

SHORT TERM ADMISSION STUDY

Developmental Disability Service System Task Force

Nichole Jensen
DSHS Division of Developmental Disabilities
October 9, 2012

Work Plan for Developing Crisis Stabilization Program

- Researched other states for information and models of service for short term crisis intervention and stabilization
- Identified services currently provided to RHC short term stay participants
- Analyzed Washington State CARE data regarding Residential Habilitation Center (RHC) emergency short term stay participants

CARE Data

- Study Summary
- Age
- RHC upon Admission
- DSHS Region of Origin
- Gender
- Length of Stay
- Reason for Stay
- DDD Qualifying Condition
- Ability to Return Home
- Residence

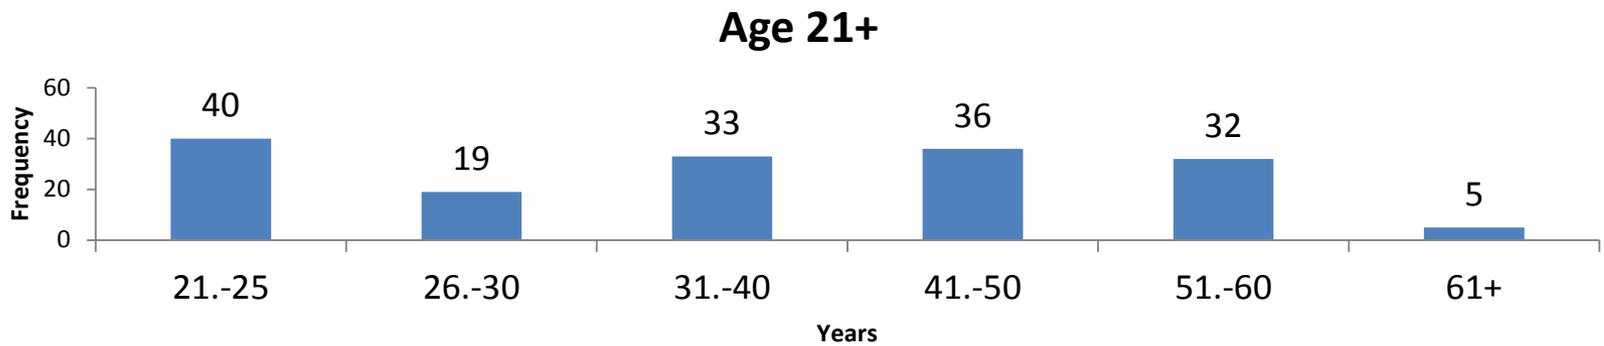

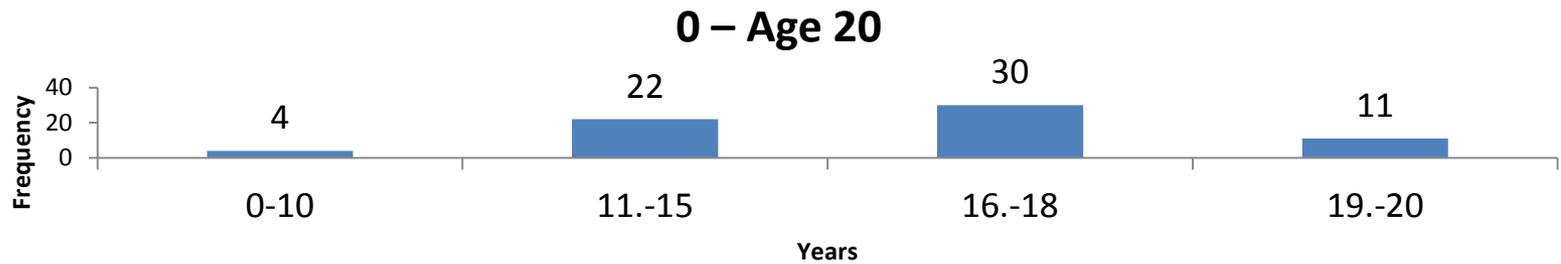

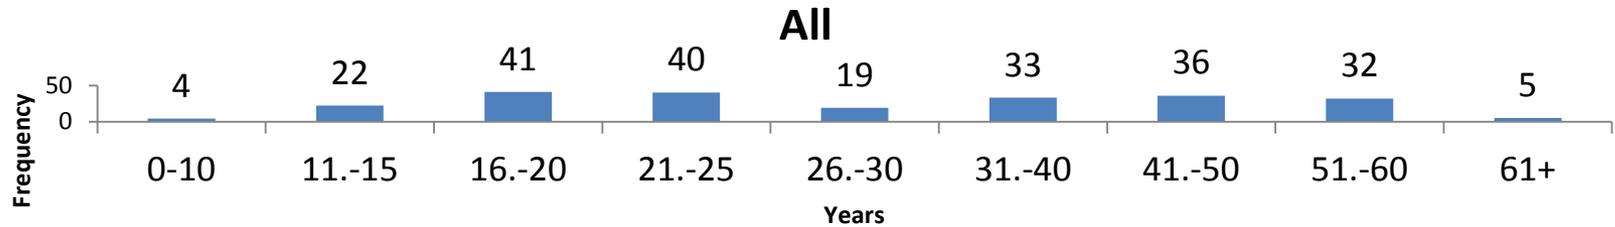

Study Summary

- Time Period =
 - May 2006 through March 2011
- Data source = CARE
- Total RHC short term admissions = 1,927

- Total emergent admissions = 232
 - Age 0-20 = 67 persons
 - Age 21+ = 165 persons

