(3) On July 1, 1992, all documents, records, files, equipment, and other tangible property of the indeterminate sentencing review board shall be transferred to the department of corrections. The department of corrections shall assist the judiciary in fulfilling its responsibilities under this chapter, including the preparation of written recommendations.

(4) On July 1, 1992, references to the "board" or "the indeterminate sentence review board" contained in this chapter, chapters 7.68, 9.95, 9.96, 71.06, and 72.04A RCW, and RCW 9A.44.045 and 72.68.031 are deemed to refer to the superior court of the state of Washington that originally sentenced the offender to prison.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. A new section is added to chapter 9.95 RCW to read as follows:

It is the intent of the legislature that costs incurred by the counties of the state of Washington as a result of the transfer of the functions, duties, and powers of the indeterminate sentencing review board on July 1, 1992, to the superior courts of the state of Washington shall be reimbursed to the counties by the state of Washington. The 1990 legislature shall consider the recommended formulas and procedures for reimbursement presented in the implementation plan prepared by the indeterminate sentencing review board, administrator for the courts, Washington association of prosecuting attorneys, Washington defender association, department of corrections, and office of financial management.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The following acts or parts of acts, as now existing or hereafter amended, are each repealed, effective June 30, 1992:

- (1) Section 1 of this 1986 act (uncodified);
- (2) Section 1, chapter 114, Laws of 1935, section 1, chapter 47, Laws of 1947, section 2 of this 1986 act and RCW 9.95.001;
- (3) Section 9, chapter 340, Laws of 1955, section 1, chapter 32, Laws of 1959, section 9, chapter 98, Laws of 1969, section 8, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess., section 3 of this 1986 act and RCW 9.95.003;
- (4) Section 10, chapter 340, Laws of 1955, section 2, chapter 32, Laws of 1959, section 4 of this 1986 act and RCW 9.95.005;
- (5) Section 3, chapter 32, Laws of 1959, section 1, chapter 63, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess., section 5 of this 1986 act and RCW 9.95.007;
- (6) Section 24, chapter 137, Laws of 1981, section 8, chapter 192, Laws of 1982, section 1, chapter 279, Laws of 1985, section 6 of this 1986 act and RCW 9.95.009;
- (7) Section 7 of this 1986 act and RCW 9.95.—;
- (8) Section 1, chapter 138, Laws of 1961, section 8 of this 1986 act and RCW 9.95.015; and
- (9) Section 11 of this 1986 act and RCW 9.95.—.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Section 39, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 (uncodified) is repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Sections 1 through 13 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1986.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Passed the House March 8, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 3, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 2, 1986, with the exception of certain items which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 2, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 3 in part of Substitute House Bill No. 1400, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to indeterminate sentencing."

This bill makes a number of changes relative to the Board of Prison Terms and Paroles, including its redesignation as the Indeterminate Sentencing Review Board. I am supportive of the bill.

However, one sentence in section 3 appears to be an anomaly and reads as follows: "However, the Governor may request nominations of qualified persons when filling vacancies in the Board after July 1, 1987." I have vetoed this sentence out of section 3 of the bill because its meaning is not clear. At the present time I do request nominations of qualified people when filling vacancies on the Board and the direction to start doing this after July 1, 1987, does not make sense. Leaving this sentence in the statute could only lead to confusing interpretations if someone were to question the meaning of this section.

With the exception of section 3 in part, Substitute House Bill No. 1400 is approved."

CHAPTER 225

[House Bill No. 1415]

JAPANESE INTERNMENT—REDRESS OF CIVIL RIGHTS RESTRICTIONS— MUNICIPALITIES

AN ACT Relating to redress of civil rights restrictions resulting from federal Executive Order 9066; adding new sections to chapter 41.04 RCW; and creating a new section.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The dismissal or termination of various municipal employees during World War II resulted from the promulgation of federal Executive Order 9066 which was based mainly on fear and suspicion rather than on factual justification. It is fair and just that redress be made to those employees who were terminated from municipal employment during the wartime years because of these circumstances. The legislature therefore finds that equity and fairness will be served by authorizing municipalities to accept claims for salary and other employment related losses suffered by the municipal employees directly affected and to pay the claims subject to the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A municipality may by ordinance or resolution provide for redress to any municipal employee or the surviving spouse of a municipal employee who, due to the promulgation of federal Executive Order 9066, was dismissed, terminated from a temporary position, or rejected during the person's probationary period, or who voluntarily resigned in lieu of dismissal from municipal employment, and who incurred salary and other employment related losses as a result thereof during the years 1942 through 1947.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Sections 2 through 5 of this act do not require a municipality to adopt an ordinance or resolution providing for redress of salary and other employment related losses.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Under the system of redress authorized under sections 2 through 5 of this act:

(1) A municipality may determine in its sole discretion the monetary amount of redress for salary and other employment related losses, which may not exceed five thousand dollars for any undivided claim.

(2) If a municipality adopts an ordinance or resolution providing for redress of salary and other employment related losses, it has no obligation to notify directly any person of possible eligibility for redress of salary and other employment related losses.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. For the purposes of this chapter, "municipality" means a city, town, county, special purpose district, municipal corporation, quasi-municipal corporation, or political subdivision of the state of Washington. For the purposes of this chapter, a "municipal employee" means an employee of a municipality.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 2 through 5 of this act are each added to chapter 41.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Passed the House February 15, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 6, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 2, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 2, 1986.

CHAPTER 226

[Substitute House Bill No. 1846]

WAREHOUSES—EXCISE TAXATION

AN ACT Relating to excise taxation of warehouses; amending RCW 82.16.010 and 82.04.280; and providing an effective date.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 82.16.010, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 32, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 82.16.010 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this chapter, unless otherwise required by the context:

(1) "Railroad business" means the business of operating any railroad, by whatever power operated, for public use in the conveyance of persons or property for hire. It shall not, however, include any business herein defined as an urban transportation business.

(2) "Express business" means the business of carrying property for public hire on the line of any common carrier operated in this state, when such common carrier is not owned or leased by the person engaging in such business.

(3) "Railroad car business" means the business of renting, leasing or operating stock cars, furniture cars, refrigerator cars, fruit cars, poultry cars, tank cars, sleeping cars, parlor cars, buffet cars, tourist cars, or any other kinds of cars used for transportation of property or persons upon the line of any railroad operated in this state when such railroad is not owned or leased by the person engaging in such business.

(4) "Water distribution business" means the business of operating a plant or system for the distribution of water for hire or sale.

(5) "Light and power business" means the business of operating a plant or system for the generation, production or distribution of electrical energy for hire or sale.

(6) "Telegraph business" means the business of affording telegraphic communication for hire.

(7) "Gas distribution business" means the business of operating a plant or system for the production or distribution for hire or sale of gas, whether manufactured or natural.

(8) "Motor transportation business" means the business (except urban transportation business) of operating any motor propelled vehicle by which persons or property of others are conveyed for hire, and includes, but is not limited to, the operation of any motor propelled vehicle as an auto transportation company (except urban transportation business), common carrier or contract carrier as defined by RCW 81.68.010 and 81.80.010: PROVIDED, That "motor transportation business" shall not mean or include the transportation of logs or other forest products exclusively upon private roads or private highways.

(9) "Urban transportation business" means the business of operating any vehicle for public use in the conveyance of persons or property for hire, insofar as (a) operating entirely within the corporate limits of any city or town, or within five miles of the corporate limits thereof, or (b) operating entirely within and between cities and towns whose corporate limits are not more than five miles apart or within five miles of the corporate limits of either thereof. Included herein, but without limiting the scope hereof, is the business of operating passenger vehicles of every type and also the business of operating cartage, pickup, or delivery services, including in such services the collection and distribution of property arriving from or destined to a point within or without the state, whether or not such collection or distribution be made by the person performing a local or interstate line-haul of such property.

(10) "Public service business" means any of the businesses defined in subdivisions (1), (2), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8), and (9) or any business subject to control by the state, or having the powers of eminent domain and the duties incident thereto, or any business hereafter declared by the legislature to be of a public service nature, except telephone business as defined in RCW 82.04.065. It includes, among others, without limiting the scope hereof: Airplane transportation, boom, dock, ferry, log patrol, pipe line, ((warehouse;)) toll bridge, toll logging road, water transportation and wharf businesses.

(11) "Tugboat business" means the business of operating tugboats, towboats, wharf boats or similar vessels in the towing or pushing of vessels, barges or rafts for hire.

(12) "Gross income" means the value proceeding or accruing from the performance of the particular public service or transportation business involved, including operations incidental thereto, but without any deduction on account of the cost of the commodity furnished or sold, the cost of materials used, labor costs, interest, discount, delivery costs, taxes, or any other expense whatsoever paid or accrued and without any deduction on account of losses: PROVIDED, That gross income of a light and power business means those amounts or value accruing to a taxpayer from the last distribution of electrical energy which is a taxable event within this state.

(13) The meaning attributed, in chapter 82.04 RCW, to the term "tax year," "person," "value proceeding or accruing," "business," "engaging in business," "in this state," "within this state," "cash discount" and "successor" shall apply equally in the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 8, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 132, Laws of 1983 and RCW 82.04.280 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon every person engaging within this state in the business of: (1) Printing, and of publishing newspapers, periodicals or magazines; (2) building, repairing or improving any street, place, road, highway, easement, right of way, mass public transportation terminal or parking facility, bridge, tunnel, or trestle which is owned by a municipal corporation or political subdivision of the state or by the United States and which is used or to be used, primarily for foot or vehicular traffic including mass transportation vehicles of any kind and including any readjustment, reconstruction or relocation of the facilities of any public, private or cooperatively owned utility or railroad in the course of such building, repairing or improving, the cost of which readjustment, reconstruction, or relocation, is the responsibility of the public authority whose street, place, road, highway, easement, right of way, mass public transportation terminal or parking facility, bridge, tunnel, or trestle is being built, repaired or improved; (3) extracting for hire or processing for hire; (4) operating a cold storage warehouse or storage warehouse, but not including the rental of cold storage lockers; (5) representing and performing services for fire or casualty insurance companies as an independent resident managing general agent licensed under the provisions of RCW 48.05.310; (6) radio and television broadcasting, excluding network, national and regional advertising computed as a standard deduction based on the national average thereof as annually reported by the Federal Communications Commission, or in lieu thereof by itemization by the individual broadcasting station, and excluding that portion of revenue represented by the out-of-state audience computed as a ratio to the station's total audience as measured by the 100 micro-volt signal strength and delivery by wire, if any; (7) engaging in activities which bring a person within the definition of consumer contained in RCW 82.04.190(6), as now or hereafter amended; as to such persons, the amount of tax on such business shall be equal to the gross income of the business multiplied by the rate of forty-four one hundredths of one percent.

As used in this section, "cold storage warehouse" means a storage warehouse used to store fresh and/or frozen perishable fruits or vegetables, meat, seafood, dairy products, or fowl, or any combination thereof, at a desired temperature to maintain the quality of the product for orderly marketing.

As used in this section, "storage warehouse" means a building or structure, or any part thereof, in which goods, wares, or merchandise are received for storage for compensation, except field warehouses, fruit warehouses, fruit packing plants, warehouses licensed under chapter 22.09 RCW, public garages storing automobiles, railroad freight sheds, docks and wharves, and "self-storage" or "mini storage" facilities whereby customers have direct access to individual storage areas by separate entrance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This act shall take effect July 1, 1986.

Passed the House February 14, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 3, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

CHAPTER 227

[Substitute House Bill No. 1839]

BOARD OF NATURAL RESOURCES—MEMBERSHIP

AN ACT Relating to the board of natural resources; and amending RCW 43.30.040 and 43.30.150.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 43.30.040, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 9, chapter 57, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 43.30.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall consist of ~~((five))~~ six members: The governor or the governor's designee, the superintendent of public instruction, the commissioner of public lands, the dean of the college of forest resources of the University of Washington ~~((and))~~, the dean of the college of agriculture of Washington State University, and a representative of those counties that contain state forest lands acquired or transferred under chapter 76.12 RCW.

The county representative shall be selected by the legislative authorities of those counties that contain state forest lands acquired or transferred under chapter 76.12 RCW. In the selection of the county representative, each participating county shall have one vote. The Washington state association of counties shall conduct a meeting for the purpose of making the selection and shall notify the board of the selection. The county representative shall be a duly elected member of a county legislative authority who shall serve a term of four years unless the representative should leave office for any reason. The initial term shall begin on July 1, 1986.

Sec. 2. Section 43.30.150, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 107, chapter 34, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 43.30.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall:

(1) Perform all the duties relating to appraisal, appeal, approval and hearing functions heretofore performed by the board of state land commissioners, the state forest board and the capitol committee to the extent such functions are transferred to the department;

(2) Establish policies to insure that the acquisition, management and disposition of all lands and resources within the department's jurisdiction are based on sound principles designed to achieve the maximum effective development and use of such lands and resources consistent with laws applicable thereto;

(3) Constitute the board of appraisers provided for in Article 16, section 2 of the state Constitution;

(4) Constitute the commission on harbor lines provided for in Article 15, section 1 of the state Constitution as amended;

(5) Hold regular monthly meetings at such times as it may determine, and such special meetings as may be called by the chairman or majority of the board membership upon written notice to all members thereof: PROVIDED, That the board may dispense with any regular meetings, except that the board shall not dispense with two consecutive regular meetings;

(6) Adopt and enforce such rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary and proper for carrying out the powers, duties and functions imposed upon it by this chapter;

(7) Employ and fix the compensation of such technical, clerical and other personnel as may be deemed necessary for the performance of its duties;

(8) Appoint such advisory committees as it may deem appropriate to advise and assist it to more effectively discharge its responsibilities. The members of such committees shall receive no compensation, but shall be entitled to reimbursement for travel expenses in attending committee meetings in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended;

(9) Meet and organize within thirty days after March 6, 1957 and on the third Monday of each January following a state general election at which the elected ex officio members of the board are elected. The board shall select its own chairman. The commissioner of public lands shall be the secretary of the board. The board may select a vice chairman from among its members. In the absence of the chairman and vice chairman at a meeting of the board, the members shall elect a chairman pro tem. No action shall be taken by the board except by the agreement of at least ~~((three))~~ four members. The department and the board shall maintain its principal office at the capital;

(10) Be entitled to reimbursement individually for travel expenses incurred in the discharge of their official duties in accordance with RCW 43-.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now existing or hereafter amended.

Passed the House February 14, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 7, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

CHAPTER 228

[Substitute House Bill No. 1838]

CAMPAIGN FINANCING DISCLOSURE

AN ACT Relating to campaign financing disclosure; amending RCW 42.17.090 and 42-.17.105; adding a new section to chapter 42.17 RCW; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 9, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as last amended by section 1, chapter 96, Laws of 1983 and RCW 42.17.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each report required under RCW 42.17.080 (1) and (2), as now or hereafter amended, shall disclose for the period beginning at the end of the period for the last report or, in the case of an initial report, at the time of the first contribution or expenditure, and ending not more than five days prior to the date the report is due:

(a) The funds on hand at the beginning of the period;

(b) The name and address of each person who has made one or more contributions during the period, together with the money value and date of such contributions and the aggregate value of all contributions received from each such person during the campaign or in the case of a continuing political committee, the current calendar year: PROVIDED, That the income which results from the conducting of a fund-raising activity which has previously been reported in accordance with RCW 42.17.067 may be reported as one lump sum, with the exception of that portion of such income which was received from persons whose names and addresses are required to be included in the report required by RCW 42.17.067: PROVIDED FURTHER, That contributions of less than twenty-five dollars in the aggregate from any one person during the election campaign may be reported as one lump sum so long as the campaign treasurer maintains a separate and private list of the names, addresses, and amounts of each such contributor; PROVIDED FURTHER, That the money value of contributions of postage shall be the face value of such postage;

(c) Each loan, promissory note, or security instrument to be used by or for the benefit of the candidate or political committee made by any person, together with the names and addresses of the lender and each person liable directly, indirectly or contingently and the date and amount of each such loan, promissory note, or security instrument;

(d) The name and address of each political committee from which the reporting committee or candidate received, or to which that committee or candidate made, any transfer of funds, together with the amounts, dates, and purpose of all such transfers. Information regarding the following shall be contained in a separate category of the report bearing the title "Transfer of funds": Contributions made from the campaign depository of one candidate to the campaign of another candidate; and contributions received by a candidate, or for the campaign of the candidate, from the campaign depository of another candidate;

(e) All other contributions not otherwise listed or exempted;

(f) The name and address of each person to whom an expenditure was made in the aggregate amount of fifty dollars or more, and the amount, date, and purpose of each such expenditure;

(g) The total sum of expenditures;

(h) The surplus or deficit of contributions over expenditures;

(i) The disposition made in accordance with RCW 42.17.095 of any surplus funds;

(j) Such other information as shall be required by the commission by regulation in conformance with the policies and purposes of this chapter; and

(k) Funds received from a political committee not domiciled in Washington state (~~and~~) or not otherwise required to report under this chapter (a "nonreporting committee"). Such funds shall be forfeited to the state of Washington unless the nonreporting committee or the recipient of such funds has filed or within ten days following such receipt shall file with the commission a statement disclosing: (i) its name and address; (ii) the purposes of the nonreporting committee; (iii) the names, addresses, and titles of its officers or if it has no officers, the names, addresses, and titles of its responsible leaders; (iv) a statement whether the nonreporting committee is a continuing one; (v) the name, office sought, and party affiliation of each candidate in the state of Washington whom the nonreporting committee is supporting, and, if such committee is supporting the entire ticket of any party, the name of the party; (vi) the ballot proposition supported or opposed in the state of Washington, if any, and whether such committee is in favor of or opposed to such proposition; (vii) the name and address of each person residing in the state of Washington or corporation which has a place of business in the state of Washington who has made one or more contributions in the aggregate of twenty-five dollars or more to the nonreporting committee during the current calendar year, together with the money value and date of such contributions; (viii) the name and address of each person in the state of Washington to whom an expenditure was made by the nonreporting committee on behalf of a candidate or political committee in the aggregate amount of twenty-five dollars or more, the amount, date, and purpose of such expenditure, and the total sum of such expenditures; (ix) such other information as the commission may by regulation prescribe, in keeping with the policies and purposes of this chapter. A nonreporting committee incurring an obligation to file additional reports in a calendar year may satisfy the obligation by filing with the commission a letter providing updating or amending information.

(2) The campaign treasurer and the candidate shall certify the correctness of each report.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 176, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 1, chapter 359, Laws of 1985 and RCW 42.17.105 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Campaign treasurers shall prepare and deliver to the commission a special report regarding any contribution which:

(a) Exceeds five hundred dollars;

(b) Is from a single person or entity;

(c) Is received before a primary or general election; and

(d) Is received: (i) After the period covered by the last report required by RCW 42.17.080 and 42.17.090 to be filed before that primary; or (ii) within twenty-one days preceding that general election.

(2) Any political committee making a contribution which exceeds five hundred dollars shall also prepare and deliver to the commission the special report if the contribution is made before a primary or general election and:

(a) After the period covered by the last report required by RCW 42.17.080 and 42.17.090 to be filed before that primary; or (b) within twenty-one days preceding that general election.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (4), the special report required by this section shall be delivered in written form, including but not limited to mailgram, telegram, or nightletter. The special report required by subsection (1) shall be delivered to the commission within forty-eight hours of the time, or on the first working day after, the contribution is received by the candidate or campaign treasurer. The special report required by subsection (2) of this section and RCW 42.17.175 shall be delivered to the commission, and the candidate or political committee to whom the contribution is made, within twenty-four hours of the time, or on the first working day after, the contribution is made.

(4) The special report may be transmitted orally by telephone to the commission to satisfy the delivery period required by subsection (3) if the written form of the report is also mailed to the commission and postmarked within the delivery period established in subsection (3).

(5) The special report shall include at least:

- (a) The amount of the contribution;
- (b) The date of receipt;
- (c) The name and address of the donor;
- (d) The name and address of the recipient; and
- (e) Any other information the commission may by rule require.

(6) Contributions reported under this section shall also be reported as required by other provisions of this chapter.

(7) The commission shall publish daily a summary of the special reports made under this section and RCW 42.17.175.

(8) It is a violation of this chapter for any person to make, or for any candidate or political committee to accept from any one person, contributions reportable under RCW 42.17.090 in the aggregate exceeding fifty thousand dollars for any campaign for state-wide office or exceeding five thousand dollars for any other campaign subject to the provisions of this chapter within twenty-one days of a general election. This subsection does not apply to contributions made by, or accepted from, a major political party as defined in RCW 29.01.090.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 42.17 RCW to read as follows:

A candidate or political committee receiving a contribution earmarked for the benefit of another candidate or political committee shall, in addition to reporting the contribution as required in RCW 42.17.080 and 42.17.090, notify the candidate or political committee for whose benefit the contribution is earmarked regarding its receipt. Such notice shall be given within two working days of receipt of the contribution. A candidate or political committee for whose benefit a contribution is earmarked shall report such earmarked contribution in a separate category in the reports required by RCW 42.17.080 and 42.17.090 entitled "Earmarked Contributions".

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the House March 8, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 6, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

CHAPTER 229

[Substitute House Bill No. 1827]

SHIPS AND VESSELS—PROPERTY TAXATION

AN ACT Relating to the property taxation of ships and vessels; amending RCW 84.36-.080 and 84.08.200; adding new sections to chapter 84.40 RCW; creating a new section; and recodifying RCW 84.08.200.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 84.36.080, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 51, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 84.36.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All ships and vessels which are exempt from excise tax under subsection (2) of RCW 82.49.020 and subsection (10) of RCW 88.02.030 shall be and are hereby made exempt from all ad valorem taxes, except taxes levied for any state purpose.

(2) All ships and vessels listed in the state or federal register of historical places are exempt from all ad valorem taxes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 84.40 RCW to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section, "apportionable vessel" means a ship or vessel, other than one operated by a steamboat company as defined in RCW 84.12.200, which is:

- (a) Engaged in interstate commerce;
- (b) Engaged in foreign commerce; and/or
- (c) Engaged exclusively in fishing, tendering, harvesting, and/or processing seafood products on the high seas or waters under the jurisdiction of other states.

(2) The value of each apportionable vessel shall be apportioned to this state based on the number of days or fractions of days that the vessel is within this state during the preceding calendar year: PROVIDED, That if the total number of days the vessel is within the limits of the state does not exceed one hundred twenty for the preceding calendar year, no value shall be apportioned to this state.

(3) Days during which an apportionable vessel is in the state exclusively for one or more of the following purposes shall not be considered as days within this state, if the length of time is reasonable for the purpose:

- (a) Undergoing repair or alteration;
- (b) Taking on or discharging cargo, passengers, or supplies; and
- (c) Serving as a tug for a vessel under (a) or (b) of this subsection.

(4) Days during which an apportionable vessel leaves this state only while navigating the high seas in order to travel between points in this state shall be considered as days within this state.

Sec. 3. Section 5, chapter 250, Laws of 1984 and RCW 84.08.200 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every individual, corporation, association, partnership, trust, and estate shall list with the department of revenue all ships and vessels which are subject to their ownership, possession, or control and which are ~~((subject to ad valorem taxation under RCW 84.36.080))~~ not entirely exempt from property taxation, and such listing shall be subject to the same requirements, penalties, and liens provided in this chapter and chapter~~((s 84.40 and))~~ 84.60 RCW for all other personal property in the same manner as provided therein.

(2) The department shall assess all ships and vessels and shall certify to the respective county assessors the equalized values thereof, subject to the same rules as other state-assessed properties in accordance with RCW 84.12.370 and 84.16.130 and chapter 84.48 RCW.

(3) Any ship or vessel owner disputing the assessment under this section shall have the same rights of review as any other vessel owner subject to the excise tax contained in chapter 82.49 RCW in accordance with RCW 82.49.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act shall be effective for taxes levied for collection in 1987, and thereafter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. RCW 84.08.200, as amended by section 3 of this act, shall be recodified in chapter 84.40 RCW.

CHAPTER 230

[Substitute House Bill No. 1726] CHARITABLE SOLICITATIONS

AN ACT Relating to charitable solicitations; amending RCW 19.09.010, 19.09.020, 19.09.065, 19.09.075, 19.09.079, 19.09.085, 19.09.095, 19.09.100, 19.09.200, 19.09.210, 19.09.230, 19.09.240, 19.09.190, and 19.09.275; adding new sections to chapter 19.09 RCW; repealing RCW 19.09.030, 19.09.045, 19.09.050, and 19.09.069; prescribing penalties; making an appropriation; and providing an effective date.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 13, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 19.09.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The purpose of this chapter is to ~~((protect the general public and public charity in the state of Washington, to require full public disclosure of facts))~~ provide citizens of the state of Washington with information relating to persons and organizations who solicit funds from the public for public charitable purposes~~((, the purposes for which such funds are solicited, and~~

~~their actual uses, and)) in order to prevent (1) deceptive and dishonest ((statements and conduct in the solicitation of)) practices in the conduct of soliciting funds for or in the name of charity; and (2) improper use of contributions intended for charitable purposes.~~

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 13, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 265, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.09.020 are each amended to read as follows:

When used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) A "bona fide officer or employee" of a charitable organization is one (a) whose conduct is subject to direct control by such organization ((and)); (b) who does not act in the manner of an independent contractor in his or her relation with the organization; and (c) whose compensation is not computed on funds raised or to be raised.

(2) "Charitable organization" means~~((: (a) Any benevolent, philanthropic, patriotic, eleemosynary, education, social, recreation, fraternal organization, or any other person having or purporting to have a charitable nature; and (b) which solicits or solicits and collects contributions for any charitable purpose. "Charitable" shall have its common law meaning unless the context in which it is used clearly requires a narrower or a broader meaning))~~ any entity that solicits or collects contributions from the general public where the contribution is or is purported to be used to support a charitable activity. "Charitable" (a) is not limited to its common law meaning unless the context clearly requires a narrower meaning; (b) does not include religious or political activities; and (c) includes, but is not limited to, educational, recreational, social, patriotic, legal defense, benevolent, or health causes.

(3) "Compensation" means salaries, wages, fees, commissions, or any other remuneration or valuable consideration.

(4) "Contribution" means the donation, promise or grant, for consideration or otherwise, of any money or property of any kind or value which contribution is wholly or partly induced by a solicitation. Reference to dollar amounts of "contributions" or "solicitations" in this chapter means in the case of payments or promises to pay for merchandise or rights of any description, the value of the total amount paid or promised to be paid for such merchandise or rights less the reasonable purchase price to the charitable organization of any such tangible merchandise, rights, or services resold by the organization, and not merely that portion of the purchase price to be applied to a charitable purpose.

~~((4) "Compensation" means salaries, wages, fees, commissions, or any other remuneration or valuable consideration:))~~

(5) "Cost of solicitation" means and includes all direct and indirect costs, expenditures, debts, obligations, salaries, wages, commissions, fees, or other money or thing of value paid or incurred in making a solicitation ((for a direct gift or conducting a sale or benefit affair;)). Cost of solicitation

~~((staff))~~ does not include the reasonable purchase price to the charitable organization of any tangible goods or services resold by the organization as a part of its fund raising activities.

~~(6) (~~"Direct gift"~~ shall mean and include an outright contribution of food, clothing, money, credit, property, financial assistance or other thing of value to be used for a charitable or religious purpose and for which the donor receives no consideration or thing of value in return.~~

~~(7))~~ "Entity" means an individual, organization, group, association, partnership, corporation, agency or unit of state government, or any combination thereof.

(7) "General public" or "public" means any individual located in Washington state without a membership or other official relationship with a charitable organization before a solicitation by the charitable organization.

(8) "Independent fund raiser" or "independent fund-raising entity" means any entity that for compensation or other consideration, plans, conducts, manages, or administers any drive or campaign in this state for the purpose of soliciting contributions for or on behalf of any charitable organization or charitable or religious purpose, or that is engaged in the business of or is held out to persons in this state as independently engaged in the business of soliciting contributions for such purposes, or the business of planning, conducting, managing, or carrying on any drive or campaign in this state for such solicitations. However, a nonprofit fund raiser or bona fide officer or other employee of a charitable organization shall not be deemed an independent fund raiser.

(9) "Membership" means that for the payment of fees, dues, assessments, etc., an organization provides services and confers a bona fide right, privilege, professional standing, honor, or other direct benefit, in addition to the right to vote, elect officers, or hold office. The term "membership" ~~((staff))~~ does not include those persons who are granted a membership upon making a contribution as the result of solicitation.

~~((8))~~ (10) "Nonprofit fund raiser" means an entity registered as a nonprofit corporation under Title 24 RCW, or any entity exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, that solicits and receives contributions exceeding five thousand dollars in any accounting year on behalf of a charitable or religious organization other than the nonprofit corporation.

(11) "Other employee" of a charitable organization means any person (a) whose conduct is subject to direct control by such organization; (b) who does not act in the manner of any independent contractor in his or her relation with the organization; and (c) who is not engaged in the business of or held out to persons in this state as independently engaged in the business of soliciting contributions for charitable or religious purposes.

(12) "Parent organization" means that part of a charitable organization ~~((which))~~ that coordinates, supervises, or exercises control over policy, fund raising, or expenditures, or assists or advises one or more chapters, branches, or affiliates of such organization in the state of Washington.

~~((9) "Person" means an individual, organization, group, association, partnership, corporation, or any combination thereof.~~

~~(10) "Professional fund-raiser" means any person who, for compensation or other consideration, plans, conducts, manages, or advises concerning any drive or campaign in this state for the purpose of soliciting contributions for or on behalf of any charitable organization or charitable purpose; or who engages in the business of or holds himself out to persons in this state as independently engaged in the business of soliciting contributions for such purposes, or the business of planning, conducting, managing, or carrying on any drive or campaign in this state for such solicitations. PROVIDED, That the following persons shall not be deemed professional fund raisers: (a) Any bona fide officer or employee of a charitable organization which maintains a permanent establishment in the state of Washington; whose salary or other compensation is not computed on funds raised or to be raised; (b) a clergyman of a religious corporation exempt under the provisions of RCW 19.09.030.~~

~~(11) A "professional solicitor" means any person other than a professional fund-raiser who is employed or retained for compensation by any person or charitable organization to solicit contributions for charitable purposes from persons in this state, but shall not include any bona fide officer or employee of a registered charitable organization.~~

~~(12) "Sale and benefit affair" shall mean and include, but not be limited to, athletic or sports event, bazaar, benefit, campaign, circus, contest, dance, drive, entertainment, exhibition, exposition, party, performance, picnic, sale, social gathering, theater, or variety show which the public is requested to patronize or attend or to which the public is requested to make a contribution for any charitable or religious purpose connected therewith: PROVIDED, That bingo activities, raffles, and amusement games conducted pursuant to the provisions of chapter 9.46 RCW and applicable rules of the Washington state gambling commission are specifically excluded and shall not be deemed a solicitation within the provisions of this chapter.)~~

~~(13) "Political activities" means those activities subject to chapter 42-.17 RCW or the Federal Elections Campaign Act of 1971, as amended.~~

~~(14) "Religious activities" means those religious, evangelical, or missionary activities under the direction of a religious organization duly organized and operating in good faith that are entitled to receive a declaration of current tax exempt status for religious purposes from the United States government and the duly organized branches or chapters of those organizations.~~

~~(15) "Secretary" means the secretary of state.~~

~~((14))~~ (16) "Solicitation" means any oral or written request for a contribution, including the solicitor's offer or attempt to sell any property, rights, services, or other thing in connection with which:

(a) Any appeal is made for any charitable purpose; or

(b) The name of any charitable organization is used as an inducement for consummating the sale; or

(c) Any statement is made (~~which~~) that implies that the whole or any part of the proceeds from the sale will be applied toward any charitable purpose or donated to any charitable organization.

The solicitation shall be deemed completed when made, whether or not the person making it receives any contribution or makes any sale.

Bingo activities, raffles, and amusement games conducted under chapter 9.46 RCW and applicable rules of the Washington state gambling commission are specifically excluded and shall not be deemed a solicitation under this chapter.

Sec. 3. Section 4, chapter 265, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.09.065 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All charitable organizations, independent fund raisers, and non-profit fund raisers, as defined in RCW 19.09.020(~~(; unless exempt under RCW 19.09.030)~~), shall register with the secretary.

(2) Failure to register as required by this chapter is a violation of this chapter.

(3) Information provided to the secretary pursuant to this chapter shall be a public record.

(4) Registration shall not be considered or be represented as an endorsement by the secretary or the state of Washington.

Sec. 4. Section 5, chapter 265, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.09.075 are each amended to read as follows:

An application for registration as a charitable organization shall ~~((contain))~~ be submitted in the form prescribed by the secretary, containing, but not limited to, the following:

(1) The name, address, and telephone number of the charitable organization;

(2) The name(s) under which the organization will solicit contributions;

(3) The name, address, and telephone number of the ~~((president and treasurer, or comparable))~~ officers(~~(;)~~) of the organization;

(4) The names of the three officers or employees receiving the greatest amount of compensation from the organization;

(5) The purpose of the ((solicitations)) organization;

~~((5))~~ (6) (a) Whether the organization is exempt from federal income tax; and

(b) Whether the financial affairs of the organization are audited by an independent entity and, if so, the name and address of the entity;

(7) A solicitation ((history)) report of the organization for the preceding accounting year including:

(a) The number and types of solicitations ((campaigns over the past three years)) conducted;

(b) The total ((amount of money applied to the costs of the solicitations over the past three years;

(c) The total amount of money dispersed for charitable purposes over the past three years;

(d) The number of solicitation campaigns reported under subsection (5)(a) of this section for which the organization used a professional fund raiser; and

(6)) dollar value of support received from solicitations and from all other sources received on behalf of the charitable purpose of the charitable organization;

(c) The total amount of money applied to charitable purposes, fund raising costs, and other expenses;

(d) The name, address, and telephone number of any independent fund raiser used by the organization; and

(8) An irrevocable appointment of the secretary to receive service of process in noncriminal proceedings as provided in RCW 19.09.305.

The requirements of subsection ~~((s-(5)(b)))~~ (7) (b) and (c) of this section may be satisfied by the submission of ~~((an independent certified audit))~~ such federal tax forms as may be approved by rule of the secretary.

The application shall be ~~((submitted with a fifteen-dollar filing fee and shall be))~~ signed by the president, treasurer, or comparable officer of the organization and be submitted with a nonrefundable, ten-dollar filing fee. If the secretary determines that the application is complete, the application shall be filed and the applicant deemed registered.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 19.09 RCW to read as follows:

The application requirements of RCW 19.09.075 do not apply to the following:

(1) Any charitable organization raising less than five thousand dollars in any accounting year when all the activities of the organization, including all fund raising activities, are carried on by persons who are unpaid for their services and no part of the charitable organization's assets or income inures to the benefit of or is paid to any officer or member of the organization;

(2) Any charitable organization located outside of the state of Washington if the organization files the following with the secretary:

(a) The registration documents required under the charitable solicitation laws of the state in which the charitable organization is located;

(b) The registration required under the charitable solicitation laws of the state of California and the state of New York; and

(c) Such federal income tax forms as may be required by rule of the secretary.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 19.09 RCW to read as follows:

An application for registration as a nonprofit fund raiser shall be submitted in the form prescribed by the secretary and shall contain the following:

- (1) The name, address, and telephone number of the organization;
- (2) The name(s), address(es), and the telephone number(s) of the officers of the organization;
- (3) The names of the three officers or employees receiving the greatest amount of compensation from the organization;
- (4) Whether the financial affairs of the organization are audited by an independent entity, and, if so, the name and address of the entity; and

 - (a) The number and types of fund raising activities conducted on behalf of charitable organizations;
 - (b) The names of charitable organizations on whose behalf fund raising activities were conducted;
 - (c) The total value of contributions received on behalf of charitable organizations; and
 - (d) The amount of money disbursed to charitable organizations for charitable purposes.

The application shall be signed by the president, treasurer, or comparable officer of the organization and be submitted with a nonrefundable, ten dollar filing fee. If the secretary determines that the application is complete, the application shall be filed and the applicant deemed registered.

Sec. 7. Section 15, chapter 265, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.09.079 are each amended to read as follows:

An application for registration as ~~((a professional))~~ an independent fund raiser shall ((contain)) be submitted in the form prescribed by the secretary, containing, but not limited to, the following:

- (1) The name, address, and telephone number of the ~~((professional fund raiser))~~ independent fund-raising entity;
- (2) ~~((A solicitation history of the professional fund raiser for the past three years including:~~
 - ~~(a) Number of solicitation campaigns;~~
 - ~~(b) Names of charitable organizations for whom fund raising has been performed; and~~
 - ~~(c) A list of the states in which fund raising has been performed; and~~
- ~~((3))~~ The name(s), address(es), and telephone number(s) of the owner(s) and principal officer(s) of the independent fund-raising entity;

(3) The name, address, and telephone number of the individual responsible for the activities of the independent fund-raising entity in Washington;

(4) A list of states and Canadian provinces in which fund raising has been performed;

(5) The names of the three officers or employees receiving the greatest amount of compensation from the independent fund-raising entity;

(6) Whether the financial affairs of the independent fund raiser are audited by an independent entity, and, if so, the name and address of the entity;

(7) A solicitation report of the independent fund-raising entity for the preceding accounting year, including:

(a) The number and types of fund raising services conducted;

(b) The names of charitable organizations required to register under RCW 19.09.065 for whom fund raising services have been performed;

(c) The total value of contributions received on behalf of charitable organizations required to register under RCW 19.09.065 by the independent fund raiser, affiliate of the independent fund raiser, or any entity retained by the independent fund raiser; and

(d) The amount of money disbursed to charitable organizations for charitable purposes, net of fund raising costs paid by the charitable organization as stipulated in any agreement between charitable organizations and the independent fund raiser;

(8) The name, address, and telephone number of any independent fund raiser that was retained in the conduct of providing fund raising services; and

(9) An irrevocable appointment of the secretary to receive service of process in noncriminal proceedings as provided in RCW 19.09.305.

The application shall be signed by an officer or owner of the independent fund raiser and shall be submitted with a ((fifteen-dollar)) nonrefundable, fifty-dollar filing fee ((and shall be signed by the professional fund raiser)). If the secretary determines that the application is complete, the application shall be filed and the applicant deemed registered.

Sec. 8. Section 8, chapter 265, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.09.085 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Registration under this chapter shall be effective for ((two years)) one year, or the end of the organization's accounting year, whichever comes first.

(2) ((Persons and charitable organizations)) Reregistration required under RCW 19.09.075 and section 6 of this act shall be received by the secretary no later than the fifteenth day of the fifth month after the organization's accounting period ends.

(3) Reregistration required under RCW 19.09.079 shall be received by the secretary no later than the fifteenth day of the third month after the organization's accounting period ends.

(4) Entities required to register under this chapter shall file a notice of change of information within thirty days of any change in the information contained in RCW 19.09.075 (1) through ~~((4))~~ (6), 19.09.079 (1) through (6), or section 6 (1) through (4) of this act.

~~((3))~~ (5) The secretary may notify ~~((persons and charitable organizations))~~ entities registered under this chapter of the need to reregister upon the expiration of their current registration. The notification shall be by mail, sent at least sixty days prior to the expiration of their current registration.

Sec. 9. Section 6, chapter 265, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.09.095 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((If any chapter, branch, affiliate, or area division of))~~ A charitable organization that is supervised and controlled by a superior or parent organization ~~((which))~~ that is incorporated, qualified to do business, or is doing business within this state~~((, such chapter, branch, affiliate, or area division))~~ shall not be required to register under RCW 19.09.065 if the superior or parent organization files an application, on behalf of its subsidiary, in addition to or as a part of its own application. If an application has been filed by a superior or parent organization, on behalf of the subsidiary organization, the superior or parent organization ~~((need not include the financial statement information as part of its financial report for any chapter, branch, or affiliate which solicits and collects less than five hundred dollars during its fiscal year, providing all such fund raising is done by persons who are unpaid for such services. For those chapters, branches, or affiliates which solicit, collect, or expend between five hundred dollars and five thousand dollars during their fiscal year, the superior or parent organization shall report such financial information either separately or in consolidated form. For those chapters, branches, or affiliates which solicit, collect, or expend in excess of five thousand dollars during their fiscal year, the superior or parent organization shall set forth such financial information separately, in addition to including such information in consolidated form))~~ shall (1) report financial information either separately or in consolidated form for its subsidiary organization(s), and (2) identify the subsidiary organization(s) on whose behalf the application is being submitted, indicating which such organization(s), if any, collected or expended five thousand dollars or more during their fiscal year.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 19.09 RCW to read as follows:

Before contracting for any fund raising service or activity, the charitable organization and independent fund raiser shall complete a registration form. The registration shall be filed by the charitable organization with the secretary, in the form prescribed by the secretary, within five working days of the execution of the contract containing, but not limited to the following information:

- (1) The name and registration number of the independent fund raiser;
- (2) The name of the surety or sureties issuing the bond required by RCW 19.09.190, the aggregate amount of such bond or bonds, the bond number(s), original effective date(s), and termination date(s);
- (3) The name and registration number of the charitable organization;
- (4) The name of the representative of the independent fund raiser who will be responsible for the conduct of the fund raising;
- (5) The type(s) of service(s) to be provided by the independent fund raiser;
- (6) The dates such service(s) will begin and end;
- (7) The terms of the agreement between the charitable organization and independent fund raiser relating to:
 - (a) Amount or percentages of amounts to inure to the charitable organization;
 - (b) Limitations placed on the maximum amount to be raised by the fund raiser, if the amount to inure to the charitable organization is not stated as a percentage of the amount raised;
 - (c) Costs of fund raising that will be the responsibility of the charitable organization, regardless of whether paid as a direct expense, deducted from the amounts disbursed, or otherwise;
 - (d) The manner in which contributions received directly by the charitable organization, not the result of services provided by the independent fund raiser, will be identified and used in computing the fee owed to the independent fund raiser; and
- (8) The names of any entity to which more than ten percent of the total anticipated fund raising cost is to be paid, and whether any principal officer or owner of the independent fund raiser or relative by blood or marriage thereof is an owner or officer of any such entity.

The registration form shall be submitted with a nonrefundable, five-dollar filing fee and shall be signed by an owner or principal officer of the independent fund raiser and the president, treasurer, or comparable officer of the charitable organization.

Sec. 11. Section 10, chapter 13, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 9, chapter 265, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.09.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The following conditions apply to solicitations as defined by RCW 19.09.020:

- (1) Each person or organization soliciting charitable contributions shall disclose orally or in writing to each person or organization solicited:
 - (a) The name of the individual making the solicitation;
 - (b) The name of the charitable organization;

(c) The purpose of the solicitation, and the name of the organization that will receive the funds contributed; and

(d) ~~((Upon request, the estimated percentage of the money collected which will be applied to the cost of the solicitation or to the charitable purpose;~~

~~(2)) Whether the charitable organization is or is not properly registered under this chapter, and if registered, that information relating to its financial affairs is available by contacting the office of the secretary of state, giving the secretary's toll-free telephone number, if available.~~

(2) Each person or organization soliciting charitable contributions shall conspicuously disclose in writing to each person or organization solicited:

(a) If the solicitation is conducted by a charitable organization, the percentage relationship between (i) the total amount of money applied to charitable purposes; and (ii) the dollar value of support received from solicitations and from all other sources received on behalf of the charitable purpose of the organization, as contained in the organization's most recent solicitation report filed in accordance with RCW 19.09.075(7);

(b) If the solicitation is conducted by an independent or nonprofit fund raiser, the percentage relationship between (i) the amount of money disbursed to charitable organizations for charitable purposes; and (ii) the total value of contributions received on behalf of charitable organizations by the independent or nonprofit fund raiser, as contained in the fund raiser's most recent solicitation report filed in accordance with RCW 19.09.079(7) or section 6 of this act.

(3) Each person or organization soliciting charitable contributions by telephone shall make the disclosures required by RCW 19.09.100(2) (a) or (b) in writing within five days of the receipt of any contribution. If the person or organization sends any materials to the person or organization solicited before the receipt of any contribution, those materials shall include the disclosures required in RCW 19.09.100(1)(d), and 19.09.100 (2) (a) or (b), whichever is applicable.

(4) Each person or organization soliciting charitable contributions shall not represent orally or in writing that:

(a) The charitable contribution is tax deductible unless the charitable organization for which charitable contributions are being solicited or to which tickets for fund raising events or other services or goods will be donated, has applied for and received from the internal revenue service a letter of determination granting tax deductible status to the charitable organization;

(b) The person soliciting the charitable contribution is a volunteer or words of similar meaning or effect that create the impression that the person soliciting is not a paid solicitor unless such person is unpaid for his or her services;

(c) The person soliciting the charitable contribution is a member, staffer, helper, or employee of the charitable organization or words of similar meaning or effect that create the impression that the person soliciting is not a paid solicitor if the person soliciting is employed, contracted, or paid by an independent fund raiser.

(5) If the charitable organization is associated with, or has a name that is similar to, any unit of government each person or organization soliciting contributions shall disclose to each person solicited whether the charitable organization is or is not part of any unit of government and the true nature of its relationship to the unit of government.

(6) A charitable organization shall comply with all local governmental regulations (~~which~~) that apply to soliciting for or on behalf of charitable organizations(;;).

~~((3))~~ (7) The advertising material and the general promotional plan for a solicitation shall not be false, misleading, or deceptive, and shall afford full and fair disclosure(~~(; and)~~).

~~((4))~~ (8) Solicitations shall not be conducted by a charitable organization or independent fund raiser that has, or if a corporation, its officers, directors, or principals have, been convicted of a crime involving solicitations for or on behalf of a charitable organization in this state, the United States, or any other state or foreign country within the past ten years (~~and~~) or has been subject to any permanent injunction or administrative order or judgment(;) under (~~the provisions of~~) RCW 19.86.080 or 19.86.090, involving a violation or violations of (~~the provisions of~~) RCW 19.86.020, within the past ten years, or of restraining a false or misleading promotional plan involving solicitations for charitable organizations.

Failure to comply with subsections (1) through ~~((4))~~ (8) of this section is a violation of this chapter.

Sec. 12. Section 20, chapter 13, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 9, chapter 227, Laws of 1982 and RCW 19.09.200 are each amended to read as follows:

Charitable organizations and ~~(professional)~~ independent fund raisers shall maintain accurate, current, and readily available books and records at their usual business locations until at least three years (~~staff~~) have elapsed following the effective period to which they relate.

All contracts between ~~(professional)~~ independent fund raisers and charitable organizations shall be in writing, and true and correct copies of such contracts or records thereof shall be kept on file in the various offices of the charitable organization (~~and/or professional~~) and the independent fund raiser for a three-year period (~~as provided in this section~~). Such records and contracts shall be available for inspection and examination by the attorney general or by the county prosecuting attorney. A copy of such contract or record shall be submitted by the charitable organization or ~~(professional)~~ independent fund raiser, within ten days, following receipt of a written demand therefor from the attorney general or county prosecutor.

Sec. 13. Section 21, chapter 13, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 10, chapter 265, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.09.210 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the request of the attorney general or the county prosecutor, a charitable organization shall submit a financial statement containing, but not limited to, the following information:

(1) The gross amount of the contributions pledged and the gross amount collected.

(2) The amount thereof, given or to be given to charitable purposes represented together with details as to the manner of distribution as may be required.

(3) The aggregate amount paid and to be paid for the expenses of such solicitation.

(4) The amounts paid to and to be paid to ~~((professional))~~ independent fund raisers ~~((and solicitors))~~.

(5) Copies of any annual or periodic reports furnished by the charitable organization, of its activities during or for the same fiscal period, to its parent organization, subsidiaries, or affiliates, if any.

Sec. 14. Section 23, chapter 13, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 11, chapter 227, Laws of 1982 and RCW 19.09.230 are each amended to read as follows:

No charitable organization, ~~((professional))~~ independent fund raiser, or ~~((professional solicitor shall))~~ other entity may knowingly use the name of any other person for the purpose of soliciting contributions from persons in this state without the written consent of such other person ~~((PROVIDED, That))~~. Such consent may be deemed to have been given by anyone who is a director, trustee, other officer, employee, agent, ((professional)) or independent fund raiser((, or professional solicitor)) of the charitable organization.

A person may be deemed to have used the name of another person for the purpose of soliciting contributions if such latter person's name is listed on any stationery, advertisement, brochure, or correspondence of the charitable organization or person or if such name is listed or represented to any one who has contributed to, sponsored, or endorsed the charitable organization or person, or its or his activities.

Sec. 15. Section 24, chapter 13, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 19.09.240 are each amended to read as follows:

No charitable organization, ~~((professional))~~ independent fund raiser, or other person soliciting contributions for or on behalf of a charitable organization ~~((shall))~~ may use a name, symbol, or statement so closely related or similar to that used by another charitable organization or governmental agency that the use thereof would tend to confuse or mislead the public.

Sec. 16. Section 19, chapter 13, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 16, chapter 265, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.09.190 are each amended to read as follows:

Every (~~(person employed or retained as a professional fund raiser by or for a charitable organization))~~ independent fund raiser who (1) directly or indirectly receives contributions from the public on behalf of any charitable organization; or (2) is compensated based upon funds raised or to be raised, number of solicitations made or to be made, or any other similar method; or (3) incurs or is authorized to incur expenses on behalf of the charitable organization; or (4) has not been registered with the secretary as an independent fund raiser for the preceding accounting year shall execute a surety bond as principal ((in the amount of five thousand dollars)) with one or more sureties whose liability in the aggregate as such sureties will ((at least equal the said sum)) equal at least fifteen thousand dollars. The secretary may, by rule, provide for the reduction and reinstatement of the bond required by this section.

The issuer of the surety bond shall be licensed to do business in this state, and shall promptly notify the secretary when claims or payments are made against the bond. The bond shall be filed with the secretary in the form prescribed by the secretary. The bond shall run to the state and to any person who may have a cause of action against the obligor of said bond for any malfeasance ((or)), misfeasance, or deceptive practice in the conduct of such solicitation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. A new section is added to chapter 19.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Any charitable organization, nonprofit fund raiser, or independent fund raiser who, after notification by the secretary, fails to properly register under this chapter by the end of the first business day following the issuance of the notice, is liable for a late filing fee of five dollars per day from the date of the notice until the registration is properly completed and filed. The late filing fee is in addition to any other filing fee provided by this chapter.

(2) The secretary shall notify the attorney general of any entity liable for late filing fees under subsection (1) of this section.

Sec. 18. Section 14, chapter 222, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 11, chapter 265, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.09.275 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who wilfully and knowingly violates any provision of this chapter or who wilfully and knowingly gives false or incorrect information to the secretary, attorney general, or county prosecuting attorney in filing statements required by this chapter, whether or not such statement or report is verified is guilty of a gross misdemeanor punishable under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

Any person who (~~wilfully and knowingly~~) violates any provisions of this chapter or who (~~shall wilfully and knowingly~~) gives false or incorrect information to the secretary, attorney general, or county prosecuting attorney in filing statements required by this chapter, whether or not such statement or report is verified, (~~shall be deemed~~) is guilty of a misdemeanor (~~as provided in~~) punishable under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 3, chapter 13, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess., section 2, chapter 106, Laws of 1974 ex. sess., section 2, chapter 222, Laws of 1977 ex. sess., section 2, chapter 265, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.09.030;

(2) Section 3, chapter 265, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.09.045;

(3) Section 5, chapter 13, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess., section 13, chapter 265, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.09.050; and

(4) Section 14, chapter 265, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.09.069.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. To carry out this act, the sum of twelve thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated to the secretary of state from the general fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1987.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. This act shall take effect on January 1, 1987.

Passed the House March 8, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 5, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

CHAPTER 231

[House Bill No. 1851]

MAGNESIUM PRODUCTION—TAXATION OF INGREDIENTS, COMPONENTS, AND CHEMICALS USED IN PROCESSING—CANNING, PRESERVING, AND FREEZING BUSINESS—SALES AND USE TAX

AN ACT Relating to excise taxation of ingredients, components, and chemicals used in processing; amending RCW 82.04.050 and 82.04.190; adding a new section to chapter 82.08 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 82.12 RCW; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 8, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 25, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 82.04.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) "Sale at retail" or "retail sale" means every sale of tangible personal property (including articles produced, fabricated, or imprinted) to all persons irrespective of the nature of their business and including, among others, without limiting the scope hereof, persons who install, repair, clean, alter, improve, construct, or decorate real or personal property of or for consumers other than a sale to a person who (a) purchases for the purpose of resale as tangible personal property in the regular course of business without intervening use by such person, or (b) installs, repairs, cleans, alters, imprints, improves, constructs, or decorates real or personal property of or for consumers, if such tangible personal property becomes an ingredient or component of such real or personal property without intervening use by such person, or (c) purchases for the purpose of consuming the property purchased in producing for sale a new article of tangible personal property or substance, of which such property becomes an ingredient or component or is a chemical used in processing, when the primary purpose of such chemical is to create a chemical reaction directly through contact with an ingredient of a new article being produced for sale, or (d) purchases for the purpose of consuming the property purchased in producing ferrosilicon which is subsequently used in producing magnesium for sale, if the primary purpose of such property is to create a chemical reaction directly through contact with an ingredient of ferrosilicon, or (e) purchases for the purpose of providing the property to consumers as part of competitive telephone service, as defined in RCW 82.04.065. The term shall include every sale of tangible personal property which is used or consumed or to be used or consumed in the performance of any activity classified as a "sale at retail" or "retail sale" even though such property is resold or utilized as provided in (a), (b), (c), ((or)) (d), or (e) above following such use. The term also means every sale of tangible personal property to persons engaged in any business which is taxable under RCW 82.04.280, subsections (2) and (7) and RCW 82.04.290.

(2) The term "sale at retail" or "retail sale" shall include the sale of or charge made for tangible personal property consumed and/or for labor and services rendered in respect to the following: (a) The installing, repairing, cleaning, altering, imprinting, or improving of tangible personal property of or for consumers, including charges made for the mere use of facilities in respect thereto, but excluding charges made for the use of coin operated laundry facilities when such facilities are situated in an apartment house, hotel, motel, rooming house, trailer camp or tourist camp for the exclusive use of the tenants thereof, and also excluding sales of laundry service to members by nonprofit associations composed exclusively of nonprofit hospitals, and excluding services rendered in respect to live animals, birds and insects; (b) the constructing, repairing, decorating, or improving of new or existing buildings or other structures under, upon, or above real property of or for consumers, including the installing or attaching of any article of tangible personal property therein or thereto, whether or not such personal property becomes a part of the realty by virtue of installation, and shall also include the sale of services or charges made for the clearing of land and the moving of earth excepting the mere leveling of land used in commercial farming or agriculture; (c) the sale of or charge made for labor and services rendered in respect to the cleaning, fumigating, razing or moving of existing buildings or structures, but shall not include the charge made for janitorial services; and for purposes of this section the term "janitorial services" shall mean those cleaning and caretaking services ordinarily performed by commercial janitor service businesses including, but not limited to, wall and window washing, floor cleaning and waxing, and the cleaning in place of rugs, drapes and upholstery. The term "janitorial services" does not include painting, papering, repairing, furnace or septic tank cleaning, snow removal or sandblasting; (d) the sale of or charge made for labor and services rendered in respect to automobile towing and similar automotive transportation services, but not in respect to those required to report and pay taxes under chapter 82.16 RCW; (e) the sale of and charge made for the furnishing of lodging and all other services by a hotel, rooming house, tourist court, motel, trailer camp, and the granting of any similar license to use real property, as distinguished from the renting or leasing of real property, and it shall be presumed that the occupancy of real property for a continuous period of one month or more constitutes a rental or lease of real property and not a mere license to use or enjoy the same; (f) the sale of or charge made for tangible personal property, labor and services to persons taxable under (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e) above when such sales or charges are for property, labor and services which are used or consumed in whole or in part by such persons in the performance of any activity defined as a "sale at retail" or "retail sale" even though such property, labor and services may be resold after such use or consumption. Nothing contained in this paragraph shall be construed to modify the first paragraph of this section and nothing contained in the first paragraph of this section shall be construed to modify this paragraph.

(3) The term "sale at retail" or "retail sale" shall include the sale of or charge made for personal business or professional services including amounts designated as interest, rents, fees, admission, and other service emoluments however designated, received by persons engaging in the following business activities: (a) Amusement and recreation businesses including but not limited to golf, pool, billiards, skating, bowling, ski lifts and tows and others; (b) abstract, title insurance and escrow businesses; (c) credit bureau businesses; (d) automobile parking and storage garage businesses.

(4) The term shall also include the renting or leasing of tangible personal property to consumers.

(5) The term shall also include the providing of telephone service, as defined in RCW 82.04.065, to consumers.

(6) The term shall not include the sale of or charge made for labor and services rendered in respect to the building, repairing, or improving of any street, place, road, highway, easement, right of way, mass public transportation terminal or parking facility, bridge, tunnel, or trestle which is owned by a municipal corporation or political subdivision of the state or by the United States and which is used or to be used primarily for foot or vehicular traffic including mass transportation vehicles of any kind, nor shall it include sales of feed, seed, fertilizer, and spray materials to persons for the purpose of producing for sale any agricultural product whatsoever, including milk, eggs, wool, fur, meat, honey, or other substances obtained from animals, birds, or insects but only when such production and subsequent sale are exempt from tax under RCW 82.04.330, nor shall it include sales of chemical sprays or washes to persons for the purpose of post-harvest treatment of fruit for the prevention of scald, fungus, mold, or decay.

(7) The term shall not include the sale of or charge made for labor and services rendered in respect to the constructing, repairing, decorating, or improving of new or existing buildings or other structures under, upon, or above real property of or for the United States, any instrumentality thereof, or a county or city housing authority created pursuant to chapter 35.82 RCW, including the installing, or attaching of any article of tangible personal property therein or thereto, whether or not such personal property becomes a part of the realty by virtue of installation. Nor shall the term include the sale of services or charges made for the clearing of land and the moving of earth of or for the United States, any instrumentality thereof, or a county or city housing authority.

"Consumer" means the following:

(1) Any person who purchases, acquires, owns, holds, or uses any article of tangible personal property irrespective of the nature of the person's business and including, among others, without limiting the scope hereof, persons who install, repair, clean, alter, improve, construct, or decorate real or personal property of or for consumers other than for the purpose (a) of resale as tangible personal property in the regular course of business or (b) of incorporating such property as an ingredient or component of real or personal property when installing, repairing, cleaning, altering, imprinting, improving, constructing, or decorating such real or personal property of or for consumers or (c) of consuming such property in producing for sale a new article of tangible personal property or a new substance, of which such property becomes an ingredient or component or as a chemical used in processing, when the primary purpose of such chemical is to create a chemical reaction directly through contact with an ingredient of a new article being produced for sale or (d) purchases for the purpose of consuming the property purchased in producing ferrosilicon which is subsequently used in producing magnesium for sale, if the primary purpose of such property is to create a chemical reaction directly through contact with an ingredient of ferrosilicon;

(2) Any person engaged in any business activity taxable under RCW 82.04.290 and any person who purchases, acquires, or uses any telephone service as defined in RCW 82.04.065, other than for resale in the regular course of business;

(3) Any person engaged in the business of contracting for the building, repairing or improving of any street, place, road, highway, easement, right of way, mass public transportation terminal or parking facility, bridge, tunnel, or trestle which is owned by a municipal corporation or political subdivision of the state of Washington or by the United States and which is used or to be used primarily for foot or vehicular traffic including mass transportation vehicles of any kind as defined in RCW 82.04.280, in respect to tangible personal property when such person incorporates such property as an ingredient or component of such publicly owned street, place, road, highway, easement, right of way, mass public transportation terminal or parking facility, bridge, tunnel, or trestle by installing, placing or spreading the property in or upon the right of way of such street, place, road, highway, easement, bridge, tunnel, or trestle or in or upon the site of such mass public transportation terminal or parking facility;

(4) Any person who is an owner, lessee or has the right of possession to or an easement in real property which is being constructed, repaired, decorated, improved, or otherwise altered by a person engaged in business, excluding only (a) municipal corporations or political subdivisions of the state in respect to labor and services rendered to their real property which is used or held for public road purposes, and (b) the United States, instrumentalities thereof, and county and city housing authorities created pursuant to chapter 35.82 RCW in respect to labor and services rendered to their real property. Nothing contained in this or any other subsection of this definition shall be construed to modify any other definition of "consumer";

(5) Any person who is an owner, lessee, or has the right of possession to personal property which is being constructed, repaired, improved, cleaned, imprinted, or otherwise altered by a person engaged in business;

(6) Any person engaged in the business of constructing, repairing, decorating, or improving new or existing buildings or other structures under, upon, or above real property of or for the United States, any instrumentality thereof, or a county or city housing authority created pursuant to chapter 35.82 RCW, including the installing or attaching of any article of tangible personal property therein or thereto, whether or not such personal property becomes a part of the realty by virtue of installation; also, any person engaged in the business of clearing land and moving earth of or for the United States, any instrumentality thereof, or a county or city housing authority created pursuant to chapter 35.82 RCW. Any such person shall be a consumer within the meaning of this subsection in respect to tangible personal property incorporated into, installed in, or attached to such building or other structure by such person.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 82.08 RCW to read as follows:

The tax levied by RCW 82.08.020 shall not apply to lease amounts paid by a seller/lessee to a lessor after the effective date of this act under a sale/leaseback agreement in respect to property, including equipment and components, used by the seller/lessee primarily in the business of canning, preserving, freezing, or dehydrating fresh fruits, vegetables, and fish, nor to the purchase amount paid by the lessee pursuant to an option to purchase at the end of the lease term: PROVIDED, That the seller/lessee previously paid the tax imposed by this chapter or chapter 82.12 RCW at the time of acquisition of the property, including equipment and components.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 82.12 RCW to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter shall not apply with respect to lease amounts paid by a seller/lessee to a lessor after the effective date of this act under a sale/leaseback agreement in respect to property, including equipment and components, used by the seller/lessee primarily in the business of canning, preserving, freezing, or dehydrating fresh fruits, vegetables, and fish, nor to the purchase amount paid by the lessee pursuant to an option to purchase at the end of the lease term: PROVIDED, That the seller/lessee previously paid the tax imposed by this chapter or chapter 82.08 RCW at the time of acquisition of the property, including equipment and components.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the House March 11, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 11, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

CHAPTER 232

[Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3278]

HIGHER EDUCATION TUITION AND FEE WAIVER—FOREIGN STUDENTS

AN ACT Relating to institutions of higher education; amending RCW 28B.15.740; adding a new section to chapter 28B.15 RCW; and creating a new section.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature intends to permit the governing boards of the four-year institutions of higher education to waive tuition and fees for certain students of foreign nations. To the greatest extent possible, students chosen for these waivers and for the institutions' own approved study abroad programs shall reflect the range of socioeconomic and ethnic characteristics of the students' institutions and native countries.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 28B.15 RCW to read as follows:

The boards of regents of the state universities and the boards of trustees of the regional universities and The Evergreen State College may waive the tuition, operating, and services and activities fees for undergraduate or graduate students of foreign nations subject to the following limitations:

(1) No more than the equivalent of one hundred waivers may be awarded to undergraduate or graduate students of foreign nations at each of the two state universities;

(2) No more than the equivalent of twenty waivers may be awarded to undergraduate or graduate students of foreign nations at each of the regional universities and The Evergreen State College;

(3) Priority in the awarding of waivers shall be given to students on academic exchanges or academic special programs sponsored by recognized international educational organizations;

(4) An undergraduate or graduate student of a foreign nation receiving a waiver under this section is not eligible for any other.

The waiver programs under this section, to the greatest extent possible, shall promote reciprocal placements and waivers in foreign nations for Washington residents. The number of waivers awarded by each institution shall not exceed the number of that institution's own students enrolled in approved study programs abroad during the same period.

Sec. 3. Section 1, chapter 262, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as last amended by section 33, chapter 390, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28B.15.740 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The boards of trustees or regents of each of the state's regional universities, The Evergreen State College, or state universities, and the various community colleges, consistent with regulations and procedures established by the state board for community college education, may waive, in whole or in part, tuition and services and activities fees subject to the limitations set forth in subsection (2).

(2) The total dollar amount of tuition and fee waivers awarded by any state university, regional university, or state college, shall not exceed four percent, and for the community colleges considered as a whole, such amount shall not exceed three percent of an amount determined by estimating the total collections from tuition and services and activities fees had no such waivers been made and deducting the portion of that total amount which is attributable to the difference between resident and nonresident fees: PROVIDED, That at least three-fourths of the dollars waived shall be for needy students who are eligible for resident tuition and fee rates pursuant to RCW 28B.15.012 through 28B.15.015; PROVIDED FURTHER, That the remainder of the dollars waived, not to exceed one-fourth of the total, may be applied to other students at the discretion of the board of trustees or regents, except on the basis of participation in intercollegiate athletic programs; PROVIDED FURTHER, That the waivers for undergraduate and graduate students of foreign nations under section 2 of this 1986 act are not subject to the limitation under this section.

Passed the Senate March 8, 1986.

Passed the House March 5, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

CHAPTER 233

[Substitute Senate Bill No. 3419]

LAND USE-----ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW OF PRELIMINARY PLATS

AN ACT Relating to land use controls; amending RCW 58.17.140; adding a new section to chapter 58.17 RCW; and creating a new section.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 58.17 RCW to read as follows:

A county, city, or town may adopt an ordinance providing for the administrative review of a preliminary plat without a public hearing by adopting an ordinance providing for such administrative review. The ordinance may specify a threshold number of lots in a subdivision above which a public hearing must be held, and may specify other factors which necessitate the holding of a public hearing. The administrative review process shall include the following minimum conditions:

(1) The notice requirements of RCW 58.17.090 shall be followed, except that the publication shall be made within ten days of the filing of the application. Additionally, at least ten days after the filing of the application notice both shall be: (a) Posted on or around the land proposed to be subdivided in at least five conspicuous places designed to attract public awareness of the proposal; and (b) mailed to the owner of each lot or parcel of property located within at least three hundred feet of the site. The applicant shall provide the county, city, or town with a list of such property owners and their addresses. The notice shall include notification that no public hearing will be held on the application, except as provided by this section. The notice shall set out the procedures and time limitations for persons to require a public hearing and make comments.

(2) Any person shall have a period of twenty days from the date of the notice to comment upon the proposed preliminary plat. All comments received shall be provided to the applicant. The applicant has seven days from receipt of the comments to respond thereto.

(3) A public hearing on the proposed subdivision shall be held if any person files a request for a hearing with the county, city, or town within twenty-one days of the publishing of such notice. If such a hearing is requested, notice requirements for the public hearing shall be in conformance with RCW 58.17.090, and the ninety-day period for approval or disapproval of the proposed subdivision provided for in RCW 58.17.140 shall commence with the date of the filing of the request for a public hearing. Any hearing ordered under this subsection shall be conducted by the planning commission or hearings officer as required by county or city ordinance.

(4) On its own initiative within twenty-one days of the filing of the request for approval of the subdivision, the governing body, or a designated employee or official, of the county, city, or town, shall be authorized to cause a public hearing to be held on the proposed subdivision within ninety days of the filing of the request for the subdivision.

(5) If the public hearing is waived as provided in this section, the planning commission or planning agency shall complete the review of the proposed preliminary plat and transmit its recommendation to the legislative body as provided in RCW 58.17.100.

Sec. 2. Section 14, chapter 271, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 121, Laws of 1983 and RCW 58.17.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Preliminary plats of any proposed subdivision and dedication shall be approved, disapproved, or returned to the applicant for modification or correction within ninety days from date of filing thereof unless the applicant consents to an extension of such time period or the ninety day limitation is extended to include up to twenty-one days as specified under section 1(3) of this 1986 act: PROVIDED, That if an environmental impact statement is required as provided in RCW 43.21C.030, the ninety day period shall not include the time spent preparing and circulating the environmental impact statement by the local government agency. Final plats and short plats shall be approved, disapproved, or returned to the applicant within thirty days from the date of filing thereof, unless the applicant consents to an extension of such time period. A final plat meeting all requirements of this chapter shall be submitted to the legislative body of the city, town, or county for approval within three years of the date of preliminary plat approval: PROVIDED, That this three-year time period shall retroactively apply to any preliminary plat pending before a city, town, or county as of July 24, 1983, where the authority to proceed with the filing of a final plat has not lapsed under an applicable city, town, or county ordinance containing a shorter time period that was in effect when the preliminary plat was approved. An applicant who files a written request with the legislative body of the city, town, or county at least thirty days before the expiration of this three-year period shall be granted one one-year extension upon a showing that the applicant has attempted in good faith to submit the final plat within the three-year period. Nothing contained in this section shall act to prevent any city, town, or county from adopting by ordinance procedures which would allow other extensions of time that may or may not contain additional or altered conditions and requirements.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This act does not affect the provisions of RCW 82.02.020.

Passed the Senate March 8, 1986.

Passed the House March 5, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 35.02 RCW to read as follows:

The purpose of chapter 35.02 RCW is to provide a clear and uniform process for the incorporation of cities or towns operating under either Title 35 or 35A RCW. An incorporation may result in the creation of a second class city, third class city, or town operating under Title 35 RCW, or a noncharter code city operating under Title 35A RCW.

Sec. 2. Section 35.02.010, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 1, chapter 48, Laws of 1969 and RCW 35.02.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Any ~~((portion of a county))~~ contiguous area containing not less than three hundred inhabitants lying outside the limits of an incorporated city or town may become incorporated as a ~~((municipal corporation of the class to which it belongs))~~ city or town operating under Title 35 or 35A RCW as provided in this chapter: PROVIDED, That no area which lies within five air miles of the boundary of any city having a population of fifteen thousand or more ~~((and lying within the same county))~~ shall be incorporated ~~((after June 12, 1969))~~ which contains less than three thousand inhabitants.

A petition for incorporation must be signed by qualified voters resident within the limits of the proposed city or town equal in number to ~~((twenty))~~ ten percent of the votes cast at the last state general election and presented to the auditor of the county in which all, or the largest portion of, the proposed city or town is located.

Sec. 4. Section 35.02.030, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.02-.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The petition for incorporation shall ~~((contain))~~: (1) Indicate whether the proposed city or town shall be a noncharter code city operating under Title 35A RCW, or a city or town operating under Title 35 RCW; (2) indicate the form or plan of government ((under which a)) the city ((is to operate in the event it is incorporated,)) or town is to have; (3) set forth and particularly describe the proposed boundaries of the proposed city or town(;); (4) state the name of the proposed ((corporation and)) city or town; (5) state the number of inhabitants therein, as nearly as may be(;); and (6) pray that it may be incorporated. The petition shall conform to the requirements for form prescribed in RCW 35A.01.040. If the proposed city or town is located in more than one county, the petition shall be prepared in such a manner as to indicate the different counties within which the signators reside. A city or town operating under Title 35 RCW may have a mayor/council, council/manager, or commission form of government. A city operating under Title 35A RCW may have a mayor/council or council/manager plan of government. If the petition fails to specify the matters described in subsection (1) of this section, the proposal shall be to incorporate as a noncharter code city. If the petition fails to specify the matter described in subsection (2) of this section, the proposal shall be to incorporate with a mayor/council form or plan of government.

The county auditor shall within thirty days from the time of receiving said petition determine ~~((that the legal description of the area proposed to be incorporated is correct and that there is))~~ if the petition contains a sufficient number of valid signatures. ~~((Upon such determination))~~ If the proposed city or town is located in more than one county, the auditor shall immediately transmit a copy of the petition to the auditor of the other county or counties within which the proposed city or town is located. Each of these other county auditors shall certify the number of valid signatures thereon of voters residing in the county and transmit the certification to the auditor of the county with whom the petition was originally filed. This auditor shall determine if the petition contains a sufficient number of valid signatures. If the petition is certified as having sufficient valid signatures, the county auditor shall transmit said petition((s)), accompanied by the certificate of sufficiency, to the ((board of)) county ((commissioners)) legislative authority or authorities of the county or counties within which the proposed city or town is located.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 35.02 RCW to read as follows:

The county auditor who certifies the sufficiency of the petition shall notify the person or persons who submitted the petition of its sufficiency within five days of when the determination of sufficiency is made. Notice shall be by certified mail and may additionally be made by telephone. If a boundary review board or boards exists in the county or counties in which the proposed city or town is located, the petitioners shall file notice of the proposed incorporation with the boundary review board or boards.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 35.02 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The county legislative authority of the county in which the proposed city or town is located shall hold a public hearing on the proposed incorporation if no boundary review board exists in the county, or if the boundary review board does not take jurisdiction over the proposal. The public hearing shall be held within sixty days of when the county auditor notifies the legislative authority of the sufficiency of the petition if no boundary review board exists in the county, or within ninety days of when notice of the proposal is filed with the boundary review board if the boundary review board fails to take jurisdiction over the proposal. The public hearing may be continued to other days, not extending more than sixty days beyond the initial hearing date. If the boundary review board takes jurisdiction, the county legislative authority shall not hold a public hearing on the proposal.

(2) If the proposed city or town is located in more than one county, a public hearing shall be held in each of the counties by the county legislative authority or boundary review board. Joint public hearings may be held by two or more county legislative authorities, or two or more boundary review boards.

Sec. 8. Section 35.02.040, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.02-.040 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Upon receipt of a petition for incorporation together with a certificate of sufficiency by the county auditor, the board of county commissioners shall give))~~ Notice of the public hearing ((upon said petition for)) by the county legislative authority on the proposed incorporation shall be by one publication in not more than ten nor less than three days prior to the date set for said hearing in one or more newspapers of general circulation within the ((county)) area proposed to be incorporated. Said notice shall contain the time and place of said hearing.

Sec. 9. Section 35.02.070, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 3, chapter 220, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 35.02.070 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Upon final hearing on a petition for incorporation the board shall, subject to RCW 35.02.170,))~~ (1) If a county legislative authority holds a public hearing on a proposed incorporation, it shall establish and define the boundaries of the proposed city or town, being authorized to decrease but not increase the area proposed in the petition ((and)), except for adjusting the boundaries out to the right of way line of any portion of a public highway, street, or road pursuant to RCW 35.02.170. Any ((such)) decrease shall not exceed twenty percent of the area proposed((; it must also determine the number of inhabitants within the boundaries it has established)) or that portion of the area located within the county: PROVIDED, That the area shall not be so decreased that the number of inhabitants therein shall be less than required by RCW 35.02.010 as now or hereafter amended. The county legislative authority, or the boundary review board if it takes jurisdiction, shall determine the number of inhabitants within the boundaries it has established.

(2) A county legislative authority shall disapprove the proposed incorporation if, without decreasing the area proposed in the petition, it does not conform with RCW 35.02.010. A county legislative authority may not otherwise disapprove a proposed incorporation.

(3) A county legislative authority or boundary review board has jurisdiction only over that portion of a proposed city or town located within the boundaries of the county.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 35.02 RCW to read as follows:

An election shall be held in the area proposed to be incorporated to determine whether the proposed city or town shall be incorporated if the boundary review board approves or modifies and approves the proposal, or if the county legislative authority does not disapprove the proposal as provided in RCW 35.02.070. Voters at this election shall determine if the area is to be incorporated.

The initial election on the question of incorporation shall be held at the next special election date specified in RCW 29.13.020 that occurs sixty or more days after the final public hearing by the county legislative authority or authorities, or the approval or modification and approval by the boundary review board or boards. The county legislative authority or authorities shall call for this election and, if the incorporation is approved, shall call for other elections to elect the elected officials as provided in this section. If the vote in favor of the incorporation receives forty percent or less of the total vote on the question of incorporation, no new election on the question of incorporation for the area or any portion of the area proposed to be incorporated may be held for a period of three years from the date of the election in which the incorporation failed.

If the incorporation is authorized as provided by RCW 35.02.120, separate elections shall be held to nominate and elect persons to fill the various elective offices prescribed by law for the population and type of city or town, and to which it will belong. The primary election to nominate candidates for these elective positions shall be held at the next special election date, as specified in RCW 29.13.020, that occurs sixty or more days after the election on the question of incorporation. The election to fill these elective positions shall be held at the next special election date, as specified in RCW 29.13.020, that occurs thirty or more days after certification of the results of the primary election.

Each candidate((s)) for a city or town elective position((s of the class to which such proposed corporation will belong and for the type of government as named in said petition)) shall file a declaration of candidacy with the county auditor of the county in which all or the major portion of the city or town is located, not more than forty-five nor less than thirty days prior to ((said)) the primary election at which the initial elected officials are nominated. The elective positions shall be as provided in law for the type of city or town and form or plan of government specified in the petition to incorporate, and for the population of the city or town as determined by the county legislative authority or boundary review board where applicable. Any candidate may withdraw his or her declaration at any time within five days after the last day allowed for filing declaration of candidacy. ((There ~~shall be no fee charged for filing a declaration of candidacy for this incorporation election:))~~ All names of candidates to be voted upon shall be printed upon the ballot alphabetically in groups under the designation of the respective titles of offices for which they are candidates. Names of candidates printed upon the ballot need not be rotated.

Sec. 12. Section 35.02.090, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.02.090 are each amended to read as follows:

The elections on the proposed incorporation and for the nomination and election of the initial elected officials shall be conducted in accordance with the general election laws of the state, except as provided in this chapter. No person ((shall be)) is entitled to vote thereat unless he or she is a qualified elector of the county, or any of the counties in which the proposed city or town is located, and has resided within the limits of the proposed city or town for at least thirty days next preceding the date of election.

The notice of election on the question of the incorporation shall be given as provided by RCW 29.27.080 but shall further describe the boundaries of the proposed city or town, its name, and the number of inhabitants(;) ascertained by the ((board of)) county ((commissioners)) legislative authority or the boundary review board to reside ((therein)) in it.

Sec. 14. Section 35.02.110, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.02.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The ballots in the initial election on the question of incorporation shall contain the words "for incorporation" and "against incorporation" or words equivalent thereto(, and also the names of the persons to be voted for, to fill the various elective offices).

Sec. 15. Section 35.02.120, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.02.120 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((The county canvassing board of election returns shall certify the results of the election to the board of county commissioners:))~~ If the results reveal that a majority of the votes cast are for incorporation, the ~~((board by an order entered upon its minutes shall declare the city or town duly incorporated as of the class to which it may belong, naming it under the style of city (or town) of The board shall cause a certified copy of the order to be filed in the office of the secretary of state))~~ city or town shall become incorporated as provided in RCW 35.02.130. If the proposed city or town is located in more than one county, the auditors of the county or counties in which the smaller portion or portions of the proposed city or town is located shall forward a certified copy of the election results to the auditor of the county within which the major portion is located. This auditor shall add these totals to the totals in his or her county and certify the results to each of the county legislative authorities.

~~The ((incorporation shall be complete upon the filing of the order of the board of county commissioners declaring it so, in the office of the secretary of state. The county auditor shall issue certificates of election to the successful candidates on or before the twentieth day following an election and said newly elected officials shall assume office on the first Monday following the issuance of the certificate of election))~~ city or town officially shall become incorporated at a date from one hundred eighty days to three hundred sixty days after the date of the election on the question of incorporation. An interim period shall exist between the time the newly elected officials have been elected and qualified and this official date of incorporation. During this interim period, the newly elected officials are authorized to adopt ordinances and resolutions which shall become effective on or after the official date of incorporation, and to enter into contracts and agreements to facilitate the transition to becoming a city or town and to ensure a continuation of governmental services after the official date of incorporation. Tax anticipation or revenue anticipation notes or warrants may be issued during this interim period. The governing body of the new city or town may acquire needed facilities, supplies, equipment, insurance, and staff during this interim period as if the city or town were in existence. This governing body may submit ballot propositions to the voters of the city or town to authorize taxes to be collected on or after the official date of incorporation, or authorize an annexation of the city or town by a fire protection district or library district to be effective immediately upon the effective date of the incorporation as a city or town.

The boundaries of a newly incorporated city or town shall be deemed to be established for purposes of RCW 84.09.030 on the date that the results of the initial election on the question of incorporation are certified or the first day of January following the date of this election if the newly incorporated city or town does not impose property taxes in the same year that the voters approve the incorporation.

The newly elected officials shall take office immediately upon their election and qualification with limited powers during this interim period as provided in this section. They shall acquire their full powers as of the official date of incorporation and shall continue in office until their successors are elected and qualified at the next general municipal election after the official date of incorporation: PROVIDED, That if the date of the next general municipal election is less than seventy-five days after the official date of incorporation ((election)), the initially elected officials ((~~elected at the incorporation election~~)) shall hold office until their successors are elected and qualified at the general municipal election next following.

The official date of incorporation shall be on a date from one hundred eighty to three hundred sixty days after the date of the election on the question of incorporation, as specified in a resolution adopted by the governing body during this interim period. A copy of the resolution shall be filed with the county legislative authority of the county in which all or the major portion of the newly incorporated city or town is located. If the governing body fails to adopt such a resolution, the official date of incorporation shall be three hundred sixty days after the date of the election on the question of incorporation. The county legislative authority of the county in which all or the major portion of the newly incorporated city or town is located shall file a notice with the county assessor that the city or town has been authorized to be incorporated immediately after the favorable results of the election on the question of incorporation have been certified. The county legislative authority shall file a notice with the secretary of state that the city or town is incorporated as of the official date of incorporation.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 17. A new section is added to chapter 35.02 RCW to read as follows:

The ownership of all county roads located within the boundaries of a newly incorporated city or town shall revert to the city or town and become streets as of the official date of incorporation. However, any special assessments attributable to these county roads shall continue to exist and be collected as if the incorporation had not occurred. Property within the newly incorporated city or town shall continue to be subject to any indebtedness attributable to these roads and any related property tax levies.

The territory included within the newly incorporated city or town shall be removed from the road district as of the official date of incorporation. The territory included within the newly incorporated city or town shall be removed from a fire protection district or districts or library district or districts in which it was located, as of the official date of incorporation, unless the fire protection district or districts have annexed the city or town during the interim period as provided in RCW 52.04.160 through 52.04.200, or the library district or districts have annexed the city or town during the interim period as provided in RCW 27.12.260 through 27.12.290.

Sec. 18. Section 35.13.247, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 5, chapter 332, Laws of 1981 and RCW 35.13.247 are each amended to read as follows:

If a portion of a fire protection district including at least sixty percent of the assessed valuation of the real property of the district is annexed to or incorporated into a city or town, ownership of all of the assets of the district shall be vested in the city or town, upon payment in cash, properties or contracts for fire protection services to the district within one year, of a percentage of the value of said assets equal to the percentage of the value of the real property in entire district remaining outside the incorporated or annexed area. The fire protection district may elect, by a vote of a majority of the persons residing outside the annexed or incorporated area who vote on the proposition, to require the annexing or incorporating city or town to assume responsibility for the provision of fire protection, and for the operation and maintenance of the district's property, facilities, and equipment throughout the district and to pay the city or town a reasonable fee for such fire protection, operation, and maintenance.

If all of a fire protection district is included in an area that incorporates as a city or town or is annexed to a city or town, all of the assets and liabilities of the fire protection district shall be transferred to the newly incorporated city or town upon its official date of incorporation or to the city or town upon the annexation.

Sec. 19. Section 35.13.248, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 1, chapter 146, Laws of 1967 and RCW 35.13.248 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If a portion of a fire protection district including less than sixty percent of the assessed value of the real property of the district is annexed to or incorporated into a city or town, the ownership of all assets of the district shall remain in the district and the district shall pay to the city or town within one year or within such period of time as the district continues to collect taxes in such incorporated or annexed areas, in cash, properties or contracts for fire protection services, a percentage of the value of said assets equal to the percentage of the value of the real property in the entire district lying within the area so incorporated or annexed: PROVIDED, That if the area annexed or incorporated includes less than five percent of the ((area of the district is affected)) assessed value of the real property of the district, no payment shall be made to the city or town.

(2) As provided in RCW 35A.03.160, the fire protection district from which territory is removed as a result of an incorporation or annexation shall provide fire protection to the incorporated or annexed area for such period as the district continues to collect taxes levied in such annexed or incorporated area.

(3) For the purposes of this section, the word "assets" shall mean the total assets of the fire district, reduced by its liabilities, including bonded indebtedness, the same to be determined by usual and accepted accounting methods. The amount of said liability shall be determined by reference to the fire district's balance sheet, produced in the regular course of business, which is nearest in time to the certification of the annexation of fire district territory by the city or town.

Sec. 20. Section 35.02.140, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.02.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever in any territory forming a part of an incorporated city or town which is part of a road district ~~((of the county))~~, and road district regular property taxes ((have been levied but not collected)) are collectable on any property within such territory, the same shall, when collected by the county treasurer, be paid to such city or town and placed in the city or town street fund by the city or town: PROVIDED, That this section shall not apply to excess property tax levies securing general indebtedness or any special assessments due in behalf of such property.

Sec. 21. Section 35A.03.160, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.03.160 are each amended to read as follows:

At the option of the ~~((council))~~ governing body of a newly-incorporated ~~((noncharter code))~~ city or town, any fire protection district or library district serving any part of the area so incorporated shall continue to provide services to such area ~~((for the period during which such area is included within such special service district for taxing purposes under the provisions of RCW 84.09.030, without compensation from the noncharter code))~~ until the city or town receives distributions of property tax receipts from these special districts pursuant to RCW 35.02.140, or the city or town receives its own property tax receipts, whichever is earlier.

Sec. 22. Section 1, chapter 143, Laws of 1985 and RCW 35.21.763 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Counties))~~ The approval of an incorporation by the voters of a proposed city or town, and the existence of a transition period to become a city or town, shall not remove the responsibility of any county, road district, library district, or fire district, within which the area is located, to continue providing services to the area until the official date of the incorporation.

A county shall continue to provide the following services to a newly incorporated ((cities)) city or town((s)), or that portion of the county within which the newly incorporated city or town is located, at the preincorporation level as follows:

(1) Law enforcement services shall be provided for a period not to exceed sixty days from the official date of the incorporation or until the city or town is receiving or could have begun receiving sales tax distributions under RCW ~~((82.14.020(1)))~~ 82.14.030(1), whichever is the shortest time period.

(2) Road maintenance shall be for a period not to exceed sixty days from the official date of the incorporation or until any tax distribution from the road district tax levy is made to the newly incorporated city or town pursuant to RCW ~~((35A.03.151 and 35A.03.152))~~ 35.02.140, whichever is the shorter time period.

After the filing of any petition for incorporation with the county auditor, and pending its final disposition as provided for in this chapter, no other petition for incorporation which embraces any of the territory included therein shall be acted upon by the county auditor ~~((or))~~, the county legislative authority, or the boundary review board, or by any other public official or body that might otherwise be empowered to receive or act upon such a petition: PROVIDED, That any petition for incorporation may be withdrawn(~~(, or a new petition embracing other or different boundaries may be substituted therefor,)~~) by a majority of the signers thereof(~~(;)~~) at any time before such petition has been certified by the county auditor to the county legislative authority: PROVIDED FURTHER, That a new petition may be substituted therefor that embraces other or different boundaries, incorporation as a city or town operating under a different title of law, or for incorporation as a city or town operating under a different plan or form of government, by a majority of the signers of the original incorporation petition, at any time before the original petition has been certified by the county auditor to the county legislative authority, in which case the same proceedings shall be taken as in the case of an original petition. A boundary review board, county auditor, county legislative authority, or any other public official or body may act upon a petition for annexation before considering or acting upon a petition for incorporation which embraces some or all of the same territory, without regard to priority of filing.

Sec. 24. Section 1, chapter 42, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. and RCW 35-.02.160 are each amended to read as follows:

The incorporation of any territory (~~((within the boundaries of any city pursuant to the provisions of chapters 35.02 through 35.04 RCW))~~) as a city or town shall cancel, as of the effective date of such incorporation, any franchise or permit theretofore granted to any person, firm or corporation by the state of Washington, or by the governing body of such incorporated territory, authorizing or otherwise permitting the operation of any public transportation, garbage collection and/or disposal or other similar public service business or facility within the limits of the incorporated territory, but the holder of any such franchise or permit canceled pursuant to this section shall be forthwith granted by the incorporating city or town a franchise to continue such business within the incorporated territory for a term of not less than the remaining term of the original franchise or permit, or five years, whichever is the shorter period, and the incorporating city or town, by franchise, permit or public operation, shall not extend similar or competing services to the incorporated territory except upon a proper showing of the inability or refusal of such person, firm or corporation to adequately service said incorporated territory at a reasonable price: PROVIDED, That the provisions of this section shall not preclude the purchase by the incorporating city or town of said franchise, business, or facilities at an agreed or negotiated price, or from acquiring the same by condemnation upon payment of damages, including a reasonable amount for the loss of the franchise or permit. In the event that any person, firm or corporation whose franchise or permit has been canceled by the terms of this section shall suffer any measurable damages as a result of any incorporation pursuant to the provisions of chapter(~~(s)~~) 35.02 (~~((through 35.04))~~)

RCW, such person, firm or corporation shall have a right of action against any city or town causing such damages.

Sec. 25. Section 2, chapter 220, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 35.02.170 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((After September 8, 1975;))~~ Centerlines of public streets, roads or highways shall not be used to define any part of a boundary of a city or town in an incorporation or annexation proceeding. The right of way line of any public street, road or highway, or any segment thereof, may be used to define a part of a corporate boundary in an incorporation or annexation proceeding.

Sec. 26. Section 35.04.150, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.04.150 are each amended to read as follows:

After incorporation of a city or town located in more than one county, all purposes essential to the maintenance, operation, and administration of the ((corporation)) city or town whenever any action is required or may be performed by the county, county legislative authority, or any county officer or board, such action shall be performed by the respective county, county legislative authority, officer, or board of the county of that part of the ((municipality)) city or town in which the largest number of inhabitants reside as of the date of the incorporation of the proposed ((corporation)) city or town except as provided in RCW 35.04.160 as recodified by this 1986 act, and all costs incurred shall be borne proportionately by each county in that ratio which the number of inhabitants residing in that part of each county forming a part of the proposed ((corporation)) city or town bears to the total number of inhabitants residing within the whole of the ((corporation)) city or town.

In the case of evaluation, assessment, collection, apportionment, and any other allied power or duty relating to taxes in connection with the ((corporation)) city or town, the action shall be performed by the county, county legislative authority, or county officer or board of the county for that area of the ((corporation)) city or town which is located within ((his)) the respective county, and all materials, information, and other data and all moneys collected shall be submitted to the proper officer of the county of that part of the ((corporation)) city or town in which the largest number of inhabitants reside. Any power which may be or duty which shall be performed in connection therewith shall be performed by the county, county legislative authority, officer, or board receiving such as though only a ((corporation)) city or town in a single county were concerned. All moneys collected from such area constituting a part of such ((corporation)) city or town that should be paid to such ((corporation)) city or town shall be delivered to the ((corporate)) treasurer thereof, and all other materials, information, or data relating to the ((corporation)) city or town shall be submitted to the appropriate ((corporate)) city or town officials.

Any costs or expenses incurred under this section shall be borne proportionately by each county involved.

Sec. 28. Section 35.04.170, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.04.170 are each amended to read as follows:

Any ((corporation)) city or town incorporated as provided in this chapter shall, in addition to all other powers, duties and benefits of ((corporations of the same class)) a city or town of the same type or class, be authorized to purchase, acquire, lease, or administer any property, real or personal, or property rights and improvements thereon owned by the federal government on such terms and conditions as may be mutually agreed upon, when authorized to do so by the United States government, and thereafter to sell, transfer, exchange, lease, or otherwise dispose of any such property, and to execute contracts with the federal government with respect to supplying water and for other utility services.

Sec. 29. Section 35A.14.015, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 124, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 35A.14.015 are each amended to read as follows:

When the legislative body of a charter code city or noncharter code city shall determine that the best interests and general welfare of such city would be served by the annexation of unincorporated territory contiguous to such city, such legislative body may, by resolution, call for an election to be held to submit to the voters of such territory the proposal for annexation. The resolution shall, subject to RCW ((35A.03.180)) 35.02.170, describe the boundaries of the area to be annexed, state the number of voters residing therein as nearly as may be, and shall provide that said city will pay the cost of the annexation election. The resolution may require that there also be submitted to the electorate of the territory sought to be annexed a proposition that all property within the area annexed shall, upon annexation, be assessed and taxed at the same rate and on the same basis as the property of such annexing city is assessed and taxed to pay for all or any portion of the then-outstanding indebtedness of the city to which said area is annexed, which indebtedness has been approved by the voters, contracted for, or incurred prior to, or existing at, the date of annexation. Whenever such city has prepared and filed a proposed zoning regulation for the area to be annexed as provided for in RCW 35A.14.330 and 35A.14.340, the resolution initiating the election may also provide for the simultaneous adoption of the proposed zoning regulation upon approval of annexation by the electorate of the area to be annexed. A certified copy of the resolution shall be filed with the legislative authority of the county in which said territory is located. A certified copy of the resolution shall be filed with the boundary review board as provided for in chapter 36.93 RCW or the county annexation review board established by RCW 35A.14.200, unless such annexation proposal is within the provisions of RCW 35A.14.220.

Sec. 30. Section 35A.14.050, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 15, chapter 220, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 35A.14.050 are each amended to read as follows:

After consideration of the proposed annexation as provided in RCW 35A.14.200, the county annexation review board, within thirty days after the final day of hearing, shall take one of the following actions:

(1) Approval of the proposal as submitted.

(2) Subject to RCW (~~35A.03.180~~) 35.02.170, modification of the proposal by adjusting boundaries to include or exclude territory; except that any such inclusion of territory shall not increase the total area of territory proposed for annexation by an amount exceeding the original proposal by more than five percent: PROVIDED, That the county annexation review board shall not adjust boundaries to include territory not included in the original proposal without first affording to residents and property owners of the area affected by such adjustment of boundaries an opportunity to be heard as to the proposal.

(3) Disapproval of the proposal.

The written decision of the county annexation review board shall be filed with the board of county commissioners and with the legislative body of the city concerned. If the annexation proposal is modified by the county annexation review board, such modification shall be fully set forth in the written decision. If the decision of the boundary review board or the county annexation review board is favorable to the annexation proposal, or the proposal as modified by the review board, the board of county commissioners, at its next regular meeting if to be held within thirty days after receipt of the decision of the boundary review board or the county annexation review board, or at a special meeting to be held within that period, shall set a date for submission of such annexation proposal, with any modifications made by the review board, to the voters of the territory proposed to be annexed. The question shall be submitted at a general election if one is to be held within ninety days, or at a special election called for that purpose not less than forty-five days nor more than ninety days after the filing of the decision of the review board with the board of county commissioners. If the boundary review board or the county annexation review board disapproves the annexation proposal, no further action shall be taken thereon, and no proposal for annexation of the same territory, or substantially the same as determined by the board, shall be initiated or considered for twelve months thereafter.

Sec. 31. Section 35A.14.140, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 16, chapter 220, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 35A.14.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Following the hearing, if the legislative body determines to effect the annexation, they shall do so by ordinance. Subject to RCW ((35A.03.180)) 35.02.170, the ordinance may annex all or any portion of the proposed area but may not include in the annexation any property not described in the petition. Upon passage of the annexation ordinance a certified copy shall be filed with the board of county commissioners of the county in which the annexed property is located.

Sec. 32. Section 27, chapter 281, Laws of 1985 and RCW 35A.29.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as otherwise provided in RCW ((35A.03.130, 35A.04.140, 35A.05.110)) 35.02.130, 35.10.480, or 35A.08.110, the term of every code city officer elected to office in a general municipal election as provided in RCW 29.13.020 shall begin when qualified and in accordance with RCW 29.04.170: PROVIDED, That any person elected to less than a full term where the office sought is vacant or is held by an appointed incumbent shall assume office as soon as the election returns are certified and they are qualified in accordance with RCW 29.01.135, unless otherwise provided in this title: PROVIDED FURTHER, That when not otherwise provided in this title, the term of officers elected at a special election shall begin on the first Monday following the certification of the election returns.

In reaching a decision on a proposal or an alternative, the board shall consider the factors affecting such proposal, which shall include, but not be limited to the following:

(1) Population and territory; population density; land area and land uses; comprehensive use plans and zoning; per capita assessed valuation; topography, natural boundaries and drainage basins, proximity to other populated areas; the existence of prime agricultural soils and agricultural uses; the likelihood of significant growth in the area and in adjacent incorporated and unincorporated areas during the next ten years; location and most desirable future location of community facilities;

(2) Municipal services; need for municipal services; effect of ordinances, governmental codes, regulations and resolutions on existing uses; present cost and adequacy of governmental services and controls in area; prospects of governmental services from other sources; probable future needs for such services and controls; probable effect of proposal or alternative on cost and adequacy of services and controls in area and adjacent area; the effect on the finances, debt structure, and contractual obligations and rights of all affected governmental units; and

(3) The effect of the proposal or alternative on adjacent areas, on mutual economic and social interests, and on the local governmental structure of the county.

The provisions of chapter 43.21C RCW, State Environmental Policy, shall not apply to incorporation proceedings covered by chapter 35.02 (~~(RCW), Incorporation Proceedings, or 35.03~~) RCW (~~(Incorporation of First Class Cities, or 35A.03 RCW, Incorporation as a Noncharter Code City, or 35A.04 RCW, Incorporation of Intercounty Area as a Noncharter Code City)~~).

Sec. 34. Section 18, chapter 72, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 82, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 and RCW 36.94.180 are each amended to read as follows:

In the event of the annexation to a city or town of an area, or incorporation of an area, in which a county is operating a sewerage and/or water system, the property, facilities, and equipment of such sewerage and/or water system lying within the annexed or incorporated area may be transferred to the city or town if such transfer will not materially affect the operation of any of the remaining county system, subject to the assumption by the city or town of the county's obligations relating to such property, facilities, and equipment, under the procedures specified in, and pursuant to the authority contained in, chapter 35.13A RCW.

Effective January 1, 1960, every city or town, or portion thereof, which is situated within the boundaries of a fire protection district shall become automatically removed from such fire protection district, and no fire protection district shall thereafter include any city or town, or portion thereof, within its boundaries except as provided for in RCW 52.02.020, 52.04.061, 52.04.071, 52.04.081, and 52.04.101.

However, if the area which incorporates or is annexed includes all of a fire protection district, the fire protection district, for purposes of imposing regular property taxes, shall continue in existence until the first day of January in the year in which the initial property tax collections of the newly incorporated city or town will be made or until the first day of January in the year the annexing city or town will collect its property taxes imposed on the newly annexed area. The members of the city or town council or commission shall act as the board of commissioners to impose, receive, and expend these property taxes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. A new section is added to chapter 35A.03 RCW to read as follows:

Noncharter code cities shall be incorporated as provided in chapter 35.02 RCW.

CHAPTER 235

[Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3458]

AUTOMOBILE INSURANCE—REDUCTION FOR INSUREDS FIFTY-FIVE YEARS AND OVER WHO HAVE COMPLETED AN ACCIDENT PREVENTION COURSE

AN ACT Relating to automobile insurance; and adding new sections to chapter 48.19 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Any schedule of rates or rating plan for automobile liability and physical damage insurance submitted to or filed with the commissioner shall provide for an appropriate reduction in premium charges except for underinsured motorist coverage for those insureds who are fifty-five years of age and older, for a two-year period after successfully completing a motor vehicle accident prevention course meeting the criteria of the department of licensing with a minimum of eight hours, or additional hours as determined by rule of the department of licensing. This course may be conducted by a public or private agency approved by the department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. All insurance companies writing automobile liability and physical damage insurance in this state shall allow an appropriate reduction in premium charges except for underinsured motorist coverage to all eligible persons subject to section 1 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Upon successfully completing the approved course, each participant shall be issued by the course's sponsoring agency, a certificate that shall be the basis of qualification for the discount on insurance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Each participant shall take an approved course every two years to continue to be eligible for the discount on insurance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Sections 1 through 4 of this act shall be added to chapter 48.19 RCW.

Passed the Senate March 8, 1986.

Passed the House March 5, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

CHAPTER 236

[Recengrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3498]
RECREATIONAL WATER CONTACT FACILITIES

AN ACT Relating to recreational water contact facilities; adding new sections to chapter 70.90 RCW; and prescribing penalties.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes that recreational water contact activities are becoming increasingly popular. Recreational water contact facilities are expanding in number and in the variety of equipment and activities offered. The legislature, to protect the public health, safety, and welfare and promote the safe use of recreational water contact facilities finds it necessary to regulate these facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Recreational water contact facility" means an artificial water contact facility with design and operational features that provide patron recreational activity which is different from that associated with a conventional swimming pool and purposefully involves immersion of the body partially or totally in the water, including but not limited to, water slides, wave pools, and water amusement lagoons which bring water in contact with patrons.

(2) "Local health officer" means the health officer of the city, county, or city-county department or district or a representative authorized by the local health officer.

(3) "Secretary" means the secretary of social and health services.

(4) "Person" means an individual, firm, partnership, co-partnership, corporation, company, association, club, government entity, or organization of any kind.

(5) "Department" means the department of social and health services.

(6) "Board" means the state board of health.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The board shall adopt rules under the administrative procedures act, chapter 34.04 RCW, setting safety, sanitation, and water quality standards for recreational water contact facilities. The rules shall include but not be limited to requirements for design; operation; injury and illness reports; biological and chemical contamination standards; water quality monitoring; inspection; permit application and issuance; fees sufficient to cover the costs incurred by the department for the administration and enforcement of this chapter; and enforcement procedures.

(2) In adopting rules under subsection (1) of this section regarding the operation or design of a recreational water contact facility, the board shall review and consider any recommendations made by the recreational water contact facility advisory committee.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) A recreational water contact facility advisory committee is established and shall be appointed by the board which shall consist of the following members:

- (a) A representative of the board of health;
- (b) A private operator of a recreational water contact facility;
- (c) A public operator of a recreational water contact facility;
- (d) A representative from the department of social and health services;
- (e) A representative of the county health departments;
- (f) A representative from those who engage in the construction or design of recreational water contact facilities; and
- (g) A representative from those who engage in the manufacturing or design of goods or services for recreational water contact facilities.

(2) The advisory committee shall have the following powers and duties:

- (a) To assist in reviewing and drafting proposed rules regarding the design or operation of any recreational water contact facility which recommendations shall be transmitted to the board;
- (b) To provide technical assistance regarding the review of new products, equipment and procedures, and periodic program review; and
- (c) To provide recommendations upon request in the settlement of grievances.

(3) The committee may appoint subcommittees as it deems necessary.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The secretary shall enforce the rules adopted under this chapter. The secretary may develop joint plans of responsibility with any local health jurisdiction to administer this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) Local health officers may establish and collect fees sufficient to cover their costs incurred in carrying out their duties under this chapter and the rules adopted under this chapter.

(2) The department may establish and collect fees sufficient to cover its costs incurred in carrying out its duties under this chapter. The fees shall be deposited in the state general fund.

(3) A person shall not be required to submit fees at both the state and local levels.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A permit is required for any modification to or construction of any recreational water contact facility after the effective date of this act. The plans and specifications for the modification or construction shall be submitted to the applicable local authority or the department as applicable, but a person shall not be required to submit plans at both the state and local levels or apply for both a state and local permit. The plans shall be reviewed and may be approved or rejected or modifications or conditions imposed consistent with this chapter as the public health or safety may require, and a permit shall be issued or denied.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. An operating permit from the department or local health officer, as applicable, is required for each recreational water contact facility operated in this state. The permit shall be renewed annually. The permit shall be conspicuously displayed at the recreational water contact facility.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Nothing in this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter creates or forms the basis for any liability: (1) On the part of the state and local health jurisdictions, or their officers, employees, or agents, for any injury or damage resulting from the failure of the owner or operator of recreational water contact facilities to comply with this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter; or (2) by reason or in consequence of any act or omission in connection with the implementation or enforcement of this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter on the part of the state and local health jurisdictions, or by their officers, employees, or agents.

All actions of local health officers and the secretary shall be deemed an exercise of the state's police power.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Any person operating a recreational water contact facility shall report to the local health officer or the department any serious injury, communicable disease, or death occurring at or caused by the recreational water contact facility.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. County, city, or town legislative authorities and the secretary, as applicable, may establish civil penalties for a violation of this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter not to exceed five hundred dollars. Each day upon which a violation occurs constitutes a separate violation. A person violating this chapter may be enjoined from continuing the violation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) Any person aggrieved by an order or action of the department may request a hearing under the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW. Notice shall be provided by the department as required under chapter 34.04 RCW for contested cases.

(2) Any person aggrieved by an order or action of a local health officer may request a hearing which shall be held consistent with the local health jurisdiction's administrative appeals process. Notice shall be provided by the local health jurisdiction consistent with its due process requirements.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The provisions of this chapter shall not affect local health ordinances existing as of the effective date of this act which regulate water contact facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) A recreational water contact facility shall not be operated within the state unless the owner or operator has purchased insurance in an amount not less than one hundred thousand dollars against liability for bodily injury to or death of one or more persons in any one accident arising out of the use of the recreational water contact facility.

(2) The board may require a recreational water contact facility to purchase insurance in addition to the amount required in subsection (1) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The recreational water contact facility advisory committee shall be reviewed under the process provided in chapter 43.131 RCW before December 1, 1989. Unless extended by law, the committee shall be terminated on June 30, 1990, and section 4 of this act shall expire June 30, 1991.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Sections 1 through 15 of this act are added to chapter 70.90 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

FOREST LANDS—EXEMPTION FROM COMPENSATING TAX—RIGHTS OR FEE TITLE TRANSFERRED EXCLUSIVELY FOR THE PROTECTION AND CONSERVATION OF CERTAIN LANDS

AN ACT Relating to exemption from the compensating tax on forest lands for conservation purposes; amending RCW 84.33.120 and 84.33.140; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 12, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 23, chapter 204, Laws of 1984 and RCW 84.33.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In preparing the assessment rolls as of January 1, 1982, for taxes payable in 1983 and each January 1st thereafter, the assessor shall list each parcel of forest land at a value with respect to the grade and class provided in this subsection and adjusted as provided in subsection (2) of this section and shall compute the assessed value of the land by using the same assessment ratio he applies generally in computing the assessed value of other property in his county. Values for the several grades of bare forest land shall be as follows.

(2) On or before December 31, 1981, the department shall adjust, by rule under chapter 34.04 RCW, the forest land values contained in subsection (1) of this section in accordance with this subsection, and shall certify these adjusted values to the county assessor for his use in preparing the assessment rolls as of January 1, 1982. For the adjustment to be made on or before December 31, 1981, for use in the 1982 assessment year, the department shall:

(a) Divide the aggregate value of all timber harvested within the state between July 1, 1976, and June 30, 1981, by the aggregate harvest volume for the same period, as determined from the harvester excise tax returns filed with the department under RCW 82.04.291 and 84.33.071; and

(b) Divide the aggregate value of all timber harvested within the state between July 1, 1975, and June 30, 1980, by the aggregate harvest volume for the same period, as determined from the harvester excise tax returns filed with the department under RCW 82.04.291 and 84.33.071; and

(c) Adjust the forest land values contained in subsection (1) of this section by a percentage equal to one-half of the percentage change in the average values of harvested timber reflected by comparing the resultant values calculated under (a) and (b) of this subsection.

For the adjustments to be made on or before December 31, 1982, and each succeeding year thereafter, the same procedure shall be followed as described in this subsection utilizing harvester excise tax returns filed under RCW 82.04.291 and this chapter except that this adjustment shall be made to the prior year's adjusted value, and the five-year periods for calculating average harvested timber values shall be successively one year more recent.

(3) In preparing the assessment roll for 1972 and each year thereafter, the assessor shall enter as the true and fair value of each parcel of forest land the appropriate grade value certified to him by the department of revenue, and he shall compute the assessed value of such land by using the same assessment ratio he applies generally in computing the assessed value of other property in his county. In preparing the assessment roll for 1975 and each year thereafter, the assessor shall assess and value as classified forest land all forest land that is not then designated pursuant to RCW 84.33.120(4) or 84.33.130 and shall make a notation of such classification upon the assessment and tax rolls. On or before January 15 of the first year in which such notation is made, the assessor shall mail notice by certified mail to the owner that such land has been classified as forest land and is subject to the compensating tax imposed by this section. If the owner desires not to have such land assessed and valued as classified forest land, he shall give the assessor written notice thereof on or before March 31 of such year and the assessor shall remove from the assessment and tax rolls the classification notation entered pursuant to this subsection, and shall thereafter assess and value such land in the manner provided by law other than this chapter 84.33 RCW.

(4) In any year commencing with 1972, an owner of land which is assessed and valued by the assessor other than pursuant to the procedures set forth in RCW 84.33.110 and this section, and which has, in the immediately preceding year, been assessed and valued by the assessor as forest land, may appeal to the county board of equalization by filing an application with the board in the manner prescribed in subsection (2) of RCW 84.33.130. The county board shall afford the applicant an opportunity to be heard if the application so requests and shall act upon the application in the manner prescribed in subsection (3) of RCW 84.33.130.

(5) Land that has been assessed and valued as classified forest land as of any year commencing with 1975 assessment year or earlier shall continue to be so assessed and valued until removal of classification by the assessor only upon the occurrence of one of the following events:

(a) Receipt of notice from the owner to remove such land from classification as forest land;

(b) Sale or transfer to an ownership making such land exempt from ad valorem taxation;

(c) Determination by the assessor, after giving the owner written notice and an opportunity to be heard, that, because of actions taken by the owner, such land is no longer primarily devoted to and used for growing and harvesting timber;

(d) Determination that a higher and better use exists for such land than growing and harvesting timber after giving the owner written notice and an opportunity to be heard;

(e) Sale or transfer of all or a portion of such land to a new owner, unless the new owner has signed a notice of forest land classification continuance. The signed notice of continuance shall be attached to the real estate excise tax affidavit provided for in RCW 82.45.120, as now or hereafter amended. The notice of continuance shall be on a form prepared by the department of revenue. If the notice of continuance is not signed by the new owner and attached to the real estate excise tax affidavit, all compensating taxes calculated pursuant to subsection (7) of this section shall become due and payable by the seller or transferor at time of sale. The county auditor shall not accept an instrument of conveyance of classified forest land for filing or recording unless the new owner has signed the notice of continuance or the compensating tax has been paid. The seller, transferor, or new owner may appeal the new assessed valuation calculated under subsection (7) of this section to the county board of equalization. Jurisdiction is hereby conferred on the county board of equalization to hear these appeals.

The assessor shall remove classification pursuant to subsections (c) or (d) above prior to September 30 of the year prior to the assessment year for which termination of classification is to be effective. Removal of classification as forest land upon occurrence of subsection (a), (b), (d), or (e) above shall apply only to the land affected, and upon occurrence of subsection (c) shall apply only to the actual area of land no longer primarily devoted to and used for growing and harvesting timber: PROVIDED, That any remaining classified forest land meets necessary definitions of forest land pursuant to RCW 84.33.100 as now or hereafter amended.

(6) Within thirty days after such removal of classification as forest land, the assessor shall notify the owner in writing setting forth the reasons for such removal. The owner of such land shall thereupon have the right to apply for designation of such land as forest land pursuant to subsection (4) of this section or RCW 84.33.130. The seller, transferor, or owner may appeal such removal to the county board of equalization.

(7) Unless the owner successfully applies for designation of such land or unless the removal is reversed on appeal, notation of removal from classification shall immediately be made upon the assessment and tax rolls, and commencing on January 1 of the year following the year in which the assessor made such notation, such land shall be assessed on the same basis as real property is assessed generally in that county. Except as provided in subsections (5)(e) and (9) of this section and unless the assessor shall not have mailed notice of classification pursuant to subsection (3) of this section, a compensating tax shall be imposed which shall be due and payable to the county treasurer thirty days after the owner is notified of the amount of the compensating tax. As soon as possible, the assessor shall compute the amount of such compensating tax and mail notice to the owner of the amount thereof and the date on which payment is due. The amount of such compensating tax shall be equal to:

(a) The difference, if any, between the amount of tax last levied on such land as forest land and an amount equal to the new assessed valuation of such land multiplied by the dollar rate of the last levy extended against such land, multiplied by

(b) A number, in no event greater than ten, equal to the number of years, commencing with assessment year 1975, for which such land was assessed and valued as forest land.

(8) Compensating tax, together with applicable interest thereon, shall become a lien on such land which shall attach at the time such land is removed from classification as forest land and shall have priority to and shall be fully paid and satisfied before any recognizance, mortgage, judgment, debt, obligation or responsibility to or with which such land may become charged or liable. Such lien may be foreclosed upon expiration of the same period after delinquency and in the same manner provided by law for foreclosure of liens for delinquent real property taxes as provided in RCW 84.64.050. Any compensating tax unpaid on its due date shall thereupon become delinquent. From the date of delinquency until paid, interest shall be charged at the same rate applied by law to delinquent ad valorem property taxes.

(9) The compensating tax specified in subsection (7) of this section shall not be imposed if the removal of classification as forest land pursuant to subsection (5) of this section resulted solely from:

(a) Transfer to a government entity in exchange for other forest land located within the state of Washington;

(b) A taking through the exercise of the power of eminent domain, or sale or transfer to an entity having the power of eminent domain in anticipation of the exercise of such power;

(c) Sale or transfer of land within two years after the death of the owner of at least a fifty percent interest in such land;

(d) A donation of development rights, or the right to harvest timber, to a government agency or organization qualified under RCW 84.34.210 and 64.04.130 for the purposes enumerated in those sections or the sale or transfer of fee title to a governmental entity or nonprofit nature conservancy corporation, as defined in RCW 64.04.130, exclusively for the protection and conservation of lands recommended for state natural area preserve purposes by the natural heritage council and natural heritage plan as defined in chapter 79.70 RCW: PROVIDED, That at such time as the land is not used for the purposes enumerated, the compensating tax specified in subsection (7) of this section shall be imposed upon the current owner.

(10) With respect to any land that has been designated prior to May 6, 1974, pursuant to RCW 84.33.120(4) or 84.33.130, the assessor may, prior to January 1, 1975, on his own motion or pursuant to petition by the owner, change, without imposition of the compensating tax provided under RCW 84.33.140, the status of such designated land to classified forest land.

Sec. 2. Section 14, chapter 294, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 9, chapter 148, Laws of 1981 and RCW 84.33.140 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When land has been designated as forest land pursuant to RCW 84.33.120(4) or 84.33.130, a notation of such designation shall be made each year upon the assessment and tax rolls, a copy of the notice of approval together with the legal description or assessor's tax lot numbers for such land shall, at the expense of the applicant, be filed by the assessor in the same manner as deeds are recorded, and such land shall be graded and valued pursuant to RCW 84.33.110 and 84.33.120 until removal of such designation by the assessor upon occurrence of any of the following:

(a) Receipt of notice from the owner to remove such designation;

(b) Sale or transfer to an ownership making such land exempt from ad valorem taxation;

(c) Sale or transfer of all or a portion of such land to a new owner, unless the new owner has signed a notice of forest land designation continuance. The signed notice of continuance shall be attached to the real estate excise tax affidavit provided for in RCW 82.45.120, as now or hereafter amended. The notice of continuance shall be on a form prepared by the department of revenue. If the notice of continuance is not signed by the new owner and attached to the real estate excise tax affidavit, all compensating taxes calculated pursuant to subsection (3) of this section shall become due and payable by the seller or transferor at time of sale. The county auditor shall not accept an instrument of conveyance of designated forest land for filing or recording unless the new owner has signed the notice of continuance or the compensating tax has been paid. The seller, transferor, or new owner may appeal the new assessed valuation calculated under subsection (3) of this section to the county board of equalization. Jurisdiction is hereby conferred on the county board of equalization to hear these appeals;

(d) Determination by the assessor, after giving the owner written notice and an opportunity to be heard, that (i) such land is no longer primarily devoted to and used for growing and harvesting timber, (ii) such owner has failed to comply with a final administrative or judicial order with respect to a violation of the restocking, forest management, fire protection, insect and disease control and forest debris provisions of Title 76 RCW or any applicable regulations thereunder, or (iii) restocking has not occurred to the extent or within the time specified in the application for designation of such land.

Removal of designation upon occurrence of any of subsections (a) through (c) above shall apply only to the land affected, and upon occurrence of subsection (d) shall apply only to the actual area of land no longer primarily devoted to and used for growing and harvesting timber, without regard to other land that may have been included in the same application and approval for designation: PROVIDED, That any remaining designated forest land meets necessary definitions of forest land pursuant to RCW 84.33.100 as now or hereafter amended.

(2) Within thirty days after such removal of designation of forest land, the assessor shall notify the owner in writing, setting forth the reasons for such removal. The seller, transferor, or owner may appeal such removal to the county board of equalization.

(3) Unless the removal is reversed on appeal a copy of the notice of removal with notation of the action, if any, upon appeal, together with the legal description or assessor's tax lot numbers for the land removed from designation shall, at the expense of the applicant, be filed by the assessor in the same manner as deeds are recorded, and commencing on January 1 of the year following the year in which the assessor mailed such notice, such land shall be assessed on the same basis as real property is assessed generally in that county. Except as provided in subsection (5) of this section, a compensating tax shall be imposed which shall be due and payable to the county treasurer thirty days after the owner is notified of the amount of the compensating tax. As soon as possible, the assessor shall compute the amount of such compensating tax and mail notice to the owner of the amount thereof and the date on which payment is due. The amount of such compensating tax shall be equal to:

(a) The difference between the amount of tax last levied on such land as forest land and an amount equal to the new assessed valuation of such land multiplied by the dollar rate of the last levy extended against such land, multiplied by

(b) A number, in no event greater than ten, equal to the number of years for which such land was designated as forest land.

(4) Compensating tax, together with applicable interest thereon, shall become a lien on such land which shall attach at the time such land is removed from designation as forest land and shall have priority to and shall be fully paid and satisfied before any recognizance, mortgage, judgment, debt, obligation or responsibility to or with which such land may become charged or liable. Such lien may be foreclosed upon expiration of the same period after delinquency and in the same manner provided by law for foreclosure of liens for delinquent real property taxes as provided in RCW 84.64.050. Any compensating tax unpaid on its due date shall thereupon become delinquent. From the date of delinquency until paid, interest shall be charged at the same rate applied by law to delinquent ad valorem property taxes.

(5) The compensating tax specified in subsection (3) of this section shall not be imposed if the removal of designation pursuant to subsection (1) of this section resulted solely from:

(a) Transfer to a government entity in exchange for other forest land located within the state of Washington;

(b) A taking through the exercise of the power of eminent domain, or sale or transfer to an entity having the power of eminent domain in anticipation of the exercise of such power;

(c) Sale or transfer of land within two years after the death of the owner of at least a fifty percent interest in such land;

(d) A donation of development rights, or the right to harvest timber, to a government agency or organization qualified under RCW 84.34.210 and 64.04.130 for the purposes enumerated in those sections or the sale or transfer of fee title to a governmental entity or nonprofit nature conservancy corporation, as defined in RCW 64.04.130, exclusively for the protection and conservation of lands recommended for state natural area preserve purposes by the natural heritage council and natural heritage plan as defined in chapter 79.70 RCW: PROVIDED, That at such time as the land is not used for the purposes enumerated, the compensating tax specified in subsection (3) of this section shall be imposed upon the current owner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 239

[Senate Bill No. 4470]

INITIATIVES TO THE LEGISLATURE—USE OF PUBLIC FACILITIES TO INFLUENCE PROHIBITED

AN ACT Relating to the use of public facilities to influence initiatives to the legislature; and amending RCW 42.17.190.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 19, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as last amended by section 1, chapter 265, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 42.17.190 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every legislator and every committee of the legislature shall file with the commission quarterly reports listing the names, addresses, and salaries of all persons employed by the person or committee making the filing for the purpose of aiding in the preparation or enactment of legislation or the performance of legislative duties of such legislator or committee during the preceding quarter. The reports shall be made in the form and the manner prescribed by the commission and shall be filed between the first and tenth days of each calendar quarter: PROVIDED, That the information required by this subsection may be supplied, insofar as it is available, by the chief clerk of the house of representatives or by the secretary of the senate on a form prepared by the commission.

(2) Unless authorized by subsection (3) of this section or otherwise expressly authorized by law, no public funds may be used directly or indirectly for lobbying: PROVIDED, This does not prevent officers or employees of an agency from communicating with a member of the legislature on the request of that member; or communicating to the legislature, through the proper official channels, requests for legislative action or appropriations which are deemed necessary for the efficient conduct of the public business or actually made in the proper performance of their official duties: PROVIDED FURTHER, That this subsection does not apply to the legislative branch.

(3) Any agency, not otherwise expressly authorized by law, may expend public funds for lobbying, but such lobbying activity shall be limited to (a) providing information or communicating on matters pertaining to official agency business to any elected official or officer or employee of any agency or (b) advocating the official position or interests of the agency to any elected official or officer or employee of any agency: PROVIDED, That public funds may not be expended as a direct or indirect gift or campaign contribution to any elected official or officer or employee of any agency. For the purposes of this subsection, the term "gift" means a voluntary transfer of any thing of value without consideration of equal or greater value, but does not include informational material transferred for the sole purpose of informing the recipient about matters pertaining to official agency business: PROVIDED FURTHER, That this section does not permit the printing of a state publication which has been otherwise prohibited by law.

(4) No elective official or any employee of his or her office or any person appointed to or employed by any public office or agency may use or authorize the use of any of the facilities of a public office or agency, directly or indirectly, in any effort to support or oppose an initiative to the legislature. "Facilities of a public office or agency" has the same meaning as in RCW 42.17.130. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to the following activities:

(a) Action taken at an open public meeting by members of an elected legislative body to express a collective decision, or to actually vote upon a motion, proposal, resolution, order, or ordinance, or to support or oppose an initiative to the legislature so long as (i) any required notice of the meeting includes the title and number of the initiative to the legislature, and (ii) members of the legislative body or members of the public are afforded an approximately equal opportunity for the expression of an opposing view;

(b) A statement by an elected official in support of or in opposition to any initiative to the legislature at an open press conference or in response to a specific inquiry;

(c) Activities which are part of the normal and regular conduct of the office or agency.

(5) Each state agency, county, city, town, municipal corporation, quasi-municipal corporation, or special purpose district which expends public funds for lobbying shall file with the commission, except as exempted by ~~((subsection (4)))~~ (d) of this ~~((section))~~ subsection, quarterly statements providing the following information for the quarter just completed:

(a) The name of the agency filing the statement;

(b) The name, title, and job description and salary of each elected official, officer, or employee who lobbied, a general description of the nature of the lobbying, and the proportionate amount of time spent on the lobbying;

(c) A listing of expenditures incurred by the agency for lobbying including but not limited to travel, consultant or other special contractual services, and brochures and other publications, the principal purpose of which is to influence legislation;

(d) For purposes of this subsection ~~((4) of this section))~~ the term "lobbying" does not include:

(i) Requests for appropriations by a state agency to the office of financial management pursuant to chapter 43.88 RCW nor requests by the office of financial management to the legislature for appropriations other than its own agency budget requests;

(ii) Recommendations or reports to the legislature in response to a legislative request expressly requesting or directing a specific study, recommendation, or report by an agency on a particular subject;

(iii) Official reports including recommendations submitted to the legislature on an annual or biennial basis by a state agency as required by law;

(iv) Requests, recommendations, or other communication between or within state agencies or between or within local agencies;

(v) Any other lobbying to the extent that it includes:

(A) Telephone conversations or preparation of written correspondence;

(B) In-person lobbying on behalf of an agency of no more than four days or parts thereof during any three-month period by officers or employees of that agency and in-person lobbying by any elected official of such agency on behalf of such agency or in connection with the powers, duties, or compensation of such official: PROVIDED, That the total expenditures of nonpublic funds made in connection with such lobbying for or on behalf of any one or more members of the legislature or state elected officials or public officers or employees of the state of Washington do not exceed fifteen dollars for any three-month period: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the exemption under this subsection is in addition to the exemption provided in (A) of this subsection;

(C) Preparation or adoption of policy positions.

The statements shall be in the form and the manner prescribed by the commission and shall be filed within one month after the end of the quarter covered by the report.

~~((5))~~ (6) In lieu of reporting under subsection ~~((4))~~ (5) of this section any county, city, town, municipal corporation, quasi municipal corporation, or special purpose district may determine and so notify the public disclosure commission, that elected officials, officers, or employees who on behalf of any such local agency engage in lobbying reportable under subsection ~~((4))~~ (5) of this section shall register and report such reportable lobbying in the same manner as a lobbyist who is required to register and report under RCW 42.17.150 and 42.17.170. Each such local agency shall report as a lobbyist employer pursuant to RCW 42.17.180.

~~((6))~~ (7) The provisions of this section do not relieve any elected official or officer or employee of an agency from complying with other provisions of this chapter, if such elected official, officer, or employee is not otherwise exempted.

~~((7))~~ (8) The purpose of this section is to require each state agency and certain local agencies to report the identities of those persons who lobby on behalf of the agency for compensation, together with certain separately identifiable and measurable expenditures of an agency's funds for that purpose. This section shall be reasonably construed to accomplish that purpose and not to require any agency to report any of its general overhead cost or any other costs which relate only indirectly or incidentally to lobbying or which are equally attributable to or inseparable from nonlobbying activities of the agency.

The public disclosure commission may adopt ~~((regulations))~~ rules clarifying and implementing this legislative interpretation and policy.

CHAPTER 240

[Substitute Senate Bill No. 4491]

NOT FOR PROFIT CORPORATIONS

AN ACT Relating to not for profit or nonprofit corporations; amending RCW 24.03.005, 24.03.015, 24.03.020, 24.03.030, 24.03.035, 24.03.045, 24.03.047, 24.03.048, 24.03.050, 24.03.055, 24.03.060, 24.03.065, 24.03.070, 24.03.075, 24.03.100, 24.03.105, 24.03.110, 24.03.115, 24.03.120, 24.03.125, 24.03.135, 24.03.150, 24.03.155, 24.03.165, 24.03.180, 24.03.183, 24.03.185, 24.03.190, 24.03.195, 24.03.200, 24.03.205, 24.03.207, 24.03.215, 24.03.220, 24.03.265, 24.03.295, 24.03.300, 24.03.302, 24.03.305, 24.03.320, 24.03.325, 24.03.330, 24.03.345, 24.03.350, 24.03.360, 24.03.380, 24.03.385, 24.03.390, 24.03.395, 24.03.400, 24.03.405, and 24.03.445; adding new sections to chapter 24.03 RCW; and repealing RCW 24.03.355.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 72, chapter 35, Laws of 1982 and RCW 24.03.005 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, the term:

(1) "Corporation" or "domestic corporation" means a corporation not for profit subject to the provisions of this chapter, except a foreign corporation.

(2) "Foreign corporation" means a corporation not for profit organized under laws other than the laws of this state.

(3) "Not for profit corporation" or "nonprofit corporation" means a corporation no part of the income of which is distributable to its members, directors or officers.

(4) "Articles of incorporation" (~~((includes))~~) and "articles" mean the original articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto, and includes articles of merger and restated articles.

(5) "Bylaws" means the code or codes of rules adopted for the regulation or management of the affairs of the corporation irrespective of the name or names by which such rules are designated.

(6) "Member" means (~~((one))~~) an individual or entity having membership rights in a corporation in accordance with the provisions of its articles or incorporation or bylaws.

(7) "Board of directors" means the group of persons vested with the management of the affairs of the corporation irrespective of the name by which such group is designated in the articles or bylaws.

(8) "Insolvent" means inability of a corporation to pay debts as they become due in the usual course of its affairs.

(9) "Duplicate originals" means two copies, original or otherwise, each with original signatures, or one original with original signatures and one copy thereof.

(10) "Conforms to law" as used in connection with duties of the secretary of state in reviewing documents for filing under this chapter, means the secretary of state has determined that the document complies as to form with the applicable requirements of this chapter.

(11) "Effective date" means, in connection with a document filing made by the secretary of state, the date which is shown by affixing a "filed" stamp on the documents. When a document is received for filing by the secretary of state in a form which complies with the requirements of this chapter and which would entitle the document to be filed immediately upon receipt, but the secretary of state's approval action occurs subsequent to the date of receipt, the secretary of state's filing date shall relate back to the date on which the secretary of state first received the document in acceptable form. An applicant may request a specific effective date no more than thirty days later than the receipt date which might otherwise be applied as the effective date.

(12) "Executed by an officer of the corporation," or words of similar import, means that any document signed by such person shall be and is signed by that person under penalties of perjury and in an official and authorized capacity on behalf of the corporation or person making the document submission with the secretary of state.

(13) "An officer of the corporation" means, in connection with the execution of documents submitted for filing with the secretary of state, the president, a vice president, the secretary, or the treasurer of the corporation.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 22, chapter 106, Laws of 1983 and RCW 24.03.015 are each amended to read as follows:

Corporations may be organized under this chapter for any lawful purpose or purposes, including, without being limited to, any one or more of the following purposes: Charitable; benevolent; eleemosynary; educational; civic; patriotic; political; religious; social; fraternal; literary; cultural; athletic; scientific; agricultural; horticultural; animal husbandry; and professional, commercial, industrial or trade association; but labor unions, cooperative organizations, and organizations subject to any of the provisions of the banking or insurance laws of this state may not be organized under this chapter: PROVIDED, That any not for profit corporation heretofore organized under any act hereby repealed and existing for the purpose of providing health care services as defined in RCW 48.44.010(1) or 48.46.020(1), as now or hereafter amended, shall continue to be organized under this chapter.

Sec. 3. Section 5, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 74, chapter 35, Laws of 1982 and RCW 24.03.020 are each amended to read as follows:

One or more persons ((may incorporate a corporation by signing and delivering articles of incorporation in duplicate to the secretary of state)) of the age of eighteen years or more, or a domestic or foreign, profit or non-profit, corporation, may act as incorporator or incorporators of a corporation by signing and delivering to the secretary of state articles of incorporation for such corporation.

Sec. 4. Section 7, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 and RCW 24.03.030 are each amended to read as follows:

A corporation subject to this chapter:

(1) Shall not have or issue shares of stock((-No dividend shall be paid and no part of the income of a corporation shall be distributed));

(2) Shall not make any disbursement of income to its members, directors or officers((-A corporation));

(3) Shall not loan money or credit to its officers or directors;

(4) May pay compensation in a reasonable amount to its members, directors or officers for services rendered((;));

(5) May confer benefits upon its members in conformity with its purposes((;)); and

(6) Upon dissolution or final liquidation may make distributions to its members as permitted by this chapter, and no such payment, benefit or distribution shall be deemed to be a dividend or a distribution of income.

Sec. 5. Section 8, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 and RCW 24.03.035 are each amended to read as follows:

Each corporation shall have power:

(1) To have perpetual succession by its corporate name unless a limited period of duration is stated in its articles of incorporation.

(2) To sue and be sued, complain and defend, in its corporate name.

(3) To have a corporate seal which may be altered at pleasure, and to use the same by causing it, or a facsimile thereof, to be impressed or affixed or in any other manner reproduced.

(4) To purchase, take, receive, lease, take by gift, devise or bequest, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, improve, use and otherwise deal in and with real or personal property, or any interest therein, wherever situated.

(5) To sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, lease, exchange, transfer and otherwise dispose of all or any part of its property and assets.

(6) To lend money or credit to its employees other than its officers and directors.

(7) To purchase, take, receive, subscribe for, or otherwise acquire, own, hold, vote, use, employ, sell, mortgage, lend, pledge, or otherwise dispose of, and otherwise use and deal in and with, shares or other interests in, or obligations of, other domestic or foreign corporations, whether for profit or not for profit, associations, partnerships or individuals, or direct or indirect obligations of the United States, or of any other government, state, territory, governmental district or municipality or of any instrumentality thereof.

(8) To make contracts and incur liabilities, borrow money at such rates of interest as the corporation may determine, issue its notes, bonds, and other obligations, and secure any of its obligations by mortgage or pledge of all or any of its property, franchises and income.

(9) To lend money for its corporate purposes, invest and reinvest its funds, and take and hold real and personal property as security for the payment of funds so loaned or invested.

(10) To conduct its affairs, carry on its operations, and have offices and exercise the powers granted by this chapter in any state, territory, district, or possession of the United States, or in any foreign country.

(11) To elect or appoint officers and agents of the corporation, and define their duties and fix their compensation.

(12) To make and alter bylaws, not inconsistent with its articles of incorporation or with the laws of this state, for the administration and regulation of the affairs of the corporation.

(13) Unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation, to make donations for the public welfare or for charitable, scientific or educational purposes; and in time of war to make donations in aid of war activities.

(14) To indemnify any director or officer or former director or officer ~~((of the corporation, or any person who may have served at its request as a director or officer of another corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, against expenses actually and necessarily incurred by him in connection with the defense of any action, suit or proceeding in which he is made a party by reason of being or having been such director or officer, except in relation to matters as to which he shall be adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of duty; but such indemnification shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which such director or officer may be entitled, under any bylaw, agreement, vote of board of directors or members, or otherwise:~~

((+5))) or other person in the manner and to the extent provided in RCW 23A.08.025, as now existing or hereafter amended.

(15) To make guarantees respecting the contracts, securities, or obligations of any person (including, but not limited to, any member, any affiliated or unaffiliated individual, domestic or foreign, profit or not for profit, corporation, partnership, association, joint venture or trust) if such guarantee may reasonably be expected to benefit, directly or indirectly, the guarantor corporation. As to the enforceability of the guarantee, the decision of the board of directors that the guarantee may be reasonably expected to benefit, directly or indirectly, the guarantor corporation shall be binding in respect to the issue of benefit to the guarantor corporation.

(16) To pay pensions and establish pension plans, pension trusts, and other benefit plans for any or all of its directors, officers, and employees.

(17) To be a promoter, partner, member, associate or manager of any partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise.

(18) To be a trustee of a charitable trust, to administer a charitable trust and to act as executor in relation to any charitable bequest or devise to the corporation. This subsection shall not be construed as conferring authority to engage in the general business of trusts nor in the business of trust banking.

(19) To cease its corporate activities and surrender its corporate franchise.

((+6))) (20) To have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect any or all of the purposes for which the corporation is organized.

Sec. 6. Section 10, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 76, chapter 35, Laws of 1982 and RCW 24.03.045 are each amended to read as follows:

The corporate name:

(1) Shall not contain any word or phrase which indicates or implies that it is organized for any purpose other than one or more of the purposes contained in its articles of incorporation.

(2) Shall not be the same as, or deceptively similar to, the name of any corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, existing under any act of this state, or any foreign corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, authorized to transact business or conduct affairs in this state, or a limited partnership existing under chapter 25.10 RCW, or a corporate name reserved or registered as permitted by the laws of this state. This subsection shall not apply if the applicant files with the secretary of state either of the following: (a) The written consent of the other corporation, partnership, or holder of a reserved name to use the same or deceptively similar name and one or more words are added or deleted to make the name distinguishable from the other name as determined by the secretary of state, or (b) a certified copy of a final decree of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the prior right of the applicant to the use of the name in this state.

(3) Shall be transliterated into letters of the English alphabet, if it is not in English.

(4) Shall not include or end with "incorporated," "company," ((or)) "corporation," "partnership," "limited partnership," or "Ltd.," or any abbreviation thereof, but may use "club," "league," "association," "services," "committee," "fund," "society," "foundation," "....., a nonprofit corporation," or any name of like import.

Sec. 7. Section 78, chapter 35, Laws of 1982 and RCW 24.03.047 are each amended to read as follows:

Any corporation, organized and existing under the laws of any state or territory of the United States may register its corporate name under this title, provided its corporate name is not the same as, or deceptively similar to, the name of any domestic corporation existing under the laws of this state, or the name of any foreign corporation authorized to transact business in this state, or any corporate name reserved or registered under this title.

Such registration shall be made by:

(1) Filing with the secretary of state: (a) An application for registration executed by the corporation by an officer thereof, setting forth the name of the corporation, the state or territory under the laws of which it is incorporated, the date of its incorporation, a statement that it is carrying on or doing business, and a brief statement of the business in which it is engaged, and (b) a certificate setting forth that such corporation is in good standing under the laws of the state or territory wherein it is organized, executed by the secretary of state of such state or territory or by such other official as may have custody of the records pertaining to corporations, and

(2) Paying to the secretary of state ((a)) the applicable registration fee ~~((in the amount of one dollar for each month, or fraction thereof, between~~

~~the date of filing the application and December thirty-first of the calendar year in which the application is filed)).~~

The registration shall be effective until the close of the calendar year in which the application for registration is filed.

Sec. 8. Section 79, chapter 35, Laws of 1982 and RCW 24.03.048 are each amended to read as follows:

A corporation which has in effect a registration of its corporate name, may renew such registration from year to year by annually filing an application for renewal setting forth the facts required to be set forth in an original application for registration and a certificate of good standing as required for the original registration and by paying ((π)) the applicable fee ((of ten dollars)). A renewal application may be filed between the first day of October and the thirty-first day of December in each year, and shall extend the registration for the following calendar year.

Each corporation shall have and continuously maintain in this state:

(1) A registered office which may be, but need not be, the same as its principal office. The registered office shall be at a specific geographic location in this state, and be identified by number, if any, and street, or building address or rural route, or, if a commonly known street or rural route address does not exist, by legal description. A registered office may not be identified by post office box number or other nongeographic address. For purposes of communicating by mail, the secretary of state may permit the use of a post office address in conjunction with the registered office address if the corporation also maintains on file the specific geographic address of the registered office where personal service of process may be made.

(2) A registered agent, which agent may be either an individual resident in this state whose business office is identical with such registered office, or a domestic corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, or a foreign corporation, whether for profit or not for profit, authorized to transact business or conduct affairs in this state, having an office identical with such registered office. ~~((The registered agent and registered office shall be designated by duly adopted resolution of the board of directors; and a statement of such designation, executed by an officer of the corporation, together with a copy of the board of directors' designating resolution, shall be filed with the secretary of state.))~~ A registered agent shall not be appointed without having given prior written consent to the appointment. The written consent shall be filed with the secretary of state in such form as the secretary may prescribe. The written consent shall be filed with or as a part of the document first appointing a registered agent. In the event any individual or corporation has been appointed agent without consent, that person or corporation may file a notarized statement attesting to that fact, and the name shall forthwith be removed from the records of the secretary of state.

No Washington corporation or foreign corporation authorized to ~~((transact business))~~ conduct affairs in this state may be permitted to maintain any action in any court in this state until the corporation complies with the requirements of this section.

Sec. 10. Section 12, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 81, chapter 35, Laws of 1982 and RCW 24.03.055 are each amended to read as follows:

A corporation may change its registered office or change its registered agent, or both, upon filing in the office of the secretary of state in the form prescribed by the secretary of state a statement setting forth:

(1) The name of the corporation.

(2) If the address of its registered office is to be changed, the address to which the registered office is to be changed ~~((including street and number))~~.

(3) If its registered agent is to be changed, the name of its successor registered agent.

(4) That the address of its registered office and the address of the office of its registered agent, as changed, will be identical.

(5) That such change was authorized by resolution duly adopted by its board of directors.

Such statement shall be executed by the corporation by an officer of the corporation, and delivered to the secretary of state, together with a written consent of the registered agent to his or its appointment, if applicable. If the secretary of state finds that such statement conforms to the provisions of this chapter, the secretary of state shall ~~((file such statement, and upon such filing, the change of address of the registered office, or the appointment of a new registered agent, or both, as the case may be, shall become effective))~~ endorse thereon the word "Filed," and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof, and file the statement. The change of address of the registered office, or the appointment of a new registered agent, or both, as the case may be, shall become effective upon filing unless a later date is specified.

Any registered agent of a corporation may resign as such agent upon filing a written notice thereof, executed in duplicate, with the secretary of state, who shall forthwith mail a copy thereof to the corporation in care of an officer, who is not the resigning registered agent, at the address of such officer as shown by the most recent annual report of the corporation. The appointment of such agent shall terminate upon the expiration of thirty days after receipt of such notice by the secretary of state.

If a registered agent changes the agent's business address to another place within the state, the agent may change such address and the address of the registered office of any corporation of which the agent is a registered agent, by filing a statement as required by this section except that it need be signed only by the registered agent, it need not be responsive to subsection (3) or (5) of this section, and it must recite that a copy of the statement has been mailed to the secretary of the corporation.

Sec. 11. Section 13, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 82, chapter 35, Laws of 1982 and RCW 24.03.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The registered agent so appointed by a corporation shall be an agent of such corporation upon whom any process, notice or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon the corporation may be served.

Whenever a corporation shall fail to appoint or maintain a registered agent in this state, or whenever its registered agent cannot with reasonable diligence be found at the registered office, then the secretary of state shall be an agent of such corporation upon whom any such process, notice, or demand may be served. Service on the secretary of state of any such process, notice, or demand shall be made by delivering to and leaving with the secretary of state, or with any duly authorized clerk of the corporation department of the secretary of state's office, duplicate copies of such process, notice or demand. In the event any such process, notice or demand is served on the secretary of state, the secretary of state shall immediately cause one of the copies thereof to be forwarded by certified mail, addressed to the secretary of the corporation ((at its registered office)) as shown on the records of the secretary of state. Any service so had on the secretary of state shall be returnable in not less than thirty days.

The secretary of state shall keep a record of all processes, notices and demands served upon the secretary of state under this section, and shall record therein the time of such service and the secretary of state's action with reference thereto.

Nothing herein contained shall limit or affect the right to serve any process, notice or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon a corporation in any other manner now or hereafter permitted by law.

Sec. 12. Section 14, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 and RCW 24.03.065 are each amended to read as follows:

A corporation may have one or more classes of members or may have no members. If the corporation has one or more classes of members, the designation of such class or classes, the manner of election or appointment and the qualifications and rights of the members of each class shall be set forth in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. Unless otherwise specified in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws, an individual, domestic or foreign profit or nonprofit corporation, a general or limited partnership, an association or other entity may be a member of a corporation. If the corporation has no members, that fact shall be set forth in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. A corporation may issue certificates evidencing membership therein.

Sec. 13. Section 15, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 and RCW 24.03.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The initial bylaws of a corporation shall be adopted by its board of directors. The power to alter, amend or repeal the bylaws or adopt new bylaws shall be vested in the board of directors unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. The bylaws may contain any provisions for the regulation and management of the affairs of a corporation not inconsistent with law or the articles of incorporation. The board may adopt emergency bylaws in the manner provided by RCW 23A.08.240.

Sec. 14. Section 16, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 and RCW 24.03.075 are each amended to read as follows:

Meetings of members may be held at such place, either within or without this state, as may be ~~((provided in))~~ stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. In the absence of any such provision, all meetings shall be held at the registered office of the corporation in this state.

An annual meeting of the members shall be held at such time as may be ~~((provided))~~ stated in or fixed in accordance with the bylaws. Failure to hold the annual meeting at the designated time shall not work a forfeiture or dissolution of the corporation.

Special meetings of the members may be called by the president or by the board of directors. Special meetings of the members may also be called by such other officers or persons or number or proportion of members as may be provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. In the absence of a provision fixing the number or proportion of members entitled to call a meeting, a special meeting of members may be called by members having one-twentieth of the votes entitled to be cast at such meeting.

Except as may be otherwise restricted by the articles of incorporation or the bylaws, members of the corporation may participate in a meeting of members by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time and participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting.

Sec. 15. Section 21, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 and RCW 24.03.100 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((The number of directors of a corporation shall be not less than three. Subject to such limitation, the number of directors shall be fixed by the bylaws, except as to the number of the first board of directors which number shall be fixed by the articles of incorporation. The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by amendment to the bylaws, unless the articles of incorporation provide that a change in the number of directors shall be made only by amendment of the articles of incorporation. No decrease in number shall have the effect of shortening the term of any~~

~~incumbent director. In the absence of a bylaw fixing the number of directors, the number shall be the same as that stated in the articles of incorporation.~~

~~The directors constituting the first board of directors shall be named in the articles of incorporation and shall hold office until the first annual election of directors or for such other period as may be specified in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. Thereafter, directors shall be elected or appointed in the manner and for the terms provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. In the absence of a provision fixing the term of office, the term of office of a director shall be one year.~~

~~Directors may be divided into classes and the terms of office of the several classes need not be uniform. Each director shall hold office for the term for which he is elected or appointed and until his successor shall have been elected or appointed and qualified.~~

~~A director may be removed from office pursuant to any procedure therefor provided in the articles of incorporation.))~~

The board of directors of a corporation shall consist of one or more individuals. The number of directors shall be fixed by or in the manner provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws, except as to the number constituting the initial board of directors, which number shall be fixed by the articles of incorporation. The number of directors may be increased or decreased from time to time by amendment to or in the manner provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws, but a decrease shall not have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent director. In the absence of a bylaw providing for the number of directors, the number shall be the same as that provided for in the articles of incorporation. The names and addresses of the members of the first board of directors shall be stated in the articles of incorporation. Such persons shall hold office until the first annual election of directors or for such other period as may be specified in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. Thereafter, directors shall be elected or appointed in the manner and for the terms provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. Directors may be divided into classes and the terms of office and manner of election or appointment need not be uniform. Each director shall hold office for the term for which the director is elected or appointed and until the director's successor shall have been selected and qualified.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A new section is added to chapter 24.03 RCW to read as follows:

The bylaws or articles of incorporation may contain a procedure for removal of directors. If the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide for the election of any director or directors by members, then in the absence of any provision regarding removal of directors:

(1) Any director elected by members may be removed, with or without cause, by two-thirds of the votes cast by members having voting rights with regard to the election of any director, represented in person or by proxy at a meeting of members at which a quorum is present;

(2) In the case of a corporation having cumulative voting, if less than the entire board is to be removed, no one of the directors may be removed if the votes cast against that director's removal would be sufficient to elect that director if then cumulatively voted at an election of the entire board of directors, or, if there be classes of directors, at an election of the class of directors of which he or she is a part; and

(3) Whenever the members of any class are entitled to elect one or more directors by the provisions of the articles of incorporation, the provisions of this section shall apply, in respect to the removal of a director or directors so elected, to the vote of the members of that class and not to the vote of the members as a whole.

Sec. 17. Section 22, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 and RCW 24.03.105 are each amended to read as follows:

Any vacancy occurring in the board of directors and any directorship to be filled by reason of an increase in the number of directors may be filled by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining board of directors even though less than a quorum is present unless the articles of incorporation or the bylaws provide that a vacancy or directorship so created shall be filled in some other manner, in which case such provision shall control. A director elected or appointed, as the case may be, to fill a vacancy shall be elected or appointed for the unexpired term of his predecessor in office.

Sec. 18. Section 23, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 and RCW 24.03.110 are each amended to read as follows:

A majority of the number of directors fixed by, or in the manner provided in the bylaws, or in the absence of a bylaw fixing or providing for the number of directors, then of the number ((stated)) fixed by or in the manner provided in the articles of incorporation, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws; but in no event shall a quorum consist of less than one-third of the number of directors so fixed or stated. The act of the majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the board of directors, unless the act of a greater number is required by this chapter, the articles of incorporation or the bylaws.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. A new section is added to chapter 24.03 RCW to read as follows:

A director of a corporation who is present at a meeting of its board of directors at which action on any corporate matter is taken shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless the director's dissent or abstention shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless the director shall file his or her written dissent or abstention to such action with the person acting as the secretary of the meeting before the adjournment thereof or shall forward such dissent or abstention by registered mail to the secretary of the corporation immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent or abstain shall not apply to a director who voted in favor of such action.

Sec. 20. Section 24, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 and RCW 24.03.115 are each amended to read as follows:

If the articles of incorporation or the bylaws so provide, the board of directors, by resolution adopted by a majority of the directors in office, may designate and appoint one or more committees each of which shall consist of two or more directors, which committees, to the extent provided in such resolution, in the articles of incorporation or in the bylaws of the corporation, shall have and exercise the authority of the board of directors in the management of the corporation: PROVIDED, That no such committee shall have the authority of the board of directors in reference to amending, altering or repealing the bylaws; electing, appointing or removing any member of any such committee or any director or officer of the corporation; amending the articles of incorporation; adopting a plan of merger or adopting a plan of consolidation with another corporation; authorizing the sale, lease, or exchange ((or mortgage)) of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the corporation not in the ordinary course of business; authorizing the voluntary dissolution of the corporation or revoking proceedings therefor; adopting a plan for the distribution of the assets of the corporation; or amending, altering or repealing any resolution of the board of directors which by its terms provides that it shall not be amended, altered or repealed by such committee. The designation and appointment of any such committee and the delegation thereto of authority shall not operate to relieve the board of directors, or any individual director of any responsibility imposed upon it or him by law.

Sec. 21. Section 25, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 and RCW 24.03.120 are each amended to read as follows:

~~Meetings of the board of directors, regular or special, may be held either within or without this state((, and upon such notice as the bylaws may prescribe. Attendance of a director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting except where a director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting)).~~

Regular meetings of the board of directors or of any committee designated by the board of directors may be held with or without notice as prescribed in the bylaws. Special meeting of the board of directors or any committee designated by the board of directors shall be held upon such notice as is prescribed in the bylaws. Attendance of a director or a committee member at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a director or a committee member attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened. Neither the business to be transacted at, nor the purpose of, any regular or special meeting of the board of directors or any committee designated by the board of directors need be specified in the notice or waiver of notice of such meeting unless required by the bylaws.

Except as may be otherwise restricted by the articles of incorporation or bylaws, members of the board of directors or any committee designated by the board of directors may participate in a meeting of such board or committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time and participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting.

Sec. 22. Section 26, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 and RCW 24.03.125 are each amended to read as follows:

The officers of a corporation shall consist of a president, one or more vice presidents, a secretary, and a treasurer (~~((and such other officers and assistant officers as may be deemed necessary))~~), each of whom shall be elected or appointed at such time and in such manner and for such terms (~~((not exceeding three years))~~) as may be prescribed in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws. In the absence of any such provision, all officers shall be elected or appointed annually by the board of directors. If the articles or bylaws so provide, any two or more offices may be held by the same person, except the offices of president and secretary. Such other officers and assistant officers or agents as may be deemed necessary may be elected or appointed by the board of directors or chosen in such other manner as may be prescribed by the articles or bylaws.

The articles of incorporation or the bylaws may provide that any one or more officers of the corporation shall be ex officio members of the board of directors.

The officers of a corporation may be designated by such additional titles as may be provided in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. A new section is added to chapter 24.03 RCW to read as follows:

A director shall perform the duties of a director, including the duties as a member of any committee of the board upon which the director may serve, in good faith, in a manner such director believes to be in the best interests of the corporation, and with such care, including reasonable inquiry, as an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances.

In performing the duties of a director, a director shall be entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, in each case prepared or presented by:

(1) One or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the director believes to be reliable and competent in the matter presented;

(2) Counsel, public accountants, or other persons as to matters which the director believes to be within such person's professional or expert competence; or

(3) A committee of the board upon which the director does not serve, duly designated in accordance with a provision in the articles of incorporation or bylaws, as to matters within its designated authority, which committee the director believes to merit confidence; so long as, in any such case, the director acts in good faith, after reasonable inquiry when the need therefor is indicated by the circumstances and without knowledge that would cause such reliance to be unwarranted.

Sec. 24. Section 28, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 and RCW 24.03.135 are each amended to read as follows:

Each corporation shall keep ((correct and complete books and records of account and shall keep minutes of the proceedings of its members, board of directors and committees having any of the authority of the board of directors; and shall keep at its registered office or principal office in this state a record of the names and addresses of its members entitled to vote. All books and records of a corporation may be inspected by any member, or his agent or attorney, for any proper purpose at any reasonable time:)) at its registered office, its principal office in this state, or at its secretary's office if in this state, the following:

(1) Current articles and bylaws;

(2) A record of members, including names, addresses, and classes of membership, if any;

(3) Correct and adequate records of accounts and finances;

(4) A record of officers' and directors' names and addresses;

(5) Minutes of the proceedings of the members, if any, the board, and any minutes which may be maintained by committees of the board. Records may be written, or electronic if capable of being converted to writing.

The records shall be open at any reasonable time to inspection by any member of more than three months standing or a representative of more than five percent of the membership.

Cost of inspecting or copying shall be borne by such member except for costs for copies of articles or bylaws. Any such member must have a purpose for inspection reasonably related to membership interests. Use or sale of members' lists by such member if obtained by inspection is prohibited.

The superior court of the corporation's or such member's residence may order inspection and may appoint independent inspectors. Such member shall pay inspection costs unless the court orders otherwise.

Sec. 25. Section 31, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 84, chapter 35, Laws of 1982 and RCW 24.03.150 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the filing of the articles of incorporation, the corporate existence shall begin, and the certificate of incorporation shall be conclusive evidence that all conditions precedent required to be performed by the incorporators have been complied with and that the corporation has been incorporated under this chapter, except as against the state in a proceeding to cancel or revoke the certificate of incorporation or for involuntary or administrative dissolution.

Sec. 26. Section 32, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 and RCW 24.03.155 are each amended to read as follows:

After the issuance of the certificate of incorporation an organization meeting of the board of directors named in the articles of incorporation shall be held, either within or without this state, at the call of a majority of the ~~((incorporators))~~ directors named in the articles of incorporation, for the purpose of adopting bylaws, electing officers and the transaction of such other business as may come before the meeting. The ~~((incorporators))~~ directors calling the meeting shall give at least three days' notice thereof by mail to each director so named, which notice shall state the time and place of the meeting. Any action permitted to be taken at the organization meeting of the directors may be taken without a meeting if each director signs an instrument stating the action so taken.

~~((A first meeting of the members may be held at the call of the directors, or a majority of them, upon at least three days' notice, for such purposes as shall be stated in the notice of the meeting.))~~

Sec. 27. Section 34, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 and RCW 24.03.165 are each amended to read as follows:

Amendments to the articles of incorporation shall be made in the following manner:

(1) Where there are members having voting rights, with regard to the question, the board of directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth the proposed amendment and directing that it be submitted to a vote at a meeting of members having voting rights, which may be either an annual or a special meeting. Written or printed notice setting forth the proposed amendment or a summary of the changes to be effected thereby shall be given to each member entitled to vote at such meeting within the time and in the manner provided in this chapter for the giving of notice of meetings of members. The proposed amendment shall be adopted upon receiving at least two-thirds of the votes which members present at such meeting or represented by proxy are entitled to cast.

(2) Where there are no members, or no members having voting rights, with regard to the question, an amendment shall be adopted at a meeting of the board of directors upon receiving the vote of a majority of the directors in office.

Any number of amendments may be submitted and voted upon at any one meeting.

Sec. 28. Section 37, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 87, chapter 35, Laws of 1982 and RCW 24.03.180 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the filing of the articles of amendment by the secretary of state, or on such later date, not more than thirty days subsequent to the filing thereof by the secretary of state, as may be provided in the articles of amendment, the amendment shall become effective and the articles of incorporation shall be deemed to be amended accordingly.

No amendment shall affect any existing cause of action in favor of or against such corporation, or any pending action to which such corporation shall be a party, or the existing rights of persons other than members; and, in the event the corporate name shall be changed by amendment, no action brought by or against such corporation under its former name shall abate for that reason.

Sec. 29. Section 88, chapter 35, Laws of 1982 and RCW 24.03.183 are each amended to read as follows:

A domestic corporation may at any time restate its articles of incorporation ((as theretofore amended;)) by a resolution adopted by the board of directors. A corporation may amend and restate in one resolution, but may not present the amendments and restatement for filing by the secretary in a single document. Separate articles of amendment, under RCW 24.03.165 and articles of restatement, under this section, must be presented notwithstanding the corporation's adoption of a single resolution of amendment and restatement.

Upon the adoption of the resolution, restated articles of incorporation shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by one of its officers ((and)). The restated articles shall set forth all of the operative provisions of the articles of incorporation ((as theretofore amended)) together with a statement that the restated articles of incorporation correctly set forth without change the ((corresponding)) provisions of the articles of incorporation as ((theretofore)) amended and that the restated articles of incorporation supersede the original articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto.

Duplicate originals of the restated articles of incorporation shall be delivered to the secretary of state. If the secretary of state finds that the restated articles of incorporation conform to law, the secretary of state shall, when all fees required by this title have been paid:

- (1) Endorse on each duplicate original the word "Filed" and the ((effective)) date of the filing thereof;
- (2) File one duplicate original; and

(3) Issue a restated certificate of incorporation, to which the other duplicate original shall be affixed.

The restated certificate of incorporation, together with the duplicate original of the restated articles of incorporation affixed thereto by the secretary of state, shall be returned to the corporation or its representative.

Upon the filing of the restated articles of incorporation by the secretary of state, the restated articles of incorporation shall become effective and shall supersede the original articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto.

Sec. 30. Section 38, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 and RCW 24.03.185 are each amended to read as follows:

Any two or more domestic corporations subject to this chapter may merge into one of such corporations pursuant to a plan of merger approved in the manner provided in this chapter.

Each corporation shall adopt a plan of merger setting forth:

(1) The names of the corporations proposing to merge, and the name of the corporation into which they propose to merge, which is hereinafter designated as the surviving corporation.

(2) The terms and conditions of the proposed merger.

(3) A statement of any changes in the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation to be effected by such merger.

(4) Such other provisions with respect to the proposed merger as are deemed necessary or desirable.

Sec. 31. Section 39, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 and RCW 24.03.190 are each amended to read as follows:

Any two or more domestic corporations subject to this chapter may consolidate into a new corporation pursuant to a plan of consolidation approved in the manner provided in this chapter.

Each corporation shall adopt a plan of consolidation setting forth:

(1) The names of the corporations proposing to consolidate, and the name of the new corporation into which they propose to consolidate, which is hereinafter designated as the new corporation.

(2) The terms and conditions of the proposed consolidation.

(3) With respect to the new corporation, all of the statements required to be set forth in articles of incorporation for corporations organized under this chapter.

(4) Such other provisions with respect to the proposed consolidation as are deemed necessary or desirable.

Sec. 32. Section 40, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 and RCW 24.03.195 are each amended to read as follows:

A plan of merger or consolidation shall be adopted in the following manner:

(1) Where the members of any merging or consolidating corporation have voting rights with regard to the question, the board of directors of such corporation shall adopt a resolution approving the proposed plan and directing that it be submitted to a vote at a meeting of members having voting rights, which may be either an annual or a special meeting. Written or printed notice setting forth the proposed plan or a summary thereof shall be given to each member entitled to vote at such meeting within the time and in the manner provided in this chapter for the giving of notice of meetings of members. The proposed plan shall be adopted upon receiving at least two-thirds of the votes which members present at each such meeting or represented by proxy are entitled to cast.

(2) Where any merging or consolidating corporation has no members, or no members having voting rights with regard to the question, a plan of merger or consolidation shall be adopted at a meeting of the board of directors of such corporation upon receiving the vote of a majority of the directors in office.

After such approval, and at any time prior to the filing of the articles of merger or consolidation, the merger or consolidation may be abandoned pursuant to provisions therefor, if any, set forth in the plan of merger or consolidation.

Sec. 33. Section 41, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 89, chapter 35, Laws of 1982 and RCW 24.03.200 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon such approval, articles of merger or articles of consolidation shall be executed in duplicate by each corporation by an officer of each corporation, and shall set forth:

(a) The plan of merger or the plan of consolidation;

(b) Where the members of any merging or consolidating corporation have voting rights, then as to each such corporation (i) a statement setting forth the date of the meeting of members at which the plan was adopted, that a quorum was present at such meeting, and that such plan received at least two-thirds of the votes which members present at such meeting or represented by proxy were entitled to cast, or (ii) a statement that such amendment was adopted by a consent in writing signed by all members entitled to vote with respect thereto;

(c) Where any merging or consolidating corporation has no members, or no members having voting rights, then as to each such corporation a statement of such fact, the date of the meeting of the board of directors at which the plan was adopted and a statement of the fact that such plan received the vote of a majority of the directors in office.

(2) Duplicate originals of the articles of merger or articles of consolidation shall be delivered to the secretary of state. If the secretary of state finds that such articles conform to law, the secretary of state shall, when all fees have been paid as in this chapter prescribed:

(a) Endorse on each of such duplicate originals the word "Filed," and the ~~((effective))~~ date of the filing thereof;

(b) File one of such duplicate originals; and

(c) Issue a certificate of merger or a certificate of consolidation to which the other duplicate original shall be affixed.

The certificate of merger or certificate of consolidation, together with the duplicate original of the articles of merger or articles of consolidation affixed thereto by the secretary of state, shall be returned to the surviving or new corporation, as the case may be, or its representative.

Sec. 34. Section 42, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 90, chapter 35, Laws of 1982 and RCW 24.03.205 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Upon the filing of the articles of merger, or the articles of consolidation by the secretary of state, the merger or consolidation shall be effected:))~~

A merger or consolidation shall become effective upon the filing of the articles of merger or articles of consolidation with the secretary of state, or on such later date, not more than thirty days after the filing thereof with the secretary of state, as shall be provided for in the plan.

Sec. 35. Section 91, chapter 35, Laws of 1982 and RCW 24.03.207 are each amended to read as follows:

One or more foreign corporations and one or more domestic corporations may be merged or consolidated ~~((or participate in an exchange))~~ in the following manner, if such merger~~((;))~~ or consolidation~~((; or exchange))~~ is permitted by the laws of the state under which each such foreign corporation is organized:

(1) Each domestic corporation shall comply with the provisions of this title with respect to the merger~~((;))~~ or consolidation~~((; or exchange;))~~ as the case may be, of domestic corporations and each foreign corporation shall comply with the applicable provisions of the laws of the state under which it is organized.

(2) If the surviving or new corporation in a merger or consolidation is to be governed by the laws of any state other than this state, it shall comply with the provisions of this title with respect to foreign corporations if it is to transact business in this state, and in every case it shall file with the secretary of state of this state:

(a) An agreement that it may be served with process in this state in any proceeding for the enforcement of any obligation of any domestic corporation which is a party to the merger or consolidation and in any proceeding for the enforcement of the rights, if any, of a ~~((dissenting shareholder))~~ member of any such domestic corporation against the surviving or new corporation; and

(b) An irrevocable appointment of the secretary of state of this state as its agent to accept service of process in any such proceeding~~((; and~~

(c) ~~An agreement that it will promptly pay to the dissenting shareholders of any such domestic corporation the amount, if any, to which they shall be entitled under the provisions of this title with respect to the rights of dissenting shareholders).~~

The effect of the merger or consolidation shall be the same as in the case of the merger or consolidation of domestic corporations, if the surviving or new corporation is to be governed by the laws of this state. If the surviving or new corporation is to be governed by the laws of any state other than this state, the effect of the merger or consolidation shall be the same as in the case of the merger or consolidation of domestic corporations except as the laws of the other state provide otherwise.

(3) At any time prior to the effective date of the articles of merger(;) or consolidation, (~~or exchange;~~) the merger(;) or consolidation(~~or exchange;~~) may be abandoned pursuant to provision therefor, if any, set forth in the plan of merger(;) or consolidation (~~or exchange~~). In the event the merger(;) or consolidation(~~or exchange~~) is abandoned, the parties thereto shall execute a notice of abandonment in triplicate signed by an officer for each corporation signing the notice. If the secretary of state finds the notice conforms to law, the secretary of state shall:

(a) Endorse on each of the originals the word "Filed" and the (~~effective~~) date of the filing;

(b) File one of the triplicate originals in the secretary of state's office; and

(c) Issue the other triplicate originals to the respective parties or their representatives.

