Senator Vognild: "Yes I can, Senator. The danger involved here—and the reason we are asking for these placards is not the fuel itself, but the container. A standard gasoline gas tank will not explode under virtually any circumstance—with one exception—and that being if the tank is totally empty—it will generally explode. If there are any gas fumes in it, it will not explode. The fumes will come out the top and they will burn. The problem being that when you are dealing with propane and natural gas, you are dealing with a very heavy tank, which is designed to contain pressure rather than simply liquid. Once that is exposed to heat, the entire tank is subject to explosion. A standard tank on an automobile often times ruptures and creates a fire. It is, however, a hazard that anyone approaching that vehicle can readily determine.

"When you have propane or natural gas under pressure and contained, the fire may not appear to be bad. However, if it reaches that tank and heats and explodes, you will have a fire ball that can reach, probably, fifty to sixty feet in diameter, thus killing bystanders, fire fighters and law enforcement personnel. That is the purpose of this bill. At the present time there are over eight thousand vehicles that we know of on the streets in Washington.

"You asked about the placards. We discussed that. The intent here was for the Commission on Equipment to require and put in place rules requiring the size, the type of material and design. I think it is something that they are far better equipped to do than this legislature. This is a bill that I know will, significantly, reduce the risk of injury to fire fighters and law enforcement personnel in combating fires and attempting to save lives when we do have accidents. I urge your passage of this bill."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3497.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Moore, is the jeopardy that you spoke of related to the fact that this bill could be construed as using the credit of the state to support a religious institution?"

Senator Moore: "No, not at all. The jeopardy here is what exists in the market place in any bonds and I think that it is only fair to consider that in our thinking about passage of the bill."

Senator Pullen: "As you know, Senator Moore, our Constitution is very, very strict about the state getting involved in religious matters or helping directly or indirectly private sectarian institutions. What I was worried about was the fact that the courts could construe this in our state as an unwarranted intrusion into a religious private institution. Remember our state has constitutional protections relative to freedom of religion that are much stricter than any other state."

Senator Moore: "Well, this is always a jeopardy that one must face in any legislation. I don't think it is any greater or lesser here than in any other piece of legislation."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3433.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Granlund, reading only the digest--the summary of the proposed amendment that we just adopted--'the Secretary of Corrections is directed to hold hearings.' Does he have any latitude, whatsoever, in this? I am thinking of a case where, maybe, three other states--and each state wanted to have thirty or forty hearings--does the Secretary of Corrections just have to hold these hearings by this law then?"

Senator Granlund: "That is correct. This is making no change, whatsoever. When the bill was drawn, it substituted the chairman of the Parole Board and it has always been the duty of the Secretary of Corrections and that is the only change that is being made."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, it is something like extradition. You don't have to extradite a person, if you don't want to--the Governor does not have to. This says that the director has to hold a hearing. He has no alternative. Is that correct?"

Senator Granlund: "Yes."

MOTION

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Pullen and Talmadge:

On page 5, strike all the underscored language on lines 16, 17, and 18.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Pullen, I am wondering if in using the two words 'peace officer,' does a peace officer, by definition have total police power?"

Senator Pullen: "That is my understanding, Senator Patterson. In other words, if he were to see a felony committed--a felony that would be a Class A, B or C felony--it might be unrelated, for example, to some of the things set forth in the section. Under state law, he would have the power to pursue, across county lines, to apprehend that person, using whatever means of violence he had at his disposal, including deadly force if he were armed with a firearm."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Talmadge, if there was any question ever raised and one of these officers performing some of the functions that are referred to in this act, could there be a question as to what powers were granted by using the words 'peace officer' versus 'police powers?'"

Senator Talmadge: "I am not terribly well versed in this, Senator, but I think not. My concern, I guess, is a bit broader one and this is that I have no quarrel with the agriculture agents enforcing the laws relating to the Department of Agriculture. But, what if you get into situations where they see other kinds of criminal violations going on? If they are peace officers, with police powers, they can make traffic infraction arrests, they can make arrests for drug abuse, they can make all the other kinds of arrests that are available under the law. My concern is that you have given that broad authority, you can get into all these other areas, where they may or may not be trained to handle them. That would be my concern, but I think the language you specifically referred to really makes no great difference."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator Pullen, my understanding from the testimony in the Agriculture Committee was simply that they wanted to grant peace officer power to these agents, so that they could enforce the laws--just the laws that are provided for in this act. Would you consider it a friendly amendment if you were to--instead of deleting the underlined portion, add to the end of it 'when enforcing the provisions of this act?'"

Senator Pullen: "Well, I would consider that a friendly amendment. I think that would help a little bit, but that does not preclude them from enforcing other criminal law. You would, also, have to say that they are specifically precluded from enforcing other provisions of law.

"I guess the only other question I would have is that if they are going to have peace officer authority with regard to the limited powers of this section, I guess I would, also, like to see them have some sort of training. In other words, I would like some sort of evidence that they would have to go through the Criminal Justice Commission training procedures to make sure they are well versed in handling fire arms, arrest procedures and constitutional rights."

Senator Goltz: "Well, Senator Pullen, if this is defeated, which I hope it will be, I would want to ask your support for the oral amendment that I just suggested."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Pullen and Talmadge.

The motion by Senator Pullen failed and the amendment was not adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, further consideration of Senate Bill No. 3297 was deferred and the bill was placed after Senate Bill No. 3208 on the second reading calendar.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3097.

On page 1, beginning on line 12, strike all of section 2.

On motion of Senator McDermott, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, beginning on line 1 of the title, after "exemptions;" strike all material down to and including "84.36.805;"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator McDermott, on page 2, section 2, subsection (c) of the bill, which I might point out is existing language in law, it states that facilities and services are available to all regardless of race, color, national origin or ancestry. I notice missing from that shopping list is the term 'sex or gender' and also missing is 'creed and religion.' The question I have for you is--can the facilities discriminate on the basis of religion or creed or sex under the terms of this bill?"

Senator McDermott: "I think all, in the eyes of God, are equal and there will be no discrimination."

MOTION

On motion of Senator McDermott, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3438 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Any one or any combination of the following practices (when done upon the upper part of the human body for cosmetic purposes and not for the treatment of disease or physical or mental ailments, and when done for payment, either directly or indirectly, or without payment, for the public generally upon male or female) constitutes the practice of barbering: (1) Shaving or trimming the beard or cutting the hair; (2) giving facial and scalp massage or treatments with oils, creams, lotions, or other preparations, either by hand or mechanical appliances; (3) singeing, shampooing or dyeing the hair, or applying tonics; (4) applying cosmetic preparations, antiseptics, powders, oils, clays, or lotions to the scalp, face, neck or upper part of the body; PROVIDED, That the provisions of this chapter shall not apply to any person employed in, or engaged in the operation of any beauty shop or hair dressing establishment or to persons engaged in the care or treatment of patients in health facilities or engaged in the care of residents of boarding homes and similar residential care facilities; PROVIDED, FURTHER, That a certified ((men's)) hair stylist may perform the following additional practices: (1) Hair analysis, reconditioning, and restoration procedures, as required; (2) the chemical processing of the hair, including temporary or permanent body waving, curl correction, or straightening, as well as the application of other chemicals in the process of barbering; and (3) the fitting and servicing of wigs, wefts, and hair pieces.

Sec. 16. Section 11, chapter 148, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.15.210 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to the practice of barbering any one or any combination of the following practices when done upon the upper part of the human ((male)) body for cosmetic purposes and not for the treatment of disease or physical or mental ailments, and when done for payment, either directly or indirectly, or without payment constitutes the practice of ((men's)) hairstyling: Straightening, curling, temporary waving, permanent waving, bleaching, or applying chemicals as related to ((men's)) hairstyling, or doing similar work thereon by the use of the hands or any method of mechanical application or appliances.

Sec. 17. Section 12, chapter 148, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 12, chapter 30, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.15.220 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person duly licensed as a barber in this state, and who has satisfactorily completed a course of instruction in the practice of ((men's)) hairstyling as approved by the barber examining committee, shall be entitled to make application to be examined for a Washington state ((men's)) hairstyling certificate. Any applicant for a certificate under this chapter who secures a grade in each branch of not less than seventy-five percent in his examination and who demonstrates to the satisfaction of the examining committee that he possesses the required professional skill and ability to properly perform each of the said ((men's)) hairstyling services, shall be entitled to receive, and the director shall issue to him an official Washington state ((men's)) hairstyling certificate, recognizing him as a certified ((men's)) hairstylist, and when accompanied by a current barber license of this state, shall entitle him to practice ((men's)) hairstyling.

The legislature finds that there is a distinct difference between the practice of barbering and the practice of ((men's)) hairstyling.

The legislature further finds that it is necessary to distinguish between the two practices to enable those persons currently within the profession of barbering to advance themselves professionally to become duly certified ((men's)) hairstylists and recognized as such. Therefore, it shall be the policy of the state to make laws regulating the practice of ((men's)) hairstyling.

Sec. 19. Section 13, chapter 148, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 18.15.230 are each amended to read as follows:

The barber examining committee shall adopt such reasonable rules and regulations as necessary to regulate the practice of ((men's)) hairstyling under this chapter pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW."

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Kiskaddon, does this now work both ways? Can men work on men and women and women can work on men and women?"

Senator Kiskaddon: "Yes, with the passage of this bill, it will be possible. It has been possible for cosmetologists--women--to work on men and women for a long time. This will make it possible for the men, also, to work on women as a hair stylist, so we are just striking the men in front of it to make that clear."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Kiskaddon.

The motion by Senator Kiskaddon failed and the amendment was not adopted.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3424, by Senators Newhouse, Thompson and Patterson
Modifying provisions relating to solemnization of marriage.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following Committee on Judiciary amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 15 after the comma strike all the material down to and including the period on line 17 and insert "((and)) justices of the peace within their respective counties, and municipal court judges within their respective municipalities."

Senator Talmadge moved adoption of the following Committee on Judiciary amendment:

On page 1, line 27, after "located," strike all material down to and including the colon on page 2, line 2 and insert "((PROVIDED FURTHER, That no full time district court judge shall perform any civil marriage between 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday:))"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Talmadge, when we put that language limitation in, it was because some judges were interrupting their court calendar to perform marriages. My recollection is that we said you have to do it after normal working hours. Is there a reason why we have taken that out now?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, we found that there was no abuse of that situation now ongoing out there. In fact, the superior court judges have no such restriction on their ability to perform marriages. It was the feeling of the committee that this kind of restrictive language was simply unnecessary and nobody indicated a problem that we needed to address with it."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Talmadge, to my knowledge, I don't think superior court judges are abusing--most of the marriages are performed by district court judges."

Senator Talmadge: "That is not my understanding, Senator. A great number of superior court judges, also, perform marriages."

Senator Rasmussen: "You are restricting the district court judges to the areas of their municipality? If I had a district court judge and wanted him to marry me and I lived outside of the city, then would he be restricted? These judges charge--I think it is twenty-five dollars--I forget what the rate is now--in the courthouse, using the courthouse facilities. If they go out to a house where the marriage is to be performed, the rate is seventy-five dollars. Now, in the case of the municipal court judge, I might like him and want him to marry me--he couldn't do that outside of the city, then?"

Senator Talmadge: "That is correct, Senator."

Senator Rasmussen: "Why?"

Senator Talmadge: "That is outside the geographical jurisdiction of that particular judge. There was some question about the validity of a marital situation where the judge was performing an action outside of his territorial jurisdiction. That is the reason that we, also, deleted the time sequence problem that Senator Bottiger referred to. There was some concern that what if a judge performed a wedding at 4:57, instead of 5:01. Did that somehow invalidate the marriage performed? I think not."

"Similarly, I think we wanted to make sure that the judge performed the marriage in the geographical area that he or she was elected from. It doesn't matter where the participants to the marriage come from, but just the geographical area in which the judge himself or herself works."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, I was under the impression that a judge is a judge is a judge wherever he is. He may not be acting in his court, but he would be acting as a judge, just as a sea captain would be, whether he was in the Atlantic or Pacific Ocean, and performing marriages."

Senator Talmadge: "Not so with the judges of the courts of limited jurisdiction. I think their charge is somewhat more restrictive than that of superior court judges."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Judiciary amendment.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3424 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Williams, I don't want to be confused by what Senator Pullen says. Does it have to be one of those super models before we can convict them, or can it be just a little rubber gun that someone thought was real?"

Senator Williams: "You are the attorney. You can probably answer that better than I can."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Talmadge, does it have to be one of those super toy guns or can it be just a regular toy gun?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, from the language of the bill, it states that the person has to use or threaten to use a deadly weapon or what appears to be a deadly weapon. I think it is probably a fact question as to whether or not the victim perceives that the so-called deadly weapon is or is not a real firearm. If it looks close enough, Senator, I suspect that the courts are going to say that it is what it appears to be."

Further debate ensued.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3392, by Senators McManus, Quigg and Bottiger

Modifying provisions on electrical utility installation.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Bottiger and Quigg:

On page 1, line 14, after "RCW" strike everything down through "personnel." on line 17, and insert:

" who is prequalified by the city-owned electrical utility, to install any material or equipment in lieu of having city utility personnel perform the installation: PROVIDED, That prior to connecting any wires to the utilities distribution system the electrical contractor shall obtain written approval from the city-owned electrical utility: PROVIDED FURTHER, That nothing herein shall prevent any first class city from operating a solid waste department utilizing its own personnel.

If a customer elects to employ a private electrical contractor as provided in this section, the private electrical contractor shall be solely responsible for any damages resulting from the installation of any temporary service, permanent service, or expanded service and the city-owned electrical utility shall be immune from any tortious conduct actions."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Thank you, Mr. President. I have some concern about the second half of the amendment as explained by Senator Bottiger. I would like to have him, perhaps, respond to this posture. I am particularly concerned with the last three lines--'and the city-owned electrical utility shall be immune from any tortious conduct actions.' Now, I can go along with that insofar as it has to do with the installation of the expanded service, but let's assume that there is a major failure and negligence on the part of the city which would result in a high voltage surge. That would damage somebody who has been connected on this extended connection.

"I think, maybe, if you put a period after service, you would accomplish what you are intending and strike 'and city-owned electrical utility shall be immune from any tortious conduct.' It seems to me that is a little too broad and would cover a situation where they permitted, through negligence, the high voltage surge, which would cause damage and maybe death to somebody who is connected up on one of these things."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Clarke, we could set it down until we make sure that the language does what we intend or I could respond to your question by saying that the intent is that they be immune from any tortious conduct, as to that contractual hookup of the line. If the private contractor or the building owner had done something, the city has to be resolved of any liability themselves for what those other people did. Now, if you are not satisfied that that language means that, we can set it down and try and add something."

Senator Clarke: "I am just wondering whether what you and I are both intending could not be accomplished by striking those last three lines, because you already are saying that the electrical contractor shall be solely responsible for the extended service. That is what I think."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, it was drafted by the attorneys for the city of Seattle and Tacoma and, candidly, I didn't go through and analyze it as a lawyer, myself. They were satisfied and so were the electrical contractors. Perhaps, if we moved to set the bill down two bills, we can get somebody to check that."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, Senate Bill No. 3392 was moved down two bills on the second reading calendar.

On motion of Senator Vognild, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3259 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Kiskaddon: "Senator Benitz, I notice that there is an emergency clause in this bill. Is there some sense that we need an immediate set of PDC reports on the people involved? I am wondering if we are worried about some misconduct by someone or what is the reason that we want to put the emergency clause on it?"

Senator Benitz: "Well, I would have to answer from my own perspective and that is the executive board that is in operation now have not had to file up to now and there are those, I imagine--the sponsors of the bill--that feel that they should file and as soon as possible. I would simply have to imagine that is the reason for the emergency clause."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3259.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Kiskaddon: "Senator Talmadge, if I understand this correctly, if I were a loaner of money for a house mortgage, I would have to look at--from the point of view--that if I did have to foreclose that I would be minus the thirty thousand dollars in the price of the home. Do you think that would mean that the interest rates for the potential borrower would have to be higher or that they would be asking for larger down payments to the point that a number of people that we are wanting to protect would not be able to borrow money to get into a house?"

Senator Talmadge: "I suspect not, Senator. Let me explain how a homestead works. I will use my own case as a good example. Insofar as I have not contributed, yet, thirty thousand dollars equity value to my house, I would not be protected to the thirty thousand dollar limit. It is if a person has thirty thousand dollars in equity in the house, that they would be protected by the homestead.

"You are protected only to the extent that you have equity in the house. I think this is not something that would be a bar to reasonable and proper mortgage companies or banks making loans to individuals, but rather it is a protection to creditors--at least to the extent of their equity in a piece of property. The idea of the homestead, originally, was to protect the home of people who were subject to collection of debts. We didn't want to have people be deprived of their home by virtue of the actions of a bank or mortgage company.

"It is a protection to creditors. It is a protection that we have had in our law for a long, long time. We are simply updating the value consistent with inflation. Our previous times of updating the value of the homestead, to my knowledge, have not resulted in the banks or mortgage companies being more unwilling to make loans to individuals."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Senate Bill No. 3447.

(1) To the extent stated in subsection (2) of this section, the legislative authority of any county may budget, in accordance with the provisions of chapter 36.40 RCW, and expend ((any)) a portion of the county road property tax revenues for any service to be provided in the unincorporated area of the county notwithstanding any other provision of the law, including chapter 36.82 RCW and RCW 84.52.050 and RCW 84.52.043.

(2) The portion of the county road property tax revenues that may be budgeted and expended pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall be limited to the following amounts:

Renumber the remaining sections accordingly.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Thompson: "Thank you, Mr. President. I would like your ruling on the appropriateness of this amendment. It appears to me to exceed the scope of the bill. RULING BY THE PRESIDENT President Cherberg: "Senator Thompson has raised the point of scope and object concerning the amendment proposed by Senator Pullen.

"In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Thompson, the President finds that Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3161 is a measure which authorizes counties to create special service districts to provide funding for road and bridge improvements.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Pullen limits the authority of counties to spend county road property tax revenues for services in unincorporated areas.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator McDermott, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3104 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3104 and the second substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Shinpoch moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Shinpoch and Fleming:

On page 1, line 21 after "otherwise," insert "Notwithstanding the terms of any lease or other rental agreement, such direct payment by the secretary shall constitute full payment of the tenant's rental obligation for the month to which such direct payment applies."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "Senator Shinpoch, I am inquiring about the effect something like this might have upon the kind of situation where you have a shared rental unit. This is one of the things that we have allowed, wherein the two persons together, in fact, are renting something that is more expensive. Let's say that the rental allowance for each individual is $125 per month--just hypothetical--and that there are two single parents who are sharing a rental unit that, in fact, costs $200. Would this prevent the Department from being able to pay that rental fee, because it is above the amount allowed--even though it is a net saving to the Department?"

Senator Shinpoch: "Would you repeat the question?"

Senator Lee: "O.K., you just want to see if I can do it, I know. I am using a hypothetical situation of two single parents, where each family is using--hypothetically--$125 a month allowance for rental--as far as the amount that the Department allows as a share. However, they--between the two of them--are sharing a rental unit that costs $200. Would this kind of amendment, then, prevent those two individuals from renting something that is a higher rental than the Department would allow?"

Senator Shinpoch: "Even though you repeated the question, I am not sure--and I tried very hard--I am not sure that I followed it. I guess you have to be more definitive. These are single parents. Are there one, two or three in the family, or more? If you are one, it is $107 apiece and if there are three in the family, it is $168 for rent and water. There is no break-out between those two. As you were going through it--and I am not sure that I did not lose it--it sounded like the amount that the Department allowed was more than they were being charged. Did I understand you correctly?"

Senator Lee: "That is correct, when you combine the two of them, but if they are just using it for the single tenant for what they are allowing for the one group, I am wondering if we will have problems with that?"

Senator Shinpoch: "If one of those was me and my friend, then we simply would not have to enter into this agreement."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MCDERMOTT

Senator McDermott: "I think--to answer your question--right now the Department is not allowing both to collect their housing allowance if they are sharing living space. The hypothetical you posed would not occur. Only one person who is on welfare in a shared living arrangement can collect the housing allowance, so that would not occur."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Shinpoch, at the bottom of the page, below your amendment, it says 'that the effect of this amendment would limit the tenant's rental obligation to the amount allowed for rent in the public assistance grant (e.g. $168 for a family of three).' My question is what happens if the rent is more than $168? What if the monthly rent were $200?"

Senator Shinpoch: "Well, if the landlords would--out of the goodness of their hearts and feeling sorry for those poor single parents--reduce it to $168, which is what medical doctors do and what hospitals do and what nursing homes do. I am simply trying to raise the landlord up to where they are like these other good citizens."

Senator Pullen: "At the cost of housing today, which as you know is very, very high?"

Senator Shinpoch: "It is not, in relationship, not nearly as high as medical benefits."

Senator Pullen: "That is a completely different subject. Some housing is such that you cannot rent it out for less than two or three hundred dollars, without losing money. It seems to me, that the effect of your amendment is to cause the landlord to have to eat the difference. In the long run, it is going to have the effect of limiting housing, rather than helping anyone."

Senator Shinpoch: "We have thought that for quite some time when we forced medical doctors and hospitals to accept our payments and when they were losing money doing that. We have continued to do it. We are simply trying to raise them up. Do you understand?"

Further debate ensued.

Senator Shinpoch demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senators Shinpoch and Fleming.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Shinpoch failed and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 18; nays, 29; absent, 00; excused, 02.

Excused: Senators Craswell, Hemstad - 2.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3019, by Senators Thompson, Zimmerman and Bauer

Modifying provisions relating to hearings by local government planning agencies.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Thompson, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3019 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3019 and the second substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

Senator Thompson moved the following amendments be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 2, beginning on line 17, strike all material down to and including line 23 and insert the following:

"(5) A vendor or seller of real property who receives a mailed notice required by this chapter shall promptly forward the notice to the purchaser of the property. Each mailed notice required by this chapter shall contain the following statement: "NOTICE TO VENDOR OR SELLER: CHAPTER 36.70 RCW REQUIRES THAT IF YOU RECEIVE THIS NOTICE, IT MUST PROMPTLY BE FORWARDED TO THE PURCHASER."

On page 3, beginning on line 32, strike all material down to and including line 2 on page 4 and insert the following:

"(5) A vendor or seller of real property who receives a mailed notice required by this chapter shall promptly forward the notice to the purchaser of the property. Each mailed notice required by this chapter shall contain the following statement: "NOTICE TO VENDOR OR SELLER: CHAPTER 35.63 RCW REQUIRES THAT IF YOU RECEIVE THIS NOTICE, IT MUST PROMPTLY BE FORWARDED TO THE PURCHASER."

On page 5, beginning on line 19, strike all material down to and including line 25 and insert the following:

"(5) A vendor or seller of real property who receives a mailed notice required by this chapter shall promptly forward the notice to the purchaser of the property. Each mailed notice required by this chapter shall contain the following statement: "NOTICE TO VENDOR OR SELLER: CHAPTER 35A.63 RCW REQUIRES THAT IF YOU RECEIVE THIS NOTICE, IT MUST PROMPTLY BE FORWARDED TO THE PURCHASER."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Thompson, where or how would this notice be sent? Would it be enclosed in the envelope or would it be stamped on the outside? The reason I asked that is, that you get mail that doesn't belong to you and you just pass it out to the mailman and say, 'it doesn't belong to me.'"

Senator Thompson: "Well, the mail received--as a requirement of this act--would be addressed to the name on the tax rolls. The notice would have, as a part of its message, the language of this amendment informing the recipient that if he wasn't the owner of the property to forward it to the actual owner. The form of the notification, Senator Rasmussen, could be either enclosed in an envelope or imprinted on a card."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, I think your purpose is commendable, but if it comes in an envelope and it is sealed, a person either heaves it in the round file or else doesn't do anything with it. If you have it printed on the outside, it would be more noticeable. I don't know if they are going to send just cards or what type of notice they are going to send."

Senator Thompson: "Senator Rasmussen, I don't believe there will be any confusion, because if you were to receive one of these things, it would be addressed to you. I think its purpose would be perfectly clear to you."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCaslin: "Senator Thompson, you know that I am one hundred percent behind this bill. My question is with the terminology--'a vendor or seller.' I am a little confused on just exactly what a 'vendor' is, as it pertains to this section. I know what you are trying to do, and you are going to accomplish it, but when you mention a realtor being responsible for notifying the purchaser, I question that because in listing property, you are not always sure about what they received from the county or city. They may not have received it in selling property, so I would question putting a broker in that position."

Senator Thompson: "These amendments provide an assurance that if there is a transaction in progress, that the purchaser will understand that the property involved in the transaction may be rezoned. A 'vendor' is someone who may be handling that property."

Senator McCaslin: "Well, of course, the letter could be in the mail and although the broker owes and is obligated for full disclosure to the purchaser, he may not be aware of this and I am afraid that might be putting the broker in a position where--"

Senator Thompson: "Senator McCaslin, the broker or vendor or whatever you may wish to call him, is in no jeopardy as a result of this requirement. It is just an instruction and if he fails to carry out the instruction, it cannot be the basis for a later action with regard to the provisions of the bill."

Senator McCaslin: "Well, let me rephrase the question. If you struck 'vendor' and said 'a seller of real property,' would that harm your amendment?"

Senator Thompson: "Well, I don't think it would improve it, Senator McCaslin. The inclusion of the term, I think, probably covers more broadly the people who might be involved."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator McCaslin, the following amendments to the amendments were considered and adopted simultaneously:

On line 5 of the amendment to page 2, line 17, strike "vendor or" and on line 12, strike "VENDOR OR"

On line 5 of the amendment to page 3, beginning on line 32, after "(5) A" strike "vendor or" and on line 12 strike "VENDOR OR"

On line 5 of the amendment to page 5, beginning on line 19, after "(5) A" strike "vendor or" and on line 12 strike "VENDOR OR"

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Thompson amendments, as amended.

The motion by Senator Thompson carried and the amendments, as amended, were adopted.

On motion of Senator Thompson, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3019 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator Thompson, if the fiscal notes would impose upon local government a substantial additional expense to comply with the mailing provisions in this bill, would the extra cost be covered under Initiative 62 and therefore require the state legislature to pass along the costs of funding that particular requirement?"

Senator Thompson: "Senator Goltz, I honestly can't answer that question. I don't think it is possible to anticipate the expense of which local government is going to function in the planning area that would require these kinds of notifications."

Senator Goltz: "Mr. President, I believe, under my understanding of Initiative 62 and I think what Senator Barr has alluded to is correct--that there would be a very substantial extra cost to local government to make these mailings. If this is a requirement of state government, I believe Initiative 62 does apply, and if it does apply, I think we should really consider what the cost of that would be. I really think it is beneficial for people to know what local government is doing with regard to their property and I think that ought to be very clear. I do think there is a fiscal impact here and in, at least, the case of Whatcom County government officials, they are very concerned as to what this budget impact will be upon them. I think in the absence of clarification of that issue, I am going to have to vote 'no,' as well."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3019.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3019, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 05; absent, 01; excused, 02.

On page 1, line 21, after "chapter" strike "35.56" and insert "36.70"

On motion of Senator Thompson the following title amendment was adopted:

On motion of Senator Thompson, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3777 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Senator Thompson, I recognize what you purport to do with this measure. I was just wondering by reading the bill--you were speaking of senior citizens wanting this bill and so forth. I see nowhere in this bill where it is limited to senior citizens, your grandma or your mother or something like that. I am just wondering, it does cover all relatives, not just senior citizens that are your relatives, right?"

Senator Thompson: "I would have to answer 'yes' to that--relatives by blood or marriage. I guess I have already told you that we would be happy to provide a blood test, if you would like."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3777.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3264, by Senators Conner, Guess, Moore, Bauer, Pullen, Bender and McCaslin

Establishing Olympic county subject to voter approval.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Thompson, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 3264 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

On motion of Senator Bluechel, Senator von Reichbauer was excused. Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Jones: "Senator Conner or Senator Guess, is this all going to occur without any state expense—we won't have any expense associated with the formation of a new county? I can't believe that. I find it very difficult to believe that there would not be expense associated with it and I frankly would like to have some sort of fiscal statement. It seems to me that this is an appropriate candidate for Ways and Means.

"This bill, undoubtedly, would have an effect on state government and the forthcoming budget. I guess there is a budget coming forth and I think that the fortieth county would, undoubtedly, have some effect on state expenditures. I can't vote for this in view that there are costs associated with the measure. It would have an impact on local government. Surely, Initiative 62 is the question here. These questions just don't seem to have been answered."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Quigg: "Senator Conner, would you consider putting the western part of Jefferson County together with Clallam County, so they would have P.A. for a county seat and not have to duplicate all those county offices that Senator Moore was commenting on?"

Senator Conner: "Well, I think for western Jefferson County, it is a shorter distance by far to go to Aberdeen or the Hoquiam area. It is only about fifty miles, whereas to go to Port Townsend—their county seat—it is a hundred and eighty-five miles, so distance-wise—and that is one of the problems that those people feel they have.

"If you talk, Senator Newhouse, about the income—if you look back at least two years—from then back to twenty-one years, logging was the principal industry in that area, along, of course, with fishing, which is a major industry. That was a tremendous income—and a tremendous amount of people worked in that area in both fishing, as well as logging. As a result, there was a tremendous amount of money earned for the state of Washington, as well as the schools in the state. Those people feel that they have been overlooked by the county commissioners of both counties. They feel that it would be better to have that operation closer to them."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Senate Bill No. 3264.

SENATE BILL NO. 3846, by Senators Talmadge, Warnke and Vognild

Providing for the redemption of vehicles impounded by cities and towns.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Talmadge and Peterson:

Strike everything after the enacting clause, and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 7, chapter 42, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 12, chapter 178, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 46.52.111 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A registered disposer shall take custody of any vehicle or hulk placed in his custody by a law enforcement officer pursuant to RCW 46.61.565 or 46.52.180 and shall remove the vehicle or hulk to the established place of business of the registered disposer where the vehicle or hulk shall be stored, and the registered disposer shall have a lien upon the vehicle or hulk for services provided in the towing and storage of the vehicle or hulk, unless the impoundment is determined to have been invalid. However the lien does not apply to personal property in or upon the vehicle which personal property is not permanently attached to or is not an integral part of the vehicle. The registered disposer shall also have a claim against the last registered owner of the vehicle or hulk for services provided in the towing and storage of the vehicle or hulk, not to exceed the sum of two hundred dollars, unless the removal is determined to be invalid. A registered owner who has complied with RCW 46.52.104 in the transfer of ownership of the vehicle or hulk shall be relieved of liability under this section.

(2) Within twenty-four hours after receiving custody of the vehicle or hulk from the law enforcement officer, the registered disposer shall give notice of his custody to the department of licensing and the Washington state patrol. If a vehicle impounded from private property pursuant to this chapter is in the custody of a registered disposer and remains unclaimed after seventy-two hours, the registered disposer shall without undue delay give notice of his custody to the department. The department shall supply the last known names and addresses of registered and legal owners of the vehicles as the names and addresses appear on the records of the department to the registered disposer on request without charge in those cases where the information was not given to the registered disposer by the law enforcement officer.

(3) Within three days after receiving the names and addresses of the owners from the department or the law enforcement officer, the registered disposer shall send a notice to the registered and legal owners of the vehicle to the last known addresses of the owners as the addresses appear on the records of the department by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested. The notice shall contain a description of the vehicle or hulk including its license number and vehicle identification number and shall state the amount due the registered disposer for services in the towing and storage of the vehicle or hulk and the time and place of public sale if the amount remains unpaid or if possession of the vehicle is not otherwise regained pursuant to RCW 46.52.200. The notice shall not be sent if the registered owner has regained possession of the vehicle pursuant to RCW 46.52.200. If the vehicle is sold pursuant to this chapter, a copy of the notice with proof of mailing shall be retained in the registered disposer's files and available for inspection for a period of three years from the date of sale.

(4) The failure of the registered disposer to comply with the time limits provided in this chapter shall limit the accumulation of storage charges to five days except where delay is unavoidable. The providing of incorrect or incomplete identifying information to the department in the abandoned vehicle report shall be considered a failure to comply with these time limits if correct information is available.

(5) Impounded vehicles shall be redeemed only by the registered owner, a person authorized by the registered owner, or one who has purchased a vehicle from the registered owner, who produces proof of ownership or authorization and signs a receipt therefor.

(6) Any person redeeming an impounded vehicle shall pay to the towing contractor the costs of impoundment before redeeming the vehicle. However, the county, city, or town with jurisdiction over the impoundment may authorize release before payment of the towing or impoundment fees if the owner requests a hearing as to the propriety of the impoundment. The towing contractor shall accept cash, major bank credit cards, certified bank drafts, money orders, and personal checks drawn on in-state banks in payment for these costs. If such a personal check is offered in payment, the person offering the check may be required to show evidence of his or her identity by two pieces of identification which may include a driver's license, Washington state identification card issued by the department of licensing, other credit cards, or similar forms of identification. If the contractor has reasonable cause to believe the tendered check is uncollectible under standards adopted by the county, city, or town with jurisdiction over the impoundment, acceptance of the check may be refused."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hayner, further consideration of Senate Bill No. 3846 was deferred.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3741, by Senators Moore, Haley and McManus

Modifying provisions relating to health insurance.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3741 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3741 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Moore, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3741 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Moore, this is any group in the insurance program?"

Senator Moore: "Yes."

