry relating to the proper formation of such color additive so as to result in a finished product safe for use as a color additive.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. The director or any depositor of any agricultural commodity may bring action upon said bond against both principal and surety in any court of competent jurisdiction to recover the damages caused by any failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter or the rules and regulations adopted hereunder.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. If a depositor creditor after notification fails, refuses or neglects to file in the office of the director his verified claim as requested by the director within sixty days from the date of such request, the director shall thereupon be relieved of further duty or action hereunder on behalf of said depositor creditor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. Where by reason of the absence of records, or other circumstances making it impossible or unreasonable for the director to ascertain the names and addresses of all said depositor creditors, the director after exerting due diligence and making reasonable inquiry to secure said information from all reasonable and available sources, may make demand on said bond on the basis of information then in his possession, and thereafter shall not be liable or responsible for claims or the handling of claims which may subsequently appear or be discovered.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. Upon ascertaining all claims and statements in the manner herein set forth, the director may then make demand upon the bond on behalf of those claimants whose statements have been filed, and shall have the power to settle or compromise said claims with the surety company on the bond, and is empowered in such cases to execute and deliver a release and discharge of the bond involved.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. Upon the refusal of the surety company to pay the demand the director may thereupon bring an action on the bond in behalf of said depositor creditors. Upon any action being commenced on said bond the director may require the filing of a new bond and immediately upon the recovery in any action on such bond such warehouseman shall file a new bond and upon failure to file the same within ten days in either case such failure shall constitute grounds for the suspension or revocation of his license.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 34. Every warehouseman must pay for agricultural commodities purchased by him at the time and in the manner specified in the contract with the depositor, but if no time is set by such contract, then within thirty days after taking possession for purpose of sale or taking title of such agricultural product.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. When a violation has occurred which results in improper payment or nonpayment and a claim is made to the department and the payment is secured through the actions of the department the following charges will be made to the depositor for the action of the department in the matter:

- (1) When reported within thirty days from time of default, no charge.
- (2) When reported thirty days to one hundred eighty days from time of default, five percent.
- (3) When reported after one hundred eighty days from time of default, ten percent.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. There is added to chapter 69.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In accord with such declared purpose any regulation adopted under said federal food, drug and cosmetic act concerning food in effect on July 1, 1975, and not adopted under any other specific provision of sections 25, 26, 27, and 28 of this 1975 amendatory act are hereby deemed to have been adopted under the provision hereof. Further, to promote such uniformity any regulation adopted hereafter under the provisions of the federal food, drug and cosmetic act concerning food and published in the federal register shall be deemed to have been adopted under the provisions of sections 25, 26, 27, and 28 of this 1975 amendatory act in accord with chapter 34.04 RCW as enacted or hereafter amended. The director may, however, within thirty days of the publication of the adoption of any such regulation under the federal food, drug and cosmetic act give public notice that a hearing will be held to determine if such regulation shall not be applicable under the provisions of sections 25, 26, 27, and 28 of this 1975 amendatory act. Such hearing shall be in accord with the requirements of chapter 34.04 RCW as enacted or hereafter amended.

Passed the Senate April 4, 1975.

Passed the House April 3, 1975.

Approved by the Governor April 11, 1975, with the exception of section 42 which is vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 12, 1975.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith without my approval as to one section Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2150 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to agriculture."

The bill makes a number of changes of a housekeeping nature to various sections in the Revised Code of Washington relating to agriculture.

Section 42 sets an effective date for the act of July 1, 1975. Without such a designated date, the act would go into effect ninety days after the adjournment of the present extraordinary session of the Legislature. Since the Legislature has not adjourned, the effect of the July 1, 1975 date is to cut short the ninety-day period during which the people have the right pursuant to Article II, section 1(d) of our Constitution, to subject the measure to referendum. I have serious reservations about the constitutionality of an effective date of this kind, inasmuch as the Constitution provides that an act shall not be subject to referendum if it is necessary for the "immediate preservation of the public peace, health or safety, support of the state government and its existing public institutions." See Article II, section 1(b). This bill does not measure up to that standard of urgency.

With the exception of section 42, which I have vetoed for the foregoing reasons, the remainder of the bill is approved."

[Senate Bill No. 2021]

LOCAL GOVERNMENTS—BUILDING CODE FEES

AN ACT Relating to local government; adding a new section to chapter 96, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and to chapter 19.27 RCW; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 96, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and to chapter 19.27 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Nothing in this chapter shall prohibit a city, town, or county of the state from imposing fees different from those set forth in the state building code.

Passed the Senate March 14, 1975.

Passed the House April 8, 1975.

Approved by the Governor April 14, 1975, with the exception of section 2 which is vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 15, 1975.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith without my approval as to one section Senate Bill No. 2021 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to local government."

This bill allows cities, towns, and counties to set fees at variance with those prescribed in the state building code enacted in 1974.

Section 2 declares an emergency and provides for the act to take effect immediately. I have on several occasions in past sessions, including the recently adjourned regular session of the 44th Legislature, vetoed emergency clauses from bills that did not measure up to the standard of urgency contained in Article II, section 1(b) of our Constitution. I must again raise the same objection in the case of this bill.

I am increasingly apprehensive that repeated use on unwarranted occasions will render emergency clauses meaningless in the eyes of both the people and the courts.

With the exception of section 2 which I have vetoed, the remainder of Senate Bill No. 2021 is approved."

The county auditor shall keep a record of the excise taxes paid hereunder during the calendar year (~~under the name of owners of travel trailers or campers, listed alphabetically~~).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. If any excise tax due hereunder is not paid when due and payable, the unpaid tax shall bear interest at the rate of six percent per annum from the time such tax is due and payable: PROVIDED, That the interest charge on the unpaid excise tax shall be waived when such interest is less than five dollars: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, The director may waive the interest on the unpaid excise tax when the interest exceeds five dollars and the department of motor vehicles determines that the cost of processing the collection of the interest exceeds the amount of interest due.

The tax hereunder shall be a specific lien on the travel trailer or camper from and after the date it first becomes due hereunder, and shall include all charges authorized by this chapter, which lien shall have priority to and be fully paid and satisfied before any recognizance, mortgage, judgment, debt, obligation or responsibility to or with which the travel trailer or camper may become charged or liable, after July 1, 1975, and no sale or transfer of any travel trailer or camper shall in any way affect the lien for such excise tax upon the travel trailer or camper.

Section 1. Section 1, chapter 113, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 17.10.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context, the following words and phrases as hereinafter used in this chapter shall have the following meanings:

(5) "Agent" means any occupant or any other person acting for the owner and working or in charge of the land.

(6) "Agricultural purposes" are those which are intended to provide for the growth and harvest of food and fiber.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 113, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 17.10.040 are each amended to read as follows:

An inactive county noxious weed control board may be activated by any one of the following methods:

(1) Either ~~((upon))~~ within sixty days after a petition is filed by one hundred landowners each owning one acre or more of land within the county or, on its own motion, the ~~((board of))~~ county ~~((commissioners))~~ legislative authority shall hold a hearing to determine whether there is a need, due to a damaging infestation of noxious weeds, to activate the county noxious weed control board. If such a need is found to exist, then the ~~((board of))~~ county ~~((commissioners))~~ legislative authority shall, in the manner provided by RCW 17.10.050, appoint five persons to hold seats on the county's noxious weed control board.

(2) If the county's noxious weed control board is not activated within one year following a hearing by the ~~((board of))~~ county ~~((commissioners))~~ legislative authority to determine the need for activation, then upon the filing with the state noxious weed control board of a petition comprised either of the signatures of at least two hundred owners, each owning one acre of land or more within the county, or of the signatures of a majority of an adjacent county's noxious weed control board, the state board shall, within six months of the date of such filing, hold a hearing in the county to determine the need for activation. If a need for activation is found to exist, then the state board shall order the ~~((board of))~~ county ~~((commissioners))~~ legislative authority to activate the county's noxious weed control board and to appoint members to such board in the manner provided by RCW 17.10.050.

Sec. 3. Section 5, chapter 113, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 143, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 17.10.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each activated county noxious weed control board shall consist of five voting members who shall, at the board's inception, be appointed by the ~~((board of))~~ county ~~((commissioners))~~ legislative authority and elected thereafter by the property owners subject to the board. In appointing such voting members, the ~~((board of))~~ county ~~((commissioners))~~ legislative authority shall divide the county into five sections, none of which shall overlap and each of which shall be of the same approximate area, and shall appoint a voting member from each section. At least four of such voting members shall be engaged in the primary production of agricultural products. There shall be one nonvoting member on such board who shall be the chief county extension agent or ~~((a county))~~ an extension agent appointed by the chief county extension agent. Each voting member of the board shall serve a term of two years, except that the ~~((board of))~~ county ~~((commissioners))~~ legislative authority shall, when a board is first activated under this chapter, designate two voting members to serve terms of one year. The board members shall not receive a salary but shall be compensated for actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties.

(2) The elected members of the board shall represent the same districts designated by the county ~~((commissioners))~~ legislative authority in appointing members to the board at its inception. Members of the board shall be elected at least thirty days prior to the expiration of any board member's term of office.

The nomination and election of elected board members shall be conducted by the board at a public meeting held in the section where board memberships are about to expire. Elections at such meetings shall be by secret ballot, cast by the landowners residing in the section where an election for a board member is being conducted. The nominee receiving the majority of votes cast shall be deemed elected, and if there is only one nomination, said nominee shall be deemed elected unanimously.

Notice of such nomination and election meeting shall be mailed to all affected landowners thirty days prior to such meeting. Notice shall be published at least twice in a weekly or daily newspaper of general circulation in said section: PROVIDED, That mailed notice shall not be required if assessments provided for in ~~((section 4 of this 1974 amendatory act))~~ RCW 17.10.240 as now or hereafter amended are not invoked.

(3) Within thirty days after all the members have been appointed, the board shall conduct its first meeting. A majority of the voting members of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and shall be necessary for any action taken by the board. The board shall elect from its members a chairman and such other officers as may be necessary.

(4) In case of a vacancy occurring in any elected position on a county noxious weed control board, the county ~~((commissioners))~~ legislative authority of the county in which such board is located shall appoint a qualified person to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term.

Sec. 4. Section 7, chapter 113, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 17.10.070 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to the powers conferred on the state noxious weed control board under other provisions of this chapter, it shall have power to:

(2) Employ a state weed supervisor who shall act as executive secretary of the board and who shall disseminate information relating to noxious weeds to county noxious weed control boards and who shall work to coordinate the efforts of the various county and regional noxious weed control boards;

(3) Do such things as may be necessary and incidental to the administration of its functions pursuant to this chapter.

Sec. 5. Section 8, chapter 113, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 17.10.080 are each amended to read as follows:

The state noxious weed control board shall each year or more often, following a hearing, adopt a list comprising the names of those plants which it finds to be injurious to crops, livestock or other property. At such hearing any county noxious weed control board may request the inclusion of any plant to the list to be adopted by the state board.

Such list when adopted shall be designated as the "proposed noxious weed list", and the state board shall send a copy of the same to each activated county noxious weed control board, to each regional noxious weed control board, and to the ~~((board of))~~ county ~~((commissioners))~~ legislative authority of each county with an inactive noxious weed control board.

Sec. 6. Section 11, chapter 113, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 17.10.110 are each amended to read as follows:

A regional noxious weed control board comprising the area of two or more counties may be created as follows:

Either each ~~((board of))~~ county ~~((commissioners))~~ legislative authority or each noxious weed control board of two or more counties may, upon a determination that the purpose of this chapter will be served by the creation of a regional noxious weed control board, adopt a resolution providing for a limited merger of the functions of their respective counties noxious weed control boards. Such resolution shall become effective only when a similar resolution is adopted by the other county or counties comprising the proposed regional board.

Sec. 7. Section 15, chapter 113, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 143, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 17.10.150 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The ~~((board of))~~ county ~~((commissioners))~~ noxious weed control board in each county may classify lands for the purposes of this chapter. In regard to any land which is classified by the county noxious weed control board as not being used for agricultural purposes, the owner thereof shall have the following limited duty to control noxious weeds present on such land:

(a) The owner shall control and prevent the spread of noxious weeds on any portion of such land which is within the buffer strip around land used for agricultural purposes. ~~((For lands east of the crest of the Cascade mountain range;))~~ The buffer strip shall be land which is within ~~((two hundred))~~ one thousand feet of land used for agricultural purposes. ~~((For lands west of the crest of the Cascade mountain range, the buffer strip shall be land which is within one thousand feet of land used for agricultural purposes;))~~

(b) In any case of a serious infestation of a particular noxious weed, which infestation exists within the buffer strip of land described in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of this section, and which extends beyond said buffer strip of land, the county noxious weed control board may require that the owner of such buffer strip of land take such measures, both within said buffer zone of land as well as on other land owned by said owner contiguous to said buffer strip of land on which such serious infestation has spread, as are necessary to control and prevent the spread of such particular noxious weed.

For purposes of this subsection, land shall not be classified as or considered as being used for agricultural purposes when the sole reason for classifying or considering it as such is that it is being used for the growing, planting or harvesting of trees for timber.

(2) In regard to any land which is classified by the county noxious weed control board as scab or range land, the board may limit the duty of the owner thereof to control noxious weeds present on such land. The board may share the cost of controlling such weeds, may provide for a buffer strip around the perimeter of such land or may take any other reasonable measures to control noxious weeds on such land at an equitable cost to the owner. The board shall classify as range or scab land all that land within the county for which the board finds ~~((to be of a relatively low value per acre, and on which))~~ that the cost of controlling all of the noxious weeds present would be disproportionately high when compared to the ~~((value per acre of))~~ benefits derived from noxious weed control on such land.

Sec. 8. Section 17, chapter 113, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 143, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 17.10.170 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever the county noxious weed control board finds that noxious weeds are present on any parcel of land, and that the owner thereof is not taking prompt and sufficient action to control the same, pursuant to the provisions of RCW 17.10.140, it shall notify such owner that a violation of this chapter exists. Such notice shall be in writing, identify the noxious weeds found to be present, order prompt control action, and specify the time within which the prescribed action must be taken.

(2) If the owner does not take action to control the noxious weeds in accordance with the notice, the county board (~~shall~~) may control them, or cause their being controlled, at the expense of the owner. The amount of such expense shall constitute a lien against the property and may be enforced by proceedings on such lien except as provided for by RCW 79.44.060. The owner shall be liable for payment of the expense, and nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prevent collection of any judgment on account thereof by any means available pursuant to law, in substitution for enforcement of the lien. Funds received in payment for the expense of controlling noxious weeds shall be transferred to the county noxious weed control board to be expended as required to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

(3) The county auditor shall record in his office any lien created under this (~~section~~) chapter, and any such lien shall bear interest at the rate of eight percent per annum from the date on which the county noxious weed control board approves the amount expended in controlling such weeds.

(4) As an alternative to the enforcement of any lien created under subsection (2) of this section, the (~~board of~~) county (~~commissioners~~) legislative authority may by resolution or ordinance require that each such lien created shall be collected by the treasurer in the same manner as a delinquent real property tax, if within thirty days from the date the owner is sent notice of the lien, including the amount thereof, the lien remains unpaid and an appeal has not been made pursuant to RCW 17.10.180. Liens treated as delinquent taxes shall bear interest at the same rate as delinquent real property taxes and such interest shall accrue as of the date notice of the lien is sent to the owner: PROVIDED, That any collections for such lien shall not be considered as tax.

Sec. 9. Section 19, chapter 113, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 17.10.190 are each amended to read as follows:

Each activated county noxious weed control board shall cause to be published in at least one newspaper of general circulation within its area a general notice during the month of March and at such other times as may be appropriate. Such notice shall direct attention to the need for noxious weed control and shall give such other information with respect thereto as may be appropriate, or shall indicate where such information may be secured. In addition to the general notice required hereby, the county noxious weed control board may use (~~such~~) any appropriate media for the dissemination of information to the public as may be calculated to bring the need for noxious weed control to the attention of owners. The board may consult with individual owners concerning their problems of noxious weed control and may provide them with information and advice, including giving specific instructions and methods when and how certain named weeds are to be controlled. Such methods may include definite systems of tillage, cropping, management, and use of livestock. Publication of a notice as required by this section shall not be a condition precedent to the enforcement of this chapter.

Sec. 10. Section 24, chapter 113, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 17.10.240 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The activated county weed control boards of each county shall annually submit a budget to the ~~((board of))~~ county ~~((commissioners))~~ legislative authority for the operating cost of the county's weed program for the ensuing fiscal year. The ~~((board of))~~ county ~~((commissioners))~~ legislative authority may, in lieu of a tax, levy an assessment against the land for this purpose. Prior to the levying of an assessment the county weed control board shall hold a public hearing at which it shall gather information to serve as a basis for classification and shall then classify the lands into suitable classifications~~((, and assess))~~. The board shall develop and forward to the county legislative authority, as a proposed level of assessment for each class, such an amount as shall seem just, but which shall be uniform per acre in its respective class: PROVIDED, That if no special benefits should be found to accrue to a class of land, a zero assessment may be levied. The legislative authority, upon receipt of the proposed levels of assessment from the board, after a hearing, shall accept, modify, or refer back to the board for their reconsideration all or any portion of the proposed levels of assessment. The findings by the ~~((board))~~ county legislative authority of such special benefits, when so declared by resolution and spread upon the minutes of ~~((the board))~~ said authority shall be conclusive ~~((that))~~ as to whether or not the same ~~((is of))~~ constitutes a special benefit to the lands within the district.

(2) In addition, the ~~((board of))~~ county ~~((commissioners))~~ legislative authority may appropriate money from the county general fund necessary for the administration of the county noxious weed control program. In addition the ~~((board of))~~ county ~~((commissioners))~~ legislative authority may make emergency appropriations as it deems necessary for the implementation of this chapter.

(3) Neither the legislative authority of a county nor the county weed control board activated in a county shall expend money from the county general fund or assessments levied for the operation of such activated county weed control board on any lands within the boundaries of any Indian reservation unless the tribal council of such reservation contracts with the legislative authority of the county and its activated weed control board to carry out its program on such reservation lands: PROVIDED, That the fees charged any Indian reservation for services rendered by the weed control board in controlling weeds on Indian reservation lands shall be no less than the fees assessed land owners of similar lands within the county jurisdiction of such activated weed control board.

Sec. 11. Section 25, chapter 113, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 17.10.250 are each amended to read as follows:

Sec. 12. Section 26, chapter 113, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 17.10.900 are each amended to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 17.10 RCW a new section to read as follows:

No lien created by section 13 of this 1975 amendatory act shall exist, and no action to enforce the same shall be maintained, unless within ninety days from the date of cessation of the performance of such labor, furnishing of materials, or the supplying of such equipment, a claim for such lien shall be filed for record as hereinafter provided, in the office of the county auditor of the county in which the property, or some part thereof to be affected thereby, is situated. Such claim shall state, as nearly as may be, the time of the commencement and cessation of performing the labor, furnishing the material, or supplying the equipment, the name of the county noxious weed control board which performed the labor, furnished the material, or supplied the equipment, a description of the property to be charged with the lien sufficient for identification, the name of the owner, or reputed owner if known, or his agent, and if the owner is not known, that fact shall be mentioned, the amount for which the lien is claimed, and shall be signed by the county noxious weed control board, and be verified by the oath of the county noxious weed control board, to the effect that the affiant believes that claim to be just; and such claim of lien may be amended in case of action brought to foreclose the same, by order of the court, as pleadings may be, insofar as the interest of third parties shall not be affected by such amendment. A claim or lien substantially in the same form provided by RCW 60.04.060 and not in conflict with this section shall be sufficient.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. There is added to chapter 17.10 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The purpose of this chapter is to limit economic loss due to the presence and spread of noxious weeds on or near agricultural land.

The intent of the legislature is that this chapter be liberally construed, and that the jurisdiction, powers, and duties granted to the county noxious weed control boards by this chapter are limited only by specific provisions of this chapter or other state and federal law.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 9.79 RCW a new section to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Sexual intercourse" (a) has its ordinary meaning and occurs upon any penetration, however slight, and

(b) Also means any penetration of the vagina or anus however slight, by an object, when committed on one person by another, whether such persons are of the same or opposite sex, except when such penetration is accomplished for medically recognized treatment or diagnostic purposes, and

(c) Also means any act of sexual contact between persons involving the sex organs of one person and the mouth or anus of another whether such persons are of the same or opposite sex.

(2) "Married" means one who is legally married to another.

(3) "Mental incapacity" is that condition existing at the time of the offense which prevents a person from understanding the nature or consequences of the act of sexual intercourse whether that condition is produced by illness, defect, the influence of a substance or from some other cause;

(4) "Physically helpless" means a person who is unconscious or for any other reason is physically unable to communicate unwillingness to an act;

(5) "Forcible compulsion" means physical force which overcomes resistance, or a threat, express or implied, that places a person in fear of death or physical injury to herself or himself or another person, or in fear that she or he or another person will be kidnaped;

(6) "Consent" means that at the time of the act of sexual intercourse there are actual words or conduct indicating freely given agreement to have sexual intercourse.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 9.79 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) In order to convict a person of any crime defined in this chapter it shall not be necessary that the testimony of the alleged victim be corroborated.

(2) Evidence of the victim's past sexual behavior including but not limited to the victim's marital history, divorce history, or general reputation for promiscuity, non-chastity, or sexual mores contrary to community standards is inadmissible on the issue of credibility and is inadmissible to prove the victim's consent except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, but when the perpetrator and the victim have engaged in sexual intercourse with each other in the past, and when the past behavior is material to the issue of consent, evidence concerning the past behavior between the perpetrator and the victim may be admissible on the issue of consent to the offense.

(3) In any prosecution for the crime of rape or for an attempt to commit, or an assault with an intent to commit any such crime evidence of the victim's past sexual behavior including but not limited to the victim's marital behavior, divorce history, or general reputation for promiscuity, non-chastity, or sexual mores contrary to community standards is not admissible if offered to attack the credibility of the victim and is admissible on the issue of consent only pursuant to the following procedure:

(a) A written pre-trial motion shall be made by the defendant to the court and prosecutor stating that the defense has an offer of proof of the relevancy of evidence of the past sexual behavior of the victim proposed to be presented and its relevancy on the issue of the consent of the victim.

(b) The written motion shall be accompanied by an affidavit or affidavits in which the offer of proof shall be stated.

(c) If the court finds that the offer of proof is sufficient, the court shall order a hearing out of the presence of the jury, if any, and the hearing shall be closed except to the necessary witnesses, the defendant, counsel, and those who have a direct interest in the case or in the work of the court.

(d) At the conclusion of the hearing, if the court finds that the evidence proposed to be offered by the defendant regarding the past sexual behavior of the victim is relevant to the issue of the victim's consent; is not inadmissible because its probative value is substantially outweighed by the probability that its admission will create a substantial danger of undue prejudice; and that its exclusion would result in denial of substantial justice to the defendant; the court shall make an order stating what evidence may be introduced by the defendant, which order may include the nature of the questions to be permitted. The defendant may then offer evidence pursuant to the order of the court.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit cross examination of the victim on the issue of past sexual behavior when the prosecution presents evidence in its case in chief tending to prove the nature of the victim's past sexual behavior, but the court may require a hearing pursuant to subsection (3) of this section concerning such evidence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 9.79 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) In any prosecution under this chapter in which lack of consent is based solely upon the victim's mental incapacity or upon the victim's being physically helpless, it is a defense which the defendant must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that at the time of the offense the defendant reasonably believed that the victim was not mentally incapacitated and/or physically helpless.

(2) In any prosecution under this chapter in which the offense or degree of the offense depends on the victim's age, it is no defense that the perpetrator did not know the victim's age, or that the perpetrator believed the victim to be older, as the case may be: PROVIDED, That it is a defense which the defendant must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that at the time of the offense the defendant reasonably believed the alleged victim to be older based upon declarations as to age by the alleged victim.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 9.79 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) A person is guilty of rape in the first degree when such person engages in sexual intercourse with another person not married to the perpetrator by forcible compulsion where the perpetrator or an accessory:

(c) Inflicts serious physical injury; or

(d) Feloniously enters into the building or vehicle where the victim is situated.

(2) Rape in the first degree is a felony, and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for a term of not less than twenty years. No person convicted of rape in the first degree shall be granted a deferred or suspended sentence except for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility: PROVIDED, That every person convicted of rape in the first degree shall be confined for a minimum of three years: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the board of prison terms and paroles shall have authority to set a period of confinement greater than three years but shall never reduce the minimum three-year period of confinement nor shall the board release the convicted person as a result of any type of automatic good time calculation nor shall the department of social and health services permit the convicted person to participate in any work release program or furlough program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 9.79 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) A person is guilty of rape in the second degree when, under circumstances not constituting rape in the first degree, the person engages in sexual intercourse with another person, not married to the perpetrator:

- (b) Where there is threat of substantial unlawful harm to property rights of the victim.

(2) Rape in the third degree is a felony, and shall be punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for not more than five years.

A legislative budget as set forth in section 2 of this act is hereby adopted and subject to the provisions set forth in the following sections, the several amounts specified, or so much thereof as shall be necessary, are hereby appropriated and authorized to be disbursed for salaries, wages, and all other expenses of the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. FOR THE STATE LEGISLATURE

General Fund Appropriation

Senate Expenses and salaries of members.....	$	6,272,400
House of Representatives Expenses and salaries of members	$	6,870,351

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 43.88 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In order to continue the constitutionally mandated doctrine of separation of powers and maintain the legislative branch as a separate but co-equal branch of state government and for the purpose of permitting the legislature to effectively control its own expenditures the senate and house of representatives, their employees, including the chief clerk of the house and the secretary of the senate, and their standing committees shall be exempt from all of the provisions of this chapter and shall not be subject to the rule making powers of any other agency relating to the management or control of expenditures: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That nothing in this 1975 amendatory act shall preclude post audits by the state auditor under existing statutes.

Each house of the legislature is hereby authorized and directed to establish its own accounting system based on sound budgeting, accounting, and fiscal practices.

Sec. 3. was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the House April 30, 1975.

Passed the Senate April 25, 1975.

Approved by the Governor May 1, 1975, with the exception of section 3 which is vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State May 2, 1975.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith without my approval as to one section House Bill No. 861 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to expenditures by the legislature."

This bill appropriates amounts for use by the legislature during a biennial appropriation period.

Section 3 exempts the legislature and all of its officers, employees, and standing committees from all provisions of RCW Chapter 43.88, the Budget and Accounting Act, and the rule making power of any agency relating to the management and control of expenditures. It further directs each house to establish its own accounting system. The stated purpose of the section is to allow the legislature to function as a separate but equal branch of government and to permit effective control of its expenditures.

I have an abiding respect for the constitutional doctrine of separation of powers and believe strongly in the independence of the legislature. As to accountability for expenditure of public funds, however, the same policies and limitations should apply uniformly to all three branches of government, and it would not be in the public interest to exempt any one of the three. The state auditor has the constitutional duty to examine the use or misuse of public funds; such examination should be conducted under the same rules and guidelines for all three branches of government.

While there may be some reluctance on the part of the legislature to conform to budgeting and accounting rules set by the office of program planning and fiscal management, it should be emphasized that such rules are adopted according to policies determined by the legislature itself.

With the exception of section 3, which I have vetoed for the foregoing reasons, the remainder of the bill is approved."

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 47.56 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The Washington state highway commission is hereby authorized to enter into a continuing agreement with Pierce, Skagit, and Whatcom counties pursuant to which the state highway commission shall pay to each of the counties from moneys appropriated for such purpose the amounts authorized in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) The Washington state highway commission is authorized to include in the continuing agreement a provision to reimburse Pierce, Skagit, and Whatcom counties each for fifty percent of the deficit incurred during each previous fiscal year in the operation and maintenance of the ferry systems owned and operated by such counties, commencing with the fiscal year ending June 30, 1976: PROVIDED, That the tolls of each county ferry system existing as of the effective date of this 1975 amendatory act shall not be decreased.

