CHAPTER 68
[House Bill No. 1663]
CONTRACTORS—ADVERTISING

AN ACT Relating to registration of contractors; amending section 2, chapter 25, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 18.27.090; and amending section 10, chapter 77, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 1, chapter 116, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 18.27.100.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 10, chapter 77, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 1, chapter 116, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 18.27.100 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as provided in RCW 18.27.020 for partnerships and joint ventures, no person who has registered under one name as provided in this chapter shall engage in the business, or act in the capacity of a contractor under any other name unless such name also is registered hereunder. All advertising and all contracts, correspondence, cards, signs, posters, papers, and documents prepared by a contractor which show a contractor's name or address shall show the contractor's name(;) or address((, and current registration number)) as registered hereunder. The alphabetized listing of contractors appearing in the advertising section of telephone books and all advertising prepared by a contractor which shows the contractor's name or address shall show the contractor's current registration number: PROVIDED, That signs on motor vehicles subject to RCW 46.16.010 and on-premise signs shall not constitute advertising as provided in this section. All materials prepared by a contractor and used to directly solicit business from retail customers who are not businesses shall show the contractor's current registration number. No contractor shall advertise that he is bonded and insured because of the bond required to be filed and sufficiency of insurance as provided in this chapter. All individual contractors and all partners, associates, agents, salesmen, solicitors, officers, and employees of contractors shall use their true names and addresses at all times while engaged in the business or capacity of a contractor or activities related thereto. Any person who is found to be in violation of this section by the director at a hearing held in accordance with the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW, shall be required to pay a penalty of not more than one thousand dollars as determined by the director.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 25, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 18.27-.090 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter shall not apply to:

(1) An authorized representative of the United States government, the state of Washington, or any incorporated city, town, county, township, irrigation district, reclamation district, or other municipal or political corporation or subdivision of this state;

(2) Officers of a court when they are acting within the scope of their office;

(3) Public utilities operating under the regulations of the public service commission in construction, maintenance, or development work incidental to their own business;

(4) Any construction, repair, or operation incidental to the discovering or producing of petroleum or gas, or the drilling, testing, abandoning, or other operation of any petroleum or gas well or any surface or underground mine or mineral deposit when performed by an owner or lessee;

(5) The sale or installation of any finished products, materials, or articles of merchandise which are not actually fabricated into and do not become a permanent fixed part of a structure;

(6) Any construction, alteration, improvement, or repair of personal property;

(7) Any construction, alteration, improvement, or repair carried on within the limits and boundaries of any site or reservation under the legal jurisdiction of the federal government;

(8) Any person who only furnished materials, supplies, or equipment without fabricating them into, or consuming them in the performance of, the work of the contractor;
Any work or operation on one undertaking or project by one or more contracts, the aggregate contract price of which for labor and materials and all other items is less than ((two)) five hundred ((fifty)) dollars, such work or operations being considered as of a casual, minor, or inconsequential nature. The exemption prescribed in this subsection does not apply in any instance wherein the work or construction is only a part of a larger or major operation, whether undertaken by the same or a different contractor, or in which a division of the operation is made into contracts of amounts less than ((two)) five hundred ((fifty)) dollars for the purpose of evasion of this chapter or otherwise. The exemption prescribed in this subsection does not apply to a person who advertises or puts out any sign or card or other device which might indicate to the public that he is a contractor, or that he is qualified to engage in the business of contractor;

Any construction or operation incidental to the construction and repair of irrigation and drainage ditches of regularly constituted irrigation districts or reclamation districts; or to farming, dairying, agriculture, viticulture, horticulture, or stock or poultry raising; or to clearing or other work upon land in rural districts for fire prevention purposes; except when any of the above work is performed by a registered contractor;

An owner who contracts for a project with a registered contractor;

Any person working on his own property, whether occupied by him or not, and any person working on his residence, whether owned by him or not but this exemption shall not apply to any person otherwise covered by this chapter who constructs an improvement on his own property with the intention and for the purpose of selling the improved property;

Owners of commercial properties who use their own employees to do maintenance, repair, and alteration work in or upon their own properties;

A licensed architect or civil or professional engineer acting solely in his professional capacity, an electrician licensed under the laws of the state of Washington, or a plumber licensed under the laws of the state of Washington or licensed by a political subdivision of the state of Washington while operating within the boundaries of such political subdivision. The exemption provided in this subsection is applicable only when the licensee is operating within the scope of his license;

Any person who engages in the activities herein regulated as an employee of a registered contractor with wages as his sole compensation or as an employee with wages as his sole compensation;
(16) Contractors on highway projects who have been prequalified as required by chapter 13 of the Laws of 1961, RCW 47.28.070, with the highway department to perform highway construction, reconstruction, or maintenance work.
