IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand, and affixed the Seal of the State of Washington at Olympia, this tenth day of January, A. D. 1955.

EARL COE,

Secretary of State.

(THE SEAL OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON—1889)

The roll was called and all members were present.

The Honorable Robert C. Finley, Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of Washington, administered the oath of office to all members of the House.

RESOLUTION

Resolution by Mr. Mardesich:

Be It Resolved, That the rules which governed the House of Representatives during the Thirty-third Legislative Session of 1953 be adopted by this House as temporary rules until permanent rules be adopted and that the Committee on Rules and Order be authorized and directed to formulate the permanent rules of the House for the present session, and that the Committee on Rules and Order act jointly with a like committee from the Senate to formulate joint rules.

On motion of Mr. Mardesich, the resolution was adopted.

Nominations for Speaker of the House were declared in order.

The Chief Clerk recognized Mr. Mardesich.

Mr. Mardesich of Snohomish:

"Mr. Chief Clerk, Justice Finley, Members of the House of Representatives:

"As we arrive here today, we have a problem that has never before existed in the history of the state of Washington. We legislators and the people of the state have become signally aware of the nature of these problems through the press and know that in this situation we must have with us leadership such as has been unequalled in the history of the state. Schools, roads, state institutions, and all the branches of state government are demanding more and more service, more and more money. We also know that the problem becomes doubly difficult due to the political situation that faces us today.

"We have in the House of Representatives fifty democratic members and forty-nine republican members, the closest possible political division. We know that each and every man and woman in this House is an individual and has his own ideas. We know that the parties have different views in many aspects. With this thought in mind, the man who will lead us must be doubly qualified. He must be aware of human nature, and understand human necessities and desires. He must have ability. He must have knowledge.

"The man I choose to nominate has these qualities. He has served on every major committee in the House of Representatives. He has been a political public servant for many years. He has an imaginative mind and is well qualified. You need only to look around you to know that he is aware of the situation he faces. On your desks are papers he has prepared for you—a small item, but indicative of the fact he is aware of details.

In addition, we have the electrical roll call, instituted by the sub-committee of which this man was chairman, again designed to speed up our work.

"I nominate this man with a feeling that I am playing an unfair trick on him. I know he is going to be weighted down with problems that would break an ordinary man; but I am nominating him knowing full well that John L. O'Brien has the ability and knowledge to lead us through this session.

"I now place the name of John L. O'Brien in nomination as Speaker of the House of Representatives."

The Chief Clerk recognized Mrs. Hansen.

Mrs. Hansen of Cowlitz and Wahkiakum:

"Mr. Chief Clerk, Justice Finley, Ladies and Gentlemen of this House:

"It is a high honor any time to rise and second the nomination of a candidate of our party to the office of Speaker. It is more than an honor this morning. It is a distinct privilege to second the nomination of an old and true friend, a man with whom I have had the privilege of serving for 14 years—our very able candidate, John L. O'Brien.

"He came into this legislature in 1941 for his first session. It was my second session and we sat in this corner of the legislature together. He has served all of us very ably and fairly. He has served our party as caucus chairman, minority leader, and in every capacity that we have asked of him. He has served on all of the major policy-making committees. But, more than his service to any of us as individuals, is the high service he has rendered to the people of the state of Washington, whom we all represent.

"It is because of this faithful and fine service to the people that we are particularly proud to present this morning for election as Speaker of the House of Representatives our John L. O'Brien who will continue to serve the people of the state of Washington with conscientious ability, integrity, and devotion to the very highest principles of good government for our beloved state.

"It gives me a great deal of personal pleasure to second the nomination of my good friend, John L. O'Brien."

The Chief Clerk recognized Mr. Sandison:

Mr. Sandison of Clallam:

"Mr. Chief Clerk, Justice Finley, Members of the House:

"I, too, rise to second the nomination of John L. O'Brien as Speaker of the House of Representatives. I think this particular House of Representatives is exceptional in the respect that we have many members who could serve as Speaker. But in any group, there is always one who rises above the others because of background, ability and selfless interest in the government he is serving. I think John O'Brien falls in that category. It is incumbent upon all of us to realize we have very, very hard and very crucial days before us, and I think that there is no one who can serve us better as Speaker than John L. O'Brien."

The Chief Clerk recognized Mr. Mast.

Mr. Mast of King:

"Mr. Chief Clerk, Judge Finley, Ladies and Gentlemen:

"It is my honor and pleasure to present for nomination as Speaker a man who has endeared himself to us all, a man who has proven himself to be honorable and just, industrious and generous, and who has served the people of the state of Washington with great distinction. This man has shown keenness and tireless attention to the manifold duties as chairman of the Legislative Council and was conscientious and diligent in the performance of his duties as Speaker of the House during the 1953 Regular and 1953 Special Sessions. He has shown an unswerving sense of honor and fairness to all.

"By his actions and accomplishments, he has proven that he possesses the great courage of George Washington, the humility and honesty of Abraham Lincoln, and the statesmanship of Thomas Jefferson.

"Ladies and gentlemen of this august assembly, I take great pride in placing in nomination the name of R. Mort Frayn as Speaker of the House of Representatives."

The Chief Clerk recognized Mr. Arnason.

Mr. Arnason of Whatcom:

"Mr. Chief Clerk, Justice Finley, Ladies and Gentlemen:

"We are all agreed this is going to be a crucial session of the Legislature. The Thirty-Fourth Session of the Legislature will go down in history as one of the important sessions of this august body in the history of our great state. We also agree that leadership will be the deciding factor in whether we are to solve the immediate problems that confront us in this sixty-day session.

"In Mort Frayn, we have a man of proven leadership and ability. He has conducted himself as Speaker in a dignified, honest, and sincere manner. His unwritten rule of fair play has endeared his leadership to the hearts of every Representative. As chairman of the Legislative Council, he exercised the ability of impartiality and led that council through probably its most successful two-year work.

"It gives me a great deal of pleasure to second the nomination of R. Mort Frayn as Speaker of the House of Representatives."

The Chief Clerk recognized Mrs. May.

Mrs. May of Yakima:

"Chief Clerk, Justice Finley, Ladies and Gentlemen:

"Practically everything that can be has been said regarding the qualifications of Speaker of the House. We all know we are facing in the next 60-day session, days that will bring upon us many momentous decisions. I can personally compare the House to a ship going over a stormy ocean. We can look ahead to that trip with great confidence if the captain is one who can meet all emergencies.

"I have served only one term but I have learned the House is made up of a group of fine people, each with individual ideas. What we do affects the welfare of the state. We are all human beings who try to make many, many decisions in a very short time. Sometimes we get into personality conflicts; and perhaps of all the qualities that a Speaker should have is the ability to get along well with individuals and be able to give them that priceless gift of calmness. Sometimes that is the only way a decision can be reached that affects not only this body but the state as a whole.

"I know I speak for many of us here when I say I certainly would feel very, very confident about the future of our voyage the next sixty days if R. Mort Frayn were going to be the leader through that sixty days. I am very proud to be able to second his nomination.

On motion of Mr. Mardesich, the nominations for Speaker were closed.

The Clerk called the roll and Mr. O'Brien was elected Speaker of the House of Representatives by the following vote: Mr. O'Brien, 50; Mr. Frayn, 49; absent or not voting, 0.

Those voting for Mr. O'Brien were: Representatives Bailey, Beierlein, Bernethy, Bozarth, Brown, Carmichael, Carty, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Edwards, Gallagher, Hallauer, Hanna, Hansen (Julia Butler), Hanson (Herb), Henry, Hess, Holliday, Huhta, Hurley, Hyppa, King, Kupka, Litchman, Mardesich, Martin, McCutcheon, McFadden, Miller (Clyde J.), Miller (Floyd C.), Mundy, Munro, Munsey, Neal (Mel T.), O'Brien, Olsen (Ray), Olson (Ole H.), Purvis, Rasmussen, Ridgway, Rosenberg, Sandison, Savage, Sawyer, Stocker, Testu, Wedekind, Young—50.

Those voting for Mr. Frayn were: Representatives Adams, Anderson, Arnason, Ball, Byrne, Canfield, Chytil, Clark (Cecil C.), Clark (Newman H.), Comfort, Eldridge, Elway, Farrar, Fisher, Folsom, Frayn, Gordon, Griffith, Harris, Hawley, Heckendorn, Johnston, Jones (Arthur D.), Jones (Mrs. Vincent F.), Kirk, Loney, Lorimer, Lybecker, Mast, May, McBeath, McDermott, Neill (Marshall A.), Oakes, Ovenell, Pence, Petrie, Robison, Ruoff, Shropshire, Siler, Smith, Strom, Swayze, Timm, Wang, Weitzman, Wintler, Yearout—49.

The Chief Clerk announced that Mr. John L. O'Brien, having received the majority vote of the House, was elected Speaker of the House of Representatives.

The Chief Clerk appointed Mr. Neal (Mel T.) and Mr. Gallagher to escort Mr. O'Brien to the rostrum.

Representatives Neal (Mel T.) and Gallagher escorted Mr. O'Brien to the rostrum where the Honorable Robert C. Finley, Justice of the State Supreme Court, administered the oath of office to him.

The Speaker assumed the chair.

The Speaker addressed the House with the following remarks:

"Mr. Chief Clerk, Honorable Justice Finley, and fellow members of the House of Representatives:

"I deeply appreciate the honor of being elected the Speaker of the House of Representatives for the Thirty-fourth Session of the Washington State Legislature. I also appreciate the devotion of our state representative Hurley of Spokane, who, at great personal sacrifice, is with us. I think it is a gallant deed. She has my undying gratitude.

"It will be my objective to be absolutely fair in all parliamentary matters and administer the duties of Speaker in a forthright and honest manner. It will be a pleasure to hear the individual opinions and requests of each of you. We have a two-party system and on that basis it will be natural for the members to present their respective parties' viewpoint. This can be done on a high level and from this process we should have and can expect very well attended sessions. A militant and vigorous minority will make a great majority. By being ever vigilant, we can expect good legislation as a result.

"For the first time in our history we have forty-nine members on each side of the aisle. It is easily recognizable that measures passed will be of necessity very meritorious. Let us at all times respect and be tolerant of each others viewpoint so that at the end of our deliberations, we can join hands and say this legislative session has made great accomplishments for the people of our state.

"Thank you very much."

The Speaker called for nominations for the office of Speaker Pro-Tempore of the House of Representatives.

The Speaker recognized Mr. Olson (Ole H.).

Mr. Olson (Ole H.) of Benton:

"Mr. Speaker and Justice Finley, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House:

"I feel it is I who is being honored by being privileged to place in nomination for the second highest ranking position of this body, the name of a lady who has been a member of this legislature and who has now served 18 years which is almost a record, only exceeded by one or two others. During this time she has endeared herself to all members by her fairness, integrity, and ability. She has the unusual honor and distinction of being recognized not only state-wide but nationally for her work in a field not usually followed by her sex. She is chairman of the Western State Compact Commission on Highways and has served on more committees than anyone in this body. Despite all of this service to the people of the state of Washington, she has also taken time to be a housewife and mother. She has served very well in all capacities and has the respect of her outside colleagues as well as those inside the legislature. We could not do any better than to honor her now, the first woman ever so honored, by electing her Speaker Pro-Tem.

"Again I say I am honored and privileged to be able to place in nomination the name of Julia Butler Hansen for your approval as Speaker Pro-Tem of the Thirty-Fourth Legislature."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Miller (Floyd C.).

Mr. Miller (Floyd C.) of King:

"Mr. Speaker, Chief Justice Finley, and Members of this Legislature:

"I deem it a great privilege to be one of those chosen to second the nomination of Mrs. Hansen. Mrs. Hansen is considered one of the most able and skillful legislators in this body. She has devoted 18 years of service to this Washington State Legislature, and was our caucus chairman in the previous session. John O'Brien was our floor leader. They made a splendid team. Mrs. Hansen as Speaker Pro-Tem with John O'Brien as Speaker, will again make a splendid team and will round out a legislative program that will be of interest to the people of the great state of Washington. She will be a great leader. She is a wonderful lady, and I deem it a great privilege and honor to second her nomination."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Rasmussen.

Mr. Rasmussen of Pierce:

"Mr. Speaker, Justice Finley, Members of the House:

"Two previous speakers have said what a great honor it is to them to make or second a nomination. I think it is a great honor that in our own great state we have people who are capable of leading us, capable of understanding the legislation and getting the necessary laws passed. We who have served here with Mrs. Hansen through her many years recognize her ability. We are going to further recognize it by asking her to serve as our Speaker from time to time. She has been of great assistance to members on both sides of the aisle. When it is necessary to spur them on, we have used her services. We are sure that our Speaker, Mr. John L. O'Brien, is in good health but in this day and age you don't know how long you are going to be in that condition so we do want to have somebody that can take over and carry on and bring forth the laws the state of Washington needs. We know Mrs. Hansen will do that. I second the nomination of Julia Butler Hansen as Speaker Pro-Tem of the House of Representatives."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Clark (Newman H.).

Mr. Clark of King:

"Mr. Speaker, my dear friends and 49ers and the opposing 49ers. When we talk of fairness and sensible administration of the state and the glory in nominating such a man as R. Mort Frayn, this too can be said for the man I am about to nominate as Speaker Pro-Tem. Should John L. O'Brien become ill, you would want to have harmony prevail, and you would have it under Marshall A. Neill if he were Speaker Pro-Tem.

"He is a young man—only forty—but he has served the House, first as an employee in 1937 as clerk of Appropriations, and in various capacities in the legislature since 1949. In the 1953 session he teamed up with you on Rules and he teamed up with you and the Senate on liaison work. He worked with the democrats as well as the republicans, and he was fair. That is the only kind of a fellow he knows how to be. You would do well to elect him. He has accomplished a good deal in his area. He has been a city attorney. He is a man of capacity, ability and fairness.

"I take a great deal of honor in placing in nomination the name of Marshall A. Neill as Speaker Pro-Tem."

The Speaker recognized Mr. Farrar.

Mr. Farrar of Pierce:

"Mr. Speaker, Judge Finley, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House:

"Much has been said this afternoon relative to the ability and character of the various individuals whose names have been placed in nomination. A great deal of stress has been placed on ability; character has somehow been overlooked. The gentleman whose nomination I wish to second is one of great character.