(3) The annual fiscal year deficit, if any, shall be determined by Pierce, Skagit, and Whatcom counties subject to review and approval of the Washington state highway commission. The annual fiscal year deficit is defined as the total of operations and maintenance expenditures less the sum of ferry toll revenues and that portion of fuel tax revenue distributions which are attributable to the county ferry as determined by the Washington state highway commission. Payments of the amounts authorized by subsection (2) of this section shall be made by the Washington state highway commission upon the receipt of properly executed vouchers from each county.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to Title 36 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The legislative authority of every county operating ferries shall prepare, with the advice and assistance of the county engineer, a fourteen year long range capital improvement plan embracing all major elements of the ferry system. Sec. 3. Section 36.81.121, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 26, chapter 83, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 36.81.121 are each amended to read as follows:

Such program shall include proposed road and bridge construction work and for those counties operating ferries shall also include a separate section showing proposed capital expenditures for ferries, docks, and related facilities. Copies of the program shall be filed with the county administration board and with the director of highways not more than thirty days after its adoption by the board. Annually thereafter each board shall review the work accomplished under the program and determine current county road needs. Based on these findings each board shall prepare and after public hearing thereon adopt a revised and extended comprehensive road program, and each one year extension and revision shall be filed with the director of highways not more than thirty days after its adoption by the board. The purpose of this section shall be to assure that perpetually each county shall have available advanced plans, looking to the future for not less than six years as a guide in carrying out a coordinated road construction program. Such program may at any time be revised by a majority of the board but only after a public hearing thereon.

The six year program of each county having an urban area within its boundaries shall contain a separate section setting forth the six year program for arterial road construction based upon its long range construction plan and formulated in accordance with regulations of the urban arterial board. The six year program for arterial road construction shall be submitted to the urban arterial board forthwith after its annual revision and adoption by the board of county commissioners. The six year program for arterial road construction shall be based upon estimated revenues available for such construction together with such additional sums as the county commissioners may request for urban arterials only from the urban arterial trust account for the six year period. The arterial road construction program shall provide for a more rapid rate of completion of the long range construction needs of major arterial roads than for secondary and collector arterial roads, pursuant to regulations of the urban arterial board.

The laying out, construction, and maintenance of all county roads shall hereafter be in accordance with the following procedure:

On or before the first Monday in July of each year each county road engineer shall file with the (~~(board of county commissioners))~~ county legislative authority a recommended plan for the laying out, construction, maintenance, and special maintenance of county roads for the ensuing fiscal year. Such recommended plan need not be limited to but shall include the following items: Recommended projects, including capital expenditures for ferries, docks, and related facilities, and their priority; the estimated cost of all work, including labor and materials for each project recommended; a statement as to whether such work is to be done by the county forces or by publicly advertised contract; a list of all recommended repairs to and purchases of road equipment, together with the estimated costs thereof. Amounts to be expended for maintenance and special maintenance shall be recommended, but details of these proposed expenditures shall not be made. The recommended plan shall conform as nearly as practicable to the county's long range road program.

Within two weeks after the filing of the road engineer's recommended plan, the (~~(board of county commissioners))~~ county legislative authority shall consider the same. Revisions and changes may be made until a plan which is agreeable to a majority of the (~~(commissioners))~~ members of the county legislative authority has been adopted: PROVIDED, That such revisions shall conform as nearly as practicable to the county's long range road program. Any appropriations contained in the county road budget shall be void unless the county's road plan was adopted prior to such appropriation.

The final road plan for the fiscal year shall not thereafter be changed except by unanimous vote of the county (~~(commissioners))~~ legislative authority.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is hereby appropriated from the counties share of the motor vehicle fund to the Washington state highway commission for the biennium ending June 30, 1977, the sum of one hundred twenty thousand dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of section 1 of this 1975 amendatory act.

Sec. 2. Section 21, chapter 210, Laws of 1941 as amended by section 82, chapter 56, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 56.16.080 are each amended to read as follows:

In creating any special fund or funds the sewer commissioners of such sewer district shall have due regard to the cost of operation and maintenance of the plant or system as constructed or added to, and to any proportion or part of the revenue previously pledged as a fund for the payment of bonds, warrants or other indebtedness, and shall not set aside into such special fund a greater amount or proportion of the revenue and proceeds than in their judgment will be available over and above such cost of maintenance and operation and the amount or proportion, if any, of the revenue so previously pledged. Any such bonds, and the interest thereon, issued against any such fund as herein provided, shall be a valid claim of the holder thereof only as against the said special fund and its fixed proportion or amount of the revenue pledged to such fund, and shall not constitute an indebtedness of such sewer district within the meaning of the constitutional provisions and limitations. Each such bond or warrant shall state upon its face that it is payable from a special fund, naming the said fund and the resolution creating it. Said bonds shall be sold in such manner, at such prices and at such rate or rates of interest as the sewer commissioners shall deem for the best interests of the sewer district, either at public or private sale, and the said commissioners may provide in any contract for the construction and acquirement of the proposed improvement that payment therefor shall be made in such bonds at par value thereof.

In case any sewer district shall fail thus to set aside and pay said fixed proportion or amount as aforesaid, the holder of any bond (~~against~~) payable from such special fund may bring suit or action against the sewer district and compel such setting aside and payment.

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 128, Laws of 1939 as last amended by section 84, chapter 56, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 57.20.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any issue or issues of water revenue bonds have been authorized in compliance with the provisions of RCW 57.16.010 through 57.16.040, said bonds shall be ~~((either registered as to principal only or shall be bearer bonds))~~ in bearer form or registered as to principal or interest or both, and may provide for conversion between registered and coupon bonds; shall be in such denominations, shall be numbered, shall bear such date, and shall be payable at such time or times up to a maximum period of not to exceed thirty years as shall be determined by the board of water commissioners of the district; shall bear interest at such rate or rates payable at such time or times as authorized by the board ~~((payable semiannually and evidenced to maturity by coupons attached to said~~ bonds)); shall be payable at the office of the county treasurer of the county in which the water district is located and may also be payable at such other place or places as the board of water commissioners may determine; shall be executed by the president of the board of water commissioners and attested and sealed by the secretary thereof, one of which signatures may, with the written permission of the signator whose facsimile signature is being used, be a facsimile; and may have facsimile signatures of said president (~~and~~) or secretary imprinted on the interest coupons in lieu of original signatures.

The water district commissioners shall have power and are required to create a special fund or funds for the sole purpose of paying the interest and principal of such bonds into which special fund or funds the said water district commissioners shall obligate and bind the water district to set aside and pay a fixed proportion of the gross revenues of the water supply system or any fixed amount out of and not exceeding a fixed proportion of such revenues, or a fixed amount or amounts without regard to any fixed proportion and such bonds and the interest thereof shall be payable only out of such special fund or funds, but shall be a lien and charge against all revenues and payments received from any utility local improvement district or districts pledged to secure such bonds, subject only to operating and maintenance expenses.

In creating any such special fund or funds the water district commissioners of such water district shall have due regard to the cost of operation and maintenance of the plant or system as constructed or added to and to any proportion or part of the revenue previously pledged as a fund for the payment of bonds, warrants or other indebtedness, and shall not set aside into such special fund a greater amount or proportion of the revenue and proceeds than in their judgment will be available over and above such cost of maintenance and operation and the amount or proportion, if any, of the revenue so previously pledged. Any such bonds and interest thereon issued against any such fund as herein provided shall be a valid claim of the holder thereof only as against the said special fund and its fixed proportion or amount of the revenue pledged to such fund, and shall not constitute an indebtedness of such water district within the meaning of the constitutional provisions and limitations. Each such bond or warrant shall state upon its face that it is payable from a special fund, naming the said fund and the resolution creating it. Said bonds shall be sold in such manner, at such price and at such rate or rates of interest as the water district commissioners shall deem for the best interests of the water district, either at public or private sale, and the said commissioners may provide in any contract for the construction and acquirement of the proposed improvement (and for the refunding of outstanding local improvement district obligations, if any) that payment therefor shall be made in such bonds at par value thereof.

When any such special fund shall have been heretofore or shall be hereafter created and any such bonds shall have been heretofore or shall hereafter be issued against the same a fixed proportion or a fixed amount out of and not to exceed such fixed proportion, or a fixed amount or amounts without regard to any fixed proportion, of revenue shall be set aside and paid into said special fund as provided in the resolution creating such fund or authorizing such bonds, and in case any water district shall fail thus to set aside and pay said fixed proportion or amount as aforesaid, the holder of any bond (~~against~~) payable from such special fund may bring suit or action against the water district and compel such setting aside and payment.

The water district commissioners of any water district, in the event that such water revenue bonds are issued, shall provide for revenues by fixing rates and charges for the furnishing of water supply to those receiving such service, such rates and charges to be fixed as deemed necessary by such water district commissioners, so that uniform charges will be made for the same class of customer or service. In classifying customers served or service furnished by such water supply system, the board of water commissioners may in its discretion consider any or all of the following factors: The difference in cost of service to the various customers; the location of the various customers within and without the district; the difference in cost of maintenance, operation, repair and replacement of the various parts of the system; the different character of the service furnished various customers; the quantity and quality of the water furnished; the time of its use; capital contributions made to the system including but not limited to assessments; and any other matters which present a reasonable difference as a ground for distinction. Such rates shall be made on a monthly basis as may be deemed proper by such commissioners and as fixed by resolution and shall produce revenues sufficient to take care of the costs of maintenance and operation, revenue bond and warrant interest and principal amortization requirements and all other charges necessary for efficient and proper operation of the system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 56.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Sewer districts may also issue revenue warrants and revenue bond anticipation warrants for the same purposes for which such districts may issue revenue bonds. The provisions of this chapter relating to the authorization, terms, conditions, covenants, issuance and sale of revenue bonds (exclusive of provisions relating to refunding) shall be applicable to such warrants. Sewer districts issuing revenue bond anticipation warrants may make covenants relative to the issuance of revenue bonds to provide funds for the redemption of part or all of such warrants and may contract for the sale of such bonds and warrants.

Section 1. Section 4, chapter 92, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 142, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 23A.40.075 are each amended to read as follows:

The annual license fee required by RCW 23A.40.060, as now or hereafter amended, and RCW 23A.40.140 is a tax on the privilege of doing business as a corporation in the state of Washington (~~(, but is not a tax on the privilege of existing as a corporation)~~). No corporation shall do business in this state without first having paid its annual license fee, except as provided in RCW 23A.36.010 and 23A.36.020.

Failure of the corporation to pay its annual license fees shall not derogate from the rights of its creditors, or prevent the corporation from being sued and from defending lawsuits, nor shall it release the corporation from any of the duties or liabilities of a corporation under law.

Every domestic corporation which shall fail for three consecutive years to acquire an annual license for the privilege of doing business in this state shall cease to exist as a corporation on the third anniversary of the date it was last licensed to do business in this state (~~(or in the case of a corporation which has never been licensed, on the third anniversary of the date of filing its articles of incorporation)~~). When a corporation has ceased to exist by operation of this section, remedies available to or against it shall survive in the manner provided in RCW 23A.28.250 and the directors of the corporation shall hold the title to the property of the corporation as trustees for the benefit of its creditors and shareholders.

A domestic corporation which has not ceased to exist by operation of law may restore its privilege to do business by paying the current annual license fee and a restoration fee which shall include a sum equivalent to the amount of annual license fees the corporation would have paid had it continuously maintained its privilege to do business plus an additional fee equivalent to one percent per month or fraction thereof computed upon each annual license fee from the time it would have been paid had the corporation maintained its privilege to do business to the date when the corporation restored its privilege to do business: PROVIDED, That the minimum additional license fee due under this section shall be two dollars and fifty cents. A corporation which has ceased to exist may reinstate within two years by paying all fees specified above plus a reinstatement fee of ten dollars and upon doing so shall be reinstated and again be entitled to do business, and may use its former corporate name if that name is not then in use by a corporation then in existence. If the former name is not available, the corporation may file amended articles to adopt a new name simultaneous with reinstatement. Upon payment of the above fees, restoration and reinstatement of the privilege to do business shall be effective, and the corporation shall have all the rights and privileges it would have possessed had it continually maintained its privilege to do business.

When any domestic corporation (~~(loses its privilege to do business for failure))~~ first fails to pay its annual license fee when due, the secretary of state shall, in that year only, mail to the corporation at its registered office, by first class mail, a notice that ((the corporation)) if it does not pay its annual license fee it will no longer ((has)) have the privilege of doing business in this state, and that the corporation's privilege may be restored as provided in this section, and ((a)) the notice shall contain a reminder that, if the privilege is not restored for three consecutive years, the existence of the corporation shall cease without further notice.

(1) A registered disposer taking custody of any abandoned vehicle shall remove it to his established place of business where it shall be stored, and such registered disposer shall have a lien upon the abandoned vehicle but not upon any items of personal property therein or upon for services provided in towing and storage of it, and shall also have a claim against the last registered owner of the abandoned vehicle for services provided in towing and storage of it, not to exceed the sum of one hundred dollars.

(2) Within five days after receiving custody of such abandoned vehicle the registered disposer shall submit an abandoned vehicle report giving notice of his custody to the department and the chief of the Washington state patrol. Any registered disposer failing to report such fact within five days shall forfeit any claim for the storage of the vehicle. The notice of custody and sale to the registered and legal owner shall be sent by the registered disposer to the last known address of said owner appearing on the records of the department, and such notice shall be sent to the registered and legal owner by certified or registered mail with a five-day return receipt requested. Such notice shall contain a description of the abandoned vehicle including its license number and/or serial number if obtainable, and shall state the amount due the registered disposer for services in the towing and storage of it and the time and place of public sale if the amount remains unpaid.

(3) The department shall supply the last known names and addresses of registered and legal owners of abandoned vehicles appearing on the records of the department to registered disposers on request without charge.

(2) The abandoned vehicle shall be sold at the auction to the highest bidder. The proceeds of such sale, after deducting the towing and storage charges due the registered disposer including the cost of sale, which shall be computed as in a public auction sale of personal property by the sheriff, shall be certified one-half to the county treasurer of the county in which the vehicle is located to be credited to the county current expense fund, and one-half to the state treasurer to be credited to the highway safety fund. If the amount bid at the auction is insufficient to compensate the registered disposer for his towing and storage charges and the cost of sale, such registered disposer shall be entitled to assert a claim for any deficiency, not to exceed one hundred dollars less the amount bid at the auction, against the last registered owner of such abandoned vehicle.

(3) After the public auction of any abandoned vehicle the registered disposer shall give the successful bidder an affidavit of sale stating that the sale was conducted under the proper procedures and indicating the disposition of moneys derived from the sale and after such successful bidder has submitted an application for a certificate of title along with applicable fees, taxes, and the affidavit of sale, the director of the department shall issue a certificate of title showing ownership of the vehicle or automobile hulk in the name of the successful bidder at such auction: PROVIDED, That a licensed auto wrecker or scrap processor may use such affidavit in lieu of a certificate of title to report the acquisition for wrecking or demolition.

The chief of police shall inspect and investigate complaints relative to automobile hulks, or parts thereof on private property. Upon discovery of such nuisance, the police department shall give notice in writing to the last registered owner of record of the automobile hulk and also to the property owner of record that a public hearing may be requested before the governing body of the local authority, and that if no hearing is requested within ten days, the automobile hulk will be removed. Costs of removal may be assessed against the last registered owner of the automobile hulk if the identity of such owner can be determined, or the costs may be assessed against the owner of the property on which the automobile hulk is stored.

(2) If a request for a hearing is received, a notice giving the time, location and date of such hearing on the question of removal and impoundment of the automobile hulk or part thereof as a public nuisance shall be mailed, by certified or registered mail with a five-day return receipt requested, to the owner of the land as shown on the last equalized assessment roll and to the last registered and legal owner of record of the automobile hulk unless the automobile hulk is in such condition that identification numbers are not available to determine ownership.

(4) The owner of the land on which the automobile hulk is located may appear in person at the hearing or present a written statement in time for consideration at the hearing, and deny responsibility for the presence of the hulk on the land, with his reasons for such denial. If it is determined at the hearing that the hulk was placed on the land without the consent of the landowner and that he has not subsequently acquiesced in its presence, then the governing body shall not assess costs of administration or removal of the hulk against the property upon which the hulk is located or otherwise attempt to collect such cost from the property owner.

(5) After notice has been given of the intent of the local authority to dispose of the automobile hulk and after a hearing, if requested, has been held, the automobile hulk or part thereof, shall be removed, at the request of a police officer, and disposed of to a licensed motor vehicle wrecker or hulk hauler with notice to the Washington state patrol and the department that the automobile hulk has been wrecked.

For the purposes of this section, the fact that a motor vehicle has been so left without permission or notification is prima facie evidence of abandonment. NEW SECTION. Sec. 104. PARKING METER SPACES. No person shall park a vehicle in any designated parking meter space during the restricted or regulated time applicable to the parking meter zone in which such meter is located so that any part of such vehicle occupies more than one such space or protrudes beyond the markings designating such space, except that a vehicle which is of a size too large to be parked within a single designated parking meter space shall be permitted to occupy two adjoining parking meter spaces when coins shall have been deposited in the parking meter for each space so occupied as is required for the parking of other vehicles in such spaces.

(2) No person shall permit a vehicle within his control to be parked in any parking meter space during the restricted and regulated time applicable to the parking meter zone in which such meter is located while the parking meter for such space indicates by signal that the lawful parking time in such space has expired. This provision shall not apply to the act of parking or the necessary time which is required to deposit immediately thereafter a coin or coins in such meter.

(3) No person shall park a vehicle in any parking meter space for a consecutive period of time longer than that limited period of time for which parking is lawfully permitted in the parking meter zone in which such meter is located, irrespective of the number or amounts of the coins deposited in such meter.

(4) The provisions of this section shall not relieve any person from the duty to observe other and more restrictive provisions of this chapter prohibiting or limiting the stopping, standing, or parking of vehicles in specified places or at specified times.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 106. USE OF SLUGS PROHIBITED. No person shall deposit or attempt to deposit in any parking meter any bent coin, slug, button, or any other device or substance as substitutes for United States coins.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 109. APPLICATION OF PROCEEDS. (1) The coins required to be deposited in parking meters are levied and assessed as fees to cover the regulation and control of parking upon highways, the costs of parking meters, their installation, inspection, supervision, operation, repair, and maintenance, control and use of parking spaces, and regulating the parking of vehicles in parking meter zones; and the costs of acquiring, establishing, improving, maintaining, and operating public off-street parking facilities.

(3) The local authority shall pay from the moneys collected from parking meters the costs of any parking meters purchased and installed as provided herein, and expenses incurred for their installation, inspection, service, supervision, repair, and maintenance, for making collections from such parking meters, and for the enforcement of provisions herein applicable to parking meter zones. The net proceeds derived from the operation of parking meters after the payment of such costs and expenses, may be used for parking studies and for the acquisition, establishment, improvement, maintenance, and operation of public off-street parking facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 110. SERVICE PARKING. The chief of police is authorized to issue a permit for service parking upon payment of the fee prescribed by the local authority and upon the following conditions:

(2) If it appears that a necessity exists, the chief of police may authorize the issuance of such permit under the conditions prescribed in this section.

(3) Upon issuance of the permit, the permittee shall be issued a hood to use in covering any parking meter. As many hoods may be issued upon payment of the prescribed fee as the chief of police deems necessary or convenient for the applicant. The hood shall be provided with a padlock, two keys, and an identification card attached with a blank space thereon.

(4) Upon entering any parking meter space available, the permittee shall place the hood over the parking meter and lock the same and shall indicate in such blank space the exact place where the service work is being rendered.

(5) The permittee shall not place the hood over any meter when the space is occupied by another vehicle, and shall before vacating the space at the conclusion of the work remove the hood. The hood shall not be allowed to remain in place for over one hour when the space is not occupied by an authorized vehicle, nor shall it be allowed to remain in place after 6 p.m. on any weekday or on any Sunday or holiday. It shall not be used during hours when parking or stopping in the parking meter space is prohibited. No vehicle licensed as a passenger car shall be parked in the space covered by the hooded parking meter.

(6) The chief of police may revoke any permit if the service parking hood is used for any purpose other than that authorized in this section or for any violation of this chapter. Upon revocation, the hood shall immediately be returned to the police department and all fees paid shall be forfeited. Police officers finding such hood in use shall investigate the use being made thereof, and if it is found in violation of this section shall report the facts to the chief of police.

(7) Any permit issued under this section shall unless revoked be valid for a period of one year.

(8) The permittee shall also pay a deposit in an amount prescribed by the local authority at the time of issuance of the hood, padlock, and keys, which shall remain the property of the local authority. In case a hood, a padlock, or key becomes lost or destroyed or so defaced that it is no longer usable, the permittee shall forfeit such deposit.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 113. CITATION ON ILLEGALLY PARKED VEHICLE. Whenever any motor vehicle without driver is found parked, standing, or stopped in violation of this chapter, the officer finding such vehicle shall take its registration number and may take any other information displayed on the vehicle which may identify its user, and shall conspicuously affix to such vehicle a traffic citation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 114. FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH TRAFFIC CITATION ATTACHED TO PARKED VEHICLE. If a violator of any provision of this chapter on stopping, standing, or parking does not appear in response to a traffic citation affixed to such motor vehicle within a period of five days, the clerk of the traffic court shall send to the owner of the motor vehicle to which the traffic citation was affixed a letter informing him of the violation and warning him that in the event such letter is disregarded for a period of five days, a warrant of arrest will be issued.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 115. PRESUMPTION IN REFERENCE TO ILLEGAL PARKING. (1) In any prosecution charging a violation of any law or regulation governing the stopping, standing, or parking of a vehicle, proof that the particular vehicle described in the complaint was stopping, standing, or parking in violation of any such law or regulation, together with proof that the defendant named in the complaint was at the time of such violation, the registered owner of such vehicle, shall constitute in evidence a prima facie presumption that the registered owner of such vehicle was the person who parked or placed such vehicle at the point where, and for the time during which, such violation occurred.

(2) The foregoing stated presumption shall apply only when the procedure as prescribed in sections 113 and 114 of this act has been followed.

COMMUNITY COLLEGE CAPITAL PROJECTS— GENERAL OBLIGATION BOND FINANCING

AN ACT Relating to community colleges; authorizing the issuance and sale of certain state general obligation bonds, including bond anticipation notes, to fund certain community college capital projects previously approved by the legislature; providing ways and means for the payment of such bonds; creating new sections; adding new sections to Title 28B RCW as a new chapter thereof; making an appropriation and authorizing expenditures for the fiscal biennium beginning July 1, 1975 and ending June 30, 1977; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature has previously approved by its appropriation of funds from time to time, certain capital projects for the state community colleges, which appropriations were to be funded primarily by the issuance of general tuition fee, limited obligation bonds by the state board for community college education (hereinafter in this act called the "college board"). In order that any future appropriations for such approved capital projects may be funded on terms most advantageous to the state, it is hereby determined to be in the public interest to provide for the issuance of state general obligation bonds, in lieu of general tuition fee, limited obligation bonds.

For purposes of this act, "community college capital projects" means the construction, reconstruction, erection, equipping, maintenance, demolition and major alteration of buildings and other capital assets owned by the state board for community college education in the name of the state of Washington, and the acquisition of sites, rights of way, easements, improvements or appurtenances in relation thereto.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. For the purpose of providing funds for carrying out the community college capital projects described in section 3 of this act, and to fund indebtedness and expenditures heretofore incurred for such projects, the state finance committee is hereby authorized to issue from time to time general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the aggregate principal amount of nine million dollars, or so much thereof as may be required for such purposes, to be paid and discharged within thirty years of the date or dates of issuance, in accordance with Article VIII, section 1 of the Constitution of the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The community college capital projects referred to in section 2 of this act are (1) at Walla Walla Community College, for construction of vocational facilities, Phase II, at a cost of not more than two million two thousand three hundred ninety-nine dollars and (2) at Seattle Central Community College, for remodeling of Edison South High School, at a cost of not more than six million nine hundred ninety-seven thousand six hundred and one dollars, which projects were to be primarily funded, but have not heretofore been sufficiently funded, from the proceeds of general tuition fee, limited obligation bonds issued by the college board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. When the state finance committee has determined to issue such general obligation bonds or a portion thereof, it may, pending the issuance thereof, issue in the name of the state temporary notes in anticipation of the issuance of such bonds, which notes shall be designated as "bond anticipation notes". Such portion of the proceeds of the sale of such bonds as may be required for the payment of principal and redemption premium, if any, of and interest on such notes shall be applied thereto when such bonds are issued.

The state finance committee is authorized to prescribe the form, terms, conditions and covenants of the bonds and/or the bond anticipation notes, the time or times of sale of all or any portion of them, and the conditions and manner of their sale and issuance.

Each such bond and bond anticipation note shall pledge the full faith and credit of the state of Washington and shall contain an unconditional promise to pay the principal thereof and the interest thereon when due.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The proceeds from the sale of the bonds and/or bond anticipation notes authorized herein, together with all grants, donations, transferred funds, and all other moneys which the state finance committee or the college board may direct the state treasurer to deposit therein, shall be deposited in the 1975 community college capital construction account, hereby created in the state general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. All proceeds of the bonds authorized in this act shall be administered by the college board exclusively for the purposes specified in this act and for the payment of the expenses incurred in connection with the sale and issuance of such bonds and bond anticipation notes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The 1975 community college capital construction bond retirement fund is hereby created in the state treasury for the purpose of the payment of principal of and interest on the bonds authorized to be issued pursuant to this act.

The state finance committee, on or before June 30 of each year, shall certify to the state treasurer the amount required in the next succeeding twelve months for the payment of the principal of and interest coming due on such bonds. On July 1st of each such year the state treasurer shall withdraw from any general state revenues received in the state treasury and deposit in the 1975 community college capital construction bond retirement fund an amount equal to the amount certified by the state finance committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. On or before June 30 of each year, the college board shall accumulate in the community college capital projects account from general tuition fees and other moneys deposited therein, an amount at least equal to the amount required in the next succeeding twelve months for the payment of principal of and interest on the bonds issued pursuant to this act. On July 1st of each such year, the state treasurer shall withdraw said sum from the community college capital projects account and deposit said sum in the state general fund: PROVIDED, That withdrawal of general tuition fees from the community college capital projects account for deposit into the state general fund pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be made only after provision has first been made for the payment in full of the principal of and interest on all outstanding general tuition fee, limited obligation bonds of the college board coming due in the twelve months next succeeding July 1 of each such year, and for any reserve account deposits necessary for such outstanding bonds in the same period.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The bonds authorized in this act shall constitute a legal investment for all state funds or for funds under state control and all funds of municipal corporations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The bonds authorized in this act shall be issued only after the college board has certified to the state finance committee that its projected general tuition fee revenue shall be adequate, based upon reasonable projections of student enrollments, for the college board to meet the requirements of section 8 of this act, during the life of the bonds proposed to be issued.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 1 through 10 of this act are added to Title 28B RCW as a new chapter thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. There is hereby appropriated to the state board for community college education for the biennium ending June 30, 1977, from the community college capital construction account of the state general fund, the amount of nine million dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of sections 1 through 10 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances, shall in no way be affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

WASHINGTON CREDIT UNION SHARE GUARANTY ASSOCIATION ACT

AN ACT Relating to credit unions; creating the Washington credit union share guaranty association; providing for a board of directors thereof; setting out certain powers, duties and functions; providing for certain qualifications of membership; establishing the share guaranty association contingency reserve; providing for the funding, assessments, liquidity and investment thereof; providing for the termination of membership; providing for the management of the association; providing for payment to shareholders; authorizing subrogation; exempting the association from certain taxes; providing immunity from actions; adding new sections to chapter 173, Laws of 1933 and to Title 31 RCW as chapter 31.12A thereof; creating new sections; and providing an effective date.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. LEGISLATIVE DIRECTION. Sections 2 through 21 of this act are added to chapter 173, Laws of 1933 and to Title 31 RCW as chapter 31.12A thereof.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. PURPOSE. The purpose of this act is to provide funds arising from assessments upon member credit unions chartered by the state of Washington to guarantee payment, to the extent herein provided, to credit union shareholders of the amount of loss to their share and deposit accounts in a liquidating member credit union, and to provide other services to promote the stability of state-chartered credit unions. In the judgment of the legislature, the foregoing purposes not being capable of accomplishment by a corporation created under general laws, the creation of the nonprofit association hereinafter in this act described is deemed essential for the protection of the general welfare.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. DEFINITIONS. As used in this act unless the context otherwise requires:

- (1) "Association" means the credit union share guaranty association created in section 4 of this act;
- (2) "Board" means board of directors of the guaranty association;

(3) "Credit union" means a credit union organized and authorized under laws contained in chapter 31.12 RCW, as now or hereafter amended;

(4) "Initial member" means a member qualified by the supervisor within sixty days after the effective date of this act but not yet ratified by the board;

(5) "Member" means a member of the guaranty association, ratified by the board.