Sec. 36. Section 44, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 and RCW 24.03.215 are each amended to read as follows:

A sale, lease, exchange, (~~mortgage, pledge~~) or other disposition of all, or substantially all, the property and assets of a corporation, if not in the ordinary course of business, may be made upon such terms and conditions and for such consideration, which may consist in whole or in part of money or property, real or personal, including shares of any corporation for profit, domestic or foreign, as may be authorized in the following manner:

(1) Where there are members having voting rights with regard to the question, the board of directors shall adopt a resolution recommending such sale, lease, exchange, (~~mortgage, pledge~~) or other disposition and directing that it be submitted to a vote at a meeting of members having voting rights, which may be either an annual or a special meeting. Written or printed notice stating that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of such meeting is to consider the sale, lease, exchange, (~~mortgage, pledge~~) or other disposition of all, or substantially all, the property and assets of the corporation shall be given to each member entitled to vote at such meeting, within the time and in the manner provided by this chapter for the giving of notice of meetings of members. At such meeting the members may authorize such sale, lease, exchange, (~~mortgage, pledge~~) or other disposition and may fix, or may authorize the board of directors to fix, any or all of the terms and conditions thereof and the consideration to be received by the corporation therefor. Such authorization shall require at least two-thirds of the votes which members present at such meeting or represented by proxy are entitled to cast. After such authorization by a vote of members, the board of directors, nevertheless, in its discretion, may abandon such sale, lease, exchange, (~~mortgage, pledge~~) or other disposition of assets, subject to the rights of third parties under any contracts relating thereto, without further action or approval by members.

(2) Where there are no members, or no members having voting rights with regard to the question, a sale, lease, exchange, (~~mortgage, pledge~~) or other disposition of all, or substantially all, the property and assets of a corporation shall be authorized upon receiving the vote of a majority of the directors in office.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. A new section is added to chapter 24.03 RCW to read as follows:

The sale, lease, exchange or other disposition of all, or substantially all, the property and assets of a corporation in the usual and regular course of its business and the mortgage or pledge of any or all property and assets of a corporation whether or not in the usual course of business may be made upon such terms and conditions and for such consideration, which may consist in whole or in part of money or property, real or personal, including shares, obligations, or other securities of any other corporation, domestic or foreign, as shall be authorized by its board of directors. In any such case, no other authorization or consent of any member shall be required.

Sec. 38. Section 45, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 92, chapter 35, Laws of 1982 and RCW 24.03.220 are each amended to read as follows:

A corporation may dissolve and wind up its affairs in the following manner:

(1) Where there are members having voting rights with regard to the question, the board of directors shall adopt a resolution recommending that the corporation be dissolved, and directing that the question of such dissolution be submitted to a vote at a meeting of members having such voting rights, which may be either an annual or a special meeting. Written or printed notice stating that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of such meeting is to consider the advisability of dissolving the corporation, shall be given to each member entitled to vote at such meeting, within the time and in the manner provided in this chapter for the giving of notice of meetings of members. A resolution to dissolve the corporation shall be adopted upon receiving at least two-thirds of the votes which members present at such meeting or represented by proxy are entitled to cast.

(2) Where there are no members, or no members having voting rights with regard to the question, the dissolution of the corporation shall be authorized at a meeting of the board of directors upon the adoption of a resolution to dissolve by the vote of a majority of the directors in office.

Upon the adoption of such resolution by the members, or by the board of directors where there are no members or no members having voting rights, the corporation shall cease to conduct its affairs except in so far as may be necessary for the winding up thereof, shall immediately cause a notice of the proposed dissolution to be mailed to each known creditor of the corporation, to the attorney general with respect to assets subject to RCW 24.03.225(3), and to the department of revenue, and shall proceed to collect its assets and apply and distribute them as provided in this chapter.

Sec. 39. Section 54, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 and RCW 24.03.265 are each amended to read as follows:

Superior courts shall have full power to liquidate the assets and affairs of a corporation:

(1) In an action by a member ((or)), director, or the attorney general when it is made to appear:

(a) That the directors are deadlocked in the management of the corporate affairs and that irreparable injury to the corporation is being suffered or is threatened by reason thereof, and either that the members are unable to break the deadlock or there are no members having voting rights; or

(b) That the acts of the directors or those in control of the corporation are illegal, oppressive or fraudulent; or

(c) That the corporate assets are being misapplied or wasted; or

(d) That the corporation is unable to carry out its purposes.

(2) In an action by a creditor:

(a) When the claim of the creditor has been reduced to judgment and an execution thereon has been returned unsatisfied and it is established that the corporation is insolvent; or

(b) When the corporation has admitted in writing that the claim of the creditor is due and owing and it is established that the corporation is insolvent.

(3) Upon application by a corporation to have its dissolution continued under the supervision of the court.

(4) When an action has been filed by the attorney general to dissolve a corporation under the provisions of this chapter and it is established that liquidation of its affairs should precede the entry of a decree of dissolution.

Proceedings under subsections (1), (2), or (3) of this section shall be brought in the county in which the registered office or the principal office of the corporation is situated.

It shall not be necessary to make directors or members parties to any such action or proceedings unless relief is sought against them personally.

Sec. 40. Section 60, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 and RCW 24.03.295 are each amended to read as follows:

In case the court shall enter a decree dissolving a corporation, it shall be the duty of the clerk of such court to cause a certified copy of the decree to be filed with the secretary of state. No fee shall be charged by the clerk for issuance or by the secretary of state for the filing thereof.

Sec. 41. Section 61, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 96, chapter 35, Laws of 1982 and RCW 24.03.300 are each amended to read as follows:

The dissolution of a corporation either (1) by the filing and issuance of a certificate of dissolution, voluntary or (~~involuntary~~) administrative, by the secretary of state, or (2) by a decree of court when the court has not liquidated the assets and affairs of the corporation as provided in this chapter, or (3) by expiration of its period of duration, shall not take away or impair any remedy available to or against such corporation, its directors, officers, or members, for any right or claim existing, or any liability incurred, prior to such dissolution if action or other proceeding thereon is commenced within two years after the date of such dissolution. Any such action or proceeding by or against the corporation may be prosecuted or defended by the corporation in its corporate name. The members, directors and officers shall have power to take such corporate or other action as shall be appropriate to protect such remedy, right or claim. If such corporation was dissolved by the expiration of its period of duration, such corporation may amend its articles of incorporation at any time during such period of two years after expiration so as to extend its period of duration. If, during the period of dissolution, another person or corporation has reserved or adopted a corporate name which is identical to or deceptively similar to the dissolved corporation's name, the corporation extending its period of duration shall be required to adopt another name consistent with the requirements of this chapter and to amend its articles of incorporation accordingly. The corporation shall also pay to the state all fees and penalties which would otherwise have been due if the corporate charter had not expired, plus a reinstatement fee (~~of twenty-five dollars~~) as provided in this chapter.

Sec. 42. Section 9, chapter 163, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 97, chapter 35, Laws of 1982 and RCW 24.03.302 are each amended to read as follows:

A corporation shall be administratively dissolved by the secretary of state upon the conditions prescribed in this section when the corporation:

- (1) Has failed to file or complete its annual report within the time required by law; or
- (2) Has failed for thirty days to appoint or maintain a registered agent in this state; or

(3) Has failed for thirty days, after change of its registered agent or registered office, to file in the office of the secretary of state a statement of such change.

A corporation shall not be dissolved under this section unless the secretary of state has given the corporation not less than forty-five days' notice of its delinquency or omission, by first class mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the registered office, or, if there is no registered office, to the last known address of any officer or director as shown by the records of the secretary of state, and unless the corporation has failed to correct the omission or delinquency before expiration of the forty-five day period.

When a corporation has given cause for dissolution under this section, and has failed to correct the delinquency or omission as provided in this section, the secretary of the state shall dissolve the corporation by issuing a certificate of ((involuntary)) administrative dissolution containing a statement that the corporation has been dissolved and the date and reason for which it was dissolved. The original certificate of ((involuntary)) administrative dissolution shall be filed in the records of the secretary of state, and a copy of the certificate shall forthwith be mailed to the corporation at its registered office or, if there is no registered office, to the last known address of the corporation or any officer, director, or incorporator of the corporation, as shown by the records of the secretary of state. Upon the filing of the certificate of ((involuntary)) administrative dissolution, the existence of the corporation shall cease, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, and its name shall be available to and may be adopted by another corporation after the dissolution.

Any notice provided by the secretary of state under this section shall be designed to clearly identify and warn the recipient of the contents thereof. A delinquency notice shall provide a succinct and readable description of the delinquency or omission, the date on which dissolution will occur, and the action necessary to cure the delinquency or omission prior to dissolution.

A corporation which has been dissolved by operation of this section may be reinstated within a period of three years following its dissolution if it shall file or complete its annual report or if it shall appoint or maintain a registered agent, or if it shall file with the secretary of state a required statement of change of registered agent or registered office and in addition, if it shall pay a reinstatement fee of twenty-five dollars plus any other fees that may be due and owing the secretary of state. If, during the period of dissolution, another person or corporation has reserved or adopted a corporate name which is identical to or deceptively similar to the dissolved corporation's name, the dissolved corporation seeking reinstatement shall be required to adopt another name consistent with the requirements of this chapter and to amend its articles of incorporation accordingly. When a corporation has been dissolved by operation of this section, remedies available to or against it shall survive in the manner provided in RCW 24.03.300 and the directors of the corporation shall hold the title to the property of the corporation as trustees for the benefit of its creditors and members.

Sec. 43. Section 62, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 and RCW 24.03.305 are each amended to read as follows:

No foreign corporation shall have the right to conduct affairs in this state until it shall have procured a certificate of authority so to do from the secretary of state. No foreign corporation shall be entitled to procure a certificate of authority under this chapter to conduct in this state any affairs which a corporation organized under this chapter is not permitted to conduct. A foreign corporation shall not be denied a certificate of authority by reason of the fact that the laws of the state or country under which such corporation is organized governing its organization and internal affairs differ from the laws of this state, and nothing in this chapter contained shall be construed to authorize this state to regulate the organization or the internal affairs of such corporation.

Without excluding other activities which may not constitute conducting affairs in this state, a foreign corporation shall not be considered to be conducting affairs in this state, for the purposes of this chapter, by reason of carrying on in this state any one or more of the following activities:

(1) Maintaining or defending any action or suit or any administrative or arbitration proceeding, or effecting the settlement thereof or the settlement of claims or disputes.

(2) Holding meetings of its directors or members or carrying on other activities concerning its internal affairs.

(3) Maintaining bank accounts.

(4) Creating evidences of debt, mortgages or liens on real or personal property.

(5) Securing or collecting debts due to it or enforcing any rights in property securing the same.

(6) Effecting sales through independent contractors.

(7) Soliciting or procuring orders, whether by mail or through employees or agents or otherwise, where such orders require acceptance without this state before becoming binding contracts.

(8) Creating as borrower or lender, or acquiring, indebtedness or mortgages or other security interests in real or personal property.

(9) Securing or collecting debts or enforcing any rights in property securing the same.

(10) Transacting any business in interstate commerce.

(11) Conducting an isolated transaction completed within a period of thirty days and not in the course of a number of repeated transactions of like nature.

Sec. 44. Section 65, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 and RCW 24.03.320 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever a foreign corporation which is authorized to conduct affairs in this state shall change its name to one under which a certificate of authority would not be granted to it on application therefor, the certificate of authority of such corporation shall be suspended and it shall not thereafter conduct any affairs in this state until it has changed its name to a name which is available to it under the laws of this state or has otherwise complied with the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 45. Section 66, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 and RCW 24.03.325 are each amended to read as follows:

A foreign corporation, in order to procure a certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this state, shall make application therefor to the secretary of state, which application shall set forth:

(1) The name of the corporation and the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated.

(2) If the name of the corporation contains the word "corporation," "company," "incorporated," or "limited," or contains an abbreviation of one of such words, then the name of the corporation which it elects for use in this state.

(3) The date of incorporation and the period of duration of the corporation.

~~((3))~~ (4) The address of the principal office of the corporation ~~((in the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated)).~~

~~((4))~~ ~~The address of the proposed registered office of the corporation in this state, and the name of its proposed registered agent in this state at such address.)~~

(5) A statement that a registered agent has been appointed and the name and address of such agent, and that a registered office exists and the address of such registered office is identical to that of the registered agent.

(6) The purpose or purposes of the corporation which it proposes to pursue in conducting its affairs in this state.

~~((6))~~ (7) The names and respective addresses of the directors and officers of the corporation.

~~((7))~~ (8) Such additional information as may be necessary or appropriate in order to enable the secretary of state to determine whether such corporation is entitled to a certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this state.

The application shall be made in the form prescribed by the secretary of state and shall be executed in duplicate by the corporation by one of its officers.

The application shall be accompanied by a certificate of good standing which has been issued no more than sixty days before the date of filing of the application for a certificate of authority to do business in this state and has been certified to by the proper officer of the state or country under the laws of which the corporation is incorporated.

Duplicate originals of the application of the corporation for a certificate of authority shall be delivered to the secretary of state (~~(together with a certificate of good standing which has been issued within the previous sixty days and certified to by the proper officer of the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated)~~).

If the secretary of state finds that such application conforms to law, the secretary of state shall, when all fees have been paid as in this chapter prescribed:

(1) Endorse on each of such documents the word "Filed," and the ~~((effective))~~ date of the filing thereof.

(2) File one of such duplicate originals of the application and the copy of the articles of incorporation and amendments thereto.

(3) Issue a certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this state to which the other duplicate original application shall be affixed.

The certificate of authority, together with the duplicate original of the application affixed thereto by the secretary of state, shall be returned to the corporation or its representative.

Sec. 47. Section 70, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 102, chapter 35, Laws of 1982 and RCW 24.03.345 are each amended to read as follows:

A foreign corporation authorized to conduct affairs in this state may change its registered office or change its registered agent, or both, upon filing in the office of the secretary of state in a form approved by the secretary of state a statement setting forth:

(1) The name of the corporation.

(2) If the address of its registered office is to be changed, the address to which the registered office is to be changed.

(3) If its registered agent is to be changed, the name of its successor registered agent.

(4) That the address of its registered office and the address of the office of its registered agent, as changed, will be identical.

(5) That such change was authorized by resolution duly adopted by its board of directors.

Such statement shall be executed by the corporation by an officer of the corporation, and delivered to the secretary of state, together with a written consent of the registered agent to his or its appointment, if applicable. If the secretary of state finds that such statement conforms to the provisions of this chapter, the secretary of state shall ~~((file such statement, and upon such filing the change of address of the registered office, or the appointment of a new registered agent, or both, as the case may be, shall become effective))~~ endorse thereon the word "Filed," and the month, day, and year of the filing thereof, and file the statement. The change of address of the registered office, or the appointment of a new registered agent, or both, as the case may be, shall become effective upon filing unless a later date is specified.

Any registered agent in this state appointed by a foreign corporation may resign as such agent upon filing a written notice thereof, executed in duplicate, with the secretary of state who shall forthwith mail a copy thereof to the secretary of the foreign corporation at its principal office (~~in the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated~~) as shown by its most recent annual report. The appointment of such agent shall terminate upon the expiration of thirty days after receipt of such notice by the secretary of state.

If a registered agent changes his business address to another place within the state, the registered agent may change such address and the address of the registered office of any corporation of which the registered agent is a registered agent by filing a statement as required by this section, except that it need be signed only by the registered agent, it need not be responsive to subsection (3) or (5) of this section, and it must recite that a copy of the statement has been mailed to the corporation.

Sec. 48. Section 71, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 103, chapter 35, Laws of 1982 and RCW 24.03.350 are each amended to read as follows:

The registered agent so appointed by a foreign corporation authorized to conduct affairs in this state shall be an agent of such corporation upon whom any process, notice or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon the corporation may be served.

Whenever a foreign corporation authorized to conduct affairs in this state shall fail to appoint or maintain a registered agent in this state, or whenever any such registered agent cannot with reasonable diligence be found at the registered office, or whenever the certificate of authority of a foreign corporation shall be suspended or revoked, then the secretary of state shall be an agent of such corporation upon whom any such process, notice, or demand may be served. Service on the secretary of state of any such process, notice, or demand shall be made by delivering to and leaving with the secretary of state, or with any duly authorized clerk of the corporation department of the secretary of state's office, duplicate copies of such process, notice or demand. In the event any such process, notice or demand is served on the secretary of state, the secretary of state shall immediately cause one of such copies thereof to be forwarded by certified mail, addressed to the secretary of the corporation (~~at its principal office in the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated~~) as shown on the records of the secretary of state. Any service so had on the secretary of state shall be returnable in not less than thirty days.

The secretary of state shall keep a record of all processes, notices and demands served upon the secretary of state under this section, and shall record therein the time of such service and his action with reference thereto.

Nothing herein contained shall limit or affect the right to serve any process, notice or demand, required or permitted by law to be served upon a corporation in any other manner now or hereafter permitted by law.

Sec. 49. Section 73, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 and RCW 24.03.360 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever a foreign corporation authorized to conduct affairs in this state shall be a party to a statutory merger permitted by the laws of the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated, and such corporation shall be the surviving corporation, it shall ~~((; within thirty days after such merger becomes effective, file with the secretary of state a copy of the articles of merger duly authenticated by the proper officer of the state or country under the laws of which such statutory merger was effected; and it shall))~~ not be necessary for such corporation to procure either a new or amended certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this state unless the name of such corporation be changed thereby or unless the corporation desires to pursue in this state other or additional purposes than those which it is then authorized to pursue in this state.

Sec. 50. Section 77, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 106, chapter 35, Laws of 1982 and RCW 24.03.380 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The certificate of authority of a foreign corporation to conduct affairs in this state shall be revoked by the secretary of state upon the conditions prescribed in this section when:

~~((1))~~ (a) The corporation has failed to file its annual report within the time required by this chapter, or has failed to pay any fees or penalties prescribed by this chapter when they have become due and payable; or

~~((2))~~ (b) The corporation has failed for thirty days to appoint and maintain a registered agent in this state as required by this chapter; or

~~((3))~~ (c) The corporation has failed, for thirty days after change of its registered agent or registered office, to file in the office of the secretary of state a statement of such change as required by this chapter; or

~~((4))~~ The corporation has failed to file in the office of the secretary of state any amendment to its articles of incorporation or any articles of merger within the time prescribed by this chapter; or

~~((5))~~ The certificate of authority of the corporation was procured through fraud practiced upon the state; or

~~((6))~~ (d) The corporation has continued to exceed or abuse the authority conferred upon it by this chapter; or

~~((7))~~ (e) A misrepresentation has been made of any material matter in any application, report, affidavit, or other document submitted by such corporation pursuant to this chapter.

~~((No certificate of authority of a foreign corporation shall be revoked by the secretary of state unless the secretary of state shall have given the corporation not less than sixty days' notice thereof by first class mail addressed to its registered office in this state, or, if there is no registered office, to the last known address of any officer or director of the corporation as shown by the records of the secretary of state, and the corporation shall fail prior to revocation to file such annual report, or pay such fees or penalties; or file the required statement of change of registered agent, or file such articles of amendment or articles of merger, or correct such misrepresentation, delinquency, or omission.))~~ (2) Prior to revoking a certificate of authority under subsection (1) of this section, the secretary of state shall give the corporation written notice of the corporation's delinquency or omission by first class mail, postage prepaid, addressed to the corporation's registered agent. If, according to the records of the secretary of state, the corporation does not have a registered agent, the notice may be given by mail addressed to the corporation at its last known address or at the address of any officer or director of the corporation, as shown by the records of the secretary of state. Notice is deemed to have been given five days after the date deposited in the United States mail, correctly addressed, and with correct postage affixed. The notice shall inform the corporation that its certificate of authority shall be revoked at the expiration of sixty days following the date the notice had been deemed to have been given, unless it corrects the delinquency or omission within the sixty-day period.

(3) Any notice provided by the secretary of state under this section shall be designed to clearly identify and warn the recipient of the contents thereof. A delinquency notice shall provide a succinct and readable description of the delinquency or omission, the date on which dissolution will occur, and the action necessary to cure the delinquency or omission prior to dissolution.

(4) The attorney general may take such action regarding revocation of a certificate of authority as is provided by RCW 24.03.250 for the dissolution of a domestic corporation. The procedures of RCW 24.03.250 shall apply to any action under this section. The clerk of any superior court entering a decree of revocation of a certificate of authority shall file a certified copy, without cost or filing fee, with the office of the secretary of state.

Sec. 51. Section 78, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 107, chapter 35, Laws of 1982 and RCW 24.03.385 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon revoking any certificate of authority under RCW 24.03.380, the secretary of state shall:

- (1) Issue a certificate of revocation in duplicate.
- (2) File one of such certificates in the secretary of state's office.

(3) Mail ~~((to such corporation at its registered office in this state a notice of such revocation accompanied by one of such certificates))~~ the other duplicate certificate to such corporation at its registered office in this state or, if there is no registered office in this state, to the corporation at the last known address of any officer or director of the corporation, as shown by the records of the secretary of state.

Upon the filing of such certificate of revocation, the authority of the corporation to conduct affairs in this state shall cease.

Sec. 52. Section 79, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 and RCW 24.03.390 are each amended to read as follows:

No foreign corporation which is conducting affairs in this state without a certificate of authority shall be permitted to maintain any action, suit or proceeding in any court of this state until such corporation shall have obtained a certificate of authority. Nor shall any action, suit or proceeding be maintained in any court of this state by any successor or assignee of such corporation on any right, claim or demand arising out of the conduct of affairs by such corporation in this state, until a certificate of authority shall have been obtained by such corporation or by a corporation which has acquired all or substantially all of its assets.

The failure of a foreign corporation to obtain a certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this state shall not impair the validity of any contract or act of such corporation, and shall not prevent such corporation from defending any action, suit or proceeding in any court of this state.

A foreign corporation which transacts business in this state without a certificate of authority shall be liable to this state, for the years or parts thereof during which it transacted business in this state without a certificate of authority, in an amount equal to all fees which would have been imposed by this chapter upon such corporation had it duly applied for and received a certificate of authority to transact business in this state as required by this chapter and thereafter filed all reports required by this chapter, plus all penalties imposed by this chapter for failure to pay such fees. The attorney general shall bring proceedings to recover all amounts due this state under the provisions of this section.

Sec. 53. Section 80, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 108, chapter 35, Laws of 1982 and RCW 24.03.395 are each amended to read as follows:

Each domestic corporation, and each foreign corporation authorized to conduct affairs in this state, shall file, within the time prescribed by this chapter, an annual report in the form prescribed by the secretary of state setting forth:

(1) The name of the corporation and the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated.

(2) The address of the registered office of the corporation in this state including street and number and the name of its registered agent in this state at such address, and, in the case of a foreign corporation, the address of its principal office in the state or country under the laws of which it is incorporated.

(3) A brief statement of the character of the affairs which the corporation is actually conducting, or, in the case of a foreign corporation, which the corporation is actually conducting in this state.

(4) The names and respective addresses of the directors and officers of the corporation.

The information shall be given as of the date of the execution of the report. It shall be executed by the corporation by an officer of the corporation, or, if the corporation is in the hands of a receiver or trustee, it shall be executed on behalf of the corporation by such receiver or trustee.

The secretary of state may (~~by rule adopted under chapter 34.04 RCW~~) provide that correction or updating of information appearing on previous annual filings is sufficient to constitute the current annual filing.

Not less than thirty days prior to a corporation's renewal date, or by December 1 of each year for a nonstaggered renewal, the secretary of state shall mail to each domestic and foreign corporation, by first class mail addressed to its registered office, a notice that its annual report must be filed as required by this chapter, and stating that if it fails to file its annual report it shall be dissolved or its certificate of authority revoked, as the case may be. Failure of the secretary of state to mail any such notice shall not relieve a corporation from its obligation to file the annual reports required by this chapter.

Such annual report of a domestic or foreign corporation shall be delivered to the secretary of state between the first day of January and the first day of March of each year, or on an annual renewal date as the secretary of state may establish. (~~Proof to the satisfaction of the secretary of state that prior to the corporation's annual renewal date the annual report was deposited in the United States mail in a sealed envelope, properly addressed, with postage prepaid, shall be deemed a compliance with this requirement.~~)

If the secretary of state finds that such report substantially conforms to the requirements of this chapter, the secretary of state shall file the same.

The secretary of state shall charge and collect for:

(1) Filing articles of incorporation and issuing a certificate of incorporation, twenty dollars.

(2) Filing articles of amendment or restatement and issuing a certificate of amendment or a restated certificate of incorporation, ten dollars.

(3) Filing articles of merger or consolidation and issuing a certificate of merger or consolidation, ten dollars.

(4) Filing a statement of change of address of registered office or change of registered agent, or revocation, resignation, affidavit of nonappointment, or any combination of these, five dollars. A separate fee for filing such statement shall not be charged if the statement appears in an amendment to articles of incorporation or in conjunction with the filing of the annual report.

(5) Filing articles of dissolution, no fee.

(6) Filing an application of a foreign corporation for a certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this state and issuing a certificate of authority, twenty dollars.

(7) Filing an application of a foreign corporation for an amended certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this state and issuing an amended certificate of authority, ten dollars.

~~(8) ((Filing a copy of an amendment to the articles of incorporation of a foreign corporation holding a certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this state, ten dollars.~~

~~(9) Filing a copy of articles of merger of a foreign corporation holding a certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this state, ten dollars.~~

~~(+0))~~ Filing an application for withdrawal of a foreign corporation and issuing a certificate of withdrawal, no fee.

~~((+1))~~ (9) Filing a certificate by a foreign corporation of the appointment of a registered agent, five dollars. A separate fee for filing such certificate shall not be charged if the statement appears in an amendment to the articles of incorporation or in conjunction with the filing of the annual report.

~~((+2) Filing a certificate by a foreign corporation of the revocation of the appointment of a registered agent, five dollars. A separate fee for filing such a certificate shall not be charged if the statement appears in an amendment to the articles of incorporation or in conjunction with the filing of the annual report.~~

~~(+3))~~ (10) Filing a certificate of election adopting the provisions of chapter 24.03 RCW, twenty dollars.

~~((+4))~~ (11) Filing an application to reserve a corporate name, ten dollars.

~~((+5))~~ (12) Filing a notice of transfer of a reserved corporate name, five dollars.

~~((+6))~~ (13) Filing a name registration, twenty dollars per year, or part thereof.

(14) Filing any other statement or report authorized for filing under this chapter, including an annual report, of a domestic or foreign corporation, ~~((five))~~ ten dollars.

Sec. 56. Section 90, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 115, chapter 35, Laws of 1982 and RCW 24.03.445 are each amended to read as follows:

If the secretary of state shall fail to approve any articles of incorporation, amendment, merger, consolidation or dissolution, or any other document required by this chapter to be approved by the secretary of state before the same shall be filed in his or her office, the secretary of state shall(~~(; within ten days after the delivery thereof to the office of the secretary of state;))~~) give written notice of disapproval to the person or corporation, domestic or foreign, delivering the same, specifying the reasons therefor. Within thirty days from such disapproval such person or corporation may appeal to the superior court (~~(of the county in which the registered office of such corporation is, or is proposed to be, situated by filing with the clerk of such court a petition setting forth a copy of the articles or other document sought to be filed and a copy of the written disapproval thereof by the secretary of state; whereupon the matter shall be tried de novo by the court, and the court shall either sustain the action of the secretary of state or direct the secretary of state to take such action as the court may deem proper.~~

~~If the secretary of state shall revoke the certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this state of any foreign corporation, pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, such foreign corporation may likewise appeal to the superior court of the county where the registered office of such corporation in this state is situated, by filing with the clerk of such court a petition setting forth a copy of its certificate of authority to conduct affairs in this state and a copy of the notice of revocation given by the secretary of state; whereupon the matter shall be tried de novo by the court, and the court shall either sustain the action of the secretary of state or direct the secretary of state to take such action as the court may deem proper.~~

~~Appeals from all final orders and judgments entered by the superior court under this section in review of any ruling or decision of the secretary of state may be taken as in other civil actions)) pursuant to the provisions of the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW.~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 57. A new section is added to chapter 24.03 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A corporation revoked under RCW 24.03.380 may apply to the secretary of state for reinstatement within three years after the effective date of revocation. An application filed within such two-year period may be amended or supplemented and any such amendment or supplement shall be effective as of the date of original filing. The application filed under this section shall be filed under and by authority of an officer of the corporation.

(2) The application shall:

(a) State the name of the corporation and, if applicable, the name the corporation had elected to use in this state at the time of revocation, and the effective date of its revocation;

(b) Provide an explanation to show that the grounds for revocation either did not exist or have been eliminated;

(c) State the name of the corporation at the time of reinstatement and, if applicable, the name the corporation elects to use in this state at the time of reinstatement which may be reserved under RCW 24.03.046;

(d) Appoint a registered agent and state the registered office address under RCW 24.03.340; and

(e) Be accompanied by payment of applicable fees and penalties.

(3) If the secretary of state determines that the application conforms to law, and that all applicable fees have been paid, the secretary of state shall cancel the certificate of revocation, prepare and file a certificate of reinstatement, and mail a copy of the certificate of reinstatement to the corporation.

(4) Reinstatement under this section relates back to and takes effect as of the date of revocation. The corporate authority shall be deemed to have continued without interruption from that date.

(5) In the event the application for reinstatement states a corporate name which the secretary of state finds to be contrary to the requirements of RCW 24.03.046, the application, amended application, or supplemental application shall be amended to adopt another corporate name which is in compliance with RCW 24.03.046. In the event the reinstatement application so adopts a new corporate name for use in Washington, the application for authority shall be deemed to have been amended to change the corporation's name to the name so adopted for use in Washington, effective as of the effective date of the certificate of reinstatement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 58. A new section as added to chapter 24.03 RCW to read as follows:

(1) An application processing fee of thirty dollars shall be charged for an application for reinstatement under section 57 of this act.

(2) An application processing fee of ten dollars shall be charged for each amendment or supplement to an application for reinstatement.

(3) The corporation seeking reinstatement shall pay the full amount of all annual corporation fees which would have been assessed for the years of the period of administrative revocation, had the corporation been in active status, and the license fee for the year of reinstatement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 59. Section 72, chapter 235, Laws of 1967 and RCW 24.03.355 are each repealed.

Passed the Senate February 12, 1986.

Passed the House March 4, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

CHAPTER 241

[Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4497]

VEHICLE SALES

AN ACT Relating to vehicle sales; amending RCW 46.70.005, 46.70.011, 46.70.021, 46.70.031, 46.70.041, 46.70.061, 46.70.070, 46.70.083, 46.70.101, 46.70.102, 46.70.120, 46.70.170, 46.70.180, 46.70.190, 46.70.200, 46.70.210, and 46.70.260; adding new sections to chapter 46.70.082; [adding new sections to chapter 46.70 RCW; repealing RCW 46.70.081 and 46.70.082;] prescribing penalties; making an appropriation; providing effective dates; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 132, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.005 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds and declares that the distribution and sale of vehicles in the state of Washington vitally affects the general economy of the state and the public interest and the public welfare, and that in order to promote the public interest and the public welfare, and in the exercise of its police power, it is necessary to regulate and license vehicle manufacturers, distributors, or wholesalers and factory or distributor representatives, and to regulate and license dealers(~~(, and salesmen)~~) of vehicles doing business in Washington, in order to prevent frauds, impositions, and other abuses upon its citizens and to protect and preserve the investments and properties of the citizens of this state.

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Vehicle" means and includes every device capable of being moved upon a public highway and in, upon, or by which any persons or property is or may be transported or drawn upon a public highway, excepting devices moved by human or animal power or used exclusively upon stationary rails or tracks.

(2) "Motor vehicle" (~~(shall)~~) means every vehicle which is self-propelled and every vehicle which is propelled by electric power obtained from overhead trolley wires, but not operated upon rails, and which is required to be registered and titled under Title 46 RCW, Motor Vehicles.

(3) "Vehicle dealer" means any person, firm, association, corporation, or trust, not excluded by subsection (4) of this section, engaged in the business of buying, selling, listing, exchanging, offering, brokering, leasing with an option to purchase, auctioning, soliciting, or advertising the sale of new or used vehicles(~~(, or providing or licensing for use facilities and/or services for compensation of any kind which bring together potential buyers and sellers. PROVIDED, That)~~). Vehicle dealers shall be classified as follows:

(a) A "motor vehicle dealer" (~~shall be~~) is a vehicle dealer that deals in new (~~and~~) or used motor vehicles, or both;

(b) A "mobile home and travel trailer dealer" (~~shall be~~) is a vehicle dealer that deals in mobile homes or travel trailers, or both;

(c) A "miscellaneous vehicle dealer" (~~shall be~~) is a vehicle dealer that deals in motorcycles (~~and~~) or vehicles other than motor vehicles or mobile homes and travel trailers or any combination of such vehicles.

(4) The term "vehicle dealer" does not include, nor do the provisions of RCW 46.70.021 apply to, the following persons, firms, associations, or corporations:

(a) Receivers, trustees, administrators, executors, guardians, or other persons appointed by, or acting under a judgment or order of, any court; or

(b) Public officers while performing their official duties; or

(c) Employees of vehicle dealers who are engaged in the specific performance of their duties as such employees; or

(d) Any person engaged in an isolated sale of a vehicle in which he is the registered or legal owner, or both, thereof; or

(e) Any person, firm, association, corporation, or trust, engaged in the selling of equipment other than vehicles, subject to registration, used for agricultural or industrial purposes; or

(f) A real estate broker licensed under chapter 18.85 RCW, or his authorized representative, who, on behalf of the legal or registered owner of a used mobile home negotiates the purchase, sale, or exchange of the used mobile home in conjunction with the purchase, sale, exchange, rental, or lease of the land upon which the used mobile home is located and the real estate broker is not acting as an agent, subagent, or representative of a vehicle dealer licensed under this chapter; or

(g) Owners who are also operators of the special highway construction equipment or of the highway construction equipment for which a vehicle license and display vehicle license number plate is required as defined in RCW 46.16.010; or

(6) (~~The term~~) "Department" means the department of licensing, which shall administer and enforce the provisions of this chapter.

(7) "Director" means the director of licensing.

(8) "Manufacturer" means any person, firm, association, corporation, or trust, resident or nonresident, who manufactures or assembles new and unused vehicles or remanufactures vehicles in whole or in part and ~~((shall))~~ further includes the terms:

(a) "Distributor," which means any person, firm, association, corporation, or trust, resident or nonresident, who in whole or in part offers for sale, sells, or distributes any new and unused vehicle to vehicle dealers or who maintains factory representatives.

(b) "Factory branch," which means a branch office maintained by a manufacturer for the purpose of selling or offering for sale, vehicles to a distributor, wholesaler, or vehicle dealer, or for directing or supervising in whole or in part factory or distributor representatives, and ~~((shall))~~ further includes any sales promotion organization, whether ~~((the same be))~~ a person, firm, or corporation, which is engaged in promoting the sale of new and unused vehicles in this state of a particular brand or make to vehicle dealers.

(c) "Factory representative," which means a representative employed by a manufacturer, distributor, or factory branch for the purpose of making or promoting for the sale of ~~((his, its, or))~~ their vehicles or for supervising or contracting with ~~((his, its, or))~~ their dealers or prospective dealers.

(9) "Established place of business" means a ~~((permanent, enclosed commercial building located within the state of Washington easily accessible and open to the public, at all reasonable times, with an improved display area of not less than three thousand square feet in or immediately adjoining said building, and at which the business of a vehicle dealer, including the display and repair of vehicles, may be lawfully carried on in accordance with the terms of all applicable building code, zoning and other land-use regulatory ordinances and in which such building the public may contact the vehicle dealer or his vehicle salesman, at all reasonable times and at which place of business shall be kept and maintained the books, records and files necessary to conduct the business at such place. The established place of business shall display an exterior sign permanently affixed to the land or building, with letters clearly visible to the major avenue of traffic. A dealer operating a listing service who does not physically maintain any vehicles for display, or a vehicle dealer who merely rents or leases or licenses for use any space on a temporary basis not to exceed two days to private persons to sell their own vehicles, need not operate in a commercial building nor have such a display area))~~ location meeting the requirements of section 4(1) of this act at which a vehicle dealer conducts business in this state.

(10) "Principal place of business" means that dealer firm's business location in the state, which place the dealer designates as their principal place of business.

(11) "Subagency" means any place of business of a vehicle dealer within the ~~((same county as the principal place of business of the firm which))~~ state, which place is physically and geographically separated from the principal place of business of the firm or any place of business of a vehicle dealer within the ~~((same county as the principal place of business of the firm under))~~ state, at which ~~((he))~~ place the firm does business ~~((under))~~ using a name other than the principal name of the firm, or both.

(12) "Temporary subagency" means a location other than the principal place of business or subagency within the state where a licensed vehicle dealer may secure a license to conduct the business and is licensed for a period of time not to exceed ten days for a specific purpose such as auto shows, auctions, shopping center promotions, tent sales, exhibitions, or similar merchandising ventures.

(13) "Wholesale vehicle dealer" means a vehicle dealer who sells to Washington dealers.

(14) "Retail vehicle dealer" means a vehicle dealer who sells vehicles to the public.

(15) "Listing dealer" means a used mobile home dealer who makes contracts with sellers who will compensate the dealer for obtaining a willing purchaser for the seller's mobile home.

Sec. 3. Section 4, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 132, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.021 are each amended to read as follows:

It ~~((shall be))~~ is unlawful for any person, firm, or association to act as a vehicle dealer ~~((, vehicle salesman))~~ or vehicle manufacturer, to engage in business as such, ~~((act as such,))~~ serve in the capacity of such, advertise himself, ~~((itself))~~ herself, or themselves as such, solicit sales as such, or distribute or transfer vehicles for resale in this state, without first obtaining and holding a current license as provided in this chapter ~~((: PROVIDED; That a vehicle dealer shall not be required to have a vehicle salesman's license: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That))~~, unless the title of the vehicle is in the name of the seller. It is unlawful for any person other than a licensed vehicle dealer to display a vehicle for sale unless the registered owner or legal owner is the displayer or holds a notarized power of attorney. A person or firm engaged in buying and offering for sale, or buying and selling five or more vehicles in a twelve-month period, or in any other way engaged in dealer activity without holding a vehicle dealer license, is guilty of a gross misdemeanor, and upon conviction is subject to a fine of up to one thousand dollars for each violation and up to one year in jail. A second offense is a class C felony punishable under chapter 9A.20 RCW. A violation of this section is also a per se violation of chapter 19.86 RCW and is considered a deceptive practice. The department of licensing, the Washington state patrol, the attorney general's office, and the department of revenue shall cooperate in the enforcement of this section. A distributor, factory branch, or factory representative shall not be required to have a vehicle manufacturer license so long as the vehicle manufacturer so represented is properly licensed pursuant to this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 46.70 RCW to read as follows:

(1) An "established place of business" requires a permanent, enclosed commercial building located within the state of Washington easily accessible at all reasonable times. An established place of business shall have an improved display area of not less than three thousand square feet in or immediately adjoining the building, or a display area large enough to display six or more vehicles of the type the dealer is licensed to sell, whichever area is larger. The business of a vehicle dealer, including the display and repair of vehicles, may be lawfully carried on at an established place of business in accordance with the terms of all applicable building code, zoning, and other land-use regulatory ordinances. The dealer shall keep the building open to the public so that they may contact the vehicle dealer or the dealer's salespersons at all reasonable times. The books, records, and files necessary to conduct the business shall be kept and maintained at that place. The established place of business shall display an exterior sign with the business name and nature of the business, such as auto sales, permanently affixed to the land or building, with letters clearly visible to the major avenue of traffic. In no event may a room or rooms in a hotel, rooming house, or apartment house building or part of a single or multiple-unit dwelling house be considered an "established place of business" unless the ground floor of such a dwelling is devoted principally to and occupied for commercial purposes and the dealer offices are located on the ground floor. A mobile office or mobile home may be used as an office if it is connected to utilities and is set up in accordance with state law.

(2) If a dealer maintains a place of business at more than one location or under more than one name in this state, he or she shall designate one location as the principal place of business of the firm, one name as the principal name of the firm, and all other locations or names as subagencies. A subagency license is required for each and every subagency: PROVIDED, That the department may grant an exception to the subagency requirement in the specific instance where a licensed new motor vehicle dealer is unable to locate their used vehicle sales facilities adjacent to or at the established place of business. This exception shall be granted and defined under the promulgation of rules consistent with the administrative procedure act.

(3) All vehicle dealers shall maintain ownership or leasehold throughout the license year of the real property from which they do business. The dealer shall provide the department with evidence of ownership or leasehold whenever the ownership changes or the lease is terminated.

(4) A subagency shall comply with all requirements of an established place of business.

(5) A temporary subagency shall meet all local zoning and building codes for the type of merchandising being conducted. The dealer license certificate shall be posted at the location. No other requirements of an established place of business apply to a temporary subagency.

(6) A wholesale vehicle dealer shall have office facilities in a commercial building within this state, and all storage facilities for inventory shall be listed with the department, and shall meet local zoning and land use ordinances. A wholesale vehicle dealer shall maintain a telecommunications system. An exterior sign visible from the nearest street shall identify the business name and the nature of business. A wholesale dealer need not maintain a display area as required in this section. When two or more vehicle dealer businesses share a location, all records, office facilities, and inventory, if any, must be physically segregated and clearly identified.

(7) A retail vehicle dealer shall be open during normal business hours, maintain office and display facilities in a commercially zoned location or in a location complying with all applicable building and land use ordinances, and maintain a business telephone listing in the local directory. When two or more vehicle dealer businesses share a location, all records, office facilities, and inventory shall be physically segregated and clearly identified.

(8) A listing dealer need not have a display area if the dealer does not physically maintain any vehicles for display.

(9) A subagency license is not required for a mobile home dealer to display an on-site display model, a consigned mobile home not relocated from its site, or a repossessed mobile home if sales are handled from a principal place of business or subagency. A mobile home dealer shall identify on-site display models, repossessed mobile homes, and those consigned at their sites with a sign that includes the dealer's name and telephone number.

(10) Every vehicle dealer shall advise the department of the location of each and every place of business of the firm and the name or names under which the firm is doing business at such location or locations. If any name or location is changed, the dealer shall notify the department of such change within ten days. The license issued by the department shall reflect the name and location of the firm and shall be posted in a conspicuous place at that location by the dealer.

(11) A vehicle dealer's license shall upon the death or incapacity of an individual vehicle dealer authorize the personal representative of such dealer, subject to payment of license fees, to continue the business for a period of six months from the date of the death or incapacity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 46.70 RCW to read as follows:

A vehicle dealer is accountable for the dealer's employees, sales personnel, and managerial personnel while in the performance of their official duties. Any violations of this chapter or applicable provisions of chapter 46.12 or 46.16 RCW committed by any of these employees subjects the dealer to license penalties prescribed under RCW 46.70.101. A retail purchaser who has suffered a loss or damage by reason of a breach of warranty or by any act by a dealer, salesperson, managerial person, or other employee of a dealership, that constitutes a violation of this chapter or applicable provisions of chapter 46.12 or 46.16 RCW may institute an action for recovery against the dealer and the surety bond as set forth in RCW 46.70.070.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 46.70 RCW to read as follows:

Listing dealers shall transact dealer business by obtaining a consignment for sale, and the buyer's purchase of the mobile home shall be handled as dealer inventory. All funds from the purchaser shall be placed in a trust account until the sale is completed, except that the dealer shall pay any outstanding liens against the mobile home from these funds. A complete account of all funds received and disbursed shall be given to the seller or consignor after the sale is completed.

Sec. 7. Section 5, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 132, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.031 are each amended to read as follows:

A vehicle dealer(~~(-salesman,))~~ or vehicle manufacturer may apply for a license by filing with the department an application in such form as the department may prescribe.

Sec. 8. Section 6, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 187, chapter 158, Laws of 1979 and RCW 46.70.041 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every application for a vehicle dealer (~~(or a vehicle salesman's))~~ license shall contain the following information to the extent (~~(the same is applicable))~~ it applies to the applicant:

(a) Proof as the department may require concerning the applicant's identity, including but not limited to his fingerprints, the honesty, truthfulness, and good reputation of the applicant for the license, or of the officers of a corporation making the application;

(b) The applicant's form and place of organization including if the applicant is a corporation, proof that the corporation is licensed to do business in this state;

(c) The qualification and business history of the applicant(;) and ((in the case of a vehicle dealer;)) any partner, officer, or director;

(d) The applicant's financial condition or history including a bank reference and whether the applicant or any partner, officer, or director has ever been adjudged bankrupt or has any unsatisfied judgment in any federal or state court;

(e) Whether the applicant has been adjudged guilty of a crime which directly relates to the business for which the license is sought and the time elapsed since the conviction is less than ten years, or has suffered any judgment within the preceding five years in any civil action involving fraud, misrepresentation, or conversion and in the case of a corporation or partnership, all directors, officers, or partners;

~~((c)) Any other information the department may reasonably require.~~

~~(2) If the applicant is a vehicle dealer:~~

~~(a)) (f) A business telephone with a listing in the local directory;~~

~~(g) The name or names of new vehicles the vehicle dealer wishes to sell;~~

~~((b)) (h) The names and addresses of each manufacturer from whom the applicant has received a franchise;~~

~~((c)) (i) Whether the applicant intends to sell used vehicles, and if so, whether he has space available for servicing and repairs;~~

~~((d)) (j) A certificate by the chief of police or his deputy, or a member of the Washington state patrol or a representative of the department, that the ~~((applicant has an established))~~ applicant's principal place of business ~~((at))~~ and each subagency business location in the state of Washington ~~((: PROVIDED, That))~~ meets the location requirements as required by this chapter. The certificate shall include proof of the applicant's ownership or lease of the real property where the applicant's principal place of business is established. In no event ~~((shall such))~~ may the certificate be issued by a member of the Washington state patrol if the dealership is located in a city which has a population in excess of five thousand persons;~~

~~((e)) (k) A copy of a current service agreement with a manufacturer, or distributor for a foreign manufacturer, requiring the applicant, upon demand of any customer receiving a new vehicle warranty to perform or arrange for, within a reasonable distance of his established place of business, the service repair and replacement work required of the manufacturer or distributor by such vehicle warranty ~~((: PROVIDED, That))~~. This requirement ~~((shall))~~ applies only ~~((apply))~~ to applicants seeking to sell, to exchange, to offer, ~~((to broker,))~~ to auction, to solicit, or to advertise new or current-model vehicles with factory or distributor warranties;~~

~~((f)) (l) The class of vehicles the vehicle dealer will be buying, selling, listing, exchanging, offering, brokering, leasing with an option to purchase, auctioning, soliciting, or advertising, ~~((or for which the dealer will be providing or licensing for use facilities and/or services for compensation of any kind which bring together potential buyers and sellers,))~~ and which classification or classifications the dealer wishes to be designated as;~~

~~((g) The applicant's financial condition or history including whether the applicant or any partner, officer or director has ever been adjudged bankrupt or has any unsatisfied judgment in any federal or state court.~~

~~(3) If the applicant is a vehicle salesman, such application shall contain, in addition, a certification by the vehicle dealer for whom he is going~~

~~to work that he has examined the background of the applicant and to the best of his knowledge is of good moral character;~~

~~(4)) (m) Any other information the department may reasonably require.~~

(2) If the applicant is a manufacturer (~~(such))~~ the application shall contain the following information to the extent it is applicable to the applicant:

(a) The name and address of the principal place of business of the applicant and, if different, the name and address of the Washington state representative of the applicant;

(b) The name or names under which the applicant will do business in the state of Washington;

(c) Evidence that the applicant is authorized to do business in the state of Washington;

(d) The name or names of the vehicles that the licensee manufactures;

(e) The name or names and address or addresses of each and every distributor, factory branch, and factory representative;

(f) The name or names and address or addresses of resident employees or agents to provide service or repairs to vehicles located in the state of Washington only under the terms of any warranty attached to new or unused vehicles manufactured, unless such manufacturer requires warranty service to be performed by all of its dealers pursuant to a current service agreement on file with the department;

(g) Any other information the department may reasonably require.

Sec. 9. Section 13, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 251, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.061 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The annual fees for original licenses issued for ~~((a calendar year or any portion thereof pursuant to))~~ twelve consecutive months from the date of issuance under this chapter shall be:

(a) Vehicle dealers, principal place of business for each and every license classification: ~~((Sixty))~~ Two hundred fifty dollars;

(b) Vehicle dealers, each ~~((and every))~~ subagency: ~~((Ten))~~ Twenty-five dollars; temporary subagency: Twenty-five dollars;

(c) ~~((Vehicle salespersons: Ten dollars;~~

~~(d))~~ Vehicle manufacturers: ~~((Sixty))~~ Two hundred fifty dollars.

(2) The annual fee for renewal of any license issued pursuant to this chapter shall be:

(b) Vehicle dealer, each and every subagency: ~~((Ten))~~ Twenty-five dollars;

(c) ~~((Vehicle salespersons: Ten dollars;~~

~~(d))~~ Vehicle manufacturers: ~~((Fifty))~~ One hundred twenty-five dollars.

~~((PROVIDED, That))~~ If any licensee fails or neglects to apply for such renewal ~~((prior to February 1st in each year))~~ within thirty days after the expiration of the license, or assigned renewal date under a staggered licensing system, the license shall be declared canceled by the director, in which case the licensee will be required to apply for an original license and pay the fee required for the original license.

(3) The fee for the transfer to another location of any license issued pursuant to this chapter shall be~~((:~~

~~(a) Vehicle dealer, principal place of business of each and every license classification, provided that such change is within the same county: Ten dollars;~~

~~(b) There shall be no transfer of any vehicle dealer subagency license;~~

~~(c) Vehicle salesperson, provided that no such fee shall be required in a transfer from one location of any one dealer to any other location: Five)) twenty-five dollars.~~

(4) The fee for vehicle dealer license plates and manufacturer license plates shall be the amount required by law for vehicle license plates exclusive of excise tax, except those specified in RCW 82.44.030, and gross weight and tonnage fees.

(5) All fees collected under this chapter shall be ~~((turned into))~~ deposited in the state treasury and credited to the motor vehicle fund.

(6) The fees prescribed ~~((herein shall be))~~ in this section are in addition to any excise taxes imposed by chapter 82.44 RCW.

Sec. 10. Section 13, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 9 of this 1986 act and RCW 46.70.061 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The annual fees for original licenses issued for twelve consecutive months from the date of issuance under this chapter shall be:

(a) Vehicle dealers, principal place of business for each and every license classification: ~~((Two hundred fifty))~~ Five hundred dollars;

(b) Vehicle dealers, each subagency: ~~((Twenty-five))~~ Fifty dollars; temporary subagency: Twenty-five dollars;

(c) Vehicle manufacturers: ~~((Two hundred fifty))~~ Five hundred dollars.

(2) The annual fee for renewal of any license issued pursuant to this chapter shall be:

(a) Vehicle dealers, principal place of business for each and every license classification: ~~((One hundred twenty-five))~~ Two hundred fifty dollars;

(b) Vehicle dealer, each and every subagency: Twenty-five dollars;

(c) Vehicle manufacturers: ~~((One hundred twenty-five))~~ Two hundred fifty dollars.

If any licensee fails or neglects to apply for such renewal within thirty days after the expiration of the license, or assigned renewal date under a staggered licensing system, the license shall be declared canceled by the director, in which case the licensee will be required to apply for an original license and pay the fee required for the original license.

(3) The fee for the transfer to another location of any license issued pursuant to this chapter shall be twenty-five dollars.

(4) The fee for vehicle dealer license plates and manufacturer license plates shall be the amount required by law for vehicle license plates exclusive of excise tax, except those specified in RCW 82.44.030, and gross weight and tonnage fees.

(5) All fees collected under this chapter shall be deposited in the state treasury and credited to the motor vehicle fund.

(6) The fees prescribed in this section are in addition to any excise taxes imposed by chapter 82.44 RCW.

Sec. 11. Section 46.70.070, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 152, Laws of 1981 and RCW 46.70.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Before issuing a vehicle dealer's license, the department shall require the applicant to file with the department a surety bond in the amount of:

(a) Fifteen thousand dollars for motor vehicle dealers;
(b) Thirty thousand dollars for mobile home and travel trailer dealers;
PROVIDED, That if such dealer does not deal in mobile homes such bond shall be fifteen thousand dollars;

(c) Five thousand dollars for miscellaneous dealers, running to the state, and executed by a surety company authorized to do business in the state. Such bond shall be approved by the attorney general as to form and conditioned that the dealer shall conduct his business in conformity with the provisions of this chapter;

(d) Wholesale dealers shall not be required to file a surety bond with the department.

Any retail purchaser who shall have suffered any loss or damage by reason of breach of warranty or by any act by a dealer which constitutes a violation of this chapter shall have the right to institute an action for recovery against such dealer and the surety upon such bond. Successive recoveries against said bond shall be permitted, but the aggregate liability of the surety to all persons shall in no event exceed the amount of the bond. Upon exhaustion of the penalty of said bond or cancellation of the bond by the surety the vehicle dealer license shall automatically be deemed canceled.

(2) The bond for any vehicle dealer licensed or to be licensed under more than one classification shall be the highest bond required for any such classification.

(3) Vehicle dealers shall maintain a bond for each business location in this state and bond coverage for all temporary subagencies.

Sec. 12. Section 10, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 109, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.70.083 are each amended to read as follows:

The license of a vehicle dealer or a vehicle manufacturer expires on the date assigned by the director, and may be renewed by filing with the department prior to the expiration thereof an application containing such information as the department may require to indicate any material change in the information contained in the original application.

~~((Registration of a vehicle salesman expires on the date assigned by the director, and may be renewed by filing with the department prior to the expiration thereof an application containing such information as the department may require to indicate any material change in the information contained in the original application.))~~

Before renewal, the dealer's established place of business shall be certified by a representative of the department, the chief of police or his deputy, or a member of the Washington state patrol. The certification shall verify compliance with the requirements of this chapter for an established place of business. Failure by the dealer to comply is grounds for denial of the renewal application.

Sec. 13. Section 11, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 5, chapter 152, Laws of 1981 and RCW 46.70.101 are each amended to read as follows:

The director may by order deny, suspend, or revoke the license of any vehicle dealer(~~(;)~~) or vehicle manufacturer(~~(, or vehicle salesman)~~) or, in lieu thereof or in addition thereto, may by order assess monetary penalties of a civil nature not to exceed one thousand dollars per violation, if ~~((he))~~ the director finds that the order is in the public interest and that the applicant or licensee:

(1) In the case of a vehicle dealer:

(a) The applicant or licensee, or any partner, officer, director, owner of ten percent or more of the assets of the firm, or managing employee:

(i) Was the holder of a license issued pursuant to this chapter, which was revoked for cause and never reissued by the department, or which license was suspended for cause and the terms of the suspension have not been fulfilled, or which license was assessed a civil penalty and the assessed amount has not been paid;

(ii) Has been adjudged guilty of a crime which directly relates to the business of a vehicle dealer and the time elapsed since the adjudication is less than ten years, or suffering any judgment within the preceding five years in any civil action involving fraud, misrepresentation, or conversion. For the purposes of this section, adjudged guilty shall mean in addition to a final conviction in either a state or municipal court, an unvacated forfeiture of bail or collateral deposited to secure a defendant's appearance in court, the payment of a fine, a plea of guilty, or a finding of guilt regardless of whether the sentence is deferred or the penalty is suspended;

(iii) Has knowingly or with reason to know made a false statement of a material fact in his application for license or any data attached thereto, or in any matter under investigation by the department;

(iv) Does not have an established place of business as ~~((defined))~~ required in this chapter;

(v) ~~((Employs an unlicensed salesman or one whose license has been denied, revoked within the last year, or is currently suspended, the terms of which have not been fulfilled;~~

~~((vii)))~~ (vi) Sells, exchanges, offers, brokers, auctions, solicits, or advertises a new or current model vehicle to which a factory new vehicle warranty attaches and fails to have a valid, written service agreement as required by this chapter, or having such agreement refuses to honor the terms of such agreement within a reasonable time or repudiates the same;

~~((viii)))~~ (vii) Is insolvent, either in the sense that ~~((his))~~ their liabilities exceed ~~((his))~~ their assets, or in the sense that ~~((he))~~ they cannot meet ~~((his))~~ their obligations as they mature;

~~((ix)))~~ (viii) Fails to pay any civil monetary penalty assessed by the director pursuant to this section within ten days after such assessment becomes final;

~~((x)))~~ (ix) Fails to notify the department of bankruptcy proceedings in the manner required by RCW 46.70.183;

(x) Knowingly, or with reason to know, allows a salesperson employed by the dealer, or acting as their agent, to commit any of the prohibited practices set forth in subsection (1)(a) of this section and RCW 46.70.180.

(b) The applicant or licensee, or any partner, officer, director, owner of ten percent of the assets of the firm, or any employee or agent:

(i) Has failed to comply with the applicable provisions of chapter 46.12 or 46.16 RCW or this chapter or any rules and regulations adopted thereunder;

(ii) Has defrauded or attempted to defraud the state, or a political subdivision thereof of any taxes or fees in connection with the sale or transfer of a vehicle;

(iii) Has forged the signature of the registered or legal owner on a certificate of title;

(iv) Has purchased, sold, disposed of, or has in his or her possession any vehicle which he or she knows or has reason to know has been stolen or appropriated without the consent of the owner;

(v) Has wilfully failed to deliver to a purchaser a certificate of ownership to a vehicle which he has sold;

(vi) Has committed any act in violation of RCW 46.70.090 relating to vehicle dealer license plates (~~(and)~~) or manufacturer license plates;

(vii) Has committed any act in violation of RCW 46.70.180 relating to unlawful acts and practices; (~~or~~)

(viii) Has engaged in practices inimical to the health or safety of the citizens of the state of Washington including but not limited to failure to comply with standards set by the state of Washington or the federal government pertaining to the construction or safety of vehicles;

(ix) Has aided or assisted an unlicensed dealer or salesperson in unlawful activity through active or passive participation in sales, allowing use of facilities, dealer license number, or by any other means; or

(x) Converts or appropriates, whether temporarily or permanently, property or funds belonging to a customer, dealer, or manufacturer, without the consent of the owner of the property or funds.

(c) The licensee or any partner, officer, director, or owner of ten percent or more of the assets of the firm holds or has held any such position in any other vehicle dealership licensed pursuant to this chapter which is subject to final proceedings under this section.

(2) (~~In the case of a vehicle salesman:~~

~~(a) Was the holder, or was a partner in a partnership or was an officer, director, or owner involved in the management of a corporation which was the holder, of a license issued pursuant to this chapter which was revoked for cause and never reissued, or was suspended and the terms of the suspension had not been fulfilled, or which license was assessed a civil penalty and the assessed amount has not been paid;~~

~~(b) Has been adjudged guilty of a crime which directly relates to the business of a vehicle salesman and the time elapsed since the conviction is less than ten years, or suffering any judgment within the preceding five years in any civil action involving fraud, misrepresentation, or conversion. For the purpose of this section, the term adjudged guilty means, in addition to a final conviction in either a state or municipal court, an unvacated forfeiture of bail or collateral deposited to secure a defendant's appearance in court, the payment of a fine, a plea of guilty, or a finding of guilt regardless of whether the imposition of sentence is deferred or the penalty is suspended;~~

~~(c) Has knowingly or with reason to know made a false statement of a material fact in his application for license or any data attached thereto or in any matter under investigation by the department;~~

~~(d) Has failed to comply with the applicable provisions of chapter 46.12 or 46.16 RCW or this chapter or any rules and regulations adopted thereunder;~~

~~(e) Has defrauded or attempted to defraud the state or a political subdivision thereof, of any taxes or fees in connection with the sale or transfer of a vehicle;~~

~~(f) Has forged the signature of the registered or legal owner on a certificate of title;~~

~~(g) Has purchased, sold, disposed of, or has in his possession, any vehicle which he knows or has reason to know has been stolen or appropriated without the consent of the owner;~~

~~(h) Has wilfully failed to deliver to a purchaser a certificate of ownership to a vehicle which he has sold;~~

~~(i) Has committed any act in violation of RCW 46.70.180 relating to unlawful acts and practices;~~

~~(j) Fails to pay any civil monetary penalty assessed by the director pursuant to this section within ten days after such assessment becomes final;~~

~~(k) Converts or appropriates, whether temporarily or permanently, property or funds belonging to a customer, dealer, or manufacturer, without the consent of the owner of such property or funds.~~

~~(3))~~ In the case of a manufacturer, or any partner, officer, director, or majority shareholder:

(a) Was or is the holder of a license issued pursuant to this chapter which was revoked for cause and never reissued by the department, or which license was suspended for cause and the terms of the suspension have not been fulfilled, or which license was assessed a civil penalty and the assessed amount has not been paid;

(b) Has knowingly or with reason to know, made a false statement of a material fact in his application for license, or any data attached thereto, or in any matter under investigation by the department;

(c) Has failed to comply with the applicable provisions of chapter 46.12 or 46.16 RCW or this chapter or any rules and regulations adopted thereunder;

(d) Has defrauded or attempted to defraud the state or a political subdivision thereof, of any taxes or fees in connection with the sale or transfer of a vehicle;

(e) Has purchased, sold, disposed of, or has in his possession, any vehicle which he knows or has reason to know has been stolen or appropriated without the consent of the owner;

(f) Has committed any act in violation of RCW 46.70.090 relating to vehicle dealer license plates and manufacturer license plates;

(g) Has committed any act in violation of RCW 46.70.180 relating to unlawful acts and practices;

(h) Sells or distributes in this state or transfers into this state for resale, any new or unused vehicle to which a warranty attaches or has attached and refuses to honor the terms of such warranty within a reasonable time or repudiates the same;

(i) Fails to maintain one or more resident employees or agents to provide service or repairs to vehicles located within the state of Washington only under the terms of any warranty attached to new or unused vehicles manufactured and which are or have been sold or distributed in this state or transferred into this state for resale unless such manufacturer requires warranty service to be performed by all of its dealers pursuant to a current service agreement on file with the department;

(j) Fails to reimburse within a reasonable time any vehicle dealer within the state of Washington who in good faith incurs reasonable obligations in giving effect to warranties that attach or have attached to any new or unused vehicle sold or distributed in this state or transferred into this state for resale by any such manufacturer;

(k) Engaged in practices inimical to the health and safety of the citizens of the state of Washington including but not limited to failure to comply with standards set by the state of Washington or the federal government pertaining to the construction and safety of vehicles;

(l) Is insolvent either in the sense that his or her liabilities exceed his or her assets or in the sense that he or she cannot meet his or her obligations as they mature;

(m) Fails to notify the department of bankruptcy proceedings in the manner required by RCW 46.70.183.

Sec. 14. Section 12, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.102 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the entry of the order under RCW 46.70.101 the director shall promptly notify the applicant or licensee(~~(, as well as the employer or prospective employer if the applicant or licensee is a salesman,)~~) that the order has been entered and of the reasons therefor and that if requested by the applicant or licensee within fifteen days after the receipt of the director's notification, the matter will be promptly set down for hearing pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW. If no hearing is requested and none is ordered by the director, the order will remain in effect until it is modified or vacated by the director. If a hearing is requested or ordered, the director, or his personal representative, after notice of and opportunity for hearing, may modify or vacate the order, or extend it until final determination. No final order may be entered under RCW 46.70.101 denying or revoking a license without appropriate prior notice to the applicant or licensee (~~((as well as the employer or prospective employer if the applicant or licensee is a salesman))),~~ opportunity for hearing, and written findings of fact and conclusions of law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 46.70 RCW to read as follows:

If it appears to the director that a person has engaged or is about to engage in an act or practice constituting a violation of this chapter, or a rule adopted or an order issued under this chapter, the director may issue an order directing the person to cease and desist from continuing the act or practice. Reasonable notice of and opportunity for a hearing shall be given. The director may issue a temporary order pending a hearing. The temporary order shall remain in effect until ten days after the hearing is held and shall become final if the person to whom the notice is addressed does not request a hearing within fifteen days after receipt of the notice.

Sec. 16. Section 46.70.120, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 15, chapter 132, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.120 are each amended to read as follows:

A dealer shall complete and maintain for a period of at least five years a record of the purchase and sale of all vehicles purchased or sold by him (~~(which)~~). The records shall consist of:

(1) The license and title numbers of the state in which the last license was issued;

(2) A description of the vehicle; (~~(and)~~)

(3) The name and address of person from whom purchased; (~~(and)~~)

(4) The name of legal owner, if any; (~~(and)~~)

(5) The name and address of purchaser; (~~(and)~~)

(6) If purchased from a dealer, the name, business address, dealer license number, and resale tax number of the dealer;

(7) The price paid for the vehicle and the method of payment;

(8) The odometer statement given by the seller to the dealer, and the odometer statement given by the dealer to the purchaser;

(9) The written agreement to allow a dealer to sell between the dealer and the consignor, or the listing dealer and the seller;

(10) Trust account records of receipts, deposits, and withdrawals;

(11) All sale documents, which shall show the full name of dealer employees involved in the sale;

(12) Any additional information the department may require.

Such record shall be maintained separate and apart from all other business records of the dealer and shall at all times be available for inspection by the director or his duly authorized agent.

Sec. 17. Section 5, chapter 68, Laws of 1965 and RCW 46.70.170 are each amended to read as follows:

It (~~(shall be)~~) is a misdemeanor for any person to violate any of the provisions of this chapter, except where expressly provided otherwise, and the rules (~~(and regulations promulgated)~~) adopted as provided under this chapter.

Sec. 18. Section 16, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 13, chapter 472, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.70.180 are each amended to read as follows:

Each of the following acts or practices is (~~(hereby declared)~~) unlawful:

(1) To cause or permit to be advertised, printed, displayed, published, distributed, broadcasted, televised, or disseminated in any manner whatsoever, any statement or representation with regard to the sale or financing of a vehicle which is false, deceptive, or misleading, including but not limited to the following:

(a) That no down payment is required in connection with the sale of a vehicle when a down payment is in fact required, or that a vehicle may be purchased for a smaller down payment than is actually required;

(b) That a certain percentage of the sale price of a vehicle may be financed when such financing is not offered in a single document evidencing the entire security transaction;

(c) That a certain percentage is the amount of the service charge to be charged for financing, without stating whether this percentage charge is a monthly amount or an amount to be charged per year;

(d) That a new vehicle will be sold for a certain amount above or below cost without computing cost as the exact amount of the factory invoice on the specific vehicle to be sold;

(e) That a vehicle will be sold upon a monthly payment of a certain amount, without including in the statement the number of payments of that same amount which are required to liquidate the unpaid purchase price.

(2) To incorporate within the terms of any purchase and sale agreement any statement or representation with regard to the sale or financing of a vehicle which is false, deceptive, or misleading, including but not limited to terms that include as an added cost to the selling price of a vehicle an amount for licensing or transfer of title of that vehicle which is not actually due to the state, unless such amount has in fact been paid by the dealer prior to such sale.

(3) To set up, promote, or aid in the promotion of a plan by which vehicles are to be sold to a person for a consideration and upon further consideration that the purchaser agrees to secure one or more persons to participate in the plan by respectively making a similar purchase and in turn agreeing to secure one or more persons likewise to join in said plan, each purchaser being given the right to secure money, credits, goods, or something of value, depending upon the number of persons joining the plan.

(4) To commit, allow, or ratify any act of "bushing" which is defined as follows: Taking from a prospective buyer of a vehicle a written order or offer to purchase, or a contract document signed by the buyer, which:

(a) Is subject to the dealer's, or his authorized representative's future acceptance, and the dealer fails or refuses within forty-eight hours, exclusive of Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, and prior to any further negotiations with said buyer, to deliver to the buyer either the dealer's signed acceptance or all copies of the order, offer, or contract document together with any initial payment or security made or given by the buyer, including but not limited to money, check, promissory note, vehicle keys, a trade-in, or certificate of title to a trade-in; or

(b) Permits the dealer to renegotiate a dollar amount specified as trade-in allowance on a vehicle delivered or to be delivered by the buyer as part of the purchase price, for any reason except substantial physical damage or latent mechanical defect occurring before the dealer took possession of the vehicle and which could not have been reasonably discoverable at the time of the taking of the order, offer, or contract; or

(c) Fails to comply with the obligation of any written warranty or guarantee given by the dealer requiring the furnishing of services or repairs within a reasonable time.

(5) To commit any offense relating to odometers, as such offenses are defined in RCW 46.37.540, 46.37.550, 46.37.560, and 46.37.570. A violation of this subsection is a class C felony punishable under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

(6) For any vehicle dealer or vehicle salesman to refuse to furnish, upon request of a prospective purchaser, the name and address of the previous registered owner of any used vehicle offered for sale.

(7) To commit any other offense under RCW 46.37.423, 46.37.424, or 46.37.425.

(8) To commit any offense relating to a dealer's temporary license permit, including but not limited to failure to properly complete each such permit, or the issuance of more than one such permit on any one vehicle.

(9) For a dealer, salesman, or mobile home manufacturer, having taken an instrument or cash "on deposit" from a purchaser prior to the delivery of the bargained-for vehicle, to commingle said "on deposit" funds with assets of the dealer, salesman, or mobile home manufacturer instead of holding said "on deposit" funds as trustee in a separate trust account until the purchaser has taken delivery of the bargained-for vehicle. Failure, immediately upon receipt, to endorse "on deposit" instruments to such a trust account, or to set aside "on deposit" cash for deposit in such trust account, and failure to deposit such instruments or cash in such trust account by the close of banking hours on the day following receipt thereof, shall be evidence of intent to commit this unlawful practice: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That a motor vehicle dealer may keep a separate trust account which equals his customary total customer deposits for vehicles for future delivery.

(10) For a dealer or manufacturer to fail to comply with the obligations of any written warranty or guarantee given by the dealer or manufacturer requiring the furnishing of goods and services or repairs within a reasonable period of time, or to fail to furnish to a purchaser, all parts which attach to the manufactured unit including but not limited to the undercarriage, and all items specified in the terms of a sales agreement signed by the seller and buyer.

(11) Being a manufacturer, other than a motorcycle manufacturer governed by chapter 46.94 RCW, to:

(a) Coerce or attempt to coerce any vehicle dealer to order or accept delivery of any vehicle or vehicles, parts or accessories, or any other commodities which have not been voluntarily ordered by the vehicle dealer: PROVIDED, That recommendation, endorsement, exposition, persuasion, urging, or argument are not deemed to constitute coercion;

(b) Cancel or fail to renew the franchise or selling agreement of any vehicle dealer doing business in this state without fairly compensating the dealer at a fair going business value for his capital investment which shall include but not be limited to tools, equipment, and parts inventory possessed by the dealer on the day he is notified of such cancellation or termination and which are still within the dealer's possession on the day the cancellation or termination is effective, if: (i) The capital investment has been entered into with reasonable and prudent business judgment for the purpose of fulfilling the franchise; and (ii) said cancellation or nonrenewal was not done in good faith. Good faith is defined as the duty of each party to any franchise to act in a fair and equitable manner towards each other, so as to guarantee one party freedom from coercion, intimidation, or threats of coercion or intimidation from the other party: PROVIDED, That recommendation, endorsement, exposition, persuasion, urging, or argument are not deemed to constitute a lack of good faith.

(c) Encourage, aid, abet, or teach a vehicle dealer to sell vehicles through any false, deceptive, or misleading sales or financing practices including but not limited to those practices declared unlawful in this section;

(d) Coerce or attempt to coerce a vehicle dealer to engage in any practice forbidden in this section by either threats of actual cancellation or failure to renew the dealer's franchise agreement;

(e) Refuse to deliver any vehicle publicly advertised for immediate delivery to any duly licensed vehicle dealer having a franchise or contractual agreement for the retail sale of new and unused vehicles sold or distributed by such manufacturer within sixty days after such dealer's order has been received in writing unless caused by inability to deliver because of shortage or curtailment of material, labor, transportation, or utility services, or by any labor or production difficulty, or by any cause beyond the reasonable control of the manufacturer;

(f) To provide under the terms of any warranty that a purchaser of any new or unused vehicle that has been sold, distributed for sale, or transferred into this state for resale by the vehicle manufacturer may only make any warranty claim on any item included as an integral part of the vehicle against the manufacturer of that item.

Nothing in this section may be construed to impair the obligations of a contract or to prevent a manufacturer, distributor, representative, or any other person, whether or not licensed under this chapter, from requiring performance of a written contract entered into with any licensee hereunder, nor does the requirement of such performance constitute a violation of any of the provisions of this section if any such contract or the terms thereof requiring performance, have been freely entered into and executed between the contracting parties.

Sec. 19. Section 21, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 19, chapter 132, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.190 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who is injured in his business or property by a violation of this chapter, or any person so injured because he refuses to accede to a proposal for an arrangement which, if consummated, would be in violation of this chapter, may bring a civil action in the superior court to enjoin further violations, to recover the actual damages sustained by him together with the costs of the suit, including a reasonable attorney's fee.

Any person recovering judgment or whose claim has been dismissed with prejudice against a manufacturer pursuant to RCW (~~46.70.180(7)(b)~~) 46.70.180(11)(b) and this section shall, upon full payment of said judgment, or upon the dismissal of such claim, execute a waiver in favor of the judgment debtor or defendant of any claim arising prior to the date of said judgment or dismissal under the Federal Automobile Dealer Franchise Act, 15 United States Code Sections 1221-1225. Any person having recovered full payment for any judgment or whose claim has been dismissed with prejudice under said Federal Automobile Dealer Franchise Act shall have no cause of action under this section for alleged violation of RCW (~~46.70.180(7)(b)~~) 46.70.180(11)(b), with respect to matters arising prior to the date of said judgment.

A civil action brought in the superior court pursuant to the provisions of this section must be filed no later than one year following the alleged violation of this chapter.

Sec. 20. Section 17, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.200 are each amended to read as follows:

The director shall revoke or refuse to issue a (~~motor~~) vehicle dealer's license for a franchise replacing a canceled or terminated franchise if a civil action pursuant to RCW 46.70.190 is pending and was filed within sixty days following the written notification of the cancellation or nonrenewal of an existing franchise and a certified copy of (~~said~~) the complaint alleging the date of said notification is filed with the department within said sixty days by the complaining motor vehicle dealer. The court may, however, in order to maintain adequate and competitive service in the area or upon a showing of good cause by the manufacturer, distributor, or factory branch order the director to issue (~~said motor~~) the vehicle dealer's license if the dealer complies with other sections of chapter 46.70 RCW.

Sec. 21. Section 18, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.210 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the filing of a complaint pursuant to RCW 46.70.190 by a complaining (~~motor~~) vehicle dealer within sixty days following the written notification of the cancellation or nonrenewal of the existing franchise, any canceled or nonrenewed franchise of said complaining dealer shall stay in full force and effect until the complaint has been expeditiously disposed of, unless the court, pursuant to RCW 46.70.200, has ordered the director to issue a ((motor)) vehicle dealer's license to a new franchisee.

If a new franchise is given by a manufacturer, distributor, or factory branch for the sale of the same make of ((motor)) vehicle in the same area of responsibility in that covered in ((said)) the canceled or terminated franchise, ((such act shall be)) that act is prima facie evidence that the new franchise replaced the canceled or terminated franchise.

Sec. 22. Section 24, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.260 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of this chapter shall be applicable to all franchises and contracts existing between ((motor)) vehicle dealers and manufacturers or factory branches and to all future franchises and contracts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. A new section is added to chapter 46.70 RCW to read as follows:

Any violation of this chapter is deemed to affect the public interest and constitutes a violation of chapter 19.86 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 8, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess., section 10, chapter 132, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.081; and

(2) Section 9, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 ex. sess., section 5, chapter 74, Laws of 1971 ex. sess., section 11, chapter 132, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.70.082.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. The department shall report to the legislature as to the implementation of this act, and make any necessary recommendations for revisions by December 31, 1987.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. The department shall develop a specific plan for the full implementation of this act and shall report its findings to the legislative transportation committee by December 15, 1986. The plan shall include an evaluation of the feasibility of basing the annual license fee schedule on volume, rather than on the flat rates established in RCW 46.70.061, and shall consider the establishment of no fewer than five license fee categories.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. To carry out this act, the sum of three hundred seventy-five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated to the department of licensing from the motor vehicle fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1987.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately, except section 9 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1986, and section 10 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1987.

Passed the Senate March 9, 1986.

Passed the House March 5, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

CHAPTER 242

[Substitute Senate Bill No. 4547]

CROP LIENS

AN ACT Relating to crop liens; amending RCW 62A.9-310; adding a new chapter to Title 60 RCW; creating new sections; repealing RCW 60.12.010, 60.12.020, 60.12.030, 60.12.040, 60.12.060, 60.12.070, 60.12.080, 60.12.090, 60.12.100, 60.12.110, 60.12.120, 60.12.130, 60.12.140, 60.12.150, 60.12.160, 60.12.170, 60.12.180, 60.12.190, 60.12.200, 60.12.210, 60.14.010, 60.14.020, 60.14.030, 60.22.010, 60.22.020, and 60.22.030; and providing an effective date.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. DEFINITIONS. As used in this chapter, the following terms have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Crop" means all products of the soil either growing or cropped, cut, or gathered which require annual planting, harvesting, or cultivating. A crop does not include vegetation produced by the powers of nature alone, nursery stock, or vegetation intended as a permanent enhancement of the land itself.

(2) "Landlord" means a person who leases or subleases to a tenant real property upon which crops are growing or will be grown.

(3) "Secured party" and "security interest" have the same meaning as used in the Uniform Commercial Code, Title 62A RCW.

(4) "Supplier" includes, but is not limited to, a person who furnishes seed, furnishes and/or applies commercial fertilizer, pesticide, fungicide, weed killer, or herbicide, including spraying and dusting, upon the land of the grower or landowner, or furnishes any work or labor upon the land of the grower or landowner including tilling, preparing for the growing of crops, sowing, planting, cultivating, cutting, digging, picking, pulling, or otherwise harvesting any crop grown thereon, or in gathering, securing, or housing any crop grown thereon, or in threshing any grain or hauling to any warehouse any crop or grain grown thereon.

(5) "Lien debtor" means the person who is obligated or owes payment or other performance. If the lien debtor and the owner of the collateral are not the same person, "lien debtor" means the owner of the collateral.

(6) "Lien holder" means a person who, by statute, has acquired a lien on the property of the lien debtor, or such person's successor in interest.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. PERSONS ENTITLED TO CROP LIENS; PROPERTY SUBJECT TO LIEN. (1) A landlord whose lease or other agreement with the tenant provides for cash rental payment shall have a lien upon all crops grown upon the demised land in which the landlord has an interest for no more than one year's rent due or to become due within six months following harvest. A landlord with a crop share agreement has an interest in the growing crop which shall not be encumbered by crop liens except as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) A supplier shall have a lien upon all crops for which the supplies are used or applied to secure payment of the purchase price of the supplies and/or services performed: PROVIDED, That the landlord's interest in the crop shall only be subject to the lien for the amount obligated to be paid by the landlord if prior written consent of the landlord is obtained or if the landlord has agreed in writing with the tenant to pay or be responsible for a portion of the supplies and/or services provided by the lien holder.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. ATTACHMENT OF LIENS; ATTACHMENT OF PROCEEDS. Upon filing, the liens described in section 2 of this act shall attach to the crop for all sums then and thereafter due and owing the lien holder and shall continue in all identifiable cash proceeds of the crop.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. CLAIM OF LIEN; FILING; CONTENTS; DURATION. (1) Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section with respect to the lien of a landlord, any lien holder must after the commencement of delivery of such supplies and/or of provision of such services, but before the completion of the harvest of the crops for which the lien is claimed: (a) File a statement evidencing the lien with the department of licensing; and (b) if the lien holder is to be allowed costs, disbursements, and attorneys' fees, mail a copy of such statement to the last known address of the debtor by certified mail, return receipt requested, within ten days.

(2) The statement shall be in writing, signed by the claimant, and shall contain in substance the following information:

- (a) The name and address of the claimant;
- (b) The name and address of the debtor;
- (c) The date of commencement of performance for which the lien is claimed;
- (d) A description of the labor services, materials, or supplies furnished;
- (e) A description of the crop and its location to be charged with the lien sufficient for identification; and
- (f) The signature of the claimant.

(3) The department of licensing may by rule prescribe standard filing forms, fees, and uniform procedures for filing with, and obtaining information from, filing officers, including provisions for filing crop liens together with financing statements filed pursuant to RCW 62A.9-401 so that one request will reveal all filed crop liens and security interests.

(4) Any landlord claiming a lien under this chapter for rent shall file a statement evidencing the lien with the department of licensing. A lien for rent claimed by a landlord pursuant to this chapter shall be effective during the term of the lease for a period of up to five years. A landlord lien covering a lease term longer than five years may be refiled in accordance with section 5(4) of this act. A landlord who has a right to a share of the crop may place suppliers on notice by filing evidence of such interest in the same manner as provided for filing a landlord's lien.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. PRIORITIES OF LIENS AND SECURITY INTERESTS. (1) Except as provided in subsections (2), (3), and (4) of this section, conflicting liens and security interests shall rank in accordance with the time of filing.

(2) The lien created in section 2(2) of this act in favor of any person who furnishes any work or labor upon the land of the grower or landowner shall be preferred and prior to any other lien or security interest upon the crops to which they attach including the liens described in subsections (3) and (4) of this section.

(3) A lien or security interest in crops otherwise entitled to priority pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall be subordinate to a later filed lien or security interest to the extent that obligations secured by such earlier filed security interest or lien were not incurred to produce such crops.

(4) A lien or security interest in crops otherwise entitled to priority pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall be subordinate to a properly filed landlord's lien. A landlord's lien shall retain its priority if refiled within six months prior to its expiration.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. FORECLOSURE OF CROP LIEN. Any lien subject to this chapter, excluded by RCW 62A.9-104 from the provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code, Title 62A RCW, may be foreclosed by an action in the superior court having jurisdiction in the county in which the real property on which the crop in question was grown is situated in accordance with section 7 of this act or it may be foreclosed by summary procedure as provided in section 8 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. JUDICIAL FORECLOSURE. The lien holder may proceed upon his or her lien; and if there is a separate obligation in writing to pay the same, secured by the lien, he or she may bring suit upon such separate promise. When he or she proceeds on the promise, if there is a specific agreement therein contained, for the payment of a certain sum or there is a separate obligation for the sum in addition to a decree of sale of lien property, judgment shall be rendered for the amount due upon the promise or other instrument, the payment of which is thereby secured; the decree shall direct the sale of the lien property and if the proceeds of the sale are insufficient under the execution, the sheriff is authorized to levy upon and sell other property of the lien debtor, not exempt from execution, for the sum remaining unsatisfied.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. SUMMARY FORECLOSURE. (1) A lien may be summarily foreclosed by notice and sale as provided in this section. The lien holder may sell or otherwise dispose of the collateral in its existing condition or following any commercially reasonable preparation or processing. The proceeds of disposition shall be applied in the order following to:

(a) The reasonable expenses of retaking, holding, preparing for sale, selling and the like, and to the extent provided for in the agreement and not prohibited by law, the reasonable attorneys' fees and legal expenses incurred by the secured party;

(b) The satisfaction of indebtedness secured by the lien under which the disposition is made;

(c) The satisfaction of indebtedness secured by any subordinate security interest in the collateral if written notification of demand therefor is received before distribution of the proceeds is completed. If requested by the lien holder, the holder of a subordinate security interest must seasonably furnish reasonable proof of his or her interest, and unless he or she does so, the lien holder need not comply with the demand.

(2) The lien holder shall account to the lien debtor for any surplus, and, unless otherwise agreed, the lien debtor is not liable for any deficiency.

(3) Disposition of the collateral may be by public or private proceedings and may be made by way of one or more contracts. Sale or other disposition may be as a unit or in parcels and at any time and place and on any terms but every aspect of the disposition including the method, manner, time, place, and terms must be commercially reasonable. Unless collateral is perishable or threatens to decline quickly in value or is of a type customarily sold on a recognized market, reasonable notification of the time after which any private sale or other intended disposition is to be made shall be sent by the lien holder to the lien debtor, and to any other person who has a duly filed crop lien, or who has a security interest in the collateral and has duly filed a financing statement indexed in the name of the lien debtor in this state, or who is known by the lien holder to have a security interest or crop lien in the collateral. The lien holder may buy at any public sale, and if the collateral is of a type customarily sold in a recognized market or is of a type which is the subject of widely distributed standard price quotations the lien holder may buy at private sale.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. RIGHTS AND INTEREST OF PURCHASER FOR VALUE. When a lien is foreclosed in accordance with section 6 of this act, the disposition transfers to a purchaser for value all of the lien debtor's right therein and discharges the lien under which it is made and any security interest or lien subordinate thereto. The purchaser takes free of all such rights and interest even though the lien holder fails to comply with the requirements of this chapter or of any judicial proceedings under section 7 of this act:

(1) In the case of a public sale, if the purchaser has no knowledge of any defects in the sale and if he or she does not buy in collusion with the lien holder, other bidders, or the person conducting the sale; or

(2) In any other case, if the purchaser acts in good faith.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. REDEMPTION. At any time before the lien holder has disposed of collateral or entered into a contract for its disposition under section 6 of this act, the lien debtor or any other secured party may redeem the collateral by tendering fulfillment of all obligations secured by the collateral as well as the expenses reasonably incurred by the lien holder in holding and preparing the collateral for disposition and in arranging for the sale and his or her reasonable attorneys' fees and legal expenses.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. NONCOMPLIANCE WITH CHAPTER—RIGHTS OF LIEN DEBTOR. If the lien holder is not proceeding in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, disposition may be ordered or restrained on appropriate terms and conditions. If the disposition has occurred the lien debtor or any person entitled to notification or whose security interest has been made known to the lien holder prior to the disposition has a right to recover from the lien holder any loss caused by a failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. "COMMERCIALLY REASONABLE." The fact that a better price could have been obtained by a sale at a different time or in a different method from that selected by the lien holder is not in itself sufficient to establish that the sale was not made in a commercially reasonable manner. If the lien holder either sells the collateral in the usual manner in any recognized market therefor or if he or she sells at the price current in such market at the time of the sale or if he or she has otherwise sold in conformity with reasonable commercial practices among dealers in the type of property sold he or she has sold in a commercially reasonable manner. A disposition which has been approved in any judicial proceeding or by any bona fide creditors' committee or representative of creditors shall conclusively be deemed to be commercially reasonable, but this does not mean that approval must be obtained in any case nor does it mean that any disposition not so approved is not commercially reasonable.

For purposes of this chapter, "commercially reasonable" shall be construed in a manner consistent with this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. LIMITATION OF ACTION TO FORECLOSE—COSTS. Judicial foreclosure or summary procedure as provided in section 6 of this act shall be brought within twenty-four calendar months after filing the claim for lien, except in the case of a landlord lien which shall be twenty-four calendar months from the date of default on the lease, and upon expiration of such time, the claimed lien shall expire. In a judicial foreclosure, the court shall allow reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursement for establishing a lien.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. LIEN TERMINATION STATEMENT.

(1) Whenever the total amount of the lien has been fully paid, the lien holder shall, within fifteen days following receipt of full payment, file its lien termination statement with the department of licensing. Failure to file a lien termination statement by the lien holder or the assignee of the lien holder shall cause the lien holder or its assignee to be liable to the debtor for the attorneys' fees and costs incurred by the debtor to have the lien terminated together with damages incurred by the debtor due to the failure of the lien holder to terminate the lien.

(2) There shall be no charge by the department of licensing for entering the lien termination statement and indexing the same and returning a copy of the lien termination statement stamped as "filed" with the filing date thereon.

(3) The department of licensing may enter the lien termination statement on microfilm or other photographic record and destroy all originals of the lien and lien satisfaction filed with him or her.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Liens created prior to the effective date of this act, which are based on statutes repealed by this act, shall remain in effect for the duration provided by the law in effect before the effective date of this act. The department of licensing shall notify persons requesting information for crop liens that, for this transition period, records of crop liens may exist at a county auditor's office as well as at the department of licensing.

Sec. 16. Section 9-310, chapter 157, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 10, chapter 412, Laws of 1985 and RCW 62A.9-310 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When a person in the ordinary course of his business furnishes services or materials with respect to goods subject to a security interest, a lien upon goods in the possession of such person given by statute or rule of law for such materials or services takes priority over a perfected security interest only if the lien is statutory and the statute expressly provides for such priority.

(2) A preparer lien or processor lien properly created pursuant to chapter 60.13 RCW (~~((sections 1 through 7 of this 1985 act))~~) or a depositor's lien created pursuant to chapter 22.09 RCW takes priority over any perfected or unperfected security interest.

(3) (~~(A commercial fertilizer, pesticide, or weed killer lien takes priority over any perfected or unperfected security interest for which no new value was provided if materials or services were given to enable the debtor~~

~~to produce the crops during the production season))~~ Conflicting priorities between nonpossessory crop liens created under sections 1 through 14 of this 1986 act and security interests shall be governed by chapter 60.— RCW (sections 1 through 14 of this 1986 act).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 1, chapter 256, Laws of 1927, section 1, chapter 32, Laws of 1933 and RCW 60.12.010;

(2) Section 2, chapter 256, Laws of 1927 and RCW 60.12.020;

(3) Section 3, chapter 256, Laws of 1927, section 2, chapter 336, Laws of 1955 and RCW 60.12.030;

(5) Section 5, chapter 256, Laws of 1927 and RCW 60.12.060;

(6) Section 6, chapter 256, Laws of 1927, section 2, chapter 32, Laws of 1933, section 11, chapter 44, Laws of 1985 and RCW 60.12.070;

(7) Section 7, chapter 256, Laws of 1927, section 5, chapter 336, Laws of 1955 and RCW 60.12.080;

(8) Section 8, chapter 256, Laws of 1927 and RCW 60.12.090;

(9) Section 9, chapter 256, Laws of 1927 and RCW 60.12.100;

(10) Section 10, chapter 256, Laws of 1927 and RCW 60.12.110;

(11) Section 11, chapter 256, Laws of 1927 and RCW 60.12.120;

(12) Section 12, chapter 256, Laws of 1927, section 2, chapter 119, Laws of 1933 and RCW 60.12.130;

(13) Section 13, chapter 256, Laws of 1927 and RCW 60.12.140;

(14) Section 14, chapter 256, Laws of 1927 and RCW 60.12.150;

(15) Section 15, chapter 256, Laws of 1927 and RCW 60.12.160;

(16) Section 16, chapter 256, Laws of 1927 and RCW 60.12.170;

(17) Section 1, chapter 336, Laws of 1955, section 1, chapter 226, Laws of 1959 and RCW 60.12.180;

(18) Section 3, chapter 336, Laws of 1955, section 12, chapter 44, Laws of 1985 and RCW 60.12.190;

(19) Section 4, chapter 336, Laws of 1955 and RCW 60.12.200;

(20) Section 6, chapter 336, Laws of 1955 and RCW 60.12.210;

(21) Section 1, chapter 217, Laws of 1955 and RCW 60.14.010;

(22) Section 2, chapter 217, Laws of 1955 and RCW 60.14.020;

(23) Section 3, chapter 217, Laws of 1955 and RCW 60.14.030;

(24) Section 1, chapter 264, Laws of 1961, section 9, chapter 412, Laws of 1985 and RCW 60.22.010;

(25) Section 2, chapter 264, Laws of 1961, section 1, chapter 21, Laws of 1977 and RCW 60.22.020; and

(26) Section 3, chapter 264, Laws of 1961 and RCW 60.22.030.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. As used in this act, section captions constitute no part of the law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. Sections 1 through 14 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 60 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. This act shall take effect January 1, 1987.

Passed the Senate March 9, 1986.

Passed the House March 7, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986.

CHAPTER 243

[Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4582]

HEALTH CARE CLAIMS—FRAUD

AN ACT Relating to fraud in the obtaining of health care benefits; adding a new chapter to Title 48 RCW; and prescribing penalties.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds and declares that the welfare of the citizens of this state is threatened by the spiraling increases in the cost of health care. It is further recognized that fraudulent health care claims contribute to these increases in health care costs. In recognition of these findings, it is declared that special attention must be directed at eliminating the unjustifiable costs of fraudulent health care claims by establishing specific penalties and deterrents. This chapter may be known and cited as "the health care false claim act."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Claim" means any attempt to cause a health care payer to make a health care payment.

(2) "Deceptive" means presenting a claim to a health care payer that contains a statement of fact or fails to reveal a material fact, leading the health care payer to believe that the represented or suggested state of affairs is other than it actually is. For the purposes of this chapter, the determination of what constitutes a material fact is a question of law to be resolved by the court.

(3) "False" means wholly or partially untrue or deceptive.

(4) "Health care payment" means a payment for health care services or the right under a contract, certificate, or policy of insurance to have a payment made by a health care payer for a specified health care service.

(5) "Health care payer" means any insurance company authorized to provide health insurance in this state, any health care service contractor authorized under chapter 48.44 RCW, any health maintenance organization authorized under chapter 48.46 RCW, any legal entity which is self-insured and providing health care benefits to its employees, or any person responsible for paying for health care services.

(6) "Person" means an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or other legal entity.

(7) "Provider" means any person lawfully licensed or authorized to render any health service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) A person shall not make or present or cause to be made or presented to a health care payer a claim for a health care payment knowing the claim to be false.

(2) No person shall knowingly present to a health care payer a claim for a health care payment that falsely represents that the goods or services were medically necessary in accordance with professionally accepted standards. Each claim that violates this subsection shall constitute a separate offense.

(3) No person shall knowingly make a false statement or false representation of a material fact to a health care payer for use in determining rights to a health care payment. Each claim that violates this subsection shall constitute a separate violation.

(4) No person shall conceal the occurrence of any event affecting his or her initial or continued right under a contract, certificate, or policy of insurance to have a payment made by a health care payer for a specified health care service. A person shall not conceal or fail to disclose any information with intent to obtain a health care payment to which the person or any other person is not entitled, or to obtain a health care payment in an amount greater than that which the person or any other person is entitled.

(5) A person who violates this section is guilty of a class C felony punishable under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

(6) This section does not apply to statements made on an application for coverage under a contract or certificate of health care coverage issued by an insurer, health care service contractor, health maintenance organization, or other legal entity which is self-insured and providing health care benefits to its employees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. In a prosecution under this chapter, circumstantial evidence may be presented to demonstrate that a false statement or claim was knowingly made. Such evidence may include but shall not be limited to the following circumstances:

(1) Where a claim for a health care payment is submitted with the person's actual, facsimile, stamped, typewritten, or similar signature on the form required for the making of a claim for health care payment; and

(2) Where a claim for a health care payment is submitted by means of computer billing tapes or other electronic means if the person has advised the health care payer in writing that claims for health care payment will be submitted by use of computer billing tapes or other electronic means.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. This chapter shall not be construed to prohibit or limit a prosecution of or civil action against a person for the violation of any other law of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Upon the conviction under this chapter of any provider, the prosecutor shall provide written notification to the appropriate regulatory or disciplinary agency of such conviction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Sections 1 through 7 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 48 RCW.

Passed the Senate March 8, 1986.

Passed the House March 4, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

CHAPTER 244

[Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4717]

WATER QUALITY—WATER POLLUTION CONTROL FACILITIES—SERVICE PROVIDER AGREEMENTS

AN ACT Relating to water quality services; adding a new section to chapter 35.23 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 35.94 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 36.34 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 39.04 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 54.04 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 56.08 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 57.08 RCW; adding a new chapter to Title 70 RCW; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The long-range health and economic and environmental goals for the state of Washington require the protection of the state's surface and underground waters for the health, safety, use, and enjoyment of its people. It is the purpose of this chapter to provide public bodies an additional means by which to provide for financing, development, and operation of water pollution control facilities needed for achievement of state and federal water pollution control requirements for the protection of the state's waters.

It is the intent of the legislature that public bodies be authorized to provide service from water pollution control facilities by means of service agreements with public or private parties as provided in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Water pollution control facilities" or "facilities" means any facilities, systems, or subsystems owned or operated by a public body, or owned or operated by any person or entity for the purpose of providing service to a public body, for the control, collection, storage, treatment, disposal, or recycling of wastewater, including but not limited to sanitary sewage, storm water, residential wastes, commercial wastes, industrial wastes, and agricultural wastes, that are causing or threatening the degradation of subterranean or surface bodies of water due to concentrations of conventional, nonconventional, or toxic pollutants. Water pollution control facilities do not include dams or water supply systems.

(2) "Public body" means the state of Washington or any agency, county, city or town, political subdivision, municipal corporation, or quasi-municipal corporation.

(3) "Water pollution" means such contamination, or other alteration of the physical, chemical, or biological properties of any surface or subterranean waters of the state, including change in temperature, taste, color, turbidity, or odor of the waters, or such discharge of any liquid, gaseous, solid, radioactive, or other substance into any waters of the state as will or is likely to create a nuisance or render such waters harmful, detrimental, or injurious to the public health, safety, or welfare, or to domestic, commercial, industrial, agricultural, recreational, or other legitimate beneficial uses, or to livestock, wild animals, birds, fish, or other aquatic life.

(4) "Agreement" means any agreement to which a public body and a service provider are parties by which the service provider agrees to deliver service to such public body in connection with its design, financing, construction, ownership, operation, or maintenance of water pollution control facilities in accordance with this chapter.

(5) "Service provider" means any privately owned or publicly owned profit or nonprofit corporation, partnership, joint venture, association, or other person or entity that is legally capable of contracting for and providing service with respect to the design, financing, ownership, construction, operation, or maintenance of water pollution control facilities in accordance with this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) Public bodies may enter into agreements with service providers for the furnishing of service in connection with water pollution control facilities pursuant to the process set forth in section 4 of this act. The agreements may provide that a public body pay a minimum periodic fee in consideration of the service actually available without regard to the amount of service actually used during all or any part of the contractual period. Agreements may be for a term not to exceed forty years or the life of the facility, whichever is longer, and may be renewable.

(2) The source of funds to meet periodic payment obligations assumed by a public body pursuant to an agreement permitted under this section may be paid from taxes, or solely from user fees, charges, or other revenues pledged to the payment of the periodic obligations, or any of these sources.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The legislative authority of a public body may secure services by means of an agreement with a service provider. Such an agreement may obligate a service provider to design, finance, construct, own, operate, or maintain water pollution control facilities by which services are provided to the public body. Service agreements and related agreements under this chapter shall be entered into in accordance with the following procedure:

(1) The legislative authority of the public body shall publish notice that it is seeking to secure certain specified services by means of entering into an agreement with a service provider. The notice shall be published in the official newspaper of the public body, or if there is no official newspaper then in a newspaper in general circulation within the boundaries of the public body, at least once each week for two consecutive weeks. The final notice shall appear not less than sixty days before the date for submission of proposals. The notice shall state (a) the nature of the services needed, (b) the location in the public body's offices where the requirements and standards for construction, operation, or maintenance of projects needed as part of the services are available for inspection, and (c) the final date for the submission of proposals. The legislative authority may undertake a prequalification process by the same procedure set forth in this subsection.

(2) The request for proposals shall (a) indicate the time and place responses are due, (b) include evaluation criteria to be considered in selecting a service provider, (c) specify minimum requirements or other limitations applying to selection, (d) insofar as practicable, set forth terms and provisions to be included in the service agreement, and (e) require the service provider to demonstrate in its proposal that a public body's annual costs will be lower under its proposal than they would be if the public body financed, constructed, owned, operated, and maintained facilities required for service.

(3) The criteria set forth in the request for proposals shall be those determined to be relevant by the legislative authority of the public body, which may include but shall not be limited to: The respondent's prior experience, including design, construction, or operation of other similar facilities; respondent's management capability, schedule availability, and financial resources; cost of the service; nature of facility design proposed by respondents; system reliability; performance standards required for the facilities; compatibility with existing service facilities operated by the public body or other providers of service to the public body; project performance warranties; penalty and other enforcement provisions; environmental protection measures to be used; and allocation of project risks. The legislative authority shall designate persons or entities (a) to assist it in issuing the request for proposals to ensure that proposals will be responsive to its needs, and (b) to assist it in evaluating the proposals received. The designee shall not be a member of the legislative authority.

(4) After proposals under subsections (1) through (3) of this section have been received, the legislative authority's designee shall determine, on the basis of its review of the proposals, whether one or more proposals have been received from respondents which are (a) determined to be qualified to provide the requested services, and (b) responsive to the notice and evaluation criteria, which shall include, but not be limited to, cost of services. These chosen respondents shall be referred to as the selected respondents in this section. The designee shall conduct a bidder's conference to include all these selected respondents to assure a full understanding of the proposals. The bidder's conference shall also allow the designee to make these selected respondents aware of any changes in the request for proposal. Any information related to revisions in the request for proposal shall be made available to all these selected respondents. Any selected respondent shall be accorded a reasonable opportunity for revision of its proposal prior to commencement of the negotiation provided in subsection (5) of this section, for the purpose of obtaining best and final proposals.

(5) After such conference is held, the designee may negotiate with the selected respondent whose proposal it determines to be the most advantageous to the public body, considering the criteria set forth in the request for proposals. If the negotiation is unsuccessful, the legislative authority may authorize the designee to commence negotiations with any other selected respondent. On completion of this process, the designee shall report to the legislative authority on his or her recommendations and the reasons for them.

(6) Any person aggrieved by the legislative authority's approval of a contract may appeal the determination to an appeals board selected by the public body, which shall consist of not less than three persons determined by the legislative authority to be qualified for such purposes. Such board shall promptly hear and determine whether the public body entered into the agreement in accordance with this chapter and other applicable law. The hearing shall be conducted in the same manner as contested a case under chapter 34.04 RCW. The board shall have the power only to affirm or void the agreement.

(7) Notwithstanding the foregoing, where contracting for design services by the public body is done separately from contracting for other services permitted under this chapter, the contracting for design of water pollution control facilities shall be done in accordance with chapter 39.80 RCW.

(8) A service agreement shall include provision for an option by which a public body may acquire at fair market value facilities dedicated to such service.

(9) Before any service agreement is entered into by the public body, it shall be reviewed and approved by the department of ecology to ensure that the purposes of chapter 90.48 RCW are implemented.

(10) Prior to entering into any service agreement under this chapter, the public body must have made written findings, after holding a public hearing on the proposal, that it is in the public interest to enter into the service agreement and that the service agreement is financially sound and advantageous compared to other methods.

(11) Each service agreement shall include project performance bonds or other security by the service provider which in the judgment of the public body is sufficient to secure adequate performance by the service provider.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A public body may sell, lease, or assign public property for fair market value to any service provider as part of a service agreement entered into under the authority of this chapter. The property sold or leased shall be used by the provider, directly or indirectly, in providing services to the public body. Such use may include demolition, modification, or other use of the property as may be necessary to execute the purposes of the service agreement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A public body that enters into a service agreement pursuant to this chapter, under which a facility is owned wholly or partly by a service provider, shall be eligible for grants or loans to the extent permitted by law or regulation as if the entire portion of the facility dedicated to service to such public body were publicly owned. The grants or loans shall be made to and shall inure to the benefit of the public body and not the service provider. Such grants or loans shall be used by the public body for all or part of its ownership interest in the facility, and/or to defray a part of the payments it makes to the service provider under a service agreement if such uses are permitted under the grant or loan program.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 3 through 6 of this act shall be deemed to provide an additional method for the provision of services from and in connection with facilities and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other state laws and by federal laws.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) The provisions of chapters 39.12, 39.19, and 39.25 RCW shall apply to a service agreement entered into under this act to the same extent as if the facilities dedicated to such service were owned by a public body.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section shall not be construed to apply to agreements or actions by persons or entities which are not undertaken pursuant to this act.

(3) Except for section 13 of this act, this act shall not be construed as a limitation or restriction on the application of Title 39 RCW to public bodies.

(4) Prevailing wages shall be established as the prevailing wage in the largest city of the county in which facilities are built.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. This chapter may be cited as the water quality joint development act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 35.23 RCW to read as follows:

RCW 35.23.352 does not apply to agreements entered into under authority of chapter 70.— RCW (sections 1 through 9 of this act) provided there is compliance with the procurement procedure under section 4 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 35.94 RCW to read as follows:

This chapter does not apply to dispositions of utility property in connection with an agreement entered into pursuant to chapter 70.— RCW (sections 1 through 9 of this act) provided there is compliance with the procurement procedure under section 4 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. A new section is added to chapter 36.34 RCW to read as follows:

RCW 36.34.150 through 36.34.190 shall not apply to agreements entered into pursuant to chapter 70.— RCW (sections 1 through 9 of this act) provided there is compliance with the procurement procedure under section 4 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. A new section is added to chapter 39.04 RCW to read as follows:

This chapter does not apply to agreements entered into under authority of chapter 70.— RCW (sections 1 through 9 of this act) provided there is compliance with the procurement procedure under section 4 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. A new section is added to chapter 54.04 RCW to read as follows:

RCW 54.04.070 through 54.04.090 shall not apply to agreements entered into under authority of chapter 70.— RCW (sections 1 through 9 of this act) provided there is compliance with the procurement procedure under section 4 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 56.08 RCW to read as follows:

RCW 56.08.070, 56.08.080 through 56.08.090, and 56.08.120 through 56.08.160 shall not apply to an agreement entered into under authority of chapter 70.— RCW (sections 1 through 9 of this act) provided there is compliance with the procurement procedure under section 4 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A new section is added to chapter 57.08 RCW to read as follows:

RCW 57.08.015, 57.08.016, 57.08.050, 57.08.120, and 57.08.130 shall not apply to agreements entered into under authority of chapter 70.—RCW (sections 1 through 9 of this act) provided there is compliance with the procurement procedure under section 4 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Sections 1 through 9 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the Senate March 8, 1986.

Passed the House March 5, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986.

CHAPTER 245

[Substitute Senate Bill No. 4766]
RESIDENTIAL SPACE HEATING

AN ACT Relating to residential space heating; amending RCW 35.21.300, 35.21.301, 54.16.285, 54.16.286, 80.28.010, and 80.28.011; repealing RCW 54.16.290; and providing an expiration date.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 35.21.300, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 3, chapter 6, Laws of 1985 and RCW 35.21.300 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The lien for charges for service by a city waterworks, or electric light or power plant may be enforced only by cutting off the service until the delinquent and unpaid charges are paid, except that until June 30, ~~((+1986))~~ 1990, electricity for residential space heating may be terminated between November 15 and March 15 only as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section. In the event of a disputed account and tender by the owner of the premises of the amount he claims to be due before the service is cut off, the right to refuse service to any premises shall not accrue until suit has been entered by the city and judgment entered in the case.

(2) Until June 30, ~~((+1986))~~ 1990:

(a) Electricity for residential space heating shall not be terminated between November 15 through March 15 if the customer:

(i) Notifies the utility of the inability to pay the bill, including a security deposit. This notice shall be provided within five business days of receiving a payment overdue notice unless there are extenuating circumstances;

(ii) ~~((Brings a statement from the department of social and health services or))~~ Provides self-certification of household income for the prior twelve months to a grantee of the department of community development which administers federally funded energy assistance programs(;;). The grantee shall determine that the household income does not exceed the maximum allowed for eligibility under the state's plan for low-income energy assistance under 42 U.S.C. 8624 and ((which provides)) shall provide a dollar figure that is seven percent of household income. The grantee may verify information in the self-certification;

(iii) Has applied for home heating assistance from applicable government and private sector organizations and certifies that any assistance received will be applied to the current bill and future utility bills;

(iv) Has applied for low-income weatherization assistance to the utility or other appropriate agency if such assistance is ~~((applicable))~~ available for the dwelling;

(v) Agrees to a payment plan and agrees to maintain the payment plan. The plan will be designed both to pay the past due bill by the following October 15 and to pay for continued utility service. If the past due bill is not paid by the following October 15, the customer shall not be eligible for protections under this chapter until the past due bill is paid. The plan shall not require monthly payments in excess of seven percent of the customer's monthly income plus one-twelfth of any arrearage accrued from the date application is made and thereafter during November 15 through March 15. A customer may agree to pay a higher percentage during this period, but ~~((the plan))~~ shall not be ~~((invalidated))~~ in default unless payment during this period is less than seven percent of monthly income plus one-twelfth of any arrearage accrued from the date application is made and thereafter. If assistance payments are received by the customer subsequent to implementation of the plan, the customer shall contact the utility to reformulate the plan; and

(vi) Agrees to pay the moneys owed even if he or she moves.

(b) The utility shall:

(i) Include in any notice that an account is delinquent and that service may be subject to termination ~~((and))~~, a description of the customer's duties in this ~~((subsection))~~ section;

(ii) Assist the customer in fulfilling the requirements under this ~~((subsection))~~ section;

(iii) Be authorized to transfer an account to a new residence when a customer who has established a plan under this ~~((subsection))~~ section moves from one residence to another within the same utility service area; and

(iv) Be permitted to disconnect service if the customer fails to honor the payment program. Utilities may continue to disconnect service for those practices authorized by law other than for nonpayment as provided for in this ~~((subsection))~~ section. Customers who qualify for payment plans under this section who default on their payment plans and are disconnected can be reconnected and maintain the protections afforded under this chapter by paying reconnection charges, if any, and by paying all amounts that would have been due and owing under the terms of the applicable payment plan, absent default, on the date on which service is reconnected.

(3) All municipal utilities shall offer residential customers the option of a budget billing or equal payment plan. The budget billing or equal payment plan shall be offered low-income customers eligible under the state's plan for low-income energy assistance prepared in accordance with 42 U.S.C. 8624(C)(1) without limiting availability to certain months of the year, without regard to the length of time the customer has occupied the premises, and without regard to whether the customer is the tenant or owner of the premises occupied.

(4) An agreement between the customer and the utility, whether oral or written, shall not waive the protections afforded under this chapter.

Sec. 2. Section 5, chapter 251, Laws of 1984 and RCW 35.21.301 are each amended to read as follows:

Until ~~((1986))~~ 1990, cities and towns distributing electricity shall report annually to the legislature for utilities subject to its jurisdiction: (1) The extent to which chapter ~~((251))~~ —, Laws of ~~((1984))~~ 1986 (Senate Bill No. —, S-3509/86) benefits low income persons, and (2) the costs and benefits to other customers.

This section shall expire June 30, ~~((1986))~~ 1990.

Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 251, Laws of 1984 as amended by section 19, chapter 6, Laws of 1985 and RCW 54.16.285 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A district providing utility service for residential space heating shall not terminate such utility service between November 15 through March 15 if the customer:

(a) Notifies the utility of the inability to pay the bill, including a security deposit. This notice shall be provided within five business days of receiving a payment overdue notice unless there are extenuating circumstances;

(b) ~~((Brings a statement from the department of social and health services or))~~ Provides self-certification of household income for the prior twelve months to a grantee of the department of community development which administers federally funded energy assistance programs(;;) . The grantee shall determine that the household income does not exceed the maximum allowed for eligibility under the state's plan for low-income energy assistance under 42 U.S.C. 8624 and ((which provides)) shall provide a dollar figure that is seven percent of household income. The grantee may verify information provided in the self-certification;

(c) Has applied for home heating assistance from applicable government and private sector organizations and certifies that any assistance received will be applied to the current bill and future utility bills;

(d) Has applied for low-income weatherization assistance to the utility or other appropriate agency if such assistance is ~~((applicable))~~ available for the dwelling;

(e) Agrees to a payment plan and agrees to maintain the payment plan. The plan will be designed both to pay the past due bill by the following October 15 and to pay for continued utility service. If the past due bill is not paid by the following October 15, the customer shall not be eligible for protections under this chapter until the past due bill is paid. The plan shall not require monthly payments in excess of seven percent of the customer's monthly income plus one-twelfth of any arrearage accrued from the date application is made and thereafter during November 15 through March 15. A customer may agree to pay a higher percentage during this period, but ~~((the plan))~~ shall not be ~~((invalidated))~~ in default unless payment during this period is less than seven percent of monthly income plus one-twelfth of any arrearage accrued from the date application is made and thereafter. If assistance payments are received by the customer subsequent to implementation of the plan, the customer shall contact the utility to reformulate the plan; and

(f) Agrees to pay the moneys owed even if he or she moves.

(2) The utility shall:

(a) Include in any notice that an account is delinquent and that service may be subject to termination ~~((and))~~, a description of the customer's duties in this section;

(b) Assist the customer in fulfilling the requirements under this section;

(c) Be authorized to transfer an account to a new residence when a customer who has established a plan under this section moves from one residence to another within the same utility service area; and

(d) Be permitted to disconnect service if the customer fails to honor the payment program. Utilities may continue to disconnect service for those practices authorized by law other than for nonpayment as provided for in this section. Customers who qualify for payment plans under this section who default on their payment plans and are disconnected can be reconnected and maintain the protections afforded under this chapter by paying reconnection charges, if any, and by paying all amounts that would have been due and owing under the terms of the applicable payment plan, absent default, on the date on which service is reconnected.

(3) All districts providing utility service for residential space heating shall offer residential customers the option of a budget billing or equal payment plan. The budget billing or equal payment plan shall be offered low-income customers eligible under the state's plan for low-income energy assistance prepared in accordance with 42 U.S.C. 8624(C)(1) without limiting availability to certain months of the year, without regard to the length of time the customer has occupied the premises, and without regard to whether the customer is the tenant or owner of the premises occupied.

(4) An agreement between the customer and the utility, whether oral or written, shall not waive the protections afforded under this chapter.

(5) This section shall expire June 30, ((+1986)) 1990.

Sec. 4. Section 6, chapter 251, Laws of 1984 and RCW 54.16.286 are each amended to read as follows:

Until ((+1986)) 1990, districts distributing electricity shall report annually to the legislature ((for utilities subject to its jurisdiction)): (1) The extent to which chapter ((251)) —, Laws of ((1984)) 1986 (Senate Bill No. —, S-3509/86) benefits low income persons, and (2) the costs and benefits to other customers.

This section shall expire June 30, ((+1986)) 1990.

Sec. 5. Section 80.28.010, chapter 14, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 25, chapter 6, Laws of 1985 and RCW 80.28.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All charges made, demanded or received by any gas company, electrical company or water company for gas, electricity or water, or for any service rendered or to be rendered in connection therewith, shall be just, fair, reasonable and sufficient.

(2) Every gas company, electrical company and water company shall furnish and supply such service, instrumentalities and facilities as shall be safe, adequate and efficient, and in all respects just and reasonable.

(3) All rules and regulations issued by any gas company, electrical company or water company, affecting or pertaining to the sale or distribution of its product, shall be just and reasonable.

(4) Until June 30, ((+1986)) 1990:

(a) Utility service for residential space heating shall not be terminated between November 15 through March 15 if the customer:

(i) Notifies the utility of the inability to pay the bill, including a security deposit. This notice shall be provided within five business days of receiving a payment overdue notice unless there are extenuating circumstances;

(ii) ~~((Brings a statement from the department of social and health services or))~~ Provides self-certification of household income for the prior twelve months to a grantee of the department of community development which administers federally funded energy assistance programs(;;). The grantee shall determine that the household income does not exceed the maximum allowed for eligibility under the state's plan for low-income energy assistance under 42 U.S.C. 8624 and ~~((which provides))~~ shall provide a dollar figure that is seven percent of household income. The grantee may verify information provided in the self-certification;

(iii) Has applied for home heating assistance from applicable government and private sector organizations and certifies that any assistance received will be applied to the current bill and future utility bills;

(iv) Has applied for low-income weatherization assistance to the utility or other appropriate agency if such assistance is ~~((applicable))~~ available for the dwelling;

(v) Agrees to a payment plan and agrees to maintain the payment plan. The plan will be designed both to pay the past due bill by the following October 15 and to pay for continued utility service. If the past due bill is not paid by the following October 15, the customer shall not be eligible for protections under this chapter until the past due bill is paid. The plan shall not require monthly payments in excess of seven percent of the customer's monthly income plus one-twelfth of any arrearage accrued from the date application is made and thereafter during November 15 through March 15. A customer may agree to pay a higher percentage during this period, but ~~((the plan))~~ shall not be ~~((invalidated))~~ in default unless payment during this period is less than seven percent of monthly income plus one-twelfth of any arrearage accrued from the date application is made and thereafter. If assistance payments are received by the customer subsequent to implementation of the plan, the customer shall contact the utility to reformulate the plan; and

(vi) Agrees to pay the moneys owed even if he or she moves.

(b) The utility shall:

(i) Include in any notice that an account is delinquent and that service may be subject to termination ~~((and))~~, a description of the customer's duties in this ~~((subsection))~~ section;

(ii) Assist the customer in fulfilling the requirements under this ~~((subsection))~~ section;

(iii) Be authorized to transfer an account to a new residence when a customer who has established a plan under this ~~((subsection))~~ section moves from one residence to another within the same utility service area; and

(iv) Be permitted to disconnect service if the customer fails to honor the payment program. Utilities may continue to disconnect service for those practices authorized by law other than for nonpayment as provided for in this subsection. Customers who qualify for payment plans under this section who default on their payment plans and are disconnected can be reconnected and maintain the protections afforded under this chapter by paying reconnection charges, if any, and by paying all amounts that would have been due and owing under the terms of the applicable payment plan, absent default, on the date on which service is reconnected.

(c) A payment plan implemented under this ~~((subsection))~~ section is consistent with RCW 80.28.080.

(5) Every gas company and electrical company shall offer residential customers the option of a budget billing or equal payment plan. The budget billing or equal payment plan shall be offered low-income customers eligible under the state's plan for low-income energy assistance prepared in accordance with 42 U.S.C. 8624(C)(1) without limiting availability to certain months of the year, without regard to the length of time the customer has occupied the premises, and without regard to whether the customer is the tenant or owner of the premises occupied.

(6) Every gas company, electrical company and water company shall construct and maintain such facilities in connection with the manufacture and distribution of its product as will be efficient and safe to its employees and the public.

(7) An agreement between the customer and the utility, whether oral or written, shall not waive the protections afforded under this chapter.

Sec. 6. Section 7, chapter 251, Laws of 1984 and RCW 80.28.011 are each amended to read as follows:

Until ((1986)) 1990, the Washington utilities and transportation commission shall report annually to the legislature for utilities subject to its jurisdiction: (1) The extent to which chapter ((251)) —, Laws of ((1984)) 1986 (Senate Bill No. —, S-3509/86) benefits low income persons, and (2) the costs and benefits to other customers. The commission shall also review its policies and the policies of gas and electric utilities under its jurisdiction on involuntary termination of gas or electric utility service, discontinuance of service, and responsibility for delinquent accounts, for all residential customers and undertake good faith efforts to adopt policies which apply to all residential customers in a similar fashion to minimize uncollectible customer billings and to encourage customer payments of prior service obligations in a manner consistent with applicable state and federal law. This review shall be completed and a report on the review supplied to the energy and utilities committees of the legislature by January 1, 1987.

This section shall expire June 30, ((1986)) 1990.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Section 3, chapter 251, Laws of 1984 and RCW 54.16.290 are each repealed.

Passed the Senate March 9, 1986.

Passed the House March 4, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

UNIFORM CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES ACT—DISPOSITION OF PROCEEDS FORFEITED

AN ACT Relating to the distribution of proceeds forfeited under the uniform controlled substances act; and adding a new section to chapter 43.17 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 43.17 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Each state agency is authorized to receive property or money made available by the attorney general of the United States under section 881(c) of Title 21 of the United States Code and, except as required to the contrary under subsection (2) of this section, to use the property or spend the money for such purposes as are permitted under both federal law and the state law specifying the powers and duties of the agency.

(2) Unless precluded by federal law, all funds received by a state agency under section 881(c) of Title 21 of the United States Code shall be promptly deposited into the public safety and education account established in RCW 43.08.250.

Passed the Senate March 9, 1986.

Passed the House March 6, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

CHAPTER 247

[Substitute Senate Bill No. 4923]

TAX EXEMPT BONDS—ALLOCATION OF THE STATE CEILING

AN ACT Relating to the allocation of the state ceiling on the issuance of certain tax exempt bonds under federal tax law; adding a new section to chapter 39.86 RCW; creating new sections; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Sections 701 through 703 of the proposed "Tax Reform Act of 1985" (H.R. 3838), which has been adopted by the United States House of Representatives, would, if enacted, change federal tax law regarding the allocation of the maximum amount of certain tax exempt bonds that may be issued in the state, effective retroactively to January 1, 1986, or such other effective date as may be adopted. Existing Washington law enacted as part of chapter 446, Laws of 1985 (chapter 39.86 RCW) sets forth a method for allocating the state ceiling for certain tax exempt bonds under existing federal law. The allocation formula contained in chapter 39.86 RCW would become ineffective for federal tax law purposes from the effective date of H.R. 3838 if H.R. 3838 were enacted. So long as H.R. 3838 is pending with such a retroactive effective date, tax exempt bonds cannot be adequately allocated in an orderly manner under existing state law. It is the intent of the legislature to authorize the governor to promulgate an interim, alternative allocation mechanism to insure the orderly issuance of tax exempt bonds until the legislature can review federal tax law changes, if and when finally enacted, and consider a revised allocation mechanism.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 39.86 RCW to read as follows:

The governor is authorized to establish by executive order an alternative system for the allocation of tax exempt bonds under any new unified volume limitation provided by section 701(b) of H.R. 3838 or other federal legislation, including housing-related bonds. The allocation of the state ceiling on the issuance of certain tax exempt bonds under federal tax law may be determined under RCW 39.86.010 through 39.86.060, under this section, or under both RCW 39.86.010 through 39.86.060 and this section to the extent necessary for federal tax law purposes. The authority delegated to the governor under this section shall constitute a "different formula for allocating the state ceiling" as that term is used in section 701(b) of H.R. 3838. The governor may from time to time allocate or reallocate some or all of the state ceiling on tax exempt bonds under any new unified volume limitation. In allocating or reallocating under this section, the governor shall take into account the requirements of federal law, the policy choices expressed in state law, the projected needs of issues of tax exempt bonds in the state and historic patterns of bond issuance. If any issuer of tax exempt bonds to which allocations of the state ceiling have been made, finds that it is reasonably likely that a portion of the state ceiling allocated to it would not be consumed, it shall promptly so notify the governor, and the governor may by executive order, following no less than thirty days notice to issuers that have requested additional allocations, provide for the reallocation of the excess to one or more issuers.

This section shall expire July 1, 1987.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. No later than December 1, 1986, the department of community development shall submit to the governor and legislature an interim study regarding:

- (1) Status of federal tax law relating to the allocations of the state ceiling;
 - (2) Usage of allocations under previous and existing state ceilings;
 - (3) Projections of future demand for allocations of the state ceiling;
- and
- (4) Recommendations regarding allocations of the state ceiling among issuers and types of bonds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the Senate February 14, 1986.

Passed the House March 4, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

CHAPTER 248

[Substitute Senate Bill No. 4933]

LOW-INCOME HOUSING—CITIES, TOWNS, AND COUNTIES MAY PROVIDE LOANS OR GRANTS

AN ACT Relating to low-income housing; adding a new section to chapter 35.21 RCW; and adding a new section to chapter 36.32 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 35.21 RCW to read as follows:

A city or town may assist in the development or preservation of publicly or privately owned housing for persons of low income by providing loans or grants of general municipal funds to the owners or developers of the housing. The loans or grants shall be authorized by the legislative authority of the city or town. They may be made to finance all or a portion of the cost of construction, reconstruction, acquisition, or rehabilitation of housing that will be occupied by a person or family of low income. As used in this section, "low income" means income that does not exceed eighty percent of the median income for the standard metropolitan statistical area in which the city or town is located. Housing constructed with loans or grants made under this section shall not be considered public works or improvements subject to competitive bidding or a purchase of services subject to the prohibition against advance payment for services: PROVIDED, That whenever feasible the borrower or grantee shall make every reasonable and practicable effort to utilize a competitive public bidding process.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 36.32 RCW to read as follows:

A county may assist in the development or preservation of publicly or privately owned housing for persons of low income by providing loans or grants of general county funds to the owners or developers of the housing. The loans or grants shall be authorized by the legislative authority of a county. They may be made to finance all or a portion of the cost of construction, reconstruction, acquisition, or rehabilitation of housing that will be occupied by a person or family of low income. As used in this section,

"low income" means income that does not exceed eighty percent of the median income for the standard metropolitan statistical area in which the county is located. Housing constructed with loans or grants made under this section shall not be considered public works or improvements subject to competitive bidding or a purchase of services subject to the prohibition against advance payment for services: PROVIDED, That whenever feasible the borrower or grantee shall make every reasonable and practicable effort to utilize a competitive public bidding process.

Passed the Senate February 13, 1986.

Passed the House March 7, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

UNEMPLOYMENT COMPENSATION ADMINISTRATION FUND

AN ACT Relating to administrative funding of the unemployment insurance program; creating new sections; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The provisions of RCW 50.16.070 to the contrary notwithstanding, one million five hundred thousand dollars shall be transferred from the federal interest payment fund to the unemployment compensation administration fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect March 31, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 10, 1986.

Passed the House March 4, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

CHAPTER 250

[Substitute House Bill No. 803]

CRIMINAL MISTREATMENT OF CHILDREN OR DEPENDENT PERSONS

AN ACT Relating to criminal mistreatment; adding a new chapter to Title 9A RCW; and prescribing penalties.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. As used in this chapter:

(1) "Basic necessities of life" means food, shelter, clothing, and health care.

(2)(a) "Bodily injury" means physical pain or injury, illness, or an impairment of physical condition;

(b) "Substantial bodily harm" means bodily injury which involves a temporary but substantial disfigurement, or which causes a temporary but substantial loss or impairment of the function of any bodily part or organ, or which causes a fracture of any bodily part;

(c) "Great bodily harm" means bodily injury which creates a high probability of death, or which causes serious permanent disfigurement, or which causes a permanent or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily part or organ.

(3) "Child" means a person under eighteen years of age.

(4) "Dependent person" means a person who, because of physical or mental disability, or because of extreme advanced age, is dependent upon another person to provide the basic necessities of life.

(5) "Parent" has its ordinary meaning and also includes a guardian and the authorized agent of a parent or guardian.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) A parent of a child or the person entrusted with the physical custody of a child or dependent person is guilty of criminal mistreatment in the first degree if he or she recklessly causes great bodily harm to a child or dependent person by withholding any of the basic necessities of life.

(2) Criminal mistreatment in the first degree is a class B felony.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) A parent of a child or the person entrusted with the physical custody of a child or dependent person is guilty of criminal mistreatment in the second degree if he or she recklessly either (a) creates an imminent and substantial risk of death or great bodily harm, or (b) causes substantial bodily harm by withholding any of the basic necessities of life.

(2) Criminal mistreatment in the second degree is a class C felony.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Sections 2 and 3 of this act do not apply to a decision to withdraw life support systems made in accordance with law by a health care professional and family members or others with a legal duty to care for the patient.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. In any prosecution for criminal mistreatment, it shall be a defense that the withholding of the basic necessities of life is due to financial inability only if the person charged has made a reasonable effort to obtain adequate assistance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Sections 1 through 5 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 9A RCW.

Passed the House February 16, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 11, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

CHAPTER 251

[House Bill No. 1374]

TAXABLE IMPROVEMENTS ON LEASED PUBLIC PROPERTY—TAXED AT FULL TRUE AND FAIR VALUE

AN ACT Relating to nonlessee interests in improvements on leased public property; and amending RCW 82.29A.160.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 18, chapter 61, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 82.29A.160 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, RCW 84.36.451 and 84.40.175, improvements owned or being acquired by contract purchase or otherwise by any lessee or sublessee which are not defined as contract rent shall be taxable to such lessee or sublessee under Title 84 RCW at their full true and fair value without any deduction for interests held by the lessor or others.

Passed the House February 13, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 7, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

CHAPTER 252

[Substitute House Bill No. 1218]

STREET CONSTRUCTION OR IMPROVEMENT PROJECTS—COUNTY, CITY, OR TOWN MAY PARTICIPATE AND BE REIMBURSED

AN ACT Relating to transportation; and adding a new section to chapter 35.72 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 35.72 RCW to read as follows:

As an alternative to financing projects under this chapter solely by owners of real estate, a county, city, or town may join in the financing of improvement projects and may be reimbursed in the same manner as the owners of real estate who participate in the projects, if the county, city, or town has specified the conditions of its participation in an ordinance. A county, city, or town may be reimbursed only for the costs of improvements that benefit that portion of the public who will use the developments within the assessment reimbursement area established pursuant to RCW

35.72.040(1). No county, city, or town costs for improvements that benefit the general public may be reimbursed.

Passed the House February 13, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 6, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

CHAPTER 253

[House Bill No. 1386]

ANNEXATION OF CITY OR TOWN BY A CITY OR TOWN

AN ACT Relating to the annexation of all or part of a city or town by another city or town; and amending RCW 35.10.217.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 4, chapter 89, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 15, chapter 281, Laws of 1985 and RCW 35.10.217 are each amended to read as follows:

The following methods are available for the annexation of all or a part of a city or town to another city or town:

(1) A petition for an election to vote upon the annexation (~~(of all or a part of a city to another city signed by qualified voters of the city proposed to be annexed equal in number to at least one-fifth of the votes cast at the last municipal general election held therein may be filed with)~~), which proposed annexation is approved by the legislative body of the city ((to be annexed. Such legislative body, in turn, shall, by resolution, advise)) or town from which the territory will be taken, may be submitted to the legislative body of the city or town to which annexation is proposed ((of the receipt of such petition and request the latter legislative body to indicate by resolution whether it will accept the proposed annexation, and if so, on what terms. If such resolution of the annexing city states that its legislative body is favorably disposed toward such annexation, the legislative body of the city to be annexed shall submit to the voters in such territory proposed to be annexed, the question of whether such territory shall be annexed and such other propositions as are deemed appropriate)). An annexation under this subsection shall otherwise conform with the requirements for and procedures of a petition and election method of annexing unincorporated territory under chapter 35.13 RCW, except for the requirement for the approval of the annexation by the city or town from which the territory would be taken.

(2) The legislative body of a city or town may on its own initiative by resolution indicate its desire to be annexed to a city or town either in whole or in part, or the legislative body of a city or town proposing to annex all or part of another city or town may initiate the annexation by adopting a resolution indicating that desire. In case such resolution is passed, such resolution shall be transmitted to the other affected city ((to which it desires to be annexed, and the legislative body of such city shall by resolution indicate whether it will accept the proposed annexation, and if so, on what terms)) or town. The annexation is effective if the other city or town adopts a resolution concurring in the annexation, unless the owners of property in the area proposed to be annexed, equal in value to sixty percent or more of the assessed valuation of the property in the area, protest the proposed annexation in writing to the legislative body of the city or town proposing to annex the area, within thirty days of the adoption of the second resolution accepting the annexation. Notices of the public hearing at which the second resolution is adopted shall be mailed to the owners of the property within the area proposed to be annexed in the same manner that notices of a hearing on a proposed local improvement district are required to be mailed by a city or town as provided in chapter 35.43 RCW. An annexation under this subsection shall be potentially subject to review by a boundary review board or other annexation review board after the adoption of the initial resolution, and the second resolution may not be adopted until the proposed annexation has been approved by the board.

(3) ~~((In the event there are no qualified electors residing within a part of a city which said city wishes to have annexed to another contiguous city, then the issue of annexation will be decided by the legislative body of the city from which the territory is to be withdrawn. This decision, which shall be by majority vote of said legislative body, shall be considered as if it was an election by qualified voters of said territory and handled accordingly under the other applicable sections of this chapter.~~

If the legislative body of the city to which annexation is proposed indicates a willingness to accept the annexation, then the question of whether such territory shall be annexed to such city and become a part thereof and such other propositions as are deemed appropriate shall be submitted to the electors in the territory to be annexed by the legislative body of the city or part thereof to be annexed at an election which such legislative body shall cause to be called for that purpose)) The owners of property located in a city or town may petition for annexation to another city or town. An annexation under this subsection shall conform with the requirements for and procedures of a direct petition method of annexing unincorporated territory, except that the legislative body of the city or town from which the territory would be taken must approve the annexation before it may proceed.

(4) All annexations under this section are subject to potential review by the local boundary review board or annexation review board.

CHAPTER 254

[Substitute House Bill No. 1388]

FIRE DEPARTMENTS—CONSOLIDATION AND ANNEXATION OF CITIES—FIRE DEPARTMENT EMPLOYEES—TRANSFER

AN ACT Relating to fire protection agencies in consolidation and annexation actions; adding new sections to chapter 35.10 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 35.13 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 52.04 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 52.06 RCW; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 35.10 RCW to read as follows:

Upon the consolidation of two or more cities or code cities, any employee of the fire department of the former city or cities who (1) was at the time of consolidation employed exclusively or principally in performing the powers, duties, and functions which are to be performed by the fire department of the consolidated city or code city, as the case may be, (2) will, as a direct consequence of consolidation, be separated from the employ of the former city, code city or town, and (3) can perform the duties and meet the minimum requirements of the position to be filled, then such employee may transfer employment to the fire department of the consolidated city, as provided in this section and sections 2 and 3 of this act.

For purposes of this section and sections 2 and 3 of this act, employee means an individual whose employment has been terminated because of a consolidation of two or more cities, code cities or towns.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 35.10 RCW to read as follows:

(1) An eligible employee may transfer into the civil service system of the consolidated city or code city by filing a written request with the civil service commission of the consolidated city. Upon receipt of such request by the civil service commission the transfer of employment shall be made. The employee so transferring will (a) be on probation for the same period as are new employees in the position filled, (b) be eligible for promotion after completion of the probationary period as completed, (c) receive a salary at least equal to that of other new employees in the position filled, and (d) in all other matters, such as retirement, sick leave, and vacation, have, within the city or code city civil service system, all the rights, benefits, and privileges to which he or she would have been entitled as a member of the consolidated city fire department from the beginning of his or her employment with the former city or code city fire department: PROVIDED, That for purposes of layoffs by the consolidated city or code city, only the time of service accrued with the consolidated city or code city shall apply unless an agreement is reached between the collective bargaining representatives of the employees of the consolidating fire agencies and consolidated agencies and the consolidating and consolidated fire agencies. A record of the employee's service with the former city or code city fire department shall be transmitted to the applicable civil service commission and shall be credited to such employee as a part of the period of employment in the consolidated city fire department. All accrued benefits are transferable provided that the recipient agency provides comparable benefits. All benefits shall then accrue based on the combined seniority of each employee in the recipient agency.

(2) As many of the transferring employees shall be placed upon the payroll of the consolidated city or code city fire department as the department determines are needed to provide services. These needed employees shall be taken in order of greatest seniority from any of the seniority lists of the consolidating city or code city and the remaining employees who transfer as provided in this section and sections 1 and 3 of this act shall head the list for employment in the civil service system in order of their seniority, to the end that they shall be the first to be reemployed in the fire department when appropriate positions become available: PROVIDED, That employees who are not immediately hired by the city, code city or town shall be placed on a reemployment list for a period not to exceed thirty-six months unless a longer period is authorized by an agreement reached between the collective bargaining representatives of the employees of the consolidating fire agencies and consolidated fire agency and the consolidating and consolidated fire agencies.

(3) The consolidated city or code city shall retain the right to select the fire chief and assistant fire chiefs regardless of seniority.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 35.10 RCW to read as follows:

If, as a result of consolidation of two or more cities, or code cities, any employee is laid off who is eligible to transfer to the city fire department pursuant to this section and sections 1 and 2 of this act, the city fire department shall notify the employee of the right to so transfer and the employee shall have ninety days to transfer employment to the consolidating city, or code city fire department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 35.10 RCW to read as follows:

Upon the annexation of two or more cities or code cities, any employee of the fire department of the former city or cities who (1) was at the time of annexation employed exclusively or principally in performing the powers, duties, and functions which are to be performed by the fire department of the annexed city or code city, as the case may be, (2) will, as a direct consequence of annexation, be separated from the employ of the former city, code city or town, and (3) can perform the duties and meet the minimum requirements of the position to be filled, then such employee may transfer employment to the fire department of the annexing city, as provided in this section and sections 5 and 6 of this act.

For purposes of this section and sections 5 and 6 of this act, employee means an individual whose employment has been terminated because of annexation by a city, code city or town.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 35.10 RCW to read as follows:

(1) An eligible employee may transfer into the civil service system of the annexing city, code city or town by filing a written request with the city, code city or town civil service commission. Upon receipt of such request by the civil service commission the transfer of employment shall be made. The employee so transferring will (a) be on probation for the same period as are new employees in the position filled, (b) be eligible for promotion after completion of the probationary period as completed, (c) receive a salary at least equal to that of other new employees in the position filled, and (d) in all other matters, such as retirement, sick leave, and vacation, have, within the city, code city or town civil service system, all the rights, benefits, and privileges to which he or she would have been entitled as a member of the annexed city, code city or town fire department from the beginning of his or her employment with the former city or code city fire department: PROVIDED, That for purposes of layoffs by the annexing city or code city, only the time of service accrued with the annexing city or code city shall apply unless an agreement is reached between the collective bargaining representatives of the employees of the annexing and annexed fire agencies and the annexing and annexed fire agencies. A record of the employee's service with the former city or code city fire department shall be transmitted to the applicable civil service commission which shall be credited to such employee as a part of the period of employment in the annexed city, code city or town fire department. All accrued benefits are transferable provided that the recipient agency provides comparable benefits. All benefits shall then accrue based on the combined seniority of each employee in the recipient agency.

(2) As many of the transferring employees shall be placed upon the payroll of the annexing city, code city or town fire department as the department determines are needed to provide services. These needed employees shall be taken in order of seniority and the remaining employees who transfer as provided in this section and sections 4 and 6 of this act shall head the list for employment in the civil service system in order of their seniority, to the end that they shall be the first to be reemployed in the city, code city or town fire department when appropriate positions become available: PROVIDED, That employees who are not immediately hired by the city, code city or town shall be placed on a reemployment list for a period not to exceed thirty-six months unless a longer period is authorized by an agreement reached between the collective bargaining representatives of the employees of the annexing and annexed fire agencies and the annexing and annexed fire agencies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 35.10 RCW to read as follows:

If, as a result of annexation of two or more cities, or code cities any employee is laid off who is eligible to transfer to the city, code city or town fire department under this section and sections 4 and 5 of this act the fire department shall notify the employee of the right to transfer and the employee shall have ninety days to transfer employment to the annexing city or code city fire department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 35.13 RCW to read as follows:

If any portion of a fire protection district is annexed to or incorporated into a city, code city or town, any employee of the fire protection district who (1) was at the time of such annexation or incorporation employed exclusively or principally in performing the powers, duties, and functions which are to be performed by the city, code city or town fire department (2) will, as a direct consequence of annexation or incorporation, be separated from the employ of the fire protection district, and (3) can perform the duties and meet the minimum requirements of the position to be filled, then such employee may transfer employment to the civil service system of the city, code city or town fire department as provided for in this section and sections 8 and 9 of this act.

For purposes of this section and sections 8 and 9 of this act, employee means an individual whose employment with a fire protection district has been terminated because the fire protection district was annexed by a city, code city or town for purposes of fire protection.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 35.13 RCW to read as follows:

(1) An eligible employee may transfer into the civil service system of the city, code city or town fire department by filing a written request with the city, code city or town civil service commission and by giving written notice thereof to the board of commissioners of the fire protection district. Upon receipt of such request by the civil service commission the transfer of employment shall be made. The employee so transferring will (a) be on probation for the same period as are new employees of the city, code city or town fire department in the position filled, (b) be eligible for promotion after completion of the probationary period as completed, (c) receive a salary at least equal to that of other new employees of the city, code city or town fire department in the position filled, and (d) in all other matters, such as retirement, sick leave, and vacation, have, within the city, code city or town civil service system, all the rights, benefits, and privileges to which he or she would have been entitled as a member of the city, code city or town fire department from the beginning of employment with the fire protection district: PROVIDED, That for purposes of layoffs by the annexing fire agency, only the time of service accrued with the annexing agency shall apply unless an agreement is reached between the collective bargaining representatives of the employees of the annexing and annexed fire agencies and the annexing and annexed fire agencies. The board of commissioners of the fire protection district shall, upon receipt of such notice, transmit to any applicable civil service commission a record of the employee's service with the fire protection district which shall be credited to such employee as a part of the period of employment in the city, code city or town fire department. All accrued benefits are transferable provided that the recipient agency provides comparable benefits. All benefits shall then accrue based on the combined seniority of each employee in the recipient agency.

(2) As many of the transferring employees shall be placed upon the payroll of the city, code city or town fire department as the department determines are needed to provide services. These needed employees shall be taken in order of seniority and the remaining employees who transfer as provided in this section and sections 7 and 9 of this act shall head the list for employment in the civil service system in order of their seniority, to the end that they shall be the first to be reemployed in the city, code city or town fire department when appropriate positions become available: PROVIDED, That employees who are not immediately hired by the city, code city or town shall be placed on a reemployment list for a period not to exceed thirty-six months unless a longer period is authorized by an agreement reached between the collective bargaining representatives of the employees of the annexing and annexed fire agencies and the annexing and annexed fire agencies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 35.13 RCW to read as follows:

If any portion of a fire protection district is annexed to or incorporated into a city, code city or town, and as a result any employee is laid off who is eligible to transfer to the city, code city or town fire department under this section and sections 7 and 8 of this act the fire protection district shall notify the employee of the right to transfer and the employee shall have ninety days to transfer employment to the city, code city or town fire department.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 52.04 RCW to read as follows:

When any city, code city or town is annexed to a fire protection district under RCW 52.04.061 and 52.04.071, any employee of the fire department of such city, code city or town who (1) was at the time of annexation employed exclusively or principally in performing the powers, duties, and functions which are to be performed by the fire protection district (2) will, as a direct consequence of annexation, be separated from the employ of the city, code city or town, and (3) can perform the duties and meet the minimum requirements of the position to be filled, then such employee may transfer his employment to the fire protection district as provided in this section and sections 11 and 12 of this act.

For purposes of this section and sections 11 and 12 of this act, employee means an individual whose employment with a city, code city or town has been terminated because the city, code city or town was annexed by a fire protection district for purposes of fire protection.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 52.04 RCW to read as follows:

(1) An eligible employee may transfer into the fire protection district civil service system, if any, or if none, then may request transfer of employment under this section by filing a written request with the board of fire commissioners of the fire protection district and by giving written notice to the legislative authority of the city, code city or town. Upon receipt of such request by the board of fire commissioners the transfer of employment shall be made. The employee so transferring will (a) be on probation for the same period as are new employees of the fire protection district in the position filled, (b) be eligible for promotion after completion of the probationary period as completed, (c) receive a salary at least equal to that of other new employees of the fire protection district in the position filled, and (d) in all other matters, such as retirement, vacation, and sick leave, have all the rights, benefits, and privileges to which he or she would have been entitled as an employee of the fire protection district from the beginning of employment with the city, code city or town fire department: PROVIDED, That for purposes of layoffs by the annexing fire agency, only the time of service accrued with the annexing agency shall apply unless an agreement is reached between the collective bargaining representatives of the employees of the annexing and annexed fire agencies and the annexing and annexed fire agencies. The city, code city or town shall, upon receipt of such notice, transmit to the board of fire commissioners a record of the employee's service with the city, code city or town which shall be credited to such employee as a part of the period of employment in the fire protection district. All accrued benefits are transferable provided that the recipient agency provides comparable benefits. All benefits shall then accrue based on the combined seniority of each employee in the recipient agency.

(2) As many of the transferring employees shall be placed upon the payroll of the fire protection district as the district determines are needed to provide services. These needed employees shall be taken in order of seniority and the remaining employees who transfer as provided in this section and sections 10 and 12 of this act shall head the list for employment in the civil service system in order of their seniority, to the end that they shall be the first to be reemployed in the fire protection district when appropriate positions become available: PROVIDED, That employees who are not immediately hired by the fire protection district shall be placed on a reemployment list for a period not to exceed thirty-six months unless a longer period is authorized by an agreement reached between the collective bargaining representatives of the employees of the annexing and annexed fire agencies and the annexing and annexed fire agencies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. A new section is added to chapter 52.04 RCW to read as follows:

When a city, code city or town is annexed to a fire protection district and as a result any employee is laid off who is eligible to transfer to the fire protection district pursuant to this section and sections 10 and 11 of this act, the city, code city or town shall notify the employee of the right to transfer and the employee shall have ninety days to transfer employment to the fire protection district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. A new section is added to chapter 52.06 RCW to read as follows:

When any portion of a fire protection district merges with another fire protection district, any employee of the merging district who (1) was at the time of merger employed exclusively or principally in performing the powers, duties, and functions which are to be performed by the merger district (2) will, as a direct consequence of the merger, be separated from the employ of the merging district, and (3) can perform the duties and meet the minimum requirements of the position to be filled, then such employee may transfer employment to the merger district as provided in this section and sections 14 and 15 of this act.

For purposes of this section and sections 14 and 15 of this act, employee means an individual whose employment with a fire protection district has been terminated because the fire protection district merged with another fire protection district for purposes of fire protection.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. A new section is added to chapter 52.06 RCW to read as follows:

(1) An eligible employee may transfer into the merger district by filing a written request with the board of fire commissioners of the merger district and by giving written notice to the board of fire commissioners of the merging district. Upon receipt of such request by the board of the merger district the transfer of employment shall be made. The employee so transferring will (a) be on probation for the same period as are new employees of the merger district in the position filled, (b) be eligible for promotion after completion of the probationary period as completed, (c) receive a salary at least equal to that of other new employees of the merger district in the position filled, and (d) in all other matters, such as retirement, vacation, and sick leave, have, all the rights, benefits, and privileges to which he or she would have been entitled to as an employee of the merger district from the beginning of employment with the merging district: PROVIDED, That for purposes of layoffs by the merger fire agency, only the time of service accrued with the merger agency shall apply unless an agreement is reached between the collective bargaining representatives of the employees of the merging and merger fire agencies and the merging and merger fire agencies. The board of the merging district shall, upon receipt of such notice, transmit to the board of the merger district a record of the employee's service with the merging district which shall be credited to such employee as a part of the period of employment in the merger district. All accrued benefits are transferable provided that the recipient agency provides comparable benefits. All benefits shall then accrue based on the combined seniority of each employee in the recipient agency.

(2) As many of the transferring employees shall be placed upon the payroll of the merger district as the merger district determines are needed to provide services. These needed employees shall be taken in order of seniority and the remaining employees who transfer as provided in this section and sections 13 and 15 of this act shall head the list for employment in order of their seniority, to the end that they shall be the first to be reemployed in the merger district when appropriate positions become available: PROVIDED, That employees who are not immediately hired by the fire protection district shall be placed on a reemployment list for a period not to exceed thirty-six months unless a longer period is authorized by an agreement reached between the collective bargaining representatives of the employees of the merging and merged fire agencies and the merging and merged fire agencies.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 52.06 RCW to read as follows:

If, as a result of merging of districts any employee is laid off who is eligible to transfer to the merger district under this section and sections 13 and 14 of this act, the merging district shall notify the employee of the right to transfer and the employee shall have ninety days to transfer employment to the merger district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Sections 1 through 3 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1987. The appropriate committees of the senate and house of representatives shall conduct a study of the transfer rights of employees during the consolidation of cities and code cities and make recommendations to the legislature at the start of the 1987 legislative session.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Sections 4 through 15 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the House March 8, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 5, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

CHAPTER 256

[Substitute House Bill No. 1564]

PROPOSED LOCAL IMPROVEMENT DISTRICTS—PROTESTS

AN ACT Relating to protests of proposed local improvement districts; and amending RCW 56.20.020, 56.20.030, and 57.16.060.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 27, chapter 210, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 10, chapter 300, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 56.20.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Utility local improvement districts to carry out all or any portion of the comprehensive plan, or additions and betterments thereof, adopted for the sewer district may be initiated either by resolution of the board of sewer commissioners or by petition signed by the owners according to the records of the office of the county auditor of at least fifty-one percent of the area of the land within the limits of the utility local improvement district to be created.

In case the board of sewer commissioners (~~shall~~) desires to initiate the formation of a utility local improvement district by resolution, it shall first pass a resolution declaring its intention to order such improvement, setting forth the nature and territorial extent of such proposed improvement, designating the number of the proposed utility local improvement district, describing the boundaries thereof, stating the estimated cost and expense of the improvement and the proportionate amount thereof which will be borne by the property within the proposed district, and fixing a date, time, and place for a public hearing on the formation of the proposed local district, which date shall, unless there is an emergency, be no less than thirty days and no more than ninety days from the day the resolution of intention was adopted.

In case any such utility local improvement district (~~shall be~~) is initiated by petition, such petition shall set forth the nature and territorial extent of such proposed improvement and the fact that the signers thereof are the owners according to the records of the county auditor of at least fifty-one percent of the area of land within the limits of the utility local improvement district to be created. Upon the filing of such petition with the secretary of the board of sewer commissioners, the board shall determine whether the (~~same shall be~~) petition is sufficient, and the board's determination thereof shall be conclusive upon all persons. No person (~~shall~~) may withdraw his name from (~~said~~) the petition after the filing thereof with the secretary of the board of sewer commissioners. If the board (~~shall~~) finds the petition to be sufficient, it shall proceed to adopt a resolution declaring its intention to order the improvement petitioned for, setting forth the nature and territorial extent of (~~said~~) the improvement, designating the number of the proposed local district, describing the boundaries thereof, stating the estimated cost and expense of the improvement and the proportionate amount thereof which will be borne by the property within the proposed local district, and fixing a date, time, and place for a public hearing on the formation of the proposed local district.

Notice of the adoption of the resolution of intention, whether the resolution was adopted on the initiative of the board or pursuant to a petition of the property owners, shall be published in at least two consecutive issues of a newspaper of general circulation in the proposed local district, the date of the first publication to be at least fifteen days prior to the date fixed by such resolution for hearing before the board of sewer commissioners. Notice of the adoption of the resolution of intention shall also be given each owner or reputed owner of any lot, tract, parcel of land, or other property within the proposed improvement district by mailing ~~((said))~~ the notice at least fifteen days before the date fixed for the public hearing to the owner or reputed owner of the property as shown on the tax rolls of the county treasurer at the address shown thereon. Whenever such notices are mailed, the sewer commissioners shall maintain a list of such reputed property owners, which list shall be kept on file at a location within the sewer district and shall be made available for public perusal. The notices shall refer to the resolution of intention and designate the proposed improvement district by number. ~~((Said))~~ The notices shall also set forth the nature of the proposed improvement, the total estimated cost, the proportion of total cost to be borne by assessments, the date, time, and place of the hearing before the board of sewer commissioners. In the case of improvements initiated by resolution, ~~((said))~~ the notice shall also: (1) State that all persons desiring to object to the formation of the proposed district must file their written protests with the secretary of the board of sewer commissioners ~~((before the time fixed for said))~~ no later than ten days after the public hearing; (2) state that if owners of at least forty percent of the area of land within the proposed district file written protests with the secretary of the board, the power of the sewer commissioners to proceed with the creation of the proposed district shall be divested; (3) provide the name and address of the secretary of the board; and (4) state the hours and location within the sewer district where the names of the property owners within the proposed district are kept available for public perusal. In the case of the notice given each owner or reputed owner by mail, the notice shall set forth the estimated amount of the cost and expense of such improvement to be borne by the particular lot, tract, parcel of land, or other property.

Sec. 2. Section 28, chapter 210, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 6, chapter 58, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 56.20.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Whether the improvement is initiated by petition or resolution, the board shall conduct a public hearing at the time and place designated in the notice to property owners. At this hearing the board shall hear objections from any person affected by the formation of the local district and may make such changes in the boundaries of the district or such modifications in plans for the proposed improvement as shall be deemed necessary(~~(-PROVIDED, That)~~). The board may not change the boundaries of the district to include property not previously included ((therein)) in it without first passing a new resolution of intention and giving a new notice to property owners in the manner and form and within the time ((herein)) provided in this chapter for the original notice.

After ~~((said))~~ the hearing the commissioners shall have jurisdiction to overrule protests and proceed with any such improvement initiated by petition or resolution(~~(-PROVIDED, That)~~). The jurisdiction of the commissioners to proceed with any improvement initiated by resolution shall be divested: (a) by protests filed with the secretary of the board ((prior to said)) before the public hearing signed by the owners, according to the records of the county auditor, of at least forty percent of the area of land within the proposed local district or (b) by the commissioners not adopting a resolution ordering the improvement at a public hearing held not more than ninety days from the day the resolution of intention was adopted, unless the commissioners file with the county auditor a copy of the notice required by RCW 56.20.020, and in no event at a hearing held more than two years from the day the resolution of intention was adopted.

If the commissioners find that the district should be formed, they shall by resolution form the district and order the improvement((;)). After execution of the resolution forming the district, the secretary of the board of commissioners shall publish, in a legal publication that serves the area subject to the district, a notice setting forth that a resolution has been passed forming the district and that a lawsuit challenging the jurisdiction or authority of the sewer district to proceed with the improvement and creating the district must be filed, and notice to the sewer district served, within thirty days of the publication of the notice. The notice shall set forth the nature of the appeal. Property owners bringing the appeal shall follow the procedures as set forth under appeal under RCW 56.20.080. Whenever a resolution forming a district has been adopted, the formation is conclusive in all things upon all parties, and cannot be contested or questioned in any manner in any proceeding whatsoever by any person not commencing a lawsuit in the manner and within the time provided in this section, except for lawsuits made under RCW 56.20.080.

Following an appeal, if it is unsuccessful or if no appeal is made under RCW 56.20.080, the commissioners may proceed with the improvement and provide the general funds of the sewer district to be applied thereto, adopt detailed plans of the utility local improvement district and declare the estimated cost thereof, acquire all necessary land therefor, pay all damages caused thereby, and commence in the name of the sewer district such eminent domain proceedings and supplemental assessment or reassessment proceedings to pay all eminent domain awards as may be necessary to entitle the district to proceed with the work. The board of sewer commissioners shall proceed with the work and file with the county treasurer of each county in which the real property is to be assessed its roll levying special assessments in the amount to be paid by special assessment against the property situated within the local improvement district in proportion to the special benefits to be derived by the property therein from the improvement.

Sec. 3. Section 11, chapter 18, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 16, chapter 17, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 57.16.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Local improvement districts or utility local improvement districts to carry out the whole or any portion of the general comprehensive plan of improvements or plan providing for additions and betterments to the original general comprehensive plan previously adopted may be initiated either by resolution of the board of water commissioners or by petition signed by the owners according to the records of the office of the applicable county auditor of at least fifty-one percent of the area of the land within the limits of the local improvement district to be created.

In case the board of water commissioners (~~shall~~) desires to initiate the formation of a local improvement district or a utility local improvement district by resolution, it shall first pass a resolution declaring its intention to order such improvement, setting forth the nature and territorial extent of such proposed improvement, designating the number of the proposed local improvement district or utility local improvement district, and describing the boundaries thereof, stating the estimated cost and expense of the improvement and the proportionate amount thereof which will be borne by the property within the proposed district, and fixing a date, time, and place for a public hearing on the formation of the proposed local district.

In case any such local improvement district or utility local improvement district (~~shall be~~) is initiated by petition, such petition shall set forth the nature and territorial extent of the proposed improvement requested to be ordered and the fact that the signers thereof are the owners according to the records of the applicable county auditor of at least fifty-one percent of the area of land within the limits of the local improvement district or utility local improvement district to be created. Upon the filing of such petition the board shall determine whether the (~~same shall be~~) petition is sufficient, and the board's determination thereof shall be conclusive upon all persons. No person (~~shall~~) may withdraw his name from the petition after (~~the same~~) it has been filed with the board of water commissioners. If the board (~~shall~~) finds the petition to be sufficient, it shall proceed to adopt a resolution declaring its intention to order the improvement petitioned for, setting forth the nature and territorial extent of (~~said~~) the improvement, designating the number of the proposed local district and describing the boundaries thereof, stating the estimated cost and expense of the improvement and the proportionate amount thereof which will be borne by the property within the proposed local district, and fixing a date, time, and place for a public hearing on the formation of the proposed local district.

Notice of the adoption of the resolution of intention, whether the resolution was adopted on the initiative of the board or pursuant to a petition of the property owners, shall be published in at least two consecutive issues of a newspaper of general circulation in the proposed local district, the date of the first publication to be at least fifteen days prior to the date fixed by such resolution for hearing before the board of water commissioners. Notice of the adoption of the resolution of intention shall also be given each owner or reputed owner of any lot, tract, parcel of land, or other property within the proposed improvement district by mailing ~~((said))~~ the notice at least fifteen days before the date fixed for the public hearing to the owner or reputed owner of the property as shown on the tax rolls of the county treasurer of the county in which the real property is located at the address shown thereon. Whenever such notices are mailed, the water commissioners shall maintain a list of such reputed property owners, which list shall be kept on file at a location within the water district and shall be made available for public perusal. The notices shall refer to the resolution of intention and designate the proposed improvement district by number. ~~((said))~~ The notices shall also set forth the nature of the proposed improvement, the total estimated cost, the proportion of total cost to be borne by assessments, the date, time, and place of the hearing before the board of water commissioners. In the case of improvements initiated by resolution, ~~((said))~~ the notice shall also: (1) State that all persons desiring to object to the formation of the proposed district must file their written protests with the secretary of the board of water commissioners ~~((before the time fixed for said))~~ no later than ten days after the public hearing; (2) state that if owners of at least forty percent of the area of land within the proposed district file written protests with the secretary of the board, the power of the water commissioners to proceed with the creation of the proposed district shall be divested; (3) provide the name and address of the secretary of the board; and (4) state the hours and location within the water district where the names of the property owners within the proposed district are kept available for public perusal. In the case of the notice given each owner or reputed owner by mail, the notice shall set forth the estimated amount of the cost and expense of such improvement to be borne by the particular lot, tract, parcel of land, or other property.

Whether the improvement is initiated by petition or resolution, the board shall conduct a public hearing at the time and place designated in the notice to property owners. At this hearing the board shall hear objections from any person affected by the formation of the local district and may make such changes in the boundaries of the district or such modifications in the plans for the proposed improvement as shall be deemed necessary(~~(: PROVIDED, That)~~). The board may not change the boundaries of the district to include property not previously included (~~(therein)~~) in it without first passing a new resolution of intention and giving a new notice to property owners in the manner and form and within the time (~~(herein)~~) provided in this chapter for the original notice.

After (~~(said)~~) the hearing the commissioners shall have jurisdiction to overrule protests and proceed with any such improvement initiated by petition or resolution(~~(: PROVIDED, That)~~). The jurisdiction of the commissioners to proceed with any improvement initiated by resolution shall be divested by protests filed with the secretary of the board (~~(prior to said)~~) before the public hearing signed by the owners, according to the records of the applicable county auditor, of at least forty percent of the area of land within the proposed local district.

If the commissioners find that the district should be formed, they shall by resolution form the district and order the improvement(~~(;)~~). After execution of the resolution forming the district, the secretary of the board of commissioners shall publish, in a legal publication that serves the area subject to the district, a notice setting forth that a resolution has been passed forming the district and that a lawsuit challenging the jurisdiction or authority of the water district to proceed with the improvement and creating the district must be filed, and notice to the water district served, within thirty days of the publication of the notice. The notice shall set forth the nature of the appeal. Property owners bringing the appeal shall follow the procedures as set forth under appeal under RCW 57.16.090. Whenever a resolution forming a district has been adopted, the formation is conclusive in all things upon all parties, and cannot be contested or questioned in any manner in any proceeding whatsoever by any person not commencing a lawsuit in the manner and within the time provided in this section, except for lawsuits made under RCW 57.16.090.

Following an appeal, if it is unsuccessful or if no appeal is made under RCW 57.16.090, the commissioners may proceed with the improvement and provide the general funds of the water district to be applied thereto, adopt detailed plans of the local improvement district or utility local improvement district and declare the estimated cost thereof, acquire all necessary land therefor, pay all damages caused thereby, and commence in the name of the water district such eminent domain proceedings as may be necessary to entitle the district to proceed with the work. The board shall thereupon proceed with the work and file with the county treasurer of the county in which the real property is located its roll levying special assessments in the amount to be paid by special assessment against the property situated within the improvement district in proportion to the special benefits to be derived by the property therein from the improvement.

Passed the House February 11, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 4, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The sentencing guidelines commission shall study robbery of controlled substances and consider whether this type of robbery should be defined as a separate felony or whether additional sentencing enhancements are needed. The commission shall study the sentences for this type of robbery that have been imposed under the sentencing reform act. The commission shall deliver its recommendations to the legislature by January 1, 1987.

Sec. 2. Section 9A.56.010, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 382, Laws of 1985 and RCW 9A.56.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The following definitions are applicable in this chapter unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Appropriate lost or misdelivered property or services" means obtaining or exerting control over the property or services of another which the actor knows to have been lost or mislaid, or to have been delivered under a mistake as to identity of the recipient or as to the nature or amount of the property;

(2) "By color or aid of deception" means that the deception operated to bring about the obtaining of the property or services; it is not necessary that deception be the sole means of obtaining the property or services;

(3) "Credit card" means any instrument or device, whether incomplete, revoked, or expired, whether known as a credit card, credit plate, charge plate, courtesy card, or by any other name, issued with or without fee for the use of the cardholder in obtaining money, goods, services, or anything else of value, including satisfaction of a debt or the payment of a check drawn by a cardholder, either on credit or in consideration of an undertaking or guarantee by the issuer;

(4) "Deception" occurs when an actor knowingly:

(a) Creates or confirms another's false impression which the actor knows to be false; or

(b) Fails to correct another's impression which the actor previously has created or confirmed; or

(c) Prevents another from acquiring information material to the disposition of the property involved; or

(d) Transfers or encumbers property without disclosing a lien, adverse claim, or other legal impediment to the enjoyment of the property, whether that impediment is or is not valid, or is or is not a matter of official record; or

(e) Promises performance which the actor does not intend to perform or knows will not be performed.

(5) "Deprive" in addition to its common meaning means to make unauthorized use or an unauthorized copy of records, information, data, trade secrets, or computer programs;

(6) "Obtain control over" in addition to its common meaning, means:

(a) In relation to property, to bring about a transfer or purported transfer to the obtainer or another of a legally recognized interest in the property; or

(b) In relation to labor or service, to secure performance thereof for the benefits of the obtainer or another;

(7) "Wrongfully obtains" or "exerts unauthorized control" means:

(a) To take the property or services of another; ((σ))

(b) Having any property or services in one's possession, custody or control as bailee, factor, pledgee, servant, attorney, agent, employee, trustee, executor, administrator, guardian, or officer of any person, estate, association, or corporation, or as a public officer, or person authorized by agreement or competent authority to take or hold such possession, custody, or control, to secrete, withhold, or appropriate the same to his or her own use or to the use of any person other than the true owner or person entitled thereto; or

(c) Having any property or services in one's possession, custody, or control as partner, to secrete, withhold, or appropriate the same to his or her use or to the use of any person other than the true owner or person entitled thereto, where such use is unauthorized by the partnership agreement;

(8) "Owner" means a person, other than the actor, who has possession of or any other interest in the property or services involved, and without whose consent the actor has no authority to exert control over the property or services;

(9) "Receive" includes, but is not limited to, acquiring title, possession, control, or a security interest, or any other interest in the property;

(10) "Services" includes, but is not limited to, labor, professional services, transportation services, electronic computer services, the supplying of hotel accommodations, restaurant services, entertainment, the supplying of equipment for use, and the supplying of commodities of a public utility nature such as gas, electricity, steam, and water;

(11) "Stolen" means obtained by theft, robbery, or extortion;

(12) Value. (a) "Value" means the market value of the property or services at the time and in the approximate area of the criminal act.