Senator Guess: "I was thinking about the collective bargaining insurance programs that I have sat on--six of them. What we usually do is that we put the program out for bid on an average of every other year. If you have a three-year contract, then you do it every third year. But for instance, if the plan has been in a period of recession and people are out of work and it is used more heavily in periods of lay-offs than it is in periods of active employment--suppose that the plan is already teetering on the brink of going in the red and cannot operate otherwise. Is this going to mandate that the collective bargaining plan take up the person whose benefits have run out? If he is not employed, what is going to be the net effect on the stability of the plan?"

Senator Moore: "Well, under the testimony that was given in committee, it appeared that it is just a flat guarantee that they will be allowed to continue paying the premiums themselves and still receive the benefits under the old plan or the plan that they were under when they were in group coverage."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3741.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3741, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 00; absent, 00; excused, 05.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Deccio, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McDermott, McManus, Metcalf, Moore, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Quigg, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Sellar, Shipoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognilid, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 44.

Excused: Senators Conner, Craswell, Fleming, Haley, McCaslin - 5.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3741, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

At 10:24 a.m., on motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order at 11:19 a.m.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 18, 1983

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 103 with the following amendment:

On page 1, after line 8, strike the remainder of the joint resolution, and insert the following:

*Article II, section ____ (1) In January of each year ending in one, a commission shall be established to provide for the redistricting of state legislative and congressional districts.

(2) The commission shall be composed of five members to be selected as follows: The legislative leader of the two largest political parties in each house of the legislature shall appoint one voting member to the commission by January 15th of each year ending in one. By January 31st of each year ending in one, the four appointed members, by an affirmative vote of at least three, shall appoint the remaining member. The fifth member of the commission, who shall be nonvoting, shall act as its chairperson. If any appointing authority fails to make the required appointment by the date established by this subsection, within five days after that date the supreme court shall make the required appointment.

(3) No elected official and no person elected to legislative district, county, or state political party office may serve on the commission. A commission member shall not have been an elected official and shall not have been an elected legislative district, county, or state political party officer within two years of his or her appointment to the commission. The provisions of this subsection do not apply to the office of precinct committee person.

(4) The legislature shall enact laws providing for the implementation of this section, to include additional qualifications for commissioners and additional standards to govern the commission. The legislature shall appropriate funds to enable the commission to carry out its duties.

(5) Each district shall contain a population, excluding nonresident military personnel, as nearly equal as practicable to the population of any other district. To the extent reasonable, each district shall contain contiguous territory, shall be compact and convenient, and shall be separated from adjoining districts by natural geographic barriers, artificial barriers, or political subdivision boundaries. The commission's plan shall not provide for a number of legislative districts different than that established by the legislature. The commission's plan shall not be drawn purposely to favor or discriminate against any political party or group.

(6) The commission shall complete redistricting as soon as possible following the federal decennial census, but no later than January 1st of each year ending in two. At least three of the voting members shall approve such a redistricting plan. If three of the voting members of the commission fail to approve a plan within the time limitations provided in this subsection, the supreme court shall adopt a plan by April 30th of the year ending in two in conformance with the standards set forth in subsection (5) of this section.

(7) The legislature may amend the redistricting plan but must do so by a two-thirds vote of the legislators elected or appointed to each house of the legislature. Any amendment must have passed both houses by the end of the thirtieth day of the first session convened after the commission has submitted its plan to the legislature. After that day, the plan, with any legislative amendments, constitutes the state districting law.

(8) The legislature shall enact laws providing for the reconvening of a commission for the purpose of modifying a districting law adopted under this section. Such reconvening requires a two-thirds vote of the legislators elected or appointed to each house of the legislature. The commission shall conform to the standards prescribed under subsection (5) of this section and any other standards or procedures that the legislature may provide by law. At least three of the voting members shall approve such a modification. Any modification adopted by the commission may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the legislators elected and appointed to each house of the legislature. The state districting law shall include the modifications with amendments, if any.

(9) The legislature shall prescribe by law the terms of commission members and the method of filling vacancies on the commission.

(10) The supreme court has original jurisdiction to hear and decide all cases involving congressional and legislative redistricting.

(11) Legislative and congressional districts may not be changed or established except pursuant to this section. A districting plan and any legislative amendments to the plan are not subject to Article III, section 12 of this Constitution.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the secretary of state shall cause notice of the foregoing constitutional amendment to be published at least four times during the four weeks next preceding the election in every legal newspaper in the state." and the same are herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 103.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hayner: "Senator Talmadge, I note subsection (8), as amended by the House, regarding the reconvening of the commission. It now states that 'the commission shall conform to the standards prescribed under subsection (5),' but does not refer to other subsections of this constitutional amendment. Is it intended that the other subsections, such as subsection (3), which limits by way of qualifications those who may serve, do not apply upon reconvening of the commission?"

Senator Talmadge: "No, Senator Hayner, the intent of the measure was to provide that all subsections of the constitutional amendment would have applied--in that the intention was for the reconvening of the commission that all of the procedures relating to the actual original commission would apply with equal force, including subsection (1) which relates to the reappointment, and so forth.

"The language which follows the language you cited states that the commission shall conform to 'any other standards or procedures that the legislature may provide by law.' It is intended to allow statutory provisions such as specific instructions on time periods and deadlines for action to apply as necessary in any given circumstance.

"If a given commissioner is unable to serve on the reconvened commission, subsection (9) would apply regarding the ability of the legislature to prescribe laws relating to the method of filling vacancies. Basically, the intention is to reconvene the original commission and if there is a vacancy, then the appointment of a vacancy would go along the lines that we have provided in the constitutional amendment."

Senator Hayner: "Thank you, Senator Talmadge--one further question. Is it the intent of subsection (8) that the reference to 'at least three of the voting members shall approve such a modification' refers to three of the four voting members as appointed pursuant to subsection (1)?"

Senator Talmadge: "Yes, Senator Hayner, the intent was specifically to be three of the four voting members and not include the non-voting chairman. You will note that subsection (6) uses the identical language when referring to the requirement--three of the four voting members shall approve such a plan, and that is exactly what was intended. I think, in the House amendment."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 103, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 103, as amended by the House, and the resolution passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 04; absent, 00; excused, 03.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Graniund, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McDermott, McManus, Moore, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Quigg, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Sellar, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vogmild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 42.

Voting nay: Senators Bluechel, Guess, Metcalf, Pullen - 4.

Excused: Senators Craswell, Haley, McCaslin - 3.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 103, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional two-thirds majority was declared passed.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. In the redistricting plan:

(1) Districts shall have a population as nearly equal as is practicable, excluding nonresident military personnel, based on the population reported in the federal decennial census.

(2) To the extent consistent with subsection (1) of this section the commission plan should, insofar as practical, accomplish the following:

(a) District lines should be drawn so as to coincide with the boundaries of local political subdivisions and areas recognized as communities of interest. The number of counties and municipalities divided among more than one district should be as small as possible;

(b) Districts should be composed of convenient, contiguous, and compact territory. Land areas may be deemed contiguous if they share a common land border or are connected by a ferry, highway, bridge, or tunnel. (2) After submission of the plan by the commission, the legislature shall have the next thirty days during any regular or special session to amend the commission's plan. If the legislature amends the commission's plan the legislature's amendment must be approved by an affirmative vote in each house of two-thirds of the members elected or appointed thereto, and may not include more than two percent of the population of any legislative or congressional district.

(3) The plan approved by the commission, with any amendment approved by the legislature, shall be final upon approval of such amendment or after expiration of the time provided for legislative amendment by subsection (2) of this section whichever occurs first, and shall constitute the districting law applicable to this state for legislative and congressional elections, beginning with the next elections held in the year ending in two. This plan shall be in force until the effective date of the plan based upon the next succeeding federal decennial census or until a modified plan takes effect as provided in section 12(6) of this act.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Hansen, in your eloquent observations on the bill, I got the idea that you were going to have these people come in on private property and either treat it for pests or uproot the trees. Is that what the bill is intended to do?"

Senator Hansen: "I think there are a lot of homesteads down along the Columbia River where these host plants are. The Department will be going down--and I have high hopes that the Department will send people down there with a little bit of courtesy and knowledge of how to handle people. At that time, if they are not taking care of these trees, persuade them to allow the department to do away with the trees, because if they are proven to be host trees, it is absolutely necessary to keep that pest from invading the orchards--as we know them today."

Senator Rasmussen: "A further question--if this test was the gypsy moth and it was on Department of Natural Resources land, would you still be able to use the same approach by going in on the Department of Natural Resources land?"

Senator Hansen: "I think a little common sense has to be carried out. When you get bureaucrats that don't have the consideration of concerned people, it is not good public relations. I would hope that when we come to this that we have personnel that will sit down and negotiate. If we can't do it with one means, then we can do it by hand spraying. There is a way to get around everything for the consideration of the people, because whether it is gypsy moths or whatever it is, if it has to be controlled to keep in bounds--where we found the host trees--it is something that has to be done."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Moore, I notice in the substitute bill that you have changed the agency as far as information from the Department of Social and Health Services to Agriculture. I just wondered what the advantages were in making that change."

Senator Moore: "Thank you, Senator, for raising that point. I am sorry that I neglected to mention it. When we had the bill, originally, in Social and Health, the Department of Social and Health Services came in with what I considered a rather substantial fiscal note. It seemed prudent to move it to the Department of Agriculture, partly because it has to do with food and partly because they seemed receptive to the idea of picking up the reference center, where people can find out where food is available at no cost--and they so testified in the committee. That is why it is there."

Senator Patterson: "As a regulatory agency, which the Department of Agriculture is, they are taking on a little different function, as I understand it in the bill. Would they, also, be responsible for the inspection of that food and certify whether or not it was usable?"

Senator Moore: "No, they would not. They merely are a reference center, so people will know where to go to get surplus food and how to handle it and how to maintain it and that sort of thing."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3068.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 3128 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Barr: "Senator Talmadge, I know it is customary for attorneys to work on a percentage basis on these--win, lose or draw. If they can't do any good, they don't expect to get paid. How would this bill affect those kinds of things? Would this be in the way of this kind of deal? Would they get ten percent anyway?"

Senator Talmadge: "No, Senator, this bill has nothing to do with the contract between the person that is suing and that person's attorney. The state--and in certain states--we allow the recovery of actual reasonable attorney fees--something in the nature of an incentive to bring a lawsuit, and this is one of those lawsuits that we provide attorney's fees for--as an incentive for the state to make reasonable offers with respect to the value of the property that is being condemned.

"The bill has nothing to do with the contract for services between the attorney and the person that is suing. It simply provides for attorney's fees where the person whose property is being taken does ten percent better than the value offered to him or her by the state or the local jurisdiction."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Senate Bill No. 3128.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Vognild, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3311 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3311 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Vognild, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3311 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3311.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3311, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 48; nays, 00; absent, 00; excused, 01.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McManus, Metcalf, Moore, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Sellar, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 48.

Excused: Senator Quigg - 1.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3311, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3437, by Senators Talmadge and Patterson

Modifying provisions relating to malicious prosecution.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved adoption of the following Committee on Judiciary amendment:

On page 2, line 6 after the period strike all material down to and including the period on line 8 and insert a new paragraph as follows:

"(3) No action may be brought against an attorney under this section solely because of that attorney's representation of a party in a lawsuit."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Is there a problem, Senator Talmadge, currently with respect to attorneys representing parties in a lawsuit and then being maliciously prosecuted by someone? Has that happened before? It seems to me that this is an unusual kind of protection to write into the bill. I was wondering what the basis for it was."

Senator Talmadge: "There is a problem, Senator Pullen, and the problem is specifically this--if a party is sophisticated enough and looks at the technical nature of this malicious prosecution counterclaim--if you join the attorney as part of the people against whom you are bringing the counterclaim--the attorney, as a party of the suit has to disqualify himself or herself. You could conceivably have an endless circle of people disqualifying themselves from participating in this never-ending circle of claims and counterclaims. It could very well present a problem. This is something that has come up in some of the cases that I am familiar with in this malicious counterclaim section. That is the reason we simply say the party that brings the counterclaim is the one that has the responsibility and not the counsel for those people."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Judiciary amendment.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill NO. 3437 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Talmadge, there are some very good things in this bill. I strongly favor the provisions of the bill as they relate to law enforcement officers. I am a little bit worried, though, about the provisions of the bill that relate to the judicial officers, in that I am fearful that there could be a chilling effect insofar as citizens might want to sue judicial officers.

"For example, I understand that judicial officers are now bonded. I had a constituent in my legislative district who was trying to attach the bond of a judicial officer for what he thought was non-performance of that judicial officer's duty. Would such an action be considered malicious prosecution under terms of this bill?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, I suspect that would be up to the jury. In specific, I think there is already a qualified privilege with respect to a judge's decision. You can imagine the public policy consequences of having a multiplicity of lawsuits brought against judges. Each time one of us disagrees with the decision of a judge--and most often where you have a plaintiff and a defendant in a lawsuit, fifty percent of the people participating are going to be unhappy with the judge. You don't want to encourage lawsuits against the person making the decision, wherever possible."

Senator Pullen: "I agree with that. I guess the situation I was thinking of related to a citizen who thought the judicial officer was not performing his constitutional duties--instead of the judge simply making what would be construed as the judge making a bad decision."

Senator Talmadge: "If the actions were frivolous or harassing--were designed to be malicious in nature, I think the jury would probably find that that was something that could be covered by the malicious prosecution counterclaim. In a circumstance where a judicial officer has clearly violated his or her oath of office or has done something so far outside of the normal bounds of the judicial behavior, I don't think this statute affects that."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3437.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3437, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 01; absent, 01; excused, 01.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3437, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3449, by Senators Woody, Hayner, Bottiger, Gaspard and Hemstad

Restricting statements in the candidate's pamphlet to those about the candidate.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Warnke, the following Committee on State Government amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 9, after "herself" strike "that are capable of verification"

Senator Warnke moved adoption of the following Committee on State Government amendment:

On page 1, line 11, after "contains" strike "references or inferences about a candidate's opponent."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on State Government amendment.

The motion by Senator Warnke carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Warnke, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3449 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Woody, beginning on line 8, it says 'that statements of the candidate's pamphlet shall be limited to those about the candidate himself or herself that are capable of verification.' Can you describe to me the process by which the verification will take place?"

Senator Woody: "Yes, Senator Guess. In committee, this language in the original proposal was modified. The first amendment that Senator Warnke proposed which has passed this body inserted a period on line 9 after 'herself.'"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Warnke, your last answers to my questions, I think, still leave the issue a little bit cloudy. We did strike the new language on lines 11 and 12, which said 'references or inferences about a candidate's opponent.' Now, by striking those words, and looking at only those words, could be construed as allowing references to the opponent. However, the positive words that are in lines 8 and 9 which says 'statements for the candidate's pamphlet shall be limited to those about the candidate, himself or herself.' That does prohibit references to the opponent. Is that correct?"

Senator Warnke: "The one sentence that you are referring to on lines 8 and 9 read by itself would only allow a statement about himself or herself. The bill read as a whole gives the authority to the Secretary of State--that is where the problem is occurring--that statements and inferences are being made about the opponents."

Senator Pullen: "Would it be proper for a candidate to put a statement in the voter's pamphlet that he, the candidate, is much better than his opponent because he, the candidate, understands the issues better? In other words, a statement like that could be construed as a statement about the candidate himself, but he is contrasting his position with that of his opponent's position."

Senator Warnke: "With the words stricken on lines 11 and 12, my assumption from the testimony and the interpretation given at the hearing is that you, now, will be able to say anything in the voter's pamphlet that is not obscene, profane, libelous, or defamatory--period."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3449.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3449, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 02; absent, 00; excused, 01.

Voting nay: Senators Pullen, Zimmerman - 2.

Excused: Senator Quigg - 1.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3449, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3640, by Senators Moore and Talmadge.

Modifying the residential landlord-tenant act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Vognild, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3640 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3640 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3640 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Kiskaddon: "Senator Talmadge, I would like to know the logic behind--if you have property of more than one hundred dollars accumulative, then the landlord could sell it, including personal papers and family pictures and keepsakes, but if it is less than one hundred dollars, then you wouldn't be able to sell the personal papers and family pictures and keepsakes. I guess my instincts would say that having a landlord being able to sell personal papers and family pictures and keepsakes might be going too far."

Senator Talmadge: "I recognize the concern there, Senator Kiskaddon, but I think the real concern that exists from the usual landlord-tenant situation is that you have a large accumulation of material that the tenant has left in abandoning the premises. If it has a substantial value--and we have simply assigned one hundred dollars rather arbitrarily as that figure--simply get it off the premises so the premises can be cleaned up for the next series of tenants. I recognize that what you say is a concern, but we have taken that as a relatively arbitrary figure in the hopes that we can clear the premises for the next set of tenants and that the landlord can do that without fear of future recourse against him or her."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3640.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3640, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; nays, 01; absent, 00; excused, 01.

Providing interpreters in legal proceedings for non-English-speaking persons.

The bill was read the second time.

On page 1, line 19 after "is deaf" delete ", deaf mute," and insert "((-deaf mute:))"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Maybe I missed this in debate. What is the cost of this? What is the fiscal note? Everything costs money and I don't imagine anybody believes in a free lunch. What is the cost?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, this is merely a statement of policy. It is an inducement or an encouragement to local courts to provide this kind of service. In King County, it is done voluntarily with an interpreter service and does not cost the county anything.

"The problem, in specific, Mr. President and members, in regard to Senator Pullen's remarks is that we are not talking about establishing a bilingual policy or anything else, but imagine a situation where you would have a Laotian standing before the court in King County or Pierce County, who does not understand the English language at all--does not understand anything about the proceeding that is taking place that may have an impact on his or her life. I think that it is appropriate that that person have a basic understanding of what is taking place in that court.

"I tend to agree with Senator Pullen that the English language is the language of the United States, but I think it is a matter of due process that the proceeding that affects an individual be something that he or she can understand. Every inducement that we can to have people speak English, I want to see happen, but for those people that can't, I think we have to have some mechanism like this to help them out."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3501.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3387, by Senators Moore, Jones, Goltz, Shinpoch and Talmadge

Penalizing interference with the lawful custody of a child.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3387 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3387 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

Senator Hayner moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Hayner and Talmadge:

On page 2, line 18 after "custodian" strike everything down to and including "visitation" on page 2, line 23.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Hayner, I would like to outline a situation that actually happened. This was between Christmas and New Years a year ago--now some fifteen or sixteen months. The wife had been awarded custody of the boy and the father was awarded visitation rights over certain holidays. This happened that the father came and got the boy just before Christmas and had him for a part of Christmas Day and was supposed to return him at four o'clock on Christmas Day. The child has not yet been found. The father disappeared with the boy and we traced it through the FBI--followed him down through Oregon and Idaho and down into New Mexico. Would this, in any way, help to secure the location of that child?"

Senator Hayner: "Yes, it will. That is precisely the kind of situation that the major portion of this bill deals with. It enables them to--I guess I am not sure exactly what the organization through which we work on this--but we will have a federal hookup with the finding of these children. That is precisely what we are trying to do in this bill."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Hayner and Talmadge.

The motion by Senator Hayner carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 3, line 15, after "agreement," insert "The rules shall provide that the information requested be forwarded only to a person who is authorized to request such information. This information may be used solely for the purpose of aiding efforts to locate persons sought in connection with child custody and parental kidnapping cases."

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3387 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wojahn: "Senator Talmadge, I believe that the amendment that was sponsored by Senator Hayner would correct a problem that I had with the bill. I did send around a story out of a recent issue of the Tacoma News Tribune, in which a mother who had custodial rights of her child fled the state of Wisconsin, because she found out that her former husband--no, she wasn't married--the father of the child--was sexually molesting the child, and had been since the child was twenty months old.

"She could get no help in the courts, because they do not have the legislation that we have. I believe Senator Bluechel sponsored, last year, legislation which permitted a surrogate person to respond in a court in behalf of a child. Consequently, that mother who does have custodial care runs into problems of facing extradition with the state of Wisconsin, because she has taken the child out of the state and the father has brought a court action.

"I believe that the amendment does handle it, but I wanted to know what your opinion was on it."

Senator Talmadge: "I think the amendment does address that question. I have some confidence in the Governor and his personnel in determining whether or not extradition should take place. I would also reference section four of the bill relating to the locator service which indicates that when you are looking at whether or not to honor the request—such information as whether a court order has been issued prohibiting contact between the parents, whether either parent has been convicted of the crime of domestic violence, whether either parent has been convicted of child abuse and whether any court order has been issued restricting the parental rights of either parent. I think there are protections for that kind of situation throughout the bill, Senator Wojahn. I think that Senator Hayner's amendment does address that issue."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3387.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3387, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; nays, 00; absent, 01; excused, 01.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McManus, Metcalf, Moore, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Sellar, Shipoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 47.

Absent: Senator Deccio - 1.

Excused: Senator Quigg - 1.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3387, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Craswell: "Senator Gaspard, in regard to Senate Bill No. 3514, which passed out of committee this morning, I noticed that it wasn't read in with the reports this afternoon at 1:30 p.m. I am wondering if you could tell me what the status of that bill is?"

Senator Gaspard: "Senator Craswell, according to committee rules--Senate Rule No. 45--it states that a majority of committee members must sign a bill out. As of about 1:55, we did not have a majority of signatures to put that bill out."

Senator Craswell: "It was my understanding, Senator Gaspard, that we had a roll call vote and there were nine members on the committee in favor of a 'do pass' recommendation. Are there not nine members signed on the bill at this time?"

Senator Gaspard: "Rule 45, section 5, says that it must carry the signatures of a majority of the members of a committee. There was not a majority of members of the committee to sign the bill before it was read in."

Senator Craswell: "I wonder if you could tell us, Senator Gaspard, who has signed on that bill?"

Senator Gaspard: "I couldn't tell you at this point."

Senator Craswell: "There was an official roll call vote in committee and there were nine affirmative votes at that time. It was my understanding that there were nine signatures on the bill. If someone has taken his name off, is this not public information?"

Senator Gaspard: "I believe I have answered the question according to the rules. As of about 1:55, we did not have a majority of signatures."

POINT OF INFORMATION

Senator Craswell: "Mr. President, is it not public information what signatures are on a bill?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "It is certainly public information, but no report has been turned in to the Secretary of the Senate."

Senator Craswell: "Is it true that the report has to be turned in by five o'clock tonight?"

President Cherberg: "Five o'clock tomorrow, Senator."

Senator Craswell: "Five, tomorrow morning?"

President Cherberg: "Before adjournment tomorrow, Senator."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

March 24, 1983

Mr. President:

The Speaker has signed:

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1038, and the same is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed:

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1038.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate advanced to the eighth order of business.

Senator Shinpoch moved that the Committee on Rules be relieved of further consideration of Senate Bill No. 4141.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "Senator McDermott, I understand that you made a determination that Senate Bill No. 4141 was one of the kinds of bills that would, indeed, survive our cut-off of tomorrow--in your judgment--even though I had an earlier opinion that it would not. I would just like to have your assurance that you, indeed, feel that it survives the cut-off that we have established relating to anything other than fiscal matters."

Senator McDermott: "The basic resolution says that 'budget-related matters' and certainly school finances are a budget matter, so it seems to me that an excess levy would be budget-related. I would see no problem with it surviving."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Mr. President, since this would have a bearing upon whether the bill is moved or not, I wonder if it would be appropriate to ask the President to rule on the question raised by Senator Lee as to whether the bill does or does not survive the cut-off."

REMARKS BY SENATOR SHINPOCH

Senator Shinpoch: "Mr. President, if the President would need some time, we could go on to a resolution that we have and we could come back to this later tonight."

President Cherberg: "Thank you, Senator Shinpoch, if that is agreeable. Thank you, Senator Clarke."

MOTION

On motion of the Senator Lee, the following resolution was adopted:

There being no objection, the Senate returned to the motion made by Senator Shinpoch earlier today to relieve the Committee on Rules of further consideration of Senate Bill No. 4141.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Clarke, Senator Shinpoch, and other distinguished members of the Senate, the President, in reviewing Senate Bill No. 4141, finds that the measure is a budget-related matter and would be properly before the Senate on the sixth order of business anytime prior to adjourning Sine Die."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Senator Gaspard, we have been informed that you have the bill (Senate Bill No. 3514) in your desk and there has been an inquiry by members of the committee as to what signatures are on the bill. If you have possession of the bill, could you now give us that information, please?"

Senator Gaspard: "Mr. President, will Senator Clarke yield to a question?"

Senator Clarke: "Yes, I yield."

Senator Gaspard: "Could you tell me under what assumption you think that I have the bill in my desk?"

Senator Clarke: "I am asking you."

Senator Gaspard: "I am asking you under what assumption you think the bill is in my desk?"

Senator Clarke: "Well, because somebody thinks it is there and if that is so, you certainly should respond to a question as to whether you do or do not have possession of the bill. You are the chairman of the committee. We have been endeavoring to get information as to where the bill is and what its status is. I think we are entitled to that."

Senator Gaspard: "I have answered that question. It has been brought up by Senator Craswell, and the question to you is, why do you assume that I have the bill in my desk? Has someone been in my desk?"

MOTION

At 2:27 p.m., Senator Shipoch moved that the Senate recess until 7:30 p.m.

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Mr. President, I don't think my question has been answered as yet. While a motion is always in order, I think that a chairman of a committee has a duty to advise the body and the members of that committee as to the present status of a bill that is in his committee. He has been, obviously, avoiding answering that question."

At 2:28 p.m., the Senate recessed until 7:30 p.m.

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

STATEMENT BY SENATOR MARC GASPARD TO BE INSERTED INTO THE JOURNAL OF THE SENATE, MARCH 24, 1983

Because of Senator Clarke's persistence in asking me to yield to questions on the floor of the Senate, even after I answered similar questions by Senator Craswell, regarding the Committee Report on Senate Bill 3514, I submit this statement into the Journal of the Senate.

Since I am the Chairman of the Senate Education Committee, I wish to once again explain the situation regarding Senate Bill No. 3514.

Although Senate Bill No. 3514 was voted out of the Education Committee by a majority, Senate Rule No. 45 requires that before a bill can be moved out of committee, it "must carry the signatures of a majority of the members of the committee." Until approximately 1:55 p.m. of March 24, 1983, only eight of the 17 members of the committee had signed the bill out of committee. Since then, one member decided to change his mind, and also signed the Committee Report. After the Committee Report received the ninth signature, Senate Bill No. 3514 was handled in a normal manner as any other bill, and was reported out of committee to the Senate later in the day of March 24, 1983.

It appears to me, since I had already covered similar questions by Senator Craswell, that the questions asked by Senator Clarke were for motives other than for legitimate inquiry, which is an abuse of the question and answer process of the Senate.

Senator Clarke has yet to answer my question if he had indeed searched the papers on or in my desk.

Marcus S. Gaspard

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Bauer, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Fuller, Goltz, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McManus, Metcalf, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Quigg, Rasmussen, Sellar, Thompson, Vogtild, von Reichbauer, Zimmerman - 35.

Excused: Senator Warnke - 1.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hughes, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3006 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Bluechel, does the bill eliminate judicial review of categorical exemptions?"

Senator Bluechel: "No. The bill makes it clear that people can rely on a system of categorical exemptions established by the rules. A categorical exemption is a type of action which does not significantly affect the environment. The courts may still decide if a categorical exemption contained in the rules meets this criterion. The courts may also decide whether a specific proposed action actually fits within a particular categorical exemption in the rules."

Senator Bottiger: "Does the bill include analysis of the impacts of a project upon urban areas, communities and neighborhoods?"

Senator Bluechel: "Yes. The bill specifies that impacts on the 'built' environment and on the 'natural' environment must be analyzed. This includes the impacts upon, and the quality of, our physical surroundings, whether they are in wild, rural, or urban areas. The term 'socioeconomic' does not have a uniform meaning and has caused a great deal of uncertainty. Rather than using a vague and confusing term, the bill specifies the traditional areas of urban environmental concern, such as public services, transportation, environmental health, and land and shoreline use, including housing, noise, aesthetics, and so on."

Senator Bottiger: "Does the bill impose attorneys' fees in every case; what protection is there against harassment of plaintiffs; can a court award more than one thousand dollars in a lawsuit; for example, because of multiple defendants?"

Senator Bluechel: "The bill does not impose attorneys' fees. It allows a court in its discretion to award up to a maximum of one thousand dollars in fees if the court makes certain findings. The findings are findings of law, not of fact or intent; they are intended to be as objective as possible and to prevent expensive and harassing discovery of a party's motivations and group affiliation, if any. Although an award may be made at the trial court level, the total liability for attorneys' fees for a lawsuit under this act is one thousand dollars, regardless of whether there are multiple defendants or appeals."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Shinpoch: "Senator Bottiger, in the exchange with Senator Bluechel on the question and answer, which I assume had a couple of purposes--one of which was to establish in the Journal the questions and answers and the other was to make us more comfortable with what was happening here--and maybe a third one to get to speak longer than three minutes. One of the answers that came back was 'significantly affect the environment.' That was the phrase that concerned me. Is there anywhere in law that 'significant' is defined?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, to the best of my knowledge, that is a determination made by the decision maker--the county commissioners. In many cases, they have adopted, by local regulations, the number of building permits, the number of stories, the number of square feet--that they would require before the EIS would become mandated. You can go to court on that issue and, as far as I know, this bill does not change that. You could still go to court and claim that there was a significant impact and there should be an EIS--if, say, the county commissioners or the city of Renton decided there was not. Someone could challenge them and take them to court on that issue."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3006.

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3006, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 06; absent, 00; excused, 01.

Excused: Senator Warnke - 1.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3006, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

On motion of Senator Vognild, the rules were suspended. Substitute Senate Bill No. 3054 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Vognild, maybe in testimony in the committee, you heard the answer to this. My question is not that the plumber should be licensed so that they know what they are doing--sanitary work--but my question is why should they have to be licensed year after year? Now, we have doctors, we have lawyers, we have optometrists, we have ophthalmologists, we have all categories of people that take a license, but they don't have to be licensed every year.

"I never worked in an industry where I had to be licensed every year. It would irritate me. I know that at the fire department where you work--very important work--you don't have to be licensed every year. Is it only to keep some bureaucracy going?"

Senator Vognild: "Senator, that is an excellent question and I hope I can somewhat answer it. The bill addressed that in this way, in that we extended from one-year to two-year licensing. I don't recall the total testimony on it, but I recall having to do with the transient workers--the worker who travels around considerably--those workers who travel from state to state and sometimes are out of this state for quite some time. This requires that they maintain a current license in order to work in this state."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3054.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3183, by Senators Moore, Hurley and Williams

Amending the regulation of attachments to utility poles.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Williams, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3183 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3183 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Benitz, the following amendment by Senators Benitz, Hemstad and Williams was adopted:

On page 1, line 29 after "RCW" strike "and any entity cooperatively organized" and insert "~~(any entity cooperatively organized)~~"

Senator Bottiger moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, after line 2, insert:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 80.54 a new section to read as follows:

Prior to a commission hearing, utilities and other utility pole users shall submit disputes concerning attachment fees to arbitration pursuant to chapter 7.04 RCW."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "I am wondering, Senator Bottiger, whether that 'shall' should not be a 'may', which would permit them to follow this procedure without mandating it."

Senator Bottiger: "The original draft was 'may' and it was pointed out that if it was 'may', either side could say 'no' and you would be back to the U.T.C., so I switched the 'may' to 'shall' to say--first of all--if you can't agree as to what the rate ought to be, then you shall submit it to arbitration. The PUD's cannot be bound--they are a public body--and cannot be bound to an arbitrator's decision, so it is non-binding arbitration by operation of law. If they didn't agree with the arbitrator and went to the U.T.C., then they are going to pay both times.

"I think, as a practical matter, they will never get there. They will agree without even the arbitration."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hemstad: "Senator Bottiger, if the PUD's can't be bound by the decision of the arbitrator, does it follow that the cable television corporation--a private corporation--also cannot be bound or would they be bound?"

Senator Bottiger: "I don't think that follows. A private company can agree to be bound by arbitration. At least the representatives of the PUD's have indicated that there are court decisions saying that they cannot submit something involving their revenue to an arbitrator. They have to vote on it themselves."

Senator Hemstad: "Does it follow then that the arbitrator's decision would be binding on the private party, but not on the public party? In other words--for the PUD--it would be mediation and for the cable television corporation, it would be arbitration."

Senator Bottiger: "I don't think so. The representative of the cable television was satisfied. It may very well be. I still think, as a practical matter, we will never get this far, because if somebody has a process to which they can appeal, they are going to make a decision."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Bottiger.