(6) "Share account" of a credit union shareholder includes the share accounts and/or deposit accounts of which the shareholder is owner of record with the credit union; and

(7) "Supervisor" means the state supervisor of the division of savings and loan associations, or his successor in the event of a departmental restructuring.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. GUARANTY ASSOCIATION CREATED. There is hereby created a nonprofit unincorporated legal entity to be known as the Washington credit union share guaranty association, which shall be comprised of state chartered credit unions in the state of Washington and governed by a board of directors as in section 8 of this act provided.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. POWERS OF THE ASSOCIATION. The association shall have power:

(1) To use a seal, to contract, to sue and be sued;

(2) To make bylaws for conduct of its affairs, not inconsistent with the provisions of this act;

(3) To lend and to borrow money, and require and give security;

(4) To receive, collect, and enforce by legal proceedings, if necessary, payment of all assessments for which any member may be liable under this act, and payment of any other debt or obligation due the association;

(5) To invest and reinvest its funds in investments permitted for credit unions in RCW 31.12.260, as now or hereafter amended, provided such investments do not exceed a maximum maturity of ninety days;

(6) To acquire, hold, convey, dispose of and otherwise engage in transactions involving or affecting real and personal property of all kinds; and

(7) To carry out the applicable provisions of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. MEMBERSHIP—ASSOCIATION OPERATIVE DATE. (1) Every credit union meeting the following qualifications is eligible for membership in the association:

(a) Must be in business as a duly authorized credit union.

(b) Must be operating in compliance with applicable laws and the rules and regulations of the supervisor.

(c) Must not be in the process of liquidation, either voluntary or involuntary.

(2) Prior to the operative date stated in subsection (3) hereof, application for membership shall be made by the credit union in writing to the association on forms designed and furnished by the association, and filed with the secretary-treasurer. An application fee, as fixed in the bylaws for operation expense, payable to the order of the association, shall accompany each such application. Should additional operational funds become necessary, an assessment not to exceed an amount, as fixed in the bylaws, per year may be levied by the board against each member. If the application is found to be:

(a) Complete, and the applicant qualified for membership: The association shall issue and deliver to the applicant a certificate of membership in appropriate form.

(b) Incomplete: The association shall require the applicant to refile said application in its entirety within thirty days.

(c) Not qualified: The association shall notify said applicant within thirty days of filing: PROVIDED, That said applicant will be allowed to meet qualification standards under conditions as provided in the bylaws of the association.

(3) The initial membership of the association shall be comprised of all those credit unions qualified under subsection (1) hereof by the supervisor within sixty days after the effective date of this act, with final ratification by the initial board of directors subject to full compliance of all qualifications for membership within one hundred twenty days after the effective date of this act.

(4) Membership in either this association or the federal share insurance program under the national credit union administration shall be mandatory.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. FUNDING—LIQUIDITY—INVESTMENTS—TERMINATION. (1) Establishment of the share guaranty association contingency reserve shall be accomplished by setting aside from each member's guaranty fund an amount equal to one-half of one percent of the total insurable outstanding shares and deposit balances as of the 31st of December preceding the effective date of this act. Such sum shall be retained in the credit union share guaranty contingency reserve as an integral part of its guaranty fund until such time and if necessary to be drawn for the purpose set forth in this act.

(2) Continued funding of the association shall be by assessment at the rate of one-forty-fifth of one percent of each member's insurable outstanding share and deposit balance as of December 31st each year commencing the year subsequent to the effective date of this act. Such funds shall be retained by the member in its share guaranty contingency reserve. Such sum may be offset from the statutory transfer requirement to the guaranty fund. The board, with concurrence of the supervisor, shall have authority to assess an additional amount not to exceed one-forty-fifth of one percent of each member's insurable share and deposit balance in any one year, as conditions may warrant.

(3) Members' share guaranty association contingency reserve funds shall be invested in investments as permitted in the bylaws of the association.

(4) The board, in concurrence with the supervisor, may also suspend or diminish the assessment in any given period after reaching a normal operating sufficiency as provided in the bylaws.

(5) Membership in this association may be terminated upon approval by a majority of the credit union members responding to such a proposal and subject further to acceptance by the national credit union administration of continued share insurance coverage under the national credit union administration share insurance program. Notice of such intentions shall be in writing to the association's board of directors at least twelve months prior to such contemplated action: PROVIDED, That in the event of conversion from state to federal credit union charter the converting member will notify the association in compliance with RCW 31.12.390. Share guarantee coverage through the association will terminate with the effective date of the federal charter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. MANAGEMENT. (1) The affairs and operations of the association shall be managed and conducted by a board of directors and officers.

(2) The board shall consist of not more than five directors, as provided by the bylaws. Directors shall be elected by members for terms, as fixed by the bylaws, of not more than three years. The board shall have power to fill vacancies occurring during the interim between annual meetings and until an election is held at the next annual meeting, to fill that portion of the unexpired term.

(3) The officers shall be elected by the board, and shall be a chairman of the board, a vice chairman, and a secretary-treasurer. The officers shall have the usual and customary powers and responsibilities of the respective offices, as fixed by the bylaws.

(4) The directors shall be compensated only to the extent of actual out-of-pocket travel and meeting expenses as provided in the bylaws.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. FIRST MEETING OF MEMBERS AND BOARD OF DIRECTORS. (1) Within thirty days after the operative date of this act, the supervisor shall call a first meeting of the initial members of the association for the purpose of electing directors and shall give written notice of the time and place of such meeting. The meeting shall be held within sixty days after such operative date, at a place in this state selected by the supervisor and of convenience to members. The supervisor shall preside at the meeting.

(2) The initial board of directors shall meet within thirty days after the first meeting of members, to elect officers, consider bylaws, and transact such other business relating to the association as may properly come before it.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. BYLAWS. (1) The first bylaws of the association shall be as adopted by its initial board, and the board shall so adopt bylaws within three months after the association has become operative. All bylaws, and amendments thereof, shall be promptly filed with, and are subject to the approval of, the supervisor, and shall be approved if found by the supervisor to be reasonable, and fair and equitable to the association and its members. Among the customary, useful, and desirable provisions the bylaws shall provide:

- (a) For the date and place of holding the annual meeting of members.
- (b) Procedure for holding of special meetings.
- (c) For voting privilege.
- (d) For quorum requirements.
- (e) For qualifications of directors, for procedures for nomination, election and removal of directors; and number, term and compensation of directors.
- (f) For the bonding of any individual who may be expected to handle funds for the association.
- (g) Qualifications for membership.
- (h) Duties of officers.
- (i) Application fees and assessment fees.
- (j) Fines, if any.
- (k) Coverage loss limits.
- (l) Powers and duties of the board.
- (m) Types of investments, liquidity, and normal operating sufficiency.
- (n) Such other regulations as may be deemed necessary.

(2) After adoption of initial bylaws by the board, the bylaws shall be subject to amendments only by vote of the members. The secretary-treasurer of the association shall promptly file all bylaws and amendments with the supervisor. No bylaws or amendments thereto, except the adoption of initial bylaws, shall be effective until approved by the supervisor as hereinabove in this section provided.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. LIQUIDATION OF MEMBERS—ASSESSMENT. (1) In the event a member of the association is placed in liquidation, either voluntary or involuntary, the supervisor or his representative shall determine as soon as is reasonably possible the probable net assessment, if any, resulting therefrom to its shareholders. If a net assessment seems to be indicated, the supervisor or his representative shall promptly inform the association in writing of the probable amount of such assessment. In determining the probable net assessment of the liquidating member, charges, if any, for services of the supervisor or his representative, or his staff, as well as accrued but unpaid interest or dividends on share accounts, shall not be deemed liabilities of the liquidating credit union; and, with the consent of the association, all illiquid holdings (furniture, fixtures and other personal property) of the liquidating member, at the fair recoverable value thereof, as determined by the supervisor or his representative, may be excluded as assets. In determining the net assessment as to a particular share account, the supervisor or his representative shall first deduct the amount of any accrued and currently payable obligation of the shareholder to the liquidating credit union.

(2) Within thirty days after receipt by the association of the foregoing information, the board shall notify the remaining members of the association of the aggregate amount required to make good the probable net loss to share accounts, subject to the following conditions:

(a) The amount of loss to be made good to any shareholder shall not be less than provided by the national credit union administration share insurance program, with authority vested in the association to increase the coverage.

(b) To the amount of the assessment as otherwise determined pursuant to this section, the board may add such amount as it may deem to be reasonably necessary to cover its clerical, mailing and other expense connected with the assessment and distribution of the proceeds thereof to shareholders of the liquidating credit union, not to exceed actual costs of such mailing and clerical services.

(c) The gross amount of the assessment shall be prorated among the assessed members against their share guaranty contingency reserve: PROVIDED, That members shall not be liable for any amount of assessment exceeding their share guaranty contingency reserve or for any assessments exceeding those permitted in sections 6 and 7 of this act as now or hereafter amended.

(d) That a plan for an orderly and expeditious liquidation be presented to the board of directors for their consideration and approval. In cases where a central or other eligible credit union is authorized to act as liquidator or liquidating agent, the association would provide an indemnity against loss to such authorized credit union.

(3) In case of liquidation the board shall cause written notice to each member stating whether a potential assessment is indicated and, if so, the probable amount of such contingency as it relates to a percentage of their total share guaranty contingency reserve. Actual assessment, if any, shall be paid by members upon completion of liquidation or sooner, as determined by the board of directors. In all cases the total reserve structure of a liquidating credit union, including its share guaranty contingency reserve, shall be utilized in concluding the liquidation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. PAYMENT TO SHAREHOLDERS—SUBROGATION. (1) Upon collection in full of the amount assessed against members as provided for in section 11 of this act, or other provision satisfactory to the board, the association shall conclude the liquidation subject to acceptance by the supervisor.

(2) If illiquid holdings of the liquidating member have not been included as assets in determining net loss to share accounts, as provided for in section 11(1) of this act, the association shall be subrogated to all rights of shareholders with respect to such holdings and to the extent of the value thereof so excluded and reflected in the assessment of association members; and the officers of the liquidating member or other persons having authority with respect thereto shall execute such conveyances, assignments, or other documents as may be requested by the association to facilitate recovery by the association in due course of the amount of its interest in such assets or so much thereof as may in fact be recoverable. The association shall have the right to bring and maintain suit or other action in its own name for the enforcement of any right of the insolvent member or its shareholders with respect to any such asset.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. DISPOSITION OF AMOUNTS RECOVERED. Amounts recovered by the association pursuant to its right of subrogation as provided in section 12(2) of this act shall be refunded pro rata to those members who paid assessments out of which right of subrogation arose.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. REPORTS—RECOMMENDATIONS—EXAMINATION. (1) Within sixty days after expiration of each calendar year, the association shall render a report in writing of its financial affairs and transactions for the year, and of its financial condition at year-end. The association shall furnish a copy of the report to each member and to the supervisor.

(2) The financial affairs of the association shall be subject to examination by the supervisor at such intervals as he may deem advisable in relation to the extent of the association's activities. The cost of examination shall be borne by the association. In lieu of his own examination, the supervisor may accept the report of any competent accountant, satisfactory to the supervisor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. TAXATION. The association shall be exempt from all taxes and fees now or hereafter imposed by the state of Washington or any county, municipality, or local authority or subdivision; except that any real property owned by the association shall be subject to taxation to the same extent according to its value as other real property is taxed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. IMMUNITY. There shall be no separate and individual liability on the part of and no cause of action of any nature shall arise against any member insurer, agents or employees of the association, the board of directors, or the supervisor or his representatives, for any action taken by them in the performance of their powers and duties under this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. SHORT TITLE. This act shall be known and may be cited as the Washington credit union share guaranty association act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. CONSTRUCTION. This act shall be liberally construed to effect the purpose stated in section 2 of this act, which shall constitute an aid and guide to interpretation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. SECTION HEADINGS NOT PART OF LAW. Section headings in this act do not constitute any part of the law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. SEVERABILITY. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part of this act shall for any reason be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder thereof but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment has been rendered.

AN ACT Relating to savings and loan associations and mutual savings banks; and adding a new chapter to Title 33 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. As used in this chapter, unless the context indicates otherwise:

- (1) "Association" means any building and loan or savings and loan association or society organized under the laws of this state or a savings and loan association organized under the laws of the United States of America;
- (2) "Director" means a member of the managing board of an association;
- (3) "Bank" means a mutual savings bank organized under the laws of this state; and
- (4) "Trustee" means a member of the managing board of a bank.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Any going bank may, if its guaranty fund regularly accumulated amounts to five thousand dollars or more, be converted into an association in the following manner:

- (1) The trustees of such bank shall pass, by at least a two-thirds favorable vote of all trustees, a resolution declaring its intention to convert the bank into an association, specifying in such resolution the type of association and whether the association is to be organized under the laws of this state, or is to be organized under the laws of the United States of America. If the association is to be a state association the bank shall apply to the supervisor of savings and loan associations for authority to convert into an association;
- (2) A duplicate of the application made to the supervisor of savings and loan associations, or such application as may be filed with the federal home loan bank board or other federal agency, shall be filed with the supervisor of banking;
- (3) The supervisor of savings and loan associations shall, in the case of an application to convert into a state association, make the same investigation and determine the same questions as he would be required by law to make in determining the case of submission to him of articles of incorporation of a proposed new state association, and shall also determine, after conference with the supervisor of banking, whether the proposed conversion would serve the needs and conveniences of the depositors of such bank; and
- (4) The supervisor of savings and loan associations shall grant or deny the application within sixty days of its date of filing and shall immediately notify the secretary of such bank of his decision.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. If the application is granted to become a state association, the supervisor of savings and loan associations shall require the applicant to enter into an agreement or undertaking with him, as trustee for the shareholders of the association, to make such cash contributions to an expense fund of the association as in his judgment will be necessary then and from time to time thereafter to pay the operating expenses of the association if its earnings should not be sufficient to pay the same in addition to the payment of such dividends as may be declared and credited to shareholders from its earnings.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If the application is denied by the supervisor of savings and loan associations, the bank, acting by a two-thirds majority of its trustees, may, within thirty days after receiving notice of such denial, appeal to the superior court of Thurston county pursuant to the provisions of the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. If the application is granted by the supervisor of savings and loan associations, or by the court, the trustees of such bank shall, within thirty days thereafter, subscribe, acknowledge, and file with the supervisor of savings and loan associations, in quadruplicate, a certificate of reincorporation stating:

(1) The name by which the association is to be known, which name shall include the words "building and loan" or "savings and loan", and "association" or "society";

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Upon filing the certificate in quadruplicate as provided in section 5 of this act, the supervisor of savings and loan associations shall, within thirty days thereafter, if satisfied that all the provisions of this chapter have been complied with, issue in quadruplicate an authorization certificate stating that the association has complied with all of the requirements of law, and that it has authority to transact, at the place or places designated in its certificate, the business of an association. The supervisor of savings and loan associations shall retain one set of the quadruplicate originals of the certificate of reincorporation and of the certificate of authorization and shall transmit the other three sets to the association, which shall retain one set, file one set with the secretary of state, and file one set with the auditor of the county in which the home office of the association is located, paying the required fees. Upon such filings being made, the conversion of such bank to such association shall be deemed complete and consummated, and the association shall thereupon be a corporation having the powers and being subject to the duties and obligations prescribed by the laws of this state applicable to state associations, and the time of existence of such association shall be perpetual, unless sooner terminated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Upon the conversion of a bank into an association, every person who was a depositor of the bank at the time of the conversion shall become and be deemed to be a shareholder or depositor of the association in a sum equal to the withdrawal value of his deposits in the bank as of the day on which the conversion was consummated, and every such shareholder shall share in the interest paid by the corporation to that day as though the conversion had not been effected: PROVIDED, That any person who was a depositor of the bank shall be entitled, at any time within sixty days after the conversion was consummated, to withdraw the value of his deposits as though no conversion had taken place.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. All mortgages, notes, and other securities of any bank that has been converted into an association shall, on request of the association, be delivered to it by the supervisor of banking or, under his direction, by any trust company or other depository having possession thereof. The guaranty fund of the bank shall become the contingent fund of the association. If the association is a state association it shall, as soon as practicable and within such time and by such methods as the supervisor of savings and loan associations may direct, cause its organization, its securities and investments, the character of its business, and its methods of transacting the same to conform to the laws applicable to state associations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Upon a conversion being consummated all assets, rights and properties of the bank shall vest in and be the property of the association and all liabilities, debts, and obligations of the bank shall be the liabilities, debts, and obligations of the association and any right can be enforced by or against the association the same as it could have been enforced by or against the bank if the conversion had not occurred.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Within twelve months following consummation of the conversion, the directors of a state association shall call a meeting of the shareholders for the purpose of electing directors and conducting such other business of the association as is appropriate. Notice of such meeting shall be mailed not less than ten nor more than thirty days in advance of such meeting to the last known address of each shareholder. Such notice may also include a proxy form authorizing any one or more persons, who may be directors or officers of the association, selected by the directors, to vote on behalf of any shareholder executing such proxy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. If the bank specifies in the resolution that it intends to become a federal association it shall proceed to make all filings and do all things which are required by federal laws and regulations to qualify as and become a federal association, and when all such things have been accomplished and a charter has been issued by the appropriate federal agency, the bank shall thereupon cease to be a mutual savings bank organized under the laws of this state.

A registered broker-dealer or investment adviser may file an application for registration of a successor, and the administrator may at his discretion grant or deny the application.

Sec. 7. Section 11, chapter 282, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 2, chapter 17, Laws of 1965 and RCW 21.20.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The director may by order deny, suspend, or revoke registration of any broker-dealer, salesman, investment adviser salesman, or investment adviser if he finds that the order is in the public interest and that the applicant or registrant or, in the case of a broker-dealer or investment adviser, any partner, officer, or director:

(7) Has engaged in dishonest or unethical practices in the securities business;

If no hearing is requested and none is ordered by the director, the order will remain in effect until it is modified or vacated by the director. Sec. 9. Section 13, chapter 282, Laws of 1959 and RCW 21.20.130 are each amended to read as follows:

If the director finds that any registrant or applicant for registration is no longer in existence or has ceased to do business as a broker-dealer, investment adviser, investment adviser salesman, or salesman, or is subject to an adjudication of mental incompetence or to the control of a committee, conservator, or guardian,

A registration statement by qualification under RCW 21.20.210 becomes effective if no stop order is in effect and no proceeding is pending under RCW 21.20.280 and 21.20.300, at three o'clock Pacific standard time in the afternoon of the fifteenth full business day after the filing of the registration statement or the last amendment, or at such earlier time as the director determines. The director may require as a condition of registration under this section that a prospectus containing any information necessary for complete disclosure of any material fact relating to the security offering be sent or given to each person to whom an offer is made before or concurrently with (1) the first written offer made to him (other than by means of a public advertisement) by or for the account of the issuer or any other person on whose behalf the offering is being made, or by any underwriter or broker-dealer who is offering part of an unsold allotment or subscription taken by him as a participant in the distribution, (2) the confirmation of any sale made by or for the account of any such person, (3) payment pursuant to any such sale, or (4) delivery of the security pursuant to any such sale, whichever first occurs; but the director ~~((shall))~~ may accept for use under any such requirement a current prospectus or offering circular regarding the same securities filed under the Securities Act of 1933 or regulations thereunder.

A registration statement may be filed by the issuer, any other person on whose behalf the offering is to be made, or a registered broker-dealer. ~~((Any document filed under this chapter or a predecessor act within five years preceding the filing of a registration statement may be incorporated by reference in the registration statement to the extent that the document is currently accurate.))~~ The director may by rule or otherwise permit the omission of any item of information or document from any registration statement.

Sec. 13. Section 26, chapter 282, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 5, chapter 77, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 21.20.260 are each amended to read as follows:

When securities are registered by ~~((notification;))~~ coordination~~((;))~~ or qualification, they may be offered and sold by the issuer, any other person on whose behalf they are registered or by any registered broker-dealer or any person acting within the exemption provided in RCW 21.20.040. Every registration shall remain effective until its expiration date or until revoked by the director or until terminated upon request of the registrant with the consent of the director. All outstanding securities of the same class as a registered security are considered to be registered for the purpose of any nonissuer transaction.

Sec. 14. Section 27, chapter 282, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 3, chapter 17, Laws of 1965 and RCW 21.20.270 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The director may require the person who filed the registration statement to file reports, not more often than quarterly to keep reasonably current the information contained in the registration statement and to disclose the progress of the offering with respect to registered securities which (a) are issued by a face-amount certificate company or a redeemable security issued by an open-end management company or unit investment trust as those terms are defined in the investment company act of 1940, or (b) are being offered and sold directly by or for the account of the issuer. A ten dollar fee shall accompany each such report.

Such statements at the discretion of the director or administrator shall be certified by a certified public accountant who is not an employee of the issuer, and the director may verify them by examining the issuer's books and records. The certificate of such independent certified public accountant shall be based upon an audit of not less in scope or procedures followed than that which independent public accountants would ordinarily make for the purpose of presenting comprehensive and dependable financial statements, and shall contain such information as the director may prescribe, by rules and regulations in the public interest or for the protection of investors, as to the nature and scope of the audit and the findings and opinions of the accountants. Each such report shall state that such independent certified public accountant has verified securities owned, either by actual examination, or by receipt of a certificate from the custodian, as the director may prescribe by rules and regulations.

The director may issue a stop order denying effectiveness to, or suspending or revoking the effectiveness of, any registration statement if he finds that the order is in the public interest and that:

(3) The security registered or sought to be registered is the subject of a permanent or temporary injunction of any court of competent jurisdiction entered under any other federal or state act applicable to the offering; but (a) the director may not institute a proceeding against an effective registration statement under this clause more than one year from the date of the injunction relief on, and (b) he may not enter an order under this clause on the basis of an injunction entered under any other state act unless that order or injunction was based on facts which would currently constitute a ground for a stop order under this section;

(4) The issuer's enterprise or method of business includes or would include activities which are illegal where performed;

(5) The offering has worked or tended to work a fraud upon purchasers or would so operate;

~~(6) ((When a security is sought to be registered by notification, it is not eligible for such registration;~~

~~(7))~~ When a security is sought to be registered by coordination, there has been a failure to comply with the undertaking required by RCW 21.20.180(7), or

~~((8))~~ (7) The applicant or registrant has failed to pay the proper registration fee; but the director may enter only a denial order under this subsection and he shall vacate any such order when the deficiency has been corrected;

~~((9))~~ (8) The offering has been or would be made with unreasonable amounts of underwriters' and sellers' discounts, commissions, or compensation or promoters' profits or participation, or unreasonable amounts or kinds of options.

(b) Such securities do not constitute the whole or a part of an unsold allotment to or subscription or participation by such broker-dealer as an underwriter of such securities or as a participant in the distribution of such securities by the issuer, by an underwriter or by a person or group of persons in substantial control of the issuer or of the outstanding securities of the class being distributed; and

If a hearing is requested or ordered, the director, after notice of an opportunity for hearing to all interested persons, may modify or vacate the order or extend it until final determination. No order under this subsection may operate retroactively. No person may be considered to have violated this chapter by reason of any offer or sale effected after the entry of an order under this subsection if he sustains the burden of proof that he did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known of the order. In any proceeding under this chapter, the burden of proving an exemption from a definition is upon the person claiming it.

Sec. 18. Section 3, chapter 199, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 7, chapter 77, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 21.20.325 are each amended to read as follows:

The director or administrator may by order deny, revoke, or condition any exemption specified in subsection ~~((s (9) or (11)))~~ (10) of RCW 21.20.310 or in RCW 21.20.320 with respect to a specific security or transaction. No such order may be entered without appropriate prior notice to all interested parties, opportunity for hearing, and written findings of fact and conclusions of law, except that the director or administrator may by order summarily deny, revoke, or condition any of the specified exemptions pending final determination of any proceeding under this section. Upon the entry of a summary order, the director or administrator shall promptly notify all interested parties that it has been entered and of the reasons therefor and that within fifteen days of the receipt of a written request the matter will be set down for hearing. If no hearing is requested and none is ordered by the director or administrator, the order will remain in effect until it is modified or vacated by the director or administrator. If a hearing is requested or ordered, the director or administrator, after notice of and opportunity for hearing to all interested persons, may modify or vacate the order or extend it until final determination. No order under this section may operate retroactively. No person may be considered to have violated RCW 21.20.140 as now or hereafter amended by reason of any offer or sale effected after the entry of an order under this section if he sustains the burden of proof that he did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the order.

Sec. 19. Section 33, chapter 282, Laws of 1959 and RCW 21.20.330 are each amended to read as follows:

Every applicant for registration as a broker-dealer, investment adviser, investment adviser salesman, or salesman under this chapter and every issuer which proposes to offer a security in this state through any person acting on an agency basis in the common law sense shall file with the director, in such form as he by rule prescribes, an irrevocable consent appointing the director or his successor in office to be the attorney of the applicant to receive service of any lawful process in any noncriminal suit, action, or proceeding against the applicant or it or his successor, executor or administrator which arises under this chapter or any rule or order hereunder after the consent has been filed, with the same force and validity as if served personally on the person filing the consent. A person who has filed such a consent in connection with a previous registration need not file another. Service may be made by leaving a copy of the process in the office of the director, but it is not effective unless (1) the plaintiff, who may be the director in a suit, action, or proceeding instituted by him, forthwith sends notice of the service and a copy of the process by registered mail to the defendant or respondent at it or his last address on file with the director, and (2) the plaintiff's affidavit of compliance with this section is filed in the case on or before the return day of the process, if any, or within such further time as the court allows.

Neither any such fact nor the fact that an exemption or exception is available for a security or a transaction means that the director has passed in any way upon the merits of qualifications of, or recommended or given approval to, any person, security, or transaction. It is unlawful to make, or cause to be made, to any prospective purchaser, customer, or client any representation inconsistent with this section.

Sec. 22. Section 38, chapter 282, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 9, chapter 77, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 21.20.380 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of any investigation or proceeding under this chapter, the director or any officer designated by him may administer oaths and affirmations, subpoena witnesses, compel their attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memoranda, agreements, or other documents or records which the director deems relevant or material to the inquiry.

In case of disobedience on the part of any person to comply with any subpoena lawfully issued by the director, or on the refusal of any witness to testify to any matters regarding which he may be lawfully interrogated, the superior court of any county or the judge thereof, on application of the director, and after satisfactory evidence of wilful disobedience, may compel obedience by proceedings for contempt, as in the case of disobedience of the requirements of a subpoena issued from such a court on a refusal to testify therein.