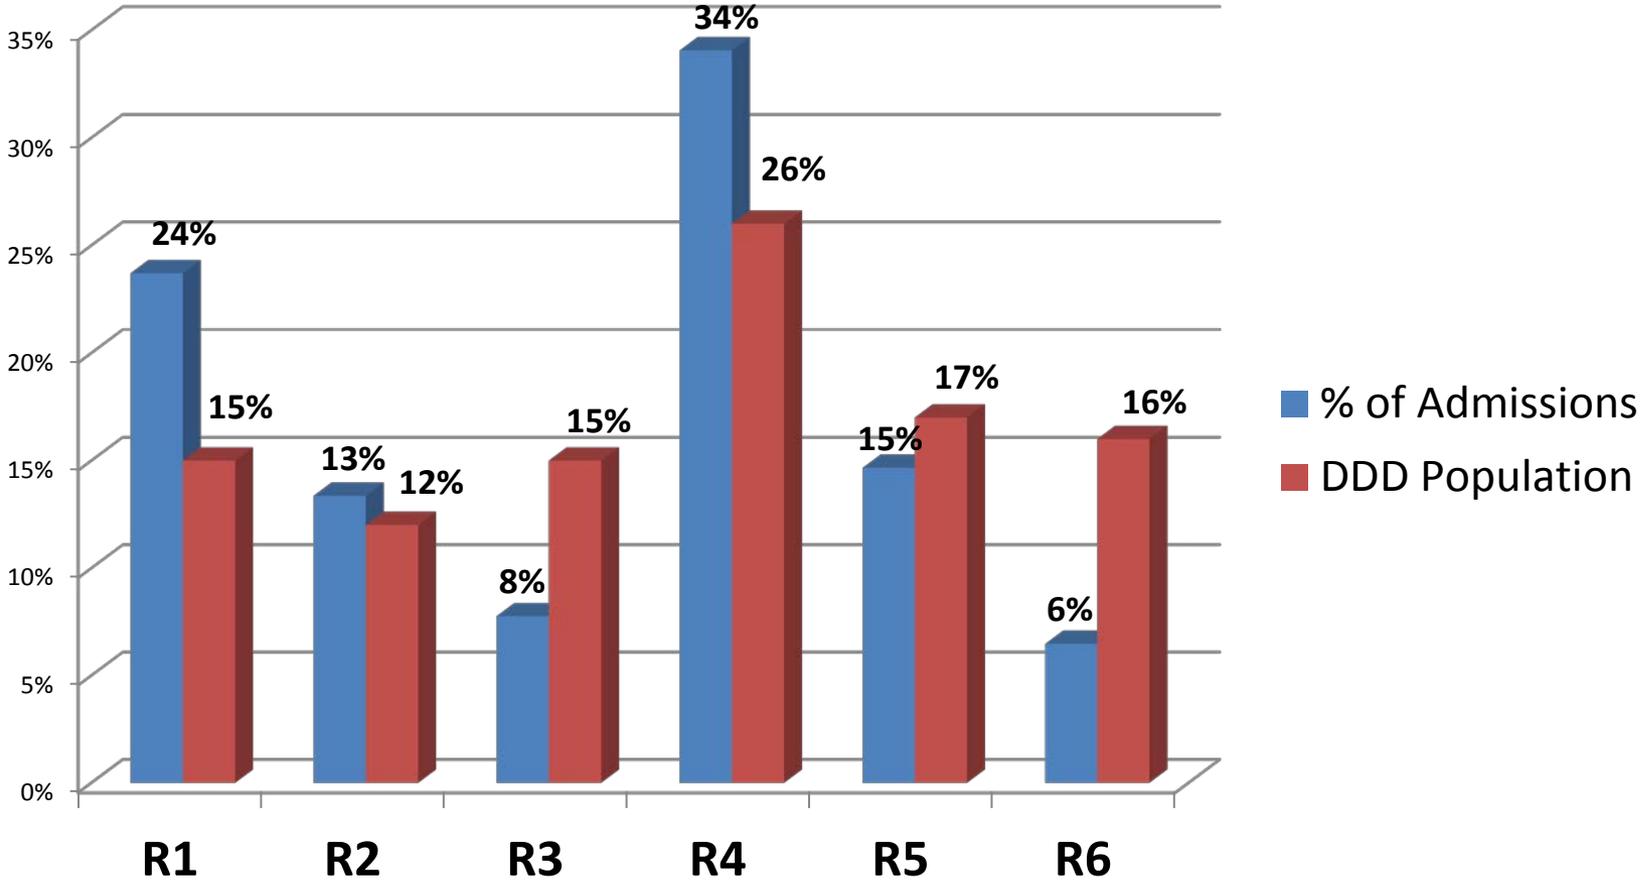

Age Ranges

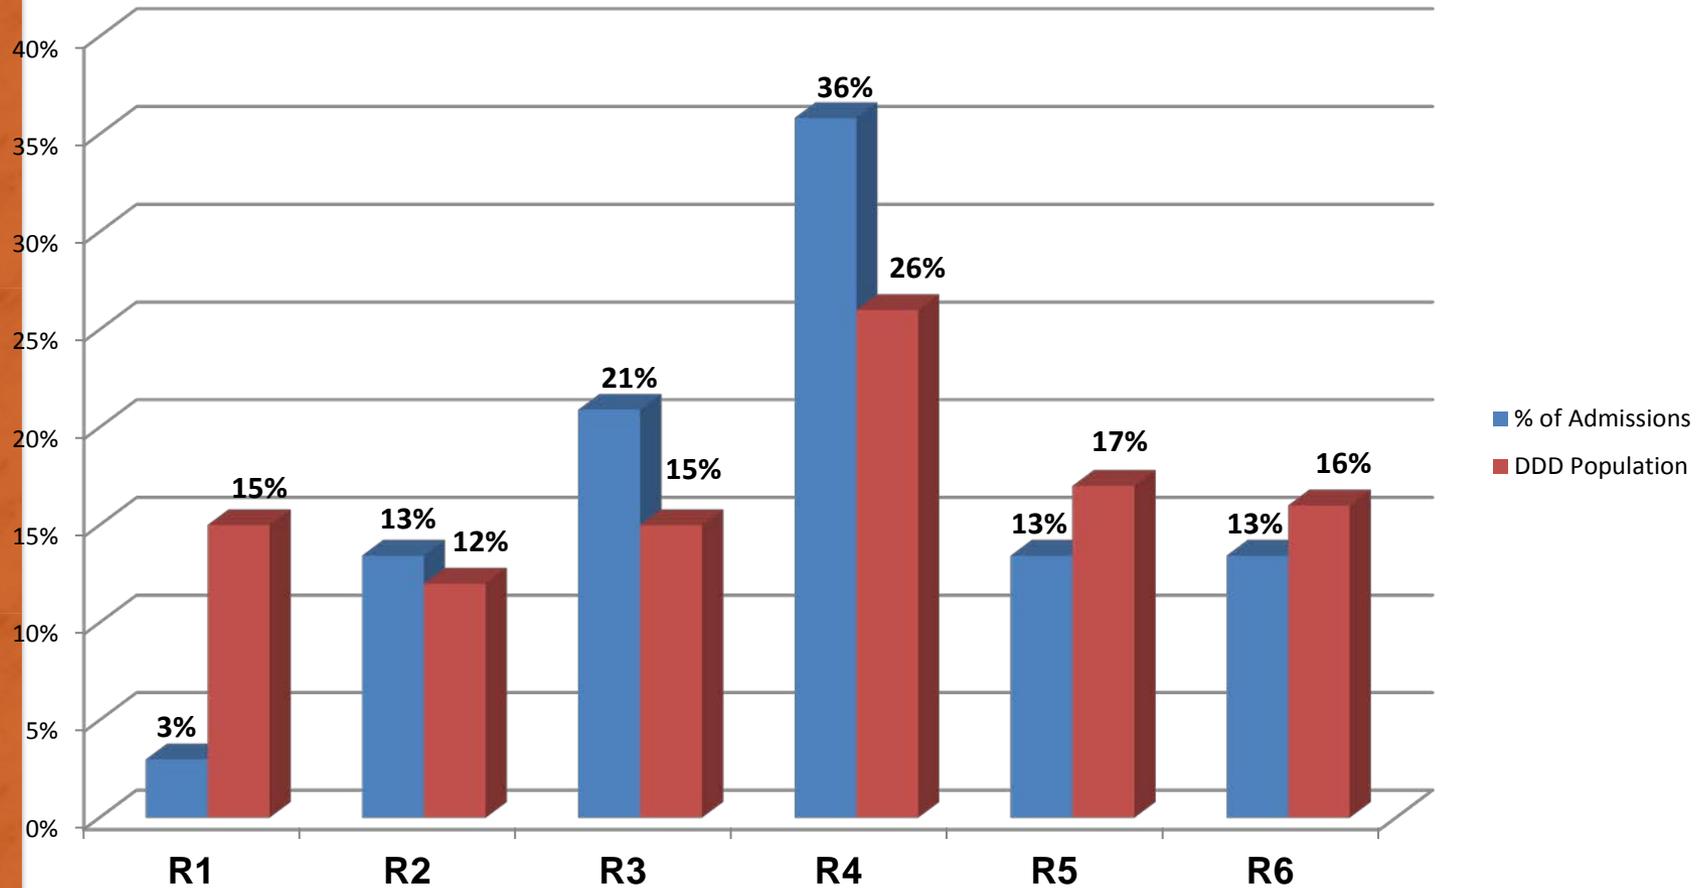

RHC upon Admission

