CHAPTER 103
INSTITUTIONS OF HIGHER EDUCATION—GOVERNANCE

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 28B.50.100, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 282, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.50.100 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created a community college board of trustees for each community college district as set forth in this chapter. Each community college board of trustees shall be composed of five trustees, who shall be appointed by the governor for terms commencing October 1st of the year in which appointed. In making such appointments the governor shall give consideration to geographical exigencies, and the interests of labor, industry, agriculture, the professions and ethnic groups.

The successors of the trustees initially appointed shall be appointed by the governor to serve for a term of five years except that any person appointed to fill a vacancy occurring prior to the expiration of any term shall be appointed only for the remainder of the term. Each member shall serve until a successor is appointed and qualified.

Every trustee shall be a resident and qualified elector of the community college district. No trustee may be an employee of the community college system, a member of the board of directors of any school district, a member of the governing board of any public or private educational institution, or an elected officer or member of the legislative authority of any municipal corporation.

Each board of trustees shall organize itself by electing a chairman from its members. The board shall adopt a seal and may adopt such bylaws, rules and regulations as it deems necessary for its own government. Three members of the board shall constitute a quorum, but a lesser number may adjourn from time to time and may compel the attendance of absent members in such manner as prescribed in its bylaws, rules, or regulations. The district president, or if there be none, the president of the community college, shall serve as, or may designate another person to serve as, the secretary of the board, who shall not be deemed to be a member of the board.

Sec. 2. Section 28B.20.100, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 7, chapter 62, Laws of 1973 and RCW 28B.20.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The (government) governance of the University of Washington shall be vested in a board of regents to consist of seven members (who). They shall be appointed by the governor (of the state, by and) with the (advice and) consent of the senate, and (who) shall hold their offices (respectively) for a term of six years from the (second Monday in March next succeeding their appointment) first day of October and until their successors shall be appointed and (shall qualify by filing their oath with the secretary of state) qualified. Four members of said board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. (Whenever there shall be) In the case of a vacancy (in the said board of regents, from any cause whatever, it shall be the duty of), or when an appointment is made after the date of the expiration of a term, the governor ((to) shall fill (such office by appointment for the unexpired)) the vacancy for the remainder of the term of the (incumbent) regent whose (position) office has become vacant or expired.

No more than the terms of two members will expire simultaneously on the last day of September in any one year.

Sec. 3. Section 28B.30.100, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 10, chapter 62, Laws of 1973 and RCW 28B.30.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The (seven members of the) governance of Washington State University shall be vested in a board of regents (of Washington State University) to consist of seven members. They shall be appointed by the governor, by and with the consent of the senate((Provided, That all appointments made to fill vacancies caused by death, resignation or otherwise, shall be for the unexpired term of the incumbent whose place shall have become vacant)) and shall hold their offices for a term of six years from the first day of October and until their successors are appointed and qualified. ((Except as otherwise in this section provided, all appointments shall be for the term of six years and until the appointment and qualification by filing his oath with the secretary of state of a successor to each appointee:)) Four members of said board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. In the case of a vacancy or when an appointment is made after the date of the expiration of a term, the governor shall fill the vacancy for the remainder of the term of the regent whose office has become vacant or expired.

No more than the terms of two members will expire simultaneously on the last day of September in any one year.

Each regent shall, before entering upon the discharge of his respective duties as such, execute a good and sufficient bond to the state of Washington, with two or more sufficient sureties, residents of the state, or with a surety company licensed to do business within the state, in the penal sum of not less than five thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as such regent: PROVIDED, That the university shall pay any fees incurred for any such bonds for their board members.

Sec. 4. Section 45, chapter 169, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 28B-
.35.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The ((government)) governance of each of the regional universities shall be vested in a board of trustees consisting of five members. They shall be appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate and shall hold their offices for a term of six years from the ((second Monday in March next succeeding their appointment)) first day of October and until their successors are appointed and qualified. In case of a vacancy, or when an appointment is made after the date of expiration of the term, the governor shall fill the vacancy for the ((unexpired)) remainder of the term of the trustee whose office has become vacant or expired.

No more than the terms of two members will expire simultaneously on the ((second Monday of March)) last day of September in any one year.

Sec. 5. Section 28B.40.100, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 65, chapter 169, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.40.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The ((government)) governance of The Evergreen State College shall be vested in a board of trustees consisting of five members. They shall be appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate and shall hold their offices for a term of six years from the ((second Monday in March next succeeding their appointment)) first day of October and until their successors are appointed and qualified. In case of a vacancy, or when an appointment is made after the date of expiration of the term, the governor shall fill the vacancy for the ((unexpired)) remainder of the term of the trustee whose office has become vacant or expired.

No more than the terms of two members will expire simultaneously on the ((second Monday of March)) last day of September in any one year.

Sec. 6. Section 28B.30.120, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.30.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Meetings of the board of regents may be called in such manner as the board may prescribe, and a full meeting of the board shall be called at least once a year. ((A majority of said board shall constitute a quorum for the