~~((No person is excused from attending and testifying or from producing any document or record before the director or in obedience to the subpoena of the director or any officer designated by him, or in any proceeding instituted by the director, on the ground that the testimony or evidence (documentary or otherwise) required of him may tend to incriminate him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture, but no individual may be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any transaction, matter, or thing concerning which he is compelled, after claiming his privilege against self-incrimination, to testify or produce evidence (documentary or otherwise), except that the individual so testifying shall not be exempt from prosecution and punishment for perjury committed in so testifying.))~~

Sec. 23. Section 39, chapter 282, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 10, chapter 77, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 21.20.390 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever it appears to the director that any person has engaged or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of any provision of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder, he may in his discretion:

(1) Issue an order directing the person to cease and desist from continuing the act or practice: PROVIDED, That reasonable notice of and opportunity for a hearing shall be given: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the director may issue a temporary order pending the hearing which shall remain in effect until ten days after the hearing is held and which shall become final if the person to whom notice is addressed does not request a hearing within fifteen days after the receipt of notice; or

(2) The director may without issuing a cease and desist order, bring an action in any court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin any such acts or practices and to enforce compliance with this chapter or any rule or order hereunder. Upon a proper showing a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or writ of mandamus shall be granted and a receiver or conservator may be appointed for the defendant or the defendant's assets. The director may not be required to post a bond. If the director prevails, he shall be entitled to a reasonable attorney's fee to be fixed by the court.

(3) Whenever it appears to the director that any person who has received a permit to issue, sell or otherwise dispose of securities under this chapter, whether current or otherwise, has become insolvent, the director may petition a court of competent jurisdiction to appoint a receiver or conservator for the defendant or the defendant's assets. The director may not be required to post a bond.

(4) The director may include in any action authorized by subsection (2) of this section a claim for restitution or damages on behalf of the persons injured by the act or practice constituting the subject matter of the action. The court shall have the power to award appropriate relief to such persons, if the court finds that enforcement of the rights of such persons by private civil action, whether by class action or otherwise, would be so burdensome or expensive as to be impractical.

Sec. 24. Section 43, chapter 282, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 11, chapter 77, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 21.20.430 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) Any person who buys a security by means of fraud or misrepresentation is liable to the person selling the security to him, who may sue either at law or in equity to recover the security, together with any income received on the security, costs, and reasonable attorneys' fees or if the security cannot be recovered, the value of the security, any profits arising from the security, costs, and reasonable attorneys' fees.

There is contribution as in cases of contract among the several persons so liable.

~~(((3)) Any tender specified in this section may be made at any time before entry of judgment.))~~ (4) (a) Every cause of action under this statute survives the death of any person who might have been a plaintiff or defendant.

(b) No person may sue under this section more than three years after the contract of sale. ~~(((4)))~~ (5) No person who has made or engaged in the performance of any contract in violation of any provision of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder, or who has acquired any purported right under any such contract with knowledge of the facts by reason of which its making or performance was in violation, may base any suit on the contract. Any condition, stipulation, or provision binding any person acquiring any security to waive compliance with any provision of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder is void.

Sec. 25. Section 45, chapter 282, Laws of 1959 and RCW 21.20.450 are each amended to read as follows:

The administration of the provisions of this chapter shall be under the department of licenses. The director may from time to time make, amend, and rescind such rules and forms as are necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter, including rules defining any term, whether or not such term is used in the Washington securities law. The director may classify securities, persons, and matters within his jurisdiction, and prescribe different requirements for different classes. No rule or form, may be made unless the director finds that the action is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors and consistent with the purposes fairly intended by the policy and provisions of this chapter. In prescribing rules and forms the director may cooperate with the securities administrators of the other states and the securities and exchange commission with a view to effectuating the policy of this statute to achieve maximum uniformity in the form and content of registration statements, applications, and reports wherever practicable. NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to Title 30 RCW a new section to read as follows:

After the period of supervisory direction specified by the supervisor for compliance, if he determines that such bank has failed to comply with the lawful requirements imposed, upon due notice and hearing or by consent of the bank, the supervisor may appoint a conservator, who shall immediately take charge of such bank and all of its property, books, records, and effects. The conservator shall conduct the business of the bank and take such steps toward the removal of the causes and conditions which have necessitated such order, as the supervisor may direct. During the pendency of the conservatorship the conservator shall make such reports to the supervisor from time to time as may be required by the supervisor, and shall be empowered to take all necessary measures to preserve, protect, and recover any assets or property of such bank, including claims or causes of actions belonging to or which may be asserted by such bank, and to deal with the same in his own name as conservator, and shall be empowered to file, prosecute, and defend any suit and suits which have been filed or which may thereafter be filed by or against such bank which are deemed by the conservator to be necessary to protect all of the interested parties for a property affected thereby. The supervisor, or any newly appointed deputy, may be appointed to serve as conservator. If the supervisor, however, is satisfied that such bank is not in condition to continue business in the interest of its depositors or creditors under the conservator as above provided, the supervisor may proceed with appropriate remedies provided by other provisions of this title.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to Title 30 RCW a new section to read as follows:

All costs incident to supervisory direction and the conservatorship shall be fixed and determined by the supervisor and shall be a charge against the assets of the bank to be allowed and paid as the supervisor may determine.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to Title 30 RCW a new section to read as follows:

During the period of the supervisory direction and during the period of conservatorship, the bank may request the supervisor to review an action taken or proposed to be taken by the representative or conservator; specifying wherein the action complained of is believed not to be in the best interest of the bank, and such request shall stay the action specified pending review of such action by the supervisor. Any order entered by the supervisor appointing a representative and providing that the bank shall not do certain acts as provided in sections 3 and 4 of this 1975 act, any order entered by the supervisor appointing a conservator, and any order by the supervisor following the review of an action of the representative or conservator as herein above provided shall be subject to review in accordance with the administrative procedure act of the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to Title 30 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any suit filed against a bank or its conservator, after the entrance of an order by the supervisor placing such bank in conservatorship and while such order is in effect, shall be brought in the superior court of Thurston county and not elsewhere. The conservator appointed hereunder for such bank may file suit in any superior court or other court of competent jurisdiction against any person for the purpose of preserving, protecting, or recovering any asset or property of such bank including claims or causes of action belonging to or which may be asserted by such bank.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to Title 30 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The conservator shall serve for such time as is necessary to accomplish the purposes of the conservatorship as intended by this chapter. If rehabilitated, the rehabilitated bank shall be returned to management or new managements under such conditions as are reasonable and necessary to prevent recurrence of the condition which occasioned the conservatorship.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to Title 30 RCW a new section to read as follows:

If the supervisor determines to act under authority of this chapter, the sequence of his acts and proceedings shall be as set forth in this chapter. However, it is the purpose and substance of this chapter to authorize administrative discretion—to allow the supervisor administrative discretion in the event of unsound banking operations—and in furtherance of that purpose the supervisor is hereby authorized to proceed with regulation either under this chapter or under any other applicable provisions of law or under this chapter in connection with other law, either as such law is now existing or is hereinafter enacted, and it is so provided.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to Title 30 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The supervisor is empowered to adopt and promulgate such reasonable rules and regulations as may be necessary for the implementation of this chapter and its purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 1 through 10 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 30 RCW.

and means of payment of such bonds; adding new sections to Title 28B RCW; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature has previously approved by its appropriation of funds from time to time, a capital improvement project for the University of Washington hospital, which project was to be partly funded by the issuance, by the university board of regents, of revenue bonds payable from certain university hospital fees. In order that such project may be funded on terms most advantageous to the state, it is hereby determined to be in the public interest that state general obligation bonds be issued to provide part of the funds for such project in lieu of revenue bonds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. For the purpose of providing financing for needed acquisition, construction, remodeling, furnishing or equipping of buildings and facilities of the University of Washington hospital, the state finance committee is hereby authorized to issue from time to time general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the aggregate principal amount of eight million dollars, or so much thereof as shall be required to finance the university hospital improvements project described in section 1 of this 1975 act, to be paid and discharged within thirty years of the date of issuance, in accordance with Article VIII, section 1, of the Constitution of the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. When the state finance committee has determined to issue such general obligation bonds or a portion thereof, it may, pending the issuance thereof, issue in the name of the state temporary notes in anticipation of the issuance of such bonds, which notes shall be designated as "bond anticipation notes". Such portion of the proceeds of the sale of such bonds as may be required for the payment of principal and redemption premium, if any, of and interest on such notes shall be applied thereto when such bonds are issued.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The state finance committee is authorized to prescribe the form, terms, conditions and covenants of the bonds and/or the bond anticipation notes, the time or times of sale of all or any portion of them, and the conditions and manner of their sale and issuance.

Each such bond and bond anticipation note shall pledge the full faith and credit of the state of Washington and shall contain an unconditional promise to pay the principal thereof and the interest thereon when due.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Except for that portion of the proceeds required to pay bond anticipation notes pursuant to section 3 of this 1975 act, the proceeds from the sale of the bonds and/or bond anticipation notes authorized herein, together with all grants, donations, transferred funds and other moneys which the state finance committee or the board of regents of the University of Washington may direct the state treasurer to deposit therein, shall be deposited in the building authority construction account in the state treasury.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Subject to legislative appropriation, all proceeds of the bonds and/or bond anticipation notes authorized in this 1975 act shall be administered and expended by the board of regents of the University of Washington exclusively for the purposes specified in this 1975 act and for the payment of the expenses incurred in connection with the sale and issuance of such bonds and bond anticipation notes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The 1975 University of Washington hospital bond retirement fund is hereby created in the state treasury for the purpose of the payment of principal of and interest on the bonds authorized to be issued pursuant to this 1975 act.

The state finance committee, on or before June 30th of each year, shall certify to the state treasurer the amount required in the next succeeding twelve months for the payment of the principal of and interest coming due on such bonds. On July 1st of each such year the state treasurer shall withdraw from any general state revenues received in the state treasury and deposit in the 1975 University of Washington hospital bond retirement fund an amount equal to the amount certified by the state finance committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. On or before June 30th of each year, the board of regents of the University shall cause to be accumulated, in an appropriate local fund, from fees charged patients of the university hospital and other moneys legally available for such purposes, an amount at least equal to the amount required in the next succeeding twelve months for the payment of the principal of and interest coming due on the bonds issued pursuant to this 1975 act. Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 28B.15.220, on July 1st of each such year the board of regents of the university shall cause to be paid to the state treasurer for deposit into the general fund of the state treasury, the sum so accumulated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The bonds authorized in this 1975 act shall constitute a legal investment for all state funds or for funds under state control and all funds of municipal corporations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The bonds authorized in this act shall be issued only after the university board of regents has certified to the state finance committee that projected revenue from fees charged patients of the University Hospital shall be adequate, based upon reasonable projections for that revenue, to enable the board of regents to meet the requirement of section 8 of this act during the life of the bonds proposed to be issued.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 1 through 10 of this 1975 act are added to Title 28B RCW.

"Sale at retail" or "retail sale" means every sale of tangible personal property (including articles produced, fabricated, or imprinted) to all persons irrespective of the nature of their business and including, among others, without limiting the scope hereof, persons who install, repair, clean, alter, improve, construct, or decorate real or personal property of or for consumers other than a sale to a person who (a) purchases for the purpose of resale as tangible personal property in the regular course of business without intervening use by such person, or (b) installs, repairs, cleans, alters, imprints, improves, constructs, or decorates real or personal property of or for consumers, if such tangible personal property becomes an ingredient or component of such real or personal property without intervening use by such person, or (c) purchases for the purpose of consuming the property purchased in producing for sale a new article of tangible personal property or substance, of which such property becomes an ingredient or component or is a chemical used in processing, when the primary purpose of such chemical is to create a chemical reaction directly through contact with an ingredient of a new article being produced for sale. The term shall include every sale of tangible personal property which is used or consumed or to be used or consumed in the performance of any activity classified as a "sale at retail" or "retail sale" even though such property is resold or utilized as provided in (a), (b), or (c) above following such use. (2) The general administration construction fund in the general fund created under RCW 43.82.090.

Passed the House May 8, 1975.

Passed the Senate May 16, 1975.

Approved by the Governor May 27, 1975, with the exception of section 2 which is vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State May 27, 1975.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith without my approval as to one section House Bill No. 1075 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to state funds."

This bill transfers balances in the general administration construction fund and public school building construction account to the state general fund.

Section 2 declares an emergency and provides for the act to take effect immediately. I have, on several recent occasions, expressed my increasing apprehension over repeated and unwarranted use of emergency clauses in bills that do not measure up to the standard of urgency contained in Article II, section 1(b) of our Constitution. I have vetoed emergency clauses from such bills, and must do so again for the same reason in the case of this bill.

With the exception of section 2 which I have vetoed, the remainder of House Bill No. 1075 is approved."

Passed the House May 1, 1975.

Passed the Senate May 15, 1975.

Approved by the Governor May 27, 1975, with the exception of section 1 which is vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State May 27, 1975.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith without my approval as to one section Substitute House Bill No. 409 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to electricians and electrical installations."

The purpose of the bill is to empower the board of electrical examiners to establish, in addition to a general electrical contractors' license, other classifications of specialty licenses, and to administer written examinations for general and specialty electrical contractors' qualifying certificates.

Section 1 of the bill contains a grandfather clause providing that any person licensed as an electrical contractor during 1974 will be entitled to receive a general electrical contractor license. As a first matter, I do not believe a grandfather clause serves either the best interest of the industry or the public. The grandfather clause should not be necessary where different classes of examinations are to be administered to take into account those electrical contractors who may only be skilled in certain specialties. Second, I believe it is extremely unwise to grant, by the grandfather clause, a general electrical contractor's license to all those presently licensed regardless of whether they may be qualified to perform general electrical contracting work.

It is my belief and intent that a veto of section 1 will still leave the board of electrical examiners with sufficient flexibility to establish examinations in both general and specialty areas which take into account an applicant's past experience as a licensed electrical contractor under previous law so that qualified practitioners are not unfairly barred from their lifetime profession.

For the foregoing reasons, I have determined to veto section 1. With the sole exception of that section, I have approved the remainder of Substitute House Bill No. 409."

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 11.88 RCW a new section to read as follows:

It is the intent and purpose of the legislature to recognize that mentally retarded, developmentally disabled, and other allegedly mentally incompetent persons have special and unique abilities and competencies with varying degrees of disability.

Such persons must be legally protected without the necessity for determination of total incompetency and without the attendant deprivation of civil and legal rights that such a determination requires.

Sec. 2. Section 11.88.010, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 and RCW 11.88.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The superior court of each county shall have power to appoint guardians for the persons and estates, or either thereof, of incompetent persons resident of the county, and guardians for the estates of all such persons who are nonresidents of the state but who have property in such county needing care and attention.

An "incompetent" is any person who is either

~~((1))~~ (a) Under the age of majority, as defined in RCW 11.92.010, or

(2) The superior court for each county shall have power to appoint limited guardians for the persons and estates, or either thereof, of disabled persons, who by reason of their disability have need for protection and assistance, but who cannot be found to be fully incompetent, upon investigation by the court or any agency jointly designated by the mental health board and mental retardation board (or county social service administrative board where applicable) of the county where such person resides. After considering all evidence presented as a result of such investigation, the court shall impose, by order, only such specific limitations and disabilities on a disabled person to be placed under a limited guardianship as the court finds necessary for such person's protection and assistance. A person shall not be presumed to be incompetent nor shall a person lose any legal rights or suffer any legal disabilities as the result of being placed under a limited guardianship, except as to those rights and disabilities specifically set forth in the court order establishing such a limited guardianship. In addition, the court order shall state the period of time for which it shall be applicable.

For the purposes of chapters 11.88 and 11.92 RCW the term "disabled person" includes, but is not limited to, an individual who is mentally retarded, mentally ill, developmentally disabled, or is gravely disabled.

Sec. 3. Section 11.88.020, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 4, chapter 28, Laws of 1971 and RCW 11.88.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Any suitable person over the age of eighteen years, or any parent under the age of eighteen years may, if not otherwise disqualified, be appointed guardian or limited guardian of the person and/or the estate of an incompetent or disabled person; any trust company regularly organized under the laws of this state and national banks when authorized so to do may act as guardian or limited guardian of the estate of an incompetent or disabled person; and any nonprofit corporation may act as guardian or limited guardian of the person and/or estate of an incompetent or disabled person if the articles of incorporation or bylaws of such corporation permit such action and such corporation is in compliance with all applicable provisions of Title 24 RCW. No person is qualified to serve as a domiciliary guardian who is

- (1) under eighteen years of age except as otherwise provided herein;
- (2) of unsound mind;

- (5) a corporation not authorized to act as a fiduciary, guardian, or limited guardian in the state;
- (6) a person whom the court finds unsuitable.

Sec. 4. Section 11.88.030, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 and RCW 11.88.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Any interested person or entity may file a petition for the appointment of himself or some other qualified person, trust company, national bank, or nonprofit corporation authorized in RCW 11.88.020 as now or hereafter amended as the guardian or limited guardian of an incompetent or disabled person. ~~((Such))~~ A petition for guardianship or limited guardianship shall state:

All petitions filed under the provisions of this section shall be heard within thirty days.

Sec. 5. Section 11.88.040, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 1, chapter 70, Laws of 1969 and RCW 11.88.040 are each amended to read as follows:

No notice need be given to those persons named in subsections (2) and (3) of this section if they have signed the petition for the appointment of the guardian or limited guardian or have waived notice of the hearing. If the petition is by a parent asking for his appointment as guardian or limited guardian of a minor child under the age of fourteen years, or if the petition be accompanied by the written consent of a minor of the age of fourteen years or upward, consenting to the appointment of the guardian or limited guardian asked for, or if the petition be by a nonresident guardian of any minor or incompetent or disabled person, then the court may appoint the guardian without notice of the hearing. The court for good cause may reduce the number of days of notice, but in every case, at least three days notice shall be given. ~~((It shall not be necessary that the person for whom guardianship is sought shall be represented by a guardian ad litem in the proceedings.))~~

In all guardianship and limited guardianship hearings the alleged incompetent or disabled person shall be present in court at the final hearing on the petition. If the petition for guardianship or limited guardianship states that the alleged incompetent or disabled person is physically unable to be present, the guardian ad litem may request the court to waive the requirement of the presence of the alleged incompetent at the hearing or the court may remove itself to the place of residence of the alleged incompetent or disabled person and conduct the final hearing in the presence of the alleged incompetent or disabled person.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 11.88 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The person appointed by the court as either guardian or limited guardian of the person and/or estate of an incompetent or disabled person, shall file in writing with the court, a designated stand-by limited guardian or guardian to serve as limited guardian or guardian at the death of the court-appointed guardian or limited guardian. NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 11.88 RCW a new section to read as follows:

An alleged incompetent or disabled person is entitled to independent legal counsel at his own expense to represent him in the procedure: PROVIDED, That if the alleged incompetent or disabled person is unable to pay for such representation or should such payment result in substantial hardship upon such person the county shall be responsible for such costs. The alleged incompetent or disabled person is further entitled upon request to a jury trial on the issues of his alleged incompetency or disability, with the standard of proof to be applied being that of clear, cogent, and convincing evidence.

In all proceedings for appointment of a guardian or limited guardian, the court must be presented with a sworn medical report pertaining to the alleged incompetent or disabled persons' degree of incompetency or disability: PROVIDED, That the court may waive the filing of a sworn medical report.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 11.88 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Every petition for guardianship or limited guardianship, the grounds for which allege incompetency or disability as a result of mental illness or mental retardation, shall be referred by the court to an agency to be designated and paid for by the local mental health board and the local mental retardation board (or county social service administrative board where applicable) for an impartial investigation and report relating to the degree of incompetency or disability, the appropriateness of the petitioned for guardian or limited guardian, and the limits to be placed upon the disabled person should a limited guardianship be ordered. The investigation and report shall be made and forwarded to the court, with copies to the alleged incompetent or disabled person and the petitioner, within twenty days after reference to the agency by the court.

Upon receipt of a petition for appointment of guardian or limited guardian, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem, who may be a person recommended by either the local mental health board or mental retardation board (or county social service administrative board where applicable), to represent the interests of the alleged incompetent or disabled person in response to any petition for guardianship or limited guardianship. The appointment of a guardian ad litem shall have no effect on the legal competency of the alleged incompetent or disabled person and such appointment shall not overcome the presumption of competency or full legal and civil rights of the alleged incompetent or disabled person.

The court appointed guardian ad litem shall have the authority, in the event that the alleged incompetent or disabled person is in need of emergency and life-saving medical services, and is unable to consent to such medical services due to incapacity pending the hearing on the petition to give consent for such emergency and life-saving medical services on behalf of the alleged incompetent or disabled person.

The bond shall be for the use of the incompetent or disabled person, and shall not become void upon the first recovery, but may be put in suit from time to time against all or any one of the obligors, in the name and for the use and benefit of any person entitled by the breach thereof, until the whole penalty is recovered thereon. The court may require an additional bond whenever for any reason it appears to the court that an additional bond should be given.

In all guardianships or limited guardianships of the person, and in all guardianship or limited guardianships of the estate, in which the inventory filed with the court shows that the incompetent or disabled person has total accumulated assets of a value of less than fifteen hundred dollars, the court may dispense with the requirement of a bond: PROVIDED, That the guardian or limited guardian shall swear to report to the court any changes in the accumulated assets of the incompetent or disabled person increasing their value to over fifteen hundred dollars: PROVIDED FURTHER, That said guardian or limited guardian shall file a yearly statement showing the monthly income of the incompetent or disabled person if said monthly income is over the sum of two hundred fifty dollars per month for any three consecutive months.

In all cases where a bank or trust company, authorized to act as guardian or limited guardian, is appointed as guardian or limited guardian, or acts as guardian or limited guardian under an appointment as such heretofore made, no bond shall be required.

Sec. 13. Section 11.88.110, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 and RCW 11.88.110 are each amended to read as follows:

All the provisions of this title relative to bonds given by executors and administrators shall apply to bonds given by guardians or limited guardians.

Sec. 14. Section 11.88.120, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 and RCW 11.88.120 are each amended to read as follows:

The court in all cases shall have power to remove guardians or limited guardians for good and sufficient reasons, which shall be entered of record, and to appoint others in their place or in the place of those who may die, who shall give bond and security for the faithful discharge of their duties as prescribed in RCW 11.88.100 as now or hereafter amended; and when any guardian or limited guardian shall be removed or die, and a successor be appointed, the court shall have power to compel such guardian or limited guardian removed to deliver up to such successor all goods, chattels, moneys, title papers, or other effects belonging to such incompetent or disabled person, which may be in the possession of such guardian or limited guardian so removed, or of the personal representatives of a deceased guardian, or in the possession of any other person or persons, or in the possession of a stand-by guardian or limited guardian and upon failure, to commit the party offending to prison, until he complies with the order of the court.

Sec. 15. Section 11.88.130, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 and RCW 11.88.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The court of any county having jurisdiction of any guardianship or limited guardianship proceeding is authorized to transfer jurisdiction and venue of the guardianship or limited guardianship proceeding to the court of any other county of the state upon application of the guardian or limited guardian and such notice to an alleged incompetent or disabled person or other interested party as the court may require. Such transfers of guardianship or limited guardianship proceedings shall be made to the court of a county wherein either the guardian or limited guardian or alleged incompetent or disabled person resides, as the court may deem appropriate, at the time of making application for such transfer. The original order providing for any such transfer shall be retained as a permanent record by the clerk of the court in which such order is entered, and a certified copy thereof together with the original file in such guardianship or limited guardianship proceeding and a certified transcript of all record entries up to and including the order for such change shall be transmitted to the clerk of the court to which such proceeding is transferred.

Sec. 16. Section 11.88.140, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 and RCW 11.88.140 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) TERMINATION WITHOUT COURT ORDER. A guardianship or limited guardianship is terminated

(a) Upon the attainment of full and legal age, as defined in RCW 11.92.010 as now or hereafter amended, of any person defined as an incompetent or disabled person pursuant to RCW 11.88.010 as now or hereafter amended solely by reason of youth, RCW 26.28.020 to the contrary notwithstanding.

(b) By an adjudication of competency.

(c) By the death of the incompetent or disabled person.

(2) TERMINATION ON COURT ORDER. A guardianship or limited guardianship may be terminated by court order after such notice as the court may require

(a) If the guardianship or limited guardianship is of the estate and the estate is exhausted;

(b) If the guardianship or limited guardianship is no longer necessary for any other reason.

(3) EFFECT OF TERMINATION. When a guardianship or limited guardianship terminates otherwise than by the death of the incompetent or disabled person, the powers of the guardian or limited guardian cease, except that a guardian or limited guardian of the estate may make disbursements for claims that are or may be allowed by the court, for liabilities already properly incurred for the estate or for the incompetent or disabled person, and for expenses of administration. When a guardianship or limited guardianship terminates by death of the incompetent or disabled person, the guardian or limited guardian of the estate may proceed under RCW 11.88.150 as now or hereafter amended, but the rights of all creditors against the incompetent's or disabled person's estate shall be determined by the law of decedents' estates.

Sec. 17. Section 11.88.150, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 and RCW 11.88.150 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the death of an incompetent or disabled person intestate the guardian or limited guardian of his estate has power under the letters issued to him and subject to the direction of the court to administer the estate as the estate of the deceased incompetent or disabled person without further letters unless within forty days after death of the incompetent or disabled person a petition is filed for letters of administration or for letters testamentary and the petition is granted. If the guardian or limited guardian elects to administer the estate under his letters of guardianship or limited guardianship, he shall petition the court for an order transferring the guardianship or limited guardianship proceeding to a probate proceeding, and upon court approval, the clerk of the court shall re-index the cause as a decedent's estate, using the same file number which is assigned to the guardianship or limited guardianship proceeding. The guardian or limited guardian shall then be authorized to continue administration of the estate without the necessity for any further petition or hearing. Notice to creditors and other persons interested in the estate shall be published and may be combined with the notice of the guardian's or limited guardian's final account. This notice shall be published in the manner provided in RCW 11.40.010, once each week for three successive weeks, with proof by affidavit of the publication of such notice to be filed with the court. All claims which are not filed within four months after first publication shall be barred against the estate. Upon the hearing, the account may be allowed and the balance distributed to the persons entitled thereto, after the payment of such claims as may be allowed. Liability on the guardian's or limited guardian's bond shall continue until exonerated on settlement of his account, and may apply to the complete administration of the estate of the deceased incompetent or disabled person with the consent of the surety. If letters of administration or letters testamentary are granted upon petition filed within forty days after the death of the incompetent or disabled person, the personal representative shall supersede the guardian or limited guardian in the administration of the estate and the estate shall be administered as a decedent's estate as provided in this title, including the publication of notice to creditors and other interested persons and the barring of creditors claims.

Sec. 18. Section 11.92.010, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 5, chapter 28, Laws of 1971 and RCW 11.92.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Guardians or limited guardians herein provided for shall at all times be under the general direction and control of the court making the appointment. For the purposes of chapters 11.88 and 11.92 RCW, all persons shall be of full and legal age when they shall be eighteen years old.

Sec. 19. Section 11.92.035, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 and RCW 11.92.035 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) DUTY OF GUARDIAN TO PAY. A guardian of the estate is under a duty to pay from the estate all just claims against the estate of his incompetent, whether they constitute liabilities of the incompetent which arose prior to the guardianship or liabilities properly incurred by the guardian for the benefit of the incompetent or his estate and whether arising in contract or in tort or otherwise, upon allowance of the claim by the court or upon approval of the court in a settlement of the guardian's accounts. The duty of the guardian to pay from the estate shall not preclude his personal liability for his own contracts and acts made and performed on behalf of the estate as it exists according to the common law. If it appears that the estate is likely to be exhausted before all existing claims are paid, preference shall be given to prior claims for the care, maintenance and education of the incompetent and of his dependents and existing claims for expenses of administration over other claims.

