Methods for Contacting Your Legislators
As of August 23, 2016

The Washington State Legislature offers several methods for contacting legislators, leaving messages, and providing individual positions on bills and subject matters. Methods for contacting legislators are as follows: (1) bill comment form, (2) member e-mail forms, (3) direct email, (4) U.S. Postal Service using addresses listed on the member directory pages: [House / Senate], and (5) by phone. Each method is outlined in detail below.

Furthermore, classes are offered free of charge to those wishing to learn more about the legislative process, navigating the legislative web pages, tracking bills, and searching for RCWs, WACs, bills, and related documents: <http://leg.wa.gov/LIC/Pages/classes.aspx>.

Questions regarding contacting your legislators, attending classes, or general legislative business can be directed to support@leg.wa.gov.
