leaves without intending to establish a new domicile elsewhere. The burden of proof that a student, parent or guardian has established a domicile in the state of Washington primarily for purposes other than educational lies with the student.

(5) The term "dependent" shall mean a person who is not financially independent. Factors to be considered in determining whether a person is financially independent shall be set forth in rules and regulations adopted by the higher education coordinating board and shall include, but not be limited to, the state and federal income tax returns of the person and/or the student's parents or legal guardian filed for the calendar year prior to the year in which application is made and such other evidence as the board may require.

Approved by the Governor April 20, 1987.
Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 20, 1987.

CHAPTER 97
[Substitute Senate Bill No. 5688]
HIGHER EDUCATION INSTITUTIONS—COMMERCIAL ACTIVITIES REGULATED

AN ACT Relating to commercial activities of institutions of higher education; adding a new chapter to Title 28B RCW; and creating new sections.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The primary mission of institutions of higher education is the creation and dissemination of knowledge. Institutions of higher education must be mindful that in providing goods and services for fees, they may be competing with local private businesses.

It is the intent of the legislature to require institutions of higher education to define the legitimate purposes under which commercial activities may be approved, and to establish a mechanism for review of such activities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. For the purposes of this chapter:

(1) "Institutions of higher education" or "institutions" mean those institutions as defined in RCW 28B.10.016(4).

(2) "Commercial activity" means an activity which provides a product or service for a fee which could be obtained from a commercial source.

(3) "Fees" means any fees or charges imposed for goods, services, or facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Institutions of higher education in consultation with local business organizations and representatives of the small business community are required to develop:
WASHINGTON LAWS, 1987

(1) Comprehensive policies that define the legitimate purposes under which the institutions shall provide goods, services, or facilities that are practically available from private businesses;

(2) A mechanism for reviewing current and proposed commercial activities to ensure that activities are consistent with institutional policies; and

(3) A mechanism for receiving, reviewing, and responding to enquiries from private businesses about commercial activities carried on by institutions of higher education.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) The following criteria shall be considered in developing policies in regard to providing goods, services, or facilities to persons other than students, faculty, staff, patients, and invited guests:

(a) The goods, services, or facilities represent a resource which is substantially and directly related to the institution's instructional, research, or public service mission, which is not practically available in the private marketplace and for which there is a demand from the external community.

(b) Fees charged for the goods, services, or facilities shall take into account the full direct and indirect costs, overhead, and the price of such items in the private marketplace.

(2) The following criteria shall be considered in developing policies in regard to providing goods, services, or facilities to students, faculty, staff, patients, and invited guests:

(a) The goods, services, or facilities are substantially and directly related to the institution's instructional, research, or public service mission.

(b) Provision of the goods, services, or facilities on campus represents a special convenience to and supports the campus community, or facilitates extracurricular, public service, or on-campus residential life.

(c) Fees charged for the goods, services, or facilities shall take into account the full direct and indirect costs, including overhead.

(d) The adequacy of security procedures to ensure that the goods, services, or facilities are provided only to persons who are students, faculty, staff, patients, or invited guests.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. This chapter shall not apply to the initiation of or changes in academic or vocational programs of instruction in the institutions' regular, extension, evening, or continuing education programs, or the fees therefor, fees for services provided in the practicum aspects of instruction, or research programs, and in extracurricular or residential life programs, including residence halls, food services, athletic and recreational programs, and performing arts programs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. The institutions of higher education shall provide a report to the appropriate legislative committees by December 1, 1987, outlining their policies developed under sections 1 through 4 of this act, and outlining the methods and extent of consultation with local business organizations and representatives of the small business community.
NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 1 through 5 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 28B RCW.

Passed the Senate April 9, 1987.
Passed the House April 7, 1987.
Approved by the Governor April 20, 1987.
Filed in Office of Secretary of State April 20, 1987.

CHAPTER 98

[Substitute Senate Bill No. 5047]
FREE LICENSE PLATES—ELIGIBILITY OF SPOUSES OF DECEASED PRISONERS OF WAR—PROOF OF DISABILITY REVISED

AN ACT Relating to special license plates; amending RCW 73.04.110; and adding a new section to chapter 73.04 RCW.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 73.04 RCW to read as follows:

The department shall issue to the surviving spouse of any deceased former prisoner of war described in RCW 73.04.110(2), one set of regular or special license plates for use on a personal passenger vehicle registered to that person.

In order to qualify under this section the surviving spouse must have been married to the deceased former prisoner of war during the period of his or her incarceration. The plates shall be issued without the payment of any license fees or excise tax on the vehicle. Whenever any person who has been issued license plates under this section applies to the department for transfer of the plates to a subsequently acquired motor vehicle, a transfer fee of five dollars shall be charged in addition to all other appropriate fees.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 178, Laws of 1949 as last amended by section 2, chapter 230, Laws of 1983 and RCW 73.04.110 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person who is a veteran as defined in RCW 41.04.005 who submits to the department of licensing satisfactory proof of a service-connected disability rating from the veteran—administration or the military service from which the veteran was discharged and:

(1) Has lost the use of both hands or one foot;
(2) Was captured and incarcerated for more than twenty-nine days by an enemy of the United States during a period of war with the United States;
(3) Has become blind in both eyes as the result of military service; or
(4) Is rated by the veterans administration or the military service from which the veteran was discharged and is receiving service-connected compensation at the one hundred percent rate that is expected to exist for more
