[House Bill No. 739]

BOILERS AND PRESSURE VESSELS OPERATED FOR PUBLIC EXHIBITION

AN ACT Relating to boilers and pressure vessels; and amending section 6, chapter 32, Laws of 1951 and RCW 70.79.060.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 6, chapter 32, Laws of 1951 and RCW 70.79.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, no power boiler, low pressure boiler, or unfired pressure vessel which does not conform to the rules and regulations formulated by the board governing new construction and installation shall be installed and operated in this state after twelve months from the date upon which the first rules and regulations under this chapter pertaining to new construction and installation shall have become effective, unless the boiler or unfired pressure vessel is of special design or construction, and is not covered by the rules and regulations, nor is in any way inconsistent with such rules and regulations, in which case a special installation and operating permit may at its discretion be granted by the board.

(2) A special permit may also be granted for boilers and pressure vessels manufactured before 1951 which do not comply with the code requirements of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers adopted under this chapter, if the boiler or pressure vessel is operated exclusively for the purposes of public exhibition, and the board finds, upon inspection, that operation of the boiler or pressure vessel for such purposes is not unsafe.

Passed the House February 7, 1984.

Passed the Senate February 24, 1984.

Approved by the Governor March 2, 1984.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State March 2, 1984.

CHAPTER 94

[House Bill No. 1373]

ENVIRONMENTAL PROFILE OF STATE TO ATTRACT AND MAINTAIN BUSINESSES

AN ACT Relating to economic development; adding new sections to chapter 43.21A RCW; adding a new section to chapter 43.31 RCW; creating a new section; and making an appropriation.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds (1) that a locality's natural environment is an important factor in determining where new businesses will locate, (2) that environmental regulations that preserve the quality of the environment can enhance economic development and the determination by new businesses where to locate and can lead to the creation of jobs and new industries, and (3) that some areas of the state have been and might be handicapped in their economic development efforts because of perceived environmental problems. Thus, the legislature declares that it is the policy of this state to recognize and emphasize the importance of the state's natural environment in its economic development efforts in attracting and maintaining businesses.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 43.21A RCW a new section to read as follows:

In order to assist the department of commerce and economic development in providing information to businesses interested in locating in Washington state, the department shall develop an environmental profile of the state. This profile shall identify the state's natural resources and describe how these assets are valuable to industry. Examples of information to be included are water resources and quality, air quality, and recreational opportunities related to natural resources.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 43.21A RCW a new section to read as follows:

In order to emphasize the importance of the state's environmental laws and regulations and to facilitate compliance with them, the department of ecology shall provide assistance to businesses interested in locating in Washington state. When the department of commerce and economic development receives a query from an interested business through its industrial marketing activities, it shall arrange for the department of ecology to provide information on the state's environmental laws and regulations and methods of compliance. This section shall facilitate compliance with state environmental laws and regulations and shall not weaken their application or effectiveness.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 43.31 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department of commerce and economic development shall incorporate information from the environmental profile developed by the department of ecology in accordance with section 2 of this act in preparing promotional brochures and in its presentations to businesses considering locating in Washington state. It shall also make the information available to local economic development groups for use in local economic development efforts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is appropriated from the general fund to the department of ecology for the biennium ending June 30, 1985, the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purpose of developing an environmental profile as required by this act.

Passed the House February 3, 1984.

Passed the Senate February 23, 1984.

Approved by the Governor March 2, 1984.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State March 2, 1984.

CHAPTER 95

[Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1687]

CUSTODIAL INTERFERENCE

AN ACT Relating to custodial interference; amending section 34, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 246, Laws of 1983 and RCW 13.34.060; adding new sections to chapter 9A.40 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 13.34 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 26.09 RCW; repealing section 9A.40.050, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 9A.40.050; and prescribing penalties.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. There is added to chapter 9A.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) A relative of a child under the age of eighteen or of an incompetent person is guilty of custodial interference in the first degree if, with the intent to deny access to the child or incompetent person by a parent, guardian, institution, agency, or other person having a lawful right to physical custody of such person, the relative takes, entices, retains, detains, or conceals the child or incompetent person from a parent, guardian, institution, agency, or other person having a lawful right to physical custody of such person and:

(a) Intends to hold the child or incompetent person permanently or for a protracted period; or

(b) Exposes the child or incompetent person to a substantial risk of illness or physical injury; or

(c) Causes the child or incompetent person to be removed from the state of usual residence; or

(d) Retains, detains, or conceals the child or incompetent person in another state after expiration of any authorized visitation period with intent to intimidate or harass a parent, guardian, institution, agency, or other person having lawful right to physical custody or to prevent a parent, guardian, institution, agency, or other person with lawful right to physical custody from regaining custody.

(2) A parent or other person acting under the directions of the parent is guilty of custodial interference in the first degree if the parent or other person intentionally takes, entices, retains, or conceals a child, under the age of eighteen years and for whom no lawful custody order has been entered by