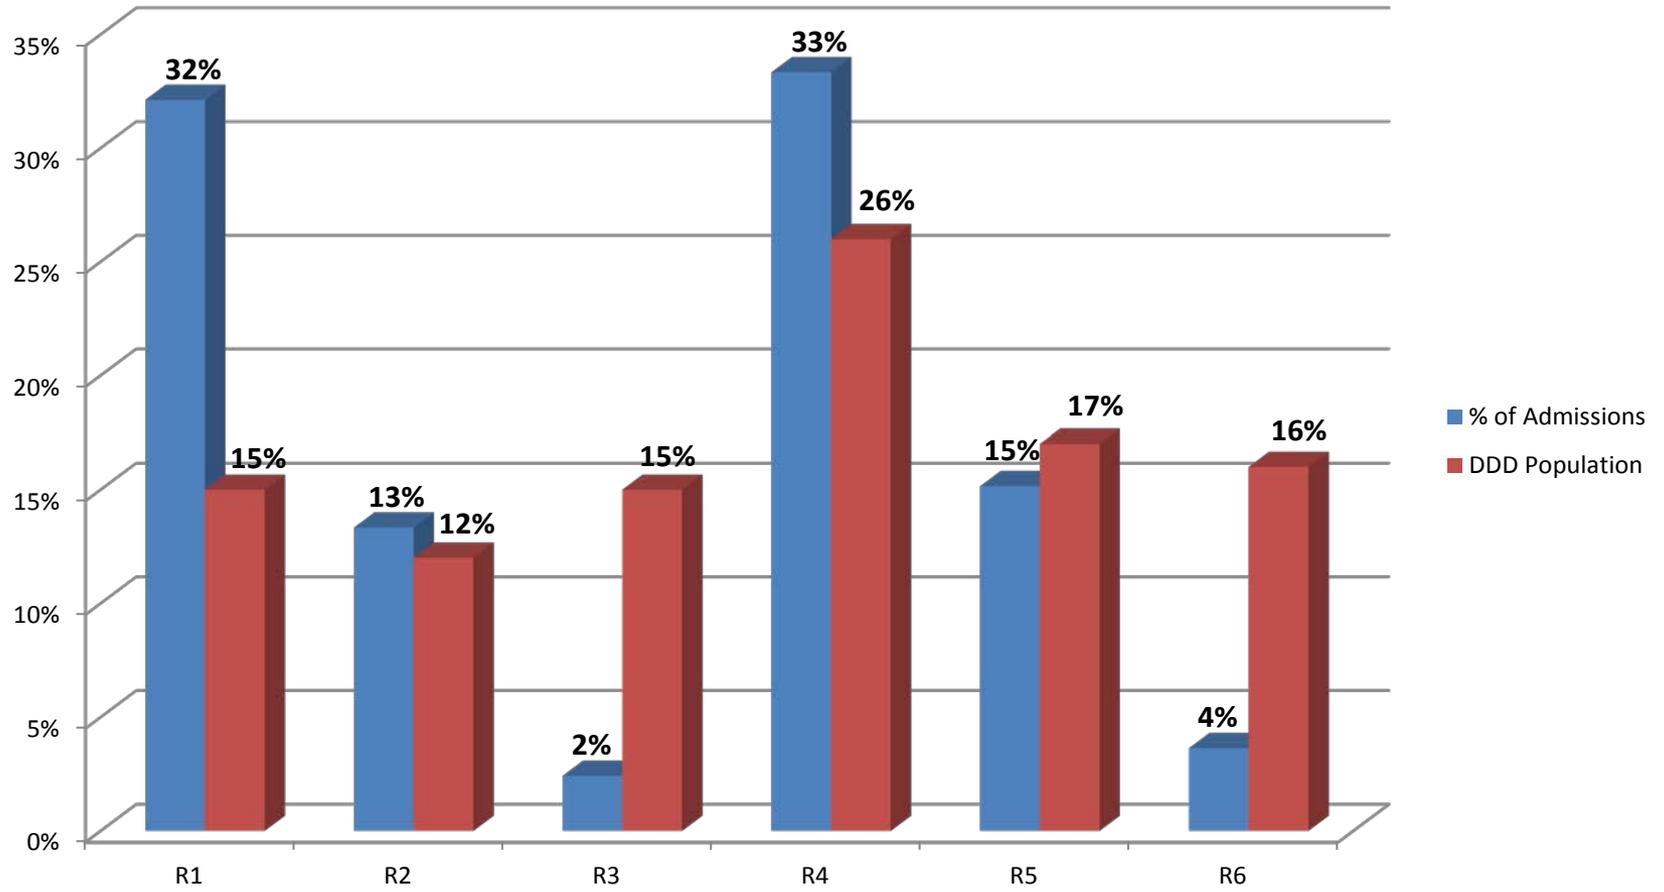

DSHS Region of Origin - All

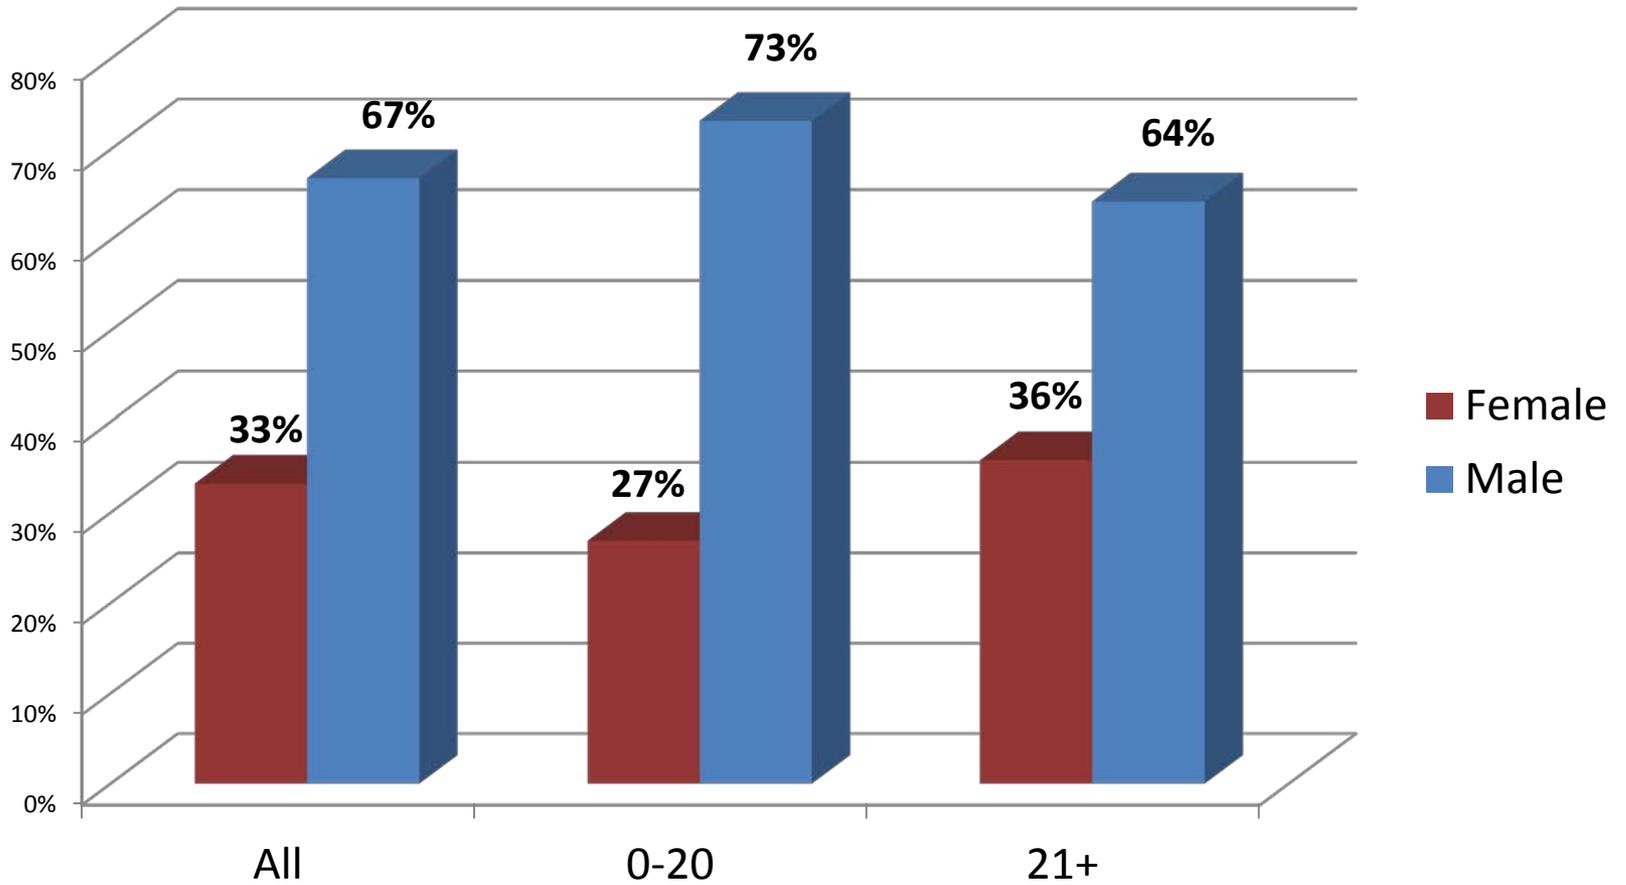

DSHS Region of Origin (0 – Age 20)