The man whom I am going to nominate for this position is known to all of us. He is highly respected. He is a native of the State of Washington, the son of a late distinguished judge of the Washington State Supreme Court. He has served for many years in this capacity and other capacities of the House of Representatives. In fact, for more years that he cares to admit.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. Petrie:

"Point of information, Mr. Speaker."

Mr. Speaker:

"The gentleman from Yakima, Mr. Petrie."

Mr. Petrie:

"I notice there is an addition to the title which is not in the printed form of the Fourth Biennial Report of the Legislative Council. The title includes an appropriation. The bill as read, does not make an appropriation. Why the discrepancy between the title and the provisions of the bill?"

Mr. Frayn:

"In answer to the question. The original bill had an appropriation. You will recall that yesterday we passed a bill appropriating the sum of $178,000, which incorporated the amount for operating the council. In redrafting this bill, they did not change the title to omit that appropriation. I think an amendment would be appropriate."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Rasmussen, the following amendment was adopted:

In line 4 of the title of the original bill, after the semicolon (;) following the letters and figures "RCW 44.24.070" strike the following: "making an appropriation;"

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. Beierlein:

"Is the Legislative Council itself in operation during the session or is it just the staff? My understanding of other interim committees is that members are appointed from session to session and that at the end of a term the membership is discontinued until reappointed."

Mr. Frayn:

"In answer to that, it is the principle, I believe, to allow the committee to stand until the successors are appointed, and that is the practice which the new Speaker and the Lieutenant Governor will follow. Operations will be the same as usual."

On motion of Mr. Rasmussen, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 13 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 13, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 97; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 2.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Clark (Newman H.):

"I would like to ask who the proposed members are on each committee and whom you are eliminating by the elimination of those committees."

Mr. Mardesich:

"The list of committees will come out a little later. The committee membership is quite definitely agreeable for your side of the House. I think you will find that out. It is my personal feeling we were entirely fair."

Mr. Clark:

"My question has not been answered. It seems to me that inasmuch as the information has not been given out on what is intended to be done, we cannot act on this."

Mr. Mardesich:

"You are ahead of the time for that."

The Speaker:

"If I may answer you, the list of the committees is ready to be read as soon as action is taken on this resolution."

Mr. Clark:

"May we have the list first?"

Mr. Rasmussen:

"In answer to Mr. Clark, it is necessary to set up the number of committees and establish the number of members on the committees before appointments can be made."

Mr. Clark:

"Will the gentleman yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Rasmussen?"

Mr. Rasmussen:

"Yes."

Mr. Clark:

"Why should this information be available only to one party and not available for all to use before we vote on the question?"

Mr. Rasmussen:

"In reply to that, Mr. Clark, I think your party was advised of the reduction in the number of committees and the number of members on the committees."

Mr. Clark:

"They haven't advised me or anybody else who will be on the particular committees."

Mr. Petrie:

"Will the gentleman from Snohomish, Mr. Mardesich, yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will the gentleman yield?"

Mr. Mardesich:

"Yes."

Mr. Petrie:

"It is true, as has been pointed out by the gentleman from King, Mr. Miller, that the Committee on Committees was handed a list on Sunday afternoon. With respect to that list, the number on the proposed Committee on Industrial Insurance at that time read 13 and as read by the Reading Clerk now reads 16: Is it not true also the Judiciary Committee read 19 and now reads 18; the Committee on Labor originally read 15 and now reads 16; the Committee on Liquor Control read 17 and now reads 18?"

Mr. Mardesich:

"May I interrupt? There are changes all the way through. I can explain them I believe."

Mr. Petrie:

"May I interrupt you? Will you answer the question?"

Mr. Mardesich:

"Those changes were made for this reason: You being a minority party, it is necessary for us to grant you a minority of members on committees. To make that minority less of a minority, we have changed the number of members on the committees in order to give you more committee assignments. I am not kidding about that. You will find that is true later if you want to check me."

Mr. Petrie:

"As a point of inquiry, would this, if passed, preclude us from adding a member to a committee by a vote of the House? In times past, a day or two after the committee assignments were given out, there have been small additions due to the fact it was felt very desirable a certain person be added to a committee here or there. Does this then preclude us from changing by vote of the House at a later time?"

The Speaker:

"No, it doesn't. The procedure isn't any different than it was two years ago. If someone feels a change is warranted or would like to suggest a change, I can assure you the same courtesy will be extended you as was given to us two years ago. The Committee on Committees submitted to us a list, and I think we followed it quite closely. There may be a few variations, but we followed the committee's recommendations very closely and feel we were extremely cooperative with your committee. I can assure you, you will find very equitable treatment."

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE

January 5, 1955.

To the Honorable Members of the Thirty-Fourth
Washington State Legislature.

GENTLEMEN:

In accordance with the provision of the Senate Joint Resolution No. 19, adopted by the 33rd session of the legislature, I am herewith submitting the report of the Interim Fisheries Committee, covering its activities for the 1953 to 1955 biennium.

Respectfully submitted,

SENATOR CORWIN P. SHANK, Chairman,
Interim Fisheries Committee

REPORT AND RECOMMENDATIONS to the
THIRTY-FOURTH LEGISLATURE
by the
LEGISLATIVE INTERIM FISHERIES COMMITTEE
for 1953-55

PART I—COMMITTEE ACTIVITIES

A seven-man Legislative Interim Fisheries Committee was appointed at the close of the 1953 Legislature to "make a study of the fisheries of the state of Washington, particularly those affected by the Pacific Marine Fisheries Compact, the Columbia Interstate Compact, and the international treaty for rehabilitation of the Puget Sound and Fraser river sockeye salmon runs, and to serve as a legislative liaison between fisheries and power, reclamation and other industries in the development of a cooperative water use policy for the state." Members were Senator Corwin Philip Shank, chairman; Senators Paul Luvera and Francis Pearson; Representative Dwight S. Hawley, secretary; and Representatives Hal Arnason, Jr., Morris S. Swan and Chet King. All but Senator Luvera and Representatives Arnason and Swan had served on previous interim fisheries committees, and Senator Shank had been a member since 1947.

During the 1953-54 period the committee met five times and held two public hearings on fisheries matters.

In August, 1953, the group made a tour of the Puget Sound salmon fishery and visited industry plants at Blaine and Anacortes. On that occasion it met jointly at Ladner, B. C., with members of the International Pacific Salmon Fisheries Commission and its staff, and at Seattle with the Department of Fisheries to review the progress of the state's fisheries development program.

In February, 1954, a two-day meeting was held at Seattle, beginning with detailed reports on various departmental activities and concluding with a public hearing at which individuals and groups expressed their opinions on fisheries legislation and the work of the Department of Fisheries. Afterwards the committee inspected the progress of the new Granite Falls fishway and site of a proposed fishway at Sunset Falls on the Skykomish River.

Subsequent to that session a hearing was conducted in April at South Bend relative to closure of the Naselle salmon hatchery and other fisheries problems in coastal Washington.

Further carrying out the instructions of the legislature, your interim committee in July, 1954, repeated its 1952 tour of fishways, power dams and salmon hatcheries in the Columbia River watershed. The trip commenced at Seattle and included stops at the Skykomish River salmon hatchery; the site of Chelan P.U.D.'s proposed Wenatchee River power project; the Tumwater canyon fishways on the Wenatchee; Rock Island dam and fishways; Roza irrigation dam and fishways on the lower Yakima; and McNary dam and fishways.

At the end of the second day the committee and Department of Fisheries personnel were joined at The Dalles, Oregon, site of another major federal hydro-electric project, by the Oregon Legislative Interim Fisheries Committee and personnel of the Oregon Fish Commission and Oregon Game Commission. The Oregon legislators included Representative Joseph M. Dyer, Chairman; Senator Kenneth Goodall, Secretary; and Representative Peter Amacher. Commission personnel included Director of Game P. W. Schneider and Director of Fisheries M. T. Hoy.

On the third day the party observed downstream mortality studies being conducted by the Washington Department of Fisheries at the Pacific Power & Light Company dam on the White Salmon river near Bingen, and fishway construction work at Shipper Falls on the Wind river. In the afternoon a joint meeting of the two interim committees was held at Portland with agency personnel to discuss fish and power problems on the Columbia River and the federally financed programs to overcome them. The two committees decided to meet at Olympia during the Washington Legislature to further discuss these subjects.

On the final day the committee returned to Seattle after inspecting the new 24-pond Toutle River salmon hatchery east of Castle Rock, and the Deschutes River fishway system at Olympia.

The final meeting of the biennium was held at Seattle December 10-11 to review the Department's budget request for 1955-57 and proposed fisheries legislation for the 1955 session.

PART II—ORGANIZATION OF THE DEPARTMENT OF FISHERIES

One of the functions of the Interim Fisheries Committee has been to maintain a close liaison with the Department of Fisheries and to follow progress of the salmon rehabilitation program begun in 1951. The makeup and development of the Department staff also has been watched with interest.

Since 1951 the Department as well as its activities has undergone extensive reorganization and expansion. Only the Director of Fisheries of the approximately 250 employees is not under the state merit system at present. Hiring is done through the State Personnel Board from competitive registers; promotions and salary increments are awarded on a basis of performance ratings. In-service training has been encouraged. Positions have been reclassified to maintain comparative status with salary and performance standards elsewhere in state government and outside it.

The major reorganization effort has been a redefinition of responsibility among the various technical services, such as research, stream improvement and engineering, and between the scientific functions and those of an administrative or operational nature (see appendix). This change coincided with the buildup of a staff qualified to deal with many technical problems associated with rehabilitation and protection of salmon and other marine fishes. The scientific services are integrated under a technical coordinator who is assisted by three chief supervisors; engineering, fisheries research and hatchery research. Other functions are stream improvement, shellfish research, construction and statistics. The second major grouping under an administrative assistant comprises the Department's operational functions, such as patrol enforcement, hatchery operations, accounting and budgeting, licenses, public information, and the Lower Columbia River Fisheries Development Program.

The organization plan has proved flexible enough to allow the Department to redistribute duties and interlocking responsibilities as needed in the development of new research projects. At the same time serious gaps have been bridged which formerly existed between key technical units.

PART III—DEPARTMENT ACTIVITIES 1953-55

More effort is being expended by the state through its marine management agency to foster the well-being of the fisheries resource than at any time in history. It is a program of wide scope that should never be relaxed, but which should be less costly after the initial "catch-up" phase is completed in the next 8 to 10 years. Already the concept of restoring and creating runs of fish, rather than depending solely on regulations and hatcheries, and of a scientific management approach are returning dividends.

Among major activities promising greater fish production among anadromous species in 1953-54 were the following:

Completion of the three-unit Deschutes River fishway system at Olympia. Annual runs of 10,000 to 15,000 chinook salmon have been created by hatchery transplants and their present annual value to the commercial and sport fishermen is $50,000 against a total investment of about $300,000. This value will increase.

Completion of a 580-foot-long fishway on the South Stillaguamish River at Granite Falls for $250,000. Like the Deschutes fish passes, this project has opened 30 miles of spawning and rearing area never before accessible to salmon. It is capable of producing four species of Pacific salmon worth $100,000 annually once the runs are fully established.

Completion of two other major fishways at impassable falls on the Wind and Klickitat rivers, again opening virgin fish growing waters. The total mileage for these two federally-financed projects is 107. The potential increase in salmon production on the two rivers is estimated at $663,000 annually.

(All of the fishways listed represent the state's first use of the vertical slot, self-regulating design perfected by the International Sockeye Commission on the Fraser River.)

Stream clearance and minor falls improvement work benefiting 200 miles of spawning grounds.

Completion of three new hatcheries with 38 rearing ponds capable of growing another 5,500,000 chinook and silver salmon annually. At the end of 1954, the Department was operating the largest salmon hatching system in existence: 19 stations with a total rearing capacity of about 35,000,000 fish annually.

Liberation of 55,400,000 reared salmon and 29,300,000 salmon fry.

Initiation of a major new research project on the effects of power dams on downstream migrants. Studies were carried on at the Elwha, Chelan, White Salmon and Lewis rivers. Findings will be tied into the overall Corps of Engineers research program in which the Department of Fisheries is one of the principal participants.

Expansion of pollution research into studies of field conditions at Everett, Tacoma and Port Townsend harbors. The entire facilities of the Deception Pass marine research station, including salmon rearing ponds, have been turned over to this project. Cooperating is the Washington Pollution Control Commission. Objectives are to measure the effects of various pollutants on fish life and to develop controls that will minimize them. The study is the only one of its kind now under way.

PART IV—PROPOSED DEPARTMENT ACTIVITIES 1955-57

The Committee has reviewed the Department's budget request for the 1955-57 biennium in detail. Proposed expenditures include $4,019,000 in state funds and $2,323,000 in federal reimbursable monies. The latter will be expended under the Lower Columbia River Fisheries Development Program and the U. S. Corps of Army Engineers power dam research program.

The state general fund expenditures for salaries and operations provide for no expansion of the level of activities reached in 1953-54. The salary request of $1,666,000 is the sum that will be needed to carry the June 30, 1954, staff for the next two years with the addition of four new employees. The request of $1,159,000 for operations is only $17,000 more than the last appropriation.

The state capital outlay request of $1,170,000 includes $663,000 for stream improvement and fish passage work, and $507,000 for hatchery extensions and repairs.

The principal projects in the stream improvement category are designed to increase natural production of salmon in rivers barred by falls or dams. The request includes an item of $350,000 for the first phase of a fishway system at Sunset Falls on the South Skykomish River that would open approximately 30 miles of spawning and rearing area on the Skykomish, Foss, Beckler, Miller and Tye rivers for the first time. The estimated annual commercial value of salmon production to be gained is $300,000.

Studies into the mortalities suffered by salmon migrants at power dams will be continued and it is proposed now to begin the actual development of facilities to collect and pass downstream migrants at a total cost of $143,000. Coupled with hatchery transplantings these will permit the restoration of sizeable runs of fish in such streams as the Elwha, Baker, White Salmon, Skykomish and Yakima rivers.

