(1) The provisions of this chapter relating to the financing of election campaigns shall apply in all election campaigns other than (a) for precinct committeeman; (b) for a federal elective office; and (c) for an office ((the constituency of which)) of a political subdivision of the state that does not encompass a whole county and ((which)) that contains ((less)) fewer than five thousand registered voters as of the date of the most recent general election in ((such district)) the subdivision.

(2) The exemption in subsection (1)(c) of this section does not apply in any jurisdiction from which a "petition for disclosure" containing the valid signatures of fifteen percent of the number of registered voters, as of the date of the most recent general election in the jurisdiction, is filed with the commission. The commission shall prescribe by rule the form of the petition. After the signatures are gathered, the petition shall be presented to the auditor or elections officer of the county, or counties, in which the jurisdiction is located. The auditor or elections officer shall verify the signatures and certify to the commission that the petition contains no fewer than the required number of valid signatures. The commission, upon receipt of a valid petition, shall order every candidate, political committee, or person making independent expenditures in election campaigns in the jurisdiction to comply with the campaign finance reporting provisions of this chapter within fourteen days of the date of the order. The order of the commission is valid for any election occurring in the jurisdiction for a two-year period following its issuance.

(3) The exemption in subsection (1)(c) of this section does not apply in any jurisdiction that by ordinance, resolution, or other official action has petitioned the commission to void the exemption with respect to election campaigns in the jurisdiction. A copy of the action shall be sent to the commission. If the commission finds the petition to be a valid action of the appropriate governing body or authority, the commission shall issue an order voiding the exemption for that jurisdiction. The commission, upon approval of the action, shall order every candidate, political committee, or person making independent expenditures in the jurisdiction to comply with the campaign finance reporting provisions of this chapter within fourteen days of the date of the order. The order applies to all elections in the jurisdiction for two years after its issuance.

(4) Any petition for disclosure, ordinance, resolution, or official action of an agency petitioning the commission to void the exemption in subsection (1)(c) of this section shall not be considered unless it has been filed with the commission:

(a) In the case of a ballot measure, at least sixty days before the date of any election in which campaign finance reporting is to be required;

(b) In the case of a candidate, at least sixty days before the first day on which a person may file a declaration of candidacy for any election in which campaign finance reporting is to be required.

(5) Any person exempted from reporting under this section may at his or her option file the statements and reports.

(4) (a) A candidate or political committee may at any time remove a campaign treasurer or deputy campaign treasurer or change a designated campaign depository.

(b) In the event of the death, resignation, removal, or change of a campaign treasurer, deputy campaign treasurer, or depository, the candidate or political committee shall designate and file with the commission and the appropriate county elections officer the name and address of any successor.

purposes of the chapter. The commission shall find that a manifestly unreasonable hardship exists if reporting the name of an entity required to be reported under RCW 42.17.241(I)(g)(ii) would be likely to adversely affect the competitive position of any entity in which the person filing the report or any member of his immediate family holds any office, directorship, general partnership interest, or an ownership interest of ten percent or more. Any suspension or modification shall be only to the extent necessary to substan-

from the date of the entry of the order; and

(11) Revise, at least once every five years but no more often than every two years, the monetary reporting thresholds and reporting code values of this chapter. The revisions shall be only for the purpose of recognizing eco-conomic changes as reflected by an inflationary index recommended by the office of financial management. The revisions shall be guided by the change in the index for the period commencing with the month of December preceding the last revision and concluding with the month of December preceding the month the revision is adopted. As to each of the three general categories of this chapter (reports of campaign finance, reports of lobbyist activity, and reports of the financial affairs of elected and appointed officials), the revisions shall equally affect all thresholds within each category.

Revisions shall be adopted as rules under chapter 34.04 RCW. The first revision authorized by this subsection shall reflect economic changes from the time of the last legislative enactment affecting the respective code or threshold through December 1985.

Sec. 12. Section 12, chapter 112, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. as amended by section 16, chapter 147, Laws of 1982 and RCW 42.17.395 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The commission may (a) determine whether an actual violation of this chapter has occurred; and (b) issue and enforce an appropriate order following such determination.

