A careful reading of this bill reveals that section 3 as amended could create problems beyond the intent of the sponsor. The amendment was submitted as a floor amendment and thus did not have the benefit of committee deliberation. Although the purpose of the change was to allow those under 21 years of age to assist in clean-up duties in their parents' taverns, in itself not particularly objectionable, the amended section could be interpreted as allowing teenage "coke" parties or other social events in a contrived atmosphere.

Another problem exists involving the ability of the Washington State Liquor Control Board to enforce the statute. It is a valid argument that a tavern operator might be able to take advantage of the law if a minor was found on the premises by quickly suspending sales and claiming no violation.

For these reasons, section 3 of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3036 is vetoed and the remainder of the bill is approved.