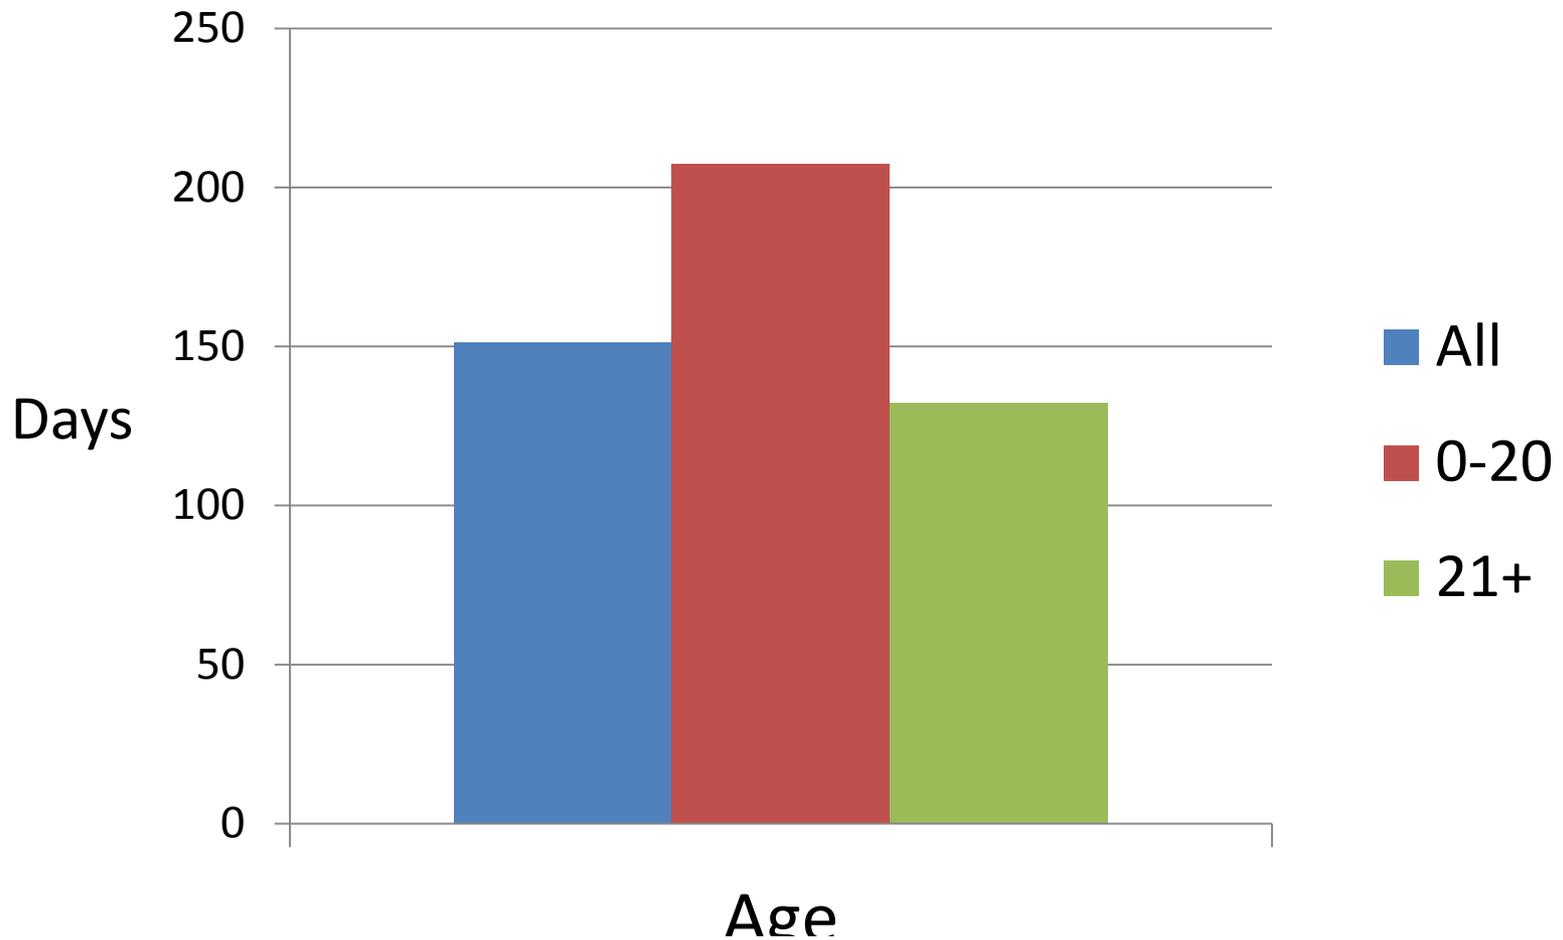

DSHS Region of Origin (Age 21+)