(2) The commission, in cases where it chooses to determine whether an actual violation of this chapter has occurred, shall hold a contested case hearing pursuant to the administrative procedure act (chapter 34.04 RCW) to make such determination. Any order (which) that the commission issues under this section shall be pursuant to such hearing.

(3) In lieu of holding a hearing or issuing an order under this section, the commission may refer the matter to the attorney general or other enforcement agency as provided in RCW 42.17.360.

(4) The person against whom an order is directed under this section shall be designated as the respondent. (Such) The order may require the respondent to cease and desist from the activity (which) that constitutes a violation and in addition, or alternatively, may impose one or more of the remedies provided in RCW 42.17.390(1) (b), (c), (d), or (e): PROVIDED, That no individual penalty assessed by the commission may exceed (two hundred fifty) one thousand dollars, and in any case where multiple violations are involved in a single complaint or hearing, the maximum aggregate penalty may not exceed two thousand five hundred dollars.

(5) An order issued by the commission under this section shall be subject to judicial review under the administrative procedure act (chapter 34.04 RCW). If the commission's order is not satisfied and no petition for review is filed within thirty days as provided in RCW 34.04.130, the commission may petition a court of competent jurisdiction of any county in which a petition for review could be filed under that section, for an order of enforcement. Proceedings in connection with the commission's petition shall be in accordance with RCW 42.17.397, as now or hereafter amended.

Sec. 13. Section 1, chapter 60, Laws of 1982 and RCW 42.17.405 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) (During the period between March 26, 1982, and January 1, 1986) Except as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, the reporting provisions of this chapter (are suspended as they pertain) do not apply to candidates, elected officials, and agencies in jurisdictions with less than one thousand registered voters as of the date of the most recent general election in the jurisdiction. (The suspension also applies) to political committees formed to support or oppose ballot propositions in such jurisdictions, (and) to persons making independent expenditures in support of or opposition to such ballot propositions.

(2) The (suspension shall not)) reporting provisions of this chapter apply in any jurisdiction from which a "petition for disclosure" containing the valid signatures of five percent of the number of registered voters, as of the date of the most recent general election in the jurisdiction, is filed with the commission. The commission shall by rule prescribe the form of the petition. After the signatures are gathered, the petition shall be presented to the auditor or elections officer of the county, or counties, in which the jurisdiction is located. The auditor or elections officer shall verify the signatures and certify to the commission that the petition contains no less than the required number of valid signatures. The commission, upon receipt of a valid petition, shall order every incumbent elected official and candidate in the jurisdiction to file the required statement and reports within thirty days of the date of the order.

(3) The reporting provisions of this chapter apply in any jurisdiction which by ordinance, resolution, or other official action has petitioned the commission to make the provisions applicable to elected officials and candidates of the jurisdiction. A copy of the action shall be sent to the commission. If the commission finds the petition to be a valid action of the appropriate governing body or authority, the commission shall issue an appropriate order. The commission, upon approval of the action, shall order every incumbent elected official and candidate in the jurisdiction to file the required statement and reports within thirty days of the date of the order.

(4) Any person exempted from reporting by subsection (1) of this section may at his or her option file the statement and reports.

Passed the Senate April 27, 1985.
Passed the House April 27, 1985.
Approved by the Governor May 20, 1985, with the exception of certain items which are vetoed.
Filed in Office of Secretary of State May 20, 1985.

Note: Governor’s explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith without my approval as to Section 1, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3367:

"AN ACT Relating to the public disclosure law."

Section 1 amends the definition of “election campaign.” While there may need to be more clarity in this definition, I do not believe the proposed change is appropriate. Under the proposed new definitions an "election campaign" would begin when the initial campaign committee organization form is filed. It would not end until a final report showing a $0 balance in the campaign fund is filed. In my opinion, this would mean an unacceptably long “election campaign” since most campaign committees do not file final reports after each November election.

With the exception of Section 1, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3367 is approved."
