Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Section 1. Section 2, chapter 273, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 149, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.15.012 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever used in chapter 28B.15 RCW:

(2) The term "resident student" shall mean (a) a financially independent student who has had a domicile in the state of Washington for the period of one year immediately prior to the time of commencement of the first day of the semester or quarter for which he has registered at any institution and has in fact established a bona fide domicile in this state primarily for purposes other than educational ((purposes)) or (b) a dependent student, if one or both of his parents or legal guardians have maintained a bona fide domicile in the state of Washington for at least one year immediately prior to commencement of the semester or quarter for which the student has registered at any institution: PROVIDED, That a nonresident student enrolled for more than six hours per semester or quarter shall be considered as attending for primarily educational purposes ((only)), and for tuition and fee paying purposes only such period of enrollment shall not be counted toward the establishment of a bona fide domicile of one year in this state unless such student proves that he has in fact established a bona fide domicile in this state ((for)) primarily for purposes other than educational ((purposes)).

(3) The term "nonresident student" shall mean any student who does not qualify as a "resident student" under the provisions of RCW 28B.15.011 through 28B.15.014 and section 4 of this amendatory act, each as now or hereafter amended. A nonresident student shall include:

(4) The term "domicile" shall denote a person's true, fixed and permanent home and place of habitation. It is the place where he intends to remain, and to which he expects to return when he leaves without intending to establish a new domicile elsewhere. (8) The terms "he" or "his" shall apply to the female as well as the male sex unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 273, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 15, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.15.013 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The establishment of a new domicile in the state of Washington by a ((qualified)) person formerly domiciled in another state has occurred if such person is physically present in Washington primarily for purposes other than educational and can show satisfactory proof that such person is without a present intention to return to such other state or to acquire a domicile at some other place outside of Washington.

(2) ((Except as provided in subsection (3)(d) of this section, an unemancipated minor shall be classified as a resident student only if such minor's parents or legally appointed guardian or person having legal custody shall have established a domicile in this state:

(3))) Unless proven to the contrary it shall be presumed that:

(a) ((The domicile of an unemancipated minor is that of such minor's father, or if no father, that of such minor's mother, or if there is a legally appointed guardian, that of such guardian. PROVIDED, That if one parent has legal custody of the minor, the domicile of such minor shall be that of such parent except as otherwise provided in subsection (3)(d) of this section: ))

(b)) The domicile of any ((qualified)) person(, including a married woman,) shall be determined according to the individual's situation and circumstances rather than by marital status or sex.

((c))) (b) A person does not lose a domicile in the state of Washington by reason of residency in any state or country while a member of the civil or military service of this state or of the United States, nor while engaged in the navigation of the waters of this state or of the United States or of the high seas if that person returns to the state of Washington within one year of discharge from said service with the intent to be domiciled in the state of Washington; any resident dependent student who remains in this state when such student's parents, having theretofore been domiciled in this state for a period of one year immediately prior to the time of commencement of the first day of the semester or quarter for which the student has registered at any institution, remove from this state, shall be entitled to continued classification as a resident student so long as such student's attendance (except summer sessions) at an institution in this state is continuous.

((d)) (3) To aid the institution in deciding whether a student, parent, legally appointed guardian or the person having legal custody of a student is domiciled in the state of Washington ((the following rules shall be applied)) primarily for purposes other than educational, the rules and regulations adopted by the council for postsecondary education shall include but not limited to the following:

(a) ((Failure to register or to pay state)) Registration or payment of Washington taxes or fees on a motor vehicle, mobile home, travel trailer, boat, or any other item of personal property owned or used by the person for which state registration or the payment of a state tax or fee is required
((is-conclusive)) will be a factor in considering evidence of ((a failure to establish)) the establishment of a Washington domicile.

(b) ((Attendance at an institution with the aid of financial assistance provided by another state or governmental unit or agency thereof is conclusive evidence of a failure to establish a Washington domicile:

(c)) Permanent full time employment in Washington by a person will be a factor in considering the establishment of a Washington domicile.

(d)) Registration to vote for state officials in Washington will be a factor in considering the establishment of a Washington domicile.

(e) Any person not a citizen of the United States cannot establish a Washington domicile until such person is eligible and has applied for an immigration visa, unless such person is the dependent minor of a parent or legal guardian who is domiciled in Washington.

(5)) (4) After a student has registered at an institution such student's classification shall remain unchanged in the absence of satisfactory evidence to the contrary. A student wishing to apply for a change in classification shall reduce such evidence to writing and file it with the institution. In any case involving an application for a change from nonresident to resident status, the burden of proof shall rest with the applicant. Any change in classification, either nonresident to resident, or the reverse, shall be based upon written evidence maintained in the files of the institution and, if approved, shall take effect the semester or quarter such evidence was filed with the institution: PROVIDED, That applications for a change in classification shall be accepted up to the thirtieth calendar day following the first day of instruction of the quarter or semester for which application is made. Any determination of classification shall be considered a ruling on a contested case subject to court review only under procedures prescribed by chapter 28B.19 RCW.