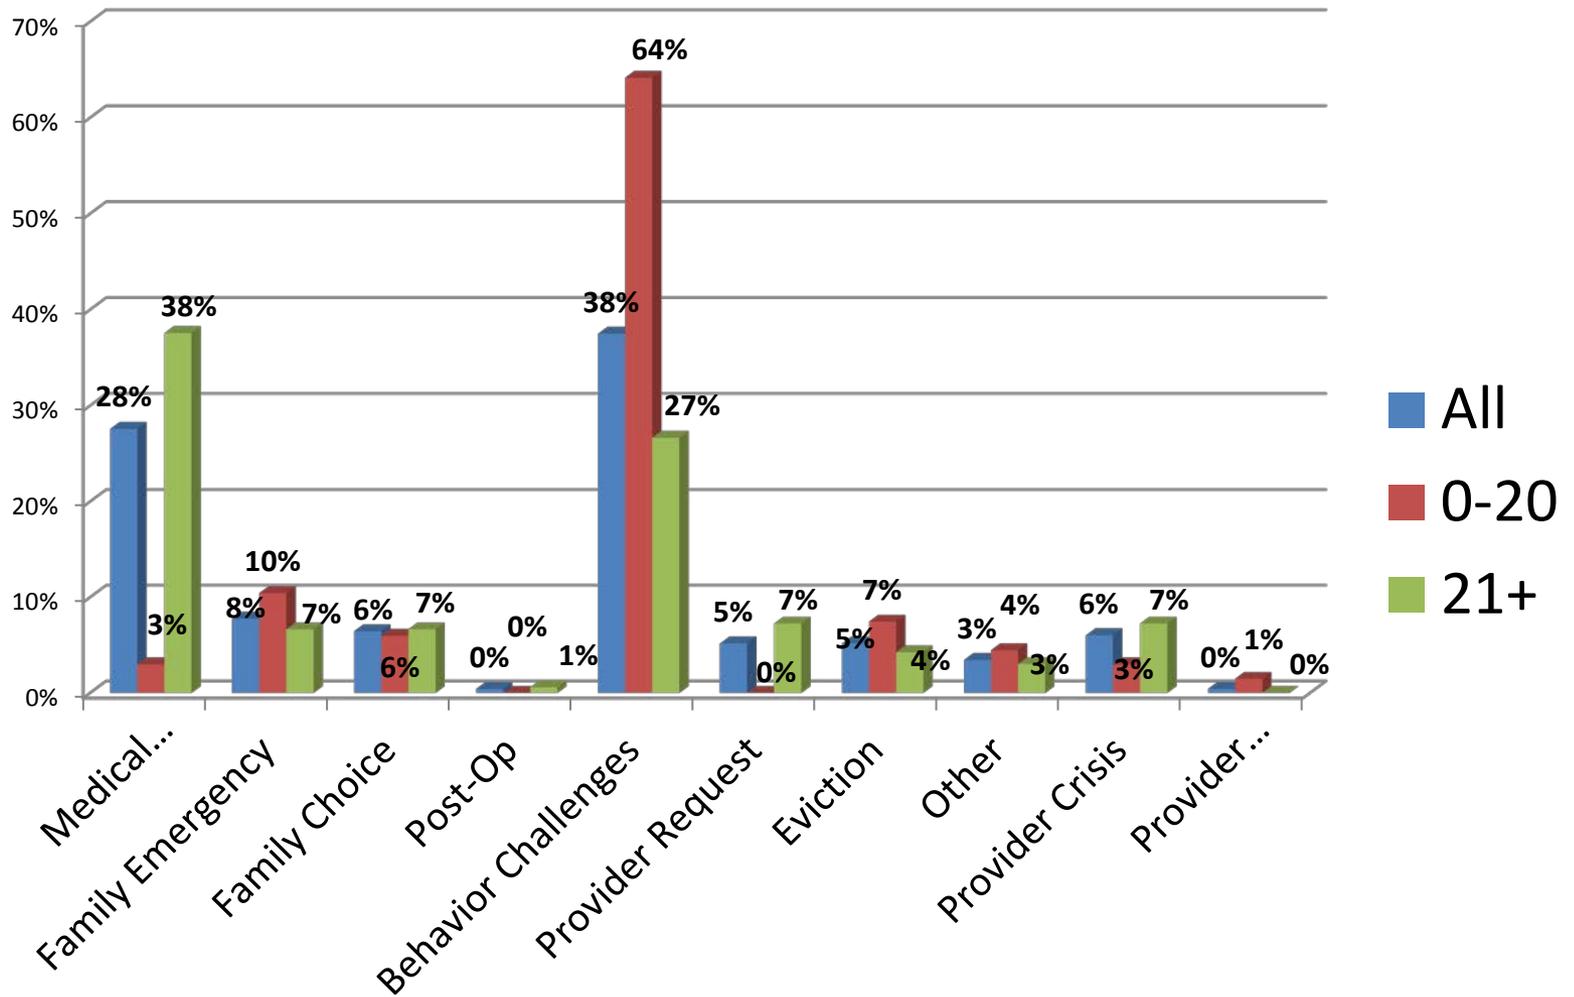

Gender

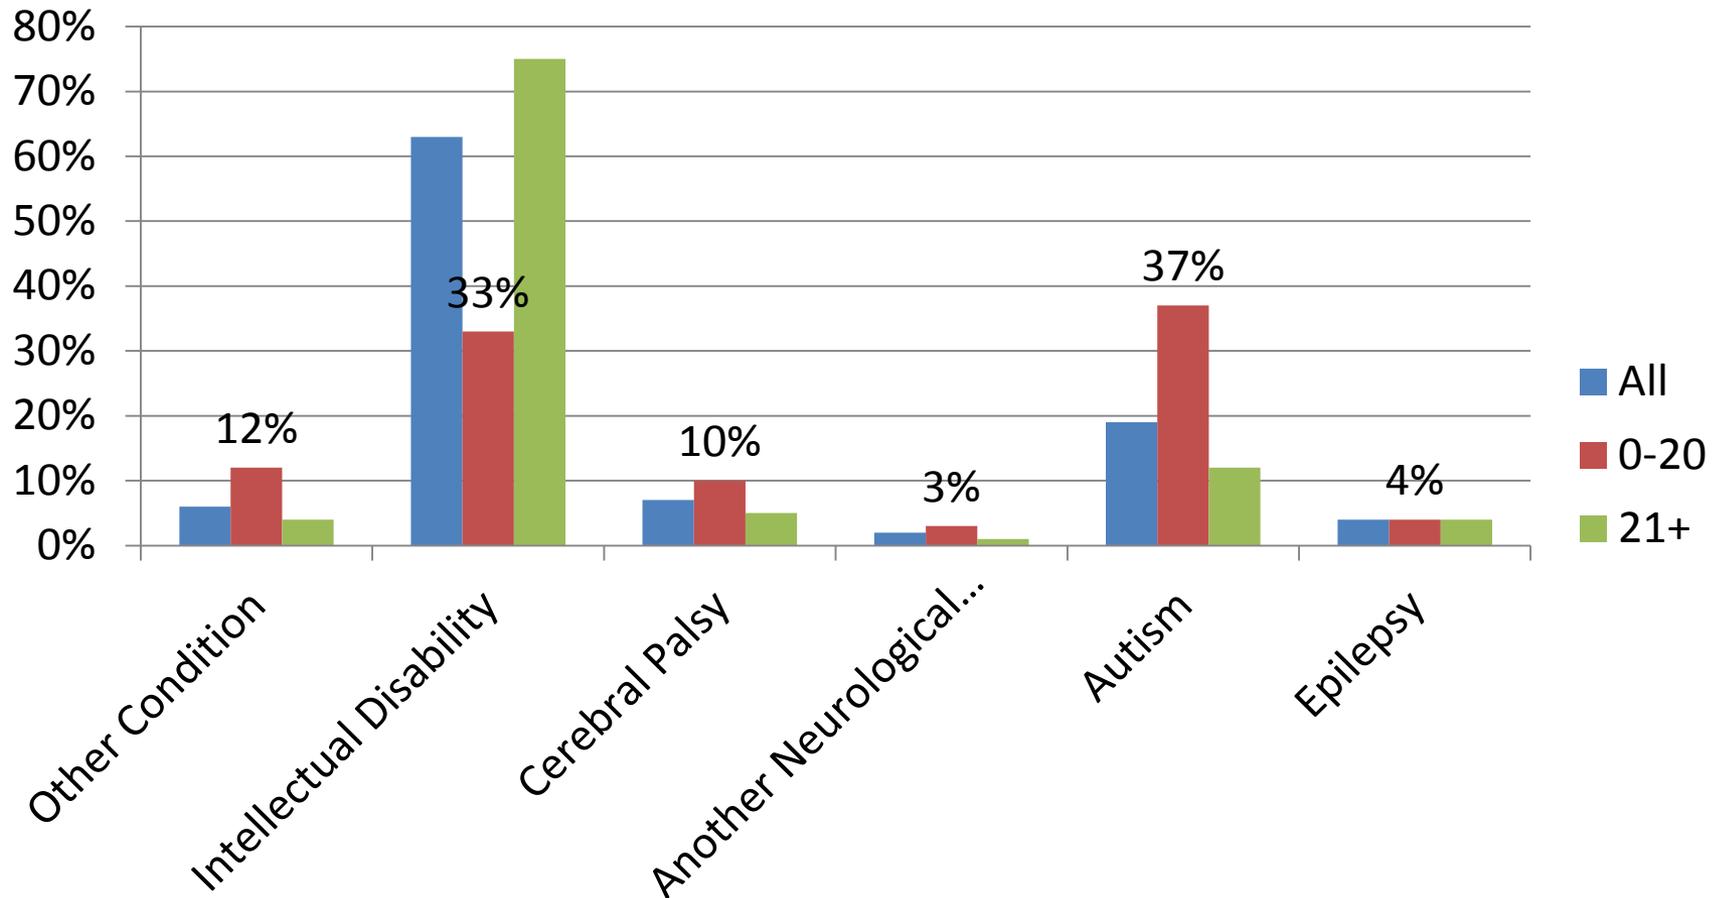

Length of Stay

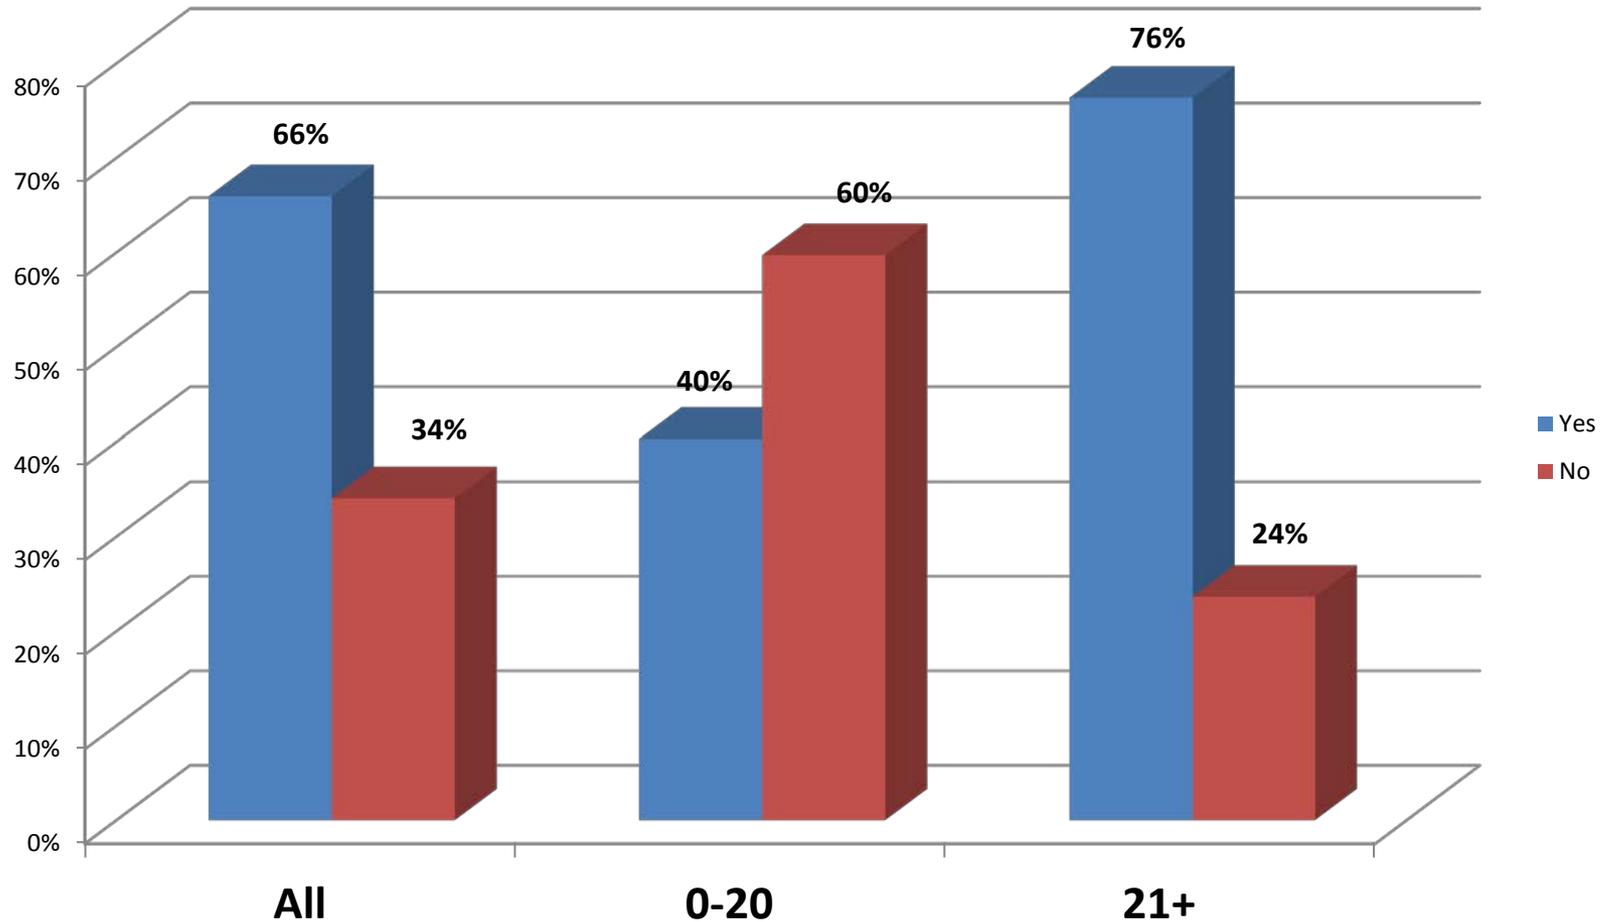

Reason for Stay