The motion by Senator Bottiger carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Goltz moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, after line 6, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 54.16 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A district may construct, purchase, condemn and purchase, acquire, add to, maintain, or conduct and operate cable communications systems within its limits for the purpose of furnishing the district and the inhabitants and any other persons including public and private corporations within its limits access to cable communications and video services for all purposes, public and private, and with full and exclusive authority to sell, regulate, and control the use, distribution, and price thereof within such district."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Clarke: "Mr. President, I raise the point of order that the amendment increases the scope and object of the bill. The original bill is very limited and had to do solely with the proposition of the charge for attaching cable television to poles. The amendment would, in substance, permit the complete expansion and let a public utility go into the cable television business. Certainly, it was never contemplated, in the original presentation of this bill, that it would be subject to that kind of an enlargement."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Clarke has raised the point that the proposed amendment changes the scope and object of the bill."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GOLTZ

Senator Goltz: "Mr. President, I would like to call your attention to the title of this bill, which is 'An act relating to utilities.' It has a very broad title. The subject matter of the bill is public utility district poles. All this does is allow the public district utility to have access to its own poles for the same purpose which is stated in the bill. Therefore, I do not think it expands the scope and object of the bill."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Clarke, the President finds that Substitute Senate Bill No. 3183 is a measure of limited scope which expands the definition of utility with regard to attachments to transmission facilities. This results in allowing the Utilities and Transportation Commission to regulate the rates charged by public utility districts, municipal utilities and others for attachments to utility poles.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Goltz would allow public utility districts to establish their own cable companies.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment by Senator Goltz was ruled out of order.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 4, after "80.54.010;" strike "and" and on line 5, after "030" insert "; and adding a new section to chapter 80.54 RCW"

On motion of Senator Williams, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3183 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3183.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 4010, by Senators Goltz, Hansen, Newhouse and Benitz

Allowing the director of agriculture to establish or amend certain dairy product standards and definitions.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hansen, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 4010 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Goltz, did I hear you say that they were going to adulterate milk with non-fat solids? Would you explain what type of adulteration this is?"

Senator Goltz: "It is not an adulteration, Senator Rasmussen. This is an enhancement of the quality of the milk by replacing in milk some additional non-fat solids, which had previously been evaporated out of the milk, so that we can then, in effect, get more of those solids in the milk by reconstituting whole milk."

Senator Rasmussen: "Reconstituting old milk?"

Senator Goltz: "Whole milk."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Senate Bill No. 4010.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Senate Bill No. 4010, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 00; absent, 05; excused, 01.

Excused: Senator Deccio - 1.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 4105, by Senator Talmadge

Removing restrictions regarding who may be subpoenaed before justices of the peace.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge the following Committee on Judiciary amendments were considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 1, line 13 after "person" insert "residing in the county in which the court is located or within twenty miles of the court"

On page 1, line 14 after the period insert:

"Any person residing outside such county and more than twenty miles away from the court may be compelled to attend as a witness before a justice of the peace with prior approval of the court which shall consider whether the testimony could reasonably be procured through deposition."

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, Senator McCaslin was excused.

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, Senator Hurley was excused.

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4105 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Talmadge, this, in effect, gives state-wide subpoena powers?"

Senator Talmadge: "No, it doesn't, Senator."

Senator Rasmussen: "With the approval of the justice court?"

Senator Talmadge: "If there was approval on the part of the court, yes, and if, with respect to a situation of a person living outside of the county or more than twenty miles away from the county seat, they had not only the approval of the court, but they have demonstrated that alternatives such as taking of the deposition of the individual had been exhausted.

"So in other words, Senator Clarke's proposal, as you indicate, you have to demonstrate that for some reason you couldn't have taken their deposition--say you are in the King County district court--you couldn't have taken their deposition over in Spokane or Omak or Richland or someplace like that."

Senator Rasmussen: "A further question, Senator Talmadge. The reason that we have always opposed state-wide subpoena powers here is because it becomes a burden on those subpoenaed for witness, because the fees are not high enough to pay the expense of getting over and back to court. Has there been any change or improvement in that?"

Senator Talmadge: "No, there has not, Senator, but I would certainly be more than happy to help you do that. I think it is something that needs to be done. I think with the proviso that you demonstrate that the deposition was taken--which the court approved--any subpoena that is more than twenty miles away or outside of the county, we have provided the protection for the individual who is subject to the subpoena, as you are concerned about."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4105.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4205.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3782, by Senators Talmadge, McCaslin, Zimmerman, Rasmussen and Deccio

Modifying provisions relating to firearms.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3782 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3782 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended. Substitute Senate Bill No. 3782 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Talmadge is probably too modest, but what he has done here is really amazing--to get such different groups together--the Washington Citizens for Rational Hand Gun Control, the Washington State Sportsman's Council, the Citizens Committee for the Right to Keep and Bear Arms. I think that is nothing short of wizardry, but I would like to ask Senator Talmadge if he would yield to some questions?"

"Senator Talmadge, I have three questions for you as prime sponsor of this bill and chairman of the Judiciary Committee, to establish legislative intent.

"My first question--Section 12 of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3782 provides for Washington State's preemption of local government's ability to enact ordinances which are more restrictive than those provisions contained in this bill. As Section 12 is written, what effect would Substitute Senate Bill No. 3782 have on local governments which already have passed ordinances that are more restrictive than the provisions of this act?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Pullen, the intent of Section 12 of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3782, the preemption section, is to supersede all local governmental ordinances relating to firearms which are more restrictive than this act. This would include any new ordinances proposed after the effective date of this act as well as any local governmental ordinances that are currently in effect. Those ordinances currently in effect which are more restrictive than the provisions of this act will be rendered null and void."

Senator Pullen: "My second question--what is the relationship between the federal law on firearms and the provisions of this bill?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Pullen, although the federal law on firearms is more restrictive in some respects than the provisions of this bill, the federal government has not preempted the field, so the adoption of this bill does not conflict with federal law.

"An individual may, however, be convicted in federal court for a violation of the federal act even though the same action is not a violation of state law. That the state law is less restrictive or permits the defendant's action, such as possession of a pistol, is not a defense."

Senator Pullen: "My third and final question is--may any branch or unit of government charge any extra fees beyond those specified in Section 3 for the issuance of a license for carrying a pistol concealed?"

Senator Talmadge: "No, the fee specified in Section 3 is the only fee that the applicant must pay. No branch or unit of government may charge any extra fees connected with the application for a concealed pistol license."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Senator Talmadge, did I hear you correctly when you were addressing Senator Pullen's question, as to whether this law would supersede any local jurisdiction laws that might be more strenuous?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Fleming, that is essentially correct. This was an issue that was agreed to by the people who participated in these discussions, including the city of Seattle and the legal advisor to the Chief of Police in the city of Seattle, who, I think, more than adequately represented any concern about that issue. I think, in many respects, this law is more restrictive than what exists in local government, but if local government were more stringent than what we have in state law, the state law would, in fact, supersede."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3782.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3782, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 07; absent, 00; excused, 02.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McDermott, McManus, Moore, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Quigg, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, Warnke, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 40.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Fleming, Metcalf, Pullen, Sellar, von Reichbauer, Williams - 7.
Excused: Senators Deccio, McCaslin - 2.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3782, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

March 26, 1983

Sid Snyder
Secretary of the Senate
Third Floor
Legislative Building

Dear Sid:

I would appreciate the Journal of the Senate for the 75th day, March 25, 1983, to reflect an error in my vote on Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3085, unemployment compensation payments. My vote was recorded as 'nay,' when in fact I supported Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3085 in committee and my support has not wavered.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
Al Williams, State Senator

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3814, by Senators McDermott, Warnke, Rasmussen, Bauer, Gaspard, Woody, McManus, Bottiger, Moore and Wojahn

Modifying provisions relating to the state lottery.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator McDermott, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3814 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3814 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator McDermott, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 2, line 20, after "be" reinsert the stricken language and strike "more"

On motion of Senator McDermott, the following amendment by Senators McDermott and Gaspard was adopted:

On page 2, line 33, after "fund," insert the following "PROVIDED, That the legislature shall instruct the state treasurer to distribute biennially, one percent of the anticipated gross revenue for payment of prizes in excess of forty-five percent: PROVIDED FURTHER, That any unexpended portion of this amount shall revert to the general fund at the end of the biennium"

MOTION

Senator Hemstad moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Hemstad, Goltz, Wojahn, McCaslin, Hayner, Metcalf, Deccio and Zimmerman:

On page 6, after line 27 insert:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 67.70 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Unfair or deceptive acts or practices in connection with the State Lottery are prohibited and may be enjoined.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 67.70 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The attorney general exclusively shall enforce section 6 of this act."

Renumber the remaining sections accordingly.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson: "Senator Hemstad, earlier in the session, I introduced a bill which apparently hasn't gotten very far, but I think this would cover it—that would prohibit the Lottery Commission from advertising a million dollar payoff, which, as we know, isn't exactly how it works. It is paid off in fifty thousand dollar a year installments. There was even some media coverage to the extent that the Lottery Commission, at that time, was considering dropping that type of advertising. Since then, I haven't heard anything about that, but I would presume that if this amendment is adopted that, at least, they would give some consideration to advertising a million dollar payoff."

Senator Hemstad: "It certainly, Senator Peterson, would make them think very carefully about exactly how that was being presented to the public. Some people have asked me 'well, what is wrong with saying fifty thousand dollars a year for twenty years, that is a million dollar prize.' Of course, it is a million dollar prize, but to emphasize the point, would you think it were a million dollar prize if the award were to be one dollar a year for a million years?"

"Obviously, this would not be of any benefit to receive a million dollars for a million years. Of course, a million dollars over twenty years isn't a million dollars. What the lottery does is to buy, in that situation, an annuity that costs about four hundred fifty thousand dollars and that is discounted at present market value, of the million dollar award, which seems to me if it is not unfair or deceptive, at least is misleading."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Hemstad, Goltz, Wojahn, McCaslin, Hayner, Metcalf, Deccio and Zimmerman.

The motion by Senator Hemstad carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Hemstad, the following title amendment was adopted: On page 1, line 9, after "67.70.260," insert "adding new sections to chapter 67.70.RCW;"

On motion of Senator McDermott, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3814 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, I see two gambling bills on our calendar. One-- Senate Bill No. 3434 appears to me would promote gambling and require a sixty percent constitutional majority. This bill, however, that is before us--Senate Bill No. 3814 appears to me to actually restrict gambling. On April 21, 1981, I had put into the Journal of the Senate an Attorney General's opinion indicating that if a bill contained no liberalizing amendment as far as gambling is concerned, and instead it actually restricted it or prohibited gambling activities, then it would only take a regular constitutional majority. My point of parliamentary inquiry is--I would like to know which is the required number of votes to pass this bill?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In responding to the question raised by Senator Pullen regarding whether passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3814 requires a 60 percent vote, the President finds that lotteries shall be prohibited except as authorized upon the affirmative vote of 60 percent of the members of each house of the legislature.

"Substitute Senate Bill No. 3814 does not create a lottery and, in fact, restricts the operation of the existing lottery by prohibiting the use of electronic or mechanical devices or video terminals. The bill, also, reapportions the way in which the revenues are distributed, and eliminates the lottery revolving fund.

"Since Substitute Senate Bill No. 3814 does not create a new lottery or expand the manner in which the existing lottery is operated, passage of the bill only requires a constitutional majority, a minimum of 25 votes of the members elected."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3814.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3814, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 33; nays, 14; absent, 00; excused, 02.

Voting yea: Senators Bender, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hurley, Kiskaddon, Lee, McDermott, Metcalf, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Sellar, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 33.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Bauer, Benitz, Fuller, Guess, Haley, Hughes, Jones, McManus, Moore, Peterson, Quigg, Vognild, von Reichbauer - 14.

Excused: Senators Deccio, McCaslin - 2.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3814, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3230, by Senators Fleming, Bluechel, Wojahn, Hemstad, Quigg, Deccio, Fuller, McManus, von Reichbauer, Granlund, Lee, Bender, Kiskaddon and Bauer (by Governor Spellman request)

Establishing the office of minority and women's business enterprises.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Fleming, Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3230 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3230 and the second substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

Senator Quigg moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Quigg, Hayner, McManus, Pullen, Rasmussen, Newhouse, Hansen, Guess and Benitz:

On page 2, line 29, after "institutions" strike all material down through "government" on line 30.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Quigg, Hayner, McManus, Pullen, Rasmussen, Newhouse, Hansen, Guess and Benitz.

The motion by Senator Quigg carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator McDermott moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 11, beginning on line 17, strike all of section 21 and renumber remaining sections.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "My question to you, Senator McDermott, if we strike this section, as I understand it, this bill has gone through the committee and then through the Ways and Means Committee--and the Ways and Means Committee approved a million one hundred thousand dollars, which seems like an exorbitant amount to put in for a new agency when we are trying to cut down on agencies and conserve money in tight circumstances. Is it your intention, Senator McDermott, if we strike this out that you will then fund it out of the Governor's Emergency Fund? It would govern my vote on this amendment."

Senator McDermott: "Your suggestion catches me off guard. I really hadn't thought of that as a source for it, but I think that we can make a more reasonable appropriation than a million one hundred thousand. I don't think we need that much money. Maybe the Governor would like to contribute his emergency fund to it."

Senator Rasmussen: "I concur. Thank you."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator McDermott.

The motion by Senator McDermott carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Pullen, the following amendments were considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 3, line 5, after "by" insert "qualified"

On page 3, line 9, after "that" insert "qualified"

On page 3, line 12, after "by" insert "qualified"

On page 3, line 15, after "by" insert "qualified"

On motion of Senator McDermott, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 12 of the title, strike "making an appropriation;"

MOTION

On motion of Senator Fleming, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3230 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Fleming, I don't think you finished your talk, but I would like to ask you a couple of questions. One--does this legislation set up goals that contractors will have to meet?"

Senator Fleming: "What this legislation will do, Senator--and to preface my remarks--the Association of General Contractors and National Electrical Contractors, and all of those organizations are in agreement with this legislation. We worked out a compromise.

"Secondly, it would set up a plan to establish goals and expectations, not quotas--and not as a minimum--for this plan to try to shoot to alleviate some of the problems that we had."

Senator Guess: "Does this plan create a state-wide, flat-level goal or will it take into consideration the difference of eastern Washington versus the west side?"

Senator Fleming: "Senator Guess, it does not do that. What it does, it will establish goals for the different state agencies and so forth. Secondly, what will happen for instance--most of the contractors on I-90, right now are not contractors that are based in the Seattle area and western corner area. They are from all over the state, so these people will have an opportunity if there are contracts let in certain parts of the state--they have an opportunity, whether they live in Seattle or wherever it is, to bid for those.

"These are goals--not quotas--and if those agencies were not able to meet those kinds of goals after these bids were let out and so forth, then they would not be forced to do something that they couldn't do. They have to make an effort."

Senator Guess: "One more question, Senator Fleming. Will the commission, in any way, create training programs or establish curriculum that will enable the training for the establishment of minority contracting organizations over and above what they now have?"

Senator Fleming: "I don't understand what you are asking."

Senator Guess: "All right. Will they encourage the training and education of possible contractors, so that they can stay in business after they have the bid?"

Senator Fleming: "Senator, I think that could be answered two or three ways. First of all, as you know, we have in place, now, certain agencies and organizations like the Small Business Development Center and so forth--and Washington State University--that once people are in business, they are going out helping them stay out of chapter eleven and so on. They have those kinds of things now.

"Secondly, as you are well aware, one of the problems in this area has been thought of--and excuse the expression--'the good old boy network.' One person gets a contract--he subcontracts it out to a friend and so forth--and so these people never get into the mainstream. I think what will happen here is--in order for these contractors to be out there, I think many of your contractors and subcontractors will be working with them. Secondly, there is no doubt in my mind that the agencies will try and do whatever it is they can to try and help this situation go along smoothly. Now, whether that is involved in some additional types of training programs, I can't say."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Kiskaddon: "Senator Fleming, on page three, subsection four, it says 'establish annual overall goals for participation by qualified minority and women-owned businesses for each state agency and educational institution to be administered on a contract-by-contract basis or on a class-of-contracts basis.' Would you explain to me what that really means?"

Senator Fleming: "I could be wrong and this is not for the record, but what I think that means--it also deals with some of the questions that Senator Guess asked. I think, when you are talking about trying to establish goals from a dollar volume and so forth, I think to give an agency the flexibility that they need, they can either do it on a contract-by-contract basis or class-of-contract. You have a certain class of contracts that go out. You could probably do it by class or you could do it by contract-by-contract basis, if it would make it a little easier to accomplish this."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bauer: "Senator Fleming, is it in your best judgment that this bill, in any way, would adversely affect public contract procurement by sheltered workshops?"

Senator Fleming: "Senator Bauer, in my opinion, that is not the intent of this measure. I think the mechanism is set up as such, now, where within the agency that deals with that, they have the mechanism and the ruling that sets aside certain dollars to be let out in terms of your sheltered workshops. I can't imagine this affecting that at all, because this is talking about goals and your over-all dollars and so it would not affect that, in my opinion."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Fleming, I have been on bid boards and reviewed bids. Is this bill going to make it necessary for me to put in the bid solicitation, the question--are you black--are you Chinese--are you white or are you a woman? Now, let me explain. We open up the bids and it will say Fleming & Fleming Company put this bid in. I don't have any knowledge, whether Fleming & Fleming is a minority or a woman's group or anything--just Fleming & Fleming or Jones & Jones. How am I going to determine that when I am serving on the bid board?"

Senator Fleming: "Senator, probably Senator Quigg could answer that better than anyone, because he is quite involved in that. That would not be the case, in my opinion. I think what is going to happen is you are going to have an over-all plan set up and established that will accomplish that. I think before you get to the bidding stage, it would be determined whether, in fact, you were a minority-owned or woman contractor-owned. You get certified before you even get to the point of bidding. That is part of the qualification. You would be certified well before you go out bidding on any type of contract."

Senator Rasmussen: "I don't think they certify on color or minority or women or anything. I think that they certify on the capability of the firm handling the project."

Senator Fleming: "One of the reasons that we have this measure--and I talked to you about it before--is that on the federal level and many of the local jurisdictions, there is a process of certification to make sure that if, in fact, there is a woman-owned firm, through the participation of where that person is in the firm and the daily operation and so forth, there are certain pre-qualifications to determine whether, in fact, that is a woman-owned firm or a minority-owned firm. That is way before you even get to a bidding process."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Haley: "Senator Fleming, I noticed there is a price tag of one million one hundred thousand dollars on this."

Senator Fleming: "Not any more. We just took it out."

Senator Haley: "Oh, I see. What is the new price tag?"

Senator Fleming: "There is not one in there right now."

Senator Haley: "How did it get to be so high in the first place? I noticed that many of the commissions and so forth have a much lower figure."

Senator Fleming: "Well, Senator Haley, it was more than that at the Governor's request and we worked out another fiscal note. I, also, indicated to Senator McDermott that by the time this got up and going, we probably would not even need a million--somewhere less than that."

Further debate ensued.

REMARKS BY SENATOR OWEN

Senator Owen: "Thank you, Mr. President. I think Senator Quigg is right to a degree. As long as you are a new contractor, and Senator Bluechel mentioned also, it is going to give an opportunity to contractors who might not have an opportunity, that is right, if you are a woman-owned or minority-owned contractor. But, what if you are not and you are trying to get started?"

"All of a sudden we have discrimination again. I really wonder who is trying to promote or not promote. I really wonder who is and who isn't promoting discrimination. I really wonder who is and who isn't promoting equality, and how are we ever going to have it as long as we keep introducing things that set certain segments of society aside as being different."

"Well, I keep hearing about the times that people have been discriminated against and the numbers and percentages that have received contracts. We have anti-discrimination laws. We have the Constitution that is being violated, if that is the case. We should be taking these to court and we should be challenging those companies, including the state of Washington if they are, in fact, discriminating against women-owned and minority-owned contractors. I personally believe that this type of legislation is an insult to the Constitution. I believe that it is an insult to the efforts that have been going on over the last ten or fifteen years--courts trying to create a society of equality in this nation.

"If that is, in fact, what we are trying to do, then why aren't we trying to set everybody up equal? Why aren't we trying to give everybody an equal chance at the contracts? Why are we saying that somebody else should have a better chance or a different chance or an entirely different set of criteria on receiving contracts from the state of Washington. Why should we take a company who is the lowest bidder, has the ability, has the record, has the lowest bid and is qualified, but we refuse them because they did not fit within the goals that some entity put together for accomplishing this objective of this bill. That is discrimination and that is wrong.

"As long as we do not provide everybody, regardless of race, regardless of sex, the opportunity on an equal basis, then we are discriminating. There is no other way to look at it. As long as we don't provide everybody the equal opportunity, we are discriminating, and that is in direct conflict of what the promoters of this legislation say we are trying to do.

"I adamantly oppose this legislation and any legislation that designates one segment of this country as special to any other segment of this country."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FLEMING

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, just to wrap this up. I would suggest to the members of this body, after that last speech that we just had, that is why we need this legislation. What I am saying is, people are not really--they do not understand what is happening.

"Ninety-nine percent--ninety-nine percent of the opportunities to secure state contracts went to white males in this state in the last biennium--white male-owned firms--ninety-nine percent. Doesn't that tell you something? That somebody is not getting the opportunities? White males are not the only people that can do these jobs in the world. They are getting the opportunities, but I don't want to get into that.

"Those, like Senator Rasmussen, who are concerned about the agencies, there is a sunset clause in here. Hopefully, we will not need it in future years. They will, also, report back to the legislature and the Governor, and the Legislative Budget will, also, take a look and if we are doing some things that you are concerned about, Senator Guess, maybe those things could be corrected. We have the safeguards in here.

"Lastly, I just want to wrap this up. There is an opportunity for people. I think if you had an Asian sitting on the floor here, you could tell by that person's pigmentation that he was different than most of you here on the floor. Having a black on here, I am sure that nobody would make a mistake between me and Senator Guess or Senator Bauer. If you had Jewish people on here, you might not be able to tell, because of the pigmentation of the skin. That is one of the ways that people move into society.

"I just want to close with one thing--opportunity. Senator Pullen talks about athletes and all those basketball players, but Senator Pullen didn't mention that all of those basketball players are being coached by white coaches. Now, are you going to tell me all those guys can play basketball and they can't coach? Why aren't the percentages of the coaches like the players out there? I can go on. George Raveling is one black coach out of the nation, and I don't want to address that.

"The question is opportunity--it hasn't been there. There is prima facie evidence that it hasn't been there. That is all we are saying. If these people have the opportunity, and you have seen it with George Raveling, give us a chance and we will be good, Slim. But, if we don't get to have a chance, we will never be good.

"One quote I would like to make. When I played professional football in Canada--I got there on a team in Canada, where you would think there was no discrimination--and the members used to say 'Hey Fleming, you are going to be the first odd-ball player on this team.' I didn't know what they were talking about. I said 'What do you mean, the first odd-ball player?' This was in 1963. They said 'You normally don't make this team regardless of what your talents are if you don't have a roommate to live with when you travel on the road.' I was the first one on the Winnipeg Blue Bombers that roomed with a white player--in 1963.

"So, there are other things that are taken into consideration than one's ability. I hope that you will support this measure."

For the record, can you tell us what is meant by 'research' and specifically, could any of those monies be used for operational costs by qualifying cancer research institutions, including costs related to labor relations negotiations?"

Senator McManus: "Senator Bender, it is the intent of this legislation to provide monies on a grant basis to non-profit cancer research institutions in the state of Washington, such as the Fred Hutchinson Regional Cancer Research Center. These funds may only be used for cancer research, not for general operational costs of the management of an institution. A cancer research program authorized by the Department of Social and Health Services, under this bill, could include payments for personnel to conduct the study, necessary research equipment and materials to carry out the research, rent of working quarters, necessary travel, etc. However, as prime sponsor of this bill, it is not the intent of this legislation to provide administrative monies which could be used to either support or defend against labor negotiations or actions."

Senator Guess: "Senator Talmadge, does this raise their salaries?"

Senator Talmadge: "No."

Senator Guess: "You set this, then how do they get paid? Maybe, you could educate me that way?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, they are paid at the present time by the counties. It is fully paid by the counties. The salaries of district court judges was set at ninety percent of the salary of superior court judges, which we set. In effect, we indirectly set the salaries of the district court judges and the counties pay for it. What this bill does is, it simply defines when someone is a full time judge and disqualified from doing anything outside the normal judicial duty and when they are part time and can, in fact, perform other legal work if they are a practicing lawyer."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "I notice that in the digest the summary refers to a thirty thousand dollar figure and the amendment is a forty thousand dollar figure. I assume that the figure at which a district judge is paid now as a full-time judge is forty thousand."

Senator Talmadge: "That is correct."

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3494 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hansen: "Senator Talmadge, most of those that are not paid is because they can't squeeze blood out a turnip. Now, you are taking a bloodless turnip and adding increased costs to that. You are not only putting a guy down once, but you are keeping him down with these increased costs. I really think, to me, it is counter-productive in this area."

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Hansen, in response to your question, I think the key thing that we tried to do was recognize that is a problem. That is why the payment plan idea is in there. It is not normal, in the law, to have what amounts to installment payments on a judgment.

"Ordinarily, your obligation is a full obligation. If it's a thousand dollar judgment, you are responsible for the thousand dollars right up front. They can do all sorts of things to get it. They can garnish your wages or they can execute on your house or whatever. By going to the idea of a payment plan--and have the judge do that with the defendant in court, we tried to make recognition of the kind of problem you are talking about--where somebody is the judgment-debtor and they have some trouble in making the payments. The court can help them out by doing this payment plan idea to meet the obligation. I think the district court judges will be flexible and they will be caring when they see that judgment-debtor before them and recognizing, at the same time, that is an obligation that they should be paying."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3494.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3494, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 00; absent, 00; excused, 07.

Requiring gender-neutral language in statutes, rules, and publications.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Senate Bill No. 3613 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Lee, you spoke of some rule or regulation not being valid unless they complied. Would the same thing relate to our general laws?"

Senator Lee: "No, sir. What I said is--and I will read the language--it says 'no rule or publication is invalid because it does not comply with this statute.' The same thing is repeated in section two where it says 'no statute, memorial or resolution is invalid, because it does not comply with this section.' We went through all the existing statutes that we had just in order to make that kind of correction. It would not be cost-effective or even a necessary thing to do. We were just really talking about publications that take place from now on."

Senator Rasmussen: "I just wanted to make sure that you weren't taking a step on mankind that the Bible speaks of. One more question, Senator Lee. Some of these changes would require me to address the President as 'Mr. Chair', and I rather object to addressing the President as 'Mr. Chair' or even addressing any chair. Some chairs are wicker and some are solid oak and they are worth more, but the point is that I feel is it demeaning to the office to say 'Mr. Chair' or I couldn't even say that—I could just say 'Chair.' This doesn't permit any of that terrible language to exist, does it?"

Senator Lee: "Now, we don't have any problem with that. We have been so progressive in this body that we have used gender-language for our presiding officers for years. The term 'President' and the term 'Speaker' have no gender attached to them."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Senate Bill No. 3613.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Lee, when you make reference to 'senior citizen exemption'--and I presume that would be on your own or occupied property--your home, what is the age requirement now to be exempted under the present law?"

Senator Lee: "I am not certain, Senator Patterson, but we are not making any change in that. You are correct, it is for homeowners, strictly, and just for property that they are occupying."

Senator Patterson: "I wonder if there is anyone that can answer my question as to what age requirement. Senior citizen doesn't mean anything unless there is an age attached to it. I just wondered if someone might be familiar with that part of the law. Senator McDermott, are you?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR McDERMOTT

Senator McDermott: "I am not a senior citizen, if that is what you are asking. I do not want to answer that question, because I do not know the specific answer to it and I do not want to get anything into the records that is incorrect."

"But, this makes no change in the actual operation of senior citizen exemptions. There is a bill in the Ways and Means Committee to raise the limit of income and so forth, but this bill does not make any change in that particular part of it."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3267.

On page 1, line 11 after "persons" insert:

"two referred by each major political party in the Senate"

On page 1, line 15 after "persons" insert:

"two referred by each major political party in the House"

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 113 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the resolution was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Zimmerman: "Senator Shinpoch, this particular committee--twenty-six members, sixteen legislators and then the eight business people--two labor--doesn't seem to include some of the folks that seemingly should be on any kind of a study program of this sort that you are going to have. In other words, shouldn't there be persons who are managers or supervisors from the state agencies, themselves? Shouldn't there be some people from the faculties and administration--the administrators and supervisors and managers out there in the biggest place we place money, which is the school system? They don't seem to be represented in here.

"Shouldn't there be some people that would represent, obviously, some facets of state government that we do not include in our present listing of those to be on this committee? It says here 'open ended'--or at least the fact that they can name any number of subcommittees.

"What would that mean in terms of the possibilities of creating around the state and creating in terms of this particular body, innumerable people participating in some way? Will they be paid on the basis of the regular committee members as far as their per diem and travel and so on? Would there be any limit to that number? Would there be any limit to where they are going to meet?

"I guess I am asking the questions and I would like some response. What will be the budgetary or the limits in terms of the financing of this committee, so that it won't be an open-ended opportunity to spend, rather than to do the job that is outlined in its purpose?"

Senator Shinpoch: "In response to Senator Zimmerman, on line 17, page 1, we set it up so that the committee--the citizen members of the committee may be paid, but we, specifically, set it up so that the subcommittees wouldn't be paid. That was brought up and was handled. The subcommittee members do not get paid. They do not even get travel or per diem. If you were going to do that, then the subcommittee members would not.

"In response to some of your other questions, we are not really putting any of the foxes in here to look at the chickens in the hen house. We are only putting outside members. We really do not want someone from inside being in there as an inside lobbyist on this committee to protect their turf. We continually want to make changes in state government and make reductions and all we can do is reduce money and that seems to always reduce service.

"As far as I know, there was only one state agency in state government, with all the cuts, that took a slice off the pyramid last time. They took managers out at all levels and went down. As far as I know, all the rest of them took the lower ones off the bottom, and I don't know very many that got reduced. One of the things that we want to do in this is to look at that span of control. I know--I don't know if it is an agency of an office or bureau--but one group of people, where there used to be one hundred and twelve--there are forty-four left--and they still have the same number of managers that they had, and they still have four levels of management.

"We can't reduce their budget and do anything about that four levels of management or the number, but if we go in with this and specify that and get directly to it and are able to do that, I think there are some things that we can do. I think we can identify overhead cost rules and those kinds of things and do some legitimate reductions in government, which isn't just a meat ax, but comes off the service area--and get rid of some of the overhead things that are burdening us."

Senator Zimmerman: "Do you feel that there are needs for any representatives, say--from the farm--eastern Washington is mostly agriculture. We don't have any one particularly listed in that. We have labor listed, but we don't have agriculture listed in any way. Is that an area that should have some representation--other than legislators?"

Senator Shinpoch: "Well, out of the two business people, if you think one of those should be a farmer, I certainly have no objection or if you think both of them should be farmers, I have no objection. As long as the people that you nominate understand something about management and control and something about cost pools and overhead and those kinds of things. I don't care what their background is. Obviously, there are a lot of farmers that know a lot about that, because they are doing very well at it and under very trying circumstances."

Senator Zimmerman: "You do not see it as just simply a means of expansion of a dog and pony show? You are not trying to deal with that in that sense and you will have limits on the expenditures? We don't put them in here. The bill was not discussed in committee and that is the reason that I am concerned about it."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Concurrent Resolution No. 113.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3984, by Senators Talmadge and Pullen (by Secretary of State request)

Clarifying recall procedures.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3984 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3984 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3984 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Zimmerman: "In terms of Senator Clarke's amendment on page two, where you are adding 'having knowledge of the alleged facts upon which the stated grounds for recall,' do you feel that because that is under oath and does stress actually having information beyond just believing it is true--is the main thing that would be added here, don't you feel? Is that your interpretation?"

Senator Talmadge: "Well, I think we have done a number of things that needed to be done in the recall statutes for a long time by way of clarification. I think the Secretary of State's Office has done an admirable job in that area, Senator. I suspect that the most substantive thing is the addition of this provision which requires actual knowledge, plus the belief on the part of the people submitting the petition that the charges are true."

Senator Zimmerman: "Do you see the logic of continuing efforts in this field and that there be some future study on it?"

Senator Talmadge: "Certainly, I know you have had a bill that, basically, involves the court system and the review of the charges that form the basis for the recall. It is an issue that I think we should continue to look at. I don't think we want to go, perhaps, quite so far as to have the courts become involved in assessing recall quite yet, but it is something that we will clearly be continuing to work on and certainly welcome your additional knowledge in this area."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Talmadge, page two again, lines 15 and 16, which requires 'and have knowledge of the alleged facts upon which the stated grounds for recall are based.' 'And have knowledge'--would that be from newspaper accounts or actual recordings? How would they have the actual knowledge? That bothers me a little bit. What would be assumed by the court's decision?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, right now the petition requires that the person make a statement under oath, that he or the organization believe that the charge or charges are true. We have added the language that says 'have knowledge of the alleged facts upon which the stated grounds for recall are based.' I think it is a well understood term in the law that when someone does something by way of affidavit upon oath, they have to have some personal acquaintance with the facts. Whether or not it would have been sufficient to have them read from a newspaper account or have read them from some other source, I don't presume to intrude on the court's decision on that. But, I think it is clear that a person has to have greater knowledge than simply a generalized belief that something may be the case."

Senator Rasmussen: "It doesn't really clear it up, but you don't specify whether legal documents or tape recordings or minutes of a meeting or whatever went on?"

Senator Talmadge: "I don't know that they would have to be that specific, Senator, but I think they have to have a greater knowledge than is now the case of the facts upon which the recall is based."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3984.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 4201, by Senators Williams, Fuller, Goltz, Lee and Hemstad
Requiring that used automotive oil be recycled.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Hughes, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4201 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 4201 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Hughes, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4201 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Hughes--'a new rule-making authority'--I am concerned with that--'The Director of the Department of Ecology shall adopt rules requiring sellers of more than 100 gallons of automotive oil annually in containers for use off the premises to post and maintain signs informing the public of the importance of proper collection and disposal of used oil.' Now, my question is, who is going to pay for those signs, who is going to determine the size and shape along with the Department?"