(2) CLAIMS MAY BE PRESENTED. Any person having a claim against the estate of an incompetent, or against the guardian of his estate as such, may file a written claim with the court for determination at any time before it is barred by the statute of limitations, and, upon proof thereof, procure an order for its allowance and payment from the estate. Any action against the guardian of the estate as such shall be deemed a claim duly filed.

(3) DUTY OF LIMITED GUARDIAN TO PAY. Claims against a limited guardianship estate shall be paid by the limited guardian only to the extent specified in the order appointing the limited guardian.

Sec. 20. Section 11.92.040, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 and RCW 11.92.040 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be the duty of the guardian and limited guardian

(1) To make out and file within three months after his appointment a verified inventory of all the property of the incompetent or disabled person which shall come to his possession or knowledge, including a statement of all encumbrances, liens, and other secured charges on any item.

(2) ~~((Unless otherwise directed by the court, to file with the court annually within thirty days after the anniversary date of his appointment, and also within thirty days after termination of his appointment, a written verified account of his administration:))~~ To file annually, within thirty days after the anniversary date of his appointment, and also within thirty days after termination of his appointment, a written verified account of his administration: PROVIDED, That the court in its discretion may allow such reports at intervals of up to thirty-six months, with instruction to the guardian or limited guardian that any substantial increase in income or assets or substantial change in the incompetent's or disabled person's condition shall be reported within thirty days of such substantial increase or change.

(3) If he is a guardian or limited guardian of the person, to care for and maintain the incompetent, and if the incompetent or disabled person is a minor, to see that the incompetent or disabled person is properly trained and educated and that the incompetent or disabled person has the opportunity to learn a trade, occupation or profession. The guardian or limited guardian of the person may be required to report the condition of his incompetent or disabled person to the court, at regular intervals or otherwise as the court may direct.

(4) If he is a guardian or limited guardian of the estate, to protect and preserve it, to apply it as provided in this chapter, to account for it faithfully, to perform all of the duties required of him by law, and at the termination of the guardianship or limited guardianship, to deliver the assets of the incompetent or disabled person to the persons entitled thereto. Except as provided to the contrary herein, the court may authorize a guardian or limited guardian to do anything that a trustee can do under the provisions of RCW 30.99.070 for periods not exceeding one year from the date of the order.

(5) To invest and reinvest the property of the incompetent or disabled person in accordance with the rules applicable to investment of trust estates by trustees as provided in chapter 30.24 RCW, except that:

(a) No investments shall be made without prior order of the court in any property other than unconditional interest bearing obligations of this state or of the United States and in obligations the interest and principal of which are unconditionally guaranteed by the United States, and in share accounts or deposits which are insured by an agency of the United States government. Such prior order of the court may authorize specific investments, or, in the discretion of the court, may authorize the guardian or limited guardian during a period of not exceeding one year following the date of the order to invest and reinvest as provided in chapter 30.24 RCW without further order of the court.

(b) If it is for the best interests of the incompetent or disabled person that a specific property be used by the incompetent or disabled person rather than sold and the proceeds invested, the court may so order.

(6) To apply to the court for an order authorizing any disbursement on behalf of the incompetent or disabled person; provided, however, that the guardian or limited guardian of the estate, or the person, department, bureau, agency or charitable organization having the care and custody of an incompetent or disabled person, may apply to the court for an order directing the guardian or limited guardian of the estate to pay to the person, department, bureau, agency or charitable organization having the care and custody of an incompetent or disabled person, or if the guardian or limited guardian of the estate has the care and custody of the incompetent or disabled person, directing the guardian or limited guardian of the estate to apply an amount weekly, monthly, quarterly, semi-annually, or annually, as the court may direct, to be expended in the care, maintenance and education of the incompetent or disabled person and of his dependents. In proper cases, the court may order payment of amounts directly to the incompetent or disabled person for his maintenance or incidental expenses. The amounts authorized under this section may be decreased or increased from time to time by direction of the court. If payments are made to another under such order of the court, the guardian or limited guardian of the estate is not bound to see to the application thereof.

Upon the filing of any intermediate guardianship or limited guardianship account required by statute, or of any intermediate account required by court rule or order, the guardian or limited guardian may petition the court for an order settling his account with regard to any and all receipts, expenditures and investments made and acts done by the guardian or limited guardian to the date of said interim report. Upon such petition being filed, the court may in its discretion, where the size or condition of the estate warrants it, set a date for the hearing of such petition and require the service of the petition and a notice of such hearing as provided in RCW 11.88.040 as now or hereafter amended; and, in the event such a hearing be ordered, the court shall also appoint a guardian ad litem, whose duty it shall be to investigate the report of the guardian or limited guardian of the estate and to advise the court thereon at said hearing, in writing. At such hearing on said report of the guardian or limited guardian, if the court be satisfied that the actions of the guardian or limited guardian have been proper, and that the guardian or limited guardian has in all respects discharged his trust with relation to such receipts, expenditures, investments, and acts, then, in such event, the court shall enter an order approving such account, and such order shall be final and binding upon the incompetent or disabled person, subject only to the right of appeal as upon a final order; provided that at the time of final account of said guardian or limited guardian or within one year after said incompetent or disabled person attains his majority any such interim account may be challenged by said incompetent or disabled person on the ground of fraud.

If, at any hearing upon a petition to settle the account of any guardian or limited guardian, it shall appear to the court that said guardian or limited guardian has not fully accounted or that said account should not be settled, the court may continue said hearing to a day certain and may cite the surety or sureties upon the bond of said guardian or limited guardian to appear upon the date fixed in said citation and show cause why the account should not be disapproved and judgment entered for any deficiency against said guardian or limited guardian and the surety or sureties upon his or her bond. Said citation shall be personally served upon said surety or sureties in the manner provided by law for the service of summons in civil actions and shall be served not less than twenty days previous to said hearing. At said hearing any interested party, including the surety so cited, shall have the right to introduce any evidence which shall be material to the matter before the court. If, at said hearing, the final account of said guardian or limited guardian shall not be approved and the court shall find that said guardian or limited guardian is indebted to the incompetent or disabled person in any amount, said court may thereupon enter final judgment against said guardian or limited guardian and the surety or sureties upon his or her bond, which judgment shall be enforceable in the same manner and to the same extent as judgments in ordinary civil actions.

(1) GUARDIAN MAY SUE AND BE SUED. When there is a guardian of the estate, all actions between the incompetent or the guardian and third persons in which it is sought to charge or benefit the estate of the incompetent shall be prosecuted by or against the guardian of the estate as such. He shall represent the interests of the incompetent in the action and all process shall be served on him.

(2) JOINDER, AMENDMENT AND SUBSTITUTION. When the guardian of the estate is under personal liability for his own contracts and acts made and performed on behalf of the estate he may be sued both as guardian and in his personal capacity in the same action. Misnomer or the bringing of the action by or against the incompetent shall not be grounds for dismissal of the action and leave to amend or substitute shall be freely granted. If an action was commenced by or against the incompetent before the appointment of a guardian of his estate, such guardian when appointed may be substituted as a party for the incompetent. If the appointment of the guardian of the estate is terminated, his successor may be substituted; if the incompetent dies, his personal representative may be substituted; if the incompetent becomes competent, he may be substituted.

(3) GARNISHMENT, ATTACHMENT AND EXECUTION. When there is a guardian of the estate, the property and rights of action of the incompetent shall not be subject to garnishment or attachment, except for the foreclosure of a mortgage or other lien, and execution shall not issue to obtain satisfaction of any judgment against the incompetent or the guardian of his estate as such.

(4) COMPROMISE BY GUARDIAN. Whenever it is proposed to compromise or settle any claim by or against the incompetent or the guardian as such, whether arising as a result of personal injury or otherwise, and whether arising before or after appointment of a guardian, the court on petition of the guardian of the estate, if satisfied that such compromise or settlement will be for the best interests of the incompetent, may enter an order authorizing the settlement or compromise be made.

(5) LIMITED GUARDIAN. Limited guardians may serve and be served with process or actions on behalf of the disabled person, but only to the extent provided for in the court order appointing a limited guardian.

Whenever it shall appear to the satisfaction of a court by the petition of any guardian or limited guardian, that it is necessary or proper to sell, exchange, lease, mortgage, or grant an easement, license or similar interest in any of the real or personal property of the estate of such incompetent or disabled person for the purpose of paying debts or for the care, support and education of such incompetent or disabled person, or to redeem any property of such incompetent's or disabled person's estate covered by mortgage or other lien, or for the purpose of making any investments, or for any other purpose which to the court may seem right and proper, the court may make an order directing such sale, exchange, lease, mortgage, or grant of easement, license or similar interest of such part or parts of the real or personal property as shall to the court seem proper.

Such application shall be by petition, verified by the oath of the guardian or limited guardian, and shall substantially set forth:

(1) The value and character of all personal estate belonging to such incompetent or disabled person that has come to the knowledge or possession of such guardian or limited guardian.

(2) The disposition of such personal estate.

(3) The amount and condition of the incompetent's or disabled person's personal estate, if any, dependent upon the settlement of any estate, or the execution of any trust.

(4) The annual income of the real estate of the incompetent or disabled person.

(5) The amount of rent received and the application thereof.

(6) The proposed manner of reinvesting the proceeds of the sale, if asked for that purpose.

(7) Each item of indebtedness, or the amount and character of the lien, if the sale is prayed for the liquidation thereof.

(8) The age of the incompetent or disabled person, where and with whom residing.

(9) All other facts connected with the estate and condition of the incompetent or disabled person necessary to enable the court to fully understand the same. If there is no personal estate belonging to such incompetent or disabled person in possession or expectancy, and none has come into the hands of such guardian or limited guardian, and no rents have been received, the fact shall be stated in the application.

Sec. 26. Section 11.92.110, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 and RCW 11.92.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The order directing the sale of any of the real property of the estate of such incompetent or disabled person shall specify the particular property affected and the method, whether by public or private sale or by negotiation, and terms thereof, and with regard to the procedure and notices to be employed in conducting such sale, the provisions of RCW 11.56.060, 11.56.070, 11.56.080, and 11.56.110 shall be followed unless the court otherwise directs.

The guardian or limited guardian making any sale of real estate, either at public or private sale or sale by negotiation, shall within ten days after making such sale file with the clerk of the court his return of such sale, the same being duly verified. At any time after the expiration of ten days from the filing of such return, the court may, without notice, approve and confirm such sale and direct proper instruments of transfer to be executed and delivered. Upon the confirmation of any such sale, the court shall direct the guardian or limited guardian to make, execute and deliver instruments conveying the title to the person to whom such property may be sold and such instruments of conveyance shall be deemed to convey all the estate, rights and interest of the incompetent or disabled person and of his estate. In the case of a sale by negotiation the guardians or limited guardians shall publish a notice in one issue of a legal newspaper published in the county in which the estate is being administered; the substance of such notice shall include the legal description of the property sold, the selling price and the date after which the sale may be confirmed: PROVIDED, That such confirmation date shall be at least ten days after such notice is published.

No sale by any guardian or limited guardian of real or personal property shall be void or be set aside or be attacked because of any irregularities whatsoever, and none of the steps leading up to such sale or the confirmation thereof shall be jurisdictional, and the confirmation by the court of any such sale shall be conclusive as to the regularity and legality of such sale or sales, and the passing of title after confirmation by the court shall vest an absolute title in the purchaser, and such instrument of transfer may not be attacked for any purpose or any reason, except for fraud.

Sec. 29. Section 11.92.130, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 and RCW 11.92.130 are each amended to read as follows:

If any person who is bound by contract in writing to perform shall become incompetent or become a disabled person before making the performance, the court having jurisdiction of the guardianship or limited guardianship of such property may, upon application of the guardian or limited guardian of such incompetent or disabled person, or upon application of the person claiming to be entitled to the performance, make an order authorizing and directing the guardian or limited guardian to perform such contract. The application and the proceedings, shall, as nearly as may be, be the same as provided in chapter 11.60 RCW.

Sec. 30. Section 11.92.150, chapter 145, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 1, chapter 18, Laws of 1969 and RCW 11.92.150 are each amended to read as follows:

At any time after the issuance of letters of guardianship in the estate of any incompetent or disabled person, any person interested in said estate, or in such incompetent or disabled person, or any relative of such incompetent or disabled person, or any authorized representative of any agency, bureau, or department of the United States government from or through which any compensation, insurance, pension or other benefit is being paid, or is payable, may serve upon such guardian or limited guardian, or upon the attorney for such guardian or limited guardian, and file with the clerk of the court wherein the administration of such guardianship or limited guardianship estate is pending, a written request stating

When any account, petition, or proceeding is filed in such estate of which special written notice is requested as herein provided, the court shall fix a time for hearing thereon which shall allow at least ten days for service of such notice before such hearing; and notice of such hearing shall be served upon the person designated in such written request at least ten days before the date fixed for such hearing. The service may be made by leaving a copy with the person designated, or his authorized representative, or by mailing through the United States mail, with postage prepaid to the person and place designated.

(b) Thirty percent shall be paid to each county in direct proportion that the sum of the total number of private automobiles and trucks licensed by registered owners residing in unincorporated areas and seven percent of the number of private automobiles and trucks licensed by registered owners residing in incorporated areas within each county bears to the total of such sums for all counties. The number of registered vehicles so used shall be as certified by the director of the department of motor vehicles for the year next preceding the date of calculation of the allocation amounts. The director of the department shall first supply such information not later than the fifteenth day of February, 1956, and on the fifteenth of February each two years thereafter.

(c) Thirty percent shall be paid to each county in direct proportion that the product of the county's trunk highway mileage and its prorated estimated annual cost per trunk mile as provided in subsection (e) is to the sum of such products for all counties. County trunk highways are defined as county roads regularly used by school buses and/or rural free delivery mail carriers of the United States post office department, but not foot carriers. Determination of the number of miles of county roads used in each county by school buses shall be based solely upon information supplied by the superintendent of public instruction who shall on October 1, 1955 and on October 1st of each odd-numbered year thereafter furnish the state highway commission with a map of each county upon which is indicated the county roads used by school buses at the close of the preceding school year, together with a detailed statement showing the total number of miles of county highway over which school buses operated in each county during such year. Determination of the number of miles of county roads used in each county by rural mail carriers on routes serviced by vehicles during the year shall be based solely upon information supplied by the United States postal department as of January 1st of the even-numbered years.

(d) Thirty percent of such sum shall be paid to each of the several counties in the direct proportion that the product of the trunk highway mileage of the county and its "money need factor" as defined in subsection (f) is to the total of such products for all counties.

(e) Every four years, beginning with the 1958 allocation, the highway commission and the legislative transportation committee shall reexamine or cause to be reexamined all the factors on which the estimated annual costs per trunk mile for the several counties have been based and shall make such adjustments as may be necessary. The following formula shall be used: One twenty-fifth of the estimated total county road replacement cost, plus the total annual maintenance cost, divided by the total miles of county road in such county, and multiplied by the result obtained from dividing the total miles of county road in said county by the total trunk road mileage in said county. For the purpose of allocating funds from the motor vehicle fund, a county road shall be defined as one established as such by resolution or order of establishment of the board of county commissioners. The first allocation of funds shall be based on the following prorated estimated annual costs per trunk mile for the several counties as follows:

PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the prorated estimated annual costs per trunk mile in this subsection shall be adjusted every four years, beginning with the 1958 allocation by the highway commission on the basis of changes in the trunk and total county road mileage based on information supplied by the superintendent of public instruction, the United States postal department and the annual reports of the county road departments.

(f) The "money need factor" for each of the several counties shall be the difference between the prorated estimated annual costs as listed above and the sum of the following three amounts divided by the county trunk highway mileage:

(1) The equivalent of a two dollar and twenty-five cents per thousand dollars of assessed value tax levy on the valuation, as equalized by the state department of revenue for state purposes, of all taxable property in the county road districts;

(2) One-fourth the sum of all funds received by the county from the federal forest reserve fund during the two calendar years next preceding the date of the adjustment of the allocation amounts as certified by the state treasurer; and

(3) One-half the sum of motor vehicle license fees and motor vehicle fuel tax refunded to the county during the two calendar years next preceding the date of the adjustment of the allocation amounts as provided in RCW 46.68.080. These shall be as supplied to the highway commission by the state treasurer for that purpose. The department of revenue and the state treasurer shall supply the information herein requested on or before January 1, 1956 and on said date each two years thereafter.

The following formula shall be used for the purpose of obtaining the "money need factor" of the several counties: The prorated estimated annual cost per trunk mile multiplied by the trunk miles will equal the total need of the individual county. The total need minus the sum of the three resources set forth in subsection (f) shall equal the net need. The net need of the individual county divided by the total net needs for all counties shall equal the "money need factor" for that county.

(g) The state highway commission shall adjust the allocations of the several counties on March 1st of every even-numbered year based solely upon the sources of information hereinbefore required: PROVIDED, That the total allocation factor composed of the sum of the four factors defined in subsections (a), (b), (c) and (d) shall be held to a level not more than five percent above or five percent below the total allocation factor in use during the previous two year period.

(h) The highway commission and the legislative transportation committee shall relog or cause to be relogged the total road mileages upon which the prorated estimated annual costs per trunk mile are based and shall recalculate such costs on the basis of such relogging and shall report their findings and recommendations to the legislature at its next regular session.

(i) The highway commission and the legislative transportation committee shall study and report their findings and recommendations to the legislature concerning the following problems as they affect the allocation of "motor vehicle fund" funds to counties:

(1) Comparative costs per trunk mile based on federal aid contracts versus those herein advocated.

(2) Average costs per trunk mile.

(3) The advisability of using either "trunk mileage" or "county road" mileage exclusively as the criterion instead of both as in this plan adopted.

(4) Reassessment of bridge costs based on current information and relogging of bridges.

(5) The items in the list of resources used in determining the "need factor".

(6) The development of a uniform accounting system for counties with regard to road and bridge construction and maintenance costs.

(7) A redefinition of rural and urban vehicles which better reflects the use of said vehicles on county roads.

Every person performing labor or furnishing supplies toward the completion of said improvement or work shall have a lien upon said moneys so reserved: PROVIDED, That such notice of the lien of such claimant shall be given in the manner and within the time provided in RCW 39.08.030 through 39.08.060 as now existing and in accordance with any amendments that may hereafter be made thereto: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the board, council, commission,

BUILDING AND LOAN, SAVINGS AND LOAN ASS'NS—CONVERSION TO MUTUAL SAVINGS BANK

AN ACT Relating to savings and loan associations and mutual savings banks; and amending section 1, chapter 154, Laws of 1917 as amended by section 1, chapter 177, Laws of 1927 and RCW 33.44.020.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 1, chapter 154, Laws of 1917 as amended by section 1, chapter 177, Laws of 1927 and RCW 33.44.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Any going building and loan or savings and loan association or society organized under the laws of this state, or under the laws of the United States, may, if its contingent fund regularly accumulated, exclusive of any reserve fund stock, amounts to not less than five thousand dollars and if it has obtained the approval, required by law or regulation, of any federal agencies, including the federal home loan bank board and the federal savings and loan insurance corporation, be converted into a mutual savings bank in the following manner:

(1) The board of directors of such association shall pass a resolution declaring their intention to convert the association into a mutual savings bank and shall apply to the supervisor of banking for leave to submit to the shareholders of the association the question whether the same shall be converted into a mutual savings bank. A duplicate of the application to the supervisor of banking shall be filed with the supervisor of savings and loan associations, except that no such filing shall be required in the case of an association organized under the laws of the United States.

(2) Thereupon the supervisor of banking shall make the same investigation and determine the same questions as he would be required by law to make and determine in case of the submission to him of a certificate of incorporation of a proposed new mutual savings bank, and he shall also determine after conference with the supervisor of savings and loan associations whether by the proposed conversion the business needs and conveniences of the shareholders of such association would be served with facility and safety, except that no such conference shall be pertinent to such investigation or determination in the case of an association organized under the laws of the United States. After the supervisor of banking shall have satisfied himself by such investigation whether it is expedient and desirable to permit the proposed conversion, he shall, within sixty days after the filing of said application, endorse thereon over his official signature the word "granted" or the word "refused", with the date of such endorsement and shall immediately notify the secretary of such association of his decision: PROVIDED, That if the application is granted the supervisor of banking shall require the applicants to enter into such an agreement or undertaking with him as trustee for the depositors with the savings bank to make such contributions in cash to the expense fund of the savings bank as in his judgment will be necessary then and from time to time thereafter to pay the operating expenses of the bank if its earnings should not be sufficient to pay the same in addition to the payment of such dividends as may be declared and credited to depositors from its earnings.

In case of refusal, said board of directors, or a majority thereof, may, within thirty days after receiving the notice of such refusal appeal to a board of appeal composed of the governor, the attorney general and the supervisor of banking, in the same manner and under the same procedure as that prescribed by law for an appeal to such board from the supervisor of banking's refusal to permit the original organization of a mutual savings bank.

(3) If such application be granted by the supervisor of banking or by the board of appeal, as the case may be, the board of directors of such association shall, within sixty days thereafter, submit the question of the proposed conversion to the shareholders of the association at a special meeting called for that purpose. Notice of such meeting shall be given in the manner prescribed by the bylaws of the association. Such notice shall state the time, place and purpose of the meeting, and that the only question to be voted upon will be, "shall the (naming the association) be converted into a mutual savings bank under the laws of the state of Washington?" The vote on said question shall be by ballot. Any shareholder may vote by proxy or may transmit his ballot by mail if the bylaws provide a method for so doing. If two-thirds or more in number of the shareholders voting on the question vote affirmatively, then the board of directors shall have power, and it shall be their duty, to proceed to convert such association into a mutual savings bank; otherwise, the proposed conversion shall be abandoned and shall not be again submitted to the shareholders within three years from the date of said meeting.

(4) If authority for the proposed conversion has been voted by the shareholders as hereinabove required, the directors shall, within thirty days thereafter, subscribe and acknowledge and file with the supervisor of banking in quadruplicate a certificate of reincorporation, stating:

(a) The name by which the converted corporation is to be known, which name shall include the words "mutual savings bank."

(b) The place where the bank is to be located and its business transacted, naming the city or town and county, which city or town shall be the same as that where the principal place of business of the corporation has theretofore been located.

(c) The name, occupation, residence and post office address of each signer of the certificate.

(d) The amount of the assets of the corporation, the amount of its liabilities and the amount of its contingent fund as of the first day of the then calendar month.

(e) A declaration that each signer will accept the responsibilities and faithfully discharge the duties of a trustee of the savings bank, and is free from all the disqualifications specified in the laws applicable to mutual savings banks.

(5) Upon the filing of said certificate in quadruplicate the supervisor of banking shall, within thirty days thereafter, if satisfied that all the provisions of this chapter have been complied with, issue in quadruplicate an authorization certificate stating that the corporation has complied with all the requirements of law, and that it has authority to transact at the place designated in its certificate of incorporation the business of a mutual savings bank. One of the supervisor's quadruplicate certificates of authorization shall be attached to each of the quadruplicate certificates of reincorporation, and one set of these shall be filed and retained by the supervisor of banking, one set shall be filed in the office of the county auditor of the county in which such bank is located, one set shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state, and one set shall be transmitted to the bank for its files. Upon the receipt from the corporation of the same fees as are required for filing and recording other incorporation certificates or articles the county auditor and secretary of state shall file said certificates in their respective offices and the secretary of state shall record the same; whereupon the conversion of such association shall be deemed complete, and the signers of said reincorporation certificate and their successors shall thereupon become and be a corporation having the powers and being subject to the duties and obligations prescribed by the laws of this state applicable to mutual savings banks, and the time of existence of such corporation shall continue for the period of fifty years from the date of the filing of such certificate, unless sooner terminated pursuant to law.

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and to chapter 46.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The term "registration year" for the purposes of chapters 46.16, 82.44, and 82.50 RCW shall mean the effective period of a vehicle license issued by the department. Such year shall commence at 12:01 a.m. on the date of the calendar year designated by the department and shall end at 12:01 a.m. on the same date of the next succeeding calendar year.

(2) Each registration year may be divided into twelve registration months. Each registration month shall commence on the day numerically corresponding to the day of the calendar month on which the registration year begins, and shall terminate on the numerically corresponding day of the next succeeding calendar month.

(3) Each registration year may be divided into four registration quarters, each consisting of three registration months. The first quarter shall commence with registration month one.

(4) Where the term "last day of the month" is utilized in chapters 46.16, 82.44, and 82.50 RCW in lieu of a specified day of any calendar month it shall mean the last day of such calendar month or months irrespective of the numerical designation of that day.

(5) In the event the final day of a registration year, quarter, or month falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, such period shall extend through the end of the next business day.

Such extension or diminishment of a vehicle license registration period shall be by rule and regulation of the department of motor vehicles adopted in accordance with the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW. Such rules may provide for the omission of any classes or classifications of vehicle from the staggered renewal system and may provide for the gradual introduction of classes or classifications of vehicles into such a system. Such rules and regulations shall provide for the collection of proportionately increased or decreased vehicle license registration fees, including tonnage fees, if applicable, and of excise or property taxes required to be paid at the time of registration.

It is the intent of the legislature that there shall be neither a significant net gain nor loss of revenue to the state general fund or the motor vehicle fund as the result of implementing a staggered vehicle registration system when compared with the revenue generated by the current registration system.

Sec. 3. Section 46.16.060, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 3, chapter 170, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 46.16.060 are each amended to read as follows:

upon the public highway by the owners thereof. It is the intention of the legislature that this reduced license shall be issued only as to trailers operated for personal use of the owners and not trailers held for rental to the public.

Sec. 5. Section 46.16.130, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 and RCW 46.16.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever an application is made for a license on a motor truck, trailer, tractor, semitrailer, for hire vehicle, bus or auto stage subsequent to ~~((March thirty-first of any calendar))~~ the end of the first registration quarter of any registration year, the license fees based on gross weight or seating capacity of such vehicles shall be computed as follows:

Tonnage for motor trucks, trailers, tractors, pole trailers, or semitrailers having a declared gross weight in excess of twenty thousand pounds may be purchased for ~~((quarterly periods ending on March 31st, June 30th, September 30th, and December 31st))~~ any registration quarter at one-fourth of the usual annual tonnage fee: PROVIDED, That the fee for the registration quarter in which the vehicle is licensed shall be reduced by one-twelfth of the usual tonnage fee for each full ((calendar)) registration month of the registration quarter that shall have elapsed at the time the vehicle is licensed. An additional fee of one dollar shall be charged by the director each time tonnage is purchased. The director is authorized to establish rules and regulations relative to the issuance and display of certificates or insignia.

No vehicle licensed under the provisions of this section shall be operated over the public highways unless the owner or operator renews the quarterly tonnage ~~((within ten days after))~~ permit prior to the expiration of the existing tonnage permit. Any person who operates any such vehicle upon the public highways after the expiration of ~~((said ten days))~~ the existing tonnage permit, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and in addition shall be required to purchase a tonnage permit for the vehicle involved at the fee covering an entire registration year's operation thereof, less the fees for any registration quarter or registration quarters of the registration year already paid. CHAPTER 125

OIL TANKER TRANSPORTATION ON PUGET SOUND AND ADJACENT WATERS

AN ACT Relating to water pollution from petroleum spills; and adding new sections to chapter 88.16 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 88.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Because of the danger of spills, the legislature finds that the transportation of crude oil and refined petroleum products by tankers on Puget Sound and adjacent waters creates a great potential hazard to important natural resources of the state and to jobs and incomes dependent on these resources.

The legislature also recognizes Puget Sound and adjacent waters are a relatively confined salt water environment with irregular shorelines and therefore there is a greater than usual likelihood of long-term damage from any large oil spill.

The legislature further recognizes that certain areas of Puget Sound and adjacent waters have limited space for maneuvering a large oil tanker and that these waters contain many natural navigational obstacles as well as a high density of commercial and pleasure boat traffic.

For these reasons, it is important that large oil tankers be piloted by highly skilled persons who are familiar with local waters and that such tankers have sufficient capability for rapid maneuvering responses.