Approximately one-half of the capital outlay request for hatcheries would be spent to expand the rearing capacity of the 16 state-financed stations without increasing personnel. Eleven stations would be benefited with a total increase in rearing output of about 5,000,000 salmon annually. The remaining funds would be used to improve water supply systems, to build residences at the more outlying hatcheries, and to repair existing structures.

In brief, the proposed budget calls for a continuation of the long range salmon rehabilitation and research program begun by the state in 1951 and reaffirmed by the 1953 Legislature.

PART V—COMMENTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS

Fisheries Budget. The Department of Fisheries budget request will maintain the state's salmon rehabilitation program on schedule; therefore, the Committee endorses it in full.

Fisheries Organization. The Committee finds that the Department of Fisheries, through reorganization and improved staffing, has equipped itself to carry on a major fisheries program and has attained recognition as a high-ranking fisheries management and research agency.

Public Beach Legislation. In the 1953 Session, Senate Bill 235 was introduced by Senators Shank and Pearson to reserve certain state tidelands from sale for the purpose of establishing recreational shellfishing areas. Action was deferred at request of the Department of Public Lands pending a joint survey of the tidelands with the Department of Fisheries. The survey report, was completed in November, 1954, and reviewed by the Interim Fisheries Committee at its December meeting. The Committee approved the report and requested the Department of Lands immediately to reserve by administrative order the 15 parcels proposed for public shellfish areas. A subcommittee was appointed to discuss with the Department of Lands the desirability of introducing legislation in 1955 expressing a public beach policy and permanently withdrawing the 15 tideland tracts. The subcommittee is composed of Dwight Hawley, chairman; Francis Pearson, Paul Luvera, Chet King and Hal Arnason, Jr.

Reefnet Legislation. The Committee favors legislation to confine salmon reefnetting to those waters of the Puget Sound outside the Initiative 77 line.

Pollution Legislation. The Committee is concerned with the damaging effects of various forms of pollution on salmon and other fish life and favors legislation to strengthen the Pollution Code by requiring industries to obtain pollution control permits before beginning new plant construction. It is recommended also that provision be made for the licensing of existing industries.

Saltwater Fishing Licenses. A saltwater fishing license for sports fishermen has been advocated by some groups. There is no general agreement on the scope or cost of such a license or the disposition of license monies. There is a question as to the effect a sport fishing license for salmon would have on the tourist trade. In view of the complexity of the proposal, the Committee feels that the matter should be one of the principal legislative fisheries studies during the next interim period.

Salmon Preserves. For many years certain waters of Puget Sound have been closed to commercial salmon fishing by administrative regulation. While not advocating the establishment of such "preserves" in disregard of any conservation need for them, the Committee feels favorably towards the enactment of legislation embodying existing administrative salmon preserves, either as presently defined or with modifications if justified.

Federal Fisheries Support. The Committee in concert with the Oregon Legislative Interim Fisheries Commission recommends that Congress be asked to provide permanent financing for the operation of salmon and trout hatcheries and fishways constructed under the Lower Columbia River Fisheries Development Program by making the costs a charge against hydroelectric generation at federal dams on the Columbia River. The federal support plan for such hatcheries at the present time does not extend beyond 1966, after which the burden will fall on the states. Cuts in federal appropriations for the program already have impeded its completion. The joint Committees' position is based on the fact that the Lower Columbia River program is intended as only a partial compensation for the loss of fish caused by federal power dam development, and that the loss factor will be a continuous one in some degree and should be continuously compensated for.

Water Use Policy. The effect of water uses on fisheries in the state of Washington is profound, and the Committee urges that all official water policy actions and legislation, state, federal or interstate, fully recognize the importance of maintaining the fisheries resource in companionship with power, irrigation and other water uses.

Interim Fisheries Committee. In 1953 the state of Washington produced 143,200,000 pounds of fish and shellfish with a wholesale value of $36,500,000. The value of its canned and processed fish products was exceeded by only three other states—California, Maine and Delaware. Beyond the worth of the actual commercial catch is another $77,500,000 invested in processing plants, fishing vessels, gear, oystering grounds and boatyards, and beyond that is a multi-million dollar annual recreational saltwater fishery. These values reoccur annually, and if proper attention is given to the protection and development of the state's marine resources, this return of wealth can be perpetual. In view of the importance of fisheries to the state as an economic factor, and because of the pressures upon salmon and other fish life from competitive water uses, it is recommended that the Legislative Interim Fisheries Committee be continued as such during the next biennium for the purpose of maintaining a close legislative liaison with the Department of Fisheries, other state, federal and international fisheries agencies, and the interim fisheries committee of Oregon.

January 10, 1955

Respectfully submitted,

Resolution by Representatives Oakes and Dore:

WHEREAS, Paul Ruoff, the father of State Representative Richard Ruoff, passed to his eternal reward last Friday, January 14, 1955, leaving surviving him a widow and two children, and

WHEREAS, Members of the House of Representatives of the thirty-fourth session of the Washington State Legislature wish to express their deepest sympathies and condolences to Mrs. Paul Ruoff and State Representative Richard Ruoff, and other members of the Ruoff family,

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the House of Representatives go on record extending their deepest sympathies and condolences to State Representative Richard Ruoff and his family on the passing of his father, Paul Ruoff.

On motion of Mr. Oakes, the resolution was adopted.

Resolution by Representatives McCutcheon, Dore and Sawyer:

Be It Resolved, By the House of Representatives, that they have been informed by Mr. Jack Hurley, internationally known sports figure, that a world's heavyweight fight between World Heavyweight Champion Rocky Marciano and Don Cockell of England, can be profitably staged in Seattle, Washington some time during the summer 1955, providing that a suitable site with proper seating capacity can be secured,

WHEREAS, The only possible site in the state of Washington for holding an outdoor summer championship fight with the necessary seating capacity is the University of Washington stadium located in Seattle, Washington, with a seating capacity of some 55,000, which number can be expanded by installation of additional seats, and

WHEREAS, Mr. Jack Hurley has submitted to the University of Washington Regents, via Harvey Cassill, Athletic Director, a proposal to rent the University of Washington stadium for such a championship fight, which proposal provides for a $35,000 rental or ten per cent of the gate, whichever sum is the greater, which amount would go to the ASUW for student purposes, or that said funds could be earmarked for any fund the University might designate, and

WHEREAS, This said championship fight would bring the outstanding fighting event of the century to Seattle, and would bring an influx of tourists from neighboring states and Canada, which would bring an estimated seven or eight million dollars of additional monies into the state of Washington, which would in turn increment monies for all state and local municipalities, and

WHEREAS, The members of the legislature have been informed by Mr. Jack Hurley that the President of the ASUW, the University of Washington Student Body, sports leaders, businessmen, the leaders of the community, and the general citizenry favor use of the University of Washington stadium for said championship bout,

WHEREAS, Mr. Hurley's proposition was submitted to the University of Washington Regents and turned down without sufficient consideration and without cause, other than that such a rental is against the policy of the University of Washington, and

WHEREAS, The people of the state of Washington have a right to witness such a heavyweight championship in Seattle, Washington, and

WHEREAS, The staging of the World's Heavyweight Championship at the University of Washington football stadium this summer would be a forerunner to future outstanding professional sports events (i.e. professional football) in the Pacific Northwest and the state of Washington.

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the House of Representatives of the state of Washington recommend that the University of Washington Regents rescind their prior action concerning rental of the University of Washington stadium, and that they make available the University of Washington stadium for the purpose of summer outdoor World's Championship fight between World Heavyweight Champion Rocky Marciano and Don Cockell, leading contender, and that said University of Washington Board of Regents make said stadium, as the occasion merits, available for other outstanding professional sports events that may in the future desire to come to Seattle.

Mr. McCutcheon moved the adoption of the resolution.

Mr. Clark (Newman H.) moved the adoption of the following amendment to the resolution:

Add thereto as a part of the last sentence, "provided as a condition said Jack Hurley shall first roof said stadium which shall be suitably engineered and permanently installed and shall become the property of the Associated Students of the University of Washington."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

Mr. Mast moved that the amendment be laid on the table.

The motion was lost.

The Speaker stated the question before the House was the motion on the adoption of the amendment by Mr. Clark to the resolution.

The amendment was lost.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the motion to adopt the resolution by Mr. McCutcheon.

Mr. Canfield demanded a roll call on the adoption of the resolution, and the demand was sustained.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Purvis:

"Will Mr. McCutcheon yield to a question?"

Mr. McCutcheon:

"Certainly."

Mr. Purvis:

"Mr. McCutcheon, why is it necessary for the legislature to act on this matter rather than have it decided by the Board of Regents of the University of Washington?"

Mr. McCutcheon:

"Maybe I didn't make that clear. The matter—a legitimate offer by the Athletic Director, was submitted to the Regents with the recommendation that they do accept it. They turned it down. This is a request that they reconsider their previous decision."

Mr. Neal (Mel T.) demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the adoption of the resolution by Mr. McCutcheon.

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of the resolution, and the resolution was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 45; absent or not voting, 9.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Arnason, Beierlein, Bernethy, Bozarth, Brown, Carmichael, Carty, Clark (Cecil C.), Connor, Cooney, Dore, Edwards, Eldridge, Farrar, Gallagher, Gordon, Hansen (Julia Butler), Hanson (Herb), Henry, Hess, Holliday, Huhta, Hyppa, Kupka, Litchman, Lybecker, McBeath, McCutcheon, McFadden, Miller (Clyde J.), Miller (Floyd C.), Mundy, Munsey, Neal (Mel T.), Olsen (Ray), Ovenell, Pence, Rasmussen, Savage, Sawyer, Stocker, Strom, Wedekind, Young, Mr. Speaker—45.

Prayer was offered by the Reverend J. Burton Salter, Rector of the St. John's Episcopal Church of Olympia, Washington.

The reading clerk proceeded to read the journal of the proceedings of the previous day. On motion of Mr. Hess, further reading was dispensed with and the journal was ordered to stand approved.

PROPOSITIONS AND MOTIONS

Mrs. Anderson announced that the tentative date for the Memorial service to honor deceased members of the legislature has been set for Friday, February 11, 1955. She requested the members of the House to submit the names of the former members in the various districts who have passed on since the 1953 session. She announced that the Memorials Committee also would like to have the names and address of all surviving relatives.

RECONSIDERATION

Mr. Mardesich moved that the House reconsider the vote by which the resolution introduced the previous day, relating to the use of the University of Washington stadium, was lost.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mrs. Anderson:

"Point of inquiry, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your point."

Mrs. Anderson:

"I want to ask the gentleman, Mr. Dore, if he is the co-sponsor of the resolution?"

Mr. Dore:

"Yes, ma'am."

Mrs. Anderson:

"I have been told my name appears on the sports page of the Seattle papers as the sponsor of the resolution. I don't know who is the sponsor of the resolution and while I am interested in prize fights, I have not sponsored this resolution. I want the press to notice this, because it has caused me embarrassment due to the fact I am a former member of the Board of Regents."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Dore:

"Point of inquiry, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your point."

Mr. Dore:

"May I ask Mrs. Anderson a question?"

Mr. Dore:

"May I ask, if this were adopted and you were on the Board of Regents now, would you feel resentment?"

Mrs. Anderson:

"I would resent having the Legislature delegate a job to me, as regent, and then assume administrative authority over it. I feel that if we adopt this resolution, we indicate we have no confidence whatever in the Board of Regents."

Further debate ensued.

Mr. Smith demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the reconsideration of the vote by which the resolution relating to the use of the University of Washington stadium was lost.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the Act.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Rasmussen:

"Point of parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your inquiry."

Mr. Rasmussen:

"If a member comes into the House before the vote is announced, does he have a right to be recorded as voting?"

The Speaker:

"A member always has a right to vote or to change his vote before the vote is announced. When the electric roll call is used to take the vote, in order to give members notice that the vote is about to be announced, the Speaker states first that the bill is on final passage and then propounds the question, 'does any member desire to change his vote?' The Speaker then orders the Clerk to take the record. It is the Speaker's opinion that this procedure gives the members adequate warning before the final result of the vote is announced. Orderly and consistent procedure must be followed."

Mr. Rasmussen:

"I raise this question because the members of the House should be fully acquainted with the procedure in closing the vote on the electric roll call. Further amendment to the Rules may be necessary."

The Speaker:

"I have outlined the procedure to be followed. If a member should come within the bar of the House after the Speaker has ordered the Clerk to take the record, that member is too late to vote or to change his vote."

Mr. Clark (Newman H.):

"Mr. Speaker, it is my opinion that House Rules 48 and 52 should be amended to conform to this ruling by the Speaker."

The Speaker:

"It is the Speaker's opinion that Rule 52 should be amended to conform with this procedure in closing the vote on the electric roll call machine."

Mr. Olson (Ole H.):

"Some latitude should be allowed, perhaps. It is also my opinion that the rules should be changed to conform to the use of the machine."

Mr. Neill (Marshall A.):

"Mr. Speaker, parliamentary inquiry. Is it understood that we are not to interpret your remarks as a ruling on this matter?"

The Speaker:

"We will withhold decision until further study of Rule 52 has been made."

House Bill No. 3, by Representatives Gallagher, Clark (Newman H.) and Dore:

Repealing justice court act.

Mr. Dore moved that the rules be suspended, the second reading considered the third, and that House Bill No. 3 be placed on final passage.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Rasmussen:

"Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from King, Mr. Dore, yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Dore?"

Mr. Dore:

"Certainly."

Mr. Rasmussen:

"As I recall during the last session, we were assured that all the attorneys in the state had studied the justices of the peace act and they agreed that a similar act was a very fine measure. The United States Bar Association approved of it, and stated there would be no further trouble with the justices of peace. Now, do I have the lawyers' assurance that this is true? It would now appear that the lawyers didn't look at it too closely. Can we vote for this bill now?"

Mr. Dore:

"In answer to Mr. Rasmussen, I recall that he joined the lawyers in endorsing the justices of the peace bill at that time. In answer to his question, I believe he can in good conscience vote for this bill which deletes the unconstitutional parts of an old act."

Mr. Beierlein:

"Is it required that a justice of the peace has to be a lawyer, and how do we elect or choose our justices of the peace?"