(b) Whether or not they have been issued or delivered, written instruments, except those having a readily ascertained market value, shall be evaluated as follows:

(i) The value of an instrument constituting an evidence of debt, such as a check, draft, or promissory note, shall be deemed the amount due or collectible thereon or thereby, that figure ordinarily being the face amount of the indebtedness less any portion thereof which has been satisfied;

(ii) The value of a ticket or equivalent instrument which evidences a right to receive transportation, entertainment, or other service shall be deemed the price stated thereon, if any; and if no price is stated thereon, the value shall be deemed the price of such ticket or equivalent instrument which the issuer charged the general public;

(iii) The value of any other instrument that creates, releases, discharges, or otherwise affects any valuable legal right, privilege, or obligation shall be deemed the greatest amount of economic loss which the owner of the instrument might reasonably suffer by virtue of the loss of the instrument.

(c) Whenever any series of transactions which constitute theft, would, when considered separately, constitute theft in the third degree because of value, and said series of transactions are a part of a common scheme or plan, then the transactions may be aggregated in one count and the sum of the value of all said transactions shall be the value considered in determining the degree of theft involved.

(d) Whenever any person is charged with possessing stolen property and such person has unlawfully in his possession at the same time the stolen property of more than one person, then the stolen property possessed may be aggregated in one count and the sum of the value of all said stolen property shall be the value considered in determining the degree of theft involved.

(e) Property or services having value that cannot be ascertained pursuant to the standards set forth above shall be deemed to be of a value not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars;

(13) "Shopping cart" means a basket mounted on wheels or similar container generally used in a retail establishment by a customer for the purpose of transporting goods of any kind;

(14) "Parking area" means a parking lot or other property provided by retailers for use by a customer for parking an automobile or other vehicle.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The enactment of section 9 of this act does not have the effect of terminating or in any way modifying any criminal liability in existence prior to the effective date of this act, nor affecting any proceeding instituted under the sections repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 4 through 7 of this act are each added to chapter 9A.36 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Sections 3 through 10 of this act shall take effect on July 1, 1987.

Sec. 13. Section 9A.04.080, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 186, Laws of 1985 and by section 19, chapter 455, Laws of 1985 and RCW 9A.04.080 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

Prosecutions for the offenses of murder, and arson where death ensues, may be commenced at any period after the commission of the offense; for offenses the punishment of which may be imprisonment in a state correctional institution, committed by any public officer in connection with the duties of his office or constituting a breach of his public duty or a violation of his oath of office, and arson where death does not ensue, within ten years after their commission; for violations of RCW 9A.44.070, 9A.44.080, and 9A.44.100(1)(b), within seven years after their commission; for violations of RCW 9A.82.060 or 9A.82.080, within six years after their commission; for bigamy, within three years of the time specified in RCW 9A.64.010; for all other offenses the punishment of which may be imprisonment in a state correctional institution, within three years after their commission; two years for gross misdemeanors; and for all other offenses, within one year after their commission: PROVIDED, That any length of time during which the party charged was not usually and publicly resident within this state shall not be reckoned within the one, two, three, six, seven, and ten years respectively: AND FURTHER PROVIDED, That where an indictment has been found, or complaint or an information filed, within the time limited for the commencement of a criminal action, if the indictment, complaint, or information be set aside, the time of limitation shall be extended by the length of time from the time of filing of such indictment, complaint, or information, to the time such indictment, complaint, or information was set aside.

Sec. 14. Section 9A.64.010, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 9A.64.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A person is guilty of bigamy if he intentionally marries or purports to marry another person when either person has a living spouse.

(2) In any prosecution under this section, it is a defense that at the time of the subsequent marriage or purported marriage:

(a) The actor reasonably believed that the prior spouse was dead; or

(b) A court had entered a judgment purporting to terminate or annul any prior disqualifying marriage and the actor did not know that such judgment was invalid; or

(c) The actor reasonably believed that he was legally eligible to marry.

(3) The limitation imposed by RCW 9A.04.080 on commencing a prosecution for bigamy does not begin to run until the death of the prior or subsequent spouse of the actor or until a court enters a judgment terminating or annulling the prior or subsequent marriage.

(4) Bigamy is a class C felony.

Sec. 15. Section 2, chapter 234, Laws of 1984 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

(1) The joint legislative committee on the criminal justice system shall survey and study crime prevention, the causes of crime, and how the administration of the criminal justice system impacts crime.

(2) The committee shall submit its findings and recommendations thereon to the governor, the legislature, and the judicial branch of state government. A final report shall be prepared and submitted by January 1, ((+1986)) 1987, on which date the committee shall cease to exist.

(3) The committee shall conduct a study for the legislature to determine whether the sentencing reform act has addressed the high rate of minority incarceration in Washington. The committee shall determine whether there are significant statistical differences in the arrest, charging, conviction, and sentencing of minorities. The committee is also directed to determine the extent to which recommended prosecutor charging and plea bargaining guidelines set forth in the sentencing reform act are being followed around the state and whether uniform, mandatory standards should be adopted. The committee shall complete this report for the legislature by January 1, 1987.

Sec. 16. Section 2, chapter 335, Laws of 1981 and RCW 43.10.232 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The attorney general shall have concurrent authority and power with the prosecuting attorneys to investigate crimes and initiate and conduct prosecutions upon the request of or with the concurrence of any of the following:

((+)) (a) The county prosecuting attorney of the jurisdiction in which the offense has occurred;

((+)) (b) The governor of the state of Washington; or

((+)) (c) A majority of the committee charged with the oversight of the organized crime intelligence unit.

(2) Such request or concurrence shall be communicated in writing to the attorney general.

(3) Prior to any prosecution by the attorney general under this section, the attorney general and the county in which the offense occurred shall reach an agreement regarding the payment of all costs, including expert witness fees, and defense attorneys' fees associated with any such prosecution.

Sec. 17. Section 3, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 5, chapter 346, Laws of 1985 and RCW 9.94A.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Commission" means the sentencing guidelines commission.

(2) "Community corrections officer" means an employee of the department who is responsible for carrying out specific duties in supervision of sentenced offenders and monitoring of sentence conditions.

(3) "Community service" means compulsory service, without compensation, performed for the benefit of the community by the offender. For purposes of the interstate compact for out of state supervision of parolees and probationers, RCW 9.95.270, community supervision is the functional equivalent of probation and should be considered the same as probation by other states.

(4) "Community supervision" means a period of time during which a convicted offender is subject to crime-related prohibitions and other sentence conditions imposed pursuant to this chapter by a court. For first-time offenders, the supervision may include crime-related prohibitions and other conditions imposed pursuant to RCW 9.94A.120(5).

(5) "Confinement" means total or partial confinement as defined in this section.

(6) "Conviction" means an adjudication of guilt pursuant to Titles 10 or 13 RCW and includes a verdict of guilty, a finding of guilty, and acceptance of a plea of guilty.

(7) "Crime-related prohibition" means an order of a court prohibiting conduct that directly relates to the circumstances of the crime for which the offender has been convicted, and shall not be construed to mean orders directing an offender affirmatively to participate in rehabilitative programs or to otherwise perform affirmative conduct.

(8) (a) "Criminal history" means the list of a defendant's prior convictions, whether in this state, in federal court, or elsewhere. The history shall include, where known, for each conviction (i) whether the defendant has been placed on probation and the length and terms thereof; and (ii) whether the defendant has been incarcerated and the length of incarceration.

(b) "Criminal history" includes a defendant's prior convictions ((or pleas of guilty)) in juvenile court if: (i) The ((guilty plea or)) conviction was for an offense which is a felony and is criminal history as defined in RCW 13.40.020(6)(a); ((and)) (ii) the defendant was fifteen years of age or older at the time the offense was committed; and (iii) with respect to prior juvenile class B and C felonies, the defendant ((had not reached his or her twenty-third birthday)) was less than twenty-three years of age at the time the offense for which he or she is being sentenced was committed.

(9) "Department" means the department of corrections.

(10) "Determinate sentence" means a sentence that states with exactitude the number of actual years, months, or days of total confinement, of partial confinement, of community supervision, the number of actual hours or days of community service work, or dollars or terms of a fine or restitution. The fact that an offender through "earned early release" can reduce the actual period of confinement shall not affect the classification of the sentence as a determinate sentence.

(11) "Drug offense" means any felony violation of chapter 69.50 RCW except possession of a controlled substance (RCW 69.50.401(d)) or forged prescription for a controlled substance (RCW 69.50.403).

(12) "Escape" means escape in the first degree (RCW 9A.76.110), escape in the second degree (RCW 9A.76.120), wilful failure to return from furlough (RCW 72.66.060), or wilful failure to return from work release (RCW 72.65.070).

(13) "Felony traffic offense" means vehicular homicide (RCW 46.61.520), vehicular assault (RCW 46.61.522), or felony hit-and-run injury-accident (RCW 46.52.020(4)).

(14) "Fines" means the requirement that the offender pay a specific sum of money over a specific period of time to the court.

~~((+2))~~ (15)(a) "First-time offender" means any person who is convicted of a felony not classified as a violent offense or a sex offense under this chapter, and except as provided in (b) of this subsection, who previously has never been convicted of a felony in this state, federal court, or another state, and who has never participated in a program of deferred prosecution for a felony offense.

(b) For purposes of (a) of this subsection, a juvenile adjudication for an offense committed before the age of fifteen years is not a previous felony conviction.

~~((+3))~~ (16) "Nonviolent offense" means an offense which is not a violent offense.

(17) "Offender" means a person who has committed a felony established by state law and is eighteen years of age or older or is less than eighteen years of age but whose case has been transferred by the appropriate juvenile court to a criminal court pursuant to RCW 13.40.110. Throughout this chapter, the terms "offender" and "defendant" are used interchangeably.

~~((+4))~~ (18) "Partial confinement" means confinement for no more than one year in a facility or institution operated or utilized under contract by the state or any the state or any other unit of government, for a substantial portion of each day with the balance of the day spent in the community.

~~((+5))~~ (19) "Restitution" means the requirement that the offender pay a specific sum of money over a specific period of time to the court as payment of damages. The sum may include both public and private costs. The imposition of a restitution order does not preclude civil redress.

~~((+6))~~ (20) "Serious traffic offense" means driving while intoxicated (RCW 46.61.502), actual physical control while intoxicated (RCW 46.61-.504), reckless driving (RCW 46.61.500), or hit-and-run an attended vehicle (RCW 46.52.020(5)).

(21) "Serious violent offense" is a subcategory of violent offense and means murder in the first degree, murder in the second degree, assault in the first degree, kidnapping in the first degree, or rape in the first degree, or an attempt, criminal solicitation, or criminal conspiracy to commit one of these felonies.

(22) "Sentence range" means the sentencing court's discretionary range in imposing a nonappealable sentence.

~~((+7))~~ (23) "Sex offense" means a felony that is a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020 or 9.68A.090 or that is, under chapter 9A.28 RCW, a criminal attempt, criminal solicitation, or criminal conspiracy to commit such crimes.

(24) "Total confinement" means confinement inside the physical boundaries of a facility or institution operated or utilized under contract by the state or any other unit of government for twenty-four hours a day, or pursuant to RCW 72.64.050 and 72.64.060.

~~((+8))~~ (25) "Victim" means any person who has sustained physical or financial injury to person or property as a direct result of the crime charged.

~~((+9))~~ (26) "Violent offense" means:

(a) Any of the following felonies, as now existing or hereafter amended: Any felony defined under any law as a class A felony or an attempt to commit a class A felony, criminal solicitation of or criminal conspiracy to commit a class A felony, manslaughter in the first degree, manslaughter in the second degree, indecent liberties if committed by forcible compulsion, rape in the second degree, kidnapping in the second degree, arson in the second degree, assault in the second degree, extortion in the first degree, robbery in the second degree, ~~(and)~~ vehicular homicide, and vehicular assault;

(b) Any conviction for a felony offense in effect at any time prior to July 1, 1976, that is comparable to a felony classified as a violent offense in subsection ~~((+9))~~ (26)(a) of this section; and

(c) Any federal or out-of-state conviction for an offense that under the laws of this state would be a felony classified as a violent offense under subsection ~~((+9))~~ (26) (a) or (b) of this section.

Sec. 18. Section 4, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 2, chapter 192, Laws of 1982 and RCW 9.94A.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A sentencing guidelines commission is established as an agency of state government.

(2) The commission shall, following a public hearing or hearings:

(a) Devise a series of recommended standard sentence ranges for all felony offenses and a system for determining which range of punishment applies to each offender based on the extent and nature of the offender's criminal history, if any;

(b) Devise recommended prosecuting standards in respect to charging of offenses and plea agreements; and

(c) Devise recommended standards to govern whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently.

(3) Each of the commission's recommended standard sentence ranges shall include one or more of the following: Total confinement, partial confinement, community supervision, community service, and a fine.

(4) In devising the standard sentence ranges of total and partial confinement under this section, the commission is subject to the following limitations:

(a) If the maximum term in the range is one year or less, the minimum term in the range shall be no less than one-third of the maximum term in the range, except that if the maximum term in the range is ninety days or less, the minimum term may be less than one-third of the maximum;

(b) If the maximum term in the range is greater than one year, the minimum term in the range shall be no less than seventy-five percent of the maximum term in the range; and

(c) The maximum term of confinement in a range may not exceed the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in RCW 9A.20.020.

(5) In carrying out its duties under subsection (2) of this section, the commission shall give consideration to the existing guidelines adopted by the association of superior court judges and the Washington association of prosecuting attorneys and the experience gained through use of those guidelines. The commission shall emphasize confinement for the violent offender and alternatives to total confinement for the nonviolent offender.

(6) This commission shall conduct a study to determine the capacity of correctional facilities and programs which are or will be available. While the commission need not consider such capacity in arriving at its recommendations, the commission shall project whether the implementation of its recommendations would result in exceeding such capacity. If the commission finds that this result would probably occur, then the commission shall prepare an additional list of standard sentences which shall be consistent with such capacity.

(7) ~~((By January 10, 1983, the commission shall recommend its standard sentence ranges and standards to the legislature by providing the recommendations to the chief clerk of the house of representatives and secretary of the senate. If the commission has prepared an additional list of standard sentence ranges, as provided under subsection (6) of this section, then the commission shall include such list along with its recommendations.~~

~~(8) Every two years,))~~ The commission may recommend to the legislature revisions or modifications to the standard sentence ranges and other standards. If implementation of the revisions or modifications would result in exceeding the capacity of correctional facilities, then the commission shall accompany its recommendation with an additional list of standard sentence ranges which are consistent with correction capacity.

~~((9))~~ (8) The commission shall study the existing criminal code and from time to time make recommendations to the legislature for modification.

~~((10))~~ (9) The commission shall exercise its duties under this section in conformity with chapter 34.04 RCW, as now existing or hereafter amended.

Sec. 19. Section 7, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 and RCW 9.94A.070 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((1) At its regular session convening in 1983, the legislature shall enact laws approving or modifying either the standards recommended by the commission, or the additional list of standard sentence ranges consistent with prison capacity in the event an additional list has been submitted pursuant to RCW 9.94A.040(6). The standards so adopted shall take effect on July 1, 1984.~~

(2)) Revisions or modifications of standard sentence ranges or other standards, together with any additional list of standard sentence ranges, shall be submitted to the legislature at least every two years ~~((and shall become effective as provided under subsection (1) of this section on July first of the year in which they are submitted))~~.

Sec. 20. Section 12, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 6, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.120 are each amended to read as follows:

When a person is convicted of a felony, the court shall impose punishment as provided in this section.

(1) Except as authorized in subsections (2) ~~((and)),~~ (5), and (7) of this section, the court shall impose a sentence within the sentence range for the offense.

(2) The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for that offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(3) Whenever a sentence outside the standard range is imposed, the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the standard range shall be a determinate sentence.

(4) An offender convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than twenty years. An offender convicted of the crime of assault in the first degree where the offender used force or means likely to result in death or intended to kill the victim shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years. An offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than three years, and shall not be eligible for furlough, work release or other authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility during such minimum three year term except for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility. The foregoing minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) In sentencing a first-time offender (~~(; other than a person convicted of a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020;)~~) the court may waive the imposition of a sentence within the sentence range and impose a sentence which may include up to ninety days of confinement in a facility operated or utilized under contract by the county and a requirement that the offender refrain from committing new offenses. The sentence may also include up to two years of community supervision, which, in addition to crime-related prohibitions, may include requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (a) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
 - (b) Undergo available outpatient treatment for up to two years, or inpatient treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense;
 - (c) Pursue a prescribed, secular course of study or vocational training;
 - (d) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
 - (e) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
- or
- (f) Pay a fine, (~~(make restitution;)~~) and/or accomplish some community service work.

(6) If a sentence range has not been established for the defendant's crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement, community service work, (~~(restitution;)~~) a term of community supervision not to exceed one year, and/or a fine. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(7) (a) When an offender is convicted of (~~(any)~~) a sex offense other than a violation of ((chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020 except)) RCW 9A.44.040 or RCW 9A.44.050 and has no prior convictions (~~((of chapter 9A.44 RCW, RCW 9A.64.020;))~~) for a sex offense or any other felony sexual offenses in this or any other state, the sentencing court, on its own motion or the motion of the state or the defendant, may order an examination to determine whether the defendant is amenable to treatment.

After receipt of the reports, the court shall then determine whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this special sexual offender sentencing alternative. If the court determines that both the offender and the community will benefit from use of this provision, the court shall then impose a sentence within the sentence range and, if this sentence is less than six years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and place the offender on community supervision for up to two years. As a condition of the suspended sentence, the court may impose other sentence conditions including up to six months of confinement, not to exceed the sentence range of confinement for that offense, crime-related prohibitions, and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (ii) Undergo available outpatient sex offender treatment for up to two years, or inpatient sex offender treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment;
- (iii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (iv) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
- (v) Pay a fine, (~~make restitution,~~) accomplish some community service work, or any combination thereof; or
- (vi) Make recoupment to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender's crime.

If the offender violates these sentence conditions the court may revoke the suspension and order execution of the sentence. All confinement time served during the period of community supervision shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

(b) When an offender is convicted of any felony sexual offense and is sentenced to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, order the offender committed for up to thirty days to the custody of the secretary of the department of social and health services at the Eastern State Hospital or the Western State Hospital for evaluation and report to the court on the offender's amenability to treatment at these facilities. If the secretary of the department of social and health services cannot begin the evaluation within thirty days of the court's order of commitment, the offender shall be transferred to the state for confinement pending an opportunity to be evaluated at the appropriate facility. The court shall review the reports and may order that the term of confinement imposed be served in the sexual offender treatment programs at Western

State Hospital or Eastern State Hospital, as determined by the secretary of the department of social and health services. The offender shall be transferred to the state pending placement in the treatment program.

If the offender does not comply with the conditions of the treatment program, the secretary of the department of social and health services may refer the matter to the sentencing court for determination as to whether the offender shall be transferred to the department of corrections to serve the balance of his term of confinement.

If the offender successfully completes the treatment program before the expiration of his term of confinement, the court may convert the balance of confinement to community supervision and may place conditions on the offender including crime-related prohibitions and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

- (i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;
- (ii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;
- (iii) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;
- (iv) Undergo available outpatient treatment.

If the offender violates any of the terms of his community supervision, the court may order the offender to serve out the balance of his community supervision term in confinement in the custody of the department of corrections.

(8) If the court imposes a sentence requiring confinement of thirty days or less, the court may, in its discretion, specify that the sentence be served on consecutive or intermittent days. A sentence requiring more than thirty days of confinement shall be served on consecutive days. Local jail administrators may schedule court-ordered intermittent sentences as space permits.

(9) If a sentence imposed includes a fine or restitution, the sentence shall specify a reasonable manner and time in which the fine or restitution shall be paid. In any sentence under this chapter the court may also require the offender to make such monetary payments, on such terms as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, as are necessary (a) to pay court costs, including reimbursement of the state for costs of extradition if return to this state by extradition was required, (b) to make recoupment of the cost of defense attorney's fees if counsel is provided at public expense, (c) to contribute to a county or interlocal drug fund, and (d) to make such other payments as provided by law. All monetary payments shall be ordered paid by no later than ten years after the date of the judgment of conviction.

(10) Except as provided under RCW 9.94A.140(1), a court may not impose a sentence providing for a term of confinement or community supervision which exceeds the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW ((9A-20-020)).

(11) All offenders sentenced to terms involving community supervision, community service, restitution, or fines shall be under the supervision of the secretary of the department or such person as the secretary may designate and shall follow implicitly the instructions of the secretary including reporting as directed to a community corrections officer, remaining within prescribed geographical boundaries, and notifying the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment.

(12) The sentencing court shall give the offender credit for all confinement time served before the sentencing if that confinement was solely in regard to the offense for which the offender is being sentenced.

(13) A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.400(1) and (2) governing whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently is an exceptional sentence subject to the limitations in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, and may be appealed by the defendant or the state as set forth in RCW 9.94A.210(2) through (6).

(14) The court shall order restitution whenever the offender is convicted of a felony that results in injury to any person or damage to or loss of property, whether the offender is sentenced to confinement or placed under community supervision, unless extraordinary circumstances exist that make restitution inappropriate in the court's judgment. The court shall set forth the extraordinary circumstances in the record if it does not order restitution.

Sec. 21. Section 19, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 10, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.190 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A sentence that includes a term or terms of confinement totaling more than one year shall be served in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state. Except as provided for in subsection (3) of this section, a sentence of not more than one year of confinement shall be served in a facility operated, licensed, or utilized under contract, by the county.

(2) If a county uses a state partial confinement facility for the partial confinement of a person sentenced to confinement for not more than one year, the county shall reimburse the state for the use of the facility as provided for in this subsection. The office of financial management shall set the rate of reimbursement based upon the average per diem cost per offender in the facility. The office of financial management shall determine to what extent, if any, reimbursement shall be reduced or eliminated because of funds provided by the legislature to the department of corrections for the purpose of covering the cost of county use of state partial confinement facilities. The office of financial management shall reestablish reimbursement rates each even-numbered year.

(3) A person who is sentenced for a felony to a term of not more than one year, and who is committed or returned to incarceration in a state facility on another felony conviction, either under the indeterminate sentencing laws, chapter 9.95 RCW, or under this chapter shall serve all terms of confinement, including a sentence of not more than one year, in a facility or institution operated, or utilized under contract, by the state, consistent with the provisions of RCW 9.94A.400.

Sec. 22. Section 2, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 16, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.310 are each amended to read as follows:

NOTE: Numbers in the first horizontal row of each seriousness category represent sentencing midpoints in years(y) and months(m). Numbers in the second and third rows represent presumptive sentencing ranges in months, or in days if so designated. 12+ equals one year and one day.

(2) For persons convicted of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy under chapter 9A.28 RCW, the presumptive sentence is determined by locating the sentencing grid sentence range defined by the appropriate offender score and the seriousness level of the completed crime, and multiplying the range by 75 percent.

(3) The following additional times shall be added to the presumptive sentence if the offender or an accomplice was armed with a deadly weapon as defined in this chapter and the offender is being sentenced for one of the crimes listed in this subsection. If the offender or an accomplice was armed with a deadly weapon and the offender is being sentenced for an anticipatory offense under chapter 9A.28 RCW to commit one of the crimes listed in this subsection, the following times shall be added to the presumptive range determined under subsection (2) of this section:

- (a) 24 months ((f)) for Rape 1 (RCW 9A.44.040), Robbery 1 (RCW 9A.56.200), or Kidnapping 1((t)) (RCW 9A.40.020)
- (b) 18 months ((f)) for Burglary 1((t)) (RCW 9A.52.020)
- (c) 12 months ((f)) for Assault 2 (RCW 9A.36.020), Escape 1 (RCW 9A.76.110), Kidnapping 2 (RCW 9A.40.030), Burglary 2 of a building other than a dwelling (RCW 9A.52.030), ((Delivery or Possession of a controlled substance with intent to deliver)) or any drug offense

Sec. 23. Section 3, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 17, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.320 are each amended to read as follows:

Sec. 25. Section 7, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 19, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.360 are each amended to read as follows:

The offender score is measured on the horizontal axis of the sentencing grid. The offender score rules ~~((are))~~, partially summarized in Table 3, RCW 9.94A.330, are as follows:

The offender score is ~~((computed in the following way:))~~ the sum of points accrued under subsections (1) through (14) of this section rounded down to the nearest whole number.

(1) A prior conviction is a conviction which exists before the date of sentencing for the offense for which the offender score is being computed. Convictions entered or sentenced on the same date as the conviction for which the offender score is being computed shall be deemed "other current offenses" within the meaning of RCW 9.94A.400.

(2) Except as provided in subsections (3) and (13) of this section, class A prior felony convictions shall always be included in the offender score. Class B prior felony convictions shall not be included in the offender score, if since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender had spent ten consecutive years in the community without being convicted of any felonies. Class C prior felony convictions shall not be included in the offender score if, since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender had spent five consecutive years in the community without being convicted of any felonies. Serious traffic convictions shall not be included in the offender score if, since the last date of release from confinement (including full-time residential treatment) pursuant to a felony conviction, if any, or entry of judgment and sentence, the offender spent five years in the community without being convicted of any serious traffic or felony traffic offenses. This subsection applies to both adult and juvenile prior convictions. Out-of-state convictions for offenses shall be classified according to the comparable offense definitions and sentences provided by Washington law.

(3) Include class A juvenile felonies only if the offender was 15 or older at the time the juvenile offense was committed. Include class B and C juvenile felony convictions only if the offender was 15 or older at the time the juvenile offense was committed and the offender was less than 23 at the time the offense for which he or she is being sentenced was committed.

~~((2))~~ (4) Score prior convictions for felony anticipatory offenses (attempts, criminal solicitations, and criminal conspiracies) the same as if they were convictions for completed offenses.

(5) In the case of multiple prior convictions, for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all convictions separately, except:

(a) Prior adult offenses which were found, under RCW 9.94A.400(1)(a), to encompass the same criminal conduct, shall be counted as one offense, the offense that yields the highest offender score. The current sentencing court shall determine with respect to other prior adult offenses for which sentences were served concurrently whether those offenses shall be counted as one offense or as separate offenses, and if the court finds that they shall be counted as one offense, then the offense that yields the highest offender score shall be used;

(b) Juvenile prior convictions entered or sentenced on the same date shall count as one offense, the offense that yields the highest offender score; and

(c) In the case of multiple prior convictions for offenses committed before July 1, 1986, for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all adult convictions served concurrently as one offense, and count all juvenile convictions entered on the same date as one offense. Use the conviction for the offense that yields the highest offender score.

(6) If the present conviction is one of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy, count each prior conviction as if the present conviction were for a completed offense.

(7) If the present conviction is for a nonviolent offense and not covered by subsection (11), (12), or (13) of this section, count one point for each adult prior felony conviction and one point for each juvenile prior violent felony conviction and 1/2 point for each juvenile prior nonviolent felony conviction.

(8) If the present conviction is for a violent offense and not covered in subsection (9), (10), (11), or (12) of this section, count two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent felony conviction, one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

(9) If the present conviction is for Murder 1 or 2, Assault 1, Kidnaping 1, or Rape 1, count three points for prior adult and juvenile convictions for crimes in these categories, two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent conviction (not already counted), one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction.

((3)) (10) If the present conviction is for Burglary 1, count prior(s) convictions as in subsection ((5)) (8) of this section; however count two points for each prior adult Burglary 2 conviction, and one point for each prior juvenile Burglary 2 conviction.

((4)) (11) If the present conviction is for ((Vehicular Homicide, only)) a felony traffic offense count ((the following crimes as part of the offender score:)) two points for each adult or juvenile prior conviction for

~~Vehicular Homicide((; Vehicular Assault, Felony Hit and Run (RCW 46.52.020(4)), Hit and Run (RCW 46.52.020(5)), Driving While Intoxicated (RCW 46.61.502), Actual Physical Control (RCW 46.61.504), Reckless Driving (RCW 46.61.500), Attempting to Elude a Police Officer (RCW 46.61.500). Count two points for each adult or juvenile Vehicular Homicide conviction, one point for each other adult felony traffic or serious traffic conviction, and 1/2 point for each other juvenile felony traffic or serious traffic conviction:~~

~~(5) If the present conviction is for a violent offense and not covered in subsections (2), (3), (4), or (8) of this section, count two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent felony conviction, one point for each prior adult nonviolent felony conviction, and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction)); count one point for each adult, and 1/2 point for each juvenile, prior conviction for each other felony offense or serious traffic offense.~~

~~((6)) (12) If the present conviction is for a drug offense count two points for each adult prior felony drug offense conviction and one point for each juvenile drug offense. All other adult and juvenile felonies are scored as in subsection (8) of this section if the current drug offense is violent, or as in subsection (7) of this section if the current drug offense is nonviolent.~~

~~(13) If the present conviction is for escape (Escape 1, RCW 9A.76.110; Escape 2, RCW 9A.76.120; Willful Failure to Return from Furlough, RCW 72.66.060; and Willful Failure to Return from Work Release, RCW 72.65.070), count only prior escape convictions in the offender score. Count adult prior escape convictions as one point and juvenile prior escape convictions as 1/2 point.~~

~~((7)) (14) If the present conviction is for Burglary 2, count priors as in subsection ((9)) (7) of this section; however, count two points for each adult and juvenile prior Burglary 1 conviction, two points for each adult prior Burglary 2 conviction, and one point for each juvenile prior Burglary 2 conviction.~~

~~((8) If the present conviction is for a violation of chapter 69.50 RCW, except for possession of a controlled substance (RCW 69.50.401(d)), count two points for each adult prior felony drug conviction (chapter 69.50 RCW, except RCW 69.50.401(d)), and one point for each juvenile drug conviction. All other adult and juvenile felonies are scored as in subsection (5) of this section if the current drug conviction is violent, or as in subsection (9) of this section if the current drug conviction is nonviolent.~~

~~(9) If the present conviction is for a nonviolent offense and not covered by subsection (6), (7), or (8) of this section, count one point for each prior adult felony conviction and one point for each prior juvenile violent felony conviction and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony.~~

~~(10) For all offender scores, the fractional totals shall be rounded down to the nearest whole number.~~

~~(11) In the case of multiple prior convictions for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all adult convictions served concurrently as one offense, and count all juvenile convictions entered on the same date as one offense. The conviction for the offense that yields the highest offender score is used.~~

~~(12) Class A prior felony convictions are always included in the offender score. Class B prior felony convictions are not included if the offender has spent ten years in the community and has not been convicted of any felonies since the last date of release from confinement pursuant to a felony conviction (including full-time residential treatment), if any, or entry of judgment and sentence. Class C prior felony convictions and serious traffic convictions as defined in RCW 9.94A.330 are not included if the offender has spent five years in the community and has not been convicted of any felonies since the last date of release from confinement pursuant to a felony conviction (including full-time residential treatment), if any, or entry of judgment and sentence. This subsection applies to both adult and juvenile prior convictions.~~

~~The designation of out-of-state convictions shall be covered by the offense definitions and sentences provided by Washington law.~~

~~The offender score is the sum of points accrued under subsections (1) through (12) of this section.)~~

Sec. 26. Section 8, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 20, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.370 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The intersection of the column defined by the offender score and the row defined by the offense seriousness score determines the presumptive sentencing range (see RCW 9.94A.310, (Table 1)). The additional time for deadly weapon findings shall be added to the entire presumptive sentence range. The court may impose any sentence within the range that it deems appropriate. All presumptive sentence ranges are expressed in terms of total confinement.

(2) In determining any sentence, the trial court may ~~((use))~~ rely on no more information than is admitted by the plea agreement, ~~((and))~~ or admitted ~~((to or))~~, acknowledged, or proved in a trial or at the time of sentencing. Acknowledgement includes not objecting to information stated in the presentence reports. Where the defendant disputes material facts, the court must either not consider the fact or grant an evidentiary hearing on the point. The ~~((real))~~ facts shall be deemed ~~((proven))~~ proved at the ~~((evidentiary))~~ hearing by a preponderance of the evidence. ~~((Real))~~ Facts that establish the elements of ~~((a higher crime;))~~ a more serious crime~~(;))~~ or additional crimes ~~((cannot))~~ may not be used to go outside the presumptive sentence range except upon stipulation or when specifically provided for in RCW 9.94A.390(2) (c) and (d).

Sec. 27. Section 10, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 24, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.390 are each amended to read as follows:

If the sentencing court finds that an exceptional sentence outside the standard range should be imposed in accordance with RCW 9.94A.120(2), the sentence is subject to review only as provided for in RCW 9.94A.210(4).

The following are illustrative factors which the court may consider in the exercise of its discretion to impose an exceptional sentence~~((:))~~. The following are illustrative only and are not intended to be exclusive reasons for exceptional sentences.

(1) Mitigating Circumstances

~~((1))~~ (a) To a significant degree, the victim was an initiator, willing participant, aggressor, or provoker of the incident.

~~((2))~~ (b) Before detection, the defendant compensated, or made a good faith effort to compensate, the victim of the criminal conduct for any damage or injury sustained.

~~((3))~~ (c) The defendant committed the crime under duress, coercion, threat, or compulsion insufficient to constitute a complete defense but which significantly affected his or her conduct.

~~((4))~~ (d) The defendant, with no apparent predisposition to do so, was induced by others to participate in the crime.

~~((5))~~ (e) The defendant's capacity to appreciate the wrongfulness of his conduct or to conform his conduct to the requirements of the law, was significantly impaired (voluntary use of drugs or alcohol is excluded).

~~((6))~~ (f) The offense was principally accomplished by another person and the defendant manifested extreme caution or sincere concern for the safety or well-being of the victim.

~~((7))~~ (g) The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.400 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly excessive in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW 9.94A.010.

(2) Aggravating Circumstances

~~((1))~~ (a) The defendant's conduct during the commission of the current offense manifested deliberate cruelty to the victim.

~~((2))~~ (b) The defendant knew or should have known that the victim of the current offense was particularly vulnerable or incapable of resistance due to extreme youth, advanced age, disability, or ill health.

~~((3))~~ (c) The current offense was a major economic offense or series of offenses, so identified by a consideration of any of the following factors:

~~((a))~~ (i) The current offense involved multiple victims or multiple incidents per victim;

~~((b))~~ (ii) The current offense involved attempted or actual monetary loss substantially greater than typical for the offense;

~~((c))~~ (iii) The current offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time;

~~((d))~~ (iv) The defendant used his or her position of trust, confidence, or fiduciary responsibility to facilitate the commission of the current offense.

~~((4))~~ (d) The current offense was a major violation of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act, chapter 69.50 RCW (VUCSA), related to trafficking in controlled substances, which was more onerous than the typical offense of its statutory definition: The presence of ANY of the following may identify ~~((an))~~ a current offense as a major VUCSA:

~~((a))~~ (i) The current offense involved at least three separate transactions in which controlled substances were sold, transferred, or possessed with intent to do so; or

~~((b))~~ (ii) The current offense involved an attempted or actual sale or transfer of controlled substances in quantities substantially larger than for personal use; or

~~((c))~~ (iii) The current offense involved the manufacture of controlled substances for use by other parties; or

~~((d))~~ The offender possessed a firearm during the commission of the offense; or

~~((e))~~ (iv) The circumstances of the current offense reveal the offender to have occupied a high position in the drug distribution hierarchy; or

~~((f))~~ (v) The current offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time or involved a broad geographic area of disbursement; or

~~((g))~~ (vi) The offender used his or her position or status to facilitate the commission of the current offense, including positions of trust, confidence or fiduciary responsibility (e.g., pharmacist, physician, or other medical professional); or

~~((h))~~ (e) The operation of the multiple offense policy of RCW 9.94A.400 results in a presumptive sentence that is clearly too lenient in light of the purpose of this chapter, as expressed in RCW ~~((9.94A.400))~~ 9.94A.010.

~~((The above considerations are illustrative only and are not intended to be exclusive reasons for exceptional sentences.))~~

Sec. 28. Section 11, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 25, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.400 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) (a) Except as provided in (b) of this subsection, whenever a person is ~~((convicted of))~~ to be sentenced for two or more current offenses, the sentence range for each current offense shall be determined by using all other current and prior convictions as ~~((criminal history. All sentences so determined shall be served concurrently. Separate crimes encompassing the same criminal conduct))~~ if they were prior convictions for the purpose of the offender score: PROVIDED, That if the court enters a finding that some or all of the current offenses encompass the same criminal conduct then those current offenses shall be counted as one crime ((in determining criminal history)). Sentences imposed under this subsection shall be served concurrently. Consecutive sentences may only be imposed under the exceptional sentence provisions of RCW 9.94A.120 and 9.94A.390(2)(c) or any other provision of RCW 9.94A.390.

(b) Whenever a person is convicted of three or more serious violent offenses, as defined in RCW 9.94A.330, arising from separate and distinct criminal conduct, the sentence range for the offense with the highest seriousness level under RCW 9.94A.320 shall be determined using the offender's ((prior convictions as)) criminal history in the offender score and the sentence range for other serious violent offenses shall be determined by using ((a criminal history)) an offender score of zero. The sentence range for any ((remaining)) offenses that are not serious violent offenses shall be determined according to (a) of this subsection. All sentences imposed under (b) of this subsection shall be served consecutively to each other and concurrently with sentences imposed under (a) of this subsection.

(2) Whenever a person while under sentence of felony commits another felony and is sentenced to another term of imprisonment, the latter term shall not begin until expiration of all prior terms.

(3) Subject to subsections (1) and (2) of this section, whenever a person is sentenced for a felony that was committed while the person was not under sentence of a felony, the sentence shall run ((consecutively)) concurrently with any felony ((sentences previously)) sentence which has been imposed by any court in this or another state or by a federal court(;) subsequent to the commission of the crime being sentenced unless the court pronouncing the ((subsequent)) current sentence expressly orders that they be served ((concurrently)) consecutively.

(4) Whenever any person granted probation under RCW 9.95.210 or 9.92.060, or both, has the probationary sentence revoked and a prison sentence imposed, ((this)) that sentence shall run consecutively to any sentence imposed pursuant to this chapter, unless the court pronouncing the subsequent sentence expressly orders that they be served concurrently.

(5) However, in the case of consecutive sentences, all periods of total confinement shall be served before any partial confinement, community service, community supervision, or any other requirement or conditions of any of the sentences.

Sec. 29. Section 12, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 26, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.410 are each amended to read as follows:

For persons convicted of the anticipatory offenses of criminal attempt, solicitation, or conspiracy under chapter 9A.28 RCW, the presumptive sentence is determined by locating the sentencing grid sentence range defined by the appropriate offender score and the seriousness level of the crime, and multiplying the range by 75 percent.

In calculating an offender score, count each prior conviction as if the present conviction were for the completed offense. When these convictions are used as criminal history, score them the same as a completed crime.

Sec. 30. Section 15, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.94A.440 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Decision not to prosecute.

STANDARD: A Prosecuting Attorney may decline to prosecute, even though technically sufficient evidence to prosecute exists, in situations where prosecution would serve no public purpose, would defeat the underlying purpose of the law in question or would result in decreased respect for the law.

GUIDELINE/COMMENTARY:

Examples

The following are examples of reasons not to prosecute which could satisfy the standard.

(a) Contrary to Legislative Intent – It may be proper to decline to charge where the application of criminal sanctions would be clearly contrary to the intent of the legislature in enacting the particular statute.

(b) Antiquated Statute – It may be proper to decline to charge where the statute in question is antiquated in that:

(i) It has not been enforced for many years; and

(ii) Most members of society act as if it were no longer in existence; and

(iii) It serves no deterrent or protective purpose in today's society; and

(iv) The statute has not been recently reconsidered by the legislature.

This reason is not to be construed as the basis for declining cases because the law in question is unpopular or because it is difficult to enforce.

(c) De Minimus Violation – It may be proper to decline to charge where the violation of law is only technical or insubstantial and where no public interest or deterrent purpose would be served by prosecution.

(d) Confinement on Other Charges – It may be proper to decline to charge because the accused has been sentenced on another charge to a lengthy period of confinement; and

(i) Conviction of the new offense would not merit any additional direct or collateral punishment;

(ii) The new offense is either a misdemeanor or a felony which is not particularly aggravated; and

(iii) Conviction of the new offense would not serve any significant deterrent purpose.

(e) Pending Conviction on Another Charge – It may be proper to decline to charge because the accused is facing a pending prosecution in the same or another county; and

(i) Conviction of the new offense would not merit any additional direct or collateral punishment;

(ii) Conviction in the pending prosecution is imminent;

(iii) The new offense is either a misdemeanor or a felony which is not particularly aggravated; and

(iv) Conviction of the new offense would not serve any significant deterrent purpose.

(f) High Disproportionate Cost of Prosecution – It may be proper to decline to charge where the cost of locating or transporting, or the burden on, prosecution witnesses is highly disproportionate to the importance of prosecuting the offense in question. This reason should be limited to minor cases and should not be relied upon in serious cases.

(g) Improper Motives of Complainant – It may be proper to decline charges because the motives of the complainant are improper and prosecution would serve no public purpose, would defeat the underlying purpose of the law in question or would result in decreased respect for the law.

(h) Immunity – It may be proper to decline to charge where immunity is to be given to an accused in order to prosecute another where the accused's information or testimony will reasonably lead to the conviction of others who are responsible for more serious criminal conduct or who represent a greater danger to the public interest.

(i) Victim Request – It may be proper to decline to charge because the victim requests that no criminal charges be filed and the case involves the following crimes or situations:

(i) Assault cases where the victim has suffered little or no injury;

(ii) Crimes against property, not involving violence, where no major loss was suffered;

(iii) Where doing so would not jeopardize the safety of society.

Care should be taken to insure that the victim's request is freely made and is not the product of threats or pressure by the accused.

The presence of these factors may also justify the decision to dismiss a prosecution which has been commenced.

Notification

The prosecutor is encouraged to notify the victim, when practical, and the law enforcement personnel, of the decision not to prosecute.

(2) Decision to prosecute.

STANDARD:

Crimes against persons will be filed if sufficient admissible evidence exists, which, when considered with the most plausible, reasonably foreseeable defense that could be raised under the evidence, would justify conviction by a reasonable and objective fact-finder.

Crimes against property/other crimes will be filed if the admissible evidence is of such convincing force as to make it probable that a reasonable and objective fact-finder would convict after hearing all the admissible evidence and the most plausible defense that could be raised.

See table ((13)) below for the crimes within these categories.

Selection of Charges/Degree of Charge

(1) The prosecutor should file charges which adequately describe the nature of defendant's conduct. Other offenses may be charged only if they are necessary to ensure that the charges:

(a) Will significantly enhance the strength of the state's case at trial;
or

(b) Will result in restitution to all victims.

(2) The prosecutor should not overcharge to obtain a guilty plea.
Overcharging includes:

- (a) Charging a higher degree;
- (b) Charging additional counts.

This standard is intended to direct prosecutors to charge those crimes which demonstrate the nature and seriousness of a defendant's criminal conduct, but to decline to charge crimes which are not necessary to such an indication. Crimes which do not merge as a matter of law, but which arise from the same course of conduct, do not all have to be charged.

GUIDELINES/COMMENTARY:

Police Investigation

A prosecuting attorney is dependent upon law enforcement agencies to conduct the necessary factual investigation which must precede the decision to prosecute. The prosecuting attorney shall ensure that a thorough factual investigation has been conducted before a decision to prosecute is made. In ordinary circumstances the investigation should include the following:

- (1) The interviewing of all material witnesses, together with the obtaining of written statements whenever possible;
- (2) The completion of necessary laboratory tests; and
- (3) The obtaining, in accordance with constitutional requirements, of the suspect's version of the events.

If the initial investigation is incomplete, a prosecuting attorney should insist upon further investigation before a decision to prosecute is made, and specify what the investigation needs to include.

Exceptions

In certain situations, a prosecuting attorney may authorize filing of a criminal complaint before the investigation is complete if:

- (1) Probable cause exists to believe the suspect is guilty; and
- (2) The suspect presents a danger to the community or is likely to flee if not apprehended; or
- (3) The arrest of the suspect is necessary to complete the investigation of the crime.

In the event that the exception to the standard is applied, the prosecuting attorney shall obtain a commitment from the law enforcement agency involved to complete the investigation in a timely manner. If the subsequent investigation does not produce sufficient evidence to meet the normal charging standard, the complaint should be dismissed.

Investigation Techniques

The prosecutor should be fully advised of the investigatory techniques that were used in the case investigation including:

- (1) Polygraph testing;
- (2) Hypnosis;
- (3) Electronic surveillance;
- (4) Use of informants.

Pre-Filing Discussions with Defendant

Discussions with the defendant or his/her representative regarding the selection or disposition of charges may occur prior to the filing of charges, and potential agreements can be reached.

Sec. 31. Section 7, chapter 14, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 4, chapter 244, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 9A.44.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A person over thirteen years of age is guilty of statutory rape in the first degree when the person engages in sexual intercourse with another person who is less than eleven years old.

(2) Statutory rape in the first degree is a class A felony. No person convicted of statutory rape in the first degree shall be granted a deferred or suspended sentence except ~~((for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility))~~ under RCW 9.94A.120(7).

Sec. 32. Section 9A.56.080, chapter 260, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 174, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 9A.56.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every person who, ~~((without lawful authority and))~~ with intent to sell or exchange and to deprive or defraud the lawful owner thereof, wilfully takes, leads, or transports away, conceals, withholds, slaughters, or otherwise appropriates ~~((to his own use))~~ any horse, mule, cow, heifer, bull, steer, swine, or sheep ~~((shall be))~~ is guilty of theft of livestock in the first degree.

(2) A person who commits what would otherwise be theft of livestock in the first degree but without intent to sell or exchange, and for the person's own use only, is guilty of theft of livestock in the second degree.

(3) Theft of livestock in the first degree is a class B felony.

(4) Theft of livestock in the second degree is a class C felony.

Sec. 33. Section 9, chapter 155, Laws of 1979 as last amended by section 1, chapter 43, Laws of 1984 and RCW 13.50.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) This section governs records relating to the commission of juvenile offenses, including records relating to diversions.

(2) The official juvenile court file of any alleged or proven juvenile offender shall be open to public inspection, unless sealed pursuant to subsection (11) of this section.

(3) All records other than the official juvenile court file are confidential and may be released only as provided in this section and RCW 13.50.010.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in this section and RCW 13.50.010, records retained or produced by any juvenile justice or care agency may be released to other participants in the juvenile justice or care system only when an investigation or case involving the juvenile in question is being pursued by the other participant or when that other participant is assigned the responsibility for supervising the juvenile.

(5) Information not in an official juvenile court file concerning a juvenile or a juvenile's family may be released to the public only when that information could not reasonably be expected to identify the juvenile or the juvenile's family.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the release, to the juvenile or his or her attorney, of law enforcement and prosecuting attorneys' records pertaining to investigation, diversion, and prosecution of juvenile offenses shall be governed by the rules of discovery and other rules of law applicable in adult criminal investigations and prosecutions.

(7) The juvenile court and the prosecutor may set up and maintain a central record-keeping system which may receive information on all alleged juvenile offenders against whom a complaint has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.070 whether or not their cases are currently pending before the court. The central record-keeping system may be computerized. If a complaint has been referred to a diversion unit, the diversion unit shall promptly report to the juvenile court or the prosecuting attorney when the juvenile has agreed to diversion. An offense shall not be reported as criminal history in any central record-keeping system without notification by the diversion unit of the date on which the offender agreed to diversion.

(8) Upon request of the victim of a crime or the victim's immediate family, the identity of an alleged or proven juvenile offender alleged or found to have committed a crime against the victim and the identity of the alleged or proven juvenile offender's parent, guardian, or custodian and the circumstance of the alleged or proven crime shall be released to the victim of the crime or the victim's immediate family.

(9) Subject to the rules of discovery applicable in adult criminal prosecutions, the juvenile offense records of an adult criminal defendant or witness in an adult criminal proceeding shall be released upon request to prosecution and defense counsel after a charge has actually been filed. The juvenile offense records of any adult convicted of a crime and placed under the supervision of the adult corrections system shall be released upon request to the adult corrections system.

(10) In any case in which an information has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.100 or a complaint has been filed with the prosecutor and referred for diversion pursuant to RCW 13.40.070, the person the subject of the information or complaint may file a motion with the court to have the court vacate its order and findings, if any, and order the sealing of the official juvenile court file, the social file, and records of the court and of any other agency in the case.

(11) The court shall grant the motion to seal records made pursuant to subsection (10) of this section if it finds that:

(a) Two years have elapsed from the later of: (i) Final discharge of the person from the supervision of any agency charged with supervising juvenile offenders; or (ii) from the entry of a court order relating to the commission of a juvenile offense or a criminal offense;

(b) No proceeding is pending against the moving party seeking the conviction of a juvenile offense or a criminal offense; and

(c) No proceeding is pending seeking the formation of a diversion agreement with that person.

(12) The person making a motion pursuant to subsection (10) of this section shall give reasonable notice of the motion to the prosecution and to any person or agency whose files are sought to be sealed.

(13) If the court grants the motion to seal made pursuant to subsection (10) of this section, it shall order sealed the official juvenile court file, the social file, and other records relating to the case as are named in the order. Thereafter, the proceedings in the case shall be treated as if they never occurred, and the subject of the records may reply accordingly to any inquiry about the events, records of which are sealed. Any agency shall reply to any inquiry concerning confidential or sealed records that records are confidential, and no information can be given about the existence or nonexistence of records concerning an individual.

(14) Inspection of the files and records included in the order to seal may thereafter be permitted only by order of the court upon motion made by the person who is the subject of the information or complaint, except as otherwise provided in RCW 13.50.010(8).

(15) Any adjudication of a juvenile offense or a crime subsequent to sealing has the effect of nullifying the sealing order. Any conviction for any adult felony subsequent to the sealing has the effect of nullifying the sealing order for the purposes of chapter 9.94A RCW for any juvenile adjudication of guilt for a class A offense.

(16) In any case in which an information has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.100 or a complaint has been filed with the prosecutor and referred for diversion pursuant to RCW 13.40.070, the person who is the subject of the information or complaint may file a motion with the court to have the court vacate its order and findings, if any, and order the destruction of the official juvenile court file, the social file, and records of the court and of any other agency in the case.

(17) The court may grant the motion to destroy records made pursuant to subsection (16) of this section if it finds:

(a) The person making the motion is at least twenty-three years of age;

(b) The person has not subsequently been convicted of a felony;

(c) No proceeding is pending against that person seeking the conviction of a criminal offense; and

(d) The person has never been found guilty of a serious offense.

(18) A person eighteen years of age or older whose criminal history consists of only one referral for diversion may request that the court order the records in that case destroyed. The request shall be granted if the court finds that two years have elapsed since completion of the diversion agreement.

(19) If the court grants the motion to destroy records made pursuant to subsection (16) or (18) of this section, it shall order the official juvenile court file, the social file, and any other records named in the order to be destroyed.

(20) The person making the motion pursuant to subsection (16) or (18) of this section shall give reasonable notice of the motion to the prosecuting attorney and to any agency whose records are sought to be destroyed.

(21) Any juvenile to whom the provisions of this section may apply shall be given written notice of his or her rights under this section at the time of his or her disposition hearing or during the diversion process.

(22) Nothing in this section may be construed to prevent a crime victim or a member of the victim's family from divulging the identity of the alleged or proven juvenile offender or his or her family when necessary in a civil proceeding.

(23) Any juvenile justice or care agency may, subject to the limitations in subparagraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, develop procedures for the routine destruction of records relating to juvenile offenses and diversions.

(a) Records may be routinely destroyed only when the person the subject of the information or complaint has attained twenty-three years of age or older, or is eighteen years of age or older and his or her criminal history consists entirely of one diversion agreement and two years have passed since completion of the agreement.

(b) The court may not routinely destroy the official juvenile court file or recordings or transcripts of any proceedings.

Sec. 34. Section 11, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 6, chapter 443, Laws of 1985 and RCW 9.94A.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Before imposing a sentence upon a defendant, the court shall conduct a sentencing hearing. The sentencing hearing shall be held within forty court days following conviction. Upon the motion of either party for good cause shown, or on its own motion, the court may extend the time period for conducting the sentencing hearing. The court shall consider the presentence reports, if any, including any victim impact statement and criminal history, and allow arguments from the prosecutor, the defense counsel, the offender, the victim, the survivor of the victim, or a representative of the victim or survivor, and an investigative law enforcement officer as to the sentence to be imposed. If the court is satisfied by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant has a criminal history, the court shall specify the convictions it has found to exist. All of this information shall be part of the record. Copies of all presentence reports presented to the sentencing court and all written findings of facts and conclusions of law as to sentencing entered by the court shall be sent to the department by the clerk of the court at the conclusion of the sentencing and shall accompany the offender if the offender is committed to the custody of the department. Court clerks shall provide, without charge, certified copies of documents relating to criminal convictions requested by prosecuting attorneys.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 35. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 1, chapter 115, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.94A.300; and
- (2) Section 8, chapter 443, Laws of 1985 and RCW 9.94A.122.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. The sentencing guidelines commission shall consider methods of increasing sentence ranges for offenders who commit a series of physical or sexual abuse offenses. The consideration shall include, but not be limited to, the addition of an aggravating factor under RCW 9.94A.390, changes to the offender scoring rules under RCW 9.94A.390, and amendments to the criminal code. The commission shall consult with organizations concerned with child and sexual abuse as well as the Washington defender association, Washington association of prosecuting attorneys, and the superior court judges association. The commission shall present its recommendations to the 1987 legislature.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 38. Sections 17 through 35 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1986.

Passed the House March 12, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 12, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

PART I UNIFORM DISCIPLINARY ACT

Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.010 are each amended to read as follows:

It is the intent of the legislature to strengthen and consolidate disciplinary procedures for the licensed health and health-related professions and businesses by providing a uniform disciplinary act with standardized procedures for the enforcement of laws the purpose of which is to assure the public of the adequacy of professional competence and conduct in the healing arts.

It is also the intent of the legislature that all health and health-related professions newly credentialed by the state come under the uniform disciplinary act.

Further, the legislature declares that the addition of public members on all health care boards can give both the state and the public, which it has a statutory responsibility to protect, assurances of accountability and confidence in the various practices of health care.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Disciplining authority" means (a) the board of medical examiners, the board of dental examiners, and the board of chiropractic examiners with respect to applicants for a license for the respective professions, (b) the medical disciplinary board, the dental disciplinary board, and the chiropractic disciplinary board with respect to holders of licenses for the respective professions, or (c) the agency or board having the authority to take disciplinary action against a holder of, or applicant for, a professional or business license upon a finding of a violation of this chapter or ((the chapter under which the license is held)) a chapter specified under RCW 18.130.040.

(2) "Department" means the department of licensing.

(3) "Director" means the director of licensing or the director's designee.

(4) "Board" means any of those boards specified in RCW 18.130.040.

(5) "Unlicensed practice" means:

(a) Practicing a profession or operating a business identified in RCW 18.130.040 without holding a valid, unexpired, unrevoked, and unsuspended license to do so; or

(b) Representing to a consumer, through offerings, advertisements, or use of a professional title or designation, that the individual is qualified to practice a profession or operate a business identified in RCW 18.130.040, without holding a valid, unexpired, unrevoked, and unsuspended license to do so.

(6) "Disciplinary action" means sanctions identified in RCW 18.130.160.

(7) "Practice review" means an investigative audit of records related to the complaint, without prior identification of specific patient or consumer names, to determine whether unprofessional conduct may have been committed.

(8) "Health agency" means city and county health departments and the department of social and health services.

(9) "License," "licensing," and "licensure" shall be deemed equivalent to the terms "license," "licensing," "licensure," "certificate," "certification," and "registration" as those terms are defined in RCW 18.120.020.

Sec. 3. Section 4, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) This chapter applies only to the director and the boards having jurisdiction in relation to the professions licensed under the chapters specified in this section. This chapter does not apply to any business or profession not licensed under the chapters specified in this section.

(2) (a) The director has authority under this chapter in relation to the following professions:

- (i) Dispensing opticians licensed under chapter 18.34 RCW;
- (ii) Drugless healers licensed under chapter 18.36 RCW;
- (iii) Midwives licensed under chapter 18.50 RCW;
- (iv) Ocularists licensed under chapter 18.55 RCW;

~~(v) ((Psychologists licensed under chapter 18.83 RCW unless a disciplinary committee is established under chapter 18.83 RCW;~~

~~(vi))~~ Massage operators and businesses licensed under chapter 18.108 RCW; and ~~((vii))~~ (vi) Dental hygienists licensed under chapter 18.29 RCW.

(b) The boards having authority under this chapter are as follows:

(i) The podiatry board as established in chapter 18.22 RCW;

(ii) The chiropractic disciplinary board as established in chapter 18.26 RCW governing licenses issued under chapter 18.25 RCW;

(iii) The dental disciplinary board as established in chapter 18.32 RCW;

~~(iv) ((The council on hearing aids as established in chapter 18.35 RCW;~~

~~(v))~~ The board of funeral directors and embalmers as established in chapter 18.39 RCW;

~~((vi) The board of examiners for nursing home administrators as established in chapter 18.52 RCW;~~

~~(vii))~~ (v) The optometry board as established in chapter 18.54 RCW governing licenses issued under chapter 18.53 RCW;

~~((viii))~~ (vi) The board of osteopathic medicine and surgery as established in chapter 18.57 RCW governing licenses issued under chapters 18.57 and 18.57A RCW;

~~((ix))~~ (vii) The medical disciplinary board as established in chapter 18.72 RCW governing licenses and registrations issued under chapters 18.71 and 18.71A RCW;

~~((x))~~ (viii) The board of physical therapy as established in chapter 18.74 RCW;

~~((xi))~~ (ix) The board of occupational therapy practice as established in chapter 18.59 RCW;

~~((xii))~~ (x) The board of practical nursing as established in chapter 18.78 RCW;

~~((xiii))~~ (xi) The board of nursing as established in chapter 18.88 RCW; and ~~((xiv))~~ (xii) The veterinary board of governors as established in chapter 18.92 RCW.

(3) In addition to the authority to discipline license holders, the disciplining authority has the authority to grant or deny licenses based on the conditions and criteria established in this chapter and the chapters specified in subsection (2) of this section. However, the board of chiropractic examiners has authority over issuance and denial of licenses provided for in chapter 18.25 RCW, the board of dental examiners has authority over issuance and denial of licenses provided for in RCW 18.32.040, and the board of medical examiners has authority over issuance and denial of licenses and registrations provided for in chapters 18.71 and 18.71A RCW. This chapter also governs any investigation, hearing, or proceeding relating to denial of licensure or issuance of a license conditioned on the applicant's compliance with an order entered pursuant to RCW 18.130.160 by the disciplining authority(~~(; the board of chiropractic examiners, the board of dental examiners, and the board of medical examiners, if adopted pursuant to this chapter by the disciplinary authority)~~)).

Sec. 4. Section 7, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The disciplining authority may adopt rules requiring any person, including, but not limited to, licensees, corporations, organizations, health care facilities, and ((federal;)) state((;)) or local governmental agencies, to report to the disciplining authority any conviction, determination, or finding that a license holder has committed an act which constitutes unprofessional conduct, or to report information which indicates that the license holder may not be able to practice his or her profession with reasonable skill and safety to consumers as a result of a mental or physical condition. To facilitate meeting the intent of this section, the cooperation of agencies of the federal government is requested by reporting any conviction, determination, or finding that a federal employee or contractor regulated by the disciplinary authorities enumerated in this chapter has committed an act which constituted unprofessional conduct and reporting any information which indicates that a federal employee or contractor regulated by the disciplinary authorities enumerated in this chapter may not be able to practice his or her profession with reasonable skill and safety as a result of a mental or physical condition.

(2) If a person fails to furnish a required report, the disciplining authority may petition the superior court of the county in which the person resides or is found, and the court shall issue to the person an order to furnish the required report. A failure to obey the order shall be punished by the court as civil contempt.

(3) A person is immune from civil liability, whether direct or derivative, for providing information to the disciplining authority pursuant to the rules adopted under subsection (1) of this section.

(4) The holder of a license subject to the jurisdiction of this chapter shall report to the disciplining authority any conviction, determination, or finding that the licensee has committed unprofessional conduct or is unable to practice with reasonable skill or safety. Failure to report within thirty days of notice of the conviction, determination, or finding constitutes grounds for disciplinary action.

Sec. 5. Section 8, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.080 are each amended to read as follows:

A person, ((firm, corporation, or public officer)) including but not limited to consumers, licensees, corporations, organizations, health care facilities, and state and local governmental agencies, may submit a written complaint to the disciplining authority charging a license holder or applicant with unprofessional conduct and specifying the grounds therefor. If the disciplining authority determines that the complaint merits investigation, or if the disciplining authority has reason to believe, without a formal complaint, that a license holder or applicant may have engaged in unprofessional conduct, the disciplining authority shall investigate to determine whether there has been unprofessional conduct. A person who files a complaint under this section in good faith is immune from suit in any civil action related to the filing or contents of the complaint.

Sec. 6. Section 9, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If the disciplining authority determines, upon investigation, that there is reason to believe a violation of RCW 18.130.180 has occurred, a statement of charge or charges shall be prepared and served upon the license holder or applicant at the earliest practical time. The statement of charge or charges shall be accompanied by a notice that the license holder or applicant may request a hearing to contest the charge or charges. The license holder or applicant must file a request for hearing with the disciplining authority within twenty days after being served the statement of charges. The failure to request a hearing constitutes a default, whereupon the disciplining authority may enter a decision on the basis of the facts available to it.

(2) If a hearing is requested, the time of the hearing shall be fixed by the disciplining authority as soon as convenient, but the hearing shall not be held earlier than thirty days after service of the charges upon the license holder or applicant. A notice of hearing shall be issued at least twenty days prior to the hearing, specifying the time, date, and place of the hearing. The notice shall also notify the license holder or applicant that a record of the proceeding will be kept, that he or she will have the opportunity to appear personally and to have counsel present, with the right to produce witnesses, who will be subject to cross-examination, and evidence in his or her own behalf, to cross-examine witnesses testifying against him or her, to examine such documentary evidence as may be produced against him or her, to conduct depositions, and to have subpoenas issued by the disciplining authority.

Sec. 7. Section 13, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.130 are each amended to read as follows:

An order pursuant to proceedings authorized by this chapter, after due notice and findings in accordance with this chapter and chapter 34.04 RCW, or an order of summary suspension entered under this chapter, shall take effect immediately upon its being served. The order, if appealed to the court, shall not be stayed pending the appeal unless the disciplining authority or court to which the appeal is taken enters an order staying the order of the disciplining authority, which stay shall provide for terms necessary to protect the public.

Sec. 8. Section 16, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.160 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon a finding that a license holder or applicant has committed unprofessional conduct or is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety due to a physical or mental condition, the disciplining authority may issue an order providing for one or any combination of the following:

- (1) Revocation of the license;
- (2) Suspension of the license for a fixed or indefinite term;
- (3) Restriction or limitation (~~((on the license holder's))~~) of the practice;
- (4) (~~((The establishment of a requirement that))~~) Requiring the ((license holder satisfactorily complete)) satisfactory completion of a specific program of remedial education or treatment;
- (5) The monitoring of the (~~((license holder's))~~) practice by a supervisor approved by the disciplining authority;
- (6) Censure or reprimand;
- (7) Compliance with conditions of probation for a designated period of time;
- (8) Payment of a fine for each violation of this chapter, not to exceed one thousand dollars per violation. Funds received shall be placed in the health professions account;
- (9) Denial of the license request;
- (10) Corrective action (~~((by the license holder))~~);
- (11) Refund of fees (~~((charged))~~) billed to and collected from the consumer (~~((by the license holder))~~).

Any of the actions under this section may be totally or partly stayed by the disciplining authority. In determining what action is appropriate, the disciplining authority must first consider what sanctions are necessary to protect or compensate the public. Only after such provisions have been made may the disciplining authority consider and include in the order requirements designed to rehabilitate the license holder or applicant. All costs associated with compliance with orders issued under this section are the obligation of the license holder or applicant.

Sec. 9. Section 17, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.170 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If the disciplining authority believes a license holder or applicant may be unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety to consumers by reason of any mental or physical condition, a statement of charges in the name of the disciplining authority shall be served on the license holder or applicant and notice shall also be issued providing an opportunity for a hearing. The hearing shall be limited to the sole issue of the capacity of the license holder or applicant to practice with reasonable skill and safety. If the disciplining authority determines that the license holder or applicant is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety for one of the reasons stated in this subsection, the disciplining authority shall impose such sanctions under RCW 18.130.160 as is deemed necessary to protect the public.

(2) In enforcing this section, the disciplining authority may require a license holder or applicant to submit to a mental or physical examination by one or more (~~((physicians, a psychological examination by one or more licensed psychologists))~~) licensed or certified health professionals designated by the disciplining authority (~~(; or any combination thereof)~~). The cost of the examinations ordered by the disciplining authority shall be paid out of the health professions account. In addition to any examinations ordered by the disciplining authority, the licensee may submit (~~((psychiatric;))~~) physical (~~(;)~~) or (~~((psychological))~~) mental examination reports from (~~((physicians or psychologists))~~) licensed or certified health professionals of the license holder's or applicant's choosing and expense. Failure of a license holder or applicant to submit to examination when directed constitutes grounds for immediate suspension or denial of the license, consequent upon which a default and final order may be entered without the taking of testimony or presentations of evidence, unless the failure was due to circumstances beyond the person's control. A determination by a court of competent jurisdiction that a license holder or applicant is mentally incompetent or mentally ill is presumptive evidence of the license holder's or applicant's inability to practice with reasonable skill and safety. An individual affected under this section shall at reasonable intervals be afforded an opportunity to demonstrate that the individual can resume competent practice with reasonable skill and safety to the consumer.

(3) For the purpose of subsection (2) of this section, an applicant or license holder governed by this chapter, by making application, practicing, or filing a license renewal, is deemed to have given consent to submit to a mental, physical, or psychological examination when directed in writing by the disciplining authority and further to have waived all objections to the admissibility or use of the examining (~~((physician's or psychologist's))~~) health professional's testimony or examination reports by the disciplining authority on the ground that the testimony or reports constitute privileged communications.

The following conduct, acts, or conditions constitute unprofessional conduct for any license holder or applicant under the jurisdiction of this chapter:

(1) The commission of any act involving moral turpitude, dishonesty, or corruption relating to the practice of the person's profession, whether the act constitutes a crime or not. (~~((The disciplinary authority shall define by rule acts involving moral turpitude, dishonesty, or corruption relating to the practice of the person's profession;))~~) If the act constitutes a crime, conviction in a criminal proceeding is not a condition precedent to disciplina action. Upon such a conviction, however, the judgment and sentence is conclusive evidence at the ensuing disciplinary hearing of the guilt of the license holder or applicant of the crime described in the indictment or information, and of the person's violation of the statute on which it is based. For the purposes of this section, conviction includes all instances in which a plea of guilty or nolo contendere is the basis for the conviction and all proceedings in which the sentence has been deferred or suspended. Nothing in this section abrogates rights guaranteed under chapter 9.96A RCW;

(2) Misrepresentation or concealment of a material fact in obtaining a license or in reinstatement thereof;

(3) All advertising which is false, fraudulent, or misleading;

(4) ~~Incompetence, negligence, or ((use of any practice or procedure in the practice of the profession which creates an unreasonable risk of physical or mental harm or serious financial loss to the consumer))~~ malpractice which results in injury to a patient or which creates an unreasonable risk that a patient may be harmed;

(5) Suspension, revocation, or restriction of the individual's license to practice the profession by competent authority in any state, federal, or foreign jurisdiction, a certified copy of the order, stipulation, or agreement being conclusive evidence of the revocation, suspension, or restriction;

(6) The possession, use, ~~((addiction to;))~~ prescription for use, ~~((diversion;))~~ or distribution of controlled substances or legend drugs in any way other than for legitimate or therapeutic purposes, ~~((or))~~ the addiction to or diversion of controlled substances or legend drugs, the violation of any drug law, or prescribing ((drugs)) controlled substances for oneself;

(7) Violation of any state or federal statute or administrative rule regulating the profession in question, including any statute or rule defining or establishing standards of patient care or professional conduct or practice;

(8) Failure to cooperate with the disciplining authority by:

(a) Not furnishing any papers or documents;

(b) Not furnishing in writing a full and complete explanation covering the matter contained in the complaint filed with the disciplining authority;
or

(c) Not responding to subpoenas issued by the disciplining authority, whether or not the recipient of the subpoena is the accused in the proceeding;

(9) Failure to comply with an order issued by the disciplining authority or an assurance of discontinuance entered into with the disciplining authority;

(10) Aiding or abetting an unlicensed person to practice when a license is required;

(11) ~~((Willful or repeated))~~ Violations of rules established by any health agency ((or authority of the state or a political subdivision thereof));

(12) Practice beyond the scope of practice as defined by law or rule;

(13) Misrepresentation or fraud in any aspect of the conduct of the business or profession;

(14) Failure to adequately supervise auxiliary staff to the extent that the consumer's health or safety is at risk;

(15) Engaging in a profession involving contact with the public while suffering from a contagious or infectious disease involving serious risk to public health;

(16) Promotion for personal gain of any unnecessary or inefficacious drug, device, treatment, procedure, or service;

(17) Conviction of any gross misdemeanor or felony relating to the practice of the person's profession. For the purposes of this subsection, conviction includes all instances in which a plea of guilty or nolo contendere is the basis for conviction and all proceedings in which the sentence has been deferred or suspended. Nothing in this section abrogates rights guaranteed under chapter 9.96A RCW;

(18) The procuring, or aiding or abetting in procuring, a criminal abortion;

(19) The offering, undertaking, or agreeing to cure or treat disease by a secret method, procedure, treatment, or medicine, or the treating, operating, or prescribing for any health condition by a method, means, or procedure which the licensee refuses to divulge upon demand of the disciplining authority;

(20) The wilful betrayal of a practitioner-patient privilege as recognized by law;

(21) Violation of chapter 19.68 RCW;

(22) Interference with an investigation or disciplinary proceeding by wilful misrepresentation of facts before the disciplining authority or its authorized representative, or by the use of threats or harassment against any patient or witness to prevent them from providing evidence in a disciplinary proceeding or any other legal action;

(23) Drunkenness or habitual intemperance in the use of alcohol or addiction to alcohol;

(24) ~~((Physical))~~ Abuse of a client or patient or sexual contact with a client or patient.

Sec. 11. Section 19, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.190 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The director shall investigate ~~((bona fide))~~ complaints concerning practice by unlicensed individuals of a profession requiring a license. In the investigation of the complaints, the director shall have the same authority as provided the director for the investigation of complaints against license holders. The director shall issue a cease and desist order to a person after notice and hearing and upon a determination that the person has violated this subsection. If the director makes a written finding of fact that the public interest will be irreparably harmed by delay in issuing an order, the director may issue a temporary cease and desist order. The cease and desist order shall not relieve the person so practicing without a license from criminal prosecution therefor, but the remedy of a cease and desist order shall be in addition to any criminal liability.

(2) The attorney general, a county prosecuting attorney, the director, a board, or any individual may in accordance with the laws of this state governing injunctions, maintain an action in the name of this state to enjoin any individual practicing a licensed profession without a license from engaging in such practice until the required license is secured. However, the injunction shall not relieve the person so practicing without a license from criminal prosecution therefor, but the remedy by injunction shall be in addition to any criminal liability.

(3) Unlicensed practice of a profession under the jurisdiction of a disciplining authority specified in RCW 18.130.040 ((without a license)), unless otherwise exempted by law, constitutes a gross misdemeanor. All fees, fines, forfeitures, and penalties collected or assessed by a court because of a violation of this section shall be remitted to the health professions account.

Sec. 12. Section 20, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.200 are each amended to read as follows:

A person who attempts to obtain or obtains a license by wilful misrepresentation or fraudulent representation is guilty of a misdemeanor.

Sec. 13. Section 22, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.210 are each amended to read as follows:

If the disciplining authority determines or has cause to believe that a license holder has committed a crime, the disciplining authority, immediately subsequent to issuing findings of fact and a final order, shall~~((, in addition to taking the appropriate administrative action, concurrently))~~ notify the attorney general or the county prosecuting attorney in the county in which the act took place of the facts known to the disciplining authority.

Sec. 14. Section 24, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.900 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) This chapter shall be known and cited as the uniform disciplinary act.

(2) This chapter applies to any conduct, acts, or conditions occurring on or after the effective date of this 1985 act.

(3) This chapter does not apply to or govern the construction of and disciplinary action for any conduct, acts, or conditions occurring prior to the effective date of this 1985 act. Such conduct, acts, or conditions must be construed and disciplinary action taken according to the provisions of law existing at the time of the occurrence in the same manner as if this chapter had not been enacted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 18.130 RCW to read as follows:

If an individual or business regulated by this chapter violates RCW 18.130.170 or 18.130.180, the attorney general, any prosecuting attorney, the director, the board, or any other person may maintain an action in the name of the state of Washington to enjoin the person from committing the violations. The injunction shall not relieve the offender from criminal prosecution, but the remedy by injunction shall be in addition to the liability of the offender to criminal prosecution and disciplinary action.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Section 3, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.130.030 are each repealed.

PART II PODIATRY

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. A new section is added to chapter 18.22 RCW to read as follows:

PART VII HEARING AIDS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 48. Section 33, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.35.173 are each repealed.

PART VIII
DRUGLESS HEALING

NEW SECTION. Sec. 49. A new section is added to chapter 18.36 RCW to read as follows:

The uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, governs the issuance and denial of licenses and the discipline of licensees under this chapter.

Sec. 50. Section 13, chapter 36, Laws of 1919 and RCW 18.36.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The term "drugless therapeutics," as used in (~~RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165~~) this chapter consists of hydrotherapy, dietetics, electrotherapy, radiography, sanitation, suggestion, mechanical and manual manipulation for the stimulation of physiological and psychological action to establish a normal condition of mind and body, but shall in no way include the giving, prescribing or recommending of pharmaceutical drugs and poisons for internal use, the purpose of (~~RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165~~) this chapter being to confine practitioners hereunder to drugless therapeutics. A person shall be considered as practicing within the meaning of this chapter if the person uses, prescribes, directs, or recommends any drugless treatment for the relief of a wound, fracture, bodily injury, or disease, either mental or physical.

The words "certificate" and "license" shall be known as interchangeable terms.

Sec. 51. Section 12, chapter 36, Laws of 1919 and RCW 18.36.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The term "separate and coordinate system" as used in (~~RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165~~) this chapter is defined as follows:

Food science. Is the science of treating disease through the chemical action of foods, water, nonmedicinal herbs, roots, barks and all natural food elements other than pharmaceutical drugs and poisons, to bring about a normal condition of health.

Mechano-therapy. Is a system of therapeutics which enables the practitioner to know how to apply scientifically the mechanics of hydrotherapy, dietetics, circumstances, idea and manual manipulation for the stimulation of psycho and physiological action to establish a normal condition of the body.

Suggestive therapeutics. Is a system of healing which enables the practitioner to know how to offer suggestions that will cause the mind of the patient to overcome the disease of the body and bringing mind and body into harmony, and both into harmony with environment.

Physcultopathy. Is a system of healing which enables the practitioner to know the scientific effect of movements on the body and how to direct a system of mechanical gymnastics that restore the diseased parts or functions to a normal condition.

Sec. 52. Section 8, chapter 36, Laws of 1919 and RCW 18.36.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Nothing in (~~RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165~~) this chapter shall be construed as to prohibit service in the case of emergency, or the domestic administration of families' remedies, nor shall (~~RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165~~) this chapter apply to any commissioned health officer in the United States army, navy or marine hospital service, in discharge of his official duties, nor to any licensed dentist when engaged exclusively in the practice of dentistry, nor to any duly licensed physician in the practice of medicine, or surgery, nor to a person duly licensed to practice osteopathy, from using or recommending drugless methods of healing in the course of their practice, nor shall this apply to any practitioner from any other state who visits this state in response to a call to treat a particular patient: PROVIDED, such practitioner shall not open an office or appoint a place of meeting patients within the limits of this state, nor shall (~~RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165~~) this chapter be construed to discriminate against any particular school of drugless therapeutics or to interfere in any way with the practice of religion: PROVIDED, also that nothing in (~~RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165~~) this chapter shall be held to apply to, or regulate any kind of treatment by prayer.

Sec. 53. Section 3, chapter 36, Laws of 1919 as amended by section 39, chapter 30, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.36.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Only persons desiring to practice drugless therapeutics in this state shall apply to said director for a license and pay a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW (~~43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended~~) 43.24.086, which sum in no case shall be refunded. If at a time appointed, or at the next regular examination, he or she shall prove he or she has completed a residence course of three entire sessions of thirty-six weeks each at a chartered drugless school, the entrance requirements of which was a high school education, or its equivalent and shall pass an examination in the following subjects, to wit: anatomy, physiology, hygiene, symptomatology, urinalysis, dietetics, hydrotherapy, radiography, electrotherapy, gynecology, obstetrics, psychology, mechanical and manual manipulation, they shall be granted a license by said director, or if the school attendance of said applicant was prior to the passage of RCW 18.36.010 (~~through 18.36.165~~) a diploma from a chartered drugless school, the entrance requirements of which was a common school education or its equivalent, and two years continuous practice in this state shall suffice; or if the applicant has no diploma but has been in continuous practice in any of the drugless systems herein mentioned for the past four years, two years of which shall have been in continuous practice in one place in this state, he or she shall be allowed to practice: PROVIDED, said applicant shall take an examination on the following subjects: anatomy, physiology, hygiene, symptomatology, mechanical and manual manipulation. After such examination the director shall grant the applicant a license to practice drugless therapeutics in the state of Washington. The examinations shall be both scientific and practical and thoroughly test the fitness of the candidate. All answers to questions peculiar to any school of therapeutics shall be scrutinized and their sufficiency passed upon by the director, but the following subjects, to wit: anatomy, physiology, hygiene, urinalysis, and gynecology, shall be construed to be in common with all systems herein mentioned, and each candidate shall be examined in each of said subjects: PROVIDED, after 1921, the following subjects shall be construed as common to all systems, to wit: anatomy, physiology, hygiene, urinalysis, symptomatology, hydrotherapy, and gynecology. (~~The director may refuse to grant a license to, or may revoke the license of any person guilty of unprofessional conduct, subject to the right of appeal within ninety days, to the superior court of the county where the board met when said license was refused, or revocation made. Any license granted without a full and fair compliance with the provisions of RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165 may be canceled in any action brought in the name of the state by the prosecuting attorney of the county where the examination was held, or said action may be brought by the attorney general; and if a license is denied an applicant shall have the right to petition the superior court where said examination was held for an order compelling said board to issue said license.~~)

Continuous practice as herein provided shall be construed to apply to drugless physicians who have actually been practicing in this state, even if they have not received a license under the present medical laws.

Sec. 54. Section 11, chapter 36, Laws of 1919 as amended by section 40, chapter 30, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.36.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The examination held by the director under (~~RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165~~) this chapter shall be conducted in accordance with the following regulations:

(1) Each applicant is required to make an affidavit setting forth his age, place of residence, time and place of each course of lectures, or other work connected with his drugless education and the date of graduation, or length of time in practice. The affidavit must be corroborated by the exhibition of a certificate from the proper officers of the college, showing that the applicant had completed the prescribed course for graduation. No advance standing shall be recognized for work done at other than drugless colleges.

(2) A fee determined by the director as provided in RCW (~~43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended~~) 43.24.086 must accompany the application. This fee is under no consideration to be returned, but if the applicant should fail to secure an average of sixty-five percent, and should be denied a license, such applicant shall, without paying a further fee and without losing his classification under ~~((the provisions of RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165))~~ this chapter, be permitted to take another examination any time within two years. Drugless practitioners who hold a diploma from a legally incorporated drugless school who have practiced in this state two years previous to the passing of RCW 18.36.010 ~~((through 18.36.165))~~ and those having no diploma but who have been in continuous practice in this state for three years, shall be given a credit of fifteen percent on the general average.

(3) The examination shall be in charge of the director, and the papers of candidates shall be known by numbers which shall be arranged as follows: Envelopes shall be numbered and each containing a blank corresponding to the number, on which blank the applicant shall write his name and address, and return to the envelope, sealed by the applicant, and delivered to the director. Each candidate shall place on his paper the number given him and the year of graduation.

(4) The director shall examine the papers and place the mark opposite each candidate's number. When the markings are completed, the envelopes containing the names are to be opened and the names placed opposite their respective numbers.

(5) No dishonest methods will be tolerated, and any candidate disregarding these rules shall be debarred from further examination.

(6) Each subject for examination shall be covered by ten questions, and two hours' time shall be allowed for each subject.

(7) No candidate shall be allowed to leave the examination room after the question papers have been distributed, until the questions are answered and delivered to the examiners in charge.

(8) All examinations shall be in English. Within twenty days after a license is granted or refused, the reasons shall be set forth in writing and placed with the papers used in the examination, and all of said examination papers shall be filed with the director within thirty days after said license has been granted or refused.

Sec. 55. Section 4, chapter 36, Laws of 1919 and RCW 18.36.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The following forms of certificates shall be issued by the director:

(1) A certificate authorizing the holder thereof to practice mechanotherapy;

(2) A certificate authorizing the holder thereof to practice suggestive therapeutics;

(3) A certificate authorizing the holder thereof to practice food science;

(4) A certificate authorizing the holder thereof to practice physcultopathy;

(5) A certificate for any other separate and coordinate system of drugless practice: PROVIDED, they shall show evidence of not less than fifty graduates, practicing in this state, whose requirements shall be no less than as set forth in (~~RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165~~) this chapter. Practitioners hereunder shall confine their practice to the subjects and system or systems represented by their certificate or certificates granted by said director. The applicant for an examination must file satisfactory testimonials of good moral character and a diploma issued by some legally chartered drugless college, or satisfactory evidence of having possessed such diploma, except as herein otherwise provided, and must fill out a blank application to be sworn to before some person authorized to take acknowledgments, showing that he or she is the person named in the diploma, is the lawful holder thereof, and that the same was procured in the regular course of instruction and examination, without fraud or misrepresentation. The said application shall be made on a blank furnished by said director, and shall contain such other information concerning the instruction and preliminary education of the applicant as said director may by rule adopt.

Sec. 56. Section 7, chapter 36, Laws of 1919 and RCW 18.36.130 are each amended to read as follows:

All persons granted licenses or certificates under (~~RCW 18.36.010 through 18.36.165~~) this chapter shall be subject to the state and municipal regulations, relating to the control of contagious diseases, the reporting and certifying of births and deaths, and all matters pertaining to public health; and all such reports shall be accepted as legal.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 57. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 34, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.36.135;
- (2) Section 10, chapter 36, Laws of 1919 and RCW 18.36.140; and
- (3) Section 9, chapter 36, Laws of 1919 and RCW 18.36.150.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 58. The repeal of RCW 18.36.140 and 18.36.150 by this act shall not be construed as affecting any rights and duties which matured, penalties which were incurred, and proceedings which were begun before the effective date of this act.

PART IX

EMBALMERS AND FUNERAL DIRECTORS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 59. A new section is added to chapter 18.39 RCW to read as follows:

The uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, governs the issuance and denial of licenses and the discipline of licensees under this chapter.

Sec. 60. Section 15, chapter 108, Laws of 1937 as last amended by section 22, chapter 66, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.39.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The (~~director~~) board may recognize licenses issued to funeral directors or embalmers from other states if the applicant's qualifications are comparable to the requirements of this chapter. Upon presentation of the license and payment by the holder of a fee determined under RCW (~~(43-24.085 as now or hereafter amended)~~) 43.24.086, the ~~((director))~~ board may issue a funeral director's or embalmer's license under this chapter. The license may be renewed annually upon payment of the renewal license fee as herein provided by license holders residing in the state of Washington.

Sec. 61. Section 3, chapter 93, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 18.39.145 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((director))~~ board shall issue a funeral establishment license to any person, partnership, association, corporation, or other organization to operate a funeral establishment, at specific locations only, which has met the following requirements:

(1) The applicant has designated the name under which the funeral establishment will operate and has designated locations for which the general establishment license is to be issued;

(2) The applicant is licensed in this state as a funeral director and as an embalmer, or employs at least one person with both such qualifications or one licensed funeral director and one embalmer who will be in service at each designated location;

(3) The applicant has filed an application with the director as required by this chapter and paid the required filing fee therefor as fixed by the director pursuant to RCW (~~(43-24.085)~~) 43.24.086;

(4) As a condition of applying for a new funeral establishment license, the person or entity desiring to acquire such ownership or control shall be bound by all then existing prearrangement funeral service contracts.

~~((The director shall make the determination of qualifications of all applicants within a reasonable time after the filing of an application with the director.))~~ The board may deny an application for a funeral establishment license, or issue a conditional license, if disciplinary action has previously been taken against the applicant or the applicant's designated funeral director or embalmer. No funeral establishment license shall be transferable, but an applicant may make application for more than one funeral establishment license so long as all of the requirements are met for each license. All funeral establishment licenses shall expire on June 30, or as otherwise determined by the director.

Sec. 62. Section 4, chapter 93, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 9, chapter 43, Laws of 1981 and RCW 18.39.148 are each amended to read as follows:

If a licensed funeral establishment does not have a licensed funeral director and embalmer in its employ at its place of business, its license shall be canceled immediately by the ~~((director or the))~~ board. Upon notification of cancellation of a funeral establishment license, the funeral establishment shall be notified of the opportunity for a hearing, which shall be conducted pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW.

Any licensed funeral director or embalmer whose license has lapsed shall reapply for a license and pay a fee as determined under RCW (~~(43-24.085)~~) 43.24.086 as now or hereafter amended before the license may be issued. Applications under this section shall be made within one year after the expiration of the previous license. If the application is not made within (~~(three)~~) one year(~~(s)~~), the applicant shall be required to take an examination or submit other satisfactory proof of continued competency approved by the (~~(director)~~) board and pay the license fee, as required by this chapter in the case of initial applications, together with all unpaid license fees and penalties.

Sec. 64. Section 9, chapter 93, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 34, chapter 287, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.39.175 are each amended to read as follows:

Each member of the board of funeral directors and embalmers shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240 and shall be reimbursed for travel expenses in connection with board duties in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

The state board of funeral directors and embalmers shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

- (1) To be responsible for the preparation, conducting, and grading of examinations of applicants for funeral director and embalmer licenses;
- (2) To certify to the director the results of examinations of applicants and certify the applicant as having "passed" or "failed";
- (3) To make findings and recommendations to the director on any and all matters relating to the enforcement of this chapter;
- (4) To adopt, promulgate, and enforce reasonable rules; and
- (5) To examine or audit or to direct the examination and audit of pre-arrangement funeral service trust fund records for compliance with this chapter and rules adopted by the board.
- (6) ~~To ((suspend or revoke any license, after proper hearing and notice to the licensee,))~~ conduct disciplinary proceedings under chapter 18.130 RCW if the licensee has violated that chapter or has committed ((any of the following:
 - ~~(a) A crime involving moral turpitude and resulting in a conviction;~~
 - ~~(b)) unprofessional conduct, which includes:~~
 - ~~((i) Misrepresentation or fraud in the conduct of the business or the profession of a funeral director or embalmer;~~
 - ~~(ii) False or misleading advertising as a funeral director or embalmer;~~
 - ~~(iii)) (a) Solicitation of human dead bodies by the licensee, his agents, assistants or employees, whether the solicitation occurs after death or while~~ death is impending. This chapter does not prohibit general advertising or the sale of pre-need funeral plans;

~~((iv))~~ (b) Employment by the licensee of persons known as "cap-pers," "steerers," or "solicitors" or other persons to obtain funeral directing or embalming business;

~~((v))~~ (c) Employment directly or indirectly of any person for the purpose of calling upon individuals or institutions by whose influence dead human bodies may be turned over to a particular funeral director or embalmer;

~~((vi))~~ (d) The buying of business by the licensee, his agents, assistants or employees, or the direct or indirect payment or offer of payment of a commission by the licensee, his agents, assistants, or employees, for the purpose of securing business;

~~((vii) Aiding or abetting an unlicensed person to practice funeral directing or embalming;~~

~~((viii))~~ (e) Solicitation or acceptance by a licensee of any commission or bonus or rebate in consideration of recommending or causing a dead human body to be disposed of in any crematory, mausoleum, or cemetery;

~~((ix))~~ (f) Using any casket or part of a casket which has previously been used as a receptacle for, or in connection with, the burial or other disposition of a dead human body without the written consent of next of kin;

~~((x) Violation of any of the provisions of this chapter or the rules in support thereof;~~

~~((xi))~~ (g) Violation of any state law or municipal or county ordinance or regulation affecting the handling, custody, care, or transportation of dead human bodies;

~~((xii) Fraud or misrepresentation in obtaining a license;~~

~~((xiii))~~ (h) Refusing to promptly surrender the custody of a dead human body upon the express order of the person lawfully entitled to its custody;

~~((xiv))~~ (i) Selling, or offering for sale, a share, certificate, or an interest in the business of any funeral director or embalmer, or in any corporation, firm, or association owning or operating a funeral establishment, which promises or purports to give to purchasers a right to the services of the funeral director, embalmer, or corporation, firm, or association at a charge or cost less than that offered or given to the public; or

~~((xv))~~ (j) Knowingly concealing information concerning a violation of this chapter;

~~((6))~~ (7) To adopt rules establishing mandatory continuing education requirements to be met by persons applying for license renewal.

Sec. 65. Section 5, chapter 93, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 13, chapter 43, Laws of 1981 and RCW 18.39.181 are each amended to read as follows:

The director shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) ~~((To determine the qualifications of applicants for all licenses under this chapter;~~

~~(2))~~ To issue all licenses provided for under this chapter;

~~((3))~~ (2) To annually renew licenses under this chapter;

~~((4))~~ (3) To collect all fees prescribed and required under this chapter; and

~~((5))~~ (4) To keep general books of record of all official acts, proceedings, and transactions of the department of licensing while acting under this chapter.

Sec. 66. Section 15, chapter 66, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.39.231 are each amended to read as follows:

A funeral director or any person under the supervision of a funeral director shall not, in conjunction with any professional services performed for compensation under this chapter, provide financial or investment advice to any person other than a family member, represent any person in a real estate transaction, or act as an agent under a power of attorney for any person. However, this section shall not be deemed to prohibit a funeral establishment from entering into prearrangement funeral service contracts in accordance with this chapter or to prohibit a funeral director from providing advice about government or insurance benefits.

A violation of this section is a gross misdemeanor and is grounds for disciplinary action ~~(, including suspension or revocation of the license, as provided in RCW 18.39.179)).~~

The board shall adopt such rules as the board deems reasonably necessary to prevent unethical financial dealings between funeral directors and their clients.

Sec. 67. Section 4, chapter 66, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.39.260 are each amended to read as follows:

A funeral establishment shall not enter into prearrangement funeral service contracts in this state unless the funeral establishment has obtained a certificate of registration issued by the ~~((director))~~ board and such certificate is then in force.

Certificates of registration shall be maintained by funeral establishments until all prearrangement contract obligations have been fulfilled. The funeral establishment shall comply with all requirements related to the sale of prearrangement contracts until all obligations have been fulfilled.

Sec. 68. Section 7, chapter 66, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.39.280 are each amended to read as follows:

To apply for an original certificate of registration, a funeral establishment must:

(1) File with the ~~((director))~~ board its request showing:

(a) Its name, location, and organization date;

(b) The kinds of funeral business it proposes to transact;

(c) A statement of its financial condition, management, and affairs on a form satisfactory to or furnished by the director; and

(d) Such other documents, stipulations, or information as the ~~((director))~~ board may reasonably require to evidence compliance with the provisions of this chapter.

(2) Deposit with the director the fees required by this chapter to be paid for filing the accompanying documents, and for the certificate of registration, if granted.

Sec. 69. Section 8, chapter 66, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.39.290 are each amended to read as follows:

All certificates of registration issued pursuant to this chapter shall continue in force until the expiration date unless suspended~~((;))~~ or ~~re-~~ re- ~~vo-~~ vo- ~~ked((,-or-renewed)).~~ A certificate shall be subject to renewal annually ~~((on the first day of July upon))~~ ninety days after the end of its fiscal year, as stated on the original application, by the funeral establishment and payment of the required fees.

The director shall determine and collect ~~((in advance the following))~~ fees~~((:~~

(1) ~~Certificate of registration:~~

(a) ~~Issuance — thirty-five dollars;~~

(b) ~~Renewal — fifteen dollars;~~

(2) ~~Annual statement of financial condition — ten dollars))~~ related to certificate of registration licensure.

All fees so collected shall be remitted by the director to the state treasurer not later than the first business day following receipt of such funds and the funds shall be credited to the ~~((general fund))~~ health professions account.

Sec. 70. Section 6, chapter 66, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.39.300 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to the grounds for action set forth in RCW 18.130.170 and 18.130.180, ~~the ((director)) board may ((refuse to renew or may revoke or suspend a))~~ take the disciplinary action set forth in RCW 18.130.160 against the funeral establishment's license, the license of any funeral director and/or the funeral establishment's certificate of registration, if the ((funeral establishment)) licensee or registrant:

(7) The practice of medicine by a person who is a regular student in a school of medicine approved and accredited by the board: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the performance of such services be only pursuant to a regular course of instruction or assignments from his instructor, or that such services are performed only under the supervision and control of a person licensed pursuant to this chapter;

(8) The practice of medicine by a person serving a period of postgraduate medical training in a program of clinical medical training sponsored by a college or university in this state or by a hospital accredited in this state: PROVIDED, That the performance of such services shall be only pursuant to his duties as a trainee;

(9) The practice of medicine by a person who is regularly enrolled in a physician's assistant program approved by the board: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the performance of such services be only pursuant to a regular course of instruction in said program: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That such services are performed only under the supervision and control of a person licensed pursuant to this chapter;

(10) The practice of medicine by a registered physician's assistant which practice is performed under the supervision and control of a physician licensed pursuant to this chapter;

(11) The practice of medicine, in any part of this state which shares a common border with Canada and which is surrounded on three sides by water, by a physician licensed to practice medicine and surgery in Canada or any province or territory thereof;

(12) The administration of nondental anesthesia by a dentist who has completed a residency in anesthesiology at a school of medicine approved by the board of medical examiners: PROVIDED, That a dentist allowed to administer nondental anesthesia shall do so only under authorization of the patient's attending surgeon, obstetrician, or psychiatrist: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the medical disciplinary board shall have jurisdiction to discipline a dentist practicing under this exemption and enjoin or suspend such dentist from the practice of nondental anesthesia according to the provisions of chapter 18.72 RCW and chapter 18.130 RCW;

(13) Emergency lifesaving service rendered by a physician's trained mobile intravenous therapy technician, by a physician's trained mobile airway management technician, or by a physician's trained mobile intensive care paramedic, as defined in RCW 18.71.200, if the emergency lifesaving service is rendered under the responsible supervision and control of a licensed physician.

Sec. 109. Section 3, chapter 60, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 7, chapter 171, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.71.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each applicant who has graduated from a school of medicine located in any state, territory or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the Dominion of Canada, shall file an application for licensure with the board on a form prepared by the director with the approval of the board. Each applicant shall furnish proof satisfactory to the board of the following:

~~((1))~~ (a) That ~~((he))~~ the applicant has attended and graduated from a school of medicine approved by the board;

~~((2))~~ (b) That ~~((he))~~ the applicant has completed one year of post-graduate medical training in a program acceptable to the board;

~~((3))~~ (c) That ~~((he))~~ the applicant is of good moral character; and

~~((4))~~ (d) That ~~((he))~~ the applicant is physically and mentally capable of safely carrying on the practice of medicine. The board may require any applicant to submit to such examination or examinations as it deems necessary to determine an applicant's physical and/or mental capability to safely practice medicine;

~~(5) That his license to practice medicine is not at the time of the application revoked or suspended by any licensing agency and that he has not been guilty of any conduct which would constitute grounds for refusal, revocation or suspension of such license under the laws of the state of Washington).~~

(2) Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting the board from requiring such additional information from applicants as it deems necessary. The issuance and denial of licenses are subject to chapter 18.130 RCW, the uniform disciplinary act.

Sec. 110. Section 1, chapter 189, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 13, chapter 171, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.71.095 are each amended to read as follows:

The board may, without examination, issue a limited license to persons who possess the qualifications set forth herein:

(1) The board may, upon the written request of the secretary of the department of social and health services, issue a limited license to practice medicine in this state to persons who have been accepted for employment by the department as physicians; who are licensed to practice medicine in another state of the United States or in the country of Canada or any province or territory thereof; and who meet all of the qualifications for licensure set forth in RCW 18.71.050.

Such license shall permit the holder thereof to practice medicine only in connection with patients, residents, or inmates of the state institutions under the control and supervision of the secretary of the department of social and health services.

(2) The board may issue a limited license to practice medicine in this state to persons who have been accepted for employment by a county or city health department as physicians; who are licensed to practice medicine in another state of the United States or in the country of Canada or any province or territory thereof; and who meet all of the qualifications for licensure set forth in RCW 18.71.050.

Such license shall permit the holder thereof to practice medicine only in connection with his or her duties in employment with the city or county health department.

(3) Upon receipt of a completed application showing that the applicant meets all of the requirements for licensure set forth in RCW 18.71.050 except for completion of one year of postgraduate medical training, and that the applicant has been appointed as a resident physician in a program of postgraduate clinical training in this state approved by the board, the board may issue a limited license to a resident physician. Such license shall permit the resident physician to practice medicine only in connection with his duties as a resident physician and shall not authorize him to engage in any other form of practice. Each resident physician shall practice medicine only under the supervision and control of a physician licensed in this state, but such supervision and control shall not be construed to necessarily require the personal presence of the supervising physician at the place where services are rendered.

All persons licensed under this section shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the medical disciplinary board to the same extent as other members of the medical profession, in accordance with chapters 18.72 and 18.130 RCW (~~and in addition, the limited license to practice medicine in the state of Washington may be revoked by the medical disciplinary board after a hearing has been held in accordance with the provisions set forth in chapter 18.72 RCW, and determination made by the medical disciplinary board that such licensee has violated the limitations set forth herein~~).

Persons applying for licensure pursuant to this section shall pay an application fee (~~of twenty-five dollars and, in the event the license applied for is issued, a license fee at the rate provided for renewals of licenses generally~~) as determined by the director. Licenses issued hereunder may be renewed annually pursuant to the provisions of RCW 18.71.080; PROVIDED, That a limited license for a resident physician may not be renewed until such resident physician has successfully completed either all parts of the examination given by the national board of medical examiners or an equivalent examination approved by the board. Interim approval may be granted until the result of such examination becomes available. Any person who obtains a limited license pursuant to this section may, without an additional application fee, apply for licensure under this chapter.

Sec. 111. Section 2, chapter 305, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 112, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.71.200 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) As used in (~~RCW 18.71.020 as now or hereafter amended~~) this chapter, a "physician's trained mobile intravenous therapy technician" means a person who:

(a) Has successfully completed an emergency medical technician course as described in chapter 18.73 RCW;

(b) Is trained under the supervision of an approved medical program director to administer intravenous solutions under written or oral authorization of an approved licensed physician; and

(c) Has been examined and certified as a physician's trained mobile intravenous therapy technician by the University of Washington's school of medicine or the department of social and health services;

(2) As used in (~~RCW 18.71.020 as now or hereafter amended~~) this chapter, a "physician's trained mobile airway management technician" means a person who:

(a) Has successfully completed an emergency medical technician course as described in chapter 18.73 RCW;

(b) Is trained under the supervision of an approved medical program director to perform endotracheal airway management and other authorized aids to ventilation under written or oral authorization of an approved licensed physician; and

(c) Has been examined and certified as a physician's trained mobile airway management technician by the University of Washington's school of medicine or the department of social and health services; and

(3) As used in (~~RCW 18.71.020 as now or hereafter amended~~) this chapter, a "physician's trained mobile intensive care paramedic" means a person who:

(a) Has successfully completed an emergency medical technician course as described in chapter 18.73 RCW;

(b) Is trained under the supervision of an approved medical program director:

(i) To carry out all phases of advanced cardiac life support;

(ii) To administer drugs under written or oral authorization of an approved licensed physician; and

(iii) To administer intravenous solutions under written or oral authorization of an approved licensed physician; and

(iv) To perform endotracheal airway management and other authorized aids to ventilation; and

(c) Has been examined and certified as a physician's trained mobile intensive care paramedic by the University of Washington's school of medicine or by the department of social and health services.

Sec. 112. Section 2, chapter 110, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 57, chapter 158, Laws of 1979 and RCW 18.71.230 are each amended to read as follows:

A right to practice medicine and surgery by (~~a Canadian physician~~) an individual in this state pursuant to RCW 18.71.030 (5) through (12) shall be (~~revocable~~) subject to discipline by order of the (~~director of licensing~~) board upon a finding by the (~~director~~) board of an act of unprofessional conduct as defined in RCW (~~18.72.030~~) 18.130.180 or that the individual is unable to practice with reasonable skill or safety due to a mental or physical condition as described in RCW 18.130.170. Such physician shall have the same rights of notice, hearing and judicial review as provided licensed physicians generally pursuant to chapters 18.72 and 18-130 RCW.

Sec. 113. Section 4, chapter 30, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 64, chapter 30, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.71A.040 are each amended to read as follows:

No physician practicing in this state shall utilize the services of a physician's assistant without the approval of the board.

Any physician licensed in this state may apply to the board for permission to use the services of a physician's assistant. The application shall be accompanied by a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW (~~((43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended))~~) 43.24.086, shall detail the manner and extent to which the physician's assistant would be used and supervised, shall detail the education, training, and experience of the physician's assistant and shall provide such other information in such form as the board may require.

The board may approve or reject such applications. In addition, the board may modify the proposed utilization of the physician's assistant, and approve the application as modified. No such approval shall extend for more than one year, but approval once granted may be renewed annually upon payment of a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW (~~((43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended))~~) 43.24.086. Whenever it appears to the board that a physician's assistant is being utilized in a manner inconsistent with the approval granted, the board may withdraw such approval. In the event a hearing is requested upon the rejection of an application, or upon the withdrawal of an approval, a hearing shall be conducted in accordance with (~~((RCW 18.71.140))~~) chapter 18.130 RCW.

Sec. 114. Section 5, chapter 30, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 18.71A.050 are each amended to read as follows:

No physician who uses the services of a physician's assistant in accordance with and within the terms of any permission granted by the medical examining board shall be considered as aiding and abetting an unlicensed person to practice medicine (~~((within the meaning of RCW 18.71.020 or 18.72.030(13))~~): PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That any physician shall retain professional and personal responsibility for any act which constitutes the practice of medicine as defined in RCW 18.71.010 when performed by a physician's assistant in his employ.

Sec. 115. Section 2, chapter 202, Laws of 1955 and RCW 18.72.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Terms used in this chapter and in RCW 18.71.040(~~(;)~~) and 18.71.080(~~(; 18.71.120, 18.71.140 and 18.71.180 shall))~~) have the meaning set forth in this section unless the context clearly indicates otherwise:

- (1) "Board" means the medical disciplinary board.

(2) "License" means a certificate or license to practice medicine and surgery in this state as provided for in RCW 18.71.010 and 18.71.050.

(3) "Members" means members of the medical disciplinary board.

(4) "Secretary" means the secretary of the medical disciplinary board.

Sec. 116. Section 15, chapter 202, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 5, chapter 111, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 18.72.150 are each amended to read as follows:

The board ~~((shall have the following powers and duties:~~

~~(1) To)) may adopt, amend, and rescind such rules and regulations as it deems necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter((;~~

~~(2) To investigate all complaints or reports of unprofessional conduct against any holder of a license and to hold hearings to determine if unprofessional conduct has been committed;~~

~~(3) To issue subpoenas and administer oaths in connection with any investigation, hearing, or disciplinary proceeding held under this chapter;~~

~~(4) To take or cause depositions to be taken as needed in any investigation or investigative or disciplinary hearing or proceeding;~~

~~(5) To investigate complaints or reports of malpractice and unsafe conditions and practices, to analyze equipment, procedures, and training, in such cases, and to direct corrective action;~~

~~(6) To take emergency action ordering summary suspension of the license of a physician, or restricting or limiting the licensed physician's practice pending proceedings by the board, as authorized by RCW 34.04.170;~~

~~(7) To appoint a hearing officer to conduct hearings subject to final determination by the board;~~

~~(8) To enter into contracts for professional services determined by the board to be necessary;~~

~~(9) To contract with physicians or other persons or organizations to provide services necessary for the monitoring and supervising of physicians and surgeons who are placed on probation, or whose professional activities are restricted, or who are for any authorized purpose subject to being monitored by the board; and~~

~~(10) The board shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW)).~~

Sec. 117. Section 15, chapter 111, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 18.72.265 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ~~((The board may adopt regulations requiring any person, including, but not limited to, corporations, hospitals, organizations, and federal, state, or local governmental agencies, to report to the board any: Conviction, determination, or finding that a licensed physician has committed unprofessional conduct as defined by RCW 18.72.030 as now or hereafter amended, or to report information which indicates that a licensed physician may not be able to practice medicine with reasonable skill and safety to patients as the result of any mental or physical condition:~~

~~(2))~~ The contents of any report file under RCW 18.130.070 shall be confidential and exempt from public disclosure pursuant to chapter 42.17 RCW, except that it may be reviewed (a) by the licensee involved or his counsel or authorized representative who may submit any additional exculpatory or explanatory statements or other information, which statements or other information shall be included in the file, or (b) by a representative of the medical disciplinary board, or investigator thereof, who has been assigned to review the activities of a licensed physician.

~~((3))~~ Upon a determination that a report is without merit, the board's records may be purged of information relating to the report.

~~((4))~~ If any person contumaciously refuses to furnish a required report, the board may petition the superior court of any county in which said person resides or is found, and said court shall issue to such person an order to furnish the required report. Any failure to obey such order shall be punished by the court as a civil contempt may be punished.

~~(5))~~ (2) Every individual, medical association, medical society, hospital, medical service bureau, health insurance carrier or agent, professional liability insurance carrier, professional standards review organization, and agency of the federal, state, or local government shall be immune from civil liability, whether direct or derivative, for providing information to the board subsequent to ~~((the regulations outlined in [sub]section (1) of this section))~~ RCW 18.130.070, or for which an individual health care provider has immunity under the provisions of RCW 4.24.240, 4.24.250, or 4.24.260, as now or hereafter amended.

Sec. 118. Section 2, chapter 208, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.73.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature further declares its intention to supersede all ordinances, regulations, and requirements promulgated by counties, cities and other political subdivisions of the state of Washington, insofar as they may provide for the regulation of emergency medical care, first aid, and ambulance services which do not exceed the provisions of this chapter; except that (1) license fees established in this chapter shall supersede all license fees of counties, cities and other political subdivisions of this state; and, (2) nothing in this chapter shall alter the provisions of RCW ~~((18.71.020;))~~ 18.71.200, 18.71.210 and 18.71.220.

PART XVI PHYSICAL THERAPY

NEW SECTION. Sec. 123. A new section is added to chapter 18.74 RCW to read as follows:

The uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, governs the issuance and denial of licenses and the discipline of licensees under this chapter.

Sec. 124. Section 4, chapter 116, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.74.023 are each amended to read as follows:

The board has the following powers and duties:

(1) To administer examinations to applicants for a license under this chapter.

(2) To pass upon the qualifications of applicants for a license and to certify to the director duly qualified applicants.

(3) ~~((To approve, deny, restrict, suspend, or revoke authorization to practice under this chapter.~~

~~((4)))~~ (4) To make such rules not inconsistent with the laws of this state as may be deemed necessary or proper to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

~~((5)))~~ (4) To establish and administer requirements for continuing professional education as may be necessary or proper to ensure the public health and safety and which may be a prerequisite to granting and renewing a license under this chapter.

~~((6) To establish rules fixing standards of professional conduct.~~

~~((7)))~~ (5) To keep an official record of all its proceedings, which record shall be evidence of all proceedings of the board which are set forth therein.

~~((8)))~~ (6) To adopt rules not inconsistent with the laws of this state, when it deems appropriate, in response to questions put to it by professional health associations, physical therapists, and consumers in this state concerning the authority of physical therapists to perform particular acts.

Sec. 125. Section 9, chapter 239, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 18, chapter 116, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.74.090 are each amended to read as follows:

A person who is not licensed with the director of licensing as a physical therapist under the requirements of this chapter shall not represent himself as being so licensed and shall not use in connection with his name the words or letters "P.T.", "R.P.T.", "L.P.T.", "physical therapy", "physiotherapy", "physical therapist" or "physiotherapist", or any other letters, words, signs, numbers, or insignia indicating or implying that he is a physical therapist. (~~Any person who practices or attempts to practice as or hold himself out as practicing as a physical therapist in this state without having at the time of so doing, a valid, unrevoked license as provided in this chapter, shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor. PROVIDED, That~~) Nothing in this chapter prohibits any person licensed in this state under any other act from engaging in the practice for which he or she is licensed. It shall be the duty of the prosecuting attorney of each county to prosecute all cases involving a violation of this chapter arising within his county. The attorney general may assist in such prosecution and shall appear at all hearings when requested to do so by the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 126. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 43, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.74.028;
- (2) Section 8, chapter 239, Laws of 1949, section 7, chapter 64, Laws of 1961, section 13, chapter 116, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.74.080;
- (3) Section 15, chapter 116, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.74.082;
- (4) Section 14, chapter 116, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.74.084;
- (5) Section 16, chapter 116, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.74.086;
- (6) Section 17, chapter 116, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.74.088; and
- (7) Section 10, chapter 239, Laws of 1949, section 20, chapter 116, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.74.100.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 127. The repeal of RCW 18.74.080, 18.74.082, and 18.74.100 by this act shall not be construed as affecting any rights and duties which matured, penalties which were incurred, and proceedings which were begun before the effective date of this act.

PART XVII PRACTICAL NURSES

NEW SECTION. Sec. 128. A new section is added to chapter 18.78 RCW to read as follows:

The uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, governs the issuance and denial of licenses and the discipline of licensees under this chapter.

Sec. 129. Section 5, chapter 222, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 6, chapter 55, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.78.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall conduct examinations for all applicants for licensure under this chapter and shall certify qualified applicants to the department of licensing for licensing. The board shall also determine and formulate what constitutes the curriculum for an approved practical nursing program preparing persons for licensure under this chapter. The board shall establish criteria for licensure by endorsement. ~~((The board or an administrative law judge appointed under chapter 34.12 RCW may conduct hearings for the suspension or revocation of licenses.))~~

The board shall adopt such rules as are necessary to fulfill the purposes of this chapter pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW.

Sec. 130. Section 7, chapter 222, Laws of 1949 as amended by section 9, chapter 55, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.78.070 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((The director may issue a license to practice as a licensed practical nurse without examination to any applicant who has been duly licensed as a licensed practical nurse by examination under the laws of another state.))~~
An applicant graduated from a nursing program outside the United States and licensed by a country outside the United States shall meet all qualifications required by this chapter and by the board and shall pass an examination to be determined by the board.

Sec. 131. Section 10, chapter 222, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 10, chapter 55, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.78.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Every licensed practical nurse in this state shall renew the license with the department of licensing and shall pay a fee determined by the director as provided in RCW ~~((43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended))~~ 43.24.086. Any failure to register and pay the renewal registration fee shall render the license invalid, but such license shall be reinstated upon written application therefor and upon payment to the state of a penalty fee determined by the director as provided in RCW ~~((43.24.085 as now or hereafter amended, together with all delinquent license renewal fees))~~ 43.24.086.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 132. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 44, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.78.053;
- (2) Section 13, chapter 55, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.78.135;

PART XX VETERINARY MEDICINE

NEW SECTION. Sec. 139. A new section is added to chapter 18.92 RCW to read as follows:

The uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, governs the issuance and denial of licenses and the discipline of licensees under this chapter.

Sec. 140. Section 4, chapter 71, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 2, chapter 102, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.92.030 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be the duty of the board to prepare examination questions, conduct examinations, and grade the answers of applicants. (~~The board shall supervise the conduct of those practicing veterinary medicine, surgery, and dentistry and shall make such recommendations as it deems necessary to the director in regard to the granting, suspension, or revocation of licenses. It shall be the duty of the board to adopt a code of professional conduct for the practice of the veterinary profession in this state.~~) The board, pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, shall have the power to adopt such rules and regulations as may be necessary to effectuate the purposes of this chapter including the performance of the duties and responsibilities of animal technicians: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That such rules are adopted in the interest of good veterinary health care delivery to the consuming public, and do not prevent animal technicians from inoculating an animal. The board shall further have the power to adopt, by reasonable rules and regulations, standards prescribing requirements for veterinary medical facilities and to fix minimum standards of continuing veterinary medical education.

The department shall be the official office of record.

(~~The board shall have the power to conduct all hearings pertaining to violations of this chapter and may impose appropriate sanctions on licensees or registrants following a hearing. The hearings may be conducted by an administrative law judge appointed under chapter 34.12 RCW.~~)

Sec. 141. Section 6, chapter 71, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 3, chapter 134, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.92.070 are each amended to read as follows:

No person, unless registered or licensed to practice veterinary medicine, surgery, and dentistry in this state at the time this chapter shall become operative, shall begin the practice of veterinary medicine, surgery and dentistry without first applying for and obtaining a license for such purpose from the director. In order to procure a license to practice veterinary medicine, surgery, and dentistry in the state of Washington, the applicant for such license shall file his or her application at least sixty days prior to date of examination upon a form furnished by the director of licensing, which, in addition to the fee provided by this chapter, shall be accompanied by satisfactory evidence that he or she is at least eighteen years of age and of good moral character, and by official transcripts or other evidence of graduation from a veterinary college satisfactory to and approved by the board. Said application shall be signed by the applicant and sworn to by him or her before some person authorized to administer oaths. When such application and the accompanying evidence are found satisfactory, the director shall notify the applicant to appear before the board for the next examination(~~(: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the director of licensing must deny the application of every applicant who has been guilty of unprofessional conduct within the two years immediately preceding date of application for license)~~). In addition, applicants shall be subject to grounds for denial or issuance of a conditional license under chapter 18.130 RCW.

Nothing in this chapter shall preclude the board from permitting a person who has completed a portion of his or her educational program as determined by the board, in a veterinary college recognized by the board, to take the examination or any part thereof prior to satisfying the requirements for application for a license: PROVIDED HOWEVER, That no license shall be issued to such applicant until such requirements are satisfied.

Sec. 142. Section 11, chapter 124, Laws of 1907 as last amended by section 8, chapter 50, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 18.92.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who shall make application for examination, as provided by RCW 18.92.070, and who has not previously failed to pass the veterinary examination, and whose application is found satisfactory by the director, may be given a temporary certificate to practice veterinary medicine, surgery and dentistry valid only until the results of the next examination for licenses are available. In addition, applicants shall be subject to the grounds for denial or issuance of a conditional license under chapter 18.130 RCW. No more than one temporary certificate may be issued to any applicant. Such permittee shall be employed by a licensed veterinary practitioner or by the state of Washington.

Sec. 143. Section 6, chapter 44, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as amended by section 5, chapter 102, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.92.125 are each amended to read as follows:

No veterinarian who uses the services of an animal technician shall be considered as aiding and abetting any unlicensed person to practice veterinary medicine (~~(within the meaning of RCW 18.92.160)~~). A veterinarian shall retain professional and personal responsibility for any act which constitutes the practice of veterinary medicine as defined in this chapter when performed by an animal technician in his employ.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 144. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 3, chapter 102, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.92.033;
- (2) Section 47, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.92.045;
- (3) Section 2, chapter 71, Laws of 1941 and RCW 18.92.050;
- (4) Section 13, chapter 71, Laws of 1941, section 1, chapter 157, Laws of 1961, section 10, chapter 50, Laws of 1967 ex. sess., section 7, chapter 44, Laws of 1974 ex. sess., section 8, chapter 102, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.92.160;
- (5) Section 14, chapter 71, Laws of 1941, section 11, chapter 92, Laws of 1959, section 11, chapter 50, Laws of 1967 ex. sess., section 24, chapter 67, Laws of 1981, section 9, chapter 102, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.92.180;
- (6) Section 15, chapter 71, Laws of 1941, section 63, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 18.92.210;
- (7) Section 22, chapter 71, Laws of 1941 and RCW 18.92.220; and
- (8) Section 14, chapter 92, Laws of 1959 and RCW 18.92.235.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 145. The repeal of RCW 18.92.050, 18.92.160, and 18.92.180 by this act shall not be construed as affecting any rights and duties which matured, penalties which were incurred, and proceedings which were begun before the effective date of this act.

PART XXI MASSAGE OPERATORS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 146. A new section is added to chapter 18.108 RCW to read as follows:

The uniform disciplinary act, chapter 18.130 RCW, governs the issuance and denial of licenses and the discipline of licensees under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 147. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 48, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW (1) Section 48, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.108.075;
- (2) Section 9, chapter 280, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.108.080; and
- (3) Section 18, chapter 280, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.108.170.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 148. The repeal of RCW 18.108.080 and 18.108.170 by this act shall not be construed as affecting any rights and duties which matured, penalties which were incurred, and proceedings which were begun before the effective date of this act.

PART XXII
MISCELLANEOUS

Sec. 149. Section 43.24.110, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 60, chapter 279, Laws of 1984 and section 79, chapter 287, Laws of 1984 and RCW 43.24.110 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

Whenever there is filed in a matter under the jurisdiction of the director of licensing any complaint charging that the holder of a license has been guilty of any act or omission which by the provisions of the law under which the license was issued would warrant the revocation thereof, verified in the manner provided by law, the director of licensing shall request the governor to appoint, and the governor shall appoint within thirty days of the request, two qualified practitioners of the profession or calling of the person charged, who, with the director or his duly appointed representative, shall constitute a committee to hear and determine the charges and, in case the charges are sustained, impose the penalty provided by law. In addition, the governor shall appoint a consumer member of the committee.

The decision of any three members of such committee shall be the decision of the committee.

The appointed members of the committee shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240 and shall be reimbursed for their travel expenses, in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

Sec. 150. Section 3, chapter 122, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 70.54.150 are each amended to read as follows:

No physician may be subject to disciplinary action by any entity of either the state of Washington or a professional association for prescribing or administering amygdalin (Laetrile) to a patient under his/her care who has requested the substance after having been given sufficient information in writing to make an informed decision.

It is not the intent of this section to shield a physician from acts or omissions which otherwise would constitute unprofessional conduct (~~as defined in RCW 18.57.170 and 18.72.030~~).

Sec. 151. Section 2, chapter 50, Laws of 1981 and RCW 70.54.190 are each amended to read as follows:

No hospital or health facility may interfere with the physician/patient relationship by restricting or forbidding the use of DMSO (dimethyl sulfoxide) when prescribed or administered by a physician licensed pursuant to chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW and requested by a patient under his/her care who has requested the substance after having been given sufficient information in writing to make an informed decision.

No physician may be subject to disciplinary action by any entity of either the state of Washington or a professional association for prescribing or administering DMSO (dimethyl sulfoxide) to a patient under his/her care who has requested the substance after having been given sufficient information in writing to make an informed decision.

It is not the intent of this section to shield a physician from acts or omissions which otherwise would constitute unprofessional conduct ((as defined in RCW 18.57.170 and 18.72.030)).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 152. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Passed the House January 13, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 11, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986.

CHAPTER 260

[House Bill No. 1504]

MOORAGE FACILITIES—MOORAGE COLLECTION

AN ACT Relating to moorage collection; and amending RCW 53.08.310 and 53.08.320.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 188, Laws of 1983 and RCW 53.08.310 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this section and RCW 53.08.320.

(1) "Port charges" mean charges of a moorage facility operator for moorage and storage, and all other charges owing or to become owing under a contract between a vessel owner and the moorage facility operator, or under an officially adopted tariff including, but not limited to, costs of sale and related legal expenses.

(2) "Vessel" means every species of watercraft or other artificial contrivance capable of being used as a means of transportation on water and which does not exceed two hundred feet in length. "Vessel" includes any trailer used for the transportation of watercraft.

(3) "Moorage facility" means any properties or facilities owned or operated by a moorage facility operator which are capable of use for the moorage or storage of vessels.

(4) "Moorage facility operator" means any port district, city, town, metropolitan park district, or county which owns and/or operates a moorage facility.

(5) "Owner" means every natural person, firm, partnership, corporation, association, or organization, or agent thereof, with actual or apparent authority, who expressly or impliedly contracts for use of a moorage facility.

(6) "Transient vessel" means a vessel using a moorage facility and which belongs to an owner who does not have a moorage agreement with the moorage facility operator. Transient vessels include, but are not limited to: Vessels seeking a harbor of refuge, day use, or overnight use of a moorage facility on a space-as-available basis.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 188, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 124, chapter 7, Laws of 1985 and RCW 53.08.320 are each amended to read as follows:

A moorage facility operator may adopt all regulations necessary for rental and use of moorage facilities and for the expeditious collection of port charges. The regulations may also establish procedures for the enforcement of these regulations by port district, city, county, metropolitan park district or town personnel. The regulations shall include the following:

(1) Procedures authorizing moorage facility personnel to take reasonable measures, including the use of chains, ropes, and locks, or removal from the water, to secure vessels within the moorage facility so that the vessels are in the possession and control of the moorage facility operator and cannot be removed from the moorage facility. These procedures may be used if an owner mooring or storing a vessel at the moorage facility fails, ((for more than sixty days)) after being notified that charges are owing and of the owner's right to commence legal proceedings to contest that such charges are owing, to pay the port charges owed or to commence legal proceedings. Notification shall be by registered mail to the owner at his last known address. ((ff)) In the case of a transient vessel, or where no address was furnished by the owner, the ((port district, city, county, metropolitan park district, or town)) moorage facility operator need not give such notice prior to securing the vessel. At the time of securing the vessel, an authorized moorage facility employee shall attach to the vessel ((two)) a readily visible ((notification stickers)) notice. The ((stickers)) notice shall be of a reasonable size and shall contain the following information:

(a) The date and time the ((stickers were)) notice was attached;
 (b) ((The identity of the authorized employee;
 (c)) A statement that if the account is not paid in full within ((one hundred eighty)) ninety days from the time the ((stickers are)) notice is attached, the vessel may be sold at public auction to satisfy the port charges; and

((dd)) (c) The address and telephone number where additional information may be obtained concerning release of the vessel.

((If the)) After a vessel is ((the subject of a delinquent moorage account, and sixty days have expired since notification pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, the moorage facility operator shall review its records to ascertain the identity of the owner.)) secured, the operator shall make a reasonable effort to ((contact)) notify the owner by registered mail in order to give the owner the information ~~((on))~~ contained in the ((notification stickers)) notice.

(2) Procedures authorizing moorage facility personnel at their discretion to move moored vessels ashore for storage within properties under the operator's control or for storage with private persons under their control as bailees of the moorage facility, if the vessel is, in the opinion of port personnel~~(;)~~ a nuisance, if the vessel is in danger of sinking ((or of sustaining)) or creating other damage, or is owing port charges. ~~((Reasonable))~~ Costs of any such procedure shall be paid by the vessel's owner.

(3) If a vessel is secured under subsection (1) of this section or moved ashore under subsection (2) of this section, the owner who is obligated to the moorage facility operator for port charges may regain possession of the vessel by:

(a) Making arrangements satisfactory with the moorage facility operator for the immediate removal of the vessel from the moorage facility or for authorized moorage; and

(b) Making payment to the moorage facility operator of all port charges, or by posting with the moorage facility operator a sufficient cash bond or other acceptable security ~~((acceptable to such operator)),~~ to be held in trust by the moorage facility operator pending written agreement of the parties with respect to payment by the vessel owner of the amount owing, or pending resolution of the matter of the ~~((port))~~ charges in a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction. After entry of judgment, including any appeals, in a court of competent jurisdiction, or after the parties reach agreement with respect to payment, the trust shall terminate and the moorage facility operator shall receive so much of the bond or other security as is agreed, or as is necessary to satisfy any judgment, costs, and interest as may be awarded to the moorage facility operator. The balance shall be refunded immediately to the owner at his last known address.

(4) ~~((If a vessel moored or stored at a moorage facility is abandoned, the port district, city, county, metropolitan park district, or town, may, by resolution of its legislative authority, authorize the public sale of the vessel by authorized personnel to the highest and best bidder for cash as follows:~~

~~((a)))~~ If a vessel has been secured by the moorage facility operator under subsection (1) of this section and is not released to the owner under the bonding provisions of this section within ~~((one hundred eighty))~~ ninety days after notifying or attempting to notify the owner under subsection (1) of this section, ~~((or in all other cases, for one hundred eighty days after the operator secures the vessel,))~~ the vessel shall be conclusively presumed to have been abandoned by the owner~~(;))~~.

~~((b)))~~ (5) If a vessel moored or stored at a moorage facility is abandoned, the moorage facility operator may, by resolution of its legislative authority, authorize the public sale of the vessel by authorized personnel to the highest and best bidder for cash as follows:

(a) Before the vessel is sold, the owner of the vessel shall be given at least twenty days' notice of the sale in the manner set forth in subsection (1) of this section if the name and address of the owner is known. The notice shall contain the time and place of the sale, a reasonable description of the vessel to be sold, and the amount of port charges owed with respect to the vessel. The notice of sale shall be published at least once, more than ten but not more than twenty days before the sale, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the moorage facility is located. Such notice shall include the name of the vessel, if any, the last known owner and address, and a reasonable description of the vessel to be sold. The moorage facility operator may bid all or part of its port charges at the sale and may become a purchaser at the sale;

(b) Before the vessel is sold, any person seeking to redeem an impounded vessel under this section may commence a lawsuit in the superior court for the county in which the vessel was impounded to contest the validity of the impoundment or the amount of the port charges owing. Such lawsuit must be commenced within ten days of the date the notification was provided pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, or the right to a hearing shall be deemed waived and the owner shall be liable for any port charges owing the moorage facility operator. In the event of litigation, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

(c) The proceeds of a sale under this section shall first be applied to the payment of port charges. The balance, if any, shall be paid to the owner. If the owner cannot in the exercise of due diligence be located by the moorage facility operator within one year of the date of the sale, the excess funds from the sale shall revert to the department of revenue pursuant to chapter 63.29 RCW. If the sale is for a sum less than the applicable port charges, the moorage facility operator is entitled to assert a claim for a deficiency.

(d) In the event no one purchases the vessel at a sale, or a vessel is not removed from the premises or other arrangements are not made within ten days of sale, title to the vessel will revert to the moorage facility operator.

~~((5))~~ (6) The regulations authorized under this section shall be enforceable only if the moorage facility has had its tariff containing such regulations conspicuously posted at ~~((at))~~ its moorage facility ~~((offices))~~ at all times.

Passed the House February 13, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 4, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

CHAPTER 261

[Senate Bill No. 4535]

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE CORPORATIONS—NONPROFIT
CORPORATIONS—BUSINESS CORPORATIONS

AN ACT Relating to professional service corporations; amending RCW 18.100.050, 18.100.130, 18.100.134, and 82.04.431; adding new sections to chapter 18.100 RCW; and repealing RCW 24.03.038.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 5, chapter 122, Laws of 1969 as amended by section 1, chapter 100, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.100.050 are each amended to read as follows:

An individual or group of individuals duly licensed or otherwise legally authorized to render the same professional services within this state may organize and become a shareholder or shareholders of a professional corporation for pecuniary profit under the provisions of Title 23A RCW for the purpose of rendering professional service: PROVIDED, That one or more of such legally authorized individuals shall be the incorporators of such professional corporation: PROVIDED FURTHER, That notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, registered architects and registered engineers may own stock in and render their individual professional services through one professional service corporation: ~~((AND))~~ PROVIDED FURTHER, That licensed health care professionals, providing services to enrolled participants either directly or through arrangements with a health maintenance organization registered under chapter 48.46 RCW or federally qualified health maintenance organization, may own stock in and render their individual professional services through one professional service corporation: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That professionals may organize a non-profit nonstock corporation under this chapter and chapter 24.03 RCW to provide professional services, and the provisions of this chapter relating to stock and referring to Title 23A RCW shall not apply to any such corporation.

Sec. 2. Section 13, chapter 122, Laws of 1969 as amended by section 6, chapter 51, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.100.130 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For a professional service corporation organized for pecuniary profit under this chapter, the provisions of Title 23A RCW shall be applicable ~~((to a corporation organized pursuant to this chapter))~~ except to the extent that any of the provisions of this chapter are interpreted to be in conflict with the provisions thereof, and in such event the provisions and sections of this chapter shall take precedence with respect to a corporation organized pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

(2) For a professional service corporation organized under this chapter and chapter 24.03 RCW as a nonprofit nonstock corporation, the provisions of chapter 24.03 RCW shall be applicable except to the extent that any of the provisions of this chapter are interpreted to be in conflict with the provisions thereof, and in such event the provisions and sections of this chapter shall take precedence with respect to a corporation organized under the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 3. Section 9, chapter 51, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.100.134 are each amended to read as follows:

A professional corporation may amend its articles of incorporation to delete from its stated purposes the rendering of professional services and to conform to the requirements of Title 23A RCW, or to the requirements of chapter 24.03 RCW if organized pursuant to RCW 18.100.050 as a nonprofit nonstock corporation. Upon the effective date of such amendment, the corporation shall no longer be subject to the provisions of this chapter and shall continue in existence as a corporation under Title 23A RCW or chapter 24.03 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 18.100 RCW to read as follows:

A nonprofit professional service corporation formed pursuant to chapter 431, Laws of 1985, may amend its articles of incorporation at any time before July 31, 1987, to comply with the provisions of this chapter. Compliance under this chapter shall relate back and take effect as of the date of formation of the corporation under chapter 431, Laws of 1985, and the corporate existence shall be deemed to have continued without interruption from that date.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 18.100 RCW to read as follows:

A business corporation formed under the provisions of Title 23A RCW may amend its articles of incorporation to change its stated purpose to the rendering of professional services and to conform to the requirements of this chapter. Upon the effective date of such amendment, the corporation shall be subject to the provisions of this chapter and shall continue in existence as a professional corporation under this chapter.

Sec. 6. Section 6, chapter 196, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as last amended by section 3, chapter 431, Laws of 1985 and RCW 82.04.431 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For the purposes of RCW 82.04.4297, the term "health or social welfare organization" means an organization, including any community action council, which renders health or social welfare services as defined in subsection (2) of this section, which is a not-for-profit corporation under chapter 24.03 RCW and which is managed by a governing board of not less than eight individuals none of whom is a paid employee of the organization or which is a corporation sole under chapter 24.12 RCW. Health or social welfare organization does not include a corporation providing professional services as authorized in chapter 18.100 RCW ((24.03.038)). In addition a corporation in order to be exempt under RCW 82.04.4297 shall satisfy the following conditions:

(a) No part of its income may be paid directly or indirectly to its members, stockholders, officers, directors, or trustees except in the form of services rendered by the corporation in accordance with its purposes and bylaws;

(b) Salary or compensation paid to its officers and executives must be only for actual services rendered, and at levels comparable to the salary or compensation of like positions within the public service of the state;

(c) Assets of the corporation must be irrevocably dedicated to the activities for which the exemption is granted and, on the liquidation, dissolution, or abandonment by the corporation, may not inure directly or indirectly to the benefit of any member or individual except a nonprofit organization, association, or corporation which also would be entitled to the exemption;

(d) The corporation must be duly licensed or certified where licensing or certification is required by law or regulation;

(e) The amounts received qualifying for exemption must be used for the activities for which the exemption is granted;

(f) Services must be available regardless of race, color, national origin, or ancestry; and

(g) The director of revenue shall have access to its books in order to determine whether the corporation is exempt from taxes within the intent of RCW 82.04.4297 and this section.

(2) The term "health or social welfare services" includes and is limited to:

(a) Mental health, drug, or alcoholism counseling or treatment;

(b) Family counseling;

(c) Health care services;

(d) Therapeutic, diagnostic, rehabilitative, or restorative services for the care of the sick, aged, or physically, developmentally, or emotionally-disabled individuals;

(e) Activities which are for the purpose of preventing or ameliorating juvenile delinquency or child abuse, including recreational activities for those purposes;

(f) Care of orphans or foster children;

(g) Day care of children;

(h) Employment development, training, and placement;

(i) Legal services to the indigent;

(j) Weatherization assistance or minor home repair for low-income homeowners or renters;

(k) Assistance to low-income homeowners and renters to offset the cost of home heating energy, through direct benefits to eligible households or to fuel vendors on behalf of eligible households; and

(l) Community services to low-income individuals, families, and groups, which are designed to have a measurable and potentially major impact on causes of poverty in communities of the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Section 2, chapter 431, Laws of 1985 and RCW 24.03.038 are each repealed.

Passed the Senate March 8, 1986.

Passed the House March 5, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

CHAPTER 262

[Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1804]

PORT DISTRICT FORMATION

AN ACT Relating to port districts; amending RCW 53.04.020 and 53.12.020; creating a new section; and providing an expiration date.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 92, Laws of 1911 as last amended by section 1, chapter 157, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 53.04.020 are each amended to read as follows:

At any general election or at any special election which may be called for that purpose, the board of county commissioners of any county in this state may, or on petition of ten percent of the qualified electors of such county based on the total vote cast in the last general county election, shall, by resolution submit to the voters of such county the proposition of creating a port district which ~~((shall))~~ may: (1) Be coextensive with the limits of such county as now or hereafter established; or (2) be under the provisions of section 3 of this 1986 act. Such petition shall be filed with the county auditor, who shall within fifteen days examine the signatures thereof and certify to the sufficiency or insufficiency thereof, and for such purpose the county auditor shall have access to all registration books in the possession of the officers of any incorporated city or town in such proposed port district. If such petition be found to be insufficient, it shall be returned to the persons filing the same, who may amend or add names thereto for ten days, when the same shall be returned to the county auditor, who shall have an additional fifteen days to examine the same and attach his certificate thereto. No person having signed such petition shall be allowed to withdraw his name therefrom after the filing of the same with the county auditor. Whenever such petition shall be certified to as sufficient, the county auditor shall forthwith transmit the same, together with his certificate of sufficiency attached thereto, to the ~~((board of county commissioners))~~ legislative authority of the county, who shall submit such proposition at the next general election or, if such petition so requests, the board of county commissioners shall, at their first meeting after the date of such certificate, by resolution, call a special election to be held not less than thirty days nor more than sixty days from the date of such certificate. The notice of election shall state the boundaries of the proposed port district and the object of such election. In submitting the said question to the voters for their approval or rejection, the proposition shall be expressed on said ballot substantially in the following terms:

"Port of, Yes." (giving the name of the principal seaport city within such proposed port district, or if there be more than one city of the same class within such district, such name as may be determined by the ~~((board of county commissioners))~~ legislative authority of the county).

"Port of, No." (giving the name of the principal seaport city within such port district, or if there be more than one city of the same class within such district, such name as may be determined by the ~~((board of county commissioners))~~ legislative authority of the county).

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 17, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 2, chapter 51, Laws of 1965 and RCW 53.12.020 are each amended to read as follows:

In port districts located in a class AA county no person shall be eligible to hold the office of port commissioner unless he is a qualified voter of the district. In all other port districts except those located in a class AA county the person must be a qualified voter of the commissioner district from which he is elected.

If, pursuant to RCW 29.21.350, a void in candidacy has been declared for a port district, any registered voter of the port district is eligible to file a declaration of candidacy for the office of port commissioner when filing for the office is reopened pursuant to RCW 29.21.360 or 29.21.370.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. When it is desired to create a port district comprising territory less than the entire county and with an assessed valuation of at least one hundred eighty million dollars in other than class A counties, the county commissioners shall, upon petition of ten percent or more of the electors residing within the proposed boundaries of such proposed district based on the total vote at the last general election within such area, submit to the qualified electors residing within such proposed district the proposition of creating such port district. If at any such election a majority of the votes cast thereon shall be in favor of establishing such port district and the total vote cast upon such question shall equal one-third of the total vote cast at the last preceding general election within such area, such port district shall be established.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Section 3 of this act shall expire on December 31, 1988.

Passed the House February 13, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 11, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

CHAPTER 263

[Senate Bill No. 4556]

SPAS, HOT TUBS, SWIMMING POOLS, AND HYDROMASSAGE—ELECTRICAL EQUIPMENT SAFETY STANDARDS

AN ACT Relating to electrical equipment safety standards; and amending RCW 19.28.010.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

(1) All wires and equipment, and installations thereof, that convey electric current and installations of equipment to be operated by electric current, in, on, or about buildings or structures, except for telephone, telegraph, radio, and television wires and equipment, and television antenna installations, signal strength amplifiers, and coaxial installations pertaining thereto shall be in strict conformity with this chapter, the statutes of the state of Washington, and the rules issued by the department, and shall be in conformity with approved methods of construction for safety to life and property. All wires and equipment that fall within section 90.2(b)(5) of the National Electrical Code, 1981 edition, are exempt from the requirements of this chapter. The regulations and articles in the National Electrical Code, as approved by the American Standards Association, and in the national electrical safety code, as approved by the American Standards Association, and other installation and safety regulations approved by the American Standards Association, as modified or supplemented by rules issued by the department in furtherance of safety to life and property under authority hereby granted, shall be prima facie evidence of the approved methods of construction. All materials, devices, appliances, and equipment used in such installations shall be of a type that conforms to applicable standards or be indicated as acceptable by the established standards of the Underwriters' Laboratories, Inc. or other equivalently national recognized authorities.

(2) This chapter shall not limit the authority or power of any city or town to enact and enforce under authority given by law, any ordinance, rule, or regulation requiring an equal, higher, or better standard of construction and an equal, higher, or better standard of materials, devices, appliances, and equipment than that required by this chapter. In a city or town having an equal, higher, or better standard the installations, materials, devices, appliances, and equipment shall be in accordance with the ordinance, rule, or regulation of the city or town. Electrical equipment associated with spas, hot tubs, swimming pools, and hydromassage bathtubs shall not be offered for sale or exchange unless the electrical equipment is certified as being in compliance with the applicable product safety standard by bearing the certification mark of an approved electrical products testing laboratory.

(3) Nothing in this chapter may be construed as permitting the connection of any conductor of any electric circuit with a pipe that is connected with or designed to be connected with a waterworks piping system, without the consent of the person or persons legally responsible for the operation and maintenance of the waterworks piping system.

Passed the Senate February 13, 1986.

Passed the House March 4, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

CHAPTER 264

[Substitute Senate Bill No. 4661]

HOUSING FINANCE COMMISSION—BOND ISSUANCE—DEBT LIMIT— ANNUAL AUDIT—REVISIONS

AN ACT Relating to extension of authority to issue and allocate bonds and raise the maximum indebtedness of the Washington state housing finance commission; amending RCW 43.180.050, 43.180.160, and 43.180.200; repealing RCW 43.180.210; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 5, chapter 161, Laws of 1983 and RCW 43.180.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In addition to other powers and duties prescribed in this chapter, and in furtherance of the purposes of this chapter to provide decent, safe, sanitary, and affordable housing for eligible persons, the commission is empowered to:

(a) Issue bonds in accordance with this chapter (~~(- PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That this power to issue bonds shall cease to exist on June 30, 1986, unless extended by law for an additional fixed period of time));~~

(b) Invest in, purchase, or make commitments to purchase or take assignments from mortgage lenders of mortgages or mortgage loans;

(c) Make loans to or deposits with mortgage lenders for the purpose of making mortgage loans; and

(d) Participate fully in federal and other governmental programs and to take such actions as are necessary and consistent with this chapter to secure to itself and the people of the state the benefits of those programs and to meet their requirements, including such actions as the commission considers appropriate in order to have the interest payments on its bonds and other obligations treated as tax exempt under the code.

(2) The commission shall establish eligibility standards for eligible persons, considering at least the following factors:

- (a) Income;
- (b) Family size;
- (c) Cost, condition and energy efficiency of available residential housing;
- (d) Availability of decent, safe, and sanitary housing;
- (e) Age or infirmity; and
- (f) Applicable federal, state, and local requirements.

The state auditor shall audit the books, records, and affairs of the commission annually to determine, among other things, if the use of bond proceeds complies with the general plan of housing finance objectives including compliance with the objective for the use of financing assistance for implementation of cost-effective energy efficiency measures in dwellings.

Sec. 2. Section 16, chapter 161, Laws of 1983 and RCW 43.180.160 are each amended to read as follows:

The total amount of outstanding indebtedness of the commission may not exceed one and one-half billion dollars at any time. The calculation of outstanding indebtedness shall include the initial principal amount of an issue and shall not include interest that is either currently payable or that accrues as a part of the face amount of an issue payable at maturity or earlier redemption. Outstanding indebtedness shall not include notes or bonds as to which the obligation of the commission has been satisfied and discharged by refunding or for which payment has been provided by reserves or otherwise.

For purposes of the code:

(1) The legislature reserves the right at any time to alter or change the structure, organization, programs, or activities of the commission and to terminate the commission, so long as the action does not impair any outstanding contracts entered into by the commission;

(2) Any net earnings of the commission beyond that necessary to retire its bonds and to carry out the purposes of this chapter shall not inure to the benefit of any person other than the state;

(3) Upon dissolution of the commission, title to all of its remaining property shall vest in the state;

(4) The commission constitutes the only housing finance agency of the state of Washington; and

(5) In order to take advantage of the maximum amount of tax exempt bonds for housing financing available pursuant to the code, ~~((the))~~ any state ceiling ~~((for each of the calendar years through 1986))~~ with respect to housing shall be allocated in accordance with the following formula:

(a) Eighty percent of the state ceiling shall be allocated to the commission and twenty percent shall be allocated to the other issuing authorities in the state.

(b) The allocation to the issuing authorities other than the commission shall be distributed to such issuing authorities in amounts as determined following public notice by the department of community development pursuant to rules promulgated by it. The distribution shall be in response to applications received from such issuing authorities and shall be based on the following factors: (i) The amount of housing to be made available by such applicant; (ii) the population within the jurisdiction of the applicant; (iii) coordination with other applicable federal and state housing programs; (iv) the likelihood of implementing the proposed financing during that year; and (v) consistency with the plan of the commission. On or before February 1 of each year, the department of community development shall distribute the state ceiling allocation among such issuing authorities and any unused portion shall be added to the allocation of the commission. Each issuing authority other than the commission shall confirm its allocation distribution by providing to the department of community development no later than June 1 a copy of an executed bond purchase contract or alternative documentation deemed sufficient by the commission to evidence the reasonable likelihood of the allocation distribution being fully used. Any portion of such allocation not so confirmed shall be added to the allocation of the commission on July 1. Prior to July 1, the commission shall provide written notice of the allocation decrease to the affected issuing authority. The reallocation shall not limit the authority of the commission to assign a portion of its allocation pursuant to subsection (5)(c) of this section.

(c) The commission may assign a portion of its allocation to another issuing agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Section 22, chapter 161, Laws of 1983 and RCW 43.180.210 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the Senate March 8, 1986.

Passed the House March 5, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

OFFICE OF ARCHAEOLOGY AND HISTORIC PRESERVATION/DEPARTMENT OF EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The department of emergency management and the office of archaeology and historic preservation are hereby abolished and their powers, duties, and functions are hereby transferred to the department of community development. All references to the director of emergency management or the department of emergency management and the office of archaeology and historic preservation in the Revised Code of Washington shall be construed to mean the director or department of community development.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. All reports, documents, surveys, books, records, files, papers, or written material in the possession of the department of emergency management and the office of archaeology and historic preservation shall be delivered to the custody of the department of community development. All cabinets, furniture, office equipment, motor vehicles, and other tangible property employed by the department of emergency management and the office of archaeology and historic preservation shall be made available to the department of community development. All funds, credits, or other assets held by the department of emergency management and the office of archaeology and historic preservation shall be assigned to the department of community development.

Any appropriations made to the department of emergency management and the office of archaeology and historic preservation shall, on the effective date of this act, be transferred and credited to the department of community development.

Whenever any question arises as to the transfer of any personnel, funds, books, documents, records, papers, files, equipment, or other tangible property used or held in the exercise of the powers and the performance of the duties and functions transferred, the director of financial management shall make a determination as to the proper allocation and certify the same to the state agencies concerned.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. All employees of the department of emergency management and the office of archaeology and historic preservation are transferred to the jurisdiction of the department of community development. All employees classified under chapter 41.06 RCW, the state civil service law, are assigned to the department of community development to perform their usual duties upon the same terms as formerly, without any loss of rights, subject to any action that may be appropriate thereafter in accordance with the laws and rules governing state civil service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. All rules and all pending business before the department of emergency management and the office of archaeology and historic preservation shall be continued and acted upon by the department of community development. All existing contracts and obligations shall remain in full force and shall be performed by the department of community development.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The transfer of the powers, duties, functions, and personnel of the department of emergency management and the office of archaeology and historic preservation shall not affect the validity of any act performed prior to the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. If apportionments of budgeted funds are required because of the transfers directed by sections 2 through 5 of this act, the director of financial management shall certify the apportionments to the agencies affected, the state auditor, and the state treasurer. Each of these shall make the appropriate transfer and adjustments in funds and appropriation accounts and equipment records in accordance with the certification.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Nothing contained in sections 1 through 6 of this act may be construed to alter any existing collective bargaining unit or the provisions of any existing collective bargaining agreement until the agreement has expired or until the bargaining unit has been modified by action of the personnel board as provided by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 41.06 RCW to read as follows:

In addition to the exemptions set forth in this chapter, this chapter shall not apply within the department of community development to the state historic preservation officer and up to two professional staff members within the emergency management program.

Sec. 9. Section 2, chapter 91, Laws of 1983 and RCW 27.34.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter:

(1) "Advisory council" means the advisory council on historic preservation.

(2) "Department" means the department of community development.

(3) "Director" means the director of community development.

(4) "Federal act" means the national historic preservation act of 1966 (Public Law 89-655; 80 Stat. 915).

~~((3))~~ (5) "Heritage council" means the Washington state heritage council.

~~((4))~~ (6) "Historic preservation" includes the protection, rehabilitation, restoration, identification, scientific excavation, and reconstruction of districts, sites, buildings, structures, and objects significant in American and Washington state history, architecture, archaeology, or culture.

~~((5))~~ (7) "Office" means the office of archaeology and historic preservation within the department of community development.

~~((6))~~ (8) "Preservation officer" means the state historic preservation officer as provided for in RCW 27.34.210.

~~((7))~~ (9) "Project" means programs leading to the preservation for public benefit of historical properties, whether by state and local governments or other public bodies, or private organizations or individuals, including the acquisition of title or interests in, and the development of, any district, site, building, structure, or object that is significant in American and Washington state history, architecture, archaeology, or culture, and property used in connection therewith, or for its development.

~~((8))~~ (10) "State historical agencies" means the state historical societies and the office of archaeology and historic preservation within the department of community development.

~~((9))~~ (11) "State historical societies" means the Washington state historical society, the eastern Washington state historical society, and the state capital historical association.

Sec. 10. Section 11, chapter 91, Laws of 1983 and RCW 27.34.210 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby established the office of archaeology and historic preservation within the department of community development.

The ~~((governor))~~ director shall appoint the preservation officer ~~((with the consent of the senate, as the director of the office and set the salary for the position))~~ to assist the director in implementing this chapter. The preservation officer shall have a background in program administration, an active involvement in historic preservation, and a knowledge of the national, state, and local preservation programs as they affect the state of Washington.

Sec. 11. Section 12, chapter 91, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 2, chapter 64, Laws of 1985 and RCW 27.34.220 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((preservation officer shall supervise and administer the activities of the office. The preservation officer))~~ director or the director's designee is authorized:

(1) To promulgate and maintain a state register of districts, sites, buildings, structures, and objects significant in American or Washington state history, architecture, archaeology, and culture, and to prepare comprehensive state-wide historic surveys and plans and research and evaluation of surveyed resources for the preparation of nominations to the state and national registers of historic places, in accordance with criteria approved by the advisory council established under RCW 27.34.250. The nominations shall comply with any standards and regulations promulgated by the United States secretary of the interior for the preservation, acquisition, and development of such properties.

(2) To establish a program of matching grants-in-aid to public agencies, public or private organizations, or individuals for projects having as their purpose the preservation for public benefit of properties that are significant in American or Washington state history, architecture, archaeology, and culture.

(3) To promote historic preservation efforts throughout the state, including private efforts and those of city, county, and state agencies.

(4) To enhance the effectiveness of the state preservation program through the initiation of legislation, the use of varied funding sources, the creation of special purpose programs, and contact with state, county, and city officials, civic groups, and professionals.

(5) To spend funds, subject to legislative appropriation and the availability of funds, where necessary to assist the Indian tribes of Washington state in removing prehistoric human remains for scientific examination and reburial, if the human remains have been unearthed inadvertently or through vandalism and if no other public agency is legally responsible for their preservation.

(6) To consult with the governor and the legislature on issues relating to the conservation of the man-made environment and their impact on the well-being of the state and its citizens. The ~~((office))~~ department shall submit periodic reports of its activities under this chapter to the governor and the legislature.

(7) To charge fees for professional and clerical services provided by the office.

(8) To adopt such rules, in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW, as are necessary to carry out RCW 27.34.200 through 27.34.290.

Sec. 12. Section 13, chapter 91, Laws of 1983 and RCW 27.34.230 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((preservation officer))~~ director or the director's designee shall:

(1) Submit the budget requests for the office to the heritage council for review and comment;

~~(2) ((Maintain and administer all funds appropriated by the legislature to the office for the purpose of carrying out the duties, functions, and responsibilities of the office under both state and federal law;~~

~~(3))~~) Receive, administer, and disburse such gifts, grants, and endowments from private sources as may be made in trust or otherwise for the purposes of RCW 27.34.200 through 27.34.290 or the federal act; and ~~((4))~~) (3) Develop and implement a cultural resource management plan.

Sec. 13. Section 14, chapter 91, Laws of 1983 and RCW 27.34.240 are each amended to read as follows:

The amounts made available for grants to the public agencies, public or private organizations, or individuals for projects for each fiscal year shall be apportioned among program applicants by the director or the director's designee, with the advice of the preservation officer, in accordance with needs as contained in state-wide archaeology and historic preservation plans developed by the ~~((office and approved by the governor))~~ department.

Sec. 14. Section 17, chapter 91, Laws of 1983 and RCW 27.34.270 are each amended to read as follows:

The advisory council shall:

(1) Advise the governor and the ~~((office))~~ department on matters relating to historic preservation; recommend measures to coordinate activities of state and local agencies, private institutions, and individuals relating to historic preservation; and advise on the dissemination of information pertaining to such activities; and

(2) Review and recommend nominations for the state and national registers of historic places to the preservation officer and the director.

Sec. 15. Section 16, chapter 91, Laws of 1983 and RCW 27.34.280 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((office))~~ department shall provide administrative and financial services to the advisory council on historic preservation and to the Washington state heritage council.

Sec. 16. Section 2, chapter 134, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 12, chapter 195, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 27.53.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The discovery, identification, excavation, and study of the state's archaeological resources, the providing of information on archaeological sites for their nomination to the state and national registers of historic places, the maintaining of a complete inventory of archaeological sites and collections, and the providing of information to state, federal, and private construction agencies regarding the possible impact of construction activities on the state's archaeological resources, are proper public functions; and the Washington archaeological research center, created under the authority of chapter 39.34 RCW as now existing or hereafter amended, is hereby designated as an appropriate agency to carry out these functions. The ~~((preservation officer))~~ director, in consultation with the Washington archaeological research center, shall provide guidelines for the selection of depositories designated by the state for archaeological resources. The legislature directs that there shall be full cooperation amongst the ~~((office))~~ department, the Washington archaeological research center, and other agencies of the state.

Sec. 17. Section 3, chapter 134, Laws of 1975 1st ex.-sess. as last amended by section 20, chapter 91, Laws of 1983 and RCW 27.53.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions contained in this section shall apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Archaeology" means systematic, scientific study of man's past through ~~((his))~~ material remains.

(2) "Department" means the department of community development.

(3) "Director" means the director of community development or the director's designee.

(4) "Historic" means peoples and cultures who are known through written documents in their own or other languages.

~~((3))~~ (5) "Prehistoric" means peoples and cultures who are unknown through contemporaneous written documents in any language.

~~((4))~~ (6) "Professional archaeologist" means a person who has met the educational, training, and experience requirements of the society of professional archaeologists.

~~((5))~~ (7) "Qualified archaeologist" means a person who has had formal training and/or experience in archaeology over a period of at least three years, and has been certified in writing to be a qualified archaeologist by two professional archaeologists.

~~((6))~~ (8) "Amateur society" means any organization composed primarily of persons who are not professional archaeologists, whose primary interest is in the archaeological resources of the state, and which has been certified in writing by two professional archaeologists.

~~((7))~~ "Preservation officer" means the state historic preservation officer as provided for in chapter 27.34 RCW.

~~((8))~~ "Office" means the office of archaeology and historic preservation.)

Sec. 18. Section 6, chapter 134, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 14, chapter 195, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 27.53.060 are each amended to read as follows:

On the private and public lands of this state it shall be unlawful for any person, firm, corporation, or any agency or institution of the state or a political subdivision thereof to knowingly alter, dig into, or excavate by use of any mechanical, hydraulic, or other means, or to damage, deface, or destroy any historic or prehistoric archaeological resource or site, American Indian or aboriginal camp site, dwelling site, rock shelter, cave dwelling site, storage site, grave, burial site, or skeletal remains and grave goods, cairn, or tool making site, or to remove from any such land, site, or area, grave, burial site, cave, rock shelter, or cairn, any skeletal remains, artifact or implement of stone, bone, wood, or any other material, including, but not limited to, projectile points, arrowheads, knives, awls, scrapers, beads or ornaments, basketry, matting, mauls, pestles, grinding stones, rock carvings or paintings, or any other artifacts or implements, or portions or fragments thereof without having obtained written permission from the ((preservation officer)) director for such activities on public property or from the private landowner for such activities on private land. A private landowner may request the ((preservation officer)) director to assume the duty of issuing such permits. The ((preservation officer)) director must obtain the consent of the public property owner or agency responsible for the management thereof, prior to issuance of the permit. The ((preservation officer)) director, in consultation with the Washington state archaeological research center, shall develop guidelines for the issuance and processing of such permits. Such written permission shall be physically present while any such activity is being conducted. The provisions of this section shall not apply to the removal of artifacts found exposed on the surface of the ground nor to the excavation and removal of artifacts from state owned shorelands below the line of ordinary high water or within the intertidal zone.

Sec. 19. Section 8, chapter 134, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 15, chapter 195, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 27.53.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Qualified or professional archaeologists, in performance of their duties, are hereby authorized to enter upon public lands of the state of Washington and its political subdivisions, at such times and in such manner as not to interfere with the normal management thereof, for the purposes of doing archaeological resource location and evaluation studies, including site sampling activities. Scientific excavations are to be carried out only after appropriate agreement has been made between a professional archaeologist or an institution of higher education and the agency or political subdivision responsible for such lands. Notice of such agreement shall be filed with the Washington archaeological research center and by them to the ((office)) department. Amateur societies may engage in such activities by submitting and having approved by the responsible agency or political subdivision a written proposal detailing the scope and duration of the activity. Before approval, a proposal from an amateur society shall be submitted to the Washington archaeological research center for review and recommendation.

Sec. 20. Section 9, chapter 134, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 16, chapter 195, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 27.53.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person, firm, or corporation violating any of the provisions of this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Each day of continued violation of any provision of this chapter shall constitute a distinct and separate offense. Offenses shall be reported to the appropriate law enforcement agency; or to the ((preservation officer)) director.

Sec. 21. Section 2, chapter 24, Laws of 1971 as last amended by section 88, chapter 7, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28A.24.172 are each amended to read as follows:

Each school district board shall determine its own policy as to whether or not its school buses will be rented or leased for the purposes of RCW 28A.24.170, and if the board decision is to rent or lease, under what conditions, subject to the following:

(1) Such renting or leasing may take place only after the state director of ((emergency management)) community development or any of his or her agents so authorized has, at the request of an involved governmental agency, declared that an emergency exists in a designated area insofar as the need for additional transport is concerned.

(2) The agency renting or leasing the school buses must agree, in writing, to reimburse the school district for all costs and expenses related to their use and also must provide an indemnity agreement protecting the district against any type of claim or legal action whatsoever, including all legal costs incident thereto.

Sec. 22. Section 1, chapter 6, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 38, Laws of 1984 and RCW 38.52.005 are each amended to read as follows:

((On and after July 1, 1984, the state department of emergency services shall be known and designated as the department of emergency management which)) The department of community development shall administer the comprehensive emergency management program of the state of Washington as provided for in this chapter. All local organizations, organized and performing emergency management functions pursuant to RCW 38.52.070, may change their name and be called the department/division of emergency management.

As used in this chapter:

(1) "Emergency management" or "comprehensive emergency management" means the preparation for and the carrying out of all emergency functions, other than functions for which the military forces are primarily responsible, to mitigate, prepare for, respond to, and recover from emergencies and disasters, and to aid victims suffering from injury or damage, resulting from disasters caused by all hazards, whether natural or man-made, and to provide support for search and rescue operations for persons and property in distress. However, "emergency management" or "comprehensive emergency management" does not mean preparation for emergency evacuation or relocation of residents in anticipation of nuclear attack.

(2) "Local organization for emergency services or management" means an organization created in accordance with the provisions of this chapter by state or local authority to perform local emergency management functions.

(3) "Political subdivision" means any county, city or town.

(4) "Emergency worker" means any person who is registered with a ~~((state or))~~ local emergency management organization or the department of community development and holds an identification card issued by the ~~((state or))~~ local emergency management director or the department of community development for the purpose of engaging in authorized emergency management activities or is an employee of the state of Washington or any political subdivision thereof who is called upon to perform emergency management activities.

(5) "Injury" as used in this chapter shall mean and include accidental injuries and/or occupational diseases arising out of emergency management activities.

(6) "Emergency or disaster" as used in this chapter shall mean an event or set of circumstances which: (a) Demands immediate action to preserve public health, protect life, protect public property, or to provide relief to any stricken community overtaken by such occurrences, or (b) reaches such a dimension or degree of destructiveness as to warrant the governor declaring a state of emergency pursuant to RCW 43.06.010.

(7) "Search and rescue" means the acts of searching for, rescuing, or recovering by means of ground, marine, or air activity any person who becomes lost, injured, or is killed while outdoors or as a result of a natural or man-made disaster, including instances involving searches for downed aircraft when ground personnel are used. Nothing in this section shall affect appropriate activity by the department of transportation under chapter 47-.68 RCW.

(8) "Executive head" and "executive heads" means the county executive in those charter counties with an elective office of county executive, however designated, and, in the case of other counties, the county legislative authority. In the case of cities and towns, it means the mayor.

(9) "Director" means the director of ~~((the state department of emergency management as established by this chapter))~~ community development.

(10) "Local director" means the director of a local organization of emergency management or emergency services.

(11) "Department" means the department of community development.

(1) Because of the existing and increasing possibility of the occurrence of disasters of unprecedented size and destructiveness as defined in RCW 38.52.010(6), and in order to insure that preparations of this state will be adequate to deal with such disasters, to insure the administration of state and federal programs providing disaster relief to individuals, and further to insure adequate support for search and rescue operations, and generally to protect the public peace, health, and safety, and to preserve the lives and property of the people of the state, it is hereby found and declared to be necessary:

(a) To ~~((create a state department of))~~ provide for emergency management by the state, and to authorize the creation of local organizations for emergency management in the political subdivisions of the state;

(b) To confer upon the governor and upon the executive heads of the political subdivisions of the state the emergency powers provided herein;

(c) To provide for the rendering of mutual aid among the political subdivisions of the state and with other states and to cooperate with the federal government with respect to the carrying out of emergency management functions;

(d) To provide a means of compensating emergency management workers who may suffer any injury, as herein defined, or death; who suffer economic harm including personal property damage or loss; or who incur expenses for transportation, telephone or other methods of communication, and the use of personal supplies as a result of participation in emergency management activities; and

(e) To provide programs, with intergovernmental cooperation, to educate and train the public to be prepared for emergencies.

(2) It is further declared to be the purpose of this chapter and the policy of the state that all emergency management functions of this state and its political subdivisions be coordinated to the maximum extent with the comparable functions of the federal government including its various departments and agencies of other states and localities, and of private agencies of every type, to the end that the most effective preparation and use may be made of the nation's manpower, resources, and facilities for dealing with any disaster that may occur.

(1) ~~((There is hereby created within the executive branch of the state government a department of emergency management. The department shall be headed by the director of emergency management. The director shall be appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate, the director shall not hold any other state office, the director shall hold office at the pleasure of the governor, and shall be compensated at the rate established by the governor, subject to RCW 43.03.040.~~

(2)) The director may employ such personnel and may make such expenditures within the appropriation therefor, or from other funds made available for purposes of emergency management, as may be necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

((3)) (2) The director, subject to the direction and control of the governor, shall be ~~((the executive head of the department and shall be))~~ responsible to the governor for carrying out the program for emergency management of this state. The director shall coordinate the activities of all organizations for emergency management within the state, and shall maintain liaison with and cooperate with emergency management agencies and organizations of other states and of the federal government, and shall have such additional authority, duties, and responsibilities authorized by this chapter, as may be prescribed by the governor.

((4)) (3) The director shall develop and maintain a comprehensive, all-hazard emergency plan for the state which shall include an analysis of the natural and man-caused hazards which could affect the state of Washington, and shall include the procedures to be used during emergencies for coordinating local resources, as necessary, and the resources of all state agencies, departments, commissions, and boards. The comprehensive, all-hazard emergency plan authorized under this subsection may not include preparation for emergency evacuation or relocation of residents in anticipation of nuclear attack. This plan shall be known as the comprehensive emergency management plan.

((5)) (4) In accordance with the comprehensive emergency management plans and the programs for the emergency management of this state, the director shall procure supplies and equipment, institute training programs and public information programs, and shall take all other preparatory steps, including the partial or full mobilization of emergency management organizations in advance of actual disaster, to insure the furnishing of adequately trained and equipped forces of emergency management personnel in time of need.

((6)) (5) The director shall make such studies and surveys of the industries, resources, and facilities in this state as may be necessary to ascertain the capabilities of the state for emergency management, and shall plan for the most efficient emergency use thereof.

((7)) (6) The director may appoint a communications coordinating committee consisting of six to eight persons with the director, or his or her designee, as chairman thereof. Three of the members shall be appointed from qualified, trained and experienced telephone communications administrators or engineers actively engaged in such work within the state of Washington at the time of appointment, and three of the members shall be appointed from qualified, trained and experienced radio communication administrators or engineers actively engaged in such work within the state of Washington at the time of appointment. This committee shall advise the director on all aspects of the communications and warning systems and facilities operated or controlled under the provisions of this chapter.

