

CHAPTER 23

[Substitute House Bill No. 808]

DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS—MEDIUM SECURITY CORRECTIONS CENTER—BOND ISSUANCE—APPROPRIATION

AN ACT Relating to corrections; amending section 1, chapter 234, Laws of 1981 and RCW 43.83H.172; adding a new section to chapter 143, Laws of 1981; creating a new section; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Section 1. There is added to chapter 143, Laws of 1981 a new section to read as follows:

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS

(1) For design, site preparation including land acquisition at a nominal cost, and utilities for a 500-bed medium security corrections center the total cost of which shall be verified by the legislative budget committee with assistance from the department of general administration as provided in section 2(1) of this act.

General Fund—State Social and Health Services Construction Account Appropriation . . . . . $ 9,750,000

(2) For design and site planning, including land acquisition for a 500-bed medium security corrections center. The total cost of construction of this 500-bed medium security corrections center shall be verified by the legislative budget committee as provided in section 2(2) of this act.

General Fund—State Social and Health Services Construction Account Appropriation . . . . . $ 2,980,000

(3) To repair heating and ventilation systems at the McNeil Island Corrections Center: PROVIDED, That these funds shall not be expended until the department of general administration completes an engineering energy audit of this facility as authorized under RCW 43.19.675.

General Fund—State Social and Health Services Construction Account Appropriation . . . . . $ 500,000

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) The department of corrections shall submit to the department of general administration a complete report concerning the design, program, square-footage analysis, and associated costs for the prison facilities identified in section 1(1) of this act. The report from the department of corrections shall be subject to review and analysis by the legislative budget committee in cooperation with the department of general administration. The design procedures of the department of corrections shall be subject to analysis regarding the level of capital expenditures identified in section 1(1) of this act. This oversight process shall be accomplished by December 1, 1982, to avoid construction delays and cost overruns.

(2) The legislative budget committee shall conduct an analysis, including, but not limited to: The department of corrections' long-range facility plans, prison design selection process, alternate prison designs from other states, expanded use of existing facilities, review and possible expanded use of community corrections programs including the treatment alternatives to street crime diversion program and the Monroe House program, correctional standards, relevant court decisions, alternate staffing plans, prison design as it affects staffing costs, and inmate population projections and length of stay. The legislative budget committee shall report back to the institutions committee in the house of representatives and the social and health services committee in the senate by December 1, 1982.

Sec. 3. Section 1, chapter 234, Laws of 1981 and RCW 43.83H.172 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of providing needed capital improvements consisting of the planning, acquisition, construction, remodeling, improving, and equipping of social and health services and department of corrections facilities, the state finance committee is authorized to issue general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of one hundred forty-seven million ~~((eight))~~ two hundred eighty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be required, to finance these projects, and all costs incidental thereto. No bonds authorized by RCW 43.83H.172 through 43.83H.182 may be offered for sale without prior legislative appropriation.

The bonds shall pledge the full faith and credit of the state of Washington and contain an unconditional promise to pay the principal and interest when due.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the House March 31, 1982.

Passed the Senate March 30, 1982.

Approved by the Governor April 5, 1982.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 5, 1982.
