Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that those articles and properties which illustrate the history of the state of Washington should be maintained and preserved for the use and benefit of the people of the state. It is the purpose of this chapter to designate the three state historical societies as trustees of the state for these purposes, and to establish:

- (1) A comprehensive and consistent state-wide policy pertaining to archaeology, history, historic preservation, and other historical matters;
- (2) State-wide coordination of historical programs; and
- (3) A coordinated budget for all state historical agencies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter:

- (1) "Advisory council" means the advisory council on historic preservation.
- (2) "Federal act" means the national historic preservation act of 1966 (Public Law 89-655; 80 Stat. 915).
- (3) "Heritage council" means the Washington state heritage council.
- (4) "Historic preservation" includes the protection, rehabilitation, restoration, identification, scientific excavation, and reconstruction of districts, sites, buildings, structures, and objects significant in American and Washington state history, architecture, archaeology, or culture.

(5) "Office" means the office of archaeology and historic preservation.

(6) "Preservation officer" means the state historic preservation officer as provided for in section 11 of this act.

(7) "Project" means programs leading to the preservation for public benefit of historical properties, whether by state and local governments or other public bodies, or private organizations or individuals, including the acquisition of title or interests in, and the development of, any district, site, building, structure, or object that is significant in American and Washington state history, architecture, archaeology, or culture, and property used in connection therewith, or for its development.

(8) "State historical agencies" means the state historical societies and the office of archaeology and historic preservation.

(9) "State historical societies" means the Washington state historical society, the eastern Washington state historical society, and the state capital historical association.

(10) "Cultural resource management plan" means a comprehensive plan which identifies and organizes information on the state of Washington's historic, archaeological, and architectural resources into a set of management criteria, and which is to be used for producing reliable decisions, recommendations, and advice relative to the identification, evaluation, and protection of these resources.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is hereby created the Washington state heritage council. The purposes of the council are to:

(1) Adopt and maintain a state-wide plan pertaining to archaeology, history, historic preservation, and other historical matters;

(2) Monitor implementation of the plan by the state historical agencies and report any deficiencies to the legislature and the governor; and

(3) Review and comment on the budget requests of the state historical agencies based on the state-wide plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The heritage council shall consist of:

(1) A member of the Washington state historical society nominated by the governing board of the society and confirmed by the governor;

(2) A member of the eastern Washington state historical society nominated by the governing board of the society and confirmed by the governor;

(3) A member of the state capital historical association nominated by the governing board of the association and confirmed by the governor;

(4) The secretary of state; and

(5) Five persons appointed by the governor who are experienced and knowledgeable in historical and archaeological matters.

The council shall elect a chairperson from among its members. The secretary of state shall serve as an ex officio member of the council. The remaining council members shall serve four-year terms except initial members whose terms shall be as follows: Two members appointed for four years, two members appointed for three years, two members appointed for two years, and two members appointed for one year. Any vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointments for the balance of the unexpired term. The secretary of state shall serve on the council without additional compensation. All other council members shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for travel expenses incurred in the performance of the duties of the council as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. The council shall meet at least once a quarter and at the call of the chairperson. Five members of the council shall constitute a quorum.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The heritage council shall adopt a state-wide plan under section 3 of this act before July 1, 1984. Before adopting the plan or any amendments to the plan, the council shall consult with the state historical agencies and other historical organizations. The plan shall include but not be limited to the following:

(1) The means by which the state historical agencies shall cooperate with other state agencies;

(2) The means by which the state historical agencies shall provide assistance to local historical organizations;

(3) A collections policy for the three state historical societies;

(4) The means by which historical materials shall be conserved;

(5) The development of historical interpretation, including the promotion and dissemination of Washington state history through exhibits, traveling exhibits, the celebration of significant historical events, publications and presentations in other media, and the use of state library and state archives resources; and

(6) A mechanism for reviewing state appropriations requests from the state historical agencies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Each state historical society shall submit its budget requests to the heritage council for review and comment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. (1) Each state historical society is designated a trustee for the state whose powers and duties include but are not limited to the following:

(a) To collect, catalog, preserve, and interpret objects, manuscripts, sites, photographs, and other materials illustrative of the cultural, artistic, and natural history of this state;