It is therefore the intent and purpose of sections 2 and 3 of this 1975 act to decrease the likelihood of oil spills on Puget Sound and its shorelines by requiring all oil tankers above a certain size to employ Washington state licensed pilots and, if lacking certain safety and maneuvering capability requirements, to be escorted by a tug or tugs while navigating on certain areas of Puget Sound and adjacent waters.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 88.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 88.16.070, any oil tanker, whether enrolled or registered, of fifty thousand deadweight tons or greater, shall be required to take a Washington state licensed pilot while navigating Puget Sound and adjacent waters and shall be liable for and pay pilotage rates pursuant to RCW 88.16.030 as now or hereafter amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 88.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Any oil tanker, whether enrolled or registered, of greater than one hundred and twenty-five thousand deadweight tons shall be prohibited from proceeding beyond a point east of a line extending from Discovery Island light south to New Dungeness light.

(2) An oil tanker, whether enrolled or registered, of forty to one hundred and twenty-five thousand deadweight tons may proceed beyond the points enumerated in subsection (1) if such tanker possesses all of the following standard safety features:

(a) Shaft horsepower in the ratio of one horsepower to each two and one-half deadweight tons; and

(b) Twin screws; and

(c) Double bottoms, underneath all oil and liquid cargo compartments; and

(d) Two radars in working order and operating, one of which must be collision avoidance radar; and

(e) Such other navigational position location systems as may be prescribed from time to time by the board of pilotage commissioners:

PROVIDED, That, if such forty to one hundred and twenty-five thousand deadweight ton tanker is in ballast or is under escort of a tug or tugs with an aggregate shaft horsepower equivalent to five percent of the deadweight tons of that tanker, subsection (2) of this section shall not apply: PROVIDED FURTHER, That additional tug shaft horsepower equivalencies may be required under certain conditions as established by rule and regulation of the Washington utilities and transportation commission pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW: PROVIDED FURTHER, That a tanker of less than forty thousand deadweight tons is not subject to the provisions of this act.

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 88.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The Washington utilities and transportation commission is authorized to make rules and regulations necessary to implement the provisions of this act.

*Sec. 4. was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The House and Senate Transportation and Utilities Committees are authorized and directed to study the feasibility, benefits, and disadvantages of requiring similar pilot and tug assistance for vessels carrying other potentially hazardous materials and to submit their findings and recommendations prior to the 45th session of the Washington legislature in January, 1977. Such study shall also include a report on the feasibility, benefits and disadvantages of requiring vessels under tug escort to observe a speed limit, and such study shall include a discussion of the impact of a speed limit on the maneuverability of the vessel, the effectiveness of the tug escort and other legal and technical considerations material and relevant to the required study. Such study shall also include an evaluation and recommendations as to whether there should be a transfer of all duties and responsibilities of the board of pilotage commissioners to the Washington utilities and transportation commission or other state agency, and alternate methods for establishing fair and equitable rates for tug escort and pilot transfer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Passed the House May 21, 1975.

Passed the Senate May 9, 1975.

Approved by the Governor May 29, 1975, with the exception of sections 4 and 7 which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State May 29, 1975.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith without my approval as to two sections Substitute House Bill No. 527 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to water pollution from petroleum spills."

This bill provides, among other things, safety standards for oil tankers and other precautionary measures for prevention of major oil spills in Puget Sound and adjacent waters.

Section 4 of the bill authorizes the Utilities and Transportation Commission to implement the provisions of the act by rules and regulations. I am puzzled over this delegation of major responsibility to the commission, which has had no previous experience or expertise in the area. Nor is there funding provided which might allow the commission to do a creditable job in this new field of responsibility. Elsewhere in the bill a study is authorized on the desirability of transferring the duties and responsibilities of the Board of Pilotage Commissioners to the Utilities and Transportation Commission or any other appropriate state agency. Until there are findings determined in such study which confirm the need to assign the responsibility of implementing and enforcing the provisions of this act to the commission, I am not willing to allow a situation to exist where separate agencies in state government have substantially overlapping duties in this area of increasing importance without clear direction from the Legislature.

Section 7 provides an expiration date for the act of June 30, 1978. Few would disagree that this state must soon decide and act on long range solutions to the problems created by the transportation of oil in massive quantities in Puget Sound waters. By passing this bill, the Legislature has decided that at least in the near future, oil tankers exceeding 125,000 deadweight tons should not be permitted to enter these waters. The study provided in section 5 may well offer some additional alternatives. The expiration date, however, rather than encouraging all parties to develop sound long range solutions, would instead discourage such efforts. This state could, conceivably, find itself in the second half of 1978 faced with unprecedented super-tanker traffic in Puget Sound waters with all the attendant hazards but without any capability to prevent or reduce the risks of oil spills likely to produce catastrophic and permanent damage to the unique environment of the area. The expiration date would also leave the oil industry and others affected in an untenable state of uncertainty over permissible and impermissible activities in the transportation of oil into this area. Neither public nor private interests would be benefited by such uncertainty.

For the foregoing reasons, I have determined to veto sections 4 and 7 of the bill. With the exception of those sections, the remainder of the bill is approved."

No money shall be paid from the tort claims revolving fund unless all proceeds available to the claimant from any valid and collectible liability insurance shall have been exhausted and unless:

(1) The claim shall have been reduced to final judgment in a court of competent jurisdiction; or

(2) The claim has been approved for payment in accordance with RCW 4.92-.140 as herein or hereafter amended.

Sec. 4. Section 8, chapter 159, Laws of 1963 and RCW 4.92.140 are each amended to read as follows:

The head or governing body of any agency or department of state government, with the approval of the attorney general, may consider, ascertain, adjust, determine, compromise and settle any claim arising out of tortious conduct or under and pursuant to 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1981 et seq. for which the state of Washington or any of its officers or employees would be liable in law for money damages of ((five)) twenty-five hundred dollars or less. The acceptance by the claimant of any such award, compromise or settlement shall be final and conclusive on the claimant; and upon the state of Washington, unless procured by fraud, and shall constitute a complete release of any claim against the state of Washington or its affected officer or employee. A request for administrative settlement shall not preclude a claimant from filing a court action pending administrative determination, limit the amount recoverable in such a suit or constitute an admission against interest of either the claimant or the state.

After commencement of an action in ((superior court)) a court of competent jurisdiction upon a claim against the state, or any of its officers or employees arising out of tortious conduct or pursuant to 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1981 et seq., the attorney general, with the approval of the court, following such testimony as the court may require, may compromise and settle the same and stipulate for judgment against the state, the affected officer or employee.

Sec. 6. Section 10, chapter 159, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 2, chapter 140, Laws of 1969 and RCW 4.92.160 are each amended to read as follows:

Payment of claims and judgments arising out of tortious conduct or pursuant to 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1981 et seq. shall not be made by any agency or department of state government with the exception of the budget director, and he shall authorize and direct the payment of moneys only from the tort claims revolving fund whenever:

(1) The head or governing body of any agency or department of state certifies to him that a claim has been settled under authority of RCW 4.92.140 as herein or hereafter amended; or

(2) The clerk of court has made and forwarded a certified copy of a final judgment in a court of competent jurisdiction and the attorney general certifies that the judgment is final and was entered in an action on a claim arising out of tortious conduct or under and pursuant to 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1981 et seq. Payment of a judgment shall be made to the clerk of the court for the benefit of the judgment creditors. Upon receipt of payment, the clerk shall satisfy the judgment against the state.

Sec. 7. Section 11, chapter 159, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 3, chapter 140, Laws of 1969 and RCW 4.92.170 are each amended to read as follows:

Liability for and payment of claims arising out of tortious conduct or under and pursuant to 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1981 et seq. is declared to be a proper charge as part of the normal cost of operating the various agencies and departments of state government whose operations and activities give rise to the liability and a lawful charge against moneys appropriated or available to such agencies and departments.

Within any agency or department the charge shall be apportioned among such appropriated and other available moneys in the same proportion that the moneys finance the activity causing liability. Whenever the operations and activities of more than one agency or department combine to give rise to a single liability, the budget director shall determine the comparative responsibility of each agency or department for the liability.

State agencies over which the budget director has authority to revise allotments under chapter 43.88 RCW shall make reimbursement to the tort claims revolving fund for any payment made from it for the benefit of such agencies. The budget director is authorized and directed to transfer or order the transfer to the revolving fund, from moneys available or appropriated to such agencies, that sum of money which is a proper charge against them. Such amounts may be expended for the purposes for which the tort claims revolving fund was created by RCW 4.92.130 as herein or hereafter amended without further or additional appropriation: PROVIDED, That in any case where reimbursement would seriously disrupt or prevent substantial performance of the operations or activities of the state agency, the budget director may relieve the agency of all or a portion of the obligation to make reimbursement.

The budget director shall report to the legislature, for any biennial period, on the status of the tort claims revolving fund, all payments made therefrom, all reimbursements made thereto, and the identity of agencies and departments of state government whose operations and activities give rise to liability, including those agencies and departments over which he does not have authority to revise allotments under chapter 43.88 RCW.

The budget director may authorize agencies, in accordance with chapter 41.05 RCW to the extent that it is applicable, to purchase insurance to protect and hold personally harmless any officer or employee of the state, or any classes of such officers or employees or for other persons performing services for the state, whether by contract or otherwise, from any action, claim, or proceeding for damages arising out of the performance of duties for, employment with, or the performance of services on behalf of the state and to hold him harmless from any expenses connected with the defense, settlement or monetary judgment from such actions.

The budget director shall adopt rules and regulations governing the procedures to be followed in making payment from the tort claims revolving fund, in reimbursing the revolving fund and in relieving an agency of its obligation to reimburse.

(1) At any time prior to the ((time)) tenth day before the date set by the trustee for the sale in the recorded notice of sale, or in the event the trustee continues the sale pursuant to section 4(6) of this 1975 amendatory act, at any time prior to the tenth day before the actual sale, the grantor or his successor in interest, any beneficiary under a subordinate deed of trust or any person having a subordinate lien or encumbrance of record on the trust property or any part thereof, shall be entitled to cause a discontinuance of the sale proceedings by curing the default or defaults set forth in the notice, which in the case of a default by failure to pay, shall be by paying to the trustee ((a sum sufficient to cure all defaults other than such portion of principal as would not then be due had no default occurred, plus the costs of the trustee incurred and the trustee's fee accrued, which accrued fee shall not exceed fifty dollars.)):

(a) The entire amount then due under the terms of the deed of trust and the obligation secured thereby, other than such portion of the principal as would not then be due had no default occurred, and

(b) The expenses actually incurred by the trustee enforcing the terms of the note and deed of trust, including a reasonable trustee's fee, which is not to exceed twenty-five dollars at the time the notice of trustee's sale is given and is not to exceed fifty dollars forty days after the date of notice of trustee's sale is given and is not to exceed seventy-five dollars eighty days after the date of notice of trustee's sale is given, together with the trustee's reasonable attorney's fees, together with costs of recording the notice of discontinuance of notice of trustee's sale. In the event the property secured by the deed of trust is a single-family dwelling the total of the trustee's fees and the attorney's fees shall not exceed two hundred fifty dollars without court approval.

(2) Upon receipt of such payment the proceedings shall be discontinued, the deed of trust shall be reinstated and the obligation shall remain as though no acceleration had taken place.

(3) In the case of a default which is occasioned by other than failure to make payments, the person or persons causing the said default shall pay the expenses incurred by the trustee and the trustee's fees as set forth in subsection (1)(b) of this section.

(4) Any person having a subordinate lien of record on the trust property and who has cured the default or defaults pursuant to this section shall thereafter have included in his lien all payments made to cure any defaults, including interest thereon at ((six)) eight percent per annum, payments made for trustees' costs and fees incurred as authorized herein, and his reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred resulting from any judicial action commenced to enforce his rights to advances under this section.

(5) If the default is cured and the obligation and the deed of trust reinstated in the manner hereinabove provided, the trustee shall properly execute, acknowledge and cause to be recorded a notice of discontinuance of trustee's sale under such deed of trust. A notice of discontinuance of trustee's sale when so executed and acknowledged is entitled to be recorded and shall be sufficient if it sets forth a record of the deed of trust and the book and page upon which the deed of trust is recorded and a reference to the notice of sale and the book and page on which the name is recorded, and a notice that such sale is discontinued.

Nothing contained in this chapter shall prejudice the right of the grantor or his successor in interest to restrain, on any proper ground, a threatened sale by the trustee under a deed of trust. In the event that the property secured by the deed of trust is a single-family dwelling occupied by the grantor or his successor in interest, and the court finds that there is proper ground to restrain a threatened sale by the trustee under a deed of trust, the court shall require the grantor or his successor in interest to enter into a bond in the amount of two hundred fifty dollars with surety to the satisfaction of the clerk of the superior court to the adverse party affected thereby, conditioned to pay all damages and costs which may accrue by reason of the injunction or restraining order. In addition, the court shall require as a condition of continuing the restraining order that the grantor or his successors in interest shall pay to the clerk of the court every thirty days the monthly payment of principal and interest that would be due on the obligation secured by the deed of trust if the deed of trust was not being foreclosed.

If the petition procedure is followed, said petition shall set forth generally the necessity for the creation of a local improvement district, outline the plan of fire protection to be accomplished, and the means by which the cost of the same shall be financed. Upon receipt of said petition, the board of fire commissioners of said district shall at its next regular meeting examine the same. The assessed owners of said lands as shown on the general tax roll in the county treasurer's office, last equalized, shall be prima facie evidence of the ownership of the lands to be included in said local improvement district. If said petition is found insufficient or if said district board shall determine that such a local improvement district is unfeasible or of no special benefit to the lands concerned, it shall dismiss said petition. If said district board shall approve said petition or adopts a resolution of intention to order an improvement, it shall fix a day, hour and place for hearing the same and shall (1) mail notice of said hearing at least fifteen days before the date fixed for the public hearing to the owner or reputed owner of each lot, tract(~~(;)~~) or parcel of land (~~((or other property))~~) within the proposed local improvement district as shown on the tax rolls of the county treasurer at the address shown thereon, and (2) publish notice of said hearing in a newspaper of general circulation in the county, to be selected by said board, for three consecutive weekly issues thereof published prior to the day of said hearing. The cost of said publication shall be advanced or paid in advance by the petitioners or, in the case of initiation by the board of fire commissioners, such costs shall be paid by the (~~(board)~~) fire protection district. Such notices shall describe the boundaries of the proposed local improvement district (~~(, shall state that the lands within the said boundaries are proposed to be included within a local improvement district, shall mention)~~) and the plan of fire protection proposed (~~(and)~~) or may refer to the resolution of intention describing the nature and territorial extent of the proposed improvement. PART I—SUBSTANTIVE CHANGES RESPECTING COUNCIL, ITS POWERS AND DUTIES

Section 1. Section 1, chapter 277, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.80.010 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created the council (~~(on higher)~~) for post-secondary education in the state of Washington.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 277, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.80.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The purpose of the council is as follows: The ~~((higher))~~ four year educational institutions, under the autonomous governance of their governing boards, and operating within guidelines set by statute for particular institutions of higher education, have responded to the many kinds of educational needs of the people of a dynamic and growing state. They have evolved a wide array of educational services of benefit to students enrolled in degree and certificate courses, to adults returning to educational institutions for various kinds of continuing education needed to update skills and understandings in a changing world, and to government agencies, business, labor professions, and associations. The state has been well served by the delegation to the institutions of a large measure of autonomy which has enabled them to cooperate in achieving educational and operating effectiveness. Opportunity for such institutional initiative and institutional voluntary cooperation should be preserved and encouraged to the largest possible extent.

With the increase in the number of post-secondary institutions and in the scope, variety, and extent of ~~((higher))~~ education demanded of the institutions by the people of a dynamic state and the evident need to maintain articulation and coordination among the parts of a more complex system of ~~((higher))~~ post-secondary education, it is desirable to establish a council to facilitate planning for ~~((higher))~~ post-secondary education.

To assure maximum effectiveness of the agency, its deliberations should be participated in by representatives of the governor, the ~~((legislature))~~ public, and the institutions, ~~((of higher))~~ agencies, and systems of public and private post-secondary education.

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 277, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.80.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The council may perform any of the following functions:

(1) Engage in overall planning for ~~((higher))~~ post-secondary education in the state, which shall include the collection and analysis of necessary data from public, and where appropriate private institutions of ~~((higher))~~ post-secondary education. The purpose shall be to:

(a) Assess and define the educational needs of the state to be served by ~~((higher))~~ post-secondary education;

(b) Recommend and coordinate studies to ascertain how defined educational needs are being met;

(c) Study and make recommendations concerning adult education, continuing education ~~((and))~~, public service and post-secondary educational programs;

(d) Identify priorities among the defined needs and specify the resources necessary to meet them;

(e) Differentiate roles of the community college system and the individual public institutions and identify the most effective division of responsibility among them in meeting defined needs. To facilitate this, review and recommend the creation of all new degrees and recommend which institutions shall award them; and evaluate proposals for the elimination of existing degrees. Identify changing conditions which may require the revision of these roles and division of responsibility of the institutions.

(2) In the execution of the above planning responsibilities, develop criteria for the need for new baccalaureate institutions; and recommend the establishment, location and role of any new public baccalaureate granting institutions, and review the plans for the community college system in terms of their articulation with planning for ~~((higher))~~ post-secondary education in the state.

(3) Study levels of fees and charges to students and, when necessary, make recommendations to the institutions, legislature, and governor.

(4) Study and make recommendations concerning admission and transfer policies.

(5) Review individual institutional operating budget requests to determine the conformity or lack thereof to the state's ~~((higher))~~ post-secondary education plan: PROVIDED, That its review of community colleges be limited to the plan prepared by the state board for community college education.

(6) Review the individual institutional capital budget requests to determine their conformity or lack thereof to the state's ~~((higher))~~ post-secondary education plan: PROVIDED, That its review of community colleges be limited to the plan prepared by the state board for community college education.

(7) Study and make recommendations for the development of improved practices of administrative management in order to facilitate the most efficient operation of the public institutions and the avoidance of unnecessary duplication among the institutions.

(8) At the request of the governor, legislature, state board for community college education, or baccalaureate granting institutions of higher education, and in conjunction with such legislative ~~((interim))~~ standing committees on higher education as may be in existence, study and make recommendations regarding legislation affecting ~~((higher))~~ post-secondary education.

Sec. 4. Section 4, chapter 277, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.80.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Passed the House May 20, 1975.

Approved by the Governor May 31, 1975, with the exception of section 7 which is vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State May 31, 1975.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith without my approval as to one section Substitute Senate Bill No. 2519 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to the council on post-secondary education."

This bill amends current law on the structure and duties of the Council on Higher Education and changes its name to the Council on Post-Secondary Education.

Section 7 contains amendatory language which requires five out of the nine voting members to approve any action taken by the council. The present bylaws of the council require five affirmative votes to approve any substantive action, but not for procedural matters or committee actions where other voting rules and quorum requirements may apply. A statutory mandate requiring five votes for all actions, whether substantive or procedural, is unduly restrictive and serves no useful purpose.

With the exception of section 7, which I have vetoed for the foregoing reasons, the remainder of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2519 is approved."

(3) In determining benefits to be paid with respect to the policies and contracts of a particular liquidating insurer the board may give due consideration to amounts reasonably recoverable or deductible because of the contingent liability, if any, of policyholders of the insurer (if a mutual insurer) or recoverable because of the assessment liability, if any, of the insurer's stockholders (if a stock insurer).

(4) With respect to an insolvent domestic insurer, the board shall have power to petition the court in which the delinquency proceedings are pending for, and the court shall have authority to order and effectuate, such modifications in the terms, benefits, values, and premiums thereafter to be in effect of policies and contracts of the insurer as may reasonably be necessary to effect a bulk reinsurance of such policies and contract in a solvent insurer.

that a bulk reinsurance of such policies may be effected, the court shall have authority to order such assessment.

(5) In addition to any other rights of the association acquired by assignment or otherwise, the association shall be subrogated to the rights of any person entitled to receive benefits under this chapter against the liquidating insurer, or the receiver, rehabilitator, liquidator, or conservator, as the case may be, under the policy or contract with respect to which a payment is made or guaranteed, or obligation assumed by the association pursuant to this section, and the association may require an assignment to it of such rights by any such persons as a condition precedent to the receipt by such person of payment of any benefits under this chapter.

(6) For the purpose of carrying out its obligations under this chapter, the association shall be deemed to be a creditor of the liquidating insurer to the extent of assets attributable to covered policies and contracts reduced by any amounts to which the association is entitled as a subrogee. All assets of the liquidating insurer attributable to covered policies and contracts shall be used to continue all covered policies and contracts and pay all contractual obligations of the liquidating insurer as required by this chapter. Assets attributable to covered policies and contracts, as used in this subsection, are those in that proportion of the assets which the reserves that should have been established for such policies and contracts bear to the reserves that should have been established for all insurances written by the liquidating insurer.

(7) The association shall have the power to petition the superior court for an order appointing the commissioner as receiver of a domestic insurer upon any of the grounds set forth in RCW 48.31.030.

The boundaries of the commission districts shall be maintained in a manner that assures each producer a representation in the commission which is reasonably equal with the representation afforded all other producers by their commission members.

The commission shall, when requested in accordance with the provisions of the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW as enacted or hereafter amended, or on its own initiative, hold hearings to determine if new boundaries for each commission district should be established in order to afford each producer a reasonably equal representation in the commission, and if the commission so finds it shall change the boundaries of said commission districts to carry out the proper reapportionment of producer representation on the commission: PROVIDED, That the requirement of this section for reasonable equal representation of each producer on the commission need not require an equality of representation when the commission districts east of the crest of the Cascade mountains are compared to the commission districts west of the crest of the Cascade mountains: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the area east of the crest of the Cascade mountains shall comprise not less than two commission districts.

The commission may in carrying out this reapportionment directive reduce the number of districts presently provided by prior law, whenever it is in the best interest of the producers and if such change would maintain reasonable apportionment for each historical production or marketing area: PROVIDED, That each elected commission member whose district may be consolidated with another district shall be allowed to serve out his term of office.

If the commission fails to carry out its directive as set forth herein for equal representation of each producer on the commission the director of agriculture may upon request by ten producers institute a hearing to determine if there is reasonably equal representation for each producer on the commission. If the director of agriculture finds that such reasonably equal representation is lacking, he then shall realign the district boundaries in a manner which will provide proper representation on the commission for each producer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Section 15.44.025, chapter 11, Laws of 1961, section 3, chapter 44, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 15.44.025 are each repealed.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 3, chapter 173, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 4, chapter 12, Laws of 1973 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 47.05.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The state highway commission shall adopt and periodically revise after consultation with the legislative transportation committee and senate and house transportation and utilities committees a long range plan for highway improvements, specifying highway planning objectives ((to be accomplished within a)) for each of the highway categories, "A", "B", and "C", defined in this section, based upon needs for the ensuing fourteen year advance planning period, and within the framework of revenue estimates for such period. The plan shall be based upon the ~~((construction))~~ improvement needs for state highways as determined ~~((and segregated according to functional class))~~ by the highway commission from time to time.

With such reasonable deviations as may be required to effectively utilize the available funds and to adjust to unanticipated delays in programmed projects, the highway commission shall allocate the estimated available funds among the following described categories of highway improvements, so as to carry out ~~((such rates of completion))~~ the commission's highway planning objectives within a fourteen year advance planning period ~~((on that part of the national system of interstate and defense highways on which the federal government participates financially at the interstate rate under federal law and regulations, on the parts of the national system of interstate and defense highways on which federal aid participation is less than the regular interstate rate under federal law and regulations; and on the remaining four functional classes as the highway commission, acting pursuant to reasonable rules and regulations adopted by the commission, shall determine to be necessary in order to maintain a balanced development of the state's highway system, considering primarily the following factors:~~

(a) ~~The relative remaining needs of each functional class of highways;~~
 (b) ~~The estimated available funds;~~
 (c) ~~Continuity of future developments with those previously programmed; and~~
 (d) ~~Graduation of rates of completion according to functional class importance):~~

(1) Category A shall consist of those improvements necessary to sustain the structural, safety, and operational integrity of the existing state highway system (other than improvements to the interstate system to be funded with federal aid at the regular interstate rate under federal law and regulations).

(2) Category B shall consist of improvements for the continued development of the interstate system to be funded with federal aid at the regular interstate rate under federal law and regulations.

(3) Category C shall consist of the development of major transportation improvements (other than improvements to the interstate system to be funded with federal aid at the regular interstate rate under federal law and regulations) including designated but unconstructed highways which are vital to the state-wide transportation network.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 173, Laws of 1963 and to chapter 47.05 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The commission, in preparing the long-range plan for highway improvements, shall allocate the estimated revenues for the fourteen year period among categories A, B, and C, giving primary consideration to the following factors:

(a) The relative needs in each of the categories of improvements;
 (b) The need to provide adequate funding for category A improvements to protect the state's investment in its existing highway system; and
 (c) The continuity of future highway development of all categories of improvements with those previously programmed.

(2) The commission in preparing the long-range plan shall establish graduated rates of development of category A improvements according to functional class importance.

Sec. 3. Section 4, chapter 173, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 5, chapter 12, Laws of 1973 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 47.05.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Prior to October 1 of each even-numbered year, the state highway commission shall adopt and thereafter shall biennially revise after consultation with the legislative transportation committee and senate and house transportation and utilities committees a comprehensive six-year program and financial plan for highway construction, maintenance, and planning activities.

(2) The highway construction program for the ensuing six years shall ~~((apply))~~ allocate to category A improvements as a whole, and then to each of the five functional classes of state highways, that percentage of the estimated available construction funds as will be necessary to accomplish the commission's long range plan for highway improvements. The commission shall then apportion the available category A construction funds, according to functional class, among the several highway districts in the proportion that the estimated remaining category A improvement needs for each functional class of highway within each highway district bears to the total of such estimated needs for each functional class remaining unsatisfied throughout the state.

(3) The commission shall allocate to category B improvements for the ensuing six years, the estimated available federal aid interstate funds and state matching funds as necessary to accomplish the commission's long-range plan for category B highway improvements throughout the state.

(4) The commission shall allocate to category C improvements for the ensuing six years, the remaining estimated available construction funds to accomplish to the extent possible the commission's long-range plan for category C highway improvements throughout the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 173, Laws of 1963 and to chapter 47.05 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The six year comprehensive highway construction program for each category of improvements shall be based upon a priority selection system within the budget limits established for the category. The commission using the criteria set forth in RCW 47.05.030, as now or hereafter amended, shall determine the category of each highway improvement.

(2) Selection of specific category A projects for the six year program shall be based on the priority of each highway section proposed to be improved or constructed in relation to other highway sections within the same functional class and within the respective highway district taking into account the criteria set forth in subsection (4) of this section.

(3) Selection of specific category B projects for the six year program shall be based on the priority of each interstate system highway section proposed to be improved or constructed in relation to other interstate highway sections within the state taking into account the criteria set forth in subsection (4) of this section.

(4) The priority of each category A and B project as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section shall be determined in accordance with the following criteria (not necessarily in order of importance):

- (a) Its structural ability to carry loads imposed upon it;
- (b) Its capacity to move traffic at reasonable speeds without undue congestion;
- (c) Its adequacy of alignment and related geometrics;
- (d) Its accident experience; and
- (e) Its fatal accident experience.

(5) Selection of specific category C projects for the six year program shall be based on the priority of each highway section proposed to be improved in relation to other highway sections within the state with full regard to the structural, geometric, safety, and operational adequacy of the existing highway section taking into account the following:

- (a) Continuity of development of the highway transportation network;
- (b) Coordination with the development of other modes of transportation;
- (c) The stated long-range goals of the local area and its transportation plan;
- (d) Its potential social, economic, and environmental impacts;
- (e) Public views concerning proposed improvements;
- (f) The conservation of energy resources and the capacity of the transportation corridor to move people and goods safely and at reasonable speeds; and
- (g) Feasibility of financing the full proposed improvement.