~~((8))~~ (7) The director shall appoint a state coordinator of search and rescue operations(~~(, who shall)~~) to coordinate those state resources, services and facilities (other than those for which the state director of aeronautics is directly responsible) requested by political subdivisions in support of search and rescue operations, and (~~who shall~~) on request to maintain liaison with and coordinate the resources, services, and facilities of political subdivisions when more than one political subdivision is engaged in joint search and rescue operations.

~~((9))~~ (8) The director, subject to the direction and control of the governor, shall prepare and administer a state program for emergency assistance to individuals within the state who are victims of a natural or man-made disaster, as defined by RCW 38.52.010(6). Such program may be integrated into and coordinated with disaster assistance plans and programs of the federal government which provide to the state, or through the state to any political subdivision thereof, services, equipment, supplies, materials, or funds by way of gift, grant, or loan for purposes of assistance to individuals affected by a disaster. Further, such program may include, but shall not be limited to, grants, loans, or gifts of services, equipment, supplies, materials, or funds of the state, or any political subdivision thereof, to individuals who, as a result of a disaster, are in need of assistance and who meet standards of eligibility for disaster assistance established by the department of social and health services: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That nothing herein shall be construed in any manner inconsistent with the provisions of Article VIII, section 5 or section 7 of the Washington state Constitution.

(9) The director shall appoint a state coordinator for radioactive and hazardous waste emergency response programs. The coordinator shall consult with the state radiation control officer in matters relating to radioactive materials. The duties of the state coordinator for radioactive and hazardous waste emergency response programs shall include:

(a) Assessing the current needs and capabilities of state and local radioactive and hazardous waste emergency response teams on an ongoing basis;

(b) Coordinating training programs for state and local officials for the purpose of updating skills relating to emergency response;

(c) Utilizing appropriate training programs such as those offered by the federal emergency management agency, the department of transportation and the environmental protection agency; and

(d) Undertaking other duties in this area that are deemed appropriate by the director.

Sec. 26. Section 6, chapter 459, Laws of 1985 and RCW 38.52.037 are each amended to read as follows:

The department (~~(of emergency management)~~) shall consult with appropriate local, state, federal, and private sector officials in developing a comprehensive state mine rescue plan. The plan shall identify mine rescue resources, set forth a framework for a coordinated response to mine rescue emergencies, identify shortfalls, and recommend solutions.

The draft of the comprehensive state mine rescue plan and a schedule for submittal of the final plan shall be submitted to the legislature on January 13, 1986.

Sec. 27. Section 6, chapter 178, Laws of 1951 as last amended by section 6, chapter 38, Laws of 1984 and RCW 38.52.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The governor, through the director, shall have general supervision and control of the (~~(department of)~~) emergency management functions in the department, and shall be responsible for the carrying out of the provisions of this chapter, and in the event of disaster beyond local control, may assume direct operational control over all or any part of the emergency management functions within this state.

(2) In performing his or her duties under this chapter, the governor is authorized to cooperate with the federal government, with other states, and with private agencies in all matters pertaining to the emergency management of this state and of the nation.

(3) In performing his or her duties under this chapter and to effect its policy and purpose, the governor is further authorized and empowered:

(a) To make, amend, and rescind the necessary orders, rules, and regulations to carry out the provisions of this chapter within the limits of the authority conferred upon him herein, with due consideration of the plans of the federal government;

(b) On behalf of this state, to enter into mutual aid arrangements with other states and territories, or provinces of the Dominion of Canada and to coordinate mutual aid plans between political subdivisions of this state;

(c) To delegate any administrative authority vested in him under this chapter, and to provide for the subdelegation of any such authority;

(d) To appoint, with the advice of local authorities, metropolitan or regional area coordinators, or both, when practicable;

(e) To cooperate with the president and the heads of the armed forces, the emergency management agency of the United States, and other appropriate federal officers and agencies, and with the officers and agencies of other states in matters pertaining to the emergency management of the state and nation.

Sec. 28. Section 8, chapter 178, Laws of 1951 as last amended by section 7, chapter 38, Laws of 1984 and RCW 38.52.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each political subdivision of this state is hereby authorized and directed to establish a local organization for emergency management in accordance with the state emergency management plan and program: PROVIDED, That a political subdivision proposing such establishment shall submit its plan and program for emergency management to the state director (~~(of emergency management)~~) and secure his or her recommendations thereon, and certification for consistency with the state comprehensive emergency management plan, in order that the plan of the local organization for emergency management may be coordinated with the plan and program of the state. No political subdivision may be required to include in its plan provisions for the emergency evacuation or relocation of residents in anticipation of nuclear attack. If the director's recommendations are adverse to the plan as submitted, and, if the local organization does not agree to the director's recommendations for modification to the proposal, the matter shall be referred to the council for final action. The director (~~(of emergency management)~~) may authorize two or more political subdivisions to join in the establishment and operation of a local organization for emergency management as circumstances may warrant, in which case each political subdivision shall contribute to the cost of emergency management upon such fair and equitable basis as may be determined upon by the executive heads of the constituent subdivisions. If in any case the executive heads cannot agree upon the proper division of cost the matter shall be referred to the council for arbitration and its decision shall be final. When two or more political subdivisions join in the establishment and operation of a local organization for emergency management each shall pay its share of the cost into a special pooled fund to be administered by the treasurer of the most populous subdivision, which fund shall be known as the emergency management fund. Each local organization for emergency management shall have a director who shall be appointed by the executive head of the political subdivision, and who shall have direct responsibility for the organization, administration, and operation of such local organization for emergency management, subject to the direction and control of such executive officer or officers. In the case of a jointly established and operated organization for emergency management, the director shall be appointed by the joint action of the executive heads of the constituent political subdivisions. Each local organization for emergency management shall perform emergency management functions within the territorial limits of the political subdivision within which it is organized, and, in addition, shall conduct such functions outside of such territorial limits as may be required pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

(2) In carrying out the provisions of this chapter each political subdivision, in which any disaster as described in RCW 38.52.020 occurs, shall have the power to enter into contracts and incur obligations necessary to combat such disaster, protecting the health and safety of persons and property, and providing emergency assistance to the victims of such disaster. Each political subdivision is authorized to exercise the powers vested under this section in the light of the exigencies of an extreme emergency situation without regard to time-consuming procedures and formalities prescribed by law (excepting mandatory constitutional requirements), including, but not limited to, budget law limitations, requirements of competitive bidding and publication of notices, provisions pertaining to the performance of public work, entering into contracts, the incurring of obligations, the employment of temporary workers, the rental of equipment, the purchase of supplies and materials, the levying of taxes, and the appropriation and expenditures of public funds.

(1) The director of each local organization for emergency management may, in collaboration with other public and private agencies within this state, develop or cause to be developed mutual aid arrangements for reciprocal emergency management aid and assistance in case of disaster too great to be dealt with unassisted. Such arrangements shall be consistent with the state emergency management plan and program, and in time of emergency it shall be the duty of each local organization for emergency management to render assistance in accordance with the provisions of such mutual aid arrangements. The director of (~~the department of emergency management~~) community development shall adopt and distribute a standard form of contract for use by local organizations in understanding and carrying out said mutual aid arrangements.

(2) The director of (~~the department of emergency management~~) community development and the director of each local organization for emergency management may, subject to the approval of the governor, enter into mutual aid arrangements with emergency management agencies or organizations in other states for reciprocal emergency management aid and assistance in case of disaster too great to be dealt with unassisted. All such arrangements shall be pursuant to either of the compacts contained in subsection (2) (a) or (b) of this section.

(a) The legislature recognizes that the compact language contained in this subsection is inadequate to meet many forms of emergencies. For this reason, after June 7, 1984, the state may not enter into any additional compacts under this subsection (2)(a).

INTERSTATE CIVIL DEFENSE AND DISASTER COMPACT

The contracting States solemnly agree:

Article I. The purpose of this compact is to provide mutual aid among the States in meeting any emergency or disaster from enemy attack or other cause (natural or otherwise) including sabotage and subversive acts and direct attacks by bombs, shellfire, and atomic, radiological, chemical, bacteriological means, and other weapons. The prompt, full and effective utilization of the resources of the respective States, including such resources as may be available from the United States Government or any other source, are essential to the safety, care and welfare of the people thereof in the event of enemy action or other emergency, and any other resources, including personnel, equipment or supplies, shall be incorporated into a plan or plans of mutual aid to be developed among the civil defense agencies or similar bodies of the States that are parties hereto. The Directors of Civil Defense (Emergency Services) of all party States shall constitute a committee to formulate plans and take all necessary steps for the implementation of this compact.

Article 2. It shall be the duty of each party State to formulate civil defense plans and programs for application within such State. There shall be frequent consultation between the representatives of the States and with the United States Government and the free exchange of information and plans, including inventories of any materials and equipment available for civil defense. In carrying out such civil defense plans and programs the party States shall so far as possible provide and follow uniform standards, practices and rules and regulations including:

(a) Insignia, arm bands and any other distinctive articles to designate and distinguish the different civil defense services;

(b) Blackouts and practice blackouts, air raid drills, mobilization of civil defense forces and other tests and exercises;

(c) Warnings and signals for drills or attacks and the mechanical devices to be used in connection therewith;

(d) The effective screening or extinguishing of all lights and lighting devices and appliances;

(e) Shutting off water mains, gas mains, electric power connections and the suspension of all other utility services;

(f) All materials or equipment used or to be used for civil defense purposes in order to assure that such materials and equipment will be easily and freely interchangeable when used in or by any other party State;

(g) The conduct of civilians and the movement and cessation of movement of pedestrians and vehicular traffic, prior, during, and subsequent to drills or attacks;

(h) The safety of public meetings or gatherings; and

(i) Mobile support units.

Article 3. Any party State requested to render mutual aid shall take such action as is necessary to provide and make available the resources covered by this compact in accordance with the terms hereof; provided that it is understood that the State rendering aid may withhold resources to the extent necessary to provide reasonable protection for such State. Each party

State shall extend to the civil defense forces of any other party State, while operating within its State limits under the terms and conditions of this compact, the same powers (except that of arrest unless specifically authorized by the receiving State), duties, rights, privileges and immunities as if they were performing their duties in the State in which normally employed or rendering services. Civil defense forces will continue under the command and control of their regular leaders but the organizational units will come under the operational control of the civil defense authorities of the State receiving assistance.

Article 4. Whenever any person holds a license, certificate or other permit issued by any State evidencing the meeting of qualifications for professional, mechanical or other skills, such person may render aid involving such skill in any party State to meet an emergency or disaster and such State shall give due recognition to such license, certificate or other permit as if issued in the State in which aid is rendered.

Article 5. No party State or its officers or employees rendering aid in another State pursuant to this compact shall be liable on account of any act or omission in good faith on the part of such forces while so engaged, or on account of the maintenance or use of any equipment or supplies in connection therewith.

Article 6. Inasmuch as it is probable that the pattern and detail of the machinery for mutual aid among two or more states may differ from that appropriate among other States party hereto, this instrument contains elements of a broad base common to all States, and nothing herein contained shall preclude any State from entering into supplementary agreements with another State or States. Such supplementary agreements may comprehend, but shall not be limited to, provisions for evacuation and reception of injured and other persons, and the exchange of medical, fire, police, public utility, reconnaissance, welfare, transportation and communications personnel, equipment and supplies.

Article 7. Each party State shall provide for the payment of compensation and death benefits to injured members of the civil defense forces of that State and the representatives of deceased members of such forces in case such members sustain injuries or are killed while rendering aid pursuant to this compact, in the same manner and on the same terms as if the injury or death were sustained within such State.

Article 8. Any party State rendering aid in another State pursuant to this compact shall be reimbursed by the party State receiving such aid for any loss or damage to, or expense incurred in the operation of any equipment answering a request for aid, and for the cost incurred in connection with such requests; provided, that any aiding State may assume in whole or in part such loss, damage, expense, or other cost, or may loan such equipment or donate such services to the receiving party State without charge or cost; and provided further that any two or more party States may enter into supplementary agreements establishing a different allocation of costs as among those States. The United States Government may relieve the party State receiving aid from any liability and reimburse the party State supplying civil defense forces for the compensation paid to and the transportation, subsistence and maintenance expenses of such forces during the time of the rendition of such aid or assistance outside the State and may also pay fair and reasonable compensation for the use or utilization of the supplies, materials, equipment or facilities so utilized or consumed.

Article 9. Plans for the orderly evacuation and reception of the civilian population as the result of an emergency or disaster shall be worked out from time to time between representatives of the party States and the various local civil defense areas thereof. Such plans shall include the manner of transporting such evacuees, the number of evacuees to be received in different areas, the manner in which food, clothing, housing, and medical care will be provided, the registration of the evacuees, the providing of facilities for the notification of relatives or friends and the forwarding of such evacuees to other areas or the bringing in of additional materials, supplies, and all other relevant factors. Such plans shall provide that the party State receiving evacuees shall be reimbursed generally for the out-of-pocket expenses incurred in receiving and caring for such evacuees, for expenditures for transportation, food, clothing, medicines and medical care and like items. Such expenditures shall be reimbursed by the party State of which the evacuees are residents, or by the United States Government under plans approved by it. After the termination of the emergency or disaster the party State of which the evacuees are resident shall assume the responsibility for the ultimate support or repatriation of such evacuees.

Article 10. This compact shall be available to any State, territory or possession of the United States, and the District of Columbia. The term "State" may also include any neighboring foreign country or province or state thereof.

Article 11. The committee established pursuant to Article 1 of this compact may request the Civil Defense Agency of the United States Government to act as an informational and coordinating body under this compact, and representatives of such agency of the United States Government may attend meetings of such committee.

Article 12. This compact shall become operative immediately upon its ratification by any State as between it and any other State or States so ratifying and shall be subject to approval by Congress unless prior Congressional approval has been given. Duly authenticated copies of this compact and of such supplementary agreements as may be entered into shall, at the time of their approval, be deposited with each of the party States and with the Civil Defense Agency and other appropriate agencies of the United States Government.

Article 13. This compact shall continue in force and remain binding on each party State until the legislature or the Governor of such party State takes action to withdraw therefrom. Such action shall not be effective until 30 days after notice thereof has been sent by the Governor of the party State desiring to withdraw to the Governors of all other party States.

Article 14. This compact shall be construed to effectuate the purposes stated in Article I hereof. If any provision of this compact is declared unconstitutional, or the applicability thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the constitutionality of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to other persons and circumstances shall not be effected thereby.

Article 15. (a) This Article shall be in effect only as among those states which have enacted it into law or in which the Governors have adopted it pursuant to constitutional or statutory authority sufficient to give it the force of law as part of this compact. Nothing contained in this Article or in any supplementary agreement made in implementation thereof shall be construed to abridge, impair or supersede any other provision of this compact or any obligation undertaken by a State pursuant thereto, except that if its terms so provide, a supplementary agreement in implementation of this Article may modify, expand or add to any such obligation as among the parties to the supplementary agreement.

(b) In addition to the occurrences, circumstances and subject matters to which preceding articles of this compact make it applicable, this compact and the authorizations, entitlements and procedures thereof shall apply to:

1. Searches for and rescue of person who are lost, marooned, or otherwise in danger.
2. Action useful in coping with disasters arising from any cause or designed to increase the capability to cope with any such disasters.
3. Incidents, or the imminence thereof, which endanger the health or safety of the public and which require the use of special equipment, trained personnel or personnel in larger numbers than are locally available in order to reduce, counteract or remove the danger.
4. The giving and receiving of aid by subdivisions of party States.
5. Exercises, drills or other training or practice activities designed to aid personnel to prepare for, cope with or prevent any disaster or other emergency to which this compact applies.

(c) Except as expressly limited by this compact or a supplementary agreement in force pursuant thereto, any aid authorized by this compact or such supplementary agreement may be furnished by any agency of a party State, a subdivision of such State, or by a joint agency providing such aid shall be entitled to reimbursement therefor to the same extent and in the same manner as a State. The personnel of such a joint agency, when rendering aid pursuant to this compact shall have the same rights, authority and immunity as personnel of party States.

(d) Nothing in this Article shall be construed to exclude from the coverage of Articles 1-15 of this compact any matter which, in the absence of this Article, could reasonably be construed to be covered thereby.

(b) The compact language contained in this subsection (2)(b) is intended to deal comprehensively with emergencies requiring assistance from other states.

INTERSTATE MUTUAL AID COMPACT

Purpose

The purpose of this Compact is to provide voluntary assistance among participating states in responding to any disaster or imminent disaster, that over extends the ability of local and state governments to reduce, counteract or remove the danger. Assistance may include, but not be limited to, rescue, fire, police, medical, communication, transportation services and facilities to cope with problems which require use of special equipment, trained personnel or personnel in large numbers not locally available.

Authorization

Article I, Section 10 of the Constitution of the United States permits a state to enter into an agreement or compact with another state, subject to the consent of Congress. Congress, through enactment of Title 50 U.S.C. Sections 2281(g), 2283 and the Executive Department, by issuance of Executive Orders No. 10186 of December 1, 1950, encourages the states to enter into emergency, disaster and civil defense mutual aid agreements or pacts.

Implementation

It is agreed by participating states that the following conditions will guide implementation of the Compact:

1. Participating states through their designated officials are authorized to request and to receive assistance from a participating state. Requests will be granted only if the requesting state is committed to the mitigation of the emergency, and other resources are not immediately available.

2. Requests for assistance may be verbal or in writing. If the request is made by other than written communication, it shall be confirmed in writing as soon as practical after the request. A written request shall provide an itemization of equipment and operators, types of expertise, personnel or other resources needed. Each request must be signed by an authorized official.

3. Personnel and equipment of the aiding party made available to the requesting party shall, whenever possible, remain under the control and direction of the aiding party. The activities of personnel and equipment of the aiding party must be coordinated by the requesting party.

4. An aiding state shall have the right to withdraw some or all of their personnel and/or equipment whenever the personnel or equipment are needed by that state. Notice of intention to withdraw should be communicated to the requesting party as soon as possible.

General Fiscal Provisions

The state government of the requesting party shall reimburse the state government of the aiding party. It is understood that reimbursement shall be made as soon as possible after the receipt by the requesting party of an itemized voucher requesting reimbursement of costs.

1. Any party rendering aid pursuant to this Agreement shall be reimbursed by the state receiving such aid for any damage to, loss of, or expense incurred in the operation of any equipment used in responding to a request for aid, and for the cost incurred in connection with such requests.

2. Any state rendering aid pursuant to this Agreement shall be reimbursed by the state receiving such aid for the cost of payment of compensation and death benefits to injured officers, agents, or employees and their dependents or representatives in the event such officers, agents, or employees sustain injuries or are killed while rendering aid pursuant to this arrangement, provided that such payments are made in the same manner and on the same terms as if the injury or death were sustained within such state.

Privileges and Immunities

1. All privileges and immunities from liability, exemptions from law, ordinances, rules, all pension, relief disability, workmen's compensation, and other benefits which apply to the activity of officers, agents, or employees when performing their respective functions within the territorial limits of their respective political subdivisions, shall apply to them to the same degree and extent while engaged in the performance of any of their functions and duties extra-territorially under the provisions of this Agreement.

2. All privileges and immunities from liability, exemptions from law, ordinances, and rules, workmen's compensation and other benefits which apply to duly enrolled or registered volunteers when performing their respective functions at the request of their state and within its territorial limits, shall apply to the same degree and extent while performing their functions extra-territorially under the provisions of this Agreement. Volunteers may include, but not be limited to, physicians, surgeons, nurses, dentists, structural engineers, and trained search and rescue volunteers.

3. The signatory states, their political subdivisions, municipal corporations and other public agencies shall hold harmless the corresponding entities and personnel thereof from the other state with respect to the acts and omissions of its own agents and employees that occur while providing assistance pursuant to the common plan.

4. Nothing in this arrangement shall be construed as repealing or impairing any existing Interstate Mutual Aid Agreements.

5. Upon enactment of this Agreement by two or more states, and by January 1, annually thereafter, the participating states will exchange with each other the names of officials designated to request and/or provide services under this arrangement. In accordance with the cooperative nature of this arrangement, it shall be permissible and desirable for the parties to exchange operational procedures to be followed in requesting assistance and reimbursing expenses.

6. This compact shall enter into force and become effective and binding upon the states so acting when it has been enacted into law by any two states. Thereafter, this compact shall enter into force and become effective and binding as to any other of said states upon similar action by such state.

7. This compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon a party state until it shall have enacted a statute repealing the same and providing for the sending of formal written notice of withdrawal from the compact to the appropriate official of all other party states. An actual withdrawal shall not take effect until the thirtieth consecutive day after the notice provided in the statute has been sent. Such withdrawal shall not relieve the withdrawing state from its obligations assumed hereunder prior to the effective date of withdrawal.

Whenever the ~~((state))~~ director ~~((of emergency management))~~ finds that it will be in the interest of the emergency management of this state or of the United States, ~~((he))~~ the director may, with the approval of the governor, agree with the federal government, or any agency thereof carrying on activities within this state, upon a plan of emergency management applicable to a federally owned area, which plan may or may not conform to all of the other provisions of this chapter with the view to integrating federally owned areas into the comprehensive plan and program of the emergency management of this state. Such plan may confer upon persons carrying out such plan any or all of the rights, powers, privileges and immunities granted employees or representatives of the state and/or its political subdivisions by this chapter. The plan of emergency management authorized under this section may not include preparation for emergency evacuation or relocation of residents in anticipation of nuclear attack.

Sec. 31. Section 5, chapter 8, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 22, chapter 38, Laws of 1984 and RCW 38.52.207 are each amended to read as follows:

The director ~~((of the state department of emergency management))~~, with the approval of the attorney general, may consider, ascertain, adjust, determine, compromise and settle property loss or damage claims arising out of conduct or circumstances for which the state of Washington would be liable in law for money damages of two thousand dollars or less. The acceptance by the claimant of any such award, compromise, or settlement shall be final and conclusive on the claimant; and upon the state of Washington, unless procured by fraud, and shall constitute a complete release of any claim against the state of Washington. A request for administrative settlement shall not preclude a claimant from filing court action pending administrative determination, or limit the amount recoverable in such a suit, or constitute an admission against interest of either the claimant or the state.

(1) In each local organization for emergency management established by the legislative authority of the county in accordance with the provisions of RCW 38.52.070, there is hereby created and established a compensation board for the processing of claims as provided in this chapter. The compensation board shall be composed of: (a) The county executive if the county has an elected county executive or, if it does not, one member of the county legislative authority selected by the authority. The executive or the member will serve as the chair of the compensation board; (b) the county director of emergency services; (c) the prosecuting attorney; (d) the emergency services coordinator for medical and health services; and (e) the county auditor who will serve as secretary of the compensation board.

(2) In each local organization for emergency management established by cities and towns in accordance with RCW 38.52.070, there is hereby created and established a compensation board for the processing of claims as provided in this chapter. The compensation board shall be composed of the mayor; the city director of emergency management; one councilmember or commissioner selected by the council or the commission; the city attorney or corporation counsel; and the local coordinator of medical and health services. The councilmember or commissioner so selected shall serve as the chair of the compensation board and the city director of emergency management shall serve as secretary of the board.

The compensation board shall hear and decide all applications for compensation under this chapter. The board shall submit its recommendations to the director (~~(of the department of emergency management)~~) on such forms as he or she may prescribe. In case the decision of the director is different from the recommendation of the compensation board, the matter shall be submitted to the state emergency management council for action.

Sec. 34. Section 8, chapter 223, Laws of 1953 as last amended by section 26, chapter 38, Laws of 1984 and RCW 38.52.250 are each amended to read as follows:

A majority of the compensation board shall constitute a quorum, and no business shall be transacted when a majority is not present, and no claim shall be allowed when a majority of the board has not voted favorably thereon.

The board shall send a copy of the minutes of all meetings to the department (~~(of emergency management)~~) with copies of all material pertaining to each claim submitted and noting the action of the board on each claim. Appeals may be made by the emergency worker from any action by the board within one year by writing to the department (~~(of emergency management)~~).

Sec. 35. Section 14, chapter 223, Laws of 1953 as last amended by section 31, chapter 38, Laws of 1984 and RCW 38.52.300 are each amended to read as follows:

If the injury to an emergency worker is due to the negligence or wrong of another not on emergency duty, the injured worker, or if death results from the injury, the surviving spouse, children, parents or dependents, as the case may be, shall elect whether to take under this chapter or seek a remedy against such other, such election to be in advance of any suit under this chapter; and if the surviving spouse takes under this chapter, the cause of action against such other shall be assigned to the department (~~(of emergency management)~~); if the other choice is made, the compensation under this chapter shall be only the deficiency, if any, between the amount of recovery against such third person actually collected, and the compensation provided or estimated for such case under authority of this chapter: PROVIDED, That the department (~~(of emergency management)~~) shall prosecute all claims assigned to it and do any and all things necessary to recover on behalf of the state any and all amounts which an employer or insurance carrier might recover under the provisions of the law.

The department (~~(of emergency management)~~) shall establish by rule and regulation various classes of emergency workers, the scope of the duties of each class, and the conditions under which said workers shall be deemed to be on duty and covered by the provisions of this chapter. The department shall also adopt rules and regulations prescribing the manner in which emergency workers of each class are to be registered.

Sec. 37. Section 16, chapter 223, Laws of 1953 as last amended by section 33, chapter 38, Laws of 1984 and RCW 38.52.320 are each amended to read as follows:

The department (~~(of emergency management)~~) shall provide each compensation board with the approved maximum schedule of payments for injury or death prescribed in chapter 51.32 RCW: PROVIDED, That nothing in this chapter shall be construed as establishing any liability on the part of the department of labor and industries.

The department (~~(of emergency management)~~) is authorized to make all expenditures necessary and proper to carry out the provisions of this chapter including payments to claimants for compensation as emergency workers and their dependents; to adjust and dispose of all claims submitted by a local compensation board. When medical treatment is necessary, the department (~~(of emergency management)~~) is authorized to make medical and compensation payments on an interim basis. Nothing herein shall be construed to mean that the department (~~(of emergency management)~~) or the state emergency management council or its officers or agents shall have the final decision with respect to the compensability of any case or the amount of compensation or benefits due, but any emergency worker or his or her dependents shall have the same right of appeal from any order, decision, or award to the same extent as provided in chapter 51.32 RCW (~~(as amended by this 1971 amendatory act)~~).

Sec. 39. Section 18, chapter 223, Laws of 1953 as last amended by section 35, chapter 38, Laws of 1984 and RCW 38.52.340 are each amended to read as follows:

Nothing in this chapter shall deprive any emergency worker or his or her dependents of any right to compensation for injury or death sustained in the course of his or her regular employment even though his or her regular work is under direction of emergency management authorities: PROVIDED, That such worker, if he or she is eligible for some other compensation plan, and receives the benefits of such plan shall not also receive any compensation under this chapter. The department (~~(of emergency management)~~) shall adopt such rules and regulations as may be necessary to protect the rights of such workers and may enter into agreements with authorities in charge of other compensation plans to insure protection of such workers: PROVIDED, That if the compensation from some other plan is less than would have been available under this chapter, he or she shall be entitled to receive the deficiency between the amount received under such other plan and the amount available under this chapter.

If, in addition to monetary assistance, benefits or other temporary or permanent relief, the United States or any agent thereof furnishes medical, surgical or hospital treatment or any combination thereof to an injured emergency worker, then the emergency worker has no right to receive similar medical, surgical or hospital treatment as provided in this chapter. However, the department (~~(of emergency management)~~) may furnish medical, surgical or hospital treatment as part of the compensation provided under the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 41. Section 21, chapter 223, Laws of 1953 as last amended by section 38, chapter 38, Laws of 1984 and RCW 38.52.370 are each amended to read as follows:

If, in addition to monetary assistance, benefits, or other temporary or permanent relief, the United States or any agent thereof, will reimburse an emergency worker or his or her dependents for medical, surgical or hospital treatment, or any combination thereof, furnished to the injured emergency worker, the emergency worker has no right to receive similar medical, surgical or hospital treatment as provided in this chapter, but the department (~~(of emergency management)~~), may furnish a medical, surgical or hospital treatment as part of the compensation provided under the provisions of this chapter and apply to the United States or its agent for the reimbursement which will be made to the emergency worker or his or her dependents. As a condition to the furnishing of such medical, surgical or hospital treatment, the department shall require the emergency worker and his dependents to assign to the state of Washington, for the purpose of reimbursing for any medical, surgical or hospital treatment furnished or to be furnished by the state, any claim or right such emergency worker or his or her dependents may have to reimbursement from the United States or any agent thereof.

Sec. 42. Section 6, chapter 8, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 40, chapter 38, Laws of 1984 and RCW 38.52.390 are each amended to read as follows:

The governor, or upon his or her direction, the (~~(state emergency management)~~) director, or any political subdivision of the state, is authorized to contract with any person, firm, corporation, or entity to provide construction or work on a cost basis to be used in emergency management functions or activities as defined in RCW 38.52.010(1) or as hereafter amended, said functions or activities to expressly include natural disasters, as well as all other emergencies of a type contemplated by RCW 38.52.110, 38.52.180, 38.52.195, 38.52.205, 38.52.207, 38.52.220 and 38.52.390. All funds received for purposes of RCW 38.52.110, 38.52.180, 38.52.195, 38.52.205, 38.52.207, 38.52.220 and 38.52.390, whether appropriated funds, local funds, or from whatever source, may be used to pay for the construction, equipment, or work contracted for under this section.

Sec. 43. Section 4, chapter 268, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 41, chapter 38, Laws of 1984 and RCW 38.52.400 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The chief law enforcement officer of each political subdivision shall be responsible for local search and rescue activities. Operation of search and rescue activities shall be in accordance with state and local operations plans adopted by the elected governing body of each local political subdivision. The local emergency management director shall notify the ~~((state))~~ department ~~((of emergency management))~~ of all search and rescue missions. The local director of emergency management shall work in a coordinating capacity directly supporting all search and rescue activities in that political subdivision and in registering emergency search and rescue workers for employee status. The chief law enforcement officer of each political subdivision may restrict access to a specific search and rescue area to personnel authorized by him. Access shall be restricted only for the period of time necessary to accomplish the search and rescue mission. No unauthorized person shall interfere with a search and rescue mission.

(2) When search and rescue activities result in the discovery of a deceased person or search and rescue workers assist in the recovery of human remains, the chief law enforcement officer of the political subdivision shall insure compliance with chapter 68.08 RCW.

Sec. 44. Section 5, chapter 268, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 42, chapter 38, Laws of 1984 and RCW 38.52.410 are each amended to read as follows:

Funds received by the department ~~((of emergency management))~~ specifically for the purposes of compensating search and rescue volunteers shall be distributed by the director ~~((of emergency management))~~ to help fund medical and compensation coverage provided by this chapter and provide reimbursement by the state for: (1) Costs involved in extraordinary search and rescue operations such as search and rescue operations lasting over twenty-four hours where food and lodging for workers is necessary; (2) excessive transportation and rescue costs incurred by out-of-county residents which would not be otherwise collectible; and (3) compensation as provided in RCW 38.52.020(1)(d) as now or hereafter amended.

Sec. 45. Section 2, chapter 241, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 106, chapter 7, Laws of 1985 and RCW 40.10.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The state archivist is authorized to reproduce those documents designated as essential records by the several elected and appointed officials of the state and local government by microfilm or other miniature photographic process and to assist and cooperate in the storage and safeguarding of such reproductions in such place as is recommended by the state archivist with the advice of the director of ~~((emergency management))~~ community development. The state archivist shall coordinate the essential records protection program and shall carry out the provisions of the state emergency plan as they relate to the preservation of essential records. The state archivist is authorized to charge the several departments of the state and local government the actual cost incurred in reproducing, storing and safeguarding such documents: PROVIDED, That nothing herein shall authorize the destruction of the originals of such documents after reproduction thereof.

The state capital historical association, the eastern Washington state historical society, the Washington state historical society, the office of archaeology and historic preservation within the department of community development, the advisory council on historic preservation, and the Washington state heritage council, and their powers and duties, shall be terminated on June 30, 1993, as provided in RCW 43.131.314.

*Sec. 46 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

Sec. 48. Section 7, chapter 40, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 110, chapter 7, Laws of 1985 and by section 7, chapter 230, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.220.070 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) Conservation corps members shall be unemployed residents of the state between eighteen and twenty-five years of age at the time of enrollment who are citizens or lawful permanent residents of the United States. The age requirements may be waived for corps leaders and specialists with special leadership or occupational skills; such members shall be given special responsibility for providing leadership, character development, and sense of community responsibility to the corps members, groups, and work crews to which they are assigned. Special effort shall be made to recruit minority and disadvantaged youth who meet selection criteria of the conservation corps. Preference shall be given to youths residing in areas, both urban and rural, in which there exists substantial unemployment exceeding the state average unemployment rate.

(2) Corps members shall not be considered state employees. Other provisions of law relating to civil service, hours of work, rate of compensation, sick leave, unemployment compensation, state retirement plans, and vacation leave do not apply to the Washington conservation corps except for the crew leaders, who shall be project employees, and the administrative and supervisory personnel.

(3) Enrollment shall be for a period of six months which may be extended for an additional six months by mutual agreement of the corps and the corps member. Corps members shall be reimbursed at the minimum wage rate established by federal law: PROVIDED, That if agencies elect to run a residential program, the appropriate costs for room and board shall be deducted from the corps member's paycheck as provided in chapter 43.220 RCW.

(4) Corps members are to be available at all times for emergency response services coordinated through the department of (~~emergency management~~) community development or other public agency. Duties may include sandbagging and flood cleanup, search and rescue, and other functions in response to emergencies.

Sec. 49. Section 46.16.340, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 112, chapter 7, Laws of 1985 and RCW 46.16.340 are each amended to read as follows:

The director, from time to time, shall furnish the state department of (~~emergency management~~) community development, the Washington state patrol, and all county sheriffs a list of the names, addresses, and license plate or radio station call letters of each person possessing the special amateur radio station license plates so that the facilities of such radio stations may be utilized to the fullest extent in the work of these governmental agencies.

Sec. 50. Section 4, chapter 172, Laws of 1982 as last amended by section 132, chapter 7, Laws of 1985 and RCW 70.136.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The governing body of each applicable political subdivision of this state may designate a hazardous materials incident command agency within its respective boundaries, and file this designation with the director of (~~emergency management or its successor agency~~) community development. In designating an incident command agency, the political subdivision shall consider the training, manpower, expertise, and equipment of various available agencies as well as the Uniform Fire Code and other existing codes and regulations. Along state and interstate highway corridors, the Washington state patrol shall be the designated incident command agency unless by mutual agreement that role has been assumed by another designated incident command agency.

Sec. 51. Section 151, chapter 7, Laws of 1985 as amended by section 1, chapter 67, Laws of 1985 and by section 71, chapter 466, Laws of 1985 and RCW 80.50.030 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) There is created and established the energy facility site evaluation council.

(2) (a) The chairman of the council shall be appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate, shall have a vote on matters before the council, shall serve for a term coextensive with the term of the governor, and is removable for cause. The chairman may designate a member of the council to serve as acting chairman in the event of the chairman's absence. The salary of the chairman shall be determined under RCW 43.03.040. The chairman is a "state employee" for the purposes of chapter 42.18 RCW.

(b) The chairman is the chief executive officer of the council and shall, with the concurrence of the council, execute all official documents, contracts, and other materials on behalf of the council. The chairman shall appoint an executive secretary to serve at the pleasure of the chairman. The chairman may appoint a confidential secretary to serve at the pleasure of the chairman. The chairman shall appoint and prescribe the duties of such clerks, employees, and agents as may be necessary to carry out this chapter: PROVIDED, That such persons shall be employed pursuant to chapter 41.06 RCW.

(3) The council shall consist of the directors, administrators, or their designees, of the following departments, agencies, commissions, and committees or their statutory successors:

- (a) Department of ecology;
- (b) Department of fisheries;
- (c) Department of game;
- (d) Department of parks and recreation;
- (e) Department of social and health services;

- (f) State energy office;
- (g) Department of trade and economic development;
- (h) Utilities and transportation commission;
- (i) Office of financial management;
- (j) Department of natural resources;
- (k) Department of community development;
- (l) ~~((Department of emergency management;~~
- ~~(m)))~~ Department of agriculture;
- ~~((n)))~~ (m) Department of transportation.

(4) The appropriate county legislative authority of every county wherein an application for a proposed site is filed shall appoint a member or designee as a voting member to the council. The member or designee so appointed shall sit with the council only at such times as the council considers the proposed site for the county which he or she represents, and such member or designee shall serve until there has been a final acceptance or rejection of the proposed site;

(5) The city legislative authority of every city within whose corporate limits an energy plant is proposed to be located shall appoint a member or designee as a voting member to the council. The member or designee so appointed shall sit with the council only at such times as the council considers the proposed site for the city which he or she represents, and such member or designee shall serve until there has been a final acceptance or rejection of the proposed site.

(6) For any port district wherein an application for a proposed port facility is filed subject to this chapter, the port district shall appoint a member or designee as a nonvoting member to the council. The member or designee so appointed shall sit with the council only at such times as the council considers the proposed site for the port district which he or she represents, and such member or designee shall serve until there has been a final acceptance or rejection of the proposed site. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply if the port district is the applicant, either singly or in partnership or association with any other person.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 52. RCW 27.34.905 is decodified.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 53. Section 19, chapter 91, Laws of 1983 and RCW 27.34.290 are each repealed.

FIRE PROTECTION BOARD

NEW SECTION. Sec. 54. A new section is added to chapter 43.63A RCW to read as follows:

The legislature finds that fire protection services at the state level are provided by different, independent state agencies. This has resulted in a lack of a comprehensive state-level focus for state fire protection services, funding, and policy. It is the intent of the legislature to consolidate fire protection services into a single state agency and to create a state board with the responsibility of (1) establishing a comprehensive state policy regarding fire protection services and (2) advising the director of community development and the director of fire protection on matters relating to their duties under state law. It is also the intent of the legislature that the fire protection services program created herein will assist local fire protection agencies in program development without encroaching upon their historic autonomy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 55. A new section is added to chapter 43.63A RCW to read as follows:

There is created the state fire protection policy board consisting of ten members appointed by the governor:

(1) Three representatives of fire chiefs. At least one shall be from a fire department east of the Cascade mountains and at least one shall be from a fire department west of the Cascade mountains. One shall be from a fire protection district;

- (2) One insurance industry representative;
- (3) One representative of cities and towns;
- (4) One representative of counties;
- (5) Two full-time, paid, career fire fighters;
- (6) One volunteer fire fighter; and
- (7) One representative of fire commissioners.

The governor, the commissioner of public lands, the insurance commissioner, the chairperson of the commission for vocational education or its successor organization, and the director of fire protection or their designees, shall be nonvoting ex officio members of the board. If an ex officio member of the board elects to send a designee to any or all meetings of the board, then that designee shall be selected from the immediate staff of that ex officio member and may not be a person who otherwise serves as a member of the board.

In making the appointments required under subsections (1) through (7) of this section, the governor shall (a) seek the advice of and consult with organizations involved in fire protection; and (b) ensure that racial minorities, women, and persons with disabilities are represented.

The terms of the appointed members of the board shall be three years and until a successor is appointed and qualified. However, initial board members shall be appointed as follows: Three members to terms of one year, three members to terms of two years, and four members to terms of three years. In the case of a vacancy of a member appointed under subsections (1) through (7) of this section, the governor shall appoint a new representative to fill the unexpired term of the member whose office has become vacant. A vacancy shall occur whenever an appointed member ceases to be employed in the occupation the member was appointed to represent.

The appointed members of the board shall be reimbursed for travel expenses under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

The board shall select its own chairperson and shall meet at the request of the governor or the chairperson and at least four times per year.

*Sec. 55 was partially vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 56. A new section is added to chapter 43.63A RCW to read as follows:

Except for matters relating to the statutory duties of the director of community development which are to be carried out through the director of fire protection, the board shall have the responsibility of developing a comprehensive state policy regarding fire protection services. In carrying out its duties, the board shall:

- (1) Adopt a state fire protection master plan;
- (2) Monitor fire protection in the state and develop objectives and priorities to improve fire protection for the state's citizens;
- (3) Establish and promote state arson control programs and ensure development of local arson control programs;
- (4) Provide representation for local fire protection services to the governor in state-level fire protection planning matters such as, but not limited to, hazardous materials;
- (5) Seek and solicit grants, gifts, bequests, devices, and matching funds for use in furthering the objectives and duties of the board, and establish procedures for administering them;
- (6) Promote mutual aid and disaster planning for fire services in this state;
- (7) Assure the dissemination of information concerning the amount of fire damage including that damage caused by arson, and its causes and prevention;
- (8) Submit annually a report to the governor containing a statement of its official acts pursuant to this chapter, and make such studies, reports, and recommendations to the governor and the legislature as are requested;
- (9) Adopt a state fire training and education master plan;
- (10) Develop and adopt a master plan for the construction, equipping, maintaining, and operation of necessary fire service training and education facilities, but the authority to construct, equip, and maintain such facilities is subject to chapter 43.19 RCW;
- (11) Develop and adopt a master plan for the purchase, lease, or other acquisition of real estate necessary to establish and operate fire service training and education facilities in a manner provided by law;
- (12) Adopt standards for state-wide fire service training and education courses including courses in arson detection and investigation for personnel of fire, police, and prosecutor's departments;
- (13) Assure the administration of any legislation enacted by the legislature in pursuance of the aims and purposes of any acts of Congress insofar as the provisions thereof may apply;

(14) Cooperate with the common schools, community colleges, institutions of higher education, and any department or division of the state, or of any county or municipal corporation in establishing and maintaining instruction in fire service training and education in accordance with any act of Congress and legislation enacted by the legislature in pursuance thereof and in establishing, building, and operating training and education facilities.

This section does not apply to forest fire service personnel and programs. Industrial fire departments and private fire investigators may participate in training and education programs under this chapter for a reasonable fee established by rule.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 57. A new section is added to chapter 43.63A RCW to read as follows:

In regards to the statutory duties of the director of community development which are to be carried out through the director of fire protection, the board shall serve in an advisory capacity in order to enhance the continuity of state fire protection services. In this capacity, the board shall:

(1) Advise the director of community development and the director of fire protection on matters pertaining to their duties under law; and

(2) Advise the director of community development and the director of fire protection on all budgeting and fiscal matters pertaining to the duties of the director of fire protection and the board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 58. A new section is added to chapter 43.63A RCW to read as follows:

(1) Wherever the term state fire marshal appears in the Revised Code of Washington or the Washington Administrative Code it shall mean the director of fire protection.

(2) The director of community development shall appoint an assistant director who shall be known as the director of fire protection. The board, after consulting with the director, shall prescribe qualifications for the position of director of fire protection. The board shall submit to the director a list containing the names of three persons whom the board believes meet its qualifications. If requested by the director, the board shall submit one additional list of three persons whom the board believes meet its qualifications. The appointment shall be from one of the lists of persons submitted by the board.

(3) The director of fire protection may designate one or more deputies and may delegate to those deputies his or her duties and authorities as deemed appropriate.

(4) The director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall, after consultation with the board, prepare a biennial budget pertaining to fire protection services. Such biennial budget shall be submitted as part of the department's budget request.

(5) The director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall implement and administer, within the constraints established by budgeted resources, the policies of the board and all duties of the director of community development which are to be carried out through the director of fire protection.

(6) The director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall seek the advice of the board in carrying out his or her duties under law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 59. A new section is added to chapter 43.63A RCW to read as follows:

The department may accept any and all donations, grants, bequests, and devices, conditional or otherwise, or money, property, service, or other things of value which may be received from the United States or any agency thereof, any governmental agency, any institution, person, firm, or corporation, public and private, to be held, used, or applied for the purposes of the fire service training program established in section 56 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 60. A new section is added to chapter 43.63A RCW to read as follows:

The department may: (1) Impose and collect fees for fire service training; and (2) establish and set fee schedules for fire service training.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 61. A new section is added to chapter 43.63A RCW to read as follows:

The fire service training account is hereby established in the state treasury. The department shall deposit in the account all fees received by the department for fire service training. Moneys in the account may be appropriated only for fire service training.

Sec. 62. Section 1, chapter 349, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 12, chapter 470, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28C.50.010 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of providing needed capital improvements consisting of the planning, acquisition, construction, remodeling, furnishing and equipping of a state fire service training center for the ((state fire protection board)) department of community development, the state finance committee is authorized to issue general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of one million dollars, or so much thereof as may be required to finance such projects, and all costs incidental thereto. No bonds authorized by this chapter shall be offered for sale without prior legislative appropriation, and these bonds shall be paid and discharged within thirty years of the date of issuance in accordance with Article VIII, section 1 of the state Constitution.

Sec. 63. Section 5, chapter 349, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 13, chapter 470, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28C.50.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The 1977 state fire service training center bond retirement fund is hereby created in the state treasury for the purpose of the payment of principal of and interest on the bonds authorized to be issued pursuant to this chapter or, if the legislature so determines, for any bonds and notes hereafter authorized and issued for the ~~((state fire protection board))~~ department of community development.

The state finance committee, on or before June 30th of each year, shall certify to the state treasurer the amount required in the next succeeding twelve months for the payment of the principal of and the interest coming due on such bonds. Not less than thirty days prior to the date on which any such interest or principal and interest payment is due, the state treasurer shall withdraw from any general state revenues received in the state treasury and deposit in the 1977 state fire service training center bond retirement fund an amount equal to the amount certified by the state finance committee to be due on such payment date.

Sec. 64. Section 1, chapter 225, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as last amended by section 14, chapter 470, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28C.51.010 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of providing needed capital improvements consisting of the planning, acquisition, construction, remodeling, furnishing and equipping of a state fire service training center for the ~~((state fire protection board))~~ department of community development, the state finance committee is authorized to issue general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of six million dollars, or so much thereof as may be required, to finance these projects, and all costs incidental thereto. No bonds authorized by this chapter shall be offered for sale without prior legislative appropriation, and these bonds shall be paid and discharged within thirty years of the date of issuance in accordance with Article VIII, section 1 of the state Constitution.

Sec. 65. Section 5, chapter 225, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 15, chapter 470, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28C.51.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The 1977 state fire service training center bond retirement fund in the state treasury shall be used for the purpose of the payment of principal of and interest on the bonds and notes authorized under this chapter or, if the legislature so determines, for any bonds and notes hereafter authorized and issued for the ~~((state fire protection board))~~ department of community development.

The state finance committee, on or before June 30th of each year, shall certify to the state treasurer the amount required in the next succeeding twelve months for the payment of the principal of and the interest coming due on the bonds. Not less than thirty days prior to the date on which any interest or principal and interest payment is due, the state treasurer shall withdraw from any general state revenues received in the state treasury and deposit in the 1977 state fire service training center bond retirement fund an amount equal to the amount certified by the state finance committee to be due on the payment date.

Sec. 66. Section .05.32, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as amended by section 16, chapter 470, Laws of 1985 and RCW 48.05.320 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each authorized insurer shall promptly report to the ~~((state fire protection board))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, upon forms as prescribed and furnished by ~~((the board))~~ him or her, each fire loss of property in this state reported to it and whether the loss is due to criminal activity or to undetermined causes.

(2) Each such insurer shall likewise report to the ~~((board))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, upon claims paid by it for loss or damage by fire in this state. Copies of all reports required by this section shall be promptly transmitted to the state insurance commissioner.

Sec. 67. Section .33.03, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as amended by section 17, chapter 470, Laws of 1985 and RCW 48.48.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The ~~((state fire protection board, through the state fire marshal or any deputy state fire marshal,))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection or his or her authorized deputy, shall have authority at all times of day and night, in the performance of duties imposed by this chapter, to enter upon and examine any building or premises where any fire has occurred and other buildings and premises adjoining or near thereto.

(2) The ~~((state fire protection board, through the state fire marshal or any deputy state fire marshal,))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection or his or her authorized deputy, shall have authority at any reasonable hour to enter into any public building or premises or any building or premises used for public purposes to inspect for fire hazards.

~~((3) Within his or her jurisdiction a resident fire marshal may exercise like powers as are conferred by subsections (1) and (2) of this section upon the state fire protection board. Such power in a resident fire marshal shall not be to the exclusion of any power of the state fire protection board.))~~

Sec. 68. Section .33.04, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as amended by section 18, chapter 470, Laws of 1985 and RCW 48.48.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ~~((In jurisdictions within this state other than those in which there is in force a comprehensive local fire prevention and safety code, the state fire protection board, through the state fire marshal or any deputy fire marshal,))~~ The director of community development, through the director of fire protection or his or her authorized deputy, shall have authority to enter upon all premises and into all buildings except private dwellings for the purpose of inspection to ascertain if any fire hazard exists, and to require conformance with minimum standards for the prevention of fire and for the protection of life and property against fire and panic as to use of premises, and may adopt by reference nationally recognized standards applicable to local conditions.

(2) ~~((A resident fire marshal shall have authority to enforce within his or her jurisdiction such ordinances and laws relative to fire prevention and safety and use of premises as may be in force therein. In areas outside those covered by such local fire prevention and safety codes, the jurisdiction of any such resident fire marshal shall be subordinate to that of the state fire protection board.~~

(3) ~~In areas covered by such fire prevention and safety codes the state fire protection board))~~ The director of community development, through the director of fire protection or his or her authorized deputy, may, upon request by the chief fire official or the local governing body or of taxpayers of such area, assist in the enforcement of any such code.

Sec. 69. Section 1, chapter 70, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. as last amended by section 19, chapter 470, Laws of 1985 and RCW 48.48.045 are each amended to read as follows:

Standards for construction relative to fire prevention and safety for all schools under the jurisdiction of the superintendent of public instruction and state board of education shall be established by the state fire protection board~~((, which))~~. The director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall adopt such nationally recognized fire and building codes and standards as may be applicable to local conditions. After the approval of such standards by the superintendent of public instruction and the state board of education, the ~~((state fire protection board))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall make or cause to be made plan reviews and construction inspections as may be necessary to insure compliance with said codes and standards.

Political subdivisions of the state having and enforcing such fire and building codes and standards at least equal to or higher than those ~~((by the state fire protection board))~~ adopted as provided for in this section shall be exempted from the plan review and construction inspection provisions of this section within their respective subdivision for as long as such codes and standards are enforced.

Sec. 70. Section .33.05, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as amended by section 20, chapter 470, Laws of 1985 and RCW 48.48.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If the ~~((state fire marshal or the marshal's))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection or his or her authorized deputy, finds in any building or premises subject to their inspection under this chapter, any combustible material or flammable conditions or fire hazards dangerous to the safety of the building, premises, or to the public, he or she shall by written order require such condition to be remedied, and such order shall forthwith be complied with by the owner or occupant of the building or premises.

(2) An owner or occupant aggrieved by any such order made by the ~~((state fire marshal or a deputy state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection or his or her deputy, may ~~((within five days after the date of the order appeal to the state fire protection board))~~ appeal such order pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW. If the ~~((state fire protection board confirms the))~~ order is confirmed, the order shall remain in force and be complied with by the owner or occupant.

(3) Any owner or occupant failing to comply with any such order not appealed from or with any order so confirmed shall be punishable by a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars for each day such failure exists.

(1) The chief of each organized fire department, the sheriff or other designated county official, and the designated city or town official shall investigate the cause, origin, and extent of loss of all fires occurring within their respective jurisdictions, as determined by this subsection, and shall forthwith notify the ~~((state fire protection board))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, of all fires of criminal, suspected, or undetermined cause occurring within their respective jurisdictions. The county fire marshal shall also be notified of and investigate all such fires occurring in unincorporated areas of the county. Fire departments shall have the responsibility imposed by this subsection for areas within their jurisdictions. Sheriffs or other designated county officials shall have responsibility imposed by this subsection for county areas not within the jurisdiction of a fire department, unless such areas are within the boundaries of a city or town, in which case the designated city or town official shall have the responsibility imposed by this subsection. For the purposes of this subsection, county officials shall be designated by the county legislative authority, and city or town officials shall be designated by the appropriate city or town legislative or executive authority. In addition to the responsibility imposed by this subsection, any sheriff or chief of police may assist in the investigation of the cause, origin, and extent of loss of all fires occurring within his or her respective jurisdiction.

(2) The ~~((state fire protection board))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection or his or her deputy, may investigate any fire for the purpose of determining its cause, origin, and the extent of the loss. The ~~((state fire protection board))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection or his or her deputy, shall assist in the investigation of those fires of criminal, suspected, or undetermined cause when requested by the reporting agency. In the investigation of any fire of criminal, suspected, or undetermined cause, the ((state fire protection board, the state fire marshal, deputy state fire marshals, or resident fire marshals, acting within their jurisdiction, are)) director of community development and the director of fire protection or his or her deputy, are vested with police powers to enforce the laws of this state. To exercise these powers, ((state deputy and resident fire marshals)) authorized deputies must receive prior written authorization from the ((state fire protection board)) director of community development, through the director of fire protection, and shall have completed a course of training prescribed by the Washington state criminal justice training commission.

Sec. 72. Section 2, chapter 181, Laws of 1980 as amended by section 22, chapter 470, Laws of 1985 and RCW 48.48.065 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ~~((Beginning September 1, 1980,))~~ The chief of each organized fire department, or the sheriff or other designated county official having jurisdiction over areas not within the jurisdiction of any fire department, shall report statistical information and data to the ((state fire protection board)) director of community development, through the director of fire protection, on each fire occurring within the official's jurisdiction. Reports shall be consistent with the national fire incident reporting system developed by the United States fire administration and rules established by the ((state fire marshal)) director of community development, through the director of fire protection. The ((state fire protection board)) director of community development, through the director of fire protection, and the department of natural resources shall jointly determine the statistical information to be reported on fires on land under the jurisdiction of the department of natural resources.

(2) The ((state fire protection board)) director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall analyze the information and data reported, compile a report, and distribute a copy annually by January 31 to each chief fire official in the state. Upon request, the ((state fire protection board)) director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall also furnish a copy of the report to any other interested person at cost.

Sec. 73. Section .33.07, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as amended by section 23, chapter 470, Laws of 1985 and RCW 48.48.070 are each amended to read as follows:

In the conduct of any investigation into the cause, origin, or loss resulting from any fire, the ((state fire protection board)) director of community development and the director of fire protection shall have the same power and rights relative to securing the attendance of witnesses and the taking of testimony under oath as is conferred upon the insurance commissioner under RCW 48.03.070. False swearing by any such witness shall be deemed to be perjury and shall be subject to punishment as such.

Sec. 74. Section .33.08, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as amended by section 24, chapter 470, Laws of 1985 and RCW 48.48.080 are each amended to read as follows:

If as the result of any such investigation, or because of any information received (~~by it, the state fire protection board~~), the director of community development, through the director of fire protection, is of the opinion that there is evidence sufficient to charge any person with any crime, ((it)) he or she may cause such person to be arrested and charged with such offense, and shall furnish to the prosecuting attorney of the county in which the offense was committed, the names of witnesses and all pertinent and material evidence and testimony within ((its)) his or her possession relative to the offense.

Sec. 75. Section .33.09, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as amended by section 25, chapter 470, Laws of 1985 and RCW 48.48.090 are each amended to read as follows:

The (~~state fire protection board~~) director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall keep on file all reports of fires made to (~~it or to the commissioner~~) him or her pursuant to this code. Such records shall at all times during business hours be open to public inspection; except, that any testimony taken in a fire investigation may, in the discretion of the (~~state fire protection board~~) director of community development, through the director of fire protection, be withheld from public scrutiny. The (~~state fire protection board~~) director of community development, through the director of fire protection, may destroy any such report after five years from its date.

The (~~state fire protection board~~) director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall submit annually a report to the governor of this state. The report shall contain a statement of ((its)) his or her official acts pursuant to this chapter.

Sec. 77. Section 2, chapter 80, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 27, chapter 470, Laws of 1985 and RCW 48.50.020 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter the following terms have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Authorized agency" means a public agency or its official representative having legal authority to investigate the cause of a fire and to initiate criminal proceedings or further investigations if the cause was not accidental, including the following persons and agencies:

(a) The ~~((state fire protection board))~~ director of community development and the director of fire protection;

(b) The prosecuting attorney of the county where the fire occurred;

(c) The state attorney general, when engaged in a prosecution which is or may be connected with the fire;

(d) The Federal Bureau of Investigation, or any other federal agency; and

(e) The United States attorney's office when authorized or charged with investigation or prosecution concerning the fire.

(2) "Insurer" means any insurer, as defined in RCW 48.01.050, which insures against loss by fire, and includes insurers under the Washington F.A.I.R. plan.

(3) "Relevant information" means information having any tendency to make the existence of any fact that is of consequence to the investigation or determination of the cause of any fire more probable or less probable than it would be without the information.

Sec. 78. Section 4, chapter 174, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 89, chapter 370, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28C.04.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission for vocational education shall have the following functions:

(1) Plan development. The commission shall be responsible for complying with federal directives to insure the development and maintenance of a state plan for vocational education but initial planning shall be accomplished by the secondary and postsecondary education systems. Prior to the adoption of the state plan, the commission shall request comments from the higher education coordinating board and the advisory council for vocational education.

(2) State plan modification adjudication. Decisions on new programs and/or facilities for vocational education shall be made internally within the respective secondary or postsecondary education system in accordance with the provisions of the state plan. The commission may review such decisions to insure compliance with the state plan and avoid unnecessary duplication of current or projected programs.

Any common school or community college district, or the superintendent of public instruction, or the state board for community college education, or other interested parties as authorized by the commission, shall be afforded the opportunity to comment upon any new programs or facilities proposed. The commission, subject to dispute resolution rules adopted by said commission, shall have the final determination on any disputes arising out of such program proposals.

In adjudicating disputes between the two secondary and postsecondary education systems regarding the state plan, the commission will use at least the following criteria: Recognition that secondary education is constitutionally the responsibility of the superintendent of public instruction and that by legislative action postsecondary education is the responsibility of institutions of higher education; adhere to the general policy set forth in the state plan; consider the particular vocational need of the community, region, or state and whether the common school or community college, or both, can best respond to those needs; encourage cooperation and coordination rather than competition and program conflict between secondary and postsecondary education systems; consider the desires and preferences of the residents of the immediate program service area and of the representatives of the fields of management, labor, and agriculture which benefit from possible program offerings; and avoid unnecessary duplication of vocational education programs and facilities.

(3) Vocational education administration. The commission shall be the sole agency for the receipt and allocation of federal funds in accordance with the state plan. The supervision of the state plan shall be carried out by the commission; however, daily administration of the state plan shall be primarily the responsibility of the superintendent of public instruction and the state board for community college education: PROVIDED, That the commission shall review and approve state plan development proposals or special programs requiring personal service contracts, and activities beyond the program responsibilities of the superintendent of public instruction and the state board for community college education.

Under the state plan the commission shall make periodic compliance audits at least once a biennium of the vocational education programs individually and jointly conducted by the common schools and community colleges to insure compliance with the state plan.

The commission shall be the primary state liaison with the federal government for the state plan for vocational education.

~~(4) ((Fire service training program. The commission may accept any and all donations, grants, bequests, and devices, conditional or otherwise, or money, property, service, or other things of value which may be received from the United States or any agency thereof, any governmental agency, any institution, person, firm, or corporation, public and private, to be held, used, or applied for the purposes of the fire service training program established in RCW 28C.04.140.~~

(5)) Job skills program. The commission shall have the following powers and duties for the job skills program:

(a) To collect and disseminate to interested individuals, in cooperation with and through any agencies of federal, state, and municipal government, information concerning areas of present and projected employment need, programs of skills training and education consistent therewith, and any other relevant information;

(b) To apply for, utilize, and accept grants from other federal, state, and local agencies for the purposes of matching requirements and to facilitate the purposes of RCW 28C.04.420 through 28C.04.480;

(c) To help identify, upon the request of business and industry, those educational institutions which could provide the training services sought by business and industry and to identify any existing programs which could serve the particular needs of business and industry;

(d) To provide job skills grants to educational institutions to facilitate the development of programs of job skills training and education consistent with employment needs;

(e) To work cooperatively with the employment security department to enhance and update the state's occupational information system and the state's career information system;

(f) To adopt rules to carry out its powers and duties for the job skills program.

Sec. 79. Section 1, chapter 320, Laws of 1981 and RCW 4.24.400 are each amended to read as follows:

No building warden, who acts in good faith, with or without compensation, shall be personally liable for civil damages arising from his or her negligent acts or omissions during the course of assigned duties in assisting others to evacuate industrial, commercial, governmental or multi-unit residential buildings or in attempting to control or alleviate a hazard to the building or its occupants caused by fire, earthquake or other threat to life or limb. The term "building warden" means an individual who is assigned to take charge of the occupants on a floor or in an area of a building during an emergency in accordance with a predetermined fire safety or evacuation plan; and/or an individual selected by a municipal fire chief or the ((state fire marshal)) director of community development, through the director of fire protection, after an emergency is in progress to assist in evacuating the occupants of such a building or providing for their safety. This section shall not apply to any acts or omissions constituting gross negligence or wilful or wanton misconduct.

Sec. 80. Section 1, chapter 204, Laws of 1967 and RCW 9.40.100 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who wilfully and without cause tampers with, molests, injures or breaks any public or private fire alarm apparatus, emergency phone, radio, or other wire or signal, or any fire fighting equipment, or who wilfully and without having reasonable grounds for believing a fire exists, sends, gives, transmits, or sounds any false alarm of fire, by shouting in a public place or by means of any public or private fire alarm system or signal, or by telephone, is guilty of a misdemeanor. This provision shall not prohibit the testing of fire alarm systems by persons authorized to do so, by a fire department or ~~((state fire marshal official))~~ the director of community development, through the director of fire protection.

Sec. 81. Section 13, chapter 253, Laws of 1957 and RCW 18.20.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Standards for fire protection and the enforcement thereof, with respect to all boarding homes to be licensed hereunder, shall be the responsibility of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, who shall adopt such recognized standards as may be applicable to boarding homes for the protection of life against the cause and spread of fire and fire hazards. The department upon receipt of an application for a license, shall submit to the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, in writing, a request for an inspection, giving the applicant's name and the location of the premises to be licensed. Upon receipt of such a request, the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or his or her deputy, shall make an inspection of the boarding home to be licensed, and if it is found that the premises do not comply with the required safety standards and fire regulations as promulgated by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, he or she shall promptly make a written report to the boarding home and the department or authorized department as to the manner and time allowed in which the premises must qualify for a license and set forth the conditions to be remedied with respect to fire regulations. The department, authorized department, applicant or licensee shall notify the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, upon completion of any requirements made by him or her, and the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or his or her deputy, shall make a reinspection of such premises. Whenever the boarding home to be licensed meets with the approval of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, he or she shall submit to the department or authorized department, a written report approving same with respect to fire protection before a full license can be issued. The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall make or cause to be made inspections of such homes at least annually.

In cities which have in force a comprehensive building code, the provisions of which are determined by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, to be equal to the minimum standards of the ~~((state fire marshal's))~~ code for boarding homes adopted by the director of community development, through the director of fire protection, the chief of the fire department, provided the latter is a paid chief of a paid fire department, shall make the inspection with the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or his or her deputy and they shall jointly approve the premises before a full license can be issued.

Sec. 82. Section 12, chapter 168, Laws of 1951 and RCW 18.46.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Fire protection with respect to all maternity homes to be licensed hereunder, shall be the responsibility of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, who shall adopt by reference, such recognized standards as may be applicable to nursing homes, places of refuge, and maternity homes for the protection of life against the cause and spread of fire and fire hazards. The department upon receipt of an application for a license, shall submit to the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, in writing, a request for an inspection, giving the applicant's name and the location of the premises to be licensed. Upon receipt of such a request, the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or his or her deputy, shall make an inspection of the maternity home to be licensed, and if it is found that the premises do not comply with the required safety standards and fire regulations as promulgated by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, he or she shall promptly make a written report to the department as to the manner in which the premises may qualify for a license and set forth the conditions to be remedied with respect to fire regulations. The department, applicant or licensee shall notify the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, upon completion of any requirements made by him or her, and the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or his or her deputy, shall make a reinspection of such premises. Whenever the maternity home to be licensed meets with the approval of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, he or she shall submit to the department, a written report approving same with respect to fire protection before a license can be issued. The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall make or cause to be made such inspection of such maternity homes as he or she deems necessary.

In cities which have in force a comprehensive building code, the regulation of which is equal to the minimum standards of the ~~((state fire marshals))~~ code for maternity homes adopted by the director of community development, through the director of fire protection, the building inspector and the chief of the fire department, provided the latter is a paid chief of a paid fire department, shall make the inspection and shall approve the premises before a license can be issued.

In cities where such building codes are in force, the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, may, upon request by the chief fire official, or the local governing body, or of a taxpayer of such city, assist in the enforcement of any such code pertaining to maternity homes.

Sec. 83. Section 15, chapter 117, Laws of 1951 as amended by section 9, chapter 160, Laws of 1953 and RCW 18.51.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Standards for fire protection and the enforcement thereof, with respect to all nursing homes to be licensed hereunder, shall be the responsibility of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, who shall adopt such recognized standards as may be applicable to nursing homes for the protection of life against the cause and spread of fire and fire hazards. The department upon receipt of an application for a license, shall submit to the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, in writing, a request for an inspection, giving the applicant's name and the location of the premises to be licensed. Upon receipt of such a request, the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or his or her deputy, shall make an inspection of the nursing home to be licensed, and if it is found that the premises do not comply with the required safety standards and fire regulations as promulgated by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, he or she shall promptly make a written report to the nursing home and the department as to the manner and time allowed in which the premises must qualify for a license and set forth the conditions to be remedied with respect to fire regulations. The department, applicant or licensee shall notify the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, upon completion of any requirements made by him or her, and the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or his or her deputy, shall make a reinspection of such premises. Whenever the nursing home to be licensed meets with the approval of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, he or she shall submit to the department, a written report approving same with respect to fire protection before a full license can be issued. The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall make or cause to be made inspections of such nursing homes at least annually.

In cities which have in force a comprehensive building code, the provisions of which are determined by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, to be equal to the minimum standards of the ~~((state fire marshal's))~~ code for nursing homes adopted by the director of community development, through the director of fire protection, the chief of the fire department, provided the latter is a paid chief of a paid fire department, shall make the inspection with the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or his or her deputy and they shall jointly approve the premises before a full license can be issued.

Sec. 84. Section 16, chapter 2, Laws of 1981 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 45, chapter 67, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.51.145 are each amended to read as follows:

Inspections of nursing homes by local authorities shall be consistent with the requirements of chapter 19.27 RCW, the state building code. Findings of a serious nature shall be coordinated with the department and the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, for determination of appropriate actions to ensure a safe environment for nursing home residents. The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall have exclusive authority to determine appropriate corrective action under this section.

Sec. 85. Section 5, chapter 134, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 16, chapter 360, Laws of 1985 and RCW 19.27A.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, is the only authority having jurisdiction over the approval of portable oil-fueled heaters. The sale and use of portable oil-fueled heaters is governed exclusively by RCW 19.27A.080 through 19.27A.120: PROVIDED, That cities and counties may adopt local standards as provided in RCW 19.27.040.

Sec. 86. Section 28A.04.120, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 40, Laws of 1984 and RCW 28A.04.120 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to any other powers and duties as provided by law, the state board of education shall:

(1) Approve the program of courses leading to teacher, school administrator, and school specialized personnel certification offered by all institutions of higher education within the state which may be accredited and whose graduates may become entitled to receive such certification.

(2) Investigate the character of the work required to be performed as a condition of entrance to and graduation from any institution of higher education in this state relative to such certification as provided for in subsection (1) above, and prepare a list of accredited institutions of higher education of this and other states whose graduates may be awarded such certificates.

(3) Supervise the issuance of such certificates as provided for in subsection (1) above and specify the types and kinds of certificates necessary for the several departments of the common schools by rule or regulation in accordance with RCW 28A.70.005.

(4) Accredite, subject to such accreditation standards and procedures as may be established by the state board of education, all schools that apply for accreditation, and approve, subject to the provisions of RCW 28A.02-.201, private schools carrying out a program for any or all of the grades one through twelve: PROVIDED, That no public or private schools shall be placed upon the list of accredited schools so long as secret societies are knowingly allowed to exist among its students by school officials: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the state board may elect to require all or certain classifications of the public schools to conduct and participate in such pre-accreditation examination and evaluation processes as may now or hereafter be established by the board.

(5) Make rules and regulations governing the establishment in any existing nonhigh school district of any secondary program or any new grades in grades nine through twelve. Before any such program or any new grades are established the district must obtain prior approval of the state board.

(6) Prepare such outline of study for the common schools as the board shall deem necessary, and prescribe such rules for the general government of the common schools, as shall seek to secure regularity of attendance, prevent truancy, secure efficiency, and promote the true interest of the common schools.

(7) Prepare with the assistance of the superintendent of public instruction a uniform series of questions, with the proper answers thereto for use in the correcting thereof, to be used in the examination of persons, as this code may direct, and prescribe rules and regulations for conducting any such examinations.

(8) Continuously reevaluate courses and adopt and enforce regulations within the common schools so as to meet the educational needs of students and articulate with the institutions of higher education and unify the work of the public school system.

(9) Carry out board powers and duties relating to the organization and reorganization of school districts under chapter 28A.57 RCW.

(10) By rule or regulation promulgated upon the advice of the (~~state fire marshal~~) director of community development, through the director of fire protection, provide for instruction of pupils in the public and private schools carrying out a K through 12 program, or any part thereof, so that in case of sudden emergency they shall be able to leave their particular school building in the shortest possible time or take such other steps as the particular emergency demands, and without confusion or panic; such rules and regulations shall be published and distributed to certificated personnel throughout the state whose duties shall include a familiarization therewith as well as the means of implementation thereof at their particular school.

(11) Hear and decide appeals as otherwise provided by law.

Sec. 87. Section 7, chapter 36, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 9, chapter 201, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.43.710 are each amended to read as follows:

Information contained in the files and records of the section relative to the commission of any crime by any person shall be considered privileged and shall not be made public or disclosed for any personal purpose or in any civil court proceedings except upon a written order of the judge of a court wherein such civil proceedings are had. All information contained in the files of the section relative to criminal records and personal histories of persons arrested for the commission of a crime shall be available to all criminal justice agencies and, for the sole purpose of investigating the cause of fires under RCW 48.48.060(2) where the cause is suspected to be arson, to the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, upon the filing of an application as provided in RCW 43.43.705.

Dependency record information contained in the files and records of the section shall be considered privileged and shall not be made public. Dependency record information may be disclosed as authorized by this chapter or may be disclosed to the same extent that information regarding dependency proceedings may generally be disclosed, as authorized by applicable laws or court rules.

Although no application for information has been made to the section as provided in RCW 43.43.705, the section may transmit such information in the chief's discretion, to such agencies as are authorized by RCW 43.43.705 to make application for it.

Sec. 88. Section 2, chapter 237, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 1, chapter 145, Laws of 1984 and RCW 46.37.467 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every automobile, truck, motorcycle, motor home, or off-road vehicle that is fueled by an alternative fuel source shall bear a reflective placard issued by the national fire protection association indicating that the vehicle is so fueled. Violation of this subsection is a traffic infraction.

(2) As used in this section "alternative fuel source" includes propane, compressed natural gas, liquid petroleum gas, or any chemically similar gas but does not include gasoline or diesel fuel.

(3) If a placard for a specific alternative fuel source has not been issued by the national fire protection association, a placard issued by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall be required. The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall develop rules for the design, size, and placement of the placard which shall remain effective until a specific placard is issued by the national fire protection association.

Sec. 89. Section 1, chapter 50, Laws of 1980 and RCW 48.48.140 are each amended to read as follows:

- (1) Smoke detection devices shall be installed inside all dwelling units:
 - (a) Occupied by persons other than the owner on and after December 31, 1981; or
 - (b) Built or manufactured in this state after December 31, 1980.
- (2) The smoke detection devices shall be designed, manufactured, and installed inside dwelling units in conformance with:
 - (a) Nationally accepted standards; and
 - (b) As provided by the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW, rules and regulations promulgated by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection.

(3) Installation of smoke detection devices shall be the responsibility of the owner. Maintenance of smoke detection devices shall be the responsibility of the tenant, who shall maintain the device as specified by the manufacturer. At the time of a vacancy, the owner shall insure that the smoke detection device is operational prior to the reoccupancy of the dwelling unit.

(4) Any owner or tenant failing to comply with this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars.

(5) For the purposes of this section:

(a) "Dwelling unit" means a single unit providing complete, independent living facilities for one or more persons including permanent provisions for living, sleeping, eating, cooking, and sanitation; and

(b) "Smoke detection device" means an assembly incorporating in one unit a device which detects visible or invisible particles of combustion, the control equipment, and the alarm-sounding device, operated from a power supply either in the unit or obtained at the point of installation.

Sec. 90. Section 1, chapter 258, Laws of 1983 and RCW 48.48.150 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All premises guarded by guard animals, which are animals professionally trained to defend and protect premises or the occupants of the premises, shall be registered with the local fire department. Front entrances to residences and all entrances to business premises shall be posted in a visible location with signs approved by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, indicating that guard animals are present.

(2) A fire fighter, who reasonably believes that his or her safety is endangered by the presence of a guard animal, may without liability: (a) Refuse to enter the premises, or (b) take any reasonable action necessary to protect himself or herself from attack by the guard animal.

(3) If the person responsible for the guard animal being on the premises does not comply with subsection (1) of this section, that person may be held liable for any injury to the fire fighter caused by the presence of the guard animal.

Sec. 91. Section 4, chapter 80, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 48.50.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When an insurer has reason to believe that a fire loss reported to the insurer may be of other than accidental cause, the insurer shall notify the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, in the manner prescribed under RCW 48.05.320 concerning the circumstances of the fire loss, including any and all relevant material developed from the insurer's inquiry into the fire loss.

(2) Notification of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, under subsection (1) of this section does not relieve the insurer of the duty to respond to a request for information from any other authorized agency.

Sec. 92. Section 2, chapter 110, Laws of 1982 and RCW 48.53.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) A fire insurance policy may not be issued to insure any property within a class of occupancy within a geographic area or within a geographic area designated by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, as having an abnormally high incidence of arson until the applicant has submitted an anti-arson application and the insurer or the insurer's representative has inspected the property. The application shall be prescribed by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, and shall contain but not be limited to the following:

(a) The name and address of the prospective insured and any mortgagees or other parties having an ownership interest in the property to be insured;

(b) The amount of insurance requested and the method of valuation used to establish the amount of insurance;

(c) The dates and selling prices of the property, if any, during the previous three years;

(d) Fire losses exceeding one thousand dollars during the previous five years for property in which the prospective insured held an equity interest or mortgage;

(e) Current corrective orders pertaining to fire, safety, health, building, or construction codes that have not been complied with within the time period or any extension of such time period authorized by the authority issuing such corrective order applicable to the property to be insured;

(f) Present or anticipated occupancy of the structure, and whether a certificate of occupancy has been issued;

(g) Signature and title, if any, of the person submitting the application.

(3) If the facts required to be reported by subsection (2) of this section materially change, the insured shall notify the insurer of any such change within fourteen days.

(4) An anti-arson application is not required for: (a) Fire insurance policies covering one to four-unit owner-occupied residential dwellings; (b) policies existing as of June 10, 1982; or (c) the renewal of these policies.

(5) An anti-arson application shall contain a notice stating: "Designation of a class of occupancy within a geographic area or geographic areas as having an abnormally high incidence of arson shall not be a valid reason for cancellation, refusal to issue or renew, modification, or increasing the premium for any fire insurance policy."

Sec. 93. Section 6, chapter 110, Laws of 1982 and RCW 48.53.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Rules designating geographic areas or classes of occupancy as having an abnormally high incidence of arson, and any other rules necessary to implement this chapter shall be adopted by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, under chapter 34.04 RCW.

Sec. 94. Section 8, chapter 267, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 19, chapter 213, Laws of 1985 and RCW 70.41.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Standards for fire protection and the enforcement thereof, with respect to all hospitals to be licensed hereunder shall be the responsibility of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, who shall adopt, after approval by the department, such recognized standards as may be applicable to hospitals for the protection of life against the cause and spread of fire and fire hazards. The department upon receipt of an application for a license, shall submit to the state fire marshal in writing, a request for an inspection, giving the applicant's name and the location of the premises to be licensed. Upon receipt of such a request, the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or his or her deputy, shall make an inspection of the hospital to be licensed, and if it is found that the premises do not comply with the required safety standards and fire regulations as adopted pursuant to this chapter, he or she shall promptly make a written report to the hospital and to the department listing the corrective actions required and the time allowed for accomplishing such corrections. The applicant or licensee shall notify the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, upon completion of any corrections required by him or her, and the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or his or her deputy, shall make a reinspection of such premises. Whenever the hospital to be licensed meets with the approval of the ((state fire marshal)) director of community development, through the director of fire protection, he or she shall submit to the department a written report approving the hospital with respect to fire protection, and such report is required before a full license can be issued. The ((state fire marshal)) director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall make or cause to be made inspections of such hospitals at least once a year.

In cities which have in force a comprehensive building code, the provisions of which are determined by the ((state fire marshal)) director of community development, through the director of fire protection, to be equal to the minimum standards of the ((state fire marshal's)) code for hospitals adopted by the director of community development, through the director of fire protection, the chief of the fire department, provided the latter is a paid chief of a paid fire department, shall make the inspection with the ((state fire marshal)) director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or his or her deputy and they shall jointly approve the premises before a full license can be issued.

Sec. 95. Section 11, chapter 239, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 70.62.290 are each amended to read as follows:

Rules and regulations establishing fire and life safety requirements, not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter, shall continue to be promulgated and enforced by the ((state fire marshal's office)) director of community development, through the director of fire protection.

Sec. 96. Section 2, chapter 152, Laws of 1967 and RCW 70.75.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The standardization of existing fire protection equipment in this state shall be arranged for and carried out by or under the direction of the ((state fire marshal)) director of community development, through the director of fire protection. He or she shall provide the appliances necessary for carrying on this work, shall proceed with such standardization as rapidly as possible, and shall require the completion of such work within a period of five years from June 8, 1967: PROVIDED, That the ((state fire marshal)) director of community development, through the director of fire protection, may exempt special purpose fire equipment and existing fire protection equipment from standardization when it is established that such equipment is not essential to the coordination of public fire protection operations.

Sec. 97. Section 3, chapter 152, Laws of 1967 and RCW 70.75.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The ((state fire marshal)) director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall notify industrial establishments and property owners having equipment, which may be necessary for fire department use in protecting the property or putting out fire, of any changes necessary to bring their equipment up to the requirements of the standard established by RCW 70.75.020, and shall render such assistance as may be available for converting substandard equipment to meet standard specifications and requirements.

Sec. 98. Section 4, chapter 152, Laws of 1967 and RCW 70.75.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who, without approval of the (~~(state fire marshal)~~) director of community development, through the director of fire protection, sells or offers for sale in Washington any fire hose, fire engine or other equipment for fire protection purposes which is fitted or equipped with other than the standard thread is guilty of a misdemeanor: PROVIDED, That fire equipment for special purposes, research, programs, forest fire fighting, or special features of fire protection equipment found appropriate for uniformity within a particular protection area may be specifically exempted from this requirement by order of the (~~(state fire marshal)~~) director of community development, through the director of fire protection.

Sec. 99. Section 11, chapter 228, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 7, chapter 230, Laws of 1982 and RCW 70.77.170 are each amended to read as follows:

"License" means a nontransferable formal authorization which the (~~(state fire marshal is)~~) director of community development and the director of fire protection are permitted to issue under this chapter to engage in the act specifically designated therein.

(1) The (~~(state fire marshal)~~) director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall enforce and administer this chapter.

(2) The (~~(state fire marshal)~~) director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall appoint such deputies and employees as may be necessary and required to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

(3) The (~~(state fire marshal)~~) director of community development, through the director of fire protection, may prescribe such rules relating to fireworks as may be necessary for the protection of life and property and for the implementation of this chapter.

(4) The (~~(state fire marshal)~~) director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall prescribe such rules as may be necessary to ensure state-wide minimum standards for the enforcement of this chapter. Counties, cities, and towns shall comply with such state rules.

Any local rules adopted by local authorities that are more restrictive than state law as to the types of fireworks that may be sold shall have an effective date no sooner than one year after their adoption.

(5) The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, may exercise the necessary police powers to enforce the criminal provisions of this chapter. This grant of police powers does not prevent any other state agency or local government agency having general law enforcement powers from enforcing this chapter within the jurisdiction of the agency or local government.

The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, has the power to issue licenses for the manufacture, importation, sale, and use of all fireworks in this state. A person may be licensed as a manufacturer, importer, or wholesaler under this chapter only if the person has a designated agent in this state who is registered with the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection.

Sec. 102. Section 40, chapter 228, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 20, chapter 230, Laws of 1982 and RCW 70.77.315 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who desires to engage in the manufacture, importation, sale, or use of fireworks shall make a written application to the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, on forms provided by him or her. Such application shall be accompanied by the annual license fee as prescribed in this chapter.

Sec. 103. Section 42, chapter 228, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 20, chapter 249, Laws of 1984 and RCW 70.77.325 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Application for a license shall be made annually by every person holding an existing license who wishes to continue the activity requiring the license. The application shall be accompanied by the annual license fee as prescribed in RCW 70.77.340.

(2) A person applying for an annual license as a retailer under this chapter shall file an application by June 10 of the current year. The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall grant or deny the license within fifteen days of receipt of the application.

(3) A person applying for an annual license as a manufacturer, importer, or wholesaler under this chapter shall file an application by January 31 of the current year. The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall grant or deny the license within ninety days of receipt of the application.

Sec. 104. Section 43, chapter 228, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 22, chapter 230, Laws of 1982 and RCW 70.77.330 are each amended to read as follows:

If the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, finds that the granting of such license would not be contrary to public safety or welfare, he or she shall issue a license authorizing the applicant to engage in the particular act or acts upon the payment of the license fee specified in this chapter. Licensees may transport the class of fireworks for which they hold a valid license.

(1) Any adult person may secure a general license from the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, for the public display of fireworks within the state of Washington. A general license is subject to the provisions of this chapter relative to the securing of local permits for the public display of fireworks in any city, county, or fire protection district, except that in lieu of filing the bond or certificate of public liability insurance with the appropriate local official under RCW 70.77.260 as required in RCW 70.77.285, the same bond or certificate shall be filed with the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection. The bond or certificate of insurance for a general license in addition shall provide that: (a) The insurer will not cancel the insured's coverage without fifteen days prior written notice to the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection; (b) the duly licensed pyrotechnic operator required by law to supervise and discharge the public display, acting either as an employee of the insured or as an independent contractor and the state of Washington, its officers, agents, employees, and servants are included as additional insureds, but only insofar as any operations under contract are concerned; and (c) the state is not responsible for any premium or assessments on the policy.

(2) The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, may issue such general licenses. The holder of a general license shall file a certificate from the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, evidencing the license with any application for a local permit for the public display of fireworks under RCW 70.77.260.

If the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, finds that an application for any license under this chapter contains a material misrepresentation or that the granting of any license would be contrary to the public safety or welfare, the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, may deny the application for the license.

A written report by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or a local fire official, or any of their authorized representatives, disclosing that the applicant for a license, or the premises for which a license is to apply, do not meet the qualifications or conditions for a license constitutes grounds for the denial by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, of any application for a license.

Sec. 108. Section 52, chapter 228, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 30, chapter 230, Laws of 1982 and RCW 70.77.375 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, upon reasonable opportunity to be heard, shall revoke any license issued pursuant to this chapter, if he or she finds that:

(1) The licensee has violated any provisions of this chapter or any rule or regulations made by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, under and with the authority of this chapter;

(2) The licensee has created or caused a fire nuisance;

(3) Any licensee has failed or refused to file any required reports; or

(4) Any fact or condition exists which, if it had existed at the time of the original application for such license, reasonably would have warranted the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, in refusing originally to issue such license.

Sec. 109. Section 60, chapter 228, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 25, chapter 249, Laws of 1984 and RCW 70.77.415 are each amended to read as follows:

Every public display of fireworks shall be handled or supervised by a pyrotechnic operator licensed by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, under RCW 70.77.255.

Notwithstanding RCW 70.77.255, following the revocation or expiration of a license, a licensee in lawful possession of a lawfully acquired stock of fireworks may sell such fireworks, but only under supervision of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection. Any sale under this section shall be solely to persons who are authorized to buy, possess, sell, or use such fireworks.

Sec. 111. Section 64, chapter 228, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 37, chapter 230, Laws of 1982 and RCW 70.77.435 are each amended to read as follows:

Any fireworks which are illegally sold, offered for sale, used, discharged, possessed or transported in violation of the provisions of this chapter or the rules or regulations of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall be subject to seizure by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or ~~((any))~~ his or her deputy ((state fire marshal)). Any fireworks seized under this section may be disposed of by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, by summary destruction at any time subsequent to thirty days from such seizure or ten days from the final termination of proceedings under the provisions of RCW 70.77.440, whichever is later.

Sec. 112. Section 65, chapter 228, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 29, chapter 249, Laws of 1984 and RCW 70.77.440 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person whose fireworks are seized under the provisions of RCW 70.77.435 may within ten days after such seizure petition the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, to return the fireworks seized upon the ground that such fireworks were illegally or erroneously seized. Any petition filed hereunder shall be considered by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, within fifteen days after filing and an oral hearing granted the petitioner, if requested. Notice of the decision of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall be served upon the petitioner. The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, may order the fireworks seized under this chapter disposed of or returned to the petitioner if illegally or erroneously seized. The determination of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, is final unless within sixty days an action is commenced in a court of competent jurisdiction in the state of Washington for the recovery of the fireworks seized by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection.

(2) If the fireworks are not returned to the petitioner or destroyed pursuant to RCW 70.77.435, the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, may sell confiscated common fireworks and special fireworks that are legal for use and possession under this chapter to wholesalers licensed by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection. Sale shall be by public auction after publishing a notice of the date, place, and time of the auction in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the auction is to be held, at least three days before the date of the auction. The proceeds of the sale of the seized fireworks under this section shall be deposited in the general fund. Fireworks that are not legal for use and possession in this state shall be destroyed by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection.

The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, may make an examination of the books and records of any licensee, or other person relative to fireworks, and may visit and inspect the premises of any licensee he may deem at any time necessary for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this chapter. The licensee, owner, lessee, manager, or operator of any such building or premises shall permit the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, his or her deputies, his or her salaried assistants and the chief of any city or county fire department or fire protection district and their authorized representatives to enter and inspect the premises at the time and for the purpose stated in this section.

Sec. 114. Section 68, chapter 228, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 38, chapter 230, Laws of 1982 and RCW 70.77.455 are each amended to read as follows:

All licensees shall maintain and make available to the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, full and complete records showing all production, imports, exports, purchases, sales, and consumption of fireworks items by kind and class.

Sec. 115. Section 69, chapter 228, Laws of 1961 and RCW 70.77.460 are each amended to read as follows:

When reports on fireworks transactions or the payments of license fees or penalties are required to be made on or by specified dates, they shall be deemed to have been made at the time they are filed with or paid to the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or, if sent by mail, on the date shown by the United States postmark on the envelope containing the report or payment.

In addition to any other reports required under this chapter, the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, may, by rule or otherwise, require additional, other, or supplemental reports from licensees and other persons and prescribe the form, including verification, of the information to be given when filing such additional, other or supplemental reports.

Sec. 117. Section 8, chapter 249, Laws of 1984 and RCW 70.77.575 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall adopt by rule a list of the fireworks that may be sold to the public in this state pursuant to this chapter. The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall file the list by October 1st of each year with the code reviser for publication, unless the previously published list has remained current.

(2) The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall provide the list adopted under subsection (1) of this section by November 1st of each year to all manufacturers, wholesalers, and importers licensed under this chapter, unless the previously distributed list has remained current.

Sec. 118. Section 9, chapter 249, Laws of 1984 and RCW 70.77.580 are each amended to read as follows:

Retailers required to be licensed under this chapter shall post prominently at each retail outlet a list of the fireworks that may be sold to the public in this state pursuant to this chapter. The posted list shall be in a form approved by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection. The ~~((fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall make available the list.

Sec. 119. Section 2, chapter 101, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 70.105.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The department after notice and public hearing shall:

(1) Adopt regulations designating as extremely hazardous wastes subject to the provisions of this chapter those substances which exhibit characteristics consistent with the definition provided in RCW 70.105.010(6);

(2) Adopt and may revise when appropriate, minimum standards and regulations for disposal of extremely hazardous wastes to protect against hazards to the public, and to the environment. Before adoption of such standards and regulations, the department shall consult with appropriate agencies of interested local governments and secure technical assistance from the department of agriculture, the department of social and health services, the department of game, the department of natural resources, the department of fisheries, the department of labor and industries, and the ((state fire marshal)) department of community development, through the director of fire protection.

Sec. 120. Section 23, chapter 302, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 123, Laws of 1972 ex. sess. and RCW 70.108.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Application for an outdoor music festival permit shall be in writing and filed with the clerk of the issuing authority wherein the festival is to be held. Said application shall be filed not less than ninety days prior to the first scheduled day of the festival and shall be accompanied with a permit fee in the amount of two thousand five hundred dollars. Said application shall include:

(1) The name of the person or other legal entity on behalf of whom said application is made: PROVIDED, That a natural person applying for such permit shall be eighteen years of age or older;

(2) A financial statement of the applicant;

(3) The nature of the business organization of the applicant;

(4) Names and addresses of all individuals or other entities having a ten percent or more proprietary interest in the festival;

(5) The principal place of business of applicant;

(6) A legal description of the land to be occupied, the name and address of the owner thereof, together with a document showing the consent of said owner to the issuance of a permit, if the land be owned by a person other than the applicant;

(7) The scheduled performances and program;

(8) Written confirmation from the local health officer that he or she has reviewed and approved plans for site and development in accordance with rules, regulations and standards adopted by the state board of health. Such rules and regulations shall include criteria as to the following and such other matters as the state board of health deems necessary to protect the public's health:

(a) Submission of plans

(b) Site

(c) Water supply

(d) Sewage disposal

(e) Food preparation facilities

(f) Toilet facilities

(g) Solid waste

(h) Insect and rodent control

(i) Shelter

(j) Dust control

(k) Lighting

(l) Emergency medical facilities

(m) Emergency air evacuation

(n) Attendant physicians

(o) Communication systems

(9) A written confirmation from the appropriate law enforcement agency from the area where the outdoor music festival is to take place, showing that traffic control and crowd protection policing have been contracted for or otherwise provided by the applicant meeting the following conditions:

(a) One person for each two hundred persons reasonably expected to be in attendance at any time during the event for purposes of traffic and crowd control.

(b) The names and addresses of all traffic and crowd control personnel shall be provided to the appropriate law enforcement authority: PROVIDED, That not less than twenty percent of the traffic and crowd control personnel shall be commissioned police officers or deputy sheriffs: PROVIDED FURTHER, That on and after February 25, 1972 any commissioned police officer or deputy sheriff who is employed and compensated by the promoter of an outdoor music festival shall not be eligible and shall not receive any benefits whatsoever from any public pension or disability plan of which he or she is a member for the time he is so employed or for any injuries received during the course of such employment.

(c) During the hours that the festival site shall be open to the public there shall be at least one regularly commissioned police officer employed by the jurisdiction wherein the festival site is located for every one thousand persons in attendance and said officer shall be on duty within the confines of the actual outdoor music festival site.

(d) All law enforcement personnel shall be charged with enforcing the provisions of this chapter and all existing statutes, ordinances and regulations.

(10) A written confirmation from the appropriate law enforcement authority that sufficient access roads are available for ingress and egress to the parking areas of the outdoor music festival site and that parking areas are available on the actual site of the festival or immediately adjacent thereto which are capable of accommodating one auto for every four persons in estimated attendance at the outdoor music festival site.

(11) A written confirmation from the department of natural resources, where applicable, and the ~~((office of the state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, that all fire prevention requirements have been complied with.

(12) A written statement of the applicant that all state and local law enforcement officers, fire control officers and other necessary governmental personnel shall have free access to the site of the outdoor music festival.

(13) A statement that the applicant will abide by the provisions of this chapter.

(14) The verification of the applicant warranting the truth of the matters set forth in the application to the best of the applicant's knowledge, under the penalty of perjury.

Sec. 121. Section 6, chapter 236, Laws of 1985 and RCW 70.160.060 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter is not intended to regulate smoking in a private enclosed workplace, within a public place, even though such workplace may be visited by nonsmokers, excepting places in which smoking is prohibited by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or by other law, ordinance, or regulation.

Sec. 122. Section 1, chapter 224, Laws of 1959 as amended by section 135, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 71.12.485 are each amended to read as follows:

Standards for fire protection and the enforcement thereof, with respect to all establishments to be licensed hereunder, shall be the responsibility of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, who shall adopt such recognized standards as may be applicable to such establishments for the protection of life against the cause and spread of fire and fire hazards. The department of social and health services, upon receipt of an application for a license, or renewal of a license, shall submit to the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, in writing, a request for an inspection, giving the applicant's name and the location of the premises to be licensed. Upon receipt of such a request, the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or his or her deputy shall make an inspection of the establishment to be licensed, and if it is found that the premises do not comply with the required safety standards and fire regulations as promulgated by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, he or she shall promptly make a written report to the establishment and the department of social and health services as to the manner and time allowed in which the premises must qualify for a license and set forth the conditions to be remedied with respect to fire regulations. The department of social and health services, applicant or licensee shall notify the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, upon completion of any requirements made by him or her, and the state fire marshal or his or her deputy shall make a reinspection of such premises. Whenever the establishment to be licensed meets with the approval of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, he or she shall submit to the department of social and health services a written report approving same with respect to fire protection before a full license can be issued. The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall make or cause to be made inspections of such establishments at least annually. The department of social and health services shall not license or continue the license of any establishment unless and until it shall be approved by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, as herein provided.

In cities which have in force a comprehensive building code, the provisions of which are determined by the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, to be equal to the minimum standards of the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, for such establishments, the chief of the fire department, provided the latter is a paid chief of a paid fire department, shall make the inspection with the ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, or his or her deputy, and they shall jointly approve the premises before a full license can be issued.

Sec. 123. Section 5, chapter 172, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 8, chapter 118, Laws of 1982 and RCW 74.15.050 are each amended to read as follows:

The ~~((state fire marshal))~~ director of community development, through the director of fire protection, shall have the power and it shall be his or her duty:

(1) In consultation with the children's services advisory committee and with the advice and assistance of persons representative of the various type agencies to be licensed, to adopt recognized minimum standard requirements pertaining to each category of agency established pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW and RCW 74.13.031, except foster-family homes and child-placing agencies, necessary to protect all persons residing therein from fire hazards;

(2) To make or cause to be made such inspections and investigations of agencies, other than foster-family homes or child-placing agencies, as he or she deems necessary;

(3) To make a periodic review of requirements under RCW 74.15.030(6) and to adopt necessary changes after consultation as required in subsection (1) of this section;

(4) To issue to applicants for licenses hereunder, other than foster-family homes or child-placing agencies, who comply with the requirements, a certificate of compliance, a copy of which shall be presented to the department of social and health services before a license shall be issued, except that a provisional license may be issued as provided in RCW 74.15.120.

Sec. 124. Section 8, chapter 172, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 359, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 74.15.080 are each amended to read as follows:

All agencies subject to chapter 74.15 RCW and RCW 74.13.031 shall accord the department of social and health services (~~(and the state fire marshal)~~), the director of community development, and the director of fire protection, or their designees, the right of entrance and the privilege of access to and inspection of records for the purpose of determining whether or not there is compliance with the provisions of chapter 74.15 RCW and RCW 74.13.031 and the requirements adopted thereunder.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 125. All reports, documents, surveys, books, records, files, papers, or other written material in the possession of the insurance commissioner or the state fire protection board pertaining to the office of the state fire marshal or the state fire protection board shall be delivered to the custody of the department. All cabinets, furniture, office equipment, motor vehicles, and other tangible property employed by the insurance commissioner or the state fire protection board in carrying out the powers and duties of the state fire marshal or the state fire protection board shall be transferred to the department. All funds, credits, or other assets held in connection with the state fire marshal's office or the state fire protection board shall be assigned to the department.

Any appropriations made to the insurance commissioner or the state fire protection board for the purpose of carrying out the powers and duties of the state fire marshal or the state fire protection board, shall, on the effective date of this section, be transferred and credited to the department for the purpose of carrying out the transferred powers and duties.

Whenever any question arises as to the transfer of any personnel, funds, including unexpended balances within any accounts, books, documents, records, papers, files, equipment, or any other tangible property used or held in the exercise of the powers and the performance of the duties and functions of the state fire marshal's office or the state fire protection board, the director of financial management shall make a determination as to the proper allocation and certify the same to the state agencies concerned. All transfers made under this section shall be used to carry out the purposes of sections 54 through 124 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 126. All employees of the state fire marshal's office and the state fire protection board are transferred to the jurisdiction of the department. All classified employees subject to chapter 41.06 RCW, the state civil service law, shall be assigned to the department to perform their usual duties upon the same terms as formerly, without any loss of rights, subject to any action that may be appropriate thereafter in accordance with the laws and rules governing state civil service. All transfers made under this section shall be used to carry out the purposes of sections 54 through 124 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 127. All rules and all pending business before the state fire marshal's office or the state fire protection board on the effective date of this section shall be continued and acted upon in accordance with the provisions of sections 54 through 124 of this act. All existing contracts and obligations shall remain in full force and effect and shall be performed in accordance with the provisions of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 128. The transfer of the powers, duties, functions, and personnel of the state fire marshal's office and the state fire protection board shall not affect the validity of any act performed by such employee prior to the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 129. All reports, documents, surveys, books, records, files, papers, or written material in the possession of the commission for vocational education or the state fire protection board and pertaining to fire service training shall be delivered to the custody of the department. All cabinets, furniture, office equipment, motor vehicles, and other tangible property employed by the commission for vocational education or the state fire protection board in fire service training shall be transferred to the department. All funds, credits, or other assets held in connection with fire service training shall be assigned to the department.

Any appropriations made to the commission for vocational education or the state fire protection board for fire service training shall, on the effective date of this section, be transferred and credited to the department.

Whenever any question arises as to the transfer of any personnel, funds, including unexpended balances within any accounts, books, documents, records, papers, files, equipment, or any other tangible property used or held in the exercise of the powers and the performance of the duties and functions transferred, the director of financial management shall make a determination as to the proper allocation and certify the same to the state agencies concerned. All transfers made under this section shall be used to carry out the purposes of sections 54 through 124 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 130. All employees of the commission for vocational education and the state fire protection board engaged in fire service training are transferred to the department. All employees classified under chapter 41.06 RCW, the state civil service law, are assigned to the department to perform their usual duties upon the same terms as formerly, without any loss of rights, subject to any action that may be appropriate thereafter in accordance with the laws and rules governing state civil service. All transfers made under this section shall be used to carry out the purposes of sections 54 through 124 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 131. All rules and all pending business before the commission for vocational education or the state fire protection board pertaining to fire service training shall be continued and acted upon in accordance with the provisions of sections 54 through 124 of this act. All existing contracts and obligations shall remain in full force and effect and shall be performed in accordance with sections 54 through 124 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 132. The transfer of the powers, duties, functions, and personnel of the commission for vocational education or the state fire protection board pertaining to fire service training shall not affect the validity of any act performed by such employee prior to the effective date of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 133. If apportionments of budgeted funds are required because of the transfers directed by sections 125 through 132 of this act, the director of financial management shall certify the apportionments to the agencies affected, the state auditor, and the state treasurer. Each of these shall make the appropriate transfer and adjustments in funds and appropriation accounts and equipment records in accordance with the certification.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 134. As used in sections 125 through 133 of this act, "department" means the department of community development.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 135. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 1, chapter 312, Laws of 1985 and RCW 28C.04.142;

DEPARTMENT OF COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Sec. 136. Section 2, chapter 74, Laws of 1967 as amended by section 2, chapter 125, Laws of 1984 and RCW 43.63A.020 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this chapter and unless the context shall clearly indicate otherwise:

- (1) "Department" means the department of community development.
- (2) "Director" means the director of community development.
- (3) "Board" means the state fire protection policy board created under section 55 of this 1986 act.

Sec. 137. Section 5, chapter 125, Laws of 1984 and RCW 43.63A.065 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall have the following functions and responsibilities:

(1) Cooperate with and provide technical and financial assistance to the local governments and to the local agencies serving the communities of the state for the purpose of aiding and encouraging orderly, productive, and coordinated development of the state.

(2) Administer state and federal grants and programs which are assigned to the department by the governor or the legislature.

(3) Administer community services programs through private, non-profit organizations and units of general purpose local government; these programs are directed to the poor and infirm and include community-based efforts to foster self-sufficiency and self-reliance, energy assistance programs, head start, and weatherization.

(4) Study issues affecting the structure, operation, and financing of local government as well as those state activities which involve relations with local government and report the results and recommendations to the governor, legislature, local government, and citizens of the state.

(5) Assist the governor in coordinating the activities of state agencies which have an impact on local governments and communities.

(6) Provide technical assistance to the governor and the legislature on community development policies for the state.

(7) Assist in the production, development, rehabilitation, and operation of owner-occupied or rental housing for low and moderate income persons, and qualify as a participating state agency for all programs of the Department of Housing and Urban Development or its successor.

(8) Support and coordinate local efforts to promote volunteer activities throughout the state.

(9) Participate with other states or subdivisions thereof in interstate programs and assist cities, counties, municipal corporations, governmental conferences or councils, and regional planning commissions to participate with other states or their subdivisions.

(10) Hold public hearings and meetings to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

(11) Provide a comprehensive state-level focus for state fire protection services, funding, and policy.

(12) Administer a program to identify, evaluate, and protect properties which reflect outstanding elements of the state's cultural heritage.

(13) Coordinate a comprehensive state program for mitigating, preparing for, responding to, and recovering from emergencies and disasters.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 138. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 139. Sections 54 through 135 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 140. Sections 1 through 53 of this act shall take effect January 1, 1987.

*Sec. 140 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

Passed the House March 11, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 11, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986, with the exception of certain items which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to several sections, Substitute House Bill No. 1709, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to consolidation of agencies into the department of community development."

This bill would consolidate the Office of Archaeology and Historic Preservation, the Department of Emergency Management, and the Fire Protection Board into the Department of Community Development. The original bill was introduced at my request in order to consolidate programs that deal with local government officials. I also encouraged this bill in order to reduce the number of executive agencies and to achieve better efficiencies by centralized support services. However, a number of partial vetoes are necessary to perfect the measure.

Sections 46 and 47 of Substitute House Bill No. 1709 would amend the Sunset Act provisions affecting the Office of Archaeology and Historic Preservation. Since I intend to sign the portion of Substitute House Bill 1333 that will repeal the same statute, I have vetoed sections 46 and 47 of Substitute House Bill 1709 to avoid a double amendment situation.

I have also vetoed portions of section 55 that would have put several officials on the State Fire Protection Policy Board as nonvoting ex-officio members. These members included the Governor, the Commissioner of Public Lands, the Insurance Commissioner, the Chair of the Commission for Vocational Education and the Director of Fire Protection. The latter official will, in fact, serve as the primary staff person for the Board, so it is inappropriate that he/she serve as a voting member. I believe the other officials will monitor the Board's activities with appropriate staff. Also, having the officials on the Board as ex-officio members makes the Board unnecessarily large.

Finally, I have vetoed section 140 so that the transfer of the Office of Archaeology and Historic Preservation and the Department of Emergency Management to the Department of Community Development can take place in June 1986 rather than in January 1987. The departments indicate the change can be accomplished earlier and the delay is not necessary.

For these reasons, I have vetoed sections 46, 47, 55 in part, and 140. With the exception of these vetoes, Substitute House Bill No. 1709 has been approved."

CHAPTER 267

[Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 495]

COLVILLE INDIAN RESERVATION—RETROCESSION OF CRIMINAL JURISDICTION

AN ACT Relating to the health, safety, and welfare of the confederated tribes of the Colville reservation; authorizing retrocession of jurisdiction over Indian lands; and adding new sections to chapter 37.12 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Sections 1 through 6 of this act may be known and cited as the Colville Indian reservation criminal jurisdiction retrocession act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. It is the intent of the legislature to authorize a procedure for the retrocession, to the Colville Confederated Tribes of Washington and the United States, of criminal jurisdiction over Indians for acts occurring on tribal lands or allotted lands within the Colville Indian reservation and held in trust by the United States or subject to a restriction against alienation imposed by the United States.

Sections 1 through 6 of this act in no way expand the Colville tribe's criminal or civil jurisdiction, if any, over non-Indians or fee title property. Sections 1 through 6 of this act shall have no effect whatsoever on water rights, hunting and fishing rights, the established pattern of civil jurisdiction existing on the lands of the Colville Indian reservation, the established pattern of regulatory jurisdiction existing on the lands of the Colville Indian reservation, taxation, or any other matter not specifically included within the terms of sections 1 through 6 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the following definitions apply throughout sections 1 through 6 of this act:

(1) "Colville reservation," or "Colville Indian reservation," means all tribal lands or allotted lands lying within the Colville Indian reservation and held in trust by the United States or subject to a restriction against alienation imposed by the United States, but does not include those lands which lie north of the present reservation which were included in original reservation boundaries created in 1872 and which are referred to as the "diminished reservation."

(2) "Indian tribe," "tribe," or "Colville tribes" means the confederated tribes of the Colville reservation.

(3) "Tribal court" means the trial and appellate courts of the Colville tribes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Whenever the governor receives from the confederated tribes of the Colville reservation a resolution expressing their desire for the retrocession by the state of all or any measure of the criminal jurisdiction acquired by the state pursuant to section 5, chapter 36, Laws of 1963 over lands of the Colville Indian reservation, the governor may, within ninety days, issue a proclamation retroceding to the United States the criminal jurisdiction previously acquired by the state over such reservation. However, the state of Washington shall retain jurisdiction as provided in RCW 37.12.010. The proclamation of retrocession shall not become effective until it is accepted by an officer of the United States government in accordance with 25 U.S.C. Sec. 1323 (82 Stat. 78, 79) and in accordance with procedures established by the United States for acceptance of such retrocession of jurisdiction. The Colville tribes shall not exercise criminal or civil jurisdiction over non-Indians.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The confederated tribes of the Colville reservation may express their desire under section 4 of this act only by a resolution approved by a majority vote of the enrolled adult members of the tribes voting at the next general tribal election.

*Sec. 5 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. An action or proceeding which has been filed with any court or agency of the state or local government preceding the effective date of retrocession of jurisdiction under sections 1 through 6 of this act shall not abate by reason of the retrocession or determination of jurisdiction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 1 through 6 of this act are each added to chapter 37.12 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Passed the House March 11, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 10, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986, with the exception of certain items which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 5, Substitute House Bill No. 495, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to the health, safety, and welfare of the confederated tribes of the Colville reservation; authorizing retrocession of jurisdiction over Indian lands; and adding new sections to Chapter 37.12 RCW."

This bill authorizes a procedure for the state to retrocede (return) partial criminal jurisdiction to the United States over the Colville Indian reservation. The primary purpose of this bill is to make possible the Colville Tribe's application for federal funds for law enforcement functions. Currently, sixteen other tribal reservations in Washington State are already under a partial state jurisdiction similar to what this bill will allow. However, section 5 requires the Colville tribe to express their desire for retrocession by a majority vote of its enrolled adult members during the next general tribal election. Through their legitimate, elected governing body, the Colville Business Council, the tribal members have already expressed their official support for retrocession. The elected Boards of Commissioners from both Ferry and Okanogan Counties have also officially endorsed retrocession. The strong tribal and local expressions of support for retrocession make the tribal election vote called for in Section 5 unnecessary and I have vetoed this section.

With the exception of section 5, Substitute House Bill No. 495 is approved.

CHAPTER 268

[Substitute House Bill No. 588]

RETIREMENT CONTRIBUTION RATES MODIFIED—UNFUNDED LIABILITY REVISED—CONTRIBUTIONS REQUIRED ONLY IF SERVICE CREDIT EARNED

AN ACT Relating to setting retirement system contribution rates; amending RCW 41.26.450, 41.32.775, 41.40.330, 41.40.361, 41.40.370, and 41.40.650; and creating a new section.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 6, chapter 294, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 10, chapter 184, Laws of 1984 and RCW 41.26.450 are each amended to read as follows:

The required contribution rates to the retirement system for members, employers, and the state of Washington shall be established by the director from time to time as may be necessary upon the advice of the state actuary. The state actuary shall use the aggregate actuarial cost method to calculate contribution rates.

The member, the employer and the state shall each contribute the following shares of the cost of the retirement system:

Member	50%
Employer	30%
State	20%

Effective January 1, 1987, however, no member or employer contributions are required for any calendar month in which the member is not granted service credit.

Any adjustments in contribution rates required from time to time for future costs shall likewise be shared proportionally by the members, employers, and the state: PROVIDED, That the costs of amortizing the unfunded supplemental present value of the retirement system (~~(; in existence on)~~) for persons who established membership before September 30, 1977, shall be borne in full by the state.

Any increase in the contribution rate required as the result of a failure of the state or of an employer to make any contribution required by this section shall be borne in full by the state or by that employer not making the contribution.

The director shall notify all employers of any pending adjustment in the required contribution rate and such increase shall be announced at least thirty days prior to the effective date of the change.

Members' contributions required by this section shall be deducted from the members basic salary each payroll period. The members contribution and the employers contribution shall be remitted directly to the department within fifteen days following the end of the calendar month during which the payroll period ends.

~~((Until such time as the director shall establish other rates, members, employers of such members, and the state shall each contribute the following percentages of basic salary:~~

Member	8.14%
Employer	4.88%
State	3.28%

~~In addition, the state shall initially contribute an additional twenty percent of basic salary per member to amortize the unfunded supplemental present value of the retirement system in effect on September 30, 1977:))~~

Sec. 2. Section 6, chapter 293, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 11, chapter 184, Laws of 1984 and RCW 41.32.775 are each amended to read as follows:

The required contribution rates to the retirement system for both members and employers shall be established by the director from time to time as may be necessary upon the advice of the state actuary: PROVIDED, That the employer contribution shall be contributed as provided in RCW 41.32.401. The state actuary shall use the aggregate actuarial cost method to calculate contribution rates.

Contribution rates required to fund the costs of the retirement system shall always be equal for members and employers, except as herein provided. Effective January 1, 1987, however, no member or employer contributions are required for any calendar month in which the member is not granted service credit. Any adjustments in contribution rates required from time to time for future costs shall likewise be shared equally by the members and employers: PROVIDED, That the costs of amortizing the unfunded supplemental present value of the retirement system ~~((; in existence on))~~ for persons who established membership before September 30, 1977, shall be borne in full by the employers.

Any increase in the contribution rate required as the result of a failure of an employer to make any contribution required by this section shall be borne in full by the employer not making the contribution.

The director shall notify all employers of any pending adjustment in the required contribution rate and such increase shall be announced at least thirty days prior to the effective date of the change.

Members contributions required by this section shall be deducted from the members earnable compensation each payroll period. The members contribution shall be remitted directly to the department within fifteen days following the end of the calendar month during which the payroll period ends and the employers contribution shall be remitted as provided by law.

~~((Until such time as the director shall establish other rates, members and employers of such members shall each contribute 5.66% of earnable compensation. PROVIDED, That employers shall initially contribute an additional 5.80% of earnable compensation per member to amortize the unfunded supplemental present value of the retirement system in effect on September 30, 1977.))~~

Sec. 3. Section 34, chapter 274, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 12, chapter 190, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 41.40.330 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each employee who is a member of the retirement system shall contribute five percent of his total compensation earnable: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That a department of retirement systems expense fund contribution of two dollars and fifty cents per annum shall be transferred in semiannual payments of one dollar and twenty-five cents from each employee account balance in the employees' savings fund to the department of retirement systems expense fund ~~((account))~~, as set forth in this section. On and after July 1, 1973, each employee who is a member of the retirement system shall contribute six percent of his total compensation earnable. Effective January 1, 1987, however, no contributions are required for any calendar month in which the member is not granted service credit. The officer responsible for making up the payroll shall deduct from the compensation of each member, on each and every payroll of such member for each and every payroll period subsequent to the date on which he became a member of the retirement system the contribution as provided by this section.

(2) Any member may, pursuant to regulations formulated from time to time by the board, provide for himself, by means of an increased rate of contribution to his account in the employees' savings fund, an increased prospective retirement allowance pursuant to RCW 41.40.190 and 41.40.185.

(3) The officer responsible for making up the payroll shall deduct from the compensation of each member covered by the provisions of RCW 41.40.190(5) and 41.40.185(4) on each and every payroll of such member for each and every payroll period subsequent to the date on which he thereafter becomes a member of the retirement system, an amount equal to seven and one-half percent of such member's compensation earnable.

Sec. 4. Section 4, chapter 231, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 13, chapter 190, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 41.40.361 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For the purpose of this section, the "fundable employer liability" at any date shall be the present value of

(a) all future pension benefits payable in respect of all members in the retirement system at that date, and

(b) all future benefits in respect of beneficiaries then receiving retirement allowances or pensions.

(2) The contributions by the employer for benefits under the retirement system shall consist of the sum of a percentage of the compensation of members to be known as the "normal contribution", a percentage of such compensation to be known as the "unfunded liability contribution" and in the case of employers admitted to the retirement system after April 1, 1949, a percentage of such compensation to be known as the "additional contribution". The rates of such contributions shall be determined by the retirement board on the basis of assets and liabilities as shown by actuarial valuation: PROVIDED, That as to state employers effective July 1, 1973 the total combined contributions of the normal contribution and unfunded liability contribution shall not exceed a total combined percentage rate of seven percent for each employer unless authorized by the legislature.

(3) After the completion of each actuarial valuation subsequent to the first actuarial valuation of June 30, 1953, the retirement board shall determine the normal contribution rate and such contribution rate shall become effective in the ensuing biennium. In addition the board shall determine the additional employer contribution rate necessary to fund the benefits granted officials holding office pursuant to Articles II and III of the Constitution of the state of Washington and RCW 48.02.010. Said additional employer contribution rate shall be paid in the same manner as the normal contribution and the unfunded liability contribution. Until the unfunded liability contribution shall have been discontinued, such normal contribution rate shall be computed to be sufficient, when applied to the present value of the future compensation of the average new member entering the system, to provide for the payment of all prospective pension benefits in respect of such member. After the unfunded liability contributions have been discontinued, such normal contribution rate shall be determined as the uniform and constant percentage of the prospective compensation of all members of the retirement system at the date of such valuation which is equivalent to the excess of the fundable employer liability over the amount of funds currently standing to the credit of the benefit account fund.

(4) After the completion of each actuarial valuation subsequent to the first actuarial valuation of June 30, 1953, the retirement board shall determine the unfunded liability contribution, and such rate shall become effective in the ensuing biennium. The unfunded liability contribution rate shall ~~((not be less than the uniform and constant percentage of the prospective compensation of all members of the retirement system for the forty-year period following the date of such valuation which is equivalent to the unfunded liability))~~ be set at a percentage sufficient to provide for the amortization of unfunded retirement system liabilities over a period of not more than forty years from June 30, 1985. The unfunded liability shall be determined at such date as the excess of the fundable employer liability over the sum of the present value of the future normal contributions payable in respect of all members in the retirement system at that date, and the amount of all funds currently standing to the credit of the benefit account fund. The unfunded liability contributions shall continue until there remains no unfunded liability.

(5) Any employer admitted to the retirement system after April 1, 1949, shall make an additional contribution until such time as the sum of such additional contributions equals the amount of contributions which such employer and employee would have been required to contribute between April 1, 1949, and the date of such employer's admission to the retirement system: PROVIDED, That either the employee or employer may make the contributions the employee would have made during the same period of time: PROVIDED FURTHER, That all additional contributions hereunder and under the provisions of RCW 41.40.160(2) must be completed within fifteen years from the date of the employer's admission. Employee contributions for these periods must be made before the member will receive credit for those periods of service, pursuant to such regulations as the retirement board may adopt.

(6) For the biennium beginning July 1, 1971, and ending June 30, 1973, only, and notwithstanding any other provision of the chapter, the rate determined by the board for state employer contributions shall be only the percentage of compensation for members equal to the "normal contribution" computed to be four and thirty-six one-hundredths percent of compensation.

(1) The director shall ascertain and report to each employer the contribution rates necessary to meet present and future pension liabilities of the system for the ensuing biennium or fiscal year, whichever is applicable. The amount to be so provided shall be computed by applying the rates of contribution as established by RCW 41.40.361 or 41.40.650 to an estimate of the total compensation earnable of all the said employer's members during the period for which provision is to be made.

(2) Beginning April 1, 1949, or October 1, 1977, as the case may be, the amount to be collected as the employer's contribution shall be computed by applying the applicable rates established by RCW 41.40.361 or 41.40.650 to the total compensation earnable of employer's members as shown on the current payrolls of the said employer. Each said employer shall compute at the end of each month the amount due for that month and the same shall be paid as are its other obligations. Effective January 1, 1987, however, no contributions are required for any calendar month in which the member is not granted service credit.

(3) In the event of failure, for any reason, of an employer other than a political subdivision of the state to have remitted amounts due for membership service of any of the employer's members rendered during a prior biennium, the director shall bill such employer for such employer's contribution together with such charges as the director deems appropriate in accordance with RCW 41.50.120. Such billing shall be paid by the employer as, and the same shall be, a proper charge against any moneys available or appropriated to such employer for payment of current biennial payrolls.

Sec. 6. Section 6, chapter 295, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 12, chapter 184, Laws of 1984 and RCW 41.40.650 are each amended to read as follows:

The required contribution rates to the retirement system for both members and employers shall be established by the director from time to time as may be necessary upon the advice of the state actuary. The state actuary shall use the aggregate actuarial cost method to calculate contribution rates.

Contribution rates required to fund the costs of the retirement system shall always be equal for members and employers, except as herein provided. Effective January 1, 1987, however, no member or employer contributions are required for any calendar month in which the member is not granted service credit. Any adjustments in contribution rates required from time to time for future costs shall likewise be shared equally by the members and employers: PROVIDED, That the costs of amortizing the unfunded supplemental present value of the retirement system(~~(-in existence on))~~) for persons who established membership before September 30, 1977, shall be borne in full by the employers.

Any increase in the contribution rate required as the result of a failure of an employer to make any contribution required by this section shall be borne in full by the employer not making the contribution.

The director shall notify all employers of any pending adjustment in the required contribution rate and such increase shall be announced at least thirty days prior to the effective date of the change.

Members contributions required by this section shall be deducted from the members compensation earnable each payroll period. The members contribution and the employers contribution shall be remitted directly to the department within fifteen days following the end of the calendar month during which the payroll period ends.

~~((Until such time as the director shall establish other rates, members and employers of such members shall each contribute 5.51% of compensation earnable: PROVIDED, That employers shall initially contribute an additional one and one-half percent of compensation earnable per member to amortize the unfunded supplemental present value of the retirement system in effect on September 30, 1977:))~~

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Until June 1, 1987, the director is authorized to retroactively suspend any administrative action initiated on or after January 1, 1986, to recover pension overpayments from retirees who have returned to covered employment.

*Sec. 7 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

Passed the House March 9, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 7, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986, with the exception of certain items which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 7, Substitute House Bill No. 588, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to setting retirement system contribution rates."

Section 7 suspends the reclamation of pension benefits paid to a retiree who is still employed by the state. This section is nearly, but not exactly, identical to section 8 of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill 3182. To avoid confusion in the law, I have vetoed section 7 of this bill.

With the exception of section 7, Substitute House Bill No. 588 is approved."

CHAPTER 269

[Substitute House Bill No. 1134]

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL AND HEALTH SERVICES TO SCREEN POTENTIAL EMPLOYEES WHO WILL BE WORKING WITH CHILDREN OR DEVELOPMENTALLY DISABLED PERSONS—INSTITUTIONAL CARE EMPLOYEE REIMBURSEMENT FOR COSTS RELATED TO ASSAULT BY RESIDENTS

AN ACT Relating to the department of social and health services; amending RCW 26-44.070; adding a new section to chapter 43.20A RCW; adding a new section to chapter 41.06 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 72.01 RCW; and repealing RCW 43.20A.700.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 43.20A RCW to read as follows:

The secretary shall investigate the conviction records or pending charges of persons being considered for state employment in positions directly responsible for the supervision, care, or treatment of children or developmentally disabled persons. The investigation may include an examination of state and national criminal identification data and the child abuse and neglect register established under chapter 26.44 RCW. The secretary shall use the information solely for the purpose of determining the character, suitability, and competence of these applicants. Criminal justice agencies shall provide the secretary such information as they may have and that the secretary may require for such purpose. If necessary, persons may be employed on a conditional basis pending completion of the background investigation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 41.06 RCW to read as follows:

The state personnel board shall adopt rules, in cooperation with the secretary of social and health services, for the background investigation of persons being considered for state employment in positions directly responsible for the supervision, care, or treatment of children or developmentally disabled persons.

Sec. 3. Section 6, chapter 35, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 6, chapter 97, Laws of 1984 and RCW 26.44.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall maintain a central registry of reported cases of child abuse or abuse of an adult dependent person and shall adopt such rules and regulations as necessary in carrying out the provisions of this section. Records in the central registry shall be considered confidential and privileged and will not be available except upon court order to any person or agency except (1) law enforcement agencies as defined in this chapter in the course of an investigation of alleged abuse or neglect; (2) protective services workers or juvenile court personnel who are investigating reported incidents of abuse or neglect; (3) department of social and health services personnel who are investigating the character and/or suitability of an agency and other persons who are applicants for licensure, registration, or certification, or applicants for employment with such an agency or persons, or under contract to or employed by an agency or persons directly responsible for the care and treatment of children, expectant mothers, or adult dependent persons pursuant to chapter 74.15 RCW; (4) department of social and health services personnel who are investigating the character, suitability, and competence of persons being considered for employment with the department in positions directly responsible for the supervision, care, or treatment of children or developmentally disabled persons pursuant to chapters 43.20A and 41.06 RCW; (5) department of social and health services personnel who are investigating the character or suitability of any persons with whom children may be placed under the interstate compact on the placement of children, chapter 26.34 RCW; ~~((5))~~ (6) physicians who are treating the child or adult dependent person or family; ~~((6))~~ (7) any child or adult dependent person named in the registry who is alleged to be abused or neglected, or his or her guardian ad litem and/or attorney; ~~((7))~~ (8) a parent, guardian, or other person legally responsible for the welfare and safety of the child or adult dependent person named in the registry; ~~((8))~~ (9) any person engaged in a bona fide research purpose, as determined by the department, according to rules and regulations, provided that information identifying the persons of the registry shall remain privileged; and ~~((9))~~ (10) any individual whose name appears on the registry shall have access to his own records. Those persons or agencies exempted by this section from the confidentiality of the records of the registry shall not further disseminate or release such information so provided to them and shall respect the confidentiality of such information, and any violation of this section shall constitute a misdemeanor.

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 72.01 RCW to read as follows:

(1) For purposes of this section only, "assault" means an unauthorized touching of an employee by a resident, patient, or juvenile offender resulting in physical injury to the employee.

(2) In recognition of the hazardous nature of employment in state institutions, the legislature hereby provides a supplementary program to reimburse institutional care employees of the department of social and health services for some of their costs attributable to their being the victims of assault by residents, patients, or juvenile offenders. This program shall be limited to the reimbursement provided in this section.

(3) An employee is only entitled to receive the reimbursement provided in this section if the secretary of social and health services, or the secretary's designee, finds that each of the following has occurred:

(a) A resident or patient has assaulted the employee and as a result thereof the employee has sustained demonstrated physical injuries which have required the employee to miss days of work;

(b) The assault cannot be attributable to any extent to the employee's negligence, misconduct, or failure to comply with any rules or conditions of employment; and

(c) The department of labor and industries has approved the employee's workers' compensation application pursuant to chapter 51.32 RCW.

(4) The reimbursement authorized under this section shall be as follows:

(a) The employee's accumulated sick leave days shall not be reduced for the workdays missed;

(b) For each workday missed for which the employee is not eligible to receive compensation under chapter 51.32 RCW, the employee shall receive full pay; and

(c) In respect to workdays missed for which the employee will receive or has received compensation under chapter 51.32 RCW, the employee shall be reimbursed in an amount which, when added to that compensation, will result in the employee receiving full pay for the workdays missed.

(5) Reimbursement under this section may not last longer than three hundred sixty-five consecutive days after the date of the injury.

(6) The employee shall not be entitled to the reimbursement provided in subsection (4) of this section for any workday for which the secretary or secretary's designee, finds that the employee has not diligently pursued his or her compensation remedies under chapter 51.32 RCW.

(7) The reimbursement shall only be made for absences which the secretary or secretary's designee, believes are justified.

(8) While the employee is receiving reimbursement under this section, he or she shall continue to be classified as a state employee and the reimbursement amount shall be considered as salary or wages.

(9) While the employee is receiving reimbursement under this section, the employee shall continue to receive service credit under chapter 41.32 or 41.40 RCW, whichever is appropriate, and the respective employee and employer contributions to the retirement system shall also continue to be made, under the appropriate chapter, on the regular compensation the employee would have received had not the disability occurred.

(10) All reimbursement payments required to be made to employees under this section shall be made by the department of social and health services. The payments shall be considered as a salary or wage expense and shall be paid by the department in the same manner and from the same appropriations as other salary and wage expenses of the department.

(11) Should the legislature revoke the reimbursement authorized under this section or repeal this section, no affected employee is entitled thereafter to receive the reimbursement as a matter of contractual right.

*Sec. 4 was partially vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Section 5, chapter 151, Laws of 1981 and RCW 43.20A.700 are each repealed.

Passed the House March 12, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 12, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986, with the exception of certain items which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 4(9), Substitute House Bill No. 1134, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to the Department of Social and Health Services."

Section 4(9) of this bill would permit Department of Social and Health Services employees injured by assault to receive retirement credit for their period of disability. Similar provisions are also contained in section 2 of Engrossed House Bill No. 1652. To avoid conflict between the two provisions, I have vetoed section 4(9).

With the exception of section 4(9), Substitute House Bill No. 1134 is approved."

- (17) Section 9, chapter 295, Laws of 1981 and RCW 43.21F.900.

*Sec. 10 was partially vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the House March 8, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 6, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986, with the exception of certain items which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to sections 10(1) and (2) of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1333, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to the deferring or deleting of the proposed termination and repeal of agencies and programs."

Sections 10(1) and (2) would repeal the requirement that the Cemetery Board be subject to sunset review by the Legislature in 1987.

The Cemetery Board is an anomaly with respect to its organizational placement in state government. It is an independent state agency, whereas nearly every other business and occupational regulatory board is placed within a larger agency for administrative purposes. It is also a very small agency, with only one full-time employee.

I recently proposed to the Legislature that the Cemetery Board and two other similar boards be transferred to the Department of Licensing for administrative support. This consolidation proposal would have aligned the Cemetery Board with related regulatory programs such as pre-need sales, real estate, securities, and embalmers and funeral directors. In addition, the Cemetery Board could have taken advantage of the administrative support services offered by full-time personnel in the Department of Licensing.

The sunset review process will afford an excellent opportunity to review the organizational placement of the Cemetery Board. I, therefore, do not believe that this opportunity to systematically review the operations and organizational placement of the Board should be repealed.

With the exception of sections 10(1) and (2), Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1333 is approved."

CHAPTER 271

[Substitute House Bill No. 1458]

PUBLIC WATER SUPPLY SYSTEMS—PENALTY AND COMPLIANCE PROVISIONS

AN ACT Relating to local boards of health and the department of social and health services enforcing laws relating to public water supply systems; adding a new section to chapter 34.12 RCW; adding a new chapter to Title 70 RCW; and prescribing penalties.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The purpose of this chapter is to authorize local boards of health and the department of social and health services to impose civil penalties for specified acts or omissions or for disobeying an order to comply with regulations relating to public water supply systems. Conformance with laws and regulations to preserve and protect the purity of drinking water in our public water systems is of utmost importance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the following definitions apply throughout this chapter:

- (1) "Department" means the department of social and health services.
- (2) "Local board of health" has the meaning in RCW 70.05.010.
- (3) "Public water supply system" has the meaning in RCW 70.119.020.
- (4) "Order" means a written direction to comply with a provision of the regulations or to take an action or a series of actions to comply with the regulations, allowing a reasonable time to comply without penalty and shall consider the ability of the public water supply system to prevent or correct the violation.

(5) "Regulations" means the provisions of chapter 248-54 WAC, as it may be amended, or any regulations that supersede chapter 248-54 WAC and are adopted under the authority of RCW 43.20.050(2)(a).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) As limited by section 4 of this act, the department may impose penalties for violations of laws or regulations that are determined by the health officer to be an imminent or actual public health emergency.

(2) As limited by section 4 of this act, the department may impose penalties for failure to comply with an order of the department, or of an authorized local board of health, when the order:

(a) Directs any person to stop work on the construction or alteration of a public water supply system when plans and specifications for the construction or alteration have not been approved as required by the regulations, or when the work is not being done in conformity with approved plans and specifications;

(b) Requires any person to eliminate a cross-connection to a public water supply system by a specified time; or

(c) Directs the owner or operator of a public water supply system to cease violating any other regulation relating to public water supply systems, or to take specific actions within a specified time to place a public water supply system in compliance with any other regulations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) In addition to or as an alternative to any other penalty provided by law, every person who commits any of the acts or omissions in section 3 of this act shall be subjected to a penalty in an amount of not more than five thousand dollars per day for every such violation. Every such violation shall be a separate and distinct offense. The amount of fine shall reflect the health significance of the violation and the previous record of compliance on the part of the public water supplier. In case of continuing violation, every day's continuance shall be a separate and distinct violation. Every person who, through an act of commission or omission, procures, aids, or abets in the violation shall be considered to have violated the provisions of this section and shall be subject to the penalty provided in this section.

(2) The penalty provided for in this section shall be imposed by a notice in writing, either by certified mail with return receipt requested or by personal service, to the person incurring the same from the department, describing the violation with reasonable particularity. Within fifteen days after the notice is received, the person incurring the penalty may apply in writing to the department for the remission or mitigation of such penalty. Upon receipt of the application, the department may remit or mitigate the penalty upon whatever terms the department in its discretion deems proper, giving consideration to the degree of hazard associated with the violation, provided the department deems such remission or mitigation to be in the best interests of carrying out the purposes of this chapter. The department shall have authority to ascertain the facts regarding all such applications in such reasonable manner and under such rules as it may deem proper. Any penalty imposed by this section shall be subject to review by the office of administrative hearings in accordance with chapter 34.12 RCW.

(3) Any penalty imposed by this section shall become due and payable thirty days after receipt of a notice imposing the same unless application for remission or mitigation is made or petition for review is filed directly to the office of administrative hearings within thirty days of the imposition of the penalty. When such an application for remission or mitigation is made, any penalty incurred pursuant to this section shall become due and payable thirty days after receipt of notice setting forth the disposition of such application. Any penalty resulting from a decision of the office of administrative hearings shall become due and payable thirty days after receipt of the notice setting forth the decision.

(4) If the amount of any penalty is not paid within thirty days after it becomes due and payable, the attorney general, upon the request of the secretary of the department, shall bring an action in the name of the state of Washington in the superior court of Thurston county, or of any county in which such violator may do business, to recover such penalty. In all such actions, the procedure and rules of evidence shall be the same as an ordinary civil action except as otherwise in this chapter provided.

(5) All penalties imposed under this section shall be payable to the state treasury and credited to the general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Each local board of health that is enforcing the regulations under an agreement with the department allocating state and local responsibility is authorized to impose civil penalties for violations within the area of its responsibility under the same limitations and requirements as imposed upon the department in sections 3 and 4 of this act, except that the penalties shall be placed into the general fund of the county, city, or town operating the local board of health, and the prosecuting attorney, or city, or town attorney shall bring the actions to collect the unpaid penalties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 34.12 RCW to read as follows:

Appeals from penalties imposed by the department of social and health services or a local board of health under chapter 70.-- RCW (sections 1 through 5 of this act) shall be made directly to the office of administrative appeals within thirty days of the imposition of the penalty. Decisions by an administrative law judge shall be directly appealable to the Thurston county superior court or the superior court of the county in which the public water supply system is located. Such appeals must be filed within thirty days of the decision by the administrative law judge.

The costs incurred by the office of administrative hearings in hearing such appeals and rendering such opinions shall be paid by the department of social and health services for appeals from penalties imposed by the department, and by the local board of health for appeals from penalties imposed by the local board of health.

*Sec. 6 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 1 through 5 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW.

Passed the House January 28, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 6, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986, with the exception of certain items which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 6, Substitute House Bill No. 1458, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to local boards of health and the department of social and health services enforcing laws relating to public water supply systems."

Section 6 of this bill would significantly expand the authority of administrative law judges, turning them into a new arm of the judiciary. These judges now have the authority to issue a proposed decision. This section would give them authority to make a final decision which could be appealed only to the courts.

This new authority is not necessary or justified. Section 6 would also create a new appeals process outside the provisions of the state's Administrative Procedure Act. The Administrative Procedure Act has made agency actions more uniform and this uniformity is more understandable to the state's citizens. For these reasons, I have vetoed section 6.

With the exception of section 6, Substitute House Bill No. 1458 is approved.*

CHAPTER 272

[House Bill No. 1647]

PUBLIC DISCLOSURE COMMISSION—SUNSET PROVISIONS MODIFIED

AN ACT Relating to the sunset termination and repeal of the public disclosure commission, of the powers and duties of the commission, and of the programs administered or enforced by the commission; amending RCW 43.131.269 and 43.131.270; and reenacting and amending RCW 42.17.240.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 8, chapter 197, Laws of 1983 and RCW 43.131.269 are each amended to read as follows:

The public disclosure commission and its powers and duties shall be terminated on June 30, (~~(+1986)~~) 1992, as provided in RCW 43.131.270.

Sec. 2. Section 34, chapter 197, Laws of 1983 and RCW 43.131.270 are each amended to read as follows:

The following acts or parts of acts, as now existing or hereafter amended, are each repealed, effective June 30, (~~(+1987)~~) 1993:

Sec. 3. Section 9, chapter 10, Laws of 1982 as last amended by section 1, chapter 34, Laws of 1984 and by section 14, chapter 125, Laws of 1984 and RCW 42.17.240 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

(1) Every elected official and every executive state officer shall after January 1st and before April 15th of each year file with the commission a statement of financial affairs for the preceding calendar year. However, any local elected official whose term of office expires immediately after December 31st shall file the statement required to be filed by this section for the year that ended on that December 31st.

(2) Every candidate shall within two weeks of becoming a candidate file with the commission a statement of financial affairs for the preceding twelve months.

(3) Every person appointed to a vacancy in an elective office or executive state officer position shall within two weeks of being so appointed file with the commission a statement of financial affairs for the preceding twelve months.

(4) A statement of a candidate or appointee filed during the period from January 1st to April 15th shall cover the period from January 1st of the preceding calendar year to the time of candidacy or appointment if the filing of the statement would relieve the individual of a prior obligation to file a statement covering the entire preceding calendar year.

(5) No individual may be required to file more than once in any calendar year.

(6) Each statement of financial affairs filed under this section shall be sworn as to its truth and accuracy.

(7) For the purposes of this section, the term "executive state officer" includes those listed in RCW 43.17.020 and those listed in RCW 42.17.2401.

(8) This section does not apply to incumbents or candidates for a federal office or the office of precinct committeeman.

(9) "Executive state officers" as defined in RCW 42.17.2401 are prohibited from filing as a registered lobbyist for any entity other than to fulfill their responsibilities as an executive state officer.

*Sec. 3 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

Passed the House March 10, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 7, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986, with the exception of certain items which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to one section, House Bill No. 1647, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to the sunset termination and repeal of the public disclosure commission, of the powers and duties of the commission, and of its programs administered or enforced by the commission."

Section 3 of this bill would have restricted registered lobbyists from serving as executive state officers as that term is defined by RCW 42.17.2401 in the Public Disclosure Act. I do not believe that there has been a demonstrated need for this legislation or that the far-reaching effects have been recognized. Leaving this provision in the legislation would exclude persons who are appointed to any of the many boards or commissions of this state. Most of these positions are part-time and only minimally compensated by expense reimbursement. In this regard, section 3 would unfairly restrict the activities of those who serve on the state's boards of regents, boards of trustees and the numerous other boards and commissions.

With the exception of section 3, House Bill No. 1647 is approved."

STATE BOARD OF HEALTH—SUNSET PROVISIONS REPEALED

AN ACT Relating to the state board of health; creating a new section; and repealing RCW 43.131.213 and 43.131.214.

[Be it enacted by Legislature of the State of Washington:]

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The office of financial management, in cooperation with the state board of health, the social and health services committee of the house of representatives, and the human services and corrections committee of the senate, shall study the desirability and feasibility of consolidating into a single state agency existing public health and environmental health services presently administered by the departments of social and health services, ecology, agriculture, labor and industries, and fisheries.

The office of financial management shall report to the appropriate committees of the legislature no later than December 1, 1986, on the results of the study. The report shall include: Recommendations on consolidation; any necessary legislation to implement the consolidation; and other options considered, but not adopted and the reason for rejection.

*Sec. 1 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 33, chapter 99, Laws of 1979, section 16, chapter 235, Laws of 1983, section 29, chapter 213, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.131.213; and

(2) Section 75, chapter 99, Laws of 1979, section 17, chapter 235, Laws of 1983, section 30, chapter 213, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.131.214.

Passed the Senate March 6, 1986.

Passed the House March 6, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986, with the exception of certain items which were vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 1, Senate Bill No. 4506, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to the state board of health."

Section 1 of this bill would require the Office of Financial Management to conduct a study of the feasibility of consolidating public health and environmental health functions into a single state agency. An extensive study of this issue has already been completed, conducted by a joint committee of the Legislature. Another study of this same topic is unnecessary and would be duplicative. I have, however, directed my Executive Cabinet to review these programs and to develop a plan for a more efficient and effective alignment of public health and environmental health services.

For this reason, I have vetoed this section. With the exception of section 1, Senate Bill No. 4506 is approved."

CHAPTER 274

[Substitute Senate Bill No. 4596]

MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES FOR CHILDREN

AN ACT Relating to community mental health services; amending RCW 71.24.015, 71.24.025, 71.24.035, 71.24.045, and 71.24.155; adding new sections to chapter 71.24 RCW; creating a new section; and providing an effective date.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 204, Laws of 1982 and RCW 71.24.015 are each amended to read as follows:

It is the intent of the legislature to establish a community mental health program which provides for:

(1) Access to mental health services for ((residents)) adults and children of the state who are acutely mentally ill, seriously disturbed, or chronically mentally ill, which services recognize the special needs of underserved populations, including minorities, children, the elderly, disabled, and low-income persons. It is also the purpose of this chapter to ensure that children in need of mental health care and treatment receive the care and treatment appropriate to their developmental level, and to enable treatment decisions to be made in response to clinical needs and in accordance with sound professional judgment while also recognizing parents' rights to participate in treatment decisions for their children;

(2) Accountability of services through state-wide standards for management, monitoring, and reporting of information;

(3) Minimum service delivery standards;

(4) Priorities for the use of available resources for the care of the mentally ill; ~~((and))~~

(5) Coordination of services within the department, including those divisions within the department that provide services to children, between the department and the office of the superintendent of public instruction, and among state mental hospitals, county authorities, community mental health services, and other support services, which may also include the families of the mentally ill, and other service providers; and

(6) Coordination of services aimed at reducing duplication in service delivery and promoting complementary services among all entities that provide mental health services to adults and children.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 204, Laws of 1982 and RCW 71.24.025 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Acutely mentally ill" means a condition which is limited to a short-term severe crisis episode of:

(a) A mental disorder as defined in RCW 71.05.020(2) or, in the case of a child, as defined in RCW 71.34.020(12);

(b) Being gravely disabled as defined in RCW 71.05.020(1) or, in the case of a child, as defined in RCW 71.34.020(8); or

(c) Presenting a likelihood of serious harm as defined in RCW 71.05.020(3) or, in the case of a child, as defined in RCW 71.34.020(11).

(2) "Available resources" means those funds which shall be appropriated under this chapter by the legislature during any biennium for the purpose of providing community mental health programs under RCW 71.24.045.

(3) "Licensed service provider" means an entity licensed by the department according to state minimum standards or individuals licensed under chapter 18.71, 18.83, or 18.88 RCW.

(4) "Child" means a person under the age of eighteen years.

(5) "Chronically mentally ill person" means a ((person)) child or adult who has a mental disorder, in the case of a child as defined by chapter 71.34 RCW, and meets at least one of the following criteria:

(a) Has undergone two or more episodes of hospital care for a mental disorder within the preceding two years or, in the case of a child, has been placed by the department or its designee two or more times outside of the home, where the placements are related to a mental disorder, as defined in chapter 71.34 RCW, and where the placements progress toward a more restrictive setting. Placements by the department include but are not limited to placements by child protective services and child welfare services;

(b) Has experienced a continuous psychiatric hospitalization or residential treatment exceeding six months' duration within the preceding year;
 ((or))

(c) Has been unable to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any mental disorder which has lasted for a continuous period of not less than twelve months. "Substantial gainful activity" shall be defined by the department by rule consistent with Public Law 92-603, as amended, and shall include school attendance in the case of a child; or

(d) In the case of a child, has been subjected to continual distress as indicated by repeated physical or sexual abuse or neglect.

~~((5))~~ (6) "Community mental health program" means all mental health services established by a county authority.

~~((6))~~ (7) "County authority" means the board of county commissioners, county council, or county executive having authority to establish a community mental health program, or two or more of the county authorities specified in this subsection which have entered into an agreement to provide a community mental health program.

~~((7))~~ (8) "Department" means the department of social and health services.

~~((8))~~ (9) "Mental health services" means ~~community services pursuant to RCW ((71.24.035(4)(b)))~~ 71.24.035(5)(b) and other services provided by the state for the mentally ill.

~~((9))~~ (10) "Mentally ill persons" and "the mentally ill" mean persons and conditions defined in subsections (1), ~~((4))~~ (5), and ~~((11))~~ (12) of this section.

~~((10))~~ (11) "Residential services" means a facility or distinct part thereof which provides food, clothing, and shelter, and may include day treatment services as defined in RCW 71.24.045, for acutely mentally ill, chronically mentally ill, or seriously disturbed persons as defined in this section. Such facilities include, but are not limited to, congregate care facilities providing mental health client services as stipulated by contract with the department beginning January 1, 1982.

~~((11))~~ (12) "Seriously disturbed person" means a person who:

(a) Is gravely disabled or presents a likelihood of serious harm to himself or others as a result of a mental disorder as defined in chapter 71.05 RCW;

(b) Has been on conditional release status at some time during the preceding two years from an evaluation and treatment facility or a state mental health hospital;

(c) Has a mental disorder which causes major impairment in several areas of daily living;

(d) Exhibits suicidal preoccupation or attempts; or

(e) Is a ~~((minor))~~ child diagnosed by a mental health professional, as defined in RCW 71.05.020, as experiencing a mental disorder which is clearly interfering with the child's functioning in family or school or with peers or is clearly interfering with the child's personality development and learning.

~~((+2))~~ (13) "Secretary" means the secretary of social and health services.

~~((+3))~~ (14) "State minimum standards" means: (a) Minimum requirements for management and delivery of mental health services as established by departmental rules and necessary to implement this chapter, including but not limited to county administration, licensing service providers, information, accountability, contracts, and services; and (b) minimum service requirements for licensed service providers for the provision of mental health services as established by departmental rules pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW as necessary to implement this chapter, including, but not limited to: Qualifications for staff providing services directly to mentally ill persons; the intended result of each service for those priority groups identified in RCW ~~((71.24.035(4)(b)))~~ 71.24.035(5)(b); and the rights and responsibilities of persons receiving mental health services pursuant to this chapter.

Sec. 3. Section 4, chapter 204, Laws of 1982 and RCW 71.24.035 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department is designated as the state mental health authority.

(2) The secretary may provide for public, client, and licensed service provider participation in developing the state mental health program.

(3) The secretary shall provide for participation in developing the state mental health program for children by including children's representatives on any committee established to provide oversight to the state mental health program.

(4) The secretary shall be designated as the county authority if a county fails to meet state minimum standards or refuses to exercise responsibilities under RCW 71.24.045.

~~((+4))~~ (5) The secretary shall:

(a) Develop a biennial state mental health program that incorporates county biennial needs assessments and county mental health service plans and state services for ~~((the))~~ mentally ill adults and children. The secretary may also develop a six-year state mental health plan;

(b) Assure that any county community mental health program provides access to treatment for the county's residents in the following order of priority: (i) The acutely mentally ill; (ii) the chronically mentally ill; and (iii) the seriously disturbed. Such programs shall provide:

(A) Outpatient services;

(B) Emergency care services for twenty-four hours per day;

(C) Day treatment for mentally ill persons which includes training in basic living and social skills, supported work, vocational rehabilitation, and day activities. Such services may include therapeutic treatment. In the case of a child, day treatment includes age-appropriate basic living and social skills, educational and prevocational services, day activities, and therapeutic treatment;

(D) Screening for patients being considered for admission to state mental health facilities to determine the appropriateness of admission;

(E) Consultation and education services; and

(F) Community support services for acutely and chronically mentally ill persons which include: (I) Discharge planning for clients leaving state mental hospitals (~~and~~), other acute care inpatient facilities, inpatient psychiatric facilities for persons under twenty-one years of age, and other children's mental health residential treatment facilities; (II) sufficient contacts with clients, families, schools, or significant others to provide for an effective program of community maintenance; and (III) medication monitoring.

(c) Develop and promulgate rules establishing state minimum standards for the management and delivery of mental health services including, but not limited to:

(i) Licensed service providers;

(ii) County administration;

(iii) Information required to assure accountability of services delivered to the mentally ill; and

(iv) Residential and inpatient services, if a county chooses to provide such optional services;

(d) Assure coordination of services consistent with state minimum standards for individuals who are released from a state hospital into the community to assure a continuum of care;

(e) Assure that the special needs of minorities, (~~children~~), the elderly, disabled, and low-income persons are met within the priorities established in (~~RCW 71.24.035(4)(b)~~) subsection (5)(b) of this section;

(f) Establish a standard contract or contracts, consistent with state minimum standards, which shall be used by the counties;

(g) Establish, to the extent possible, a standardized auditing procedure which minimizes paperwork requirements of county authorities and licensed service providers;

(h) Develop and maintain an information system to be used by the state and counties which shall include a tracking method which allows the department to identify mental health clients' participation in any mental health service or public program. The information system shall not include individual patient's case history files. Confidentiality of client information and records shall be maintained as provided in RCW 71.05.390, 71.05.400, 71.05.410, 71.05.420, 71.05.430, and 71.05.440;

(i) License service providers who meet state minimum standards;

(j) Establish criteria to evaluate the performance of counties in administering mental health programs as established under this chapter. Evaluation of community mental health services shall include all categories of illnesses treated, all types of treatment given, the number of people treated, and costs related thereto; and

(k) Prior to September 1, 1982, adopt such rules as are necessary to implement this chapter pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW: PROVIDED, That such rules shall be submitted to the appropriate committees of the legislature for review and comment prior to adoption.

~~((5))~~ (6) The secretary shall use available resources appropriated specifically for community mental health programs only for programs under RCW 71.24.045.

~~((6))~~ (7) The department shall propose in its biennial budget document the formulas used to distribute available resources to county authorities for the priorities listed in subsection ~~((4)(b))~~ (5)(b) of this section. The formula shall be based on the needs assessment required by RCW 71.24.045(1).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 71.24 RCW to read as follows:

By November 1, 1986, the department shall identify: (1) The number of children in each priority group, as defined by this chapter, who are receiving mental health services funded in part or in whole under this chapter, (2) the total amount of funds under this chapter used for children's mental health services, (3) an estimate of the number of unserved children in each priority group, and (4) the estimated cost of serving these additional children and their families.

Sec. 5. Section 5, chapter 204, Laws of 1982 and RCW 71.24.045 are each amended to read as follows:

The county authority shall:

(1) Submit biennial needs assessments beginning January 1, 1983, and mental health service plans which incorporate all services provided for by the county authority consistent with state minimum standards and which provide access to treatment for the county's residents who are acutely mentally ill, chronically mentally ill, or seriously disturbed. The county program shall provide:

(a) Outpatient services;

(b) Emergency care services for twenty-four hours per day;

(c) Day treatment for mentally ill persons which includes training in basic living and social skills, supported work, vocational rehabilitation, and day activities. Such services may include therapeutic treatment. In the case of a child, day treatment includes age-appropriate basic living and social skills, educational and prevocational services, day activities, and therapeutic treatment;

(d) Screening for patients being considered for admission to state mental health facilities to determine appropriateness of admission;

(e) Consultation and education services;

(f) Residential and inpatient services, if the county chooses to provide such optional services; and

(g) Community support services for acutely and chronically mentally ill persons which include: (i) Discharge planning for clients leaving state mental hospitals ~~((and))~~, other acute care inpatient facilities, inpatient psychiatric facilities for persons under twenty-one years of age, and other children's mental health residential treatment facilities; (ii) sufficient contacts with clients, schools, families, or significant others to provide for an effective program of community maintenance; and (iii) medication monitoring.

The county shall develop the biennial needs assessment based on clients to be served, services to be provided, and the cost of those services, and may include input from the public, clients, and licensed service providers. Each county authority may appoint a county mental health advisory board which shall review and provide comments on plans and policies developed by the county authority under this chapter. The composition of the board shall be broadly representative of the demographic character of the county and the mentally ill persons served therein. Length of terms of board members shall be determined by the county authority;

(2) Contract as needed with licensed service providers. The county authority may, in the absence of a licensed service provider entity, become a licensed service provider entity pursuant to minimum standards required for licensing by the department for the purpose of providing services not available from licensed service providers;

(3) Operate as a licensed service provider if it deems that doing so is more efficient and cost effective than contracting for services. When doing so, the county authority shall comply with rules promulgated by the secretary that shall provide measurements to determine when a county provided service is more efficient and cost effective. Whenever a county authority chooses to operate as a licensed service provider, the secretary shall act as the county authority for that service.

(4) Monitor and perform biennial fiscal audits of licensed service providers who have contracted with the county to provide services required by this chapter. The monitoring and audits shall be performed by means of a formal process which insures that the licensed service providers and professionals designated in this subsection meet the terms of their contracts, including the minimum standards of management and service delivery as established by the department;

(5) Assure that the special needs of minorities, ~~((children,))~~ the elderly, disabled, and low-income persons are met within the priorities established in RCW ~~((71.24.035(4)(b)))~~ 71.24.035(5)(b);

(6) Maintain patient tracking information in a central location for the chronically mentally ill;

(7) Use not more than two percent of state-appropriated community mental health funds, which shall not include federal funds, to administer community mental health programs under RCW 71.24.155: PROVIDED, That county authorities serving a county or combination of counties whose population is equal to or greater than that of a county of the first class may be entitled to sufficient state-appropriated community mental health funds to employ up to one full-time employee or the equivalent thereof in addition to the two percent limit established in this subsection when such employee is providing staff services to a county mental health advisory board; ((and))

(8) Coordinate services for individuals who have received services through the community mental health system and who become patients at a state mental hospital.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 71.24 RCW to read as follows:

By January 1, 1987, and each odd-numbered year thereafter, the county authority shall identify: (1) The number of children in each priority group, as defined by this chapter, who are receiving mental health services funded in part or in whole under this chapter, (2) the amount of funds under this chapter used for children's mental health services, (3) an estimate of the number of unserved children in each priority group, and (4) the estimated cost of serving these additional children and their families.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 71.24 RCW to read as follows:

Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as prohibiting the secretary from consolidating within the department children's mental health services with other departmental services related to children.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The secretary of social and health services shall study the desirability and feasibility of consolidating children and family services presently provided by the department. The analysis of consolidation shall include, at a minimum, children's services related to: Mental illness; juvenile rehabilitation; maternal and child health; crippled children; women, infants, and children; alcohol and substance abuse; child welfare; children's protection; developmental disabilities; nutrition; and learning problems. The scope of this review shall include prevention and early intervention services, in-home care, residential care, and institutional care.

The secretary and the superintendent of public instruction shall examine ways to more closely link children and family services with the public school system.

The secretary shall report to the social and health services committee of the house of representatives and the human services and corrections committee of the senate no later than December 1, 1986. The report shall include an analysis of consolidating these services, ways to improve linkages with the public school system, and appropriate recommendations. It shall also include all options considered but not accepted and reasons for rejection, and the legislative and organizational changes necessary for the implementation of the recommendations.

*Sec. 8 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

Sec. 9. Section 9, chapter 204, Laws of 1982 and RCW 71.24.155 are each amended to read as follows:

Grants shall be made by the department to counties for community mental health programs totaling not less than ninety-five percent of available resources. The department may use up to forty percent of the remaining five percent to provide community demonstration projects, including early intervention or primary prevention programs for children, and the remainder shall be for emergency needs and technical assistance under this chapter. The department shall provide a biennial accounting of the use of these funds to the ways and means committees of the senate and the house of representatives.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 71.24 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall waive postgraduate educational requirements applicable to mental health professionals under this chapter for those persons who have a bachelor's degree and on the effective date of this act:

(1) Are employed by an agency subject to licensure under this chapter, the community mental health services act, in a capacity involving the treatment of mental illness; and

(2) Have at least ten years of full-time experience in the treatment of mental illness.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Sections 1, 2, 3, 5, and 9 of this act shall take effect on July 1, 1987.

Passed the Senate March 8, 1986.

Passed the House March 5, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986, with the exception of certain items which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 8, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4596, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to community health services."

Section 8 of this bill requires that the Department of Social and Health Services undertake a study of possible reorganization of the department. The Secretary of Social and Health Services has been actively evaluating agency reorganization for some time, and a great deal has already been accomplished in this effort. Also, the Secretary is available to the Legislature at any time to review the reorganization plans and receive feedback. Therefore, this study requirement is unnecessary and would be duplicative of the work already in progress. For this reason, I have vetoed section 8.

With the exception of section 8, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4596 is approved."

[Senate Bill No. 4712]

PUBLIC RECORDS—ORAL HISTORY PROGRAM

AN ACT Relating to public records; amending RCW 40.14.020; adding a new section to chapter 40.14 RCW; and making an appropriation.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 246, Laws of 1957 as last amended by section 1, chapter 84, Laws of 1983 and RCW 40.14.020 are each amended to read as follows:

All public records shall be and remain the property of the state of Washington. They shall be delivered by outgoing officials and employees to their successors and shall be preserved, stored, transferred, destroyed or disposed of, and otherwise managed, only in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. In order to insure the proper management and safeguarding of public records, the division of archives and records management is established in the office of the secretary of state, and, under the administration of the state archivist, who shall have reasonable access to all public records, wherever kept, for purposes of information, surveying, or cataloguing, shall undertake the following functions, duties, and responsibilities:

- (1) To manage the archives of the state of Washington;
- (2) To centralize the archives of the state of Washington, to make them available for reference and scholarship, and to insure their proper preservation;
- (3) To inspect, inventory, catalog, and arrange retention and transfer schedules on all record files of all state departments and other agencies of state government;
- (4) To insure the maintenance and security of all state public records and to establish safeguards against unauthorized removal or destruction;
- (5) To establish and operate such state record centers as may from time to time be authorized by appropriation, for the purpose of preserving, servicing, screening and protecting all state public records which must be preserved temporarily or permanently, but which need not be retained in office space and equipment;
- (6) To set standards by rule for the durability and permanence of records required by law or for other reasons to be filed and maintained permanently or for very long periods of time by state and local agencies;
- (7) To gather and disseminate to interested agencies information on all phases of records management and current practices, methods, procedures, techniques, and devices for efficient and economical management and preservation of records;
- (8) To operate a central microfilming bureau which will microfilm, at cost, records approved for filming by the head of the office of origin and the archivist; to approve microfilming projects undertaken by state departments and all other agencies of state government; and to maintain proper standards for this work;

(9) To maintain necessary facilities for the review of records approved for destruction and for their economical disposition by sale or burning; directly to supervise such destruction of public records as shall be authorized by the terms of this chapter;

(10) To conduct an oral history program to record and document the oral history of former members and staff of the Washington state legislature, former state government officials and personnel, and other citizens of interest through recording memoirs, processing and making transcripts of the tapes, and taking photographs. The tapes, transcripts, and photographs shall be indexed, shall be available for reference, and shall be properly preserved;

(11) To adopt rules under chapter 34.04 RCW to carry out the state archivist's duties under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 40.14 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The oral history advisory committee is created.

(2) The committee shall be composed of the following ex officio members: The secretary of state, the state archivist, the secretary of the senate or the secretary's designee, and the chief clerk of the house of representatives or the chief clerk's designee. The committee shall be composed of the following appointed members: Two members of the senate with one from each major political party appointed by the president of the senate, two members of the house of representatives with one from each major political party appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives, and two private citizens appointed by majority vote of the other members of the committee. The appointed members shall be appointed for two-year terms. Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as the appointments were made.

(3) Members of the committee shall serve without compensation. The nonlegislative members of the committee shall be reimbursed for travel expenses under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. The legislators who are members of the committee shall be reimbursed for travel expenses under RCW 44.04.120.

(4) The secretary of state is the chair of the committee.

(5) The committee shall meet at the call of the chair. A majority of the members constitute a quorum for the conduct of business.

(6) The committee shall provide advice to the state archivist on the operation of the oral history program under RCW 40.14.020.

*Sec. 2 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The sum of twenty-nine thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated from the general fund for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1987, to the secretary of state to carry out the oral history program under RCW 40.14.020.

Passed the Senate March 9, 1986.

Passed the House March 5, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986, with the exception of certain items which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 2, Senate Bill No. 4712, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to public records; amending RCW 40.14.020; adding a new section to Chapter 40.14 RCW; and making an appropriation."

This bill would establish a new program to record and document the experience of former state officials. In addition, a new statutory advisory committee would be created.

I have vetoed section 2 which creates a new statutory advisory committee. After reviewing this matter, I find that the purposes and functions of this bill can be fulfilled without creating, in statute, an additional advisory body.

With the exception of section 2, Senate Bill No. 4712 is approved."

CHAPTER 276

[Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1587]
PORT DISTRICTS—EXPORT TRADE

AN ACT Relating to port district sponsored trade expansion projects; amending RCW 42.17.310 and 42.30.110; providing an expiration date; and adding a new chapter to Title 53 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. It is declared to be the public policy of the state to promote and preserve the economic well-being of the citizens of this state by creating opportunities for expanded participation in international trade by state businesses and expanding international trade through state ports. Increased international trade of state products creates and retains jobs, increases the state's tax base, and diversifies the state's economy. Port districts, through economies of scale, are uniquely situated to promote and expand international trade and provide greater opportunities for state businesses to participate in international trade.

The legislature finds that significant public benefit, in the form of increased employment and tax revenues, can be realized through export trading companies without lending the credit of port districts, and without capital investment of public funds by port districts. The legislature finds that the use of port district funds to promote and establish export trading companies under this chapter constitutes trade promotion and industrial development within the meaning of Article VIII, section 8 of the state Constitution.

It is the purpose of this chapter: (1) To stimulate greater participation by private businesses in international trade; (2) to authorize port districts to promote and facilitate international trade more actively; (3) to make export services more widely available; (4) to generate revenue for port districts; and (5) to develop markets for Washington state goods and services. Port sponsored export trading companies can also assist small to medium-sized companies in achieving economies of scale in order to expand into the export market.

It is the intent of this chapter to enhance export trade and not to create outside competition for existing Washington state businesses. The primary intent of a port sponsored export trading company is to increase exports of Washington state products.

This chapter shall not be construed as modifying or restricting any other powers granted to port districts by law. The legislature does not intend by the enactment of this chapter for port districts to use export trading companies to create unfair competition with private business.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Port district" means any port district other than a county-wide port district in a class A or AA county, established under Title 53 RCW.

(2) "Export services" means the following services when provided in order to facilitate the export of goods or services through Washington ports: International market research, promotion, consulting, marketing, legal assistance, trade documentation, communication and processing of foreign orders to and for exporters and foreign purchasers, financing, and contracting or arranging for transportation, insurance, warehousing, foreign exchange, and freight forwarding.

(3) "Export trading company" means an entity created by a port district under section 4 of this act.

(4) "Obligations" means bonds, notes, securities, or other obligations or evidences of indebtedness.

(5) "Person" means any natural person, firm, partnership, association, private or public corporation, or governmental entity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) Public port districts, formed under chapter 53.04 RCW are authorized to establish export trading companies and a company so formed may contract with other public ports, financial institutions, freight forwarders, and public or private concerns within or outside the state to carry out the purposes of this chapter. A port district may participate financially in only one export trading company.

(2) A port district proposing to establish an export trading company shall adopt a business plan with safeguards and limitations to ensure that any private benefit to be realized from the use of funds of the export trading company are incidental to the purposes of this chapter. The business plan shall be adopted only after public hearing and shall be reviewed at least once every two years. Amendments to the plan shall be adopted only after public hearing. The business plan shall include:

(a) A description of export promotion activities to be conducted during the period of the plan;

(b) A proposed budget of operations which shall include an itemized list of estimated revenues and expenditures;

(c) A description of the safeguards and limitations which ensure that the export trading company will best be used to enhance international trade and produce public benefit in the form of employment, capital investment, and tax revenues;

(d) A description of private competitors which may be capable of providing the functions in the business plan; and

(e) Such other matters as may be determined by the port district.

(3) A port district, for the purpose of establishing or promoting an export trading company under this chapter, may provide financial assistance to the export trading company. A port district may not provide such assistance or services for more than five years or in an amount greater than five hundred thousand dollars.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) For the purpose of promoting international trade, export trading companies formed under this chapter may provide export services through:

(a) Holding and disposing of goods in international trade;

(b) Entering into contracts, joint ventures, brokerage or other agreements with any person for the distribution of goods in trade, or

(c) Taking title to goods.

All such activities engaged in or pursued by an export trading company shall be charged for in accordance with the customs of the trade at competitive market rates.

(2) Nothing contained in this chapter may be construed to authorize an export trading company to own or operate directly or indirectly any business which provides freight-forwarding, insurance, foreign exchange, or warehousing services. Nothing contained in this chapter may be construed to permit an export trading company to engage in the business of transporting commodities by motor vehicle, barge, ship, or rail for compensation.

(3) (a) Proceedings to form a public corporation designated as an export trading company shall be initiated by a resolution of the board of commissioners of a port district adopting a charter for the corporation. The charter shall contain such provisions as are authorized by law and include provisions for a board of directors which shall conduct the affairs of the export trading company. The board of directors shall include no fewer than three nor more than five members, all appointed by the port district board of commissioners. Commissioners of the port shall be eligible to serve as members of the board and shall constitute a majority of the board of directors at all times. Unless a later date is specified, the resolution shall take effect on the thirtieth day after adoption. The corporation shall be deemed formed for all purposes upon filing in the office of the secretary of state a certified copy of the effective resolution and the charter adopted by the resolution.