(b) To operate state museums and assist and encourage cultural and historical studies and museum interpretive efforts throughout the state, including those sponsored by local historical organizations, and city, county, and state agencies;

(c) To engage in cultural, artistic, and educational activities, including classes, exhibits, seminars, workshops, and conferences if these activities are related to the basic purpose of the society;

(d) To plan for and conduct celebrations of significant events in the history of the state of Washington and to give assistance to and coordinate with state agencies, local governments, and local historical organizations in planning and conducting celebrations;

(e) To create one or more classes of membership in the society;

(f) To engage in the sale of various articles which are related to the basic purpose of the society;

(g) To engage in appropriate fund-raising activities for the purpose of increasing the self-support of the society;

(h) To accept gifts, grants, conveyances, bequests, and devises, of real or personal property, or both, in trust or otherwise, and sell, lease, exchange, invest, or expend the same or the proceeds, rents, profits, and income therefrom except as limited by the donor's terms. The governing boards of the state historical societies shall adopt rules to govern and protect the receipt and expenditure of the proceeds, rents, profits, and income of all such gifts, grants, conveyances, bequests, and devises;

(i) To accept on loan or lend objects of historical interest, and sell, exchange, divest itself of, or refuse to accept, items which do not enhance the collection;

(j) To charge general or special admission fees to its museums or exhibits and to waive or decrease such fees as it finds appropriate; and

(k) To work with the heritage council in developing the plan under section 5 of this act.

(2) All objects, sites, manuscripts, photographs, and all property, including real property, now held or hereafter acquired by the state historical societies shall be held by the societies in trust for the use and benefit of the people of Washington state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The governing board of each state historical society shall appoint its respective director with the consent of the governor. The governor may remove a director for cause or if a majority of the society's governing board votes for removal.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. All moneys in the account established under RCW 27.36.070, and any moneys appropriated from that account, shall be expended for the purposes of the state capital historical association museum as determined by a majority of the governing board of the state capital historical association.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The legislature hereby finds that the promotion, enhancement, perpetuation, and use of structures, sites, districts, buildings, and objects of historic, archaeological, architectural, and cultural significance is desirable in the interest of the public pride and general welfare of the people of the state; and the legislature further finds that the economic, cultural, and aesthetic standing of the state can be maintained and enhanced by protecting the heritage of the state and by preventing the destruction or defacement of these assets; therefore, it is hereby declared by the legislature to be the public policy and in the public interest of the state to designate, preserve, protect, enhance, and perpetuate those structures, sites, districts, buildings, and objects which reflect outstanding elements of the state's historic, archaeological, architectural, or cultural heritage, for the inspiration and enrichment of the citizens of the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is hereby established the office of archaeology and historic preservation.

The governor shall appoint the preservation officer, with the consent of the senate, as the director of the office and set the salary for the position. The preservation officer shall have a background in program administration, an active involvement in historic preservation, and a knowledge of the national, state, and local preservation programs as they affect the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The preservation officer shall supervise and administer the activities of the office. The preservation officer is authorized:

(1) To promulgate and maintain a state register of districts, sites, buildings, structures, and objects significant in American or Washington state history, architecture, archaeology, and culture, and to prepare comprehensive state-wide historic surveys and plans and research and evaluation of surveyed resources for the preparation of nominations to the state and national registers of historic places, in accordance with criteria approved by the advisory council established under section 15 of this act. The nominations shall comply with any standards and regulations promulgated by the United States secretary of the interior for the preservation, acquisition, and development of such properties.

(2) To establish a program of matching grants-in-aid to public agencies, public or private organizations, or individuals for projects having as their purpose the preservation for public benefit of properties that are significant in American or Washington state history, architecture, archaeology, and culture.

(3) To promote historic preservation efforts throughout the state, including private efforts and those of city, county, and state agencies.

(4) To enhance the effectiveness of the state preservation program through the initiation of legislation, the use of varied funding sources, the creation of special purpose programs, and contact with state, county, and city officials, civic groups, and professionals.

(5) To consult with the governor and the legislature on issues relating to the conservation of the man-made environment and their impact on the well-being of the state and its citizens. The office shall submit periodic reports of its activities to the governor and the legislature.