(6) The commission in selecting any project for improvement in categories A, B, or C may depart from the priority of projects so established (a) to the extent that otherwise funds cannot be utilized feasibly within the program, (b) as may be required by a court judgment, legally binding agreement or state and federal laws and regulations, (c) as may be required to coordinate with federal, local or other state agency construction projects, (d) to take advantage of some substantial financial benefit that may be available, (e) for continuity of route development, or (f) because of changed financial or physical conditions of an unforeseen or emergent nature. The commission shall maintain in its files information sufficient to show the extent to which the commission has departed from the established priority of projects.

(7) The six year construction program shall be revised biennially in accordance with revisions in functional classification or priority ratings resulting from changed conditions. The program shall be extended for an additional two years, to six years in the future, on July 1st of each odd-numbered year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Section 5, chapter 173, Laws of 1963, section 5, chapter 39, Laws of 1969 ex. sess., section 6, chapter 12, Laws of 1973 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 47.05.050 are each hereby repealed.

COMMERCIAL FISHING—FEDERAL COURT DECISION IMPACT—LOAN ASSISTANCE

AN ACT Relating to commercial fishing; amending section 75.04.010, chapter 12, Laws of 1955 and RCW 75.04.010; adding a new chapter to Title 75 RCW; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature finds that the economic health and stability of the commercial fishing industry is of paramount importance to the people of this state. The recent federal court decision, United States of America et al v. State of Washington et al, Civil No. 9213, United States District Court for the Western District of Washington, February 12, 1974, together with department of fisheries compliance therewith, have had an adverse impact on this economic health and stability. The public welfare requires that the state have the authority to transmit federal funds in the form of loans to eligible productive commercial fishermen.

Retaining productive commercial fishermen in the state's fishery will enhance productivity by the fishing industry, will improve economic opportunity for those fishermen dependent upon the resource as a source of income, and will contribute to sound conservation and harvesting programs affecting this important state fishery resource. It is the intention of the legislature to provide assistance to productive commercial fishermen who are adversely affected by the current economic situation in the state's commercial fishery.

Sec. 2. Section 75.04.010, chapter 12, Laws of 1955 and RCW 75.04.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Terms used in this title or in any rule or regulation of the director of fisheries shall have the meaning given to them in this chapter unless the context clearly indicates otherwise.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. As used in this chapter the terms in this section shall have the meanings indicated unless the context indicates otherwise.

(1) "Case area" shall have the meaning as defined in United States of America, et al v. State of Washington, et al, Civil No. 9213, United States District Court for the Western District of Washington, February 12, 1974, which is: "That portion of the State of Washington west of the Cascade Mountains and north of the Columbia River drainage area, and includes the American portion of the Puget Sound watershed, the watersheds of the Olympic Peninsula north of the Grays Harbor watershed, and the offshore waters adjacent to those areas". The director is authorized to modify the definition of "case area" to correspond to any subsequent definition included in a relevant decision of the same court, or in appellate review thereof, or where fishing rights are affected by some other court decision in a manner consistent with the above-mentioned decision.

(2) "Department" means the department of general administration.

(3) "Director" means the director of the department of general administration.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The department is empowered to make loans which the department determines to be necessary and appropriate to commercial fishermen. To be eligible a commercial fisherman shall:

(1) Own a commercial fishing vessel;

(2) Have been licensed to fish or deliver fish in 1974 in the case area;

(3) Have been adversely affected by a fishing season in 1974 in the case area which was substantially restricted by the department of fisheries as a result of compliance with the federal court decision;

(4) Be currently licensed to fish or deliver fish;

(5) Be determined to be a productive commercial fisherman by the department in cooperation with the department of fisheries by an analysis of individual fish catch records for the calendar years 1972, 1973, 1974, and/or 1975; and

(6) Be determined by the department to have been primarily dependent on commercial fishing for his or her earned income during at least one of the calendar years 1972, 1973, 1974, or 1975.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) Loans made pursuant to section 4 of this 1975 amendatory act shall be used only to pay accrued and past due interest payments owing on obligations whose proceeds were used for the construction, reconstruction, or purchase of a commercial fishing vessel and shall not exceed the amount of such interest payments falling due during 1974 and 1975.

(2) No loan assistance provided under this chapter shall be made available to any fisherman who participates or seeks to participate in any aspect of the program administered through funds made available from the "vessel, gear, and permit reduction fund" if such fund is established pursuant to separate legislation.

(3) The provisions of subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall be subject to the following additional restrictions and limitations:

(a) No financial assistance shall be extended pursuant to this chapter unless the financial assistance applied for is not otherwise available on reasonable terms.

(b) No loan under this chapter shall be made if the total amount outstanding and committed to the borrower from the interest payment loan fund established by section 8 of this 1975 amendatory act would exceed ten thousand dollars or is less than five hundred dollars.

(c) The rate of interest to be charged by the department for any such loan shall be at the average annual interest rate on all interest-bearing obligations of the United States then forming a part of the public debt as computed at the end of the fiscal year next preceding the date of the loan and adjusted to the nearest one-eighth of one percent, plus one-quarter of one percent per annum.

(d) No such loan, including renewals or extensions thereof, may be made for a period or periods exceeding two years.

(e) All loans made pursuant to this chapter shall be of such sound value or so secured as reasonably to assure repayment.

(4) The director may establish priority classes of persons who might first qualify for loans under the provisions of this chapter in order that the purposes and objectives of the chapter shall be accomplished.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The director shall promulgate rules and regulations concerning the operation of such program in accordance with the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW. The director may enlist the aid of such other state agencies to assist the department in the administration of the provisions of this chapter. To minimize the impact of this program on other ongoing state activities as well as on current staffing levels, the director shall have the authority to contract with persons or entities not employed by the state to assist in the administration of the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The provisions of this chapter shall become effective only upon receipt by the department from the federal government of funds in an amount sufficient to administer such provisions and to accomplish the purposes of this chapter. If such funds are not received or authorized prior to January 1, 1976, this chapter shall expire on said date, and shall be null and void and without any further force and effect on such date without any further action by the legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The department is empowered to receive and accept funds from the federal government for the administration of this program as authorized in the provisions of this chapter. There is created within the department a fund to be known as the "interest payment loan fund", which shall be used for the disbursement of loan moneys as provided in this chapter, and for the administration of the provisions of this chapter. This fund shall be credited with any federal funds received to carry out the purposes of this chapter and shall also be credited with all repayments of loans, payments of interest, and other receipts arising out of transactions entered into by the department pursuant to the provisions of this chapter. The director shall have the full power to invest and reinvest such funds in those classes of securities described in the provisions of RCW 43.84.150.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. No application for participation in the program provided for in this chapter shall be accepted by the department later than December 31, 1976.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Section 1 and sections 3 through 9 of this 1975 amendatory act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 75 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. This 1975 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

(1) Has violated, failed or refused to comply with the provisions, requirements, conditions, limitations or duties imposed by chapter 9.46 RCW and any amendments thereto, or any rules adopted by the commission pursuant thereto, or when a violation of any provision of chapter 9.46 RCW, or any commission rule, has occurred upon any premises occupied or operated by any such person or over which he or she has substantial control;

Passed the House May 26, 1975.

Passed the Senate May 22, 1975.

Approved by the Governor June 4, 1975, with the exception of sections 1, 2, 3, 5, 6 and 14 which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State June 4, 1975.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith without my approval as to several sections Substitute House Bill No. 212 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to gambling."

At each of the past several sessions of the Legislature, bills have been passed amending the gambling statutes, primarily to extend the scope of gambling activities authorized. As Governor, I have believed it to be my responsibility to review these bills in detail and to remove from the bills those provisions which were most objectionable because of the problems they would have created for law enforcement officials throughout the state. The Legislature could have resolved many of the problems in the bills had law enforcement officials been consulted during the legislative process on the effect of individual amendments to the law. As in the past sessions, the Legislature has apparently failed again to consult those officials, and as a result I am compelled to veto several portions of this bill, which, if allowed to go into effect, would have created serious problems for law enforcement officials in maintaining legalized gambling in this state from professional gambling interests. I regret that several meritorious changes in the law were written into the same sections that I have vetoed, and I am unable to preserve those provisions without the power of the item veto.

Sections 1, 2 and 3 contain several related provisions on small scale gambling, annual fund-raising events, and sports pools. The subsections relating to small scale gambling and annual fund-raising events both contain a ceiling of $5,000 on gross wagers and bets received by the sponsoring organization. The difficulty presented by this provision is that enormous amounts of money could be exchanging hands among persons betting between themselves with the organization receiving nothing, or if anything, a token amount. Thus while the gross total of $5,000 sounds like a fairly innocuous amount, it is by no means an accurate measure of the amount of gambling that may take place, including gambling for very high stakes. Moreover, there is no provision for record keeping, no license required, no requirement that local law enforcement officers be notified of the event, and simply stated, no way by which gambling regulations can be enforced and violations detected. Since no license is required for these events, the provisions of RCW 9.46.160, which prescribes penalties for conducting gambling activities without license, could not be applied to gambling which might take place in flagrant violation of statutory authorization or Gambling Commission rule.

The provisions relating to sports pools create serious problems of enforcement because of the large amount which may be wagered for each square and the absence of any limit on the number of pools that may be conducted simultaneously and on the same premises. Again, there is no requirement for record-keeping, which is particularly needed for sports pools conducted in commercial premises if there is to be any enforcement of commission rules.

Section 5 contains language which would prohibit local taxation of amusement games at agricultural fairs. The ostensible reason for this provision is the claim that the local jurisdictions already receive fees to pay for their services from the fee that is charged to the amusement game operator to participate at the fair. This argument ignores the fact that the same can be said of any other business that procures a license and also pays taxes to the local jurisdiction. For this reason, and also because the section contains language tied to provisions in section 1, 2 and 3, I have determined to veto section 5.

Section 6 contains changes identical to those in section 1(2), and would, according to proponents of the changes, allow a person who is a member of more than one organization conducting bingo games to volunteer his or her services to assist in all those organizations as long as the person did not participate in the management of the organization. The existing language in the law was placed there to prevent professional bingo operators from conducting bingo games, thereby reducing the risks of customers being cheated or income being substantially taken by such operators instead of accruing to the charitable or non-profit organizations sponsoring the games. The changes enacted in this bill make it more difficult to prevent the presence of professional operators, and would place the Gambling Commission and local law enforcement personnel in the position of having to distinguish between managerial and non-managerial tasks. Accordingly, I have determined to veto section 6.

Section 14 is integrally tied to provisions in sections 1, 2 and 3 which I have vetoed, and would make no sense standing alone. Accordingly, I have vetoed that section.

I have determined not to veto section 13, which is also tied to language relating to fishing derbies in sections 1, 2 and 3, which sections were vetoed for other reasons stated above. It is my intent that notwithstanding the reference in section 13 to a revised definition in section 1(7), the intent of the Legislature in exempting fishing derbies from any other provisions of this act or from any rules and regulations of the Gambling Commission should be carried out. I have no objections to exempting such fishing derbies, and regret that related language in other sections of the bill could not be preserved from section vetoes. I believe that with the language of section 13 and the intent stated in this message, the Gambling Commission has sufficient authority to refrain from regulation of fishing derbies.

I wish to make special note of the fact that I support revised statutory language on small scale gambling and sports pools, and probably would have approved language originally drafted by their proponents and concurred in by the Gambling Commission. However, the provisions related thereto have suffered the same consequences as many other worthwhile changes in past gambling bills, and amendments added during the legislative process have made those provisions far broader than first intended. I specifically regret that the well-intentioned and diligent efforts of organizations such as the Washington Congress of Parents, Teachers and Students are hereby negated because of changes made in the enactment of this bill.

With the exception of sections 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, and 14 which I have vetoed for the reasons stated, the remainder of Substitute House Bill No. 212 is approved."

(2) The department, in cooperation with the office of program planning and fiscal management, shall study and ascertain current and prospective needs of state agencies for passenger motor vehicles and shall recommend transfer to a state motor pool or other appropriate disposition of any vehicle found not to be required by a state agency.

(3) The automotive policy board shall direct the transfer of passenger motor vehicles from a state agency to a state motor pool or other disposition as appropriate, based on a study under subsection (2) of this section, or after a public hearing if a finding is made based on testimony and data therein submitted that the economy, efficiency, or effectiveness of state government would be improved by such a transfer or other disposition of passenger motor vehicles. Any dispute over the accuracy of testimony and data submitted as to the benefits in state governmental economy, efficiency, and effectiveness to be gained by such transfer shall be resolved by a majority vote of the automotive policy board established by section 6 of this 1975 amendatory act.

originally acquired without cost or was purchased from general fund appropriations. The value of such property shall be entered upon the accounts of the motor transport account as an amount due the agency from which the vehicle was transferred. For such property purchased from dedicated, revolving, or trust funds, the value at the time of transfer shall also be entered upon the accounts of the motor transport account as an amount due the agency and fund from which the vehicle transferred was purchased and maintained. If surplus funds are available in the motor transport account, the agency may be paid all or part of the amount due to the dedicated, revolving, or trust fund concerned. Otherwise, the credit for the amount due shall be applied proportionately over the remaining undepreciated life of such property. The prorated credits shall be applied monthly by the director of general administration against any monthly or other charges for motor vehicle transportation services rendered the agency.

To the extent surplus funds are available in the motor transport account, the automotive policy board may direct a cash reimbursement to a dedicated, revolving, or trust fund where an amount due such a fund will not be charged off to services rendered by the department of general administration within a reasonable time.

Any disagreement between the supervisor of motor transport and an agency as to the amount of reimbursement to which it may be entitled shall be resolved by the director of general administration with the advice and consent of the automotive policy board.

Disbursements therefrom shall be made in accordance with the provisions of sections 2 through 16 of this 1975 amendatory act as authorized by the director or his duly authorized representative and as may be provided by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 8, Laws of 1965 and to chapter 43.19 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The director of general administration shall deposit in the motor transport account all receipts, including the initial transfer of automobile pool capital from the highway equipment fund and any other funds transferred, rentals or other fees and charges for transportation services furnished, proceeds from the sale of surplus or replaced property under the control of the supervisor of motor transport and other income, and from which shall be paid operating costs, including salaries and wages, administrative expense, overhead, the cost of replacement vehicles, additional passenger vehicles authorized pursuant to section 3 of this 1975 amendatory act, and any other expenses. If it is necessary at any time for the department to request any appropriation from the general fund or various dedicated, revolving, or trust funds to purchase additional vehicles, any appropriation therefor may provide that such advance shall be repaid together with reasonable interest from surpluses of the motor transport account.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. There is added to chapter 8, Laws of 1965 and to chapter 43.19 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The director of general administration, through the supervisor of motor transport, shall adopt, promulgate, and enforce such regulations as may be deemed necessary to accomplish the purpose of sections 2 through 16 of this 1975 amendatory act. Such regulations, in addition to other matters, shall provide authority for any agency director or his delegate to approve the use on official state business of personally owned or commercially owned rental passenger motor vehicles. Before such an authorization is made, it must first be reasonably determined that state owned passenger vehicles or other suitable transportation is not available at the time or location required or that the use of such other transportation would not be conducive to the economical, efficient, and effective conduct of business.

Such regulations shall be consistent with and shall carry out the objectives of the general policies and guidelines adopted by the office of program planning and fiscal management pursuant to section 5 of this 1975 amendatory act, after approval by the automotive policy board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. There is added to chapter 239, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and to chapter 43.41 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Pursuant to policies and regulations promulgated by the office of program planning and fiscal management after consultation with and approval by the automotive policy board, an elected state officer or his delegate or a state agency director or his delegate may permit employee commuting in a state owned or leased vehicle only if such travel is on official business, as determined in accordance with section 5 of this 1975 amendatory act, and is determined to be economical and advantageous to the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. There is added to chapter 8, Laws of 1965 and to chapter 43.19 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Sections 2 through 15 of this 1975 amendatory act shall not be construed to prohibit a state officer or employee from using his personal motor vehicle on state business and being reimbursed therefor, where permitted under state travel policies, rules, and regulations promulgated by the office of program planning and fiscal management after concurrence of the automotive policy board, and where such use is in the interest of economic, efficient, and effective management and performance of official state business.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. There is added to chapter 8, Laws of 1965 and to chapter 43.19 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The governor, acting through the department of general administration and any other appropriate agency or agencies as he may direct, is empowered to utilize all reasonable means for detecting the unauthorized use of state owned motor vehicles, including the execution of agreements with the state patrol for compliance enforcement. Whenever such illegal use is discovered which involves a state employee, the employing agency shall proceed as provided by law to establish the amount, extent, and dollar value of any such use, including an opportunity for notice and hearing for the employee involved. For the purpose of this section, church shall mean a building erected for and used exclusively for religious worship and schooling or other activity in connection therewith.

(10) The restrictions set forth in the preceding subsection shall not prohibit the board from authorizing the transfer of existing licenses now located within the restricted area to other persons or locations within the restricted area: PROVIDED, Such transfer shall in no case result in establishing the licensed premises closer to a church or school than it was before the transfer.

(11) It shall be unlawful to sell any intoxicating liquors, with or without a license on the grounds of any college, university, or community college supported in whole or in part by state funds, except to the extent liquor may be served but not sold under banquet permits issued pursuant to RCW 66.24.490.

Sec. 6. Section 90, chapter 62, Laws of 1933 ex. sess. as last amended by section 6, chapter 217, Laws of 1937 and RCW 66.28.010 are each amended to read as follows:

No manufacturer, importer, or wholesaler shall be eligible to receive or hold a retail license under this title, nor shall such manufacturer or wholesaler sell at retail any liquor as herein defined: PROVIDED, That nothing in this section shall prohibit a licensed brewer or domestic winery from being licensed as a retailer pursuant to chapter 66.24 RCW for the purpose of selling beer or wine of its own production at retail on the brewery or winery premises. Such beer and wine so sold at retail shall be subject to the taxes imposed by RCW 66.24.290 and RCW 66.24.210 and to reporting and bonding requirements as prescribed by regulations adopted by the board pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW.

Sec. 10. Section 30, chapter 62, Laws of 1933 ex. sess. as last amended by section 7, chapter 21, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 66.28.040 are each amended to read as follows:

No more than two such licenses may be issued to any one non-profit organization during a calendar year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. If any phrase, clause, subsection, or section of this 1975 amendatory act shall be declared unconstitutional or invalid by any court of competent jurisdiction, it shall be conclusively presumed that the legislature would have enacted this 1975 amendatory act without the phrase, clause, subsection, or section so held unconstitutional or invalid and the remainder of the act shall not be affected as a result of said part being held unconstitutional or invalid.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. This 1975 amendatory act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect July 1, 1975.

Passed the Senate May 27, 1975.

Passed the House May 23, 1975.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State June 4, 1975.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith without my approval as to one section Substitute Senate Bill No. 2423 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to intoxicating liquor."

Section 5 of the bill includes a provision prohibiting hereafter the sale of liquor on any state college, university, or community college campus. I believe this is an unduly broad restriction that fails to take account of unique circumstances in individual communities.

The Liquor Control Board has operated capably without such restriction in determining where and under what circumstances liquor should be sold to adults. The question of whether liquor should be sold on campuses of state supported institutions of higher education should continue to be within the jurisdiction of the Board, which is in a better position to decide on the appropriate response in each individual case. If there is a potential problem of minors attempting to purchase liquor on a particular campus, I am certain the Board will weigh that factor in deciding ultimately whether the sale of liquor on that campus should be allowed. I am likewise certain that the Board will take into consideration individual community acceptance of the sale of liquor on a campus.

For these reasons I have determined to veto section 5. With that exception, the remainder of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2423 is approved."

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The purpose of this amendatory act is to provide for a comprehensive planning process and a decision making system for vocational education programs in the state of Washington and to establish administrative responsibility for the receipt and allocation of federal vocational funds.

It is the intent of this amendatory act that whenever possible, comprehensive and coordinated educational programs shall be provided at the secondary and postsecondary education levels and such programs shall include therein vocational, occupational, and technical offerings, both within the secondary and postsecondary education systems.

- (1) "Commission" shall mean the commission for vocational education.
- (2) "Secondary education system" shall mean those educational courses and programs, within the jurisdiction of the superintendent of public instruction, being offered in the common schools of the state of Washington in the grades 7 through 12, or any part thereof, which are traditionally provided for the purpose of granting a recognized certificate of completion or a high school diploma: PROVIDED, That notwithstanding the provisions of this chapter and RCW 28B.50.140(1), existing vocational-technical institutes operating within the secondary school system shall continue to function within the common school system.
- (3) "Postsecondary education system" shall mean those educational courses and programs, not within the jurisdiction of the superintendent of public instruction, being offered beyond secondary education by institutions of higher education in the state of Washington to those who hold a certificate of completion or high school diploma which includes academic, vocational, technical or professional training traditionally leading to an associate, baccalaureate or higher degree or a certificate of achievement.
- (4) "Vocational education" shall mean a planned series of learning experiences, the specific objective of which is to prepare persons to enter, continue in, or upgrade themselves in gainful employment in recognized occupations, homemaking, home and family life programs, and volunteer fire fighting training, which are not designated as professional or requiring a baccalaureate or higher degree.
- (5) "State plan" shall mean the Washington state plan for vocational education, adopted as required by Public Law 88-210 as amended, and other federal congressional and administrative directives pertaining to vocational education, and shall be the single comprehensive plan which provides approval standards for vocational education operated in or by community colleges, common schools, area nongraded vocational-technical institutes, occupational skill centers, state institutions, private proprietary and parochial schools, on-the-job training facilities or any other training location where local, state or federal vocational funds are allocated: PROVIDED, That standards of, rules and regulations for, and supervision of indentured apprenticeship in the apprenticeable crafts shall continue to be governed by the director of labor and industries and the state apprenticeship council in accordance with chapter 49.04 RCW.

(6) "Vocational-technical institute" shall mean a specialized area nongraded vocational education facility established and operated for the purpose of offering comprehensive courses primarily oriented to the job market area in vocational education for persons sixteen years of age and older without regard to residence, pursuant to laws and rules and regulations pertaining to the maintenance, operation, and capital funding of vocational-technical institutes: PROVIDED, That service areas for common school vocational-technical institutes shall be defined specifically by the commission, recognizing areas traditionally served.

(7) "Advisory council" means the advisory council for vocational education established within this state pursuant to 20 USCA 1244B.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is hereby established a commission for vocational education comprised of seven members, each of which shall be a voting member. The chairman shall be a citizen member chosen by a majority of its members pursuant to its bylaws. Five citizen members shall be appointed by the governor and confirmed by the state senate. The superintendent of public instruction and the director of the state board for community college education shall serve as the remaining two members. In making citizen member appointments initially, and subsequently thereafter, the governor shall be cognizant of the desirability of appointing persons well versed regarding vocational and occupational needs of management, labor, and agriculture.

The initial citizen appointments shall be for periods of one, two, three, four, and five years. Thereafter such citizen members shall serve for terms of five years. No citizen member shall be eligible to serve who is also a member of a state or local educational agency, board, council or commission, or who is employed by a common school or institution of higher education.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The commission for vocational education shall have the following functions:

(1) Plan development. The commission shall be responsible for complying with federal directives to insure the development and maintenance of a state plan for vocational education but initial planning shall be accomplished by the secondary and postsecondary education systems. Prior to the adoption of the state plan, the commission shall request comments from the council on higher education and the advisory council for vocational education.

(2) State plan modification adjudication. Decisions on new programs and/or facilities for vocational education shall be made internally within the respective secondary or postsecondary education system in accordance with the provisions of the state plan. The commission may review such decisions to insure compliance with the state plan and avoid unnecessary duplication of current or projected programs.

Any common school or community college district, or the superintendent of public instruction, or the state board for community college education, or other interested parties as authorized by the commission, shall be afforded the opportunity to comment upon any new programs or facilities proposed. The commission, subject to dispute resolution rules adopted by said commission, shall have the final determination on any disputes arising out of such program proposals.

In adjudicating disputes between the two secondary and postsecondary education systems regarding the state plan, the commission will use at least the following criteria: Recognition that secondary education is constitutionally the responsibility of the superintendent of public instruction and that by legislative action postsecondary education is the responsibility of institutions of higher education; adhere to the general policy set forth in the state plan; consider the particular vocational need of the community, region, or state and whether the common school or community college, or both, can best respond to those needs; encourage cooperation and coordination rather than competition and program conflict between secondary and post secondary education systems; consider the desires and preferences of the residents of the immediate program service area and of the representatives of the fields of management, labor, and agriculture which benefit from possible program offerings; and avoid unnecessary duplication of vocational education programs and facilities.

(3) Vocational education administration. The commission shall be the sole agency for the receipt and allocation of federal funds in accordance with the state plan. The supervision of the state plan shall be carried out by the commission; however, daily administration of the state plan shall be primarily the responsibility of the superintendent of public instruction and the state board for community college education: PROVIDED, That the commission shall review and approve state plan development proposals or special programs requiring personal service contracts, and activities beyond the program responsibilities of the superintendent of public instruction and the state board for community college education.

Under the state plan the commission shall make periodic compliance audits at least once a biennium of the vocational education programs individually and jointly conducted by the common schools and community colleges to insure compliance with the state plan.

The commission shall be the primary state liaison with the federal government for the state plan for vocational education.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. In addition to powers and duties under section 4 of this amendatory act, the commission shall make periodic reports to the governor and the legislature. The initial report shall be submitted, with the governor's comments, to the 1977 legislature by December 1, 1976 and shall include, but not be limited to, review of and recommendations on the following: (1) Vocational education program modification, including common informational data systems; (2) reorganization of the administration of vocational education; (3) an appropriate level of expenditure for the state administration of vocational education programs; (4) appropriate charges for vocational and adult education programs in the secondary and postsecondary education systems; and (5) provisions for personnel standards for vocational education instructors.

Such recommendations, to the greatest extent possible, shall comply with the intent of this amendatory act and be consistent with federal requirements.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The commission is authorized to promulgate such rules and regulations as are necessary to comply with the intent of this amendatory act in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW, the administrative procedure act, and adopt such bylaws as deemed necessary to the business of the commission. Existing rules and regulations of any state agency relating to vocational education should be considered amended in accordance with the intent of this amendatory act. Initial rules and regulations of the commission, prior to their effective date, shall be submitted to the respective rules committees of the senate and house for review concurrently at such time as notice of intent to adopt is filed. The commission is further authorized to take whatever action is necessary to insure compliance with federal vocational education enactments and state legislative and administrative directives concerning vocational education. The commission is also authorized to delegate by commission resolution to the executive director those functions it deems necessary to the operation of the commission.

The commission shall meet, consult and cooperate with the office of the state superintendent of public instruction on all matters falling within his constitutional supervisory powers in advance of exercising any of the powers or duties granted to the commission by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Common school districts and community college districts shall cooperate in offering vocational education programs, particularly when establishing specialized facility support for such programs. Such cooperation shall also extend to noncredit vocational courses in common school community education programs and community college community service programs as the same are authorized in RCW 28A.58.247 and 28B.50.020.

Except as provided for by the rules and regulations of the commission, (1) common school vocational-technical institutes shall not offer new or expanded vocational programs outside their traditional service areas; (2) community colleges shall not offer new or expanded vocational programs outside their college districts. Common school vocational-technical institutes and community colleges desiring to offer new or expanded programs outside their respective service areas or community college districts shall provide reasonable notice, as determined by the commission, to the common school and community college districts affected thereby.

If such joint cooperation cannot be attained at the local level the superintendent of public instruction and the state board for community college education shall attempt to resolve the matter. Matters unresolved shall be referred to the commission for adjudication.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Members of the commission will receive per diem in lieu of compensation, and travel expenses in accordance with standard rates for part time boards, councils, and commissions as certified by the state budget director.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The coordinating council for occupational education is hereby abolished effective midnight June 30, 1975, and its education responsibilities, personnel, property and equipment are transferred to the commission for vocational education unless otherwise provided for in this amendatory act.