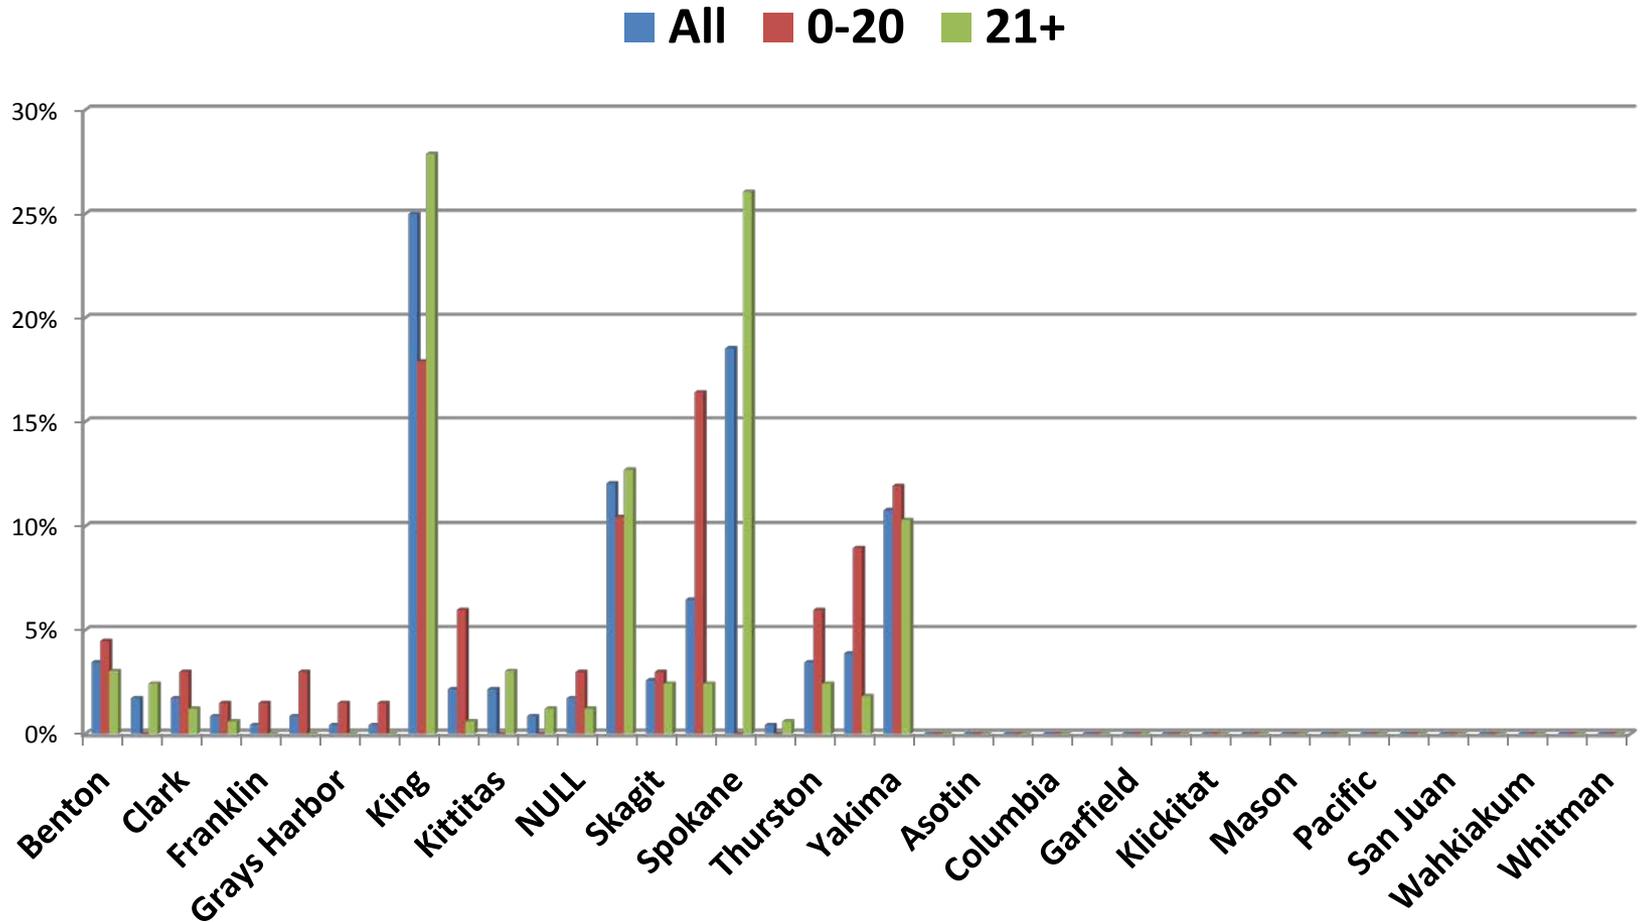

CARE Qualifying Condition

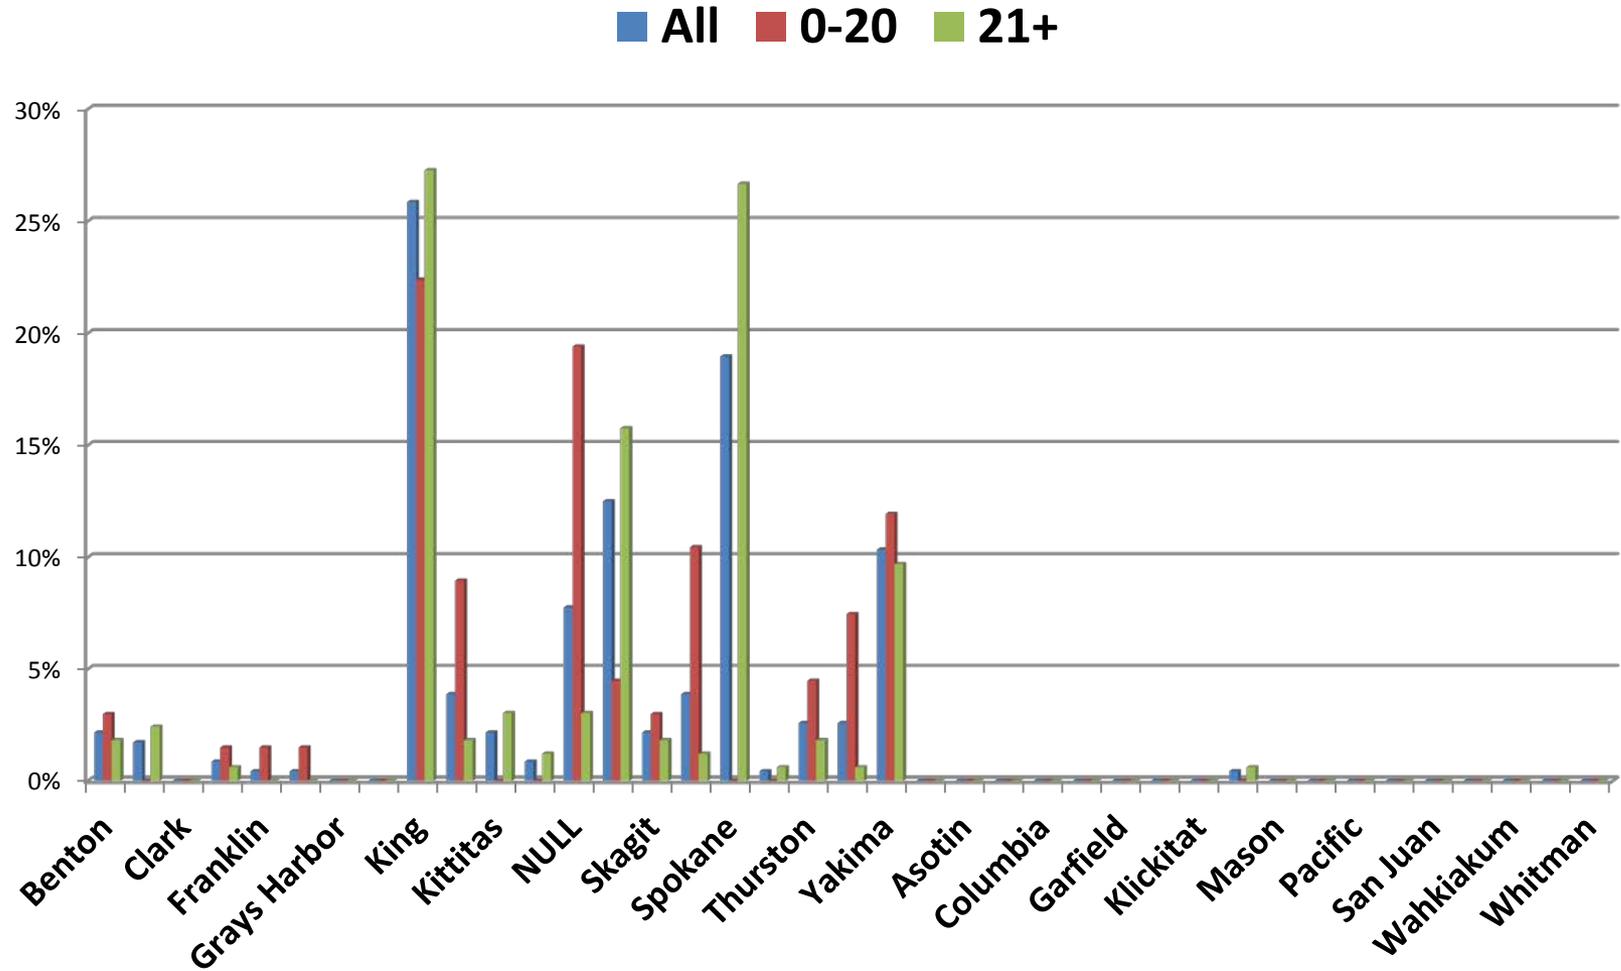

Ability to Return Home

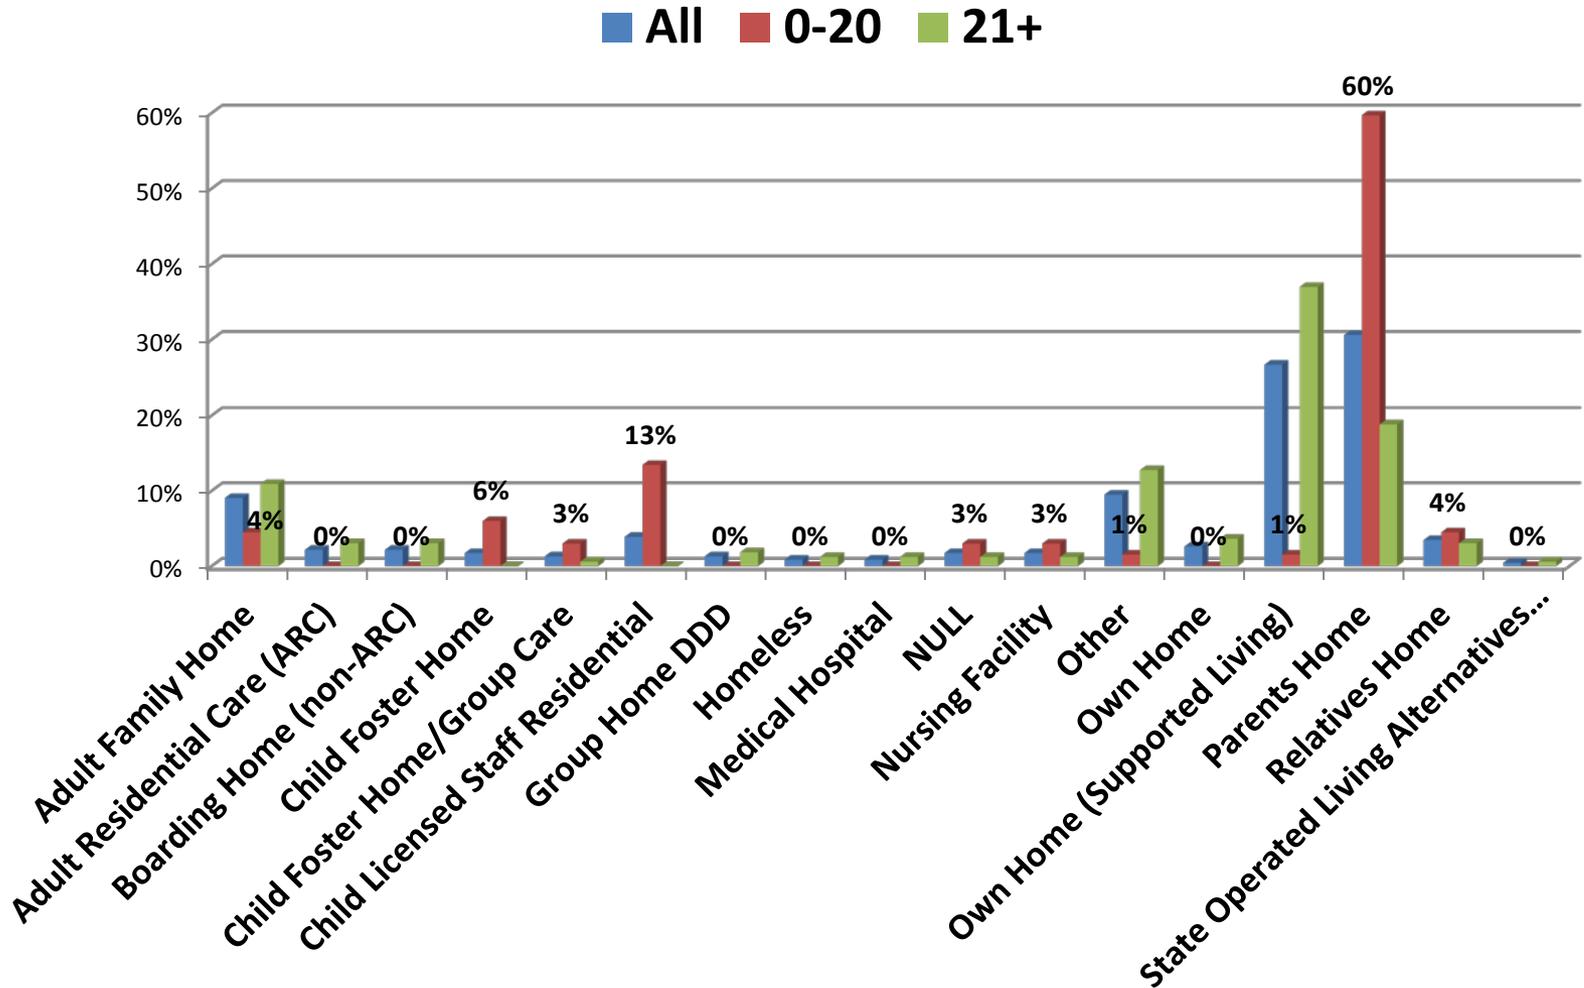