Mr. Dore:

"This is an attempt to answer Mr. Beierlein's question. This particular bill pertains only to the repeal of certain sections of an old act that had been declared unconstitutional. This bill has nothing to do with the qualifications or election of justices of the peace."

Further debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Brown:

"Mr. Speaker, will Representative Dore yield to another question?"

The Speaker:

"Will the gentleman yield?"

Mr. Dore:

"Yes."

Mr. Brown:

"What assurance do we have that this bill is in the interest of justice. Are we assured that we will not have further kangaroo courts throughout the state?"

Mr. Dore:

"I would like to assure Mr. Brown that we will take the matter under consideration. I am sure Mr. Clark agrees that we will do our very best to do justice to all."

Mr. Gallagher demanded the previous question, and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 3, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 91; nays, 3; absent or not voting, 5.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Anderson, Arnason, Bailey, Beierlein, Bernethy, Bozarth, Byrne, Canfield, Carty, Chytil, Clark (Cecil C.), Clark (Newman H.), Comfort, Connor, Cooney, Dore, Edwards, Eldridge, Elway, Farrar, Fisher, Folsom, Gallagher, Gordon, Griffith, Hallauer, Hansen (Julia Butler), Hanson (Herb), Harris, Hawley, Heckendorn, Henry, Hess, Huhta, Hyppa, Johnston, Jones (Arthur D.), Jones (Mrs. Vincent F.), King, Kirk, Kupka, Litchman, Loney, Lorimer, Lybecker, Mardesich, Martin, Mast, May, McBeath, McCutcheon, McDermott, McFadden, Miller (Clyde J.), Miller (Floyd C.), Mundy, Munro, Munsey, Neal (Mel T.), Neill (Marshall A.), Oakes, Olsen (Ray), Olson (Ole H.), Ovenell, Pence, Petrie, Purvis, Rasmussen, Ridgway, Robison, Rosenberg, Ruoff, Sandison, Savage, Sawyer, Shropshire, Siler, Smith, Stocker, Strom, Swayze, Testu, Timm, Wang, Wedekind, Weitzman, Wintler, Yearout, Young, Mr. Speaker—91.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Brown, Carmichael, Holliday—3.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Ball, Donohue, Frayn, Hanna, Hurley—5.

House Bill No. 3, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the Act.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Martin, the Honorable William J. Jernick, Exalted Grand Ruler of the Elks, was granted five minutes to address the House.

The Speaker appointed Representatives Martin and Lorimer and the Sergeant-at-Arms to escort Mr. Jernick to the rostrum.

The Speaker declared the House at ease.

The Speaker called the House to order.

House Bill No. 4, by Representatives Gallagher, Clark (Newman H.) and Dore:

Relating to schools and amending the pledge of allegiance.

Mr. Dore moved that the rules be suspended, the second reading considered the third, and that House Bill No. 4 be placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Hallauer:

"Mr. Speaker, will the chairman of the Judiciary Committee submit to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Dore?"

Mr. Dore:

"Certainly."

The Speaker:

"State your inquiry."

Mr. Hallauer:

"Mr. Dore, in your Judiciary Committee, did you consider this bill from the standpoint of constitutionality? A few years ago, there was a case before the Supreme Court involving the Jehovah's Witnesses. The Supreme Court held that the pledge of allegiance could not be enforced. The Congress can make no law respecting the freedom of religion."

Mr. Dore:

"Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House. I don't know if it was considered by the Committee. I personally considered it. Is the case of Callum vs. the State of Illinois the one you are referring to? That case was entirely different. The Congress has passed an act similar to this bill. There has been no test, to my knowledge, of this United States statute. I think as long as it has not been challenged, it is not our prerogative to challenge the federal statute."

Mr. Hallauer:

"Will Mr. Dore yield to another question?"

The Speaker:

"Will the gentleman yield?"

Mr. Dore:

"Yes, sir."

Mr. Hallauer:

"How many states have adopted this form of the pledge?"

Mr. Dore:

"My recollection is that at least ten have. I may be wrong."

Debate ensued.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 4, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 91; nays, 4; absent or not voting, 4.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Anderson, Arnason, Bailey, Ball, Beierlein, Bernethy, Bozarth, Brown, Byrne, Canfield, Carmichael, Carty, Chytil, Clark (Cecil C.), Clark (Newman H.), Comfort, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Edwards, Eldridge, Elway, Farrar, Fisher, Folsom, Gallagher, Gordon, Griffith, Hansen (Julia Butler), Hanson (Herb), Harris, Hawley, Heckendorn, Henry, Holliday, Huhta, Hyppa, Johnston, Jones (Arthur D.), Jones (Mrs. Vincent F.), King, Kirk, Kupka, Loney, Lorimer, Lybecker, Mardesich, Martin, Mast, May, McBeath, McCutcheon, McDermott, McFadden, Miller (Clyde J.), Miller (Floyd C.), Mundy, Munro, Neal (Mel T.), Neill (Marshall A.), Oakes, Olsen (Ray), Olson (Ole H.), Ovenell, Pence, Petrie, Purvis, Rasmussen, Ridgway, Robison, Rosenberg, Ruoff, Sandison, Sawyer, Shropshire, Siler, Smith, Stocker, Strom, Swayze, Testu, Timm, Wang, Wedekind, Weitzman, Wintler, Yearout, Young, Mr. Speaker—91.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Hallauer, Hess, Munsey, Savage—4.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Frayn, Hanna, Hurley, Litchman—4.

House Bill No. 4, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed.

There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the Act.

House Bill No. 5, by Representatives Gallagher, Clark (Newman H.) and Dore:

Relating to county road engineers, their offices and records.

Mr. Dore moved the rules be suspended, the second reading considered the third, and that House Bill No. 5 be placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

Mr. Savage moved that action on House Bill No. 5 be deferred until the following day and retain its position on the third reading calendar.

The motion was debated.

With the permission of the House, Mr. Savage withdrew his motion.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of House Bill No. 5, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: Yeas, 94; nays, 0; absent or not voting, 5.

TWELFTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

---

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
OLYMPIA, WASH., Friday, January 21, 1955.

The Speaker called the House to order at eleven o'clock a. m.

The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representatives Frayn, Gallagher, Hurley, Johnston and Stocker, Representatives Frayn and Hurley having been excused.

The flag of our country was escorted to the rostrum by a Sergeant-at-Arms color guard.

Prayer was offered by the Reverend J. Burton Salter, Rector of St. John's Episcopal Church of Olympia, Washington.

The reading clerk proceeded to read the journal of the proceedings of the previous day. On motion of Mr. Hess, further reading was dispensed with and the journal was ordered to stand approved.

PROPOSITIONS AND MOTIONS

NOTICE OF CHANGE IN HOUSE RULES

Mr. Mardesich gave notice, that on the next working day, he would move to amend House Rule No. 52.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Hess:

"Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your inquiry."

Mr. Hess:

"What procedure will the House follow when the electric roll call is being taken? What questions will the Speaker ask prior to the closing of the key on the recording machine?"

The Speaker:

"I will ask first, 'Have you all voted?' Then, 'Does any member desire to change his or her vote? If not, the Speaker will lock the voting machine, and the clerk will take the record.'"

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Petrie:

"Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your inquiry."

Mr. Petrie:

"At the time immediately before the machine is locked, is it possible to have an actual total shown on the board, as I have noticed on occasion that there may be either a total showing or a running total being made by the machine?"

The Speaker:

"We will try to watch that, Mr. Petrie. If the totalizer is moving, we won't lock the machine until it has stopped and holds to a given total."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Rasmussen:

"Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your inquiry."

Mr. Rasmussen:

"When we commence the roll call on the electric machine, the Speaker pushes a button and a bell rings to inform the members that they should vote. Now, Mr. Speaker, would it be possible to install a different sounding bell or gong to give us a warning just before the roll call is closed?"

The Speaker:

"Your question is whether or not a second bell could be sounded to notify the members that the roll call was stopped instead of the oral notification. It is possible to do that. However, it will take a week or ten days to install the additional equipment for the second bell."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Clark (Newman H.):

"Mr. Speaker, may I ask Mr. Mardesich a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. Mardesich?"

Mr. Mardesich:

"Yes."

Mr. Clark:

"As I understand it, the proposed amendment to Rule 52 coming up for consideration tomorrow provides for two methods of closing the vote; one method when using the electric roll call machine and the other when an oral roll call is demanded. In either case, as I understand it, we will not have the right to change our vote after the result has been announced. However, on the electric machine, we will not have the right to change our vote after the Speaker has locked the machine and announced, 'The clerk will take the record.' In other words, when using the electric machine we are prohibited from changing our vote even before the result is announced."

Mr. Mardesich:

"That is correct. The reason for the proposed amendment to House Rule 52 is to establish this fact definitely, as you have stated it, and which cannot be altered. Once the Speaker has announced, 'The Clerk will take the record' no vote can be changed. To avoid further confusion in the minds of the members, the Rules Committee felt that the proposed change in Rule 52 was necessary."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Canfield:

"Will Mr. Mardesich yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Mardesich, will you yield to a question?"

Mr. Mardesich:

"Yes."

Mr. Canfield:

"Mr. Mardesich, in the event a close vote were anticipated, and the electric roll call machine was in process could the roll call be stopped?"

Mr. Mardesich:

"After a roll call begins, there can be no stopping."

Mr. Canfield:

"In the event a close vote were anticipated, the request for an oral roll call would have to be made before the beginning of the electrical roll call."

Mr. Mardesich:

"That is correct. You should ask for an oral roll call before the electric roll call has begun."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Chytil:

"Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your inquiry."

Mr. Chytil:

"In the event of mechanical failure, may a member get up and vote by voice?"

The Speaker:

"Yes, sir. If, due to mechanical failure, your vote fails to register, then it will be corrected when called to the Speaker's attention."

RESOLUTION

Resolution by Representatives Comfort and Ball:

WHEREAS, On Friday, October 29, 1953, Arthur B. Langlie, Governor of the State of Washington, issued the following declaration:

"THERE IS A CRISIS IN THE State of Washington.

"Sixteen Washington Citizens were killed in the first four days of this month.

"In the next 12 days, nine were killed.

"From the 16th to the 18th, ten more were killed. From the 18th to today another 15 were killed. That brings the total traffic dead this year to 382. And the worst months—November and December—are still ahead of us! The season of holidays has become a season of holocaust and we face the prospect of a similar loss of life this year as last.

"During November and December of last year 131 persons were killed. Add to this the appalling number of 3,366 injured—the methodical hospital notations of fractured skulls, crushed pelvises, lost eyes, disfigurements, torn bodies. Then add broken hearts, and broken homes and children whose fathers are silent statistics. The total result condemns every one of us who knowingly and willfully breaks the traffic law.

"IF THIS STAGGERING NUMBER of our fellow citizens were killed and maimed by acts of terrorism, rampant lawlessness or civil disorder the whole state would be up in arms. Public opinion would demand radical action to stop the slaughter. If some foreign enemy killed Washington citizens at this rate, the Governor would declare martial law. From one end of the state to the other our citizens would be armed; our National Guard would be in action; our military posts would be alerted. But we go right ahead killing human beings on our highways at the rate of more than 500 every single year, and having done it, we proceed about our business, calloused, apathetic and indifferent, paying little or no attention to this major public catastrophe.

"Kill a man with a gun and we call it murder. Run him down with a two-ton steel machine and we call it an accident.

"I am determined to use every means at my command to repel this killer.

"Basic traffic rules specify exactly what we should do and should not do when driving. They were written into the law by the legislature, representing all the people in our state. These traffic laws were written out of long experience. They were written to be obeyed.

"OUT OF AN AWARENESS of my responsibilities as Governor, I have exercised every persuasive means available to me to reduce highway fatalities. I have called for and received the assistance of the State Highway Department in eliminating physical hazards to traffic. I have called for and received the cooperation of a large number of representative citizens, sitting as a State Safety Council, in drafting and promoting highway safety programs. I have called for and received the concerted effort of the State Patrol and local law enforcement agencies in carrying forward a continuing program of education and enforcement. I have exhausted every persuasive appeal at my command and it has not been enough. The killings continue.

"When I examine the underlying causes of these tragedies I find repeatedly, that the majority of them result from such flagrant violations as drunken driving, exceeding the posted speed limits, following too closely, failure to yield right of way and inattention. If these violations cannot be stopped by persuasion, then they must be stopped by force.

"I am resolved that men and women now destined to die as a result of recklessness and lawlessness on our highways shall live to spend this Christmas with their families if any act of mine can protect them.

"I SHALL, THEREFORE, call upon whatever force is necessary to stop the aggression of reckless and negligent motor vehicle operators upon lives and property within this state and am declaring open warfare against those drivers who persist in despoiling our highways and streets with such wanton disregard for human life and property. To the attainment of this objective I am committing the full force of the State Patrol and of every other law enforcement agency that will enlist with us in this battle.

"HAVING MADE THIS DECLARATION, I feel it incumbent upon me to explain to the public what we plan to do and the reasons why.

"FIRST, I am proclaiming a period between now and November 10 as a warning period. Within that time I am calling upon all law enforcement agencies to join in a coordinated traffic law enforcement campaign aimed at the arrest and prosecution of every traffic law violator. Within that period every motor vehicle operator is advised to inform himself fully as to our traffic laws.

"SECOND, I am proclaiming that from November 10 through December 31 a campaign of war shall be waged by the law enforcement agencies of the state against those individuals whose traffic violations are responsible for death and injury. Within this period I shall ask these agencies to use every lawful means to arrest traffic law violators. This will include the use of unmarked patrol cars, electric timing devices, radar, spotter planes, enforcement personnel from plainclothes details and surveillance.

"It is time we reassessed the prevailing idea of conspicuous identification of our traffic enforcement personnel and cars. Such identification allows many violators to make a game of chase out of the officers' duty to enforce the law, with the result that these public servants risk life and limb in carrying out their daily assignments to keep our highways and streets safe.

"An alarming number of state and local traffic officers have been injured this year in performance of duty because reckless and wild drivers spotted their marked vehicles and made desperate escape attempts. Several have been killed in trying to cite these highway desperadoes into court.

