CHAPTER 45
[Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3096]
VACANCIES IN FEDERAL OFFICES

AN ACT Relating to vacancy elections for federal offices; amending RCW 29.13.047, 29.68.070, 29.68.080, 29.68.100, 29.68.120, and 29.68.130; creating a new section; and repealing RCW 29.68.090, and 29.68.110.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. It is the intention of the legislature that sections 2 through 7 of this act shall provide an orderly and predictable election procedure for filling vacancies in the offices of United States representative and United States senator.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 4, Laws of 1973 as last amended by section 4, chapter 144, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 29.13.047 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever state officers or measures are voted upon at a state primary or general election held in an odd-numbered year ((as provided for in)) under RCW 29.13.010, the state of Washington shall assume ((its)) a prorated share of ((such election)) the costs of that state primary or general election.

(2) Whenever a primary or vacancy election is held to fill a vacancy in the position of United States senator or United States representative under chapter 29.68 RCW, the state of Washington shall assume a prorated share of the costs of that primary or vacancy election.

Sec. 3. Section 29.68.070, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.68.070 are each amended to read as follows:

When a vacancy ((happens)) occurs in the representation of this state in the senate of the United States, the governor shall make a temporary appointment to that office until the people fill the vacancy by election (at the next ensuing general state election) as provided in this chapter.

Sec. 4. Section 29.68.080, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 3, chapter 36, Laws of 1973 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 29.68.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever there is a vacancy (existing by death, resignation, disability or failure to qualify or impending vacancy) occurs in the office of United States representative (in the Congress of the United States) or United States senator from this state or any congressional district (in) of this state, the governor shall order a special election to fill the vacancy.

(2) Within ten days of such vacancy occurring he or she shall issue a writ of election fixing a date for the special vacancy election (a day) not less than ninety days after the issuance of the writ (He shall fix as the), fixing a date for the primary for nominating candidates for the special vacancy election (it, a day) not less than thirty days before the day fixed for holding the special vacancy election, fixing the dates for the special filing period, and designating the term or part of the term for which the vacancy exists. If the vacancy is in the office of United States representative, the writ of election shall specify the congressional district that is vacant.

(3) If the vacancy occurs between a date less than six months prior to a state general election and before the second Friday following the close of the filing period for that general election, the special primary and special general vacancy elections shall be held in concert with the regular state primary and regular state general election(s) in that year.

(4) If the vacancy occurs on or after the first day for filing (specified in) under RCW 29.18.030 and on or before the second Friday following the close of the filing period, a special filing period of three normal business days shall be fixed by the governor and notice thereof given (by notifying) to all media, including press, radio, and television within the (congressional-district concerned) area in which the vacancy election is to be held, to the end that, insofar as possible, all interested persons will be aware of such filing period. The last day of (such) the filing period shall not be later than the third Tuesday (prior to) before the primary of (election concerned; Such) at which candidates are to be nominated. The names of candidates who have filed valid declarations of candidacy (validly filed within said) during this three-day period shall appear on the approaching primary ballot (as if made during the earlier filing period).

(5) If the vacancy (should) occurs later than the second Friday following the close of the filing period, a special primary and special (general) vacancy election to fill (such vacancy) the position shall be held after the (regular annual) next state general election but, in any event, no later than the ninetieth day following the (said) November election.
As used in this chapter, "county" means, in the case of a vacancy in the office of United States senator, any or all of the counties in the state and, in the case of a vacancy in the office of United States representative, only those counties wholly or partly within the congressional district in which the vacancy has occurred.

Sec. 5. Section 29.68.100, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 5, chapter 36, Laws of 1973 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 29.68.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(6) After calling a special primary and special vacancy election to fill a vacancy in the office of United States representative or United States senator from this state, the governor shall immediately notify the secretary of state who shall, in turn, immediately notify the county auditor of each county wholly or partly within which the vacancy exists.

Each county auditor shall publish notices of the special primary and special vacancy election at least once in any legal newspaper published in the county, as provided by RCW 29.27.030 and 29.27.080 respectively.

Sec. 6. Section 29.68.120, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 46, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 and RCW 29.68.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The canvass of the votes cast at a special primary for a United States representative or senator shall be completed in each county within ten days after the primary. The returns shall be transmitted immediately to the secretary of state, who shall certify the returns in the manner provided in RCW 29.62.100. As soon as possible after the canvass, the secretary of state shall certify the names of the successful nominees to the county auditors.

(2) The canvass of the votes cast at a special vacancy election for a United States representative or senator shall be completed in each county within fifteen days after the vacancy election. The returns shall be transmitted immediately to the secretary of state, who shall certify the returns in the manner provided in RCW 29.62.120.

Sec. 7. Section 29.68.130, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.68.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The general election laws and laws relating to partisan primaries shall apply to the special primaries and vacancy elections provided for in RCW 29.68.080 through 29.68.120 to the extent that they are not inconsistent (therewith and shall be construed with and as a part thereof for the purpose of carrying out the spirit and intent thereof)) with the provisions of these sections. Statutory time deadlines relating to availability of absentee ballots, certification, canvassing, and related procedures that cannot be met in a timely fashion may be modified for the purposes of a specific primary or vacancy election under this chapter by the secretary of state through emergency rules adopted under RCW 29.04.080.

Ch. 45  WASHINGTON LAWS, 1985

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 29.68.090, chapter 9, Laws of 1965, section 4, chapter 36, Laws of 1973 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 29.68.090; and

(2) Section 29.68.110, chapter 9, Laws of 1965, section 6, chapter 36, Laws of 1973 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 29.68.110.

Passed the Senate April 5, 1985.
Passed the House March 29, 1985.
Approved by the Governor April 15, 1985.
Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 15, 1985.