(b) In any suit, action, or proceeding involving the validity or enforcement of or relating to any contract of the corporation, the corporation is conclusively presumed to be established and authorized to transact business and exercise its powers under this chapter upon proof of the adoption of the resolution creating the corporation by the governing body. A copy of the resolution duly certified by the secretary of the port district commission shall be admissible in evidence in any suit, action, or proceeding.

(c) A corporation created by a port district pursuant to this chapter may be dissolved by the district if the corporation (i) has no property to administer, other than funds or property, if any, to be paid or transferred to the district by which it was established; and (ii) all its outstanding obligations have been satisfied. Such a dissolution shall be accomplished by the governing body of the port district adopting a resolution providing for the dissolution.

(d) The creating port district may, at its discretion and at any time, alter or change the structure, organizational programs, or activities of the corporation, including termination of the corporation if contracts entered into by the corporation are not impaired. Subject to any contractual obligations, any net earnings of the corporation shall inure only to the benefit of the creating port district. Upon dissolution of the corporation, all assets and title to all property owned by the corporation shall vest in the creating port district.

(4) A port district may contract with an export trading company to provide services on a reimbursement basis at current business rates to the export trading company, including but not limited to accounting, legal, clerical, technical, and other administrative services. Separate accounting records prepared according to generally accepted accounting principles shall be maintained by the export trading company.

(5) Any obligation of an export trading company shall not in any manner be an obligation of the port district nor a charge upon any revenues or property of the port district.

(6) An export trading company may borrow money or contract indebtedness and pledge, in whole or in part, any of its revenues or assets not subject to prior liens or pledges. An export trading company may not pledge any revenue or property of a port district or other municipal corporation and no port district or other municipal corporation may pledge its revenues or property to the payment thereof. An export trading company has no power to issue general obligation bonds, levy taxes, or exercise power of eminent domain.

(7) An export trading company shall not import any goods or products grown, produced, or mined outside the state of Washington without concurrence of the director of the department of agriculture or the director of the department of trade and economic development, or both, nor shall it import timber without concurrence of the Washington department of trade and economic development. Concurrence as required in this section shall not be unreasonably withheld. The departments shall, by rule, provide a means whereby such concurrence may be sought. An export trading company shall not import goods or products for in-state sale in competition with products grown, mined, or produced in Washington state. The Washington public ports association shall, upon request, report to the legislative committee on economic development established in chapter 44.52 RCW with details of the impact of export trading companies on the state's economy.

*Sec. 4 was partially vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. All financial and commercial information and records supplied by private persons to an export trading company with respect to export projects shall be kept confidential unless such confidentiality shall be waived by the party supplying the information or by all parties engaged in the discussion.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. An export trading company may apply for and hold a certificate of review provided for under 15 U.S.C. Secs. 4001 through 4021, the federal export trading company act of 1982.

Sec. 7. Section 31, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as last amended by section 8, chapter 414, Laws of 1985 and RCW 42.17.310 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The following are exempt from public inspection and copying:

(a) Personal information in any files maintained for students in public schools, patients or clients of public institutions or public health agencies, welfare recipients, prisoners, probationers, or parolees.

(b) Personal information in files maintained for employees, appointees, or elected officials of any public agency to the extent that disclosure would violate their right to privacy.

(c) Information required of any taxpayer in connection with the assessment or collection of any tax if the disclosure of the information to other persons would (i) be prohibited to such persons by RCW 82.32.330 or (ii) violate the taxpayer's right to privacy or result in unfair competitive disadvantage to the taxpayer.

(d) Specific intelligence information and specific investigative records compiled by investigative, law enforcement, and penology agencies, and state agencies vested with the responsibility to discipline members of any profession, the nondisclosure of which is essential to effective law enforcement or for the protection of any person's right to privacy.

(e) Information revealing the identity of persons who file complaints with investigative, law enforcement, or penology agencies, other than the public disclosure commission, if disclosure would endanger any person's life, physical safety, or property: PROVIDED, That if at the time the complaint is filed the complainant indicates a desire for disclosure or nondisclosure, such desire shall govern: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That all complaints filed with the public disclosure commission about any elected official or candidate for public office must be made in writing and signed by the complainant under oath.

(f) Test questions, scoring keys, and other examination data used to administer a license, employment, or academic examination.

(g) Except as provided by chapter 8.26 RCW, the contents of real estate appraisals, made for or by any agency relative to the acquisition or sale of property, until the project or prospective sale is abandoned or until such time as all of the property has been acquired or the property to which the sale appraisal relates is sold, but in no event shall disclosure be denied for more than three years after the appraisal.

(h) Valuable formulae, designs, drawings, and research data obtained by any agency within five years of the request for disclosure when disclosure would produce private gain and public loss.

(i) Preliminary drafts, notes, recommendations, and intra-agency memorandums in which opinions are expressed or policies formulated or recommended except that a specific record shall not be exempt when publicly cited by an agency in connection with any agency action.

(j) Records which are relevant to a controversy to which an agency is a party but which records would not be available to another party under the rules of pretrial discovery for causes pending in the superior courts.

(k) Records, maps, or other information identifying the location of archaeological sites in order to avoid the looting or depredation of such sites.

(l) Any library record, the primary purpose of which is to maintain control of library materials, or to gain access to information, which discloses or could be used to disclose the identity of a library user.

(m) Financial information supplied by or on behalf of a person, firm, or corporation for the purpose of qualifying to submit a bid or proposal for (a) a ferry system construction or repair contract as required by RCW 47.60.680 through 47.60.750 or (b) highway construction or improvement as required by RCW 47.28.070.

(n) Railroad company contracts filed with the utilities and transportation commission under RCW 81.34.070, except that the summaries of the contracts are open to public inspection and copying as otherwise provided by this chapter.

(o) Financial and commercial information and records supplied by private persons pertaining to export services provided pursuant to sections 1 through 6 of this 1986 act.

(2) Except for information described in subsection (1)(c)(i) of this section and confidential income data exempted from public inspection pursuant to RCW 84.40.020, the exemptions of this section are inapplicable to the extent that information, the disclosure of which would violate personal privacy or vital governmental interests, can be deleted from the specific records sought. No exemption may be construed to permit the nondisclosure of statistical information not descriptive of any readily identifiable person or persons.

(3) Inspection or copying of any specific records exempt under the provisions of this section may be permitted if the superior court in the county in which the record is maintained finds, after a hearing with notice thereof to every person in interest and the agency, that the exemption of such records is clearly unnecessary to protect any individual's right of privacy or any vital governmental function.

(4) Agency responses refusing, in whole or in part, inspection of any public record shall include a statement of the specific exemption authorizing the withholding of the record (or part) and a brief explanation of how the exemption applies to the record withheld.

Sec. 8. Section 11, chapter 250, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 366, Laws of 1985 and RCW 42.30.110 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Nothing contained in this chapter may be construed to prevent a governing body from holding an executive session during a regular or special meeting:

(a) To consider matters affecting national security;

(b) To consider the selection of a site or the acquisition of real estate by lease or purchase when public knowledge regarding such consideration would cause a likelihood of increased price;

(c) To consider the minimum price at which real estate will be offered for sale or lease when public knowledge regarding such consideration would cause a likelihood of decreased price. However, final action selling or leasing public property shall be taken in a meeting open to the public;

(d) To review negotiations on the performance of publicly bid contracts when public knowledge regarding such consideration would cause a likelihood of increased costs;

(e) To consider, in the case of an export trading company, financial and commercial information supplied by private persons to the export trading company;

(f) To receive and evaluate complaints or charges brought against a public officer or employee. However, upon the request of such officer or employee, a public hearing or a meeting open to the public shall be conducted upon such complaint or charge;

~~((f))~~ (g) To evaluate the qualifications of an applicant for public employment or to review the performance of a public employee. However, subject to RCW 42.30.140(4), discussion by a governing body of salaries, wages, and other conditions of employment to be generally applied within the agency shall occur in a meeting open to the public, and when a governing body elects to take final action hiring, setting the salary of an individual employee or class of employees, or discharging or disciplining an employee, that action shall be taken in a meeting open to the public;

~~((g))~~ (h) To evaluate the qualifications of a candidate for appointment to elective office. However, any interview of such candidate and final action appointing a candidate to elective office shall be in a meeting open to the public;

~~((h))~~ (i) To discuss with legal counsel representing the agency matters relating to agency enforcement actions, or to discuss with legal counsel representing the agency litigation or potential litigation to which the agency, the governing body, or a member acting in an official capacity is, or is likely to become, a party, when public knowledge regarding the discussion is likely to result in an adverse legal or financial consequence to the agency.

(2) Before convening in executive session, the presiding officer of a governing body shall publicly announce the purpose for excluding the public from the meeting place, and the time when the executive session will be concluded. The executive session may be extended to a stated later time by announcement of the presiding officer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Sections 1 through 6 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 53 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Sections 1 through 6 of this act shall expire July 1, 1991, and shall be subject to review under chapter 43.131 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Passed the House March 11, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 10, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986, with the exception of certain items which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to portions of section 4, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1587, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to port district sponsored trade expansion projects."

In passing the federal Export Trading Company Act of 1982, Congress recognized that "ETCs will periodically have to engage in importing, barter, third party trade, and related activities." [See: Conference Report to accompany S. 734, Rept. No. 97-924, 97th Cong, 2nd Session (1982).]

Given this recognition of Export Trading Company functioning, the section 4(7) prohibition on importation of goods or products for in-state sale in competition with Washington grown, mined or produced products could prove to be economically crippling to the newly-created companies and could violate the purposes of the federal act, even though an import activity was incidental to an export trading company's principal exporting objectives and activity.

In addition, this section may violate federal trade treaties to which the United States is a signatory, such as the General Agreement on Trade and Tariffs. The section furthermore may be unconstitutional as it delegates legislative power to state agencies without sufficiently specific legislative standards.

The section would also be costly and difficult to implement for the following reasons:

1) In order to identify goods that compete with Washington products, the agencies named must identify all goods currently grown, produced or mined in Washington. This is a potentially overwhelming task.

2) The departments must be knowledgeable of all goods imported into the state under this section. Currently, no state system exists for collection and evaluation of this information.

3) The departments would have to make evaluations about competitiveness of all goods imported versus all goods currently grown, produced or mined in Washington. I do not believe these judgments are practical or appropriate for state agencies to make, given the lack of information and specific statutory direction as to what would be competition and how great the protection would be. The potential for conflict and disagreement would be high.

Clearly, the legislation's specific intent is to increase exports of Washington products and enhance export trade — it is not the purpose of the new law to create outside competition for Washington State businesses.

I commend the Legislature for its wisdom and leadership in enacting legislation to allow ports to take advantage of the Export Trading Company Act; such ventures have been successful in other regions of the country.

Section 4(1)(b) would authorize port districts to enter into contracts, joint ventures, brokerage or other agreements. This provision is redundant and would cause confusion in the interpretation of the provision. Section 3(1) of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1587 provides the authority for port districts to establish export trading companies and to enter into contracts with other public and private organizations for the provision of services. Section 4(1)(b) of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1587 restates the same authority.

With the exception of sections 4(1)(b) and 4(7), Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1587 is approved."

CHAPTER 277

[Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1678]

TELEPHONE SOLICITATION

AN ACT Relating to telephone solicitation; adding a new section to chapter 80.36 RCW; creating a new section; and prescribing penalties.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that certain kinds of telephone solicitation are increasing and that these solicitations interfere with the legitimate privacy rights of the citizens of the state. A study conducted by the utilities and transportation commission, as directed by the forty-ninth legislature, has found that the level of telephone solicitation in this state is significant to warrant regulatory action to protect the privacy rights of the citizens of the state. It is the intent of the legislature to clarify and establish the rights of individuals to reject unwanted telephone solicitations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 80.36 RCW to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section, "telephone solicitation" means the unsolicited initiation of a telephone call by a commercial or nonprofit company or organization to a residential telephone customer and conversation for the purpose of encouraging a person to purchase property, goods, or services or soliciting donations of money, property, goods, or services. "Telephone solicitation" does not include:

(a) Calls made in response to a request or inquiry by the called party. This includes calls regarding an item that has been purchased by the called party from the company or organization during a period not longer than twelve months prior to the telephone contact;

(b) Calls made by a not-for-profit organization to its own list of bona fide or active members of the organization;

(c) Calls limited to polling or soliciting the expression of ideas, opinions, or votes; or

(d) Business-to-business contacts.

For purposes of this section, each individual real estate agent or insurance agent who maintains a separate list from other individual real estate or insurance agents shall be treated as a company or organization. For purposes of this section, an organization as defined in RCW 29.01.090 or 29.01.100 and organized pursuant to RCW 29.42.010 shall not be considered a commercial or nonprofit company or organization.

(2) A person making a telephone solicitation must identify him or herself and the company or organization on whose behalf the solicitation is being made and the purpose of the call within the first thirty seconds of the telephone call.

(3) If, at any time during the telephone contact, the called party states or indicates that he or she does not wish to be called again by the company or organization or wants to have his or her name and individual telephone number removed from the telephone lists used by the company or organization making the telephone solicitation, then:

(a) The company or organization shall not make any additional telephone solicitation of the called party at that telephone number within a period of at least one year; and

(b) The company or organization shall not sell or give the called party's name and telephone number to another company or organization:

PROVIDED, That the company or organization may return the list, including the called party's name and telephone number, to the company or organization from which it received the list.

(4) A violation of subsection (2) or (3) of this section is punishable by a fine of up to one thousand dollars for each violation.

(5) The attorney general may bring actions to enforce compliance with this section. For the first violation by any company or organization of this section, the attorney general shall notify the company with a letter of warning that the section has been violated. An action under this section shall be instituted for the second and subsequent violations by a company or organization.

(6) A person aggrieved by a violation of this section may bring a civil action in superior court to enjoin future violations, to recover damages, or both. The court shall award damages of at least one hundred dollars for each individual violation of this section. If the aggrieved person prevails in a civil action under this subsection, the court shall award the aggrieved person reasonable attorneys' fees and cost of the suit.

(7) The utilities and transportation commission shall by rule ensure that telecommunications companies inform their residential customers of the provisions of this section. The notification may be made by (a) annual inserts in the billing statements mailed to residential customers, or (b) conspicuous publication of the notice in the consumer information pages of local telephone directories.

*Sec. 2 was partially vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

Passed the House February 17, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 6, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986, with the exception of certain items which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to a portion of Substitute House Bill No. 1678, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to telephone solicitations."

The last sentence of Substitute House Bill No. 1678 section 2(5), page 3, lines one and two, which requires the Attorney General to take action on second and subsequent violations by a company, conflicts with the first sentence of the same subsection which is permissive.

The legislation sets forth a scheme for controlling telephone solicitations. It sets standards for commercial telephone solicitations and allows consumers to remove their names from lists used to make these telephone calls.

Section 2(5) of the legislation deals with enforcement and is intended to give the Attorney General the discretion needed to enforce violations of the law. However, the last sentence of section 2(5) conflicts with that intent by requiring the Attorney General to take action on second and subsequent violations. I believe this unnecessarily limits the Attorney General's ability to determine the proper cause of action under the bill.

With the exception of the last sentence of section 2(5), Substitute House Bill No. 1678 is approved.*

LOCAL GOVERNMENT—POWERS AND AUTHORITY—REVISIONS

AN ACT Relating to local government; amending RCW 36.01.010, 36.32.120, 35.22.280, 35.24.290, 35.27.370, 35A.11.020, 53.48.010, 85.05.360, 85.06.330, 85.08.210, 85.08.320, 85.16.030, 85.16.180, 85.20.070, 85.20.120, 85.22.060, 85.24.160, 85.32.140, 86.09.157, 85.38.010, 85.38.070, 86.09.430, 86.09.439, 86.09.562, 35.44.090, 86.09.151, 35.67.025, 35.92.021, 36.89.085, 36.94.145, 56.08.012, 86.15.160, 86.15.176, 90.03.500, and 90.03.510; reenacting and amending RCW 35.23.440 and 84.64.050; adding a new section to chapter 52.12 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 85.05 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 85.06 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 85.08 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 85.24 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 85.36 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 85.38 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 86.09 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 90.03 RCW; repealing RCW 85.05.290, 85.05.300, 85.05.310, 85.05.320, 85.05.330, 85.05.340, 85.05.480, 85.05.510, 85.05.520, 85.05.530, 85.06.170, 85.06.260, 85.06.270, 85.06.280, 85.06.290, 85.06.300, 85.06.310, 85.06.321, 85.06.322, 85.06.323, 85.06.324, 85.06.325, 85.06.326, 85.06.327, 85.06.328, 85.06.329, 85.08.240, 85.08.280, 85.09.010, 85.09.020, 85.09.030, 85.09.040, 85.09.050, 85.09.060, 85.09.070, 85.09.080, 85.09.090, 85.09.900, 85.20.080, 85.20.090, 85.20.100, 85.20.110, 85.20.120, 85.20.130, 85.22.070, 85.22.080, 85.22.090, 85.22.100, 85.22.110, 85.22.120, 85.24.230, 86.09.568, 86.09.571, 86.09.574, 86.09.577, 86.09.580, 86.09.583, 86.09.586, 86.09.589, 86.09.604, 86.09.607, 86.09.610, 86.09.613, 85.05.560, 85.05.570, 85.05.580, 85.05.590, 85.05.600, 85.06.510, 85.06.520, 85.06.530, 85.06.540, 85.07.020, 85.07.030, 85.08.580, 85.08.590, 85.08.600, 85.08.610, 85.08.620, 85.08.625, 85.36.010, 85.36.020, 85.36.030, 86.09.184, and 86.09.187; and prescribing penalties.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 36.01.010, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 and RCW 36.01.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The several counties in this state shall have capacity as bodies corporate, to sue and be sued in the manner prescribed by law; to purchase and hold lands (~~within their own limits~~); to make such contracts, and to purchase and hold such personal property, as may be necessary to their corporate or administrative powers, and to do all other necessary acts in relation to all the property of the county.

Sec. 2. Section 36.32.120, chapter 4, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 1, chapter 91, Laws of 1985 and RCW 36.32.120 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislative authorities of the several counties shall:

(1) Provide for the erection and repairing of court houses, jails, and other necessary public buildings for the use of the county;

(2) Lay out, discontinue, or alter county roads and highways within their respective counties, and do all other necessary acts relating thereto according to law, except within cities and towns which have jurisdiction over the roads within their limits;

(3) License and fix the rates of ferriage; grant grocery and other licenses authorized by law to be by them granted at fees set by the legislative authorities which shall not exceed the costs of administration and operation of such licensed activities;

(4) Fix the amount of county taxes to be assessed according to the provisions of law, and cause the same to be collected as prescribed by law: PROVIDED, That the legislative authority of a county may permit all moneys, assessments, and taxes belonging to or collected for the use of any county, including any amounts representing estimates for future assessments and taxes, to be deposited by any taxpayer prior to the due date thereof with the treasurer or other legal depository for the benefit of the funds to which they belong to be credited against any future tax or assessment that may be levied or become due from the taxpayer: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the taxpayer, with the concurrence of the county legislative authority, may designate the particular fund against which such prepayment of future tax or assessment shall be credited;

(5) Allow all accounts legally chargeable against the county not otherwise provided for, and audit the accounts of all officers having the care, management, collection, or disbursement of any money belonging to the county or appropriated to its benefit;

(6) Have the care of the county property and the management of the county funds and business and in the name of the county prosecute and defend all actions for and against the county, and such other powers as are or may be conferred by law;

(7) Make and enforce, by appropriate resolutions or ordinances, all such police and sanitary regulations as are not in conflict with state law, and within the unincorporated area of the county may adopt by reference Washington state statutes and recognized codes and/or compilations printed in book form relating to the construction of buildings, the installation of plumbing, the installation of electric wiring, health, or other subjects, and may adopt such codes and/or compilations or portions thereof, together with amendments thereto, or additions thereto: PROVIDED, That except for Washington state statutes, there shall be filed in the county auditor's office one copy of such codes and compilations ten days prior to their adoption by reference, and additional copies may also be filed in library or city offices within the county as deemed necessary by the county legislative authority: PROVIDED FURTHER, That no such regulation, code, compilation, and/or statute shall be effective unless before its adoption, a public hearing has been held thereon by the county legislative authority of which at least ten days' notice has been given. Any violation of such regulations, ordinances, codes, compilations, and/or statutes or resolutions shall constitute a misdemeanor or a civil violation subject to a monetary penalty: PROVIDED FURTHER, That violation of a regulation ordinance, code, compilation, and/or statute relating to traffic including parking, standing, stopping, and pedestrian offenses is a traffic infraction, except that violation of a regulation, ordinance, code, compilation, and/or statute equivalent to those provisions of Title 46 RCW set forth in RCW 46.63.020 remains a misdemeanor. The notice must set out a copy of the proposed regulations; or if a code is adopted by reference the notice shall set forth the full official title and a statement describing the general purpose of such code. The notice shall also include the day, hour, and place of hearing and must be given by publication in the newspaper in which legal notices of the county are printed;

(8) Have power to compound and release in whole or in part any debt due to the county when in their opinion the interest of their county will not be prejudiced thereby, except in cases where they or any of them are personally interested;

(9) Have power to administer oaths or affirmations necessary in the discharge of their duties and commit for contempt any witness refusing to testify before them with the same power as justices of the peace.

Sec. 3. Section 35.22.280, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 802, chapter 258, Laws of 1984 and RCW 35.22.280 are each amended to read as follows:

Any city of the first class shall have power:

(1) To provide for general and special elections, for questions to be voted upon, and for the election of officers;

(2) To provide for levying and collecting taxes on real and personal property for its corporate uses and purposes, and to provide for the payment of the debts and expenses of the corporation;

(3) To control the finances and property of the corporation, and to acquire, by purchase or otherwise, such lands and other property as may be necessary for any part of the corporate uses provided for by its charter, and to dispose of any such property as the interests of the corporation may, from time to time, require;

(4) To borrow money for corporate purposes on the credit of the corporation, and to issue negotiable bonds therefor, on such conditions and in such manner as shall be prescribed in its charter; but no city shall, in any manner or for any purpose, become indebted to an amount in the aggregate to exceed the limitation of indebtedness prescribed by chapter 39.36 RCW as now or hereafter amended;

(5) To issue bonds in place of or to supply means to meet maturing bonds or other indebtedness, or for the consolidation or funding of the same;

(6) To purchase or appropriate private property within or without its corporate limits, for its corporate uses, upon making just compensation to the owners thereof, and to institute and maintain such proceedings as may be authorized by the general laws of the state for the appropriation of private property for public use;

(7) To lay out, establish, open, alter, widen, extend, grade, pave, plank, establish grades, or otherwise improve streets, alleys, avenues, sidewalks, wharves, parks, and other public grounds, and to regulate and control the use thereof, and to vacate the same, and to authorize or prohibit the use of electricity at, in, or upon any of said streets, or for other purposes, and to prescribe the terms and conditions upon which the same may be so used, and to regulate the use thereof;

(8) To change the grade of any street, highway, or alley within its corporate limits, and to provide for the payment of damages to any abutting owner or owners who shall have built or made other improvements upon such street, highway, or alley at any point opposite to the point where such change shall be made with reference to the grade of such street, highway, or alley as the same existed prior to such change;

(9) To authorize or prohibit the locating and constructing of any railroad or street railroad in any street, alley, or public place in such city, and to prescribe the terms and conditions upon which any such railroad or street railroad shall be located or constructed; to provide for the alteration, change of grade, or removal thereof; to regulate the moving and operation of railroad and street railroad trains, cars, and locomotives within the corporate limits of said city; and to provide by ordinance for the protection of all persons and property against injury in the use of such railroads or street railroads;

(10) To provide for making local improvements, and to levy and collect special assessments on property benefited thereby, and for paying for the same or any portion thereof;

(11) To acquire, by purchase or otherwise, lands for public parks within or without the limits of such city, and to improve the same. When the language of any instrument by which any property is so acquired limits the use of said property to park purposes and contains a reservation of interest in favor of the grantor or any other person, and where it is found that the property so acquired is not needed for park purposes and that an exchange thereof for other property to be dedicated for park purposes is in the public interest, the city may, with the consent of the grantor or such other person, his heirs, successors, or assigns, exchange such property for other property to be dedicated for park purposes, and may make, execute, and deliver proper conveyances to effect the exchange. In any case where, owing to death or lapse of time, there is neither donor, heir, successor, or assignee to give consent, this consent may be executed by the city and filed for record with an affidavit setting forth all efforts made to locate people entitled to give such consent together with the facts which establish that no consent by such persons is attainable. Title to property so conveyed by the city shall vest in the grantee free and clear of any trust in favor of the public arising out of any prior dedication for park purposes, but the right of the public shall be transferred and preserved with like force and effect to the property received by the city in such exchange;

(12) To construct and keep in repair bridges, viaducts, and tunnels, and to regulate the use thereof;

(13) To determine what work shall be done or improvements made at the expense, in whole or in part, of the owners of the adjoining contiguous, or proximate property, or others specially benefited thereby; and to provide for the manner of making and collecting assessments therefor;

(14) To provide for erecting, purchasing, or otherwise acquiring water-works, within or without the corporate limits of said city, to supply said city and its inhabitants with water, or authorize the construction of same by others when deemed for the best interests of such city and its inhabitants, and to regulate and control the use and price of the water so supplied;

(15) To provide for lighting the streets and all public places, and for furnishing the inhabitants thereof with gas or other lights, and to erect, or otherwise acquire, and to maintain the same, or to authorize the erection and maintenance of such works as may be necessary and convenient therefor, and to regulate and control the use thereof;

(16) To establish and regulate markets, and to provide for the weighing, measuring, and inspection of all articles of food and drink offered for sale thereat, or at any other place within its limits, by proper penalties, and to enforce the keeping of proper legal weights and measures by all vendors in such city, and to provide for the inspection thereof;

(17) To erect and establish hospitals and pesthouses, and to control and regulate the same;

(18) To provide for establishing and maintaining reform schools for juvenile offenders;

(19) To provide for the establishment and maintenance of public libraries, and to appropriate, annually, such percent of all moneys collected for fines, penalties, and licenses as shall be prescribed by its charter, for the support of a city library, which shall, under such regulations as shall be prescribed by ordinance, be open for use by the public;

(20) To regulate the burial of the dead, and to establish and regulate cemeteries within or without the corporate limits, and to acquire land therefor by purchase or otherwise; to cause cemeteries to be removed beyond the limits of the corporation, and to prohibit their establishment within two miles of the boundaries thereof;

(21) To direct the location and construction of all buildings in which any trade or occupation offensive to the senses or deleterious to public health or safety shall be carried on, and to regulate the management thereof; and to prohibit the erection or maintenance of such buildings or structures, or the carrying on of such trade or occupation within the limits of such corporation, or within the distance of two miles beyond the boundaries thereof;

(22) To provide for the prevention and extinguishment of fires and to regulate or prohibit the transportation, keeping, or storage of all combustible or explosive materials within its corporate limits, and to regulate and restrain the use of fireworks;

(23) To establish fire limits and to make all such regulations for the erection and maintenance of buildings or other structures within its corporate limits as the safety of persons or property may require, and to cause all such buildings and places as may from any cause be in a dangerous state to be put in safe condition;

(24) To regulate the manner in which stone, brick, and other buildings, party walls, and partition fences shall be constructed and maintained;

(25) To deepen, widen, dock, cover, wall, alter, or change the channels of waterways and courses, and to provide for the construction and maintenance of all such works as may be required for the accommodation of commerce, including canals, slips, public landing places, wharves, docks, and levees, and to control and regulate the use thereof;

(26) To control, regulate, or prohibit the anchorage, moorage, and landing of all watercrafts and their cargoes within the jurisdiction of the corporation;

(27) To fix the rates of wharfage and dockage, and to provide for the collection thereof, and to provide for the imposition and collection of such harbor fees as may be consistent with the laws of the United States;

(28) To license, regulate, control, or restrain wharf boats, tugs, and other boats used about the harbor or within such jurisdiction;

(29) To require the owners of public halls or other buildings to provide suitable means of exit; to provide for the prevention and abatement of nuisances, for the cleaning and purification of watercourses and canals, for the drainage and filling up of ponds on private property within its limits, when the same shall be offensive to the senses or dangerous to health; to regulate and control, and to prevent and punish, the defilement or pollution of all streams running through or into its corporate limits, and for the distance of five miles beyond its corporate limits, and on any stream or lake from which the water supply of said city is taken, for a distance of five miles beyond its source of supply; to provide for the cleaning of areas, vaults, and other places within its corporate limits which may be so kept as to become offensive to the senses or dangerous to health, and to make all such quarantine or other regulations as may be necessary for the preservation of the public health, and to remove all persons afflicted with any infectious or contagious disease to some suitable place to be provided for that purpose;

(30) To declare what shall be a nuisance, and to abate the same, and to impose fines upon parties who may create, continue, or suffer nuisances to exist;

(31) To regulate the selling or giving away of intoxicating, malt, vinous, mixed, or fermented liquors as authorized by the general laws of the state: PROVIDED, That no license shall be granted to any person or persons who shall not first comply with the general laws of the state in force at the time the same is granted;

(32) To grant licenses for any lawful purpose, and to fix by ordinance the amount to be paid therefor, and to provide for revoking the same: PROVIDED, That no license shall be granted to continue for longer than one year from the date thereof;

(33) To regulate the carrying on within its corporate limits of all occupations which are of such a nature as to affect the public health or the good order of said city, or to disturb the public peace, and which are not prohibited by law, and to provide for the punishment of all persons violating such regulations, and of all persons who knowingly permit the same to be violated in any building or upon any premises owned or controlled by them;

(34) To restrain and provide for the punishment of vagrants, mendicants, prostitutes, and other disorderly persons;

(35) To provide for the punishment of all disorderly conduct, and of all practices dangerous to public health or safety, and to make all regulations necessary for the preservation of public morality, health, peace, and good order within its limits, and to provide for the arrest, trial, and punishment of all persons charged with violating any of the ordinances of said city. The punishment shall not exceed a fine of five thousand dollars or imprisonment in the city jail for one year, or both such fine and imprisonment. Such cities alternatively may provide that violations of ordinances constitute a civil violation subject to monetary penalties;

(36) To project or extend its streets over and across any tidelands within its corporate limits, and along or across the harbor areas of such city, in such manner as will best promote the interests of commerce;

(37) To provide in their respective charters for a method to propose and adopt amendments thereto.

Sec. 4. Section 35.23.440, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 5, chapter 189, Laws of 1984 and by section 803, chapter 258, Laws of 1984 and RCW 35.23.440 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

The city council of each second class city shall have power and authority:

(1) Ordinances: To make and pass all ordinances, orders, and resolutions not repugnant to the Constitution of the United States or the state of Washington, or the provisions of this title, necessary for the municipal government and management of the affairs of the city, for the execution of the powers vested in said body corporate, and for the carrying into effect of the provisions of this title.

(2) License of shows: To fix and collect a license tax, for the purposes of revenue and regulation, on theatres, melodeons, balls, concerts, dances, theatrical, circus, or other performances, and all performances where an admission fee is charged, or which may be held in any house or place where wines or liquors are sold to the participators; also all shows, billiard tables, pool tables, bowling alleys, exhibitions, or amusements.

(3) Hotels, etc., licenses: To fix and collect a license tax for the purposes of revenue and regulation on and to regulate all taverns, hotels, restaurants, banks, brokers, manufactories, livery stables, express companies and persons engaged in transmitting letters or packages, railroad, stage, and steamboat companies or owners, whose principal place of business is in such city, or who have an agency therein.

(4) Peddlers', etc., licenses: To license, for the purposes of revenue and regulation, tax, prohibit, suppress, and regulate all raffles, hawkers, peddlers, pawnbrokers, refreshment or coffee stands, booths, or sheds; and to regulate as authorized by state law all tipping houses, dram shops, saloons, bars, and barrooms.

(5) Dance houses: To prohibit or suppress, or to license and regulate all dance houses, fandango houses, or any exhibition or show of any animal or animals.

(6) License vehicles: To license for the purposes of revenue and regulation, and to tax hackney coaches, cabs, omnibuses, drays, market wagons, and all other vehicles used for hire, and to regulate their stands, and to fix the rates to be charged for the transportation of persons, baggage, and property.

(34) Streets and sidewalks: To provide by ordinance for the opening, laying out, altering, extending, repairing, grading, paving, planking, graveling, macadamizing, or otherwise improving of public streets, avenues, and other public ways, or any portion of any thereof; and for the construction, regulation, and repair of sidewalks and other street improvements, all at the expense of the property to be benefited thereby, without any recourse, in any event, upon the city for any portion of the expense of such work, or any delinquency of the property holders or owners, and to provide for the forced sale thereof for such purposes; to establish a uniform grade for streets, avenues, sidewalks, and squares, and to enforce the observance thereof.

(35) Waterways: To clear, cleanse, alter, straighten, widen, fill up, or close any waterway, drain, or sewer, or any watercourse in such city when not declared by law to be navigable, and to assess the expense thereof, in whole or in part, to the property specially benefited.

(36) Sewerage: To adopt, provide for, establish, and maintain a general system of sewerage, draining, or both, and the regulation thereof; to provide funds by local assessments on the property benefited for the purpose aforesaid and to determine the manner, terms, and place of connection with main or central lines of pipes, sewers, or drains established, and compel compliance with and conformity to such general system of sewerage or drainage, or both, and the regulations of said council thereto relating, by the infliction of suitable penalties and forfeitures against persons and property, or either, for nonconformity to, or failure to comply with the provisions of such system and regulations or either.

(37) Buildings and parks: To provide for all public buildings, public parks, or squares, necessary or proper for the use of the city.

(38) Franchises: To permit the use of the streets for railroad or other public service purposes.

(39) Payment of judgments: To order paid any final judgment against such city, but none of its lands or property of any kind or nature, taxes, revenue, franchise, or rights, or interest, shall be attached, levied upon, or sold in or under any process whatsoever.

(40) Weighing of fuel: To regulate the sale of coal and wood in such city, and may appoint a measurer of wood and weigher of coal for the city, and define his duties, and may prescribe his term of office, and the fees he shall receive for his services: PROVIDED, That such fees shall in all cases be paid by the parties requiring such service.

(41) Hospitals, etc.: To erect and establish hospitals and pesthouses and to control and regulate the same.

(42) Waterworks: To provide for the erection, purchase, or otherwise acquiring of waterworks within or without the corporate limits of the city to supply such city and its inhabitants with water, and to regulate and control the use and price of the water so supplied.

(43) City lights: To provide for lighting the streets and all public places of the city and for furnishing the inhabitants of the city with gas, electric, or other light, and for the ownership, purchase or acquisition, construction, or maintenance of such works as may be necessary or convenient therefor:

PROVIDED, That no purchase of any such water plant or light plant shall be made without first submitting the question of such purchase to the electors of the city.

(44) Parks: To acquire by purchase or otherwise land for public parks, within or without the limits of the city, and to improve the same.

(45) Bridges: To construct and keep in repair bridges, and to regulate the use thereof.

(46) Power of eminent domain: In the name of and for the use and benefit of the city, to exercise the right of eminent domain, and to condemn lands and property for the purposes of streets, alleys, parks, public grounds, waterworks, or for any other municipal purpose and to acquire by purchase or otherwise such lands and property as may be deemed necessary for any of the corporate uses provided for by this title, as the interests of the city may from time to time require.

(47) To provide for the assessment of taxes: To provide for the assessment, levying, and collecting of taxes on real and personal property for the corporate uses and purposes of the city and to provide for the payment of the debts and expenses of the corporation.

(48) Local improvements: To provide for making local improvements, and to levy and collect special assessments on the property benefited thereby and for paying the same or any portion thereof; to determine what work shall be done or improvements made, at the expense, in whole or in part, of the adjoining, contiguous, or proximate property, and to provide for the manner of making and collecting assessments therefor.

(49) Cemeteries: To regulate the burial of the dead and to establish and regulate cemeteries, within or without the corporate limits, and to acquire lands therefor by purchase or otherwise.

(50) Fire limits: To establish fire limits with proper regulations and to make all needful regulations for the erection and maintenance of buildings or other structures within the corporate limits as safety of persons or property may require, and to cause all such buildings and places as may from any cause be in a dangerous state to be put in a safe condition; to regulate the manner in which stone, brick, and other buildings, party walls, and partition fences shall be constructed and maintained.

(51) Safety and sanitary measures: To require the owners of public halls, theaters, hotels, and other buildings to provide suitable means of exit and proper fire escapes; to provide for the cleaning and purification of watercourses and canals and for the draining and filling up of ponds on private property within its limits when the same shall be offensive to the senses or dangerous to the health, and to charge the expense thereof to the property specially benefited, and to regulate and control and provide for the prevention and punishment of the defilement or pollution of all streams running in or through its corporate limits and a distance of five miles beyond its corporate limits, and of any stream or lake from which the water supply of the city is or may be taken and for a distance of five miles beyond its source of supply, and to make all quarantine and other regulations as may be necessary for the preservation of the public health and to remove all persons afflicted with any contagious disease to some suitable place to be provided for that purpose.

(52) To regulate liquor traffic: To regulate the selling or giving away of intoxicating, spirituous, malt, vinous, mixed, or fermented liquors as authorized by the general laws of the state.

(53) To establish streets on tidelands: To project or extend or establish streets over and across any tidelands within the limits of such city.

(54) To provide for the general welfare.

Sec. 5. Section 35.24.290, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 804, chapter 258, Laws of 1984 and RCw 35.24.290 are each amended to read as follows:

The city council of each third class city shall have power:

(1) To pass ordinances not in conflict with the Constitution and laws of this state or of the United States;

(2) To prevent and regulate the running at large of any or all domestic animals within the city limits or any part thereof and to cause the impounding and sale of any such animals;

(3) To establish, build and repair bridges, to establish, lay out, alter, keep open, open, widen, vacate, improve and repair streets, sidewalks, alleys, squares and other public highways and places within the city, and to drain, sprinkle and light the same; to remove all obstructions therefrom; to establish and reestablish the grades thereof; to grade, plank, pave, macadamize, gravel and curb the same, in whole or in part; to construct gutters, culverts, sidewalks and crosswalks therein or upon any part thereof; to cultivate and maintain parking strips therein, and generally to manage and control all such highways and places; to provide by local assessment for the leveling up and surfacing and oiling or otherwise treating for the laying of dust, all streets within the city limits;

(4) To establish, construct and maintain drains and sewers, and shall have power to compel all property owners on streets and alleys or within two hundred feet thereof along which sewers shall have been constructed to make proper connections therewith and to use the same for proper purposes, and in case the owners of the property on such streets and alleys or within two hundred feet thereof fail to make such connections within the time fixed by such council, it may cause such connections to be made and assess against the property served thereby the costs and expenses thereof;

(5) To provide fire engines and all other necessary or proper apparatus for the prevention and extinguishment of fires;

(6) To impose and collect an annual license on every dog within the limits of the city, to prohibit dogs running at large and to provide for the killing of all dogs not duly licensed found at large;

(7) To license, for the purposes of regulation and revenue, all and every kind of business authorized by law, and transacted and carried on in such city, and all shows, exhibitions and lawful games carried on therein and within one mile of the corporate limits thereof, to fix the rate of license tax upon the same, and to provide for the collection of the same by suit or otherwise;

(8) To improve rivers and streams flowing through such city, or adjoining the same; to widen, straighten and deepen the channel thereof, and remove obstructions therefrom; to improve the water-front of the city, and to construct and maintain embankments and other works to protect such city from overflow; to prevent the filling of the water of any bay, except such filling over tide or shorelands as may be provided for by order of the city council; to purify and prevent the pollution of streams of water, lakes or other sources of supply, and for this purpose shall have jurisdiction over all streams, lakes or other sources of supply, both within and without the city limits. Such city shall have power to provide by ordinance and to enforce such punishment or penalty as the city council may deem proper for the offense of polluting or in any manner obstructing or interfering with the water supply of such city or source thereof;

(9) To erect and maintain buildings for municipal purposes;

(10) To permit, under such restrictions as it may deem proper, and to grant franchises for, the laying of railroad tracks, and the running of cars propelled by electric, steam or other power thereon, and the laying of gas and water pipes and steam mains and conduits for underground wires, and to permit the construction of tunnels or subways in the public streets, and to construct and maintain and to permit the construction and maintenance of telegraph, telephone and electric lines therein;

(11) In its discretion to divide the city by ordinance, into a convenient number of wards, not exceeding six, to fix the boundaries thereof, and to change the same from time to time: PROVIDED, That no change in the boundaries of any ward shall be made within sixty days next before the date of a general municipal election, nor within twenty months after the wards have been established or altered. Whenever such city is so divided into wards, the city council shall designate by ordinance the number of councilmen to be elected from each ward, apportioning the same in proportion to the population of the wards. Thereafter the councilmen so designated shall be elected by the qualified electors resident in such ward, or by general vote of the whole city as may be designated in such ordinance. When additional territory is added to the city it may by act of the council, be annexed to contiguous wards without affecting the right to redistrict at the expiration of twenty months after last previous division. The removal of a councilman from the ward for which he was elected shall create a vacancy in such office;

(12) To impose fines, penalties and forfeitures for any and all violations of ordinances, and for any breach or violation of any ordinance to fix the penalty by fine or imprisonment, or both, but no such fine shall exceed five thousand dollars nor the term of such imprisonment exceed the term of one year; or to provide that violations of ordinances constitute a civil violation subject to monetary penalty;

(13) To establish fire limits, with proper regulations;

(14) To establish and maintain a free public library;

(15) To establish and regulate public markets and market places;

(16) To punish the keepers and inmates and lessors of houses of ill fame, gamblers and keepers of gambling tables, patrons thereof or those found loitering about such houses and places;

(17) To make all such ordinances, bylaws, rules, regulations and resolutions, not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of the state of Washington, as may be deemed expedient to maintain the peace, good government and welfare of the corporation and its trade, commerce and manufactures, and to do and perform any and all other acts and things necessary or proper to carry out the provisions of this chapter, and to enact and enforce within the limits of such city all other local, police, sanitary and other regulations as do not conflict with general laws;

(18) To license steamers, boats and vessels used in any bay or other watercourse in the city and to fix and collect such license; to provide for the regulation of berths, landings, and stations, and for the removing of steamboats, sail boats, sail vessels, rafts, barges and other watercraft; to provide for the removal of obstructions to navigation and of structures dangerous to navigation or to other property, in or adjoining the waterfront, except in municipalities in counties in which there is a city of the first class.

Sec. 6. Section 35.27.370, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 805, chapter 258, Laws of 1984 and RCW 35.27.370 are each amended to read as follows:

The council of said town shall have power:

(1) To pass ordinances not in conflict with the Constitution and laws of this state, or of the United States;

(2) To purchase, lease or receive such real estate and personal property as may be necessary or proper for municipal purposes, and to control, dispose of and convey the same for the benefit of the town; to acquire, own, and hold real estate for cemetery purposes either within or without the corporate limits, to sell and dispose of such real estate, to plat or replat such real estate into cemetery lots and to sell and dispose of any and all lots therein, and to operate, improve and maintain the same as a cemetery;

(3) To contract for supplying the town with water for municipal purposes, or to acquire, construct, repair and manage pumps, aqueducts, reservoirs, or other works necessary or proper for supplying water for use of such town or its inhabitants, or for irrigating purposes therein;

(4) To establish, build and repair bridges, to establish, lay out, alter, widen, extend, keep open, improve, and repair streets, sidewalks, alleys, squares and other public highways and places within the town, and to drain, sprinkle and light the same; to remove all obstructions therefrom; to establish the grades thereof; to grade, pave, plank, macadamize, gravel and curb the same, in whole or in part, and to construct gutters, culverts, sidewalks and crosswalks therein, or on any part thereof; to cause to be planted, set out and cultivated trees therein, and generally to manage and control all such highways and places;

(5) To establish, construct and maintain drains and sewers, and shall have power to compel all property owners on streets along which sewers are constructed to make proper connections therewith, and to use the same for proper purposes when such property is improved by the erection thereon of a building or buildings; and in case the owners of such improved property on such streets shall fail to make such connections within the time fixed by such council, they may cause such connections to be made, and to assess against the property in front of which such connections are made the costs and expenses thereof;

(6) To provide fire engines and all other necessary or proper apparatus for the prevention and extinguishment of fires;

(7) To impose and collect an annual license on every dog within the limits of the town, to prohibit dogs running at large, and to provide for the killing of all dogs found at large and not duly licensed;

(8) To levy and collect annually a property tax, for the payment of current expenses and for the payment of indebtedness (if any indebtedness exists) within the limits authorized by law;

(9) To license, for purposes of regulation and revenue, all and every kind of business, authorized by law and transacted and carried on in such town; and all shows, exhibitions and lawful games carried on therein and within one mile of the corporate limits thereof; to fix the rate of license tax upon the same, and to provide for the collection of the same, by suit or otherwise; to regulate, restrain, or prohibit the running at large of any and all domestic animals within the city limits, or any part or parts thereof, and to regulate the keeping of such animals within any part of the city; to establish, maintain and regulate a common pound for estrays, and to appoint a poundkeeper, who shall be paid out of the fines and fees imposed on, and collected from, the owners of any impounded stock;

(10) To improve the rivers and streams flowing through such town or adjoining the same; to widen, straighten and deepen the channels thereof, and to remove obstructions therefrom; to prevent the pollution of streams or water running through such town, and for this purpose shall have jurisdiction for two miles in either direction; to improve the waterfront of the town, and to construct and maintain embankments and other works to protect such town from overflow;

(11) To erect and maintain buildings for municipal purposes;

(12) To grant franchises or permits to use and occupy the surface, the overhead and the underground of streets, alleys and other public ways, under such terms and conditions as it shall deem fit, for any and all purposes, including but not being limited to the construction, maintenance and operation of railroads, street railways, transportation systems, water, gas and steam systems, telephone and telegraph systems, electric lines, signal systems, surface, aerial and underground tramways;

(13) To punish the keepers and inmates and lessors of houses of ill fame, and keepers and lessors of gambling houses and rooms and other places where gambling is carried on or permitted, gamblers and keepers of gambling tables;

(14) To impose fines, penalties and forfeitures for any and all violations of ordinances, and for any breach or violation of any ordinance, to fix the penalty by fine or imprisonment, or both; but no such fine shall exceed five thousand dollars, nor the term of imprisonment exceed one year; or to provide that violations of ordinances constitute a civil violation subject to a monetary penalty;

(15) To operate ambulance service which may serve the town and surrounding rural areas and, in the discretion of the council, to make a charge for such service;

(16) To make all such ordinances, bylaws, rules, regulations and resolutions not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws of the state of Washington, as may be deemed expedient to maintain the peace, good government and welfare of the town and its trade, commerce and manufacturers, and to do and perform any and all other acts and things necessary or proper to carry out the provisions of this chapter.

Sec. 7. Section 35A.11.020, chapter 119, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 807, chapter 258, Laws of 1984 and RCW 35A.11.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislative body of each code city shall have power to organize and regulate its internal affairs within the provisions of this title and its charter, if any; and to define the functions, powers, and duties of its officers and employees; within the limitations imposed by vested rights, to fix the compensation and working conditions of such officers and employees and establish and maintain civil service, or merit systems, retirement and pension systems not in conflict with the provisions of this title or of existing charter provisions until changed by the people: PROVIDED, That nothing in this section or in this title shall permit any city, whether a code city or otherwise, to enact any provisions establishing or respecting a merit system or system of civil service for firemen and policemen which does not substantially accomplish the same purpose as provided by general law in chapter 41.08 RCW for firemen and chapter 41.12 RCW for policemen now or as hereafter amended, or enact any provision establishing or respecting a pension or retirement system for firemen or policemen which provides different pensions or retirement benefits than are provided by general law for such classes. Such body may adopt and enforce ordinances of all kinds relating to and regulating its local or municipal affairs and appropriate to the good government of the city, and may impose penalties of fine not exceeding five thousand dollars or imprisonment for any term not exceeding one year, or both, for the violation of such ordinances, constituting a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor as provided therein. Such a body alternatively may provide that violation of such ordinances constitutes a civil violation subject to monetary penalty. The legislative body of each code city shall have all powers possible for a city or town to have under the Constitution of this state, and not specifically denied to code cities by law. By way of illustration and not in limitation, such powers may be exercised in regard to the acquisition, sale, ownership, improvement, maintenance, protection, restoration, regulation, use, leasing, disposition, vacation, abandonment or beautification of public ways, real property of all kinds, waterways, structures, or any other improvement or use of real or personal property, in regard to all aspects of collective bargaining as provided for and subject to the provisions of chapter 41.56 RCW, as now or hereafter amended, and in the rendering of local social, cultural, recreational, educational, governmental, or corporate services, including operating and supplying of utilities and municipal services commonly or conveniently rendered by cities or towns. In addition and not in limitation, the legislative body of each code city shall have any authority ever given to any class of municipality or to all municipalities of this state before or after the enactment of this title, such authority to be exercised in the manner provided, if any, by the granting statute, when not in conflict with this title. Within constitutional limitations, legislative bodies of code cities shall have within their territorial limits all powers of taxation for local purposes except those which are expressly preempted by the state as provided in RCW 66.08.120, ((RCW)) 82.36.440, ((RCW)) 48.14.020, and ((RCW)) 48.14.080.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 85.38 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Territory that is contiguously located to a special district may be annexed by the special district as provided in this section under the petition and election, resolution and election, or direct petition method of annexation.

(2) An annexation under the election method may be initiated by the filing of a petition requesting the action that is signed by at least ten owners of property in the area proposed to be annexed or the adoption of a resolution requesting such action by the governing body of the special district. The petitions shall be filed with the governing body of the special district that is requested to annex the territory. An election to authorize an annexation initiated under the petition and election method may be held only if the governing body approves the annexation. An annexation under either election method shall be authorized if the voters of the area proposed to be annexed approve a ballot proposition favoring the annexation by a simple majority vote. The annexation shall be effective when results of an election so favoring the annexation are certified by the county auditor or auditors. The election, notice of the election, and eligibility to vote at the election shall be as provided for the creation of a special district.

(3) An annexation under the direct petition method of annexation may be accomplished if the owners of a majority of the acreage proposed to be annexed sign a petition requesting the annexation, and the governing body of the special district approves the annexation. The petition shall be filed with the governing body of the special district. The annexation shall be effective when the governing body approves the annexation.

(4) Whenever a special district annexes territory under this section, the exclusive method by which the special district measures and imposes special assessments upon real property within the entire enlarged area shall be as set forth in RCW 85.38.150 through 85.38.170.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 85.38 RCW to read as follows:

Two or more special districts that are contiguously located with each other, or which occupy all or part of the same territory, may consolidate as provided in this section. The consolidation shall result in the creation of a flood control district.

A consolidation may be initiated by: (1) The filing of a petition requesting the action that is signed by eligible voters of each special district who constitute at least ten percent of the eligible voters of the special district, or who own at least a majority of the acreage in the special district; or (2) the adoption of a resolution requesting such action by the governing body of each special district. The petitions shall be filed with, and the resolutions shall be submitted to, the county legislative authority of the county within which all or the largest portion of the special districts is located. The auditor of the county, or auditors of the counties, within which these districts are located shall authenticate the signatures on the petitions and certify the results. An election to authorize the consolidation shall be held not more than one hundred eighty days after the date of the filing of the resolutions, or the determination that sufficient valid signatures are included on the petition from the voters of each of the special districts.

The consolidation shall be authorized if voters in each of the special districts approve a ballot proposition favoring the consolidation by a simple majority vote. Members of the governing body of the consolidated special district shall be selected as provided in RCW 85.38.070 for a newly created special district and the consolidation shall be effective when these initial members of the governing body are so appointed.

All moneys, rights, property, assets and liabilities of the consolidating special districts shall vest in and become the obligation of the new consolidated special district, except that any indebtedness of a consolidating special district shall remain an indebtedness of the original consolidating special district and lands within the original consolidating special district. The governing body of the new consolidated special district shall impose special assessments on lands in the original consolidating special district to redeem this indebtedness. However, the new consolidated special district may issue funding or refunding bonds or notes and fund or refund such indebtedness. The new consolidated special district may continue imposing special assessments pursuant to the various systems of assessment used by the original consolidating special districts, or may establish a new system or systems of assessment in all or part of the new consolidated special district to finance its operations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 85.38 RCW to read as follows:

Any special district may have its operations suspended as provided in this section. The process of suspending a special district's operations may be initiated by: (1) The adoption of a resolution proposing such action by the governing body of the special district; (2) the filing of a petition proposing such action with the county legislative authority of the county in which all or the largest portion of the special district is located, which petition is signed by voters of the special district who own at least ten percent of the acreage in the special district or is signed by ten or more voters of the special district; or (3) the adoption of a resolution proposing such action by the county legislative authority of the county in which all or the largest portion of the special district is located.

A public hearing on the proposed action shall be held by the county legislative authority at which it shall inquire into whether such action is in the public interest. Notice of the public hearing shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the special district, posted in at least four locations in the special district to attract the attention of the public, and mailed to the members of the governing body of the special district, if there are any. After the public hearing, the county legislative authority may adopt a resolution suspending the operations of the special district if it finds such suspension to be in the public interest. When a special district is located in more than one county, the legislative authority of each of such counties must so act before the operations of the special district are suspended.

After holding a public hearing on the proposed reactivation of a special district that has had its operations suspended, the legislative authority or authorities of the county or counties in which the special district is located may reactivate the special district by adopting a resolution finding such action to be in the public interest. Notice of the public hearing shall be posted and published as provided for the public hearing on a proposed suspension of a special district's operations. The governing body of a reactivated special district shall be appointed as in a newly created special district.

No special district that owns drainage or flood control improvements may be dissolved unless the legislative authority of a county accepts responsibility for operation and maintenance of the improvements.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 85.05 RCW to read as follows:

Diking districts may annex territory, consolidate with other special districts, and have their operations suspended and be reactivated, in accordance with chapter 85.38 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. A new section is added to chapter 85.06 RCW to read as follows:

Drainage districts may annex territory, consolidate with other special districts, and have their operations suspended and be reactivated, in accordance with chapter 85.38 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. A new section is added to chapter 85.08 RCW to read as follows:

Diking or drainage improvement districts may annex territory, consolidate with other special districts, and have their operations suspended and be reactivated, in accordance with chapter 85.38 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. A new section is added to chapter 85.24 RCW to read as follows:

Intercounty diking and drainage improvement districts may annex territory, consolidate with other special districts, and have their operations suspended and be reactivated, in accordance with chapter 85.38 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A new section is added to chapter 85.36 RCW to read as follows:

Consolidated diking districts, drainage districts, diking improvement districts, and/or drainage improvement districts may annex territory, consolidate with other special districts, and have their operations suspended and be reactivated, in accordance with chapter 85.38 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. A new section is added to chapter 86.09 RCW to read as follows:

Flood control districts may annex territory, consolidate with other special districts, and have their operations suspended and be reactivated, in accordance with chapter 85.38 RCW.

Sec. 17. Section 1, chapter 87, Laws of 1941 as amended by section 10, chapter 30, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 53.48.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The following words and terms shall, whenever used in this chapter, have the meaning set forth in this section:

(1) The term "district" as used herein, shall include all municipal and quasi municipal corporations having a governing body, other than cities, towns, counties, and townships, such as port, school, water, fire protection, and all other districts of similar organization, but shall not include local improvement districts, diking, drainage and irrigation districts, special districts as defined in RCW 85.38.010, nor public utility districts.

(2) The words "board of commissioners," as used herein, shall mean the governing authority of any district as defined in subdivision (1) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. A new section is added to chapter 85.38 RCW to read as follows:

A special district may issue special assessment bonds or notes to finance costs related to providing, improving, expanding, or enlarging improvements and facilities if the county legislative authority within which all or the major part of the special district is located authorizes the issuance of such bonds or notes. The decision of a county legislative authority authorizing or failing to authorize a proposed issue of special assessment bonds or notes constitutes a discretionary function, and shall not give rise to a cause of action against the county, county legislative authority, or any member of the county legislative authority.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. A new section is added to chapter 85.38 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Special assessment bonds and notes issued by special districts shall be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW, except as otherwise provided in this chapter. The maximum term of any special assessment bond issued by a special district shall be twenty years. The maximum term of any special assessment note issued by a special district shall be five years.

(2) The governing body of a special district issuing special assessment bonds or notes shall create a special fund or funds, or use an existing special fund or funds, from which, along with any special assessment bond guaranty fund the special district has created, the principal of and interest on the bonds or notes exclusively are payable.

(3) The governing body of a special district may provide such covenants as it may deem necessary to secure the payment of the principal of and interest on special assessment bonds or notes, and premiums on special assessment bonds or notes, if any. Such covenants may include, but are not limited to, depositing certain special assessments into a special fund or funds, and establishing, maintaining, and collecting special assessments which are to be placed into the special fund or funds. The special assessments covenanted to be placed into such a special fund or funds after the effective date of this act may include all or part of the new system of special assessments imposed for such purposes, pursuant to RCW 85.38.150 and 85.38.160. However, the special assessments covenanted to be placed into the special fund or funds from which the funding or refunding special assessment bonds or notes to be funded or refunded were payable.

(4) A special assessment bond or note issued by a special district shall not constitute an indebtedness of the state, either general or special, nor of the county, either general or special, within which all or any part of the special district is located. A special assessment bond or note shall not constitute a general indebtedness of the special district issuing the bond or note, but is a special obligation of the special district and the interest on and principal of the bond or note shall be payable only from special assessments covenanted to be placed into the special fund or funds, and any special assessment bond guaranty fund the special district has created.

The owner of a special assessment bond or note, or the owner of an interest coupon, shall not have any claim for the payment thereof against the special district arising from the special assessment bond or note, or interest coupon, except for payment from the special fund or funds, the special assessments covenanted to be placed into the special fund or funds, and any special assessment bond guaranty fund the special district has created. The owner of a special assessment bond or note, or the owner of an interest coupon, issued by a special district shall not have any claim against the state, or any county within which all or part of the special district is located, arising from the special assessment bond, note, or interest coupon. The special district issuing the special assessment bond or note shall not be liable to the owner of any special assessment bond or note, or owner of any interest coupon, for any loss occurring in the lawful operation of its special assessment bond guaranty fund.

The substance of the limitations included in this subsection shall be plainly printed, written, engraved, or reproduced on: (a) Each special assessment bond or note that is a physical instrument; (b) the official notice of sale; and (c) each official statement associated with the bonds or notes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. A new section is added to chapter 85.38 RCW to read as follows:

The governing body of a special district issuing special assessment bonds or notes may create and pay money into a special assessment bond guaranty fund to guaranty special assessment bonds and notes issued by the special district. A portion of the special assessments collected by a special district may be placed into its special assessment bond guaranty fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. A new section is added to chapter 85.38 RCW to read as follows:

A special district may issue funding or refunding special assessment bonds or notes to refund outstanding bonds or notes. Such funding or refunding bonds or notes shall be subject to the provisions of law governing other special assessment bonds or notes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. A new section is added to chapter 85.38 RCW to read as follows:

Special assessment bonds or notes issued by a special district prior to July 1, 1986, shall continue to be retired and be subject to the laws under which they were issued.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. A new section is added to chapter 85.05 RCW to read as follows:

Special assessment bonds and notes shall be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 85.38 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. A new section is added to chapter 85.06 RCW to read as follows:

Special assessment bonds and notes shall be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 85.38 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. A new section is added to chapter 85.08 RCW to read as follows:

Special assessment bonds and notes shall be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 85.38 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. A new section is added to chapter 85.24 RCW to read as follows:

Special assessment bonds and notes shall be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 85.38 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. A new section is added to chapter 85.36 RCW to read as follows:

Special assessment bonds and notes shall be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 85.38 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. A new section is added to chapter 86.09 RCW to read as follows:

Special assessment bonds and notes shall be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 85.38 RCW.

Sec. 29. Section 36, chapter 117, Laws of 1895 and RCW 85.05.360 are each amended to read as follows:

All warrants issued under the provisions of this act shall be presented by the ((holders)) owners thereof to the county treasurer, who shall indorse thereon the day of presentation for payment, with the additional indorsement thereon, in case of nonpayment, that they are not paid for want of funds; and no warrant shall draw interest under the provisions of this act until it is so presented and indorsed by the county treasurer. And it shall be the duty of such treasurer, from time to time, when he has sufficient funds in his hands for that purpose, to advertise in the newspaper doing the county printing for the presentation to him for payment of as many of the outstanding warrants as he may be able to pay: PROVIDED, That thirty days after the first publication of said notice of the treasurer calling in any of said outstanding warrants, said warrants shall cease to bear interest, which shall be stated in the notice. Said notice shall be published two weeks, consecutively, and said warrants shall be called in and paid in the order of their indorsement.

Sec. 30. Section 33, chapter 115, Laws of 1895 and RCW 85.06.330 are each amended to read as follows:

All warrants issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be presented by the ~~((holders))~~ owners thereof to the county treasurer, who shall indorse thereon the day of presentation for payment, with the additional indorsement thereon, in case of nonpayment, that they are not paid for want of funds; and no warrant shall draw interest under the provisions of this chapter until it is so presented and indorsed by the county treasurer. And it shall be the duty of such treasurer, from time to time, when he has sufficient funds in his hands for that purpose, to advertise in the newspaper doing the county printing for the presentation to him for payment of as many of the outstanding warrants as he may be able to pay: PROVIDED, That thirty days after the first publication of said notice of the treasurer calling in any of said outstanding warrants said warrants shall cease to bear interest, which shall be stated in the notice. Said notice shall be published two weeks consecutively, and said warrants shall be called in and paid in the order of their indorsement.

Sec. 31. Section 15, chapter 176, Laws of 1913 and RCW 85.08.210 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon ~~((the settlement of the claims for damages as provided in RCW 85.08.170, or upon))~~ the entry of judgment as provided in RCW 85.08.200, the county auditor shall, under the direction of the ~~((board of county commissioners))~~ county legislative authority, draw ~~((his))~~ a warrant upon the county treasurer for the payment of the amount of damages agreed to or the amount of the judgment, as the case may be, to be paid out of the current expense fund of the county.

Sec. 32. Section 23, chapter 176, Laws of 1913 as last amended by section 46, chapter 396, Laws of 1985 and RCW 85.08.320 are each amended to read as follows:

The compensation of the superintendent of construction, the board of appraisers hereinafter provided for, and any special engineer, attorney or agent employed by the district in connection with the improvement, the maximum wages to be paid, and the maximum price of materials to be used, shall be fixed by the district board of supervisors. ~~((The compensation for))~~ Members of the board of supervisors ~~((shall be fixed by the county legislative authority))~~ may receive compensation up to twenty-five dollars for attending each official meeting of the district and for each day or major part thereof for all necessary services actually performed in connection with their duties as supervisors. Each supervisor shall be entitled to reimbursement for reasonable expenses actually incurred in connection with business, including subsistence and lodging while away from the supervisor's place of residence and mileage for use of a privately owned vehicle in accordance with chapter 42.24 RCW. ~~((Each member of the county legislative authority, except in counties of the first class, shall receive pay at the rate of four dollars per day for the number of days he is engaged in the performance of any duty under this chapter, which sum shall be additional to his salary in case he receive an annual salary; and none of the statutory provisions limiting the number of days that a member of the county legislative authority shall draw pay for or limiting the number of sessions for attendance upon which he shall be entitled to mileage shall apply to any proceedings under this chapter. All officers and members of boards performing duties under this chapter shall receive in addition to their fees or salaries their actual necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties hereinunder.))~~ All costs of construction or maintenance done under the direction of the board of supervisors shall be paid upon vouchers or payrolls verified by two of the said supervisors. All costs of construction and all other expenses, fees and charges on account of such improvement shall be paid by warrants drawn by the county auditor upon the county treasurer upon the proper fund, and shall draw interest at a rate determined by the county legislative authority until paid or called by the county treasurer as warrants of the county are called.

~~((If at the hearing provided for in RCW 85.08.160 the county legislative authority shall determine that bonds shall be issued to pay the costs of the improvement or warrants sold to procure funds with which to pay such cost, as therein provided, temporary warrants may be issued for any part or all of such costs, expenses, fees, and charges, and shall be paid in cash upon the issuance and sale of such bonds, or shall be exchanged for an equal amount par value of such bonds. All such temporary warrants shall recite that they are temporary warrants and that they draw interest until called to be paid in cash or to be exchanged for bonds. All warrants issued under the provisions of this chapter and sold by the county legislative authority, or issued to any contractor and by him sold or hypothecated for a valuable consideration, shall be claims and liens against the fund against which they are drawn, prior and superior to any right, lien or claim of any surety upon any bond or bonds given to secure the performance of the contract or to secure the payment of persons who have performed work thereon, furnished materials therefor or provisions and supplies for the carrying on of the work.))~~

Sec. 33. Section 3, chapter 26, Laws of 1949 as amended by section 197, chapter 167, Laws of 1983 and RCW 85.16.030 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((†))~~ In maintaining a system of improvements of any such district the supervisors thereof may at any time, with the approval of the county legislative authority and upon determination by such county legislative authority that an emergency exists, make expenditures in excess of the last annual maintenance ((levy)) assessments theretofore made, which excess amount or amounts shall in such event be included in the maintenance ((levy)) assessments for the succeeding year except as otherwise herein provided.

~~((When, owing to floods, earthquakes, inadequate maintenance or any other cause, it shall be found by the county legislative authority, after consideration of the supervisors' recommendations, plans and specifications and schedules of estimated costs of maintenance work required, that necessary maintenance work will require extraordinary maintenance expenditures and the county legislative authority shall have authorized such extraordinary maintenance work to be done as herein provided, the county legislative authority may provide that the levy to meet such extraordinary expenditures shall be spread over a term of years and warrants or bonds issued to meet the same. Such terms shall not exceed five years if warrants are issued, and shall be either ten or fifteen years if bonds are issued, all as the county legislative authority shall determine. The form, tenor, and amount of such bonds and warrants, the number of installments in which the assessments shall be paid, and the time and method of payment of assessments shall be the same as provided in RCW 85.08.240, for the original construction cost of a system of improvements. PROVIDED HOWEVER, That said bonds and warrants may be in denominations of one thousand dollars. Such bonds and warrants may be in any form, including bearer bonds or bearer warrants, or registered bonds or registered warrants as provided in RCW 39.46.030. In case maintenance bonds or warrants to cover extraordinary maintenance expenditures are issued as herein provided, then a maintenance bond or warrant redemption fund for each separate issue of bonds or warrants shall be created into which all moneys derived from assessments levied to pay each issue shall be paid. Such redemption fund shall be applied first to the payment of the interest due upon such bonds or warrants and second to the payment of the principal thereof. After payment in full of principal and interest of any such issue of bonds or warrants, any balance thereafter remaining in any such redemption fund shall be paid into the district's maintenance fund.~~

~~(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds and warrants may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.)~~

Sec. 34. Section 13, chapter 26, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 198, chapter 167, Laws of 1983 and RCW 85.16.180 are each amended to read as follows:

((+)) The county legislative authority shall thereupon enter an order authorizing the contemplated extraordinary maintenance work to be done and authorizing the issuance of temporary construction warrants to pay the cost of said work as it progresses, which warrants may bear interest at such rate or rates of interest as the county legislative authority shall determine. ~~((Bonds or))~~ Warrants to pay the costs of such extraordinary maintenance may be issued and sold at one time or from time to time and in such series and amounts as may be found practicable and as determined by the board.

~~(((2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds and warrants may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter 39.46 RCW.))~~

Sec. 35. Section 6, chapter 131, Laws of 1917 and RCW 85.20.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever in any district reorganized under the provisions of this chapter any bonds issued prior to such reorganization shall become payable and the ~~((board of county commissioners shall determine that it will be for the best interests of the owners of a majority of the acreage of lands included in such district to issue refunding bonds and to levy an assessment, payable in ten or fifteen years, instead of levying the annual assessments required by law to be levied to liquidate such outstanding bonds, they may levy such assessment and fix the time for the payment thereof at either ten or fifteen years, and fix the installments in which such assessment shall be paid as provided for the payment of assessments for the costs of construction under the provisions of chapter 176 of the Laws of 1913, and acts amendatory thereof, and they may issue refunding bonds of the district in the manner hereinafter provided, to provide funds with which to pay such outstanding bonds then payable))~~ county legislative authority determines that it is in the interest of the property owners of the district to have refunding bonds issued, the county legislative authority may authorize the district to issue refunding bonds in accordance with chapter 85.38 RCW.

Sec. 36. Section 11, chapter 131, Laws of 1917 and RCW 85.20.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the expiration of thirty days from the first publication of the notice given by the treasurer as provided herein, the ~~((board of county commissioners))~~ county legislative authority of the county in which all or the major part of the district is located may issue and sell refunding bonds of the district ~~((, payable as determined by them in their resolution, in the manner provided for the issuance of bonds to pay the costs of construction in drainage improvement districts, and all the provisions of law governing the issuance, sale and payment of such bonds shall govern the issuance, sale and payment of the bonds herein provided for))~~ subject to chapter 85.38 RCW.

Sec. 37. Section 6, chapter 182, Laws of 1933 and RCW 85.22.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever in any district reorganized under the provisions of this chapter any bonds issued prior to such reorganization shall become payable and the ~~((board of county commissioners shall determine that it will be for~~ ~~the best interests of the owners of a majority of the acreage of lands included in such district to issue refunding bonds and to levy an assessment, payable in ten or fifteen years, instead of levying the annual assessments required by law to be levied to liquidate such outstanding bonds, they may levy such assessment and fix the time for the payment thereof at either ten or fifteen years, and fix the installments in which such assessment shall be paid as provided for the payment of assessments for the costs of construction under the provisions of chapter 176 of the Laws of 1913, and acts amendatory thereof; and they may issue refunding bonds of the district in the manner hereinafter provided, to provide funds with which to pay such outstanding bonds then payable)) county legislative authority determines that it is in the interest of the property owners of the district to have refunding bonds issued, the county legislative authority may authorize the district to issue refunding bonds in accordance with chapter 85.38 RCW.~~

Sec. 38. Section 17, chapter 225, Laws of 1909 as amended by section 199, chapter 167, Laws of 1983 and RCW 85.24.160 are each amended to read as follows:

The owner of any lot or parcel of land charged with any assessment, as hereinbefore provided, may redeem the same from all liability by paying the entire assessment charged against such lot or parcel of land, or part thereof, without interest, within thirty days after notice to him of such assessment, as herein provided(~~(, or may redeem same any time after the bonds authorized in RCW 85.24.230 shall have been issued by paying the full amount of all the principal and interest to the end of the interest year then expiring or next to expire. The board shall pay the interest on the bonds authorized to be issued under this chapter out of the respective local improvement funds, from which they are payable, and whenever there shall be sufficient money in any of such funds against which bonds have been issued under provisions of this chapter, over and above the amount necessary for the payment of interest on all unpaid bonds, and sufficient to pay the principal of one or more bonds, the board shall call in and pay such bond: PROVIDED, Said bonds shall be called in and paid in their numerical order: PROVIDED FURTHER, That such call shall be made by publication in one or more newspapers on the day following the delinquencies of the installment of the assessment, or as soon thereafter as practicable and shall state that bonds Nos. (giving serial number and numbers of the bonds called) will be paid on the day the interest payments on such bonds shall become due, and interest upon such bonds shall cease upon such date)).~~

Sec. 39. Section 15, chapter 131, Laws of 1961 and RCW 85.32.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Any district choosing to operate under this chapter shall not use the processes provided for raising revenue under any other law: PROVIDED, That if for any reason it is deemed more just and advisable by the board, any such other method or process for raising revenue as provided by law may be used concurrently against properties solely within the territorial limits of the district for the sole purpose of extinguishing indebtedness incurred before the district adopts the procedure of this chapter, in which event no funds raised under this chapter shall be used to pay such prior indebtedness. However, when a drainage district issues special assessment bonds or notes after June 1, 1986, the process of raising revenue related to the bonds or notes shall be as specified in chapter 85.38 RCW.

Sec. 40. Section 53, chapter 72, Laws of 1937 and RCW 86.09.157 are each amended to read as follows:

Said flood control districts shall also have authority to issue and sell special assessment bonds or notes of the district (~~((payable partially or exclusively from the income derived from said tolls above mentioned, as in this chapter provided))~~) in accordance with chapter 85.38 RCW.

Sec. 41. Section 2, chapter 396, Laws of 1985 and RCW 85.38.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter:

(1) "Governing body" means the board of commissioners, board of supervisors, or board of directors of a special district.

(2) "Owner of land" means the record owner of at least a majority ownership interest in a separate and legally created lot or parcel of land, as determined by the records of the county auditor, except that if the lot or parcel has been sold under a real estate contract, the vendee or grantee shall be deemed to be the owner of such land for purposes of authorizing voting rights. It is assumed, unless shown otherwise, that the name appearing as the owner of property on the property tax rolls is the current owner.

(3) "Qualified voter of a special district" means a person who is either: (a) A natural person who is a voter under general state election laws, registered to vote in the state of Washington for a period of not less than sixty days before the election, and the owner of land located in the special district for a period of not less than sixty days before the election; ~~((or))~~ (b) a corporation or partnership that has owned land located in the special district for a period of not less than sixty days before the election; or (c) the state, its agencies or political subdivisions that own land in the special district or lands proposed to be annexed into the special district except that the state, its agencies and political subdivisions shall not be eligible to vote to elect a member of the governing board of a special district. If land is owned as community property, both spouses may vote if otherwise qualified. If other multiple undivided interests exist in a lot or parcel, and no person owns a majority undivided interest, the owners of undivided interests at least equal to a majority interest may designate in writing which owner is eligible to vote. A corporation ~~((or))~~, partnership or governmental entity shall designate a natural person to exercise its voting powers. Except as provided in RCW 85.05.015 and 86.09.377, no owner of land may cast more than one vote, or have more than one vote cast for it, in a special district election.

(4) "Special district" means: (a) A diking district; (b) a drainage district; (c) a diking, drainage, and/or sewerage improvement district; (d) an intercounty diking and drainage district; (e) a consolidated diking district, drainage district, diking improvement district, and/or drainage improvement district; or (f) a flood control district.

(5) "Special district general election" means the election of a special district regularly held on the second Tuesday of December in each odd-numbered year at which a member of the special district governing body is regularly elected.

Sec. 42. Section 8, chapter 396, Laws of 1985 and RCW 85.38.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in RCW 85.38.090, each special district shall be governed by a three-member governing ((board)) body. The term of office for each member of a special district governing body shall be six years and until his or her successor is elected and qualified. One member of the governing body shall be elected at the time of special district general elections ind, each odd-numbered year for a term of six years beginning as provided in RCW 29.04.170 for assumption of office by elected officials of cities.

(2) The terms of office of members of the governing bodies of special districts, who are holding office on July 28, 1985, shall be altered to provide staggered six-year terms as provided in this subsection. The member who on July 28, 1985, has the longest term remaining shall have his or her term altered so that the position will be filled at the December, 1991, special district general election; the member with the second longest term remaining shall have his or her term altered so that the position will be filled at the December, 1989, special district general election; and the member with the third longest term of office shall have his or her term altered so that the position will be filled at the December, 1987, special district general election.

(3) The initial members of the governing body of a newly created special district shall be appointed by the legislative authority of the county within which the special district, or the largest portion of the special district, is located. These initial governing body members shall serve until their successors are elected and qualified at the next special district general election held at least ninety days after the special district is established. At that election the first elected members of the governing body shall be elected. No primary elections may be held. Any voter of a special district may become a candidate for such a position by filing written notice of this intention with the governing body of the special district at least thirty, but not more than sixty, days before a special district general election. The names of all candidates for such positions shall be listed alphabetically. At this first election, the candidate receiving the greatest number of votes shall have a six-year term, the candidate receiving the second greatest number of votes shall have a four-year term, and the candidate receiving the third greatest number of votes shall have a two-year term of office. The initially elected members of a governing body shall take office immediately when qualified as defined in RCW 29.01.135. Thereafter the candidate receiving the greatest number of votes shall be elected for a six-year term of office. Members of a governing body shall hold their office until their successors are elected and qualified, and assume office as provided in RCW 29.04.170.

(4) Whenever a vacancy occurs in the governing body of a special district, the legislative authority of the county within which the special district, or the largest portion of the special district, is located, shall appoint a district voter to serve the remaining term of office. A vacancy occurs upon the death, resignation, or incapacity of a governing body member or whenever the governing body member ceases being a qualified voter of the special district.

(5) An elected or appointed member of a special district governing body must be a qualified voter of the special district: PROVIDED, That the state, its agencies and political subdivisions, or their designees under RCW 85.38.010(3) shall not be eligible for election or appointment.

Sec. 43. Section 144, chapter 72, Laws of 1937 and RCW 86.09.430 are each amended to read as follows:

Said notice of hearing on said determination of assessment ratios shall state that the base assessment map designating the classes in which the lands in the district have been placed for assessment purposes on the ratios authorized by law, has been prepared by the board of appraisers and is on file at the office of the district board and may be inspected at any time during office hours; that a hearing on said map will be held before the ((~~state supervisor of flood control~~)) county legislative authority at the office of the district board on, the day of,, at the hour of o'clock (naming the time), where any person may appear and present such objections, if any, he may have to said map, and shall be signed by the secretary of the district.

Sec. 44. Section 147, chapter 72, Laws of 1937 and RCW 86.09.439 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the signing of said order by said ((~~state supervisor~~)) county legislative authority and the attachment of the same to said base assessment map, said base assessment map and all things set out on the face thereof shall be conclusive in all things upon all parties, unless appealed from to the superior court in the manner and within the time herein provided.

Sec. 45. Section 188, chapter 72, Laws of 1937 as amended by section 202, chapter 167, Laws of 1983 and RCW 86.09.562 are each amended to read as follows:

Said county treasurer shall pay out the moneys received or deposited with him or any portion thereof upon warrants issued by the county auditor of the same county of which the district treasurer is an officer against the proper funds of the district except the sums to be paid out of the ~~((bond))~~ special funds for interest and principal payments on bonds or notes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 46. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 29, chapter 117, Laws of 1895, section 1, chapter 87, Laws of 1921, section 177, chapter 167, Laws of 1983 and RCW 85.05.290;

Sec. 48. Section 35.44.090, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 30, chapter 469, Laws of 1985 and RCW 35.44.090 are each amended to read as follows:

At least fifteen days before the date fixed for hearing, notice thereof shall be mailed to the owner or reputed owner of the property whose name appears on the assessment roll, at the address shown on the tax rolls of the county treasurer for each item of property described on the list. In addition thereto the notice shall be published at least ~~((five times))~~ once a week for two consecutive weeks in the official newspaper of the city or town, the last publication to be at least fifteen days before the date fixed for hearing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 49. A new section is added to chapter 52.12 RCW to read as follows:

Fire protection districts may cooperate and participate with counties, cities, or towns in providing hazardous materials response teams under the county, city, or town emergency management plan provided for in RCW 38.52.070. The participation and cooperation shall be pursuant to an agreement or contract entered into under chapter 39.34 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 50. A new section is added to chapter 85.38 RCW to read as follows:

Special districts shall have authority to enter into contracts for the construction of any improvement authorized by law, or for labor, materials, or equipment entering therein, without public bidding, with the written approval and consent of the governing body in instances of genuine emergency to be declared by the governing body or in any instance where the contract price does not exceed ten thousand dollars.

Any proposed improvement or part thereof, not exceeding five thousand dollars in cost, may be constructed by district employees: PROVIDED, That this shall not restrict a special district from using volunteer labor and equipment on improvements, and providing reimbursement for actual expenses.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 51. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 62, chapter 72, Laws of 1937, section 10, chapter 104, Laws of 1982, section 56, chapter 396, Laws of 1985 and RCW 86.09.184; and

(2) Section 63, chapter 72, Laws of 1937, section 4, chapter 25, Laws of 1965, section 4, chapter 104, Laws of 1982, section 57, chapter 396, Laws of 1985 and RCW 86.09.187.

Sec. 52. Section 51, chapter 72, Laws of 1937 and RCW 86.09.151 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Said flood control districts shall have full authority to carry out the objects of their creation and to that end are authorized to acquire, purchase, hold, lease, manage, improve, repair, occupy, and sell real and personal property or any interest therein, either inside or outside the boundaries of the district, to enter into and perform any and all necessary contracts, to appoint and employ the necessary officers, agents and employees, to sue and be sued, to exercise the right of eminent domain, to levy and enforce the collection of special assessments and in the manner herein provided against the lands within the district, for district revenues, and to do any and all lawful acts required and expedient to carry out the purpose of this chapter.

(2) In addition to the powers conferred in this chapter and those in chapter 85.38 RCW, flood control districts may engage in activities authorized under RCW 36.61.020 for lake management districts using procedures granted in this chapter and in chapter 85.38 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 53. A new section is added to chapter 90.03 RCW to read as follows:

The definitions set forth in this section apply to sections 54 and 55 of this act.

(1) "State highway right of way" means the right of way for a state highway. The phrase includes the right of way of a state limited-access highway inside or outside a city or town but does not include city or town streets forming a part of the route of state highways that are not limited-access highways. The term does not include state property under the jurisdiction of the department of transportation that is outside the right of way lines of a state highway.

(2) "Storm water control facility" means any facility, improvement, development, property, or interest therein, made, constructed, or acquired for the purpose of controlling, or protecting life or property from, any storm, waste, flood, or surplus waters.

(3) "Rate" means the dollar amount charged per unit of surface area of a parcel of real property based upon factors established by the local government utility.

(4) "Comparable real property" means real property equal to the state highway right of way or a section of state highway right of way in terms of the factors considered by the local government utility in establishing rates.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 54. A new section is added to chapter 90.03 RCW to read as follows:

The rate charged by a local government utility to the department of transportation with respect to state highway right of way or any section of state highway right of way for the construction, operation, and maintenance of storm water control facilities under chapters 35.67, 35.92, 36.89, 36.94, 56.08, and 86.15 RCW, shall be thirty percent of the rate for comparable real property, except as otherwise provided in this section. The rate charged to the department with respect to state highway right of way or any section of state highway right of way within a local government utility's jurisdiction shall not, however, exceed the rate charged for comparable city street or county road right of way within the same jurisdiction. The legislature finds that the aforesaid rates are presumptively fair and equitable because of the traditional and continuing expenditures of the department of transportation for the construction, operation, and maintenance of storm water control facilities designed to control surface water or storm water runoff from state highway rights of way. The utility imposing the charge and the department of transportation may, however, agree to either higher or lower rates with respect to the construction, operation, or maintenance of any specific storm water control facilities based upon the extent and adequacy of storm water control facilities constructed by the department and upon the actual benefits to state highway rights of way from the storm water control facilities constructed by the local government utility. If a different rate is agreed to, a report so stating shall be submitted to the legislative transportation committee. If the local government utility and the department of transportation cannot agree upon the proper rate, and after a report has been submitted to the legislative transportation committee and after ninety days from submission of such report, either may commence an action in the superior court for the county in which the state highway right of way is located to establish the proper rate. The court in establishing the proper rate shall take into account the extent and adequacy of storm water control facilities constructed by the department and the actual benefits to the sections of state highway rights of way from storm water control facilities constructed, operated, and maintained by the local government utility. Control of surface water runoff and storm water runoff from state highway rights of way shall be deemed an actual benefit to the state highway rights of way. The rate for sections of state highway right of way as determined by the court shall be set forth in terms of the percentage of the rate for comparable real property, but shall in no event exceed the rate charged for comparable city street or county road right of way within the same jurisdiction.

Sec. 55. Section 1, chapter 315, Laws of 1983 and RCW 35.67.025 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as otherwise provided in section 54 of this 1986 act, any public entity and public property, including the state of Washington and state property, shall be subject to rates and charges for storm water control facilities to the same extent private persons and private property are subject to such rates and charges that are imposed by cities and towns pursuant to RCW 35.67.020. In setting these rates and charges, consideration may be made of inkind services, such as stream improvements or donation of property.

Sec. 56. Section 2, chapter 315, Laws of 1983 and RCW 35.92.021 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as otherwise provided in section 54 of this 1986 act, any public entity and public property, including the state of Washington and state property, shall be subject to rates and charges for storm water control facilities to the same extent private persons and private property are subject to such rates and charges that are imposed by cities and towns pursuant to RCW 35.92.020. In setting these rates and charges, consideration may be made of inkind services, such as stream improvements or donation of property.

Sec. 57. Section 3, chapter 315, Laws of 1983 and RCW 36.89.085 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as otherwise provided in section 54 of this 1986 act, any public entity and public property, including the state of Washington and state property, shall be subject to rates and charges for storm water control facilities to the same extent private persons and private property are subject to such rates and charges that are imposed by counties pursuant to RCW 36.89.080. In setting these rates and charges, consideration may be made of inkind services, such as stream improvements or donation of property.

Sec. 58. Section 4, chapter 315, Laws of 1983 and RCW 36.94.145 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as otherwise provided in section 54 of this 1986 act, any public entity and public property, including the state of Washington and state property, shall be subject to rates and charges for storm water control facilities to the same extent private persons and private property are subject to such rates and charges that are imposed by counties pursuant to RCW 36.94.140. In setting these rates and charges, consideration may be made of inkind services, such as stream improvements or donation of property.

Sec. 59. Section 5, chapter 315, Laws of 1983 and RCW 56.08.012 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as otherwise provided in section 54 of this 1986 act, any public entity and public property, including the state of Washington and state property, shall be subject to rates and charges for storm water control facilities to the same extent private persons and private property are subject to such rates and charges that are imposed by sewer districts pursuant to RCW 56.08.010 or 56.16.090. In setting these rates and charges, consideration may be made of inkind services, such as stream improvements or donation of property.

Sec. 60. Section 16, chapter 153, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 19, chapter 315, Laws of 1983 and RCW 86.15.160 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purposes of this chapter the supervisors may authorize:

(1) An annual excess ad valorem tax levy within any zone or participating zones when authorized by the voters of the zone or participating zones under RCW 84.52.052 and 84.52.054;

(2) An assessment upon property, including state property, specially benefited by flood control improvements or storm water control improvements imposed under chapter 86.09 RCW;

(3) Within any zone or participating zones an annual ad valorem property tax levy of not to exceed fifty cents per thousand dollars of assessed value when the levy will not take dollar rates that other taxing districts may lawfully claim and that will not cause the combined levies to exceed the constitutional and/or statutory limitations, and the additional levy, or any portion thereof, may also be made when dollar rates of other taxing units is released therefor by agreement with the other taxing units from their authorized levies;

(4) A charge, under RCW 36.89.080, for the furnishing of service to those who are receiving or will receive benefits from storm water control facilities and who are contributing to an increase in surface water runoff. Except as otherwise provided in section 54 of this 1986 act, any public entity and public property, including the state and state property, shall be liable for the charges to the same extent a private person and privately owned property is liable for the charges, and in setting these rates and charges, consideration may be made of inkind services, such as stream improvements or donation of property;

(5) The creation of local improvement districts and utility local improvement districts, the issuance of improvement district bonds and warrants, and the imposition, collection, and enforcement of special assessments on all property, including any state-owned or other publicly-owned property, specially benefited from improvements in the same manner as provided for counties by chapter 36.94 RCW.

Sec. 61. Section 7, chapter 136, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as amended by section 22, chapter 315, Laws of 1983 and RCW 86.15.176 are each amended to read as follows:

The supervisors may provide by resolution for revenues by fixing rates and charges for the furnishing of service to those served(~~(including public entities,))~~ or receiving benefits from a flood control improvement(~~((PROVIDED, That))~~) including public entities, except as otherwise provided in section 54 of this 1986 act. The service charge shall be uniform for the same class of benefits or service. In classifying services furnished or benefits received the board may in its discretion consider the character and use of land and its water runoff characteristics and any other matters that present a reasonable difference as a ground for distinction. Service charges shall be applicable to a zone or participating zones. The disposition of all revenue from service charges shall be in accordance with RCW 86.15.130.

Sec. 62. Section 8, chapter 315, Laws of 1983 and RCW 90.03.500 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislature finds that increasing the surface water or storm water accumulation on or flow over real property, beyond that which naturally occurs on the real property, may cause severe damage to the real property and limit the gainful use or enjoyment of the real property, resulting in a tort, nuisance, or taking. The damage can arise from activities increasing the point or nonpoint flow of surface water or storm water over the real property, or altering or interrupting the natural drainage from the real property. The legislature finds that it is in the public interest to permit the construction and operation of public improvements to lessen the damage. The legislature further finds that it is in the public interest to provide for the equitable imposition of special assessments, rates, and charges to fund such improvements. This shall include the imposition of special assessments, rates, and charges on real property to fund that reasonable portion of the public improvements that alleviate the damage arising from activities that are the proximate cause of the damage on other real property. Except as otherwise provided in section 54 of this 1986 act, these special assessments, rates, and charges may be imposed on any publicly-owned, including state-owned, real property that causes such damage.

Sec. 63. Section 9, chapter 315, Laws of 1983 and RCW 90.03.510 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever a county, city, town, sewer district, or flood control zone district imposes rates or charges to fund storm water control facilities or improvements and the operation and maintenance of such facilities or improvements under RCW 35.67.020, 35.92.020, 36.89.080, 36.94.140, 56.08.010, or 56.16.090, it (~~(shall))~~ may provide a credit for the value of storm water control facilities or improvements that a person or entity has installed or located that mitigate or lessen the impact of storm water which otherwise would occur.

Sec. 64. Section 84.64.050, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 2, chapter 179, Laws of 1984 and by section 19, chapter 220, Laws of 1984 and RCW 84.64.050 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

After the expiration of three years from the date of delinquency, when any property remains on the tax rolls for which no certificate of delinquency has been issued, the county treasurer shall proceed to issue certificates of delinquency on said property to the county for all years' taxes, interest, and costs: PROVIDED, That the county treasurer, with the consent of the county legislative authority, may elect to issue a certificate for fewer than all years' taxes, interest, and costs to a minimum of the taxes, interest, and costs for the earliest year.

The county treasurer may include in the certificate of delinquency any assessments which are due on the property and are the responsibility of the county treasurer to collect. For purposes of this chapter, "taxes, interest, and costs" include any assessments which are so included by the county treasurer.

The change to a three-year grace period shall first be effective on May 1, 1983. Prior to that date, the county treasurer shall send a notice to all taxpayers with taxes delinquent for two years or more, notifying them of the change in the grace period. The treasurer shall file said certificates when completed with the clerk of the court, and the treasurer shall thereupon, with such legal assistance as the county legislative authority shall provide in counties having a population of thirty thousand or more, and with the assistance of the county prosecuting attorney in counties having a population of less than thirty thousand, proceed to foreclose in the name of the county, the tax liens embraced in such certificates, and the same proceedings shall be had as when held by an individual: PROVIDED, That notice and summons must be served or notice given in a manner reasonably calculated to inform the owner or owners, and any person having a recorded interest in or lien of record upon the property, of the foreclosure action. Either (1) personal service upon the owner or owners and any person having a recorded interest in or lien of record upon the property, or (2) publication once in a newspaper of general circulation, which is circulated in the area of the property and mailing of notice by certified mail to the owner or owners and any person having a recorded interest in or lien of record upon the property, or, if a mailing address is unavailable, personal service upon the occupant of the property, if any, is sufficient. In addition to describing the property as the same is described on the tax rolls, the notice must include the local street address, if any. It shall be the duty of the county treasurer to mail a copy of the published summons, within fifteen days after the first publication thereof, to the treasurer of each city or town within which any property involved in a tax foreclosure is situated, but the treasurer's failure to do so shall not affect the jurisdiction of the court nor the priority of any tax sought to be foreclosed. Said certificates of delinquency issued to the county may be issued in one general certificate in book form including all property, and the proceedings to foreclose the liens against said property may be brought in one action and all persons interested in any of the property involved in said proceedings may be made codefendants in said action, and if unknown may be therein named as unknown owners, and the publication of such notice shall be sufficient service thereof on all persons interested in the property described therein, except as provided above. The person or persons whose name or names appear on the treasurer's rolls as the owner or owners of said property shall be considered and treated as the owner or owners of said property for the purpose of this section, and if upon said treasurer's rolls it appears that the owner or owners of said property are unknown, then said property shall be proceeded against, as belonging to an unknown owner or owners, as the case may be, and all persons owning or claiming to own, or having or claiming to have an interest therein, are hereby required to take notice of said proceedings and of any and all steps thereunder: PROVIDED, That(~~(, at least thirty days)~~) prior to the sale of the property, if such property is shown on the tax rolls under unknown owners or as having an assessed value of three thousand dollars or more, the treasurer shall order or conduct a title search of the property to be sold to determine the legal description of the property to be sold and the record title holder, and if the record title holder or holders differ from the person or persons whose name or names appear on the treasurer's rolls as the owner or owners, the record title holder or holders shall be considered and treated as the owner or owners of said property for the purpose of this section, and shall be entitled to the notice provided for in this section.

The county treasurer shall not issue certificates of delinquency upon property which is eligible for deferral of taxes under chapter 84.38 RCW but shall require the owner of the property to file a declaration to defer taxes under chapter 84.38 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 65. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Passed the Senate March 11, 1986.

Passed the House March 11, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986, with the exception of certain items which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 46(43), Substitute Senate Bill No. 4486, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to local government."

I am vetoing section 46(43) because it would repeal a section of an existing law (RCW 85.20.120) that is also amended by section 36 of this bill.

With the exception of section 46(43), the remainder of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4486 is approved."

CHAPTER 279

[Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4917] BANKS AND TRUST COMPANIES

AN ACT Relating to banks and trust companies; amending RCW 30.04.030, 30.04.075, 30.04.120, 30.04.130, 30.04.140, 30.04.180, 30.04.210, 30.04.215, 30.04.238, 30.04.380, 30.04.390, 30.04.405, 30.08.010, 30.08.020, 30.08.050, 30.08.060, 30.08.070, 30.08.082, 30.08.084, 30.08.086, 30.08.087, 30.08.088, 30.08.090, 30.08.140, 30.12.010, 30.12.020, 30.12.030, 30.12.050, 30.12.110, 30.20.060, 30.40.020, 30.04.550, 30.04.555, 30.04.560, 30.49.010, 30.43.010, and 30.49.040; adding new sections to chapter 30.04 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 30.08 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 30.12 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 43.19 RCW; creating new sections; repealing RCW 30.04.040, 30.04.100, 30.04.110, 30.04.122, 30.04.124, 30.04.126, 30.04.128, 30.04.160, 30.04.170, 30.04.190, 30.04.340, 30.04.350, 30.04.360, 30.12.080, 30.12.140, 30.12.150, 30.12.160, 30.12.170, 30.12.200, 30.12.210, 30.20.070, 30.20.080, and 30.40.060; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 30.04.030, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 and RCW 30.04.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The supervisor shall have power to adopt uniform rules and regulations in accordance with the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW, to govern examinations and reports of banks and trust companies and the form in which they shall report their assets, liabilities, and reserves, charge off bad debts and otherwise keep their records and accounts, and otherwise to govern the administration of this title. He shall mail a copy of the rules and regulations to each bank and trust company at its principal place of business ~~((, and they shall be effective thirty days after the mailing thereof. The person doing the mailing shall make and file his affidavit thereof in the office of the supervisor))~~.

The supervisor shall have the power, and broad administrative discretion, to administer and interpret the provisions of this title to facilitate the delivery of financial services to the citizens of the state of Washington by the banks and trust companies subject to this title.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 245, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 30.04.075 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All examination reports and all information obtained by the supervisor and the supervisor's staff in conducting examinations of banks, trust companies, or alien banks is confidential and privileged information and shall not be made public or otherwise disclosed to any person, firm, corporation, agency, association, governmental body, or other entity ~~((except as provided by RCW 39.58.105))~~.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section notwithstanding, the supervisor may furnish all or any part of examination reports prepared by the supervisor's office to:

(a) Federal agencies empowered to examine state banks, trust companies, or alien banks; ((to the examined bank, trust company, or alien bank as provided in subsection (4) of this section; and to))

(b) Officials empowered to investigate criminal charges subject to legal process, valid search warrant, or subpoena. If the supervisor furnishes any examination report to officials empowered to investigate criminal charges, the supervisor may only furnish that part of the report which is necessary and pertinent to the investigation, and the supervisor may do this only after notifying the affected bank, trust company, or alien bank and any customer of the bank, trust company, or alien bank who is named in that part of the examination or report ((of the order to furnish the part of the examination report)) ordered to be furnished unless the officials requesting the report first obtain a waiver of the notice requirement from a court of competent jurisdiction for good cause;

(c) The examined bank, trust company, or alien bank, or holding company thereof;

(d) The attorney general in his or her role as legal advisor to the supervisor;

(e) Liquidating agents of a distressed bank, trust company, or alien bank;

(f) A person or organization officially connected with the bank as officer, director, attorney, auditor, or independent attorney or independent auditor;

(g) The Washington public deposit protection commission as provided by RCW 39.58.105.

(3) All examination reports furnished under subsections (2) and (4) of this section shall remain the property of the division of banking, and be confidential and no person, agency, or authority to whom reports are furnished or any officer, director, or employee thereof shall disclose or make public any of the reports or any information contained therein except in published statistical material that does not disclose the affairs of any individual or corporation: PROVIDED, That nothing herein shall prevent the use in a criminal prosecution of reports furnished under subsection (2) of this section.

(4) The examination report made by the division of banking is designed for use in the supervision of the bank, trust company, or alien bank ~~((, and the supervisor may furnish a copy of the report to the bank, trust company, or alien bank examined))~~. The report shall remain the property of the supervisor and will be furnished to the bank, trust company, or alien bank solely for its confidential use. Under no circumstances shall the bank, trust company, or alien bank or any of its directors, officers, or employees disclose or make public in any manner the report or any portion thereof, to any person or organization not connected with the bank as officer, director, employee, attorney, auditor, or candidate for executive office with the bank. The bank may also, after execution of an agreement not to disclose information in the report, disclose the report or relevant portions thereof to a party proposing to acquire or merge with the bank.

(5) Examination reports and information obtained by the supervisor and the supervisor's staff in conducting examinations shall not be subject to public disclosure under chapter 42.17 RCW.

(6) In any civil action in which the reports are sought to be discovered or used as evidence, any party may, upon notice to the supervisor, petition the court for an in camera review of the report. The court may permit discovery and introduction of only those portions of the report which are relevant and otherwise unobtainable by the requesting party. This subsection shall not apply to an action brought or defended by the supervisor.

(7) This section shall not apply to investigation reports prepared by the supervisor and the supervisor's staff concerning an application for a new bank or trust company or an application for a branch of a bank, trust company, or alien bank: PROVIDED, That the supervisor may adopt rules making confidential portions of the reports if in the supervisor's opinion the public disclosure of the portions of the report would impair the ability to obtain the information which the supervisor considers necessary to fully evaluate the application.

(8) Every person who violates any provision of this section shall (~~forfeit the person's office or employment and~~) be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The total loans and extensions of credit by a bank or trust company to a person outstanding at any one time shall not exceed twenty percent of the capital and surplus of such bank or trust company. The following loans and extensions of credit shall not be subject to this limitation:

(1) Loans or extensions of credit arising from the discount of commercial or business paper evidencing an obligation to the person negotiating it with recourse;

(2) Loans or extensions of credit secured by bonds, notes, certificates of indebtedness, or treasury bills of the United States or by other such obligations wholly guaranteed as to principal and interest by the United States;

(3) Loans or extensions of credit to or secured by unconditional take-out commitments or guarantees of any department, agency, bureau, board, commission, or establishment of the United States or any corporation wholly owned directly or indirectly by the United States;

(4) Loans or extensions of credit fully secured by a segregated deposit account or accounts in the lending bank;

(5) Loans or extensions of credit secured by collateral having a readily ascertained market value of at least one hundred fifteen percent of the outstanding amount of the loan or extension of credit;

(6) Loans or extensions of credit secured by bills of lading, warehouse receipts, or similar documents transferring or securing title to readily marketable staples shall be subject to a limitation of thirty-five percent of capital and surplus in addition to the general limitations, if the market value of the staples securing each additional loan or extension of credit at all times equals or exceeds one hundred fifteen percent of the outstanding amount of the loan or extension of credit. The staples shall be fully covered by insurance whenever it is customary to insure the staples;

(7) The purchase of bankers' acceptances of the kind described in section 13 of the federal reserve act and issued by other banks shall not be subject to any limitation based on capital and surplus;

(8) The unpaid purchase price of a sale of bank property, if secured by such property.

For the purposes of this section "capital" shall include the amount of common stock outstanding and unimpaired, the amount of preferred stock outstanding and unimpaired, and capital notes or debentures issued pursuant to chapter 30.36 RCW.

For the purposes of this section "surplus" shall include capital surplus, reflecting the amounts paid in excess of the par or stated value of capital stock, or amounts contributed to the bank other than for capital stock, and amounts transferred to surplus from undivided profits pursuant to resolution of the board of directors.

The term "person" shall include an individual, sole proprietor, partnership, joint venture, association, trust, estate, business trust, corporation, sovereign government or agency, instrumentality, or political subdivision thereof, or any similar entity or organization.

The supervisor may prescribe rules to administer and carry out the purposes of this section, including rules to define or further define terms used in this section and to establish limits or requirements other than those specified in this section for particular classes or categories of loans or extensions of credit, and to determine when a loan putatively made to a person shall, for purposes of this section, be attributed to another person.

Sec. 4. Section 30.04.120, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 1, chapter 104, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 30.04.120 are each amended to read as follows:

The shares of stock of every bank and trust company shall be deemed personal property. No such corporation shall hereafter make any loan or discount on the security of its own capital stock, nor be the purchaser or holder of any such shares, unless such security or purchase shall be necessary to prevent loss upon a debt previously contracted in good faith; in which case the stocks so purchased or acquired shall be sold at public or private sale, or otherwise disposed of, within six months from the time of its purchase or acquisition. Except as hereinafter provided or otherwise permitted by law, nothing herein contained shall authorize the purchase by any such bank or trust company for its own account of any shares of stock of any corporation, except a federal reserve bank of which such corporation shall become a member, and then only to the extent required by such federal reserve bank: PROVIDED, That any ((such)) bank or trust company may purchase, acquire and hold shares of stock in any other corporation which shares have been previously pledged as security to any loan or discount made in good faith and such purchase shall be necessary to prevent loss upon a debt previously contracted in good faith and stock so purchased or acquired shall be sold at public or private sale or otherwise disposed of within two years from the time of its purchase or acquisition. Any time limit imposed in this section may be extended by the supervisor upon cause shown. Banks and trust companies are authorized to make loans on the security of the capital stock of a bank or trust company other than the lending corporation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Unless otherwise prohibited by law, any state bank or trust company may invest in the capital stock of corporations organized to conduct the following businesses:

(1) A safe deposit business: PROVIDED, That the amount of investment does not exceed fifteen percent of its capital stock and surplus;

(2) A corporation holding the premises of the bank or its branches: PROVIDED, That without the approval of the supervisor, the investment of such stock shall not exceed, together with all loans made to the corporation by the bank, a sum equal to the amount permitted to be invested in the premises by RCW 30.04.210;

(3) Stock in a small business investment company licensed and regulated by the United States as authorized by the small business act, Public Law 85-536, 72 Statutes at Large 384, in an amount not to exceed five percent of its capital and surplus;

(4) Capital stock of a banking service corporation or corporations. The total amount that a bank may invest in the shares of such corporation may not exceed ten percent of its capital and surplus. A bank service corporation may not engage in any activity other than those permitted by the bank service corporation act, 12 U.S.C. Sec. 1861, et seq., as subsequently amended and in effect on the effective date of this act. The performance of any service, and any records maintained by any such corporation for a bank, shall be subject to regulation and examination by the supervisor and appropriate federal agencies to the same extent as if the services or records were being performed or maintained by the bank on its own premises;

(5) Capital stock of a federal reserve bank to the extent required by such federal reserve bank;

(6) A corporation engaging in business activities that have been determined by the board of governors of the federal reserve system or by the United States congress to be closely related to the business of banking, as of the effective date of this act;

(7) A governmentally sponsored corporation engaged in secondary marketing of loans and the stock of which must be owned in order to participate in its marketing activities;

(8) A corporation in which all of the voting stock is owned by the bank and that engages exclusively in nondeposit-taking activities that are authorized to be engaged in by the bank or trust company.

Sec. 6. Section 30.04.130, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 and RCW 30.04.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Any debt due a bank or trust company on which interest is one year or more past due and unpaid, unless such debt be well secured and in the course of collection by legal process or probate proceedings, or unless such debt be represented by or secured by bonds or other collateral having a ((determinable)) readily ascertainable market value ((currently quoted on the New York stock exchange,)) shall be considered a bad debt, and shall be charged off of the books of such corporation. Such ((bonds)) assets shall be carried on the books of such corporation at such value as the supervisor may from time to time direct, but in no event shall such carrying value exceed the market value thereof. A judgment held by a bank or trust company shall not be considered an asset of the corporation after two years from the date of its rendition unless with the written permission of the supervisor specifying an additional period: PROVIDED, That time consumed by any appeal shall be excluded.

All assets or portion thereof that the supervisor may have required a bank or trust company to charge off shall be charged off. No bank or trust company shall enter or at any time carry on its books any of its assets at a valuation exceeding the actual cost. However, accreting the discount on securities is permitted on a pro rata basis, over the life of the security.

Sec. 7. Section 30.04.140, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 6, chapter 157, Laws of 1983 and RCW 30.04.140 are each amended to read as follows:

No bank or trust company shall pledge or hypothecate any of its securities or assets to any depositor, except that it may qualify as depository for United States deposits, ((postal savings funds)) or other public funds, or funds held in trust and deposited by any public officer by virtue of his office, or as a depository for the money of estates under the statutes of the United States pertaining to bankruptcy or funds deposited by a trustee or receiver in bankruptcy appointed by any court of the United States or any referee thereof, or funds held by the United States or the state of Washington, or any officer thereof in trust, or for funds of corporations owned or controlled by the United States, and may give such security for such deposits as are required by law or by the officer making the same; and it may give security to its trust department for deposits with itself which represent trust funds invested in savings accounts or which represent fiduciary funds awaiting investment or distribution.

Sec. 8. Section 30.04.180, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 1, chapter 89, Laws of 1981 and RCW 30.04.180 are each amended to read as follows:

No bank or trust company shall declare or pay any dividend to an amount greater than its net profits then on hand(~~(, which net profits shall be determined only after deducting:~~

~~(1) All losses;~~

~~(2) All assets or depreciation that the supervisor or a duly appointed examiner may have required to be charged off; and no bank or trust company shall enter or at any time carry on its books any of its assets at a valuation exceeding the actual cost. However, amortizing the discount on municipal and United States government securities is permitted on a pro rata basis, over the life of the security, providing that the approval of the supervisor has been obtained and maintained by each individual bank;~~

~~(3) All expenses, interest and taxes due or accrued from said bank or trust company;~~

~~(4) Bad debts as defined by RCW 30.04.130 owing to such bank or trust company)).~~

~~((After providing for the above deductions))~~ The board of directors of any bank or trust company may ((at any regular meeting thereof)) declare a dividend out of so much of the undivided profits of such bank or trust company as they shall judge expedient: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That before any such dividend is declared or the net profits in any way disposed of, not less than one-tenth of such net profits shall be carried to a surplus fund until the amount in such surplus fund shall be equal to twenty-five percent of the paid-in common ((capital)) stock of such bank or trust company: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That for the purposes of this section, any amounts paid into a fund for the retirement of any preferred stock of any such bank and trust company out of its net profits for such period or periods shall be deemed to be additions to its surplus fund if, upon the retirement of such preferred stock, the amounts so paid into such retirement fund may then properly be carried to surplus. In any such case the bank and trust company shall be obligated to transfer to surplus the amounts so paid into such retirement fund on account of the preferred stock as such stock is retired: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the supervisor shall in his discretion have the power to require any bank or trust company to suspend the payment of any and all dividends until all requirements that may have been made by the supervisor ((or any duly appointed examiner)) shall have been complied with; and upon such notice to suspend dividends no bank or trust company shall thereafter declare or pay any dividends until such notice has been rescinded in writing. (~~As to banks or trust companies having segregated savings, sums carried to surplus shall be apportioned between or among departments as the capital is apportioned:)) A dividend is payable in property or capital stock.~~

Sec. 9. Section 30.04.210, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 4, chapter 329, Laws of 1985 and RCW 30.04.210 are each amended to read as follows:

A bank or trust company may purchase, hold, and convey real estate for the following purposes (~~and no other~~):

(1) Such as shall be necessary for the convenient transaction of its business, including with its banking offices other (~~apartments~~) space in the same building to rent as a source of income: PROVIDED, That any bank or trust company shall not invest for such purposes more than the greater of: (a) Fifty percent of its capital, surplus, and undivided profits; or (b) one hundred twenty-five percent of its capital stock without the approval of the supervisor.

(2) Such as shall be purchased or conveyed to it in satisfaction, or on account of, debts previously contracted in the course of its business.

(3) Such as it shall purchase at sale under judgments, decrees, liens, or mortgage foreclosures, (~~against securities held by~~) from debts owed to it.

(4) Such as a trust company receives in trust or acquires pursuant to the terms or authority of any trust.

(5) Such as it may take title to or for the purpose of investing in real estate conditional sales contracts.

(6) Such as shall be purchased, held, or conveyed in accordance with RCW 30.04.212 granting banks the power to invest directly or indirectly in unimproved or improved real estate.

No real estate specified in subdivision (4) shall be considered an asset of the bank or trust company holding the same in trust nor shall any real estate except that specified in subdivision (1) be carried as an asset on the bank's or trust company's books for a longer period than five years from the date title is acquired thereto, unless an extension of time be granted by the supervisor.

Sec. 10. Section 7, chapter 136, Laws of 1969 as amended by section 8, chapter 157, Laws of 1983 and RCW 30.04.215 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, in addition to all powers enumerated by this title, and those necessarily implied therefrom, a bank may engage in other business activities that have been determined by the board of governors of the federal reserve system or by the United States Congress to be closely related to the business of banking, as of (~~April 25, 1983~~) the effective date of this 1986 act. At least thirty days before investment in corporations or other entities under this chapter, notification by letter shall be made to the supervisor in accordance with such terms and conditions as the supervisor might establish by rule.

(2) A bank that desires to perform an activity that is not expressly authorized by subsection (1) of this section shall first apply to the supervisor for authorization to conduct such activity. Within thirty days of the receipt of this application, the supervisor shall determine whether the activity is closely related to the business of banking, whether the public convenience and advantage will be promoted, whether the activity is apt to create an unsafe or unsound practice by the bank and whether the applicant is capable of performing such an activity. If the supervisor finds the activity to be closely related to the business of banking and the bank is otherwise qualified, he shall forthwith inform the applicant that the activity is authorized. If the supervisor determines that such activity is not closely related to the business of banking or the bank is not otherwise qualified, he shall forthwith inform the applicant in writing. The applicant shall have the right to appeal from an unfavorable determination in accordance with the procedures of the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW. In determining whether a particular activity is closely related to the business of banking, the supervisor shall be guided by the rulings of the board of governors of the federal reserve system and the comptroller of the currency in making determinations in connection with the powers exercisable by bank holding companies, and the activities performed by other commercial banks or their holding companies. Any activity which may be performed by a bank, except the taking of deposits, may be performed by a corporation, all of the outstanding stock of which is owned by the bank. (~~(A bank shall not invest a sum greater than twenty-five percent of its capital and surplus in the capital stock of corporations organized to perform activities authorized by this section:))~~)

(3) In addition to all powers enumerated by this title, and those necessarily implied therefrom, a bank may engage in other business activities that are determined by the supervisor, by regulation adopted pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, to be closely related to the business of banking, or necessary or convenient thereto, and the exercise thereof will promote the public convenience and advantage. Provided, however, that such other business activities shall also have been determined by the board of governors of the federal reserve system or by the United States congress to be closely related to the business of banking.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. In the absence of an express prohibition in its articles of incorporation, the making of contributions or gifts for the public welfare, or for charitable, scientific, or educational purposes by a state bank or trust company is within its powers and shall be deemed to inure to the benefit of the bank.

Sec. 12. Section 1, chapter 305, Laws of 1985 and RCW 30.04.238 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this title, a bank, with the prior approval of the supervisor, may purchase shares of its own capital stock. ~~((However, no bank may purchase and hold at any time more than five percent of its outstanding shares. Shares purchased under this section shall not be held for a period greater than six months.))~~

(2) When a bank purchases such shares, its capital accounts shall be reduced appropriately. The shares shall be held as authorized but unissued shares ~~((, but may be resold at any time within six months after acquisition for a price equal to or greater than the higher of the acquisition price or par value. Except as provided in this subsection, shares shall not be sold without the prior written approval of the supervisor))~~.

Sec. 13. Section 9, chapter 104, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 30.04.380 are each amended to read as follows:

Any bank or trust company ~~((which is a member of the federal reserve system;))~~ may invest an amount not exceeding ten per centum of its paid-in capital stock and surplus in the stock of one or more banks or corporations chartered under the laws of the United States, or of any state thereof, and principally engaged in international or foreign banking, or banking in a dependency or insular possession of the United States, either directly or through the agency, ownership or control of local institutions in foreign countries, or in such dependencies or insular possessions.

Sec. 14. Section 10, chapter 104, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 30.04.390 are each amended to read as follows:

Any bank or trust company ~~((which is a member of the federal reserve system;))~~ may acquire and hold, directly or indirectly, stock or other evidence of indebtedness ~~((of))~~ or ownership in one or more banks organized under the law of a foreign country or a dependency or insular possession of the United States.

Sec. 15. Section 2, chapter 246, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 5, chapter 305, Laws of 1985 and RCW 30.04.405 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It is unlawful for any person to acquire control of a bank until thirty days after filing with the supervisor a copy of the notice of change of control required to be filed with the federal deposit insurance corporation or a completed application. The notice or application shall be under oath and contain substantially all of the following information plus any additional information that the supervisor may prescribe as necessary or appropriate in the particular instance for the protection of bank depositors, borrowers, or shareholders and the public interest:

(a) The identity, banking and business experience of each person by whom or on whose behalf acquisition is to be made;

(b) The financial and managerial resources and future prospects of each person involved in the acquisition;

(c) The terms and conditions of any proposed acquisition and the manner in which the acquisition is to be made;

(d) The source and amount of the funds or other consideration used or to be used in making the acquisition, and a description of the transaction and the names of the parties if any part of these funds or other consideration has been or is to be borrowed or otherwise obtained for the purpose of making the acquisition;

(e) Any plan or proposal which any person making the acquisition may have to liquidate the bank, to sell its assets, to merge it with any other bank, or to make any other major change in its business or corporate structure for management;

(f) The identification of any person employed, retained, or to be compensated by the acquiring party, or by any person on its behalf, who makes solicitations or recommendations to shareholders for the purpose of assisting in the acquisition and a brief description of the terms of the employment, retainer, or arrangement for compensation; and

(g) Copies of all invitations for tenders or advertisements making a tender offer to shareholders for the purchase of their stock to be used in connection with the proposed acquisition.

(2) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, a bank or domestic bank holding company as defined in RCW 30.04.230 need only notify the supervisor of an intent to acquire control and the date of the proposed acquisition of control at least thirty days before the date of the acquisition of control.

(3) When a person, other than an individual or corporation, is required to file an application under this section, the supervisor may require that the information required by subsection (1)(a), (b), and (f) of this section be given with respect to each person, as defined in RCW 30.04.400(3), who has an interest in or controls a person filing an application under this subsection.

(4) When a corporation is required to file an application under this section, the supervisor may require that information required by subsection (1)(a), (b), and (f) of this section be given for the corporation, each officer and director of the corporation, and each person who is directly or indirectly the beneficial owner of twenty-five percent or more of the outstanding voting securities of the corporation.

(5) If any tender offer, request, or invitation for tenders or other agreements to acquire control is proposed to be made by means of a registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933 (48 Stat. 74, 15 U.S.C., Sec. 77(a)), as amended, or in circumstances requiring the disclosure of similar information under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (48 Stat. 881, 15 U.S.C., Sec. 78(a)), as amended, the registration statement or application may be filed with the supervisor in lieu of the requirements of this section.

(6) Any acquiring party shall also deliver a copy of any notice or application required by this section to the bank proposed to be acquired within two days after the notice or application is filed with the supervisor.

(7) Any acquisition of control in violation of this section shall be ineffective and void.

((7)) (8) Any person who wilfully or intentionally violates this section or any rule adopted pursuant thereto is guilty of a gross misdemeanor pursuant to chapter 9A.20 RCW. Each day's violation shall be considered a separate violation, and any person shall upon conviction be fined not more than one thousand dollars for each day the violation continues.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. Any investment by a bank other than a loan, if legal and authorized when made, may continue to be held by the bank notwithstanding a change in circumstances or change in the law.

Sec. 17. Section 30.08.010, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 3, chapter 104, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 30.08.010 are each amended to read as follows:

When authorized by the supervisor, as hereinafter provided, five or more natural persons, citizens of the United States, may incorporate a bank or trust company in the manner herein prescribed. No bank or trust company shall incorporate for less amount nor commence business unless it ((have)) has a paid-in capital ((as follows:

In cities, villages or communities having a population of less than 25,000	$ 50,000.00
In cities having a population of 25,000 and less than 100,000	100,000.00
In cities having a population of 100,000 or more	200,000.00

~~PROVIDED, That on request of any persons desiring to incorporate a bank in a city having a population of twenty-five thousand or over, the supervisor shall make an order defining the boundaries of the central business district of such city, which shall include the district in which is carried on the principal retail, financial and office business of such city and banks may be incorporated with a paid-up capital of not less than fifty thousand dollars to be located in such city outside of the central business district of such city as defined by the order of the supervisor, which shall be stated in its articles of incorporation, but any such bank which shall be hereafter incorporated to be located outside such central business district, which shall thereafter change its location into such central business district without increasing its capital stock and surplus to the amount required by then existing laws to incorporate a bank within such central business district, shall forfeit its charter and right to do business. The supervisor may from time to time change the boundaries of said central business district, if, in his judgment, such action is proper.~~

~~In addition to the foregoing,)) stock, surplus and undivided profits in the amount as may be determined by the supervisor after consideration of the proposed location, management, and the population and economic characteristics for the area, the nature of the proposed activities and operation of the bank or trust company, and other factors deemed pertinent by the supervisor. Each bank and trust company shall before commencing business have subscribed and paid into it in the same manner as is required for capital stock, an ~~((additional))~~ amount equal to at least ten percent of the capital stock above required~~((Such additional amount)), that~~ shall be carried in the undivided profit account and may be used to defray organization and operating expenses of the company ~~((deemed reasonable by the supervisor))~~. Any sum not so used shall be transferred to the surplus fund of the company before any dividend shall be declared to the stockholders.~~

Sec. 18. Section 30.08.020, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 1, chapter 73, Laws of 1981 and RCW 30.08.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Persons desiring to incorporate a bank or trust company shall file with the supervisor a notice of their intention to organize a bank or trust company in such form and containing such information as the supervisor shall prescribe by regulation, together with proposed articles of incorporation, which shall be submitted for examination to the supervisor at his office in Olympia.

The proposed articles of incorporation shall state:

- (1) The name of such bank or trust company.
- (2) The city, village or locality and county where the head office of such corporation is to be located.
- (3) The nature of its business, whether that of a commercial bank, ~~((a savings bank or both))~~ or a trust company.
- (4) The amount of its capital stock, which shall be divided into shares of ~~((not less than ten dollars each, nor more than one hundred dollars each,))~~ a par or no par value as may be provided in the articles of incorporation.

~~(5) ((The period for which such corporation is organized, which may be for a stated number of years or perpetual.~~

~~(6))~~ The names and places of residence and mailing addresses of the persons who as directors are to manage the corporation until the first annual meeting of its stockholders.

~~((7) In articles filed on or before June 1, 1985, for four years from the date of approval of the articles (a) no voting share of the corporation shall, without the prior written approval of the supervisor, be affirmatively voted for any proposal which would have the effect of sale, conversion, merger, or consolidation to or with, any other banking entity or affiliated financial interest, whether through transfer of stock ownership, sale of assets, or otherwise, (b) the corporation shall take no action to consummate any sale,~~

~~conversion, merger, or consolidation in violation of this subdivision, (c) this provision of the articles shall not be revoked, altered, or amended by the shareholders without the prior written approval of the supervisor, and (d) all stock issued by the corporation shall be subject to this subdivision and a copy hereof shall be placed upon all certificates of stock issued by the corporation:))~~

(6) If there is to be preferred or special classes of stock, a statement of preferences, voting rights, if any, limitations and relative rights in respect of the shares of each class; or a statement that the shares of each class shall have the attributes as shall be determined by the bank's board of directors from time to time with the approval of the supervisor.

(7) Any provision granting the shareholders the preemptive right to acquire additional shares of the bank and any provision granting shareholders the right to cumulate their votes.

(8) Any provision, not inconsistent with law, which the incorporators elect to set forth in the articles of incorporation for the regulation of the internal affairs of the corporation, including any provision restricting the transfer of shares and any provision which under this title is required or permitted to be set forth in the bylaws.

(9) Any provision the incorporators elect to so set forth, not inconsistent with law or the purposes for which the bank is organized, or any provision limiting any of the powers granted in this title.

It shall not be necessary to set forth in the articles of incorporation any of the corporate powers granted in this title. The articles of incorporation shall be signed by all of the incorporators and acknowledged before an officer to take acknowledgments.

Sec. 19. Section 30.08.050, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 16, chapter 302, Laws of 1981 and RCW 30.08.050 are each amended to read as follows:

In case of approval the supervisor shall forthwith give notice thereof to the proposed incorporators and file one of the triplicate articles of incorporation in his own office, and shall transmit another triplicate to the secretary of state, and the last to the incorporators. Upon receipt from the proposed incorporators of the same fees as are required for filing and recording other articles of incorporation the secretary of state shall file such articles and record the same. Upon the filing of articles of incorporation ~~((in triplicate:))~~ approved as aforesaid by the supervisor, with the secretary of state, all persons named therein and their successors shall become and be a corporation, which shall have the powers and be subject to the duties and obligations prescribed by this title, and whose existence shall continue from the date of the filing of such articles ~~((for the term mentioned in its articles of incorporation unless sooner))~~ until terminated pursuant to law; but such corporation shall not transact any business except as is necessarily preliminary to its organization until it has received a certificate of authority as provided herein.

Sec. 20. Section 30.08.060, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 17, chapter 302, Laws of 1981 and RCW 30.08.060 are each amended to read as follows:

Before any bank or trust company shall be authorized to do business, and within ninety days after approval of the articles of incorporation or such other time as the supervisor may allow, it shall furnish proof satisfactory to the supervisor that such corporation has a paid-in capital in the amount ~~((fixed by its articles of incorporation and by this title))~~ determined by the supervisor, that the requisite surplus or reserve fund has been accumulated or paid in cash, and that it has in good faith complied with all the requirements of law and fulfilled all the conditions precedent to commencing business imposed by this title. If so satisfied, and within thirty days after receipt of such proof, the supervisor shall issue under his hand and official seal, in triplicate, a certificate of authority for such corporation. The certificate shall state that the corporation therein named has complied with the requirements of law, that it is authorized to transact ~~((at the place designated in its articles of incorporation))~~ the business of a bank or trust company, or both, as the case may be: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the supervisor may make his issuance of the certificate to a bank or trust company authorized to accept deposits, conditional upon the granting of deposit insurance by the federal deposit insurance corporation, and in such event, shall set out such condition in a written notice which shall be delivered to the corporation.

One of the triplicate certificates shall be transmitted by the supervisor to the corporation and one of the other two shall be filed by the supervisor in the ~~((same offices where the articles of incorporation are filed))~~ office of the secretary of state and shall be attached to said articles of incorporation~~((and the one filed with the secretary of state shall be recorded))~~: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That if the issuance of the certificate is made conditional upon the granting of deposit insurance by the federal deposit insurance corporation, the supervisor shall not transmit or file the certificate until such condition is satisfied.

Sec. 21. Section 30.08.070, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 18, chapter 302, Laws of 1981 and RCW 30.08.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Every corporation heretofore or hereafter authorized by the laws of this state to do business as a bank~~((;))~~ or trust company, ~~((mutual savings bank or industrial loan company;))~~ which corporation shall have failed to organize and commence business within six months after certificate of authority to commence business has been issued by the supervisor, shall forfeit its rights and privileges as such corporation, which fact the supervisor shall certify to the secretary of state, and such certificate of forfeiture shall be filed and recorded in the office of the secretary of state in the same manner as the certificate of authority: PROVIDED, That the supervisor may, upon showing of cause satisfactory to him, issue an order under his hand and seal extending for not more than three months the time within which such organization may be effected and business commenced, such order to be transmitted to the office of the secretary of state and filed and recorded therein.

Sec. 22. Section 4, chapter 89, Laws of 1981 and RCW 30.08.082 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law and if so authorized by its articles of incorporation or amendments thereto made in the manner provided in the case of a capital increase, any bank ((and)) or trust company may, pursuant to action taken by its board of directors from time to time with the approval of the supervisor, ((and in the manner provided in the case of a capital increase;)) issue shares of preferred ((stock of one or more classes)) or special classes of stock with the attributes and in such amounts and with such par value, if any, as shall be ((approved by)) determined by the board of directors from time to time with the approval of the supervisor((; and make such amendments to its articles of incorporation as may be necessary for this purpose; but, in the case of any newly organized bank and trust company which has not yet issued common stock, the requirements of notice to and vote of shareholders shall not apply)). No increase of preferred stock shall be valid until the amount thereof shall have been subscribed and actually paid in and a certificate of increase is received from the supervisor.

(2) If provided in its articles of incorporation, a bank or trust company may issue shares of preferred or special classes having any one or several of the following provisions:

(a) Subjecting the shares to the right of the bank or trust company to repurchase or retire any such shares at the price fixed by the articles of incorporation for the repurchase or retirement thereof;

(b) Entitling the holders thereof to cumulative, noncumulative, or partially cumulative dividends;

(c) Having preference over any other class or classes of shares as to the payment of dividends;

(d) Having preference in the assets of the bank or trust company over any other class or classes of shares upon the voluntary or involuntary liquidation of the bank or trust company;

(e) Having voting or nonvoting rights; and

(f) Being convertible into shares of any other class or into shares of any series of the same or any other class, except a class having prior or superior rights and preferences as to dividends or distribution of assets upon liquidation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. A new section is added to chapter 30.08 RCW to read as follows:

(1) If the articles of incorporation shall expressly vest authority in the board of directors, then, to the extent that the articles of incorporation shall not have established series, and fixed and determined the variations in the relative rights and preferences as between series, the board of directors have authority to divide any or all of the classes into series and, within the limitation set forth in this section and in the articles of incorporation, fix and determine the relative rights and preferences of the shares of any series so established.

(2) In order for the board of directors to establish a series, where authority to do so is contained in the articles of incorporation., the board of directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth the designation of the series and fixing and determining the relative rights and preferences thereof, or so much thereof as is not fixed and determined by the articles of incorporation.

(3) Prior to the issue of any shares of a series established by resolution adopted by the board of directors, the corporation shall file and execute in the manner provided in this section a statement setting forth:

(a) The name of the bank;

(b) A copy of the resolution establishing and designating the series, and fixing and determining the relative rights and preferences thereof;

(c) The date of adoption of such resolution; and

(d) That the resolution was duly adopted by the board of directors.

(4) The statement shall be executed in triplicate by the bank by one of its officers and shall be delivered to the supervisor. If the supervisor finds that the statement conforms to law, the supervisor shall, when all fees have been paid as provided in this title:

(a) Endorse on each of the triplicate originals the word "Filed," and the effective date of the filing thereof;

(b) File two of the originals; and

(c) Return the other original to the bank or its representative.

(5) Upon the filing of the statement by the supervisor with the secretary of state, the resolution establishing and designating the series and fixing and determining the relative rights and preferences thereof shall become effective and shall constitute an amendment of the articles of incorporation.

Sec. 24. Section 5, chapter 89, Laws of 1981 and RCW 30.08.084 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, whether relating to restriction upon the payment of dividends upon capital stock or otherwise, the holders of shares of preferred (~~(stock issued pursuant to section 5 of this act)~~) or special classes of stock shall be entitled to receive such (~~(cumulative)~~) dividends on the purchase price received by the bank (~~(and)~~) or trust company for such stock (~~(and shall have such voting and conversion rights and such control of management and in the event of the retirement of such~~ ~~stock shall receive such retirement price, not in excess of such purchase price plus all accumulated dividends;)) as may be provided by the articles of incorporation or by the board of directors of the bank or trust company with the approval of the supervisor.~~

~~((The holders of such preferred stock shall not be held individually responsible as such holders for any debts, contracts, or engagements of such bank and trust company and shall not be liable for assessments to restore impairments in the capital of such bank and trust company as is now provided by law with reference to holders of common stock:))~~

No dividends shall be declared or paid on common stock until ((the)) cumulative dividends, if any, on the shares of preferred or special classes of stock shall have been paid in full; and, if the supervisor takes possession of a bank or trust company for purposes of liquidation, no payments shall be made to the holders of the common stock until the holders of the shares of preferred or special classes of stock shall have been paid in full such amount as may be provided ~~((in the articles of incorporation with the approval of the supervisor, not in excess of such purchase price of such preferred stock))~~ under the terms of said shares plus all accumulated dividends, if any.

Sec. 25. Section 6, chapter 89, Laws of 1981 and RCW 30.08.086 are each amended to read as follows:

If any part of the capital of a bank and trust company consists of preferred stock, the determination of whether or not the capital of such bank is impaired and the amount of such impairment shall be based on the ((par)) value of its stock as established at the time it was issued, or its par value, if any, even though the amount which the holders of such preferred stock shall be entitled to receive in the event of retirement or liquidation shall be in excess of the originally established value or the par value of such preferred stock.

Sec. 26. Section 1, chapter 140, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 1, chapter 106, Laws of 1979 and RCW 30.08.087 are each amended to read as follows:

Any bank or trust company may provide in its articles of incorporation or amendments thereto for authorized but unissued shares of its capital stock ~~((for the following purposes;~~

~~(1) For issuance and sale pursuant to approved stock option plans, stock purchase plans, stock bonus plans, or other similar plans approved by the supervisor;~~

~~(2) For issuing and selling minimum qualifying shares to new directors;~~

~~(3) For any other purpose; when the total amount of such shares is not more than fifty percent of the currently issued and outstanding stock.~~

If such shares are issued pursuant to approved stock option plans, the consideration received for such shares shall not be less than the higher of par value or one hundred percent of fair market value of the shares at the time the option is granted. If such shares are issued pursuant to approved ~~stock purchase plans, the consideration received for such shares shall not be less than the higher of par value or one hundred percent of fair market value of the shares at the time of purchase. If such shares are issued in order to qualify a new director of the corporation, the consideration received shall not be less than the higher of par value or ninety-five percent of the fair value of the shares at the time of the sale)). The shares may be issued for such consideration as shall be established by the board from time to time but for not less than the par value, if any, and all consideration received therefor shall be allocated to the capital stock or surplus of the corporation.~~

Sec. 27. Section 2, chapter 140, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 2, chapter 106, Laws of 1979 and RCW 30.08.088 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Any amendments to articles of incorporation which provide for authorized but unissued stock shall be made as provided in the case of a capital increase which is to be paid in full before becoming effective. However,))~~
The authorized but unissued shares shall not become a part of the capital stock ((except for the purposes hereof)) until they have been issued and paid for ((in cash)). Prior to the issuance of authorized but unissued stock, the bank shall notify the supervisor of the proposed issuance and the consideration to be received therefor and receive the supervisor's approval thereof, except that such notification and such approval shall not be required if the authorized but unissued stock is issued to employees of the bank pursuant to approved stock option, stock purchase, stock bonus or other similar plans approved by the supervisor.

Sec. 28. Section 30.08.090, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 3, chapter 140, Laws of 1965 and RCW 30.08.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Any bank or trust company may increase or decrease its capital stock or otherwise amend its articles of incorporation, in any manner not inconsistent with the provisions of this title, by a vote of the stockholders representing two-thirds of ~~((its issued capital stock))~~ each class of shares entitled to vote under the terms of the shares at any regular meeting, or special meeting duly called for that purpose in the manner prescribed by its by-laws~~((: PROVIDED, That notice of a meeting to increase or decrease authorized capital stock shall first be published once a week for four weekly issues in a newspaper published in the place in which such corporation is located, or if there be no newspaper published in such place, then in some newspaper published in the same county. The notice shall state the purpose of the meeting, the amount of the present authorized capital stock of the bank or trust company and the proposed new authorized capital stock))~~. A certificate of the fact and the terms of the amendment shall be executed by a majority of the directors and filed as required herein for articles of incorporation. ~~((Except when an amendment provides for authorized but unissued shares as permitted in this title,))~~ No ~~((increase of authorized))~~ issuance of capital stock shall be valid, until the amount thereof shall have been ~~((subscribed and))~~ actually paid in and a certificate of increase is received from the supervisor. No reduction of the capital stock shall be made to an amount less than is required for capital ~~((, nor be valid, nor warrant the cancellation of stock certificates, nor diminish the personal liabilities of the stockholders until such reduction has been approved by the supervisor, nor shall any reduction relieve any stockholder from any liability of the corporation incurred prior thereto))~~ by the supervisor. No amendment shall be made whereby a bank becomes a trust company unless such bank shall first receive permission from the supervisor.

Banks having authorized but unissued stock shall disclose on all statements of condition the amount of authorized stock and the amount of issued and paid in stock, as certified by the supervisor. The supervisor shall certify to each bank having authorized but unissued stock the amount of its issued and paid in capital stock and this amount shall be used in all statements of condition and in computing the capital of the bank for purposes of determining loan or investment limits ~~((and branching powers))~~ until a new certificate is issued by the supervisor. In cases where a bank issues authorized but unissued stock as permitted by this title, a new certificate need not be requested upon each stock issue. However, if the bank so requests and the supervisor approves, a certificate of issued and paid in capital stock shall be issued by the supervisor. A new certificate must be requested at such time as any increase of paid in capital stock represents five percent of the authorized capital stock and at such time as there is no remaining authorized but unissued stock.

Sec. 29. Section 30.08.140, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 3, chapter 248, Laws of 1957 and RCW 30.08.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the issuance of a certificate of authority to a bank, the persons named in the articles of incorporation and their successors shall thereupon become a corporation and shall have power:

- (1) To adopt and use a corporate seal.
- (2) To have perpetual succession ~~((for the term mentioned in its articles of incorporation))~~.
- (3) To make contracts.
- (4) To sue and be sued, the same as a natural person.
- (5) To elect directors who, subject to the provisions of the corporation's bylaws, shall have power to appoint such officers as may be necessary or convenient, to define their powers and duties and to dismiss them at pleasure, and who shall also have general supervision and control of the affairs of such corporation.

(6) ~~((To prescribe by its stockholders bylaws not inconsistent with law, regulating the manner in which its stock shall be transferred, its directors and officers elected or appointed, its stockholders convened for general or~~ special meetings, its property transferred, its general business conducted and the privileges granted to it by law exercised and enjoyed:

~~(7))~~ To make and alter bylaws, not inconsistent with its articles of incorporation or with the laws of this state, for the administration and regulation of its affairs.

(7) To invest and reinvest its funds in marketable obligations evidencing the indebtedness of any person, copartnership, association, or corporation in the form of bonds, notes, or debentures commonly known as investment securities except as may by regulation be limited by the supervisor.

(8) To discount and negotiate promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange and other evidences of debt, to receive deposits of money and commercial paper, to lend money (~~on real or personal security~~) secured or unsecured, to issue all forms of letters of credit, to buy and sell bullion, coins and bills of exchange.

~~((8))~~ (9) To take and receive as bailee for hire upon terms and conditions to be prescribed by the corporation, for safekeeping and storage, jewelry, plate, money, specie, bullion, stocks, bonds, mortgages, securities and valuable paper of any kind and other valuable personal property, and to rent vaults, safes, boxes and other receptacles for safekeeping and storage of personal property.

~~((9))~~ (10) If the bank be located in a city of not more than five thousand inhabitants, to act as insurance agent. A bank exercising this power may continue to act as an insurance agent notwithstanding a change of the population of the city in which it is located.

~~((10))~~ (11) To accept drafts or bills of exchange drawn upon it having not more than six months sight to run, which grow out of transactions involving the importation or exportation of goods; or which grow out of transactions involving the domestic shipment of goods, providing shipping documents conveying or securing title are attached at the time of acceptance; or which are secured at the time of acceptance by a warehouse receipt or other such document conveying or securing title to readily marketable staples. No bank shall accept, either in a foreign or a domestic transaction, for any one person, company, firm or corporation, to an amount equal at any one time in the aggregate to more than ten percent of its paid up and unimpaired capital stock and surplus unless the bank is secured by attached documents or by some other actual security growing out of the same transaction as the acceptance; and no bank shall accept such bills to an amount equal at any time in the aggregate to more than one-half of its paid up and unimpaired capital stock and surplus: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the supervisor, under such general regulations applicable to all banks irrespective of the amount of capital or surplus, as he may prescribe may authorize any bank to accept such bills to an amount not exceeding at any time in the aggregate one hundred percent of its paid up and unimpaired capital stock and surplus: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That the aggregate of acceptances growing out of domestic transactions shall in no event exceed fifty percent of such capital stock and surplus.

~~((H))~~ (12) To accept drafts or bills of exchange drawn upon it, having not more than three months sight to run, drawn under regulations to be prescribed by the supervisor by banks or bankers in foreign countries or dependencies or insular possessions of the United States for the purpose of furnishing dollar exchange as required by the usages of trade in the respective countries, dependencies or insular possessions. Such drafts or bills may be acquired by banks in such amounts and subject to such regulations, restrictions and limitations as may be provided by the supervisor: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That no bank shall accept such drafts or bills of exchange referred to in this subdivision for any one bank to an amount exceeding in the aggregate ten percent of the paid up and unimpaired capital and surplus of the accepting bank unless the draft or bill of exchange is accompanied by documents conveying or securing title or by some other adequate security, and that no such drafts or bills of exchange shall be accepted by any bank in an amount exceeding at any time the aggregate of one-half of its paid up and unimpaired capital and surplus: PROVIDED FURTHER, That compliance by any bank which is a member of the federal reserve system of the United States with the rules, regulations and limitations adopted by the federal reserve board thereof with respect to the acceptance of drafts or bills of exchange by members of such federal reserve system shall be a sufficient compliance with the requirements of this subdivision or paragraph relating to rules, regulations and limitations prescribed by the supervisor.

~~((12) This section is retroactive as of June 10, 1931, and the powers hereby conferred shall inure to the benefit of any bank now holding such certificate, the persons named in the articles of incorporation of said bank and their successors:))~~

(13) To have and exercise all powers necessary or convenient to effect its purposes.

(14) To serve as custodian of an individual retirement account and pension and profit sharing plans qualified under internal revenue code section 401(a), the assets of which are invested in deposits of the bank or trust company or are invested, pursuant to directions from the customer owning the account, in securities traded on a national securities market: PROVIDED, That the bank or trust company shall accept no investment responsibilities over the account unless it is granted trust powers by the supervisor.

(15) To be a limited partner in a limited partnership that engages in only such activities as are authorized for the bank.

Every bank and trust company shall be managed by not less than five directors, ~~((excepting that a bank having a capital of fifty thousand dollars or less may have only three directors))~~ who need not be residents of this state. Directors shall be elected by the stockholders and hold office for ~~((one year))~~ such term as is specified in the articles of incorporation, not exceeding three years, and until their successors are elected and have qualified. In the first instance the directors shall be those named in the articles of incorporation and afterwards, those elected at the annual meeting of the stockholders to be held at least once each year on a day to be specified by the bank's or trust company's bylaws ~~((but not later than May 15th of each year))~~. Shareholders may not cumulate their votes unless the articles of incorporation specifically so provide. If for any cause no election is held at that time, it may be held at an adjourned meeting or at a subsequent meeting called for that purpose in the manner prescribed by the corporation's bylaws. The directors shall meet at least once each month and whenever required by the supervisor. A majority of the then serving board of directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. At all stockholders' meetings, each share shall be entitled to one vote, unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise. Any stockholder may vote in person or by written proxy. ~~((Every director must own in his own right shares of the capital stock of the bank or trust company of which he is a director the aggregate par value of which shall not be less than four hundred dollars, unless the capital of the bank or trust company shall not exceed fifty thousand dollars, in which case he must own in his own right shares of such capital stock the aggregate par value of which shall not be less than two hundred dollars, or an equivalent interest, as determined by the supervisor of banking, in any company which has control over such bank or trust company within the meaning of section 2 of the federal bank holding company act of 1956, as now or hereafter amended. Any director who ceases to be the owner of the required number of shares of the stock, or who becomes in any other manner disqualified, shall thereby vacate his place.))~~

Immediately upon election, each director shall take, subscribe, swear to, and file with the supervisor an oath that he will, so far as the duty devolves upon him, diligently and honestly administer the affairs of such corporation and will not knowingly violate or willingly permit to be violated any provision of law applicable to such corporation ~~((and that he is the beneficial owner in good faith of the number of shares of stock required by this section, and that the same is fully paid, is not hypothecated or in any way pledged as security for any loan or debt))~~. Vacancies in the board of directors shall be filled by the board.

Sec. 31. Section 30.12.020, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 9, chapter 136, Laws of 1969 and RCW 30.12.020 are each amended to read as follows:

All meetings of the stockholders of any bank or trust company, except organization meetings, and meetings held with the consent of all stockholders, must be held in the ~~((town or city))~~ county in which the head office or any branch of the corporation is located. Meetings of the directors of any bank or trust company may be held either within or without this state. Every such corporation shall keep ~~((a book))~~ records in which shall be recorded the names and residences of the stockholders thereof, the number of shares held by each, ~~((when each person became a stockholder))~~ and also the transfers of stock, showing the time when made, the number of shares and by whom transferred. In all actions, suits and proceedings, said ~~((book))~~ records shall be prima facie proof of the facts shown therein. All of the corporate books, including the certificate book, stockholders' ledger and minute book or a copy thereof shall be kept at the corporation's principal place of business ~~((and not elsewhere))~~. Any books, record, and minutes may be in written form or any other form capable of being converted to written form within a reasonable time.

~~((Whenever in the opinion of the supervisor the condition of any bank or trust company is such that any transfer of the capital stock of such bank or trust company would be detrimental to the interests of its depositors, the supervisor may, by written order served upon the directors of such bank or trust company, direct that no transfer of stock shall be made until further order of the supervisor.))~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 32. A new section is added to chapter 30.12 RCW to read as follows:

Any person who has been a shareholder of record at least six months immediately preceding his or her demand or who is the holder of record of at least five percent of all the outstanding shares of a bank or trust company, upon written demand stating the purpose thereof, has the right to examine, in person, or by agent or attorney, at any reasonable time or times, for any proper purpose, the bank or trust company's minutes of the proceedings of its shareholders, its shareholder records, and its existing publicly available records. The person is entitled to make extracts therefrom, except that the person is not entitled to view or make extracts of any portion of minutes that refer or relate to information which is confidential.

Any officer or agent who, or a bank or trust company that, refuses to allow any such shareholder or his or her agent or attorney, to examine and make extracts from its minutes of the proceedings of its shareholders, record of shareholders, or existing publicly available books and records, for any proper purpose, shall be liable to the shareholder for actual damages or other remedy afforded the shareholder by law.

It is a defense to any action for penalties under this section that the person suing therefor has, within two years: (1) Sold or offered for sale any list of shareholders for shares of such bank or trust company or any other bank or trust company; (2) aided or abetted any person in procuring any list of shareholders for any such purpose; (3) improperly used any information secured through any prior examination of existing publicly available books and records, or minutes, or record of shareholders of such bank or trust company or any other bank or trust company; or (4) not acted in good faith or for a proper purpose in making his or her demand.

Nothing in this section impairs the power of any court of competent jurisdiction, upon proof by a shareholder of proper purpose, irrespective of the period of time during which the shareholder has been a shareholder of record, and irrespective of the number of shares held by him or her, to compel the production for examination by the shareholder of the existing publicly available books and records, minutes, and record of shareholders of a bank or trust company.

Upon the written request of any shareholder of a bank or trust company, the bank or trust company shall mail to the shareholder its most recent financial statements showing in reasonable detail its assets and liabilities and the results of its operations. As used in this section, "shareholder" includes the holder of voting trust certificates for shares.

Sec. 33. Section 30.12.030, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 and RCW 30-12.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise permitted by the supervisor under specified terms and conditions, the board of directors of each bank and trust company shall direct and require good and sufficient surety company fidelity bonds issued by a company authorized to engage in the insurance business in the state of Washington on all active officers and employees, whether or not they draw salary or compensation, which bonds shall provide for indemnity to such bank or trust company, on account of any losses sustained by it as the result of any dishonest, fraudulent or criminal act or omission committed or omitted by them acting independently or in collusion or combination with any person or persons. Such bonds may be individual, schedule or blanket form, and the premiums therefor shall be paid by the bank or trust company.

(2) The said directors shall also direct and require suitable insurance protection to the bank or trust company against burglary, robbery, theft and other similar insurance hazards to which the bank or trust company may be exposed in the operations of its business on the premises or elsewhere.

The said directors shall be responsible for prescribing at least once in each year the amount or penal sum of such bonds or policies and the sureties or underwriters thereon, after giving due consideration to all known elements and factors constituting such risk or hazard. Such action shall be recorded in the minutes of the board of directors (~~and thereafter be reported to the supervisor and be subject to his approval~~).

Sec. 34. Section 30.12.050, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 and RCW 30-12.050 are each amended to read as follows:

A director, officer, employee or other agent of any bank shall not purchase, or be interested in the purchase, directly or indirectly, of any of its assets without the previous ~~((written))~~ consent of ~~((the supervisor and of))~~ a majority of ~~((the))~~ disinterested directors of the bank: PROVIDED, That if the fair market value of the asset or assets exceed ten thousand dollars, not less than ten days' prior notice of the sale shall be given to the supervisor. ~~((Whoever knowingly does or participates or aids in the doing of any act in violation of this section shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor and be punished accordingly, and also shall forfeit to the state double the amount of any loss suffered by the bank or trust company on account of the unlawful purchase, the recovery to be one-half for the use of the bank or trust company and the rest for the use of the state.))~~

Sec. 35. Section 30.12.110, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 and RCW 30.12.110 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Every))~~ No officer, director, agent, employee or stockholder of any bank or trust company ~~((who))~~ shall, directly or indirectly, receive a bonus, commission, compensation, remuneration, gift, speculative interest or gratuity of any kind from any person, firm or corporation other than the bank or as allowed by section 36 of this 1986 act for granting, procuring or endeavoring to procure, for any person, firm or corporation, any loan by or out of the funds of such bank or trust company or the purchase or sale of any securities or property for or on account of such bank or trust company or for granting or procuring permission for any person, firm or corporation to overdraw any account with such bank or trust company~~((;))~~. Any person violating this section shall be guilty of a ((felony)) gross misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 36. A new section is added to chapter 30.12 RCW to read as follows:

(1) If a transaction is fair to a corporation at the time it is authorized, approved, or ratified, the fact that a director or an officer had a direct or indirect interest in the transaction is not grounds for either invalidating the transaction or imposing liability on the director or officer.

(2) In any proceeding seeking to invalidate a transaction with the corporation in which a director or an officer had a direct or indirect interest in a transaction with the corporation, the person asserting the validity of the transaction has the burden of proving fairness unless:

(a) The material facts of the transaction and the director's or officer's interest was disclosed or known to the board of directors, or a committee of the board, and the board or committee authorized, approved, or ratified the transaction; or

(b) The material facts of the transaction and the director's or officer's interest was disclosed or known to the shareholders entitled to vote, and they authorized, approved, or ratified the transaction.

(3) For purposes of this section, a director or an officer of a corporation has an indirect interest in a transaction with the corporation if:

(a) Another entity in which the director or officer has a material financial interest, or in which such person is a general partner, is a party to the transaction; or

(b) Another entity of which the director or officer is a director, officer, or trustee is a party to the transaction, and the transaction is or should be considered by the board of directors of the corporation.

(4) For purposes of subsection (3)(a) of this section, a transaction is authorized, approved, or ratified only if it receives the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors on the board of directors or on the committee who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction. If a majority of the directors who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction vote to authorize, approve, or ratify the transaction, a quorum is present for the purpose of taking action under this section. The presence of, or a vote cast by, a director with a direct or indirect interest in the transaction does not affect the validity of any action taken under subsection (3)(a) of this section if the transaction is otherwise authorized, approved, or ratified as provided in that subsection.

(5) For purposes of subsection (3)(b) of this section, a transaction is authorized, approved, or ratified only if it receives the vote of a majority of shares entitled to be counted under this subsection. All outstanding shares entitled to vote under this title or the articles of incorporation are entitled to be counted under this subsection except shares owned by or voted under the control of a director or an officer who has a direct or indirect interest in the transaction. Shares owned by or voted under the control of an entity described in subsection (3)(a) of this section shall not be counted to determine whether shareholders have authorized, approved, or ratified a transaction for purposes of subsection (3)(b) of this section. The vote of the shares owned by or voted under the control of a director or an officer who has a direct or indirect interest in the transaction and shares owned by or voted under the control of an entity described in subsection (3)(a) of this section, however, shall be counted in determining whether the transaction is approved under other sections of this title and for purposes of determining a quorum.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 37. A new section is added to chapter 30.12 RCW to read as follows:

Subject to any restrictions in its articles of incorporation and in accordance with and subject to the provisions of RCW 30.08.088, the board of directors of a bank or trust company may grant options entitling the holders thereof to purchase from the corporation shares of any class of its stock. The instrument evidencing the option shall state the terms upon which, the time within which, and the price at which such shares may be purchased from the corporation upon the exercise of such option. If any such options are granted by contract, or are to be granted pursuant to a plan, to officers or employees of the bank or trust company, then the contract or the plan shall require the approval, within twelve months of its approval by the board of directors, of the holders of a majority of its voting capital stock. Subsequent amendments to any such contract or plan which do not change the price or duration of any option, the maximum number of shares which may be subject to options, or the class of employees eligible for options may be made by the board of directors without further shareholder approval.

Subject to any restrictions in its articles of incorporation, the board of directors of a bank or trust company shall have the authority to enter into any plans or contracts providing for compensation for its officers and employees, including, but not being limited to, incentive bonus contracts, stock purchase or bonus plans and profit sharing plans.

Sec. 38. Section 30.20.060, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 3, chapter 280, Laws of 1961 and RCW 30.20.060 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Any))~~ A bank or trust company ~~((which shall conduct a savings account department))~~ shall repay all deposits to the depositor or his lawful representative when required at such time or times and with such interest as the regulations of the corporation shall prescribe. Such regulations shall be prescribed by the directors of ~~((any such))~~ the bank or trust company and may contain provisions with respect to the terms and conditions upon which any ~~((such savings))~~ account or deposit will be maintained by said bank or trust company. Such regulations and any amendments thereto shall be posted in a conspicuous place in a room where the ~~((savings account))~~ deposit business of ~~((any such))~~ the bank or trust company shall be transacted and shall ~~((be))~~ remain available to depositors upon request. All such rules and regulations and all amendments thereto from time to time in effect shall be binding upon all depositors. At the option of the bank, a passbook shall be issued to each savings account depositor, or a ((ledger)) record maintained in lieu of a passbook~~((, covering such deposits in which shall be entered each deposit by and each payment to such depositor, and no payment or checks against any savings account shall be made unless accompanied by and entered in any passbook issued therefor, except for good cause and assurance satisfactory to the corporation. PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That in any event, a passbook shall be issued upon request))~~. A deposit contract may be adopted by the bank or trust company in lieu of or in addition to account rules and regulations and shall be enforceable and amendable in the same manner as provided herein for account rules and regulations or as provided in the deposit contract. A copy of such contract shall be provided to the depositor.

Sec. 39. Section 30.40.020, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 2, chapter 73, Laws of 1981 and RCW 30.40.020 are each amended to read as follows:

A bank or trust company ~~((having a paid-in capital of not less than five hundred thousand dollars))~~ may, with the approval of the supervisor, establish and operate branches ((in any city or town)) anywhere within the state. ((A bank or trust company having a paid-in capital of not less than two hundred thousand dollars may, with the approval of the supervisor, establish and operate branches within the limits of the county in which its principal place of business is located:)) A bank having a paid-in capital of not less than one million dollars may, with the approval of the supervisor, establish and operate branches in any foreign country. The supervisor's approval of a branch within this state shall be conditioned on a finding that the resources in the neighborhood of the proposed location and in the surrounding country offer a reasonable promise of adequate support for the proposed branch and that the proposed branch is not being formed for other than the legitimate objects covered by this title. The supervisor's approval of a branch in a foreign country shall be conditioned on a finding that the proposed location offers a reasonable promise of adequate support for the proposed branch, that the proposed branch is not being formed for other than the legitimate objects covered by this title((, and that the principal purpose for establishing such branch is to aid in financing or facilitating exports and/or imports and the exchange of commodities with any foreign country or the agencies or nationals thereof:

~~The aggregate paid-in capital stock of every bank or trust company operating branches shall at no time be less than the aggregate of the minimum capital required by law for the establishment of an equal number of banks or trust companies in the cities or towns wherein the principal office or place of business of such bank or trust company and its branches are located:~~

No bank or trust company shall establish or operate any branch, except a branch in a foreign country, in any city or town outside the city or town in which its principal place of business is located in which any bank, trust company or national banking association regularly transacts a banking or trust business, except by taking over or acquiring an existing bank, trust company or national banking association or the branch of any bank, trust company or national banking association operating in such city or town. However, on and after July 1, 1981, a bank or trust company having a paid-in capital of not less than five hundred thousand dollars may, with the approval of the supervisor, establish and operate branches within the limits of the county in which its principal place of business is located, including within any city or town, located in such county and whether or not an existing bank, trust company, or national banking association or branch thereof is operating in the city or town. On and after July 1, 1985, a bank or trust company having a paid-in capital of not less than five hundred thousand dollars may, with the approval of the supervisor, establish and operate a branch anywhere within the state, including within cities and towns where an existing bank, trust company, or national banking association or a branch thereof is operating)).

Sec. 40. Section 1, chapter 196, Laws of 1982 and RCW 30.04.550 are each amended to read as follows:

A state banking corporation may, with the approval of the supervisor of banking and the affirmative vote of the shareholders of such corporation owning at least two-thirds of ~~((its capital stock outstanding, reorganize))~~ each class of shares entitled to vote under the terms of such shares, be re-organized to become a subsidiary of a bank holding company or a company that will, upon consummation of such reorganization, become a bank holding company, as defined in the federal bank holding company act of 1956, as amended.

Sec. 41. Section 2, chapter 196, Laws of 1982 and RCW 30.04.555 are each amended to read as follows:

A reorganization authorized under RCW 30.04.550 shall be carried out in the following manner:

(1) A plan of reorganization specifying the manner in which the reorganization shall be carried out must be approved by a majority of the entire board of directors of the banking corporation. The plan shall specify the name of the acquiring corporation, the amount of cash, securities of the bank holding company, other consideration, or any combination thereof to be paid to the shareholders of the reorganizing corporation in exchange for their shares of the stock of the corporation. The plan shall also specify the exchange date or the manner in which such exchange date shall be determined, the manner in which the exchange shall be carried out, and such other matters, not inconsistent with this chapter, as shall be determined by the board of directors of the corporation.

(2) The plan of reorganization shall be submitted to the shareholders of the reorganizing corporation at a meeting to be held on the call of the directors. Notice of the meeting of ~~((stockholders))~~ shareholders at which the plan shall be considered shall be given ~~((by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the place where the principal office of each banking corporation is located at least once each week for four successive weeks, and))~~ by certified mail at least twenty days before the date of the meeting, to each stockholder of record of the banking corporation. The notice shall state that dissenting ~~((stockholders))~~ shareholders will be entitled to payment of the value of only those shares which are voted against approval of the plan.

Sec. 42. Section 3, chapter 196, Laws of 1982 and RCW 30.04.560 are each amended to read as follows:

If the shareholders approve the reorganization by a two-thirds vote of ~~((the capital stock outstanding))~~ each class of shares entitled to vote under the terms of such shares, and if it is thereafter approved by the supervisor and consummated, any shareholder of the banking corporation who has voted shares against such reorganization at such meeting or has given notice in writing at or prior to such meeting to the banking corporation that he or she dissents from the plan of reorganization and has not voted in favor of the reorganization, shall be entitled to receive the value of the shares determined as provided in RCW 30.04.565. Such dissenter's rights must be exercised by making written demand which shall be delivered to the corporation at any time within thirty days after the date of shareholder approval, accompanied by the surrender of the appropriate stock certificates.

Sec. 43. Section 30.49.010, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 and RCW 30.49.010 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter:

"Merging bank" means a party to a merger;

"Converting bank" means a bank converting from a state to a national bank, or the reverse;

"Merger" includes consolidation;

"Resulting bank" means the bank resulting from a merger or conversion.

Wherever reference is made to a vote of stockholders or a vote of classes of stockholders it shall mean only a vote of those entitled to vote under the terms of such shares.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 44. Prior to the approval of the reorganization, the supervisor, upon request of the board of directors of the bank, or not less than ten percent of its shareholders, shall hold a public hearing at which bank shareholders and other interested parties may appear. Notice of the public hearing shall be sent to each shareholder and otherwise publicized in accordance with the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW.

The approval of the reorganization by the supervisor of banking shall be conditioned on a finding that the terms of the reorganization are fair to the shareholders and other interested parties.

Sec. 45. Section 1, chapter 166, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 137, Laws of 1979 and RCW 30.43.010 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter the term "financial institution" means any bank or trust company established in this state pursuant to Title 12, United States Code, chapter 2, or Title 30 RCW, any mutual savings bank established in this state pursuant to Title 32 RCW, any savings and loan association established in this state pursuant to Title 12, United States Code, chapter 12, or Title 33 RCW, and any credit union established in this state pursuant to Title 12, United States Code, chapter 14 or chapters 31.12 and 31.13 RCW.

As used in this chapter, the term "supervisor" means, if applicable to banks, trust companies, or mutual savings banks, the supervisor of banking and, if applicable to savings and loan associations and credit unions, the supervisor of savings and loan associations, or the National Credit Union Administration in the case of federally chartered credit unions.

As used in this chapter, the term "satellite facility" means an unmanned facility at which transactions, including, but not being limited to account transfers, payments, and instructions for deposits and withdrawals may be conducted and which is not a part of a branch or main office of the financial institution: PROVIDED, That such a facility shall not be construed to be the establishment of a branch: PROVIDED FURTHER, That ~~((in considering any application for authority to open a new branch or to establish a new financial institution, the supervisor shall disregard the existence of facilities established pursuant to this chapter in determining whether there is reasonable promise of adequate support for the new branch or proposed new financial institution:))~~ an unmanned facility which is connected to a dispenser of goods or services and that originates or communicates funds transfer instructions for the payment of such goods or services shall not be a "satellite facility."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 46. Any action required by this title to be taken at a meeting of the shareholders of a corporation, or any action that may be taken at a meeting of the shareholders, may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, is signed by all of the shareholders entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof.

The consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of shareholders and may be stated as such in any articles or documents filed under this title.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 47. Unless otherwise provided by the articles of incorporation or bylaws, any action required by this title to be taken at a meeting of the directors of a bank or trust company, or any action which may be taken at any meeting of the directors or of a committee, may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action so taken, shall be signed by all of the directors, or all of the members of the committee, as the case may be. Such consent shall have the same effect as a unanimous vote.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 48. Except as may be otherwise restricted by the articles of incorporation or bylaws, members of the board of directors or any committee designated by the board of directors may participate in a meeting of the board or committee by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time. Participation by such means shall constitute presence, in person, at a meeting.

Sec. 49. Section 30.49.040, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 9, chapter 196, Laws of 1982 and RCW 30.49.040 are each amended to read as follows:

This section is applicable where there is to be a resulting state bank, except in the case of reorganization and exchange as authorized by this title.

(1) The board of directors of each merging state bank shall, by a majority of the entire board, approve a merger agreement which shall contain:

(a) The name of each merging state or national bank and location of each office;

(b) With respect to the resulting state bank, (i) the name and location of the principal and other offices; (ii) the name and ((residence)) mailing address of each director to serve until the next annual meeting of the stockholders; (iii) the name and ((residence)) mailing address of each officer; (iv) the amount of capital, the number of shares and the par value, if any, of each share; and (v) the amendments to its charters and bylaws;

(c) Provisions governing the exchange of shares of the merging state or national banks for such consideration as has been agreed to in the merger agreement;

(d) A statement that the agreement is subject to approval by the supervisor of banking and the stockholders of each merging state or national bank;

(e) Provisions governing the manner of disposing of the shares of the resulting state bank if such shares are to be issued in the transaction and are not taken by dissenting shareholders of merging state or national banks;

(f) Such other provisions as the supervisor of banking requires to discharge his or her duties with respect to the merger;

(2) After approval by the board of directors of each merging state bank, the merger agreement shall be submitted to the supervisor of banking for approval, together with certified copies of the authorizing resolutions of each board of directors showing approval by a majority of the entire board and evidence of proper action by the board of directors of any merging national bank;

(3) Within sixty days after receipt by the supervisor of banking of the papers specified in subsection (2) of this section, the supervisor of banking shall approve or disapprove of the merger agreement, and if no action is taken, the agreement shall be deemed approved. The supervisor of banking shall approve the agreement if it appears that:

(a) The resulting state bank meets the requirements of state law as to the formation of a new state bank;

(b) The agreement provides an adequate capital structure including surplus in relation to the deposit liabilities of the resulting state bank and its other activities which are to continue or are to be undertaken;

(c) The agreement is fair;

(d) The merger is not contrary to the public interest.

If the supervisor of banking disapproves an agreement, he or she shall state his or her objections and give an opportunity to the merging state or national banks to amend the merger agreement to obviate such objections.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 50. A new section is added to chapter 30.12 RCW to read as follows:

The shareholders of a banking corporation organized under the laws of this state and the deposits of which are insured by the federal deposit insurance corporation shall not be liable for any debts or obligations of the bank.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 51. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 30.04.040, chapter 33, Laws of 1955, section 79, chapter 81, Laws of 1971 and RCW 30.04.040;

(2) Section 30.04.100, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 and RCW 30.04.100;

(23) Section 7, chapter 106, Laws of 1979, section 1, chapter 9, Laws of 1980 and RCW 30.40.060.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 52. Sections 3, 5, 16, 44, and 46 through 48 of this act are each added to chapter 30.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 53. Financial institutions have been subjected to significant changes in the recent past. Regulated financial institutions have come under pressure from nonregulated financial institutions for markets that were formerly the sole province of the regulated institutions. The legislature has been repeatedly asked to expand the powers of regulated institutions so they may compete on an equal basis. It is the intent of the legislature, in enacting section 54 of this act, to develop the information with which it can respond to requests from financial institutions for new powers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 54. A new section is added to chapter 30.04 RCW to read as follows:

(1) The supervisor of banking shall study the financial institution structure in the state and report to the governor and the appropriate standing committees of the house of representatives and the senate on changes which should be made to enable commercial banks to remain safe and sound and yet be competitive with other financial institutions. In conducting the study the supervisor shall consider:

(a) The powers which commercial banks under state regulatory authority should be entitled to exercise;

(b) The level of supervision that is necessary to assure safe and sound commercial banks without unnecessarily restricting the operation of the institutions;

(c) Whether the distinction between commercial banks, savings banks, and savings and loan associations should be retained, and if so, whether there should continue to be differences in their powers;

(d) The general corporate powers that should be authorized for banking corporations; and

(e) Any other matters deemed by the supervisor to be relevant.