(6) To charge fees for professional and clerical services provided by the office.

(7) To adopt such rules, in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW, as are necessary to carry out sections 10 through 19 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The preservation officer shall:

(1) Submit the budget requests for the office to the heritage council for review and comment;

(2) Maintain and administer all funds appropriated by the legislature to the office for the purpose of carrying out the duties, functions, and responsibilities of the office under both state and federal law;

(3) Receive, administer, and disburse such gifts, grants, and endowments from private sources as may be made in trust or otherwise for the purposes of sections 10 through 19 of this act or the federal act; and

(4) Develop and implement a cultural resource management plan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The amounts made available for grants to the public agencies, public or private organizations, or individuals for projects for each fiscal year shall be apportioned among program applicants by the preservation officer in accordance with needs as contained in state-wide archaeology and historic preservation plans developed by the office and approved by the governor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. (1) There is hereby established an advisory council on historic preservation, which shall be composed of nine members appointed by the governor as follows:

(a) The director of a state historical society or the director's designee to be selected from (i) the director of the Washington state historical society, (ii) the director of the Eastern Washington state historical society, and (iii) the director of the state capital historical society, to each serve on the council for one year on a rotating basis, the order of rotation to be determined by the governor;

(b) Six members of the public who are interested and experienced in matters to be considered by the council including the fields of history, architecture, and archaeology;

(c) The director of the Washington archaeological research center or the director's designee; and

(d) A native American.

(2) Each member of the council appointed under subsection (1)(b) and (d) of this section shall serve a four-year term, except that those members first appointed shall serve for terms of from one to four years as designated by the governor at the time of appointment, it being the purpose of this subsection to assure staggered terms of office.

(3) A vacancy in the council shall not affect its powers, but shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment for the balance of the unexpired term.

(4) The chairperson of the council shall be designated by the governor.

(5) Five members of the council shall constitute a quorum.

(6) The council shall cease to exist on June 30, 1993, unless extended by law for an additional fixed period of time.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. The office shall provide administrative and financial services to the advisory council on historic preservation and to the Washington state heritage council.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The advisory council shall:

(1) Advise the governor and the office on matters relating to historic preservation; recommend measures to coordinate activities of state and local agencies, private institutions, and individuals relating to historic preservation; and advise on the dissemination of information pertaining to such activities; and

(2) Review and recommend nominations for the state and national registers of historic places to the preservation officer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. The directors of the state historical societies shall serve as members of the advisory council on historic preservation without additional compensation. All other members of the advisory council shall be reimbursed for travel expenses incurred in the performance of the duties of the council in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. The governor may provide facilities and administrative support to the office.

Sec. 20. Section 3, chapter 134, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 13, chapter 195, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 27.53.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions contained in this section shall apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Archaeology" means systematic, scientific study of man's past through his material remains.

(2) "Historic" means peoples and cultures who are known through written documents in their own or other languages.

(3) "Prehistoric" means peoples and cultures who are unknown through contemporaneous written documents in any language.

(4) "Professional archaeologist" means a person who has met the educational, training, and experience requirements of the society of professional archaeologists.

(5) "Qualified archaeologist" means a person who has had formal training and/or experience in archaeology over a period of at least three years, and has been certified in writing to be a qualified archaeologist by two professional archaeologists.

(6) "Amateur society" means any organization composed primarily of persons who are not professional archaeologists, whose primary interest is in the archaeological resources of the state, and which has been certified in writing by two professional archaeologists.

(7) "Preservation officer" means the state historic preservation officer as provided for in (~~RCW 43.51A.060~~) chapter 27.... RCW (sections 1 through 19 of this 1983 act).

(8) "Office" means the office of archaeology and historic preservation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. Sections 1 through 19 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 27 RCW. RCW 27.28.021, 27.28.022, and 27.36.020 shall be recodified as sections in that new chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. There is added to chapter 43.131 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The state capital historical association, the eastern Washington state historical society, the Washington state historical society, the office of archaeology and historic preservation, the advisory council on historic preservation, and the Washington state heritage council, and their powers and duties, shall be terminated on June 30, 1993, as provided in section 23 of this act.