"We must discard some of the impediments which handicap these officers in arresting violators and in gathering evidence. Far too many people obey the law only when an officer is in sight. Under this program, he may not be in sight. He may be anywhere, anytime, in any kind of a motor vehicle. To the full extent of my authority, I am authorizing these enforcement practices and I take complete public responsibility for their use.

"THIRD, I am calling upon the press, radio, television and every other information media for support and assistance in this militant effort to save the lives of those who face death between now and New Year's Day, if present driving practices are permitted to continue. I am asking these agencies to inform every person in this state as to precisely what these rules of the highway are.

"I recognize that a campaign of this type brings bitterness and misunderstanding. I expect some public recriminations as a result of the policy I am declaring herewith. These I shall accept as a cheap price for the prolonging of human life.

"I believe that through the united, determined efforts of all our people we can cut the preventable waste of human life and property by 50 per cent between now and December 31. Do this and 65 people will live who otherwise will die horribly. Do this and we will save $4 million in property. Do this and we shall put an end to the crisis"; and

WHEREAS, As a result of said declaration and the cooperation of the Washington State Patrol, all law enforcement agencies, the press, radio, television and other information media, the number of traffic fatalities declined from 617 between November 1, 1952 and December 31, 1953 to 495 such fatalities between November 1, 1953 and December 31, 1954, thereby resulting in the saving of the lives of 122 of our citizens; and

WHEREAS, The death rate per one hundred thousand vehicle miles driven in the State of Washington was reduced from 5.1 persons to 4.3 persons or 16 per cent, thus giving the State of Washington the lowest state death rate ever attained outside of the congested New England states; and

WHEREAS, Personal injuries and property damage accidents were reduced between 9 and 10 per cent during the same period of time; and

WHEREAS, Due to the success of the Governor's program, insurance companies in the State of Washington on January 10, 1955, through the Insurance Commissioner, announced premium rate reductions on automobile insurance effective January 24, 1955 and retroactive to December 1, 1954 of approximately 5 per cent which will result in a saving of $1,200,000 annually to our citizens; and

WHEREAS, The aforesaid declaration was the culmination of several years of traffic safety leadership by Governor Langlie which has resulted in a steady decline in the death rate per one hundred thousand vehicle miles from 12.6 persons in 1945 to the present figure of 4.3 persons,

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the House of Representatives of the State of Washington in legislative session assembled does hereby extend to the Honorable Arthur B. Langlie, Governor of the State of Washington, its felicitations, and its sincere and most earnest thanks and appreciation for the salutary and efficient service rendered to the citizens of the State of Washington by the Executive Department.

Mr. Holliday: . .

"Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

QUESTION OF CONSIDERATION

Mr Holliday raised the question of consideration of House Bill No. 165.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Neill (Marshall A.):

"Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker. Who is the sponsor of the bill?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. Edwards and Mr. Olsen (Ray) are the sponsors."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Miller (Floyd C.):

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your point."

Mr. Miller:

"I believe the question of consideration is out of order. According to Rule 110 of Reed's Parliamentary Rules, 'The Question of Consideration: The assembly, upon hearing the proposition or question stated by the chair, may conclude that it does not desire to consider it at all.' I do not believe there was a proposition stated by the chair."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"The reading clerk was reading the bill for introduction and first reading at the direction of the Speaker, and for the Speaker, therefore there is a proposition before the body and the motion is in order."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Clark (Newman H.):

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your point."

Mr. Clark:

"Is it not correct that if we vote 'No' on the question of consideration and the 'Noes' prevail, the bill will be read and considered? Will not the bill take its regular course and be referred to a committee?"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"When a member raises a question of consideration, the question before the House, in this instance, is 'Shall the House refuse to consider the introduction and first reading of House Bill No. 165?' A vote 'Aye' on the question is a vote to refuse consideration of the bill. If the 'Ayes' prevail, the House would refuse the introduction of House Bill No. 165."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Mardesich:

"Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your inquiry."

Mr. Mardesich:

"Isn't there a rule that no motion be made to indefinitely postpone a bill which is up for first reading?"

The Speaker:

"This is a question of consideration, not a motion to indefinitely postpone the bill. It isn't the same motion."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mrs. Hansen (Julia Butler):

"Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your inquiry."

Mrs. Hansen:

"There is some confusion regarding what the ultimate result will be if the House refuses to consider this bill. What is the ultimate effect? Is it not the same as indefinite postponement?"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"When a motion to indefinitely postpone a bill is carried, the bill cannot be considered again during the session. The question before the House is whether or not the House refuses to consider House Bill No. 165 at this time. Should the House refuse to consider it now, the bill may be introduced at a later time."

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Sandison, the House recessed until 12:22 o'clock p. m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The Speaker called the House to order at 12:22 o'clock p. m.

The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representatives Cooney, Frayn, Hurley, Johnston and Stocker, Representatives Frayn and Hurley having been excused.

MOTION

On motion of Mr. Neill (Marshall A.), the House adjourned until twelve o'clock noon, Monday, January 24, 1955.

JOHN L. O'BRIEN, Speaker.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mrs. Anderson:

"Point of personal privilege, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your point, Mrs. Anderson."

Mrs. Anderson:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege. I want to report for the special boxing committee. This is a report especially to Representative Dore. The University Board of Regents has reconsidered its action. Hereafter, you will be able to attend professional boxing at the University Stadium. I believe this is fast work. If you have any other sport problems, please refer them to my committee."

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING OF BILLS, MEMORIALS AND RESOLUTIONS

The following were introduced, read first time by title, and acted upon as indicated:

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Olsen (Ray):

"Point of personal privilege, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your point."

Mr. Olsen (Ray):

"As co-sponsor of House Bill No. 165, I would like to make a few remarks and have them recorded in the journal. Representative Edwards and myself introduced this bill last Friday. It is unfortunate that the members of the House were unable to see the bill as it was written, and it is also unfortunate that the package bill which was to go along with it was not introduced at the same time. The package bill is now being introduced as House Joint Resolution No. 13. As a democrat, I am thoroughly opposed to the sales tax, but due to the conditions of the financial structure of this state, and to keep it from going further into bankruptcy before the people have a chance to vote on the income tax, this bill is a stop-gap deal. I would like to have the people in this body know what our feelings are. 'Until the time, when the people can vote at a general election on an income tax bill, we must have a stop-gap.'"

EIGHTEENTH DAY

MORNING SESSION

---

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
OLYMPIA, WASH., Thursday, January 27, 1955.

The Speaker called the House to order at eleven o'clock a. m.

The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representatives Hurley and Mast, both of whom having been excused.

The flag of our country was escorted to the rostrum by a Sergeant-at-Arms color guard.

Prayer was offered by the Reverend Daniel McAllister, Assistant Pastor of St. Michael's Catholic Church of Olympia, Washington.

The reading clerk proceeded to read the journal of the proceedings of the previous day. On motion of Mr. Hess, further reading was dispensed with and the journal was ordered to stand approved.

PROPOSITIONS AND MOTIONS RESOLUTION

Resolution by Representatives McCutcheon, Munro and Hanna:

WHEREAS, There is at the present time, before the federal power commission, an application by the Idaho Power Company, a private utility, for the permission to build three low-head dams on the Snake river, and

WHEREAS, The federal government has heretofore proposed the building on the Snake river at Hells Canyon of a multiple purpose dam, and

WHEREAS, The full potential of the Snake and Columbia rivers for irrigation, reclamation, flood control, protection of wildlife, and the production of electricity can be realized only by the building of a multiple purpose dam at Hells Canyon, and

WHEREAS, The economic conditions of the Pacific Northwest are dependent upon adequate power as well as adequate irrigation, reclamation, protection of wildlife, and flood control, and

WHEREAS, The proposed Hells Canyon dam would provide for a better development of our natural resources and such construction would be in the best interests of the people of the state of Washington, and

WHEREAS, With the exception of a few misguided public officials, the large majority of the people of the Northwest and this House of Representatives are in favor of the building of Hells Canyon dam,

Now, Therefore, Be It Hereby Resolved, By the House of Representatives of the state of Washington, in regular session assembled, that we oppose the granting of permission to the Idaho Power Company to build the proposed low-head dams, and

Be It Further Resolved, That we respectfully petition the federal power commission to deny the application of the Idaho Power Company, and

Be It Further Resolved, That copies of this resolution be immediately forwarded to the federal power commission to be filed in the present proceedings of the application of the Idaho Power Company, and that copies be sent to all the members of the congressional delegation of the state of Washington.

Mr. McCutcheon moved the resolution be adopted.

During debate, Mr. McCutcheon attempted to read a newspaper editorial.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Neill (Marshall A.):

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your point."

Mr Neill:

"I believe our rules prevent the reading from papers in the House."

The Speaker:

"That is true. If there is no objection, however, it may be read. Objection has been raised by Mr. Neill."

Mr. Rasmussen moved that Mr. McCutcheon be given permission to read from a paper.

A division was demanded, and the motion was carried on a rising vote.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Rasmussen:

"Will the gentleman, Mr. Ruoff, yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to a question, Mr. Ruoff?"

Mr. Ruoff:

"Yes."

Mr. Rasmussen:

"Would you advise me how public and private power are working together in Seattle, when Seattle City Light purchased Puget Sound Power and Light Company; and would you advise me how the power commission has made a study of our natural resources when all of their efforts tend to be toward steam power, which is not a natural resource?"

Mr. Ruoff:

"I believe the steam power is an emergency measure to satisfy immediate needs. It is a supplementary program to support the long-range program of hydroelectric development. It is practically impossible to get all of the money we need to do all the things that are needed now."

Mr. Rasmussen:

"Do public and private power groups work together in Seattle?"

Mr. Ruoff:

"We have a municipal ownership in the city of Seattle. Prior to that, we had the Puget Sound Power and Light Company. I think that with municipal ownership, Seattle has done a good job, however, that is not the question before the House."

The Speaker:

"I think you should just answer the questions, Mr. Ruoff."

Further debate ensued.

Mr. Neill (Marshall A.) moved that the resolution be laid on the table.

Mr. Mardesich demanded an oral roll call and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to lay the resolution on the table, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 51; absent or not voting, 2.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Arnason, Ball, Byrne, Canfield, Chytil, Clark (Cecil C.), Clark (Newman H.), Comfort, Eldridge, Elway, Farrar, Fisher, Folsom, Frayn, Gordon, Griffith, Harris, Hawley, Heckendorn, Johnston, Jones (Arthur D.), Jones (Mrs. Vincent F.), Kirk, Loney, Lorimer, Lybecker, May, McBeath, McDermott, Neill (Marshall A.), Oakes, Ovenell, Pence, Petrie, Robison, Ruoff, Shropshire, Siler, Smith, Strom, Swayze, Timm, Wang, Weitzman, Yearout—46.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Anderson, Bailey, Beierlein, Bernethy, Bozarth, Brown, Carmichael, Carty, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Edwards, Gallagher, Hallauer, Hanna, Hansen (Julia Butler), Hanson (Herb), Henry, Hess, Holliday, Huhta, Hyppa, King, Kupka, Litchman, Mardesich, Martin, McCutcheon, McFadden, Miller (Clyde J.), Miller (Floyd C.), Mundy, Munro, Munsey, Neal (Mel T.), Olsen (Ray), Olson (Ole H.), Purvis, Rasmussen, Ridgway, Rosenberg, Sandison, Savage, Sawyer, Stocker, Testu, Wedekind, Wintler, Young, Mr. Speaker—51.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Hurley and Mast—2.

Mr. Neill (Marshall A.) moved the resolution be referred to the Committee on Public Utilities.

Mr. Mardesich moved the motion by Mr. Neill (Marshall A.) be laid on the table.

Mr. Frayn demanded an oral roll call and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to lay on the table the motion that the resolution be referred to the Committee on Public Utilities, and the motion carried by the following vote: Yeas, 50; nays, 47; absent or not voting, 2.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Anderson, Bailey, Beierlein, Bernethy, Bozarth, Brown, Carmichael, Carty, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Edwards, Gallagher, Hallauer, Hanna, Hansen (Julia Butler), Hanson (Herb), Henry, Hess, Holliday, Huhta, Hyppa, King, Kupka, Litchman, Mardesich, Martin, McCutcheon, McFadden, Miller (Clyde J.), Miller (Floyd C.), Mundy, Munro, Munsey, Neal (Mel T.), Olsen (Ray), Olson (Ole H.), Purvis, Rasmussen, Ridgway, Rosenberg, Sandison, Savage, Sawyer, Stocker, Testu, Wedekind, Young, Mr. Speaker—50.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Adams, Arnason, Ball, Byrne, Canfield, Chytil, Clark (Cecil C.), Clark (Newman H.), Comfort, Eldridge, Elway, Farrar, Fisher, Folsom, Frayn, Gordon, Griffith, Harris, Hawley, Heckendorn, Johnston, Jones (Arthur D.), Jones (Mrs. Vincent F.), Kirk, Loney, Lorimer, Lybecker, May, McBeath, McDermott, Neill (Marshall A.), Oakes, Ovenell, Pence, Petrie, Robison, Ruoff, Shropshire, Siler, Smith, Strom, Swayze, Timm, Wang, Weitzman, Wintler, Yearout—47.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Hurley, Mast—2.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the adoption of the resolution.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Byrne:

"I rise to a point of inquiry. Will the gentleman from Pierce yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Mr. McCutcheon, will you yield to a question?"

Mr. McCutcheon:

"I will be glad to."

Mr. Byrne:

"It is stated as a fact in the resolution that, with the exception of a few misguided officials, the large majority of the people of the Northwest and in this House of Representatives are in favor of—(interrupted)."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Clark (Newman H.):

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your point, Mr. Clark."

Mr. Clark:

"Mr. Byrne is trying to discuss a resolution which is now dead insofar as this House is concerned. The motion to refer the resolution to the Committee on Public Utilities was laid on the table. Referring to Reed's Parliamentary Rule 114, 'To Lay on the Table. This motion is practically a motion to suspend the consideration of a question during the pleasure of the House. It carries with it all questions connected with the special question on which it is moved.'"

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Mardesich:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your point, Mr. Mardesich."