"Let me state why my question. The Department of Ecology, when they were audited by the LBC, they found that they had put out numerous expensive signs and then they had a beer can on it that disclosed the name of the beer, so they recalled those signs and either struck out the beer or else they did away with the signs. Now, my question is, are they going to put something on private industry that they will have to make these signs themselves, or is the Department going to furnish them?"

Senator Hughes: "Well, Senator Rasmussen, this is basically a result of a compromise between industry and the environmental community and the Department of Ecology. The industry people have indicated that they have confidence that Director Moos and the Department will allow maximum input on the part of the industry and the rules and regulations will be such that no great burden will be placed on industry. The cost will have to be picked up by the individual seller, Senator Rasmussen. There are no funds available for the state to do that. I guess I don't think that is improper. Those who sell and make a profit off the oil have a responsibility, Senator, to assure that those who purchase it will, also, deal with the product in a reasonable fashion and a fashion that doesn't endanger the environment of this state. As I stated, I didn't hear any industry opposition to it in the committee hearings."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4201.

On motion of Senator Hughes, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4107 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Hughes, if I am driving in my pickup and something flies out of the back and I get stopped, am I going to get a fifty dollar fine and have to pick up litter along side of the road?"

Senator Hughes: "Well, Senator, right now those rules are not being enforced in that fashion. There was an act that went with this bill that would have required that you cover your pickup truck with a seal or cover, so that there would not be leaves or things of that nature falling off. We have been assured that they will not be that strict in enforcing. This deals with willful littering--and individuals casting an object upon the ground or something of that nature."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Owen, this bill appears to require that the hydraulic permit be granted or denied within forty-five days. What if it is not denied or granted within that forty-five days?"

Senator Owen: "They have to document the reasons in writing why it is turned down. I would assume that would be grounds for appeal."

Senator Talmadge: "The other question I had, I guess, is with respect to the Department of Ecology. I understand that the Department of Ecology has had an involvement with the granting of hydraulic permits. This appears to be a situation where they are not involved."

Permitting the department of natural resources to exchange publicly-owned lands.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Owen, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3614 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Conner: "Senator Bauer, on this particular matter, I am reminded about fourteen years ago or so when we had a bill pass both houses relative to some land in Clallam County. The Legislature authorized the Department of Natural Resources to work with our county in that project, which they did. Now, the County Commissioner went ahead with a project wherein they're selling that land to the Olympic National Park without any public hearings—and I am wondering whether this is in the same category or are we going to be making the laws so that this can be done in other areas without any opportunity for people to have their say on the process?"

Senator Bauer: "I think that was the fear of Senator Owen. Senator Conner, when the bill was before him. For that reason, he tightened it up so that that couldn't happen. That is my understanding."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Shinpoch: "Senator Owen, the sponsor of the bill indicated this is to take care of a problem in Clark County. My remembrance of this, when we had it in committee, was that the exchange of this land covered some sixteen thousand or so acres. Am I remembering another bill?"

Senator Owen: "I believe you are remembering another bill, possibly the transition land bill."

REMARKS BY SENATOR ZIMMERMAN

Senator Zimmerman: "Yes, this particular bill is not to any degree of that size in terms of acreage and it has been discussed for some time and they were agreed to do it, but they felt that there was logic to having it put in statute. It is equal land value. It is not to, in any way, affect the timber base of the state and, obviously, there is no way in which they are going, as far as this particular measure will allow them, to do anything that they couldn't already do, as far as otherwise trust land and so on.

"This particular matter is a matter of putting together a package whereby they are, obviously, going to help the county as far as their land base and it will likewise help the Department of Natural Resources and ultimately the citizens of the entire state for this particular exchange. Through most exchanges, they go through quite a process. At the present time, there is another one that is going to affect some property that will be in Whatcom County, in Skamania County, and in Klickitat County--a great deal of exchange that will be taking place within a short time, if it all proceeds under normal fashion. But, in this case, it has been talked about for some time."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, Senators Hughes and McDermott were excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3614.

The director of labor and industries, through the inspector, assistant inspector, or deputy inspector, is hereby empowered to inspect, and shall inspect, all wiring, appliances, devices and equipment to which this chapter applies. Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed as providing any authority for any subdivision of government to adopt by ordinance any provisions contained or provided for in this chapter 19.28 RCW except those pertaining to cities and towns. Upon request, electrical inspections will be made by the electrical inspection department within forty-eight hours, excluding holidays, Saturdays and Sundays. If, upon written request, the electrical inspector fails to make an electrical inspection within twenty-four hours, the serving utility may immediately connect thereto, providing the necessary electrical safe wiring label is displayed. Whenever the installation of any such wiring, device, appliance or equipment is not in accordance with the requirements of this chapter, or is in such a condition as to be dangerous to life or property, the person, firm, or corporation owning, using or operating the same shall be notified by the director of labor and industries and shall within fifteen days, or such further reasonable time as may upon request be granted, make such repairs and changes as are required to remove the danger therefrom to life or property and to make the same conform to the provisions of this chapter. The director of labor and industries through such inspector, assistant inspector or any deputy inspector, is hereby empowered to disconnect or order the discontinuance of electrical service to such conductors or apparatus as is found to be in a dangerous or unsafe condition and not in accordance with the provisions of this chapter. Upon making such disconnection he shall attach thereto a notice stating that such conductors have been found dangerous to life or property or not in accordance with the requirements of this chapter; and it shall be unlawful for any person to reconnect such defective conductors or apparatus without the approval of the director of labor and industries, and until the same have been placed in a safe and secure condition, and in such condition as to comply with the requirements of this chapter. The director of labor and industries, through the electrical inspector, assistant inspector, or any deputy inspector, shall have the right during reasonable hours to enter into and upon any building or premises in the discharge of his official duties for the purpose of making any inspection or test of the installation of new construction or altered electrical wiring, electrical devices, equipment or material contained thereon or therein. No electrical wiring or equipment subject to the requirements of this chapter shall be concealed until an inspection is applied for under this chapter and an inspection made and the work therein approved by the inspector making such inspection. It shall be the responsibility of those persons making electrical installations to obtain inspection and approval from an authorized representative of the director of labor and industries as required by this chapter, prior to requesting the electric utility to connect to said installation. Electric utilities may connect such said installations if approval is clearly indicated by certification of the safe wiring label required to be affixed to each installation or by equivalent means, except that, increased or relocated services may be reconnected immediately, at the discretion of the utility, before approval, provided a safe wiring label is displayed. The labels shall be furnished upon payment to the department of labor and industries. The director, subject to the recommendations and approval of the state electrical advisory board, shall set a schedule of license and safe wiring label fees which will cover the costs incurred by the department of labor and industries in the administration and enforcement of this chapter in accordance with the administrative procedures act, chapter 34.04 RCW; PROVIDED, That no fee shall be charged for plug-in mobile homes, recreational vehicles, or portable appliances; PROVIDED FURTHER, That the department may not charge fees in excess of ten dollars for the inspection of any single amusement ride or concession stand at an amusement facility and the total of such fees may not exceed one hundred fifty dollars for the inspection of the amusement facility, unless violations that were cited with respect to the same amusement ride or concession stand during the previous inspection of the amusement facility have continued."

On motion of Senator Vognild, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3003 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Vognild, has there been wide-spread abuse and problems with the current type of regulation and who was it that instigated the bill as such? Who is the main driver behind the bill--what organization or group?"

Senator Vognild: "Senator Conner brought the bill to us and what he indicated and what the testimony indicated is that we have had sufficient problems and, fortunately, minor injuries up to this time, but the potential for major injury has been there, because the inspections are not consistent. Also, from the standpoint of the operators, they find enforcement is different in different places. Although they were not--I am not going to say they were in favor of this bill--they had some problems with it--but they did speak to the idea of the Department of Labor and Industries being an overall governing body."

Senator Bluechel: "Have there been any serious problems with the current type of regulation?"

Senator Vognild: "I think that my answer would be the same as I just gave you. There have been minor problems--nothing serious, but they could have been serious, very easily. It was a fortunate situation that a number of people were not injured. That was the testimony that we received."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3003.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3003, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 02; absent, 00; excused, 04.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bender, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Hansen, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McManus, Metcalf, Moore, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Quigg, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Sellar, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 43.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Bluechel - 2.

Excused: Senators Benitz, Haley, Hayner, Thompson - 4.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3003, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3740, by Senators Vognild, Rasmussen and Peterson

Revising laws on hazardous materials liability.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Peterson, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3740 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3740 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Peterson, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3740 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Vognild, the only question that I have is, who determines who is responsible and what type of time frame is involved in this?"

Senator Vognild: "The determination of responsibility probably, eventually, would be settled in court if it has to, but initially it will fall under the federal hazardous material regulations which require that the carrier clean up the immediate spill. The time frame that you are talking of here--I'm not sure what area you are talking about."

Senator Patterson: "I am talking about determining who is responsible. There is always a question as to whether the railroad was negligent in some way or whether there was some other person or persons involved that created the situation. I am wondering, exactly, who will make that determination so that the extraordinary charges could be levied?"

Senator Vognild: "Well, that determination will be made in court, I am sure."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Bill No. 3740.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3740, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 43; nays, 03; absent, 00; excused, 03.

Excused: Senators Haley, Hayner, Thompson - 3.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3740, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Jones: "I would like to make a request. I can't remember if it was Senator McDermott or Bottiger or Talmadge or Senator Fleming or any number of others who were concerned about hopping around on the calendar. I wondered if they would make that speech available for me, so that I could, perhaps, go through that routine. It does seem to me to be a bit of inconsistency. I heard it so many times, I should know it by memory, but if you could furnish me with those remarks, I would certainly appreciate it."

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 4202, by Senators Talmadge, Hughes, Williams, Woody, Fleming, Thompson and Hemstad.

Changing the Washington State patrol disciplinary process.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved the following Committee on Judiciary amendments be considered and adopted simultaneously.

On page 2, line 5 after the period insert "Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 34.12.040, the decision of the administrative law judge shall be a final decision and reviewable pursuant to chapter 34.04, RCW."

On page 2, line 14 strike all of section 4 and renumber the remaining sections accordingly.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, a point of parliamentary inquiry. If these two amendments are adopted, then may I offer my amendments to the bill?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The Secretary advises that it is possible."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Judiciary amendments.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the committee amendments were adopted.

MOTION

Senator Guess moved the following amendments be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 1, beginning on line 19, after "demotion" strike all the material down to and including "transfer" on line 20 and insert ", and/or suspension"

On page 1, beginning on line 26, after "hearing" strike all the material down to and including "RCW" on page 2, line 5, and insert "before a trial board consisting of two Washington state patrol officers of the rank of captain, and one officer of equal rank with the officer complained of, who shall be selected by the chief of the Washington state patrol by lot from the roster of the patrol. In the case of complaint by an officer, such officer shall not be a member of the trial board"

On page 2, after line 5, insert the following:

"Sec. 3. Section 43.43.090, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 and RCW 43.43.090 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((At the hearing, the chief of the patrol shall be the presiding officer, and shall make all necessary rulings in the course of the hearing, but shall not be entitled to vote.~~

~~The complainant and the officer complained of may submit evidence, and be represented by counsel; and a full and complete record of the proceedings, and all testimony, shall be taken down by a stenographer.))~~

After hearing, the board shall make findings of ~~((the trial board shall be submitted to the chief) fact and conclusions of law in accordance with the evidence. Such findings and conclusions shall be final ((in the case of acquittal)). In the event ((of conviction)) the charges are sustained,~~ the chief may determine the proper disciplinary action and declare it by written order served upon the officer complained of."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

On page 2, after line 7, strike all the material down to and including "43.43.100." on line 29 and insert:

"If as a result of any trial board hearing, or review proceeding, ~~((an officer complained of is found not guilty of the charges against him))~~ the charges against an officer are not sustained, he shall be immediately reinstated to his former position, and be reimbursed for any loss of salary suffered by reason of the previous disciplinary action."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Guess, you were referring to an inquiry board in your comments. Is that the same as the trial board?"

Senator Guess: "Yes sir, it is the board of inquiry--a formally convened board."

Senator Pullen: "I noticed in your amendment you are striking the language that says 'the chief of the patrol shall be the presiding officer.' In your amendment, does it specify who will be the presiding officer?"

Senator Guess: "One of the three members of the board shall be the presiding officer."

Senator Pullen: "One of the three members of the board?"

Senator Guess: "One of the three members of the board."

Senator Pullen: "Do they select--"

Senator Guess: "Among themselves."

Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, a point of parliamentary inquiry. The Guess amendment says 'on page 1, beginning on line 19, after 'demotion,' strike all the material down to and including 'transfer' on line 20 and insert and/or 'suspension.' The striking language--is that meaning to strike the underlined language? It doesn't grammatically make sense to strike all the language."

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, in answer to Senator Pullen, if he will look at the explanation that I have passed out--is the way the bill will read. What we have done is we have taken out a part of the material and then put back a part. What we took out was 'for disciplinary moves' and so it now reads--'that the state patrol may discipline, suspend or demote any Washington State Patrol officer.'"

Senator Pullen: "So you are just striking the new language--the underlined language--and replacing it with the new underlined language--and/or suspension?"

Senator Guess: "That is correct."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Guess demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bluechel, Senator Quigg was excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendments by Senator Guess.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Guess failed and the amendments were not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 18; nays, 27; absent, 01; excused, 03.

On page 2, line 15, after "be:" strike the balance of the language and replace with "Shall a new committee be established to draft alternate home rule charters for consideration and possible adoption by each county?"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Thompson: "Senator Pullen, I wonder what your intent is, with the second amendment? There appears to be a relationship to the first and it might bear on my remarks in regard to the first."

Senator Pullen: "Yes, my intent and what I would prefer is to not have any ballot title in the constitutional amendment at all. So the second amendment would wipe out the ballot title. What I am now proposing should replace the ballot title that is already in Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 108. You have to take a perfecting amendment first. I thought it proper to try to improve on the ballot title that is already in SJR No. 108, and then if we do improve upon it, that is well and good, but we should then strike the whole thing. If I am unsuccessful in getting it stricken, at least we are left with the improved ballot title."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hemstad: "Senator Thompson, the proposed alternative language that is talked about--'should a new committee be established,' I would think would be preferable if it has said 'temporary committee.' On the second line, where it says 'alternate home rule charters,' the language in the bill, itself, talks about county charters, are you satisfied that 'home rule' is a better term than 'county charter' for this purpose?"

Senator Thompson: "Senator Hemstad, I welcome you into this process of drafting the charter. If you can think of any improvement to the charter or the title for this constitutional amendment--the ballot title--if you think it could be improved in the ways you suggested, why don't you join the process?"

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Pullen, Rasmussen, Craswell, Quigg and Metcalf.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bender, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4153 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3308, by Senators Goltz, Deccio, Moore and Shinpoch

Requiring health insurance plans to provide benefits for home health care services.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Moore, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3308 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3308 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

Senator Goltz moved the following amendments by Senators Goltz and Deccio be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 1, line 10, after "shall" strike "include provisions" and insert "offer optional coverage"

On page 1, line 18, after "shall" strike "include provisions" and insert "offer optional coverage"

On page 1, line 26, after "shall" strike "include provisions" and insert "offer optional coverage"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Moore: "Senator Goltz, how much difference is this going to make to the consumer?"

Senator Goltz: "Are you speaking about the amendment or about the bill?"

Senator Moore: "About the amendment."

Senator Goltz: "The amendment will make this difference to the consumer. The consumer will not be required or the insurance provider will not be required to include in every insurance policy home health care and/or hospice alternative care. What they will do is simply say to every person that this kind of coverage is available if you want it. You can turn it down or you can accept it. I believe that by having the optional coverage it will be accepted by many, many people because it will be a significant reduction, I believe, in the cost of care."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendments by Senators Goltz and Deccio.

The motion by Senator Goltz carried and the amendments were adopted.

MOTION

Senator Goltz moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 5 after line 29 insert:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 41.05 RCW a new section to read as follows:

After the effective date of this act the board shall provide that health care benefit plans shall include provisions for home health care and hospice care for persons who are home-bound and who would otherwise require hospitalization."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hemstad: "Senator Goltz, my concern is, if in fact, this will end up requiring a higher premium cost and we are only going to appropriate a limited number of dollars for purposes of employee benefits. It will mean that there will have to be a reduction in some other area of coverage. Why wouldn't it have been better to draft this directing the board to go out with a request for a proposal so that they could see what the competitive bids would be with this included as an alternative?"

Senator Goltz: "I would be very willing to have that as an amendment. The effective date of the act is July 1 of 1984. It was my understanding that by the time we get back in 1984, we will know what kind of experience the insurance boards would have for us to wrestle with. I cannot see how you could possibly have an insurance policy which would cost more if you were offering a lesser cost service."

Senator Hemstad: "I suppose one of the concerns of the insurer is that it would increase the number of participants in the pool who would be using the service--say for longer periods of time. I suspect that the concern would be that of the insurer."

Senator Goltz: "Senator Hemstad, the protection against that, I believe, is found in the bill in the requirement that a medical doctor will always have to prescribe a plan, whereby the home health care--hospice care--will be used. There are a number of instances which come immediately to mind.

"One, of course, is the unpleasantness of dying in a hospital setting. Another one is post-surgical recovery. You know many people would much prefer to go home, because they don't need the kinds of services and attention they get in a hospital. At least in those two instances that I can think of, there would be a great saving."

Senator Hemstad: "But, in any event, we will have another chance to look at this before it would go into effect?"

Senator Goltz: "Yes, we would."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Goltz.

The motion by Senator Goltz carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Goltz, the following title amendment was adopted:

Also I think, in the city of Seattle, they have an organization of retired electricians and plumbers and so forth, that they, too, go around and do work for either free or for a nominal sum. Do they have to be registered?"

Senator Vognild: "Senator, the contractors who work for agencies of the city or agencies of the state would have to be registered. Those people that you talk about in the retired field who do work for no benefit to themselves--perhaps they do it free or perhaps they do it for the cost of the materials--would not have to be registered."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3056.

(1) Any gubernatorial appointee subject to senate confirmation shall continue to serve unless rejected by a vote of the senate. An appointee who is not rejected by a vote of the senate shall serve for one year following appointment prior to being confirmed. Following this one-year period, any appointee not confirmed by the senate shall not continue to serve beyond the adjournment of the next regular legislative session. An appointee failing to be confirmed by the senate shall not be reappointed to the same position for a period of one year from termination of service.

(2) Any person appointed by the governor to fill the unexpired term of an appointment subject to senate confirmation must also be confirmed by the senate."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fuller: "Senator Bottiger, as your amendment reads, does this have a retrospective effect or prospective?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, I believe it would go into effect upon signature of the Governor and then the year would begin to run, so anybody currently serving but not confirmed would have one year and you would be into the next session. I really hadn't thought that out, Senator. I presume the normal rules would apply. It could only be prospective in nature. It couldn't be retroactive. It would be my intent that it be prospective."

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR

March 28, 1983

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I have the honor to advise you that on March 28, 1983, Governor Spellman approved the following Senate Bill entitled:

Substitute Senate Bill No. 3108

Relating to transportation.

Sincerely,

MARILYN SHOWALTER, Counsel to the Governor

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

Increasing state power to repair damage from the eruption of Mount St. Helens.

The bill was read the second time.

On motion of Senator Thompson, the following Committee on Local Government amendment was adopted:

On page 2, line 12, after "exchange," insert "lease."

On motion of Senator Thompson, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3519 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Haley: "Senator Thompson, I am troubled by the expense on this bill. There is a fiscal note of five million twenty thousand dollars for the Department of Transportation from the state building construction account of the state general fund for acquisition of land and related expenses. Why does that need to be so high? What, specifically, are those monies going to be used for? Is it possible that a good amount came out in testimony that, perhaps, could be a lesser amount?"

Senator Thompson: "Senator Haley, this proposal was developed on the basis of a very detailed watershed management plan, which was developed by the Corps of Engineers and Cowlitz County. It provides for relocation costs. For instance, there are some thirteen structures from parcels they now occupy. It provides for funds for purchase and lease of a number of other sites. All of these items are based on arrangements and options that are already developed and ready to go as they necessarily have to be, because of the advance in time schedule on the need to begin dredging and begin depositing soil on sites during the period when that is possible."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Thompson, I am just interested in where the five million twenty thousand dollars--in the general fund--what generates those dollars? In other words, is there some kind of a tax out there that comes into the general fund or are these monies that are allocated out of the general resources of the state for this purpose?"

Senator Thompson: "Senator Patterson, these will be bond funds that come out of the capitol building account from proceeds of dedicated land."

Senator Patterson: "They float a bond issue?"

Senator Thompson: "That is true."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3519.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3766, by Senators Fleming, Talmadge and McDermott

On motion of Senator Talmadge, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3766 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3766 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 11, after person and before the period insert: "or unless such law enforcement officer, correctional guard, or other employee of the state or a political subdivision of the state has successfully completed a course whose training standards have been approved by the Washington State Criminal Justice Training Commission. The Commission shall maintain a record of all persons who have successfully completed the course"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Quigg: "Senator Fleming, I planned to vote for the bill the way it was before the amendment came up. I am a friend of the bill as it stands. I wonder what our folks are going to do if they can't do this? If you have somebody you are trying to fingerprint, and this person is not at all with the programming and he is really making life miserable for you, what are the people in those jails going to do with somebody that is big and unruly and into some drugs and has a lot of problems? What are the alternatives to what we are talking about?"

Senator Fleming: "First of all, Senator, I don't know what all those alternatives are, but the Bellevue police have said that they have been developing alternatives. They have nets--they have several kinds of things that they could do. The state patrol said that they have alternative methods that they would use.

"Secondly, in the Riley Frost case, they were trying to get his fingerprints, but the guy was supposed to be shackled and they still used it on him. Normally, in one of these situations, you are not going to have a law enforcement officer trying to do that. If they see there is a situation that is unruly, they are not going to be doing that by themselves. There will be more than one of them. What this says--some of the people have said 'let's ban it all altogether--let's not let it be used even in self defense.' That is not what we are saying here--we are saying unless there is a threat of death or serious bodily injury. So, we are banning it, with the exception of those cases.

"In the bill, which I did not necessarily agree with, but I am willing to go along with it. Senator Talmadge has a date in here of being effective January of 1984. The reason that he put that in there is to give the law enforcement officers around the state an opportunity to deal with some of those alternatives, which they said they were meeting on and in the process of doing anyway."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Pullen.

The motion by Senator Pullen failed and the amendment was not adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3766 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson: "Senator Talmadge, we have a situation in both our jails and prison populations now in which they are severely overcrowded. What kind of a message are we trying to send out? I realize this has an implementation date of January, 1984. I go along with the concept, but we are in a situation right now where we could have an explosion in Shelton or Walla Walla or Monroe--maybe even while we are debating this issue on the floor. Is this going to, in the interim, preclude the restraints that a prison guard or jailer would have in taking care of a situation. How can you tell what is a death threat or bodily injury? These things happen on the spur of the moment."

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, I don't think a problem is presented by the adoption of this bill. Specifically, law enforcement officers are called upon to make that kind of decision about whether or not they are in imminent peril of their own safety or someone else's safety all the time, when they have to decide whether or not to draw a weapon. In the case of correctional facilities, we are not banning the choke hold--we are not banning the sleeper hold, we are simply saying that law enforcement officers have to perceive a threat to themselves or to others and then it can be used.

"The problem is with the routine use of this type of hold. Many officers are not trained in its use and the officers that are trained find that, not in every application of it, are they able to cause the individual to subside in their unruliness. Basically, what we want to do is develop the kind of policy, I think, that the state patrol has, that King County now has, that Seattle has developed, and that many other law enforcement agencies across the state have developed. I think we will send a direct and clear message to the sheriffs and chiefs to adopt this kind of policy, too. I don't think it will impact upon legitimate and proper law enforcement techniques."

Senator Peterson: "Is it your intent then, Senator, that this, in effect--maybe not a sunset--but give us until next January to come up with a final solution?"

Senator Talmadge: "I don't think we will have to deal with it here. I would hope that we wouldn't. I would hope that the local law enforcement people would develop a policy. The state Department of Corrections has no problem with this particular bill or the policy that we are attempting to get across here."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3766.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3766, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 35; nays, 14; absent, 00; excused, 00.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3991, by Senators Conner, Peterson and Bottiger

Establishing procedures for reducing and ending tolls on the Hood Canal Bridge.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Peterson, the following amendment by Senators Peterson and Conner was adopted:

On page 2, beginning on line 26 after "(5)" strike all of the material through "(6)" on line 35, and insert "Effective May 1, 1983, the transportation commission shall not establish or maintain tolls on the Hood Canal bridge for a one-way crossing for an automobile, pickup, van, or motor home licensed for less than 8,000 pounds gross weight, in excess of the following:

One one-way crossing	$2.00
Book of twenty tickets for one-way crossing	$32.00
Book of ten tickets for one-way crossings available only to senior citizen purchasers sixty-five years of age or older	$16.00

The transportation commission shall establish a thirty-day period after May 1, 1983, for redemption of Hood Canal bridge toll tickets previously issued, for the cost charged for such tickets by the Washington state ferries.

(6) Nothing in subsection (5) of this section may be construed so as to violate any terms or conditions contained in the bond resolution authorizing the issuance and sale of the 1963 ferry and Hood Canal bridge refunding revenue bonds, and the limitations contained in subsection (5) of this section shall be of no effect if at any time during a biennium it appears that the projected toll revenues from the Hood Canal bridge will be less than the projected total costs of maintenance and operation of the Hood Canal bridge and the debt service on the 1963 ferry and Hood Canal bridge refunding revenue bonds for the biennium.

On motion of Senator Peterson, the following amendment by Senators Peterson and Conner was adopted:

On page 3, after line 2, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect on May 1, 1983."

On motion of Senator Peterson, the following title amendments were considered and adopted simultaneously:

In line 1 of the title, after "bridge;" strike "and"

In line 2 of the title, after "47.60.326" and before the period, insert "; declaring an emergency; and providing an effective date"

MOTION

On motion of Senator Peterson, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3991 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Peterson, we didn't take up this amendment in committee and I wonder, will this allow the commission to be able to pay off the bonds and the debts that are there in an orderly procedure or will this stretch out the length of time that they are going to have to take to pay it back?"

Senator Peterson: "To my knowledge, Senator Guess, the insurance money that was received by the commission took care of most of the extent of the bonding and this will not affect our further bonding on the bridge and it should proceed to pay them off."

Senator Guess: "But this takes the fare down on a commuter book to the 1967 prices and I don't think you can buy anything from 1967 dollars today."

Senator Peterson: "No, you probably can't, Senator Guess, but this language was drafted by the department--Mr. Garlington went through this. I assume, and I can only assume, that the bonding requirements are satisfied and would be with this fare reduction."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Quigg: "Senator Peterson, on the changing of the fare to two bucks with the fare book--ticket books--and so forth, what impact does that have on the subsidies relating to the ferry system and, therefore, the gas tax subsidy for the ferry system? Will it be increased or decreased pressure on the gas tax?"

Senator Peterson: "Perhaps Senator Conner could answer that better than I. I think that is indeterminable right now, because of the federal gas tax that is coming in to the state and that is part of the subsidy. The original impact, I think, was 1.9 million dollars. Senator Conner might be able to respond better than I on that."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Quigg: "Senator Conner, what is the impact of this measure, as now amended, on the gas taxpayers here in the state of Washington?"

Senator Conner: "This, according to the department, has an impact of 1.9 million dollars. I would like to say that I happened to start on this bridge project back in 1949--coming down to the legislature. We came back again and talked to different legislators and finally, it was enacted into law. That bridge more than paid for itself over the years that that toll has been on that bridge. There has been over three million dollars a year going into the ferry system and it is estimated that this reduction to the former rates will reduce the income about 1.9 million dollars."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, Senator von Reichbauer was excused.

Senators Peterson, Conner and Shinpoch demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3991.

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3991, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 27; nays, 20; absent, 01; excused, 01.

On page 1, line 16, strike "other than courts and the Legislature"

On motion of Senator Fleming, further consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3206 was deferred.

MOTION

At 9:19 a.m., on motion of Senator Fleming, the Senate was recessed until 10:30 a.m.

SECOND MORNING SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 10:45 a.m.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3206 and the pending amendment by Senator Metcalf on page 1, line 16.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, I raise the question of scope and object on this amendment."

Debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Bottiger, the President finds that Substitute Senate Bill No. 3206 is a measure which deals primarily with practically the entire scope of the open public meetings act.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Metcalf also deals with the scope of the open public meetings act by eliminating the exemption for the courts and the Legislature.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does not expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken."

The amendment by Senator Metcalf was ruled in order.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Metcalf.

The motion by Senator Metcalf failed and the amendment was not adopted.

MOTION

Senator Metcalf moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, on line 25, strike "If, by reason" and insert: "In case", and on line 29, strike all the underlined material through line 32; on line 32, strike "notice"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Thompson, in reading the underlined material--and I remember back to that fatal Monday--actually it was on Saturday or Sunday, rather--and then on Monday when the sheriff was trying to get all the people over to the courthouse, it seems to me that there was need to expedite the action of the governing body. I wonder why in the world that they would have to provide a meeting site other than the regular meeting site. Do you want to have another meeting site to keep the people from not knowing where the meeting site is? Is that the understanding there?"

Senator Thompson: "Senator Guess, I am going to respond by saying that the language is permissive. They may move the site. The county commissioners in Cowlitz County found it very much to their advantage to have an advance field station, if you will, where they could be closer to where the action was to make decisions with regard to what's going on. That same scenario may repeat itself in other situations--both in Mount St. Helens or in flood situations or the like."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Thompson, I guess I had the same qualms that Senator Metcalf had about this bill in this particular section. That language that refers, specifically, to fire, flood, earthquake or other emergency. When you refer to other emergencies, do you mean that it be an act of God, specifically, rather than something like, for example, the default of the Washington Public Power Supply System?"

Senator Thompson: "It is very definitely the former and not any financial emergency."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Metcalf.

The motion by Senator Metcalf failed on a rising vote and the amendment was not adopted.

MOTION

Senator Sellar moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, beginning on line 17, strike all new language down through and including "session" on line 19.

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Sellar.

The motion by Senator Sellar failed on a rising vote and the amendment was not adopted.

MOTION

Senator Metcalf moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, strike all underlined material on lines 13-16.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bottiger: "I raise the point of order that the three-minute rule has been violated by about seven minutes."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Your point is well taken."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Lee demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senator Metcalf.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Metcalf failed and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 19; nays, 29; absent, 00; excused, 01.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Craswell, Deccio, Fuller, Guess, Hughes, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, Metcalf, Moore, Owen, Patterson, Pullen, Quigg, Sellar, Talmadge - 19.

Voting nay: Senators Bauer, Bender, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hurley, Jones, McDermott, McManus, Newhouse, Peterson, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Shinpoch, Thompson, Vogniid, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 29.

Excused: Senator Haley - 1.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Thompson, on line 15, page 3, I think both you and Senator Lee, maybe, have a good point with regard to the underlined language. I guess my concern is whether that language is poorly enough drafted that it needs revision for clarification purposes. I don't object, Senator Thompson, to the language that's underlined there. I don't know if Senator Lee does or not. I don't think she does, but I think her concern was that that language was so vaguely drafted that it could have meanings other than the ones that you intend.

"For example, perhaps we could amend it by striking the words 'affect the price or other terms' and also striking the words 'to the' at the end of the line and replacing 'to the' with 'affect,' so that it would read 'to consider contract negotiations when public knowledge regarding such consideration would adversely affect the interest of the public.' It seems to me that would do what you wanted to do with that underlined language, and I think it's what Senator Lee would want to do, too. It does it in a way that is clear.

"I don't know if you or Senator Lee want to comment on that or not, but I would agree with Senator Lee that the language is, perhaps, misleading with the way it is drafted. I would, also, agree with you, Senator Thompson, that the intent of the language, or what I think is your intent, is a good intent."

Senator Thompson: "Senator Pullen, I believe that the intent will be recognized by people who apply this act and the language. The amendment has been defeated. I am comfortable that it is sufficiently explicit to carry out its intent. It was prepared by an attorney who has dealt with this act since its inception and the questions raised here have not been raised otherwise. I think that you need have no concern."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Thompson, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3206 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Williams: "Senator Thompson, the section that we've been talking about on allowing for closed meetings on the negotiation of contracts and so forth. Will this allow additional closed meetings--in particular for the WPPSS board when it comes to negotiating some of the contracts that are going now?"

Senator Thompson: "Yes, it would and will, Senator Williams, if those meetings conform to the language of this exemption or exception."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3206.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3206, and the bill failed to pass the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 20; nays, 28; absent, 00; excused, 01.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bottiger, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, McDermott, McManus, Moore, Owen, Peterson, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Warnke, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 20.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Fuller, Guess, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, Metcalf, Newhouse, Patterson, Pullen, Quigg, Sellar, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Williams - 28.

Excused: Senator Haley - 1.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3206, having failed to receive the constitutional majority, was declared lost.

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Williams served notice that he would, on the next working day, move to reconsider the vote by which Substitute Senate Bill No 3206 failed to pass the Senate.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3605, by Senators Goltz, Peterson, Vognil, Fuller, Metcalf and Conner

Modifying provisions relating to state timber sale contracts.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Owen moved adoption of the following Committee on Natural Resources amendment:

On page 2, beginning on line 2, strike all material down to and including "indicating:" on line 4 and insert the following:

"(2) The department shall approve applications for default under subsection (1) of this section if the purchaser supplies evidence indicating:"

Senator McDermott moved adoption of the following amendment to the committee amendment:

On page 1, line 8, after "department" strike "shall" and insert "is authorized to"

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment to the Committee on Natural Resources amendment.