(2) The supervisor, in conducting the study required by subsection (1) of this section shall consult with the supervisor of savings and loans and with representatives from all types of financial institutions, including large and small, urban and rural, commercial banks, savings banks, and savings and loan associations. The supervisor shall also advise the appropriate standing committees of the house of representatives and the senate of all meetings held to consider the study conducted under this section.

(3) The supervisor of banking shall submit the report required by subsection (1) of this section not later than November 1, 1987. A progress report shall be submitted to the governor and the respective standing committees of the house of representatives and the senate not later than December 1, 1986.

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 55. It is the intent of the legislature to provide to the public current information on the condition of financial institutions conducting business in the state of Washington.

*Sec. 55 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 56. A new section is added to chapter 43.19 RCW to read as follows:

The director of general administration shall annually, or by request, make available to the legislature the list of financial institutions designated by the federal reserve system or by the comptroller of the currency, known as the "watch list."

*Sec. 56 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 57. Sections 55 and 56 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

*Sec. 57 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

Passed the Senate March 12, 1986.

Passed the House March 12, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986, with the exception of certain items which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to sections 55, 56 and 57, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4917, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to banks and trust companies."

Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4917 makes certain necessary modernization and housekeeping amendments to Title 30, RCW, dealing with commercial banks. It enables the state's banking code to keep pace with a rapidly changing banking environment.

While I support the intent and main substance of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill 4917, I must take exception to sections 55, 56 and 57. These sections would require the Department of General Administration's Division of Banking to provide the Legislature with a listing of financial institutions that are designated on a "watch list" by either the Federal Reserve System or the U.S. Comptroller of the Currency.

These provisions are imprudent and their enactment would have a substantially adverse effect on the Division of Banking's ability to supervise the banks that are subject to its jurisdiction and could cause significant harm to individual institutions.

First of all, according to the state Division of Banking, neither the Federal Reserve System nor the Comptroller of the Currency maintains anything call a "watch list" as referenced in section 56. The various regulatory agencies differentiate the degree of supervisory concern among the banks they supervise based on a number of factors. Thus, the federal information referenced as a "watch list" is ambiguous.

Moreover, proposed sections 55, 56 and 57 would undercut the essential cooperation needed between federal and state bank regulatory agencies with the onset of interstate banking and a rapidly-changing banking industry. The state's Division of Banking relies on the information it receives from the federal regulatory agencies on the basis of strict confidentiality. Without this confidentiality, which would be the effect of proposed sections 55, 56 and 57, the federal agencies would undoubtedly stop sharing bank regulatory information with the state.

Finally, one of the goals of our bank regulatory system is to closely supervise those institutions that are experiencing difficulty in order to restore their soundness and avert their closure. To make public any listing of financial institutions which may be experiencing difficulties would greatly, and perhaps needlessly, undermine public confidence in those institutions. Such an erosion of public confidence would undoubtedly cause some depositors to withdraw their funds, thereby exacerbating the bank's difficulties. This would be an unintended effect of sections 55, 56 and 57.

Therefore, with the exception of sections 55, 56 and 57, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4917 is approved."

[Senate Bill No. 4675]

CENTENNIAL LICENSE PLATES

AN ACT Relating to motor vehicle license plates; amending RCW 46.16.270; adding a new section to chapter 27.60 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 46.16 RCW; and repealing RCW 46.16.275.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 46.16 RCW to read as follows:

In order to help publicize and commemorate the state's 1989 anniversary celebration of its admission to the Union, a new centennial design shall be developed by the department for vehicle license plates that uses reflectorized materials necessary to provide adequate visibility and legibility at night.

The centennial plates shall be developed in cooperation with the design selection committee appointed by the director. The committee shall include representation from the Washington centennial commission.

Registration numbers and letters for the centennial plate shall be assigned by the department in accordance with established procedures. Distribution of the centennial license plates shall commence January 1, 1987, to all new vehicle registrations and license plate replacements. In addition, the centennial plate shall be available for purchase by all other vehicle owners at the owner's option.

Revenues generated from the centennial plate shall go in part to support local and state centennial activities as provided in section 2 of this act.

In addition to the basic fees for new vehicle registrations provided in RCW 46.16.060, persons purchasing centennial plates shall pay an additional fee of one dollar per plate to be distributed as follows: From January 1, 1987, through June 30, 1989, one-half of the fee shall be deposited in the centennial commission account of the general fund, and the remainder shall be deposited in the motor vehicle fund. Commencing July 1, 1989, the total one dollar per plate fee shall be deposited in the motor vehicle fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A fleet shall qualify for centennial plates to be issued in consecutive order if available. A fleet shall be defined for purposes of the RCW as a group of five vehicles or more registered in the same name and whose owner has been assigned a fleet identifier code by the department of licensing.

*Sec. 2 was partially vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 27.60 RCW to read as follows:

In support of centennial activities of the centennial commission, and as provided for in section 1 of this act, revenues shall be made available by appropriation to the centennial commission. One-half of the moneys so provided shall be distributed to counties in the state for use by their respective county centennial commissions or committees. Distribution of such moneys shall be made by the 1989 Washington centennial commission according to rules adopted by the commission. The rules shall provide for distribution to the respective counties on the basis of the number of centennial plates issued to residents in those counties, with minimum amounts established to be distributed to those counties with small populations, regardless of the number of centennial plates issued.

The remaining one-half of the moneys shall be used for funding projects deemed to be of state-wide significance by the centennial commission in accordance with rules adopted by the commission.

This section shall expire on December 31, 1993. Any funds remaining in the centennial commission account on that date shall revert to the general fund.

Sec. 4. Section 46.16.270, chapter 12, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 7, chapter 169, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.16.270 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon the loss, defacement, or destruction of one or both of the vehicle license number plates issued for any vehicle where more than one plate was originally issued or where one or both have become so illegible or in such a condition as to be difficult to distinguish, or upon the owner's option, the owner of the vehicle shall make application for new vehicle license number plates upon a form furnished by the director, upon which form it shall be required that the owner, if appropriate and in addition to other requirements, make a complete statement as to the cause of the loss, defacement, or destruction of the original plate or plates, which statement shall be subscribed and sworn to before a notary public or other person authorized to certify to statements upon vehicle license applications. Such application shall be filed with the director or ~~((his))~~ the director's authorized agent, accompanied by the certificate of license registration of the vehicle and a fee in the amount of ~~((four))~~ three dollars per plate, whereupon the director, or ~~((his))~~ the director's authorized agent, shall issue new vehicle license number plates to the applicant. It shall be accompanied by a fee of two dollars ~~((for a new vehicle license number plate where only one was originally issued and one dollar))~~ for a new motorcycle license number plate. In the event the director has issued license period tabs or a windshield emblem instead of vehicle license number plates, and upon the loss, defacement, or destruction of ~~((said))~~ the tabs or windshield emblem, application shall be made on a form provided by the director and in the same manner as above described, and shall be accompanied by a fee of one dollar for each pair of tabs or for each windshield emblem, whereupon the director shall issue to the applicant a duplicate pair of tabs or a windshield emblem to replace those lost, defaced, or destroyed ~~((:PROVIDED, That))~~. For those vehicles owned, rented, or leased by the state of Washington or by any county, city, town, school district, or other political subdivision of the state of Washington or United States government, a fee shall be charged for replacement of a vehicle license number plate only to the extent required by the provisions of RCW 46.16.020, 46.16.061, 46.16.237, and 46.01.140 ~~((:PROVIDED FURTHER, That))~~. For those vehicles owned, rented, or leased by foreign countries or international bodies to which the United States government is a signatory by treaty, the payment of any fee for the replacement of a vehicle license number plate shall not be required.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. Section 1, chapter 72, Laws of 1983, section 1, chapter 62, Laws of 1984 and RCW 46.16.275 are each repealed.

Passed the Senate March 9, 1986.

Passed the House March 4, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 3, 1986, with the exception of certain items which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 3, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to the second sentence of section 2, Senate Bill No. 4675, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to motor vehicle license plates."

Senate Bill No. 4675 would authorize the Director of the Department of Licensing to develop and issue a new centennial motor vehicle plate.

Section 2 permits a fleet of motor vehicles to apply for consecutive centennial license plates if they are available. The second sentence of this section defines a fleet of motor vehicles as a group of five or more vehicles registered in the same name and whose owner has been assigned a fleet identifier code by the Department. Currently, a fleet is defined as fifteen or more vehicles by administrative rule. Decreasing the number of vehicles in a fleet will create a significantly increased workload for the Department and the County Auditors, particularly because all fleet vehicles must be registered in December of each year and no funds were provided for the increased workload.

With the exception of the second sentence of section 2, Senate Bill No. 4675 is approved."

CHAPTER 281

[Engrossed House Bill No. 134]

COMMERCIAL TELEPHONE SOLICITATION VIA AUTOMATIC DIALING AND ANNOUNCING DEVICES PROHIBITED

AN ACT Relating to automatic dialing and announcing devices; adding a new section to chapter 80.36 RCW; creating a new section; and prescribing penalties.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the use of automatic dialing and announcing devices for purposes of commercial solicitation: (1) Deprives consumers of the opportunity to immediately question a seller about the veracity of their claims; (2) subjects consumers to unwarranted invasions of their privacy; and (3) encourages inefficient and potentially harmful use of the telephone network. The legislature further finds that it is in the public interest to prohibit the use of automatic dialing and announcing devices for purposes of commercial solicitation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 80.36 RCW to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section:

(a) An automatic dialing and announcing device is a device which automatically dials telephone numbers and plays a recorded message once a connection is made.

(b) Commercial solicitation means the unsolicited initiation of a telephone conversation for the purpose of encouraging a person to purchase property, goods, or services.

(2) No person may use an automatic dialing and announcing device for purposes of commercial solicitation. This section applies to all commercial solicitation intended to be received by telephone customers within the state.

(3) A violation of this section is a violation of chapter 19.86 RCW. It shall be presumed that damages to the recipient of commercial solicitations made using an automatic dialing and announcing device are five hundred dollars.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent the Washington utilities and transportation commission from adopting additional rules regulating automatic dialing and announcing devices.

Passed the House March 8, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 1, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

CHAPTER 282

[Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1447]

PUBLIC WORKS CONTRACTS—SMALL WORKS ROSTER—ESTIMATES—BUDGETING, ACCOUNTING, AND REPORTING—TAX ON REFUSE COLLECTION BUSINESSES—SOLID WASTE HANDLING

AN ACT Relating to public works contracts; amending RCW 39.04.010, 39.04.020, 39.04.050, 39.04.070, 82.16.020, 35.21.120, and 36.58.040; adding a new section to chapter 35.92 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 36.58 RCW; adding a new chapter to Title 82 RCW; creating new sections; repealing RCW 39.04.090; and prescribing penalties.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 183, Laws of 1923 as last amended by section 1, chapter 98, Laws of 1982 and RCW 39.04.010 are each amended to read as follows:

The term state shall include the state of Washington and all departments, supervisors, commissioners and agencies thereof.

The term municipality shall include every city, county, town, district or other public agency thereof which is authorized by law to require the execution of public work, except drainage districts, diking districts, diking and drainage improvement districts, drainage improvement districts, diking improvement districts, consolidated diking and drainage improvement districts, consolidated drainage improvement districts, consolidated diking improvement districts, irrigation districts or any such other districts as shall from time to time be authorized by law for the reclamation or development of waste or undeveloped lands.

The term public work shall include all work, construction, alteration, repair, or improvement other than ordinary maintenance, executed at the cost of the state or of any municipality, or which is by law a lien or charge on any property therein, but nothing herein shall apply to the construction, alteration, repair, or improvement of any municipal street railway system. All public works, including maintenance when performed by contract shall comply with the provisions of RCW 39.12.020.

The term contract shall mean a contract in writing for the execution of public work for a fixed or determinable amount duly awarded after advertisement and competitive bid. However, a contract which is awarded from a small works roster under the authority of RCW 39.04.150, 35.22.620, 28B-.10.355, and 57.08.050 need not be advertised.

~~((Cost of superintendence, engineering, clerical and accounting service shall include all expenditures specially incurred for such service, and shall include a proportionate charge for the time of all salaried officers, engineers, clerks, accountants and employees of the state or municipality while engaged in such work or in keeping or preparing the estimates, accounts and records thereof.))~~

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 183, Laws of 1923 as last amended by section 4, chapter 98, Laws of 1982 and RCW 39.04.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the state, or any municipality shall determine that any public work is necessary to be done it shall cause plans ~~((and/or))~~, specifications, or both thereof and an estimate of the cost of such work to be made and filed in the office of the director, supervisor, commissioner, trustee, board or agency having by law the authority to require such work to be done. The plans, specifications, and estimates of cost shall be approved by the director, supervisor, commissioner, trustee, board, or agency and the original draft or a certified copy filed in such office before further action is taken.

If the state, or such municipality shall determine that it is necessary or advisable that such work shall be executed by any means or method other than by contract or by a small works roster process, and it shall appear by such estimate that the probable cost of executing such work will exceed the sum of ~~((twenty-five hundred dollars, or twenty-five thousand dollars if such work is let from a small works roster created pursuant to RCW 39-04.150))~~ fifteen thousand dollars, then the state or such municipality shall at least fifteen days before beginning work cause such estimate, together with a description of the work, to be published at least once in a legal newspaper of general circulation published in or as near as possible to that part of the county in which such work is to be done: PROVIDED, That when any emergency shall require the immediate execution of such public work, upon a finding of the existence of such emergency by the authority having power to direct such public work to be done and duly entered of record, publication of description and estimate may be made within seven days after the commencement of the work.

Sec. 3. Section 4, chapter 183, Laws of 1923 and RCW 39.04.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Original estimates shall show in detail the estimated cost of the work; the estimated quantities of each class of work; the estimated unit cost for each class; the estimated total cost for each class; the time limit, allowed for the completion of the work and the estimated dates of commencement and completion. ~~((Such estimates shall show in detail the estimated total cost of~~ ~~labor, material, provisions, supplies, equipment rentals, equipment purchases, industrial insurance and medical aid, superintendence, engineering, clerical and accounting service, the value of the use of equipment owned by the state or such municipality and other estimated expenses in the execution of such work:))~~

Sec. 4. Section 6, chapter 183, Laws of 1923 and RCW 39.04.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the state or any municipality shall execute any public work by any means or method other than by contract or small works roster, it shall cause to be kept and preserved a full, true and accurate account and record of the costs of executing such work in accordance with the budgeting, accounting, and reporting system provisions prescribed by law for the state agency or municipality.

~~((Such account and record shall show in accurately tabulated form and under appropriate headings the totals of all classes and kinds of work performed, the total cost and unit cost of each class, together with the costs of executing such work, including, under separate headings, the costs of labor; material; equipment purchased; provisions and supplies; rental of equipment; industrial insurance and medical aid; superintendence; engineering; clerical and accounting service; the reasonable value, including depreciation, of the use of equipment owned by the state or municipality; and all other expenses incurred therein.))~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Section 8, chapter 183, Laws of 1923 and RCW 39.04.090 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. For purposes of this chapter:

(1) "Refuse collection business" means every person who receives waste for transfer, storage, or disposal including but not limited to all collection services, public or private dumps, transfer stations, and similar operations.

(2) "Person" shall have the meaning given in RCW 82.04.030 or any later, superseding section.

(3) "Waste" means garbage, trash, rubbish, or other material discarded as worthless or not economically viable for further use. The term does not include hazardous or toxic waste nor does it include material collected primarily for recycling or salvage.

(4) "Taxpayer" means that person upon whom the refuse collection tax is imposed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is imposed on each person using the services of a refuse collection business a refuse collection tax equal to three and six-tenths percent of the consideration charged for the services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. The person collecting the charges made for using the refuse collection business shall collect the tax imposed in section 6 of this act. If any person charged with collecting the tax fails to bill the taxpayer for the tax, or in the alternative has not notified the taxpayer in writing of the imposition of the tax, or having collected the tax, fails to pay it to the department in the manner prescribed by this chapter, whether such failure is the result of the person's own acts or the result of acts or conditions beyond the person's control, he or she shall, nevertheless, be personally liable to the state for the amount of the tax.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Taxes collected under this chapter shall be held in trust until paid to the state. Taxes so received by the state shall be deposited in the public works assistance account created in RCW 43.155-.050. Any person collecting the tax who appropriates or converts the tax collected shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor if the money required to be collected is not available for payment on the date payment is due. If a taxpayer fails to pay the tax imposed by this chapter to the person charged with collection of the tax and the person charged with collection fails to pay the tax to the department, the department may, in its discretion, proceed directly against the taxpayer for collection of the tax.

The tax shall be due from the taxpayer within twenty-five days from the date the taxpayer is billed by the person collecting the tax.

The tax shall be due from the person collecting the tax at the end of the tax period in which the tax is received from the taxpayer. If the taxpayer remits only a portion of the total amount billed for taxes, consideration, and related charges, the amount remitted shall be applied first to payment of the refuse collection tax and this tax shall have priority over all other claims to the amount remitted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The refuse collection tax shall not apply to any agency, division, or branch of the federal government or to services rendered under a contract therewith.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. To prevent pyramiding and multiple taxation of a single transaction, this tax shall not apply to any refuse collection business using the services of another refuse collection business for the transfer, storage, or disposal of the waste collected during the transaction.

To be eligible for this exemption, a person first must be certified by the department of revenue as a refuse collection business.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Chapter 82.32 RCW applies to the tax imposed under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The department of revenue shall have the power to enforce the tax imposed in this chapter through appropriate rules.

Sec. 14. Section 82.16.020, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 10, chapter 471, Laws of 1985 and RCW 82.16.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is levied and there shall be collected from every person a tax for the act or privilege of engaging within this state in any one or more of the businesses herein mentioned. The tax shall be equal to the gross income of the business, multiplied by the rate set out after the business, as follows:

(a) Railroad, express, railroad car, sewerage collection, light and power, and telegraph businesses: Three and six-tenths percent;

(b) Gas distribution business: Three and six-tenths percent;

(c) Urban transportation business: Six-tenths of one percent;

(d) Vessels under sixty-five feet in length, except tugboats, operating upon the waters within the state: Six-tenths of one percent;

(e) Motor transportation and tugboat businesses, and all public service businesses other than ones mentioned above: One and eight-tenths of one percent;

(f) Water distribution ((and refuse collection)) business(es): Four and seven-tenths percent.

(2) An additional tax is imposed equal to the rate specified in RCW 82.02.030 multiplied by the tax payable under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) Twenty percent of the moneys collected under subsection (1) of this section on water distribution businesses(~~(, seventy percent of the moneys collected under subsection (1) of this section on refuse collection businesses,))~~) and sixty percent of the moneys collected under subsection (1) of this section on sewerage collection businesses shall be deposited in the public works assistance account created in RCW 43.155.050.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Sections 6 through 13 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 82 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. The legislature finds that the regulation, management, and disposal of solid waste through waste reduction, recycling, and the use of resource recovery facilities of the kind described in RCW 35.92.022 and 36.58.040 should be conducted in a manner substantially consistent with the priorities and policies of the Solid Waste Management Act, chapter 70.95 RCW. Nothing contained in sections 17 through 20 of this act shall detract from the powers, duties, and functions given to the utilities and transportation commission in chapter 81.77 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. A new section is added to chapter 35.92 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding the charter of any city, the legislative authority of a city or town may contract with one or more private vendors for one or more of the design, construction, or operation function of systems and plants for solid waste handling, as defined in RCW 70.95.030 and in accordance with the procedures set forth in subsections (2) and (3) of this section. Contracts shall be for facilities that are in substantial compliance with the solid waste management plans prepared pursuant to chapter 70.95 RCW. Such systems and plants may be owned, leased, and/or operated in whole or in part by the city or town, or owned, leased, and/or operated in whole or in part by the private vendor.

(2) The legislative authority shall publish notice of its requirements and request submission of qualifications for the design, construction, and operation of solid waste handling systems and plants. The notice shall be published in the official newspaper of the city or town at least once a week for two weeks not less than sixty days before the final date for the submission of qualifications. The notice shall (a) state in summary form, the general scope and nature of the system and plant or work for which the services are required, (b) the name and address of a representative of the city or town who can provide further details, and (c) the final date for the submission of qualifications.

(3) If the legislative authority of the city or town decides to proceed with the construction of a resource recovery facility or one or more of the services to be provided for such a facility, it may designate a representative to evaluate the vendors who submitted qualifications and conduct discussions regarding proposals with one or more vendors. The representative of the legislative authority shall recommend to the legislative authority a vendor, based upon criteria established by the city or town, which shall not be determined solely by price but by all terms of the contract, who is initially determined to be the best qualified to provide one or more of the services required for the proposed project. If two or more vendors submit qualifications, at least two vendors shall be interviewed. One or more vendors may be selected to provide services. The legislative authority or its representative shall attempt to negotiate a contract with the first vendor selected for one or more of the construction, design, or operation portions of the proposed project at a price and on other terms that the legislative authority determines to be fair and reasonable and in the best interest of the city or town. Only the legislative authority may approve and sign the contract: PROVIDED, That where a contract for design is entered into separately from other services permitted under this act, procurement shall be in accord with chapter 39.80 RCW. If the legislative authority or its representative is unable to negotiate such a contract with the first vendor selected on terms that it determines to be fair and reasonable and in the best interest of the city or town, negotiations with that vendor shall be formally terminated and other vendors may be selected in accordance with the procedures set forth in subsections (2) and (3) of this section. If the legislative authority decides to continue the process of selection, negotiations shall continue in accordance with this section at the sole discretion of the legislative authority until an agreement is reached with one or more vendors, or the process is terminated by the legislative authority. The process may be repeated until an agreement is reached.

(4) Prior to entering into such a contract with a vendor, the legislative authority of the city or town must have made written findings, after holding a public hearing on the proposal, that it is in the public interest to enter into the contract and that the contract is financially sound and advantageous compared to other methods.

(5) Each contract shall include project performance bonds or other security by the vendor which in the judgment of the legislative authority of the city or town is sufficient to secure adequate performance by the vendor.

(6) The provisions of chapters 39.12, 39.19, and 39.25 RCW shall apply to a contract entered into under this section to the same extent as if the systems and plants were owned by a public body.

Sec. 18. Section 35.21.120, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.21.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Every city (~~and~~) or town may by ordinance provide for the establishment of a system of garbage collection and disposal for the entire city or town or for portions thereof, and award contracts for garbage collection and disposal or provide for it under the direction of officials and employees of the city or town. Contracts for solid waste handling may provide that a city or town pay a minimum periodic fee in consideration of the operational availability of a solid waste handling system or plant, without regard to the ownership of the system or plant or the amount of solid waste actually handled during all or any part of the contract period. There shall be included in the contract specific allocation of financial responsibility in cases where the amount of solid waste handled during the contract period falls below the minimum level provided in the contract.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. A new section is added to chapter 36.58 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding the charter of any county, the legislative authority of a county may contract with one or more private vendors for one or more of the design, construction, or operation function of systems and plants for solid waste handling, as defined in RCW 70.95.030 and in accordance with the procedures set forth in subsections (2) and (3) of this section. Such systems and plants may be owned, leased, and/or operated in whole or in part by the county, or owned, leased, and/or operated in whole or in part by the private vendor.

(2) The legislative authority shall publish notice of its requirements and request submission of qualifications for the design, construction, and operation of solid waste handling systems and plants. The notice shall be published in the official newspaper of the county at least once a week for two weeks not less than sixty days before the final date for the submission of qualifications. The notice shall state in summary form (a) the general scope and nature of the system and plant or work for which the services are required, (b) the name and address of a representative of the county who can provide further details, and (c) the final date for the submission of qualifications.

(3) If the legislative authority of the county decides to proceed with the construction of a resource recovery facility or one or more of the services to be provided for such a facility, it may designate a representative to evaluate the vendors who submitted qualifications and conduct discussions regarding proposals with one or more vendors. The representative of the legislative authority shall recommend to the legislative authority a vendor, based upon criteria established by the county, which shall not be determined solely by price but by all terms of the contract, who is initially determined to be the best qualified to provide one or more of the services required for the proposed project. If two or more vendors submit qualifications, at least two vendors shall be interviewed. One or more vendors may be interviewed and selected to provide services. The legislative authority or its representative shall attempt to negotiate a contract with the first vendor selected for one or more of the construction, design, or operation portions of the proposed project at a price and on other terms that the legislative authority determines to be fair and reasonable and in the best interest of the county. Only the legislative authority may approve and sign the contract: PROVIDED, That where a contract for design is entered into separately from other services permitted under this act, procurement shall be in accord with chapter 39.80 RCW. If the legislative authority or its representative is unable to negotiate such a contract with the first vendor selected on terms that it determines to be fair and reasonable and in the best interest of the county, negotiations with that vendor shall be formally terminated and other vendors may be selected in accordance with the procedures set forth above. If the legislative authority decides to continue the process of selection, negotiations shall continue in accordance with this section at the sole discretion of the legislative authority until an agreement is reached with one or more vendors, or the process is terminated by the legislative authority. The process may be repeated until an agreement is reached.

(4) Prior to entering into such a contract with a vendor, the legislative authority of the county must have made written findings, after holding a public hearing on the proposal, that it is in the public interest to enter into the contract and that the contract is financially sound and advantageous compared to other methods.

(5) Each contract shall include project performance bonds or other security by the vendor which in the judgment of the legislative authority of the county is sufficient to secure adequate performance by the vendor.

(6) The provisions of chapters 39.12, 39.19, and 39.25 RCW shall apply to a contract entered into under this section to the same extent as if the systems and plants were owned by a public body.

Sec. 20. Section 2, chapter 58, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 36.58.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The legislative authority of each county may by ordinance provide for the establishment of a system of solid waste disposal for all the unincorporated areas of the county or for portions thereof. Each county may designate disposal sites for all solid waste collected in the unincorporated areas pursuant to the provisions of a comprehensive solid waste plan adopted pursuant to chapter 70.95 RCW: PROVIDED, That for any solid waste collected by a private hauler operating pursuant to a certificate granted by the Washington utilities and transportation commission under the provisions of chapter 81.77 RCW and which certificate is for collection in a geographic area lying in more than one county, such designation of disposal sites shall be pursuant to an interlocal agreement between the involved counties.

Such systems may also provide for the processing and conversion of solid wastes into other valuable or useful products with full jurisdiction and authority to construct, lease, purchase, acquire, manage, regulate, maintain, operate, and control such system and plants, and to enter into agreements with public or private parties providing for the construction, purchase, acquisition, lease, maintenance, and operation of systems and plants for the processing and conversion of solid wastes and for the sale of said products. Contracts shall be for facilities that are in substantial compliance with the solid waste management plans prepared pursuant to chapter 70.95 RCW.

The legislative authority of a county may award contracts for solid waste handling, and such contracts may provide that a county pay a minimum periodic fee in consideration of the operational availability of a solid waste handling system or plant, without regard to the ownership of the system or plant or the amount of solid waste actually handled during all or any part of the contractual period. There shall be included in the contract specific allocation of financial responsibility in cases where the amount of solid waste handled during the contract period falls below the minimum level provided in the contract.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the operation of a solid waste collection system by counties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. Sections 16 through 20 of this act, being necessary for the health and welfare of the state and its inhabitants, shall be liberally construed to effect its purposes. Sections 16 through 20 of this act shall be deemed to provide an alternative method for the performance of those subjects authorized by these sections and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by the Washington state Constitution, other state laws, and the charter of any city or county.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Passed the House March 11, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 11, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

CHAPTER 283

[Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1870]

CHARTER AND TOUR OPERATORS

AN ACT Relating to charter and tour operators; adding a new chapter to Title 19 RCW; providing an effective date; and prescribing penalties.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds and declares that advertising, sales, and business practices of certain travel charter or tour operators have worked financial hardship upon the people of this state; that the travel business has a significant impact upon the economy and well-being of this state and its people; that problems have arisen regarding certain segments of the travel charter or tour operator business; and that the public welfare requires regulation of travel charter or tour operators in order to eliminate unfair advertising, sales and business practices. The legislature further finds it necessary to establish standards that will safeguard the people against financial hardship and to encourage fair dealing and prosperity in the travel business.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) "Travel charter or tour operator" means a person who sells, provides, furnishes, contracts for, arranges, or advertises in this state that he or she can or may arrange, or has arranged air, sea, or land transportation either separately or in conjunction with other services. "Travel charter or tour operator" does not include:

- (a) An air carrier;
- (b) An ocean carrier;
- (c) A motor carrier;
- (d) A rail carrier;
- (e) A charter party carrier;
- (f) An auto transportation carrier;
- (g) A person who operates a travel agency business and meets standards no less than those required on the effective date of this act for authorized agents of the airline reporting corporation;
- (h) A person who:
 - (i) Has operated a travel tour or charter business for at least three years under the same ownership or management;

(ii) Has total annual revenue, not including airline transportation fares, of at least five hundred thousand dollars;

(iii) Has a certificate of insurance issued by a company authorized to conduct an insurance business under the laws of any state for at least one million dollars for errors and omissions; and

(iv) Has in effect a surety bond for at least one hundred thousand dollars to the benefit of any consumer who has made payment to the person operating the travel tour or charter business; or

(i) A person who sells membership in an organization, club, or association that entitles the purchaser to obtain transportation or other services from a travel charter or tour operator and who does not arrange or provide for transportation.

(2) "Advertise" means to make any representation in conjunction with, or to effect the sale of, travel services and includes communication with other members of the same partnership, corporation, joint venture, association, organization, group or other entity.

(3) "Passenger" is a person who purchases travel arrangements in Washington state and on whose behalf money or other consideration has been given or is to be given to another, including another member of the same partnership, corporation, joint venture, association, organization, group or other entity, for procuring transportation or other travel services.

(4) "Adequate bond" means a bond executed by an authorized surety insurer in an amount not less than fifty thousand dollars or an amount equal to ten percent of the total revenue of the two highest consecutive months for the travel charter or tour operator's business during the prior calendar year, whichever is greater, but in no case, more than five hundred thousand dollars, for the benefit of every person for whom services have not been delivered by the wrongful act of the principal acting in the course and scope of his or her occupation or business or by any official, agent, or employee of the principal acting in the course or scope of his or her employment or agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A travel charter or tour operator shall not advertise that air, sea, or land transportation either separately or in conjunction with other services is or may be available unless he or she has, prior to such advertisement, received written confirmation with a carrier for the transportation advertised.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. At or prior to the time of full or partial payment for air, sea, or land transportation or any other services offered by the travel charter or tour operator in conjunction with such transportation, the travel charter or tour operator shall furnish to the person making the payment a written statement conspicuously setting forth the following information:

(1) The name and business address and telephone number of the travel charter or tour operator.

(2) The amount paid, the date of such payment, the purpose of the payment made, and an itemized statement of the balance due, if any.

(3) The location and number of the trust account or bond required by this statute.

(4) The name of the carrier with whom the travel charter or tour operator has contracted to provide the transportation, the type of equipment contracted, and the date, time, and place of each departure: PROVIDED, That the information required in this subsection may be provided at the time of final payment.

(5) The conditions, if any, upon which the contract between the travel charter or tour operator and the passenger may be canceled, and the rights and obligations of all parties in the event of such cancellation.

(6) A statement in eight-point boldface type in substantially the following form:

"If transportation or other services are canceled by the travel charter or tour operator, all sums paid to the travel charter or tour operator for services not performed in accordance with the contract between the travel charter or tour operator and the passenger will be refunded within fourteen days after the cancellation by the travel charter or tour operator to the passenger or the party who contracted for the passenger unless mutually acceptable alternative travel arrangements are provided."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) If the transportation or other services contracted for are canceled the travel charter or tour operator shall return to the passenger within fourteen days after the cancellation all moneys paid for services not performed in accordance with the contract unless mutually acceptable alternative travel arrangements are provided.

(2) Any material misrepresentation with regard to the transportation and other services offered shall be deemed to be a cancellation necessitating the refund required by this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section, a travel charter or tour operator shall deposit ninety percent of all sums received for transportation or any other services offered by the travel charter or tour operator in conjunction with such transportation in a trust account in a federally insured financial institution.

(2) The trust account required by this section shall be created and maintained for the benefit of the passengers paying money to the travel charter or tour operator. The travel charter or tour operator shall not in any manner encumber the corpus of the account and shall not withdraw money therefrom except: (a) In an amount equal to partial or full payment for the services contracted for the passengers to the carrier or person providing the other services offered by the travel charter or tour operator; or (b) to make the refunds as required by section 5 of this act or as provided for by written contract between the travel charter and tour operator and passengers. A travel charter and tour operator may withdraw from the account any interest earned and credited to the trust account for the sole benefit of the travel charter and tour operator after all services have been provided as contracted.

(3) A travel charter and tour operator, instead of maintaining a trust account as provided in subsections (1) and (2) of this section, may maintain an adequate bond.

(4) A violation of any provision of this section shall constitute a gross misdemeanor punishable under RCW 9A.20.021(2).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A travel charter or tour operator is not required to comply with section 6 of this act if a written agreement exists between the travel charter or tour operator and a person who meets the requirements of section 2(1)(h) of this act to provide full service in the event the travel charter or tour operator defaults in providing services to passengers, and the travel charter or tour operator states the existence of this agreement in all of its promotional brochures. Any misleading statement is a violation of this section, and shall constitute a gross misdemeanor punishable under RCW 9A.20.021(2).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A violation of sections 3 through 7 of this act shall constitute a violation of RCW 19.86.020.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. This chapter does not apply to the sale of public transportation by a public charter operator who is complying with regulations of the United States department of transportation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Sections 1 through 9 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 19 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. This act shall take effect January 1, 1987.

Passed the House March 11, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 11, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

CHAPTER 284

[House Bill No. 1899]

STATE LAND BANK

AN ACT Relating to a state land bank; amending RCW 30.04.020; adding a new chapter to Title 31 RCW; and creating a new section.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The director of general administration, by rule, shall provide for the establishment, incorporation, operation, and regulation of a borrower-owned corporate entity to be known as the Washington land bank. The Washington land bank shall be patterned after the federal land banks organized under the Farm Credit Act of 1971, as amended, within state constitutional limits. The Washington land bank shall be organized by eligible borrowers and shall be designed to accomplish the objective of furnishing sound, adequate, and constructive long-term credit to farmer and rancher borrowers in the state of Washington. For purposes of this chapter, "farmer and rancher" includes producers of privately cultured aquatic products.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The Washington land bank shall be a body corporate and, subject to regulation as provided by rules promulgated by the director of general administration, shall have the power to:

- (1) Adopt and use a corporate seal.
- (2) Have succession until dissolved under this chapter or rules promulgated pursuant to section 1 of this act.
- (3) Make contracts.
- (4) Sue and be sued.
- (5) Acquire, hold, dispose, and otherwise exercise all the usual incidents of ownership of real and personal property necessary or convenient to its business.
- (6) Make and participate in loans, make commitments for credit, accept advance payments, and provide services and other assistance as authorized in this chapter, and charge fees therefor.
- (7) Operate under the direction of its board of directors.
- (8) Elect by its board of directors a president, any vice-president, a secretary, and a treasurer, and provide for such other officers, employees, and agents as may be necessary, define their duties, and require surety bonds or make other provision against losses occasioned by employees.
- (9) Prescribe by its board of directors its bylaws not inconsistent with law providing for the classes of its stock and the manner in which its stock shall be issued, transferred, and retired; its officers, employees, and agents are elected or provided for; its property acquired, held, and transferred; its loans and appraisals made; its general business conducted; and the privileges granted it by law exercised and enjoyed.
- (10) Borrow money and issue notes, bonds, debentures, or other obligations of such character, terms, conditions, and rates of interest as may be determined.
- (11) Participate with one or more other lenders, including federal land banks existing under the Farm Credit Act of 1971, as amended, in loans that the corporation is authorized to make under this chapter.

(12) Deposit its securities and its current funds with any member bank of the federal reserve system or any insured state nonmember bank as defined in section 2 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act and pay fees therefor and receive interest thereon as may be agreed.

(13) Buy and sell obligations of or insured by the United States or of any agency thereof, and, as may be authorized by its board of directors and by rule promulgated pursuant to section 1 of this act, (a) sell to other lenders interests in loans, (b) buy from other lenders interests in loans which the corporation could make directly under this chapter, and (c) make other investments.

(14) Conduct studies and make and adopt standards for lending.

(15) Amend and modify loan contracts, documents, and payment schedules, and release, subordinate, or substitute security for any of them.

(16) Exercise by its board of directors or authorized officers, employees, or agents all such incidental powers as may be necessary or expedient to carry on the business of the corporation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The voting stock of the Washington land bank shall be held only by borrowers who are farmers or ranchers, which stock shall not be transferred, pledged, or hypothecated except to other eligible borrowers. The rules promulgated by the director pursuant to section 1 of this act shall provide for the amount, par value, classes, voting, dividends, and other attributes of the stock of the corporation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The Washington land bank is authorized to make or participate with other lenders in long-term real estate mortgage loans in rural areas to eligible borrowers, and to make continuing commitments to make such loans under specified circumstances, for a term of not less than five nor more than forty years.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Loans made by the Washington land bank shall bear interest at a rate or rates, and on such terms and conditions, as may be determined by the board of directors of the bank from time to time, in accordance with rules promulgated pursuant to section 1 of this act. In setting rates and charges, it shall be the objective to provide the credit needed by eligible borrowers at the lowest reasonable cost on a sound business basis, taking into account the cost of money to the corporation, necessary reserves and expenses of the corporation, and providing services to stockholders and members. The loan documents may provide for the interest rate or rates to vary from time to time during the repayment period of the loan, in accordance with the rate or rates currently being charged by the corporation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The services authorized in this chapter may be made available to persons who are or become stockholders or members in the Washington land bank and are bona fide farmers or ranchers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Loans originated by the Washington land bank or in which it participates with another lender, including principal and all accrued interest the payment of which has been deferred pursuant to section 8 of this act, shall not exceed sixty-five percent of the appraised value of the real estate security, and shall be secured by first liens on interests in real estate of such classes as may be provided by rule promulgated pursuant to section 1 of this act. The value of security shall be determined by appraisal under appraisal standards prescribed by such rules. Additional security may be required to supplement real estate security.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A borrower may elect, during the first five years of a loan originated by the Washington land bank or in which it participates with another lender, to defer payment of all or any portion of the principal or interest due from the borrower to the corporation, unless the deferral of such payment would cause the principal and accrued interest on such loan to exceed sixty-five percent of the original appraised value or the current appraised value, whichever is less. Upon such election, the payment schedule related to such loan shall be recomputed and modified to provide for repayment of the principal amount of the loan plus accrued but unpaid interest and all interest which shall accrue during the period of deferral and thereafter over a term equal to the original term of the loan, commencing as of the date of such deferral.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Loans made by the Washington land bank shall be made on the basis of long-term profitability rather than short-term cash flow.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The Washington land bank may, in accordance with rules adopted pursuant to section 1 of this act, cause loans to be originated or serviced by other entities, including cooperative associations organized specifically for the purposes of this chapter, and may pay or charge a fee therefor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. Loans made by the Washington land bank to farmers and ranchers may be for any agricultural need of the borrower. The bank may own and lease, or lease with option to purchase, to persons eligible for assistance under this chapter, facilities needed in the operations of such persons.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The provisions of the general corporation laws of this state, and all powers and rights thereunder, shall apply to the corporation organized under this chapter, except where such provisions are in conflict with or inconsistent with the express provisions of this chapter or rules adopted pursuant to section 1 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Bonds and other evidences of indebtedness issued pursuant to this chapter shall not be obligations of the state of Washington and shall be obligations only of the Washington land bank established pursuant to this chapter. Funds of the Washington land bank shall not be or constitute public moneys or funds of the state of Washington but shall at all times be kept segregated and set apart from other funds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. There is hereby created the land bank advisory committee to advise the department of general administration in the development of rules and procedures under section 1 of this act which apply to the establishment of the Washington land bank. The committee shall be composed of nine members: One member from each caucus appointed by the president of the senate; one member from each caucus appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives; the director of agriculture or his or her designee; one member knowledgeable in agricultural financing appointed by the director of general administration; two members representing agricultural producers appointed by the director of agriculture; and the director of general administration, or his or her designee.

The advisory committee shall meet at the call of the chair elected by the committee, but shall not meet less than four times. The advisory committee shall provide a report on the status of implementation of the Washington land bank to the legislature by January 1, 1987.

Sec. 15. Section 30.04.020, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 2, chapter 42, Laws of 1983 and RCW 30.04.020 are each amended to read as follows:

The name of every bank shall contain the word "bank" and the name of every trust company shall contain the word "trust," or the word "bank." Except as provided in RCW 33.08.030, no person except:

- (1) A national bank;
- (2) A bank or trust company authorized by the laws of this state;
- (3) A corporation established under section 1 of this 1986 act;
- (4) A foreign corporation authorized by this title so to do, shall,
 - (a) Use as a part of his or its name or other business designation or in any manner as if connected with his or its business or place of business any of the following words or the plural thereof, to wit: "bank," "banking," "banker," "trust."
 - (b) Use any sign at or about his or its place of business or use or circulate any advertisement, letterhead, billhead, note, receipt, certificate, blank, form, or any written or printed or part written and part printed paper, instrument or article whatsoever, directly or indirectly indicating that the business of such person is that of a bank or trust company.

This section shall not prevent a lender approved by the United States secretary of housing and urban development for participation in any mortgage insurance program under the National Housing Act from using the words "mortgage banker" or "mortgage banking" in the conduct of its business, but only if both words are used together in either of the forms which appear in quotations in this sentence.

Every person who, and every director and officer of every corporation which, to the knowledge of such director or officer violates any provision of this section shall be guilty of a gross misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. Sections 1 through 13 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 31 RCW.

Passed the House March 8, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 5, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

CHAPTER 285

[Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3574]

LEASEHOLD EXCISE TAXATION—REVISIONS

AN ACT Relating to leasehold excise taxation; amending RCW 82.29A.020, 82.29A.120, and 84.40.175; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 61, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. as amended by section 11, chapter 196, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 82-.29A.020 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter the following terms shall be defined as follows, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Leasehold interest" shall mean an interest in publicly owned real or personal property which exists by virtue of any lease, permit, license, or any other agreement, written or verbal, between the public owner of the property and a person who would not be exempt from property taxes if that person owned the property in fee, granting possession and use, to a degree less than fee simple ownership: PROVIDED, That no interest in personal property (excluding land or buildings) which is owned by the United States, whether or not as trustee, or by any foreign government shall constitute a leasehold interest hereunder when the right to use such property is granted pursuant to a contract solely for the manufacture or production of articles for sale to the United States or any foreign government. The term "leasehold interest" shall include the rights of use or occupancy by others of property which is owned in fee or held in trust by a public corporation, commission, or authority created under RCW 35.21.730 or 35.21.660 if the property is listed on or is within a district listed on any federal or state register of historical sites. The term "leasehold interest" shall not include road or utility easements or rights of access, occupancy or use granted solely for the purpose of removing materials or products purchased from a public owner or the lessee of a public owner.

(2) "Taxable rent" shall mean contract rent as defined in subsection (a) of this subsection in all cases where the lease or agreement has been established or renegotiated through competitive bidding, or negotiated or renegotiated in accordance with statutory requirements regarding the rent payable, or negotiated or renegotiated under circumstances, established by public record, clearly showing that the contract rent was the maximum attainable by the lessor: PROVIDED, That after January 1, 1986, with respect to any lease which has been in effect for ten years or more without renegotiation, taxable rent may be established by procedures set forth in subsection (b) of this subsection. All other leasehold interests shall be subject to the determination of taxable rent under the terms of subsection (b) of this subsection.

(a) "Contract rent" shall mean the amount of consideration due as payment for a leasehold interest, including: The total of cash payments made to the lessor or to another party for the benefit of the lessor according to the requirements of the lease or agreement, including any rents paid by a sublessee; expenditures for the protection of the lessor's interest when required by the terms of the lease or agreement; and expenditures for improvements to the property to the extent that such improvements become the property of the lessor. Where the consideration conveyed for the leasehold interest is made in combination with payment for concession or other rights granted by the lessor, only that portion of such payment which represents consideration for the leasehold interest shall be part of contract rent.

"Contract rent" shall not include: (i) Expenditures made by the lessee, which under the terms of the lease or agreement, are to be reimbursed by the lessor to the lessee or expenditures for improvements and protection made pursuant to a lease or an agreement which requires that the use of the improved property be open to the general public and that no profit will inure to the lessee from the lease; (ii) expenditures made by the lessee for the replacement or repair of facilities due to fire or other casualty including payments for insurance to provide reimbursement for losses or payments to a public or private entity for protection of such property from damage or loss or for alterations or additions made necessary by an action of government taken after the date of the execution of the lease or agreement; (iii) improvements added to publicly owned property by a sublessee under an agreement executed prior to January 1, 1976, which have been taxed as personal property of the sublessee prior to January 1, 1976, or improvements made by a sublessee of the same lessee under a similar agreement executed prior to January 1, 1976, and such improvements shall be taxable to the sublessee as personal property; (iv) improvements added to publicly owned property if such improvements are being taxed as personal property to any person.

Any prepaid contract rent shall be considered to have been paid in the year due and not in the year actually paid with respect to prepayment for a period of more than one year. Expenditures for improvements with a useful life of more than one year which are included as part of contract rent shall be treated as prepaid contract rent and prorated over the useful life of the improvement or the remaining term of the lease or agreement if the useful life is in excess of the remaining term of the lease or agreement. Rent prepaid prior to January 1, 1976, shall be prorated from the date of prepayment.

With respect to a "product lease", the value of agricultural products received as rent shall be the value at the place of delivery as of the fifteenth day of the month of delivery; with respect to all other products received as contract rent, the value shall be that value determined at the time of sale under terms of the lease.

(b) If it shall be determined by the department of revenue, upon examination of a lessee's accounts or those of a lessor of publicly owned property, that a lessee is occupying or using publicly owned property in such a manner as to create a leasehold interest and that such leasehold interest has not been established through competitive bidding, or negotiated in accordance with statutory requirements regarding the rent payable, or negotiated under circumstances, established by public record, clearly showing that the contract rent was the maximum attainable by the lessor, the department may establish a taxable rent computation for use in determining the tax payable under authority granted in this chapter based upon the following criteria: (i) Consideration shall be given to rental being paid to other lessors by lessees of similar property for similar purposes over similar periods of time; (ii) consideration shall be given to what would be considered a fair rate of return on the market value of the property leased less reasonable deductions for any restrictions on use, special operating requirements or provisions for concurrent use by the lessor, another person or the general public.

(3) "Product lease" as used in this chapter shall mean a lease of property for use in the production of agricultural or marine products to the extent that such lease provides for the contract rent to be paid by the delivery of a stated percentage of the production of such agricultural or marine products to the credit of the lessor or the payment to the lessor of a stated percentage of the proceeds from the sale of such products.

(4) "Renegotiated" means a change in the lease agreement which changes the agreed time of possession, restrictions on use, the rate of the cash rental or of any other consideration payable by the lessee to or for the benefit of the lessor, other than any such change required by the terms of the lease or agreement. In addition "renegotiated" shall mean a continuation of possession by the lessee beyond the date when, under the terms of the lease agreement, the lessee had the right to vacate the premises without any further liability to the lessor.

(5) "City" means any city or town.

Sec. 2. Section 12, chapter 61, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 82.29A.120 are each amended to read as follows:

After computation of the taxes imposed pursuant to RCW 82.29A.030 and 82.29A.040 there shall be allowed the following credits in determining the tax payable:

~~(1) ((With respect to a leasehold interest arising out of any lease or agreement, the terms of which were binding on the lessee prior to July 1, 1970, where such lease or agreement has not been renegotiated since that date, and excluding from such credit (a) any leasehold interest arising out of any lease of property covered by the provisions of RCW 28B.20.394 and (b) any lease or agreement including options to renew which extends beyond January 1, 1985, as follows:~~

~~With respect to taxes due in calendar year 1976, a credit equal to eighty percent of the tax otherwise due.~~

~~With respect to taxes due in calendar year 1977, a credit equal to sixty percent of the tax otherwise due.~~

~~With respect to taxes due in calendar year 1978, a credit equal to forty percent of the tax otherwise due.~~

~~With respect to taxes due in calendar year 1979, a credit equal to twenty percent of the tax otherwise due.)~~ With respect to a leasehold interest other than a product lease, executed with an effective date of April 1, 1986, or thereafter, or a leasehold interest in respect to which the department of revenue under the authority of RCW 82.29A.020 does adjust the contract rent base used for computing the tax provided for in RCW 82.29A.030, there shall be allowed a credit against the tax as otherwise computed equal to the amount, if any, that such tax exceeds the property tax that would apply to such leased property if it were privately owned.

(2) ~~With respect to a product lease, a credit of thirty-three percent of the tax otherwise due.~~

Sec. 3. Section 84.40.175, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 15, chapter 61, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 84.40.175 are each amended to read as follows:

At the time of making the assessment of real property, the assessor shall enter each description of property exempt under the provisions of RCW 84.36.005 through 84.36.060, and value and list the same in the manner and subject to the same rule as he is required to assess all other property, designating in each case to whom such property belongs, and for what purpose used, to entitle it to exemption, and he shall require from every person claiming such exemption proof of the right to such exemption: PROVIDED, That with respect to publicly owned property exempt from taxation under provisions of RCW 84.36.010, the assessor shall value only such property as is leased to or occupied by a private person under an agreement allowing such person to occupy or use such property for a private purpose when a request for such valuation is received from the department of revenue or the lessee of such property for use in ((an audit of)) determining the taxable rent as provided for in ((RCW 82.29A.020(2)(b))) chapter 82.29A RCW: PROVIDED FURTHER, That this section shall not prohibit any assessor from valuing any public property leased to or occupied by a private person for private purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 286

[Senate Bill No. 4540]

INSURANCE—PROCEDURES FOR CANCELLING WRITTEN AGREEMENTS BETWEEN COMPANIES AND AGENTS

AN ACT Relating to insurance agency agreements; and adding a new section to chapter 48.17 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 48.17 RCW to read as follows:

(1) If an insurer intends to cancel a written agreement with an agent, or intends to refuse any class of renewal business from the agent, the insurer shall give the agent not less than one hundred twenty days' advance written notice of such intent. Every insurer canceling a written agreement subject to this section shall permit, for not less than one year after having given notice of its intent to terminate the agency agreement, insureds to process their renewals through the agent, as long as he or she retains an agent's license for the kind of insurance involved, as to any of the policies which have not been replaced with other insurers as expirations occur. An agent with a canceled agreement subject to this section shall remain an agent of the canceling insurer as to actions associated with any such policies just as if he or she were appointed by such insurer as its agent. This subsection shall not apply to: (a) Agents or policies of a company or group of companies if the business is owned by the company or group of companies and the cancellation of any such contractual agreement does not result in the cancellation or nonrenewal of any policies of insurance; (b) life, disability, surety, ocean marine and foreign trade, and title insurance policies or (c) agents whose licenses are then or become subject to an outstanding order of the commissioner issued pursuant to RCW 48.17.540.

(2) No insurer shall cancel or refuse to renew the policy of the insured because of the termination of the agent's contract.

(3) No insurer may cancel or amend a written agreement with an agent, or refuse to accept business from such agent, if the cancellation, amendment, or refusal is arbitrary, capricious, discriminatory under RCW 48.30.300, or based in whole or part upon the sex, race, creed, color, religion, national origin, or place of residency of the agent, his or her applicants, or policyholders.

(4) Any insurer or agent accepting brokerage business who rejects the business of a broker shall provide upon request of the broker the reasons in writing for the rejection.

(5) No insurer may cancel its agreement with an appointed agent with respect to insurance or refuse to accept insurance business from such agent unless it complies with the provisions of this section.

Passed the Senate March 8, 1986.

Passed the House March 5, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986.

CHAPTER 287

[Reengrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4541]

INSURANCE—CANCELLATION PROCEDURES

AN ACT Relating to insurance; and amending RCW 48.18.290, 48.18.296, and 48.18.2901.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section .18.29, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 17, chapter 264, Laws of 1985 and RCW 48.18.290 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Cancellation by the insurer of any policy which by its terms is cancellable at the option of the insurer, or of any binder based on such policy, may be effected as to any interest only upon compliance with either or both of the following:

(a) Written notice of such cancellation, accompanied by the actual reason therefor, must be actually delivered or mailed to the insured ((or)) and to his or her representative in charge of the subject of the insurance not less than forty-five days prior to the effective date of the cancellation except for cancellation of insurance policies for nonpayment of premiums, which notice shall be not less than ten days prior to such date and except for cancellation of fire insurance policies under chapter 48.53 RCW, which notice shall not be less than five days prior to such date;

(b) Like notice of not less than forty-five days must also be so delivered or mailed to each mortgagee, pledgee, or other person shown by the policy to have an interest in any loss which may occur thereunder.

(2) The mailing of any such notice shall be effected by depositing it in a sealed envelope, directed to the addressee at his or her last address as known to the insurer or as shown by the insurer's records, with proper pre-paid postage affixed, in a letter depository of the United States post office. The insurer shall retain in its records any such item so mailed, together with its envelope, which was returned by the post office upon failure to find, or deliver the mailing to, the addressee.

(3) The affidavit of the individual making or supervising such a mailing, shall constitute prima facie evidence of such facts of the mailing as are therein affirmed.

(4) The portion of any premium paid to the insurer on account of the policy, unearned because of the cancellation and in amount as computed on the pro rata basis, must be actually paid to the insured or other person entitled thereto as shown by the policy or by any endorsement thereon, or be mailed to the insured or such person as soon as possible, and no later than forty-five days after the date of notice of cancellation to the insured for homeowners', dwelling fire, and private passenger auto. Any such payment may be made by cash, or by check, bank draft, or money order.

(5) This section shall not apply to contracts of life or disability insurance without provision for cancellation prior to the date to which premiums have been paid, or to contracts of insurance procured under the provisions of chapter 48.15 RCW.

Sec. 2. Section 20, chapter 264, Laws of 1985 and RCW 48.18.2901 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each insurer shall be required to renew any contract of insurance subject to RCW 48.18.290 unless one of the following situations exists:

(a) The insurer gives the named insured at least forty-five days' notice in writing as provided for in RCW 48.18.290, that it proposes to refuse to renew the insurance contract upon its expiration date; and sets forth therein the actual reason for refusing to renew; or

(b) At least twenty days prior to its expiration date, the insurer has communicated its willingness to renew in writing to the named insured, or to his or her representative, and has included therein a statement of the amount of the premium or portion thereof required to be paid by the insured to renew the policy, ~~((including the amount by which the premium or deductibles have changed from the previous policy period, and the date by which such payment must be made;))~~ and the insured fails to discharge when due his obligation in connection with the payment of such premium or portion thereof; or

(c) The insured's agent or broker has procured other coverage acceptable to the insured prior to the expiration of the policy period.

(2) A renewal shall be based on rates and forms applicable to the expiring policy and its term, except to the extent the insurer gives at least twenty days' advance notice of changes in rates or contract provisions.

(3) Renewal of a policy shall not constitute a waiver or estoppel with respect to grounds for cancellation which existed before the effective date of such renewal, or with respect to cancellation of fire policies under chapter 48.53 RCW.

~~((3))~~ (4) "Renewal" or "to renew" means the issuance and delivery by an insurer of a contract of insurance replacing at the end of the contract period a contract of insurance previously issued and delivered by the same insurer, or the issuance and delivery of a certificate or notice extending the term of a contract beyond its policy period or term: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That any contract of insurance with a policy period or term of six months or less whether or not made continuous for successive terms upon the payment of additional premiums shall for the purpose of RCW 48.18.290 and 48.18.293 through 48.18.295 be considered as if written for a policy period or term of six months: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That any policy written for a term longer than one year or any policy with no fixed expiration date, shall, for the purpose of RCW 48.18.290 and 48.18.293 through 48.18.295, be considered as if written for successive policy periods or terms of one year.

Sec. 3. Section 23, chapter 241, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 22, chapter 264, Laws of 1985 and RCW 48.18.296 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of RCW 48.18.291 through 48.18.297 shall not apply to:

- (1) Contracts of insurance issued under the assigned risk plan; ~~((and))~~
- (2) Any policy covering garage, automobile sales agency, repair shop, service station, or public parking place operation hazards; and
- (3) Contracts of insurance procured under the provisions of chapter 48.15 RCW.

Passed the Senate March 11, 1986.

Passed the House March 11, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

CHAPTER 288

[Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4738]

JUVENILE OFFENDERS

AN ACT Relating to juveniles; amending RCW 13.32A.050, 13.32A.070, 13.40.200, 13.40.300, 13.40.025, 13.40.027, and 13.50.010; adding a new section to chapter 13.40 RCW; creating new sections; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 19, chapter 155, Laws of 1979 as last amended by section 7, chapter 257, Laws of 1985 and RCW 13.32A.050 are each amended to read as follows:

A law enforcement officer shall take a child into custody:

(1) If a law enforcement agency has been contacted by the parent of the child that the child is absent from parental custody without consent; or

(2) If a law enforcement officer reasonably believes, considering the child's age, the location, and the time of day, that a child is in circumstances which constitute a danger to the child's ((physical)) safety; or

(3) If an agency legally charged with the supervision of a child has notified a law enforcement agency that the child has run away from placement; or

(4) If a law enforcement agency has been notified by the juvenile court that the court finds probable cause exists to believe that the child has violated a court placement order issued pursuant to chapter 13.32A RCW.

Law enforcement custody shall not extend beyond the amount of time reasonably necessary to transport the child to a destination authorized by law and to place the child at that destination.

An officer who takes a child into custody under this section and places the child in a designated crisis residential center shall inform the department of such placement within twenty-four hours.

(5) Nothing in this section affects the authority of any political subdivision to make regulations concerning the conduct of minors in public places by ordinance or other local law.

Sec. 2. Section 21, chapter 155, Laws of 1979 as amended by section 5, chapter 298, Laws of 1981 and RCW 13.32A.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) An officer taking a child into custody under RCW 13.32A.050 may, at his or her discretion, transport the child to the home of a responsible adult who is other than the child's parent where the officer reasonably believes that the child will be provided with adequate care and supervision and that the child will remain in the custody of such adult until such time as the department can bring about the child's return home or an alternative residential placement can be agreed to or determined pursuant to this chapter. An officer placing a child with a responsible adult other than his or her parent shall immediately notify the department's local community service office of this fact and of the reason for taking the child into custody.

(2) A law enforcement officer acting (~~(reasonably and)~~) in good faith pursuant to this chapter in failing to take a child into custody, in taking a child into custody, or in releasing a child to a person other than a parent of such child is immune from civil or criminal liability for such action.

(3) A person other than a parent of such child who receives a child pursuant to this chapter and who acts reasonably and in good faith in doing so is immune from civil or criminal liability for the act of receiving such child. Such immunity does not release such person from liability under any other law including the laws regulating licensed child care and prohibiting child abuse.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There shall be created a joint select legislative committee to review the implementation and administration of:

(1) Chapter 13.04 RCW, the basic juvenile court act;

(2) Chapter 13.32A RCW, procedures for families in conflict generally, and specifically review the alternative residential placement process and the advisability of granting the juvenile court jurisdiction to make in-house placements. The committee shall consider the establishment of a residential school to address the needs of children who, pursuant to law, may be ordered into an alternative residential placement. A residential school may be funded and operated, in whole or in part by private contributions;

(3) Chapter 13.34 RCW, the juvenile court act relating to dependency of a child and the termination of a parent and child relationship; and

(4) Chapter 74.13 RCW, child welfare services.

The joint select legislative committee shall be composed of bipartisan members of the house and senate judiciary committee to be selected at the discretion of the committee chairpersons.

The committee established under this section shall meet and conduct hearings as often as is necessary to carry out its responsibilities under this chapter.

In reviewing the implementation and administration of chapters 13.04, 13.32A, 13.34, and 74.13 RCW the joint select legislative committee may inquire into instances where it is alleged that a law enforcement officer, school employee, department employee, judge, or juvenile court employee has either misrepresented a provision of the cited chapters or has failed to follow any such provision.

The joint select legislative committee shall be granted access to all relevant information necessary to monitor behavior of agencies and/or employees: PROVIDED, That any confidential information shall be kept confidential by members of the committee and shall not be further disseminated unless specifically authorized by state or federal law.

The joint select legislative committee shall report its findings and make recommendations regarding implementation of the chapters cited in this section in a report submitted to the legislature before the 1988 regular session of the legislature.

The joint select legislative committee, unless recreated by the legislature, shall cease to exist after submitting the report required under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The legislature finds that there is evidence of failure to implement and enforce juvenile justice laws. This failure may be due to a number of factors, including, but not necessarily limited to, resource limitations within the various units of government charged with responsibility for such implementation and enforcement.

Therefore, commencing with the effective date of this act, and continuing through such time as further legislative direction is enacted into law, any person legally responsible for implementation or enforcement of any provision of chapter 13.04, 13.32A, 13.34, or 74.13 RCW who is unable to implement or enforce any such provision shall file a report on the situation as soon as possible with the oversight committee created under section 3 of this act or, if the oversight committee has ceased to exist, to the judiciary committees of the house of representatives and the senate. Any such report shall include a documented description of the situation and the reason or reasons for failure to implement or enforce the provision in question.

Nothing contained in this section is intended to limit criminal or civil liability or to protect any employee against possible disciplinary action for failure to perform his or her duties.

Sec. 5. Section 74, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 15, chapter 191, Laws of 1983 and RCW 13.40.200 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When a respondent fails to comply with an order of restitution, community supervision, penalty assessments, or confinement of less than thirty days, the court upon motion of the prosecutor or its own motion, may modify the order after a hearing on the violation.

(2) The hearing shall afford the respondent the same due process of law as would be afforded an adult probationer. The court may issue a summons or a warrant to compel the respondent's appearance. The state shall have the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence the fact of the violation. The respondent shall have the burden of showing that the violation was not a wilful refusal to comply with the terms of the order. If a respondent has failed to pay a fine, penalty assessments, or restitution or to perform community service hours, as required by the court, it shall be the respondent's burden to show that he or she did not have the means and could not reasonably have acquired the means to pay the fine, penalty assessments, or restitution or perform community service.

(3) (a) If the court finds that a respondent has wilfully violated the terms of an order pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) of this section, it may impose a penalty of up to thirty days' confinement. Penalties for multiple violations occurring prior to the hearing shall not be aggregated to exceed thirty days' confinement. Regardless of the number of times a respondent is brought to court for violations of the terms of a single disposition order, the combined total number of days spent by the respondent in detention shall never exceed the maximum term to which an adult could be sentenced for the underlying offense.

(b) If the violation of the terms of the order under (a) of this subsection is failure to pay fines, penalty assessments, complete community service, or make restitution, the term of confinement imposed under (a) of this subsection shall be assessed at a rate of one day of confinement for each twenty-five dollars or eight hours owed.

(4) If a respondent has been ordered to pay a fine or monetary penalty and due to a change of circumstance cannot reasonably comply with the order, the court, upon motion of the respondent, may order that the unpaid fine or monetary penalty be converted to community service. The number of hours of community service in lieu of a monetary penalty or fine shall be converted at the rate of the prevailing state minimum wage per hour. The monetary penalties or fines collected shall be deposited in the county general fund. A failure to comply with an order under this subsection shall be deemed a failure to comply with an order of community supervision and may be proceeded against as provided in this section.

Sec. 6. Section 1, chapter 170, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 17, chapter 191, Laws of 1983 and RCW 13.40.300 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In no case may a juvenile offender be committed by the juvenile court to the department of social and health services for placement in a juvenile correctional institution beyond the juvenile offender's twenty-first birthday. A juvenile may be under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court or the authority of the department of social and health services beyond the juvenile's eighteenth birthday only if prior to the juvenile's eighteenth birthday:

(a) ~~((The juvenile court has committed the juvenile offender to the department of social and health services for a sentence consisting of the standard range of disposition for the offense and the sentence includes a period beyond the juvenile offender's eighteenth birthday; or~~

~~(b) The juvenile court has committed the juvenile offender to the department of social and health services for a sentence outside the standard range of disposition for the offense and the sentence includes a period beyond the juvenile's eighteenth birthday and the court by written order setting forth its reasons extends jurisdiction of juvenile court over the juvenile offender for that period; or~~

(c)) Proceedings are pending seeking the adjudication of a juvenile offense (~~or seeking a disposition order or the enforcement of such an order~~) and the court by written order setting forth its reasons extends jurisdiction of juvenile court over the juvenile beyond his or her eighteenth birthday;

(b) The juvenile has been found guilty after a fact finding or after a plea of guilty and an automatic extension is necessary to allow for the imposition of disposition; or

(c) Disposition has been held and an automatic extension is necessary to allow for the execution and enforcement of the court's order of disposition. If an order of disposition imposes commitment to the department, then jurisdiction is automatically extended to include a period of up to twelve months of parole, in no case extending beyond the offender's twenty-first birthday.

(2) If the juvenile court previously has extended jurisdiction beyond the juvenile offender's eighteenth birthday and that period of extension has not expired, the court may further extend jurisdiction by written order setting forth its reasons.

(3) In no event may the juvenile court have authority to extend jurisdiction over any juvenile offender beyond the juvenile offender's twenty-first birthday.

(4) Notwithstanding any extension of jurisdiction over a person pursuant to this section, the juvenile court has no jurisdiction over any offenses alleged to have been committed by a person eighteen years of age or older.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. It is the policy of this state that all county juvenile detention facilities provide a humane, safe, and rehabilitative environment and that unadjudicated youth remain in the community whenever possible, consistent with public safety and the provisions of chapter 13.40 RCW.

Sec. 8. Section 3, chapter 299, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 11, chapter 287, Laws of 1984 and RCW 13.40.025 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is established a juvenile disposition standards commission to propose disposition standards to the legislature in accordance with RCW 13.40.030 and perform the other responsibilities set forth in this chapter.

(2) The commission shall be composed of the secretary or the secretary's designee and the following ~~((eight))~~ nine members appointed by the governor, subject to confirmation by the senate: (a) A superior court judge; (b) a prosecuting attorney or deputy prosecuting attorney; (c) a law enforcement officer; (d) an administrator of juvenile court services; (e) a public defender actively practicing in juvenile court; ~~((and))~~ (f) a county legislative official or county executive; and (g) three other persons who have demonstrated significant interest in the adjudication and disposition of juvenile offenders. In making the appointments, the governor shall seek the recommendations of the association of superior court judges in respect to the member who is a superior court judge; of Washington prosecutors in respect to the prosecuting attorney or deputy prosecuting attorney member; of the Washington association of sheriffs and police chiefs in respect to the member who is a law enforcement officer; of juvenile court administrators in respect to the member who is a juvenile court administrator; and of the state bar association in respect to the public defender member; and of the Washington association of counties in respect to the member who is either a county legislative official or county executive.

(3) The secretary or the secretary's designee shall serve as chairman of the commission.

(4) The secretary shall serve on the commission during the secretary's tenure as secretary of the department. The term of the remaining members of the commission shall be three years. The initial terms shall be determined by lot conducted at the commission's first meeting as follows: (a) Four members shall serve a two-year term; and (b) four members shall serve a three-year term. In the event of a vacancy, the appointing authority shall designate a new member to complete the remainder of the unexpired term.

(5) Commission members shall be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided in RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. Members shall be compensated in accordance with RCW 43.03.240.

(6) ~~((The commission's first meeting shall be held prior to January 1, 1982. Thereafter,))~~ The commission shall meet at least once every ((six)) three months.

Sec. 9. Section 4, chapter 299, Laws of 1981 and RCW 13.40.027 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) It is the responsibility of the commission to: (a) (i) Evaluate the effectiveness of existing disposition standards and related statutes in implementing policies set forth in RCW 13.40.010 generally and (ii) specifically review the guidelines relating to the confinement of minor and first offenders as well as the use of diversion. The committee shall propose modifications to the legislature regarding subsection (1)(a)(ii) of this section by January 1, 1987; (b) solicit the comments and suggestions of the juvenile justice community concerning disposition standards; and (c) develop and propose to the legislature modifications of the disposition standards in accordance with RCW 13.40.030.

(2) It is the responsibility of the department to: (a) Provide the commission with available data concerning the implementation of the disposition standards and related statutes and their effect on the performance of the department's responsibilities relating to juvenile offenders; (b) at the request of the commission, provide technical and administrative assistance to the commission in the performance of its responsibilities; and (c) provide the commission with recommendations for modification of the disposition standards.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 13.40 RCW to read as follows:

The commission, in cooperation and consultation with the judiciary committees of the senate and house of representatives, shall propose to the legislature state-wide standards by November 1, 1987, on the following subjects:

(1) The detention intake procedures used and decisions made to release or detain youth in juvenile detention facilities;

(2) The use of punishment, security, and control mechanisms such as isolation, restraints, program restrictions, and the procedures required for their use;

(3) Availability and quality of health care;

(4) Inventory and storage of residents' belongings;

(5) Access to defense counsel;

(6) Residents' rights to communicate with persons outside the facility; and

(7) Information gathering and reporting necessary for educated decision-making by the commission and for the proper monitoring of facilities for compliance with commission standards.

The standards proposed under this section shall become effective upon approval by the legislature.

Sec. 11. Section 8, chapter 155, Laws of 1979 and RCW 13.50.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) For purposes of this chapter:

(a) "Juvenile justice or care agency" means any of the following: Police, diversion units, court, prosecuting attorney, defense attorney, detention center, attorney general, the department of social and health services and its contracting agencies, and persons or public or private agencies having children committed to their custody;

(b) "Official juvenile court file" means the legal file of the juvenile court containing the petition or information, motions, memorandums, briefs, findings of the court, and court orders;

(c) "Social file" means the juvenile court file containing the records and reports of the probation counselor;

(d) "Records" means the official juvenile court file, the social file, and records of any other juvenile justice or care agency in the case.

(2) Each petition or information filed with the court may include only one juvenile and each petition or information shall be filed under a separate docket number. The social file shall be filed separately from the official juvenile court file.

(3) It is the duty of any juvenile justice or care agency to maintain accurate records. To this end:

(a) The agency may never knowingly record inaccurate information;

(b) An agency shall take reasonable steps to insure the security of its records and prevent tampering with them; and

(c) An agency shall make reasonable efforts to insure the completeness of its records, including action taken by other agencies with respect to matters in its files.

(4) Each juvenile justice or care agency shall implement procedures consistent with the provisions of this chapter to facilitate inquiries concerning records.

(5) Any person who has reasonable cause to believe information concerning that person is included in the records of a juvenile justice or care agency and who has been denied access to those records by the agency may make a motion to the court for an order authorizing that person to inspect the juvenile justice or care agency record concerning that person. The court shall grant the motion to examine records unless it finds that in the interests of justice or in the best interests of the juvenile the records or parts of them should remain confidential.

(6) A juvenile, or his or her parents, or any person who has reasonable cause to believe information concerning that person is included in the records of a juvenile justice or care agency may make a motion to the court challenging the accuracy of any information concerning the moving party in the record or challenging the continued possession of the record by the agency. If the court grants the motion, it shall order the record or information to be corrected or destroyed.

(7) The person making a motion under subsection (5) or (6) of this section shall give reasonable notice of the motion to all parties to the original action and to any agency whose records will be affected by the motion.

(8) The court may permit inspection of records by, or release of information to, any clinic, hospital, or agency which has the subject person under care or treatment, or to individuals or agencies engaged in legitimate research for educational, scientific, or public purposes. The court may also permit inspection of, or release of information from, records which have been sealed pursuant to RCW 13.50.050(11). Access to records or information for research purposes shall be permitted only if the anonymity of all persons mentioned in the records or information will be preserved. Each person granted permission to inspect juvenile justice or care agency records for research purposes shall present a notarized statement to the court stating that the names of juveniles and parents will remain confidential.

(9) Juvenile detention facilities shall release records to the juvenile disposition standards commission under RCW 13.40.025 upon request. The commission shall not disclose the names of any juveniles or parents mentioned in the records without the named individual's written permission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Passed the Senate March 11, 1986.

Passed the House March 11, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

CHAPTER 289

[Substitute Senate Bill No. 4797]

UNDERGROUND STORAGE TANKS

AN ACT Relating to underground storage tanks; and creating a new section.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The legislature finds that underground storage tanks may be leaking petroleum products and other hazardous substances in quantities sufficient to pose a threat to public health and the environment. The legislature further finds that congress has adopted Subtitle I under the hazardous and solid waste amendments of 1984 (Public Law 98-616), which addresses the issue of leaking underground storage tanks and prescribes a new federal program to control this source of pollution.

(2) The department of ecology shall, no later than December 31, 1986, after consulting with representatives of the business community, submit a report to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature which describes and assesses the nature of the underground storage tank problem in the state. This report shall include, but is not limited to the following information:

- (a) The number of underground storage tanks in the state;
- (b) The location of underground storage tanks in the state;
- (c) The age, size, and materials used to construct tanks identified;
- (d) The substances stored in the tanks; and
- (e) Leak detection methods currently used.

The report shall be accompanied by an overview of underground storage tank programs implemented or proposed for implementation in other selected states and the federal government, and shall include the costs and methods of funding those programs, and their cost-effectiveness. The report shall include an overview of liability questions for leaking underground storage tanks.

Passed the Senate March 4, 1986.

Passed the House March 1, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

CHAPTER 290

[Senate Bill No. 4906]

TRANSPORTATION CAPITAL PROJECTS—STATE FINANCE COMMITTEE AUTHORITY

AN ACT Relating to capital projects; and amending RCW 47.10.802, 47.10.803, 47.26-421, 47.26.422, 47.26.423, 47.10.791, 47.10.792, 47.60.560, and 47.60.570.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 2, chapter 316, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 23, chapter 53, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. and RCW 47.10.802 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon request being made by the transportation commission, the state finance committee shall supervise and provide for the issuance, sale, and retirement of the bonds authorized by RCW 47.10.801 in accordance with chapter 39.42 RCW. The amount of such bonds issued and sold under RCW 47.10.801 through 47.10.809 in any biennium may not exceed the amount of a specific appropriation therefor. Such bonds may be sold from time to time in such amounts as may be necessary for the orderly progress of the state highway improvements specified in RCW 47.10.801. The amount of bonds issued and sold under RCW 47.10.801(1)(a) in any biennium shall not, except as provided in that section, exceed the amount required to match federal-aid interstate funds available to the state of Washington. The transportation commission shall give notice of its intent to sell bonds to the legislative transportation committee before requesting the state finance committee to issue and sell bonds authorized by RCW 47.10.801(1)(a). The bonds shall be sold in such manner, at such time or times, in such amounts, and at such price or prices as the state finance committee shall determine. The state finance committee may obtain insurance, letters of credit, or other credit facility devices with respect to the bonds and may authorize the execution and delivery of agreements, promissory notes, and other obligations for the purpose of insuring the payment or enhancing the marketability of the bonds. Promissory notes or other obligations issued under this section shall not constitute a debt or the contracting of indebtedness under any constitutional or statutory indebtedness limitation if their payment is conditioned upon the failure of the state to pay the principal of or interest on the bonds with respect to which the promissory notes or other obligations relate. The state finance committee may authorize the issuance of short-term obligations in lieu of long-term obligations for the purposes of more favorable interest rates, lower total interest costs, and increased marketability and for the purposes of retiring the bonds during the life of the project for which they were issued.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 316, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 8, chapter 433, Laws of 1985 and RCW 47.10.803 are each amended to read as follows:

The proceeds from the sale of the bonds authorized by RCW 47.10.801(1) (a) and (b) shall be deposited in the motor vehicle fund. The proceeds from the sale of the bonds authorized by RCW 47.10.801(1)(c) shall be deposited in the economic development account of the motor vehicle fund, hereby created. All such proceeds shall be available only for the purposes enumerated in RCW 47.10.801, for the payment of bond anticipation notes, if any, and for the payment of the expense incurred in the drafting, printing, issuance, and sale of such bonds. The costs of obtaining insurance, letters of credit, or other credit enhancement devices with respect to the bonds shall be considered to be expenses incurred in the issuance and sale of the bonds.

Sec. 3. Section 46, chapter 83, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 6, chapter 315, Laws of 1981 and RCW 47.26.421 are each amended to read as follows:

Each of such first authorization bonds, series II bonds, and series III bonds shall be made payable at any time not exceeding thirty years from the date of its issuance, with such reserved rights of prior redemption, bearing such interest, and such terms and conditions, as the state finance committee may prescribe to be specified therein. The bonds shall be signed by the governor and the state treasurer under the seal of the state, ~~((one)) either or both of which signatures ((shall be made manually and the other signature))~~ may be in printed facsimile, and any coupons attached to such bonds shall be signed by the same officers whose signatures thereon may be in printed facsimile. Any bonds may be registered in the name of the holder on presentation to the state treasurer or at the fiscal agency of the state of Washington in Seattle or New York City, as to principal alone, or as to both principal and interest under such regulations as the state treasurer may prescribe. Such bonds shall be payable at such places as the state finance committee may provide. All bonds issued hereunder shall be fully negotiable instruments.

Sec. 4. Section 47, chapter 83, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 7, chapter 315, Laws of 1981 and RCW 47.26.422 are each amended to read as follows:

The first authorization bonds, series II bonds, and series III bonds issued hereunder shall be in denominations to be prescribed by the state finance committee and may be sold in such manner and in such amounts and at such times and on such terms and conditions as the committee may prescribe. ~~((If the bonds are sold to any purchaser other than the state of Washington, they shall be sold at public sale, and it shall be the duty of the state finance committee to cause such sale to be advertised in such manner as it shall deem sufficient.))~~ The state finance committee may obtain insurance, letters of credit, or other credit facility devices with respect to the bonds and may authorize the execution and delivery of agreements, promissory notes, and other obligations for the purpose of insuring the payment or enhancing the marketability of the bonds. Promissory notes or other obligations issued pursuant to this section shall not constitute a debt or the contracting of indebtedness under any constitutional or statutory indebtedness limitation if their payment is conditioned upon the failure of the state to pay the principal of or interest on the bonds with respect to which the promissory notes or other obligations relate. The state finance committee may authorize the issuance of short-term obligations in lieu of long-term obligations for the purposes of more favorable interest rates, lower total interest costs, and increased marketability and for the purpose of retiring the bonds during the life of the project for which they were issued. Bonds issued under the provisions of RCW 47.26.420 through 47.26.427 and 47.26.425 shall be legal investment for any of the funds of the state, except the permanent school fund.

Sec. 5. Section 48, chapter 83, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. as last amended by section 8, chapter 315, Laws of 1981 and RCW 47.26.423 are each amended to read as follows:

The money arising from the sale of the first authorization bonds, series II bonds, and series III bonds shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the urban arterial trust account in the motor vehicle fund, and such money shall be available only for the construction and improvement of county and city urban arterials, and for payment of the expense incurred in the printing, issuance, and sale of any such bonds. The costs of obtaining insurance, letters of credit, or other credit enhancement devices with respect to the bonds shall be considered to be expenses incurred in the issuance and sale of the bonds.

Sec. 6. Section 2, chapter 180, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 47.10.791 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon request being made by the transportation commission, the state finance committee shall supervise and provide for the issuance, sale, and retirement of the bonds authorized by RCW 47.10.790 in accordance with the provisions of chapter 39.42 RCW. The amount of such bonds issued and sold under the provisions of RCW 47.10.790 through 47.10.798 in any biennium may not exceed the amount of a specific appropriation therefor. Such bonds may be sold from time to time in such amounts as may be necessary for the orderly progress of the state highway improvements specified in RCW 47.10.790. The bonds shall be sold in such manner, at such time or times, in such amounts, and at such price or prices as the state finance committee shall determine. The state finance committee may obtain insurance, letters of credit, or other credit facility devices with respect to the bonds and may authorize the execution and delivery of agreements, promissory notes, and other obligations for the purpose of insuring the payment or enhancing the marketability of the bonds. Promissory notes or other obligations issued under this section shall not constitute a debt or the contracting of indebtedness under any constitutional or statutory indebtedness limitation if their payment is conditioned upon the failure of the state to pay the principal of or interest on the bonds with respect to which the promissory notes or other obligations relate. The state finance committee may authorize the issuance of short-term obligations in lieu of long-term obligations for the purposes of more favorable interest rates, lower total interest costs, and increased marketability and for the purposes of retiring the bonds during the life of the project for which they were issued.

Sec. 7. Section 3, chapter 180, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 47.10.792 are each amended to read as follows:

The proceeds from the sale of the bonds authorized by RCW 47.10.790 shall be deposited in the motor vehicle fund and such proceeds shall be available only for the purposes enumerated in RCW 47.10.790, for the payment of bond anticipation notes, if any, and for the payment of the expense incurred in the drafting, printing, issuance, and sale of such bonds. The costs of obtaining insurance, letters of credit, or other credit enhancement devices with respect to the bonds shall be considered to be expenses incurred in the issuance and sale of the bonds.

Sec. 8. Section 1, chapter 360, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 176, Laws of 1985 and RCW 47.60.560 are each amended to read as follows:

In order to provide funds necessary for vessel acquisition, vessel construction, major and minor vessel improvements, and terminal construction and improvements for the Washington state ferries, there shall be issued and sold upon the request of the department general obligation bonds of the state of Washington in the sum of one hundred thirty-five million dollars or such amount thereof as may be required (together with other funds available therefor). If the state of Washington is able to obtain matching funds from the urban mass transportation administration or other federal government agencies for the acquisition of passenger-only vessels capable of operating as an integral part of the Washington state ferries on Puget Sound and the Straits of Juan de Fuca, a sufficient amount of the proceeds of the bonds authorized herein shall be used to pay the state's share of the acquisition cost of the passenger-only vessels. Upon request being made by the department, the state finance committee shall supervise and provide for the issuance, sale, and retirement of the bonds in accordance with chapter 39.42 RCW. The bonds may be sold from time to time in such amounts as may be necessary for the orderly progress in constructing the ferries. The bonds shall be sold in such manner, at such time or times, in such amounts, and at such price or prices as the state finance committee shall determine. The state finance committee may obtain insurance, letters of credit, or other credit facility devices with respect to the bonds and may authorize the execution and delivery of agreements, promissory notes, and other obligations for the purpose of insuring the payment or enhancing the marketability of the bonds. Promissory notes or other obligations issued under this section shall not constitute a debt or the contracting of indebtedness under any constitutional or statutory indebtedness limitation if their payment is conditioned upon the failure of the state to pay the principal of or interest on the bonds with respect to which the promissory notes or other obligations relate. The state finance committee may authorize the issuance of short-term obligations in lieu of long-term obligations for the purposes of more favorable interest rates, lower total interest costs, and increased marketability and for the purposes of retiring the bonds during the life of the project for which they were issued.

Sec. 9. Section 2, chapter 360, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 47-.60.570 are each amended to read as follows:

The proceeds from the sale of the bonds shall be deposited in the Puget Sound capital construction account of the motor vehicle fund and such proceeds shall be available only for the purposes enumerated in RCW 47.60-.560, for the payment of bond anticipation notes, if any, and for the payment of the expense incurred in the drafting, printing, issuance, and sale of such bonds. The costs of obtaining insurance, letters of credit, or other credit enhancement devices with respect to the bonds shall be considered to be expenses incurred in the issuance and sale of the bonds.

*Sec. 1 was partially vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the Senate March 9, 1986.

Passed the House March 5, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986, with the exception of certain items which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to a portion of section 1, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4815, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to appropriations for projects recommended by the Public Works Board."

Substitute Senate Bill No. 4815 appropriated $17,052,093 to the Public Works Board from the Public Works Assistance Account for specific public works projects.

A proviso was attached to section 1 (page 1, lines 9 through 15) that prohibits public works loans from being made by the Public Works Board for projects in jurisdictions where the public utility tax, imposed by RCW 82.16.020, on refuse haulers cannot be passed through to the individuals who receive the service.

I have vetoed this proviso for two reasons. First, if the proviso is enacted, those jurisdictions that prohibit the pass-through could not receive the needed project loans as they have anticipated. The funds are available and should be distributed as planned so that the effected jurisdictions can initiate their construction projects in a timely manner. Further, the public utility tax imposed on refuse haulers has been replaced with a business and occupation tax and a retail sales tax with my approval of Substitute House Bill No. 1447, making this proviso ineffective and unnecessary. For this reason, I have vetoed the proviso in section 1 (page 1, lines 9 through 15).

With the exception of the section 1 proviso located on page 1, lines 9 through 15, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4815 is approved."

CHAPTER 292

[Substitute Senate Bill No. 4572]
SHORELINE MANAGEMENT

AN ACT Relating to shoreline management; amending RCW 90.58.030, 90.58.180, 90.58.190, and 90.58.210; and prescribing penalties.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

*Sec. 1. Section 3, chapter 286, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 13, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 90.58.030 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, the following definitions and concepts apply:

(1) Administration:

(a) "Department" means the department of ecology;

(b) "Director" means the director of the department of ecology;

(c) "Local government" means any county, incorporated city, or town which contains within its boundaries any lands or waters subject to this chapter;

(d) "Person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, association, organization, cooperative, public or municipal corporation, or agency of the state or local governmental unit however designated;

(e) "Hearing board" means the shoreline hearings board established by this chapter.

(2) Geographical:

(a) "Extreme low tide" means the lowest line on the land reached by a receding tide;

(b) "Ordinary high water mark" on all lakes, streams, and tidal water is that mark that will be found by examining the bed and banks and ascertaining where the presence and action of waters are so common and usual, and so long continued in all ordinary years, as to mark upon the soil a character distinct from that of the abutting upland, in respect to vegetation as that condition exists on June 1, 1971, as it may naturally change thereafter, or as it may change thereafter in accordance with permits issued by a local government or the department: PROVIDED, That in any area where the ordinary high water mark cannot be found, the ordinary high water mark adjoining salt water shall be the line of mean higher high tide and the ordinary high water mark adjoining fresh water shall be the line of mean high water;

(c) "Shorelines of the state" are the total of all "shorelines" and "shorelines of state-wide significance" within the state;

(d) "Shorelines" means all of the water areas of the state, including reservoirs, and their associated wetlands, together with the lands underlying them; except (i) shorelines of state-wide significance; (ii) shorelines on segments of streams upstream of a point where the mean annual flow is twenty cubic feet per second or less and the wetlands associated with such upstream segments; and (iii) shorelines on lakes less than twenty acres in size and wetlands associated with such small lakes;

(e) "Shorelines of state-wide significance" means the following shorelines of the state:

(i) The area between the ordinary high water mark and the western boundary of the state from Cape Disappointment on the south to Cape Flattery on the north, including harbors, bays, estuaries, and inlets;

(ii) Those areas of Puget Sound and adjacent salt waters and the Strait of Juan de Fuca between the ordinary high water mark and the line of extreme low tide as follows:

(A) Nisqually Delta—from DeWolf Bight to Tatsolo Point,

(B) Birch Bay—from Point Whitehorn to Birch Point,

(C) Hood Canal—from Tala Point to Foulweather Bluff,

(D) Skagit Bay and adjacent area—from Brown Point to Yokeko Point, and

(E) Padilla Bay—from March Point to William Point;

(iii) Those areas of Puget Sound and the Strait of Juan de Fuca and adjacent salt waters north to the Canadian line and lying seaward from the line of extreme low tide;

(iv) Those lakes, whether natural, artificial, or a combination thereof, with a surface acreage of one thousand acres or more measured at the ordinary high water mark;

(v) Those natural rivers or segments thereof as follows:

(A) Any west of the crest of the Cascade range downstream of a point where the mean annual flow is measured at one thousand cubic feet per second or more,

(B) Any east of the crest of the Cascade range downstream of a point where the annual flow is measured at two hundred cubic feet per second or more, or those portions of rivers east of the crest of the Cascade range downstream from the first three hundred square miles of drainage area, whichever is longer;

(vi) Those wetlands associated with (i), (ii), (iv), and (v) of this subsection (2)(e);

(f) "Wetlands" or "wetland areas" means those lands extending landward for two hundred feet in all directions as measured on a horizontal plane from the ordinary high water mark; floodways and contiguous floodplain areas landward two hundred feet from such floodways; and all marshes, bogs, swamps, and river deltas associated with the streams, lakes, and tidal waters which are subject to the provisions of this chapter; the same to be designated as to location by the department of ecology: PROVIDED, That any county or city may determine that portion of a one-hundred-year-flood plain to be included in its master program as long as such portion includes, as a minimum, the floodway and the adjacent land extending landward two hundred feet therefrom;

(g) "Floodway" means those portions of the area of a river valley lying streamward from the outer limits of a watercourse upon which flood waters are carried during periods of flooding that occur with reasonable regularity, although not necessarily annually, said floodway being identified, under normal condition, by changes in surface soil conditions or changes in types or quality of vegetative ground cover condition. The floodway shall not include those lands that can reasonably be expected to be protected from flood waters by flood control devices maintained by or maintained under license from the federal government, the state, or a political subdivision of the state.

(3) Procedural terms:

(a) "Guidelines" means those standards adopted to implement the policy of this chapter for regulation of use of the shorelines of the state prior to adoption of master programs. Such standards shall also provide criteria to local governments and the department in developing master programs;

(b) "Master program" shall mean the comprehensive use plan for a described area, and the use regulations together with maps, diagrams, charts, or other descriptive material and text, a statement of desired goals, and standards developed in accordance with the policies enunciated in RCW 90.58.020;

(c) "State master program" is the cumulative total of all master programs approved or adopted by the department of ecology;

(d) "Development" means a use consisting of the construction or exterior alteration of structures; dredging; drilling; dumping; filling; removal of any sand, gravel, or minerals; bulkheading; driving of piling; placing of obstructions; or any project of a permanent or temporary nature which interferes with the normal public use of the surface of the waters overlying lands subject to this chapter at any state of water level;

(e) "Substantial development" shall mean any development of which the total cost or fair market value exceeds ((one)) two thousand five hundred dollars, or any development which materially interferes with the normal public use of the water or shorelines of the state; except that the following shall not be considered substantial developments for the purpose of this chapter:

(i) Normal maintenance or repair of existing structures or developments, including damage by accident, fire, or elements;

(ii) Construction of the normal protective bulkhead common to single family residences;

(iii) Emergency construction necessary to protect property from damage by the elements;

(iv) Construction and practices normal or necessary for farming, irrigation, and ranching activities, including agricultural service roads and utilities on wetlands, and the construction and maintenance of irrigation structures including but not limited to head gates, pumping facilities, and irrigation channels: PROVIDED, That a feedlot of any size, all processing plants, other activities of a commercial nature, alteration of the contour of the wetlands by leveling or filling other than that which results from normal cultivation, shall not be considered normal or necessary farming or ranching activities. A feedlot shall be an enclosure or facility used or capable of being used for feeding livestock hay, grain, silage, or other livestock feed, but shall not include land for growing crops or vegetation for livestock feeding and/or grazing, nor shall it include normal livestock wintering operations;

(v) Construction or modification of navigational aids such as channel markers and anchor buoys;

(vi) Construction on wetlands by an owner, lessee, or contract purchaser of a single family residence for his own use or for the use of his family, which residence does not exceed a height of thirty-five feet above average grade level and which meets all requirements of the state agency or local government having jurisdiction thereof, other than requirements imposed pursuant to this chapter;

(vii) Construction of a dock, designed for pleasure craft only, for the private noncommercial use of the owner, lessee, or contract purchaser of a single family residence, the cost of which does not exceed ((two thousand five hundred dollars)) six thousand five hundred dollars, to be adjusted annually by the Implicit Price Deflator as computed by the United States Department of Commerce: PROVIDED, That the size design and location of the dock shall meet the requirements of local master programs,

(viii) Operation, maintenance, or construction of canals, waterways, drains, reservoirs, or other facilities that now exist or are hereafter created or developed as a part of an irrigation system for the primary purpose of making use of system waters, including return flow and artificially stored ground water for the irrigation of lands;

(ix) The marking of property lines or corners on state owned lands, when such marking does not significantly interfere with normal public use of the surface of the water;

(x) Operation and maintenance of any system of dikes, ditches, drains, or other facilities existing on September 8, 1975, which were created, developed, or utilized primarily as a part of an agricultural drainage or diking system;

(xi) Any action commenced prior to December 31, 1982, pertaining to (A) the restoration of interim transportation services as may be necessary as a consequence of the destruction of the Hood Canal bridge, including, but not limited to, improvements to highways, development of park and ride facilities, and development of ferry terminal facilities until a new or reconstructed Hood Canal bridge is open to traffic; and (B) the reconstruction of a permanent bridge at the site of the original Hood Canal bridge.

Sec. 1 was partially vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

Sec. 2. Section 18, chapter 286, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 51, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 90.58-.180 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person aggrieved by the granting, denying, or rescinding of a permit on shorelines of the state pursuant to RCW 90.58.140 as now or hereafter amended may seek review from the shorelines hearings board by filing a request for the same within thirty days of the date of filing as defined in RCW 90.58.140(6) as now or hereafter amended.

Concurrently with the filing of any request for review with the board as provided in this section pertaining to a final order of a local government, the requestor shall file a copy of his request with the department and the attorney general. If it appears to the department or the attorney general that the requestor has valid reasons to seek review, either the department or the attorney general may certify the request within thirty days after its receipt to the shorelines hearings board following which the board shall then, but not otherwise, review the matter covered by the requestor: PROVIDED, That the failure to obtain such certification shall not preclude the requestor from obtaining a review in the superior court under any right to review otherwise available to the requestor. The department and the attorney general may intervene to protect the public interest and insure that the provisions of this chapter are complied with at any time within fifteen days from the date of the receipt by the department or the attorney general of a copy of the request for review filed pursuant to this section. The shorelines hearings board shall initially schedule review proceedings on such requests for review without regard as to whether such requests have or have not been certified or as to whether the period for the department or the attorney general to intervene has or has not expired, unless such review is to begin within thirty days of such scheduling. If at the end of the thirty day period for certification neither the department nor the attorney general has certified a request for review, the hearings board shall remove the request from its review schedule.

(2) The department or the attorney general may obtain review of any final order granting a permit, or granting or denying an application for a permit issued by a local government by filing a written request with the shorelines hearings board and the appropriate local government within thirty days from the date the final order was filed as provided in RCW 90.58.140(6) as now or hereafter amended.

(3) The review proceedings authorized in subsections (1) and (2) of this section are subject to the provisions of chapter 34.04 RCW pertaining to procedures in contested cases. Judicial review of such proceedings of the shorelines hearings board may be had as provided in chapter 34.04 RCW.

(4) Local government may appeal to the shorelines hearings board any rules, regulations, or guidelines (~~(, designations, or master programs for shorelines of the state)~~) adopted or approved by the department within thirty days of the date of the adoption or approval. The board shall make a final decision within sixty days following the hearing held thereon.

~~((a) In an appeal relating to a master program for shorelines, the board, after full consideration of the positions of the local government and the department, shall determine the validity of the master program:))~~ If the board determines that said ~~((program))~~ rule, regulation, or guideline:

~~((i))~~ (a) Is clearly erroneous in light of the policy of this chapter; or

~~((ii))~~ (b) Constitutes an implementation of this chapter in violation of constitutional or statutory provisions; or

~~((iii))~~ (c) Is arbitrary and capricious; or

~~((iv))~~ (d) Was developed without fully considering and evaluating all ~~((proposed master programs))~~ material submitted to the department by the local government; or

~~((v))~~ (e) Was not adopted in accordance with required procedures; the board shall enter a final decision declaring the ~~((program))~~ rule, regulation, or guideline invalid, remanding the ~~((master program))~~ rule, regulation, or guideline to the department with a statement of the reasons in support of the determination, and directing the department to adopt, after a thorough consultation with the affected local government, a new ~~((master program))~~ rule, regulation, or guideline. Unless the board makes one or more of the determinations as hereinbefore provided, the board shall find the ~~((master program))~~ rule, regulation, or guideline to be valid and enter a final decision to that effect.

~~((b) In an appeal relating to a master program for shorelines of state-wide significance the board shall approve the master program adopted by the department unless a local government shall, by clear and convincing evidence and argument, persuade the board that the master program approved by the department is inconsistent with the policy of RCW 90.58.020 and the applicable guidelines.~~

~~((c) In an appeal relating to rules, regulations, guidelines, master programs of state-wide significance, and designations, the standard of review provided in RCW 34.04.070 shall apply:))~~

(5) Rules, regulations, ~~((designations, master programs,))~~ and guidelines shall be subject to review in superior court, if authorized pursuant to RCW 34.04.070: PROVIDED, That no review shall be granted by a superior court on petition from a local government unless the local government shall first have obtained review under subsection (4) of this section is filed within three months after the date of final decision by the shorelines hearings board.

Sec. 3. Section 19, chapter 286, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 90.58.190 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department and each local government shall periodically review any master programs under its jurisdiction and make such adjustments thereto as are necessary. ((Each local government shall submit any proposed adjustments, to the department as soon as they are completed. No such adjustment shall become effective until it has been approved by the department.)) Any adjustments proposed by a local government to its master program shall be forwarded to the department for review. The department shall approve, reject, or propose modification to the adjustment. If the department either rejects or proposes modification to the master program adjustment, it shall provide substantive written comments as to why the proposal is being rejected or modified.

(2) Any local government aggrieved by the department's decision to approve, reject, or modify a proposed master program or master program adjustment may appeal the department's decision to the shorelines hearings board. In an appeal relating to shorelines, the shorelines hearings board shall review the proposed master program or master program adjustment and, after full consideration of the presentations of the local government and the department, shall determine the validity of the local government's adjustment in light of the policy of RCW 90.58.020 and the applicable guidelines. In an appeal relating to shorelines of state-wide significance, the board shall uphold the decision by the department unless a local government shall, by clear and convincing evidence and argument, persuade the board that the decision of the department is inconsistent with the policy of RCW 90.58.020 and the applicable guidelines. Review by the hearings board shall be considered a contested case under chapter 34.04 RCW. The aggrieved local government shall have the burden of proof in all such reviews. Whenever possible, the review by the hearings board shall be heard within the county where the land subject to the proposed master program or master program adjustment is primarily located. The department and any local government aggrieved by a final decision of the hearings board may appeal the decision to the superior court of Thurston county.

(3) A master program amendment shall become effective after the approval of the department or after the decision of the shorelines hearings board to uphold the master program or master program adjustment, provided that the board may remand the master program or master program adjustment to the local government or the department for modification prior to the final adoption of the master program or master program adjustment.

Sec. 4. Section 21, chapter 286, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 90.58.210 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The attorney general or the attorney for the local government shall bring such injunctive, declaratory, or other actions as are necessary to insure that no uses are made of the shorelines of the state in conflict with the provisions and programs of this chapter, and to otherwise enforce the provisions of this chapter.

(2) Any person who shall fail to conform to the terms of a permit issued under this chapter or who shall undertake development on the shorelines of the state without first obtaining any permit required under this chapter shall also be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed one thousand dollars for each violation. Each permit violation or each day of continued development without a required permit shall constitute a separate violation.

(3) The penalty provided for in this section shall be imposed by a notice in writing, either by certified mail with return receipt requested or by personal service, to the person incurring the same from the department or local government, describing the violation with reasonable particularity and ordering the act or acts constituting the violation or violations to cease and desist or, in appropriate cases, requiring necessary corrective action to be taken within a specific and reasonable time.

(4) Within thirty days after the notice is received, the person incurring the penalty may apply in writing to the department for remission or mitigation of such penalty. Upon receipt of the application, the department or local government may remit or mitigate the penalty upon whatever terms the department or local government in its discretion deems proper. Any penalty imposed pursuant to this section by the department shall be subject to review by the shorelines hearings board. Any penalty imposed pursuant to this section by local government shall be subject to review by the local government legislative authority. Any penalty jointly imposed by the department and local government shall be appealed to the shorelines hearings board.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Passed the Senate March 9, 1986.

Passed the House March 5, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986, with the exception of certain items which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to one portion, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4572, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to shoreline management."

Section 1(3)(c)(vii) of this bill, on page 5, lines 22 through 26, would increase from $2,500 to $6,500 the value of shoreline docks exempted from the permit requirement of the Shoreline Management Act.

One of the purposes of the Shoreline Management Act is to provide public review of proposed substantial developments on the state's shorelines. By requiring a permit for any proposed substantial development, as defined in the Act, the public is afforded an opportunity to be notified of any substantial development and to comment on its consistency with the goals, policies and regulations of the local master program and of the Shoreline Management Act.

The change proposed to the definition in section 1(3)(c)(vii) would provide a blanket exemption from the permit and public review process for any dock with a value of up to $6,500. Since docks of this value can have a substantial impact on the environment, create neighborhood conflicts and interfere with navigation, I do not believe such an exemption from the process is appropriate. I am therefore vetoing this portion of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4572.

With the exception of section 1(3)(c)(vii), Substitute Senate Bill No. 4572 is approved.*

CHAPTER 293

[Senate Bill No. 4691]

INDUSTRIAL INSURANCE—CHILD REDEFINED

AN ACT Relating to the definition of child for industrial insurance purposes; amending RCW 51.08.030; and creating a new section.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 4, chapter 14, Laws of 1980 and RCW 51.08.030 are each amended to read as follows:

"Child" means every natural born child, posthumous child, stepchild, child legally adopted prior to the injury, child born after the injury where conception occurred prior to the injury, and dependent child in the legal custody and control of the worker, all while under the age of eighteen years, or under the age of twenty-three years while permanently enrolled at a full time course in an accredited school, and over the age of eighteen years if the child is a dependent as a result of a physical, mental, or sensory handicap.

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The director of the department of labor and industries shall appoint a temporary chiropractic advisory committee from health care professionals licensed under chapter 18.25 RCW. The committee shall consist of six members, three from eastern Washington and three from western Washington, who shall serve without compensation, with the director or the director's designee as chair. The committee shall assist in the development for the director's consideration of standards for the determination of temporary and permanent disability, standards for chiropractic treatment, care and practice, and a proposal for a chiropractic peer review program. The temporary chiropractic advisory committee established by this section shall cease to exist on June 30, 1987.

*Sec. 2 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

Passed the Senate March 8, 1986.

Passed the House March 4, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986, with the exception of certain items which were vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 2, Senate Bill No. 4691, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to the definition of child for industrial insurance purposes."

Section 2 of this bill would create a Chiropractic Advisory Committee to assist the Director of Labor and Industries. Boards, commissions, committees, task forces and similar entities have proliferated in this state, now numbering over 400 such bodies.

State agencies, moreover, generally have the authority to create ad hoc advisory groups as the need arises. This authority makes it unnecessary to create advisory boards in statute.

A Chiropractic Advisory Board to advise the Department of Labor and Industries already exists, created by the department by rule. The committee proposed in this legislation would expire on June 30, 1987; the existing committee can — and probably should — continue past that date. Furthermore, the existing committee can undertake the tasks specified in section 2 of this bill.

For these reasons, I have vetoed section 2.

With the exception of section 2, Senate Bill No. 4691 is approved."

CHAPTER 294

[Substitute Senate Bill No. 4590]

LOCAL GOVERNMENTS—INVESTMENT OF SURPLUS PUBLIC FUNDS

AN ACT Relating to local government; amending RCW 56.16.160 and 57.20.160; adding a new chapter to Title 43 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 36.29 RCW; and making an appropriation.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The purpose of this chapter is to enable political subdivisions to participate with the state in providing maximum opportunities for the investment of surplus public funds consistent with the safety and protection of such funds. The legislature finds and declares that the public interest is found in providing maximum prudent investment of surplus funds, thereby reducing the need for additional taxation. The legislature also recognizes that not all political subdivisions are able to maximize the return on their temporary surplus funds. The legislature therefore provides in this chapter a mechanism whereby political subdivisions may, at their option, utilize the resources of the state treasurer's office to maximize the potential of surplus funds while ensuring the safety of public funds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section shall apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Public funds investment account" or "investment pool" means the aggregate of all funds from political subdivisions that are placed in the custody of the state treasurer for investment and reinvestment.

(2) "Political subdivision" means any county, city, town, municipal corporation, political subdivision, or special purpose taxing district in the state.

(3) "Local government official" means any officer or employee of a political subdivision who has been designated by statute or by local charter, ordinance, or resolution as the officer having the authority to invest the funds of the political subdivision. However, the county treasurer shall be deemed the only local government official for all political subdivisions for which the county treasurer has exclusive statutory authority to invest the funds thereof.

(4) "Funds" means public funds under the control of or in the custody of any local government official by virtue of the official's authority that are not immediately required to meet current demands.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is created a trust fund in the state treasury to be known as the public funds investment account. All moneys remitted by local government officials under this chapter shall be deposited in this account. The earnings on any balances in the public funds investment account shall be credited to the public funds investment account, notwithstanding RCW 43.84.090.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If authorized by local ordinance or resolution, a local government official may place funds into the public funds investment account for investment and reinvestment by the state treasurer in those securities and investments set forth in RCW 43.84.080 and chapter 39.58 RCW. The state treasurer shall invest the funds in such manner as to effectively maximize the yield to the investment pool. In investing and reinvesting moneys in the public funds investment account and in acquiring, retaining, managing, and disposing of investments of the investment pool, there shall be exercised the judgment and care under the circumstances then prevailing which persons of prudence, discretion, and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs, not in regard to speculation but in regard to the permanent disposition of the funds considering the probable income as well as the probable safety of the capital.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The state treasurer's office is authorized to employ such personnel as are necessary to administer the public funds investment account. The bond of the state treasurer as required by law shall be made to include the faithful performance of all functions relating to the investment pool.

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The state treasurer shall by rule prescribe the time periods for investments in the investment pool and the procedure for withdrawal of funds from the investment pool. The state treasurer shall promulgate such other rules as are deemed necessary for the efficient operation of the investment pool. The rules shall also provide for the administrative expenses of the investment pool, including repayment of the initial administrative costs financed out of the appropriation included in this act, to be paid from the pool's earnings and for the interest earnings in excess of the expenses to be credited or paid to the political subdivisions participating in the pool. The state treasurer may deduct the amounts necessary to reimburse the treasurer's office for the actual expenses the office incurs and to repay any funds appropriated and expended for the initial administrative costs of the pool. Any credits or payments to political subdivisions shall be calculated and made in a manner which equitably reflects the differing amounts of the political subdivisions' respective deposits in the investment pool fund and the differing periods of time for which the amounts were placed in the investment pool : PROVIDED, That the appropriated start-up costs of the pool must be repaid by June 30, 1989 .

*Sec. 6 was partially vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The state treasurer shall keep a separate account for each political subdivision having funds in the investment pool. Each separate account shall record the individual amounts deposited in the investment pool, the date of withdrawals, and the earnings credited or paid to the political subdivision. The state treasurer shall report monthly the status of the respective account to each local government official having funds in the pool during the previous month.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. At the end of each fiscal year, the state treasurer shall submit to the governor, the state auditor, and the legislative budget committee a summary of the activity of the investment pool. The summary shall indicate the quantity of funds deposited; the earnings of the pool; the investments purchased, sold, or exchanged; the administrative expenses of the investment pool; and such other information as the state treasurer deems relevant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The state finance committee shall administer this chapter and adopt appropriate rules.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Local governments may not invest in repurchase agreements, nor have their money invested in repurchase agreements, unless the local government or its agent takes possession of the securities to be repurchased, or a third party holds the securities in trust for the local government.

*Sec. 10 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 36.29 RCW to read as follows:

Upon the request of one or several units of local government that invest their money with the county under the provisions of RCW 36.29.020, the treasurer of that county may combine those units' moneys for the purposes of investment.

Sec. 12. Section 15, chapter 103, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 21, chapter 66, Laws of 1983 and RCW 56.16.160 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever there shall have accumulated in any general or special fund of a sewer district moneys, the disbursement of which is not yet due, the board of commissioners may, by resolution, authorize the county treasurer to deposit or invest such moneys in qualified public depositories, or to invest such moneys in ~~((direct obligations of the United States government))~~ any investment permitted at any time by RCW 36.29.020: PROVIDED, That the county treasurer may refuse to invest any district moneys the disbursement of which will be required during the period of investment to meet outstanding obligations of the district.

Sec. 13. Section 16, chapter 108, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 22, chapter 66, Laws of 1983 and RCW 57.20.160 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever there shall have accumulated in any general or special fund of a water district moneys, the disbursement of which is not yet due, the board of water commissioners may, by resolution, authorize the county treasurer to deposit or invest such moneys in qualified public depositories, or to invest such moneys in ~~((direct obligations of the United States government))~~ any investment permitted at any time by RCW 36.29.020: PROVIDED, That the county treasurer may refuse to invest any district moneys the disbursement of which will be required during the period of investment to meet outstanding obligations of the district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. There is hereby appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1987, to the state treasurer from the state treasurer's service fund the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to defray the initial administrative costs of the public funds investment account. On or before June 30, 1991, the state treasurer's service fund shall be reimbursed for the amount of such money expended by the state treasurer to defray these initial administrative costs by transferring such money from the public funds investment account to the state treasurer's service fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Sections 1 through 10 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 43 RCW.

Passed the Senate March 10, 1986.

Passed the House March 5, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986, with the exception of certain items which were vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 10 and a portion of section 6, Substitute Senate Bill 4590, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to local government."

I fully support the intent of this legislation. It will provide local governments an additional opportunity to maximize the yield on their investments as well as provide the increased protection for public funds. However, language contained in section 10 would unduly restrict local governments' investment options. The repurchase agreement is a valuable cash management tool, the use of which should not be restricted without a corresponding benefit to local governments. The intent of section 10 would appear to be to require the delivery of securities to control of the local entity. However, failure to define the term "agent" renders this section meaningless and extraneous to the legislation. Therefore, I am vetoing section 10.

The last portion of section 6 after the word "Provided" is vetoed. This language conflicts with provisions of section 14 and would create confusion in the administration of the Act.

With the exception of a portion of section 6 and all of section 10, Substitute Senate Bill 4590 is approved."

CHAPTER 295

[Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4725]

BOARD OF ACCOUNTANCY—CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS— REVISIONS

AN ACT Relating to accountancy; amending RCW 18.04.025, 18.04.035, 18.04.045, 18.04.055, 18.04.065, 18.04.105, 18.04.185, 18.04.195, 18.04.205, 18.04.215, 18.04.295, 18.04.305, 18.04.320, 18.04.335, 18.04.345, 18.04.350, 18.04.380, 18.04.390, 18.04.405, 18.04.901, and 18.04.920; decodifying RCW 18.04.930, 18.04.931, 18.04.932, 18.04.933, and 18.04.934; repealing RCW 43.131.311 and 43.131.312; declaring an emergency; and providing an effective date.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 3, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.025 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Board" means the board of accountancy created by RCW 18.04.035.

(2) "Certified public accountant" or "CPA" means a person holding a certified public accountant certificate issued under this chapter or the accountancy act of any state.

(3) "State" includes the states of the United States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, Guam, and the United States Virgin Islands.

(4) "Opinions on financial statements" are any reports prepared by certified public accountants, based on examinations in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards as to whether the presentation of information used for guidance in financial transactions or for accounting for or assessing the status or performance of commercial and noncommercial enterprises, whether public, private, or governmental, conforms with generally accepted accounting principles or other comprehensive bases of accounting.

(5) The "practice of public accounting" means performing services as one skilled in the knowledge and practice of public accounting and preparing reports designated as "audit reports," "review reports," and "compilation reports."

(6) "Firm" means a sole proprietorship, a corporation, or a partnership.

(7) "CPE" means continuing professional education.

(8) "Certificate" means a certificate as a certified public accountant issued under this chapter, or a corresponding certificate issued by another state.

(9) "Licensee" means the holder of a certificate who also holds a valid license issued under this chapter.

(10) "License" means a biennial license issued to an individual or firm under this chapter.

(11) "Quality assurance review" means a study, appraisal, or review of one or more aspects of the professional work of a person or firm in the practice of public accountancy, by a person or persons who hold certificates and who are not affiliated with the person or firm being reviewed.

(12) "Rule" means any rule adopted by the board under authority of this chapter.

Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.035 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) There is created a board of accountancy for the state of Washington to be known as the Washington board of accountancy. The board shall consist of five members appointed by the governor. Members of the board shall include four persons who hold certified public accountant certificates and have been in public practice as certified public accountants in this state continuously for the previous ten years. The fifth member shall be the public member and shall be a person who is qualified to judge whether the qualifications, activities, and professional practice of those regulated under this chapter conform with standards to protect the public interest.

(2) The members of the board of accountancy (~~((existing immediately prior to July 1, 1983, shall serve out their existing terms as members of the board created under this act. Thereafter, each member of the board))~~) shall be appointed by the governor to a term of three years. (~~((Their successors shall be appointed for terms of three years.))~~) Vacancies occurring during a term shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired term. Upon the expiration of a member's term of office, the member shall continue to serve until a successor has been appointed and has assumed office. The governor shall remove from the board any member whose certificate or ~~((permit))~~ license to practice has been revoked or suspended and may, after hearing, remove any member of the board for neglect of duty or other just cause. No person who has served two successive complete terms is eligible for reappointment. Appointment to fill an unexpired term is not considered a complete term.

Sec. 3. Section 5, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.045 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The board shall annually elect a chairman, a vice chairman, and a secretary from its members.

(2) The board may adopt and amend rules under chapter 34.04 RCW for the orderly conduct of its affairs and for the administration of this chapter.

(3) A majority of the board constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business.

(4) The board shall have a seal which shall be judicially noticed.

(5) The board shall keep records of its proceedings, and of any proceeding in court arising from or founded upon this chapter. Copies of these records certified as correct under the seal of the board are admissible in evidence as tending to prove the content of the records.

(6) The board may employ personnel and arrange for assistance as it requires to perform its duties. Individuals or committees assisting the board under this subsection (6) constitute volunteers for purposes of chapter 4.92 RCW.

~~((2))~~ (7) Each member of the board shall receive compensation as provided under RCW 18.04.080.

~~((3))~~ (8) The board shall file an annual report of its activities with the governor. The report shall include, but not be limited to, a statement of all receipts and disbursements ~~((and a listing of all certified public accountants who are registered, or who have offices registered, or permits to practice issued under this chapter))~~. Upon request, the board shall mail a copy of each annual report ~~((to any person, office, partnership, or corporation listed, or))~~ to any member of the public.

Sec. 4. Section 6, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.055 are each amended to read as follows:

The board shall prescribe rules consistent with this chapter as necessary to implement this chapter. Included may be:

(1) Rules of procedure to govern the conduct of matters before the board;

(2) Rules of professional conduct to establish and maintain high standards of competence and integrity in the profession;

(3) Educational requirements to set for an examination or for the issuance of the certificate or license of certified public accountant;

(4) Rules designed to ensure that certified public accountants' "opinions on financial statements" meet the definitional requirements for that term as specified in RCW 18.04.025;

(5) Requirements for continuing professional education to maintain or improve the professional competence of ~~((permit))~~ certificate and license holders ((to practice under RCW 18.04.215)) as a condition to maintaining their ((continuing in the practice of public accounting)) certificate or license to practice under RCW 18.04.215;

(6) Regulations governing sole proprietors, partnerships, and corporations practicing public accounting including, but not limited to, rules concerning their style, name, title, and affiliation with any other organization, and establishing reasonable practice standards to protect the public interest;~~((and))~~

(7) The board may by rule implement a quality assurance review program as a means to monitor licensees' quality of practice and compliance with professional standards. The board may exempt from such program, licensees who undergo periodic peer reviews in programs of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, National Association of State Boards of Accountancy, or other programs recognized and approved by the board by rule.

(8) The board may by rule require firms to obtain professional liability insurance if in the board's discretion such insurance provides additional and necessary protection for the public; and

(9) Any other rule which the board finds necessary or appropriate to implement this chapter.

The board shall set its fees at a level adequate to pay the costs of administering this chapter. All fees shall be deposited into an account in the state treasury known as the certified public accountants' account.

*Sec. 5 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

Sec. 6. Section 7, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 3, chapter 57, Laws of 1985 and RCW 18.04.105 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The certificate of "certified public accountant" shall be granted by the board to any person:

(a) Who is of good character. Good character, for purposes of this section, means lack of a history of dishonest or felonious acts. The board may refuse to grant a certificate on the ground of failure to satisfy this requirement only if there is a substantial connection between the lack of good character of the applicant and the professional responsibilities of a licensee and if the finding by the board of lack of good character is supported by a preponderance of evidence. When an applicant is found to be unqualified for a certificate because of a lack of good character, the board shall furnish the applicant a statement containing the findings of the board and a notice of the applicant's right of appeal;

(b) ~~Who has ((a baccalaureate degree conferred by a college or university recognized by the board, and whose educational program included an accounting concentration or its equivalent, and related subjects)) met such educational standards established by rule as the board determines to be appropriate; and~~

(c) Who has passed a written examination in accounting, auditing, and related subjects the board determines to be appropriate.

(2) ~~((The board may, in its discretion, waive the educational requirement for any person if it is satisfied, by appropriate means of evaluation,~~ that the person's educational qualifications are an acceptable substitute for the requirements of subsection (1)(b) of this section:

~~(3))~~ The examination described in subsection (1)(c) of this section shall be held by the board and shall take place as often as the board determines to be desirable, but at least once a year. The board may use all or any part of the examination ~~((and))~~ or grading service of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants or National Association of State Boards of Accountancy to assist it in performing its duties under this chapter.

~~((4))~~ A person who has met the educational requirements of subsection (1)(b) of this section, or who expects to meet it within one hundred twenty days following the examination, or with respect to whom it has been waived under subsection (2) of this section, is eligible to take the examination if the person also meets the requirements of subsection (1)(a) of this section. If a person is admitted to the examination on the expectation that he or she will complete the educational requirement within one hundred twenty days, no certificate may be issued, nor credit for the examination or any part of it be given, unless this requirement is in fact completed within that time or within such time as the board in its discretion may determine upon application.

~~(5))~~ (3) The board may, by rule, provide for granting credit to a person for satisfactory completion of a written examination in any one or more of the subjects specified in subsection (1)(c) of this section given by the licensing authority in any other state. These rules shall include requirements the board determines to be appropriate in order that any examination approved as a basis for any credit shall, in the judgment of the board, be at least as thorough as the most recent examination given by the board at the time credit is granted.

(4) The board may, by rule, prescribe the terms and conditions under which a person who passes the examination in one or more of the subjects indicated in subsection (1)(c) of this section may be reexamined in only the remaining subjects, giving credit for the subjects previously passed. It may also provide by rule for a reasonable waiting period for a person's reexamination in a subject he or she has failed. A person is entitled to any number of reexaminations, subject to this subsection and any other rules adopted by the board.

(5) A person passing the examination in any one or more subjects specified in subsection (1)(c) of this section shall meet the educational requirements of subsection (1)(b) of this section in effect on the date the person successfully completes the requirements of subsection (1)(c) of this section. The board may provide, by rule, for exceptions to prevent what it determines to be undue hardship to applicants.

(6) The board shall charge each applicant an examination fee for the initial examination under subsection (1) of this section, or for reexamination under subsection ~~((5))~~ (4) of this section for each subject in which the applicant is reexamined(~~(, or for evaluation of a person's educational qualifications under subsection (2) of this section)~~). The applicable fee shall be paid by the person at the time he or she applies for examination, reexamination, or evaluation of educational qualifications. Fees for examination, reexamination, or evaluation of educational qualifications shall be determined by the board under chapter 18.04 RCW. There is established in the state treasury an account to be known as the certified public accountants' (~~(examination)~~) account. All fees received from candidates to take any or all sections of the certified public accountant examination (~~(shall be deposited by the board into this account, and funds appropriated from the account)~~) shall be used only for costs (~~(directly)~~) related to the examination. All earnings of investments of balances in the certified public accountants' (~~(examination)~~) account shall be credited to the general fund.

(7) Persons who on (~~July 1, 1983~~) June 30, 1986, held certified public accountant certificates previously issued under the laws of this state shall not be required to obtain additional certificates under this chapter, but shall otherwise be subject to this chapter. Certificates previously issued shall, for all purposes, be considered certificates issued under this chapter and subject to its provisions.

(8) (~~(a) Persons who on July 1, 1983, hold registrations as licensed public accountants and annual permits to practice previously issued under the laws of this state shall be entitled to practice public accounting and be known as certified public accountants and to use the designation "CPA" provided that these persons continue to hold permits to practice under this chapter:~~

(b)) Persons who held qualifications as licensed public accountants but who do not hold annual permits to practice on July 1, 1983, are not entitled to engage in the practice of public accounting under this chapter (~~(unless they meet the requirements imposed by this chapter for certified public accountants)~~). (~~(These)~~) No person(~~(s)~~) shall (~~(not)~~) use the term "licensed public accountant(~~(s)~~)" or the designation "LPA."

(9) A certificate of a "certified public accountant" under this chapter is issued on a biennial basis with renewal subject to requirements of continuing professional education and payment of fees, prescribed by the board.

(10) The board shall adopt rules providing for continuing professional education for certified public accountants. The rules shall:

(a) Provide that a certified public accountant holding a certificate on the effective date of this act shall verify to the board that he or she has completed at least ten days or an accumulation of eighty hours of continuing professional education during the last two-year period to maintain the certificate;

(b) Establish continuing professional education requirements;

(c) Establish when newly certificated public accountants shall verify that they have completed the required continuing professional education; and

(d) Establish proceedings for revocation, suspension, and reinstatement of certificates for failure to meet the continuing professional education requirement.

(11) Failure to furnish verification of the completion of the continuing professional education requirement constitutes grounds for revocation, suspension, or failure to renew the certificate, unless the board determines that the failure was due to reasonable cause or excusable neglect.

Sec. 7. Section 8, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.185 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Application for certification as certified public accountants by persons who are not residents of this state constitutes appointment of the secretary of state as an agent for service of process in any action or proceeding against the applicants arising from any transaction, activity, or operation connected with or incidental to the practice of public accounting in this state by nonresident holders of certified public accountant certificates.

(2) Application for a biennial ((~~permit~~)) license to practice public accounting in this state by a certified public accountant or CPA firm who holds a license or permit to practice issued by another state constitutes the appointment of the secretary of state as an agent for service of process in any action or proceeding against the applicant arising from any transaction or operation connected with or incidental to the practice of public accounting in this state by the holder of the biennial ((~~permit~~)) license to practice.

Sec. 8. Section 9, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.195 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A sole proprietorship engaged in this state in the practice of public accounting shall license biennially with the board as a firm.

(a) The principal purpose and business of the firm shall be to furnish services to the public which are consistent with this chapter and the rules of the board.

(b) The person shall be a certified public accountant holding a license to practice under RCW 18.04.215.

(c) Each resident licensee in charge of an office of the sole proprietorship engaged in this state in the practice of public accounting shall be a certified public accountant holding a license to practice under RCW 18.04.215.

(2) A partnership engaged in this state in the practice of public accounting shall ((~~register~~)) license biennially with the board as a partnership of certified public accountants, and shall meet the following requirements:

(a) The principal purpose and business of the partnership shall be to furnish services to the public which are consistent with this chapter and the rules of the board;

(b) At least one general partner of the partnership shall be a certified public accountant holding a ~~((permit))~~ license to practice under RCW 18.04.215;

(c) Each resident ~~((manager))~~ licensee in charge of an office of the partnership in this state and each resident partner personally engaged within this state in the practice of public accounting ~~((as a member in the office))~~ shall be a certified public accountant holding a ~~((permit))~~ license to practice under RCW 18.04.215.

~~((2))~~ (3) A corporation organized for the practice of public accounting and engaged in this state in the practice of public accounting shall ~~((register))~~ license biennially with the board as a corporation of certified public accountants and shall meet the following requirements:

(a) The principal purpose and business of the corporation shall be to furnish services to the public which are consistent with this chapter and the rules of the board; and

(b) Each shareholder of the corporation shall be a certified public accountant of some state holding a ~~((permit))~~ license to practice and shall be principally employed by the corporation or actively engaged in its business. No other person may have any interest in the stock of the corporation. The principal officer of the corporation and any officer or director having authority over the practice of public accounting by the corporation shall be a certified public accountant of some state holding a ~~((permit))~~ license to practice;

(c) At least one shareholder of the corporation shall be a certified public accountant holding a ~~((permit))~~ license to practice under RCW 18.04.215;

(d) Each resident ~~((manager))~~ licensee in charge of an office of the corporation in this state and each shareholder or director personally engaged within this state in the practice of public accounting shall be a certified public accountant holding a ~~((permit))~~ license to practice under RCW 18.04.215;

(e) A written agreement shall bind the corporation or its shareholders to purchase any shares offered for sale by, or not under the ownership or effective control of, a qualified shareholder, and bind any holder not a qualified shareholder to sell the shares to the corporation or its qualified shareholders. The agreement shall be noted on each certificate of corporate stock. The corporation may purchase any amount of its stock for this purpose, notwithstanding any impairment of capital, as long as one share remains outstanding; and

(f) The corporation shall comply with any other rules pertaining to corporations practicing public accounting in this state as the board may prescribe.

~~((3))~~ (4) Application for ~~((registration of))~~ a license as a ~~((partnership or corporation))~~ firm shall be made upon the affidavit of ~~((a general))~~

the proprietor or person designated as managing partner or shareholder ~~((who is))~~ for Washington. This person shall be a certified public accountant holding a ~~((permit))~~ license to practice under RCW 18.04.215. The board shall determine in each case whether the applicant is eligible for ~~((registration))~~ a license. A partnership or corporation which is ~~((so registered and which holds a permit))~~ licensed to practice under RCW 18.04.215 may use the designation "certified public accountants" or "CPAs" in connection with its partnership or corporate name. The board shall be given notification within ~~((thirty))~~ ninety days after the admission or withdrawal of a partner or shareholder engaged in this state in the practice of public accounting from any partnership or corporation so ~~((registered))~~ licensed.

~~((4))~~ (5) Fees for the ~~((registration of partnerships or corporations))~~ license as a firm and for notification of the board of the admission or withdrawal of a partner or shareholder shall be determined by the board. Fees shall be paid by the ~~((applicant))~~ firm at the time the ~~((registration))~~ license application form or notice of admission or withdrawal of a partner or shareholder is filed with the board.

Sec. 9. Section 10, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.205 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Each office established or maintained in this state for the practice of public accounting in this state by a certified public accountant, or a partnership or corporation of certified public accountants, shall register with the board under this chapter biennially.

(2) Each office shall be under the direct supervision of a resident ~~((manager))~~ licensee holding a ~~((permit))~~ license to practice under RCW 18.04.215 who may be ~~((either))~~ a sole proprietor, partner, principal shareholder, or a staff employee.

~~((2))~~ (3) The board shall by rule prescribe the procedure to be followed to register and maintain offices established in this state for the practice of public accounting.

~~((3))~~ (4) Fees for the registration of offices shall be determined by the board. Fees shall be paid by the applicant at the time the registration form is filed with the board.

Sec. 10. Section 11, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.215 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Biennial ~~((permits))~~ licenses to engage in the practice of public accounting in this state shall be issued by the board:

(a) To holders of certificates as certified public accountants who have demonstrated, in accordance with rules issued by the board, one year of public accounting experience, or such other experience or employment which the board in its discretion regards as substantially equivalent;

(b) To ~~((partnerships and corporations registered))~~ firms under RCW 18.04.195, if all offices of the ~~((partnerships and corporations))~~ firm in this state are maintained and registered as required under RCW 18.04.205.

(2) All ~~((permits))~~ licenses to practice ~~((for))~~ issued to persons born in an even-numbered year expire on the last day of June ~~((1984 shall be for one year and may be renewed for a period of two years))~~ of each even-numbered year. All ~~((permits))~~ licenses to practice ~~((for))~~ issued to persons born in an odd-numbered year expire on the last day of June ~~((1985 shall be for two years and may be renewed for a period of two years))~~ of each odd-numbered year. Renewals of ~~((permits))~~ licenses to practice issued to individuals under subsection (1) (a) ~~((or (b)))~~ of this section shall be issued in accordance with subsection ~~((3))~~ (4) of this section. Applicants for issuance or renewal of ~~((permits))~~ licenses shall, at the time of filing their applications, list with the board all states in which they hold or have applied for permits or licenses to practice.

~~((2))~~ (3) A certified public accountant who holds a permit or license issued by another state, and applies for a ~~((permit))~~ license in this state, may practice ~~((accounting))~~ in this state from the date of filing a completed application with the board, until the board has acted upon the application.

~~((3))~~ (4) As a prerequisite to renewal of a ~~((permit))~~ license, a person practicing public accounting shall submit to the ~~((Washington state))~~ board ~~((of accountancy))~~ satisfactory proof of having completed ten days or an accumulation of eighty hours of continuing education recognized and approved by the board during the preceding two years. Failure to furnish this evidence as required constitutes grounds for revocation, suspension, or refusal to renew the ~~((permit))~~ license in a proceeding under RCW 18.04.295, unless the board determines the failure to have been due to reasonable cause or excusable neglect.

The board~~((;))~~ in its discretion~~((;))~~ may renew a biennial ~~((permit))~~ license to practice despite failure to furnish evidence of compliance with requirements of continuing professional education upon condition that the applicant follow a particular program of continuing professional education. In issuing rules and individual orders with respect to continuing professional education requirements, the board, among other considerations, may rely upon guidelines and pronouncements of recognized educational and professional associations, may prescribe course content, duration, and organization, and ~~((shall))~~ may take into account the accessibility of continuing education to applicants and instances of individual hardship.

~~((4))~~ (5) Fees for biennial ~~((permits))~~ licenses to engage in the practice of public accounting in this state shall be determined by the board under chapter 18.04 RCW. Fees shall be paid by the applicant at the time the ~~((registration))~~ application form is filed with the board. The board, by rule, may provide for proration of fees for licenses issued between normal renewal dates.

Sec. 11. Section 12, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.295 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((After notice and hearing as provided in RCW 18.04.320, the board may revoke or suspend any certificate issued under RCW 18.04.105, or may revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew any permit to practice, or may censure the holder of a permit for one or a combination))~~ The board of accountancy shall have the power to revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew the license of any certified public accountant for any of the following causes:

(1) ~~Fraud or deceit in obtaining a certificate as a certified public accountant, ((or in obtaining registration under this act,)) or in obtaining a ((permit)) license to practice public accounting under RCW 18.04.215;~~

(2) Dishonesty, fraud, or ~~((gross))~~ negligence in the practice of public accounting;

(3) A violation of any provision of this ~~((act))~~ chapter;

(4) A violation of a rule of professional conduct promulgated by the board under the authority granted by this ~~((act))~~ chapter;

(5) Conviction of a crime or an act constituting a crime under:

(a) The laws of this state;

(b) The laws of another state, and which, if committed within this state, would have constituted a crime under the laws of this state; or

(c) Federal law;

(6) Cancellation, revocation, suspension, or refusal to renew the authority to practice as a certified public accountant by any other state for any cause other than failure to pay a fee or to meet the requirements of continuing education in the other state;

(7) Suspension or revocation of the right to practice before any state or federal agency~~((or))~~.

Sec. 12. Section 13, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.305 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((After notice and hearing under RCW 18.04.320, the board shall revoke the registration issued to a partnership or corporation under RCW 18.04.195 and permit to practice issued to a partnership or corporation under RCW 18.04.215 if at any time the partnership or corporation does not have all the qualifications prescribed under this chapter for registration. After notice and hearing as provided in RCW 18.04.320, the board may revoke or suspend the registration of a partnership or corporation, may revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew its permit to practice))~~ The board of accountancy may revoke, suspend, or refuse to renew the license issued to a firm if at any time the firm does not meet the requirements of this chapter for licensing, or for any of the causes enumerated in RCW 18.04.295, or for any of the following additional causes:

(1) The revocation or suspension of the certificate as a certified public accountant or the revocation or suspension or refusal to renew the ~~((per-))~~ mit)) license of any partner or shareholder; or

(2) The ~~((cancellation;))~~ revocation, suspension, or refusal to renew the ((authority)) license or permit of the ((partnership or corporation)) firm, or any partner or shareholder thereof, to practice public accounting in any other state for any cause other than failure to pay a fee or to meet the requirements of continuing professional education in the other state.

Sec. 13. Section 31, chapter 226, Laws of 1949 as amended by section 14, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.320 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((1) Proceedings for))~~ In the case of the refusal, revocation, or suspension of ((the certificate, permit, or registration of any person, partnership, or corporation may be initiated)) a certificate or a license by the board ((on its own motion, on the complaint of any person, or on receiving notification from another state board of accountancy of its decision to:

~~(a) Revoke or suspend practice privileges granted in that state to a holder of a certified public accountant certificate or a public accountant registrant of that state, or~~

~~(b) Revoke, suspend, refuse to renew, or censure the holder of a permit to practice in that state who holds a permit to practice under RCW 18.04.215;~~

~~(2) Unless the charge or charges are dismissed by the board as unfounded or trivial, the board shall set a date for hearing not later than ninety days after formal charges are filed. A copy of the charge or charges, together with a notice of the time and place of hearing before the board shall be served not less than thirty days prior to the date set for hearing on the accused either personally or by mailing a copy thereof by registered mail to the address of the accused last known to the board;~~

~~(3) If after having been so served with a notice of hearing, the accused fails to appear at the hearing, the board may proceed to hear evidence against him and may enter such order as may be justified by the evidence, which shall be final unless the accused petitions for a review thereof. Within thirty days from the date of any such order upon a showing of good cause for failing to appear, the board may reopen the proceedings and may permit the accused to submit evidence in his or her behalf;~~

~~(4) At any hearing the accused may appear in person and by counsel; may produce evidence and witnesses on his or her own behalf, and may cross-examine such witnesses as may appear against him. A partnership may be represented before the board by counsel or by a partner. A corporation may be represented before the board by counsel or by a shareholder. The accused shall be entitled on application to the board to the issuance of subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of evidence on his or her behalf;~~

~~(5) The board, or any member thereof, may issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents, and may administer oaths, take testimony, hear proofs, and receive exhibits in evidence in connection with or upon hearing under this chapter. To compel obedience~~

~~to a subpoena the board may invoke the aid of any court of this state in requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of documentary evidence;~~

~~(6) The board shall not be bound by technical rules of evidence;~~

~~(9) The decision of the board shall be by majority vote;~~

~~(10) Any person adversely affected by any action of the board may obtain a review thereof by filing a written petition for review in the superior court of the county in which he resides within thirty days after the entry of such order. A copy of the petition shall be served upon any member of the board and thereupon the board shall certify and file in the court a transcript of the record upon which the order complained of was entered. The court will hear the matter de novo, and may sustain, modify, or set aside the board's order in whole or in part, or may remand the matter to the board for further action, and may, in its discretion, stay the effect of the board's order pending its determination of the case. The court's decision has the force and effect of a decree in equity; and~~

~~(11) On rendering a decision to: (a) Revoke or suspend a certificate issued under RCW 18.04.105; (b) revoke or suspend a registration issued under RCW 18.04.195; or (c) revoke, suspend, refuse to renew, or censure the holder of a permit to practice under RCW 18.04.215, the board shall examine its records to determine whether the accused holds a certificate, a registration, or a permit or annual limited permit to practice in any other state. If the board determines that the accused holds a certificate, or a registration in any other state, the board shall notify the board of accountancy of the other state of its decision by mail within thirty days of rendering the decision)) under the provisions of this chapter, such proceedings and any appeal therefrom shall be taken in accordance with the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW.~~

Sec. 14. Section 15, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.335 are each amended to read as follows:

Upon application in writing and after hearing pursuant to notice, the board may:

(1) Reissue a certificate to a certified public accountant whose certificate has been revoked or suspended; or

(2) Modify the suspension of or reissue any ((permit)) license to practice which has been revoked, suspended, or which the board has refused to renew.

Sec. 15. Section 16, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.345 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) No person may hold himself or herself out to the public, or assume or use the designation "certified public accountant" or "CPA" or any other title, designation, words, letters, abbreviation, sign, card, or device tending to indicate that the person is a certified public accountant or CPA unless the person has received a certificate as a certified public accountant, holds a valid ((~~permit~~)) license to practice under RCW 18.04.215, and all of the person's offices in this state for the practice of public accounting are maintained and registered under RCW 18.04.205.

(2) No ((~~partnership or corporation~~)) firm may hold itself out to the public, or assume or use the designation "certified public accountant" or "CPA" or any other title, designation, words, letters, abbreviation, sign, card, or device tending to indicate that the ((~~partnership or corporation~~)) firm is composed of certified public accountants or CPAs, unless the ((~~partnership or corporation~~)) firm is ((~~registered as a partnership or corporation of certified public accountants~~)) licensed under RCW 18.04.195, holds a valid ((~~permit~~)) license to practice under RCW 18.04.215, and all offices of the ((~~partnership or corporation~~)) firm in this state for the practice of public accounting are maintained and registered under RCW 18.04.205.

(3) No person, partnership, or corporation may hold himself, herself, or itself out to the public, or assume or use along, or in connection with his, hers, or its name, or any other name the title or designation "certified accountant," "chartered accountant," ((~~"enrolled accountant,"~~)) "licensed accountant," ((~~"registered accountant," "accredited accountant,"~~)) "public accountant," or any other title or designation likely to be confused with "certified public accountant" or any of the abbreviations "CA," ((~~"EA," "RA,"~~)) "LA," ((~~"AA,"~~)) or "PA," or similar abbreviations likely to be confused with "CPA." However, nothing in this chapter prohibits use of the title "accountant" by any person regardless of whether the person has been granted a certificate or holds a ((~~permit~~)) license under this chapter.

(4) No person may sign, affix, or associate his or her name or any trade or assumed name used by the person in his or her business to any report designated as an "audit," "review," or "compilation," unless the person holds a biennial ((~~permit~~)) license to practice under RCW 18.04.215 and all of the person's offices in this state for the practice of public accounting are maintained and ((~~registered~~)) licensed under RCW 18.04.205.

(5) No person may sign, affix, or associate a ((~~partnership or corporate~~)) firm name to any report designated as an "audit," "review," or "compilation," unless the ((~~partnership or corporation~~)) firm is ((~~registered~~)) licensed under RCW 18.04.195((~~, holds a permit to practice under RCW~~)) and 18.04.215, and all of its offices in this state for the practice of public accounting are maintained and registered under RCW 18.04.205.

(6) No person, partnership, or corporation not holding a ((~~permit~~)) license to practice under RCW 18.04.215 may hold himself, herself, or itself out to the public as an "auditor" with or without any other description or designation by use of such word on any sign, card, letterhead, or in any advertisement or directory.

(7) Nothing contained in this chapter prohibits any person who is the holder of a valid certified public accountant certificate from assuming or using the designation "certified public accountant" or "CPA" or any other title, designation, words, letters, sign, card, or device tending to indicate that the person is a certified public accountant.

(8) No person may assume or use the designation "certified public accountant" or "CPA" in conjunction with names indicating or implying that there is a partnership or corporation, (~~or in conjunction with the designation "and Company" or "and Co." or a similar designation;~~) if there is in fact no bona fide partnership or corporation registered under RCW 18.04.195.

(9) No person, partnership, or corporation holding a ((~~permit~~)) license under RCW 18.04.215 may hold himself, herself, or itself out to the public in conjunction with the designation "and Associates" or "and Assoc." unless he or she has in fact a partner or employee who holds a ((~~permit~~)) license under RCW 18.04.215.

(10) No person, partnership, or corporation may hold himself, herself, or itself out to the public for the practice of public accounting unless the person, partnership, or corporation holds a ((~~permit~~)) license to practice under RCW 18.04.215 and all of his or its offices in this state are maintained and registered under RCW 18.04.205.

Sec. 16. Section 34, chapter 226, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 17, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.350 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Nothing in this chapter prohibits any person not a certified public accountant from serving as an employee of, or as assistant to, a certified public accountant or partnership composed of certified public accountants or corporation of certified public accountants holding a valid ((~~permit~~)) license under RCW 18.04.215. However, the employee or assistant shall not issue any accounting or financial statement over his or her name.

(2) Nothing in this chapter prohibits a certified public accountant registered in another state, or any accountant of a foreign country holding a certificate, degree or license which permits him to practice therein from temporarily practicing in this state on professional business incident to his regular practice.

(3) Nothing in this chapter prohibits a certified public accountant, a partnership, or corporation of certified public accountants, or any of their employees from disclosing any data in confidence to other certified public accountants, peer review teams, partnerships, or corporations of public accountants engaged in conducting peer reviews, or any one of their employees in connection with peer reviews of that accountant's accounting and auditing practice conducted under the auspices of recognized professional associations.

(4) Nothing in this chapter prohibits a certified public accountant, a partnership, or corporation of certified public accountants, or any of their employees from disclosing any data in confidence to any employee, representative, officer, or committee member of a recognized professional association, or to the board of accountancy, or any of its employees or committees in connection with a professional ((ethics)) investigation held under the auspices of recognized professional associations or the board of accountancy.

(5) Nothing in this chapter prohibits any officer, employee, partner, or principal of any organization:

(a) From affixing his or her signature to any statement or report in reference to the affairs of the organization with any wording designating the position, title, or office which he or she holds in the organization; or

(b) From describing himself or herself by the position, title, or office he or she holds in such organization.

(6) Nothing in this chapter prohibits any person, or partnership or corporation composed of persons not holding a ((permit)) license under RCW 18.04.215 from offering or rendering to the public bookkeeping, accounting, and tax services, including devising and installing systems, financial information or data, or preparing financial statements, written statements describing how such financial statements were prepared, or similar services, provided that persons, partnerships, or corporations not holding a ((permit)) license under RCW 18.04.215 who offer or render these services do not designate any written statement as an "audit report," "review report," or "compilation report," do not issue any written statement which purports to express or disclaim an opinion on financial statements which have been audited, and do not issue any written statement which expresses assurance on financial statements which have been reviewed.

(7) Nothing in this chapter prohibits any act of or the use of any words by a public official or a public employee in the performance of his or her duties.

Sec. 17. Section 37, chapter 226, Laws of 1949 as amended by section 20, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.380 are each amended to read as follows:

The display or presentation by a person of a card, sign, advertisement, or other printed, engraved or written instrument or device, bearing a person's name in conjunction with the words "certified public accountant" or any abbreviation thereof, or "licensed public accountant" or any abbreviation thereof, or "public accountant" or any abbreviation thereof, shall be prima facie evidence in any action brought under this chapter that the person whose name is so displayed, caused or procured the display or presentation of the card, sign, advertisement, or other printed, engraved, or written instrument or device, and that the person is holding himself or herself out to be a certified public accountant or a public accountant holding a ((permit)) license to practice under this chapter. In any such action, evidence of the commission of a single act prohibited by this chapter is sufficient to justify an injunction or a conviction without evidence of a general course of conduct.

Sec. 18. Section 38, chapter 226, Laws of 1949 as amended by section 21, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.390 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In the absence of an express agreement between the certified public accountant and the client to the contrary, all statements, records, schedules, working papers, and memoranda made by a certified public accountant incident to or in the course of professional service to clients, except reports submitted by a certified public accountant to a client, are the property of the certified public accountant.

(2) No statement, record, schedule, working paper, or memorandum may be sold, transferred, or bequeathed without the consent of the client or his or her personal representative or assignee, to anyone other than one or more surviving partners, shareholders, or new partners or new shareholders of the accountant or corporation, or any combined or merged partnership or corporation, or successor in interest (~~to the partnership or corporation~~).

(3) A licensee shall furnish to his or her client or former client, upon request and reasonable notice:

(a) A copy of the licensee's working papers, to the extent that such working papers include records that would ordinarily constitute part of the client's records and are not otherwise available to the client; and

(b) Any accounting or other records belonging to, or obtained from or on behalf of, the client that the licensee removed from the client's premises or received for the client's account; the licensee may make and retain copies of such documents of the client when they form the basis for work done by him or her.

Sec. 19. Section 23, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.405 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A certified public accountant, a partnership or corporation of certified public accountants, or any of their employees shall not disclose any confidential information obtained in the course of a professional transaction except with the consent of the client or former client or as disclosure may be required by law, legal process, the standards of the profession, or as disclosure of confidential information is permitted by RCW 18.04.350 (~~((2))~~) (3) and (~~((3))~~) (4) in connection with peer reviews and (~~(ethics)~~) investigations.

(2) This section shall not be construed as limiting the authority of this state or of the United States or an agency of this state or of the United States to subpoena and use such information in connection with any investigation, public hearing, or other proceeding, nor shall this section be construed as prohibiting a certified public accountant whose professional competence has been challenged in a court of law or before an administrative agency from disclosing confidential information as a part of a defense to the court action or administrative proceeding.

Sec. 20. Section 34, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.901 are each amended to read as follows:

If any provision of this ~~((act))~~ chapter or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the ~~((act))~~ chapter or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

- (1) Section 30, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 43.131.311; and
- (2) Section 31, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 43.131.312.

Sec. 22. Section 1, chapter 234, Laws of 1983 and RCW 18.04.920 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter may be cited as the public accountancy act ~~((of 1983))~~.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. RCW 18.04.930, 18.04.931, 18.04.932, 18.04.933, and 18.04.934 are each decodified.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect on July 1, 1986, except as provided in this section. Section 5 of this act shall not become effective if sections 90(1) and 4 of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1758 become law.

Passed the Senate March 12, 1986.

Passed the House March 12, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986, with the exception of certain items which were vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 5, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4725, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to accountancy."

The intent of the new language in section 5 is to create a new fund in the state treasury for receipt of all fees collected by the Board of Accountancy. Unfortunately, the new account is not properly created. Additionally, there is no appropriation from the new account. If this language is not vetoed, all the fees which currently go into the Certified Public Accountant Examination Account would be diverted to the new account. Because the account is improperly created and there is no appropriation, failure to veto this section would leave the Board without operating funds. For these reasons, I am vetoing section 5.

With the exception of section 5, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4725 is approved."

CHAPTER 296

[Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3636]

INSURANCE—PREMIUM TAX—OFFICE OF INSURANCE COMMISSIONER
OPERATING COST, SHARE OF COST CHARGED TO INSURERS

AN ACT Relating to insurance; amending RCW 48.14.020, 48.14.025, 41.16.050, 41.24.030, 82.02.030, 48.44.145, and 48.46.120; adding a new section to chapter 48.02 RCW; creating new sections; repealing RCW 48.14.015; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section .14.02, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 7, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 48.14.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Subject to other provisions of this chapter, each authorized insurer except title insurers shall on or before the first day of March of each year pay to the state treasurer through the commissioner's office a tax on premiums. Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, such tax shall be in the amount of two ~~((and sixteen one-hundredths))~~ percent of all premiums, excluding amounts returned to or the amount of reductions in premiums allowed to holders of industrial life policies for payment of premiums directly to an office of the insurer, collected or received by the insurer during the preceding calendar year ~~((in the case of foreign and alien insurers, and in the amount of one and sixteen one-hundredths percent of all such premiums in the case of domestic insurers, for direct insurances;))~~ other than ocean marine and foreign trade insurances, after deducting premiums paid to policyholders as returned premiums, upon risks or property resident, situated, or to be performed in this state. For the purposes of this section the consideration received by an insurer for the granting of an annuity shall not be deemed to be a premium.

(2) In the case of insurers which require the payment by their policyholders at the inception of their policies of the entire premium thereon in the form of premiums or premium deposits which are the same in amount, based on the character of the risks, regardless of the length of term for which such policies are written, such tax shall be in the amount of two ~~((and sixteen one-hundredths))~~ percent of the gross amount of such premiums and premium deposits upon policies on risks resident, located, or to be performed in this state, in force as of the thirty-first day of December next preceding, less the unused or unabsorbed portion of such premiums and premium deposits computed at the average rate thereof actually paid or credited to policyholders or applied in part payment of any renewal premiums or premium deposits on one-year policies expiring during such year.

(3) ~~((An additional tax is imposed equal to the rate specified in RCW 82.02.030 multiplied by the taxes payable under subsections (1), (2), and~~

~~(4) of this section. All revenues from this additional tax shall be deposited in the state general fund:~~

(4)) Each authorized insurer shall with respect to all ocean marine and foreign trade insurance contracts written within this state during the preceding calendar year, on or before the first day of March of each year pay to the state treasurer through the commissioner's office a tax of ~~((ninet~~~~ty-one))~~ ninety-five one-hundredths of one percent on its gross underwriting profit. Such gross underwriting profit shall be ascertained by deducting from the net premiums (i.e., gross premiums less all return premiums and premiums for reinsurance) on such ocean marine and foreign trade insurance contracts the net losses paid (i.e., gross losses paid less salvage and recoveries on reinsurance ceded) during such calendar year under such contracts. In the case of insurers issuing participating contracts, such gross underwriting profit shall not include, for computation of the tax prescribed by this subsection, the amounts refunded, or paid as participation dividends, by such insurers to the holders of such contracts.

~~((5))~~ (4) The state does hereby preempt the field of imposing excise or privilege taxes upon insurers or their agents, other than title insurers, and no county, city, town or other municipal subdivision shall have the right to impose any such taxes upon such insurers or their agents.

~~((6))~~ (5) If an authorized insurer collects or receives any such premiums on account of policies in force in this state which were originally issued by another insurer and which other insurer is not authorized to transact insurance in this state on its own account, such collecting insurer shall be liable for and shall pay the tax on such premiums.

~~((7) This section shall be effective as to and shall govern the payment of all taxes due for calendar year 1982 and thereafter:))~~

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 6, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 4, chapter 181, Laws of 1982 and RCW 48.14.025 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every insurer with a tax obligation under RCW 48.14.020 shall make prepayment of the tax obligations under RCW 48.14.020 for the current calendar year's business, if the sum of the tax obligations under RCW 48.14.020 for the preceding calendar year's business is four hundred dollars or more.

(2) The commissioner shall credit the prepayment toward the appropriate tax obligations of the insurer for the current calendar year under RCW 48.14.020.

(3) The minimum amounts of the prepayments shall be percentages of the insurer's preceding calendar year's tax obligation ~~((based on the preceding calendar year's business))~~ recomputed using the rate in effect for the current year and shall be paid to the state treasurer through the commissioner's office by the due dates and in the following amounts:

(a) On or before June 15, forty-five percent;

(b) On or before September 15, twenty-five percent; and

(c) On or before December 15, twenty-five percent.

For good cause demonstrated in writing, the commissioner may approve an amount smaller than the preceding calendar year's (~~business-as-the-base~~) tax obligation as recomputed for calculating the insurer's prepayment obligations.

(4) The effect of transferring policies of insurance from one insurer to another insurer is to transfer the tax prepayment obligation with respect to the policies.

(5) On or before June 1 of each year, the commissioner shall notify each insurer required to make prepayments in that year of the amount of each prepayment and shall provide remittance forms to be used by the insurer. However, an insurer's responsibility to make prepayments is not affected by failure of the commissioner to send, or the insurer to receive, the notice or forms.

Sec. 3. Section 5, chapter 91, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 16, chapter 35, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 41.16.050 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created and established in the treasury of each municipality a fund which shall be known and designated as the firemen's pension fund, which shall consist of: (1) All bequests, fees, gifts, emoluments or donations given or paid thereto; (2) forty-five percent of all moneys received by the state from taxes on fire insurance premiums(~~(, except any such moneys received under RCW 48.14.020(3))~~); (3) taxes paid pursuant to the provisions of RCW 41.16.060; (4) interest on the investments of the fund; and (5) contributions by firemen as provided for herein. The (~~forty-five percent of~~) moneys received from the tax on fire insurance premiums under the provisions of this chapter shall be distributed in the proportion that the number of paid firemen in the city, town or fire protection district bears to the total number of paid firemen throughout the state to be ascertained in the following manner: The secretary of the firemen's pension board of each city, town and fire protection district now or hereafter coming under the provisions of this chapter shall within thirty days after (~~the taking effect of this 1961 amendatory act~~) June 7, 1961, and on or before the fifteenth day of January thereafter, certify to the state treasurer the number of paid firemen in the fire department in such city, town or fire protection district. The state treasurer shall on or before the first day of June of each year deliver to the treasurer of each city, town and fire protection district coming under the provisions of this chapter his warrant, payable to each city, town or fire protection district for the amount due such city, town or fire protection district ascertained as herein provided and the treasurer of each such city, town or fire protection district shall place the amount thereof to the credit of the firemen's pension fund of such city, town or fire protection district.

Sec. 4. Section 3, chapter 261, Laws of 1945 as last amended by section 17, chapter 35, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 41.24.030 are each amended to read as follows:

There is created in the state treasury a trust fund for the benefit of the firemen of the state covered by this chapter, which shall be designated the volunteer firemen's relief and pension fund and shall consist of:

(1) All bequests, fees, gifts, emoluments, or donations given or paid to the fund.

(2) An annual fee for each member of its fire department to be paid by each municipal corporation for the purpose of affording the members of its fire department with protection from death or disability as herein provided as follows:

(a) Three dollars for each volunteer or part-paid member of its fire department;

(b) A sum equal to one-half of one percent of the annual salary attached to the rank of each full-paid member of its fire department, prorated for 1970 on the basis of services prior to March 1, 1970.

(3) Where a municipal corporation has elected to make available to the members of its fire department the retirement provisions as herein provided, an annual fee of thirty dollars for each of its firemen electing to enroll therein, ten dollars of which shall be paid by the municipality and twenty dollars of which shall be paid by the fireman.

(4) Forty percent of all moneys received by the state from taxes on fire insurance premiums (~~(, except any such moneys received under RCW 48.14.020(3);~~) shall be paid into the state treasury and credited to the fund.

(5) The state investment board, upon request of the state treasurer shall invest such portion of the amounts credited to the fund as is not, in the judgment of the treasurer, required to meet current withdrawals. Such investments may be made in such bonds, notes or other obligations now or hereafter authorized as an investment for the funds of the public employees' retirement system.

(6) All bonds or other obligations purchased according to subsection (5) of this section shall be forthwith placed in the custody of the state treasurer, and he shall collect the principal thereof and interest thereon when due.

The state investment board may sell any of the bonds or obligations so acquired and the proceeds thereof shall be paid to the state treasurer.

The interest and proceeds from the sale and redemption of any bonds or other obligations held by the fund shall be credited to and form a part of the fund.

All amounts credited to the fund shall be available for making the payments required by this chapter.

The state treasurer shall make an annual report showing the condition of the fund.

Sec. 5. Section 31, chapter 35, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 9, chapter 471, Laws of 1985 and RCW 82.02.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The rate of the additional taxes under RCW 54.28.020(2), 54.28.025(2), 66.24.210(2), 66.24.290(2), 82.04.2901, 82.16.020(2), 82.26.020(2), 82.27.020(5), 82.29A.030(2), 82.44.020(5), and 82.45.060(2) shall be seven percent;

(2) The rate of the additional taxes under RCW 82.08.150(4) shall be fourteen percent; and

(3) The rate of the additional taxes under RCW 82.24.020(2) shall be fifteen percent(~~;~~ and

~~(4) The rate of the additional taxes under RCW 48.14.020(3) shall be four percent)).~~

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. It is the intent of the legislature that the fees charged in section 7 of this act shall be used to increase and improve the staff of the insurance commissioner. The legislature finds that this increase and improvement in staff is necessary to properly regulate the insurance industry and protect the insurance consumers of Washington state. The increases and improvements in staff shall be determined through the legislative appropriation process and shall be funded by section 7 of this act.

*Sec. 6 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 48.02 RCW to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section:

(a) "Organization" means every insurer, as defined in RCW 48.01.050, having a certificate of authority to do business in this state and every health care service contractor registered to do business in this state. "Class one" organizations shall consist of all insurers as defined in RCW 48.01.050. "Class two" organizations shall consist of all organizations registered under provisions of chapter 48.44 RCW.

(b) "Receipts" means (i) net direct premiums consisting of direct gross premiums, as defined in RCW 48.18.170, paid for insurance written or renewed upon risks or property resident, situated, or to be performed in this state, less return premiums and premiums on policies not taken, dividends paid or credited to policyholders on direct business, and premiums received from policies or contracts issued in connection with qualified plans as defined in RCW 48.14.021, and (ii) prepayments to health care service contractors as set forth in RCW 48.44.010(3) less experience rating credits, dividends, prepayments returned to subscribers, and payments for contracts not taken.

(2) The annual cost of operating the office of insurance commissioner shall be determined by legislative appropriation. A pro rata share of the cost shall be charged to all organizations. Each class of organization shall contribute sufficient in fees to the insurance commissioner's regulatory account to pay the reasonable costs, including overhead, of regulating that class of organization.

(3) Fees charged shall be calculated separately for each class of organization. The fee charged each organization shall be that portion of the cost of operating the insurance commissioner's office, for that class of organization, for the ensuing fiscal year that is represented by the organization's portion of the receipts collected or received by all organizations within that class on business in this state during the previous calendar year: PROVIDED, That the fee shall not exceed one-eighth of one percent of receipts: PROVIDED FURTHER, That the minimum fee shall be one thousand dollars.

(4) The commissioner shall annually, on or before June 1, calculate and bill each organization for the amount of its fee. Fees shall be due and payable no later than June 15 of each year: PROVIDED, That if the necessary financial records are not available or if the amount of the legislative appropriation is not determined in time to carry out such calculations and bill such fees within the time specified, the commissioner may use the fee factors for the prior year as the basis for the fees and, if necessary, the commissioner may impose supplemental fees to fully and properly charge the organizations. The penalties for failure to pay fees when due shall be the same as the penalties for failure to pay taxes pursuant to RCW 48.14.060. The fees required by this section are in addition to all other taxes and fees now imposed or that may be subsequently imposed. The commissioner shall report fees to the legislative committees responsible for insurance and appropriations concurrent with notification to the organizations.

(5) All moneys collected shall be deposited in the insurance commissioner's regulatory account in the state treasury which is hereby created.

(6) Unexpended funds in the insurance commissioner's regulatory account at the close of a fiscal year shall be carried forward in the insurance commissioner's regulatory account to the succeeding fiscal year and shall be used to reduce future fees.

Sec. 8. Section 12, chapter 115, Laws of 1969 as amended by section 1, chapter 63, Laws of 1983 and RCW 48.44.145 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The commissioner may make an examination of the operations of any health care service contractor as often as he deems necessary in order to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

(2) Every health care service contractor shall submit its books and records relating to its operation for financial condition and market conduct examinations and in every way facilitate them. For the purpose of examinations, the commissioner may issue subpoenas, administer oaths, and examine the officers and principals of the health care service contractor.

(3) The commissioner may elect to accept and rely on audit reports made by an independent certified public accountant for the health care service contractor in the course of that part of the commissioner's examination covering the same general subject matter as the audit. The commissioner may incorporate the audit report in his report of the examination.

~~(4) ((Health care service contractors licensed in the state shall be equitably assessed to cover the cost of financial condition and market conduct examinations. The assessments shall be levied not less frequently than once every twelve months and shall be in an amount expected to fund the examinations, including a reasonable margin for cost variations. The assessments shall be established by rules promulgated by the commissioner but shall not exceed one-half cent per month per person entitled to health care services pursuant to an agreement under RCW 48.44.020(1), excluding such persons who are not residents of this state. Assessment receipts shall be deposited in the general fund, shall be accounted for separately, and shall be used for the sole purpose of funding the examinations authorized in subsection (1) of this section. Amounts remaining in the separate account at the end of a biennium shall be applied to reduce the assessments in the succeeding biennium.~~

(5)) Whenever any health care service contractor applies for initial admission, the commissioner may make, or cause to be made, an examination of the applicant's business and affairs. Whenever such an examination is made, all of the provisions of chapter 48.03 RCW not inconsistent with this chapter shall be applicable. In lieu of making an examination himself the commissioner may, in the case of a foreign health care service contractor, accept an examination report of the applicant by the regulatory official in its state of domicile.

Sec. 9. Section 13, chapter 290, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 115, chapter 7, Laws of 1985 and RCW 48.46.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The commissioner may make an examination of the operations of any health maintenance organization as often as he deems necessary in order to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

(2) Every health maintenance organization shall submit its books and records relating its operation for financial condition and market conduct examinations and in every way facilitate them. The quality or appropriateness of medical services or systems shall not be examined except to the extent that such items are incidental to an examination of the financial condition or the market conduct of a health maintenance organization. For the purpose of examinations, the commissioner may issue subpoenas, administer oaths, and examine the officers and principals of the health maintenance organization and the principals of such providers concerning their business.

(3) The commissioner may elect to accept and rely on audit reports made by an independent certified public accountant for the health maintenance organization in the course of that part of the commissioner's examination covering the same general subject matter as the audit. The commissioner may incorporate the audit report in his report of the examination.

(4) Health maintenance organizations licensed in the state shall be equitably assessed to cover the cost of financial condition and market conduct examinations, the costs of promulgating rules, and the costs of enforcing the provisions of this chapter. The assessments shall be levied not less frequently than once every twelve months and shall be in an amount expected to fund the examinations, promulgation of rules, and enforcement of the provisions of this chapter, including a reasonable margin for cost variations. The assessments shall be established by rules promulgated by the commissioner but shall not exceed five and one-half cents per month per person entitled to health care services pursuant to a health maintenance agreement, excluding such persons who are not residents of this state. Assessment receipts shall be deposited in the general fund, shall be accounted for separately, and shall be used for the sole purpose of funding the examinations authorized in subsection (1) of this section, the costs of promulgating rules, and the costs of enforcing the provisions of this chapter. Amounts remaining in the separate account at the end of a biennium shall be applied to reduce the assessments in the succeeding biennium.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Section 35, chapter 9, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 48.14.015 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Section 1 of this act applies to the payment of taxes due beginning July 1, 1986, and thereafter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Section 7 of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing institutions, and shall take effect immediately. The remainder of this act shall take effect July 1, 1986.

Passed the Senate February 11, 1986.

Passed the House March 7, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986, with the exception of certain items which were vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 6, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3636, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to insurance."

This legislation accomplishes two things: it equalizes the premium tax rates between domestic and foreign insurers, and it provides a mechanism so that the Office of the Insurance Commissioner is funded by fees collected from the entities regulated by the Commissioner.

Section 6 states the purpose for imposing the fees is to "increase and improve the staff of the insurance commissioner." While it is certainly a top priority to ensure that the Commissioner has increased staff to properly regulate insurance companies in this time of increasing rates, the move to self-fund the office was not solely for the purposes stated in section 6. The funds provided by the fees imposed on commercial insurers, health care service contractors and health maintenance organizations will be the sole basis of funding the existing staff as well as any new staff authorized by the Legislature. For this reason, I have vetoed section 6 of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3636.

With the exception of section 6, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3636 is approved."