Mr. Mardesich:

"Mr. Speaker, referring to Reed's Parliamentary Rules, Rule 114 under which my motion was made, is a motion to suspend 'the consideration of a question during the pleasure of the House. It carries with it all questions connected with the special question on which it is moved. If it be moved on the main question, then all amendments go with it; if moved on the amendment, then the main question goes on the table also.' It draws a distinction between the special question and the main question. My motion is to lay on the table a motion for referral which is a special question."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"The Speaker is going to rule that your point is well taken. It appears your motion is to lay on the table the motion to refer the resolution to the Committee on Public Utilities. The motion to lay on the table carried. Therefore, the resolution is still before the House."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Johnston:

"Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your inquiry, Mr. Johnston."

Mr. Johnston:

"How will you rule on the question of tabling amendments to bills? Will the tabling of an amendment carry the bill with it?"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"The amendment being tabled will take with it the bill. I will rule that way. It will place the amendment and the bill on the table."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Rasmussen:

"Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your inquiry, Mr. Rasmussen."

Mr. Rasmussen:

"Will the Speaker permit a motion to lay on the table without taking the bill with it?"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Such a motion will not be recognized."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Byrne:

"Mr. Speaker, do I still have the floor?"

The Speaker:

"You may have it now, yes."

Mr. Byrne:

"My question is a simple one. The words of the resolution state 'the large majority of the people of the Northwest and this House of Representatives are in favor * * * *'. That refers to statistical information, and I would like to have further elucidation of that point."

The Speaker:

"Will you yield, Mr. McCutcheon?"

Mr. McCutcheon:

"I do. Mr. Speaker and Mr. Byrne: I think that from the obvious merits of the whole proposal everyone should be in accord. It is the proper way to build the dam. There can be no question that the large majority of the people are in favor of the proposal; as far as the members of the House are concerned, that is what we are discussing now. I believe the vast majority, too, will agree that a high dam should be built at Hell's Canyon."

Mr. Byrne:

"That is all well and good, but I feel it does not answer my question as to the majority of the people. That is a statistic I would like to have explained."

Further debate ensued.

Mr. Miller (Floyd C.) demanded the previous question.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Petrie:

"Just a minute, Mr. Speaker. I have an amendment on this."

The Speaker:

"The previous question has been demanded."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Petrie:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker. The amendment has been on the desk for the last half hour."

The Speaker:

"The amendment had not been called to my attention."

Mr. Neill (Marshall A.):

"Do I understand you are going to rule that an amendment is not going to be recognized if it has been handed to the Clerk? It has been the practice to recognize any amendment handed to the Clerk since I have been in this House."

The Speaker:

"The amendments on the desk were not called to my attention."

APPEAL FROM THE DECISION OF THE CHAIR

Mr. Heckendorn:

"I appeal from the ruling of the chair."

The Speaker:

"As a matter of fact, a demand for the previous question requires a two-thirds majority vote. Under the conditions prevailing here today, I doubt if the demand could be sustained. Read the amendment."

Mr. Petrie moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Strike the following words, being lines 20, 21, 22 and 23 of the original resolution: "WHEREAS, with the exception of a few misguided public officials, the large majority of the people of the Northwest and this House of Representatives are in favor of the building of Hells Canyon Dam,"

Debate ensued.

Mr. Mardesich moved the adoption of the following substitute amendment:

In line 20 of the original resolution strike the word "misguided" being after the word "few" and before the word "public"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Clark (Newman H.):

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your point, Mr. Clark."

Mr. Clark:

"Referring to Rule 134, Reed's Parliamentary Rules, amendments may be made only one at a time."

The Speaker:

"That is correct, however, it is in order to offer an amendment to an amendment. We have Mr. Petrie's amendment and the substitute amendment by Mr. Mardesich."

Mr. Clark (Newman H.) moved that the substitute amendment be laid on the table.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Rasmussen:

"Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your point, Mr. Rasmussen."

Mr. Rasmussen:

"Will the motion by Mr. Clark (Newman H.) to lay on the table take the resolution with it?"

The Speaker:

"Yes, it will."

Mr. Neill (Marshall A.) demanded an oral roll call, and the demand was sustained.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the motion by Mr. Clark (Newman H.) to lay the substitute amendment on the table.

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to lay the substitute amendment on the table, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 47; nays, 50; absent or not voting, 2.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Arnason, Ball, Byrne, Canfield, Chytil, Clark (Cecil C.), Clark (Newman H.), Comfort, Eldridge, Elway, Farrar, Fisher, Folsom, Frayn, Gordon, Griffith, Harris, Hawley, Heckendorn, Johnston, Jones (Arthur D.), Jones (Mrs. Vincent F.), Kirk, Loney, Lorimer, Lybecker, May, McBeath, McDermott, Neill (Marshall A.), Oakes, Ovenell, Pence, Petrie, Robison, Ruoff, Shropshire, Siler, Smith, Strom, Swayze, Timm, Wang, Weitzman, Wintler, Yearout—47.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Anderson, Bailey, Beierlein, Bernethy, Bozarth, Brown, Carmichael, Carty, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Edwards, Gallagher, Hallauer, Hanna, Hansen (Julia Butler), Hanson (Herb), Henry, Hess, Holliday, Huhta, Hyppa, King, Kupka, Litchman, Mardesich, Martin, McCutcheon, McFadden, Miller (Clyde J.), Miller (Floyd C.), Mundy, Munro, Munsey, Neal (Mel T.), Olsen (Ray), Olson (Ole H.), Purvis, Rasmussen, Ridgway, Rosenberg, Sandison, Savage, Sawyer, Stocker, Testu, Wedekind, Young, Mr. Speaker—50.

Those absent or not voting were: Representatives Hurley, Mast—2.

Mr. Neill (Marshall A.) moved the resolution be made a special order of business at 11:30 o'clock a. m. on the following day.

The motion was lost.

Mr. Neill (Marshall A.), demanded a call of the House and the demand was sustained.

CALL OF THE HOUSE

The Sergeant-at-Arms was instructed to lock the doors.

The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representatives Hurley and Mast.

On motion of Mr. Holliday, the absent members were excused.

On motion of Mr. Gallagher, the House proceeded with business under the call of the House.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the adoption of the substitute amendment by Mr. Mardesich.

Mr. Petrie demanded an oral roll call and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the adoption of the substitute amendment, and the amendment was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 50; nays, 47; absent or not voting, 2.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Anderson, Bailey, Beierlein, Bernethy, Bozarth, Brown, Carmichael, Carty, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Edwards, Gallagher, Hallauer, Hanna, Hansen (Julia Butler), Hanson (Herb), Henry, Hess, Holliday, Huhta, Hyppa, King, Kupka, Litchman, Mardesich, Martin, McCutcheon, McFadden, Miller (Clyde J.), Miller (Floyd C.), Mundy, Munro, Munsey, Neal (Mel T.), Olsen (Ray), Olson (Ole H.), Purvis, Rasmussen, Ridgway, Rosenberg, Sandison, Savage, Sawyer, Stocker, Testu, Wedekind, Young, Mr. Speaker—50.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Adams, Arnason, Ball, Byrne, Canfield, Chytil, Clark (Cecil C.), Clark (Newman H.), Comfort, Eldridge, Elway, Farrar, Fisher, Folsom, Frayn, Gordon, Griffith, Harris, Hawley, Heckendorn, Johnston, Jones (Arthur D.), Jones (Mrs. Vincent F.), Kirk, Loney, Lorimer, Lybecker, May, McBeath, McDermott, Neill (Marshall A.), Oakes, Ovenell, Pence, Petrie, Robison, Ruoff, Shropshire, Siler, Smith, Strom, Swayze, Timm, Wang, Weitzman, Wintler, Yearout—47.

Those absent and excused were: Representatives Hurley, Mast—2.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Petrie:

"Mr. Speaker, parliamentary inquiry."

The Speaker:

"State your inquiry."

Mr. Petrie:

"Has the Speaker ruled that this is a substitute amendment, or is it an amendment to an amendment?"

The Speaker:

"It is the same thing. This amendment is striking out your amendment and offering in lieu thereof another amendment. It is similar to an amendment to an amendment."

Mr. Petrie:

"Then it is in order to vote on my amendment."

The Speaker:

"Your amendment has now been amended by the substitute amendment."

Mr. Petrie:

"Where in the rules does the speaker find the authority to vote on a substitute amendment?"

Mr. Mardesich:

"Mr. Speaker, I think if Mr. Petrie will check the amendment as offered, it is stated as a substitute amendment."

Mr. Petrie:

"Under what rule of procedure was the substitute amendment recognized?"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"The Speaker is going to rule your amendment has been amended and adopted by the House."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Petrie:

"Point of parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your point."

Mr. Petrie:

"I find no point of parliamentary procedure for a substitute amendment to an amendment."

The Speaker:

"It is the same practice that has been followed in the past. It is the same as an amendment to an amendment."

Mr. Petrie:

"Then I agree with the chair. Having voted to amend the amendment, is it now in order to vote on the original amendment as amended?"

The Speaker:

"We have already done that."

Mr. Mardesich:

"Mr. Speaker, I believe Mr. Petrie is looking at Rule 140 of Reed's Parliamentary Rules. If he will look at the second paragraph of that rule which is 'amendment by way of substitute is a short and informal method of striking out and inserting usually applied to whole paragraphs or bills', the result would be the same."

Mr. Heckendorn moved the adoption of the following amendment:

Strike everything after the second "WHEREAS" clause in the original resolution, being line 9 of the original resolution, and insert in lieu thereof, "Now, Therefore, It Is Hereby Resolved, That this House express its confidence in the duly constituted federal power commission that that body will carefully study the needs and resources of the region, the engineering and factual data presented by all interested parties and arrive at a sound and equitable decision in accord with the best interests of this region and the United States of America."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Rasmussen:

"Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your inquiry."

Mr. Rasmussen:

"I do not believe the amendment to be germane. There is no reference in the proposed resolution to the state power commission. The resolution only has reference to the United States Congress and Hell's Canyon dam."

Mr. Neill (Marshall A.):

"Mr. Speaker, the amendment refers to the federal power commission."

The Speaker:

"It is somewhat contradictory; however, it is on the general theme."

Mr. Heckendorn:

"Do you rule the amendment to be germane, Mr. Speaker?"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Yes, I am going to rule that the amendment is germane."

Debate ensued.

Mr. Gallagher demanded the previous question and the demand was lost.

Further debate ensued.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the adoption of the amendment by Mr. Heckendorn.

Mr. Neill (Marshall A.) demanded an oral roll call and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll and the amendment was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 48; nays, 49; absent or not voting, 2.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Anderson, Arnason, Ball, Byrne, Canfield, Chytil, Clark (Cecil C.), Clark (Newman H.), Comfort Eldridge, Elway, Farrar, Fisher, Folsom, Frayn, Gordon, Griffith, Harris, Hawley, Heckendorn, Johnston, Jones (Arthur D.), Jones (Mrs. Vincent F.), Kirk, Loney, Lorimer, Lybecker, May, McBeath, McDermott, Neill (Marshall A.), Oakes, Ovenell, Pence, Petrie, Robison, Ruoff, Shropshire, Siler, Smith, Strom, Swayze, Timm, Wang, Weitzman, Wintler, Yearout—48.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Bailey, Beierlein, Bernethy, Bozarth, Brown, Carmichael, Carty, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Edwards, Gallagher, Hallauer, Hanna, Hansen (Julia Butler), Hanson (Herb), Henry, Hess, Holliday, Huhta, Hyppa, King, Kupka, Litchman, Mardesich, Martin, McCutcheon, McFadden, Miller (Clyde J.), Miller (Floyd C.), Mundy, Munro, Munsey, Neal (Mel T.), Olsen (Ray), Olson (Ole H.), Purvis, Rasmussen, Ridgway, Rosenberg, Sandison, Savage, Sawyer, Stocker, Testu, Wedekind, Young, Mr. Speaker—49.

Those absent and excused were: Representatives Hurley, Mast—2.

Mr. Ruoff moved the adoption of the following amendment to the resolution:

Strike all of the matter of the original resolution after the word "WHEREAS" in line 1, and insert in lieu thereof the following: "House Bill 462 passed this House of Representatives on March 5, 1953; yeas 91; nays 2; absent 6; and thereafter passed the Senate on March 9, 1953; yeas 42; nays 0; absent 4; and was approved by the Governor on March 23, 1953 and became Chapter 281, Laws of 1953 creating the Washington state power commission; and

"WHEREAS, Said Washington state power commission since its creation has made studies not previously undertaken to determine the best method of utilizing hydrological resources of our state in combination with steam generation; and

"WHEREAS, These studies have determined the place of such steam generation in the state's power picture and the quantity needed as an adjunct to the power which will be available when projects now under way have been completed; and

"WHEREAS, The Washington state power commission has rendered important assistance to the Congress and to the federal power commission which will make possible the early construction of the Priest Rapids Project by a public agency within our state;

"Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, That the House of Representatives in Legislative Session assembled does hereby extend to the Washington state power commission, both individually and collectively, its sincere and most earnest thanks and appreciation for the services so capably rendered to the state of Washington."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Rasmussen:

"Parliamentary inquiry, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your inquiry."

Mr. Rasmussen:

"I do not believe the amendment—the subject matter of the amendment—is germane to the resolution."

Mr. Ruoff:

"Mr. Speaker, this is a substitute resolution. It is offered as an amendment for the consideration of the House at this time. I feel that we have had a great deal of confusion, argument, debate and disagreement on the subject today. Mr. Speaker, may I have the attention of the House?"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"I am going to rule. In Reed's Parliamentary Rules, Rule 131, the object of an amendment is to so change the main proposition that it may conform to the judgment of the assembly. This resolution or amendment does not actually conform to the judgment of the assembly. You have an entirely new resolution offered as an amendment. If you desire to introduce the resolution at a later date under 'Propositions and Motions' you may do so. It is out of order at this time, as this amendment is not germane to the subject matter."

APPEAL FROM THE DECISION OF THE CHAIR

Mr. Heckendorn appealed from the decision of the chair.

Debate ensued.

The Speaker stated the question before the House was, "Shall the decision of the Speaker be the judgment of the House?"

