Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

The Washington state legislature finds and declares: The bond between a child and his or her parent, custodian, or guardian is of paramount importance, and any intervention into the life of a child is also an intervention into the life of the parent, custodian, or guardian; however, instances of nonaccidental injury, neglect, death, sexual abuse and cruelty to children by their parents, custodians or guardians have occurred, and in the instance where a child is deprived of his or her right to conditions of minimal nurture, health, and safety, the state is justified in emergency intervention based upon verified information; and therefore the Washington state legislature hereby provides for the reporting of such cases to the appropriate public authorities. It is the intent of the legislature that, as a result of such reports, protective services shall be made available in an effort to prevent further abuses, and to safeguard the general welfare of such children: PROVIDED, That such reports shall be maintained and disseminated with strictest regard for the privacy of the subjects of such reports and so as to safeguard against arbitrary, malicious or erroneous information or actions: PROVIDED FURTHER, That this chapter shall not be construed to authorize interference with child-raising practices, including reasonable parental discipline, which are not proved to be injurious to the child's health, welfare and safety.

Adult (developmentally disabled) dependent persons not able to provide for their own protection through the criminal justice system shall also be afforded the protection offered children through the reporting and investigation requirements mandated in this chapter.

A law enforcement officer may take, or cause to be taken, a child into custody without a court order if there is probable cause to believe that the child is abused or neglected and that the child would be injured or could not be taken into custody if it were necessary to first obtain a court order pursuant to RCW 13.34.050. name appears on the registry shall have access to his own records. Those persons or agencies exempted by this section from the confidentiality of the records of the registry shall not further disseminate or release such information so provided to them and shall respect the confidentiality of such information, and any violation of this section shall constitute a misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The legislature finds that there are a number of adults sixty years of age or older who lack the ability to perform or obtain those services necessary to maintain or establish their well-being. It is the intent of the legislature to prevent or remedy the abuse, neglect, exploitation, or abandonment of persons sixty years of age or older who have a functional, mental, or physical inability to care for or protect themselves by providing these persons with the least-restrictive services such as home care and preventing or reducing inappropriate institutional care. The legislature finds that it is in the interests of the public health, safety, and welfare of the people of the state to provide a procedure for identifying these persons and providing the services necessary for their well-being.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Abandonment" means leaving a vulnerable adult without the means or ability to obtain food, clothing, shelter, or health care.

(2) "Abuse" means an act of physical or mental mistreatment or injury which harms or threatens a person through action or inaction by another individual.

(5) "Exploitation" means the illegal or improper use of a vulnerable adult or that adult's resources for another person's profit or advantage.

(6) "Neglect" means a pattern of conduct resulting in deprivation of care necessary to maintain minimum physical and mental health.

(7) "Secretary" means the secretary of social and health services.

(8) "Vulnerable adult" means a person sixty years of age or older who has the functional, mental, or physical inability to care for himself or herself.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. When a social worker, employee of the department, or health care practitioner licensed under Title 18 RCW, including but not limited to doctors, nurses, psychologists, and pharmacists, has reasonable cause to believe that a vulnerable adult has suffered abuse, exploitation, neglect, or abandonment, the person shall report the incident, or cause a report to be made, to the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A person making a report under section 9 of this act shall make an immediate oral report to the department and shall also make a written report as soon as practicable. Unless there is a judicial proceeding or the person consents, the identity of the person making the report is confidential. The reports shall contain the following information if known:

1. Identification of the vulnerable adult;
2. The nature and extent of the suspected abuse, neglect, exploitation, or abandonment;
3. Evidence of previous abuse, neglect, exploitation, or abandonment;
4. The name and address of the person making the report; and
5. Any other helpful information.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A person participating in good faith in making a report under this chapter or testifying about the abuse, neglect, abandonment, or exploitation of a vulnerable adult in a judicial proceeding under this chapter is immune from liability resulting from the report or testimony.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The department shall insure that all reports made under this chapter are responded to. If the department finds that an incident of abuse, neglect, exploitation, or abandonment has occurred, the department shall insure that appropriate protective services are provided to the vulnerable adult with the consent of the vulnerable adult. The services shall not be provided if the vulnerable adult withdraws or refuses consent. If the department determines that the vulnerable adult lacks the ability or capacity to consent, the department may bring an action under chapter 11.88 RCW as an interested person.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. In responding to reports of abuse, exploitation, neglect, or abandonment under this chapter, the department shall provide information to the elderly person on protective services available to the person and inform the person of the right to refuse such services. The department shall develop cooperative agreements with community-based agencies servicing the abused elderly. The agreements shall cover such subjects as the appropriate roles and responsibilities of the department and community-based agencies in identifying and responding to reports of elderly abuse, the provision of case-management services, standardized data collection procedures, and related coordination activities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. If access is denied to an employee of the department seeking to investigate an allegation of abuse, neglect, exploitation, or abandonment of a vulnerable adult by an individual, the department may seek an injunction to prevent interference with the investigation. The court shall issue the injunction if the department shows that:

1. There is reasonable cause to believe that the person is a vulnerable adult and is or has been abused, neglected, exploited, or abandoned; and
2. The employee of the department seeking to investigate the report has been denied access.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The department shall maintain a system for statistical data collection, accessible for bona fide research only as the department by rule prescribes. The identity of any person is strictly confidential.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Section 9 of this act shall take effect on July 1, 1985.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Sections 7 through 15 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 74 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.