The motion by Senator McDermott failed on a rising vote and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Natural Resources amendment.

The motion by Senator Owen carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator McDermott, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 23, after "within" strike "ninety" and insert "thirty"

On motion of Senator McDermott, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 3, line 8, after "expire" strike "on December 31, 1983" and insert "sixty days after the effective date of this act"

On motion of Senator Owen, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3605 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

MOTION

At 11:58 a.m., on motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate recessed until 1:30 p.m.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 1:30 p.m.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3605.

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDermott: "Senator Goltz, is it the intention of this bill to deal with one timber sale as far as you know?"

Senator Goltz: "I would say that is the intent. It's my intent, to be sure, that it deals with one company. There are, as I understand it, eight companies which might qualify--no more than eight. I have the list of those companies in my hand. They are all small companies and I do not know the status of those companies, whether they would qualify under the very restrictive provisions of this bill or not."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Guess, do you remember what the Supreme Court did to the relief bill for the asphalt pavement contractors?"

Senator Guess: "They turned it down."

Senator Rasmussen: "They did?"

Senator Guess: "They sure did."

Senator Rasmussen: "It was a contract. I hope the Supreme Court rules the same way on this relief bill, also."

Senator Guess: "Senator, I don't believe that the Supreme Court would pay any attention to this act because they are a humane bunch of people."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3605.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3605, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 30; nays, 19; absent, 00; excused, 00.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3605, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 4079, by Senators Williams, Lee and Fuller

Prohibiting the use of pesticides containing endrin.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Hansen moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Hansen, Newhouse, Benitz, Sellar, Deccio and Moore:

On page 1, line 11, strike section 1.

Re-number remaining sections.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Hurley: "Mr. President, a point of order. Would you please rule on the scope and object of the amendment? The amendment deletes the whole first section which is intended to prohibit the use of endrin and by deleting that it deletes the whole reason for the bill and would permit the use of endrin."

Further debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order proposed by Senator Hurley, the President believes that the point is not well taken, as any member of the Senate is permitted to try to perfect the bill, and the President is sure that is the opinion of the sponsors of the amendment."

Further debate ensued on the amendment by Senators Hansen, Newhouse, Benitz, Sellar, Deccio and Moore.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Williams, do you know of any other instances besides the one in which a large number of cattle were killed where endrin was improperly used?"

Senator Williams: "Yes, Senator Talmadge, one of the members on this floor had come to me and asked about the use of endrin. He was concerned about the bill, because he was afraid some of the agriculturists in his area would be concerned about it and wanted to maintain the use of it. I perused that and found out that, in fact, it was used by these agriculturists to spread around warehouses which stored an agricultural product. I informed him that was an illegal use. The federal government has a list of nine uses that are appropriate for this. The particular use that he described to me is illegal in this state and that's what brings up the concern.

"In other words, the prevalence of this material, even though it's cited as being controlled--tightly controlled--is the fact that because it is available, it does find its way into uses that are illegal in this state. I suspect that that is just one incident of many where it is used to kill other rodents."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Williams demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senators Hansen, Newhouse, Benitz, Sellar, Deccio and Moore.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Hansen failed and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 20; nays, 28; absent, 01; excused, 00.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Benitz, Bottiger, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Jones, McCaslin, Moore, Newhouse, Patterson, Peterson, Rasmussen, Sellar, von Reichbauer - 20.

Voting nay: Senators Bender, Bluechel, Clarke, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Kiskaddon, Lee, McDermott, McManus, Owen, Pullen, Quigg, Rinehart, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 28.

Absent: Senator Metcalf - 1.

MOTION

Senator Hansen moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Hansen, Newhouse, Benitz, Sellar, Deccio and Moore:

On page 3, line 16, after "rules" strike "prohibiting" and insert "regulating"

Debate ensued.

Senator Williams demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Hansen, Newhouse, Benitz, Sellar, Deccio and Moore.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Hansen failed and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote:

Yeas, 22; nays, 26; absent, 01; excused, 00.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Benitz, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Fuller, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Jones, McCaslin, Moore, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Rasmussen, Sellar - 22.

Voting nay: Senators Bender, Bluechel, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Kiskaddon, Lee, McDermott, McManus, Pullen, Quigg, Rinehart, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 26.

Absent: Senator Metcalf - 1.

MOTION

Senator Deccio moved the following amendments by Senators Deccio, Sellar, Hansen, Moore and Bauer be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 3, line 16: strike line 16 through 17 and insert "The director shall adopt rules phasing out the use of endrin over a five year period and restricting the used of endrin to only emergency situations that are specifically authorized by the director after five years."

On page 6, line 4, strike "Prohibiting" and insert "Regulating"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Deccio, this amendment, as I read it, would allow for the use of endrin as directed by the Department of Agriculture after the five-year period, in emergency situations. Is that correct?"

Senator Deccio: "The way the amendment reads--and the reason it is there--Senator, is because that right now there is no adequate alternative in there. I would suspect that during that five years that the Department would get busy and develop alternatives to endrin, and before that five-year period was up, then we could go ahead and do what you would like to do in this bill today."

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Deccio, a further question. Isn't it true that today you really use endrin only in emergency situations--that the situation has to be critical before it is used today, so that what this amendment would do would be to carry on exactly the same procedures with the one exception of requiring the Department of Agriculture to give the permission to use it?"

Senator Deccio: "Senator Bluechel, you have answered your own question. Of course, it would allow them to continue the use, because we don't want it banned immediately. We want some time to work out an alternative method."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "Senator Bluechel, you indicated that already endrin is used in regulated kinds of situations. I guess I had thought that it was fairly freely available presently. Can you elaborate on that?"

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Woody, I'm not quite sure if you understood me. What I said was that endrin, since 1966, has come under stringent regulations to the point where in the countries of Europe--the major countries of Europe--and many of the states in this country--and in many of the federal and state agencies--they have banned entirely the use of endrin.

"The one remaining area in this state that does not ban it is the area in the Department of Agriculture, in particular under the area of orchardists. All I said was that there is an increasing awareness of the problem and, therefore, an increasing restriction in total elimination of the use of endrin. I suggested that we should take the last step and totally ban it."

MOTION

Senator Kiskaddon moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment:

After "over a" strike "five" and insert "two" and after "period" insert a "." and strike the remainder of the amendment.

Debate ensued.

MOTION

Senator Woody moved that the proposed amendment to the amendment be considered as two separate amendments.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "A point of parliamentary inquiry. I have an amendment that has been distributed to the desks, which adds a new section, section 7, which says that this act shall take effect March 1, 1985. My question is if the Kiskaddon amendment as separated out by Senator Woody would be adopted, would I be precluded from offering my amendment which would add the new section 7?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Pullen, your proposed amendment would be in order."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDermott: "Would Senator Deccio yield to a question?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Deccio declines to yield."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDermott: "Senator Sellar, my question is--in this amendment it says 'the director shall adopt rules phasing out the use of endrin.' Would you explain to me what you mean by phasing out? How you phase out the use?"

Senator Sellar: "My guess would be, Senator, that phasing out would be from the present level down to something nearly zero, if possible. A phase out is a reduction of the use of the product."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Williams: "A point of order, Mr. President. What is the issue before the body at the moment?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In the event that the question is divided--specifically to substitute two years from a five-year period, which if adopted would be somewhat in conflict with the other part of the proposed amendment. You might have two years in one area and five years in another."

Debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Woody, the Secretary has just advised that Rule 1 provides that the motion to strike out and insert shall not be divided. Therefore, the question is the adoption of the Deccio amendment in its entirety."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Benitz: "Mr. President, a point of parliamentary inquiry. Is not the issue the striking of 'five' and inserting 'two'? Is that the issue before the body now?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The question before the Senate is the adoption of the amendment to the amendment as proposed by Senator Kiskaddon."

Further debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "A point of parliamentary inquiry. I have an amendment to the Deccio amendment which is on the desk, which says that after five years, only the Department of Agriculture may store endrin and any emergency application of endrin will be made by withdrawing endrin from the Department's supply.

"I guess I am a little worried that my amendment to the Deccio amendment may not make sense if the Kiskaddon amendment is adopted. I just wondered if there is a question of order here whether the Pullen amendment, perhaps, should be taken before the Kiskaddon amendment? I guess my question is should the Kiskaddon amendment be taken before the Pullen amendment and if so, am I precluded from offering this amendment or a very similar amendment to the Deccio amendment?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Pullen, the President believes that your amendment would be in order in any event. However, I would like to suggest that various people who are so interested in this bill get together and work it out."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of Senate Bill No. 4079 was deferred and made a special order of business at the evening session.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3873, by Senator Hansen

Relating to water rights.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Hansen, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3873 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3873 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Hansen, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3873 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

On motion of Senator Bluechel, Senator Metcalf was excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3873.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3873, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 06; absent, 00; excused, 01.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McManus, Moore, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Quigg, Rasmussen, Sellar, Shinpoch, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 42.

Modifying provisions relating to consumer warranties.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Vognild, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3034 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3034 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Vognild, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3034 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Rinehart, I think this is excellent legislation. This is intended for only new cars?"

Senator Rinehart: "Correct."

Senator Rasmussen: "Then, a further question that may not be--I hope you don't consider it frivolous. There have been people that, after repeated visits to the dealers and not getting satisfaction, hung a lemon sign on their cars and put the dealer's name on it and then paraded around the town. Would this give them a right to do that? I understand some of them have been sued on the basis that they were giving wrongful advertising."

Senator Rinehart: "This has no relationship, whatsoever, to either advertising or hanging signs on your car."

Senator Rasmussen: "In effect, the law, though, would give you the right to call it a lemon?"

Senator Rinehart: "Those specific words are not in the bill, Senator Rasmussen."

Senator Rasmussen: "So, they'd better be careful, then?"

Senator Rinehart: "A consumer should always be careful."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Does this bill cover only American-made lemons or does it cover foreign-made lemons, as well?"

Senator Rinehart: "It's not discriminatory. It covers all lemons."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Rinehart, why doesn't this bill cover my rototiller?"

Senator Rinehart: "This is the first time your rototiller problems have been brought to my attention. Perhaps, we can work things out."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3034.

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3034, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 34; nays, 13; absent, 02; excused, 00.

Absent: Senators Haley, Jones - 2.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3389, by Senators Rinehart, Zimmerman, Thompson and Granlund (by Secretary of State request)

Revising procedures for mail voting.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3389 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3389 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 23, after "~~(only)~~," strike all the remaining underlined language down through "29.04.055," on line 20.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Rinehart, I've been looking in the bill to find out how the person gets the ballot. Can you describe that to me or tell me where in the bill I might find it?"

Senator Rinehart: "Yes, Senator Guess. It is important to look at the entire procedure from the time the ballot is sent out to the time it is sent back and counted."

Senator Guess: "Wait a minute. Why do you send the ballot out--just helter skelter to everybody in the precinct?"

Senator Rinehart: "No, to registered voters."

Senator Guess: "On their request or not on their request?"

Senator Rinehart: "I think you're confusing two procedures. One is the absentee ballot where the individual registered voter requests a ballot and the other is the proposed measure here which is holding one issue--one special election by mail--at the request of the jurisdiction."

Senator Guess: "You mean he is just going to, carte blanche, send everybody in the whole precinct a ballot without request--whether they are on vacation or whether they are out of state or not?"

Senator Rinehart: "Senator Guess, I believe if you will read all of the sections describing the procedure, you will discover that it deals with small specific jurisdictions and that the step by step process where the ballots are distributed and returned leaves no room for violation, which you seem to be concerned about."

Senator Guess: Well, Senator, it says on page 2, section 2, line 14 'for any special election conducted the auditor shall send a mail ballot with a return identification envelope to each registered voter in the district.' Now, you were talking about signatures awhile ago--they were going to compare the signatures. If I don't send in a request and a signature there, how is the auditor going to have a signature to compare?"

Senator Rinehart: "When you register to vote, you sign and that signature is on file with the auditor and that is the comparison that is made for the signing of initiatives and for any question of a ballot issue. Your signature and every other registered voter's signature is already on file."

Senator Guess: "O.K., in Spokane County, then, there are in the sixth district, some 65,000 registered voters, so when it comes time for a school election or something like that, then the county auditor is going to send out, in the sixth district, 65,000 ballots. Is that right?"

Senator Rinehart: "If the jurisdiction has requested that kind of an election, then the registered voters in that jurisdiction receive those ballots. Then, if you read the rest of the bill, there is a careful procedure for monitoring the return of those ballots. There is a procedure for checking."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Granlund: "Senator Woody, we've heard a lot about sending out the ballots willy nilly. Many of us have precincts in our district, for instance Anderson Island in my district, all vote by mail. Are you suggesting that, perhaps, this is an unhealthy thing and that we should change the law so that none of these district do that any longer?"

Senator Woody: "No, Senator Granlund. As I indicated, our present law does provide for small precincts where there are access problems, to be voted by mail and that does work well. That is an exception to the general election statutes which require that if you cast your ballot, you go to a polling place and do it in private at a specific and designated time and place. That was an exception to the basic rule that was made a long time ago for the specific purpose of taking care of rural areas and very small precincts and areas that are hard to access with a polling place."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Gaspard: "The reason I've asked you, Senator Talmadge, is because you are the chairman of the Judiciary Committee, from which the bill was reported out. In looking at Senator Pullen's amendment, can you tell me if this expands or restricts voting by mail?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Gaspard, if you take a look at section one of the bill, the language that now exists in the section, absent Senator Pullen's amendment, states that at any primary, general or special election, the county auditor, in any precinct having fewer than 100 registered voters at the time of closing the voter registration as provided in RCW 29.07.160, can conduct the voting in that precinct by mail ballot. The language that then follows states that in any special election not being held in conjunction with a state primary or state general election, the county auditors can, on the request of the particular election officer of the special jurisdiction involved, conduct voting by mail ballot in any precinct or combination of precincts.

"Senator Pullen's amendment strikes that last sentence that talks about the request having to come from the special jurisdiction involved. By striking out that last sentence, it leaves in its place in the statute within that section the opportunity at any primary, general or special election, with respect to any precinct with less than 100 voters, to use the mail ballot at any time or at any place."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Quigg: "Senator Talmadge, we are considering in the Energy Committee legislation about the disposition of Merwin Dam and there will be voting in Garfield County and some others--Cowlitz and Clark and so forth--presumably maybe even a special election and, of course, we've had 394 around for a while and there was a possibility that there could have been an election held at a time other than a primary or general. Would these kinds of elections be subject to mail ballot under the provisions of this bill?"

Senator Talmadge: "No, because we would be talking in the case of Initiative 394 probably as a statewide ballot. When we are talking about a special jurisdiction or a small jurisdiction in a special election ballot--if that jurisdiction requests it--the vote can be held by mail."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bluechel, Senator Haley was excused.

Senator Talmadge demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senator Pullen.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Pullen failed, the President voting nay, and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 24; nays, 24; absent, 00; excused, 01.

On page 3, line 3, after "election," insert "Each spoiled ballot must be returned to the county auditor before a new one is issued."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Pullen, I haven't studied this bill. I've been working on a couple of others, but is there any provision in this bill that requires paper ballots or can they send out punch card ballots?"

Senator Pullen: "They can send out punch card ballots."

Senator Rasmussen: "That's one of the problems, of course, when you send punch card ballots out. As people get older, their hands get a little shaky and they punch the wrong hole. There is no way to get a replacement in time to get it back, so they've lost their vote."

Senator Pullen: "I think you're pointing out one of the basic problems with mail balloting."

Senator Rasmussen: "Unless it is a full paper ballot out there."

Senator Pullen: "I wouldn't object to that at all, but I think other people might have something to say on that but, I think your comments are good and you are pointing out the basic deficiency of the whole bill."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Pullen, with respect to your amendment, is it your intent to confine it just to situations in which the ballot is spoiled and not in those situations where the ballot was destroyed, lost or not received?"

Senator Pullen: "That's absolutely correct."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Pullen, Hayner and Jones.

The motion by Senator Pullen carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, line 35, after "ballots," insert "An election inspector or judge shall be permitted to count by hand the ballots from his or her precinct."

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 4034, by Senator Peterson

Relating to motor vehicle and special fuels.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Vognild, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4034 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 4034 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Vognild, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4034 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "First of all, Senator Vognild, I want to congratulate you on what appears to be a very good bill. I would simply say that that service attendant made his fatal error when he tried to cheat Larry Vognild. But the question I have concerns subsection (2) where you say that 'the price per unit of fuel that is conditioned upon the purchase of another product, unless the conditional language, name and price of the other product are clearly expressed in the advertisement in characters at least one-half the height of the characters used to advertise the fuel price.' My question deals with the display of the fuel price. I've seen some service stations which will display the fuel price on the corner and then somewhere back near the pump or near the building, they then have some sort of qualifier. I would assume it's your intent that the characters that are one-half the height of the characters used to advertise the fuel price would be contiguous or adjacent to the fuel price, so that the consumers can see both the price and the qualifier with one flash of the eye."

Senator Vognild: "You are correct. The qualifier should be on the same sign or on the pump—one of the two."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4034.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4034, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; nays, 00; absent, 01; excused, 01.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3800, by Senator Owen

Relating to fishing licenses.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Owen, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3800 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3800 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Owen, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3800 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Zimmerman: "Senator Owen, I assume that somebody else from the committee might have brought this up, but we were talking about it earlier today and wondered if this is the steelhead poaching act of 1983--mainly that an adult is going out with his 16-year old son--obviously giving him an extra opportunity to catch fish. How do you respond to that?"

Senator Owen: "The law does not say that the person under 16 can fish without a punch card. They still must have a punch card in order to fish. They are just issued it free, as they're issued a fishing license free."

Senator Zimmerman: "You don't think there is the opportunity for abuses in terms of enforcement of it?"

Senator Owen: "Well, no more than the regular fishing license would be. That hasn't seemed to be a problem."

Senator Zimmerman: "The Game Department did not express a concern about the actual revenue involved here?"

Senator Owen: "I think the extent of the Department of Game's testimony is that they are supportive of the bill and not opposed."

Senator Zimmerman: "Taking a neutral position, but not particularly--"

Senator Owen: "I said they were supportive of the legislation."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3800.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3800, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 02; absent, 01; excused, 01.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3800, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SPECIAL ORDER OF BUSINESS

MOTIONS

The time having arrived, the Senate resumed consideration of Senate Bill No. 4079 and the pending amendment by Senator Deccio and the pending amendment to the Deccio amendment proposed by Senator Kiskaddon, deferred earlier today.

On motion of Senator Deccio, and there being no objection, the amendments were withdrawn.

Senator Hansen moved the following amendments by Senators Hansen and Deccio be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 3, line 16, strike all of lines 16 and 17 and insert "The director shall adopt rules phasing out the use of endrin over a three-year period at the rate of thirty-three percent each year from its present level."

On page 6, line 4, strike "Prohibiting" and insert "Regulating"

On page 6, following line 20, add a new section 7 as follows:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The Washington State University Department of Agriculture is directed to develop alternative biological, chemical, and/or mechanical methods of rodent control that do not require the use of endrin. A report shall be delivered to the House and Senate Agriculture and Parks and Ecology Committees during the 1985 session of the Washington State Legislature on the results of their development."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hayner: "Senator Hansen, in the new section 7, you are directing that Washington State University shall do some research on the problem of rodent control. Is it your intention that there will be some money in the budget to accomplish that?"

Senator Hansen: "Well, I think the severity of the problems that we have--yes--there will have to be money put in there for that purpose and without any money, then the agricultural society wouldn't be getting their fair shake at this."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Kiskaddon: "Senator Hansen, the way this would read, then, on page 6, is that regulating the use and possession of endrin as far as adopting rules and then the other one--the first amendment says that these rules phasing out the use of endrin over a three-year period--so am I correct in that the effect of these two amendments would be that endrin would be prohibited after a period of three years?"

Senator Hansen: "That's right."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendments by Senators Hansen and Deccio.

The motion by Senator Hansen carried and the amendments were adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hughes, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4079 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bottiger: "I don't mind Senator Newhouse debating the pros and cons of the bill, but if you want to get into a political shot, let's wait until just before 10 o'clock."

REMARKS BY SENATOR NEWHOUSE

Senator Newhouse: "From here on I want to talk about the bill. I don't take endrin lightly. As a matter of fact, I know it is dangerous, but it isn't nearly as dangerous as some of the other things that we use in this life. Fluorine in treating your kid's teeth--far more dangerous--and some of the things that have been mentioned before. The alternatives which have been taught in our orchards--we beat all the weeds, so there won't be any refuse for the mice to harbor in. We spray the roads to kill all the vegetative growth at the base of the trees, so that we won't have that. To those plastic guards that you talk about, don't you think a little mouse can burrow under and get up? He does. There is no easy answer. I wish you would send these kinds of bills to people that know something about them."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Newhouse: "A point of order. The member is reading contrary to the rules."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The point is well taken, Senator."

Further debate ensued.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Hurley: "I would like to make a short statement on a point of personal privilege. In response to the implication that Senator Hansen made about me--that I represent an urban area--I know nothing about farms, I know nothing about the problems of agriculture, I know nothing about apples.

"I would like to say that I was raised on a farm. My father raised apples. We raised the best apples in the state of Washington--better than Wenatchee, better than Yakima. I was raised in the Methow Valley, where the days were hot and the nights were cold. We had the reddest and the sweetest apples that you could ever imagine.

"Even though I do represent an urban area, I am concerned with the health and the environment and the interest of people. I don't talk from ignorance. I would like to make that clear."

Further debate ensued.

Senators Bottiger, Peterson and Williams demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 4079.

SENATE BILL NO. 4245, by Senators Goltz, Kiskaddon, Hurley and Williams
Revising provisions relating to hazardous waste management.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Hughes, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4245 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 4245 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Hughes, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4245 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Barr: "Senator Goltz, I am concerned about (a) under waste reductions on line 15 of the bill and just what that might entail, knowing full well what the Department of Ecology does to business with no regard for their well-being whatsoever. Then, of course, down below where it says 'waste reduction means that it will reduce the byproducts.' Now, in your mind, just what does this mean that the Department of Ecology could do to industry? I'm pretty concerned about that knowing how wild they get."

Senator Goltz: "Senator Barr, I think what we're trying to do here is to establish some guidelines for the Department. The first guideline is that the amount of material, which would be considered to be waste in this context, should be reduced. We use the landfill as the primary way of disposing of these materials. Landfills are limited. If you have a limited number of acres which provides a suitable landfill, one of the best ways to protect that resource is to reduce the number of cubic feet of waste that goes into that landfill.

"So, the first priority is to reduce the landfill. The second is to recycle. That is, to do as Senator Kiskaddon said--take the waste and bring it back into a useful form. Each one of these is devised to actually make it possible for the handling of this waste to be reduced and to be safely done. I'm not sure that I've answered your question completely."

Senator Barr: "I take from your answer that my concern is put to rest and that the Department of Ecology would not go into an industry and say you have to set up a different system, because you're creating unnecessary waste here and you must reduce that. Do I interpret your answer to mean that they will not go into a company and say you have to use a different process and so if that's true--"

Senator Goltz: "This bill does not give them any authority to go and tell them anything. It really expects them to go in and work with the generators to reduce the waste in a cooperative way."

Senators Bottiger, Woody and Peterson demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4245.

NEW SECTION Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 72.02 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The legislature finds that McNeil Island offers a unique opportunity for the state to preserve a rare ecological habitat. The rare and endangered wild plant and animal communities on the island deserve the protection of the state. For this reason, and to minimize adverse impacts on surrounding cities and towns, the legislature finds it necessary to establish a limit on the inmate population at the McNeil Island correctional facility.

(2) The department of corrections shall not increase the inmate population of the McNeil Island correctional facility above one thousand inmates. However, the governor may declare an emergency and increase the population limitation by ten percent for a twelve-month period of time. In no event may the inmate population of McNeil Island exceed one thousand one hundred inmates."

Renumber the sections consecutively.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Clarke: "Mr. President, a point of order. I raise the question of scope and object."

Debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Clarke, the President finds that Substitute Senate Bill No. 4137 is a measure which deals with the subject of adult corrections by establishing new procedures for the handling of abandoned property of inmates and by providing for industrial insurance coverage for inmates working in institutional industries.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Woody goes beyond the limited scope of the bill by establishing a limit on the inmate population at the McNeil Island correctional facility.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and the point of order is well taken."

The amendment by Senators Woody, Granlund and Pullen was ruled out of order.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator von Reichbauer: "Senator Vognild, in the course of the hearing before your committee when the Attorney General presented his evidence of cases brought before his office, was there one firm tracked more than any other, that had more complaints upon it, and if so, what broad percentages did the Attorney General's office state that represented?"

Senator Vognild: "I would say, yes, there was. I will not name the firm on the floor, because there is litigation pending from the Attorney General's office and, thus, they were not named in the committee."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3021.

MOTION

Senator Hurley moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, after line 23, insert:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 70.77 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A city, town, or county may prohibit or regulate the sale, use, and possession of fireworks within its jurisdiction if the regulation imposed is more restrictive than the provisions of this chapter, including but not limited to restrictions of one or more of the following:

- (1) The period of time during which fireworks may be sold or used;
- (2) The age of persons who may purchase fireworks; and
- (3) The types of fireworks which may be sold, offered for sale, or used."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct internal references.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Senator Vognild, does regulation of the fireworks differ in terms of philosophy than gambling when it comes to local control versus state control? Because, you remember an argument on that side of it, and secondly, also, maybe you might be able to share with me something that I might not be aware of. I know they have the fireworks on the Indian reservations and they are able to do some things that we are not able to do, so, maybe, you could also address to me, if you can--shed some light--on what Senator Newhouse related to when he said 'we would let the Indians do this and maybe we could let some of our people do it.' I am wondering--because the Indians are Americans, also, and citizens, and I don't get the meaning of that. I know they have different regulations."

Senator Vognild: "Senator Fleming, there are about four questions there. I'm going to start with one and work my way backwards. I guess the question is, what can Indians do and why can't our people do it. Basically, what it amounts to is that any regulation--"

Senator Fleming: "I want you to deal with that, but I also am trying to figure out what's the difference between the Indians and our people. I don't understand that."

Senator Vognild: "Well, Senator--"

Senator Fleming: "When you said 'our people,' I am just wondering whether you are talking about Indians. Am I included in those 'our people?' I am just trying to find out."

Senator Vognild: "As much as I regret having to answer in this manner, Senator Fleming, I'm going to have to answer that because of federal law and federal applications, there is, in fact, a difference between the rights that Indians have and the rights that other citizens of the state have. It's unfortunate--I wish it wasn't there, but it is."

"What that effect is, I think, if we looked at statistics from the last year's change. In 1981--1979, 1980, 1981--right in there--the average sales subject to sales tax was $6 million. In 1982, under the new regulations governing fireworks, that went to $11 million sales subject to sales tax. Those sales are sales by nonprofit groups who are raising money for their causes. I guess that's kind of what you were referring to when you referred to the difference between the two."

"Indirectly, let's put the other direction on it and show that the sales in this state in 1981--not subject to sales tax--were $8 million. In 1982, it was $7 million. I hope that answers partially."

Senator Hughes demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senator Hurley.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Hurley failed and the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 18; nays, 31; absent, 00; excused, 00.

On motion of Senator Pullen, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 6 of the title, strike "and" and after "penalties" insert ";"; and creating an effective date"

On motion of Senator Vognild, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3636 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 4019, by Senators Bottiger, Shinpoch and Gaspard

Providing procedures for extinguishing claims to mineral interests.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Owen, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4019 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 4019 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 2, line 12, after "date the" strike "statement of claim" and insert "current registration of mineral interest"

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4019 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Bottiger, when we were having a discussion on this bill in the committee, a question came up as to clear title. In other words, I had a small piece of property and the comment was made that if I had mineral rights, that would be in the title. Is that true? What is the situation on that?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Patterson, each of our counties may handle it differently, but most of them use what is called 'title insurance.' On your deed, you may or may not have disclosed that it does not include mineral rights. If you order a title insurance policy and someplace way back when somebody reserved the mineral rights, the title insurance company will tell you that.

"Now, when we seek deeds or contracts passing back and forth between parties, sometimes it says 'reservations of record' and that will pick up all kinds of things--easements for the telephone lines, fossil mineral rights--unless you go back and research the title, you generally do not know."

Senator Patterson: "Would I have to ask for title insurance in order to get that information if I was looking for it? How would you proceed as the surface owner?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Patterson, in most western Washington counties, we use title insurance companies. That would be my recommendation. You could go to your attorney or your real estate agent--generally a telephone call to the title company--they will tell you. Some places where they use abstract of title, you would have to go back through each page and look and see if you found a severed mineral right. It would depend on the county you live in."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Senator Bottiger, just out of curiosity and in researching the best method of doing this, did you give any consideration to actions to quiet title? That is the type of notice that would be given in an action to quiet title where, in substance, you are required to serve all those appearing in the title and then you publish."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator, you could do that, but then you've got the cost of the filing fee and the legal attorney's fees. We tried to find a way that was much less expensive than that. We, also, ran into a question of unknown heirs and how you publish, if you went through the quiet title process. There is a possibility of going that way and I concede that."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Quigg: "Senator Bottiger, it says here 'any mineral interest'--is what we are talking about? First, we have this oil and gas bill that we have been going to school on here, for the last few weeks, for all the various kinds of mineral interest and shares and portions of mineral interest. What kind of mineral interest did you have in mind in drafting this bill?"

Senator Bottiger: "Whatever the severed mineral rights would be. Quite often, it's coal, gravel--uranium clearly falls underneath it. There is a new word that I learned the other day and I've forgotten--dealing with some kind of an alloy mineral that's, apparently, found in eastern Washington. A mineral right is generally anything that's developable and of value below the surface."

Senator Quigg: "But, then, I guess the question is what form of interest in that right. In other words--lease, royalty interest, working interests--some of these kinds of terms that have come out of the oil and gas discussion, I imagine would apply to other types of minerals that you just mentioned."

Senator Bottiger: "This bill only applies to severance of the mineral rights from the surface of the land. So, that generally is via deed or document affecting title."

Senator Quigg: "So, if someone had a working interest in a lease--in other words, the lease covers--if somebody retains the mineral rights, they then lease it to another person, who in turn splits out a working interest in the mineral, would that third party have an interest that could be held under the provision of this bill?"

Senator Bottiger: "The lessor should register--the guy that owns it--and is leasing to somebody else should register the mineral rights."

Senator Quigg: "But, the lessor would be the only one that could be a subsequent interest holder."

Senator Bottiger: "They could always do it, but I don't think the bill requires them to do it. If anybody registers the mineral rights--the surface owner or the developer--we could have someone coming in trying to develop and looking for the person to get the lease from. What we are trying to do is tell him where he lives."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4019.

Senator Quigg: "Mr. President, a point of inquiry. I have noticed over the years that just before you rap the gavel you say 'if there is no objection, the title of the bill will stand as the title of the act.' My point of order is whether or not there can be an objection made at that point?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President generally hesitates slightly before tapping the gavel. You were not quick enough."

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3007, by Senators Williams and Moore

Modifying provisions relating to sexual offenses.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3007 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3007 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3007 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator Talmadge, I am going to vote in favor of this bill. There are a couple of questions I would like to ask. What provisions are there in the bill to deal with cases of spite or vengeance or retaliatory movements on the part of the wife or former wife?"

Senator Talmadge: "I think that is a serious concern and it really comes down to prosecutable discretion. If you look at the elements of the crime of rape in the first degree and rape in the second degree, there has to be substantial evidence of physical violence to the spouse. I think we, basically, leave it up to our local elected prosecutors to make that judgment. They're not going to bring cases frivolously. There is going to have to be substantial evidence to prove this kind of crime and given the concern I think that Senator Pullen and others have expressed about spite and other problems with cases of notoriety and other jurisdictions, the prosecutors will have to be very, very careful about bringing this kind of case. There will have to be substantial evidence of violence before the crime is going to be prosecuted."

Senator Deccio: "I guess my concern was that the Oregon case does present an example that prosecutors are human just like everybody else. They can make mistakes, except that this is a very delicate piece of legislation that could develop those kinds of situations. I would hope that the prosecutors would monitor these cases as they go along and perhaps come back to the legislature to see if we can't write language into the bill that would give that kind of protection."

Senator Talmadge: "I have that same concern, Senator. All I can say is that in California and Oregon since the time of the Rideout case in Oregon, there have not been those kinds of problems that we were made aware of."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Gaspard: "Senator Talmadge, because we are removing the marital offense for class one and class two rape, I think it is good that we understand what the penalties are. Class one is a Class A felony; second degree rape is a Class B felony. What are the penalties associated with those two classifications of felony?"

Senator Talmadge: "Under present law, a Class A felony provides for a maximum term of life imprisonment and a maximum fine of fifty thousand dollars. A Class B felony is up to ten years and a twenty thousand dollar fine. With the guidelines of the Sentencing Guidelines Commission, that might be different. I don't recall what those are, specifically, right off the top of my head."

Further debate ensued.

Senators Bottiger, Williams and Rasmussen demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3007.