Starting Residence by County

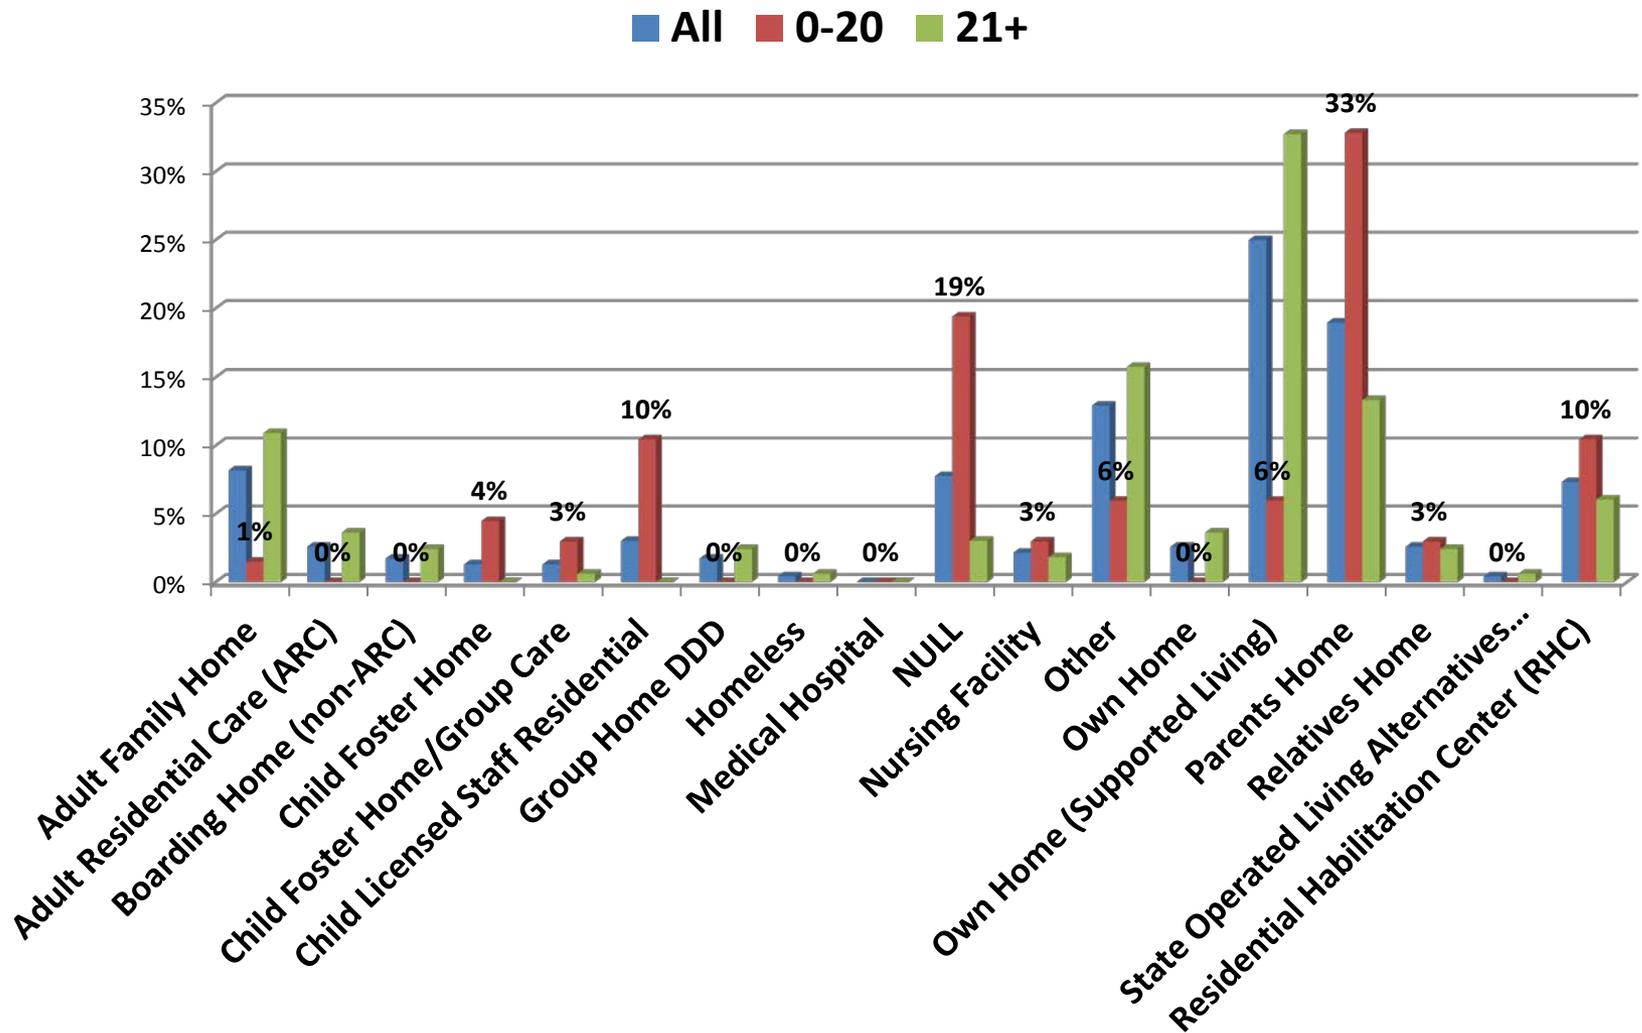

Ending Residence by County

Starting Residence by Type

Ending Residence by Type

Questions:

For more information, please contact:

Don Clintsman, Assistant Director Division of Developmental Disabilities

Donald.Clintsman@dshs.wa.gov

360/725-3421

