CHAPTER 116
[Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3593]
UNAPPROPRIATED PUBLIC LANDS

AN ACT Relating to unappropriated public lands; adding a new chapter to Title 79 RCW; creating new sections; prescribing penalties; making an appropriation; and providing an effective date.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. The legislature of this state finds that:

(1) The intent of the framers of that compact known as the Constitution of the United States was to guarantee to each of the several states sovereignty over all matters within its boundaries excepting only those powers specifically granted to the government of the United States, as agent of the several states, under the Constitution of the United States;

(2) The imposition upon the state of Washington by the congress of the United States, of a requirement that the state of Washington "disclaim all right and title to the unappropriated public lands" lying within the state as a condition prerequisite to acceptance of the state of Washington into the union, was an act beyond the power of the congress of the United States and is thus null and of no effect;

(3) The present purported ownership and control of the public lands within the state of Washington by the government of the United States is without foundation and violates the clear intent of the Constitution of the United States; and

(4) The purported ownership and control of the public lands within the state of Washington by the government of the United States works a severe, continuous, and debilitating hardship upon the people of the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Department" means the department of natural resources.

(2) "Public lands" means all unreserved unappropriated public lands within the exterior boundaries of the state except lands:

(a) To which title is held by any private person or entity;

(b) To which title was held by the state or any political subdivision of the state on the effective date of this act;