On page 2, line 31, after "equal to" strike "forty-five" and insert "fifteen"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "Senator Thompson, I am a friend of the bill, but there are a couple of pieces of information I would like to have. First of all, this procedure of permitting the levy for a six-year period, I recognize is not really quite like a special levy nor is it exactly like granting some of the so-called floating levies to parks and recreation districts as a right. It seems to me that it is closer to the serial levy kind of thing that the state of Oregon, in fact, permits. Are you aware of any other portion of state law that grants this kind of serial levy sort of thing to special purpose districts, other than the two-year levy that is permitted to school districts."

Senator Thompson: "I believe emergency medical services are supported by this method, Senator Lee."

Senator Lee: "How long of a levy may they request?"

Senator Thompson: "Six years as well."

Senator Lee: "They also have six years--and also that so-called floating evaluation portion?"

Senator Thompson: "They are also subject to the levy lid, as all junior taxing districts are."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "Senator Thompson, you mentioned that the district you speak of is the junior of juniors and that they have a six-year lid and established some kind of an obligation bond or otherwise in anticipation of that. What happens if one of the senior's junior taxing districts increases its levy and squeezes down to where they don't get the fifteen cents?"

Senator Thompson: "Senator Newhouse, this source of revenue isn't suitable for bonding. It's only suitable for operational purposes. No bond purchaser would rely on such an uncertain source."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Thompson, are there provisions so they can not multiply and that they have to wait to the end of six years or could they put a levy on for fifteen cents for six years and then come back the following year and put another one on for fifteen cents?"

Senator Thompson: "That is definitely not permitted by the language of the bill."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4015.

The board may, in its discretion, grant or refuse the license applied for. No retail license of any kind may be issued to:

(a) A person who has not resided in the state for at least one month prior to making application, except in cases of licenses issued to dining places on railroads, boats, or aircraft;

(b) A copartnership, unless all of the members thereof are qualified to obtain a license, as provided in this section;

(c) A person whose place of business is conducted by a manager or agent, unless such manager or agent possesses the same qualifications required of the licensee;

(d) A corporation, unless it was created under the laws of the state of Washington or holds a certificate of authority to transact business in the state of Washington.

(3) The board may, in its discretion, subject to the provisions of RCW 66.08.150, suspend or cancel any license; and all rights of the licensee to keep or sell liquor thereunder shall be suspended or terminated, as the case may be. The board may request the appointment of administrative law judges under chapter 34.12 RCW who shall have power to administer oaths, issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of papers, books, accounts, documents, and testimony, examine witnesses, and to receive testimony in any inquiry, investigation, hearing, or proceeding in any part of the state, under such rules and regulations as the board may adopt.

Fees need not be paid in advance of appearance of witnesses to testify or to produce books, records, or other legal evidence.

In case of disobedience of any person to comply with the order of the board or a subpoena issued by the board, or any of its members, or administrative law judges, or on the refusal of a witness to testify to any matter regarding which he may be lawfully interrogated, the judge of the superior court of the county in which the person resides, on application of any member of the board or administrative law judge, shall compel obedience by contempt proceedings, as in the case of disobedience of the requirements of a subpoena issued from said court or a refusal to testify therein.

(4) Upon receipt of notice of the suspension or cancellation of a license, the licensee shall forthwith deliver up the license to the board. Where the license has been suspended only, the board shall return the license to the licensee at the expiration or termination of the period of suspension, with a memorandum of the suspension written or stamped upon the face thereof in red ink. The board shall notify all vendors in the city or place where the licensee has its premises of the suspension or cancellation of the license; and no employee may allow or cause any liquor to be delivered to or for any person at the premises of that licensee.

~~(5) (The board shall assign to each business an expiration date for all licenses or certificates of approval covered by this title. Following the assignment, unless sooner canceled, every license or certificate of approval issued by the board shall expire at midnight of the last day of the month on the twelfth month subsequent to issue.~~

~~(a) Each business shall be assigned a license or certificate of approval expiration date according to the schedule following below in this subsection. Fees for such licenses or certificates of approval shall be charged at full annual rate as outlined in chapter 66.24 RCW. The board shall prorate license or certificate of approval fees as necessary to implement the reassignment of expiration dates and to maintain the date assignment of each:~~

~~(iv) Supplemental license(s): shall expire on the same date as the master.~~

~~(b) The board will consider requests from applicants for exceptions to assigned renewal dates. Approval shall be at the discretion of the board.~~

~~(c) All applications shall be submitted with a full year's fee for the type of license or certificate of approval for which the type of application is intended:~~

~~(d) All licenses or certificates of approval presently issued and covered under this title unless sooner discontinued or canceled shall be assigned not later than July 1, 1983, a license expiration date:~~

~~(e) Licenses issued under the provisions of RCW 66.24.310, as now or hereafter amended, are excluded from provisions of this subsection and unless sooner canceled shall expire at~~ midnight of the thirtieth day of June of the fiscal year for which issued.)) Unless sooner canceled, every license issued by the board shall expire at midnight of the thirtieth day of June of the fiscal year for which it was issued. However, if the board deems it feasible and desirable to do so, it may establish, by rule pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, a system for staggering the annual renewal dates for any and all licenses authorized by this chapter. If such a system of staggered annual renewal dates is established by the board, the license fees provided by this chapter shall be appropriately prorated during the first year that the system is in effect.

(6) Every license issued under this section shall be subject to all conditions and restrictions imposed by this title or by the regulations in force from time to time.

(7) Every licensee shall post and keep posted its license, or licenses, in a conspicuous place on the premises.

(8) Before the board shall issue a license to an applicant it shall give notice of such application to the chief executive officer of the incorporated city or town, if the application be for a license within an incorporated city or town, or to the county legislative authority, if the application be for a license outside the boundaries of incorporated cities or towns; and such incorporated city or town, through the official or employee selected by it, or the county legislative authority or the official or employee selected by it, shall have the right to file with the board within twenty days after date of transmittal of such notice, written objections against the applicant or against the premises for which the license is asked, and shall include with such objections a statement of all facts upon which such objections are based, and in case written objections are filed, may request and the liquor control board may in its discretion hold a formal hearing subject to the applicable provisions of Title 34 RCW, as now or hereafter amended. Upon the granting of a license under this title the board shall send a duplicate of the license or written notification to the chief executive officer of the incorporated city or town in which the license is granted, or to the county legislative authority if the license is granted outside the boundaries of incorporated cities or towns.

(9) Before the board issues any license to any applicant, it shall give (a) due consideration to the location of the business to be conducted under such license with respect to the proximity of churches, schools, and public institutions and (b) written notice by certified mail of the application to churches, schools, and public institutions within five hundred feet of the premises to be licensed. The board shall issue no beer retailer license class A, B, D, or E or wine retailer license class C or F or class H license covering any premises not now licensed, if such premises are within five hundred feet of the premises of any ~~((church, parochial, or))~~ tax-supported public elementary or secondary school measured along the most direct route over or across established public walks, streets, or other public passageway from the outer property line of the ~~((church or))~~ school grounds to the nearest public entrance of the premises proposed for license, and if, after receipt by the school ~~((-church;))~~ or public institution of the notice as provided in this subsection, the board receives written notice, within twenty days after posting such notice, from an official representative or representatives of the school ~~((s and/or churches))~~ within five hundred feet of said proposed licensed premises, indicating to the board that there is an objection to the issuance of such license because of proximity to a school ~~((or church))~~. For the purpose of this section, church shall mean a building erected for and used exclusively for religious worship and schooling or other activity in connection therewith.

(10) The restrictions set forth in the preceding subsection shall not prohibit the board from authorizing the transfer of existing licenses now located within the restricted area to other persons or locations within the restricted area: PROVIDED, Such transfer shall in no case result in establishing the licensed premises closer to a church or school than it was before the transfer."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Vognild, on page 1, line 32, subsection 9, it says 'perform services for the state lottery commission to such extent, and for such compensation, as may be mutually agreed upon between the board and the commission.' Could you give me a better idea of what kind of services we are talking about and is subsection 9 limited in any way or can it be any kind of services?"

Senator Vognild: "The services we are talking about here are the selling of lottery tickets and the redemption of the smaller amount lottery tickets. That's absolutely all it is intended to be. The Attorney General raised the question as to whether that was legal under the law and this makes it legal. That's all that is intended."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Warnke: "Senator Vognild, in the lottery bill, I believe there is a five percent commission for the selling of tickets by the agents. As I read that amendment, they could go to any price that was mutually agreed to between the Lottery Commission and the Liquor Board. I have the same concern that Senator Pullen raised that once the computers are installed and whether or not there are going to be additional services available between those two agencies of which we would have absolutely no control over the costs and the money going back and forth."

Senator Vognild: "Thank you, Senator Warnke. It is my understanding and my intention with this bill that the rules governing the lottery in regard to the commission or expenses they are allowed to pay would certainly supersede any agreement between the board and the lottery board."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Vognild, Quigg, Wojahn and Newhouse.

The motion by Senator Vognild carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "the" strike the remainder of the title and insert "powers of the state liquor control board to issue licenses and perform services for the state lottery commission; amending section 69, chapter 62, Laws of 1933 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 173, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 66.08.050; amending section 4, chapter 6, Laws of 1961 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 239, Laws of 1963 and RCW 66.08.026; and amending section 27, chapter 62, Laws of 1933 ex. sess. as last amended by section 2, chapter 85, Laws of 1982 and RCW 66.24.010."

On motion of Senator Vognild, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3101 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

MESSAGE FROM CONGRESSMAN SID MORRISON HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES WASHINGTON, D. C. 20515

March 24, 1983

Dear John and members of the Senate family:

Your flowers were an inspiration and really brightened my hospital days. This surgery was a first for me and your thoughtfulness will be long remembered.

I must tell you about my operation. A few years ago, I participated in a convention at Palm Springs, and very conscientiously got up early each morning and jogged. An airborne spore called coccidia is prominent in the southwestern states and I got it in my lungs, with a first appearance in a chest X-ray taken in late January. The minor infection caused by the spore went unnoticed, but it leaves the same evidence as a malignant growth.

The important thing was to find out what it was, and surgery provided a great answer. I only missed a few days in the office and feel like a smaller truck ran over me every day.

Your special thoughts during the heavy part of this process reminded me how special you are. Many thanks.

Sincerely,
Sid

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3537, by Senators Vognild, Lee and Woody

Requiring notices to firefighters of the presence of guard animals.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Vognild moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Vognild, Bottiger and Lee:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. There is added to chapter 48.48 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) All premises guarded by guard animals, which are animals professionally trained to defend and protect premises or the occupants of the premises, shall be registered with the local fire department. Front entrances to residences and all entrances to business premises shall be posted in a visible location with signs approved by the state fire marshal indicating that guard animals are present.

(2) A fire fighter, who reasonably believes that his or her safety is endangered by the presence of a guard animal, may without liability: (a) Refuse to enter the premises, or (b) take any reasonable action necessary to protect himself or herself from attack by the guard animal.

(3) If the person responsible for the guard animal being on the premises does not comply with subsection (1) of this section, that person may be held liable for any injury to the fire fighter caused by the presence of the guard animal."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Vognild, one of the concerns that I had in the beginning is still left in there because you say on line 18--'front entrances to residences and all entrances to business premises shall be posted in a visible location with signs approved by the state fire marshal indicating that guard animals are present.' Now, in a residential area with some very nice houses--very fine homes--what size decal are you going to think they are going to come up with?"

Senator Vognild: "Senator, we have talked with the fire marshal's office and their intentions are about a three to four-inch round decal and that's it."

Senator Guess: "I can imagine at two o'clock in the morning a fire breaks out in the house and a neighbor notifies the department and they come up there --it's pitch black dark and I just wonder what good your three-inch decal is going to do on the front of the house when their attention is glued at the farthest region on the back side of the property?"

Senator Vognild: "I could probably best answer that by saying that we have tried programs indicating with a small decal like that there are children present in a particular room or that there are handicapped individuals in a particular area of the house. If the firefighters know where that decal is going to be, then they are alert to it. Your indication here--a fire in the back of the house--I can assure you that the fire department will always approach from both sides and they do use two-way radios."

Debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Vognild, Bottiger and Lee.

The motion by Senator Vognild carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3537 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Vognild, I favor this bill, as I usually find myself favoring your bills, because I invariably find a good bill. The question I have about this bill deals with a similar bill that I believe we had a year or two ago. I believe we passed a similar bill that dealt with police departments, is that correct? Didn't we pass a bill that said we had to notify police departments when guard dogs or guest dogs were on hand, or am I not remembering that correctly? I want to make sure that there are no conflicts between the notification requirement for firefighters and policemen. I want to make sure there is a consistency there. Maybe I'm wrong. I thought we had passed the bill--a similar bill--dealing with police officers; perhaps we did not."

Senator Vognild: "I don't recall the bill, Senator, that you're talking about here, but I could say that the notification here and the posting will go through general dispatching which will mean that it will be easily accessible to both police and fire departments."

Further debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3537.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Senator McManus, for the record, this would cover remodeling, expansion and would not necessarily mean just new construction? The other question is in the event that we phase out the certificate of need process, would you interpret this as meaning that they then would have to secure the approval of the Department of Social and Health Services to replace the certificate of need?"

Senator McManus: "The certificate of need is the kind of question that stands by itself. As we have it now, the certificate of need is in the control by the Department of Social and Health Services, so that we don't overbuild like what used to happen when I was a nursing home administrator back in the early 1960's. If we replaced a certificate of need program, I presume that there will be some kind of additional control or alternative control that would be established so we would not get into the overdevelopment or overbuilding phase that we were once in in this state."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Senator McDermott, in subsection (2), is it your understanding of the language of what the performance indicated in this bill would do in terms of turning over leases, whether in fact those that are financed under this particular chapter would have any effect on a large corporation coming in and going under this particular procedure and then turning the lease over. What is your understanding of that section? Secondly, in terms of industrial revenue bonds—they talked about the rehabilitation of the mom and pop nursing homes and stuff like that, is it your opinion that that kind of thing is quite expensive and might be difficult for the mom and pop nursing homes to get involved in that--more than likely than the big chain operation?"

Senator McDermott: "Senator Fleming, it is the legislative intent that any nursing homes built under the provisions of the act and then leased--the leased cost will not be recognized by the Department if there is any kind of roll-over. The initial cost is all that will ever be recognized and the Department will pay that. That is all that will ever be covered."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Has the President received an opinion from the Attorney General as to whether this takes a sixty percent vote or a fifty percent vote?"

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "In response to your question, Senator Bottiger, in the opinion of the President, although Senate Bill No. 3114 relates to the control of gambling, it does not purport to authorize any lotteries or other gambling activities which have not heretofore already been authorized by the Legislature in accordance with Article II, Section 24, (Amendment 56) of the Washington State Constitution.

"The President, therefore, does not believe that the sixty percent approval provision of that constitutional amendment would apply to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3114, and that a simple majority is all that is required to pass the bill. That is based upon the Attorney General's opinion."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, a point of parliamentary inquiry. Do you have a specific Attorney's General's opinion relative to this specific bill?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "It is relative to this specific bill--yes, Senator Pullen, although the opinion was not written on the bill, as it was amended."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Guess: "A point of personal privilege. I would also ask permission to read the following from the Journal of the ninety-second day of the session, April 13, 1981:

JOURNAL OF THE SENATE

Ninety-Second Day, April 13, 1981

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, since this bill purportedly does not expand gambling, does it take a 60% constitutional majority to pass?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Yes it does, Senator."

FURTHER PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Well, why is that, Mr. President?"

REPLY BY PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Because it's a gambling bill, Senator Pullen."

FURTHER PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "The Constitution, as I recall the wording, does not specify a 60% majority for all gambling bills, simply for bills that would increase gambling or establish gambling. This does neither, it simply tightens down on existing gambling."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "It is still a gambling bill in the mind of the President, Senator Pullen."

Senator Pullen: "To pursue this, because it is potentially very important to some bills we may have in the future, if we were to repeal the gambling laws that are now on the books, would that require 60% majority?"

President Cherberg: "Yes, Senator Pullen."

Senator Pullen: "In other words, in your view, the so-called protection that was put into the Constitution..."

President Cherberg: "The gambling bill, Senator, will require 60%."

Senator Pullen: "...and even to repeal gambling laws that are now on the books will take a 60%..."

President Cherberg: "The question is not before the body, Senator."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "Message received."

STATEMENT FOR THE JOURNAL

March 30, 1983

I disagree with the ruling of President Pro Tempore Barney Goltz that Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3114 takes only a 25 vote constitutional majority for passage. Such a ruling is inconsistent with previous Senate rulings, and I believe is inconsistent with Amendment 56 of the State Constitution, which requires a 60% constitutional majority for the passage of any bill that expands gambling, as Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3114 does.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 4164, by Senator Thompson, Talmadge and Zimmerman

Authorizing counties to designate violation as either civil or criminal.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Thompson, Substitute Senate Bill No. 4164 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 4164 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following amendments were considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 2, line 28, after "shall" reinsert "constitute" and strike the new language down through "as" on line 29.

On page 2, line 29, after "misdemeanor" strike all new language through "dollars" on line 31.

On page 2, line 31, after ":" insert "PROVIDED, That any violation of such regulations, ordinances, codes, compilations or resolutions may be designated by the county legislative authority as a civil violation subject to a monetary penalty not to exceed one thousand dollars."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Talmadge, how does this bill affect the right to a jury trial?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, it is my understanding that this has nothing to do with that issue. But you might want to ask Senator Thompson that one. It originated in his Local Government Committee."

Senator Pullen: "Perhaps, Senator Thompson would yield. I just got a note passed to me which indicates that this bill may take away the right to a jury trial. I am wondering if that's correct or if you could elaborate on that question?"

Senator Thompson: "This bill will provide county legislative authorities with some latitude to decide whether or not they want certain of their ordinances to be subject to civil or criminal penalties. The idea originated with a prosecutor in one of the smaller counties who was formerly president of the Prosecuting Association and who brought it to my attention and subsequently received the support of the Washington Association of Counties and the Prosecuting Association. It addresses a number of problems and one of them is court congestion. Presently, there are so many criminal sanctions for what essentially--I think even you would agree--are non-criminal activities, but are simply infractions of local ordinances and regulations that don't involve acts of violence or things that one normally thinks of in a criminal context, but might have to do with land use and the like. In fact, we even had testimony in favor of this concept from the people in the field of development--realtors--and the like. The limit is low. It is not anticipated, nor could it be applied to those areas that are normally considered in criminal context."

On motion of Senator Thompson, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 4164 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having served prior notice, Senator Williams moved the Senate reconsider the vote by which Substitute Bill No. 3206 failed to pass the Senate on March 29, 1983.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Williams that the Senate reconsider the vote by which Substitute Senate Bill No. 3206 failed to pass the Senate.

The motion by Senator Williams carried and the Senate began consideration of Substitute Bill No. 3206, on reconsideration.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Thompson, the rules were suspended, Substitute Bill No. 3206 was returned to second reading for purpose of an amendment.

Senator Lee moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Lee, Bluechel, Thompson and von Reichbauer:

On page 3, line 13, after "price," strike "to consider contract negotiations when public knowledge regarding such consideration would affect the price or other terms adversely to the interests of the public;" and insert "to consider negotiations on the performance of publicly-bid contracts when publicity regarding such consideration would cause a likelihood of increased costs;"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDermott: "Senator Lee, usually when there is an amendment to a bill it is intended to correct something. In this instance, I would like to know what is the problem that we are trying to fix with this amendment as it was in the bill before you began your amendment. What is the situation or what is the meeting that has been closed and should have been opened or what was the situation that brought this whole issue to the legislature?"

Senator Lee: "I will attempt to answer that and then maybe someone who wants could add to that particular answer. I will answer the reasons for the amendment, primarily. I felt, as did some others, that the amendment as it came before us originally, was a far too broad reason for being able to close meetings. The amendment that we are proposing, now, would narrow that substantially. The additional reason for closing--having a closed meeting--is much, much narrower than it was before.

"From what I am able to understand, the other two corrections or changes that are being made in the act, which in fact opened some sections to public scrutiny that had not been opened before, sometimes involved a kind of contract negotiation, wherein a sub-committee of a group was discussing how they were going to get a contract to complete their work and what kind of steps they were going to take and that if the contractor, indeed, had to be present to hear that, that they would be losing some of their bargaining points. That was the information that was relayed to me, so it is all of a piece."

Senator McDermott: "Is it your belief that it has to do with WPPSS contracts? Is that what, originally, brought this to our attention or is it some other particular situation?"

Senator Lee: "I really don't know the answer to that, Senator McDermott. One of the things that I am going to do after this amendment, if it passes or doesn't pass, I am going to give the body a chance to strike this completely if they feel they should do that."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDermott: "Senator Thompson, maybe you have a little more information, because I really don't know what this is about."

Senator Thompson: "Senator McDermott, this language does, indeed, relate to the WPPSS situation, because another portion of the bill that Senator Lee alluded to, brings committees of governing bodies under the effect of the open meetings act, which is substantial in its effect on WPPSS operations, because they have organized into committees. The executive board is organized into committees and as I understand it, they are substantially conducting their business in that manner. This has caused some concern, because an LBC auditor was even prevented from attending some of those sessions, even though he was under instruction to do so. It does, indeed, apply to the WPPSS situation."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Quigg: "Senator Thompson, could you explain how this applies to the WPPSS executive board sub-committees?"

Senator Thompson: "The WPPSS people, of course, object to their inclusion of this act, and finally narrowed their objection down to this one situation where they felt they would be at a disadvantage in terms of the public interest as reflected in their decision making, if they weren't able to hold some executive sessions at the conclusion of contracts, so they could strategize the settlement of contracts, the performance of contracts and close them out. There are, indeed, price considerations in that transaction."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Lee, Bluechel, Thompson and von Reichbauer.

The motion by Senator Lee carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Lee moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, line 13, after "price;" strike:

"to consider contract negotiations when public knowledge regarding such consideration would affect the price or other terms adversely to the interests of the public;"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Lee: "Mr. President, a point of order. If I recall, the rules do require that we first attempt to perfect and then to strike. So, we have proposed an amendment that is a perfecting amendment and it did pass, does that, thereby, prevent the option of removing any additional language from that section?"

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "I believe, Senator Lee, that if I understand your intent correctly, you could have offered this as an amendment to the amendment, but since we adopted the amendment--your previous amendment--it has been perfected and, therefore, this amendment would not be in order."

There being no objection, Senator Lee withdrew the amendment.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Thompson, the following amendment by Senators Thompson and Zimmerman was adopted:

On page 3, line 18, strike "deliberating the selection of" and insert "interviewing of proposed"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, a point of order. This amendment was considered and rejected the previous time that the bill was before us."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "It is my understanding that when you reconsider the bill that a motion that had been previously made may be made again under reconsideration and, therefore, the amendment is in order."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Rasmussen and Pullen.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen failed and the amendment was not adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hemstad, the following amendment was adopted:

MOTION

Senator Lee moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 3, line 3, strike all of "Sec. 3" through line 28

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Lee: "A point of order. It is my understanding that when we move to strike a portion of a bill in which an amendment is being made, that the only thing actually being struck is the amended language."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "Your point is well taken, Senator Lee. By your amendment, the language which is in the bill would not be struck, but only that new language which was in the section."

Further debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Lee.

The motion by Senator Lee failed and the amendment was not adopted.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "Senator Hughes, I take it that you are trying to establish some higher priority than some other parts of the state for Referendum 39 funds. How would you rank the single-source aquifer areas in relation to other parts of the state if this language passes?"

Senator Hughes: "Well, first of all, Senator Newhouse, I won't rank it. The Director will--the Department will. As I stated, in conversations with Director Moos, he stated that there are many necessary areas that have to be addressed with Referendum 39. He did feel, and and it is the policy of the Department, that sole-source aquifer protection should be high. This is simply a statement to the people of Whidbey and Camano and Spokane that their concerns will be looked at when it comes to the allocation of Referendum 39 dollars."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hughes: "Senator Barr, I find it rather interesting that you would make comments like that in light of an amendment that you presented to this body and then withdrew. Would you like to explain the effect of your amendment?"

Senator Barr: "Yes, thank you for the opportunity to get on my feet and expound on this situation again. I did intend to mention why I withdrew the amendment. When I got some staff help, after I wrote it out myself--what I really asked them was when the state drinking water act was instituted and in that discussion I discovered the way that this is worded now, we chop it off. If somebody else wanted to be so smart to designate a fictitious sole-source in the future--next year, then they couldn't get in on it. You are chopping everybody else off, so I decided that it was a worse bill this way without my amendment, so I withdrew it."

Further debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Bluechel, Senator von Reichbauer was excused.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3664.

Whenever in the judgment of the secretary, the treatment and training of any resident of a state residential school has progressed to the point that it is deemed advisable to return such resident to the community, the secretary may grant placement on such terms and conditions as the secretary may deem advisable after reasonable notice to and consultation with the resident, and with any available parent, guardian, or other court-appointed personal representative of such person.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "Senator Warnke, what I really wanted to know and I think you answered it partially, but I think it is very important for the record. In the bill is the phrase, 'and occasionally used for other purposes.' I wonder who defines that and what you would consider--and if there is no one to actually define it--what you would consider would fit in that kind of category?"

Senator Warnke: "As it was defined to me, I think it is left to the insurance companies to decide in case there is a liable accident--whether or not it was an occasional use or whether it was used on business or whatever. As it was portrayed to me by those people that used their vehicles on occasion, they may be in a parade and they don't wish to trailer their car to a parade or that sort of thing or on a Sunday, they may want to drive to Mount Rainier and back. That is an occasional use.

"The theory behind it is that if you have primary vehicles and if you have an antique, the antique is usually in the garage when you are driving your primary vehicle. When you are driving your antique, the primary vehicle was home and parked. That is the theory behind this--the insurance."

MOTION

On page 3, line 35, after "exceed" strike "twelve" and insert: "nine"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Owen: "Senator Patterson, how would this work if a teacher worked the nine months and then worked summer school?"

Senator Patterson: "As I understand it--unfortunately, the only place where I can bring up the point--if they were in summer school, obviously, I would want them to accumulate during that month a day of sick leave if they were sick or not sick. I am talking about the majority of teachers in our school system. I don't know what percentage of our teachers are in a summer school program. I would like to recognize that, but Senator, there wasn't any other place in the bill that I could address the point that I am trying to make on it."

Senator Owen: "So regardless, it would be 'nine' for the school year whether they worked nine months or twelve months. The other question that I have is that just for certified or is that also for non-certified employees?"

Senator Patterson: "Unfortunately, once again, it is in that section that falls in behind the non-certs and the certified. I suppose if we were really going to perfect it, we would have to address the two questions. As I say, it is the only place that I could raise the point as far as the certified--the teachers--are concerned. I certainly think that the non-certs--people that are employed on a twelve-month basis--should be able to accumulate on twelve months, if they are on duty and then they become sick."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Gaspard: A point of parliamentary inquiry. When was the amendment handed in to the desk?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "It was handed in just before it was read."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President and members of the Senate. I don't object to that motion. I just want to make sure that by accepting this motion and by having it pass, we are not precluded from challenging the idea that Substitute Senate Bill No. 3173 and Senate Bill No. 3760 do escape the cut-off.

"I personally feel that they are both dead under the terms of the cut-off and I might like to challenge that at some time in the future. I just want to make sure that by the passage of this motion I am not precluded in so challenging the fact that those bills might be considered alive."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "In response to your inquiry, I believe Senator Pullen, that you will have the opportunity to challenge those other two bills, if you so desire, at a future date."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Shinpoch to refer the bills on the calendar of March 30, 1983, with the exception of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3173 and Senate Bill No. 3760, to the Committee on Rules.

The motion by Senator Shinpoch carried and the bills on the calendar of March 30, 1983, were referred to the Committee on Rules.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Could you tell me what was the specific parliamentary effect of the motion that we passed relative to the bills back to Rules?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "The parliamentary impact of that is simply that those bills have been taken off the calendar of the Senate and have been put back in the Rules Committee."

MOTION

At 11:24 a.m., on motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate adjourned until 10:00 a.m., Tuesday, April 5, 1983.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 256, by Representative Charnley, Tilly, Brough, Martinis, Todd, D. Nelson, Addison, Jacobsen, Miller, Moon, G. Nelson, Sanders, Taylor, Silver, Isaacson and Barrett

Deleting the penalty tax when changing land classified under chapter 84.34 RCW to tax exempt status for conservation purposes.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Shinpoch moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Shinpoch, Hansen and Newhouse:

On page 3, line 31, after "(g)" strike "Acquisitions of property interests by" and insert "Gifts of property interests to"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Shinpoch, this amendment deals with nature conservancy. Many times, nature conservancy--if the local government is trying to acquire a piece of property for future permanent use or the right, such as the conservation future or the rights to the property--many times nature conservancy will buy and pay money for this property in a holding position until the local government then comes along later and buys it. That is the purpose of the nature conservancy organization.

"Would your amendment preclude that taking place? I have a suspicion that what you do is nullify that exchange in the use of nature conservancy. Nature conservancy is not a permanent holding organization. It merely holds it until the local government can pick up the property."

Senator Shinpoch: "Maybe I can answer your question in a round-about way. We found no way of determining whether the buyer or the seller was benefited by forgiveness of the taxes and the penalties under the law as it exists. If it was the buyer that was benefiting, then possibly that what you proposed to do, as far as sales were concerned, would be considered legitimate. However, some of us think that it is going to be for the benefit of the seller.

"If it is a gift, then we did not think the seller should be penalized. However, if it is a sale, then we did not think the seller should gain that bit. I know that you can make the point that the sale is going to be less. I suspect that you will have problems documenting that and for that reason I proposed, with others, this amendment."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "Senator Bluechel, I wanted to ask a question. I understand that the bill may be set down, but I have one question I would like to get cleared up. From my background as prime sponsor of the Open Space Law way back when, I cannot understand the need for this bill. If nature conservancy is to acquire land presently in open space and it is to be retained for public use--obviously in open space--what is the need for a change in classification that would require the payment of any back taxes or penalty?"

Senator Bluechel: "Senator Newhouse, you have asked a fairly complicated question. In order to explain it, I will have to explain the open space bill and what nature conservancy does.

"Open space sets aside land from the current taxation--from highest and best use to current use--for a contract period of ten years or three years longer than the notice of getting out of that contract is. If you get out of that contract in open space before that time, you pay a penalty. You pay back the differential in back taxes, plus, I believe, twenty percent interest. Now, the reason to go into open space is to retain the land in its present use.

"The Open Space Law is a temporary holding action until one of two things happens. One, either the use is determined that it shouldn't be that use and it goes into a higher and current use such as industrial or residential or whatever. Most of this is used on agricultural or open land to start with. The second reason is to retain the land on a permanent basis with that open space or natural characteristic. The only way you can do that is either to buy the land outright or to buy at less than fee interest--what is called a conservation future, according to our RCW.

"Now, when that happens, usually it is the city or county or some group that has to buy it. It has to be taken into public ownership. Many times the public ownership--the city or county--does not have the money to pay that right away and yet they want to keep this thing in a permanent open space usage, so they turn to an entity such as nature conservancy and it buys it on a temporary basis. It buys the right. It may buy the whole land. In some cases, it may buy the development rights. It holds that until the county gets enough money to turn around and buy the thing.

"What you do here with this amendment, you simply charge the county more money. It pays more money, which is the penalty and the back taxes. It is paying for the taxes that it is charging, so it is a merry-go-round. It doesn't make sense."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, further consideration of House Bill No. 256 was deferred and the bill was placed on the second reading calendar for tomorrow.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3539, by Senators Granlund, McDermott and Owen

Providing funds for jail improvement and construction.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Granlund, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3539 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3539 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

On motion of Senator Granlund, the rules were suspended. Substitute Senate Bill No. 3539 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Granlund, my specific concern is with the duration of the contract between the Department of Corrections and Spokane County for the handling of state prisoners. In the Ways and Means Committee, my recollection was that Spokane County indicated that the state would recoup its investment in a period of five point something years.

"The question that I had was, specifically, what is the anticipated duration of the contract for the housing of state prisoners between the Department of Corrections and Spokane County in this new facility?"

Senator Granlund: "Senator Talmadge, I personally cannot answer that. Perhaps, Senator Hughes could answer that. That is his amendment that was put on this bill in committee and I don't know what the duration is."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HUGHES

Senator Hughes: "In the committee, when Senator Talmadge asked that question, the commissioners indicated that they would be willing to sign any lease that would satisfy the interests of the state and I am sure that is the case. I don't think there will be any problem. The state intends to and will benefit directly from this and the commissioners have agreed that they will sign a contract that will meet the state's interest."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Barr: "Senator Granlund, you indicated in your other remarks that this was for the other jails and indicated that it would be to finish up the jails throughout the state. Now, will this be enough money to finish up those that are requested?"

Senator Granlund: "In consultation with George Edensword-Breck who is the Director of the Jail Commission, he assures me that ten million dollars will do that. The projects that are not funded are small projects, but much needed projects. So, yes, it is our belief that the ten million dollars will cover that."

Senator Barr: "Even though the Skagit County project and the Spokane County project takes the bulk of it--the remainder, is it ten million--the Spokane project would be above the ten million, wouldn't it?"

Senator Granlund: "Yes, the amendment that was put on in committee for Spokane was three point eight million dollars, added to the ten million dollars."