Mr. Shropshire demanded an oral roll call and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll and the decision of the Chair was sustained by the following vote: Yeas, 50; nays, 47; absent or not voting, 2.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Bailey, Beierlein, Bernethy, Bozarth, Brown, Carmichael, Carty, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Dore, Edwards, Gallagher, Hallauer, Hanna, Hansen (Julia Butler), Hanson (Herb), Henry, Hess, Holliday, Huhta, Hyppa, King, Kupka, Litchman, Mardesich, Martin, McCutcheon, McFadden, Miller (Clyde J.), Miller (Floyd C.), Mundy, Munro, Munsey, Neal (Mel T.), Olsen (Ray), Olson (Ole H.), Petrie, Purvis, Rasmussen, Ridgway, Rosenberg, Sandison, Savage, Sawyer, Stocker, Testu, Wedekind, Young, Mr. Speaker—50.

Those voting nay were: Representatives Adams, Anderson, Arnason, Ball, Byrne, Canfield, Chytil, Clark (Cecil C.), Clark (Newman H.), Comfort, Eldridge, Elway, Farrar, Fisher, Folsom, Frayn, Gordon, Griffith, Harris, Hawley, Heckendorn, Johnston, Jones (Arthur D.), Jones (Mrs. Vincent F.), Kirk, Loney, Lorimer, Lybecker, May, McBeath, McDermott, Neill (Marshall A.), Oakes, Ovenell, Pence, Robison, Ruoff, Shropshire, Siler, Smith, Strom, Swayze, Timm, Wang, Weitzman, Wintler, Yearout—47.

Those absent or excused were: Representatives Hurley, Mast—2.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Hess:

"I speak as a matter of personal privilege, being a member of the majority party. Further, Mr. Speaker, my remarks are directed to appeals from the decision of the Chair."

The Speaker:

"State your point."

Mr. Hess:

"Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House:

"In sustaining the Speaker, my vote was cast not only to sustain him in my belief that his ruling is right, but because I believe we have long had a policy in this body that, unless we find a serious fault in the Speaker's ruling, we have not questioned that ruling. The Speakers we have elected have been men of character and fairness. During the last session the minority party now was then the majority party. Their members chose a Speaker. He was an honorable and fair man. There were times when his rulings were close; but never once did we, as a minority, question his fairness nor did we challenge his rulings. I think you might contemplate that seriously."

Mrs. May moved the adoption of the following amendment:

In lines 20 and 21, after the word "WHEREAS" strike all the words through the word "majority", being line 21, and substitute the word "some"

Debate ensued.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the adoption of the amendment by Mrs. May.

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"The Speaker will refer you to page 66, section 109, Reed's Parliamentary Rules. The Main Question. 'The business thus in possession of the House is called the "main question". It is subject to many motions.' There has been precedent established on raising the question of consideration. I refer you to the 1947 Journal of House Proceedings. The Speaker made a ruling relative to the question of consideration: 'The Chair will rule as a general proposition, * * * * * when a motion is to be made, it isn't in possession of the House until it has been stated by the Speaker. On the other hand, in the case of a resolution or amendment that has been read, the resolution or amendment is before the House for action. It is my understanding that a question of consideration can be raised against the resolution or amendment or any other business that has been placed before the House.' For that reason, the Speaker will rule that raising the question of consideration was in order after the amendment was read."

MR. SPEAKER:

We, a majority of your Committee on Highways, to whom was referred House Bill No. 33, motor vehicle fuel excise tax refunds, have had the same under consideration, and we respectfully report the same back to the House with the recommendation that it do pass with the following amendment:

In line 2 of the title of the original bill, being line 2 of the title of the printed bill, after the words "filed within" and before the words "from date" strike the words "one year" and insert in lieu thereof the words "thirteen months"

JULIA BUTLER HANSEN, Chairman,
DEWEY C. DONOHUE, Vice Chairman.

We concur in this report: Eva Anderson, Robert C. Bailey, Howard T. Ball, W. J. Beierlein, Robert Bernethy, Gordon J. Brown, Thad Byrne, H. S. Elway, Jr., William A. Fisher, Morrill F. Folsom, J. Chester Gordon, Al Henry, Elma Huhta, Elmer A. Hyppa,

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Hallauer:

"Will the gentleman from King, Mr. Clark (Newman H.), yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will you yield to a question, Mr. Clark?"

Mr. Clark (Newman H.):

"Yes."

Mr. Hallauer:

"Mr. Clark, the way I read this bill it seems to refer to bank deposits and has included the word dividends. Could it not be 'dividends or interest' or merely 'interest'?"

Mr. Clark:

"You may have a good suggestion. It could read 'interest or dividends'."

Mr. Hallauer:

"What happens when a trustee, such as outlined in this bill, dies?"

Mr. Clark:

"It is always possible to make a petition in probate to show the true owner is other than the trustor who has passed away. The bill is primarily for children's accounts, that are in the name of the parents, so that the children may withdraw the money when they become of age. At present it is handled through guardianship or probate."

Mr. Hallauer:

"One other thing. I want to be quite sure there is no relation between this bill and House Bill No. 63."

Mr. Clark:

"That is an abandoned property bill for the purpose of escheating property to the state subject to repayment if the owner shows up. This bill is permissive legislation to allow the true owner of the account to withdraw the money. There is no relationship between the two bills."

On motion of Mr. Clark, House Bill No. 113 was placed at the bottom of today's second reading calendar.

House Bill No. 86, by Representative Martin (by departmental request):

Permitting the director of licenses to destroy certain records which have been microfilmed.

Relating to bank deposits.

On motion of Mr. Clark (Newman H.), the following amendment was adopted:

In section 1, line 11 of the original bill, being line 7 of the printed bill, after the words "with the" and before the word "dividends" insert the words "interest or the"

House Bill No. 113 was passed to Committee on Rules and Order for third reading and ordered engrossed.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Savage:

"Point of inquiry, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your inquiry."

Mr. Savage:

"I want to propound a question on the bonds. If, perhaps, we made a mistake in the law, and if it were contracts instead of bonds, would the bill give authority to readjust the contract?"

Mr. Clark (Newman H.):

"May I answer, Mr. Speaker?"

The Speaker:

"You may."

Mr. Clark:

"It doesn't seem probable that the state would finance under contract because they sell the bonds to many people and in order to refinance they have to issue new bond issues. A contract would not work for this type of financing."

Mr. Savage:

"The problem is not issuing new bonds, but calling in the old ones, is that correct?"

Mr. Clark:

"That is right. It is entirely a problem of refinancing. The only way to meet certain contractual obligations is through refinancing."

Debate ensued.

The Clerk called the roll on the final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 81, and the bill passed the House by the following vote: yeas, 81; nays, 10; absent or not voting, 8.

Those voting yea were: Representatives Adams, Anderson, Arnason, Bailey, Ball, Bernethy, Bozarth, Brown, Byrne, Canfield, Carty, Chytil, Clark (Cecil C.), Clark (Newman H.), Comfort, Connor, Cooney, Donohue, Eldridge, Elway, Farrar, Fisher, Folsom, Gordon, Griffith, Hallauer, Hanna, Hansen (Julia Butler), Harris, Hawley, Heckendorn, Henry, Holliday, Huhta, Hyppa, Johnston, Jones (Arthur D.), Jones (Mrs. Vincent F.), Kirk, Kupka, Litchman, Loney, Lorimer, Lybecker, Mardesich, Martin, May, McBeath, McDermott, McFadden, Miller (Clyde J.), Miller (Floyd C.), Mundy, Munro, Munsey, Neill (Marshall A.), Oakes, Olsen (Ray), Olson (Ole H.), Ovenell, Pence, Petrie, Purvis, Rasmussen, Robinson, Ruoff, Sandison, Savage, Shropshire, Siler, Smith, Strom, Swayze, Testu, Timm, Wang, Wedekind, Weitzman, Wintler, Yearout, Mr. Speaker—81.

THIRTY-SECOND DAY

MORNING SESSION

---

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
OLYMPIA, WASH., Thursday, February 10, 1955.

The Speaker called the House to order at eleven o'clock a. m.

The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representatives Hawley, Ridgway, Rosenberg, Shropshire, Strom, Wang; Representatives Shropshire and Wang having been excused.

The flag of our country was escorted to the rostrum by a Sergeant-at-Arms color guard.

Prayer was offered by Reverend Malcolm Alexander, minister of the Westminster United Presbyterian Church of Olympia, Washington.

The reading clerk proceeded to read the journal of the proceedings of the previous day. On motion of Mr. Young, further reading was dispensed with and the journal was ordered to stand approved.

SPEAKER'S PRIVILEGE

The Speaker observed within the gallery of the House, the Parents and Teachers Association and Pre-School groups of the Sales School in Tacoma and asked them to stand and be recognized. (Applause.)

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Mrs. Testu, having voted on the prevailing side, moved that the House reconsider the vote by which House Bill No. 101 failed to pass yesterday.

Mr. Connor demanded a call of the House and the demand was sustained.

CALL OF THE HOUSE

The Sergeant-at-Arms was instructed to lock the doors.

The Clerk called the roll and all members were present except Representatives Shropshire, Strom and Wang.

The Sergeant-at-Arms was instructed to bring the absent members to the bar of the House.

On motion of Mr. Mardesich, the absent members were excused and the House proceeded with business under the call of the House.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the motion to reconsider House Bill No. 101.

Mrs. Testu demanded an electric roll call and the demand was sustained.

The electric roll call was begun and the Speaker locked the machine. Representative Litchman was reported as absent or not voting.

Mrs. Testu protested the vote because all members did not vote, as required under a call of the House.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Brown:

"Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order."

The Speaker:

"State your point."

Mr. Brown:

"I move that we have an oral roll call. Apparently there is some misunderstanding as to who voted and who did not."

The Speaker:

"Your motion is not in order; ninety-five members voted, Representatives Shropshire, Strom and Wang were excused. Mr. Litchman has not been excused."

The Sergeant-at-Arms was instructed to bring Mr. Litchman within the bar of the House.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Hess:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your point."

Mr. Hess:

"When Mr. Litchman is brought in, will it be in order to have a second roll call, inasmuch as this roll call was completed in error?"

The Speaker:

"In the event there is a mechanical failure and a member's vote is not properly recorded, then the Speaker has allowed a member to have his vote recorded orally."

Mr. Hess:

"This point will come up again later. We are combining the mechanical device with parliamentary rules. If the vote has been cut off erroneously, I believe it is in order to start the procedure over again."

The Speaker:

"The Speaker has previously ruled that when the machine is at fault, the vote would be declared null and void. In this instance it was not the machine that was at fault. One member who should have voted is absent and has not voted."

Mr. Brown:

"Mr. Speaker, will the remarks that have been made regarding the protest of the vote be made a part of the record?"

The Speaker:

"If you so wish."

POINT OF ORDER

Mrs. Hansen (Julia Butler):

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your point."

Mrs. Hansen:

"Since an electric roll call is the same as a voice roll call, can the machine be locked before all the members who are present have voted under the call of the House?"

The Speaker:

"Your point will be taken under consideration."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Johnston:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your point, Mr. Johnston."

Mr. Johnston:

"In answer to the lady's point, that is exactly the way the Speaker ruled the other day. The Speaker indicated Mr. Clark had not voted and asked him to indicate his vote. I believe it is proper that the Speaker, before he makes the announcement of what the vote of the membership may be, may ask how a member voted, either on the machine or orally."

Mrs. Hansen (Julia Butler):

"Mr. Speaker, is there not a difference when we are under the call of the House? When an oral roll call is being taken the Clerk halts when a member does not answer. Is not that the same as the Speaker waiting to lock the machine until everyone has voted?"

The Speaker:

"The motion was passed to proceed under the call of the House. That had the effect of excusing the absent members. Mr. Litchman was not excused."

Mrs. Hurley:

"Mr. Speaker, I was confused. I thought I was voting 'yea' but found I had voted 'no'. I would like to be recorded as voting 'yea'."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Neill (Marshall A.):

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your point."

Mr. Neill:

"I believe House Rule 52 answers Mrs. Hurley's question. 'When the electric roll call machine is used, no member shall be allowed to vote or change his vote after the Speaker has locked the roll call machine.'"

The Speaker:

"Your point is well taken."

The Speaker declared the House at ease until Mr. Litchman was brought within the bar of the House.

The Speaker called the House to order.

RULING OF THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Due to conflicts and misunderstandings, we are going to declare the first roll call on the motion to reconsider the vote on House Bill No. 101 out of order."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. Olson (Ole H.):

"Point of inquiry, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your point."

Mr. Olson:

"What will be the effect of affirmative and negative votes on the motion? What effect will the vote have on this bill?"

The Speaker:

"A vote 'aye' places the bill before the House on third reading. A vote 'no' means the House refuses to reconsider the bill."

Mr. Brown demanded an oral roll call and the demand was sustained.

The Clerk called the roll on the motion to reconsider the vote on House Bill No. 101, and the motion was lost by the following vote: Yeas, 47; nays, 49; absent or not voting, 3.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

My request for deferring action on House Bill No. 212 until the following working day was made at the request of state Representative Julia Butler Hansen and state Representative John L. O'Brien. Each of the legislators mentioned favored House Bill No. 212 and wish to be recorded as voting for it. However, the special responsibilities of the legislature held by each of them required their presence elsewhere at the time scheduled for third reading of House Bill No. 212.

Since the members of the House preferred to vote on the final passage of House Bill No. 212 at its scheduled calendar time, I wish the Journal of the House to show that Representatives Hansen (Julia Butler) and O'Brien supported House Bill No. 212 and would have voted for it had not their legislative responsibilities required their presence elsewhere. Andy Hess.

MEMORIAL TRIBUTE

Representative Eva Anderson

Today we pause in the midst of a busy session to honor those former legislators who have departed from this life during the past biennium. We welcome you relatives and friends who have come to share with us this sacred hour of memory. Thirty-seven names appear on the memorial roster, names of those who once served as our lawmakers. Our record today dips far, far into the past. Ten of those named today rendered service here in Olympia before 1910—more than half of the number between 1910 and 1920. Others, like George Adams and Ed Reilly, sat with us in this room just yesterday—only thirty-three legislative days ago.