The commission in accordance with section 4 of this amendatory act shall keep its professional staff to the minimum number of persons necessary to fulfill its duties under this amendatory act and the performance of such other administrative responsibilities as the legislature may provide.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The superintendent of public instruction may authorize common schools to contract with community colleges to provide adult high school completion programs if he determines that such programs effectively fulfill the purposes of secondary education: PROVIDED, That except as subject to the action of the superintendent of public instruction, adult high school completion programs conducted by the community colleges as authorized by RCW 28B.50.092 or 28B.50.535 shall remain in the community colleges.

The governor has the authority to transfer such personnel, funds, and equipment to the agency he so determines as may be necessary to carry out those functions. The governor shall make a report to the legislature concerning such determinations as he has made by December 1, 1975. All remaining funds of the coordinating council not disposed of or otherwise provided for in this amendatory act shall remain within the jurisdiction of the commission.

Passed the House May 24, 1975.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State June 4, 1975.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith without my approval as to one section Substitute Senate Bill No. 2463 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to vocational education; creating the commission for vocational education; transferring certain powers, duties, responsibilities, personnel, funds and equipment."

Section 15 of the bill empowers the state board of education to adopt rules and regulations for vocational-technical institutes as authorized by the act. The entire thrust of this bill, and the purpose of the prolonged negotiations that went into its formulation, was to place the responsibility for vocational education in a single, new commission. The effect of this section is to divide again this responsibility and negate much of the efforts of those who have sought to resolve the problems that led to the enactment of this bill. Accordingly, I have determined to veto section 15.

With the exception of section 15, the remainder of Substitute Senate Bill No. 2463 is approved."

ENERGY CONSUMPTION—LIFE-CYCLE COST ANALYSES

AN ACT Relating to energy consuming utilities; and adding a new chapter to Title 39 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature hereby finds:

(1) That major publicly owned or leased facilities have a significant impact on our state's consumption of energy;

(2) That energy conservation practices adopted for the design, construction, and utilization of such facilities will have a beneficial effect on our overall supply of energy;

(3) That the cost of the energy consumed by such facilities over the life of the facilities shall be considered in addition to the initial cost of constructing such facilities; and

(4) That the cost of energy is significant and major facility designs shall be based on the total life-cycle cost, including the initial construction cost, and the cost, over the economic life of a major facility, of the energy consumed, and of the operation and maintenance of a major facility as they affect energy consumption.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The legislature declares that it is the public policy of this state to insure that energy conservation practices are employed in the design of major publicly owned or leased facilities. To this end the legislature authorizes and directs that public agencies analyze the cost of energy consumption of each major facility to be planned and constructed or renovated after the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. For the purposes of this chapter the following words and phrases shall have the following meanings unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(1) "Public agency" means every state office, officer, board, commission, committee, bureau, department, and all political subdivisions of the state.

(2) "Major facility" means any publicly owned or leased building having twenty-five thousand square feet or more of usable floor space.

(3) "Initial cost" means the monéys required for the capital construction or renovation of a major facility.

(4) "Renovation" means additions, alterations, or repairs within any twelve month period which exceed fifty percent of the value of a major facility and which will affect any energy system.

(5) "Economic life" means the projected or anticipated useful life of a major facility as expressed by a term of years.

(6) "Life-cycle cost" means the cost of a major facility including its initial cost, the cost of the energy consumed over its economic life, and the energy consumption related cost of its operation and maintenance.

(7) "Life-cycle cost analysis" includes, but is not limited to, the following elements:

- (a) The coordination and positioning of a major facility on its physical site;
- (b) The amount and type of fenestration employed in a major facility;
- (c) The amount of insulation incorporated into the design of a major facility;
- (d) The variable occupancy and operating conditions of a major facility; and
- (e) An energy-consumption analysis of a major facility.

(8) "Energy systems" means all utilities, including, but not limited to, heating, air-conditioning, ventilating, lighting, and the supplying of domestic hot water.

(9) "Energy-consumption analysis" means the evaluation of all energy systems and components by demand and type of energy including the internal energy load imposed on a major facility by its occupants, equipment, and components, and the external energy load imposed on a major facility by the climatic conditions of its location. An energy consumption analysis of the operation of energy systems of a major facility shall include, but not be limited to, the following elements:

- (a) The comparison of three or more system alternatives;
- (b) The simulation of each system over the entire range of operation of such facility for a year's operating period; and
- (c) The evaluation of the energy consumption of component equipment in each system considering the operation of such components at other than full or rated outputs.

The energy-consumption analysis shall be prepared by a professional engineer or licensed architect who may use computers or such other methods as are capable of producing predictable results.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. On and after the effective date of this act whenever a public agency determines that any major facility is to be constructed or renovated such agency shall cause to be included in the design phase of such construction or renovation a provision that requires a life-cycle cost analysis to be prepared for such facility. Such analysis shall be approved by the agency prior to the commencement of actual construction or renovation. A public agency may accept the facility design if the agency is satisfied that the life-cycle cost analysis provides for an efficient energy system or systems based on the economic life of the major facility.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. If any provision of this act, or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act, or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

In the event the department is of the opinion that any permit granted under this subsection is inconsistent with the policy declared in RCW 90.58.020 or is otherwise not authorized by this section, the department may appeal the issuance of such permit within thirty days to the hearings board upon written notice to the local government and the permittee;

(3) Local government shall establish a program, consistent with rules adopted by the department, for the administration and enforcement of the permit system provided in this section. Any such system shall include a requirement that all applications and permits shall be subject to the same public notice procedures as provided for applications for waste disposal permits for new operations under RCW 90.48.170. The administration of the system so established shall be performed exclusively by local government.

(7) Any permit may be rescinded by the issuing authority upon the finding that a permittee has not complied with conditions of a permit. In the event the department is of the opinion that such noncompliance exists, the department may appeal within thirty days to the hearings board for a rescission of such permit upon written notice to the local government and the permittee.

(8) The holder of a certification from the governor pursuant to chapter 80.50 RCW shall not be required to obtain a permit under this section.

(9) No permit shall be required for any development on shorelines of the state included within a preliminary or final plat approved by the applicable state agency or local government prior to April 1, 1971, if:

(a) The final plat was approved after April 13, 1961, or the preliminary plat was approved after April 30, 1969, or

(b) Sales of lots to purchasers with reference to the plat, or substantial development incident to platting or required by the plat, occurred prior to April 1, 1971, and

(c) The development to be made without a permit meets all requirements of the applicable state agency or local government, other than requirements imposed pursuant to this chapter, and

(d) The development does not involve construction of buildings, or involves construction on wetlands of buildings to serve only as community social or recreational facilities for the use of owners of platted lots and the buildings do not exceed a height of thirty-five feet above average grade level, and

(e) The development is completed within two years after the effective date of this chapter.

(10) The applicable state agency or local government is authorized to approve a final plat with respect to shorelines of the state included within a preliminary plat approved after April 30, 1969, and prior to April 1, 1971: PROVIDED, That any substantial development within the platted shorelines of the state is authorized by a permit granted pursuant to this section, or does not require a permit as provided in subsection (9) of this section, or does not require a permit because of substantial development occurred prior to June 1, 1971.

(11) Any permit for a variance or a conditional use by local government under approved master programs must be submitted to the department for its approval or disapproval.

Sec. 4. Section 18, chapter 286, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 203, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 90.58.180 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person aggrieved by the granting or denying of a permit on shorelines of the state, or rescinding a permit pursuant to RCW (~~90.58.150~~) 90.58.140 may seek review from the shorelines hearings board by filing a request for the same within thirty days of receipt of the final order. Concurrently with the filing of any request for review with the board as provided in this section pertaining to a final order of a local government, the requestor shall file a copy of his request with the department and the attorney general. If it appears to the department or the attorney general that the requestor has valid reasons to seek review, either the department or the attorney general may certify the request within thirty days after its receipt to the shorelines hearings board following which the board shall then, but not otherwise, review the matter covered by the requestor: PROVIDED, That the failure to obtain such certification shall not preclude the requestor from obtaining a review in the superior court under any right to review otherwise available to the requestor. The department and the attorney general may intervene to protect the public interest and insure that the provisions of this chapter are complied with at any time within forty-five days from the date of the filing of said copies by the requestor.

(2) The department or the attorney general may obtain review of any final order granting a permit, or granting or denying an application for a permit issued by a local government by filing a written request with the shorelines appeals board and the appropriate local government within forty-five days from the date the final order was filed as provided in subsection (5) of RCW 90.58.140.

(3) The review proceedings authorized in subsections (1) and (2) of this section are subject to the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW pertaining to procedures in contested cases. Judicial review of such proceedings of the shorelines hearings board may be had as provided in chapter 34.04 RCW.

(4) Local government may appeal to the shorelines hearings board any rules, regulations, guidelines, designations, or master programs for shorelines of the state adopted or approved by the department within thirty days of the date of the adoption or approval. The board shall make a final decision within sixty days following the hearing held thereon.

(a) In an appeal relating to a master program for shorelines, the board, after full consideration of the positions of the local government and the department, shall determine the validity of the master program. If the board determines that said program:

(i) is clearly erroneous in light of the policy of this chapter; or

(ii) constitutes an implementation of this chapter in violation of constitutional or statutory provisions; or

(iii) is arbitrary and capricious; or

(iv) was developed without fully considering and evaluating all proposed master programs submitted to the department by the local government; or the board shall enter a final decision declaring the program invalid, remanding the master program to the department with a statement of the reasons in support of the determination, and directing the department to adopt, after a thorough consultation with the affected local government, a new master program. Unless the board makes one or more of the determinations as hereinbefore provided, the board shall find the master program to be valid and enter a final decision to that effect.

(b) In an appeal relating to a master program for shorelines of state-wide significance the board shall approve the master program adopted by the department unless a local government shall, by clear and convincing evidence and argument, persuade the board that the master program approved by the department is inconsistent with the policy of RCW 90.58.020 and the applicable guidelines.

(c) In an appeal relating to rules, regulations, guidelines, master programs of state-wide significance, and designations, the standard of review provided in RCW 34.04.070 shall apply.

(5) Rules, regulations, designations, master programs, and guidelines shall be subject to review in superior court, if authorized pursuant to RCW 34.04.070: PROVIDED, That no review shall be granted by a superior court on petition from a local government unless the local government shall first have obtained review under subsection (4) of this section and the petition for court review is filed within three months after the date of final decision by the shorelines hearings board.

[Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2574]

GEAR—"CASE AREA"—STATE PURCHASE

AN ACT Relating to food fish and shellfish; amending section 3, chapter 112, Laws of 1949 and RCW 75.08.012; adding new sections to chapter 75.28 RCW; prescribing penalties; providing for the establishment of a revolving fund; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 3, chapter 112, Laws of 1949 and RCW 75.08.012 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be the duty and purpose of the department of fisheries to preserve, protect, perpetuate and manage the food fish and shellfish in the waters of the state and the offshore waters thereof to the end that such food fish and shellfish shall not be taken, possessed, sold or disposed of at such times and in such manner as will impair the supply thereof. For the purpose of conservation, and in a manner consistent therewith, the department shall seek to maintain the economic well-being and stability of the commercial fishing industry in the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 75.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The legislature finds that the protection, welfare, and economic well-being of the commercial fishing industry is important to the people of this state. There presently exists an overabundance of commercial fishing gear in our state waters which causes great pressure on the fishing resources. This results in great economic waste to the state and prohibits conservation and harvesting programs from achieving their goals. This adverse situation has been compounded by the recent federal court decision, United States of America et al. v. State of Washington et al., Civil No. 9213, United States District Court for the Western District of Washington, February 12, 1974. As a result, large numbers of commercial fishermen face personal economic hardship and the state commercial fishing industry is confronted with economic difficulty. The public welfare requires that the state have the authority to purchase commercial fishing vessels, licenses, gear, and permits offered for sale, as appropriate, in a manner which will provide relief to the individual vessel owner, and which will effect a reduction in the amount of commercial fishing gear in use in the state so as to insure increased economic opportunity for those persons in the industry and to insure that sound scientific conservation and harvesting programs can be carried out. It is the intention of the legislature to provide relief to commercial fishermen adversely affected by the current economic situation in the state fishery and to preserve this valuable state industry and these natural resources.

AN ACT Relating to local government; amending section 36.67.060, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 and RCW 36.67.060; amending section 14, chapter 72, Laws of 1967 and RCW 36.94.140; amending section 15, chapter 72, Laws of 1967 and RCW 36.94.150; amending section 21, chapter 72, Laws of 1967 and RCW 36.94.210; amending section 22, chapter 72, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 9, chapter 96, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 36.94.220; amending section 2, chapter 151, Laws of 1923 as amended by section 2, chapter 74, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 39.44.020; amending section 3, chapter 18, Laws of 1959 and RCW 57.12.020; adding new sections to chapter 36.94 RCW; and adding new sections to chapter 57.06 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 36.67.060, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 and RCW 36.67.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Bonds issued under this chapter shall be serial in form and maturity and interest shall be paid and the principal of the bonds retired by an annual tax levy in accordance with the provisions of chapter 39.44 RCW and by any other moneys lawfully available and pledged therefor.

Sec. 2. Section 14, chapter 72, Laws of 1967 and RCW 36.94.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Every county, in the operation of a system of sewerage and/or water, shall have full jurisdiction and authority to manage, regulate and control it and to fix, alter, regulate and control the rates and charges for the service to those to whom such county service is available, and to levy charges for connection to such system. The rates for availability of service and connection charges so charged must be uniform for the same class of customers or service.

In classifying customers served ((or)), service furnished or made available by such system of sewerage and/or water, or the connection charges, the board may consider any or all of the following factors:

- (1) The difference in cost of service to the various customers within or without the area;
- (2) The difference in cost of maintenance, operation, repair and replacement of the various parts of the systems;
- (3) The different character of the service furnished various customers;
- (4) The quantity and quality of the sewage and/or water delivered and the time of its delivery;
- (5) Capital contributions made to the system or systems, including, but not limited to, assessments; and
- (6) Any other matters which present a reasonable difference as a ground for distinction.

Such rates shall produce revenues sufficient to take care of the costs of maintenance and operation, revenue bond and warrant interest and principal amortization requirements, and all other charges necessary for the efficient and proper operation of the system.

Sec. 3. Section 15, chapter 72, Laws of 1967 and RCW 36.94.150 are each amended to read as follows:

All counties operating a system of sewerage and/or water shall have a lien for delinquent connection charges and charges for the availability of sewerage and/or water service, together with interest fixed by resolution at eight percent per annum from the date due until paid. Penalties of not more than ten percent of the amount due may be imposed in case of failure to pay the charges at times fixed by resolution. The lien shall be for all charges, interest, and penalties and shall attach to the premises to which the services were ~~((furnished))~~ available. The lien shall be superior to all other liens and encumbrances, except general taxes and local and special assessments of the county.

The county department established in RCW 36.94.120 shall certify periodically the delinquencies to the treasurer of the county at which time the lien shall attach. ~~((Liens created by this section shall not have priority over liens or encumbrances perfected before the day of the certification to the treasurer of the particular delinquency for which the lien attaches pursuant to this section.))~~

Upon the expiration of sixty days after the attachment of the lien, the county may bring suit in foreclosure by civil action in the superior court of the county where the property is located. In addition to the costs and disbursements provided by statute, the court may allow the county a reasonable attorney's fee. The lien shall be foreclosed in the same manner as the foreclosure of real property tax liens.

Sec. 4. Section 21, chapter 72, Laws of 1967 and RCW 36.94.210 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of county commissioners of any county in adopting and establishing a system of sewerage and/or water may set aside into a special fund and pledge to the payment of the principal and interest due on any county revenue bonds or general obligation bonds any sums or amounts which may accrue from the collection of rates and charges for the private and public use of the system or systems.

Sec. 5. Section 22, chapter 72, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 9, chapter 96, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 36.94.220 are each amended to read as follows:

A county shall have the power to establish utility local improvement districts within the area of a sewerage and/or water general plan and to levy special assessments under a mode of annual installments extending over a period not exceeding twenty years on all property specially benefited by any local improvement on the basis of the special benefits to pay in whole or in part the damages or costs of any improvements ordered in such county. Utility local improvement districts may include territory within a city or town only with the written consent of the city or town, but if the local district is formed before such area is included within the city or town, no such consent shall be necessary. The levying, collection and enforcement of all public assessments hereby authorized shall be in the manner now and hereafter provided by law for the levying, collection and enforcement of local improvement assessments by cities of the first class, insofar as the same shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter. The duties devolving upon the city treasurer under such laws are imposed upon the county treasurer for the purposes of this chapter. The mode of assessment shall be in the manner to be determined by the board of county commissioners by resolution. ~~((It must be specified in any petition for the establishment of a utility local improvement district and in the sewerage and/or water general plan or amendment thereto that the assessments shall be for the sole purpose of payment into the revenue bond fund for the payment of revenue bonds.))~~ Assessments in any utility local improvement district may be made on the basis of special benefits up to but not in excess of the total cost of any sewerage and/or water improvement ~~((payable by issuance of revenue bonds. No warrants or bonds shall be issued in any such utility local improvement district, but the collection of interest and principal on all assessments in such utility improvement district, when collected, shall be paid into the applicable revenue bond fund))~~. In utility local improvement districts, assessments shall be deposited into the revenue bond fund or general obligation bond fund established for the payment of bonds issued to pay such costs which bond payments are secured in part by the pledge of assessments.

Sec. 6. Section 2, chapter 151, Laws of 1923 as amended by section 2, chapter 74, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 39.44.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The officials now or hereafter charged by law with the duty of levying taxes for the payment of said bonds and interest shall, in the manner provided by law, make an annual levy sufficient together with other moneys lawfully available and pledged therefor to meet the payments of principal and interest on said bonds maturing as herein provided.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Subject to the provisions of sections 7 through 11 of this 1975 amendatory act a municipal corporation may transfer to the county within which all of its territory lies, all or part of the property constituting its system of sewerage, system of water or combined water and sewerage system, together with any of its other real or personal property used or useful in connection with the operation, maintenance, repair, replacement, extension, or financing of that system, and the county may acquire such property on such terms as may be mutually agreed upon by the governing body of the municipal corporation and the legislative authority of the county, and approved by the superior court for such county.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. In consideration of a transfer of property by a municipal corporation to a county in the manner provided in sections 7 through 11 of this 1975 amendatory act, a county may assume and agree to pay or provide for the payment of all or part of the indebtedness of a municipal corporation including the payment and retirement of outstanding general obligation and revenue bonds issued by a municipal corporation. Until the indebtedness of a municipal corporation thus assumed by a county has been discharged, all property within the municipal corporation and the owners and occupants of that property, shall continue to be liable for taxes, special assessments, and other charges legally pledged to pay such indebtedness. The county may assume the obligation of causing the payment of such indebtedness, collecting such taxes, assessments, and charges and observing and performing the other contractual obligations of the municipal corporation. The legislative authority of the county may act in the same manner as the governing body of the municipal corporation for the purpose of certifying the amount of any property tax to be levied and collected therein, and may cause service and other charges and assessments to be collected from such property or owners or occupants thereof, enforce such collection and perform all other acts necessary to insure performance of the contractual obligations of the municipal corporation in the same manner and by the same means as if the property of the municipal corporation had not been acquired by the county.

When a county assumes the obligation of paying indebtedness of a municipal corporation and if property taxes or assessments have been levied and service and other charges have accrued for such purpose but have not been collected by the municipal corporation prior to such assumption, the same when collected shall belong and be paid to the county and be used by such county so far as necessary for payment of the indebtedness of the municipal corporation existing and unpaid on the date such county assumed that indebtedness. Any funds received by the county which have been collected for the purpose of paying any bonded or other indebtedness of the municipal corporation shall be used for the purpose for which they were collected and for no other purpose until such indebtedness has been paid and retired or adequate provision has been made for such payment and retirement. No transfer of property as provided in this amendatory act shall derogate from the claims or rights of the creditors of the municipal corporation or impair the ability of the municipal corporation to respond to its debts and obligations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The governing body of a municipal corporation proposing to transfer all or part of its property to a county in the manner provided by sections 7 through 11 of this 1975 amendatory act and the legislative authority of a county proposing to accept such property, and to assume if it so agrees any indebtedness of the municipal corporation in consideration of such transfer, shall adopt resolutions or ordinances authorizing respectively the execution of a written agreement setting forth the terms and conditions upon which they have agreed and finding the transfer and acquisition of property pursuant to such agreement to be in the public interest and conducive to the public health, safety, welfare, or convenience. Such written agreement may include provisions, by way of description and not by way of limitation, for the rights, powers, duties, and obligations of such municipal corporation and county with regard to the use and ownership of property, the providing of services, the maintenance and operation of facilities, the allocation of costs, the financing and construction of new facilities, the application and use of assets, the disposition of liabilities and indebtedness, the performance of contractual obligations, and any other matters relating to the proposed transfer of property, which may be preceded by an interim period of operation by the county of the property and facilities subsequently to be transferred to that county. The agreement may provide for a period of time during which the municipal corporation may continue to exercise certain rights, privileges, powers, and functions authorized to it by law including the ability to promulgate rules and regulations, to levy and collect special assessments, rates, charges, service charges and connection fees, and to adopt and carry out the provisions of a comprehensive plan, and amendments thereto, for a system of improvements and to issue general obligation bonds or revenue bonds in the manner provided by law, or the agreement may provide for the exercise for a period of time of all or some of such rights, privileges, powers, and functions by the county. The agreement may provide that either party thereto may authorize, issue and sell, in the manner provided by law, revenue bonds to provide funds for new water or sewer improvements or to refund or advance refund any water revenue, sewer revenue or combined water and sewer revenue bonds outstanding of either or both such parties. The agreement may provide that either party thereto may authorize and issue, in the manner provided by law, general obligation or revenue bonds of like amounts, terms, conditions and covenants as the outstanding bonds of either or both such parties and such new bonds may be substituted or exchanged for such outstanding bonds to the extent permitted by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. When a municipal corporation and a county have entered into a written agreement providing for the transfer to such county of all or part of the property of such municipal corporation, proceedings may be initiated in the superior court for that county by the filing of a petition to which there shall be attached copies of the agreement of the parties and of the resolutions of the governing body of the municipal corporation and the legislative authority of the county authorizing its execution. Such petition shall ask that the court approve and direct the proposed transfer of property, and any assumption of indebtedness agreed to in consideration thereof by the county, after finding such transfer and acquisition of property to be in the public interest and conducive to the public health, safety, welfare, or convenience. Such petition shall be signed by the members of the legislative authority of the county or chief administrative officer of the municipal corporation and the chairman of the legislative authority of the county, respectively, upon authorization by the governing body of the municipal corporation and the legislative authority of the county.

Within thirty days after the filing of the petition of the parties with copies of their agreement and the resolutions authorizing its execution attached thereto, the court shall by order fix a date for a hearing on the petition not less than twenty nor more than ninety days after the entry of such order which also shall prescribe the form and manner of notice of such hearing to be given. After considering the petition and such evidence as may be presented at the hearing thereon, the court may determine by decree that the proposed transfer of property is in the public interest and conducive to the public health, safety, welfare, or convenience, approve the agreement of the parties and direct that such transfer be accomplished in accordance with that agreement at the time and in the manner prescribed by the court decree.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. In the event the agreement of the parties provides for the transfer to the county of all the property of the municipal corporation or all such property except bond redemption funds in the possession of the county treasurer from which outstanding bonds of the municipal corporation are payable, and the agreement also provides for the assumption and payment by the county of all the indebtedness of the municipal corporation including the payment and retirement of all its outstanding bonds, and if the petition of the parties so requests, the court in the decree approving and directing the transfer of property, or in a subsequent decree, may dissolve the municipal corporation effective as of the time of transfer of property or at such time thereafter as the court may determine and establish.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. CHAPTER 189

[Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 2833]
RAILROAD GRADE CROSSING PROTECTIVE DEVICES—FINANCING

AN ACT Relating to railroad grade crossing protective devices; amending section 2, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 as amended by section 1, chapter 77, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 81.53.271; amending section 3, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 as amended by section 4, chapter 115, Laws of 1973 and RCW 81.53.281; adding a new section to chapter 134, Laws of 1969 and to chapter 81.56 RCW; prescribing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 2, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 as amended by section 1, chapter 77, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 81.53.271 are each amended to read as follows:

The petition shall set forth by description the location of the crossing or crossings, the type of signal or other warning device to be installed, the necessity from the standpoint of public safety for such installation, the approximate cost of installation, and the approximate annual cost of maintenance. If the commission directs the installation of a grade crossing protective device, the cost of which is eligible for federal aid matching funds of at least sixty percent of the installation costs and such federal funds are used, both installation and maintenance costs of the device shall be apportioned in accordance with the provisions of section 3 of this 1975 amendatory act. Otherwise if installation is directed by the commission, it shall apportion the cost of installation and maintenance as provided in this section:

Installation: (1) Sixty percent to the grade crossing protective fund, created by RCW 81.53.281;

(2) Thirty percent to the city, town, county or state; and

(3) Ten percent to the railroad:

PROVIDED, That, if the proposed installation is located at a new crossing requested by a city, town, county or state, forty percent of the cost shall be apportioned to the city, town, county or state, and none to the railroad. If the proposed installation is located at a new crossing requested by a railroad, then the entire cost shall be apportioned to the railroad. In the event the city, town, county, or state should concurrently petition the commission and secure an order authorizing the closure of an existing crossing or crossings in proximity to the crossing for which installation of signals or other warning devices shall have been directed, the apportionment to the petitioning city, town, county, or state shall be reduced by ten percent of the total cost for each crossing ordered closed and the apportionment from the grade crossing protective fund increased accordingly. This exception shall not be construed to permit a charge to the grade crossing protective fund in an amount greater than the total cost otherwise apportionable to the city, town, county, or state. No reduction shall be applied where one crossing is closed and another opened in lieu thereof, nor to crossings of a private nature.

Maintenance: (1) Twenty-five percent to the grade crossing protective fund, created by RCW 81.53.281; and

(2) Seventy-five percent to the railroad:

PROVIDED, That if the proposed installation is located at a new crossing requested by a railroad, then the entire cost shall be apportioned to the railroad.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 134, Laws of 1969 as amended by section 4, chapter 115, Laws of 1973 and RCW 81.53.281 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created in the state treasury a "grade crossing protective fund," to which shall be transferred all moneys appropriated for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of RCW 81.53.261, 81.53.271, 81.53.281 and 81.53.291. The amount of any transfer from the motor vehicle fund to the grade crossing protective fund and the amount of any appropriation (exclusive of any reappropriation of funds appropriated in the prior biennium) from the grade crossing protective fund for the installation of grade crossing protective devices in any biennium shall be reduced by an amount equal to sixty percent of the cost of the installation of any such device (installed and apportioned at the direction of the commission pursuant to RCW 81.53.271), and an amount equal to such reduction shall forthwith be transferred back to the motor vehicle fund, whenever the cost of installation is paid in part from federal aid matching funds and the total cost of installation is apportioned in accordance with the provisions of section 3 of this 1975 amendatory act: PROVIDED, That not more than twenty-five percent of the transfer from the motor vehicle fund and the appropriation from the grade crossing protective fund for installation purposes in any biennium shall be reduced as provided in this section as a result of the installation of grade crossing protective devices on any highway, road or street on the federal aid system: PROVIDED FURTHER, That whenever the unobligated balance in the grade crossing protective fund available for the installation of grade crossing protective devices is reduced to $100,000 in any biennium, the above provisions for reducing the appropriation from said fund and the transfers back to the motor vehicle fund shall be suspended and the $100,000 remaining in the grade crossing protective