CHAPTER 297

[Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4790]

SLUDGE

AN ACT Relating to sludge; and adding a new section to chapter 70.95 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 70.95 RCW to read as follows:

After January 1, 1988, the department of ecology may prohibit disposal of municipal sewage sludge or septic tank sludge (septage) in landfills for final disposal, except on a temporary, emergency basis, if the jurisdictional health department determines that a potentially unhealthful circumstance exists. Beneficial uses of sludge in landfill reclamation is acceptable utilization and not considered disposal.

The department of ecology shall adopt rules that provide exemptions from this section on a case-by-case basis. Exemptions shall be based on the economic infeasibility of using or disposing of the sludge material other than in a landfill.

The department of ecology, after consulting with representatives from cities, counties, special purpose districts, and operators of septic tank pump-out services, shall adopt rules for the environmentally safe use of municipal sewage sludge and septage in this state.

The department of ecology, after consulting with representatives from the pulp and paper industry and the food processing industry, may adopt rules for the environmentally safe use of appropriate industrial sludges, such as pulp and paper sludges or food processing wastes, used to improve the texture or nutrient content of soils.

The department of ecology, in conjunction with the department of social and health services and the department of agriculture, shall adopt rules establishing labeling and notification requirements for sludge material sold commercially or given away to the public. The department shall specify mandatory wording for labels and notification to warn the public against improper use of the material. The department shall submit a report to the appropriate standing committees of the legislature by January 1, 1987, on its implementation of this chapter.

*Sec. 1 was partially vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

Passed the Senate March 9, 1986.

Passed the House March 4, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986, with the exception of certain items which were vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to one portion, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4790, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to sludge."

The last sentence of this bill requires the Department of Ecology to submit a report to the Legislature by January 1, 1987, regarding its implementation of "this chapter."

Although it appears that the intent of this language is to require a report on the implementation of this bill, the language legally requires a report on the entire Solid Waste Management chapter of the State Code.

To avoid any confusion, I have vetoed this sentence and have directed the Department to report to the Legislature by next January 1 regarding implementation of the bill.

With the exception of this sentence, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4790 is approved."

CHAPTER 298

[Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 4626]

HOUSING TRUST FUND—HOUSING ASSISTANCE FOR LOW-INCOME PERSONS

AN ACT Relating to the housing trust fund; and adding a new chapter to Title 43 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that current economic conditions, federal housing policies and declining resources at the federal, state, and local level adversely affect the ability of low and very low-income persons to obtain safe, decent, and affordable housing.

The legislature further finds that members of over one hundred twenty thousand households live in housing units which are overcrowded, lack plumbing, are otherwise threatening to health and safety, and have rents and utility payments which exceed thirty percent of their income.

The legislature further finds that minorities, rural households, and migrant farm workers require housing assistance at a rate which significantly exceeds their proportion of the general population.

The legislature further finds that one of the most dramatic housing needs is that of persons needing special housing-related services, such as the mentally ill, recovering alcoholics, frail elderly persons, and single parents. These services include medical assistance, counseling, chore services, and child care.

The legislature further finds that housing assistance programs in the past have often failed to help those in greatest need.

The legislature declares that it is in the public interest to establish a continuously renewable resource known as a housing trust fund to assist low and very low-income citizens in meeting their basic housing needs, and that the needs of very low-income citizens should be given priority.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is hereby created a fund in the office of the treasurer known as the Washington housing trust fund. The treasurer shall serve as the trustee thereof and shall make disbursements therefrom as directed by this chapter. The housing trust fund shall include revenue from the sources established by this chapter, appropriations by the legislature, private contributions, and all other sources.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. "Department" means the department of community development. "Director" means the director of the department of community development.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The treasurer shall transfer to the department upon the request of the director such funds as may be immediately necessary to implement the purposes of this chapter. Such transfers shall be made from the housing trust fund established by section 2 of this act.

*Sec. 4 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The treasurer, as trustee, shall invest housing trust fund revenues in investment instruments as part of the portfolio it manages for state funds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) The department shall use funds from the housing trust fund to finance in whole or in part any loans or grant projects that will provide housing for persons and families with special housing needs and with incomes at or below fifty percent of the median family income for the county or standard metropolitan statistical area where the project is located. Not less than thirty percent of such funds used in any given biennium shall be for the benefit of projects located in rural areas as defined in 63 Stat. 432, 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1471 et seq.

(2) Activities eligible for assistance include, but are not limited to:

(a) New construction, rehabilitation, or acquisition of low and very low-income housing units;

(b) Rent subsidies in new construction or rehabilitated multifamily units;

(c) Matching funds for social services directly related to providing housing for special-need tenants in assisted projects;

(d) Technical assistance, design and finance services and consultation, and administrative costs for eligible nonprofit community or neighborhood-based organizations;

(e) Administrative costs for housing assistance groups or organizations when such grant or loan will substantially increase the recipient's access to housing funds other than those available under this chapter;

(f) Shelters and related services for the homeless;

(g) Mortgage subsidies for new construction or rehabilitation of eligible multifamily units;

(h) Mortgage insurance guarantee or payments for eligible projects; and

(i) Acquisition of housing units for the purpose of preservation as low-income or very low-income housing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Organizations that may receive assistance from the department under this chapter are local governments, local housing authorities, nonprofit community or neighborhood-based organizations, and regional or state-wide nonprofit housing assistance organizations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) During each calendar year in which funds are available for use by the department from the housing trust fund, as prescribed in section 2 of this act, the department shall announce to all known interested parties, and through major media throughout the state, a grant and loan application period of at least ninety days' duration. This announcement shall be made as often as the director deems appropriate for proper utilization of resources, but at least twice annually. The department shall then promptly grant as many applications as will utilize available funds less appropriate administrative costs of the department, not to exceed five percent of annual revenues to the fund.

(2) The department shall give first priority to applications for projects and activities which utilize existing privately owned housing stock including privately owned housing stock purchased by nonprofit public development authorities. Such projects and activities shall be evaluated under subsection (3) of this section. Second priority shall be given to activities and projects which utilize existing publicly owned housing stock. Such projects and activities shall be evaluated under subsection (3) of this section.

(3) The department shall give preference for applications based on the following criteria:

- (a) The degree of leveraging of other funds that will occur;
- (b) Recipient contributions to total project costs, including allied contributions from other sources such as professional, craft and trade services, and lender interest rate subsidies;
- (c) Local government project contributions in the form of infrastructure improvements, and others;
- (d) Projects that encourage ownership, management, and other project-related responsibility opportunities;
- (e) Projects that demonstrate a strong probability of serving the original target group or income level for a period of at least fifteen years;
- (f) The applicant has the demonstrated ability, stability and resources to implement the project;
- (g) Projects which demonstrate serving the greatest need; and
- (h) Projects that provide housing for persons and families with the lowest incomes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) The department may use moneys from the housing trust fund to provide preconstruction technical assistance to eligible recipients seeking to construct, rehabilitate, or finance housing-related services for very low and low-income persons. The department shall emphasize providing preconstruction technical assistance services to rural areas and small cities and towns. The department may contract with nonprofit organizations to provide this technical assistance. The department may contract for any of the following services:

- (a) Financial planning and packaging for housing projects, including alternative ownership programs, such as limited equity partnerships and syndications;
- (b) Project design, architectural planning, and siting;
- (c) Compliance with planning requirements;
- (d) Securing matching resources for project development;
- (e) Maximizing local government contributions to project development in the form of land donations, infrastructure improvements, waivers of development fees, locally and state-managed funds, zoning variances, or creative local planning;
- (f) Coordination with local planning, economic development, and environmental, social service, and recreational activities;
- (g) Construction and materials management; and
- (h) Project maintenance and management.

(2) The department shall publish requests for proposals which specify contract performance standards, award criteria, and contractor requirements. In evaluating proposals, the department shall consider the ability of the contractor to provide technical assistance to low and very low-income persons and to persons with special housing needs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The director shall monitor the activities of recipients of grants and loans under this chapter to determine compliance with the terms and conditions set forth in its application or stated by the department in connection with the grant or loan.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The department shall have the authority to promulgate rules pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, regarding the grant and loan process, and the substance of eligible projects, consistent with this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. *The director shall promptly appoint a low income housing assistance advisory committee composed of a representative from each of the following groups: Apartment owners, mobile home park owners, realtors, mortgage lending or servicing institutions, private nonprofit housing assistance programs, and public housing assistance programs. The advisory group shall advise the director on housing needs in this state, operational aspects of the grant and loan program or revenue collection programs established by this chapter, and implementation of the policy and goals of this chapter.

*Sec. 12 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Sections 1 through 12 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 43 RCW.

Passed the Senate February 13, 1986.

Passed the House March 5, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986, with the exception of certain items which were vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to sections 4 and 12, Enrolled Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 4626, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to the housing trust fund; and adding a new chapter to Title 43 RCW."

Section 4 of the bill allocates funds from the Housing Trust Fund to the Department of Community Development to administer the act. Until a financing source is established, the act is merely a statement of intent without fiscal impact. I am vetoing this section because the allocation of funds is premature.

The advisory committee established in section 12 is no longer appropriate to the legislation as passed. The composition of the advisory committee should be based on the selection of the source of funding for the trust fund and the affected parties. Once the sources of funding are determined, an advisory committee representing those sources should be established.

While I am vetoing section 12, I will request the Director of the Department of Community Development to work with the appropriate committees of the Legislature in their efforts to evaluate emerging low-income housing needs and potential sources of revenue for the Housing Trust Fund.

With the exception of sections 4 and 12, Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 4626 is approved."

CHAPTER 299

[Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1687]

PRIVATE VOCATIONAL SCHOOLS

AN ACT Relating to private vocational schools; amending RCW 18.50.040 and 42.17-.310; adding a new chapter to Title 28C RCW; creating a new section; repealing RCW 28B-.05.010, 28B.05.020, 28B.05.030, 28B.05.040, 28B.05.050, 28B.05.060, 28B.05.070, 28B.05.080, 28B.05.090, 28B.05.100, 28B.05.110, 28B.05.120, 28B.05.130, 28B.05.140, 28B-.05.150, 28B.05.160, 28B.05.170, 28B.05.180, 28B.05.190, 28B.05.200, 28B.05.210, 28B.05-.220, 28B.05.230, 28B.05.240, 28B.05.900, 28B.05.950, 43.131.291, and 43.131.292; prescribing penalties; making an appropriation; and providing an effective date.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. It is the intent of this chapter to protect against practices by private vocational schools which are false, deceptive, misleading, or unfair, and to help ensure adequate educational quality at private vocational schools.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Agency" means the commission for vocational education or its successor.

(2) "Agent" means a person owning an interest in, employed by, or representing for remuneration a private vocational school within or without this state, who enrolls or personally attempts to secure the enrollment in a private vocational school of a resident of this state, offers to award educational credentials for remuneration on behalf of a private vocational school, or holds himself or herself out to residents of this state as representing a private vocational school for any of these purposes.

(3) "Degree" means any designation, appellation, letters, or words including but not limited to "associate," "bachelor," "master," "doctor," or "fellow" which signify or purport to signify satisfactory completion of an academic program of study beyond the secondary school level.

(4) "Education" includes but is not limited to, any class, course, or program of training, instruction, or study.

(5) "Educational credentials" means degrees, diplomas, certificates, transcripts, reports, documents, or letters of designation, marks, appellations, series of letters, numbers, or words which signify or appear to signify enrollment, attendance, progress, or satisfactory completion of the requirements or prerequisites for any educational program.

(6) "Entity" includes, but is not limited to, a person, company, firm, society, association, partnership, corporation, or trust.

(7) "Private vocational school" means any entity offering postsecondary education in any form or manner for the purpose of instructing, training, or preparing persons for any vocation or profession.

(8) "To grant" includes to award, issue, sell, confer, bestow, or give.

(9) "To offer" includes, in addition to its usual meanings, to advertise or publicize. "To offer" also means to solicit or encourage any person, directly or indirectly, to perform the act described.

(10) "To operate" means to establish, keep, or maintain any facility or location where, from, or through which education is offered or educational credentials are offered or granted to residents of this state, and includes contracting for the performance of any such act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. This chapter does not apply to:

(1) Bona fide trade, business, professional, or fraternal organizations sponsoring educational programs primarily for that organization's membership or offered by that organization on a no-fee basis;

(2) Entities offering education that is exclusively avocational or recreational;

(3) Education not requiring payment of money or other consideration if this education is not advertised or promoted as leading toward educational credentials;

(4) Entities that are established, operated, and governed by this state or its political subdivisions under Title 28A, 28B, or 28C RCW;

(5) Degree-granting programs in compliance with the rules of the higher education coordinating board;

(6) Any other entity to the extent that it has been exempted from some or all of the provisions of this chapter under section 10 of this act;

(7) Entities not otherwise exempt that are of a religious character, but only as to those educational programs exclusively devoted to religious or theological objectives and represented accurately in institutional catalogs or other official publications;

(8) Entities certified by the federal aviation administration;

(9) Barber and cosmetology schools licensed under chapter 18.16 RCW;

(10) Entities which only offer courses approved to meet the continuing education requirements for licensure under chapters 18.04, 18.78, 18.88, or 48.17 RCW; and

(11) Entities not otherwise exempt offering only workshops or seminars lasting no longer than three calendar days.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The agency:

(1) Shall maintain a list of private vocational schools licensed under this chapter;

(2) Shall adopt rules in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW to carry out this chapter;

(3) May investigate any entity the agency reasonably believes to be subject to the jurisdiction of this chapter. In connection with the investigation, the agency may administer oaths and affirmations, issue subpoenas and compel attendance, take evidence, and require the production of any books, papers, correspondence, memorandums, or other records which the agency deems relevant or material to the investigation. The agency, including its staff and any other authorized persons, may conduct site inspections and examine records of all schools subject to this chapter;

(4) Shall develop an interagency agreement with the higher education coordinating board to regulate degree-granting private vocational schools with respect to nondegree programs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) The agency shall adopt by rule minimum standards for private vocational schools. The minimum standards shall include, but not be limited to, requirements for each school to:

(a) Disclose to the agency information about its ownership and financial position and to demonstrate that it has sufficient financial resources to fulfill its commitments to students. Financial disclosures provided to the agency shall not be subject to public disclosure under chapter 42.17 RCW.

(b) Follow a uniform state-wide cancellation and refund policy as specified by the agency.

(c) Disclose through use of a school catalog, brochure, or other written material, necessary information to students so that students may make informed enrollment decisions. The agency shall specify what information is required.

(d) Use an enrollment contract or agreement that includes: (i) The cancellation and refund policy, (ii) a brief statement that the school is licensed under this chapter and that inquiries may be made to the agency, and (iii) other necessary information as determined by the agency.

(e) Describe accurately and completely in writing to students before their enrollment prerequisites and requirements for (i) completing successfully the programs of study in which they are interested and (ii) qualifying for the fields of employment for which their education is designed.

(2) The agency shall deny, revoke, or suspend the license of any school that does not meet or maintain the minimum standards.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Any entity desiring to operate a private vocational school shall apply for a license to the agency on a form provided by the agency. The agency shall issue a license if the school:

(1) Files a completed application with information satisfactory to the agency. Misrepresentation by an applicant shall be grounds for the agency, at its discretion, to deny or revoke a license.

(2) Files the surety bond or other security required under this chapter.

(3) Pays the required fees.

(4) Meets the minimum standards adopted by the agency under section 5 of this act.

Licenses shall be valid for one year from the date of issue unless revoked or suspended. If a school fails to file a completed renewal application at least thirty days before the expiration date of its current license the school shall be subject to payment of a late filing fee fixed by the agency.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The agency shall establish fees by rule at a level necessary to approximately recover the staffing costs incurred in administering this chapter. All fees collected under this section shall be deposited in the state general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) Each private vocational school shall have on file with the agency an approved surety bond or other security in lieu of a bond. The bond or other security shall be in an amount not less than five thousand dollars but no more than two hundred thousand dollars. Security shall be determined on an incremental scale based on the average amount of unearned prepaid tuition in possession of the school, as determined by the agency.

(2) In lieu of a surety bond, a private vocational school may deposit with the agency a cash deposit or other negotiable security acceptable to the agency. The security deposited with the agency in lieu of the surety bond shall be returned to the school one year after the school's license has expired or been revoked if legal action has not been instituted against the school or the security deposit at the expiration of the year. The obligations and remedies relating to surety bonds authorized by this section, including but not limited to the settlement of claims procedure in subsection (5) of this section, shall apply to deposits filed with the agency, as applicable.

(3) Each bond shall:

(a) Be executed by the private vocational school as principal and by a corporate surety licensed to do business in the state;

(b) Be payable to the state for the benefit and protection of any student or enrollee of a private vocational school, or, in the case of a minor, his or her parents or guardian;

(c) Be conditioned on compliance with all provisions of this chapter and the agency rules adopted under this chapter;

(d) Require the surety to give written notice to the agency at least thirty-five days before cancellation of the bond; and

(e) Remain in effect for one year following the effective date of its cancellation or termination as to any obligation occurring on or before the effective date of cancellation or termination.

(4) Upon receiving notice of a bond cancellation, the agency shall notify the school that the license will be suspended on the effective date of the bond cancellation unless the school files with the agency another approved surety bond or other security.

(5) If a complaint is filed under section 12(1) of this act against a private vocational school, the agency may file a claim against the surety and settle claims against the surety by following the procedure in this subsection.

(a) The agency shall attempt to notify all potential claimants. If the absence of records or other circumstances makes it impossible or unreasonable for the agency to ascertain the names and addresses of all the claimants, the agency after exerting due diligence and making reasonable inquiry to secure that information from all reasonable and available sources, may make a demand on a bond on the basis of information in the agency's possession. The agency is not liable or responsible for claims or the handling of claims that may subsequently appear or be discovered.

(b) Thirty days after notification, if a claimant fails, refuses, or neglects to file with the agency a verified claim, the agency shall be relieved of further duty or action under this chapter on behalf of the claimant.

(c) After reviewing the claims, the agency may make demands upon the bond on behalf of those claimants whose claims have been filed. The agency may settle or compromise the claims with the surety and may execute and deliver a release and discharge of the bond.

(d) If the surety refuses to pay the demand, the agency may bring an action on the bond in behalf of the claimants. If an action is commenced on the bond, the agency may require a new bond to be filed.

(e) Within ten days after a recovery on a bond or other posted security has occurred, the private vocational school shall file a new bond or otherwise restore its security on file to the required amount.

(6) The liability of the surety shall not exceed the amount of the bond.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A private vocational school, whether located in this state or outside of this state, shall not conduct business of any kind, make any offers, advertise or solicit, or enter into any contracts unless the private vocational school is licensed under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The executive director of the agency may suspend or modify any of the requirements under this chapter in a particular case if the agency finds that:

(1) The suspension or modification is consistent with the purposes of this chapter; and

(2) The education to be offered addresses a substantial, demonstrated need among residents of the state or that literal application of this chapter would cause a manifestly unreasonable hardship.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. It is an unfair business practice for a private vocational school or agent to:

(1) Fail to comply with the terms of a student enrollment contract or agreement;

(2) Use an enrollment contract form, catalog, brochure, or similar written material affecting the terms and conditions of student enrollment other than that previously submitted to the agency and authorized for use;

(3) Represent falsely, directly or by implication, that the school is an employment agency, is making an offer of employment or otherwise is attempting to conceal the fact that what is being represented are course offerings of a school;

(4) Represent falsely, directly or by implication, that an educational program is approved by a particular industry or that successful completion of the program qualifies a student for admission to a labor union or similar organization or for the receipt of a state license in any business, occupation, or profession;

(5) Represent falsely, directly or by implication, that a student who successfully completes a course or program of instruction may transfer credit for the course or program to any institution of higher education;

(6) Represent falsely, directly or by implication, in advertising or in any other manner, the school's size, location, facilities, equipment, faculty qualifications, or the extent or nature of any approval received from an accrediting association;

(7) Represent that the school is approved, recommended, or endorsed by the state of Washington or by the agency, except the fact that the school is authorized to operate under this chapter may be stated;

(8) Provide prospective students with any testimonial, endorsement, or other information which has the tendency to mislead or deceive prospective students or the public regarding current practices of the school, current conditions for employment opportunities, or probable earnings in the occupation for which the education was designed;

(9) Designate or refer to sales representatives as "counselors," "advisors," or similar terms which have the tendency to mislead or deceive prospective students or the public regarding the authority or qualifications of the sales representatives;

(10) Make or cause to be made any statement or representation in connection with the offering of education if the school or agent knows or reasonably should have known the statement or representation to be false, substantially inaccurate, or misleading; or

(11) Engage in methods of advertising, sales, collection, credit, or other business practices which are false, deceptive, misleading, or unfair, as determined by the agency by rule.

It is a violation of this chapter for a private vocational school to engage in an unfair business practice.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) A person claiming loss of tuition or fees as a result of an unfair business practice may file a complaint with the agency. The complaint shall set forth the alleged violation and shall contain information required by the agency. A complaint may also be filed with the agency by an authorized staff member of the agency or by the attorney general.

(2) The agency shall investigate any complaint under this section and may attempt to bring about a settlement. The agency may hold a contested case hearing pursuant to the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW, in order to determine whether a violation has occurred. If the agency prevails, the private vocational school shall pay the costs of the administrative hearing.

(3) If, after the hearing, the agency finds that the private vocational school or its agent engaged in or is engaging in any unfair business practice, the agency shall issue and cause to be served upon the violator an order requiring the violator to cease and desist from the act or practice and may impose the penalties under section 13 of this act. If the agency finds that the complainant has suffered loss as a result of the act or practice, the agency may order full or partial restitution for the loss. The complainant is not bound by the agency's determination of restitution and may pursue any other legal remedy.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Any private vocational school or agent violating section 6, 9, or 11 of this act or the applicable agency rules is subject to a civil penalty of not more than one hundred dollars for each separate violation. Each day on which a violation occurs constitutes a separate violation. Multiple violations on a single day may be considered separate violations. The fine may be imposed by the agency under section 12 of this act, or in any court of competent jurisdiction.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Any entity or any owner, officer, agent, or employee of such entity who wilfully violates section 6 or 9 of this act is guilty of a gross misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be punished by a fine of not to exceed one thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for not to exceed one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Each day on which a violation occurs constitutes a separate violation. The criminal sanctions may be imposed by a court of competent jurisdiction in an action brought by the attorney general of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. A private vocational school, whether located in this state or outside of this state, that conducts business of any kind, makes any offers, advertises, solicits, or enters into any contracts in this state or with a resident of this state is subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state for any cause of action arising from the acts.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. If any private vocational school discontinues its operation, the chief administrative officer of the school shall file with the agency the original or legible true copies of all educational records required by the agency. If the agency determines that any educational records are in danger of being made unavailable to the agency, the agency may seek a court order to protect and if necessary take possession of the records. The agency shall cause to be maintained a permanent file of educational records coming into its possession.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. If a student or prospective student is a resident of this state at the time any contract relating to payment for education or any note, instrument, or other evidence of indebtedness relating thereto is entered into, section 18 of this act shall govern the rights of the parties to the contract or evidence of indebtedness. If a contract or evidence of indebtedness contains any of the following agreements, the contract is voidable at the option of the student or prospective student:

- (1) That the law of another state shall apply;
- (2) That the maker or any person liable on the contract or evidence of indebtedness consents to the jurisdiction of another state;
- (3) That another person is authorized to confess judgment on the contract or evidence of indebtedness; or
- (4) That fixes venue.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. A note, instrument, or other evidence of indebtedness or contract relating to payment for education is not enforceable in the courts of this state by a private vocational school or holder of the instrument unless the private vocational school was licensed under this chapter at the time the note, instrument, or other evidence of indebtedness or contract was entered into.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. The attorney general or the prosecuting attorney of any county in which a private vocational school or agent of the school is found may bring an action in any court of competent jurisdiction for the enforcement of this chapter. The court may issue an injunction or grant any other appropriate form of relief.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. The agency may seek injunctive relief, after giving notice to the affected party, in a court of competent jurisdiction for a violation of this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter. The agency need not allege or prove that the agency has no adequate remedy at law. The right of injunction provided in this section is in addition to any other legal remedy which the agency has and is in addition to any right of criminal prosecution provided by law. The existence of agency action with respect to alleged violations of this chapter and rules adopted under this chapter does not operate as a bar to an action for injunctive relief under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. A violation of this chapter or the rules adopted under this chapter affects the public interest and is an unfair or deceptive act or practice in violation of RCW 19.86.020 of the consumer protection act. The remedies and sanctions provided by this section shall not preclude application of other remedies and sanctions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. The remedies and penalties provided for in this chapter are nonexclusive and cumulative and do not affect any other actions or proceedings.

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. The agency shall, within sixty days after the effective date of this act and annually thereafter, empanel a private vocational school advisory committee. Said committee shall serve as advisors in the implementation of this chapter and for such other liaison purposes as the agency may determine. It shall consist of no less than seven and no more than eleven persons who are practitioners in proprietary education but one of whom is a recent graduate of a proprietary school. Consideration in making appointments shall be given to maintaining a geographic balance among areas of the state and achieving a balanced representation of occupational specialties offered among private vocational schools state-wide. The committee shall meet at least quarterly. Members shall serve without pay but be reimbursed for travel expenses as provided under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060 as now or hereafter amended. The committee shall adopt bylaws and elect officers from among its members annually.

*Sec. 23 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

Sec. 24. Section 2, chapter 160, Laws of 1917 as amended by section 6, chapter 53, Laws of 1981 and RCW 18.50.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person seeking to be examined shall present to the director, at least forty-five days before the commencement of the examination, a written application on a form or forms provided by the director setting forth under affidavit such information as the director may require and proof the candidate has received a high school degree or its equivalent; that the candidate is twenty-one years of age or older; that the candidate has received a certificate or diploma from a midwifery program accredited by the director and (~~registered~~) licensed under chapter (~~28B-05-RCW~~) 28C.— RCW (sections 1 through 23 of this 1986 act), when applicable, or a certificate or diploma in a foreign institution on midwifery of equal requirements conferring the full right to practice midwifery in the country in which it was issued. The diploma must bear the seal of the institution from which the applicant was graduated. Foreign candidates must present with the application a translation of the foreign certificate or diploma made by and under the seal of the consulate of the country in which the certificate or diploma was issued.

(2) The candidate shall meet the following conditions:

(a) Obtaining a minimum period of midwifery training for at least three years including the study of the basic nursing skills that the department shall prescribe by rule. However, if the applicant is a registered nurse under chapter 18.88 RCW, a licensed practical nurse under chapter 18.78 RCW, or has had previous nursing education or practical midwifery experience, the required period of training may be reduced depending upon the extent of the candidate's qualifications as determined under rules adopted by the department. In no case shall the training be reduced to a period of less than two years.

(b) Meeting minimum educational requirements which shall include studying obstetrics; neonatal pediatrics; basic sciences; female reproductive anatomy and physiology; behavioral sciences; childbirth education; community care; obstetrical pharmacology; epidemiology; gynecology; family planning; genetics; embryology; neonatology; the medical and legal aspects of midwifery; nutrition during pregnancy and lactation; breast feeding; nursing skills, including but not limited to injections, administering intravenous fluids, catheterization, and aseptic technique; and such other requirements prescribed by rule.

(c) For a student midwife during training, undertaking the care of not less than fifty women in each of the prenatal, intrapartum, and early postpartum periods, but the same women need not be seen through all three periods. A student midwife may be issued a permit upon the satisfactory completion of the requirements in (a), (b), and (c) of this subsection and the satisfactory completion of the licensure examination required by RCW 18.50.060. The permit permits the student midwife to practice under the supervision of a midwife licensed under this chapter, a physician licensed under chapter 18.57 or 18.71 RCW, or a certified nurse-midwife licensed under the authority of chapter 18.88 RCW. The permit shall expire within one year of issuance and may be extended as provided by rule.

(d) Observing an additional fifty women in the intrapartum period before the candidate qualifies for a license.

The training required under this section shall include training in either hospitals or alternative birth settings or both with particular emphasis on learning the ability to differentiate between low-risk and high-risk pregnancies.

Sec. 25. Section 31, chapter 1, Laws of 1973 as last amended by section 8, chapter 414, Laws of 1985 and RCW 42.17.310 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The following are exempt from public inspection and copying:

(a) Personal information in any files maintained for students in public schools, patients or clients of public institutions or public health agencies, welfare recipients, prisoners, probationers, or parolees.

(b) Personal information in files maintained for employees, appointees, or elected officials of any public agency to the extent that disclosure would violate their right to privacy.

(c) Information required of any taxpayer in connection with the assessment or collection of any tax if the disclosure of the information to other persons would (i) be prohibited to such persons by RCW 82.32.330 or (ii) violate the taxpayer's right to privacy or result in unfair competitive disadvantage to the taxpayer.

(d) Specific intelligence information and specific investigative records compiled by investigative, law enforcement, and penology agencies, and state agencies vested with the responsibility to discipline members of any profession, the nondisclosure of which is essential to effective law enforcement or for the protection of any person's right to privacy.

(e) Information revealing the identity of persons who file complaints with investigative, law enforcement, or penology agencies, other than the public disclosure commission, if disclosure would endanger any person's life, physical safety, or property: PROVIDED, That if at the time the complaint is filed the complainant indicates a desire for disclosure or nondisclosure, such desire shall govern: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That all complaints filed with the public disclosure commission about any elected official or candidate for public office must be made in writing and signed by the complainant under oath.

(f) Test questions, scoring keys, and other examination data used to administer a license, employment, or academic examination.

(g) Except as provided by chapter 8.26 RCW, the contents of real estate appraisals, made for or by any agency relative to the acquisition or sale of property, until the project or prospective sale is abandoned or until such time as all of the property has been acquired or the property to which the sale appraisal relates is sold, but in no event shall disclosure be denied for more than three years after the appraisal.

(h) Valuable formulae, designs, drawings, and research data obtained by any agency within five years of the request for disclosure when disclosure would produce private gain and public loss.

(i) Preliminary drafts, notes, recommendations, and intra-agency memorandums in which opinions are expressed or policies formulated or recommended except that a specific record shall not be exempt when publicly cited by an agency in connection with any agency action.

(j) Records which are relevant to a controversy to which an agency is a party but which records would not be available to another party under the rules of pretrial discovery for causes pending in the superior courts.

(k) Records, maps, or other information identifying the location of archaeological sites in order to avoid the looting or depredation of such sites.

(l) Any library record, the primary purpose of which is to maintain control of library materials, or to gain access to information, which discloses or could be used to disclose the identity of a library user.

(m) Financial information supplied by or on behalf of a person, firm, or corporation for the purpose of qualifying to submit a bid or proposal for (a) a ferry system construction or repair contract as required by RCW 47.60.680 through 47.60.750 or (b) highway construction or improvement as required by RCW 47.28.070.

(n) Railroad company contracts filed with the utilities and transportation commission under RCW 81.34.070, except that the summaries of the contracts are open to public inspection and copying as otherwise provided by this chapter.

(o) Financial disclosures filed by private vocational schools under chapter 28C.— RCW (sections 1 through 23 of this 1986 act).

(2) Except for information described in subsection (1)(c)(i) of this section and confidential income data exempted from public inspection pursuant to RCW 84.40.020, the exemptions of this section are inapplicable to the extent that information, the disclosure of which would violate personal privacy or vital governmental interests, can be deleted from the specific records sought. No exemption may be construed to permit the nondisclosure of statistical information not descriptive of any readily identifiable person or persons.

(3) Inspection or copying of any specific records exempt under the provisions of this section may be permitted if the superior court in the county in which the record is maintained finds, after a hearing with notice thereof to every person in interest and the agency, that the exemption of such records is clearly unnecessary to protect any individual's right of privacy or any vital governmental function.

(4) Agency responses refusing, in whole or in part, inspection of any public record shall include a statement of the specific exemption authorizing the withholding of the record (or part) and a brief explanation of how the exemption applies to the record withheld.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 1, chapter 188, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.05-.010;

(2) Section 2, chapter 188, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 28B.05-.020;

- (28) Section 45, chapter 197, Laws of 1983 and RCW 43.131.292.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. A private vocational school registered under chapter 188, Laws of 1979, as amended, as of June 30, 1986, shall be considered to be licensed under chapter 28C.— RCW (sections 1 through 23 of this act) until January 31, 1987.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. Sections 1 through 23 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 28C RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 30. (1) The sum of thirty-five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated from the general fund to the agency for the biennium ending June 30, 1987. Subject to approval by the director of financial management, not more than $31,300 may be used to employ one additional full time equivalent employee to administer this chapter. Not more than $3,700 may be used for travel expenses under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(2) This section shall take effect when the director of financial management determines that the agency has established the fees under section 7 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 31. This act shall take effect July 1, 1986.

Passed the House March 8, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 6, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986, with the exception of certain items which were vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

Note: Governors explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 23, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1687, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to private vocational schools."

Section 23 of this bill would create an advisory committee whose members serve as advisors in implementing this bill and for other liaison purposes as the Commission for Vocational Education determines. Boards, commissions, committees, task forces and similar entities have proliferated in this state, now numbering over 400 bodies. While many of these existing entities were created to serve useful purposes, the needs of the state change over time. Since these entities are specified in statute, they often persist beyond their period of usefulness. Statutory entities lack the flexibility to adapt to changing conditions since an entity designed to serve one purpose cannot change to meet new or different needs without legislative approval.

I have also found that it is difficult to abolish statutory entities that have outlived their usefulness. State agencies, moreover, generally have the authority to create ad hoc advisory groups as the need arises. This authority makes it unnecessary to create advisory committees in statute. For these reasons, I have vetoed section 23.

A veto of the entire bill was considered because I have strong reservations about the assignment of this legislation to the Commission for Vocational Education. Additional duties should not be given to an agency that will begin the sunset process on June 30, 1986. My approval of this bill should not give the impression that I favor strengthening or expanding the duties of the Commission for Vocational Education. However, students attending proprietary schools need the protections and safeguards provided in the bill.

With the exception of section 23, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1687 is approved."

CHAPTER 300

[Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1950]
 MEDICAL MALPRACTICE

AN ACT Relating to medical malpractice; amending RCW 18.72.040 and 18.72.155; adding new sections to chapter 18.57 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 18.72 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 70.41 RCW; creating a new section; and prescribing penalties.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The legislature finds that medical malpractice will be reduced if hospitals establish coordinated medical malpractice prevention programs and provide greater scrutiny of physicians prior to granting or renewing hospital privileges.

(2) The legislature also finds that physician disciplinary boards can reduce medical malpractice if they have access to additional information on health care providers who are incompetent or impaired.

PART 1
 MEDICAL DISCIPLINARY BOARD

*Sec. 2. Section 4, chapter 202, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 1, chapter 71, Laws of 1977 and RCW 18.72.040 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created the "Washington state medical disciplinary board," which shall be composed of one holder of a valid license to practice medicine and surgery from each congressional district now existing or hereafter created in the state and ~~((one))~~ three members of the public who meet~~((s))~~ the qualifications contained in RCW 70.39.020(2) shall be appointed by the governor. The public ~~((member's))~~ members' term shall be for ~~((two))~~ four years ~~((commencing on October 1st of each odd-numbered year))~~. In order to achieve staggered terms, the public member serving on the board on the effective date of this 1986 act shall continue to serve until October 1, 1987. The remaining two public members shall be appointed to initial terms of three years and four years, respectively.

The board shall be an administrative agency of the state of Washington. The attorney general shall be the advisor of the board and shall represent it in all legal proceedings. Assistant attorneys general assigned to the board are subject to the approval of the board and shall work under the direct control of the board while so assigned.

*Sec. 2 was partially vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

*Sec. 3. Section 6, chapter 111, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 18.72.155 are each amended to read as follows:

The director of the department of licensing shall appoint, from a list of three names supplied by the board, an executive secretary who shall act to carry out the provisions of this chapter. The director shall also employ such additional staff including administrative assistants, investigators, and clerical staff as are required to enable the board to accomplish its duties and responsibilities. Investigators employed under this section shall be assigned solely to the board and are subject to the approval of the board. The executive secretary shall be exempt from the provisions of the civil service law, chapter 41-.06 RCW, as now or hereafter amended.

*Sec. 3 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

PART II

MEDICAL MALPRACTICE PREVENTION PROGRAM

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 70.41 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Every hospital shall maintain a coordinated program for the identification and prevention of medical malpractice. The program shall include at least the following:

(a) The establishment of a quality assurance committee with the responsibility to review the services rendered in the hospital in order to improve the quality of medical care of patients and to prevent medical malpractice. The committee shall oversee and coordinate the medical malpractice prevention program and shall insure that information gathered pursuant to the program is used to review and to revise hospital policies and procedures. At least one member of the committee shall be a member of the governing board of the hospital who is not otherwise affiliated with the hospital in an employment or contractual capacity;

(b) A medical staff privileges sanction procedure through which credentials, physical and mental capacity, and competence in delivering health care services are periodically reviewed as part of an evaluation of staff privileges;

(c) The periodic review of the credentials, physical and mental capacity, and competence in delivering health care services of all persons who are employed or associated with the hospital;

(d) A procedure for the prompt resolution of grievances by patients or their representatives related to accidents, injuries, treatment, and other events that may result in claims of medical malpractice;

(e) The maintenance and continuous collection of information concerning the hospital's experience with negative health care outcomes and incidents injurious to patients, patient grievances, professional liability premiums, settlements, awards, costs incurred by the hospital for patient injury prevention, and safety improvement activities;

(f) The maintenance of relevant and appropriate information gathered pursuant to (a) through (e) of this subsection concerning individual physicians within the physician's personnel or credential file maintained by the hospital;

(g) Education programs dealing with patient safety, injury prevention, staff responsibility to report professional misconduct, the legal aspects of patient care, improved communication with patients, and causes of malpractice claims for staff personnel engaged in patient care activities; and

(h) Policies to ensure compliance with the reporting requirements of this section.

(2) Any person who, in substantial good faith, provides information to further the purposes of the medical malpractice prevention program or who, in substantial good faith, participates on the quality assurance committee shall not be subject to an action for civil damages or other relief as a result of such activity.

(3) Information and documents, including complaints and incident reports, created, collected, and maintained about health care providers arising out of the matters that are subject to evaluation by a review committee conducting quality assurance reviews are not subject to discovery or introduction into evidence in any civil action, and no person who was in attendance at a meeting of such committee or board shall be permitted or required to testify in any civil action as to the content of such proceedings. This subsection does not preclude: (a) In any civil action, the testimony of any person concerning the facts which form the basis for the institution of such proceedings of which the person had personal knowledge acquired independently of such proceedings; (b) in any civil action by a health care provider regarding the restriction or revocation of that individual's clinical or staff privileges, introduction into evidence information collected and maintained by quality assurance committees regarding such health care provider; or (c) in any civil action, disclosure of the fact that staff privileges were terminated or restricted, including the specific restrictions imposed, if any.

(4) The department of social and health services shall adopt such rules as are deemed appropriate to effectuate the purposes of this section.

(5) The medical disciplinary board or the board of osteopathic medicine and surgery, as appropriate, may review and audit the records of committee decisions in which a physician's privileges are terminated or restricted. Each hospital shall produce and make accessible to the board the appropriate records and otherwise facilitate the review and audit. Information so gained shall not be subject to the discovery process and confidentiality shall be respected as required by subsection (3) of this section. Failure of a hospital to comply with this subsection is punishable by a civil penalty not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars.

(6) Violation of this section shall not be considered negligence per se.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 18.72 RCW to read as follows:

(1) A licensed health care professional licensed under chapter 18.71 RCW shall report to the medical disciplinary board when he or she has personal knowledge that a practicing physician has either committed an act or acts which may constitute statutorily defined unprofessional conduct or that a practicing physician may be unable to practice medicine with reasonable skill and safety to patients by reason of illness, drunkenness, excessive use of drugs, narcotics, chemicals, or any other type of material, or as a result of any mental or physical conditions.

(2) Reporting under this section is not required by:

(a) An appropriately appointed peer review committee member of a licensed hospital or by an appropriately designated professional review committee member of a county or state medical society during the investigative phase of their respective operations if these investigations are completed in a timely manner; or

(b) A treating licensed health care professional of a physician currently involved in a treatment program as long as the physician patient actively participates in the treatment program and the physician patient's impairment does not constitute a clear and present danger to the public health, safety, or welfare.

(3) The medical disciplinary board may impose disciplinary sanctions, including license suspension or revocation, on any health care professional subject to the jurisdiction of the board who has failed to comply with this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A new section is added to chapter 18.72 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Every institution or organization providing professional liability insurance to physicians shall send a complete report to the medical disciplinary board of all malpractice settlements, awards, or payments in excess of twenty thousand dollars as a result of a claim or action for damages alleged to have been caused by an insured physician's incompetency or negligence in the practice of medicine. Such institution or organization shall also report the award, settlement, or payment of three or more claims during a year as the result of the alleged physician's incompetence or negligence in the practice of medicine regardless of the dollar amount of the award or payment.

(2) Reports required by this section shall be made within sixty days of the date of the settlement or verdict. Failure to comply with this section is punishable by a civil penalty not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A new section is added to chapter 70.41 RCW to read as follows:

The chief administrator or executive officer of a hospital shall report to the board when a physician's clinical privileges are terminated or are restricted based on a determination, in accordance with an institution's by-laws, that a physician has either committed an act or acts which may constitute unprofessional conduct. The officer shall also report if a physician accepts voluntary termination in order to foreclose or terminate actual or possible hospital action to suspend, restrict, or terminate a physician's clinical privileges. Such a report shall be made within sixty days of the date action was taken by the hospital's peer review committee or the physician's acceptance of voluntary termination or restriction of privileges. Failure of a hospital to comply with this section is punishable by a civil penalty not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 70.41 RCW to read as follows:

Each hospital shall keep written records of decisions to restrict or terminate privileges of practitioners. Copies of such records shall be made available to the board within thirty days of a request and all information so gained shall remain confidential in accordance with sections 4 and 11 of this act and shall be protected from the discovery process. Failure of a hospital to comply with this section is punishable by civil penalty not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. A new section is added to chapter 18.57 RCW to read as follows:

A health care professional licensed under chapter 18.57 RCW shall report to the board when he or she has personal knowledge that a practicing osteopathic physician has either committed an act or acts which may constitute statutorily defined unprofessional conduct or that a practicing osteopathic physician may be unable to practice osteopathic medicine with reasonable skill and safety to patients by reason of illness, drunkenness, excessive use of drugs, narcotics, chemicals, or any other type of material, or as a result of any impairing mental or physical conditions.

(2) Reporting under this section is not required by:

(a) An appropriately appointed peer review committee member of a licensed hospital or by an appropriately designated professional review committee member of an osteopathic medical society during the investigative phase of their respective operations if these investigations are completed in a timely manner; or

(b) A treating licensed health care professional of an osteopathic physician currently involved in a treatment program as long as the physician patient actively participates in the treatment program and the physician patient's impairment does not constitute a clear and present danger to the public health, safety, or welfare.

(3) The board may impose disciplinary sanctions, including license suspension or revocation, on any health care professional subject to the jurisdiction of the board who has failed to comply with this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A new section is added to chapter 18.57 RCW to read as follows:

Every institution or organization providing professional liability insurance to osteopathic physicians shall send a complete report to the board of all malpractice settlements, awards, or payments in excess of twenty thousand dollars as a result of a claim or action for damages alleged to have been caused by an insured physician's incompetency or negligence in the practice of osteopathic medicine. Such institution or organization shall also report the award, settlement, or payment of three or more claims during a year as the result of the alleged physician's incompetence or negligence in the practice of medicine regardless of the dollar amount of the award or payment.

Reports required by this section shall be made within sixty days of the date of the settlement or verdict. Failure to comply with this section is punishable by a civil penalty not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars.

PART III

GRANT OR RENEWAL OF HOSPITAL PRIVILEGES

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 70.41 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Prior to granting or renewing clinical privileges or association of any physician or hiring a physician, a hospital or facility approved pursuant to this chapter shall request from the physician and the physician shall provide the following information:

(a) The name of any hospital or facility with or at which the physician had or has any association, employment, privileges, or practice;

(b) If such association, employment, privilege, or practice was discontinued, the reasons for its discontinuation;

(c) Any pending professional medical misconduct proceedings or any pending medical malpractice actions in this state or another state, the substance of the allegations in the proceedings or actions, and any additional information concerning the proceedings or actions as the physician deems appropriate;

(d) The substance of the findings in the actions or proceedings and any additional information concerning the actions or proceedings as the physician deems appropriate;

(e) A waiver by the physician of any confidentiality provisions concerning the information required to be provided to hospitals pursuant to this subsection; and

(f) A verification by the physician that the information provided by the physician is accurate and complete.

(2) Prior to granting privileges or association to any physician or hiring a physician, a hospital or facility approved pursuant to this chapter shall request from any hospital with or at which the physician had or has privileges, was associated, or was employed, the following information concerning the physician:

(a) Any pending professional medical misconduct proceedings or any pending medical malpractice actions, in this state or another state;

(b) Any judgment or settlement of a medical malpractice action and any finding of professional misconduct in this state or another state by a licensing or disciplinary board; and

(c) Any information required to be reported by hospitals pursuant to RCW 18.72.265.

(3) The medical disciplinary board shall be advised within thirty days of the name of any physician denied staff privileges, association, or employment on the basis of adverse findings under subsection (1) of this section.

(4) A hospital or facility that receives a request for information from another hospital or facility pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall provide such information concerning the physician in question to the extent such information is known to the hospital or facility receiving such a request, including the reasons for suspension, termination, or curtailment of employment or privileges at the hospital or facility. A hospital, facility, or other person providing such information in good faith is not liable in any civil action for the release of such information.

(5) Information and documents, including complaints and incident reports, created, collected, and maintained about health care providers arising out of the matters that are subject to evaluation by a review committee conducting quality assurance reviews are not subject to discovery or introduction into evidence in any civil action, and no person who was in attendance at a meeting of such committee or board shall be permitted or required to testify in any civil action as to the content of such proceedings. This subsection does not preclude: (a) In any civil action, the testimony of any person concerning the facts which form the basis for the institution of such proceedings of which the person had personal knowledge acquired independently of such proceedings; (b) in any civil action by a health care provider regarding the restriction or revocation of that individual's clinical or staff privileges, introduction into evidence information collected and maintained by quality assurance committees regarding such health care provider; or (c) in any civil action, disclosure of the fact that staff privileges were terminated or restricted, including the specific restrictions imposed, if any.

(6) Hospitals shall be granted access to information held by the medical disciplinary board and the board of osteopathic medicine and surgery pertinent to decisions of the hospital regarding credentialing and recredentialing of practitioners.

(7) Violation of this section shall not be considered negligence per se.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Passed the House March 9, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 7, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986, with the exception of certain items which were vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to certain portions, Substitute House Bill No. 1950, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to medical malpractice."

The last sentence of section 2 would require Assistant Attorneys General assigned to the Medical Disciplinary Board to be subject to Board approval and to work under the Board's control. Section 3 would require investigators to be assigned solely to the Board and to be subject to the Board's approval. Both provisions are being vetoed.

Designation and supervision of full-time staff is not the duty of a part-time board. It is better performed by the staff of the administrative agency, in this case the Department of Licensing. If staffing problems arise, the Board should be able to work them out with the support agency, as a number of other boards presently do. One of the benefits of having a part-time board staffed by a larger administrative agency is that the agency can adjust workloads and tasks so that employees are efficiently utilized. To assign attorneys and investigators to only one board could result in inefficiencies and would prevent pooling of valuable personnel resources.

For these reasons I have vetoed the last sentence of section 2 and all of section 3. The remainder of the bill is approved."

CHAPTER 301

[Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1598]

SEXUAL OFFENDERS

AN ACT Relating to sexual offenders; amending RCW 9.94A.120; creating new sections; repealing RCW 9.94A.122; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that the sexual offender treatment programs at western and eastern state hospitals, while not proven to be totally effective, may be of some benefit in positively affecting the behavior of certain sexual offenders. Given the significance of the problems of sexual assault and sexual abuse of children, it is therefore appropriate to review and revise these treatment efforts.

At the same time, concerns regarding the lack of adequate security at the existing programs must be satisfactorily addressed. In an effort to promote public safety, it is the intent of the legislature to transfer the responsibility for felony sexual offenders from the department of social and health services to the department of corrections.

Therefore, on and after July 1, 1987, no person convicted of a felony sexual offense may be committed under RCW 9.94A.120(7)(b) to the department of social and health services at eastern state hospital or western state hospital. Any person committed before July 1, 1987, to the department of social and health services under RCW 9.94A.120(7)(b) and still in the custody of the department of social and health services on June 30, 1993, shall be transferred to the custody of the department of corrections. On and after July 1, 1987, any person eligible for evaluation or treatment under RCW 9.94A.120(7)(b) shall be committed to the department of corrections.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) In cooperation and consultation with the mental health division of the department of social and health services, the department of corrections shall develop a plan for the administration of a sexual offender treatment program. In developing the plan, the department of corrections may consult with private agencies providing counseling to sex offenders. The plan shall include:

- (a) Criteria to determine amenability to treatment;
- (b) A description of the structure and organization of the program and program options, including staffing requirements;
- (c) The treatment methods and the number and characteristics of offenders proposed to be served;
- (d) The selection of the location or locations of the program within the existing institutions operated by the department of corrections, including identification of alternative sites within the existing institutions operated by the department of corrections;
- (e) An analysis of a proposal to permit selected offenders to participate in the program only during the last two or three years of their term of confinement;
- (f) Program security;
- (g) Program costs;
- (h) A description of the mechanisms and procedures to be used to collect valid and reliable data on program completion rates, recidivism rates, and escape rates;
- (i) A method for tracking offenders who have been released which method can be used to determine the efficacy of the treatment program;
- (j) An analysis and description of other treatment models; and
- (k) Negotiations with the exclusive bargaining representative of the employees affected to provide preferential consideration for job retention, including but not limited to interagency transfer or promotion during the period of transition.

(2) Any consultation, information, or other services necessary for the development of the plan, shall upon request by the department of corrections be provided to the department of corrections by the department of social and health services, the legislative budget committee, the office of financial management, the administrator for the courts, and the data processing authority and shall be provided without charge to the department of corrections.

(3) The plan shall be submitted to the legislature by January 1, 1987, and shall take effect on July 1, 1987, unless otherwise directed by law.

*Sec. 3. Section 12, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 6, chapter 209, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.94A.120 are each amended to read as follows:

When a person is convicted of a felony, the court shall impose punishment as provided in this section.

(1) Except as authorized in subsections (2) (~~and~~), (5), and (7) of this section, the court shall impose a sentence within the sentence range for the offense.

(2) The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for that offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(3) Whenever a sentence outside the standard range is imposed, the court shall set forth the reasons for its decision in written findings of fact and conclusions of law. A sentence outside the standard range shall be a determinate sentence.

(4) An offender convicted of the crime of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than twenty years. An offender convicted of the crime of assault in the first degree where the offender used force or means likely to result in death or intended to kill the victim shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than five years. An offender convicted of the crime of rape in the first degree shall be sentenced to a term of total confinement not less than three years, and shall not be eligible for furlough, work release or other authorized leave of absence from the correctional facility during such minimum three year term except for the purpose of commitment to an inpatient treatment facility. The foregoing minimum terms of total confinement are mandatory and shall not be varied or modified as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

(5) In sentencing a first-time offender, other than a person convicted of a violation of chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020, the court may waive the imposition of a sentence within the sentence range and impose a sentence which may include up to ninety days of confinement in a facility operated or utilized under contract by the county and a requirement that the offender refrain from committing new offenses. The sentence may also include up to two years of community supervision, which, in addition to crime-related prohibitions, may include requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(a) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;

(b) Undergo available outpatient treatment for up to two years, or inpatient treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense;

(c) Pursue a prescribed, secular course of study or vocational training;

(d) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;

(e) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;

or

(f) Pay a fine(~~(-make restitution,))~~ and/or accomplish some community service work.

(6) If a sentence range has not been established for the defendant's crime, the court shall impose a determinate sentence which may include not more than one year of confinement, community service work, ~~((restitution,))~~ a term of community supervision not to exceed one year, and/or a fine. The court may impose a sentence which provides more than one year of confinement if the court finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(7) (a) When an offender is convicted of ~~((any))~~ a sex offense other than a violation of ((chapter 9A.44 RCW or RCW 9A.64.020 except)) RCW 9A.44.040 or RCW 9A.44.050 and has no prior convictions ((of chapter 9A.44 RCW, RCW 9A.64.020,)) for a sex offense or any other felony sexual offenses in this or any other state, the sentencing court, on its own motion or the motion of the state or the defendant, may order an examination to determine whether the defendant is amenable to treatment.

After receipt of the reports, the court shall then determine whether the offender and the community will benefit from use of this special sexual offender sentencing alternative. If the court determines that both the offender and the community will benefit from use of this provision, the court shall then impose a sentence within the sentence range and, if this sentence is less than six years of confinement, the court may suspend the execution of the sentence and place the offender on community supervision for up to two years. As a condition of the suspended sentence, the court may impose other sentence conditions including up to six months of confinement, not to exceed the sentence range of confinement for that offense, crime-related prohibitions, and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;

(ii) Undergo available outpatient sex offender treatment for up to two years, or inpatient sex offender treatment not to exceed the standard range of confinement for that offense. A community mental health center may not be used for such treatment unless it has an appropriate program designed for sex offender treatment;

(iii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;

(iv) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;

(v) Pay a fine, (~~make restitution;~~) accomplish some community service work, or any combination thereof; or

(vi) Make recoupment to the victim for the cost of any counseling required as a result of the offender's crime.

If the offender violates these sentence conditions the court may revoke the suspension and order execution of the sentence. All confinement time served during the period of community supervision shall be credited to the offender if the suspended sentence is revoked.

(b) When an offender is convicted of any felony sexual offense and is sentenced before July 1, 1987, to a term of confinement of more than one year but less than six years, the sentencing court may, on its own motion or on the motion of the offender or the state, order the offender committed for up to thirty days to the custody of the secretary of the department of social and health services at the Eastern State Hospital or the Western State Hospital for evaluation and report to the court on the offender's amenability to treatment at these facilities. If the secretary of the department of social and health services cannot begin the evaluation within thirty days of the court's order of commitment, the offender shall be transferred to the state for confinement pending an opportunity to be evaluated at the appropriate facility. The court shall review the reports and may order that the term of confinement imposed be served in the sexual offender treatment programs at Western State Hospital or Eastern State Hospital, as determined by the secretary of the department of social and health services, only if the report indicates that the offender is amenable to the treatment program provided at these facilities. The offender shall be transferred to the state pending placement in the treatment program. Any offender who has escaped from the treatment program shall be referred back to the sentencing court.

If the offender does not comply with the conditions of the treatment program, the secretary of the department of social and health services may refer the matter to the sentencing court (~~for determination as to whether~~). The sentencing court shall commit the offender (~~shall be transferred~~) to the department of corrections to serve the balance of his term of confinement.

If the offender successfully completes the treatment program before the expiration of his term of confinement, the court may convert the balance of confinement to community supervision and may place conditions on the offender including crime-related prohibitions and requirements that the offender perform any one or more of the following:

(i) Devote time to a specific employment or occupation;

(ii) Remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the court or the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment;

(iii) Report as directed to the court and a community corrections officer;

(iv) Undergo available outpatient treatment.

If the offender violates any of the terms of his community supervision, the court may order the offender to serve out the balance of his community supervision term in confinement in the custody of the department of corrections.

After June 30, 1993, (b) of this subsection shall cease to have effect.

(c) Whenever a court sentences a person convicted of a sex offense committed after July 1, 1986, to a term of confinement of more than one year, including a sentence under (b) of this subsection, the court may also order, in addition to the other terms of the sentence, that the offender, upon release from confinement, serve up to two years of community supervision. The conditions of supervision shall be limited to:

(i) Crime-related provisions;

(ii) A requirement that the offender report to a community corrections officer at regular intervals; and

(iii) A requirement to remain within or without stated geographical boundaries.

The length and conditions of supervision shall be set by the court at the time of sentencing. However, within thirty days prior to release from confinement and throughout the period of supervision, the length and conditions of supervision may be modified by the sentencing court, upon motion of the department of corrections, the offender, or the prosecuting attorney. The period of supervision shall be tolled during any time the offender is in confinement for any reason. In no case may the period of supervision, in combination with the other terms of the offender's sentence, exceed the statutory maximum term for the offender's crime, as set forth in RCW 9A.20.021.

If the offender violates any condition of supervision, the sentencing court, after a hearing conducted in the same manner as provided for in RCW 9.94A.200, may order the offender to be confined for up to sixty days in the county jail at state expense from funds provided for this purpose to the department of corrections. Reimbursement rates for such purposes shall be established based on a formula determined by the office of financial management and reestablished each even-numbered year. An offender may be held in jail at state expense pending the hearing, and any time served while awaiting the hearing shall be credited against confinement imposed for a violation. Even after the period of supervision has expired, an offender may be confined for a violation occurring during the period of supervision. The court shall retain jurisdiction for the purpose of holding the violation hearing and imposing a sanction.

(8) If the court imposes a sentence requiring confinement of thirty days or less, the court may, in its discretion, specify that the sentence be served on consecutive or intermittent days. A sentence requiring more than thirty days of confinement shall be served on consecutive days. Local jail administrators may schedule court-ordered intermittent sentences as space permits.

(9) If a sentence imposed includes a fine or restitution, the sentence shall specify a reasonable manner and time in which the fine or restitution shall be paid. In any sentence under this chapter the court may also require the offender to make such monetary payments, on such terms as it deems appropriate under the circumstances, as are necessary (a) to pay court costs, including reimbursement of the state for costs of extradition if return to this state by extradition was required, (b) to make recoupment of the cost of defense attorney's fees if counsel is provided at public expense, (c) to contribute to a county or interlocal drug fund, and (d) to make such other payments as provided by law. All monetary payments shall be ordered paid by no later than ten years after the date of the judgment of conviction.

(10) Except as provided under RCW 9.94A.140(1), a court may not impose a sentence providing for a term of confinement or community supervision which exceeds the statutory maximum for the crime as provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW ((9A.20.020)).

(11) All offenders sentenced to terms involving community supervision, community service, restitution, or fines shall be under the supervision of the secretary of the department or such person as the secretary may designate and shall follow implicitly the instructions of the secretary including reporting as directed to a community corrections officer, remaining within prescribed geographical boundaries, and notifying the community corrections officer of any change in the offender's address or employment.

(12) The sentencing court shall give the offender credit for all confinement time served before the sentencing if that confinement was solely in regard to the offense for which the offender is being sentenced.

(13) A departure from the standards in RCW 9.94A.400(1) and (2) governing whether sentences are to be served consecutively or concurrently is an exceptional sentence subject to the limitations in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, and may be appealed by the defendant or the state as set forth in RCW 9.94A.210(2) through (6).

(14) The court shall order restitution whenever the offender is convicted of a felony that results in injury to any person or damage to or loss of property, unless extraordinary circumstances exist that make restitution inappropriate in the court's judgment. The court shall set forth the extraordinary circumstances in the record if it does not order restitution.

*Sec 3 was partially vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

Sec. 4. Section 12, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 3, chapter ... (ESHB 1598), Laws of 1986 and RCW 9.94A.120 are each amended to read as follows:

When a person is convicted of a felony, the court shall impose punishment as provided in this section.

(1) Except as authorized in subsections (2), (5), and (7) of this section, the court shall impose a sentence within the sentence range for the offense.

(2) The court may impose a sentence outside the standard sentence range for that offense if it finds, considering the purpose of this chapter, that there are substantial and compelling reasons justifying an exceptional sentence.

(iv) Undergo available outpatient treatment.

If the offender violates any of the terms of his community supervision, the court may order the offender to serve out the balance of his community supervision term in confinement in the custody of the department of corrections.

Nothing in (b) of this subsection shall confer eligibility for such programs for offenders convicted and sentenced prior to July 1, 1987.

After June 30, 1993, (b) of this subsection shall cease to have effect.

(c) Whenever a court sentences a person convicted of a sex offense committed after July 1, 1986, to a term of confinement of more than one year, including a sentence under (b) of this subsection, the court may also order, in addition to the other terms of the sentence, that the offender, upon release from confinement, serve up to two years of community supervision. The court shall set forth the extraordinary circumstances in the record if it does not order restitution.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to alter any existing collective bargaining unit existing on the effective date of this section or the provisions of any collective bargaining agreement existing on the effective date of this section until such agreement has expired or until any such bargaining unit has been modified by action of the state personnel board as provided by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. During the remainder of the 1985-1987 biennium, upon authorization of the office of financial management, the department of social and health services shall reimburse the department of corrections as is necessary for the department of corrections to provide custody to those persons determined not to be amenable to treatment or those persons referred to court by the department of social and health services for failure to comply with the conditions of the program and committed to the department of corrections.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Section 8, chapter 443, Laws of 1985 and RCW 9.94A.122 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Section 4 of this act shall take effect July 1, 1987.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Sections 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, and 7 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the House March 12, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 11, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986, with the exception of certain items which were vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 3(7)(c), Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1598, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to sexual offenders."

Section 3(7)(c) provides for post-prison community supervision for sex offenders if their crimes are committed after July 1, 1986, and their term of incarceration is at least one year. Violation of the terms of supervision would result in confinement to the county jail at state expense.

The determinate sentencing law, passed by the Legislature in 1981, was a clear departure from the system of indeterminate sentencing and long-term parole or post-release supervision. It is important for that process to be more fully implemented so that the criminal justice system can stabilize prior to such a significant and costly change in direction as would be provided for in section 3(7)(c).

I do not believe that a limited amount of supervision for sexual offenders is sufficient to ensure public safety, particularly when it may provide a rationale for shorter sentences or early release from prison. In addition, there are no studies that have shown supervision to be an effective deterrent to reoffenses.

However, a short period of supervised transition for all offenders as they re-enter the community from prison was indicated in the original determinate sentencing bill and may be an issue worth revisiting. As this section would not have taken effect until July 1, 1987, it is appropriate that this issue is reviewed in the next budget cycle. However, there are a number of issues in the correctional area that also merit review, such as job training conducted in the institutions and alcohol and drug treatment. I have therefore vetoed section 3(7)(c) of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1598.

With the exception of section 3(7)(c), Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1598 is approved."

CHAPTER 302

[Substitute House Bill No. 1972]

SELF-INSURANCE FOR LOCAL GOVERNMENTS

AN ACT Relating to self-insurance; and amending RCW 48.62.040 and 48.01.050.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 4, chapter 256, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 278, Laws of 1985 and RCW 48.62.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, the governing body of any one or more local governmental entities may, as an alternative or in addition to exercising any one or more of the powers granted in RCW 48.62.030 and 36.16.138, as now or hereafter amended, or any other provision of law, form together into or join a pool or organization for the joint purchasing of insurance, and/or joint self-insuring, and/or joint hiring or contracting for risk management services to the same extent that they may individually purchase insurance, self-insure, or hire or contract for risk management services.

(2)(a) No organization of local governmental entities, other than local school districts and educational service districts, that is organized under this section for the purpose of self-insuring shall provide any self-insurance other than liability and property insurance. For purposes of this section, liability insurance shall include but not be limited to coverage for claims arising from the tortious or negligent conduct of the local government entity, its officers, employees, or agents thereof, or any error or omission on the part of said local government entity, its officers, employees or agents thereof as a result of which a claim may be made against the local government entity.

(b) Local school districts and educational service districts may not organize under this section for the purpose of providing joint self-insured life, health, health care, accident, disability and salary protection or insurance, or any combination thereof, to the district employees, students, directors, or any of their dependents.

(3) The agreement to form such a pooling arrangement shall be made under chapter 39.34 RCW. Any pool or organization authorized to be formed by this section shall be subject to audit by the state auditor.

"Insurer" as used in this code includes every person engaged in the business of making contracts of insurance, other than a fraternal benefit society. A reciprocal or interinsurance exchange is an "insurer" as used in this code. Two or more hospitals, as defined in RCW 70.39.020(3), which join and organize as a mutual corporation pursuant to chapter 24.06 RCW for the purpose of insuring or self-insuring against liability claims, including medical liability, through a contributing trust fund shall not be deemed an "insurer" under this code. Two or more local governmental entities, as defined in RCW 48.62.020, which pursuant to RCW 48.62.040, 48.62.035, or any other provision of law join together and organize to form an organization for the purpose of jointly self-insuring or self-funding shall not be deemed an "insurer" under this code. Two or more fraternal benefit societies subject to chapter 24.20 RCW which join together and organize to form an organization for the purposes of self-insuring for damage to property and against liability claims shall not be deemed an "insurer" under this code. Two or more cooperatives operated as cooperatives under chapters 23.86, 24.06, and 24.32 RCW, or Title 23A RCW, which join and organize as a mutual corporation pursuant to chapter 24.06 RCW for the purpose of insuring or self-insuring their directors and officers against liability claims through a contributing trust fund shall not be deemed an "insurer" under this code.

*Sec. 2 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

Passed the House March 9, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 5, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986, with the exception of certain items which were vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 2, Substitute House Bill No. 1972, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to self-insurance."

Groups of local governments are presently authorized to pool for self-insurance, or purchase insurance, for liability coverage. Section 1 of Substitute House Bill No. 1972 extends that authority to include property replacement insurance, which I strongly support.

Property insurance lines are stable and profitable. Inclusion of property coverage as a part of local government pools should help them to attract commercial insurance packages that include the more volatile liability insurance coverages as well. The state's insurance code provides for the effective regulation of local government insurance pools by the Office of the Insurance Commissioner.

However, section 2 of Substitute House Bill No. 1972 seeks to exempt from the state insurance code both "fraternal benefit societies" that organize to self-insure against property and liability claims, as well as "cooperatives" which organize to self-insure against officer and director liability claims. I strongly oppose these two proposed exemptions. Unlike the local government insurance pools referenced in section 1 of the bill, the proposed exemption of "fraternal benefit societies" and "cooperatives" would effectively authorize a class of self-insurers operating totally outside the purview of the insurance code. The insurance code contains safeguards such as requirements for capital reserves, reinsurance and guaranty association protection. These safeguards protect both the self-insurer and those members of the general public who deal with the self-insurer. Exempting groups from these requirements is unwarranted.

In contrast to the approach proposed in section 2 of Substitute House Bill No. 1972, the state insurance code already provides the means by which such groups may form conventional insurance organizations with the appropriate financial and procedural safeguards.

With the exception of section 2, Substitute House Bill No. 1972 is approved.*

CHAPTER 303

[Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2021]
MANAGED HEALTH CARE SYSTEMS

AN ACT Relating to managed health care; adding a new section to chapter 74.09 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 43.41 RCW; adding a new chapter to Title 70 RCW; creating new sections; making appropriations; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The legislature finds that:

- (a) Good health care for indigent persons is of importance to the state;
- (b) To ensure the availability of a good level of health care, efforts must be made to encourage cost consciousness on the part of providers and consumers, while maintaining medical assistance recipients within the mainstream of health care delivery;

(c) Managed health care systems have been found to be effective in controlling costs while providing good health care services;

(d) By enrolling medical assistance recipients within managed health care systems, the state's goal is to ensure that medical assistance recipients receive at least the same quality of care they currently receive.

(2) It is the intent of the legislature to develop and implement new strategies that promote the use of managed health care systems for medical assistance recipients by establishing prepaid capitated programs for both in-patient and out-patient services.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 74.09 RCW to read as follows:

(1) For the purposes of this section, "managed health care system" means any health care organization, including health care providers, insurers, health care service contractors, health maintenance organizations, health insuring organizations, or any combination thereof, that provides directly or by contract health care services covered under RCW 74.09.520 and rendered by licensed providers, on a prepaid capitated case management basis.

(2) No later than July 1, 1991, the department of social and health services shall enter into agreements with managed health care systems to provide health care services to recipients of aid to families with dependent children under the following conditions:

(a) Agreements shall be made within one class A county in the eastern part of the state for at least ten thousand recipients; and one class AA county for at least fifteen thousand recipients in the western part of the state; and one first class county of at least five thousand recipients in the western part of the state;

(b) At least one of the agreements shall include enrollment of all recipients of aid to families with dependent children residing in a defined geographical area;

(c) The department shall, to the extent possible, ensure that recipients have a choice of systems in which to enroll and, if necessary and medically appropriate treatment for a recipient is not available from or through a participating managed health care system, the department shall exempt the recipient from any requirement to receive some or all of their medical services from such a system;

(d) To the extent possible, the department shall ensure that participating managed health care systems do not enroll a disproportionate number of medical assistance recipients within the total numbers of persons served by the managed health care systems;

(e) Prior to negotiating with any managed health care system, the department shall estimate, on an actuarially sound basis, the expected cost of providing the health care services expressed in terms of upper and lower limits, and recognizing variations in the cost of providing the services through the various systems and in different project areas. In negotiating with managed health care systems the department shall adopt a uniform procedure that includes at least request for proposals, including standards regarding the quality of services to be provided; and financial integrity of the responding system. The department may negotiate with respondents to the extent necessary to refine any proposals;

(f) The department shall seek waivers from federal requirements as necessary to implement this chapter;

(g) The department shall, wherever possible, enter into prepaid capitation contracts that include inpatient care. However, if this is not possible or feasible, the department may enter into prepaid capitation contracts that do not include inpatient care;

(h) The department shall define those circumstances under which a managed health care system is responsible for out-of-system services and assure that recipients shall not be charged for such services; and

(i) Nothing in this section prevents the department from entering into similar agreements in additional counties or for other groups of people eligible to receive services under chapter 74.09 RCW.

The department shall seek to obtain a large number of contracts with providers of health services to medicaid recipients. The department shall ensure that publicly supported community health centers and providers in rural areas, who show serious intent and apparent capability to participate in the project as managed health care systems are seriously considered as providers in the project.

(3) The department shall work jointly with the state of Oregon and other states in this geographical region in order to develop recommendations to be presented to the appropriate federal agencies and the United States congress for improving health care of the poor, while controlling related costs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The department shall report to the legislature not later than January 1, 1987, on progress toward implementation of the requirements of this chapter, but shall not delay implementation on account of this reporting requirement.

The report shall also include an analysis of the possible expansion of the use of managed health care within other medical assistance programs, including making it available to certain recipients of general assistance and supplemental security income.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is created the Washington health care project commission composed of fifteen members; four members shall be state representatives, two from each political party appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives; four members shall be state senators, two from each political party appointed by the president of the senate.

The legislative members of the commission shall select seven public members, to serve on the commission, that are representative of health care professionals, health care providers, those directly involved in the purchase, provision, or delivery of health care services, industry, consumers, and those knowledgeable of the ethical issues involved with health care public policy.

The legislative members shall select from among the public members one to serve as chairman and from among the legislative members four to serve, together with the chairman, as an executive committee of the commission.

(1) The commission may hire staff or contract for professional assistance with funds made available for their activities. To the extent possible, the department of social and health services, the house of representatives, and the senate shall provide staff support. The commission may apply for and receive and accept grants, gifts, and other payments, including property and services, from any governmental or other public or private entity or person, and may make arrangements as to the use of these receipts, including the undertaking of special studies and other projects relating to health care costs or access to health care.

The public members of the commission shall receive no compensation for their service as members, but shall be reimbursed for their expenses while attending any meetings of the commission in the same manner as legislators engaged in interim committee business as specified in RCW 44.04.120.

The commission may establish ad hoc technical advisory committees to assist it with any particular matters deemed necessary and any person serving in such capacity may be reimbursed for their expenses while attending any meetings of such committee or the commission in the same manner as public members of the commission.

(2) The commission shall have the following responsibilities:

(a) To review and estimate the following information about persons in the state of Washington who do not have health care coverage:

- (i) The numbers of such persons;
- (ii) Their age and geographic distribution;
- (iii) Their employment status;
- (iv) Their family size;
- (v) Their economic status; and
- (vi) Such other information as the commission deems relevant.

(b) To define basic health care coverage, using the following guidelines:

(i) The schedule of services shall emphasize preventive primary health care, including necessary physician services, and inpatient and outpatient hospital services;

(ii) The schedule of services shall include all services necessary for prenatal, postnatal, and well-child care;

(iii) The schedule of services shall include a separate schedule of basic health care services for children eighteen years of age and younger, for those who might choose to secure basic coverage only for their dependent children;

(iv) In designing the schedule of services, the commission shall consider the guidelines for assessing health services under the mandated benefits act of 1984, RCW 48.42.080; and

(v) The schedule of services shall be based upon an estimated cost not exceeding fifty dollars per month per person enrolled. The commission may develop alternative schedules of services based on higher or lower monthly costs as it deems appropriate.

(c) After establishing at least a tentative schedule of basic health care services, obtain the following information about persons identified in (a) of this subsection:

(i) An estimate of demand for basic health coverage expressed in terms of numbers of potential enrollees if such a program were made available to them, including the basis upon which such an offering should be made; and

(ii) The characteristics of likely enrollees including demographic and economic data, likely utilization and such other actuarial information as needed to estimate the likely cost of the benefit schedule defined by the commission.

(3) The commission shall then use the information obtained pursuant to this section to develop plans that includes:

(a) Methods of delivery for the schedule of basic health care services by managed health care systems;

(b) Methods of soliciting and accepting application for participation in the program to deliver such basic health care services on a demonstration basis from managed health care systems, including payment methods, rates, and any risk sharing provisions;

(c) Methods whereby the delivery of such services could be integrated with the managed health care systems that may be participating in the medical assistance program of the department of social and health services;

(d) A structure of periodic payments, based upon gross family income, that would be the responsibility of any person or subscriber within the identified groups, or that might be made the responsibility of another private party;

(e) Establishing necessary eligibility standards and guidelines for person seeking such health care coverage, and whatever administrative structure may be needed to enroll such persons;

(f) Methods of monitoring the provision of services to enrollees and the quality of care provided; and

(g) Methods of funding the reasonably anticipated costs of such plans, collectively or individually.

(4) For the purposes of this section, "managed health care systems" means any health care organization, including health care providers, insurers, health care service contractors, health maintenance organizations, or any combination thereof, that provides directly or by contract the schedule of services by duly licensed providers, on a prepaid capitated basis.

(5) The commission shall submit a final report to the legislature no later than December 1, 1986. The report shall include plans that address the needs for such a basic health care program for any identified groups of persons and an analysis of any alternatives considered, but not adopted.

(6) The commission shall terminate upon the submission of their final report.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The sum of one hundred fifty thousand dollars, of which ninety thousand is from the general fund—state and sixty thousand is from the general fund—federal, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated to the department of social and health services for the biennium ending June 30, 1987, for the purposes identified in sections 2 and 3 of this act.

The sum of one hundred twenty-five thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1987, from the general fund to the Washington health care project commission for the purposes identified in this act: PROVIDED, That the house executive rules committee and senate facilities and operations committee may jointly authorize expenditures for necessary expenses directly related to commission activities or studies on health care issues conducted by any legislative committee during 1986 or 1987.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The following state agencies are directed to cooperate with the office of financial management in order to establish appropriate health care information systems in their programs: The department of social and health services, the department of labor and industries, the state employees' insurance board, the department of veterans affairs, and the department of corrections.

The office of financial management, in conjunction with such agencies, shall determine:

- (1) Definitions of health care services;
- (2) Health care data elements common to all agencies;
- (3) Health care data elements unique to each agency;
- (4) A mechanism for program and budget review of health care data;

and

- (5) Executive review of health care data.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Each of the agencies listed in section 6 of this act, with the exception of the department of labor and industries, which expends more than five hundred thousand dollars annually of state funds for purchase of health care shall identify the availability and costs of nonfee for service providers of health care, including preferred provider organizations, health maintenance organizations, managed health care or case management systems, or other nonfee for service alternatives. In each case where feasible in which an alternative health care provider arrangement, of similar scope and quality, is available at lower cost than fee for service providers, such state agencies shall make the services of the alternative provider available to clients, consumers, or employees for whom state dollars are spent to purchase health care. As consistent with other state and federal law, requirements for copayments, deductibles, the scope of available services, or other incentives shall be used to encourage clients, consumers, or employees to use the lowest cost providers, except that copayments or deductibles shall not be required where they might have the impact of denying access to necessary health care in a timely manner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Plans for establishing or improving utilization review procedures for purchased health care services shall be developed by each agency listed in section 6 of this act. The plans shall specifically address such utilization review procedures as prior authorization of services, hospital inpatient length of stay review, requirements for use of outpatient surgeries and the obtaining of second opinions for surgeries, review of invoices or claims submitted by service providers, and performance audit of providers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. The state agencies listed in section 6 of this act shall review the feasibility of establishing prospective payment approaches within their health care programs. Work plans or timetables shall be prepared for the development of prospective rates. The agencies shall identify legislative actions that may be necessary to facilitate the adoption of prospective rate setting methods.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) Each agency listed in section 6 of this act shall individually or in cooperation with other agencies take any necessary actions to control costs without reducing the quality of care when reimbursing for or purchasing drugs. To accomplish this purpose, each agency shall investigate the feasibility of and may establish a drug formulary designating which drugs may be paid for through their health care programs. For purposes of this section, a drug formulary means a list of drugs, either inclusive or exclusive, that defines which drugs are eligible for reimbursement by the agency.

(2) In developing the drug formulary authorized by this section, agencies:

(a) Shall prohibit reimbursement for drugs that are determined to be ineffective by the United States food and drug administration;

(b) Shall adopt rules in order to ensure that less expensive generic drugs will be substituted for brand name drugs in those instances where the quality of care is not diminished;

(c) Where possible, may authorize reimbursement for drugs only in economical quantities;

(d) May limit the prices paid for drugs by such means as central purchasing, volume contracting, or setting maximum prices to be paid;

(e) Shall consider the approval of drugs with lower abuse potential in substitution for drugs with significant abuse potential; and

(f) May take other necessary measures to control costs of drugs without reducing the quality of care.

(3) Agencies may provide for reasonable exceptions to the drug formulary required by this section.

(4) Agencies may establish medical advisory committees, or utilize committees already established, to assist in the development of the drug formulary required by this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A new section is added to chapter 43.41 RCW to read as follows:

(1) It is the purpose of this section to ensure implementation and coordination of chapter 70.— RCW (sections 6 through 10 of this act) as well as other legislative and executive policies designed to contain the cost of health care that is purchased or provided by the state. In order to achieve that purpose, the director may:

(a) Establish within the office of financial management a health care cost containment program in cooperation with all state agencies;

(b) Implement lawful health care cost containment policies that have been adopted by the legislature or the governor, including appropriation provisos;

(c) Coordinate the activities of all state agencies with respect to health care cost containment policies;

(d) Study and make recommendations on health care cost containment policies;

(e) Monitor and report on the implementation of health care cost containment policies;

(f) Appoint a health care cost containment technical advisory committee that represents state agencies that are involved in the direct purchase, funding, or provision of health care; and

(g) Engage in other activities necessary to achieve the purposes of this section.

(2) All state agencies shall cooperate with the director in carrying out the purpose of this section.

(3) By December 15 of each even-numbered year, the office of financial management shall submit to the ways and means committees of the senate and house of representatives a report covering total expenditures over the past two years for the purchase or provision of health care services, together with an estimate of such future expenditures during the ensuing four years. The reports, together with any suitable recommendations, shall be consistent with the provisions of section 17, chapter 288, Laws of 1984 (uncodified).

*Sec. 11 was partially vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Not later than January 1, 1988, the superintendent of public instruction shall report to the legislature on proposed methods of controlling school employee health care costs consistent with the policies and goals of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Sections 6 through 10 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 70 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the House March 12, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 12, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986, with the exception of certain items which were vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 11(3), Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2021, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to managed health care."

Section 11 of this bill permits the Director of Financial Management to establish within the Office of Financial Management a health care cost containment program. The section also authorizes the Director to take other actions to control the cost of health care purchased by state agencies. I support wholeheartedly this effort to control costs. The bill, however, does not provide any funds for the creation of the cost containment program. Most of section 11 is permissive, giving the Director of Financial Management the flexibility necessary to undertake those aspects of the program that can be accomplished without funding. Subsection (3), however, is a mandatory reporting requirement that involves significant amounts of staff time and other resources, which are not available. For this reason, I have vetoed section 11(3).

With the exception of section 11(3), Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 2021 is approved."

CHAPTER 304

[Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3990]

SECURITIES—ACTIONS UNDER THE WASHINGTON STATE SECURITIES ACT—APPLICATION OF EXISTING LAW

AN ACT Relating to securities; and amending RCW 21.20.430.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

(1) Any person, who offers or sells a security in violation of any provisions of RCW 21.20.010 or 21.20.140 through 21.20.230, is liable to the person buying the security from him or her, who may sue either at law or in equity to recover the consideration paid for the security, together with interest at eight percent per annum from the date of payment, costs, and reasonable attorneys' fees, less the amount of any income received on the security, upon the tender of the security, or for damages if he or she no longer owns the security. Damages are the amount that would be recoverable upon a tender less (a) the value of the security when the buyer disposed of it and (b) interest at eight percent per annum from the date of disposition.

(2) Any person who buys a security in violation of the provisions of RCW 21.20.010 is liable to the person selling the security to him or her, who may sue either at law or in equity to recover the security, together with any income received on the security, upon tender of the consideration received, costs, and reasonable attorneys' fees, or if the security cannot be recovered, for damages. Damages are the value of the security when the buyer disposed of it, and any income received on the security, less the consideration received for the security, plus interest at eight percent per annum from the date of disposition, costs, and reasonable attorneys' fees.

(3) Every person who directly or indirectly controls a seller or buyer liable under subsection (1) or (2) above, every partner, officer, director or person who occupies a similar status or performs a similar function of such seller or buyer, every employee of such a seller or buyer who materially aids in the transaction, and every broker-dealer, salesperson, or person exempt under the provisions of RCW 21.20.040 who materially aids in the transaction is also liable jointly and severally with and to the same extent as the seller or buyer, unless such person sustains the burden of proof that he or she did not know, and in the exercise of reasonable care could not have known, of the existence of the facts by reason of which the liability is alleged to exist. There is contribution as in cases of contract among the several persons so liable.

(4) (a) Every cause of action under this statute survives the death of any person who might have been a plaintiff or defendant.

(b) No person may sue under this section more than three years after the contract of sale for any violation of the provisions of RCW 21.20.140 through 21.20.230, or more than three years after a violation of the provisions of RCW 21.20.010, either was discovered by such person or would have been discovered by him or her in the exercise of reasonable care. No person may sue under this section if the buyer or seller receives a written rescission offer, which has been passed upon by the director before suit and at a time when he or she owned the security, to refund the consideration paid together with interest at eight percent per annum from the date of payment, less the amount of any income received on the security in the case of a buyer, or plus the amount of income received on the security in the case of a seller.

(5) No person who has made or engaged in the performance of any contract in violation of any provision of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder, or who has acquired any purported right under any such contract with knowledge of the facts by reason of which its making or performance was in violation, may base any suit on the contract. Any condition, stipulation, or provision binding any person acquiring any security to waive compliance with any provision of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder is void.

(6) Any tender specified in this section may be made at any time before entry of judgment.

(7) Notwithstanding subsections (1) through (6) of this section, if an initial offer or sale of securities that are exempt from registration under RCW 21.20.310 is made by this state or its agencies, political subdivisions, municipal or quasi-municipal corporations, or other instrumentality of one or more of the foregoing and is in violation of RCW 21.20.010(2), and any such issuer, member of the governing body, committee member, public officer, director, employee, or agent of such issuer acting on its behalf, or person in control of such issuer, member of the governing body, committee member, public officer, director, employee, or agent of such person acting on its behalf, materially aids in the offer or sale, such person is liable to the purchaser of the security only if the purchaser establishes scienter on the part of the defendant. The word "employee" or the word "agent," as such words are used in this subsection, do not include a bond counsel or an underwriter. Under no circumstances whatsoever shall this subsection be applied to require purchasers to establish scienter on the part of bond counsels or underwriters. The provisions of this subsection are retroactive and apply to any action commenced but not final before July 27, 1985. In addition, the provisions of this subsection apply to any action commenced on or after July 27, 1985.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Passed the Senate February 16, 1986.

Passed the House March 6, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

CHAPTER 305

[Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630]

TORT LAW REVISIONS

AN ACT Relating to civil actions; amending RCW 5.60.060, 4.22.030, 51.24.060, 4.16-.350, 4.24.115, 4.16.160, 4.16.310, and 4.16.300; adding a new section to chapter 4.22 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 4.24 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 4.56 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 5.40 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 7.70 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 48.19 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 48.22 RCW; creating new sections; repealing RCW 4.56.240; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 100. PREAMBLE. Tort law in this state has generally been developed by the courts on a case-by-case basis. While this process has resulted in some significant changes in the law, including amelioration of the harshness of many common law doctrines, the legislature has periodically intervened in order to bring about needed reforms. The purpose of this chapter is to enact further reforms in order to create a more equitable distribution of the cost and risk of injury and increase the availability and affordability of insurance.

The legislature finds that counties, cities, and other governmental entities are faced with increased exposure to lawsuits and awards and dramatic increases in the cost of insurance coverage. These escalating costs ultimately affect the public through higher taxes, loss of essential services, and loss of the protection provided by adequate insurance. In order to improve the availability and affordability of quality governmental services, comprehensive reform is necessary.

The legislature also finds comparable cost increases in professional liability insurance. Escalating malpractice insurance premiums discourage physicians and other health care providers from initiating or continuing their practice or offering needed services to the public and contribute to the rising costs of consumer health care. Other professionals, such as architects and engineers, face similar difficult choices, financial instability, and unlimited risk in providing services to the public.

The legislature also finds that general liability insurance is becoming unavailable or unaffordable to many businesses, individuals, and nonprofit organizations in amounts sufficient to cover potential losses. High premiums have discouraged socially and economically desirable activities and encourage many to go without adequate insurance coverage.

Therefore, it is the intent of the legislature to reduce costs associated with the tort system, while assuring that adequate and appropriate compensation for persons injured through the fault of others is available.

PART I ACCELERATED PHYSICIAN-PATIENT PRIVILEGE

Sec. 101. Section 294, page 187, Laws of 1854 as last amended by section 1, chapter 56, Laws of 1982 and RCW 5.60.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A husband shall not be examined for or against his wife, without the consent of the wife, nor a wife for or against her husband without the consent of the husband; nor can either during marriage or afterward, be without the consent of the other, examined as to any communication made by one to the other during marriage. But this exception shall not apply to a civil action or proceeding by one against the other, nor to a criminal action or proceeding for a crime committed by one against the other, nor to a criminal action or proceeding against a spouse if the marriage occurred subsequent to the filing of formal charges against the defendant, nor to a criminal action or proceeding for a crime committed by said husband or wife against any child of whom said husband or wife is the parent or guardian, nor to a proceeding under chapter 71.05 RCW: PROVIDED, That the spouse of a person sought to be detained under chapter 71.05 RCW may not be compelled to testify and shall be so informed by the court prior to being called as a witness.

(2) An attorney or counselor shall not, without the consent of his client, be examined as to any communication made by the client to him, or his advice given thereon in the course of professional employment.

(3) A clergyman or priest shall not, without the consent of a person making the confession, be examined as to any confession made to him in his professional character, in the course of discipline enjoined by the church to which he belongs.

(4) A ((regular)) physician or surgeon or osteopathic physician or surgeon shall not, without the consent of his patient, be examined in a civil action as to any information acquired in attending such patient, which was necessary to enable him to prescribe or act for the patient, (~~but this exception shall not apply in any judicial proceeding regarding a child's injuries, neglect or sexual abuse, or the cause thereof~~) except as follows:

(a) In any judicial proceedings regarding a child's injury, neglect, or sexual abuse or the cause thereof; and

(b) Within ninety days of filing an action for personal injuries or wrongful death, the claimant shall elect whether or not to waive the physician-patient privilege. If the claimant does not waive the physician-patient privilege, the claimant may not put his or her mental or physical condition or that of his or her decedent or beneficiaries in issue and may not waive the privilege later in the proceedings. Waiver of the physician-patient privilege for any one physician or condition constitutes a waiver of the privilege as to all physicians or conditions, subject to such limitations as a court may impose pursuant to court rules.

(5) A public officer shall not be examined as a witness as to communications made to him in official confidence, when the public interest would suffer by the disclosure.

PART II ATTORNEYS' FEES

NEW SECTION. Sec. 201. A new section is added to chapter 4.24 RCW to read as follows:

The court shall, upon petition by a named party in any tort action, except those provided for in RCW 7.70.070, determine the reasonableness of that party's attorneys' fees. The court shall take into consideration the following:

- (1) The time and labor required, the novelty and difficulty of the questions involved, and the skill requisite to perform the legal service properly;
- (2) The likelihood, if apparent to the client, that the acceptance of the particular employment will preclude other employment by the lawyer;
- (3) The fee customarily charged in the locality for similar legal services;
- (4) The amount involved and the results obtained;
- (5) The time limitations imposed by the client or by the circumstances;
- (6) The nature and length of the professional relationship with the client;
- (7) The experience, reputation, and ability of the lawyer or lawyers performing the services;
- (8) Whether the fee is fixed or contingent;
- (9) Whether the fixed or contingent fee agreement was in writing and whether the client was aware of his or her right to petition the court under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 202. Section 201 of this act applies to agreements for attorney's fees entered into after the effective date of this section.

PART III
LIMITATION ON NONECONOMIC DAMAGES

NEW SECTION. Sec. 301. A new section is added to chapter 4.56 RCW to read as follows:

(1) As used in this section, the following terms have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(a) "Economic damages" means objectively verifiable monetary losses, including medical expenses, loss of earnings, burial costs, loss of use of property, cost of replacement or repair, cost of obtaining substitute domestic services, loss of employment, and loss of business or employment opportunities.

(b) "Noneconomic damages" means subjective, nonmonetary losses, including, but not limited to pain, suffering, inconvenience, mental anguish, disability or disfigurement incurred by the injured party, emotional distress, loss of society and companionship, loss of consortium, injury to reputation and humiliation, and destruction of the parent-child relationship.

(c) "Bodily injury" means physical injury, sickness, or disease, including death.

(d) "Average annual wage" means the average annual wage in the state of Washington as determined under RCW 50.04.355.

(2) In no action seeking damages for personal injury or death may a claimant recover a judgment for noneconomic damages exceeding an amount determined by multiplying 0.43 by the average annual wage and by the life expectancy of the person incurring noneconomic damages, as the life expectancy is determined by the life expectancy tables adopted by the insurance commissioner. For purposes of determining the maximum amount allowable for noneconomic damages, a claimant's life expectancy shall not be less than fifteen years. The limitation contained in this subsection applies to all claims for noneconomic damages made by a claimant who incurred bodily injury. Claims for loss of consortium, loss of society and companionship, destruction of the parent-child relationship, and all other derivative claims asserted by persons who did not sustain bodily injury are to be included within the limitation on claims for noneconomic damages arising from the same bodily injury.

(3) If a case is tried to a jury, the jury shall not be informed of the limitation contained in subsection (2) of this section.

PART IV
APPORTIONMENT OF DAMAGES

NEW SECTION. Sec. 401. A new section is added to chapter 4.22 RCW to read as follows:

(1) In all actions involving fault of more than one entity, the trier of fact shall determine the percentage of the total fault which is attributable to every entity which caused the claimant's damages, including the claimant or person suffering personal injury or incurring property damage, defendants, third-party defendants, entities released by the claimant, entities immune from liability to the claimant and entities with any other individual defense against the claimant. Judgment shall be entered against each defendant except those who have been released by the claimant or are immune from liability to the claimant or have prevailed on any other individual defense against the claimant in an amount which represents that party's proportionate share of the claimant's total damages. The liability of each defendant shall be several only and shall not be joint except:

(a) A party shall be responsible for the fault of another person or for payment of the proportionate share of another party where both were acting in concert or when a person was acting as an agent or servant of the party.

(b) If the trier of fact determines that the claimant or party suffering bodily injury or incurring property damages was not at fault, the defendants against whom judgment is entered shall be jointly and severally liable for the sum of their proportionate shares of the claimant's total damages.

(2) If a defendant is jointly and severally liable under one of the exceptions listed in subsections (1)(a) or (1)(b) of this section, such defendant's rights to contribution against another jointly and severally liable defendant, and the effect of settlement by either such defendant, shall be determined under RCW 4.22.040, 4.22.050, and 4.22.060.

(3)(a) Nothing in this section affects any cause of action relating to hazardous wastes or substances or solid waste disposal sites.

(b) Nothing in this section shall affect a cause of action arising from the tortious interference with contracts or business relations.

(c) Nothing in this section shall affect any cause of action arising from the manufacture or marketing of a fungible product in a generic form which contains no clearly identifiable shape, color, or marking.

Sec. 402. Section 11, chapter 27, Laws of 1981 and RCW 4.22.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Except as otherwise provided in section 401 of this 1986 act, if more than one person is liable to a claimant on an indivisible claim for the same injury, death or harm, the liability of such persons shall be joint and several.

Sec. 403. Section 4, chapter 85, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 5, chapter 218, Laws of 1984 and RCW 51.24.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If the injured worker or beneficiary elects to seek damages from the third person, any recovery made shall be distributed as follows:

(a) The costs and reasonable attorneys' fees shall be paid proportionately by the injured worker or beneficiary and the department and/or self-insurer;

(b) The injured worker or beneficiary shall be paid twenty-five percent of the balance of the award: PROVIDED, That in the event of a compromise and settlement by the parties, the injured worker or beneficiary may agree to a sum less than twenty-five percent;

(c) The department and/or self-insurer shall be paid the balance of the recovery made, but only to the extent necessary to reimburse the department and/or self-insurer for compensation and benefits paid;

(i) The department and/or self-insurer shall bear its proportionate share of the costs and reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the worker or beneficiary to the extent of the benefits paid or payable under this title: PROVIDED, That the department or self-insurer may require court approval of costs and attorneys' fees or may petition a court for determination of the reasonableness of costs and attorneys' fees.

(ii) The sum representing the department's and/or self-insurer's proportionate share shall not be subject to subsection (1) (d) and (e) of this section.

(d) Any remaining balance shall be paid to the injured worker or beneficiary;

(e) Thereafter no payment shall be made to or on behalf of a worker or beneficiary by the department and/or self-insurer for such injury until the amount of any further compensation and benefits shall equal any such remaining balance. Thereafter, such benefits shall be paid by the department and/or self-insurer to or on behalf of the worker or beneficiary as though no recovery had been made from a third person;

(f) If the employer or a co-employee are determined under section 401 of this 1986 act to be at fault, (c) and (e) of this subsection do not apply and benefits shall be paid by the department and/or self-insurer to or on behalf of the worker or beneficiary as though no recovery had been made from a third person.

(2) The recovery made shall be subject to a lien by the department and/or self-insurer for its share under this section.

(3) The department or self-insurer has sole discretion to compromise the amount of its lien. In deciding whether or to what extent to compromise its lien, the department or self-insurer shall consider at least the following:

(a) The likelihood of collection of the award or settlement as may be affected by insurance coverage, solvency, or other factors relating to the third person;

(b) Factual and legal issues of liability as between the injured worker or beneficiary and the third person. Such issues include but are not limited to possible contributory negligence and novel theories of liability; and

(c) Problems of proof faced in obtaining the award or settlement.

(4) In the case of an employer not qualifying as a self-insurer, the department shall make a retroactive adjustment to such employer's experience rating in which the third party claim has been included to reflect that portion of the award or settlement which is reimbursed for compensation and benefits paid and, if the claim is open at the time of recovery, applied against further compensation and benefits to which the injured worker or beneficiary may be entitled.

(5) In an action under this section, the self-insurer may act on behalf and for the benefit of the department to the extent of any compensation and benefits paid or payable from state funds.

(6) It shall be the duty of the person to whom any recovery is paid before distribution under this section to advise the department or self-insurer of the fact and amount of such recovery, the costs and reasonable attorneys' fees associated with the recovery, and to distribute the recovery in compliance with this section.

(7) The distribution of any recovery made by award or settlement of the third party action shall be confirmed by department order, served by registered or certified mail, and shall be subject to chapter 51.52 RCW. In the event the order of distribution becomes final under chapter 51.52 RCW, the director or the director's designee may file with the clerk of any county within the state a warrant in the amount of the sum representing the unpaid lien plus interest accruing from the date the order became final. The clerk of the county in which the warrant is filed shall immediately designate a superior court cause number for such warrant and the clerk shall cause to be entered in the judgment docket under the superior court cause number assigned to the warrant, the name of such worker or beneficiary mentioned in the warrant, the amount of the unpaid lien plus interest accrued and the date when the warrant was filed. The amount of such warrant as docketed shall become a lien upon the title to and interest in all real and personal property of the injured worker or beneficiary against whom the warrant is issued, the same as a judgment in a civil case docketed in the office of such clerk. The sheriff shall then proceed in the same manner and with like effect as prescribed by law with respect to execution or other process issued against rights or property upon judgment in the superior court. Such warrant so docketed shall be sufficient to support the issuance of writs of garnishment in favor of the department in the manner provided by law in the case of judgment, wholly or partially unsatisfied. The clerk of the court shall be entitled to a filing fee of five dollars, which shall be added to the amount of the warrant. A copy of such warrant shall be mailed to the injured worker or beneficiary within three days of filing with the clerk.

(8) The director, or the director's designee, may issue to any person, firm, corporation, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, public corporation, or agency of the state, a notice and order to withhold and deliver property of any kind if he or she has reason to believe that there is in the possession of such person, firm, corporation, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, public corporation, or agency of the state, property which is due, owing, or belonging to any worker or beneficiary upon whom a warrant has been served by the department for payments due to the state fund. The notice and order to withhold and deliver shall be served by the sheriff of the county or by the sheriff's deputy, or by any authorized representatives of the director. Any person, firm, corporation, municipal corporation, political subdivision of the state, public corporation, or agency of the state upon whom service has been made shall answer the notice within twenty days exclusive of the day of service, under oath and in writing, and shall make true answers to the matters inquired of in the notice and order to withhold and deliver. In the event there is in the possession of the party named and served with such notice and order, any property which may be subject to the claim of the department, such property shall be delivered forthwith to the director or the director's authorized representative upon demand. If the party served and named in the notice and order fails to answer the notice and order within the time prescribed in this section, the court may, after the time to answer such order has expired, render judgment by default against the party named in the notice for the full amount claimed by the director in the notice together with costs. In the event that a notice to withhold and deliver is served upon an employer and the property found to be subject thereto is wages, the employer may assert in the answer to all exemptions provided for by chapter 7.33 RCW to which the wage earner may be entitled.

PART V LIMITATION OF ACTIONS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 501. A new section is added to chapter 4.24 RCW to read as follows:

It is a complete defense to any action for damages for personal injury or wrongful death that the person injured or killed was engaged in the commission of a felony, if the felony was causally related to the injury or death in time, place, or activity. However, nothing in this section shall affect a right of action under 42 U.S.C. Sec. 1983.

Sec. 502. Section 1, chapter 80, Laws of 1971 as amended by section 1, chapter 56, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 4.16.350 are each amended to read as follows:

Any civil action for damages for injury occurring as a result of health care which is provided after June 25, 1976 against:

(1) A person licensed by this state to provide health care or related services, including, but not limited to, a physician, osteopathic physician, dentist, nurse, optometrist, podiatrist, chiropractor, physical therapist, psychologist, pharmacist, optician, physician's assistant, osteopathic physician's assistant, nurse practitioner, or physician's trained mobile intensive care paramedic, including, in the event such person is deceased, his estate or personal representative;

(2) An employee or agent of a person described in subsection (1) of this section, acting in the course and scope of his employment, including, in the event such employee or agent is deceased, his estate or personal representative; or

(3) An entity, whether or not incorporated, facility, or institution employing one or more persons described in subsection (1) of this section, including, but not limited to, a hospital, clinic, health maintenance organization, or nursing home; or an officer, director, employee, or agent thereof acting in the course and scope of his employment, including, in the event such officer, director, employee, or agent is deceased, his estate or personal representative; based upon alleged professional negligence shall be commenced within three years of the act or omission alleged to have caused the injury or condition, or one year of the time the patient or his representative discovered or reasonably should have discovered that the injury or condition was caused by said act or omission, whichever period expires later, except that in no event shall an action be commenced more than eight years after said act or omission; PROVIDED, That the time for commencement of an action is tolled upon proof of fraud, intentional concealment, or the presence of a foreign body not intended to have a therapeutic diagnostic purpose or effect.

For purposes of this section, notwithstanding RCW 4.16.190, the knowledge of a custodial parent or guardian shall be imputed to a person under the age or eighteen years. Any action not commenced in accordance with this section shall be barred(~~(-PROVIDED, That the limitations in this section shall not apply to persons under a legal disability as defined in RCW 4.16.190)).~~

PART VI INDEMNIFICATION AGREEMENTS

Sec. 601. Section 2, chapter 46, Laws of 1967 ex. sess. and RCW 4.24.115 are each amended to read as follows:

A covenant, promise, agreement or understanding in, or in connection with or collateral to, a contract or agreement relative to the construction, alteration, repair, addition to, subtraction from, improvement to, or maintenance of, any building, highway, road, railroad, excavation, or other structure, project, development, or improvement attached to real estate, including moving and demolition in connection therewith, purporting to indemnify against liability for damages arising out of bodily injury to persons or damage to property:

(1) Caused by or resulting from the sole negligence of the indemnitee, his agents or employees is against public policy and is void and unenforceable;

(2) Caused by or resulting from the concurrent negligence of (a) the indemnitee or the indemnitee's agents or employees, and (b) the indemnitor or the indemnitor's agents or employees, is valid and enforceable only to the extent of the indemnitor's negligence and only if the agreement specifically and expressly provides therefor, and may waive the indemnitor's immunity under industrial insurance, Title 51 RCW, only if the agreement specifically and expressly provides therefor and the waiver was mutually negotiated by the parties. This subsection applies to agreements entered into after the effective date of this 1986 section.

PART VII BUILDER LIMITATION

Sec. 701. Section 2, chapter 43, Laws of 1955 and RCW 4.16.160 are each amended to read as follows:

The limitations prescribed in this chapter shall apply to actions brought in the name or for the benefit of any county or other municipality or quasimunicipality of the state, in the same manner as to actions brought by private parties: PROVIDED, That, except as provided in RCW 4.16-.310, there shall be no limitation to actions brought in the name or for the benefit of the state, and no claim of right predicated upon the lapse of time shall ever be asserted against the state: AND FURTHER PROVIDED, That no previously existing statute of limitations shall be interposed as a defense to any action brought in the name or for the benefit of the state, although such statute may have run and become fully operative as a defense prior to February 27, 1903, nor shall any cause of action against the state be predicated upon such a statute.

Sec. 702. Section 2, chapter 75, Laws of 1967 and RCW 4.16.310 are each amended to read as follows:

All claims or causes of action as set forth in RCW 4.16.300 shall accrue, and the applicable statute of limitation shall begin to run only during the period within six years after substantial completion of construction, or during the period within six years after the termination of the services enumerated in RCW 4.16.300, whichever is later. The phrase "substantial completion of construction" shall mean the state of completion reached when an improvement upon real property may be used or occupied for its intended use. Any cause of action which has not accrued within six years after such substantial completion of construction, or within six years after such termination of services, whichever is later, shall be barred: PROVIDED, That this limitation shall not be asserted as a defense by any owner, tenant or other person in possession and control of the improvement at the time such cause of action accrues. The limitations prescribed in this section apply to all claims or causes of action as set forth in RCW 4.16.300 brought in the name or for the benefit of the state which are made or commenced after the effective date of this 1986 section.

Sec. 703. Section 1, chapter 75, Laws of 1967 and RCW 4.16.300 are each amended to read as follows:

RCW 4.16.300 through 4.16.320 shall apply to all claims or causes of action of any kind against any person, arising from such person having constructed, altered or repaired any improvement upon real property, or having performed or furnished any design, planning, surveying, architectural or construction or engineering services, or supervision or observation of construction, or administration of construction contracts for any construction, alteration or repair of any improvement upon real property. This section is intended to benefit only those persons referenced herein and shall not apply to claims or causes of action against manufacturers.

PART VIII PERIODIC PAYMENTS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 801. A new section is added to chapter 4.56 RCW to read as follows:

(1) In an action based on fault seeking damages for personal injury or property damage in which a verdict or award for future economic damages of at least one hundred thousand dollars is made, the court or arbitrator shall, at the request of a party, enter a judgment which provides for the periodic payment in whole or in part of the future economic damages. With respect to the judgment, the court or arbitrator shall make a specific finding as to the dollar amount of periodic payments intended to compensate the judgment creditor for the future economic damages.

(2) Prior to entry of judgment, the court shall request each party to submit a proposal for periodic payment of future economic damages to compensate the claimant. Proposals shall include provisions for: The name of the recipient or recipients of the payments, the dollar amount of the payments, the interval between payments, the number of payments or the period of time over which the payments shall be made, modification for hardship or unforeseen circumstances, posting of adequate security, and any other factor the court deems relevant under the circumstances. After each party has submitted a proposal, the court shall select the proposal, with any changes the court deems proper, which in the discretion of the court and the interests of justice best provides for the future needs of the claimant and enter judgment accordingly.

(3) If the court enters a judgment for periodic payments and any security required by the judgment is not posted within thirty days, the court shall enter a judgment for the payment of future damages in a lump sum.

(4) If at any time following entry of judgment for periodic payments, a judgment debtor fails for any reason to make a payment in a timely fashion according to the terms of the judgment, the judgment creditor may petition the court for an order requiring payment by the judgment debtor of the outstanding payments in a lump sum. In calculating the amount of the lump sum judgment, the court shall total the remaining periodic payments due and owing to the judgment creditor converted to present value. The court may also require payment of interest on the outstanding judgment.

(5) Upon the death of the judgment creditor, the court which rendered the original judgment may, upon petition of any party in interest, modify the judgment to award and apportion the unpaid future damages. Money damages awarded for loss of future earnings shall not be reduced or payments terminated by reason of the death of the judgment creditor.

(6) Upon satisfaction of a periodic payment judgment, any obligation of the judgment debtor to make further payments shall cease and any security posted pursuant to this section shall revert to the judgment debtor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 802. Section 5, chapter 56, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 4.56.240 are each repealed.

PART IX MISCELLANEOUS

NEW SECTION. Sec. 901. A new section is added to chapter 5.40 RCW to read as follows:

A breach of a duty imposed by statute, ordinance, or administrative rule shall not be considered negligence per se, but may be considered by the trier of fact as evidence of negligence; however, any breach of duty as provided by statute, ordinance, or administrative rule relating to electrical fire safety, the use of smoke alarms, or driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug, shall be considered negligence per se.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 902. A new section is added to chapter 5.40 RCW to read as follows:

It is a complete defense to an action for damages for personal injury or wrongful death that the person injured or killed was under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug and that such condition contributed more than fifty percent to his or her injuries or death. If the amount of alcohol in a person's blood is shown by chemical analysis of his or her blood, breath, or other bodily substance to have been 0.10 percent or more by weight of alcohol in the blood, it is conclusive proof that the person was under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 903. A new section is added to chapter 4.24 RCW to read as follows:

(1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, a member of the board of directors or an officer of any nonprofit corporation is not civilly liable for any act or omission in the course and scope of his or her official capacity unless the act or omission constitutes gross negligence.

(2) Nothing in this section shall limit or modify in any manner the duties or liabilities of a director or officer of a corporation to the corporation or the corporation's shareholders.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 904. A new section is added to chapter 4.24 RCW to read as follows:

A member of the board of directors or a superintendent of any school district is not civilly liable for any act or omission in the course and scope of his or her official capacity unless the act or omission constitutes gross negligence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 905. A new section is added to chapter 7.70 RCW to read as follows:

Members of the board of directors or other governing body of a public or private hospital are not individually liable for injuries resulting from health care administered by a health care provider granted privileges to provide health care at the hospital unless the decision to grant the privilege to provide health care at the hospital constitutes gross negligence.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 906. A new section is added to chapter 48.22 RCW to read as follows:

The commissioner shall by regulation require insurers authorized to write casualty insurance in this state to form a market assistance plan to assist persons and other entities unable to purchase casualty insurance in an adequate amount from either the admitted market or nonadmitted market.

For the purpose of this section, a market assistance plan means a voluntary mechanism by insurers writing casualty insurance in this state in either the admitted or nonadmitted market to provide casualty insurance for a class of insurance designated in writing to the plan by the commissioner.

The bylaws and method of operation of any market assistance plan shall be approved by the commissioner prior to its operation.

A market assistance plan shall have a minimum of twenty-five insurers willing to insure risks within the class designated by the commissioner. If twenty-five insurers do not voluntarily agree to participate, the commissioner may require casualty insurers to participate in a market assistance plan as a condition of continuing to do business in this state. The commissioner shall make such a requirement to fulfill the quota of at least twenty-five insurers. The commissioner shall make his or her designation on the basis of the insurer's premium volume of casualty insurance in this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 907. A new section is added to chapter 48.19 RCW to read as follows:

The commissioner shall, in reviewing a casualty rate filing, determine in accordance with sound and reliable actuarial principles whether this act requires an insurer to grant its policyholders a credit in such casualty rate filing. Upon determining that data in support of such a credit is actuarially credible, the commissioner shall approve or disapprove such casualty rate filing in accordance therewith. The commissioner shall not approve any casualty rate that is inadequate, excessive, or unfairly discriminatory.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 908. The commissioner shall, as chairman of the tort reform study commission, require the task force to study the effectiveness of joint underwriting authorities throughout the United States to specifically determine:

(1) The price as it relates to a filed Insurance Services Organization rate;

(2) The solvency of such mechanisms;

(3) The effect it has on the admitted market;

(4) The effect it has on the nonadmitted market;

(5) The effect or availability on the voluntary market; and

(6) What effect it has on lines or classes of insurance not designated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 909. The insurance commissioner shall submit a report to the legislature by January 1, 1991, on the effects of this act on insurance rates and the availability of insurance coverage and the impact on the civil justice system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 910. Except as provided in sections 202 and 601 of this act and except for section 904 of this act, this act applies to all actions filed on or after August 1, 1986.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 911. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 912. Section 904 of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the Senate March 10, 1986.

Passed the House March 6, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

[Substitute House Bill No. 378]

RETIREMENT BENEFITS—POSTRETIREMENT COST OF LIVING ADJUSTMENTS

AN ACT Relating to postretirement cost of living adjustments; amending RCW 41.32-.485 and 41.40.198; adding a new section to chapter 43.88 RCW; making an appropriation; and providing an effective date.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 43.88 RCW to read as follows:

The omnibus biennial operating appropriations act shall include an appropriation for the full amount that will be paid out during the biennium under any postretirement cost-of-living adjustment adopted after the effective date of this act.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 96, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 41.32-.485 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, effective July 1, (~~1979~~) 1986, as a cost-of-living adjustment, no beneficiary receiving a retirement allowance pursuant to this chapter shall receive, as the pension portion of that retirement allowance, less than (~~ten~~) thirteen dollars per month for each year of service creditable to the person whose service is the basis of the pension. Portions of a year shall be treated as fractions of a year and the decimal equivalent shall be multiplied by (~~ten~~) thirteen dollars. Where the pension payable was adjusted at the time benefit payments to the beneficiary commenced, the minimum pension provided in this section shall be adjusted in a manner consistent with that adjustment.

(2) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, effective July 1, 1979, the retirement allowance of each beneficiary who either is receiving benefits pursuant to RCW 41.32.520 or 41.32.550 as of December 31, 1978, or commenced receiving a monthly retirement allowance under this chapter as of a date no later than July 1, 1974, shall be permanently increased by a post-retirement adjustment. This adjustment shall be in lieu of any adjustments provided under RCW 41.32.499(6) as of July 1, 1979, or July 1, 1980, for the affected beneficiaries. Such adjustment shall be calculated as follows:

(a) Retirement allowances to which this subsection and subsection (1) of this section are both applicable shall be determined by first applying subsection (1) and then applying this subsection. The department shall determine the total years of creditable service and the total dollar benefit base accrued as of December 31, 1978, except that this determination shall take into account only those beneficiaries to whom this subsection applies;

(b) The department shall multiply the total benefits determined in (a) of this subsection by six percent and divide the dollar value thus determined by the total service determined in (a) of this subsection. The resultant figure shall then be a post-retirement increase factor which shall be applied as specified in (c) of this subsection;

(c) Each beneficiary to whom this subsection applies shall receive an increase which is the product of the factor determined in (b) of this subsection multiplied by the years of creditable service.

(3) The provisions of subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall not be applicable to those receiving benefits pursuant to RCW 41.32.540 or 41.32-.760 through 41.32.825.

Sec. 3. Section 1, chapter 96, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 41.40-.198 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, effective July 1, ~~((1979))~~ 1986, as a cost-of-living adjustment, no beneficiary receiving a retirement allowance pursuant to this chapter shall receive, as the pension portion of that retirement allowance, less than ~~((ten))~~ thirteen dollars per month for each year of service creditable to the person whose service is the basis of the pension. Portions of a year shall be treated as fractions of a year and the decimal equivalent shall be multiplied by ~~((ten))~~ thirteen dollars. Where the pension payable was adjusted at the time benefit payments to the beneficiary commenced, the minimum pension provided in this section shall be adjusted in a manner consistent with that adjustment.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) of this section shall not be applicable to those receiving benefits pursuant to RCW 41.40.220(1), 41.44.170(5), or 41.40.610 through 41.40.740. For persons who served as elected officials and whose accumulated employee contributions and credited interest was less than seven hundred fifty dollars at the time of retirement, the minimum benefit under subsection (1) of this section shall be ten dollars per month for each year of creditable service.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is appropriated five million three hundred thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, from the general fund for the purposes of paying the cost-of-living adjustments provided in sections 2 and 3 of this 1986 act. Of this amount, two million dollars shall be deposited in the teachers' retirement fund and three million three hundred thousand dollars shall be deposited in the public employees' retirement fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. This act shall take effect on July 1, 1986.

Passed the House March 11, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 10, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

CHAPTER 307

[Substitute House Bill No. 1967]

COUNTY FAIRS—NORTHERN STATE HOSPITAL TO BE LEASED AS A FAIR SITE—LEASE OF NONTRUST STATE LANDS

AN ACT Relating to county fairs; adding new sections to chapter 36.37 RCW; and creating a new section.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that county fairs provide unique educational opportunities to the people of this state and are a public purpose. By helping counties acquire lands for county fairs, the legislature intends to preserve and enhance the educational opportunities of the people of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 36.37 RCW to read as follows:

If requested by a county legislative authority, the department of natural resources shall negotiate a lease for any requested portion of the state lands directly adjacent to buildings on the Northern State Hospital site that were transferred to the department under chapter 178, Laws of 1974 ex. sess., if not otherwise prohibited, to the county to use for the purpose of establishing county fairgrounds. However, the portion to be leased shall be contiguous and compact, of an area not to exceed two hundred fifty acres and shall be segregated in such a manner that the remaining portion of these state lands can be efficiently managed by the department. The lease shall be for as long as the county is actually using the land as the site of the county fairgrounds. Notwithstanding chapter 178, Laws of 1974 ex. sess., the department shall charge the county the sum of one thousand dollars per year for the lease of such lands and this sum may be periodically adjusted to compensate the department for any increased costs in administration of the lease. The lease shall contain provisions directing payment of all assessments and authorizing the county to place any improvements on the leased lands if the improvements are consistent with the purposes of county fairs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 36.37 RCW to read as follows:

If requested by a county legislative authority, an agency of the state managing state-owned lands, other than state trust lands, shall consider leasing a requested portion of these lands that are not used for any significant purpose and if not otherwise prohibited, to the county to be used as county fairgrounds. If it is determined that such a lease shall be made, the agency in setting lease charges shall consider the fair market return for leasing the land, the public benefit for leasing the land to the county for county fair purposes at a level below the fair market return, and other appropriate factors.

CHAPTER 308

[House Bill No. 1825]

TOURISM IN DISTRESSED AREAS—TALL SHIPS—PARKING FACILITIES ARE INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT FACILITIES

AN ACT Relating to tourism in distressed areas; and amending RCW 67.28.210 and 39.84.020.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 14, chapter 236, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 5, chapter 222, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 67.28.210 are each amended to read as follows:

All taxes levied and collected under RCW 67.28.180 shall be credited to a special fund in the treasury of the county or city imposing such tax. Such taxes shall be levied only for the purpose of paying all or any part of the cost of acquisition, construction, or operating of stadium facilities, convention center facilities, performing arts center facilities, and/or visual arts center facilities or to pay or secure the payment of all or any portion of general obligation bonds or revenue bonds issued for such purpose or purposes under this chapter, or to pay for advertising, publicizing, or otherwise distributing information for the purpose of attracting visitors and encouraging tourist expansion when a county or city has imposed such tax for such purpose, or as one of the purposes hereunder, and until withdrawn for use, the moneys accumulated in such fund or funds may be invested in interest bearing securities by the county or city treasurer in any manner authorized by law. In addition such taxes may be used to develop strategies to expand tourism in distressed areas, as defined in RCW 43.165.010: PROVIDED, That any county, and any city within a county, bordering upon Grays Harbor may use the proceeds of such taxes for construction and maintenance of a movable tall ships tourist attraction in cooperation with a tall ships restoration society, except to the extent that such proceeds are used for payment of principal and interest on debt incurred prior to the effective date of this 1986 act.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 300, Laws of 1981 as last amended by section 1, chapter 439, Laws of 1985 and RCW 39.84.020 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in this chapter, the following terms have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Board of directors" means the board of directors of a public corporation.

(2) "Construction" or "construct" means construction and acquisition, whether by devise, purchase, gift, lease, or otherwise.

(3) "Facilities" means land, rights in land, buildings, structures, docks, wharves, machinery, transmission equipment, landscaping, utilities, approaches, roadways and parking, handling and storage areas, and similar ancillary facilities.

(4) "Financing document" means a lease, sublease, installment sale agreement, conditional sale agreement, loan agreement, mortgage, deed of trust guaranty agreement, or other agreement for the purpose of providing funds to pay or secure debt service on revenue bonds.

(5) "Improvement" means reconstruction, remodeling, rehabilitation, extension, and enlargement; and "to improve" means to reconstruct, to remodel, to rehabilitate, to extend, and to enlarge.

(6) "Industrial development facilities" means manufacturing, processing, research, production, assembly, warehousing, transportation, pollution control, solid waste disposal, energy facilities, sports facilities, parking facilities associated with industrial development facilities as defined in this section or with historic properties as defined in RCW 84.26.020 and industrial parks. CHAPTER 310

[Substitute Senate Bill No. 4676]

WORKER RIGHT TO KNOW FUND—EMPLOYER ASSESSMENTS, FEES, PENALTIES

AN ACT Relating to worker right to know fund; amending RCW 49.70.170; and adding a new section to chapter 49.70 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 24, chapter 289, Laws of 1984 and RCW 49.70.170 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The worker and community right to know fund is hereby established in the custody of the state treasurer. The department shall deposit all moneys received under this chapter in the fund. Moneys in the fund may be spent only for the purposes of this chapter following legislative appropriation. Disbursements from the fund shall be on authorization of the director or the director's designee. The fund is subject to the allotment procedure provided under chapter 43.88 RCW.

(2) The department shall ~~((after July 1, 1985, assess each employer a fee of seventy-five cents per employee to provide for the implementation of the provisions of this chapter. After this initial assessment, the fees shall be based on a fee schedule developed by the department and shall be collected only from those employers who have hazardous substances present at their workplaces))~~ assess each employer who reported ten thousand four hundred or more worker hours in the prior calendar year an annual fee to provide for the implementation of this chapter. The department shall promulgate rules establishing a fee schedule for all employers who reported ten thousand four hundred or more worker hours in the prior calendar year and are engaged in business operations having a standard industrial classification, as designated in the standard industrial classification manual prepared by the federal office of management and budget, within major group numbers 01 through 08 (agriculture and forestry industries), numbers 10 through 14 (mining industries), numbers 15 through 17 (construction industries), numbers 20 through 39 (manufacturing industries), numbers 41, 42, and 44 through 49 (transportation, communications, electric, gas, and sanitary services), number 75 (automotive repair, services, and garages), number 76 (miscellaneous repair services), number 80 (health services), and number 82 (educational services). The department shall establish the annual fee for each employer who reported ten thousand four hundred or more worker hours in the prior calendar year in industries identified by this section, provided that fees assessed shall not be more than two dollars and fifty cents per full time equivalent employee. The annual fee shall not exceed fifty thousand dollars. The fees shall be collected solely from employers whose industries have been identified by rule under this chapter. The department shall promulgate rules allowing employers who do not have hazardous substances at their workplace to request an exemption from the assessment and shall establish penalties for fraudulent exemption requests. All fees collected by the department pursuant to this section shall be collected in a cost-efficient manner and shall be deposited in the fund.

(3) Records required by this chapter shall at all times be open to the inspection of the director, or his designee including, the traveling auditors, agents or assistants of the department provided for in RCW 51.16.070 and 51.48.040. The information obtained from employer records under the provisions of this section shall be subject to the same confidentiality requirements as set forth in RCW 51.16.070.

(4) An employer may appeal the assessment of the fee or penalties pursuant to the procedures set forth in chapter ((49.17)) Title 51 RCW and accompanying rules except that the employer shall not have the right of appeal to superior court as provided in chapter ((49.17)) Title 51 RCW. The employer from whom the fee or penalty is demanded or enforced, may however, within thirty days of the board of industrial insurance appeal's final order, pay the fee or penalty under written protest setting forth all the grounds upon which such fee or penalty is claimed to be unlawful, excessive or otherwise improper and thereafter bring an action in superior court against the department to recover such fee or penalty or any portion of the fee or penalty which was paid under protest.

(5) Repayment shall be made to the general fund of any moneys appropriated by law in order to implement this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 49.70 RCW to read as follows:

If payment of any fee assessed under RCW 49.70.170 is not received by the department by the due date, there shall be assessed a penalty of five percent of the amount of the fee. If the fee is not received within thirty days after the due date, there shall be assessed a total penalty of ten percent of the amount of the fee. If the fee is not received within sixty days after the due date, there shall be assessed a total penalty of twenty percent of the amount of the fee. No penalty added may be less than ten dollars. If a warrant is issued by the department for the collection of fees, penalties, and interest, there shall be an additional penalty of five percent of the amount of the fee, but not less than five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars. Warrants shall earn interest at the rate of one percent per month, or fraction thereof, from and after the date of entry of the warrant. The department may utilize the procedures for collection of fees, penalties, and interest set forth in Title 51 RCW.

Passed the Senate March 8, 1986.

Passed the House March 5, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

FIRE PROTECTION DISTRICT CONTRACT AUTHORITY REVISED

AN ACT Relating to fire protection by fire protection districts, the department of natural resources, and the department of game on unprotected lands; amending RCW 52.12.031; and adding a new section to chapter 52.12 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 20, chapter 34, Laws of 1939 as last amended by section 1, chapter 238, Laws of 1984 and RCW 52.12.031 are each amended to read as follows:

Any fire protection district organized under this title may:

(1) Lease, acquire, own, maintain, operate, and provide fire and emergency medical apparatus and all other necessary or proper facilities, machinery, and equipment for the prevention and suppression of fires, the providing of emergency medical services and the protection of life and property;

(2) Lease, acquire, own, maintain, and operate real property, improvements, and fixtures for housing, repairing, and maintaining the apparatus, facilities, machinery, and equipment described in subsection (1) of this section;

(3) Contract with any governmental entity or private person or entity to consolidate, provide, or cooperate for fire prevention protection, fire suppression, and emergency medical purposes. In so contracting, the district or governmental entity is deemed for all purposes to be acting within its governmental capacity. This contracting authority includes the furnishing of fire prevention, fire suppression, emergency medical services, facilities, and equipment to or by the district, governmental entity, or private person or entity;

(4) Encourage uniformity and coordination of fire protection district operations. The fire commissioners of fire protection districts may form an association to secure information of value in suppressing and preventing fires and other district purposes, to hold and attend meetings, and to promote more economical and efficient operation of the associated fire protection districts. The commissioners of fire protection districts in the association shall adopt articles of association or articles of incorporation for a nonprofit corporation, select a chairman, secretary, and other officers as they may determine, and may employ and discharge agents and employees as the officers deem convenient to carry out the purposes of the association. The expenses of the association may be paid from funds paid into the association by fire protection districts: PROVIDED, That the aggregate contributions made to the association by a district in a calendar year shall not exceed two and one-half cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation;

(5) Enter into contracts to provide group life insurance for the benefit of the personnel of the fire districts;

(6) Perform building and property inspections that the district deems necessary to provide fire prevention services and pre-fire planning within the district and any area that the district serves by contract in accordance with RCW 19.27.110: PROVIDED, That codes used by the district for building and property inspections shall be limited to the applicable codes adopted by the state, county, city, or town that has jurisdiction over the area in which the property is located. A copy of inspection reports prepared by the district shall be furnished by the district to the appropriate state, county, city, or town that has jurisdiction over the area in which the property is located: PROVIDED, That nothing in this subsection shall be construed to grant code enforcement authority to a district. This subsection shall not be construed as imposing liability on any governmental jurisdiction;

(7) Determine the origin and cause of fires occurring within the district and any area the district serves by contract. In exercising the authority conferred by this subsection, the fire protection district and its authorized representatives shall comply with the provisions of RCW 48.48.060;

(8) Perform acts consistent with this title and not otherwise prohibited by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. A new section is added to chapter 52.12 RCW to read as follows:

Fire protection districts in proximity to land protected by a state agency are encouraged to enter into mutually beneficial contracts covering reciprocal response arrangements. In the absence of such a contractual agreement, a fire protection district that takes immediate action on such land outside of its jurisdictional boundaries, if such immediate response could prevent the spread of the fire onto lands protected by the district, shall be reimbursed by the state agency for its reasonable fire suppression costs that are incurred until the responsible agency takes charge, but in no event shall the costs exceed a twenty-four hour period. A fire protection district suppressing a fire on such lands shall as soon as practicable notify the responsible agency. The state agency shall not be responsible to pay such reimbursement if it is not so notified.

Reasonable efforts shall be taken to protect evidence of the fire's origin. The state agency shall not be responsible to pay such reimbursement if reasonable efforts are not taken to protect such evidence.

Requests for reimbursement shall be submitted within thirty days of the complete suppression of the fire. Reasonable costs submitted for reimbursement include all salaries and expenses of personnel, equipment, and supplies and shall take into consideration the amount of compensation, if any, paid by the fire protection district to its fire fighters.

Passed the Senate March 9, 1986.

Passed the House March 6, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

This amount shall be placed in a reserve account, and the director shall pay to the attorney general such sums, if any, from the account as the attorney general from time to time certifies are required to be paid under the final decision. The director may transfer the balance of the reserve account to the appropriation for fiscal year 1987 as necessary to meet the certified payment requirements. Upon certification by the attorney general that the defense costs in the case have been fully paid, the balance remaining in the reserve account shall lapse.

(5) $200,000 of the fiscal year 1987 general fund appropriation is provided solely for costs related to the governor's advisory council on education funding.

(6) (a) A study to assess the feasibility of establishing an office of state public defender for trial and appellate cases shall be undertaken, to include:

(i) A description of the current system for providing representation to persons accused of crime who would not otherwise be able to afford representation;

(ii) A proposal to establish a state defender program;

(iii) Recommendations for a manner of financing the program;

(iv) Standards and guidelines for determining who should be eligible to receive legal services under the program;

(v) Recommendations for a plan to provide counsel when a conflict of interest would prevent representation by attorneys in the program;

(vi) Standards and guidelines for determining maximum and minimum caseloads for attorneys in the program;

(vii) Recommendations for a plan to train attorneys in the program; and (viii) Mandatory pro bono publico efforts by attorneys.

(b) The study group shall include the following:

(i) One member appointed by the association of Washington cities;

(ii) One member appointed by the Washington association of counties;

(iii) One member appointed by the Seattle-King county public defender;

(iv) One member appointed by Evergreen legal services;

(v) One member appointed by the Washington appellate defender association;

(vi) Two members appointed by the Washington association of prosecuting attorneys;

(vii) One member appointed by the office of the governor;

(viii) One retired judge designated by the chief justice of the supreme court; and

(ix) One member, appointed by the Washington defender association, who is a public defender in a county of the third class or smaller.

(c) The study shall be presented to the judiciary and ways and means committees of the senate and house of representatives no later than January 15, 1987.

The department shall conduct at least one scheduled and one unannounced on-site inspection of each licensed day-care facility during the facility's licensing period. The department shall make available to any parent, guardian, or custodian requesting information about day-care providers, for inspection and copying (with copying fees waivable in cases of hardship), any documents in its possession relating to any licensed day-care facility that are not exempt from public disclosure under chapter 42.17 RCW. The department shall require that every licensed day-care facility display prominently on its premises the address and telephone number of the appropriate local or regional office of the department and the name(s) of any department employee(s) responsible for the licensing and monitoring of the facility.

(6) $3,654,000 for fiscal year 1986, of which $3,370,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation, and $3,654,000 for fiscal year 1987, of which $3,370,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation, are provided solely to increase the safety and quality of care in children's group homes, including the conversion of at least 75 but not more than 143 beds for use in intensive residential treatment of severely disturbed youth at a monthly rate of $2,100 per occupied bed, effective July 1, 1985. The department shall develop and implement written standards as to which children may be placed in residential treatment, clearly distinguishing the residential treatment population from the remaining group care population. As used in this subsection, "residential treatment" includes permanent planning for child placement, counseling of natural parents when appropriate, and recruiting, training, and counseling of adoptive or foster parents when appropriate, for which services the department may develop additional rates. The department shall develop a client outcome monitoring system as part of a specific plan for performance-based contracts whereby a portion of vendor payments for group care and residential treatment is contingent on vendor attainment of client outcome standards to be developed by the department. The plan shall be transmitted to the ways and means committees of the senate and house of representatives and the legislative budget committee by July 1, 1986, and scheduled for implementation on July 1, 1987, pending legislative review.

(7) $615,000 for fiscal year 1986, of which $554,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation, and $615,000 for fiscal year 1987, of which $554,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation, are provided solely to increase vendor rates for family foster care, effective July 1, 1985.

(8) $50,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $50,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—state appropriation are provided solely to increase private agency service fees in connection with foster care placements, effective July 1, 1985.

(9) $17,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $17,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—state appropriation are provided solely to increase vendor rates for group crisis residential centers, effective July 1, 1985.

(10) $51,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $51,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—state appropriation are provided solely to increase vendor rates for family interim care homes, effective July 1, 1985.

(11) $139,000 for fiscal year 1986, of which $132,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation, and $139,000 for fiscal year 1987, of which $132,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation, are provided solely to expand the children's hospitalization alternative program by up to 25 additional beds, including expansion into geographical areas not presently served.

(12) $50,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $50,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—state appropriation are provided solely for emergency medical examinations of child protective services clients who are not eligible for federally matched medical assistance.

(13) ~~$(455,000)~~ 910,000 of the general fund—state appropriation ~~((for fiscal year 1986))~~ is provided solely for contracted services to "street kids." For purposes of this subsection, "street kids" are children between the ages of eight and seventeen who do not receive care, shelter, or supervision from parents or other responsible adults, who are not placed in residential settings by the department, and who are living in a dangerous urban environment. Services may include street outreach, advocacy, counseling, and foster care. Not more than 150 "street kids" may receive services supported under this subsection from any single center at any one time. All programs receiving funds under this subsection shall provide cultural- and language-sensitive services to minority "street kids."

~~((d))~~ (c) $65,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $65,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—state appropriation are provided solely for prospective rate increases for installation of sprinkler systems in facilities not meeting federal and state fire safety requirements.

(3) $63,899,000 for fiscal year 1986, of which $39,543,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation, and $64,554,000 for fiscal year 1987, of which $34,555,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation, are provided solely for community-based long-term care services including congregate care, adult family home care, chore services, home health care, nutrition services, transportation services, and case management services.

(a) Vendor rate adjustments shall average 3% on January 1, 1986.

(b) Adjustments to the clothing and personal incidentals allowance shall average 3% on January 1, 1986.

(c) $80,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $80,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—state appropriation are provided solely to purchase insurance coverage for adult family homes in order to promote participation in the program.

(d) $41,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $41,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—state appropriation are provided solely to extend eligibility for adult family home and congregate care services to adult protective services clients.

(e) $200,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $200,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—state appropriation are provided solely for case management services under the senior citizen services act for adult protective services clients.

(f) $7,558,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $7,666,000 for fiscal year 1987 from the general fund—state appropriation shall be initially allotted for implementation of the senior citizens services act. At least 7 percent of the amount allotted for the senior citizens services act in each fiscal year shall be used for programs that utilize volunteer workers for the provision of chore services to persons whose need for chore services is not being met by the chore services program.

(g) $39,225,000 for fiscal year 1986, of which $25,611,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation, and $39,286,000 for fiscal year 1987, of which $19,762,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation, shall be initially allotted for chore services. The department shall revise eligibility and cost-sharing criteria and/or establish waiting lists for the chore services program, consistent with statute, if necessary to prevent the overexpenditure of moneys allotted for the program in each fiscal year, including state general fund moneys used to match federal moneys under the community options programs entry system.

(4) The bureau of nursing home affairs shall increase patient review staff by two full time equivalents not later than October 1, 1985.

(5) $((~~545,000 for fiscal year 1986~~)) 1,090,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely to continue the three respite care demonstration projects as established and defined under chapter 158, Laws of 1984 until June 30, ((1986)) 1987.

*Sec. 206. Section 208, chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

Total Appropriation	$((787,365,000))
	845,623,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) The department shall continue the aid to families with dependent children program for two-parent families through June 30, 1987.

(2) Not later than October 1, 1985, the department shall adopt by rule medical criteria for general assistance eligibility to ensure that eligibility decisions are consistent with statutory requirements and are based on clear, objective medical information.

(a) The process implementing such medical criteria shall involve consideration of opinions of the treating or consulting physicians or health care professionals regarding incapacity, and any eligibility decision which rejects uncontradicted medical opinion must set forth clear and convincing reasons for doing so.

(b) Recipients of general assistance who remain otherwise eligible shall not have their benefits terminated absent a clear showing of material improvement in their medical or mental condition or specific error in the prior determination that found the recipient eligible by reason of incapacitation.

(3) Grant payment standards and vendor rates shall be increased by 3% on January 1, 1986, above the standards and rates in effect on March 1, 1985, for aid to families with dependent children, general assistance, consolidated emergency assistance, and refugee assistance.

(4) It is the continuing intention of the legislature that payment levels in the aid to families with dependent children, general assistance, and refugee assistance programs contain an energy allowance to offset the high and rising costs of energy and that such allowance be excluded from consideration as income for the purpose of determining eligibility and benefit levels of the food stamp program to the maximum extent such exclusion is authorized under federal law and RCW 74.08.046. To this end, up to $100,000,000 is so designated for exemptions of the following amounts:

Family size:	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8 or more
Exemption:	$30	39	46	56	63	72	84	92

(5) The department shall establish a study committee to examine the general assistance income and medical programs. The committee shall particularly examine the structure of the general assistance—unemployable program as it relates to treatment programs for alcoholism, mental illness, and substance abuse. The committee shall include representatives of affected department programs, treatment providers, community advocacy groups, legal services, and the legislature. The committee shall examine alternative treatment or assistance methods which would help clients to overcome their illnesses, while providing necessary assistance. The report shall include detailed historical and projected income and medical caseload and cost information by client group. The report shall further identify policy changes, statutory or otherwise, which have affected caseload levels and costs. The department shall report the findings and recommendations of the study committee to the appropriate committees of the senate and house of representatives by January 15, 1987.

(6) The department, in cooperation with the department of revenue, shall seek a waiver to delay implementation of the sales tax exemption on food stamp purchases in accordance with Public Law 99-198.

~~((2))~~ (2) Vendor rate adjustments shall average 3% on January 1, 1986.

~~((2))~~ (3) $1,000,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $1,000,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund——state appropriation are provided solely for grants in aid to public and private nonprofit community health centers serving populations that lack access to affordable health care. Grants awarded under this subsection shall be used by the centers to provide primary health care services to persons who have no health care coverage. The grants shall be in addition to any federal or other funding available to the centers. No center may receive funding under this subsection if it fails or refuses to provide medically necessary care on the basis of any patient's inability to pay or lack of coverage, or if it does not contract with the department to provide care under the medical assistance program. Grants shall not be awarded to cover periods exceeding twelve months. The department may audit the books and records of community health centers to assure compliance with the purposes of this subsection. In awarding grants, the secretary shall attempt to provide an equitable distribution of funds based on need throughout the state, including rural areas.

~~((3))~~ (4) $43,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $43,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund——state appropriation are provided solely to implement the provisions of chapter 187, Laws of 1984, regarding standards for organic chemicals in drinking water.

~~((4))~~ (5) $34,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $34,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund——state appropriation are provided solely to implement the provisions of chapter 156, Laws of 1984, regarding compiling of information on sentinel birth defects.

~~((5))~~ (6) $90,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $90,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund——local appropriation are provided solely for monitoring and implementation of health and sanitation standards for agricultural labor camps under chapter 248-63 WAC, as adopted by the state board of health in 1984. In health jurisdictions where there is no agreement with the local health officer for local enforcement of the standards, the department shall enforce the standards and charge fees under RCW 43.20A-.670 in amounts sufficient to cover its enforcement costs.

~~((6))~~ (7) $260,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $276,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund——state appropriation are provided solely for contracts on a competitive selection basis to public and private nonprofit nationally recognized academic or research organizations engaged in cancer research or in research concerning the effects of smoking on the cardiovascular and respiratory systems.

~~((7))~~ (8) $593,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $554,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—local appropriation is provided solely for radiation control activities, including those required under Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3799 and Engrossed Second Substitute House Bill No. 3.

(9) $2,800,000 of the general fund—federal appropriation is provided solely to continue prenatal care services for low-income pregnant women who do not qualify for full coverage under the medical assistance program. The department shall pay for direct prenatal care, including delivery and postpartum medical services, and including the services of licensed nurse midwives where appropriate, as defined by the department, at rates not exceeding those paid under the medical assistance program and only to the extent of available funds. The department may also provide educational services to low-income women regarding the importance of early prenatal care through the development or acquisition of pamphlets or video tapes to be distributed through county health departments, schools, and other appropriate social and health services agencies and organizations. Not later than January 1, 1987, the department shall submit a report to the social and health services and ways and means committees of the senate and house of representatives on the prenatal program. The report shall include definitions of eligibility, numbers of persons served, an estimate of the number of persons potentially eligible for program services and, if the department has requested funding to continue the program in the 1987-89 biennium, a proposal for legislation establishing the program in statute.

(10) $600,000 of the general fund—federal appropriation is provided solely for increased vaccine costs.

(11) $1,000,000 from the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for adult dental services that are not mandated by Title XIX of the federal social security act. The department shall contract for these services with public and private nonprofit community health centers serving populations that lack access to affordable dental health care. The department shall impose such limitations as may be necessary to provide services throughout fiscal year 1987.

Local $		200,000
Total Appropriation	$((47,507,000))
	48,307,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $1,195,000 for fiscal year 1986, of which $359,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation, and $1,597,000 for fiscal year 1987, of which $478,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation, are provided solely to implement the order of the King county superior court in Carter v. Simpson, cause number 82-5-50039-0. If this order is reversed on appeal, the unexpended balance of the amounts provided in this subsection shall revert.

(2) In serving custodial parents not on public assistance who apply for support enforcement services, the department shall, to the maximum extent permitted by federal and state law, give priority to cases in which the custodial parent is at risk of becoming eligible for aid to families with dependent children.

(3) The department shall study and make recommendations to the legislature regarding a comprehensive and equitable plan for determining financial responsibility of clients and relatives of clients who receive department-provided or department-funded services. A committee shall be established to oversee the study, to be composed of representatives of the department, the affected population, the public, and other branches of government, including both caucuses of both houses of the legislature. The secretary of social and health services, or the secretary's designee, shall serve as chairperson of the committee. The study shall consider the legal, ethical, financial, managerial, and pragmatic consequences of the imposition of financial responsibility on utilizers of services provided or funded by the department. The study specifically shall address, but is not limited to:

(a) The level of financial responsibility assessed under existing statutes and policy for utilization of various department services by clients and their responsible relatives;

(b) The effect of financial responsibility on discouraging the utilization of necessary services provided by the department; and

(c) An equitable method of assessing the amount of financial responsibility.

The study findings shall be submitted to the appropriate committees of the house of representatives and the senate no later than November 1, 1986, along with any recommendations for legislative action.

*Sec. 211. Section 217, chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

Total Appropriation	$((153,372,000))
	155,270,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $975,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $975,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—state appropriation shall be used solely for grants in aid to public or private nonprofit organizations operating shelters for homeless persons. Grants awarded under this subsection shall be used to provide temporary emergency shelter, including either direct shelter services or vouchers to pay for low-cost commercial accommodations, to persons and families who are without housing and lack funds to purchase lodging. Grantee organizations shall give priority in the use of grant funds to shelter for families and children. Grants shall be in addition to any federal or other funding available to grantee organizations, and shall be awarded in amounts not exceeding the amount of local government and private funds that an organization receives in the grant year. Grants shall not be awarded to cover periods exceeding twelve months. The department may audit the books and records of grantee organizations to assure compliance with the purposes of this subsection. In awarding grants, the director shall attempt to provide an equitable distribution of funds based on need throughout the state, including rural areas.

(2) $475,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $475,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—state appropriation are provided solely for grants in aid to public or private nonprofit organizations operating food banks which distribute food without charge to persons unable to purchase enough food for their subsistence, and to public or private nonprofit organizations operating food distribution systems that furnish donated or purchased food to food banks. Grants awarded under this subsection shall be in addition to any federal or other funding available to grantee organizations, and shall be awarded in amounts not exceeding the amount of local government and private funds that an organization receives in the grant year. Sixty percent of the funds under this subsection shall be provided to food banks and forty percent to food distribution organizations. Grants shall not be awarded to cover periods exceeding twelve months. The department may audit the books and records of grantee organizations to assure compliance with the purposes of this subsection. In awarding grants, the director shall attempt to provide an equitable distribution of funds based on need throughout the state, including rural areas.

(3) $50,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $50,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for administration of grants in aid to emergency shelter and food programs under subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

(4) If Second Substitute House Bill No. 738 is not enacted by July 1, 1985, $250,000 in fiscal year 1986 and $250,000 in fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—state appropriation shall revert.

(5) $120,000, of which $96,000 is from the general fund—state appropriation for fiscal year 1986 and $24,000 is from the general fund—building code council account appropriation for fiscal year 1986, and $120,000 from the general fund—building code council account appropriation for fiscal year 1987 is provided solely to implement Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3261. The general fund—state appropriation shall be paid back to the state general fund from the building code council account by June 30, 1989.

(6) $60,000 of the general fund—building code council account appropriation for fiscal year 1986 is provided solely to implement Substitute House Bill No. 1114. The funds generated from the surcharge on building permits established by SHB 1114 shall be deposited in the general fund—building code council account. If federal funds are available for the purposes of SHB 1114, a portion of the amount provided in this subsection equal to the amount of available federal funds shall revert.

(7) A maximum of $100,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $100,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—state appropriation may be spent in a study of mitigating the impact of the proposed Navy home port at Everett, Washington.

(8) $2,970,000 of the general fund—state appropriation for fiscal year 1987 is provided solely to initiate preschool state education and assistance programs at the local level in accordance with chapter 418 (E2SHB 1078), Laws of 1985 (early childhood assistance act).

(9) $46,000 of the general fund—state appropriation for fiscal year 1986 is provided solely for the reimbursement of government and nonprofit entities for costs incurred in controlling fires on the L.T. Murray Range.

(10) $200,000 for fiscal year 1986 and $550,000 for fiscal year 1987 of the general fund—state appropriation are provided solely for the state matching funds for the federal emergency management agency grant for damages caused by heavy rains, flooding, mud slides, and wind which occurred on January 16–25, 1986.

*Sec. 211 was partially vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) On or before October 1, 1985, the department of ecology shall file with the committees on ways and means of the senate and house of representatives and the office of financial management a master compilation by project type of those projects proposed for funding during the 1985-87 biennium from the appropriations for waste disposal facilities and water supply facilities. A separate compilation shall be supplied for each bond proceed account. The department shall submit updates for the master compilation to the committees on ways and means and the office of financial management at six-month intervals during the 1985-87 biennium. The updates shall reflect project completions, deletions, substitutions, or additions made during the course of administering the projects. If the department proposes to change or modify any project list on the master compilation, it shall give the committees on ways and means and the office of financial management thirty days' written notice of the change or modification prior to the expenditure or obligation of any funds appropriated by this section. The department shall immediately inform the committees and the office of financial management of significant changes from historic federal funding levels for waste disposal facilities and water supply facilities. If the department does not comply fully and in a timely manner with the several compilations, updates, and modification reports required by this subsection, the director of financial management is authorized to place in reserve the second year funds allotted to the department until such time as the documents are produced and distributed as directed by this subsection.

(2) The appropriation from the state and local improvements revolving account—water supply facilities (Referendum 27) may be expended to pay up to 50% of the eligible cost of any project as a grant or loan or combination thereof. Also, the department may lend up to 100% of the eligible costs of preconstruction activities and the department may provide up to 100% of the costs necessary to meet the conditions required to receive federal funds.

(3) The appropriation from the state and local improvements revolving account—waste disposal facilities (Referendum 26) may be expended by the department to pay for up to 50% of the eligible cost of any project as a grant or up to 100% as a loan or combination thereof, for waste water treatment or disposal, agricultural pollution, lake rehabilitation, or solid waste management facilities. The department is authorized to provide up to 100% of the costs necessary to meet the conditions required to receive federal funds.

(4) The appropriation from the state and local improvements revolving account—waste disposal facilities 1980 (Referendum 39) may be expended by the department to pay up to 75% of the eligible cost of any project as a grant or up to 100% as a loan, or combination thereof, for waste water treatment or disposal, agricultural pollution, lake rehabilitation, or solid waste management facilities. The department is authorized to provide up to 100% of the costs necessary to meet the conditions required to receive federal funds.

(5) ~~((Contingent on the enactment of House Bill No. 811, House Bill No. 1081, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3703, or Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3827, the appropriation from the water quality account may be expended by the department to pay up to 50% of the eligible cost of any project as a grant or up to 100% as a loan, or combination thereof, for waste water treatment or disposal, agricultural pollution or water storage facilities which enhance water quality. The department is authorized to~~ provide up to 100% of the costs necessary to meet the conditions required to receive federal funds.

~~(6)~~ In order to monitor the expenditure of Referendum 38 funds that are to be expended prior to the use of funds provided by Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 4136, the department of ecology shall provide an annual report to the legislature of the funds remaining from Referendum 38 and the projects that are in work and awaiting approval. If SSB 4136 is not enacted by July 1, 1985, the annual reports shall not be required:

Sec. 502. Section 503, chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—FOR GENERAL APPORTIONMENT (BASIC EDUCATION)

General Fund Appropriation $((3,465,393,000))
3,436,768,000

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) As a condition to the allocation of funds to school districts appropriated pursuant to this section, the superintendent shall require school districts to ensure that, during the respective school year, the district has complied with all rules adopted by the superintendent of public instruction to implement RCW 28A.58.095. For any violation of such rules, the superintendent shall withhold an amount equal to the level of the violation when applied to the district's respective basic education allocation, unless or until such time as the school district comes into compliance with the rules.

(2) $((317,285,000)) 314,650,000 is provided solely for the remaining months of the 1984-85 school year.

(3) Allocations for certificated salaries for the 1985-86 and 1986-87 school years shall be calculated by multiplying each district's average basic education certificated salary allocation defined in section 504 of this act by the district's formula-generated certificated staff units determined as follows:

(a) One certificated staff unit for each twenty average annual full time equivalent kindergarten, elementary, and secondary students, excluding handicapped full time equivalent enrollment as calculated according to the procedures in the allocation model established in section 506 of this act and excluding full time equivalent enrollment otherwise recognized for certificated staff unit allocations in subsection (3) (b) through ~~((d))~~ (c) of this section: PROVIDED, That those school districts with a minimum enrollment of 250 full time equivalent students and whose full time equivalent student enrollment count in a given enrollment month exceeds the first of the month full time equivalent enrollment count by 5% shall be entitled to an additional state allocation of 110% of the pro rata share that such enrollment would have generated had such additional full time equivalent students been included in the normal enrollment count for that particular month.

(b) During the 1985-86 school year, one certificated staff unit for each average annual eighteen and three-tenths full time equivalent students enrolled in a vocational education program approved by the superintendent of public instruction, for the 1986-87 school year one certificated staff unit for each average annual seventeen and one-half full time equivalent students enrolled in a vocational education program approved by the superintendent of public instruction: PROVIDED, That in skills centers, the ratio shall be one certificated staff unit for each average annual sixteen and sixty-seven one-hundredths full time equivalent students enrolled in an approved vocational education program.

(c) For districts enrolling not more than twenty-five average annual full time equivalent students and for small school plants within any school district, which small plants enroll not more than twenty-five average annual full time equivalent students and have been judged to be remote and necessary by the state board of education, certificated staff units shall be determined as follows:

(i) For the 1985-86 school year, for those enrolling no students in grades seven or eight, three certificated staff units;

(ii) For the 1985-86 school year, for those enrolling students in either grades seven or eight, four certificated staff units;

(iii) For the 1986-87 school year, for those enrolling no students in grades seven or eight, two certificated staff units for enrollment of not more than five students, plus one-twentieth of a certificated staff unit for each additional student enrolled; and

(iv) For the 1986-87 school year, for those enrolling students in either grades seven or eight, two certificated staff units for enrollment of not more than five students, plus one-tenth of a certificated staff unit for each additional student enrolled.

(d) For districts enrolling more than twenty-five but not more than one hundred average annual full time equivalent students (except as otherwise specified) and for small school plants within any school district, which small plants enroll more than twenty-five average annual full time equivalent students and have been judged to be remote and necessary by the state board of education, certificated staff units shall be determined as follows:

(i) For grades K-6, for enrollments of not more than sixty annual average full time equivalent students, three certificated staff units;

(ii) For grades K-6, for enrollments above sixty annual average full time equivalent students, additional certificated staff units based upon a ratio of one certificated staff unit per twenty annual average full time equivalent students;

(iii) For grades 7 and 8, for enrollments of not more than twenty annual average full time equivalent students, one certificated staff unit;

(iv) For grades 7 and 8, for enrollments above twenty annual average full time equivalent students, additional certificated staff units based upon a ratio of one certificated staff unit per twenty annual average full time equivalent students;

(v) For each nonhigh school district having an enrollment of more than seventy annual average full time equivalent students and less than one hundred eighty students, operating a grades K-8 program or a grades 1-8 program, an additional one-half of a certificated staff unit;

(vi) For each nonhigh school district having an enrollment of more than fifty annual average full time equivalent students and less than one hundred eighty students, operating a grades K-6 program or a grades 1-6 program, an additional one-half of a certificated unit.

~~((d))~~ (c) A district that operates no more than two high schools with enrollments of not more than three hundred average annual full time equivalent students shall be allocated certificated staff units for enrollment in each such high school as follows:

(i) Nine and one-half certificated staff units for the first sixty annual average full time equivalent students;

(ii) Additional certificated staff units based upon a ratio of one certificated staff unit per forty-three and one-half average annual full time equivalent students.

~~((e))~~ (f) In addition to those staffing ratios specified by RCW 28A-41.140, school districts with an enrollment of at least 100 annual average full time equivalent students in grades kindergarten through third grade shall receive during the 1986-87 school year a certificated unit allocation in addition to that provided in subsection (3)(a) of this section, at a rate of one certificated staff unit per 1,000 annual average full time equivalent students enrolled in grades kindergarten through third grade: PROVIDED, That school districts shall use the additional certificated unit allocation to provide during the 1986-87 school year additional personnel whose primary duty is the daily classroom educational instruction of students.

(4) Allocations for classified salaries for the 1985-86 and 1986-87 school years shall be calculated by multiplying each district's average basic education classified salary allocation as defined in section 504 of this act by the district's formula-generated classified staff units determined as follows:

(a) One classified staff unit per each three certificated staff units determined under subsection (3) (a), (c), ~~((and))~~ (d), and (e) of this section;

(b) One classified staff unit for each sixty full time equivalent vocational students enrolled; and

(c) For each nonhigh school district with an enrollment of more than fifty annual average full time equivalent students and less than one hundred eighty students, an additional one-half of a classified staff unit.

(5) Fringe benefit allocations shall be calculated at a rate of 20.03 percent in the 1985-86 school year and 20.08 percent in the 1986-87 school year of certificated salary allocations provided pursuant to subsection (3) of this section, and a rate of 16.86 percent in the 1985-86 school year and 16.91 percent in the 1986-87 school year of classified salary allocations provided pursuant to subsection (4) of this section.

(6) Insurance benefit allocations for the 1985-86 and 1986-87 school years shall be calculated at a rate of $167 per month for the number of certificated staff units determined in subsection (3) of this section and for the number of classified staff units determined in subsection (4) of this section multiplied by 1.152.

(7)(a) For nonemployee related costs with each certificated staff unit determined under subsection (3) (a), (c), ~~((and))~~ (d), and (e) of this section, there shall be provided a maximum of $5,614 per staff unit in the 1985-86 school year and a maximum of $5,833 per staff unit in the 1986-87 school year.

(b) For nonemployee related costs with each certificated staff unit determined under subsection (3)(b) of this section, there shall be provided a maximum of $10,698 per staff unit in the 1985-86 school year and a maximum of $11,115 per staff unit in the 1986-87 school year.

(8) Allocations for costs of substitutes for classroom teachers shall be provided at a rate of $268 per full time equivalent basic education classroom teacher during the 1985-86 and 1986-87 school years.

(9) The superintendent shall distribute a maximum of $3,010,000 outside the basic education formula during fiscal years 1986 and 1987 as follows:

(a) For fire protection for school districts located in a fire protection district as now or hereafter established pursuant to chapter 52.04 RCW, a maximum of $320,000 may be expended in fiscal year 1986 and a maximum of $342,000 in fiscal year 1987.

(b) For summer vocational programs at skills centers, not more than ~~$(999,000))~~ 771,000 shall be expended in fiscal year 1986 and not more than $1,077,000 in fiscal year 1987.

(c) For school district emergencies, a maximum of $136,000 may be expended in fiscal year 1986 and a maximum of $136,000 may be expended in fiscal year 1987.

(10) A maximum of $125,000 shall be distributed to enhance funding provided in subsections (3) through (9) of this section in the 1986-87 school year for remote and necessary school plants on islands without scheduled public transportation which are the sole school plants serving students in elementary grades on these islands.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 503. A new section is added to chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—RETIREMENT BENEFITS

General Fund—Revenue Accrual Account

Appropriation $ 11,297,000

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) The superintendent shall distribute funds appropriated in this section in proportion to the state-supported classified salary allocation to each district.

(2) Funds appropriated in this section are intended to fully fund employer contributions to the public employees' retirement system.

Sec. 504. Section 504, chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—SCHOOL DISTRICT EMPLOYEE COMPENSATION

General Fund Appropriation $ 47,733,000

(1) For the purposes of section 503 of this act and this section, the following conditions and limitations apply:

(a) "LEAP Document 7" means the computer tabulation of 1984–85 derived base salaries for basic education certified staff and 1984–85 average salaries for basic education classified staff, as developed by the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee on April 11, 1985, at 10:36 hours.

(b) "Revised LEAP Document 7" means the computer tabulation of certificated and classified derived base salaries as developed by the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee on February 27, 1986, at 9:41 hours.

(c) For the purposes of the appropriation in section 502 of this 1986 act, each district's average basic education certificated salary allocation shall be the district's certificated derived base salary shown on LEAP Document 7, multiplied by the district's prior year staff mix factor calculated using LEAP Document 1.

~~((c))~~ (d) For the purposes of the appropriation in section 502 of this 1986 act, each district's average basic education classified salary allocation for both the 1985–86 and 1986–87 school years shall be the district's classified derived base salary multiplied by the district's prior year classified increment mix factor, as specified in this section. For the 1985–86 school year, the classified derived base salary for each district shall be the average classified salary specified for each district in LEAP Document 7 divided by the 1984–85 classified increment mix factor for each district calculated according to the formula used by the superintendent of public instruction in the 1984–85 school year. By December 1, 1985, the superintendent of public instruction shall provide to the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee the appropriate data with which to modify LEAP Document 7 to reflect the classified derived base salary for use in the 1986–87 school year.

(e) "Incremental fringe benefits" means 19.44 percent for certificated staff and 15.49 percent for classified staff, which percentages shall be the fringe benefit rates applied to all salary increases provided in this section, and is for employer contributions to employee benefits and retirement benefits.

(2) For the purposes of RCW 28A.58.095 and section 503(1) of this act, the following conditions and limitations apply:

(a) Effective September 1, 1986, each school district is authorized to grant salary increases that increase the district's actual basic education certificated derived base salary to no more than the sum of: (i) The district's certificated derived base salary as shown on revised LEAP Document 7; and (ii) three percent of the state-wide average certificated derived base salary as shown on revised LEAP Document 7.

(b) Effective September 1, 1986, each school district is authorized to grant salary increases that increase the district's actual basic education classified derived base salary to no more than the sum of: (i) The district's classified derived base salary as shown on revised LEAP Document 7; and (ii) three percent of the state-wide average classified derived base salary as shown on revised LEAP Document 7.

(c) The maximum average percentage salary increase in school district programs other than the basic education program shall not exceed the percentage increase authorized pursuant to this section for the district's basic education program.

~~((b))~~ (d) Insurance benefits are limited by this act to an average monthly rate of $167 per full time equivalent certificated employee and to an average monthly rate of $167 per classified unit. Classified units shall be calculated on the basis of 1,440 hours of work per year, with no individual employee counted for more than one unit. In accordance with RCW 28A-.58.095, this subsection relates to insurance benefit increases granted in either the 1985-86 or 1986-87 school year which would raise the rate per full time equivalent unit to over $167 per month.

~~((c))~~ (e) Increments granted by school districts to certificated staff shall constitute salary increase in the year in which the increments are given by a district to the extent only that the aggregate of increments granted by a district exceeds the aggregate of increments pursuant to LEAP Document 1.

~~((d))~~ (f) Seniority increments granted by a school district pursuant to the district's salary schedule for classified employees shall constitute salary increase in the year in which the increments are given to the extent only that the aggregate of the increments granted by the district exceeds the amount of the district's increments calculated using the formula adopted by the superintendent of public instruction for the classified increment mix factor.

(g) Districts may elect an alternate measure of salary compliance for classified staff by comparing base salaries of 1986-87 staff to the imputed base that was or would have been paid the same staff in the same positions during 1985-86 if the districts electing this alternative certify by board resolution that any amount in excess of state-funded salary levels in each year henceforward is solely a district obligation created through local district personnel policies and salary schedule placements, and that the effect shall neither incur nor imply any current or future funding obligation by the state.

(3)(a) A maximum of $650,000 of the appropriation in this section is provided to fund the conversion from LEAP Document 7 to revised LEAP Document 7, effective September 1, 1986. The superintendent of public instruction shall distribute these moneys to fund increases in salary costs and incremental fringe benefits resulting from using revised LEAP Document 7 to calculate allocations for certificated and classified staff units as in section 502 of this 1986 act.

(b) $28,582,000 is provided, effective September 1, 1986, to increase funding for each basic education certificated staff unit allocated for the 1986-87 school year in section 502 of this 1986 act by an amount equal to the district's 1985-86 LEAP Document 1 basic education staff mix factor times three percent of the state-wide average certificated derived base salary as shown on revised LEAP Document 7, and for incremental fringe benefits.

(c) $5,926,000 is provided, effective September 1, 1986, to increase funding for each basic education classified staff unit allocated for the 1986-87 school year in section 502 of this 1986 act by an amount equal to the district's 1985-86 basic education classified increment mix factor times three percent of the state-wide average classified derived base salary as shown on revised LEAP Document 7, and for incremental fringe benefits.

(d) A maximum of $2,263,000 is provided for salary increases and incremental fringe benefits in the following programs, to be distributed by increasing 1986-87 school year allocation rates as specified:

(i) Transitional bilingual instruction (section 508), $11.43 per pupil;
(ii) Remediation assistance (section 509), $8.80 per pupil;
(iii) Education of highly capable students (section 510), $6.77 per pupil;

(iv) Vocational-technical institutes (section 512), $59.94 per FTE pupil;

(v) Pupil transportation (section 514), $0.46 per weighted pupil-mile.

(e) A maximum of $3,968,000 is provided for salary increases and incremental fringe benefits for state-supported staff unit allocations in the handicapped program (section 506), and for state-supported staff in educational service districts (section 502) and institutional education programs (section 507). The superintendent of public instruction shall distribute a three percent salary increase for these programs using the pertinent program state-wide average derived base salaries.

(f) $6,344,000 of the appropriation in this section is provided to enhance salaries for certificated personnel in state-supported programs pursuant to this subsection. Each school district with a certificated derived base salary of less than $16,500, as shown on revised LEAP Document 7, is authorized to grant salary increases effective September 1, 1986, which both:

(i) Increase the actual full time equivalent salary of each certificated employee of the district to a minimum of $16,500 for the 1986-87 school year; and

(ii) Increase the district's actual basic education certificated derived base salary, excluding the salary increase provided in subsection (2)(a) of this section, to no more than $16,500.

For the purposes of allocating basic education funds in the 1986-87 school year, the superintendent of public instruction shall modify revised LEAP Document 7 to reflect a certificated derived base salary of $16,500 for each district which grants the increases authorized by this subsection. The superintendent of public instruction may distribute a maximum of $71,000 of the funds provided by this subsection to those districts whose actual cost of granting minimum increases to $16,500 under (i) of this subsection exceeds the increase in the district's total salary allocation resulting from the modification of revised LEAP Document 7.

In addition to other increases provided by this section, each school district with a certificated derived base salary of at least $16,500, as shown on revised LEAP Document 7, is authorized to grant such increases effective September 1, 1986, as are necessary to achieve a minimum full time equivalent salary of $16,500 for any individual certificated employee. $1,500,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, shall be distributed by the superintendent of public instruction solely to increase salaries of individual certificated employees in these districts who would otherwise receive a full time equivalent salary of less than $16,500.

(4) Increases provided by this section shall be included in the programs referenced in RCW 84.52.0531(1) for purposes of calculating the levy lid.

Sec. 505. Section 506, chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—FOR HANDICAPPED EDUCATION PROGRAMS

General Fund Appropriation—State	$ ((355,371,000))

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) ~~$((32,235,000))~~ 32,120,000 of the general fund—state appropriation is provided solely for the remaining months of the 1984-85 school year.

(2) The superintendent of public instruction shall distribute state funds for the 1985-86 (~~and 1986-87~~) school year(~~s~~) in accordance with a district's actual handicapped enrollments and the allocation model established in (~~new~~) LEAP Document 8 as developed by the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee on May 28, 1985, at 14:04 hours.

(3) The superintendent of public instruction shall distribute state funds for the 1986-87 school year in accordance with a district's actual handicapped enrollments and the allocation model established in LEAP Document 8 (revised) as developed by the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee on December 10, 1985, at 9:45 hours.

(4) A maximum of $250,840 may be expended from the general fund—state appropriation to fund three teachers and one aide at Children's Orthopedic Hospital and Medical Center. This amount is in lieu of money provided through home and hospital allocation and the handicapped program.