Our loss is heart-felt and deep. How many of you sitting in the gallery are relatives who have come some distance! Many others wanted to come today. We have had letters from California, Florida and Minnesota. Yesterday a letter came from Sitka, Alaska. It said, "It is many years, almost thirty, since my father served as a legislator. I was deeply touched to learn his name and his memory have not been forgotten."

We ponder on life's meaning and how we fit into it. On such a day as this, we rededicate ourselves to the cause we serve. We know the fitting calendar on the desk—the moving hands of the clock tell us our life's days are numbered. Already in this session, there are comrades dear to us who have suffered accident, illness and even the sorrow of death. What is life? "Life," said an old Indian chief, "is like a firefly in the night. It is a buffalo in wintertime. It is like the little shadow in the grass that runneth until it is lost in the sunset. The picture fades but values live on and on. Love, once known, is never lost. It is a lovely glow in the evening sky of our lives after the sun has set."

For the theme of the hour, we have chosen the words, Love is Eternal; and we are promised perfect love casteth out fear, loneliness and all sorrow.

IN MEMORIAM

In tribute to the memories of these distinguished former members of the Senate and House who have passed from among us, we, the memorialists of the Thirty-fourth Session, convey the respects of the Washington state legislature, and present our memorials to be preserved in the Book of Memory, in the custody of the Secretary of State:

"I do not believe that in stating his motion, Mr. Petrie moved to suspend the rules."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"It is not necessary to suspend the rules on a motion to reconsider the vote on a motion to indefinitely postpone. I am going to rule that the motion is in order."

Mr. Gordon moved the following amendment be adopted:

Amend section 1, page 1, line 2 of the printed bill, by striking the words and punctuation "each repealed." and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "amended to read as follows:

"The total amount paid to a recipient of old age assistance shall become a preferred claim upon the death of that recipient. The debts of funeral expenses, administration and expenses of last sickness shall have precedence over the state's claim. Such claim shall be for that amount of public assistance funds paid to the recipient and shall be prorated among contributing governmental agencies when collected.

"The state's claim shall not be enforced against any real estate while it is occupied by the surviving spouse or dependent child. Procedure for the allowance of such claim shall be in accordance with Chapter 11.40 RCW and as hereafter amended and shall be subject to Chapter 11.52 RCW as hereafter amended."

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Rasmussen:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your point, Mr. Rasmussen."

Mr. Rasmussen:

"I do not believe Mr. Gordon's amendment to be germane to the bill."

The Speaker:

"Your point of order, I believe, is well taken."

Mr. Rasmussen:

"Speaking to the point of order, what Mr. Gordon is doing is scalping the bill. The bill is repealing both in title and substance, however, Mr. Gordon's amendment does not repeal the law."

Mr. Neill (Marshall A.):

"Mr. Speaker, speaking on Mr. Rasmussen's point of order, I would like to comment that the bill relates to public assistance. This amendment is certainly germane. House Rule 36 states 'No motion or proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be admitted under color of amendment; and no bill or resolution shall at any time be amended by annexing thereto or incorporating therein any other bill or resolution pending before the House.'

"This amendment is not another bill that is being incorporated. It is true the amendment is repealing section 36, chapter 174, Laws of 1953. However, the purpose of this bill is to repeal the recovery clause, and Mr. Gordon's amendment apparently is clarifying the law or stating a different method of handling it."

The Speaker:

"The amendment appears diametrically opposite to the purpose of the bill."

Mr. Beierlein:

"Mr. Speaker, Mr. Gordon's amendment will do just the opposite of what this bill intends to do. I do not believe the amendment to be germane, as it would have the same effect as the law now stands."

Mr. Comfort:

"Mr. Speaker, Ladies and Gentlemen of the House: I believe that the amendment repeals a portion of the present statute, while the bill repeals the entire law. Mr. Gordon's amendment would leave a portion of the law in effect and repeal the remainder. I think the amendment is germane to the bill and to the subject of the bill."

Mr. Clark (Newman H.):

"Mr. Speaker, the arguments of Mr. Rasmussen and Mr. Beierlein convince me that this amendment is germane. They have pointed out very clearly that they are taking the positive or negative position of one side—as you wish to view it. House Rule 36 states that no motion or proposition may be proposed on a subject different from the bill. This subject is identical. It is a question of which side you favor. The subject is exactly the same in both instances.”

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

“The Speaker is ruling that the amendment is out of order.”

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Petrie:

“Point of order, Mr. Speaker.”

The Speaker:

“State your point, Mr. Petrie.”

Mr. Petrie:

“Do I understand the Speaker’s ruling to be that when a bill comes on the floor which in effect repeals the existing law, the Speaker will rule that any proposal to amend the existing law is out of order and not germane? Does it also follow that if a bill is introduced in order to amend a section of a present law, that it is not germane to attempt to amend that bill?”

The Speaker:

“I will reserve my ruling on questions of such a nature as and when they are specifically brought before the House.”

House Bill No. 198 was passed to Committee on Rules and Order for third reading.

House Bill No. 209, by Representatives Petrie and Shropshire:

Amending the guest-host motor vehicle statute, placing liability in case of intoxication.

The bill was read the second time by sections.

Mr. Johnston moved that the following amendment be adopted:

In section 1, line 14 of the original bill, being lines 9 and 10 of the printed bill, after the words “Provided, That” and before the words “this section” insert the following: “no such invited guest or licensee shall have a cause of action for damages against such owner or operator for injuries, death or loss in case of accident if he was aware or should have been aware of such owner’s or operator’s intoxication prior to such accident: Provided further, That”

Debate ensued.

Mr. Dore moved that the following amendment to the amendment by Mr. Johnston be adopted:

After the words “he was aware” and before the words “of such” strike the words “or should have been aware”

Debate ensued.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the adoption of the amendment by Mr. Dore to the amendment by Mr. Johnston.

A division was asked for and the amendment to the amendment was adopted on a rising vote.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the amendment by Mr. Johnston as amended.

Debate ensued.

Mr. Mardesich demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

A division was asked for and the amendment by Mr. Johnston as amended was adopted.

Mr. Ruoff moved the following amendment to House Bill No. 209 be adopted:

In section 1, line 8 of the printed bill, after the words "owner or operator or" strike the words "the result of said owner or operator's gross negligence or intoxication" and insert in lieu thereof the following: "indifferent to consequences, said owner or operator intentionally acts in such a way that the natural and probable consequences of his act is injury to another;"

Debate ensued.

Mr. Mardesich demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The Speaker stated the question before the House to be the adoption of the amendment by Mr. Ruoff.

The amendment was lost.

Mr. Ruoff moved that House Bill No. 209 be re-referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The motion was lost.

House Bill No. 209 was passed to Committee on Rules and Order for third reading and ordered engrossed.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Kirk:

"Point of inquiry, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker:

"State your point."

Mr. Kirk:

"Would there be any objection to using the electric machine when requests for division are made in order to expedite our procedure?"

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker:

"Our rules provide that if 17 members demand an electric roll call, it may be taken."

SPEAKER'S PRIVILEGE

The Speaker observed within the gallery of the House students from the Highline School and students of the Sunnydale Elementary School in King county and asked them to stand and be recognized. (Applause.)

House Bill No. 253, by Representatives Martin and Wintler (by departmental request):

JOINT INTERIM COMMITTEE ON INDUSTRIAL INSURANCE

The Joint Interim Committee on Industrial Insurance, as created under House Concurrent Resolution No. 6 of the 33rd Legislative Session, herewith respectfully submits a resume report to the 34th Legislature.

The membership of the committee is unique. It is composed of seven public members—three representing organized labor, three representing employer groups, and one representing the Washington state medical association; four legislators served on the committee, two being representatives and two senators, equally divided as to political parties. Consequently it is a truly bi-partisan committee whose purpose and endeavor were directed to an objective look at the workmen's compensation act and to make its recommendations to the 1955 session of the legislature.

The committee met regularly during the interim and discussed at great length the suggestions submitted by interested parties relative to the industrial insurance law. This report will not attempt to cite here all matters that were before the committee, but rather will limit it to the specific recommendations resolved by the committee.

The following are recommendations of the committee for your consideration:

- (1) Appropriation be provided for the establishment of a full time medical director and one assistant medical director within the department of labor and industries.

The Governor's budget includes an item for this in the amount of $40,000.00, which amount is as suggested by the committee.

- (2) The department of labor and industries submitted numerous recommendations to the committee in the form of specific amendatory bills. These were screened carefully by the committee, and most of the suggestions were adopted. These proposals in most part are included in House Bill No. 581.

- (3) The major recommendation of the committee is the interim committee on industrial insurance request bill introduced as House Bill No. 581. The major points in this bill provide:
- (a) Change in form of administration of the department of labor and industries—setting up a commission form of administration on a part time basis whose duties are to establish policy; appoint an administrator of labor and industries; select a referee who would be the chief examiner on appeals from the supervisor of industrial insurance; and to review the referee's findings if claimant is not satisfied with the referee's decision.
  - (b) Abolish the present board of industrial insurance appeals and establish a live jury trial upon appeals from the commission to the superior court.
  - (c) Amends the benefit schedule and increases compensation for time loss and pensions.
- (4) It is the recommendation of the committee to re-create the joint interim committee for the purpose of continued study on the workmen's compensation law. It is recognized by those concerned with this state government function that further changes are in order. It is further observed that changing conditions in employment and litigated changes by the courts require continual study and negotiations, which such a committee can best institute and carry on.

A bill will be presented to you for consideration of this request.

Acknowledgement is made and thanks given to the following who contributed to the work of the committee: Governor Arthur B. Langlie, Attorney General Don Eastvold, The Department of Labor and Industries and its Director A. M. Johnson, the Legislative Council, the Washington State Superior Court Judges Association, and all those from organized labor and management who so ably contributed to the committee's work.

Respectfully submitted,

Joint Interim Committee on Industrial Insurance.

INTRODUCTION AND FIRST READING OF BILLS, MEMORIALS AND RESOLUTIONS

The following was introduced, read first time by title, and acted upon as indicated:

House Concurrent Resolution No. 16, by Representative Comfort:

Relating to the suspension of House Rule 75 to permit the introduction of a bill.

Mr. Comfort moved that the rules be suspended and House Concurrent Resolution No. 16 be advanced to second reading and read the second time in full.

The Speaker called for a vote on the question.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. Comfort:

"Point of order, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker (Mr. Rasmussen presiding):

"State your point."

Mr. Comfort:

"Is not the motion to suspend the rules debatable? I want to speak on the motion to suspend the rules in this particular instance, and the reason why the rules should be suspended would depend on the facts brought out."

RULING BY THE SPEAKER

The Speaker (Mr. Rasmussen presiding):

"The rules provide that the motion to suspend the rules is not debatable."

Mr. Comfort:

"What is the authority for your ruling, Mr. Speaker?"

The Speaker (Mr. Rasmussen presiding):

"Reed's Rule 119."

A division was called for and the motion to advance House Concurrent Resolution No. 16 to second reading was carried on a rising vote.

The resolution was read the second time in full.

Mr. Comfort moved that the rules be suspended, House Concurrent Resolution No. 16 be advanced to third reading, the second reading be considered the third, and the resolution be placed on final passage.

A division was called for and the motion was lost on a rising vote.

House Concurrent Resolution No. 16 was passed to Committee on Rules and Order for third reading.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. Comfort:

"Point of personal privilege, Mr. Speaker."

The Speaker (Mr. Rasmussen presiding):

"State your point, Mr. Comfort."

Mr. Comfort:

"Mr. Speaker, I think, under the circumstances, I have a right to explain why this situation has occurred, so that there will be no reflection on me or the people I represent. I would like to state the circumstances which necessitate this resolution so that you will fully understand the situation. On Thursday, which I believe was the thirty-ninth day of the session, the mayor of the city of Tacoma called me and asked me to introduce a bill removing the chief of police from civil service. The mayors of the state, in their conference here in Olympia a few days previously, were unanimously in favor of such a bill. The mayor said that the bill had been prepared in their drafting department, but that they were not able to send it down to us at the moment. He said a person had been selected in the Senate who had consented to present the bill and file it in that chamber; however, at the last moment that person who had agreed to present the bill had refused to fulfill his promise. An emergency existed. I informed the mayor that the bill had to be in the House before six o'clock p. m. He promised that he would get it to me. It did not reach me. I did not get it until a little after ten o'clock this morning. That is what precipitated this resolution. I just want to give you this explanation so that you will know where I fit in the picture."

The Speaker resumed the chair.

SPEAKER'S PRIVILEGE

The Speaker observed within the gallery of the House a troop of Girl Scouts from Bremerton with their leader, Mrs. Fields, and asked them to stand and be recognized. (Applause.)

POINT OF INQUIRY

Mr. Petrie:

"Mr. Speaker, will one of the sponsors of the bill yield to a question?"

The Speaker:

"Will one of the sponsors yield? Mr. Dore, will you yield to a question?"

Mr. Dore:

"Yes."

Mr. Petrie:

"I would like to ask the gentleman from King the meaning of the bill. Does this bill mean that a man can commit the most heinous crime—some kind of murder—and enter a plea of guilty and thereby escape capital punishment? I also have another question; however, the two might be considered the same. Does this bill also mean that some prosecutor could talk to such a defendant and encourage him to enter a plea of guilty on the basis that he would not be hanged, then after the defendant arrived in court, the court would nevertheless impanel the jury and still impose the death penalty?"

Mr. Dore:

"I would like to point out that Mr. Petrie is also on the Judiciary Committee. I do not know if he was present when this bill was thoroughly considered. In answer to your first question, it is possible to plead guilty of first degree murder and not be hanged, under the provisions that the jury may be impanelled and determine the penalty. The interpretation I had at the time the Judiciary Committee analyzed the bill is that the provision that the jury may be impanelled is in conflict with the major section of the bill. This provision is inconsistent and the jury would not have the power to give a man the death sentence. I discussed this point at length with a number of prosecutors. That is their opinion and is the general rule in the interpretation of a statute. Clearly this provision is not dangerous. The jury would not be able to impose the death penalty."

Debate ensued.
