"An act relating to legal representation of the legislature."

The Attorney General presently represents all the branches of government in Washington State — the Legislature, the Executive, and the Judiciary. This bill would allow the Legislature, the House, the Senate, or any committee or entity which hires its own staff to retain counsel of their own choosing to represent them in judicial and administrative proceedings. This is a substantial policy change.

The portion of section 1 which I am vetoing results in limiting the authority to retain counsel to the House of Representatives and the Senate together. This allows the Legislature as an institution to retain counsel. Without this limitation, I believe this authority to hire counsel would be too broad.

With the exception of the language in section 1 granting the House, the Senate and the committees or entities of the Legislature which hire their own staff the authority to retain separately legal counsel, I am signing Substitute Senate Bill No. 4525.*

Passed the Senate March 12, 1986.
Passed the House March 4, 1986.
Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986, with the exception of certain items which were vetoed.
Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval of sections 18 and 24, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4779, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to auctions."

The intent of this legislation is to retain the current licensing and bonding and trust accounts systems for auctioneers and add consumer protection by establishing standards for certain business practices and declaring that deviations from these practices constitute violations of the Consumers Protection Act.

Auctioneering is a growing industry in this state. The rapid growth of such service industries in which the service provider has substantial responsibilities for handling the merchandise and cash flow of clients frequently creates the potential for abuse. This legislation is intended to put in place appropriate protections for consumers before such abuses become a serious problem.

Section 18 of this legislation would establish a new Disciplinary Review Committee. This disciplinary committee is premature and would have no enforcement powers.

Section 24 of this legislation would forbid any regulation of auctioneers by cities and counties. This may interfere with the power of local governments to require business licenses and the payment of business taxes.

For the above reasons, sections 18 and 24 are vetoed.

With the exception of sections 18 and 24, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4779 is approved."

CHAPTER 325
[Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3487]
ENERGY CONSERVATION IN STATE BUILDINGS

AN ACT Relating to energy consumption in state agencies; amending RCW 43.19.680; adding new sections to chapter 43.41 RCW; and creating a new section.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that:
(1) Capital investments in energy conservation in buildings can produce significant reductions in energy use, reducing the need to import or extract fossil fuels and lowering the cost of operating buildings.