Sec. 506. Section 509, chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—FOR REMEDIATION ASSISTANCE

General Fund Appropriation $ ((~~24,733,000~~))
29,580,000

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $2,644,000 is provided solely for the remaining months of the 1984-85 school year.

(2) Funding for school district remediation programs serving grades two through nine shall be distributed during the 1985-86 and 1986-87 school years at a maximum rate of $337 per unit as calculated pursuant to this subsection. The number of units for each school district shall be the sum of: (a) The number of students enrolled in grades two through six in the district multiplied by the percentage of students taking the fourth grade basic skills test (~~in the previous year~~) who scored in the lowest quartile as compared to national norms, and then reduced to the extent that the number of students ages seven through eleven in the district who are identified as specific learning disabled and served through programs established pursuant to chapter 28A.13 RCW exceeds four percent of the district full time equivalent enrollment in grades two through six; and (b) the number of students enrolled in grades seven through nine in the district multiplied by the percentage of students taking the eighth grade basic skills test (~~in the previous year~~) who scored in the lowest quartile as compared to national norms, and then reduced to the extent that the number of students ages twelve through fourteen in the district who are identified as specific learning disabled and served through programs established pursuant to chapter 28A-.13 RCW exceeds four percent of the district full time equivalent enrollment in grades seven through nine. For the purposes of allocating funds for the 1985-86 school year, the superintendent shall use the prior year's fourth and eighth grade basic skills test scores. For the purposes of allocating funds for the 1986-87 school year, the superintendent shall use the most recent prior five-year average scores on the fourth grade test and the most recent prior two-year average scores on the eighth grade test.

Sec. 507. Section 510, chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION—FOR PROGRAMS FOR HIGHLY CAPABLE STUDENTS

Total Appropriation $	((442,373,000))
	442,504,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $126,790,000 from the fiscal year 1986 general fund appropriation and $126,791,000 from the fiscal year 1987 general fund appropriation are provided solely for the instruction program. Not less than a biennial average of $4,281 per academic year full time equivalent student shall be spent from the state general fund in the instruction program. Of the amounts provided in this subsection, at least $1,829,000 shall be spent for enhancement of the instructional equipment budget. Of the amounts provided in this subsection, a maximum of $40,000 may be spent on activities related to federated learning centers.

(2) A maximum of $400,000 may be spent for costs of initiating in underserved urban areas those undergraduate programs that are intended to become substantially self-supporting. Full time equivalent enrollments resulting from expenditures under this subsection are not subject to the conditions of subsection (1) of this section. The university shall make every effort to provide the classes authorized in this subsection on the university campus.

(3) The office of financial management shall initially allot for the following:

- (a) Equipment $8,318,000
- (b) Plant operations and maintenance $48,148,000

(4) The salary increases for the faculty of the University of Washington((, effective)) which take effect January 1, 1986, may be granted solely to reduce critical market disparities in teaching disciplines. For the purposes of this subsection, "faculty" means only those individuals holding faculty appointments in the instruction, research, public service, primary support, and sponsored research programs, including medical residents. The university shall report to the office of financial management its plans for granting salary increases under this section, including but not limited to data on increases to specific disciplines by professorial rank by October 30, 1985. The office of financial management shall report to the ways and means committees of the senate and house of representatives regarding the specific criteria the university will use to measure market disparities in teaching disciplines and to allocate salary increases to reduce such disparities. The report shall be made no later than December 1, 1985.

(5) A maximum of $25,000 from the general fund appropriation may be spent for the purpose of developing and/or operating a cardiac transplantation unit. The university shall provide a report to the senate and house ways and means committees on January 1, 1986, and January 1, 1987. The report shall detail total expenditures to date by fiscal year and by each fund source relating to the development and/or operation of the cardiac transplantation unit and shall include expenditures from all fund sources.

(6) A minimum of $789,000 shall be spent for support of computer grants.

(7) $131,000 of the general fund appropriation ((is)) for fiscal year 1986 and $131,000 of the general fund appropriation for fiscal year 1987 are provided solely for the handling of the papers of Senator Magnuson and Senator Jackson.

Sec. 602. Section 604, chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

Not less than a biennial average of $2,668 per academic year full time equivalent student shall be spent from the state general fund in the instruction program. Of the amounts provided in this subsection, at least $371,000 shall be spent for enhancement of the instructional equipment budget. Of the amounts provided in this subsection, a maximum of $40,000 may be spent on activities related to federated learning centers.

(2) A maximum of $407,000 may be spent for departmental research fellowships, limited to no more than three months per award.

(3) The office of financial management shall initially allot for the following:

- (a) Equipment $1,991,000
- (b) Plant operations and maintenance $9,752,000

(4) A maximum of $395,000 may be spent on intercollegiate sports activities.

(5) $54,000 of the general fund appropriation for fiscal year 1987 is provided solely for the Peoples Republic of China exchange training program: PROVIDED, That at least fifty percent of the expenses of the program shall be provided from nonappropriated and private fund sources.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 606. There is hereby appropriated from the general fund $881,000 for fiscal year 1987 summer quarter support on the condition that the universities receiving this appropriation implement and collect summer quarter tuition fees at the same rates established for the regular academic quarter. This appropriation shall be disbursed according to the following schedule:

Central Washington University	$295,000
Eastern Washington University	$220,000
Western Washington University	$366,000

Sec. 607. Section 609, chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE ((COUNCIL FOR POSTSECONDARY EDUCATION))
HIGHER EDUCATION COORDINATING BOARD

	FY 1986	FY 1987
General Fund Appropriation—
State	$ ((17,966,000))	((17,967,000))

Total Appropriation	$ ((39,607,000))
	39,757,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) No later than June 30, 1986, the ((council's)) board's first priority shall be to provide financial assistance to the core of students with extremely high unmet need. The ((council)) board shall adopt a definition for this group of students and provide financial aid for all such students at a standard to be established by the ((council)) board. To the greatest extent possible, the ((council)) board shall emphasize work study and other self-help programs in its financial assistance programs.

(2) The ((council)) board shall take all necessary management precautions to ensure that financial aid awards to individuals and institutions do not exceed the amounts provided in subsection (1) of this section. Any over-commitment of funds shall be paid directly from the funds provided for the coordination and policy analysis program until those funds are exhausted.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 608. A new section is added to chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. to read as follows:

FOR THE STATE BOARD FOR COMMUNITY COLLEGE EDUCATION

General Fund Appropriation	$ 1,729,000
----------------------------------	--------------

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $1,629,000 of the appropriation shall be expended solely to satisfy judgments and claims incurred from the deferral of faculty salary increases during the 1981-83 fiscal biennium. The appropriation shall be spent for all salary and interest costs incurred in fiscal year 1983. Additional costs related to the salary deferral but incurred after fiscal year 1983 shall be borne by the districts incurring such costs. Acceptance of the proceeds of this appropriation shall result in complete discharge of all claims of any nature whatsoever of all plaintiffs regarding the 1981-83 salary deferral.

(2) $100,000 of this appropriation is provided solely to implement a pilot program for volunteer literacy tutorial coordination. The pilot program shall be jointly coordinated by the superintendent of public instruction and the state board for community college education with special emphasis on raising the potential of adult illiterates for permanent employment.

By January 1988, the superintendent of public instruction and the state board of community college education shall provide the appropriate legislative standing committees with a report on the educational history of students in adult literacy programs and in other publicly funded programs designed to provide adults with basic educational skills; the highest grade level attained by students; the states where the students attended school; and the amount of time the students spent in Washington schools.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 609. A new section is added to chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. to read as follows:

The senate committee on education, the house of representatives committee on higher education, and the committees on ways and means of the senate and house of representatives shall conduct a study of higher education faculty salaries and shall make recommendations to the legislature by December 1, 1986.

PART VII
SPECIAL APPROPRIATIONS

*Sec. 701. Section 701, chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE GOVERNOR—EMERGENCY FUND
General Fund Appropriation—State $ 1,700,000

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) The appropriation is for the governor's emergency fund to be allocated for the carrying out of the critically necessary work of any agency.

(2) $100,000 of this appropriation may be spent for law enforcement and social service problems arising from Expo '86.

*Sec. 701 was partially vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

Sec. 702. Section 702, chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 1, Laws of 1986 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE GOVERNOR—COMPARABLE WORTH IMPLEMENTATION AND LAWSUIT
General Fund Appropriation $ 26,790,000
Special Fund Salary Increase
Revolving Fund Appropriation $ 19,120,000
Total Appropriation $ 45,910,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) $644,500 of the general fund appropriation and $326,250 of the special fund salary increase revolving fund appropriation are provided solely for a salary increase for those job classifications tied to salary survey benchmarks falling 8 ranges or more below the January 1, 1985, actual average comparable worth line as calculated under the formula of $$983.72 + ($3.28 \times \text{points})$ and rounded to the nearest Step G or equivalent step for shortened ranges. However, a job classification shall receive an increase only if its salary range as of January 1, 1985, is also 8 or more ranges less than the salary range of that classification as calculated under the aforementioned formula using the evaluation points of that classification as adopted by the respective personnel board. This adjustment shall take place July 1, 1985, and shall equal $75 a year for all affected classes and employees and shall terminate on March 30, 1986.

(2) $350,000 of the general fund—state appropriation shall be used solely by the office of the governor to hire an independent consultant with expertise in developing and evaluating public employee job classification systems and implementing comparable worth. The consultant shall:

- (a) Review the Willis methodology;
- (b) Update job class specifications for all job classes with incumbents that have not been reviewed for the past five years;
- (c) Develop a new benchmark and indexing structure which reflects the evaluated worth of the job classes; and
- (d) Evaluate the job class specifications for the implementation of comparable worth.

(3) The department of personnel and the higher education personnel board shall provide any assistance needed by the consultant to perform the activities in subsection (2) of this section. Both the state personnel board and higher education personnel board must submit joint reports to the legislature on the progress to date in implementing the consultant's recommendations no later than January 1, 1986, and July 1, 1986. On January 1, 1987, both boards shall submit a final report to the legislature.

(4) $150,000 of the general fund—state appropriation and $100,000 of the special fund salary increase revolving fund appropriation shall be used solely for the office of the governor to allocate to agencies that provide technical assistance to the consultant hired under subsection (2) of this section.

(5) $25,545,500 of the general fund appropriation and $$((+8,793,750))$ 18,693,750 of the special fund salary increase revolving fund appropriation, along with all moneys currently included in agencies' budgets for payment of the $100 per year comparable worth salary increase pursuant to chapter 76, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess., are provided for the settlement of all claims of all plaintiffs and class members of American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees, et al. v. State of Washington, et al., Cause Nos. C82-4657, 84-3569, and 84-3590 and the implementation of comparable worth pursuant to RCW 28B.16.116 and RCW 41.06.155. The settlement shall result in complete discharge of all claims of any nature whatsoever of all plaintiffs and class members. It is the intent of the legislature that salary adjustments for affected class members not exceed the adjustment calculated using the average actual comparable worth salary line as applied to the Willis evaluation points of the affected job classification and adopted by the state personnel board and the higher education personnel board: PROVIDED, That on or before the dates on which comparable worth increases become effective, the higher education personnel board shall review the salaries of all job classifications receiving comparable worth increases which are also receiving special pay to determine whether the requirements of WAC 251-09-090 continue to be met and shall make any reductions in special pay necessary to adjust for the increases in base pay resulting from comparable worth adjustments. The governor as the chief executive officer of the state, with the assistance of the attorney general, is authorized to seek a proposed settlement. However, any such settlement is tentative and subject to legislative ratification. $100,000 of the general fund appropriation is provided solely for the office of the governor to retain any special consultants or negotiators to work with the attorney general in seeking a settlement of American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees, et al. v. State of Washington, et al., within the terms of the appropriation as set out in this subsection. If a tentative settlement is reached within the terms of the appropriation within this subsection, the governor and the attorney general shall jointly present a report on the tentative settlement to the legislature no later than January 1, 1986, for ratification. No funds shall be released before April 1, 1986, or until such time as stipulated final judgment is entered under the terms of the tentative settlement ratified by the legislature, whichever is later. The appropriation provided for settlement in this subsection shall lapse if no proposal is brought before the legislature before January 1, 1986, if the tentative settlement brought before the legislature is not ratified by the legislature during the 1986 legislative session, or if stipulated final judgment is not entered before June 30, 1986.

(6) The department of personnel and the higher education personnel board shall provide monthly reports to the legislative evaluation and accountability program committee regarding the steps each has taken, or proposes to take, to implement the settlement agreement referred to in subsection (5) of this section. The reports will include information on all disputes or potential disputes regarding implementation which have been brought to the attention of the two agencies.

The legislative evaluation and accountability program committee shall report to the legislature regarding the implementation steps taken by, and potential disputes facing, the department of personnel and the higher education personnel board. Such reports shall be provided as often as deemed necessary by the committee, but no later than June 1, 1986, December 1, 1986, and April 1, 1987.

(7) The department of personnel and the higher education personnel board shall report to the legislature by January 1, 1986, with a report identifying those job classifications not covered by the lawsuit that would be entitled to receive adjustments under the average actual comparable worth line. The report shall include recommendations regarding implementation of comparable worth adjustments for these affected job classes.

(8) To facilitate payment of salary increases from special funds, the state treasurer is directed to transfer sufficient income from each special fund to the special fund salary and insurance contribution increase revolving fund hereby created in accordance with schedules provided by the office of financial management.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 703. A new section is added to chapter 6, Laws of 1985 ex. sess. to read as follows:

(2) Reappropriations in sections 301 through 305 of this act are reauthorizations of appropriations from section 887, chapter 57, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. Proceeds of the sale of bonds authorized by chapter 266, Laws of 1984 may be used for the support of these projects.

PART IX
MISCELLANEOUS

Sec. 901. Section 4, chapter 39, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 24, chapter 57, Laws of 1985 and RCW 41.05.040 are each amended to read as follows:

There is hereby created a fund within the state treasury, designated as the "state employees insurance fund", to be used by the trustee as a revolving fund for the deposit of contributions, dividends and refunds, and for payment of premiums for employee insurance benefit contracts entered into in accordance with instructions of the board and payments authorized by RCW 41.05.030(2). Moneys from the state employees insurance fund shall be disbursed by the state treasurer by warrants on vouchers duly authorized by the trustee. However, before June 30, 1987, the treasurer shall not disburse moneys from the fund when the disbursement would result in a fund balance of less than $11,597,000. Notwithstanding RCW 43.84.090, all earnings of investments of balances in the state employees insurance fund shall be credited to this fund.

Sec. 902. Section 12, chapter 167, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 28, chapter 57, Laws of 1985 and by section 507, chapter 405, Laws of 1985 and RCW 43.19.610 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

There is hereby established in the state treasury an account to be known as the motor transport account into which shall be paid all moneys, funds, proceeds, and receipts as provided in RCW 43.19.615 and as may otherwise be provided by law. Disbursements therefrom shall be made in accordance with the provisions of RCW 43.19.560 through 43.19.630, 43.41.130 and 43.41.140 as authorized by the director or his duly authorized representative and as may be provided by law. All earnings of investments of balances in the motor transport account shall be credited to the general fund.

The (~~office of financial management may direct the~~) state treasurer (~~to~~) shall transfer to the general fund (~~an amount not to exceed $1,500,000~~) two million dollars from the motor transport account (~~for the 1983-85 fiscal biennium~~) on or before June 30, 1987.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 903. The state treasurer shall transfer to the general fund $1,500,000 from the public facilities construction loan and grant revolving account on or before June 30, 1987.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 904. Section 3, chapter 50, Laws of 1984 (uncodified) is repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 905. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 906. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the Senate March 10, 1986.

Passed the House March 3, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986, with the exception of certain items which were vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to sections 103(6), 201(2)(f), 206(5), 207(1), 209(2), 211(9) and 701(2), Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4762 entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to fiscal matters."

The provisions I have vetoed and the reasons therefore are as follows:

Sections 103(6), 206(5) and 209(2) place significant and specific unfunded study requirements on various agencies. While each of the study topics warrant investigation, it is unreasonable to mandate such significant efforts without consideration of costs.

Section 201(2)(f) provides funds to reopen Firlands Correction Center. Firlands was closed as a result of programmatic and fiscal considerations which have not changed. The funds provided are insufficient to cover the cost of operating the facility in accordance with state standards.

Section 207(1) would prohibit responsible action by the Department of Social and Health Services to prevent the spread of AIDS.

Section 211(9) provides state General Fund monies to reimburse local fire districts for fire fighting services rendered on Department of Game lands. While I support reimbursement of local fire districts for services provided to state agencies, this cost is properly an obligation of the Department of Game and its dedicated funds. Financial segregation of Game Department activities should be continued until the Department is brought under executive control and a thorough review of its finances and programs indicates General Fund supplementation is appropriate.

Section 701(2) provides that monies from an existing appropriation to the Emergency Fund may be spent for law enforcement and social service problems arising from Expo '86. If the problems addressed by section 701(2) constitute an emergency, I will consider an allocation from the Emergency Fund. Otherwise, the Legislature should provide for these needs with a direct appropriation rather than limiting my ability to meet critical needs in state government.

In addition to the explanation of these vetoes, a comment is necessary regarding section 812. This section of the supplemental budget provides $210,000 from the General Fund and $210,000 in federal Game Funds for the purposes of rehabilitation work on the Barnaby Slough steelhead rearing pond. State funding for this project was terminated in 1981. The people of Skagit County have undertaken tremendous volunteer efforts to keep this project going and to preserve the steelhead resources of the area. Countless hours of labor and approximately $10,000 has been donated toward the operation of Barnaby Slough. It is only because of this impressive community effort that I am approving this provision. My decision to allow use of General Fund monies for this project should not be considered a precedent for any future General Fund support of the Game Department. The Department and the Commission should understand that access to these taxpayer funds will require the highest level of public accountability. The Department cannot have it both ways. If it wants to remain free of executive oversight, it should not have access to general taxpayer funds. The public has a proper right to far greater oversight of an agency to which its general tax dollars are allocated.

With the exception of sections 103(6), 201(2)(f), 206(5), 207(1), 209(2), 211(9) and agency to which its general tax dollars are allocated."

TRANSPORTATION BUDGET

AN ACT Relating to transportation; amending RCW 43.10.100; amending section 6, chapter 460, Laws of 1985 (uncodified); amending section 7, chapter 460, Laws of 1985 (uncodified); amending section 9, chapter 460, Laws of 1985 (uncodified); amending section 10, chapter 460, Laws of 1985 (uncodified); amending section 12, chapter 460, Laws of 1985 (uncodified); amending section 15, chapter 460, Laws of 1985 (uncodified); amending section 16, chapter 460, Laws of 1985 (uncodified); amending section 17, chapter 460, Laws of 1985 (uncodified); amending section 18, chapter 460, Laws of 1985 (uncodified); amending section 19, chapter 460, Laws of 1985 (uncodified); amending section 20, chapter 460, Laws of 1985 (uncodified); amending section 21, chapter 460, Laws of 1985 (uncodified); amending section 25, chapter 460, Laws of 1985 (uncodified); amending section 27, chapter 460, Laws of 1985 (uncodified); creating a new section; making appropriations; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 6, chapter 460, Laws of 1985 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE STATE PATROL—FIELD OPERATIONS BUREAU

Motor Vehicle Fund—State Patrol Highway

Account Appropriation	$	((86,582,000))
		89,399,000

The appropriation in this section does not provide for any increase in state patrol troopers' salaries.

Sec. 2. Section 7, chapter 460, Laws of 1985 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE STATE PATROL—SUPPORT SERVICES BUREAU

Motor Vehicle Fund—State Patrol Highway

Account Appropriation	$	((31,696,000))
		32,106,000

The appropriation in this section is subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) The state patrol shall conduct a study to determine the level of fees that would be necessary to recover the actual costs incurred in providing training services to other law enforcement agencies at the state patrol academy.

(2) Up to $250,000 is provided to implement the recommendations of the legislative transportation committee study of the budget, accounting, and other related systems of the state patrol. No moneys may be expended under this subsection without the prior approval of the legislative transportation committee.

(3) The appropriation in this section does not provide for any increase in state patrol troopers' salaries.

Sec. 3. Section 9, chapter 460, Laws of 1985 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF LICENSING—VEHICLE SERVICES

Motor Vehicle Fund Appropriation	$	((32,891,000))
		33,704,000
Game Fund Appropriation.....	$	((323,000))
		354,000
Total Appropriation	$	((33,214,000))
		34,058,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations: Computer terminal equipment purchased for the county auditor automation project shall be provided only to the auditors or licensing divisions of the 39 counties, the presently authorized 157 sub-agents, and the department of licensing's vehicle licensing counter. The department shall by ~~((January 13))~~ December 15, 1986, present to the legislative transportation committee a detailed report on implementation of the county auditor automation project, including equipment purchased and installed, and revised six-year cost estimate.

Sec. 4. Section 10, chapter 460, Laws of 1985 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF LICENSING—DRIVER SERVICES

General Fund—Public Safety and Education

Account Appropriation	$	2,056,000
Highway Safety Fund Appropriation	$	((30,005,000))
		30,215,000

Highway Safety Fund—Motorcycle Safety

Education Account Appropriation.....	$	((+93,000))
		226,000

Total Appropriation	$	((32,254,000))
		32,497,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) The appropriations in this section provide no moneys for the administrative suspension of drivers' licenses pursuant to chapter 165, Laws of 1983 (SHB 289).

(2) The appropriations in this section provide no moneys for the "predriver education program" operated by the department and no funds may be expended by the department for this purpose.

Sec. 5. Section 12, chapter 460, Laws of 1985 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF LICENSING—INFORMATION SYSTEMS

Game Fund Appropriation	$	4,000
Highway Safety Fund Appropriation	$	((3,538,000))
		3,913,000

Motor Vehicle Fund Appropriation	$	((+1,687,000))
		12,062,000

Total Appropriation	$	((+5,229,000))
		15,979,000

The appropriations in this section are subject to the following conditions and limitations: Not more than $375,000 of the motor vehicle fund appropriation and $375,000 of the highway safety fund appropriation are provided for a study to analyze the long-range motor vehicle and driver information system requirements of the department and the information system alternatives that will provide efficient and effective means of meeting these requirements. The department shall provide a preliminary report of the progress of this study to the legislative transportation committee by January 1, 1987. The department shall not proceed beyond the management assessment phase of this project without the approval of the legislative transportation committee.

Sec. 6. Section 15, chapter 460, Laws of 1985 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION—HIGHWAY CONSTRUCTION—PROGRAM A

Motor Vehicle Fund Appropriation—State	$	((109,000,000))	109,900,000
Motor Vehicle Fund Appropriation—Federal and Local	$	((124,000,000))	134,900,000
Total Appropriation	$	((233,000,000))	244,800,000

The appropriations in this section are provided for the location, design, right of way, and construction of state highway projects designated as category "A" under RCW 47.05.030. Any amounts expended during the 1983–85 biennium from the motor vehicle fund—state appropriation in excess of the amount appropriated under section 21, chapter 53, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. as amended by chapter 2, Laws of 1984 shall be transferred to reserve status from amounts appropriated from the motor vehicle fund—state by this section.

If federal funds become available for the Mt. St. Helens road, the transportation commission, in consultation with the legislative transportation committee, shall seek unanticipated receipts for design and construction of the Mt. St. Helens road.

Sec. 7. Section 16, chapter 460, Laws of 1985 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION—HIGHWAY CONSTRUCTION—PROGRAM B

Motor Vehicle Fund Appropriation—State	$	((52,000,000))	57,000,000
Motor Vehicle Fund Appropriation—Federal and Local	$	((478,000,000))	523,000,000
Total Appropriation	$	((530,000,000))	580,000,000

The appropriations in this section are provided for the location, design, right of way, and construction of state highway projects on the interstate system designated as category "B" under RCW 47.05.030.

The appropriation of $~~((52,000,000))~~ 57,000,000 in state funds includes $32,600,000 in proceeds from the sale of bonds authorized by RCW 47.10.790, for state matching funds for the construction of SR 90 from SR 5 to SR 405, and $~~((19,400,000))~~ 24,400,000 in proceeds from the sale of bonds authorized by RCW 47.10.801: PROVIDED, That the transportation commission may authorize the use of current revenues available to the department of transportation in lieu of bond proceeds for any part of the state appropriation.

In the event federal discretionary funds are made available to the state, the motor vehicle fund—state appropriation is increased proportionally to provide matching state funds from the sale of bonds authorized by RCW 47.10.801 not to exceed $10,000,000 and it is understood that the department shall seek unanticipated receipts for the federal portion.

In the event federal action or inaction precludes conversion of authorized advance construction—interstate projects to federal funding, up to $20,000,000 of advance construction—interstate bonds authorized by RCW 47.10.790 may be sold to partially fund the federal appropriation. In that case, the department may transfer such amount from the federal appropriation to the state appropriation in this section, without a modification in the total appropriation.

Sec. 8. Section 17, chapter 460, Laws of 1985 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION—HIGHWAY CONSTRUCTION—PROGRAM C

Motor Vehicle Fund Appropriation—State	$	((137,000,000))
			143,000,000
Motor Vehicle Fund Appropriation—Local	$	1,000,000
Total Appropriation	$	((138,000,000))	144,000,000

The appropriations in this section are provided for the location, design, right of way, and construction of state highway projects designated as category "C" under RCW 47.05.030.

The motor vehicle fund—state appropriation will be funded with the proceeds from the sale of bonds authorized in RCW 47.10.801 in the amount of $((65,000,000)) 73,000,000: PROVIDED, That the transportation commission in consultation with the legislative transportation committee may authorize the use of current revenues available to the department of transportation in lieu of bond proceeds for any part of the state appropriation.

$((4,000,000)) 10,000,000 of the motor vehicle fund—state appropriation or so much thereof as is necessary is provided for preconstruction activities on new projects to be selected by the transportation commission. Funding of these activities shall be derived in the following manner: $4,000,000 shall be funded from underexpenditures in motor vehicle fund—state appropriations in the 1983–1985 biennium ((to the extent they become available)) and $6,000,000 shall be funded with the proceeds from the sale of bonds authorized in RCW 47.10.801(1)(a): PROVIDED,

That the transportation commission in consultation with the legislative transportation committee may authorize the use of current revenues available to the department of transportation in lieu of bond proceeds for any part of the state appropriation.

Selection of category "C" projects for construction must be within projected available future funding and shall be in order of priority established by chapter 47.05 RCW unless reported in advance to the legislative transportation committee.

Sec. 9. Section 18, chapter 460, Laws of 1985 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION—CONSTRUCTION MANAGEMENT AND SUPPORT—PROGRAM D

Motor Vehicle Fund Appropriation	$	((28,583,000))
		28,883,000

The appropriation in this section is provided for the improvement and construction of buildings and other highway plant construction, for management and support of the highway construction programs, and for administrative support necessary to support cities and counties in obtaining federal aid.

$2,000,000 of the motor vehicle fund—state appropriation, or so much thereof as may be required, is provided to fund the study required by Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 130 adopted by the 1983 legislature and provided for under RCW 46.68.110 and 46.68.120 of city, county, and state highway needs in relation to current statutory distributions of motor vehicle fuel taxes, other state and local highway revenue sources, and alternatives for financing long-term highway needs, and for other related studies.

Sec. 10. Section 19, chapter 460, Laws of 1985 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION—AERONAUTICS—PROGRAM F

General Fund—Aeronautics Account Appropriation—State	$	((1,270,000))
		1,670,000
General Fund—Aeronautics Account Appropriation—Federal	$	((91,000))
		391,000
Total Appropriation	$	((1,361,000))
		2,061,000

The appropriations in this section are provided for management and support of the aeronautics division, state fund grants to local airports, development and maintenance of a state-wide airport system plan, maintenance of state-owned emergency airports, federal inspections, and the search and rescue program. The aeronautics account—state appropriation contains $~~(100,000)~~ 150,000 for transfer to the motor vehicle fund as the first of four installments in repayment of the $407,430 advanced to pay the tort settlement in the case of Osibov vs. the state of Washington, Spokane county superior court, cause No. 239168.

$100,000 of the general fund—aeronautics account—state appropriation is contingent on the enactment of Senate Bill No. 4615, amending chapter 82.36 RCW.

Sec. 11. Section 20, chapter 460, Laws of 1985 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION—
SEARCH AND RESCUE—PROGRAM F
General Fund—Search and Rescue Account

Appropriation	$	110,000
---------------------	----	---------

The appropriation in this section is provided for directing and conducting searches for missing, downed, overdue, or presumed downed general aviation aircraft; for safety and education activities necessary to insure safety of persons operating or using aircraft; and for the Washington wing civil air patrol in accordance with RCW 47.68.370.

Sec. 12. Section 21, chapter 460, Laws of 1985 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION—HIGH-WAY MAINTENANCE AND OPERATIONS—PROGRAM M

Motor Vehicle Fund Appropriation	$	(+174,195,000)
		177,495,000

The appropriation in this section is for the maintenance and operations of state highways, maintenance and operations of highway plants, and associated management and support. The appropriation includes $300,000 to be used solely for increased maintenance and other operational activities designed to accommodate additional highway traffic and visitors to the state enroute to the 1986 World Exposition.

Sec. 13. Section 25, chapter 460, Laws of 1985 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION—PLAN-NING, RESEARCH, AND PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION—PRO-GRAM T

Motor Vehicle Fund Appropriation—Feder- al	$	12,619,000

Total Public Transportation and Planning Appropriation	$ 21,447,000
---	---------------

The appropriations in this section are provided for the management and support of the public transportation and planning division, urban mass transportation administration programs, for rail programs, for studies which support local public transportation programs, for highway planning and research by the department of transportation, and for research and studies approved by the department of transportation.

The department of transportation may transfer up to $3,600,000 from the motor vehicle fund—federal appropriation to the motor vehicle fund—state appropriation if federal funds are not available to fully fund the motor vehicle fund—federal appropriation in this section.

Sec. 14. Section 27, chapter 460, Laws of 1985 (uncodified) is amended to read as follows:

FOR THE DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION—MARINE—PROGRAM W

Motor Vehicle Fund—Puget Sound Reserve Account Appropriation	$ 3,958,000
Motor Vehicle Fund—Puget Sound Ferry Operations Account Appropriation	$ ((46,400,000))
	49,290,000

	2,000,000
Total Appropriation	$ ((13,958,000))
	108,088,000

The appropriations in this section are provided for the management and support of the marine transportation division of the department of transportation and for the operation, maintenance, and capital improvements of the Washington state ferry system. The appropriations are subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(1) The Puget Sound reserve account appropriation is provided to carry out RCW 47.60.420.

(2) The Puget Sound ferry operations account appropriation is provided for the operation and maintenance of the Washington state ferries, supplementing revenues available from the Washington state ferry system. The Puget Sound ferry operations account appropriation includes up to ~~$(+4,500,000)~~ 16,385,000 transferred from the Puget Sound capital construction account in accordance with RCW 47.60.505. To the extent that revenue collections exceed that amount assumed in this act the transfer authority authorized in this subsection shall be reduced by a like amount. If the elimination of the sales tax on fuel consumed by the marine division is not enacted by July 1, 1986, then the transfer authority authorized in this subsection shall be increased by $1,005,000.

(3) The Puget Sound capital construction account appropriation is provided for improving the Washington state ferry system, including, but not limited to, vessel acquisition, vessel construction, major and minor vessel improvements, and terminal construction and improvements. The appropriation of state funds from the Puget Sound capital construction account contains $20,000,000 of the proceeds from the sale of bonds authorized by RCW 47.60.560: PROVIDED, That the transportation commission in consultation with the legislative transportation committee may authorize the use of current revenues available to the Puget Sound capital construction account in lieu of bond proceeds for any part of the state appropriation.

(4) It is the intent of the legislature that the Puget Sound capital construction account appropriation is provided to carry out the projects presented to the transportation committees of the senate and house of representatives. The department of transportation shall consult with the legislative transportation committee prior to revising the programming of these projects or adding new projects. The department of transportation shall implement the terminal projects as delineated in 1986 Supplemental Budget Request for Marine Division Capital Construction Program (dated January 16, 1986) as presented to the joint house and senate transportation committees in accordance with state procurement regulations. Should the commission determine it is not feasible to refurbish the ferry "Rhododendron", and with the approval of the legislative transportation committee, the capital appropriation of $2,500,000 provided for that purpose may be used to purchase a passenger-only vessel, provided that the marine division shall make application for reimbursement from the federal urban mass transportation administration (UMTA) for the cost of the initial vessel and any subsequent vessel purchase.

(5) Savings realized in marine operations as of the end of the fiscal period shall be placed into reserve status and no expenditure shall be made from that reserve without consulting with the legislative transportation committee and obtaining the approval of the office of financial management pursuant to RCW 43.88.110.

(6) ~~((The results of the passenger-only ferry study using leased vessels shall be reported to the legislative transportation committee during the 1986 regular session of the legislature.))~~ Prior to the implementation of any passenger-only project, the department of transportation shall request approval from the legislative transportation committee. If the project is not implemented, then $560,000 of the moneys appropriated in this section for that purpose shall not be expended for any other purpose.

(7) The traditional and customary ferry transportation service supported by these appropriations shall receive priority in the implementation of all directives contained in this section. It is the intent of the legislature that the motor vehicle fund appropriation—state of $1,140,000 contained in this section shall be expended exclusively for the support of costs associated with EXPO '86 services. Any additional costs associated with the EXPO '86 services shall be funded by fare revenue generated from EXPO '86 traffic. The marine division shall provide the legislative transportation committee with a monthly financial report concerning the status of the EXPO '86 services.

(8) Pursuant to the limitations authorized in RCW 47.64.180(1), for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1986, none of the Puget Sound ferry operations account appropriation, the Puget Sound capital construction account appropriations, or moneys in the ferry system, 1963, revolving fund may be expended to effect an increase in the base salaries for ferry employees, as ferry employee is defined in RCW 47.64.011(5), or to effect an increase in insurance benefits for any ferry employee, except as may be required by state or federal law.

(9) Pursuant to the limitations authorized in RCW 47.64.180(1), for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1987, no more than $1,135,000 of the Puget Sound ferry operations account appropriation, the Puget Sound capital construction account appropriations, or moneys in the ferry system, 1963, revolving fund may be expended to effect an increase in the base salaries for ferry employees or to effect an increase in insurance benefits for ferry employees. The amount determined for base salary increases shall be reduced by the amount by which the ferry system's contribution for employees' and dependents' insurance and health care plans exceeds that provided for other state agencies, as specified in RCW 47.64.270.

(10) After all possible internal management economies have been achieved, if an operating budget deficit still exists, the transportation commission is authorized to request authority from the legislative transportation committee to effect an interfund loan from the motor vehicle fund to the Puget Sound ferry operations account for some or all of the deficit as authorized by the legislative transportation committee: PROVIDED, That any amount loaned to the Puget Sound ferry operations account shall be repaid to the motor vehicle fund from ferry system operating revenues collected in the 1987-89 biennium.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The transportation commission shall provide a detailed analysis of feasible alternatives that will achieve a long-range balance between funding requirements of the marine division's operating and capital programs and funding sources. The commission also shall identify the alternative that it believes should be implemented and the rationale for its choice. The analysis and the commission's recommended alternative shall be submitted to the legislative transportation committee and the office of financial management no later than September 1, 1986.

If the commission's recommendation includes changes in the funding sources for the marine division, it shall provide an assessment of the impact such changes will have on other state-funded transportation programs.

Sec. 16. Section 43.10.100, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 amended by section 42, chapter 75, Laws of 1977 and RCW 43.10.100 are each amended to read as follows:

The attorney general, by February 1st of each year, shall annually prepare and report to the governor and the legislature a concise statement, in layman's terms, of all matters pertaining to his official duties, making such suggestions for lessening the public expenses and promoting frugality in the public offices as he deems expedient and proper. The attorney general shall include in his report a comprehensive summary of all cases involving tort claims against the department of transportation involving highways which were concluded and closed in the previous calendar year. The report shall include for each case closed:

- (1) A summary of the factual background of the case;
- (2) Identification of the attorneys representing the state and the opposing parties;
- (3) A synopsis of the legal theories asserted and the defenses presented;
- (4) Whether the case was tried, settled, or dismissed, and in whose favor;
- (5) The amount of any settlement or verdict reached, and the terms for payment;
- (6) A summary of all settlement offers made by the parties where a verdict was returned against the state;
- (7) The approximate number of attorney hours expended by the state on the case, together with the corresponding dollar amount billed therefor; and
- (8) Such other matters relating to the case as the attorney general deems relevant or appropriate, especially including any comments or recommendations for changes in statute law or agency practice that might effectively reduce the exposure of the state to such tort claims.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the Senate March 11, 1986.

Passed the House March 11, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

CHAPTER 314

[Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 573]

REAL PROPERTY LIENS—DISPUTES—SUPPLIES FOR PUBLIC CONSTRUCTION PROJECTS

AN ACT Relating to claims arising from improvements upon real property; amending RCW 4.16.160, 4.16.310, and 4.16.300; adding a new section to chapter 60.04 RCW; and adding a new section to chapter 60.28 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

The limitations prescribed in this chapter shall apply to actions brought in the name or for the benefit of any county or other municipality or quasi-municipality of the state, in the same manner as to actions brought by private parties: PROVIDED, That, except as provided in RCW 4.16.310, there shall be no limitation to actions brought in the name or for the benefit of the state, and no claim of right predicated upon the lapse of time shall ever be asserted against the state: AND FURTHER PROVIDED, That no previously existing statute of limitations shall be interposed as a defense to any action brought in the name or for the benefit of the state, although such statute may have run and become fully operative as a defense prior to February 27, 1903, nor shall any cause of action against the state be predicated upon such a statute.

*Sec. 1 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

All claims or causes of action as set forth in RCW 4.16.300 shall accrue, and the applicable statute of limitation shall begin to run only during the period within six years after substantial completion of construction, or during the period within six years after the termination of the services enumerated in RCW 4.16.300, whichever is later. The phrase "substantial completion of construction" shall mean the state of completion reached when an improvement upon real property may be used or occupied for its intended use. Any cause of action which has not accrued within six years after such substantial completion of construction, or within six years after such termination of services, whichever is later, shall be barred: PROVIDED, That this limitation shall not be asserted as a defense by any owner, tenant or other person in possession and control of the improvement at the time such cause of action accrues. The limitations prescribed in this section apply to all claims or causes of action as set forth in RCW 4.16.300 brought in the name or for the benefit of the state which are made or commenced after the effective date of this 1986 act.

*Sec. 2 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

Sec. 3. Section 1, chapter 75, Laws of 1967 and RCW 4.16.300 are each amended to read as follows:*

RCW 4.16.300 through 4.16.320 shall apply to all claims or causes of action of any kind against any person, arising from such person having constructed, altered or repaired any improvement upon real property, or having performed or furnished any design, planning, surveying, architectural or construction or engineering services, or supervision or observation of construction, or administration of construction contracts for any construction, alteration or repair of any improvement upon real property. This section is intended to benefit only those persons referenced herein and shall not apply to claims or causes of action against manufacturers.

Sec. 3 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.*

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 60.04 RCW to read as follows:

Any owner of real property subject to a recorded claim of lien under RCW 60.04.060, or the contractor or subcontractor who disputes the correctness or validity of the claim of lien may record, either before or after the commencement of an action to enforce the claim of lien, in the office of the county recorder or auditor in the county where the claim of lien was recorded, a bond issued by an insurance company authorized to issue surety bonds in the state, that is acceptable to the lien claimant and contains a description of the claim of lien and real property involved, and in an amount equal to the greater of five thousand dollars or two and one-half times the amount of the claim of lien if it is twenty thousand dollars or less, and in an amount equal to the greater of thirty thousand dollars or two times the amount of claim of lien if it is in excess of twenty thousand dollars. If the claim of lien affects more than one parcel of real property and is segregated to each parcel, the bond may be segregated the same as in the claim of lien. A separate bond shall be required for each claim of lien. The condition of the bond shall be to guarantee the payment of the judgment entered in any action to recover the amount claimed in a claim of lien, or on the claim asserted in the claim of lien. The effect of recording a bond shall be to release the real property described in the claim of lien from the lien and any action brought to recover the amount claimed. Unless otherwise prohibited by law, if no action is filed to recover on a claim of lien within the time specified in RCW 60.04.100 the surety shall be discharged from liability under the bond. If such an action is timely filed, then on payment of any judgment entered in the action or on payment of the full amount of the bond to the holder of the judgment, whichever is less, the surety shall be discharged from liability under the bond.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 60.28 RCW to read as follows:

Every person, firm, or corporation furnishing materials, supplies, or equipment to be used in the construction, performance, carrying on, prosecution, or doing of any work for the state, or any county, city, town, district, municipality, or other public body, shall give to the contractor of the work a notice in writing, which notice shall cover the material, supplies, or equipment furnished or leased during the sixty days preceding the giving of such notice as well as all subsequent materials, supplies, or equipment furnished or leased, stating in substance and effect that such person, firm, or corporation is and/or has furnished materials and supplies, or equipment for use thereon, with the name of the subcontractor ordering the same, and that a lien against the retained percentage may be claimed for all materials and supplies, or equipment furnished by such person, firm, or corporation for use thereon, which notice shall be given by (1) mailing the same by registered or certified mail in an envelope addressed to the contractor, or (2) by serving the same personally upon the contractor or the contractor's representative and obtaining evidence of such service in the form of a receipt or other acknowledgement signed by the contractor or the contractor's representative, and no suit or action shall be maintained in any court against the retained percentage to recover for such material, supplies, or equipment or any part thereof unless the provisions of this section have been complied with.

Passed the House March 9, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 5, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986, with the exception of certain items which were vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

Note: Governors explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to sections 1, 2 and 3, Substitute House Bill No. 573, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to claims arising from improvements upon real property."

Sections 1, 2 and 3 are identical to sections 701, 702 and 703 of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630. Since I am signing Substitute Senate Bill No. 4630, sections 1, 2 and 3 of this bill are duplicative.

With the exception of sections 1, 2 and 3, Substitute House Bill No. 573 is approved."

CHAPTER 315

[House Bill No. 1633]

TIMBER EXCISE TAX—PUBLIC TIMBER—PRIVATE PURCHASERS— HARVESTER

AN ACT Relating to taxation of timber harvested by public entities; amending RCW 84.33.035, 84.33.073, 82.04.050, and 82.04.100; reenacting and amending RCW 82.04.330; adding a new section to chapter 82.04 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 84.33 RCW; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 204, Laws of 1984 and RCW 84.33.035 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Composite property tax rate" for a county means the total amount of property taxes levied upon forest lands by all taxing districts in the county other than the state, divided by the total assessed value of all forest land in the county.

(2) "Forest land" means forest land which is classified or designated forest land under this chapter.

(3) "Harvested" means the time when in the ordinary course of business the quantity of timber by species is first definitely determined. The amount harvested shall be determined by the Scribner Decimal C Scale or other prevalent measuring practice adjusted to arrive at substantially equivalent measurements, as approved by the department of revenue.

(4) "Harvester" means every person who from the person's own land or from the land of another under a right or license granted by lease or contract, either directly or by contracting with others for the necessary labor or mechanical services, fells, cuts, or takes timber for sale or for commercial or industrial use; PROVIDED, That whenever the United States or any instrumentality thereof, the state, including its departments and institutions and political subdivisions, or any municipal corporation therein so fells, cuts, or takes timber for sale or for commercial or industrial use, the harvester is the first person other than the United States or any instrumentality thereof, the state, including its departments and institutions and political subdivisions, or any municipal corporation therein, who acquires title to or a possessory interest in such timber. The term "harvester" does not include persons performing under contract the necessary labor or mechanical services for a harvester.

(5) "Stumpage value of timber" means the appropriate stumpage value shown on tables prepared by the department of revenue under RCW 84.33-.091, provided that for timber harvested from public land and sold under a competitive bidding process, stumpage value shall mean that actual amount paid to the seller in cash or other consideration. Whenever payment for the stumpage includes considerations other than cash, the value shall be the fair market value of the other consideration, provided that if the other consideration is permanent roads, the value of the roads shall be the appraised value as appraised by the seller.

(6) "Timber" means forest trees, standing or down, on privately or publicly owned land, and except as provided in RCW 84.33.170 includes Christmas trees.

(7) "Timber assessed value" for a county means a value, calculated by the department of revenue before October 1 of each year, equal to the total stumpage value of timber harvested from privately owned land in the county during the most recent four calendar quarters for which the information is available multiplied by a ratio. The numerator of the ratio is the rate of tax imposed by the county under RCW 84.33.051 for the year of the calculation. The denominator of the ratio is the composite property tax rate for the county for taxes due in the year of the calculation, expressed as a percentage of assessed value.

(8) "Timber assessed value" for a taxing district means the timber assessed value for the county multiplied by a ratio. The numerator of the ratio is the total assessed value of forest land in the taxing district. The denominator is the total assessed value of forest land in the county. As used in this section, "assessed value of forest land" means the assessed value of forest land for taxes due in the year the timber assessed value for the county is calculated.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 146, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 3, chapter 4, Laws of 1982 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 84.33.073 are each amended to read as follows:

As used in RCW 84.33.073 and 84.33.074, the following terms have the meanings indicated unless the context clearly requires otherwise.

(1) "Small harvester" means every person who from his own land or from the land of another under a right or license granted by lease or contract, either directly or by contracting with others for the necessary labor or mechanical services, fells, cuts, or takes timber for sale or for commercial or industrial use in an amount not exceeding five hundred thousand board feet in a calendar quarter and not exceeding one million board feet in a calendar year: PROVIDED, That whenever the United States or any instrumentality thereof, the state, including its departments and institutions and political subdivisions, or any municipal corporation therein so fells, cuts, or takes timber for sale or for commercial or industrial use, not exceeding these amounts, the small harvester is the first person other than the United States or any instrumentality thereof, the state, including its departments and institutions and political subdivisions, or any municipal corporation therein, who acquires title to or a possessory interest in such timber. ((H)) "Small harvester" does not include persons performing under contract the necessary labor or mechanical services for a harvester, and it does not include harvesters of forest products classified by the department of revenue as special forest products including Christmas trees, posts, shake boards and bolts, and shingle blocks.

(2) "Timber" means forest trees, standing or down, on privately or publicly owned land.

(3) "Harvesting and marketing costs" means only those costs directly associated with harvesting the timber from the land and delivering it to the buyer and may include the costs of disposing of logging residues but it does not include any other costs which are not directly and exclusively related to harvesting and marketing of the timber such as costs of permanent roads or costs of reforesting the land following harvest.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 84.33 RCW to read as follows:

(1) If no later than thirty days after removal of classification or designation the owner applies for classification under RCW 84.34.020 (2) or (3), then the classified or designated forest land shall not be considered removed from classification or designation for purposes of the compensating tax under RCW 84.33.120 or 84.33.140 until the application for current use classification under RCW 84.34.030 is denied or the property is removed from designation under RCW 84.34.108. Upon removal from designation under RCW 84.34.108, the amount of compensating tax due under this chapter shall be equal to:

(a) The difference, if any, between the amount of tax last levied on such land as forest land and an amount equal to the new assessed valuation of such land when removed from designation under RCW 84.34.108 multiplied by the dollar rate of the last levy extended against such land, multiplied by

(b) A number equal to:

(i) The number of years the land was classified or designated under this chapter, if the total number of years the land was classified or designated under this chapter and classified under chapter 84.34 RCW is less than ten; or

(ii) Ten minus the number of years the land was classified under chapter 84.34 RCW, if the total number of years the land was classified or designated under this chapter and classified under chapter 84.34 RCW is at least ten.

(2) Nothing in this section authorizes the continued classification or designation under this chapter or defers or reduces the compensating tax imposed upon forest land not transferred to classification under subsection (1) of this section which does not meet the necessary definitions of forest land under RCW 84.33.100. Nothing in this section affects the additional tax imposed under RCW 84.34.108.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 82.04 RCW, to be codified within RCW 82.04.020 through 82.04.212, to read as follows:

"Plantation Christmas trees" means Christmas trees which are exempt from the timber excise tax under RCW 84.33.170.

*Sec. 4 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

Sec. 5. Section 1, chapter 8, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 25, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 82.04.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) "Sale at retail" or "retail sale" means every sale of tangible personal property (including articles produced, fabricated, or imprinted) to all persons irrespective of the nature of their business and including, among others, without limiting the scope hereof, persons who install, repair, clean, alter, improve, construct, or decorate real or personal property of or for consumers other than a sale to a person who (a) purchases for the purpose of resale as tangible personal property in the regular course of business without intervening use by such person, or (b) installs, repairs, cleans, alters, imprints, improves, constructs, or decorates real or personal property of or for consumers, if such tangible personal property becomes an ingredient or component of such real or personal property without intervening use by such person, or (c) purchases for the purpose of consuming the property purchased in producing for sale a new article of tangible personal property or substance, of which such property becomes an ingredient or component or is a chemical used in processing, when the primary purpose of such chemical is to create a chemical reaction directly through contact with an ingredient of a new article being produced for sale, or (d) purchases for the purpose of providing the property to consumers as part of competitive telephone service, as defined in RCW 82.04.065. The term shall include every sale of tangible personal property which is used or consumed or to be used or consumed in the performance of any activity classified as a "sale at retail" or "retail sale" even though such property is resold or utilized as provided in (a), (b), (c), or (d) above following such use. The term also means every sale of tangible personal property to persons engaged in any business which is taxable under RCW 82.04.280, subsections (2) and (7) and RCW 82.04.290.

(2) The term "sale at retail" or "retail sale" shall include the sale of or charge made for tangible personal property consumed and/or for labor and services rendered in respect to the following: (a) The installing, repairing, cleaning, altering, imprinting, or improving of tangible personal property of or for consumers, including charges made for the mere use of facilities in respect thereto, but excluding charges made for the use of coin operated laundry facilities when such facilities are situated in an apartment house, hotel, motel, rooming house, trailer camp or tourist camp for the exclusive use of the tenants thereof, and also excluding sales of laundry service to members by nonprofit associations composed exclusively of nonprofit hospitals, and excluding services rendered in respect to live animals, birds and insects; (b) the constructing, repairing, decorating, or improving of new or existing buildings or other structures under, upon, or above real property of or for consumers, including the installing or attaching of any article of tangible personal property therein or thereto, whether or not such personal property becomes a part of the realty by virtue of installation, and shall also include the sale of services or charges made for the clearing of land and the moving of earth excepting the mere leveling of land used in commercial farming or agriculture; (c) the sale of or charge made for labor and services rendered in respect to the cleaning, fumigating, razing or moving of existing buildings or structures, but shall not include the charge made for janitorial services; and for purposes of this section the term "janitorial services" shall mean those cleaning and caretaking services ordinarily performed by commercial janitor service businesses including, but not limited to, wall and window washing, floor cleaning and waxing, and the cleaning in place of rugs, drapes and upholstery. The term "janitorial services" does not include painting, papering, repairing, furnace or septic tank cleaning, snow removal or sandblasting; (d) the sale of or charge made for labor and services rendered in respect to automobile towing and similar automotive transportation services, but not in respect to those required to report and pay taxes under chapter 82.16 RCW; (e) the sale of and charge made for the furnishing of lodging and all other services by a hotel, rooming house, tourist court, motel, trailer camp, and the granting of any similar license to use real property, as distinguished from the renting or leasing of real property, and it shall be presumed that the occupancy of real property for a continuous period of one month or more constitutes a rental or lease of real property and not a mere license to use or enjoy the same; (f) the sale of or charge made for tangible personal property, labor and services to persons taxable under (a), (b), (c), (d), and (e) above when such sales or charges are for property, labor and services which are used or consumed in whole or in part by such persons in the performance of any activity defined as a "sale at retail" or "retail sale" even though such property, labor and services may be resold after such use or consumption. Nothing contained in this paragraph shall be construed to modify the first paragraph of this section and nothing contained in the first paragraph of this section shall be construed to modify this paragraph.

(3) The term "sale at retail" or "retail sale" shall include the sale of or charge made for personal business or professional services including amounts designated as interest, rents, fees, admission, and other service emoluments however designated, received by persons engaging in the following business activities: (a) Amusement and recreation businesses including but not limited to golf, pool, billiards, skating, bowling, ski lifts and tows and others; (b) abstract, title insurance and escrow businesses; (c) credit bureau businesses; (d) automobile parking and storage garage businesses.

(4) The term shall also include the renting or leasing of tangible personal property to consumers.

(5) The term shall also include the providing of telephone service, as defined in RCW 82.04.065, to consumers.

(6) The term shall not include the sale of or charge made for labor and services rendered in respect to the building, repairing, or improving of any street, place, road, highway, easement, right of way, mass public transportation terminal or parking facility, bridge, tunnel, or trestle which is owned by a municipal corporation or political subdivision of the state or by the United States and which is used or to be used primarily for foot or vehicular traffic including mass transportation vehicles of any kind, nor shall it include sales of feed, seed, seedlings, fertilizer, and spray materials to persons for the purpose of producing for sale any agricultural product whatsoever, including plantation Christmas trees and milk, eggs, wool, fur, meat, honey, or other substances obtained from animals, birds, or insects, but only when such production and subsequent sale are exempt from tax under RCW 82.04.330, nor shall it include sales of chemical sprays or washes to persons for the purpose of post-harvest treatment of fruit for the prevention of scald, fungus, mold, or decay.

(7) The term shall not include the sale of or charge made for labor and services rendered in respect to the constructing, repairing, decorating, or improving of new or existing buildings or other structures under, upon, or above real property of or for the United States, any instrumentality thereof, or a county or city housing authority created pursuant to chapter 35.82 RCW, including the installing, or attaching of any article of tangible personal property therein or thereto, whether or not such personal property becomes a part of the realty by virtue of installation. Nor shall the term include the sale of services or charges made for the clearing of land and the moving of earth of or for the United States, any instrumentality thereof, or a county or city housing authority.

*Sec. 5 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

"Extractor" means every person who from the person's own land or from the land of another under a right or license granted by lease or contract, either directly or by contracting with others for the necessary labor or mechanical services, for sale or for commercial or industrial use mines, quarries, takes or produces coal, oil, natural gas, ore, stone, sand, gravel, clay, mineral or other natural resource product, or fells, cuts or takes timber, Christmas trees other than plantation Christmas trees, or other natural products, or takes fish, or takes, cultivates, or raises shellfish, or other sea or inland water foods or products. "Extractor" does not include persons performing under contract the necessary labor or mechanical services for others ((or) persons cultivating or raising fish entirely within confined rearing areas on the person's own land or on land in which the person has a present right of possession, or persons who fell, cut, or take plantation Christmas trees from the person's own land or from land in which the person has a present right of possession.

*Sec. 6 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

*Sec. 7. Section 82.04.330, chapter 15, Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 148, Laws of 1985 and by section 10, chapter 414, Laws of 1985 and RCW 82.04.330 are each reenacted and amended to read as follows:

This chapter shall not apply to any person in respect to the business of growing or producing for sale upon the person's own lands or upon land in which the person has a present right of possession, any agricultural or horticultural produce or crop, or of raising upon the person's own lands or upon land in which the person has a present right of possession, any plantation Christmas tree or any animal, bird, fish, or insect, or the milk, eggs, wool, fur, meat, honey, or other substance obtained therefrom, or in respect to the sale of such products at wholesale by such grower, producer, or raiser thereof. This exemption shall not apply to any person selling such products at retail or using such products as ingredients in a manufacturing process, nor to the sale of any animal or substance obtained therefrom by a person in connection with the person's business of operating a stockyard or a slaughter or packing house, nor to any person in respect to the business of taking, cultivating, or raising ((Christmas trees or)) timber, nor to any association of persons whatever, whether mutual, cooperative or otherwise, engaging in any business activity with respect to which tax liability is imposed under the provisions of this chapter. As used in this section, "fish" means fish which are cultivated or raised entirely within confined rearing areas on the person's own land or on land in which the person has a present right of possession.

*Sec. 7 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. A new section is added to chapter 84.33 RCW to read as follows:

The excise tax imposed under this chapter applies to forest trees harvested after the effective date of this 1986 act from lands sold to any governmental agency by warranty deed or contract where the seller reserved to itself the right to take all merchantable timber for a specific period of years, or in perpetuity, and to forest trees harvested after the effective date of this 1986 act that any governmental agency, by quit claim deed, as partial consideration for payment of the purchase price, conveyed for a specific period of years, or in perpetuity, all forest trees, standing, growing, or lying on the described land, to the taxpayer, regardless of the date on which the contract was entered.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Section 8 of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the House March 12, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 11, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986, with the exception of certain items which were vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to sections 4, 5, 6, and 7 of House Bill No. 1633, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to taxation of timber harvested by public entities."

These sections of House Bill No. 1633 would give Christmas tree growers the tax status of farmers. Specifically, it would exempt Christmas tree plantations from the timber tax and exempt them from sales tax on seedlings, fertilizer, and other spray materials used in producing Christmas trees, as well as exempting them from the B & O tax.

In vetoing these sections, it is important to recognize that Washington already has a tax designed especially for the business of growing trees. Christmas trees are not food, and they are not used to build housing; they are luxury consumption items priced so that anyone can afford them.

The proponents of this measure argue that their tax status is a detriment to their competitive position in the interstate market, a market in which transportation costs are a dominant factor. While I believe that it is important for Washington to reexamine its tax structure in order to mitigate barriers to business development and to enhance the interstate and international competitiveness of our industries, I do not believe that tax policies are effective in offsetting primary business factors such as transportation costs. In addition, the competitive market for Christmas trees is not comparable to the "price taker" market faced by producers of agricultural products, in which suppliers of perishable products have greater difficulty in passing on any portion of their tax burden. Furthermore, I do not believe it is appropriate to extend a preferential tax status designed for producers of food to the producers of non-food luxuries simply for the purpose of improving a competitive market position, especially when this measure shows no promise of producing additional jobs for Washington.

With the exception of sections 4 through 7, House Bill No. 1633 is approved."

CHAPTER 316

[Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4418]

IRRIGATION

AN ACT Relating to irrigation; creating new sections; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. (1) The legislature finds that:

(a) The wise management and utilization of the state's water resources is in the best interests of the citizens of the state of Washington;

(b) Long-term planning of water uses and water supply projects is necessary to assure our state's water resources will be managed and utilized with the vision to maximize long-term benefits to assure that long-term opportunities are not permanently lost based on short-term conditions;

(c) Future allocations of water shall be considered in conjunction with an analysis of competing demands for water resources;

(d) It is the policy of the state to join with federal agencies and others in developing economically feasible, environmentally sound, and water conservation oriented facilities; and

(e) The state is participating in studies now being conducted by the federal government through the bureau of reclamation in the Yakima river and Columbia river basins for the purpose of determining plans for the proper development and utilization of the state's water resources under sound financing arrangements.

(2) It is the intent of the legislature that additional information be developed on future agricultural needs for water.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. (1) The director of the department of agriculture shall organize a committee including but not limited to irrigation and dry land farmers, irrigation district representatives, agricultural economists, electric utility representatives, fisheries group representatives, and electric ratepayer representatives to conduct a study on water supply availability in the Columbia Basin area. The study shall include the following:

(a) An examination of the potential for expansion of irrigated land in the state;

(b) An evaluation of the alternatives that are available to renew water rights reserved to maintain future options to expand the production of food;

(c) A review of areas in the state in which available water and irrigable land both exist that have a reasonable potential for food production to meet growing demand for food in coming decades;

(d) An analysis of the impact of additional irrigation on the competitive position and profitability of existing agriculture;

(e) A review of the impact of additional irrigation on electricity costs in the Pacific northwest and alternatives for mitigating electrical cost impact;

(f) An analysis of options that facilitate water supply availability for irrigation through conservation and other methods;

(g) A supply and demand analysis of major crops produced in the state including an investigation of alternative crops for those that are in surplus;

(h) A review of available analyses of jobs and economic activity derived from future expansion of other major energy consuming industries and major water uses and their related dependent industries as compared to the jobs and economic activity of future expansion of irrigated agriculture and its related dependent industries. Consistent economic assumptions and methodology shall be used in developing this comparative analysis; and

(i) A review of the bureau of reclamation draft environmental impact statement and other relevant federal reports. The committee organized by the director of agriculture under this section shall not create new data which duplicates the data being developed by the environmental impact statement process.

(2) The director of the department of agriculture shall submit a preliminary report by January 1, 1987, and a final report by January 1, 1988, to the governor and the legislature.

(3) Persons appointed to the committee shall be entitled to reimbursement by the department of agriculture under RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03-.060 for travel expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.

Sec. 2 was partially vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. The director of the department of ecology shall:

(1) Continue to participate with the federal government in its studies of the Yakima enhancement project and of options for future development of the second half of the Columbia Basin project;

(2) Vigorously represent the state's interest in said studies, particularly as they relate to protection of existing water rights and resolution of conflicts in the adjudication of the Yakima river within the framework of state water rights law and propose means of resolving the conflict that minimize adverse effects on the various existing uses;

(3) As a cooperative federal and nonfederal effort, work with members of the congressional delegation to identify and advance for federal authorization elements of the Yakima enhancement project which: Have general public support and acceptable cost-sharing arrangements, meet study objectives, and otherwise have potential for early implementation; and

(4) In developing acceptable cost-sharing arrangements, request federal recognition of state credit for expenditures of moneys from Washington state utility ratepayers.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) The department of ecology is authorized to transfer funds currently available from Referendum 38, up to one hundred fifty thousand dollars, to the department of agriculture, together with necessary full-time equivalent staff years, for direct, indirect, and contractual purposes to conduct studies required under section 2 of this act.

(2) The department of ecology is authorized to expend up to two hundred fifty thousand dollars of currently available Referendum 38 funds, together with necessary full-time equivalent staff years, for direct, indirect, and contractual purposes to accomplish the activities required under section 3 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the Senate March 8, 1986.

Passed the House March 5, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986, with the exception of certain items which were vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 2(2), Substitute Senate Bill No. 4418, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to irrigation."

Substitute Senate Bill No. 4418 is an important piece of legislation that maintains the state's strong commitment to the timely completion of the Yakima irrigation enhancement project. The work on the Yakima project should proceed as called for in the bill.

The legislation also restates the Department of Agriculture's legitimate role as an advocate of water resources projects needed to help meet future agricultural water needs, and seeks to preserve the state's option to participate in the second half of a feasible Columbia Basin irrigation project.

Section 2 requires the Department of Agriculture to establish a committee to study water supply availability in the Columbia Basin area and make a preliminary report to the Governor and Legislature by January 1, 1987, with the final report by January 1, 1988.

The primary objective of the study is to develop a formal process to enable the state to maintain its option to participate in a feasible Columbia Basin project.

The Federal Bureau of Reclamation is in the initial stages of preparing its required Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) on the second half of the Columbia Basin project. The draft EIS is scheduled to be available for review and comment in December 1986, and will require a state response. The study timetable called for in section 2(2) could place the state in the untenable position of having to respond to the EIS and indicate a preferred project alternative as much as one full year in advance of completion of its own study.

Therefore, I am vetoing section 2(2) and asking the Director of the Department of Agriculture to develop a time schedule for activities, including dates for preliminary and final reports, and to inform the Legislature of the timetable. The timetable for the Columbia Basin water availability study should be consistent with the schedule for the Bureau of Reclamation's Environmental Impact Statement. That schedule calls for the draft EIS to be available for review in December 1986.

The committee specifically called for in section 2(1) would contain a number of key interest groups vital to the Columbia Basin project decision-making process. Other equally important interests—local government, recognized environmental organizations and Indian tribes—are absent. I am asking the Director of the Department of Agriculture to review the composition of the committee and to make certain that the entire range of interests and organizations necessary to make timely, objective decisions on appropriate participation in the Columbia Basin Project serve on the committee. The committee shall establish and maintain communications with the Governor and the Legislature.

A number of the issues identified for study in section 2(1) have already been at least partially addressed in past studies or ongoing assessments conducted by the state, the Bureau of Reclamation, the Bonneville Power Administration or the Northwest Power Planning Council. Section 2(1)(i) instructs the committee not to duplicate data being developed by the Bureau of Reclamation in its Environmental Impact Statement process. I am further directing the Department to ensure that the committee extends the mandate to avoid duplication, including duplication of previous or ongoing studies, to all elements of the study, not just those items enumerated in section 2(1)(i).

With the exception of section 2(2), Substitute Senate Bill 4418 is approved."

CHAPTER 317

[Reengrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3182]

RETIREMENT—REENTER STATE SERVICE—REINSTATEMENT OF WITHDRAWN CONTRIBUTIONS PROVIDED FOR

AN ACT Relating to retirement from public service; amending RCW 41.32.500, 41.40.150, 41.40.120, 44.44.040 and 41.04.330; adding a new section to chapter 41.40 RCW; creating a new section; making appropriations; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that in the past public employees and teachers who had terminated employment, withdrawn their retirement contributions, and subsequently returned to public employment or teaching either did not receive proper notification of the procedure to reinstate their withdrawn contributions or they did not fully understand the limitation on such reinstatement. In 1973, the legislature recognized this fact and provided an extraordinary reinstatement period for such employees. Further in 1983, the legislature established clear notification procedures for the proper notification of the reinstatement policy for all such returning employees. Therefore, it is the intent of this 1985 act to provide one last opportunity for reinstatement of withdrawn contributions to those who may have not been properly informed or misunderstood the reinstatement procedure.

Sec. 2. Section 50, chapter 80, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 1, chapter 233, Laws of 1983 and RCW 41.32.500 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Membership in the retirement system is terminated when a member retires for service or disability, dies, withdraws his accumulated contributions or does not establish service credit with the retirement system for five consecutive years; however, a member may retain membership in the teachers' retirement system by leaving his accumulated contributions in the teachers' retirement fund under one of the following conditions:

(a) If he is eligible for retirement;

(b) If he is a member of another public retirement system in the state of Washington by reason of change in employment and has arranged to have membership extended during the period of such employment;

(c) If he is not eligible for retirement but has established five or more years of Washington membership service credit.

The prior service certificate becomes void when a member dies, withdraws his accumulated contributions or does not establish service credit with the retirement system for five consecutive years, and any prior administrative interpretation of the board of trustees, consistent with this section, is hereby ratified, affirmed and approved.

(2) Any member, except an elected official, who reentered service and who failed to restore withdrawn contributions, shall now have from the effective date of this 1986 act through June 30, 1987, to restore the contributions, with interest as determined by the director.

(3) Within the ninety days following the employee's resumption of employment, the employer shall notify the department of the resumption and the department shall then return to the employer a statement of the potential service credit to be restored, the amount of funds required for restoration, and the date when the restoration must be accomplished. The employee shall be given a copy of the statement and shall sign a copy of the statement which signed copy shall be placed in the employee's personnel file.

Sec. 3. Section 16, chapter 274, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 2, chapter 233, Laws of 1983 and RCW 41.40.150 are each amended to read as follows:

Should any member die, or should the individual separate or be separated from service without leave of absence before attaining age sixty years, or should the individual become a beneficiary, except a beneficiary of an optional retirement allowance as provided by RCW 41.40.185 or 41.40.190, the individual shall thereupon cease to be a member except;

(1) As provided in RCW 41.40.170.

(2) An employee not previously retired who reenters service shall upon completion of six months of continuous service and upon the restoration of all withdrawn contributions with interest as computed by the director, which restoration must be completed within a total period of five years of membership service following the member's first resumption of employment, be returned to the status, either as an original member or new member which the member held at time of separation.

(3) Any member, except an elected official, who reentered service and who failed to restore withdrawn contributions, shall now have from the effective date of this 1986 act through June 30, 1987, to restore the contributions, with interest as determined by the director.

(4) Within the ninety days following the employee's resumption of employment, the employer shall notify the department of the resumption and the department shall then return to the employer a statement of the potential service credit to be restored, the amount of funds required for restoration, and the date when the restoration must be accomplished. The employee shall be given a copy of the statement and shall sign a copy of the statement which signed copy shall be placed in the employee's personnel file.

(5) A member who separates or has separated after having completed at least five years of service shall remain a member during the period of absence from service for the exclusive purpose of receiving a retirement allowance to begin at attainment of age sixty-five, however, such a member may on written notice to the director elect to receive a reduced retirement allowance on or after age sixty which allowance shall be the actuarial equivalent of the sum necessary to pay regular retirement benefits as of age sixty-five: PROVIDED, That if such member should withdraw all or part of the member's accumulated contributions except those additional contributions made pursuant to RCW 41.40.330(2), the individual shall thereupon cease to be a member and this section shall not apply.

(6) (a) The recipient of a retirement allowance who is employed in an eligible position other than under RCW 41.40.120(12) shall be considered to have terminated his or her retirement status and shall immediately become a member of the retirement system with the status of membership the member held as of the date of retirement. Retirement benefits shall be suspended during the period of eligible employment and the individual shall make contributions and receive membership credit. Such a member shall have the right to again retire if eligible in accordance with RCW 41.40.180: PROVIDED, That where any such right to retire is exercised to become effective before the member has rendered two uninterrupted years of service the type of retirement allowance the member had at the time of the member's previous retirement shall be reinstated, but no additional service credit shall be allowed;

(b) The recipient of a retirement allowance elected to office or appointed to office directly by the governor, and who shall apply for and be accepted in membership as provided in RCW 41.40.120(3) shall be considered to have terminated his or her retirement status and shall become a member of the retirement system with the status of membership the member held as of the date of retirement. Retirement benefits shall be suspended from the date of return to membership until the date when the member again retires and the member shall make contributions and receive membership credit. Such a member shall have the right to again retire if eligible in accordance with RCW 41.40.180: PROVIDED, That where any such right to retire is exercised to become effective before the member has rendered six uninterrupted months of service the type of retirement allowance the member had at the time of the member's previous retirement shall be reinstated, but no additional service credit shall be allowed: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That if such a recipient of a retirement allowance does not elect to apply for reentry into membership as provided in RCW 41.40.120(3), the member shall be considered to remain in a retirement status and the individual's retirement benefits shall continue without interruption.

(7) Any member who leaves the employment of an employer and enters the employ of a public agency or agencies of the state of Washington, other than those within the jurisdiction of the Washington public employees' retirement system, and who establishes membership in a retirement system or a pension fund operated by such agency or agencies and who shall continue membership therein until attaining age sixty, shall remain a member for the exclusive purpose of receiving a retirement allowance without the limitation found in RCW 41.40.180(1) to begin on attainment of age sixty-five(-); however, such a member may on written notice to the director elect to receive a reduced retirement allowance on or after age sixty which allowance shall be the actuarial equivalent of the sum necessary to pay regular retirement benefits commencing at age sixty-five: PROVIDED, That if such member should withdraw all or part of the member's accumulated contributions except those additional contributions made pursuant to RCW 41.40.330(2), the individual shall thereupon cease to be a member and this section shall not apply.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 41.40 RCW to read as follows:

Those currently employed members who were eligible to recover service earned prior to July 1, 1953, under a retirement system authorized pursuant to RCW 28B.10.400 through 28B.10.430, but who failed to do so, shall have until June 30, 1987, to pay the appropriate employee and employer contributions plus interest, as determined by the director of retirement systems, for such service which was not so recovered.

Sec. 5. Section 13, chapter 274, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 13, chapter 184, Laws of 1984 and RCW 41.40.120 are each amended to read as follows:

Membership in the retirement system shall consist of all regularly compensated employees and appointive and elective officials of employers, as defined in this chapter, with the following exceptions:

(1) Persons in ineligible positions;

(2) Employees of the legislature except the officers thereof elected by the members of the senate and the house and legislative committees, unless membership of such employees be authorized by the said committee;

(3) Persons holding elective offices or persons appointed directly by the governor: PROVIDED, That such persons shall have the option of applying for membership during such periods of employment: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That any persons holding or who have held elective offices or persons appointed by the governor who are members in the retirement system and who have, prior to becoming such members, previously held an elective office, and did not at the start of such initial or successive terms of office exercise their option to become members, may apply for membership to be effective during such term or terms of office, and shall be allowed to establish the service credit applicable to such term or terms of office upon payment of the employee contributions therefor by the employee with interest as determined by the director and employer contributions therefor by the employer or employee with interest as determined by the director: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That all contributions with interest submitted by the employee under this subsection shall be placed in the employee's individual account in the employee's savings fund and be treated as any other contribution made by the employee, with the exception that any contributions submitted by the employee in payment of the employer's obligation, together with the interest the director may apply to the employer's contribution, shall not be considered part of the member's annuity for any purpose except withdrawal of contributions;

(4) Employees holding membership in, or receiving pension benefits under, any retirement plan operated wholly or in part by an agency of the state or political subdivision thereof, or who are by reason of their current employment contributing to or otherwise establishing the right to receive benefits from any such retirement plan: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, In any case where the retirement system has in existence an agreement with another retirement system in connection with exchange of service credit or an agreement whereby members can retain service credit in more than one system, such an employee shall be allowed membership rights should the agreement so provide: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That an employee shall be allowed membership if otherwise eligible while receiving survivor's benefits: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That an employee shall not either before or after June 7, 1984, be excluded from membership or denied service credit pursuant to this subsection solely on account of enrollment under the relief and compensation provisions or the pension provisions of the volunteer firemen's relief and pension fund under chapter 41.24 RCW;

(5) Patient and inmate help in state charitable, penal, and correctional institutions;

(6) "Members" of a state veterans' home or state soldiers' home;

(7) Persons employed by an institution of higher learning or community college, primarily as an incident to and in furtherance of their education or training, or the education or training of a spouse;

(8) Employees of an institution of higher learning or community college during the period of service necessary to establish eligibility for membership in the retirement plans operated by such institutions;

(9) Persons rendering professional services to an employer on a fee, retainer, or contract basis or when the income from these services is less than fifty percent of the gross income received from the person's practice of a profession;

(10) Persons appointed after April 1, 1963, by the liquor control board as agency vendors;

(11) Employees of a labor guild, association, or organization: PROVIDED, That elective officials and employees of a labor guild, association, or organization which qualifies as an employer within this chapter shall have the option of applying for membership;

(12) Persons hired in eligible positions on a temporary basis for a period not to exceed six months: PROVIDED, That if such employees are employed for more than six months in an eligible position they shall become members of the system;

(13) Persons employed by or appointed or elected as an official of a first class city that has its own retirement system: PROVIDED, That any member elected or appointed to an elective office on or after April 1, 1971, shall have the option of continuing as a member of this system in lieu of becoming a member of the city system. A member who elects to continue as a member of this system shall pay the appropriate member contributions and the city shall pay the employer contributions at the rates prescribed by this chapter. The city shall also transfer to this system all of such member's accumulated contributions together with such further amounts as necessary to equal all employee and employer contributions which would have been paid into this system on account of such service with the city and thereupon the member shall be granted credit for all such service. Any city that becomes an employer as defined in RCW 41.40.010(4) as the result of an individual's election under the first proviso of this subsection shall not be required to have all employees covered for retirement under the provisions of this chapter. Nothing in this subsection shall prohibit a city of the first class with its own retirement system from transferring all of its current employees to the retirement system established under this chapter. Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, persons transferring from employment with a first class city of over four hundred thousand population that has its own retirement system to employment with the state department of agriculture may elect to remain within the retirement system of such city and the state shall pay the employer contributions for such persons at like rates as prescribed for employers of other members of such system;

(14) Employees who (a) are not citizens of the United States, (b) do not reside in the United States, and (c) perform duties outside of the United States;

(15) Employees who (a) are not citizens of the United States, (b) are not covered by chapter 41.48 RCW, (c) are not excluded from membership under this chapter or chapter 41.04 RCW, (d) are residents of this state, and (e) make an irrevocable election to be excluded from membership, in writing, which is submitted to the director within thirty days after employment in an eligible position;

(16) Employees who are citizens of the United States and who reside and perform duties for an employer outside of the United States: PROVIDED, That unless otherwise excluded under this chapter or chapter 41.04 RCW, the employee may apply for membership (a) within thirty days after employment in an eligible position and membership service credit shall be granted from the first day of membership service, and (b) after this thirty-day period, but membership service credit shall be granted only from the date of application;

(17) The city manager or chief administrative officer of a city or town who serves at the pleasure of an appointing authority: PROVIDED, That such persons shall have the option of applying for membership within thirty days from date of their appointment to such positions. Persons serving in such positions as of the effective date of this 1986 act shall continue to be members in the retirement system unless they notify the director in writing prior to December 31, 1986, of their desire to withdraw from membership in the retirement system. A member who withdraws from membership in the system under this section shall receive a refund of the member's accumulated contributions.

Sec. 6. Section 22, chapter 105, Laws of 1975-'76 2nd ex. sess. and RCW 44.44.040 are each amended to read as follows:

The state actuary shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) Perform all actuarial services for the department of retirement systems, including all studies required by law. Reimbursement for such services shall be made to the state actuary pursuant to the provisions of RCW 39-.34.130 as now or hereafter amended.

(2) Advise the legislature and the governor regarding the benefit provisions, funding policies, and investment policies of the department of retirement systems.

(3) Consult with the legislature and the governor concerning determination of actuarial assumptions used by the department of retirement systems.

(4) Prepare a report, to be known as the actuarial fiscal note, on each pension bill introduced in the legislature which ~~((shall))~~ briefly explains the financial impact of the bill. The actuarial fiscal note shall include: (a) The statutorily required contribution for the biennium and the following twenty-five years; (b) the biennial cost of the increased benefits if these exceed the required contribution; and (c) any change in the present value of the unfunded accrued benefits. An actuarial fiscal note shall also be prepared for all amendments which are offered in committee or on the floor of the house of representatives or the senate to any pension bill. However, a majority of the members present may suspend the requirement for an actuarial fiscal note for amendments offered on the floor of the house of representatives or the senate.

(5) Provide such actuarial services to the legislature as may be requested from time to time.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is created a sixteen-member joint committee on public retirement during the 1986 interim as follows:

(1) The president of the senate shall appoint eight members, with four members to be appointed from each caucus;

(2) The speaker of the house of representatives shall appoint eight members, with four members to be appointed from each caucus.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Until June 1, 1987, the director of retirement systems is authorized to retroactively suspend any administrative action initiated on or after January 1, 1986, to recover pension overpayments from retirees who have returned to covered employment.

This section shall not be codified and shall be effective only until May 31, 1987.

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (a) There is hereby appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1987, one hundred six thousand dollars from the retirement systems expense fund to the department of retirement systems to carry out the administrative purposes of this act.

(b) There is hereby appropriated for the biennium ending June 30, 1987, two million eight hundred thousand dollars from the general fund to the department of retirement systems for the increased contributions required of the state by this act. Of this amount, one million two hundred thousand dollars shall be deposited in the public employees' retirement fund and one million six hundred thousand dollars shall be deposited in the teachers' retirement fund.

*Sec. 9 was partially vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

Sec. 10. Section 12, chapter 205, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 41-.04.330 are each amended to read as follows:

The provisions of this 1979 amendatory act shall apply only to court decrees of dissolution or legal separation and court-approved property settlement agreements regardless of whether entered before or after ((May 25, 1979)) the effective date of this 1986 act, and only to those persons who have actually retired.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately.

Passed the Senate March 8, 1986.

Passed the House March 5, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986, with the exception of certain items which were vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 9(b), Reengrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3182, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to retirement from public service."

Section 9(b) appropriates $2,800,000 for contribution to the pension trust fund for this biennium. The fiscal impact for the remaining provisions of this measure is $1,200,000 and therefore the appropriated amount is excessive.

The Department of Retirement Systems, in consultation with the Office of the State Actuary, will revise the employer contribution rate for the Public Employees and Teachers Systems so as to assure the appropriate cost of this legislation is collected by the system during this biennium.

With the exception of section 9(b), Reengrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3182 is approved."

CHAPTER 318

[Senate Bill No. 3397]

WILDLIFE—ILLEGAL POSSESSION—BAIL

AN ACT Relating to game and game fish; amending RCW 77.21.070; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

*Sec. 1. Section 3, chapter 8, Laws of 1983 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 336, chapter 258, Laws of 1984 and RCW 77.21.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever a person is convicted of illegal (~~hunting or~~) possession of wildlife listed in this subsection, the convicting court shall order the person to reimburse the state in the following amounts for each animal killed or possessed:

- (a) Moose, antelope, mountain sheep, mountain goat, and all wildlife species classified as endangered by rule of the commission $1,000
- (b) Elk, deer, black bear, and cougar $500

(2) For the purpose of this section, the term "convicted" includes a plea of guilty, a finding of guilt regardless of whether the imposition of the sentence is deferred or any part of the penalty is suspended, and the payment of a fine. No court may establish bail for illegal possession of wildlife listed in subsection (1) in an amount less than the bail established for hunting during the closed season plus the reimbursement value of wildlife set forth in subsection (1).

(3) If two or more persons are convicted of illegally (~~hunting or~~) possessing wildlife listed in this section, the reimbursement amount shall be imposed upon them jointly and separately.

(4) The reimbursement amount provided in this section shall be imposed in addition to and regardless of any penalty, including fines, or costs, that is provided for violating any provision of Title 77 RCW. The reimbursement required by this section shall be included by the court in any pronouncement of sentence and may not be suspended, waived, modified, or deferred in any respect. Nothing in this section may be construed to abridge or alter alternative rights of action or remedies in equity or under common law or statutory law, criminal or civil.

(5) A defaulted reimbursement or any installment payment thereof may be collected by any means authorized by law for the enforcement of orders of the court or collection of a fine or costs, including vacation of a deferral of sentencing or of a suspension of sentence.

(6) All moneys derived from reimbursements required under this section shall be remitted to the credit of the state game fund.

*Sec. 1 was partially vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect June 30, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 12, 1986.

Passed the House March 11, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986, with the exception of certain items which were vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 1(6), Senate Bill No. 3397, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to game and game fish."

Section 1(6) of this bill would direct to the Game Fund, rather than to the Public Safety and Education fund, reimbursements to the state for the value of game animals taken illegally.

These reimbursements were directed to the Public Safety and Education Fund by the 1984 Court Reform Act, which did away with a very cumbersome system of separate accounting for numerous small special purpose court collections. The unified and simplified system now in place is vastly superior to its predecessor. The change contemplated by this subsection would be a step backward toward the old system. Moreover, the change is unnecessary because the Game Department receives appropriations from the Public Safety and Education Fund.

For this reason, I have vetoed section 1(6) of Senate Bill No. 3397."

CHAPTER 319

[Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4705]

COMMUNICATING WITH A MINOR FOR IMMORAL PURPOSES

AN ACT Relating to communications with minors for immoral purposes; amending RCW 9.68A.090, 9.68A.050, and 9.68A.110; and prescribing penalties.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

Sec. 1. Section 4, chapter 262, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.68A.050 are each amended to read as follows:

A person who:

(1) Knowingly develops, duplicates, publishes, prints, disseminates, exchanges, finances, attempts to finance, or sells any visual or printed matter that depicts a minor engaged in an act of sexually explicit conduct; or

(2) Possesses with intent to develop, duplicate, publish, print, disseminate, exchange, or sell any visual or printed matter that depicts a minor engaged in an act of sexually explicit conduct; or

(3) Knowingly exposes a minor to visual or printed matter that depicts a minor engaged in an act of sexually explicit conduct is guilty of a class C felony punishable under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

((3)) (4) As used in this section, "minor" means a person under ((sixteen)) eighteen years of age.

*Sec. 1 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

Sec. 2. Section 8, chapter 262, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.68A.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A person who communicates with a minor for immoral purposes is guilty of a gross misdemeanor, unless that person has previously been convicted under this section or of a felony sexual offense under chapter 9.68A, 9A.44, or 9A.64 RCW or of any other felony sexual offense in this or any other state, in which case the person is guilty of a class C felony punishable under chapter 9A.20 RCW.

(2) As used in this section, "minor" means a person under ~~((sixteen))~~ eighteen years of age.

Sec. 3. Section 10, chapter 262, Laws of 1984 and RCW 9.68A.110 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In a prosecution under RCW 9.68A.040, it is not a defense that the defendant was involved in activities of law enforcement and prosecution agencies in the investigation and prosecution of criminal offenses. Law enforcement and prosecution agencies shall not employ minors to aid in the investigation of a violation of RCW 9.68A.090 or 9.68A.100. This chapter does not apply to individual case treatment in a recognized medical facility or individual case treatment by a psychiatrist or psychologist licensed under Title 18 RCW, or to lawful conduct between spouses.

(2) In a prosecution under RCW 9.68A.050, 9.68A.060, 9.68A.070, or 9.68A.080, it is not a defense that the defendant did not know the age of the child depicted in the visual or printed matter: PROVIDED, That it is a defense, which the defendant must prove by a preponderance of the evidence, that at the time of the offense the defendant was not in possession of any facts on the basis of which he or she should reasonably have known that the person depicted was a minor.

(3) In a prosecution under RCW 9.68A.040, 9.68A.090, or 9.68A.100, it is not a defense that the defendant did not know the alleged victim's age: PROVIDED, That it is a defense, which the defendant must prove by a preponderance of the evidence, that at the time of the offense, the defendant reasonably believed the alleged victim to be at least eighteen years of age based on declarations by the alleged victim.

(4) In a prosecution under RCW 9.68A.050(~~(;)~~) or 9.68A.060(~~(; or 9.68A.090)~~), it is not a defense that the defendant did not know the alleged victim's age: PROVIDED, That it is a defense, which the defendant must prove by a preponderance of the evidence, that at the time of the offense, the defendant reasonably believed the alleged victim to be at least sixteen years of age based on declarations by the alleged victim.

(5) In a prosecution under RCW 9.68A.050, 9.68A.060, or 9.68A.070, the state is not required to establish the identity of the alleged victim.

Passed the Senate March 11, 1986.

Passed the House March 5, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986, with the exception of certain items which were vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 1, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4705, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to communications with minors for immoral purposes."

Minors should be protected from exposure to sexually explicit material. Unfortunately, the language used in section 1 of this measure is both broad and unclear, and poses serious problems for libraries. Library staff would have to begin policing minors who use their facilities, and this is not an appropriate role. Unfortunately, provisions which would have exempted libraries and their staff from having to enforce this provision were deleted from the bill.

Selection of books for public libraries has historically been the responsibility of local library boards; I am satisfied this system continues to provide adequate safeguards for communities. Additionally, there are materials used by professional counselors and caseworkers in working with sexually abused children which may be suspect under this section.

Also, the definition of "minor" in section 1 is changed to age eighteen, which puts it in conflict with RCW 9.68A.110 — the defense section to RCW 9.68A.050 — which still refers to the age of a minor as sixteen. This will create serious problems and make the law unenforceable.

With the exception of section 1, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4705 is approved."

CHAPTER 320

[Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4620]

MOTOR VEHICLE FUELS—RETAIL TRADING PRACTICES

AN ACT Relating to retail trading practices in the sale of motor vehicle fuels; adding a new chapter to Title 19 RCW; creating a new section; prescribing penalties; making an appropriation; providing an effective date; and declaring an emergency.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Advertisement" means any written or printed communication or any communication by means of recorded telephone messages or spoken on radio, television, or similar communication media published in connection with an offer or sale of a franchise.

(2) "Affiliate" means any person, firm, or corporation who controls or is controlled by any motor fuel refiner-supplier, and includes any subsidiary or affiliated corporation in which the motor fuel refiner-supplier or its shareholders, officers, agents, or employees hold or control more than twenty-five percent of the voting shares.

(3) "Community interest" means a continuing financial interest between the motor fuel refiner-supplier and motor fuel retailer in the operation of the franchise business.

(4) "Marketing area" means an area five miles or less in any direction from a motor fuel retailer selling products of any trademark of the motor fuel refiner-supplier.

(5) "Motor fuel" means gasoline or diesel fuel of a type distributed for use in self-propelled motor vehicles and includes gasohol.

(6) "Motor fuel franchise" means any oral or written contract, either expressed or implied, between a motor fuel refiner-supplier and motor fuel retailer under which the motor fuel retailer is supplied motor fuel for resale to the public under a trademark owned or controlled by the motor fuel refiner-supplier or for sale on commission or for a fee to the public, or any agreements between a motor fuel refiner-supplier and motor fuel retailer under which the retailer is permitted to occupy premises owned, leased, or controlled by the refiner-supplier for the purpose of engaging in the retail sale of motor fuel under a trademark owned or controlled by the motor fuel refiner-supplier supplied by the motor fuel refiner-supplier.

(7) "Motor fuel refiner-supplier" means any person, firm, or corporation, including any affiliate of the person, firm, or corporation, engaged in the refining of crude oil into petroleum who supplies motor fuel for sale, consignment, or distribution through retail outlets and has an operable refinery capacity of three hundred twenty-five thousand barrels a day or more as reported to the federal department of energy.

(8) "Motor fuel retailer" means a person, firm, or corporation that resells motor fuel entirely at one or more retail motor fuel outlets pursuant to a motor fuel franchise entered into with a refiner-supplier.

(9) "Offer or offer to sell" includes every attempt or offer to dispose of or solicitation of an offer to buy a franchise or an interest in a franchise.

(10) "Person" means a natural person, corporation, partnership, trust, or other entity and in the case of an entity, it shall include any other entity which has a majority interest in such an entity or effectively controls such other entity as well as the individual officers, directors, and other persons in act of control of the activities of each such entity.

(11) "Price" means the net purchase price, after adjustment for commission, brokerage, rebate, discount, services or facilities furnished, or other such adjustment.

(12) "Publish" means publicly to issue or circulate by newspaper, mail, radio, or television or otherwise to disseminate to the public.

(13) "Retail motor fuel outlet" means any location where motor fuel is distributed for purposes other than resale.

(14) "Sale or sell" includes every contract of sale, contract to sell, or disposition of a franchise.

(15) "Trademark" means any trademark, trade name, service mark, or other identifying symbol or name.

*Sec. 1 was partially vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. It is unlawful for any motor fuel refiner-supplier to discriminate in price between motor fuel retailers in the same marketing area for purchases of motor fuel of like grade and quality, where the effect of the discrimination may be substantially to injure, destroy, or prevent competition with any motor fuel retailer who receives the benefit of the discrimination, or with the customers of either motor fuel retailer. Nothing in this section prevents differentials which make only due allowance for differences in the cost of manufacture, sale, or delivery resulting from the differing methods or quantities in which the fuel is sold to motor fuel retailers. Upon proof being made of discrimination under this section, the burden of rebutting the prima facie case thus made by showing justification is upon the refiner-supplier. A refiner-supplier may show justification by establishing that a differential price was only made in good faith to meet an equally low price of a competitor if the price was also offered to all other motor fuel retailers under any trademark of the refiner-supplier within the same marketing area as the motor fuel retailer receiving the lower price.

*Sec. 2 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Notwithstanding the terms of any motor fuel franchise, a motor fuel refiner-supplier shall not absolutely prohibit or unreasonably withhold its consent to any sale, assignment, or other transfer of the motor fuel franchise by a motor fuel retailer to a third party without fairly compensating the motor fuel retailer for the fair market value, at the time of expiration of the franchise, of the motor fuel retailer's inventory, supplies, equipment, and furnishings purchased from the motor fuel refiner-supplier, and good will, exclusive of personalized materials which have no value to the motor fuel refiner-supplier, and inventory, supplies, equipment, and furnishings not reasonably required in the conduct of the franchise business. A motor fuel refiner-supplier may offset against amounts owed to a motor fuel retailer under this section any amounts owed by the motor fuel retailer to the motor fuel refiner-supplier.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Notwithstanding the terms of any motor fuel franchise, no motor fuel refiner-supplier may prohibit or prevent the sale, assignment, or other transfer of the motor fuel franchise to a corporation in which the motor fuel retailer has and maintains a controlling interest if the motor fuel retailer offers in writing personally to guarantee the performance of the obligations under the motor fuel franchise.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Notwithstanding the terms of any motor fuel franchise, the interest of a motor fuel retailer under such an agreement shall be considered personal property and shall devolve on the death of the motor fuel retailer to a designated successor in interest of the retailer, limited to the retailer's spouse, adult child, or adult stepchild or, if no successor in interest is designated, to the retailer's spouse, if any. The designation shall be made, witnessed in writing by at least two persons, and delivered to the motor fuel refiner-supplier during the term of the franchise. The designation may be revised at any time by the motor fuel retailer and shall be substantially in the following form:

"I (motor fuel retailer name) at the service station located at, in the City of, Washington, designate as my successor in interest under section 4 of this act and as my alternate successor if the originally designated successor is unable or unwilling so to act.

I so specify this day of, 19..."

The motor fuel refiner-supplier shall assist the designated successor in interest temporarily in the day-to-day operation of the service station to insure continued operation of the service station.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Notwithstanding the terms of any motor fuel franchise, the motor fuel retailer shall be given the right of first refusal to purchase the real estate and/or improvements owned by the refiner-supplier at the franchise location, and at least thirty days' advance notice within which to exercise this right, prior to any sale thereof to any other buyer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Notwithstanding the terms of any motor fuel franchise, no motor fuel refiner-supplier may:

- (1) Require any motor fuel retailer to meet mandatory minimum sales volume requirements for fuel or other products unless the refiner-supplier proves that its price to the motor fuel retailer has been sufficiently low to enable the motor fuel retailer reasonably to meet the mandatory minimum;
- (2) Alter, or require the motor fuel retailer to consent to the alteration of, any provision of the motor fuel franchise during its effective term without mutual consent of the motor fuel retailer;
- (3) Interfere with any motor fuel retailer's right to assistance of counsel on any matter or to join or be active in any trade association; and
- (4) Set or compel, directly or indirectly, the retail price at which the motor fuel retailer sells motor fuel or other products to the public.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. It is unlawful for any person in connection with the offer, sale, or purchase of any motor fuel franchise directly or indirectly:

- (1) To sell or offer to sell a motor fuel franchise in this state by means of any written or oral communication which includes an untrue statement of a material fact or omits to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made in light of the circumstances under which they were made not misleading.
- (2) To employ any device, scheme, or artifice to defraud.

(3) To engage in any act, practice, or course of business which operates or would operate as a fraud or deceit upon any person.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Without limiting the other provisions of this chapter, the following specific rights and prohibitions shall govern the relation between the motor fuel refiner-supplier and the motor fuel retailers:

(1) The parties shall deal with each other in good faith.

(2) For the purposes of this chapter and without limiting its general application, it shall be an unfair or deceptive act or practice or an unfair method of competition and therefore unlawful and a violation of this chapter for any person to:

(a) Require a motor fuel retailer to purchase or lease goods or services of the motor fuel refiner-supplier or from approved sources of supply unless and to the extent that the motor fuel refiner-supplier satisfies the burden of proving that such restrictive purchasing agreements are reasonably necessary for a lawful purpose justified on business grounds, and do not substantially affect competition: PROVIDED, That this provision shall not apply to the initial inventory of the motor fuel franchise. In determining whether a requirement to purchase or lease goods or services constitutes an unfair or deceptive act or practice or an unfair method of competition the courts shall be guided by the decisions of the courts of the United States interpreting and applying the anti-trust laws of the United States.

(b) Discriminate between motor fuel retailers in the charges offered or made for royalties, goods, services, equipment, rentals, advertising services, or in any other business dealing, unless and to the extent that the motor fuel refiner-supplier satisfies the burden of proving that any classification of or discrimination between motor fuel retailers is reasonable, is based on motor fuel franchises granted at materially different times and such discrimination is reasonably related to such difference in time or on other proper and justifiable distinctions considering the purposes of this chapter, and is not arbitrary.

(c) Sell, rent, or offer to sell to a motor fuel retailer any product or service for more than a fair and reasonable price.

(d) Require motor fuel retailer to assent to a release, assignment, novation, or waiver which would relieve any person from liability imposed by this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) Any person who sells or offers to sell a motor fuel franchise in violation of this chapter shall be liable to the motor fuel retailer or motor fuel refiner-supplier who may sue at law or in equity for damages caused thereby for rescission or other relief as the court may deem appropriate. In the case of a violation of section 8 of this act rescission is not available to the plaintiff if the defendant proves that the plaintiff knew the facts concerning the untruth or omission or that the defendant exercised reasonable care and did not know or if he had exercised reasonable care would not have known of the untruth or omission.

(2) The suit authorized under subsection (1) of this section may be brought to recover the actual damages sustained by the plaintiff: PROVIDED, That the prevailing party may in the discretion of the court recover the costs of said action including a reasonable attorneys' fee.

(3) Any person who becomes liable to make payments under this section may recover contributions as in cases of contracts from any persons who, if sued separately, would have been liable to make the same payment.

(4) A final judgment, order, or decree heretofore or hereafter rendered against a person in any civil, criminal, or administrative proceedings under the United States anti-trust laws, under the Federal Trade Commission Act, or this chapter shall be regarded as evidence against such persons in any action brought by any party against such person under subsection (1) of this section as to all matters which said judgment or decree would be an estoppel between the parties thereto.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The pendency of any civil, criminal, or administrative proceedings against a person brought by the federal or Washington state governments or any of their agencies under the anti-trust laws, the Federal Trade Commission Act, or any federal or state act related to anti-trust laws or to franchising, or under this chapter shall toll the limitation of this action if the action is then instituted within one year after the final judgment or order in such proceedings: PROVIDED, That said limitation of actions shall in any case toll the law so long as there is actual concealment on the part of the person.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Any motor fuel retailer who is injured in his or her business by the commission of any act prohibited by this chapter, or any motor fuel retailer injured because of his or her refusal to accede to a proposal for an arrangement which, if consummated, would be in violation of this chapter may bring a civil action in superior court to enjoin further violations, to recover the actual damages sustained by him or her, or both, together with the costs of the suit, including reasonable attorney's fees.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) The attorney general may bring an action in the name of the state against any person to restrain and prevent the doing of any act herein prohibited or declared to be unlawful. The prevailing party may in the discretion of the court recover the costs of such action including a reasonable attorneys' fee.

(2) Nothing in this chapter limits the power of the state to punish any person for any conduct which constitutes a crime by statute or at common law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. In any proceeding under this chapter, the burden of proving an exception or an exemption from definition is upon the person claiming it. Any condition, stipulation or provision purporting to bind any person acquiring a motor fuel franchise at the time of entering into a motor fuel franchise or other agreement to waive compliance with any provision of this chapter or any rule or order hereunder is void.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The provisions of this chapter apply to any motor fuel franchise or contract entered into or renewed on or after the effective date of this act between a motor fuel refiner-supplier and a motor fuel retailer.

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. The Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW, shall wherever applicable herein govern the rights, remedies, and procedures respecting the administration of this chapter.

*Sec. 16 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. It is the intent of the legislature that this chapter be interpreted consistent with chapter 19.100 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. This chapter shall be liberally construed to effectuate its beneficial purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. This chapter shall be known as the "Gasoline Dealer Bill of Rights Act."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. The Washington state attorney general shall conduct a study to determine whether motor fuel refiner-suppliers are injuring competition from motor fuel retailers, by charging retailers that sell products under their trademark, prices for motor fuel which equal or exceed the prices charged for motor fuel in the same geographic market to retail customers at retail motor fuel outlets operated by company personnel, a subsidiary company, or commissioned or contract agents. The attorney general shall report his findings and recommendations to the legislature by December 1, 1986. Periodic reports shall be submitted to the legislative transportation committee. For the purposes of this study, the attorney general is authorized to use all of the civil investigative demand powers enumerated in RCW 19.86.110, subject to the procedures and requirements specified in RCW 19.86.110: PROVIDED, That disclosure of documentary material, answers to written interrogatories, or transcripts of oral testimony produced pursuant to a demand, or the contents thereof, to members of the legislature and legislative staff shall not require a court order unless the documentary material, answers to written interrogatories, or transcripts of oral testimony are identified at the time they are furnished as containing trade secrets. When seeking a court order allowing disclosure of material containing trade secrets, the attorney general shall give reasonable notice of such proceeding to the party furnishing the material.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. To carry out this act, the sum of forty-nine thousand dollars, or as much thereof as may be necessary, is appropriated to the office of attorney general from the motor vehicle fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1987.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. Sections 1 through 19 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 19 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. (1) Sections 20 and 21 are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions and shall take effect immediately.

(2) Sections 1 through 19, 22 and 23 of this act shall take effect June 30, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 9, 1986.

Passed the House March 7, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986, with the exception of certain items which were vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to sections 1(4), 1(7) in part, 2 and 16, Engrossed Senate Bill 4620, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to retail trading practices in the sale of motor vehicle fuels."

This legislation creates a separate franchise law that regulates the business relationship between motor fuel refiner-suppliers and motor fuel retailers.

The Legislature has devoted substantial time and effort to examining allegations that the major oil companies are employing predatory pricing and other unfair practices against the independent lessee-dealers to whom they supply gasoline and other products. These allegations are occurring during a period when the nature of retail gasoline marketing is undergoing significant changes. Preserving a market niche for independent lessee-dealers in this changing environment has been a major concern of the Legislature. Accordingly, Senate Resolution 1985-92 created a Select Committee to investigate these allegations and to submit its findings and recommendations to the Legislature. This legislation is largely a product of the Select Committee's work.

The Select Committee's findings are reflected in the major components of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4620: (1) recognition and protection of lessee-dealers' franchise rights, (2) prohibitions against certain unfair trade practices and provision of legal remedies to address violations, (3) authorization for a study by the Attorney General to determine whether motor fuel refiner-suppliers are employing unfair price discrimination between their owner-operated retail outlets and their lessee-dealers in the wholesale price charged for fuel, and (4) prohibitions against motor fuel refiner-suppliers unfairly discriminating in the wholesale price of fuel charged to their motor-fuel retailers in the same five-mile marketing area.

I have carefully considered all of these elements, and I support essentially all but those provisions relating to refiner-supplier price discrimination against lessee-dealers in the same marketing area, as contained in section 2 of the legislation. While I can appreciate this as a thoughtful attempt to establish a way to address alleged unfair pricing practices, I am not convinced that section 2 is a workable means for ensuring a competitive gasoline market that protects the lessee-dealers or benefits the consumers.

Therefore, I am vetoing section 2, as well as section 1(4) which defines the "marketing area" applicable to section 2, and a portion of section 1(7) that exempts certain "motor fuel refiner-suppliers" from the jurisdiction of this legislation.

In addition, since no administrative remedies are provided in this legislation, I am also vetoing section 16 which is an unneeded reference to the Administrative Procedure Act.

I will be awaiting the results of the Attorney General's investigation of alleged unfair wholesale price discrimination employed by refiner-suppliers between their owner-operated stations and their independent lessee-dealers. This effort is to be completed by December 1, 1986. The civil investigative demand powers of the Attorney General should be effective in evaluating these alleged practices, which were the genesis of the Legislature's concern but which they were unable to document. Until these results are available, the legislation as approved should provide substantial protection for the investments and franchise rights of lessee-dealers.

With the exception of sections 1(4), 1(7) in part, 2 and 16, Engrossed Senate Bill 4620 is approved."

CHAPTER 321

[Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4627]

CIGARETTE WHOLESALERS AND RETAILERS

AN ACT Relating to cigarette wholesalers and retailers; amending RCW 19.91.010; adding a new section to chapter 19.91 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 82.24 RCW; creating a new section; repealing RCW 19.91.911, 19.91.010, 19.91.020, 19.91.030, 19.91.040, 19.91.050, 19.91.060, 19.91.070, 19.91.080, 19.91.090, 19.91.100, 19.91.110, 19.91.120, 19.91.130, 19.91.140, 19.91.150, 19.91.160, 19.91.170, 19.91.180, 19.91.190, 19.91.900, and 19.91.910; prescribing penalties; and providing an effective date.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. It is the policy of the legislature to encourage competition by reducing the government's role in price setting. It is the legislature's intent to leave price setting mainly to the forces of the marketplace. In the field of cigarette sales, the legislature finds that the goal of open competition should be balanced against the public policy disallowing use of cigarette sales as loss leaders. To balance these public policies, it is the intent of the legislature to repeal the unfair cigarette sales below cost act and to declare the use of cigarettes as loss leaders as an unfair practice under the consumer protection act.

*Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 2, Laws of 1983 as amended by section 1, chapter 173, Laws of 1984 and RCW 19.91.010 are each amended to read as follows:

When used in this chapter, the following words and phrases shall have the meaning ascribed to them in this section, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

(1) "Person" means and includes any individual, firm, association, company, partnership, corporation, joint stock company, club, agency, syndicate, municipal corporation, or other political subdivision of this state, trust, receiver, trustee, fiduciary and conservator.

(2) "Wholesaler" includes any person who:

(a) Purchases cigarettes directly from the manufacturer, or

(b) Purchases cigarettes from any other person who purchases from or through the manufacturer, for the purpose of bona fide resale to retail dealers or to other persons for the purpose of resale only, or

(c) Services retail outlets by the maintenance of an established place of business for the purchase of cigarettes, including, but not limited to, the maintenance of warehousing facilities for the storage and distribution of cigarettes.

Nothing contained herein shall prevent a person from qualifying in different capacities as both a "wholesaler" and "retailer" under the applicable provisions of this chapter.

(3) "Retailer" means and includes any person who operates a store, stand, booth, concession, or vending machine for the purpose of making sales of cigarettes at retail.

(4) "Cigarettes" means any roll for smoking made wholly or in part of tobacco, irrespective of size or shape and whether or not such tobacco is flavored, adulterated, or mixed with any other ingredient, the wrapper or cover of which is made of paper or any other substance or material except tobacco.

(5) "Sale" means any transfer for a consideration, exchange, barter, gift, offer for sale and distribution, in any manner, or by any means whatsoever.

(6) "Sell at wholesale", "sale at wholesale" and "wholesale" sales mean and include any bona fide transfer of title to cigarettes for a valuable consideration, made in the ordinary course of trade or in the usual conduct of the wholesaler's business, to a retailer for the purpose of resale.

(7) "Sell at retail", "sale at retail" and "retail sales" mean and include any transfer of title to cigarettes for a valuable consideration, made in the ordinary course of trade or usual conduct of the seller's business, to the purchaser for consumption or use.

(8) "Basic cost of cigarettes" means the invoice cost of cigarettes to the retailer or wholesaler, as the case may be, or the replacement cost of cigarettes to the retailer or wholesaler, as the case may be, in the quantity last purchased, whichever is lower, to which shall be added the full face value of any stamps which may be required by any cigarette tax act of this state and by ordinance of any municipality thereof, now in effect or hereafter enacted, if not already included by the manufacturer in his list price. (~~The disposition of the manufacturers' cash discount is at the discretion of the wholesaler. Any retailer or wholesaler who actually receives and sells cigarettes with trade or cash discounts shall execute a sworn affidavit and obtain a sworn affidavit from the person granting the discount, whether a manufacturer or wholesaler, which shows: (a) Amount or rate of the discount, (b) date the discount was granted, (c) names of the persons granting and receiving the discount, and (d) whether the discount is for cash or trade purposes. Sworn~~

~~affidavits under this section are maintained for five years and available for inspection by the department of revenue's request. The department of revenue may impose a civil penalty not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars for each failure to maintain affidavits under this section.~~

~~Nothing in this section may be construed to require any retailer to obtain affidavits from retail purchasers of cigarettes.))~~

(9) (a) The term "cost to the wholesaler" means the "basic cost of cigarettes" to the wholesaler plus the "cost of doing business by the wholesaler" which said cost of doing business amount shall be expressed percentage-wise in the ratio that said wholesalers "cost of doing business" bears to said wholesalers dollar volume for all products sold by the wholesaler per annum, and said "cost of doing business by the wholesaler" shall be evidenced and determined by the standards and methods of accounting regularly employed by him for the purpose of federal income tax reporting for the total operation of his establishment in his allocation of overhead costs and expenses, paid or incurred, and must include, without limitation, labor costs (including reasonable salaries for partners, executives, and officers), rent, depreciation, selling cost, maintenance of equipment, delivery costs, all types of licenses, taxes, insurance and advertising, expressed as a percentage and applied to the "basic cost of cigarettes". Any fractional part of a cent amounting to one-tenth of one cent or more in cost to the wholesaler per carton of ten packages of cigarettes shall be rounded off to the next higher cent.

(b) For the purposes of this chapter the "cost of doing business" may not be computed using a percentage less than the overall percentage shown in subsection (9)(a) of this section or in the absence of the filing with the department of revenue of satisfactory proof of a lesser or higher cost of doing business by the wholesaler making the sale, the "cost of doing business by the wholesaler" shall be presumed to be ~~((four percent))~~ the percentage of the "basic cost of cigarettes" to the wholesaler specified in (c) of this subsection, plus cartage to the retail outlet, if performed or paid for by the wholesaler, which cartage cost, in the absence of the filing with the department of revenue of satisfactory proof of a lesser or higher cost, shall be deemed to be one-half of one percent of the "basic cost of cigarettes" to the wholesaler.

(c) For the purposes of (b) of this subsection, the percentage of the basic cost of cigarettes to the wholesaler shall be:

(i) Four percent until July 1, 1987;

(ii) Three and one-half percent from July 1, 1987, until July 1, 1988;

(iii) Three percent from July 1, 1988, until July 1, 1989;

(iv) Two and one-half percent from July 1, 1989, until July 1, 1990;

and

(v) Two percent from July 1, 1990, until July 1, 1991.

(10) (a) The term "cost to the retailer" means the "basic cost of cigarettes" to the retailer plus the "cost of doing business by the retailer" which said cost of doing business amount shall be expressed percentage-wise in the ratio that said retailers "cost of doing business" bears to said retailers dollar volume per annum, and said "cost of doing business by the retailer" shall be evidenced and determined by the standards and methods of accounting regularly employed by him for the purpose of federal income tax reporting for the total operation of his establishment in his allocation of overhead costs and expenses, paid or incurred, and must include, without limitation, labor (including reasonable salaries for partners, executives, and officers), rent, depreciation, selling costs, maintenance of equipment, delivery costs, all types of licenses, taxes, insurance and advertising, expressed as a percentage and applied to the "basic cost of cigarettes": PROVIDED, That any retailer who, in connection with the retailer's purchase, receives not only the discounts ordinarily allowed upon purchases by a retailer but also, in whole or in part, discounts ordinarily allowed upon purchases by a wholesaler shall, in determining "cost to the retailer", pursuant to this subdivision, add the "cost of doing business by the wholesaler," as defined in subdivision (9) of this section, to the "basic cost of cigarettes" to said retailer, as well as the "cost of doing business by the retailer". Any fractional part of a cent amounting to one-tenth of one cent or more in cost to the retailer per carton of ten packages of cigarettes shall be rounded off to the next higher cent.

(b) In the absence of the filing with the department of revenue of satisfactory proof of a lesser or higher cost of doing business by the retailer making the sale, the "cost of doing business by the retailer" shall be presumed to be ~~((twelve and five-tenths percent))~~ the percentage of the "basic cost of cigarettes" to the retailer specified in (d) of this subsection.

(c) In the absence of the filing with the department of revenue of satisfactory proof of a lesser or higher cost of doing business, the "cost of doing business by the retailer", who, in connection with the retailer's purchase, receives not only the discounts ordinarily allowed upon purchases by a retailer but also, in whole or in part, the discounts ordinarily allowed upon purchases by a wholesaler, shall be presumed to be ~~((twelve and five-tenths percent))~~ the percentage of the sum of the "basic cost of cigarettes" and the "cost of doing business by the wholesaler" specified in (d) of this subsection.

(d) For the purposes of (b) and (c) of this subsection, the percentage shall be:

(i) Eleven and one-half percent until July 1, 1987;

(ii) Ten and one-half percent from July 1, 1987, until July 1, 1988;

(iii) Nine and one-half percent from July 1, 1988, until July 1, 1989;

(iv) Eight and one-half percent from July 1, 1989, until July 1, 1990;

(v) Seven and one-half percent from July 1, 1990, until July 1, 1991.

(11) "Business day" means any day other than a Sunday or a legal holiday.

(12) "Master license system" means the mechanism established by chapter 19.02 RCW by which master licenses, endorsed for individual state-issued licenses, are issued and renewed utilizing a master application and a master license expiration date common to each renewable license endorsement.

*Sec. 2 was partially vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 173, Laws of 1984 and RCW 19.91.911 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. No person may engage in or conduct the business of purchasing, selling, consigning, or distributing cigarettes in this state without a license under this chapter. A violation of this section is a misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) The licenses issuable under this chapter are as follows:

- (a) A wholesaler's license.
- (b) A retailer's license.

(2) Application for the licenses shall be made through the master license system under chapter 19.02 RCW. The department of revenue shall adopt rules regarding the regulation of the licenses. The department of revenue may refrain from the issuance of any license under this chapter if the department has reasonable cause to believe that the applicant has wilfully withheld information requested for the purpose of determining the eligibility of the applicant to receive a license, or if the department has reasonable cause to believe that information submitted in the application is false or misleading or is not made in good faith. Each such license shall expire on the master license expiration date, and each such license shall be continued annually if the licensee has paid the required fee and complied with all the provisions of this chapter and the rules of the department of revenue made pursuant thereto.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. A fee of six hundred fifty dollars shall accompany each wholesaler's license application or license renewal application. If a wholesaler sells or intends to sell cigarettes at two or more places of business, whether established or temporary, a separate license with a license fee of one hundred fifteen dollars shall be required for each additional place of business. Each license, or certificate thereof, and such other evidence of license as the department of revenue requires, shall be exhibited in the place of business for which it is issued and in such manner as is prescribed for the display of a master license. The department of revenue shall require each licensed wholesaler to file with the department a bond in an amount not less than one thousand dollars to guarantee the proper performance of the duties and the discharge of the liabilities under this chapter. The bond shall be executed by such licensed wholesaler as principal, and by a corporation approved by the department of revenue and authorized to engage in business as a surety company in this state, as surety. The bond shall run concurrently with the wholesaler's license.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. A fee of ten dollars shall accompany each retailer's license application or license renewal application. A fee of one additional dollar for each vending machine shall accompany each application or renewal for a license issued to a retail dealer operating a cigarette vending machine.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Any person licensed only as a wholesaler, or as a retail dealer, shall not operate in any other capacity unless the additional appropriate license or licenses are first secured. A violation of this section is a misdemeanor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) The department of revenue shall enforce the provisions of this chapter. The department of revenue may adopt, amend, and repeal rules necessary to enforce and administer the provisions of this chapter. The department of revenue has full power and authority to revoke or suspend the license or permit of any wholesale or retail cigarette dealer in the state upon sufficient cause appearing of the violation of this chapter or upon the failure of such licensee to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter.

(2) A license shall not be suspended or revoked except upon notice to the licensee and after a hearing as prescribed by the department of revenue. The department of revenue, upon a finding by same, that the licensee has failed to comply with any provision of this chapter or any rule promulgated thereunder, shall, in the case of the first offender, suspend the license or licenses of the licensee for a period of not less than thirty consecutive business days, and, in the case of a second or plural offender, shall suspend the license or licenses for a period of not less than ninety consecutive business days nor more than twelve months, and, in the event the department of revenue finds the offender has been guilty of wilful and persistent violations, it may revoke the license or licenses.

(3) Any person whose license or licenses have been so revoked may apply to the department of revenue at the expiration of one year for a reinstatement of the license or licenses. The license or licenses may be reinstated by the department of revenue if it appears to the satisfaction of the department of revenue that the licensee will comply with the provisions of this chapter and the rules promulgated thereunder.

(4) A person whose license has been suspended or revoked shall not sell cigarettes or permit cigarettes to be sold during the period of such suspension or revocation on the premises occupied by the person or upon other premises controlled by the person or others or in any other manner or form whatever.

(5) Any determination and order by the department of revenue, and any order of suspension or revocation by the department of revenue of the license or licenses, or refusal to reinstate a license or licenses after revocation shall be reviewable by an appeal to the superior court of Thurston county. The superior court shall review the order or ruling of the department of revenue and may hear the matter de novo, having due regard to the provisions of this chapter and the duties imposed upon the department of revenue.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. All fees and penalties received or collected by the department of revenue pursuant to this chapter shall be paid to the state treasurer, to be credited to the general fund.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A cigarette wholesalers or retailers license issued by the department of licensing under RCW 19.91.130 in good standing on the effective date of this section constitutes a license under section 4 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. Sections 4 through 10 of this act are each added to chapter 82.24 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. A new section is added to chapter 19.91 RCW to read as follows:

No person licensed to sell cigarettes under chapter 82.24 RCW may sell cigarettes below the actual price paid. Violations of this section constitute unfair or deceptive acts or practices under the consumer protection act, chapter 19.86 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 3, chapter 2, Laws of 1983, section 1, chapter 173, Laws of 1984, section 2 of this 1986 act and RCW 19.91.010;

(2) Section 2, chapter 286, Laws of 1957 and RCW 19.91.020;

(3) Section 3, chapter 286, Laws of 1957 and RCW 19.91.030;

(4) Section 4, chapter 286, Laws of 1957 and RCW 19.91.040;

(5) Section 5, chapter 286, Laws of 1957 and RCW 19.91.050;

(6) Section 6, chapter 286, Laws of 1957 and RCW 19.91.060;

(7) Section 7, chapter 286, Laws of 1957 and RCW 19.91.070;

(8) Section 8, chapter 286, Laws of 1957, section 13, chapter 278, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 19.91.080;

(9) Section 9, chapter 286, Laws of 1957 and RCW 19.91.090;

(10) Section 10, chapter 286, Laws of 1957 and RCW 19.91.100;

(11) Section 11, chapter 286, Laws of 1957 and RCW 19.91.110;

(12) Section 12, chapter 286, Laws of 1957 and RCW 19.91.120;

(13) Section 13, chapter 286, Laws of 1957, section 14, chapter 278, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess., section 35, chapter 182, Laws of 1982 and RCW 19.91.130;

(14) Section 4, chapter 2, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.91.140;

(15) Section 5, chapter 2, Laws of 1983 and RCW 19.91.150;

(16) Section 16, chapter 286, Laws of 1957 and RCW 19.91.160;

(17) Section 17, chapter 286, Laws of 1957 and RCW 19.91.170;

(18) Section 18, chapter 286, Laws of 1957, section 17, chapter 278, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess., section 4, chapter 16, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 19.91.180;

(19) Section 19, chapter 286, Laws of 1957, section 1, chapter 172, Laws of 1959, section 2, chapter 107, Laws of 1979 and RCW 19.91.190;

(20) Section 20, chapter 286, Laws of 1957 and RCW 19.91.900; and

(21) Section 21, chapter 286, Laws of 1957, section 5, chapter 16, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 19.91.910.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. Sections 1 and 4 through 14 of this act shall take effect on July 1, 1991.

Passed the Senate March 4, 1986.

Passed the House March 1, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986, with the exception of certain items which are vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 2(8), Substitute Senate Bill No. 4627, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to cigarette wholesalers and retailers."

I strongly agree with the intent of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4627 to "increase competition by reducing government's role in price setting" of cigarettes. I believe that increased market competition benefits the consumer.

I also agree that the Unfair Cigarette Below Cost Act, the current law which is amended by this bill, should not be terminated in June 1986. Rather, I favor a phase-out of state cigarette price regulation as proposed in Substitute Senate Bill No. 4627, allowing the market to adjust to free market practices over a five-year period. State regulation would then terminate completely in 1991. This approach is consistent with the Legislative Budget Committee's conclusion in its mandated study of the Unfair Cigarette Below Cost Act, "that Chapter 19.91 RCW be extended in its current form and then be automatically phased out over a five-year period."

However, I'm concerned over a potential problem created by the bill's inconsistent treatment of cigarette manufacturers' discounts. Section 2(8) of the bill deletes the provision in current law which specifically authorizes wholesalers to pass cigarette manufacturers' cash discounts through to the retailer. Deleting this express authority granted to wholesalers in section 2(8) of the current law appears to create an ambiguity with regard to section 2(10) which is retained in current law by this bill. Section 2(10) specifies how the retailer shall account to the Department of Revenue for discounts received from cigarette wholesalers. The Department of Revenue would probably be required to rule on this ambiguity with the potential for litigation to resolve the issue.

As a policy matter, if wholesalers are not allowed to pass manufacturers' discounts to retailers, contrary to current law, the effect would be to increase the mandatory wholesale price of cigarettes. This situation would be entirely inconsistent with the intent of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4627, and the Legislative Budget Committee's recommendation, to deregulate state price controls.

In considering a veto of section 2(8), I recognize that the current law pertaining to the treatment of manufacturers' discounts does not have the same effect on all segments of the cigarette wholesaling industry. Nonetheless, the current law has been in effect since 1984, which has already provided a period for the industry to adjust to the discount provision. I believe that the interests of the consumer are best served by retaining the discount provisions of current law, and continuing the move towards market pricing for cigarettes. Therefore, I am vetoing section 2(8) of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4627, which restores the provisions of current law regarding manufacturers' discounts.

With the exception of section 2(8), Substitute Senate Bill No. 4627 has been approved.*

[Reengrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4305]
BAIL BONDS

AN ACT Relating to bail bonds; amending RCW 10.19.090; and adding new sections to chapter 10.19 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 10.19 RCW to read as follows:

The surety on the appearance bond shall be released from liability when the case against the person is dismissed, the case is deferred, the person is acquitted, or the person is found guilty of the charges made the basis for the appearance bond.

*Sec. 1 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

*Sec. 2. Section 1, page 103, Laws of 1867 as last amended by section 1137, Code of 1881 and RCW 10.19.090 are each amended to read as follows:

In criminal cases where a recognizance for the appearance of any person, either as a witness or to appear and answer, shall have been taken and a default entered, the recognizance shall be declared forfeited by the court(;; and)). At the time of adjudging such forfeiture said court shall enter judgment against the principal and sureties named in such recognizance for the sum therein mentioned or an amount less than that stated in the bond if recommended by the prosecuting attorney and approved by the court or approved by the court on its own motion, and execution may issue thereon the same as upon other judgments. If the surety is not notified by the court in writing of the unexplained failure of the defendant to appear within thirty days of the date for appearance, then the forfeiture shall be null and void and the recognizance exonerated.

*Sec. 2 was partially vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. A new section is added to chapter 10.19 RCW to read as follows:

If a forfeiture has been entered against a person in a criminal case and the person is returned to custody or produced in court within twelve months from the forfeiture, then the full amount of the bond, less any and all costs determined by the court to have been incurred by law enforcement in transporting, locating, apprehending, or processing the return of the person to the jurisdiction of the court, shall be remitted to the surety if the surety was directly responsible for producing the person in court or directly responsible for apprehension of the person by law enforcement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to chapter 10.19 RCW to read as follows:

The liability of the surety is limited to the amount of the bond when acting within the scope of the surety's duties in issuing the bond.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. A new section is added to chapter 10.19 RCW to read as follows:

The surety on the bond may return to custody a person in a criminal case under the surety's bond if the surrender is accompanied by a notice of forfeiture or a notarized affidavit specifying the reasons for the surrender. The surrender shall be made to the facility in which the person was originally held in custody or the county or city jail affiliated with the court issuing the warrant resulting in bail.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

Passed the Senate March 8, 1986.

Passed the House March 5, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986, with the exception of certain items which were vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to sections 1 and 2 in part of Re-engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4305, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to bail bonds."

This bill makes a number of changes relating to the legal processes for providing bail and appearance bonds.

Section 1 of this bill would relieve sureties of the responsibility of insuring the appearance of bonded defendants through the entire court hearing process by releasing the sureties' liability at conviction. Sureties would no longer remain liable until the sentencing hearing. This section reverses an effective long-standing policy. This section would also require that the defendant obtain a new bond for the period of time between conviction and sentencing with a resultant additional costs. If the defendant did not or could not get a new bond, the county would have to house the defendant in jail. These changes are undesirable from the standpoint of both the defendant and the county. Currently, the sureties can protect their interests by advising the court that a defendant will flee if found guilty and the bond should not be extended.

In section 2, I am vetoing the change proposed in the first sentence. The portion of section 2 that I am vetoing is the statement "or an amount less than that stated in the bond if recommended by the prosecuting attorney and approved by the court or approved by the court of its own motion." This change would allow a court to reduce the size of the forfeiture that must be made when the defendant fails to appear at court. Reducing the face value of the bond when the defendant fails to appear could undermine the incentive to bring defendants to justice, thereby weakening the criminal justice process.

For these reasons I have vetoed sections 1 and 2 in part of Re-engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4305.

With the exception of the vetoed sections, Re-engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4305 is approved."

CHAPTER 323

[Substitute Senate Bill No. 4525]

LEGISLATURE—RETENTION OF COUNSEL

AN ACT Relating to legal representation of the legislature; and adding a new section to chapter 43.10 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 43.10 RCW to read as follows:

The legislature may employ or retain counsel of its own choosing. However, the legislature shall notify the attorney general whenever it makes a decision to use the services of such counsel to represent it or any of its members in a particular judicial or administrative proceeding. With respect to any such proceeding where the legislature has not so notified the attorney general, the attorney general shall represent the legislature until so notified. For purposes of this section, "legislature" means the senate and house of representatives together, either the senate or the house of representatives by itself, or any committee or entity of the legislative branch having the authority to select its own employees. The major purposes of this section are to confirm and implement in statute law the constitutional power of the legislative branch to select its own counsel.

Sec. 1 partially vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

Passed the Senate March 8, 1986.

Passed the House March 4, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986, with the exception of certain items which were vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to part of section 1, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4525, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to legal representation of the legislature."

The Attorney General presently represents all the branches of government in Washington State — the Legislature, the Executive and the Judiciary. This bill would allow the Legislature, the House, the Senate, or any committee or entity which hires its own staff to retain council of their own choosing to represent them in judicial and administrative proceedings. This is a substantial policy change.

The portion of section 1 which I am vetoing results in limiting the authority to retain counsel to the House of Representatives and the Senate together. This allows the Legislature as an institution to retain counsel. Without this limitation, I believe this authority to hire counsel would be too broad.

With the exception of the language in section 1 granting the House, the Senate and the committees or entities of the Legislature which hire their own staff the authority to retain separately legal counsel, I am signing Substitute Senate Bill No. 4525."

AUCTIONS

AN ACT Relating to auctions; amending RCW 18.11.050, 18.11.060, 18.11.070, 18.11.100, 18.11.130, 18.11.140, 18.11.150, 18.11.160, 18.11.170, 18.11.180, 18.11.190, 18.11.200, and 18.11.210; adding new sections to chapter 18.11 RCW; creating a new section; repealing RCW 18.11.080, 18.11.090, 18.11.110, 18.11.120, 18.11.900, 18.11.910, 18.12.010, 18.12.020, 18.12.030, 18.12.040, 18.12.050, 18.12.060, 18.12.070, 18.12.080, 18.12.090, 18.12.100, 18.12.110, 18.12.120, 18.12.130, 18.12.140, 18.12.150, 18.12.160, 18.12.170, 18.12.180, 18.12.190, 18.12.200, and 18.12.900; prescribing penalties; and providing an effective date.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. This chapter may be known and cited as the "auctioneer registration act."

Sec. 2. Section 5, chapter 205, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.11.050 are each amended to read as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Auctioneer" means ~~((a person who sells goods or real estate at public auction for another on commission or for recompense, or one who conducts an auction for another on commission or for recompense))~~ an individual who calls bids at an auction.

(2) "Auction" ~~((or "sale at auction"))~~ means ~~((the verbal))~~ a transaction conducted by means of exchanges between an auctioneer and the members of his or her audience, constituting a series of invitations for offers for the ((sale)) purchase of goods or real property made by the auctioneer, offers by members of the audience, and the acceptance of the highest or most favorable offer ((by the auctioneer)).

(3) "Auction mart" means any fixed or established place designed, intended, or used for the conduct of auctions ~~((sales)).~~

(4) "Auction company" means a sole proprietorship, partnership, corporation, or other legal or commercial entity that sells or offers to sell goods or real estate at auction or arranges, sponsors, or manages auctions. The term "auction company" shall exclude any sole proprietorship owned by an auctioneer licensed under this chapter whose gross annual sales do not exceed twenty-five thousand dollars.

(5) "Department" means the department of licensing.

~~((5))~~ (6) "Director" means the director of licensing.

~~((6))~~ (7) "Person" means an individual, ((or a partner or member of a firm,)) partnership, ((or)) association, ((or an officer, director, or employee of a)) corporation, or any other form of business enterprise.

~~((7))~~ (8) "Goods" mean wares, chattels, merchandise, or personal property owned or consigned, which may be lawfully kept or offered for sale((, including domestic animals and farm products)).

~~((8) "Qualified public depository" means a depository defined by RCW 39.58.010, a credit union as governed by chapter 31.12 RCW, a mutual savings bank as governed by Title 32 RCW, a savings and loan association as governed by Title 33 RCW, or a federal credit union or a federal savings and loan association organized, operated, and governed by any act of Congress.))~~

(9) "License" means state authority to operate as an auctioneer or auction company, which authority is conferred by issuance of a certificate of registration subject to annual renewal.

(10) "Licensee" means an auctioneer or auction company registered under this chapter.

Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 205, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.11.060 are each amended to read as follows:

This chapter shall be administered under chapter 43.24 RCW. The director shall set registration and renewal fees in accordance with RCW 43.24.086. If an auctioneer or auction company does not renew a license before it expires, the renewal shall be subject to payment of a penalty fee.

Sec. 4. Section 6, chapter 205, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.11.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ((On and after June 10, 1982,)) It is unlawful for any person to act as an auctioneer((-) or for an auction company to engage in ((the)) any business ((of an auctioneer)) in this state without a license. ((A person conducting an auction or sale at auction of equipment, livestock, household goods, personal property, or real estate individually owned by that person is not required to obtain a license.))

(2) This ((section)) chapter does not apply to ((an auction or a sale at auction)):

(a) An auction of goods conducted by an individual who personally owns those goods and who did not acquire those goods for resale;

(b) An auction conducted by or under the direction of a public authority;

~~((b))~~ (c) An auction held under judicial order in the settlement of a decedent's estate;

~~((c))~~ (d) An auction which is required by law to be at auction;

~~((d))~~ (e) An auction conducted by or on behalf of a political organization or a charitable corporation or association if the person conducting the sale receives no compensation;

~~((e) Conducted by or under the auspices of national, state, or county livestock breeder or producer associations,))~~ or

(f) An auction of livestock or agricultural products which is conducted ((by a person licensed by the federal government; or ~~(g) Conducted by or under the auspices of the Future Farmers of America, the 4-H Club, or a county or district fair))~~ under chapter 16.65 or 20.01 RCW. Auctions not regulated under chapter 16.65 or 20.01 RCW shall be fully subject to the provisions of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Every individual, before acting as an auctioneer, shall obtain an auctioneer certificate of registration. To be licensed as an auctioneer, an individual shall meet all of the following requirements:

(1) Be at least eighteen years of age or sponsored by a licensed auctioneer.

(2) File with the department a completed application on a form prescribed by the director.

(3) Show that the proper tax registration certificate required by RCW 82.32.030 has been obtained from the department of revenue.

(4) Pay the auctioneer registration fee required under the agency rules adopted pursuant to this chapter.

(5) File with the department an auctioneer surety bond in the amount and form required by section 8 of this act and the agency rules adopted pursuant to this chapter.

(6) Have no disqualifications under RCW 18.11.160.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Every person, before operating an auction company as defined in RCW 18.11.050, shall obtain an auction company certificate of registration. To be licensed as an auction company, a person shall meet all of the following requirements:

(1) File with the department a completed application on a form prescribed by the director.

(2) Sign a notarized statement included on the application form that all auctioneers hired by the auction company to do business in the state shall be properly registered under this chapter.

(3) Show that the proper tax registration certificate required by RCW 82.32.030 has been obtained from the department of revenue.

(4) Pay the auction company registration fee required under the agency rules adopted pursuant to this chapter.

(5) File with the department an auction company surety bond in the amount and form required by section 8 of this act and the agency rules adopted pursuant to this chapter.

(6) Have no disqualifications under RCW 18.11.160.

Sec. 7. Section 8, chapter 205, Laws of 1982 as amended by section 9, chapter 7, Laws of 1985 and RCW 18.11.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ~~((A nonresident of this state may be licensed as an auctioneer upon complying with the rules of the department and this chapter))~~ Nonresident auctioneers and auction companies are required to comply with the provisions of this chapter and the rules of the department as a condition of conducting business in the state.

(2) ~~((The department may accept, in lieu of the recommendations and statements otherwise required to accompany the application for a license, an auctioneer's license issued to the applicant by the state of his or her domicile upon the payment by the applicant of the proper license fee and filing with the department of a certified copy of the license issued by the other state. This section shall only apply to licensed auctioneers of those states under the laws of which similar recognition and courtesies are extended to licensed auctioneers of this state.~~

~~((3))~~ The application of ~~((a person for))~~ a nonresident ~~((auctioneer's license))~~ under this chapter shall constitute the appointment of the secretary of state as the applicant's agent upon whom process may be served in any action or proceeding against the applicant arising out of a transaction or operation connected with or incidental to the business of an auctioneer or an auction company.

~~((4) Nonresidents must pay the issuance fee, annual renewal fees, and such other fees as prescribed by the director under RCW 43.24.086, and file the bond or proof of the establishment of a trust account as required by this chapter.))~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. (1) Each auctioneer and each auction company shall as a condition to the granting and retention of a license have on file with the department an approved surety bond or other security in lieu of a bond. The bond or other security of an auctioneer shall be in the amount of five thousand dollars.

(2) The bond or other security of an auction company shall be in an amount not less than five thousand dollars and not more than twenty-five thousand dollars. The amount shall be based on the value of the goods and real estate sold at auctions conducted, supervised, arranged, sponsored, or managed by the auction company during the previous calendar year or, for a new auction company, the estimated value of the goods and real estate to be sold at auction during the current calendar year. The director shall establish by rule the procedures to be used for determining the amount of auction company bonds or other security.

(3) In lieu of a surety bond, an auctioneer or auction company may deposit with the department any of the following:

- (a) Savings accounts assigned to the director;
- (b) Certificates of deposit payable to the director;
- (c) Investment certificates or share accounts assigned to the director;

or

- (d) Any other security acceptable to the director.

All obligations and remedies relating to surety bonds authorized by this section shall apply to deposits filed with the director.

(4) Each bond shall comply with all of the following:

(a) Be executed by the person seeking the license as principal and by a corporate surety licensed to do business in the state;

(b) Be payable to the state;

(c) Be conditioned on compliance with all provisions of this chapter and the agency rules adopted pursuant to this chapter, including payment of any administrative fines assessed against the licensee; and

(d) Remain in effect for one year after expiration, revocation, or suspension of the license.

(5) If any licensee fails or is alleged to have failed to comply with the provisions of this chapter or the agency rules adopted pursuant to this chapter, the director may hold a hearing in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW, determine those persons who are proven claimants under the bond, and, if appropriate, distribute the bond proceeds to the proven claimants. The state or an injured person may also bring an action against the bond in superior court. The liability of the surety shall be only for actual damages and shall not exceed the amount of the bond.

(6) Damages that exceed the amount of the bond may be remedied by actions against the auctioneer or the auction company under section 25 of this act or other available remedies at law.

Sec. 9. Section 11, chapter 205, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.11.130 are each amended to read as follows:

~~No ((person may act as auctioneer in the sale at public auction of any)) goods or real estate shall be sold at auction until ((he or she)) the auctioneer or auction company has entered into a written contract or agreement with the owner or consignor in duplicate which contains the terms and conditions upon which the licensee receives or accepts the property for sale at auction. ((Auction marts shall not be subject to this section:))~~

A person who violates this section shall be ~~((guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be fined))~~ subject to an administrative fine in a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars for each violation.

Sec. 10. Section 12, chapter 205, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.11.140 are each amended to read as follows:

Every person engaged in the business of selling goods or real estate at auction shall keep ~~((permanent))~~ written records for a period of three years available for inspection which indicate clearly the name and address of the owner ~~((, employer,))~~ or consignor of the goods or real estate, the terms of acceptance and sale, and a copy of the signed written contract ~~((of the auctioneer))~~ required by RCW 18.11.130. A person who violates this section shall be subject to an administrative fine in a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars for each violation.

Sec. 11. Section 13, chapter 205, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.11.150 are each amended to read as follows:

All ~~((persons, partnerships, associations, and corporations licensed as auctioneers under this chapter))~~ auctioneers and auction companies shall ~~((be required to))~~ have their certificates of registration prominently displayed in their offices and the current renewal card or a facsimile available on demand at all ~~((sales at))~~ auctions conducted or supervised by the licensee.

~~((The violation of this section by any licensee shall be, in the discretion of the department sufficient cause for license suspension or revocation))~~ A person who violates this section shall be subject to an administrative fine in a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars for each violation.

Sec. 12. Section 14, chapter 205, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.11.160 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) ~~((If an auctioneer's license is revoked by the department after June 10, 1982, no new license may be issued to the person unless he or she complies with this chapter.~~

(2) ~~After the revocation of any license, no new license may be issued to the same licensee within a period of at least one year from the date of the revocation nor at any time thereafter except in the sole discretion of the department.~~

~~((3))~~ No license ~~((may))~~ shall be issued by the department to any person who has been convicted of forgery, embezzlement, obtaining money under false pretenses, extortion, criminal conspiracy, fraud, theft, receiving stolen goods, unlawful issuance of checks or drafts, or other similar offense, or to any partnership of which the person is a member, or to any association or corporation of which the person is an officer ~~((or employee))~~ or in which as a stockholder the person has or exercises a controlling interest either directly or indirectly.

(2) The following shall be grounds for denial, suspension, or revocation of a license, or imposition of an administrative fine by the department:

(a) Misrepresentation or concealment of material facts in obtaining a license;

(b) Underreporting to the department of sales figures so that the auctioneer or auction company surety bond is in a lower amount than required by law;

- (c) Revocation of a license by another state;
- (d) Misleading or false advertising;
- (e) A pattern of substantial misrepresentations related to auctioneering or auction company business;
- (f) Failure to cooperate with the department in any investigation or disciplinary action;
- (g) Nonpayment of an administrative fine prior to renewal of a license;
- (h) Aiding an unlicensed person to practice as an auctioneer or as an auction company; and
- (i) Any other violations of this chapter.

Sec. 13. Section 15, chapter 205, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.11.170 are each amended to read as follows:

Any (~~person, partnership, association, or corporation who after June 10, 1982, engages in the profession, or acts in the capacity of an~~) auctioneer and any auction company that conducts business within this state without a license or after the suspension or revocation of his or her license ((is guilty of a misdemeanor. Upon conviction, the person shall be fined for the first offense not less than one hundred dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars. For a second offense, the person shall be fined not less than five hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, or be imprisoned for a period of not more than one year, or both)) shall be fined by the department five hundred dollars for the first offense and one thousand dollars for the second or subsequent offense.

Sec. 14. Section 16, chapter 205, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.11.180 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be unlawful for a licensed auctioneer or licensed auction company to pay compensation in money or otherwise to anyone not licensed under this chapter to render any service or to do any act forbidden under this chapter to be rendered or performed except by licensees. The department shall fine any person who violates this section five hundred dollars for the first offense and one thousand dollars for the second or subsequent offense. Furthermore, the violation of this section by any licensee shall be, in the discretion of the department, sufficient cause for license suspension or revocation.

Sec. 15. Section 17, chapter 205, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.11.190 are each amended to read as follows:

No action or suit may be instituted in any court of this state by any person, partnership, association, or corporation not licensed as an auctioneer and as an auction company to recover compensation for an act done or service rendered which is prohibited under this chapter.

Sec. 16. Section 18, chapter 205, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.11.200 are each amended to read as follows:

The director (~~((may prescribe))~~) shall adopt rules for the purpose of carrying out and developing this chapter, including rules governing the conduct of investigations and inspections and the imposition of administrative penalties. (~~((Upon finding that any provision of this chapter has been violated, the director may deny issuance or renewal of any license authorized under this chapter or suspend or revoke any such license.))~~)

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The director shall impose and collect the administrative fines authorized by this chapter. Any administrative fine imposed under this chapter or the agency rules adopted pursuant to this chapter may be appealed under chapter 34.04 RCW, the administrative procedure act. Assessment of an administrative fine shall not preclude the initiation of any disciplinary, civil, or criminal action for the same or similar violations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. (1) There is created within the department a disciplinary review committee composed of two licensees and three public members to be appointed by the director. Members shall be residents of the state, and no member shall be an employee of the department. Each member shall receive reimbursement for travel expenses in accordance with RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060.

(2) The director shall appoint members for terms of two years, except that two of the initial members shall be appointed for one-year terms. No member shall serve more than two consecutive terms. Vacancies shall be filled by the director for the remainder of the unexpired term. The committee shall elect a chairperson from among its members for a term of one year or until a successor has been elected.

(3) The committee shall meet four times a year or as often as necessary with the department staff responsible for administration of the auctioneer registration program. The committee may (a) advise the department on all matters pertaining to the auctioneer registration program, and (b) review administrative fines and other disciplinary actions under this chapter and make appropriate recommendations to the director.

*Sec. 18 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

Sec. 19. Section 1, chapter 189, Laws of 1984 and RCW 18.11.210 are each amended to read as follows:

All newspaper advertising regarding auctions that is purchased by an auctioneer or an auction company licensed under this chapter shall include the auctioneer's or auction company's name and license number. Any auctioneer or auction company that violates this section is subject to an administrative fine of one hundred dollars per violation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. The client of an auctioneer or auction company has a right to (1) an accounting for any money that the auctioneer or auction company receives from the sale of the client's goods, and (2) payment of all money due to the client within twenty-one calendar days unless the parties have mutually agreed in writing to another time of payment.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. Auction proceeds due to the client that are received by the auctioneer or auction company and not paid to the client within twenty-four hours of the sale shall be deposited by the auctioneer or auction company in a trust account for the client in a bank, savings and loan association, mutual savings bank, or licensed escrow agent located in the state. The auctioneer or auction company shall draw on the trust account only to pay proceeds to the client, or such other persons who are legally entitled to such proceeds, and to obtain the sums due to the auctioneer or auction company for services as set out in the written contract required under RCW 18.11.130. Funds in the trust account shall not be subject to the debt of the auctioneer or auction company and shall not be used for personal reasons or other business reasons.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. The following requirements shall apply to bidding at auctions:

(1) An auctioneer conducting an auction and an auction company where an auction is being held shall not bid on or offer to buy any goods or real property at the auction unless the auctioneer or the auction company discloses the name of the person on whose behalf the bid or offer is being made.

(2) An auctioneer and an auction company shall not use any method of bidding at an auction that will allow goods or real property to be purchased in an undisclosed manner on behalf of the auctioneer or auction company.

(3) At a public auction conducted or supervised by an auctioneer or auction company, the auctioneer or auction company shall not fictitiously raise any bid, knowingly permit any person to make a fictitious bid, or employ or use another person to act as a bidder or buyer.

(4) All goods or real property offered for sale at an auction shall be subject to a reserve or a confirmation from the owner or consignor unless otherwise indicated by the auctioneer or auction company. Except as provided in this subsection, an auctioneer or auction company shall not use any method of bidding at an auction that allows the auctioneer or auction company to avoid selling any property offered for sale at auction.

(5) A licensee who violates any provision of this section shall be subject to an administrative fine in a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars for each violation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. Auctioneers and auction companies may call for bids on real estate but only persons licensed under chapter 18.85 RCW may perform activities regulated under that chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. No city and no county shall license auctioneers or auction companies or require auctioneers or auction companies to obtain surety bonding.

Sec. 24 was vetoed, see message at end of chapter.*

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. A violation of this chapter is hereby declared to affect the public interest and to offend public policy. Any violation, act, or practice by an auctioneer or auction company which is unfair or deceptive, shall constitute an unfair or deceptive act or practice in violation of RCW 19.86.020. The remedies and sanctions provided in this section shall not preclude application of other available remedies and sanctions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 3, chapter 205, Laws of 1982, section 8, chapter 7, Laws of 1985 and RCW 18.11.080;

(2) Section 7, chapter 205, Laws of 1982 and RCW 18.11.090;

NEW SECTION. Sec. 27. If any provision of this chapter or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the chapter or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 28. Sections 5, 6, 8, 17, 18, 20 through 25, and 27 of this act are each added to chapter 18.11 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 29. This act shall take effect on July 1, 1986.

Passed the Senate March 12, 1986.

Passed the House March 4, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986, with the exception of certain items which were vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval of sections 18 and 24, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4779, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to auctions."

The intent of this legislation is to retain the current licensing and bonding and trust accounts systems for auctioneers and add consumer protection by establishing standards for certain business practices and declaring that deviations from these practices constitute violations of the Consumers Protection Act.

Auctioneering is a growing industry in this state. The rapid growth of such service industries in which the service provider has substantial responsibilities for handling the merchandise and cash flow of clients frequently creates the potential for abuse. This legislation is intended to put in place appropriate protections for consumers before such abuses become a serious problem.

Section 18 of this legislation would establish a new Disciplinary Review Committee. This disciplinary committee is premature and would have no enforcement powers.

Section 24 of this legislation would forbid any regulation of auctioneers by cities and counties. This may interfere with the power of local governments to require business licenses and the payment of business taxes.

For the above reasons, sections 18 and 24 are vetoed.

With the exception of sections 18 and 24, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4779 is approved."

CHAPTER 325

[Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3487]

ENERGY CONSERVATION IN STATE BUILDINGS

AN ACT Relating to energy consumption in state agencies; amending RCW 43.19.680; adding new sections to chapter 43.41 RCW; and creating a new section.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that:

(1) Capital investments in energy conservation in buildings can produce significant reductions in energy use, reducing the need to import or extract fossil fuels and lowering the cost of operating buildings.

(2) The state of Washington has an obligation to operate state buildings efficiently and to implement all cost-effective energy conservation measures so that citizens are assured that public funds are spent wisely and so that citizens have an example of the savings possible from energy conservation.

(3) The state has completed energy consumption and walk-through surveys of its buildings and other facilities and has established a schedule for technical assistance studies which is the basis for implementing energy conservation measure installations to meet the milestones in RCW 43.19-.680. However, there is uncertainty that the milestones will be met.

(4) The potential savings from energy conservation can be more readily realized by explicitly considering conservation measures and procedures in the state's budgeting and long-range planning process.

*Sec. 2. Section 5, chapter 172, Laws of 1980 as last amended by section 1, chapter 313, Laws of 1983 and RCW 43.19.680 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Upon completion of each walk-through survey required by RCW 43.19.675, the director of general administration or the agency responsible for the facility if other than the department of general administration shall implement energy conservation maintenance and operation procedures that may be identified for any state-owned facility. These procedures shall be implemented as soon as possible but not later than twelve months after the walk-through survey.

(2) By December 31, 1981, for the capitol campus the director of general administration, in cooperation with the director of the state energy office, shall prepare and transmit to the governor and the legislature an implementation plan.

(3) By December 31, 1983, for all other state-owned facilities, the director of general administration in cooperation with the director of the state energy office shall prepare and transmit to the governor and the legislature the results of the energy consumption and walk-through surveys and a schedule for the conduct of technical assistance studies. This submission shall contain the energy conservation measures planned for installation during the ensuing biennium. Priority considerations for scheduling technical assistance studies shall include but not be limited to a facility's energy efficiency, responsible agency participation, comparative cost and type of fuels, possibility of outside funding, logistical considerations such as possible need to vacate the facility for installation of energy conservation measures, coordination with other planned facility modifications, and the total cost of a facility modification, including other work which would have to be done as a result of installing energy conservation measures. Energy conservation measure acquisitions and installations shall be scheduled to be twenty-five percent complete by June 30, 1985, or at the end of the capital budget biennium which includes that date, whichever is later, fifty-five percent complete by

June 30, 1989, or at the end of the capital budget biennium which includes that date, whichever is later, eighty-five percent complete by June 30, 1993, or at the end of the capital budget biennium which includes that date, whichever is later, and fully complete by June 30, 1995, or at the end of the capital budget biennium which includes that date, whichever is later. Each state agency shall implement energy conservation measures with a payback period of twenty-four months or less that have a positive cash flow in the same biennium.

For each biennium until all measures are installed, the director of general administration shall report to the governor and legislature installation progress, measures planned for installation during the ensuing biennium, and changes, if any, to the technical assistance study schedule. This report shall be submitted by December 31, 1984, or at the end of the following year whichever immediately precedes the capital budget adoption, and every two years thereafter until all measures are installed. The office of financial management shall indicate which of the measures in the foregoing report are included in the biennial budget request and the total cost to accomplish those measures which are not included.

(4) The director of general administration shall adopt rules to facilitate private investment in energy conservation measures for state-owned buildings consistent with state law.

*Sec. 2 was partially vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The office of financial management shall develop policy guidelines for state agencies to use in budgeting for and implementing energy conservation maintenance and operation procedures and energy conservation measures, including those mandated under RCW 43.19.680;

(2) The guidelines shall require that agencies budget for the timely implementation of cost-effective measures and procedures or explain why any measures or procedures should not be funded;

(3) In developing the guidelines the office of financial management shall ensure that to the extent possible the budget process shall allow state agencies implementing energy conservation to retain the resulting cost savings for other purposes, including further energy conservation; and

(4) The office of financial management shall consult with the state energy office and the department of general administration, as necessary, to administer this section properly. The office of financial management shall establish the guidelines by December 31, 1986.

*Sec. 3 was partially vetoed, see message at end of chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The state energy office shall provide the office of financial management with energy consumption data necessary to implement section 3 of this act. Facilities or the agencies responsible for them shall report accurate monthly energy consumption and cost figures for all fuels to the state energy office quarterly, including any changes in total space served or facility operations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Sections 3 and 4 of this act are each added to chapter 43.41 RCW.

Passed the Senate March 8, 1986.

Passed the House March 5, 1986.

Approved by the Governor April 4, 1986, with the exception of certain items which were vetoed.

Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 4, 1986.

Note: Governor's explanation of partial veto is as follows:

"I am returning herewith, without my approval as to section 2(3) and section 3(1), (2) and (4), Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3487, entitled:

"AN ACT Relating to energy consumption in state agencies."

I have vetoed the amendatory language "and the total cost to accomplish those measures which are not included" from the last sentence in section 2(3). This language would require explanatory information regarding items not included in the biennial budget request. Such a provision would be contrary to traditional budgetary practice.

I have also vetoed 3(1), (2) and (4) which would require the Office of Financial Management to develop guidelines for budgeting and implementation of state agency energy conservation initiatives. It would be inappropriate for the Office of Financial Management to be involved in such detailed operational matters. Agency management must be allowed to prioritize among competing state goals if they are to be held accountable for achieving the desired results. Notwithstanding these vetoed provisions, I will direct the Office of Financial Management to develop budget guidelines for energy related items.

With the exception of section 2(3) and section 3(1), (2) and (4), Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3487 is approved."

(Adopted at the 1986 Regular Session for submission to the voters at the November 1986 general election)

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS SHJR 49

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT
ADOPTED AT THE 1986 REGULAR SESSION
FOR SUBMISSION TO THE VOTERS
AT THE STATE GENERAL ELECTION, NOVEMBER 1986
SUBSTITUTE HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 49

BE IT RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON, IN LEGISLATIVE SESSION ASSEMBLED:

THAT, At the next general election to be held in this state there shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the state for their approval and ratification, or rejection, an amendment to Article XXVIII, section 1 of the Constitution of the state of Washington to read as follows:

Article XXVIII, section 1. (~~All elected state officials shall each severally receive such compensation as the legislature may direct. The compensation of any state officer shall not be increased or diminished during his term of office, except that the legislature, at its thirty-first regular session, may increase or diminish the compensation of all state officers whose terms exist on the Thursday after the second Monday in January, 1949.~~)

Salaries for members of the legislature, elected officials of the executive branch of state government, and judges of the state's supreme court, court of appeals, superior courts, and district courts shall be fixed by an independent commission created and directed by law to that purpose. No state official, public employee, or person required by law to register with a state agency as a lobbyist, or immediate family member of the official, employee, or lobbyist, may be a member of that commission.

As used in this section the phrase "immediate family" has the meaning that is defined by law.

Any change of salary shall be filed with the secretary of state and shall become law ninety days thereafter without action of the legislature or governor, but shall be subject to referendum petition by the people, filed within the ninety-day period. Referendum measures under this section shall be submitted to the people at the next following general election, and shall be otherwise governed by the provisions of this Constitution generally applicable to referendum measures. The salaries fixed pursuant to this section shall supersede any other provision for the salaries of members of the legislature, elected officials of the executive branch of state government, and judges of the state's supreme court, court of appeals, superior courts, and district courts. The salaries for such officials in effect on January 12, 1987, shall remain in effect until changed pursuant to this section.

After the initial adoption of a law by the legislature creating the independent commission, no amendment to such act which alters the composition of the commission shall be valid unless the amendment is enacted by a favorable vote of two-thirds of the members elected to each house of the legislature and is subject to referendum petition.

The provisions of section 14 of Article IV, sections 14, 16, 17, 19, 20, 21, and 22 of Article III, and section 23 of Article II, insofar as they are inconsistent herewith, are hereby ((repeated)) superseded. The provisions of section 1 of Article II relating to referendum procedures, insofar as they are inconsistent herewith, are hereby superseded with regard to the salaries governed by this section.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the secretary of state shall cause notice of the foregoing constitutional amendment to be published at least four times during the four weeks next preceding the election in every legal newspaper in the state.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT
ADOPTED AT THE 1986 REGULAR SESSION
FOR SUBMISSION TO THE VOTERS
AT THE STATE GENERAL ELECTION, NOVEMBER 1986
HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 55

BE IT RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON, IN LEGISLATIVE SESSION ASSEMBLED:

THAT, At the next general election to be held in this state there shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the state for their approval and ratification, or rejection, an amendment to Article VII, section 2 of the Constitution of the state of Washington to read as follows:

Article 7, section 2. Except as hereinafter provided and notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, the aggregate of all tax levies upon real and personal property by the state and all taxing districts now existing or hereafter created, shall not in any year exceed one per centum of the true and fair value of such property in money: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That nothing herein shall prevent levies at the rates now provided by law by or for any port or public utility district. The term "taxing district" for the purposes of this section shall mean any political subdivision, municipal corporation, district, or other governmental agency authorized by law to levy, or have levied for it, ad valorem taxes on property, other than a port or public utility district. Such aggregate limitation or any specific limitation imposed by law in conformity therewith may be exceeded only

(a) By any taxing district when specifically authorized so to do by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to levy such additional tax submitted not more than twelve months prior to the date on which the proposed levy is to be made and not oftener than twice in such twelve month period, either at a special election or at the regular election of such taxing district, at which election the number of persons voting "yes" on the proposition shall constitute three-fifths of a number equal to forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election when the number of electors voting on the proposition does not exceed forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election; or by a majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to levy when the number of electors voting on the proposition exceeds forty per centum of the total votes cast in such taxing district in the last preceding general election: PROVIDED, That notwithstanding any other provision of this Constitution, any proposition pursuant to this subsection to levy additional tax for the support of the common schools may provide such support for a two year period and any proposition to levy an additional tax to support the construction, modernization, or remodelling of school facilities may provide such support for a period not exceeding six years;

(b) By any taxing district otherwise authorized by law to issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes, for the sole purpose of making the required payments of principal and interest on general obligation bonds issued solely for capital purposes, other than the replacement of equipment, when authorized so to do by majority of at least three-fifths of the electors thereof voting on the proposition to issue such bonds and to pay the principal and interest thereon by an annual tax levy in excess of the limitation herein provided during the term of such bonds, submitted not oftener than twice in any calendar year, at an election held in the manner provided by law for bond elections in such taxing district, at which election the total number of persons voting on the proposition shall constitute not less than forty per centum of the total number of votes cast in such taxing district at the last preceding general election: PROVIDED, That any such taxing district shall have the right by vote of its governing body to refund any general obligation bonds of said district issued for capital purposes only, and to provide for the interest thereon and amortization thereof by annual levies in excess of the tax limitation provided for herein, AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That the provisions of this section shall also be subject to the limitations contained in Article VIII, Section 6, of this Constitution;

(c) By the state or any taxing district for the purpose of paying the principal or interest on general obligation bonds outstanding on December 6, 1934; or for the purpose of preventing the impairment of the obligation of a contract when ordered so to do by a court of last resort.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT
ADOPTED AT THE 1986 REGULAR SESSION
FOR SUBMISSION TO THE VOTERS
AT THE STATE GENERAL ELECTION, NOVEMBER 1986
SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 136

BE IT RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON, IN LEGISLATIVE SESSION ASSEMBLED:

THAT, At the next general election to be held in this state there shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the state for their approval and ratification, or rejection, an amendment to Article IV, section 31 of the Constitution of the state of Washington to read as follows:

Article IV, section 31. There shall be a ~~((judicial qualifications))~~ commission on judicial conduct consisting of a judge selected by and from the court of appeals judges, a judge selected by and from the superior court judges, a judge selected by and from the district court judges, two persons admitted to the practice of law in this state selected by the state bar association, and ~~((two))~~ four persons who are not attorneys appointed by the governor and confirmed by the senate.

The supreme court may censure, suspend, or remove a judge or justice for violating a rule of judicial conduct and may retire a judge or justice for disability which is permanent or is likely to become permanent and which seriously interferes with the performance of judicial duties. The office of a judge or justice retired or removed by the supreme court becomes vacant, and that person is ineligible for judicial office until eligibility is reinstated by the supreme court. The salary of a removed judge or justice shall cease.

The supreme court shall specify the effect upon salary when disciplinary action other than removal is taken. The supreme court may not discipline or retire a judge or justice until the ~~((judicial qualifications))~~ commission on judicial conduct recommends after notice and hearing that action be taken and the supreme court conducts a hearing, after notice, to review commission proceedings and findings against a judge or justice.

Whenever the commission receives a complaint against a judge or justice, it shall first conduct proceedings for the purpose of determining whether sufficient reason exists for conducting a hearing or hearings to deal with the accusations. These initial proceedings shall be confidential, unless confidentiality is waived by the judge or justice, but all subsequent hearings conducted by the commission shall be open to members of the public.

Whenever the commission adopts a recommendation that a judge or justice be removed, the judge or justice shall be suspended immediately, with salary, from his or her judicial position until a final determination is made by the supreme court.

The legislature shall provide for commissioners' terms of office and compensation. The commission shall establish rules of procedure for commission proceedings including due process and confidentiality of proceedings.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the secretary of state shall cause notice of the foregoing constitutional amendment to be published at least four times during the four weeks next preceding the election in every legal newspaper in the state.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT ADOPTED AT THE 1986 REGULAR SESSION FOR SUBMISSION TO THE VOTERS AT THE STATE GENERAL ELECTION, NOVEMBER 1986 SUBSTITUTE SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 138

BE IT RESOLVED, BY THE SENATE AND HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON, IN LEGISLATIVE SESSION ASSEMBLED:

THAT, At the next general election to be held in this state there shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the state for their approval and ratification, or rejection, an amendment to Article II, section 15, of the Constitution of the state of Washington to read as follows:

Article II, section 15. ~~((Such))~~ (1) Vacancies ~~((as may))~~ that occur in either house of the state legislature or in any partisan county elective office shall be filled by appointment by the ~~((board of county commissioners))~~ legislative authority of the county in which the vacancy occurs ~~((PROVIDED, That))~~. The person appointed to fill the vacancy must be from the same legislative district, county, or county ~~((commissioner))~~ legislative authority district ~~((and the same political party))~~ as the legislator or partisan county elective officer whose office has been vacated ~~((, and))~~. The person appointed shall also be one of three persons ~~((who shall be))~~ nominated by the county central committee of ~~((that))~~ the political party ~~((, and))~~ of the partisan officer whose office has been vacated if the nominations are received by the county legislative authority within the time prescribed by statute. In case a majority of ((said)) the members of the county ((commissioners)) legislative authority do not agree upon the appointment within ((sixty days after the vacancy occurs)) the time prescribed by statute, the governor shall ((within thirty days thereafter, and)), from the list of nominees ((provided for herein)) submitted to the county legislative authority if the list was timely received, appoint a person who shall be from the same legislative district, county, or county ((commissioner)) legislative authority district ((and of the same political party)) as the legislator or partisan county elective officer whose office has been vacated((; and the person so appointed shall hold office until his successor is elected at the next general election, and shall have qualified. PROVIDED, That in case of a vacancy occurring in the office of joint senator, or joint representative, the vacancy shall be filled from a list of three nominees selected by the state central committee, by appointment by the joint action of the boards of county commissioners of the counties composing the joint senatorial or joint representative district, the person appointed to fill the vacancy must be from the same legislative district and of the same political party as the legislator whose office has been vacated, and in case a majority of said county commissioners do not agree upon the appointment within sixty days after the vacancy occurs, the governor shall within thirty days thereafter, and from the list of nominees provided for herein, appoint a person who shall be from the same legislative district and of the same political party as the legislator whose office has been vacated)).

(2) If the majority of the positions of a county legislative authority are vacant, the governor shall appoint to the legislative authority that number of persons necessary to establish a majority of filled positions. A person appointed to fill such a vacancy shall be from the same county legislative authority district as the officer whose office has been vacated. If the positions are partisan elective offices, a person appointed to fill such a vacancy shall also be one of three persons nominated by the county central committee of the same political party as the officer whose office has been vacated if the nominations are received by the governor within the time prescribed by statute.

(3) In case of a vacancy occurring in a nonpartisan county elective office, other than a judicial office, the county legislative authority shall appoint a person to fill the vacancy from the same county or county legislative authority district as the officer whose office has been vacated. If a majority of the members of the county legislative authority do not agree upon the appointment within the time prescribed by statute, the governor shall appoint a person from the same county or county legislative authority district.

(4) Vacancies that occur in the office of senator or representative of a state legislative district comprising more than one county shall be filled by appointment by the joint action of the legislative authorities of the counties within the district. The person appointed to fill the vacancy shall be from the same legislative district as the legislator whose office has been vacated.

PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS SSJR 138

The person appointed shall also be one of three persons nominated by the state central committee of the political party of the legislator whose office has been vacated if the nominations are received by the county legislative authorities within the time prescribed by statute. In joint action, the individual vote of each county legislative authority member, not disqualified from voting under subsection (5) of this section, shall collectively amount to the percentage, rounded to the nearest whole number, that the population of the county or portion of the county within the legislative district bears to the population of the entire district. The population shall be determined by the most recent federal census and shall exclude nonresident military personnel. The vacancy shall be filled if one person receives a majority percentage of the votes of the county legislative authorities. If the members of the jointly meeting county legislative authorities do not agree upon an appointment to fill the vacancy within the time prescribed by statute, the governor shall, from the list of nominees submitted to the county legislative authorities if the list was timely received, make the appointment within the time prescribed by statute.

(5) An otherwise qualified member of a county legislative authority is eligible to be appointed to fill a vacancy governed by this section only if the member does not vote in an action or joint action to fill the vacancy.

(6) The legislature shall prescribe the time limits within which the state and county central committees must submit lists of nominees, within which a county legislative authority or county legislative authorities must agree upon an appointment, and within which the governor must make appointments under the terms of this section. If lists of nominees are not timely received, the appointing authority may appoint any qualified person to fill the vacancy.

(7) A person appointed to fill a vacancy in a partisan office under this section shall hold office until a successor is elected at the next state general election as specified by statute and has been qualified.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the secretary of state shall cause notice of the foregoing constitutional amendment to be published at least four times during the four weeks next preceding the election in every legal newspaper in the state.