Senator Barr: "Thank you. I wanted to make that point clear, so that the difference between the Skagit project and the ten million would perhaps, and as you have indicated, would finish up other projects around the state."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3539.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3539, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 00; absent, 01; excused, 03.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McManus, Metcalf, Moore, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vogndild, von Reichbauer, Williams, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 45.

Absent: Senator McDermott - 1.

Excused: Senators Quigg, Sellar, Warnke - 3.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3539, having received the constitutional 60% majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 111, by Representatives R. King, Isaacson, Miller and Hine

Modifying provisions relating to water and sewer district treasurers.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Moore, the following Committee on Financial Institutions amendments were considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 2, line 7, strike "a commissioner or employee" and insert "by resolution some other person having experience in financial or fiscal matters"

On page 2, line 13, after "dollars." insert "Approval by the county treasurer authorizing such a sewer district to designate its treasurer shall not be arbitrarily or capriciously withheld."

On page 3, line 4, strike "a commissioner or employee" and insert "by resolution some other person having experience in financial or fiscal matters"

On page 3, line 10, after "dollars." insert "Approval by the county treasurer authorizing such a water district to designate its treasurer shall not be arbitrarily or capriciously withheld."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 111, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "In the committee amendments that were adopted--for example in the second committee amendment on page 2, line 13, after dollars, the amendment said 'insert "Approval by the county treasurer authorizing such a sewer district to designate its treasurer shall not be arbitrarily or capriciously withheld." I interpret that particular amendment that was adopted to mean that there is friction somewhere and that there have been problems or difficulties involving the county treasurer and the local district. Perhaps you could elaborate on whether that is the case or not."

Senator Moore: "Well, inevitably, you know there occur turf fights periodically and nobody likes to lose any authority. You know the county treasurers have fought to keep control of all the money as it was originally prescribed by law. We are merely trying to give more local control and say so and what they do with their money."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of House Bill No. 111, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of House Bill No. 111, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 06; absent, 02; excused, 03.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Clarke, Conner, Fleming, Gaspard, Granlund, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McManus, Metcalf, Moore, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Rinehart, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Williams, Wojahn, Woody - 38.

Voting nay: Senators Craswell, Fuller, Goltz, Pullen, Rasmussen, Zimmerman - 6.

Absent: Senators Bottiger, Deccio - 2.

Excused: Senators Quigg, Sellar, Warnke - 3.

HOUSE BILL NO. 111, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

On page 1, line 4, strike "board of trustees" and insert "school district boards of directors"

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3760, by Senators Vognild, Hurley, Guess and Hughes

Modifying provisions relating to local economic development.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Vognild moved adoption of the following Committee on Commerce and Labor amendment:

On page 2, beginning on line 34, strike all of section 2.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Pullen: "A point of order, Mr. President. It appears to me that Senate Bill No. 3760 is dead, because it has not met our cut-off. If I might elaborate a little bit--according to Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 103, which was our cut-off resolution, we stated that after March 31--the 81st day of the session--we would not be considering bills except those which met rather stringent requirements.

"Looking over the requirements, I cannot see that Senate Bill No. 3760 meets any of the requirements. By some stretch of the imagination, someone might claim that it is a revenue bill. It certainly is not. I suppose someone might claim that it is an economic recovery measure, but it really doesn't have anything to do with that either. It would seem to me that this particular bill is dead by not having met our cut-off date successfully."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President and members of the Senate. Speaking to the point of order--the cut-off resolution very clearly covers this bill in two aspects. First of all, it is revenue, and the bill decidedly applies to a revenue source--a tax. In addition, it pertains to economic recovery--industrial development facilities, which are economic recovery matters and the subject matter of many pieces of legislation before the Senate on that subject."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "In ruling on the point of order raised by Senator Pullen as to whether Senate Bill No. 3760 is a measure which can be considered by the Senate pursuant to Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 103, the President finds that Senate Bill No. 3760 is a measure which deals with the subject of economic recovery by authorizing the issuance of industrial development revenue bonds for research and industrial parks.

"The President, therefore, finds that Senate Bill No. 3760 is a measure which may be considered by the Senate at this time."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Commerce and Labor amendment.

The motion by Senator Vognild carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Metcalf moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 24, after "means" insert: "anything you want to spend the money on, including but not limited to"

Debate ensued.

Senators Bottiger, Vognild and Peterson demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Metcalf.

The motion by Senator Metcalf failed and the amendment was not adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Vognild, the following title amendment was adopted:
On page 1, line 2 of the title, strike "; and declaring an emergency"

On motion of Senator Vognild, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3760 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Senator Guess, I may not have read this bill carefully enough. The reasons you gave for the research and development down at WSU are very logical, but does this just apply to WSU or does this open to the whole state and everything else that we have been talking about, or is this just specifically limited to things you mentioned at WSU?"

Senator Guess: "No, Senator, it applies to the entire state. It does not just apply to WSU."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3760.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3760, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 37; nays, 11; absent, 00; excused, 01.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Conner, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McDermott, McManus, Moore, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Quigg, Rasmussen, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 37.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Clarke, Craswell, Haley, McCastlin, Metcalf, Pullen, Rinehart, Sellar, Shinpoch, Williams - 11.

Excused: Senator Deccio - 1.

ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3760, having received the constitutional 60% majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3760 was immediately transmitted to the House.

MOTION TO LIMIT DEBATE

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, pursuant to Rule 29, I move that the members of the Senate be allowed to speak only once and be limited to three minutes on each motion or amendment, except that the mover of the motion shall be allowed to open and close debate, and also that members be prohibited from yielding their time.

"This motion shall be in effect through Monday, April 18, 1983.

"This is the Jones amendment that was placed before the Senate two years ago with which I then agreed as a way of concluding our affairs. We have very little time between now and the cut-off for considering bills between the House and the Senate. We have seven days after that that I have excluded from the motion, which would be the concurrences back and forth between the House and Senate and, also, the large revenue and tax measures, which I intentionally excluded.

"I think it is orderly debate. I am sure that almost everybody down here knows that most of these measures have been discussed thoroughly in caucus, in committee, and that very few minds are changed on the floor."

MOTION

Senator Pullen: "Yes, I would move an amendment to the Bottiger motion and move that 'one opponent also be allowed to speak twice.' The reason that I make that motion is that frequently the proponent gets to make the motion and then make a big speech, and then there may be limited debate, particularly when we are in a hurry--getting close to the cut-off.

"Then the proponent gets to conclude one more time and that seems to be weighed to the advantage of the bill getting passed or the amendment getting adopted. The founding fathers of our nation, particularly, were concerned about bills getting passed, because they didn't want to be doing things to the people.

"It seems to me, frequently, killing a bad amendment or killing a bad bill is more important than getting a good one through. For that reason, to be fair and to allow the other side to have equal time, it is only fair to allow one opponent to speak twice, too. That allows one proponent to speak twice and one opponent to speak twice. I think that is a fair way to handle it."

Debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Pullen amendment to the motion of limited debate by Senator Bottiger.

The motion by Senator Pullen failed on a rising vote and the amendment to the Bottiger motion was not adopted.

Further debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the motion for limited debate by Senator Bottiger.

The motion by Senator Bottiger carried and the three-minute rule was imposed.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate advanced to the seventh order of business.

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3173, on reconsideration, deferred on March 31, 1983.

THIRD READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3173, by Committee on Commerce and Labor (originally sponsored by Senators McManus, Hemstad, Talmadge, Bottiger, Zimmerman, Lee and Deccio)

Authorizing the issuance of industrial development revenue bonds for nursing home and retirement community facilities.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3173, on reconsideration.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3173, on reconsideration, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 34; nays, 14; absent, 00; excused, 01.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Conner, Fuller, Gaspard, Granlund, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McManus, Moore, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Quigg, Rasmussen, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Zimmerman - 34.

Voting nay: Senators Clarke, Craswell, Fleming, Goltz, McCaslin, McDermott, Metcalf, Pullen, Rinehart, Sellar, Shinpoch, Williams, Wojahn, Woody - 14.

Excused: Senator Deccio - 1.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3173, on reconsideration, having received the constitutional 60% majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator McManus, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3173 was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate returned to the sixth order of business.

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate resumed consideration of House Bill No. 256 and the pending amendment by Senators Shinpoch, Hansen and Newhouse, deferred April 5, 1983.

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, and there being no objection, the pending amendment by Senators Shinpoch, Hansen and Newhouse was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the following amendment by Senators Shinpoch, Hansen and Newhouse was adopted:

On page 3, line 33, after "section" insert " PROVIDED, That at such time as these property interests are not used for the purposes enumerated in RCW 84.34.210 and 64.04.130 the additional tax specified in subsection (3) shall be imposed"

MOTION

Senator Zimmerman moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Zimmerman, Bauer and Patterson:

On page 3, following line 33, add a new subsection as follows:

"(h) A return of the property to the tax rolls by the original owner who shall be a nonprofit child care group home dedicated to providing shelter for children, where the property will continue to be owned by the nonprofit organization, though leased to another person."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Shinpoch: "Mr. President, I would ask for a ruling on the scope and object of the proposed amendment."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "In ruling on the point of order raised by Senator Shinpoch, the President finds that House Bill 256 is a measure of limited scope which allows the transfer of lands classified as open space, agricultural or timber to a government entity or nonprofit organization for conservation purposes without requiring payment of any back taxes.

"The amendment proposed by Senators Zimmerman, Bauer and Patterson creates an entirely different exemption from the payment of back taxes for property owned by a nonprofit child care group home and leased to another.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment proposed by Senators Zimmerman, Bauer and Patterson was ruled out of order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 256 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCaslin: "Senator Bluechel, if a thousand acres of open space is turned over to the state and it is maintained under open space, but later on--let's say ten years later--the state trades that land for other land, what about those taxes then?"

Senator Bluechel: "If it is turned over to the state as open space and it retains its open space categorization, there is no triggering mechanism whatsoever for back taxes. If the category changes up to a higher use, the taxes--what you are asking is--would the state be required to pay back taxes if it changed it back to a higher use after the property was taken over for open space?"

Senator McCaslin: "Yes, that is correct."

Senator Bluechel: "I can't answer that particular question. I don't know. I don't think that has ever happened or was ever even contemplated. This isn't what the bill does or even refers to."

Senator McCaslin: "No, but you know the Department of Natural Resources occasionally comes to this body requesting bills to trade land or to sell land and buy other land and this is a concern I have. If they sell this land that they take in--that has been under open space, then there is a tax question, I think. My concern, who would pay those taxes? Would the state pay them?"

Senator Bluechel: "Senator McCaslin, I am not sure that the Department of Natural Resources classifies its own land as open space. That is a classification for private land to go into an open space usage. It goes with a contract along with it that when the private owner decides to use it for a higher use that he will pay the differential in back taxes, plus the interest penalty. The existing land that is zoned as open space--or unzoned--doesn't fall under the contract for open space, so I don't think it would apply. There would be no contract for open space, at the present time, of the land you are talking about."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Zimmerman: "Senator Gaspard, we have heard a lot about this bill and we just lost a major amendment to it and there is a bill that is somewhat similar to it--Senate Bill No. 3300--that has gone through the Ways and Means Committee. Do you think that there is a likelihood, Senator Gaspard, that we will have an opportunity to consider that measure beyond the point where it is at the present time--in the Rules Committee?"

Senator Gaspard: "Senator Zimmerman, being a member of the Ways and Means Committee--as you are--there is certainly a likelihood. I am not going to commit for the chairman of the Ways and Means. You, as an individual member, can urge and support and do all that you can to convince the chairman to hear the bill."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of House Bill No. 256, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of House Bill No. 256, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 40; nays, 08; absent, 00; excused, 01.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shipoch, the Senate advanced to the seventh order of business.

THIRD READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3608, by Committee on State Government (originally sponsored by Senators McManus, Zimmerman, Woody and Bender)

Modifying provisions relating to cultural arts, stadium and convention districts.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator McManus, in addition to the bill qualities that you have described, the bill also has within it the repeal of the permissive three percent hotel/motel tax for cities between twenty-five thousand and four hundred thousand. I was wondering what is the rationale for repealing that tax, if in fact, the bill is designed to do a little bit of business stimulation?"

Senator McManus: "Thank you, Senator Goltz. I will try and answer that. In the Snohomish County area, we have never levied that three percent tax, so that the revenue from that tax is not existent and there is no plan, at this time, to levy that three percent tax.

"It becomes, at least in Snohomish County, an academic matter. I have discussed this thoroughly with the local people and groups who are behind the establishment of this cultural arts and convention center. Both the start-up financing and the ongoing operational funding for this center will not have to come from the receipts of the three percent tax on hotel/motel rooms. It is being done in other ways--ways that are much more stable and much more significant than what little amount of money a tax like that would even bring.

"As I recall, in this particular district, we are talking, at the most, fourteen hundred rooms, so we don't have a lot of these kinds of large hotel facilities in our area. I hope that answers your question."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Metcalf: "I would like to raise a point of order that this bill is not properly before us. I would like to speak on the point of order."

"Thank you, Mr. President and members of the Senate. We have Senate rules that provide that certain bills survive the cut-off. I have no strong feelings on this bill, but I do have very strong feelings on the proper order and respect for the ground rules."

"I think the rules don't mean anything if they are not respected. There has to be a basic trust that rules are being followed. This bill deals with a local tax that has nothing to do with the state budget, nothing to do with any of the points that are made in the cut-off resolution. If this bill were to be ruled to survive the cut-off, then there was no bill on the calendar last week that wouldn't survive a cut-off."

"I raise the point of order that this bill--if it is a question that the majority just says the bill is before us--and you know, if they are not going to follow the rules and just not do it, well fine, just tell us and do it. I don't see that this bill is properly before us in any way."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, speaking on the point of order. The Director of the Department of Commerce and Economic Development keeps assuring me that there is a multiplier of seven for every tourist or convention that we can bring in here, so under the section of the cut-off resolution pertaining to economic development--assuming Mr. Schrock is correct--this is clearly an economic development bill. It helps local units of government create convention and trade centers."

REMARKS BY SENATOR WARNKE

Senator Warnke: "Speaking to the point of order, also, and Senator Bottiger is right. I would remind the Senator that Engrossed House Bill No. 1156, which was the act which passed the bill that this act is amending, was passed after the cut-off dates in the session of 1982."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling on the point of order raised by Senator Metcalf as to whether Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3608 is a measure which can be considered by the Senate pursuant to Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 103, the President finds that Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3608 is a measure which deals with the subject of revenue by repealing the law allowing certain cities to levy a hotel/motel tax for the funding of convention or trade facilities."

"The President, therefore, finds that Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3608 is a measure that may be considered by the Senate at this time."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hemstad: "Senator Warnke, I am confused, or at least uncertain about the relationship between this three cents or three percent tax and the two percent tax. What does the two percent tax do and can that be used to build or is that only for operational purposes or what?"

Senator Warnke: "A local authority may levy a five-cent tax on hotel/motels. Two cents of that--almost every city, I think, now has levied a two-cent hotel/motel tax for general fund purposes or for operation, if they have a center, for the operation of that center. This three cents that is imposed is imposed only for the development and building of the facility--not for the operation."

"This bill does not repeal the two cents that is presently being used by many cities. It does repeal the three cents and places--if it is truly a public facility--it places the funding of that facility to the general public at a vote of the electorate to decide whether or not they wish that facility--to build it.

"Secondly, it takes away the direct competition. There is something truly unfair in that three cents that you levy--that three cents to the person that you are going to be in direct competition with--with the public facility that takes money away from that facility to fund your own in the public arena. There is something basically wrong in my mind in that, also, but that is not the real reason. The real reason is that those facilities, in most cities, there is no possible way that three cents can even be raised. There are not enough hotel/motel rooms. But the two cents is not touched."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3608.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3608, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 35; nays, 13; absent, 01; excused, 00.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bender, Benitz, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Deccio, Fleming, Gaspard, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hemstad, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McDermott, McManus, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Quigg, Rasmussen, Sellar, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody - 35.

Voting nay: Senators Bauer, Bluechel, Craswell, Fuller, Goltz, Granlund, Hayner, Hughes, McCaslin, Metcalf, Rinehart, Thompson, Zimmerman - 13.

Absent: Senator Moore - 1.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3608, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Warnke, Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3608 was ordered immediately transmitted to the House.

THIRD READING

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3880, by Committee on Education (originally sponsored by Senator Gaspard)

Continuing the sick leave buy back program for school employees.

The bill was read the third time and placed on final passage.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Hayner: "Mr. President, I raise the question of whether Substitute Senate Bill No. 3880 is properly before us. In the cut-off resolution, it states that we may consider--after the cut-off--matters dealing with the budget--that is the budget of the state of Washington--budget-related matters and, of course, since we haven't seen a budget yet, we really don't know what budget-related matters are--and things having to do with redistricting and economic recovery.

"This bill, obviously, is permissive to school districts to bargain sick leave buy back. It has absolutely nothing to do with the budget or budget-related matters or economic recovery. I would suggest that this is beyond the scope of our consideration today."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President and members of the Senate. The question of funding of substitute teachers is, obviously, in the budget. Of the sick leave buy back program, which was enacted, it has been shown in many school districts to have a substantial effect on the number of substitute teachers that have to be hired. It has proved to be a very worthy program in many districts in the state. It saves money for the school districts; which is money we don't have to send them. Therefore, it is very clearly budget related."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling on the point of order raised by Senator Hayner as to whether Substitute Senate Bill No. 3880 is a measure which can be considered by the Senate pursuant to Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 103, the President finds that Substitute Senate Bill No. 3880, is a budget-related measure which deals with the continuation of the sick leave buy back program for school employees.

"The President, therefore, finds that Substitute Senate Bill No. 3880 may be considered by the Senate at this time."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3880.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3880, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 37; nays, 12; absent, 00; excused, 00.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bender, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McDermott, McManus, Metcalf, Moore, Owen, Peterson, Pullen, Quigg, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Sellar, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 37.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Craswell, Deccio, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, McCaslin, Newhouse, Patterson - 12.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3880, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate returned to the first order of business.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 99, by Committee on Judiciary (originally sponsored by Representatives Wang and Tanner)

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended. Substitute House Bill No. 99 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "Senator Talmadge, I notice that the new language that is being added is really clarifying what we mean by 'substantial danger to others' but we are also, striking 'the substantial danger to himself.' Does this, therefore, mean that a finding of the suicidal tendencies would not bring this particular statute into play?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, the idea was specifically, where you have a person who is a danger to himself, that the standard for that is civil commitment rather than criminal commitment. I think if you look at that section, what has been attempted in the bill is to make it clear that the standard by which one is released after a finding of not guilty by reason of insanity is that he is not a danger to other persons and does not present a substantial likelihood of committing felonious acts jeopardizing public safety.

"It is a conjunctive rather than a disjunctive standard, which is meant to be more stringent. When the person presents a danger or likelihood of danger to himself, the standard is considered to be civil commitment. That is the way it is hoped that it will be treated."

Senator Lee: "So that is the one substantial change--removing the danger to the individual themselves from the application of this particular portion of the statute?"

Senator Talmadge: "I think that this goes back to the oversight or concern that I was talking about earlier. The intention in 1974 had been to treat the person who is a danger to himself under civil commitment, the danger to others standard under the criminal commitment standard and because of an oversight or an error on the part of the legislature, the old standard which included danger to self came forward to us now. This simply takes us to the standard that we tried to do in 1974, but failed due to an error on the part of the legislature."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 99.

V. RECOMMENDED SENTENCING GUIDELINES

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. The sentencing guidelines and prosecuting standards apply equally to offenders in all parts of the state, without discrimination as to any element that does not relate to the crime or the previous record of the defendant.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. OFFENSE SERIOUSNESS LEVEL. The offense seriousness level is determined by the offense of conviction. Felony offenses are divided into fourteen levels of seriousness, ranging from low (seriousness level I) to high (seriousness level XIV - see section 3 of this act (Table 2)).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. OFFENDER SCORE. The offender score is measured on the horizontal axis of the sentencing grid. The offender score rules are summarized in Table 3, section 4 of this act.

The offender score is computed in the following way:

(1) Include juvenile felony convictions if the offender was 15 or older at the time the offense was committed and the offender was 23 or less at the time the offense for which he or she is being sentenced was committed.

(2) If the present conviction is for Murder 1 or 2, Assault 1, Kidnaping 1, or Rape 1, count three points for prior adult and juvenile convictions for crimes in these categories.

(3) If the present conviction is for a violent offense (as defined in RCW 9.94A.110) and not covered in subsection (2) of this section, count two points for each prior adult and juvenile violent felony conviction and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony conviction (rounding down for uneven scores).

(4) If the present conviction is for Burglary (1 or 2), count two points for each prior adult Burglary conviction. Count two points for each prior juvenile Burglary 1, and one point for each prior juvenile Burglary 2 conviction.

(5) If the present conviction is for a nonviolent offense (as defined in RCW 9.94A.110), count one point for each prior adult felony conviction and one point for each prior juvenile violent felony conviction and 1/2 point for each prior juvenile nonviolent felony (rounding down for uneven scores).

(6) If the present conviction is for escape, count only prior escape convictions in the offender score. Count adult prior escape convictions as one point and juvenile prior escape convictions as 1/2 point (rounding down for uneven scores).

(7) If the present conviction is for Negligent Homicide, only count the following crimes as part of the offender score: Negligent Homicide, Felony Hit and Run (RCW 46.52.020(4)), Hit and Run (RCW 46.52.020(5)), Driving While Intoxicated (RCW 46.61.502), Actual Physical Control (RCW 46.61.504), Reckless Driving (RCW 46.61.500). Count each adult prior conviction as one point and each juvenile prior conviction as 1/2 point (rounding down for uneven scores).

(8) In the case of multiple prior convictions for the purpose of computing the offender score, count all adult convictions served concurrently as one offense, and count all juvenile convictions entered on the same date as one offense. The conviction for the most serious offense, using the seriousness levels to define most serious, is scored.

(9) Class A prior felony convictions are always included in the offender score. Class B prior felony convictions are not included if the offender has spent ten years in the community and has not been convicted of any felonies. Class C prior felony convictions and serious traffic convictions as defined in section 4 of this act are not included if the offender has spent five years in the community and has not been convicted of any felonies. This subsection applies to both adult and juvenile prior convictions.

The designation of out-of-state convictions shall be covered by the offense definitions and sentences provided by Washington law.

The offender score is the sum of points accrued under subsections (1) through (9) of this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. PRESUMPTIVE SENTENCE. The intersection of the column defined by the offender score and the row defined by the offense seriousness score determines the presumptive sentencing range (see section 2 of this act, (Table 1)). The judge may sentence anywhere within this range. Except in decisions concerning first-time, nonviolent offenders, any sentence imposed by a sentencing judge which is outside the presumptive range is a departure from the guidelines, requires written reasons from the judge, and is reviewable on appeal.

In determining any sentence, the trial judge may use no more information than is admitted by the plea agreement, and admitted to or acknowledged at the time of sentencing. Acknowledgement includes not objecting to information stated in the presentence reports. Where the defendant disputes material facts, the judge must either not consider the fact or grant an evidentiary hearing on the point. The real facts shall be deemed proven at the evidentiary hearing by a preponderance of the evidence. Real facts which establish elements of a higher crime, a more serious crime, or additional crimes cannot be used to go outside the guidelines except upon stipulation.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. ALTERNATIVE CONVERSIONS. For sentences of nonviolent offenders for less than one year, the court shall consider and give priority to available alternatives to total confinement and shall justify its reasons if they are not used.

With the exception of the first-time offender, the judge shall establish the sentence in terms of total confinement. This sentence can be converted as follows: One day of partial confinement or eight hours of community service can replace one day of total confinement. The community service conversion is limited to 240 hours or 30 working days. In addition, the judge can impose up to one year of community supervision to ensure that the terms of the alternative sentence are met. Fines can be assessed according to the following formula:

Class A felonies	$0 - 50,000
Class B felonies	$0 - 20,000
Class C felonies	$0 - 10,000

NEW SECTION, Sec. 10. DEPARTURES FROM THE GUIDELINES. The presumptive sentence shall be the midpoint of the standard range as established by the crime of conviction and any applicable enhancements. The sentencing court shall impose the presumptive sentence or other sentence within the indicated standard range that it determines to be appropriate. If the court finds that an exceptional sentence outside the standard range should be imposed in accordance with RCW 9.94A.120(2), the court may impose any sentence it deems appropriate within the statutory term. If the court sentences outside the standard range, it shall set forth its justification for doing so in written findings and conclusions, and any sentence outside the standard range shall be subject to review only as provided for in RCW 9.94A.210(4).

The following are illustrative factors which the court may consider in the exercise of its discretion to impose an exceptional sentence:

Mitigating Circumstances

(1) To a significant degree, the victim was an initiator, willing participant, aggressor, or provoker of the incident.

(2) Before detection, the defendant compensated, or made a good faith effort to compensate, the victim of the criminal conduct for any damage or injury sustained.

(3) The defendant committed the crime under duress, coercion, threat, or compulsion insufficient to constitute a complete defense but which significantly affected his or her conduct.

(4) The defendant, with no apparent predisposition to do so, was induced by others to participate in the crime.

(5) The defendant's capacity to appreciate the wrongfulness of his conduct or to conform his conduct to the requirements of the law, was significantly impaired (voluntary use of drugs or alcohol is excluded).

(6) The offense was principally accomplished by another person and the defendant manifested extreme caution or sincere concern for the safety or well-being of the victim.

Aggravating Circumstances

(1) The defendant's conduct during the commission of the offense manifested deliberate cruelty to the victim.

(2) The defendant knew or should have known that the victim of the offense was particularly vulnerable or incapable of resistance due to extreme youth, advanced age, disability, or ill health.

(3) The offense was a major economic offense or series of offenses, so identified by a consideration of any of the following factors:

(a) The offense involved multiple victims or multiple incidents per victim;

(b) The offense involved attempted or actual monetary loss substantially greater than typical for the offense;

(c) The offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time;

(d) The defendant used his or her position of trust, confidence, or fiduciary responsibility to facilitate the commission of the offense.

(4) The offense was a major violation of the Uniform Controlled Substances Act, chapter 69.50 RCW (VUCSA), related to trafficking in controlled substances, which was more onerous than the typical offense of its statutory definition. The presence of ANY of the following may identify an offense as a major VUCSA:

(a) The offense involved at least three separate transactions in which controlled substances were sold, transferred, or possessed with intent to do so; or

(b) The offense involved an attempted or actual sale or transfer of controlled substances in quantities substantially larger than for personal use; or

(c) The offense involved the manufacture of controlled substances for use by other parties;

or

(d) The offender possessed a firearm during the commission of the offense; or

(e) The circumstances of the offense reveal the offender to have occupied a high position in the drug distribution hierarchy; or

(f) The offense involved a high degree of sophistication or planning or occurred over a lengthy period of time or involved a broad geographic area of disbursement; or

(g) The offender used his or her position or status to facilitate the commission of the offense, including positions of trust, confidence or fiduciary responsibility (e.g., pharmacist, physician, or other medical professional).

The above considerations are illustrative only and are not intended to be exclusive reasons for exceptional sentences.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 11. CONSECUTIVE/CONCURRENT SENTENCES. (1) Whenever a person is convicted of two or more offenses, at least one of which is a violent offense, and the offenses arise out of separate and distinct criminal transactions, the sentences imposed shall run consecutively; provided that under this section, the presumptive sentence only for the most serious offense shall be determined by using the offender's actual criminal history score whereas the presumptive sentences for all other offenses shall be determined by using a criminal history score of zero.

(2) Whenever a person while under sentence of felony commits another felony and is sentenced to another term of imprisonment, the latter term shall not begin until expiration of all prior terms.

(3) Whenever a person is convicted of two or more offenses, and either: (a) All of the offenses are nonviolent and they arise out of separate and distinct criminal transactions; or (b) at least one of the offenses is a violent offense but they all arise out of the same criminal transaction, the sentences imposed shall run concurrently; provided that the presumptive sentence for the most serious offense shall be enhanced by counting all other current offenses as prior offenses for purposes of calculating the criminal history score.

(4) Whenever a person is convicted of two or more nonviolent offenses which all arise out of the same criminal transaction, the sentences imposed shall run concurrently.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. CONVICTIONS FOR ATTEMPTS OR CONSPIRACIES. For persons convicted of attempted offenses or conspiracies to commit an offense, the presumptive sentence is determined by locating the sentencing grid sentence range defined by the appropriate offender score and the seriousness level of the conviction, and multiplying the range by 75 percent.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. PRESUMPTIVE RANGES THAT EXCEED THE STATUTORY MAXIMUM. If the presumptive sentence duration given in the sentencing grid exceeds the statutory maximum sentence for the offense, the statutory maximum sentence shall be the presumptive sentence.

VI. RECOMMENDED PROSECUTING STANDARDS FOR CHARGING AND PLEA DISPOSITIONS

NEW SECTION, Sec. 14. INTRODUCTION. These standards are intended solely for the guidance of prosecutors in the State of Washington. They are not intended to, do not and may not be relied upon to create a right or benefit, substantive or procedural, enforceable at law by a party in litigation with the state.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 15. EVIDENTIARY SUFFICIENCY. (1) Decision not to prosecute.

STANDARD: A Prosecuting Attorney may decline to prosecute, even though technically sufficient evidence to prosecute exists, in situations where prosecution would serve no public purpose, would defeat the underlying purpose of the law in question or would result in decreased respect for the law.

GUIDELINE/COMMENTARY:

Examples

The following are examples of reasons not to prosecute which could satisfy the standard.

(a) Contrary to Legislative Intent - It may be proper to decline to charge where the application of criminal sanctions would be clearly contrary to the intent of the legislature in enacting the particular statute.

(b) Antiquated Statute - It may be proper to decline to charge where the statute in question is antiquated in that:

- (i) It has not been enforced for many years; and
- (ii) Most members of society act as if it were no longer in existence; and
- (iii) It serves no deterrent or protective purpose in today's society; and
- (iv) The statute has not been recently reconsidered by the legislature.

This reason is not to be construed as the basis for declining cases because the law in question is unpopular or because it is difficult to enforce.

(c) De Minimus Violation - It may be proper to decline to charge where the violation of law is only technical or insubstantial and where no public interest or deterrent purpose would be served by prosecution.

(d) Confinement on Other Charges - It may be proper to decline to charge because the accused has been sentenced on another charge to a lengthy period of confinement; and

(i) Conviction of the new offense would not merit any additional direct or collateral punishment;

(ii) The new offense is either a misdemeanor or a felony which is not particularly aggravated; and

(iii) Conviction of the new offense would not serve any significant deterrent purpose.

(e) Pending Conviction on Another Charge - It may be proper to decline to charge because the accused is facing a pending prosecution in the same or another county; and

(i) Conviction of the new offense would not merit any additional direct or collateral punishment;

(ii) Conviction in the pending prosecution is imminent;

(iii) The new offense is either a misdemeanor or a felony which is not particularly aggravated; and

(iv) Conviction of the new offense would not serve any significant deterrent purpose.

(f) High Disproportionate Cost of Prosecution - It may be proper to decline to charge where the cost of locating or transporting, or the burden on, prosecution witnesses is highly disproportionate to the importance of prosecuting the offense in question. This reason should be limited to minor cases and should not be relied upon in serious cases.

(g) Improper Motives of Complainant - It may be proper to decline charges because the motives of the complainant are improper and prosecution would serve no public purpose, would defeat the underlying purpose of the law in question or would result in decreased respect for the law.

(h) Immunity - It may be proper to decline to charge where immunity is to be given to an accused in order to prosecute another where the accused's information or testimony will reasonably lead to the conviction of others who are responsible for more serious criminal conduct or who represent a greater danger to the public interest.

(i) Victim Request - It may be proper to decline to charge because the victim requests that no criminal charges be filed and the case involves the following crimes or situations:

(i) Assault cases where the victim has suffered little or no injury;

(ii) Crimes against property, not involving violence, where no major loss was suffered;

(iii) Where doing so would not jeopardize the safety of society.

Care should be taken to insure that the victim's request is freely made and is not the product of threats or pressure by the accused.

The presence of these factors may also justify the decision to dismiss a prosecution which has been commenced.

Notification

The prosecutor is encouraged to notify the victim, when practical, and the law enforcement personnel, of the decision not to prosecute.

(2) Decision to prosecute.

STANDARD:

Crimes against persons will be filed if sufficient admissible evidence exists, which, when considered with the most plausible, reasonably foreseeable defense that could be raised under the evidence, would justify conviction by a reasonable and objective fact-finder.

Crimes against property/other crimes will be filed if the admissible evidence is of such convincing force as to make it probable that a reasonable and objective fact-finder would convict after hearing all the admissible evidence and the most plausible defense that could be raised.

See Table 13 for the crimes within these categories.

Selection of Charges/Degree of Charge
 (1) The prosecutor should file charges which adequately describe the nature of defendant's conduct. Other offenses may be charged only if they are necessary to ensure that the charges:

- (a) Will significantly enhance the strength of the state's case at trial; or
- (b) Will result in restitution to all victims.

(2) The prosecutor should not overcharge to obtain a guilty plea. Overcharging includes:

- (a) Charging a higher degree;
- (b) Charging additional counts.

This standard is intended to direct prosecutors to charge those crimes which demonstrate the nature and seriousness of a defendant's criminal conduct, but to decline to charge crimes which are not necessary to such an indication. Crimes which do not merge as a matter of law, but which arise from the same course of conduct, do not all have to be charged.

GUIDELINES/COMMENTARY:

Police Investigation

A prosecuting attorney is dependent upon law enforcement agencies to conduct the necessary factual investigation which must precede the decision to prosecute. The prosecuting attorney shall ensure that a thorough factual investigation has been conducted before a decision to prosecute is made. In ordinary circumstances the investigation should include the following:

- (1) The interviewing of all material witnesses, together with the obtaining of written statements whenever possible;

(2) The completion of necessary laboratory tests; and

(3) The obtaining, in accordance with constitutional requirements, of the suspect's version of the events.

If the initial investigation is incomplete, a prosecuting attorney should insist upon further investigation before a decision to prosecute is made, and specify what the investigation needs to include.

Exceptions

In certain situations, a prosecuting attorney may authorize filing of a criminal complaint before the investigation is complete if:

(1) Probable cause exists to believe the suspect is guilty; and

(2) The suspect presents a danger to the community or is likely to flee if not apprehended;

or

(3) The arrest of the suspect is necessary to complete the investigation of the crime.

In the event that the exception to the standard is applied, the prosecuting attorney shall obtain a commitment from the law enforcement agency involved to complete the investigation in a timely manner. If the subsequent investigation does not produce sufficient evidence to meet the normal charging standard, the complaint should be dismissed.

Investigation Techniques

The prosecutor should be fully advised of the investigatory techniques that were used in the case investigation including:

(1) Polygraph testing;

(2) Hypnosis;

(3) Electronic surveillance;

(4) Use of informants.

Pre-Filing Discussions with Defendant

Discussions with the defendant or his/her representative regarding the selection or disposition of charges may occur prior to the filing of charges, and potential agreements can be reached.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. PLEA DISPOSITIONS.

STANDARD: (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, a defendant will normally be expected to plead guilty to the charge or charges which adequately describe the nature of his or her criminal conduct or go to trial.

(2) In certain circumstances, a plea agreement with a defendant in exchange for a plea of guilty to a charge or charges that may not fully describe the nature of his or her criminal conduct may be necessary and in the public interest. Such situations may include the following:

(a) Evidentiary problems which make conviction on the original charges doubtful;

(b) The defendant's willingness to cooperate in the investigation or prosecution of others whose criminal conduct is more serious or represents a greater public threat;

(c) A request by the victim when it is not the result of pressure from the defendant;

(d) The discovery of facts which mitigate the seriousness of the defendant's conduct;

(e) The correction of errors in the initial charging decision;

(f) The defendant's history with respect to criminal activity;

(g) The nature and seriousness of the offense or offenses charged;

(h) The probable effect on witnesses.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. SENTENCE RECOMMENDATIONS.

STANDARD:

The prosecutor may reach an agreement regarding sentence recommendations.

The prosecutor shall not agree to withhold relevant information from the court concerning the plea agreement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. Sections 1 through 17 of this act shall be added to chapter 9.94A RCW.*

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator McDermott, is there anything in this resolution that would prevent the committee from also looking at under-utilization of existing hospitals? I think I have already called to your attention that the bed occupancy rate in Pierce County is something like fifty-four percent and yet the Health Department has authorized two new hospitals within thirty miles."

Senator McDermott: "Senator Bottiger, I think that is an issue that could be considered under this resolution. Certainly, it is a question of viability because of the funding mechanism through the hospital rate commission. I think you have to look at that issue as well, as you are looking at how you deal with the uncompensated care, so it could be covered under this bill."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator McDermott, along the same vein, does this resolution encourage or, in any way or otherwise, prevent the consideration of the so-called cost-shifting phenomenon, which results in hospitals where some patients do not fully pay for their care and other patients are then required to build that lack of compensation into the rate?"

Senator McDermott: "That is essentially what this is directed at. It is the question of taking care of patients who do not have money or have limited resources or are paid for only partially or don't pay their debts--who then picks up the costs? The fact is that it is shifted on to the private-paying patient. We need to deal with that at the state level in some way."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 121.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 121, and the resolution passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 00; absent, 01; excused, 02.

Authorizing assistance to street abutters in improving streets.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Thompson moved adoption of the following Committee on Local Government amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. There is added to chapter 35.21 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any city or town may assist a street abutter in improving the street serving the abutter's premises by providing asphalt, concrete, or other supplies or materials. The furnishing of supplies or materials or paying to the abutter the cost thereof and the providing of municipal inspectors and other incidental personnel shall not render the street improvements a public work or improvement subject to competitive bidding.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 36.75 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Any county may assist a street abutter in improving the street serving the abutter's premises by providing asphalt, concrete, or other supplies or materials. The furnishing of supplies or materials or paying to the abutter the cost thereof and the providing of inspectors and other incidental personnel shall not render the street improvements a public work or improvement subject to competitive bidding."

Senator Thompson moved the following amendments to the Committee on Local Government amendment be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 1, line 21, after "bidding," insert "The legislative authority of such city or town shall approve any such assistance at a public meeting and shall maintain a public register of any such assistance setting forth the value, nature, purpose, date and location of the assistance and the name of the beneficiary."

such assistance setting forth the value, nature, purpose, date and location of the assistance and the name of the beneficiary."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Thompson, this is not an area that I have a great deal of experience with, but the way I read your amendment, one question which would come to mind is whether there is a possible lending of credit of the local unit of government. In other words, as I read the amendment, we are dealing with a benefit to a private party. I guess, perhaps, my concern relates to the whole bill, as well as to the amendment. Maybe you could elaborate on that."

Senator Thompson: "I would be pleased to address your concern, Senator Pullen. These improvements can only occur on a public thoroughfare. They just happen to be in proximity of the property owner who has an interest in accomplishing that improvement."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendments by Senator Thompson to the Committee on Local Government amendment.

The motion by Senator Thompson carried and the amendments to the committee amendment were adopted.

MOTION

Senator Thompson moved the following amendment to the Committee on Local Government amendment:

On page 1, after line 21, insert:

"Sec. 3. Section 4, chapter 28, Laws of 1969 and RCW 35.79.030 are each amended to read as follows:

The hearing on such petition may be held before the legislative authority, or before a committee thereof upon the date fixed by resolution or at the time said hearing may be adjourned to. If the hearing is before such a committee the same shall, following the hearing, report its recommendation on the petition to the legislative authority which may adopt or reject the recommendation. If such hearing be held before such a committee it shall not be necessary to hold a hearing on the petition before such legislative authority. If the legislative authority determines to grant said petition or any part thereof, such city or town shall be authorized and have authority by ordinance to vacate such street, or alley, or any part thereof, and the ordinance may provide that it shall not become effective until the owners of property abutting upon the street or alley, or part thereof so vacated, shall compensate such city or town in an amount which does not exceed one-half the appraised value of the area so vacated: PROVIDED, That such ordinance may provide that the city retain an easement or the right to exercise and grant easements in respect to the vacated land for the construction, repair and maintenance of public utilities and services: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That no city or town shall be authorized or have authority to vacate such street or alley, or any parts thereof if any portion thereof abuts on a body of salt or fresh water unless such vacation be sought to enable the city, town, port district or state to acquire the property for port purposes, boat moorage or launching sites, park, viewpoint, recreational, or educational purposes, or other public uses. This proviso shall not apply to industrial zones property nor where pre-existing improvements prevent access to the body of salt or fresh water. A certified copy of such ordinance shall be recorded by the clerk of the legislative authority and in the office of the auditor of the county in which the vacated land is located."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Thompson, my concern would be--suppose there is a railroad at the present time and suppose that railroad would abandon the track--you have already vacated the land that is above the railroad track. I understand that this goes all over the state. This just isn't the city of Steilacoom. This would allow the land to be vacated. The railroad might vacate their property, as the Milwaukee has done, in many instances--we have the John Wayne Trails.

"This is rather a broad amendment which could work to the detriment of the people all over the state. One of the provisions, as I understand the law passed previously, was to save for the public the street ends and the availability to salt water, both from the standpoint of physically visiting it and, also, for the view. This seems to me to open a broad field. Do you see it as I see it?"

Senator Thompson: "Senator Rasmussen, prior to answering this question, I am going to offer an oral amendment which leaves that option to the cities. The copy of the amendment left out a couple of words and should have said 'may apply,' which would leave the option with the local legislative authority.

"In answering your question, this would have a limited application, but in those areas where there is this limited application, it would not work any hardship or any detriment to public interests. Those street ends literally cut off from any public use at this point. The city councils can determine whether or not they proceed-- in the future, any possibility of a vacation of a railroad and take that into consideration in making their judgment with regard to the vacation. We are simply giving them that right to do so."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rasmussen: "May I raise the question of scope and object on this amendment? It just seems to me that we are vacating streets here for public access to water and changing the law there. The original bill related to abutters and I don't think that this amendment fits within the scope and object, Mr. President."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "Senator Rasmussen has raised the point of order that the amendment to the Committee on Local Government amendment changes the scope and object of the bill. The President will require just a bit of time to study the point of order."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 393 was deferred.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 570, by Representatives Kaiser, Smith, Egger, Nealey, Todd, Fiske, McMullen, Tilly, Belcher, Tanner, Braddock, Ellis, Smitherman, Halsan, Ballard, Miller and Isaacson

Maintaining a vocational agricultural education program.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Gaspard moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, line 14 of the engrossed bill, being page 1, line 14 of the printed bill, after "(1)" strike all material down to and including "Washington" on page 2, line 22 of the engrossed bill, being page 2, line 22 of the printed bill, and insert: "A vocational agriculture education service area shall be established by the superintendent of public instruction. Adequate staffing shall be provided for the vocational agriculture education service area for coordination of the state program and to provide assistance to local school districts for the coordination of the activities of student agricultural organizations and associations.

(2) The vocational agriculture education service area shall:

(a) assess needs in vocational agriculture education, assist local school districts in establishing vocational agriculture programs, review local school district applications for approval of vocational agriculture programs, evaluate existing programs, plan research and studies for the improvement of curriculum materials for speciality areas of vocational agriculture. Standards and criteria developed under this subsection shall satisfy the mandates of federally-assisted vocational education;

(b) develop in-service programs for teachers and administrators of vocational agriculture, review application for vocational agriculture teacher certification, and assist in teacher recruitment and placement in vocational agriculture programs;

(c) serve as a liaison with the Future Farmers of America, representatives of business, industry, and appropriate public agencies, and institutions of higher education in order to disseminate information, promote improvement of vocational agriculture programs and assist in the development of adult and continuing education programs in vocational agriculture; and

(d) establish an advisory task force committee of agriculturists, representative of the diverse areas of the agricultural industry in Washington, which committee shall make annual recommendations including, but not limited to, the development of curriculum, strategies for the purpose of establishing a source of trained and qualified individuals in agriculture, and strategies for articulating the state program in vocational agriculture education, including youth leadership throughout the state school system.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. The superintendent of public instruction, pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, shall adopt such rules as are necessary to carry out the provisions of this 1983 act."

Renumber remaining section consecutively.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Shinpoch: "Senator Gaspard, is there any taxing authority given in this amendment? The reason for my question is we have had a number of service area bills go through here and all of them seem to have taxing authority--and a quick scan of this total sheet, I couldn't find any. Could you answer that question, please?"

Senator Gaspard: "Senator Shinpoch, I appreciate your concern, but no--there is not any taxing authority in this amendment or even, as I understand it, in the bill. The money that would be dealt with would be subject to appropriation by the legislature to carry out this program."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Gaspard.

The motion by Senator Gaspard carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 2, line 23 of the engrossed bill, being page 2, line 23 of the printed bill, strike "and 2" and insert "through 3"

On motion of Senator Hansen, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 570, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McCaslin: "Senator Hansen, it says that a fiscal note is available. Do you know what the cost of this is?"

Senator Hansen: "I really don't, Senator McCaslin, but I do believe vocational education--agricultural vocational education--is a must in some parts of our state. All of this allows the school districts from that area to enhance the vocational agricultural program."

Senator McCaslin: "Thank you, Senator Hansen. Would Senator Gaspard yield? Do you have an idea what the fiscal note would be, Senator Gaspard?"

Senator Gaspard: "Senator McCaslin, the intent of the bill is to keep the program as it currently is now, without any further cuts. This does not mandate any further expenditure for the program. What it does say is 'don't reduce it any more.' What has happened is that in vocational education--all of the areas have been cut. This one, in particular, has been cut to one point seven five FTE and staff. This isn't the only one. We are just singling this one out as one to protect."

"There have been many other cuts in distributive education, business education, home and family, industrial and technical health, and vocational industrial arts. All of them have suffered cuts, because of reductions made to the SPI budget. But the intent of this bill is to single out the agriculture community and say 'this is important and no further cuts should be made.'"

Debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 570, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 570, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 42; nays, 05; absent, 01; excused, 01.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Hansen, Hayner, Hughes, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, McCaslin, McDermott, McManus, Metcalf, Moore, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Quigg, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Shinpoch, Taimadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 42.

Voting nay: Senators Craswell, Haley, Hemstad, Lee, Pullen - 5.

Absent: Senator Deccio - 1.

Excused: Senator Sellar - 1.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 570, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 106, by Representatives Sommers, B. Williams, Taylor and Galloway (by Legislative Budget Committee request)

Revising certain laws pertaining to educational service districts.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Metcalf moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Metcalf, Zimmerman, Conner and Haley:

On page 5, after line 16, insert:

"If a child of mandatory attendance age is attending an unapproved private school which is operated as part of a church educational ministry under this section, the parents, guardians, or custodians of the child shall not be subject to the $25 fine for truancy as provided in RCW 28A.27. "Church educational ministry", for the purposes of this act, means an educational ministry that is integral to and inseparable from its sponsoring religious organization offering educational programs for children."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Gaspard: "Mr. President, I rise to a point of order and question scope and object of the amendment offered by Senator Metcalf."

REMARKS BY SENATOR METCALF

Senator Metcalf: "The section is section 1 of the bill. It talks about, specifically, private schools. Section 3 of the bill covers a, b, c, d, and so forth relative to the very things that we are talking about in this bill. I don't believe that there is any way that you can read the bill that it does not fit the scope and object. There are changes in the bill that are dealing with about the same things--on the top of page five, that we are talking about here. I believe it fits well within the scope and object."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GASPARD

Senator Gaspard: "Mr. President, for your consideration, House Bill No. 106 was a Legislative Budget request that dealt with a number of obsolete statutes relating to the educational service districts. I would contend that it certainly is beyond the scope, but certainly not beyond the object of the bill as originally introduced and passed the House."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hughes: "Would Senator Pullen yield to a question?"

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "Senator Pullen does not yield."

Senator Hughes: "Would Senator Talmadge yield to a question? Senator Talmadge, in your years in the Senate, have you ever known Senator Pullen to look at anything liberally?"

Senator Talmadge: "The question is best left unanswered, Senator."

Further debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "In ruling on the point of order raised by Senator Gaspard, the President finds that House Bill No. 106 is a bill which removes or amends by deletion or repeals certain sections of the RCW relating to Educational Service Districts.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Metcalf and others adds additional language and a provision relating to the truancy law.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment proposed by Senators Metcalf, Zimmerman, Conner and Haley was ruled out of order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Gaspard, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 106, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of House Bill No. 106.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of House Bill No. 106, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; nays, 00; absent, 01; excused, 01.

Absent: Senator Jones - 1.

Excused: Senator Sellar - 1.

HOUSE BILL NO. 106, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 393 and the pending amendment to the Committee on Local Government amendment, deferred earlier today.

On motion of Senator Thompson, and there being no objection, the pending amendment to the committee amendment was withdrawn.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Local Government amendment, as amended.

The motion by Senator Thompson carried and the committee amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Thompson, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "Relating to" strike the remainder of the title and insert "street improvements; adding a new section to chapter 35.21 RCW; and adding a new section to chapter 36.75 RCW."

On motion of Senator Thompson, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 393, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Thompson, your last remark intrigued me. You said that it would make the public funds go further by furnishing the materials and the services to the street abutters. My understanding from both my service in the city and the county and as a legislator is that the public funds are very short for improving the public roads and streets. Could you explain how you expect to stretch the public funds by furnishing this extra material to the abutters?"

Senator Thompson: "I regret it, Senator Rasmussen, whenever I make remarks that intrigue you, but I would also like to add that what I meant by that--and I am sorry that my comment wasn't clear--that by providing materials without providing tax-paid labor to accomplish the job, it will be possible to accomplish more with the same amount of money."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Zimmerman: "Senator Thompson, some of the members of our caucus wondered if you could elaborate a little more as to the way in which the actual funding--the actual dollars or the actual money-- whatever expended on the particular materials and so on would be done--how they would be paid?"

Senator Thompson: "Well, as I understand it and could foresee the circumstances, Senator Zimmerman, a citizen with a street problem--bad condition--in front of his property, might appeal to a city council or a legislative authority or a public works director and say that he has some holes out there and some rough pavement and the capability of fixing it himself. With this kind of process, some concrete and/or asphalt could be delivered to the premises and the street abutter could take care of the problem under the surveillance of a public inspector, and the whole job could be accomplished simply and more swiftly than if it had to be scheduled in with--say, the budget or public works schedule of the community government."

Senator Zimmerman: "The abutter would do the work--the abutter would have the work done himself--the piece of property is public property?"

Senator Thompson: "Absolutely, it has to be a public thoroughfare for public benefit."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 393, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 393, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 37; nays, 10; absent, 01; excused, 01.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McManus, Meicalf, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Quigg, Rinehart, Thompson, Vogtild, Warnke, Woody - 37.

Voting nay: Senators Guess, Moore, Pullen, Rasmussen, Shinpoch, Talmadge, von Reichbauer, Williams, Wojahn, Zimmerman - 10.

Absent: Senator Benitz - 1.

Excused: Senator Sellar - 1.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 393, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

Modifying provisions on insurance.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Clarke moved that the following Committee on Financial Institutions amendment not be adopted:

On page 3, after line 9, insert the following:

"Sec. 3. Section .15.08, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 and RCW 48.15.080 are each amended to read as follows:

A licensed surplus line broker may accept and place surplus line business for any insurance agent or broker licensed in this state for the kind of insurance involved, and may compensate such agent or broker therefor: PROVIDED, That an agent or broker shall receive no compensation directly or indirectly as a surplus line broker if such agent or broker or any firm or corporation in any way affiliated with such agent or broker receives any compensation at any time after the effective date of this act as an agent or broker involved in an insurance transaction directly with an insured."

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct internal references accordingly.

Senator Deccio moved that the Committee on Financial Institutions amendment be adopted:

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Zimmerman: "Mr. President, I am sure that some of us are confused on this--when we see two men who are both highly respected in their field of insurance and we find them on each side of this issue. I wondered if anybody knows and could give us a third perspective. I have often looked to the Department and to the Insurance Commissioner's Office, itself, and with that respect, hopefully someone could enlighten us on what they see in terms of this issue. I guess, maybe, I missed the point. Would somebody elaborate on that? I am confused. I respect both of these gentlemen and at this point, I feel, if it is as important as it apparently is, I would like to ask somebody who can answer the question."

Senator Deccio: "Senator Zimmerman, you must have missed my remarks. I have discussed this with the Insurance Commissioner and his deputy and they would like to see the amendment hung on this bill."

Senator Deccio demanded a roll call.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the positive motion by Senator Deccio to adopt the Committee on Financial Institutions amendment on page 3, after line 9.

On motion of Senator Moore, the following Committee on Financial Institutions amendment was adopted:

On page 14, after line 12, insert the following:

"Sec. 22. Section .15.07, chapter 79, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 5, chapter 181, Laws of 1982 and RCW 48.15.070 are each amended to read as follows:

Any individual while a resident of this state, or any firm or any corporation that has in its employ a qualified individual who is a resident of this state and who is authorized to exercise the powers of the firm or corporation, deemed by the commissioner to be competent and trustworthy, and while maintaining an office at a designated location in this state, may be licensed as a surplus line broker in accordance with this section.

(1) Application to the commissioner for the license shall be made on forms furnished by the commissioner.

(2) The license fee shall be one hundred dollars for each license year during any part of which the license is in force. The annual renewal date shall be determined by the commissioner. The commissioner shall adopt a rule providing for the proration, on a quarterly basis, of the license fee. The proration shall be applicable only: (a) To applicants who apply for a license after the expiration of the first quarter of any license year, or (b) to licensees whose licenses would exist for less than nine months as a result of the adoption of the annual renewal date.

(3) Prior to issuance of license the applicant shall file with the commissioner a bond in favor of the state of Washington in the penal sum of twenty thousand dollars, with authorized corporate sureties approved by the commissioner, conditioned that he will conduct business under the license in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and that he will promptly remit the taxes provided by RCW 48.15.120. The licensee shall maintain such bond in force for as long as the license remains in effect.

(4) Every applicant for a surplus line broker's license or for the renewal of a surplus line broker's license shall file with the application or request for renewal a bond in favor of the people of the state of Washington, executed by an authorized corporate surety approved by the commissioner, in the amount of ~~((fifty))~~ one hundred thousand dollars and shall be the bonding requirement for new licensees. The licensee shall maintain such bond in force while so licensed. The bond may be continuous in form, and total aggregate liability on the bond may be limited to the amount stated in the bond. The bond shall be contingent on the accounting by the surplus line broker to any person requesting such broker to obtain insurance, for moneys or premiums collected in connection therewith. A bond issued in accordance with RCW 48.17.250 or with this subsection will satisfy the requirements of both RCW 48.17.250 and this subsection if the limit of liability is not less than the greater of the requirement of RCW 48.17.250 or the requirement of this subsection.

(5) Any bond issued pursuant to subsection (3) or (4) of this section shall remain in force until the surety is released from liability by the commissioner, or until the bond is canceled by the surety. Without prejudice to any liability accrued prior to such cancellation, the surety may cancel the bond upon thirty days' advance notice in writing filed with the commissioner.

(6) For the purposes of this section, a "qualified individual" is a natural person who has met all the requirements that must be met by an individual surplus line broker."

Renumber the sections consecutively.

On motion of Senator Moore, the following Committee on Financial Institutions amendment was adopted:

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 139, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Moore, the general legislation appears to be all right. I am wondering, though, why the House had ninety days for notification of a new child in a family and the amendment cut it down to thirty? Remembering the times when my children were born, it took me the first thirty days to settle down and most people just put an insurance policy aside and forget it and never think about it during the birth of a child. Why did you shorten up the difference?"

Senator Moore: "Are you speaking, Senator Rasmussen, of yourself settling down or the baby settling down?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, getting down to the time when you could look at your insurance policy and realize what is specified."

Senator Moore: "Well, we did not discuss that specifically. We felt that thirty-one days was a more reasonable length of time. If there is anything seriously wrong with a child, it will show up very shortly."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Thompson, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 413, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fleming: "Senator Thompson, does this deal with the same area that another bill that passed through here that dealt with harbor leases--or just any leases?"

Senator Thompson: "No, this extends the time period for leases, Senator Fleming, because the time set is rather arbitrary to begin with and the request came to extend it to thirty years, because we have an opportunity to locate a facility in the Port of Grays Harbor --a very depressed area--if the Port of Grays Harbor has the authority to grant a thirty-year lease."

Senator Fleming: "The reason that I asked that question is that I sponsored a bill going through here dealing with harbor leases that raised it from fifty to fifty-five and then I think the House, supposedly, raised it to sixty or something like that, and I am just wondering--why ninety years? I know there are a lot of leases that deal with ninety-nine in some aspects of the business world. It is sixty and it is extending it an additional thirty more. I heard you say something about ninety and that caught my attention."

Senator Thompson: "These times have been put out in the distance, Senator Fleming, as it was explained to us by a spokesman for the Washington State Ports, simply to accommodate specific requirements for them. They are not set arbitrarily, although varying lease provisions have different lease length limits."

Senator Fleming: "I was just wondering whether it would create some kind of problem somewhere down the line for us. I understand the fifty-year lease easily being extended another ten or whatever it is, but extending them out to ninety years--I was just wondering if that would create any problems somewhere along the way, even though you try to deal with one specific issue."

Senator Thompson: "I don't believe it will create any problems. On the contrary, Senator Fleming, I think it will create an opportunity."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 413.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Williams, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 323 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Williams, I notice that the bill is very carefully drawn not to include the territory of another PUD, but would it include the territory of a private supplier?"

Senator Williams: "No, it would not."

Senator Guess: "In other words, the PUD in Newport could not take in the territory by annexation in Stevens County that is served by the Washington Water Power?"

Senator Williams: "My first answer was 'no.' It is not the intention to do that and the Department of Utilities testified in the committee and did not raise this question. In other words, they were satisfied the bill was satisfactory for them."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "Senator Metcalf, in this bill, I take it that an existing PUD is now county-wide. You would then be crossing county lines and annexing into a new county. My question is--would, in this new county, the PUD from the previous county have authority to condemn transmission lines of a private utility--for instance--into Island County?"

Senator Metcalf: "The present Camano Island is served by the PUD and has no transmission lines from any private power company, so the question does not relate to Camano Island's relationship to Snohomish County."

Senator Newhouse: "But there are other islands in Island County--might the PUD then condemn facilities on those other islands?"

Senator Metcalf: "As far as I can see, absolutely not. The lines come down from an entirely different area and don't come near the Snohomish County lines. I certainly would not support the bill if I thought it had that kind of a problem in it."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bluechel, Senators Patterson and Fuller were excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 323.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. It is the intent of the legislature that the continuity of the original Milwaukee Road corridor be retained for future public use. The legislature recognizes the

This plan shall be submitted to the legislature by January 15, 1985."

Renumber remaining sections accordingly.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hansen: "I don't think the state can afford this amendment, nor do I think they can afford the one that was adopted. I want to ask Senator McDermott, in our budget are you prepared to put a minimum of three hundred thousand dollars in for the management of this trail and if we go through with this study, two hundred twenty-five thousand dollars out of the existing budget? If you are not, this is all for naught and the liability will be on the DNR and we will have the fire hazards and the weed control--and dealing with each fire department to control the fires in this area. Are we prepared for that fiscal impact in our budget today?"

Senator McDermott: "Senator Hansen, obviously, there are a million little things that people might want to put in the budget. I, personally, think that we can find the money to do this. In terms of our tourism promotion, in terms of making this state the kind of recreational area that will draw people from the other parts of the state, it would be a worthy expenditure of the money. For that reason, I have the staff already looking and I think we have a source already located."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Woody.

The motion by Senator Woody failed on a rising vote and the amendment was not adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the following amendments by Senators Shinpoch, Hansen and Newhouse were considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 1, after line 26, insert "It is the intent of the legislature that the continuity of the original corridor be retained for future public use."

On page 2, line 8, strike all of section 3 and renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

On page 3, line 16, strike all of subsections (2) and (3) and renumber the remaining subsection consecutively.

On page 3, line 26, strike all of section 7 and renumber the remaining sections consecutively.

On page 3, after line 35, insert:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. ___. All leases, agreements, contracts or lease exchanges authorized by or entered into pursuant to this act shall comply with the legislative intent expressed in section 1 and shall retain for the benefit of the state the power to terminate the leases, agreements, contracts or lease exchanges following adequate notice as negotiated by the parties.

"NEW SECTION. Sec. ___. The appropriate state agencies shall manage the portion of the corridor under its control in the best interest of the state and, in compliance with the legislative intent expressed in section 1, may enter into leases, agreements, contracts or lease exchanges for any use of the land, including but not limited to:

(1) Allowing the realignment or modification of public roads, farm crossings, water conveyances, facilities and other utility crossings;

(2) Regulating activities and restricting uses, including closing portions of the corridor to reduce fire danger or otherwise protect public safety;

(3) Placing hazard warning signs and closing hazardous structures;

(4) Renegotiating existing agreements upon agreement with affected parties; and

(5) Entering into leases for utility, transportation, pipelines or other commercial uses."

MOTION

Senator Woody moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, beginning on line 28, strike all of section 5.

Renumber accordingly.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "Senator Bottiger, I am reading section 6 of this bill. Section 6 indicates that the Department may offer for lease and it says--'the lease may include a closure of the trail.' Is that language not clear, does that not indicate that these areas that we are talking about can, in fact, be leased and closed to recreational use?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Vognild, the section--I thought that was taken out by Senator Shinpoch's amendment--but that section, then, would allow the Department, whether you adopt the Woody amendment or not--in a lease--grant the right to close that particular piece of the trail, so that you go up to it and then it would be open later on. That would be the only way that I could interpret it. I think my point was that the farmer's desire to keep the fires and things out of his field would almost force them to ask for a closure--a non-exclusive use in the lease."

Senator Woody demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendment by Senator Woody.

Strike everything after the enacting clause, and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 11, chapter 260, Laws of 1981 and RCW 46.20.308 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who operates a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state (~~shall be~~) is deemed to have given consent, subject to the provisions of RCW 46.61.506, to a chemical test or tests of his or her breath or blood for the purpose of determining the alcoholic content of his or her blood if arrested for any offense where, at the time of the arrest, the arresting officer has reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

The test or tests shall be administered at the direction of a law enforcement officer having reasonable grounds to believe the person to have been driving or in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. ~~((Such))~~ The officer shall inform the person of his or her right to refuse the test, and of his or her right to have additional tests administered by any qualified person of his or her choosing as provided in RCW 46.61.506. The officer shall warn the driver that his or her privilege to drive will be revoked or denied if he or she refuses to submit to the test. The officer shall warn the driver that his refusal to take the test may be used against him in any subsequent criminal trial.

Unless the person to be tested is unconscious, the chemical test administered shall be of ~~((his))~~ the breath only~~((PROVIDED-That))~~. If an individual is unconscious or is under arrest for the crime of ~~((negligent))~~ vehicular homicide ~~((by motor vehicle))~~ as provided in RCW 46.61.520 or vehicular assault as provided in section 2, chapter ~~...~~(SB 3106), Laws of 1983, or if an individual is under arrest for the crime of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs as provided in RCW 46.61.502, which arrest results from an accident in which another person has been injured and there is a reasonable likelihood that such other person may die as a result of injuries sustained in the accident, a breath or blood test may be administered without the consent of the individual so arrested. In such circumstances, the provisions of subsections (2) through (6) of this section shall not apply.

(2) Any person who is dead, unconscious, or who is otherwise in a condition rendering him incapable of refusal, shall be deemed not to have withdrawn the consent provided by subsection (1) of this section and the test or tests may be administered, subject to the provisions of RCW 46.61.506.

(3) If, following his or her arrest, the person arrested refuses upon the request of a law enforcement officer to submit to a chemical test of his or her breath, after being informed that his refusal will result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive, no test shall be given. The department of licensing, upon the receipt of a sworn report of the law enforcement officer that he had reasonable grounds to believe the arrested person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor and that the person had refused to submit to the test upon the request of the law enforcement officer after being informed that such refusal would result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive, shall revoke his license or permit to drive or any nonresident operating privilege. If the person is a resident without a license or permit to operate a motor vehicle in this state, the department shall deny to the person the issuance of a license or permit for a period of ~~((six months))~~ one year after the date of the alleged violation or for two years if it is the second such refusal in a five-year period, subject to review as hereinafter provided.

(4) Upon revoking the license or permit to drive or the nonresident operating privilege of any person, or upon determining that the issuance of a license or permit shall be denied to the person, as ~~((hereinbefore))~~ directed in this section ~~((directed))~~, the department shall immediately notify the person involved in writing by personal service or by registered or certified mail of its decision and the grounds therefor, and of his right to a hearing, specifying the steps he must take to obtain a hearing. The person upon receiving ~~((such))~~ the notice may, in writing and within ten days therefrom request a formal hearing. Upon receipt of such request, the department shall afford him an opportunity for a hearing as provided in RCW 46.20.329 and 46.20.332. The scope of ~~((such))~~ the hearing for the purposes of this section shall cover the issues of whether a law enforcement officer had reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, whether the person was placed under arrest, and whether he refused to submit to the test upon request of the officer after having been informed that such refusal would result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive. The department shall order that the revocation or determination that there should be a denial of issuance either be rescinded or sustained. Any decision by the department revoking a person's driving privilege shall be stayed and shall not take effect while a formal hearing is pending as ~~((herein))~~ provided in this section or during the pendency of a subsequent appeal to superior court ~~((PROVIDED, That this stay shall be effective only))~~ so long as there is no conviction for a moving violation or no finding that the person has committed a traffic infraction ~~((which))~~ that is a moving violation during pendency of the hearing and appeal.

(5) If the revocation or determination that there should be a denial of issuance is sustained after such a hearing, the person whose license, privilege, or permit is so affected ~~((shall have))~~ has the right to file a petition in the superior court of the county ~~((wherein))~~ in which he or she resides, or, if a nonresident of this state, where the charge arose, to review the final order of revocation or denial by the department in the manner provided in RCW 46.20.334.

(6) When it has been finally determined under the procedures of this section that a nonresident's privilege to operate a motor vehicle in this state has been revoked, the department shall give information in writing of the action taken to the motor vehicle administrator of the state of the person's residence and of any state in which he or she has a license.

Sec. 2. Section 11, chapter 260, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 1 of this act and RCW 46.20.308 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who operates a motor vehicle ~~((upon the public highways of))~~ within this state is deemed to have given consent, subject to the provisions of RCW 46.61.506, to a chemical test or tests of his or her breath or blood for the purpose of determining the alcoholic content of his or her blood if arrested for any offense where, at the time of the arrest, the arresting officer has reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

(2) The test or tests shall be administered at the direction of a law enforcement officer having reasonable grounds to believe the person to have been driving or in actual physical control of a motor vehicle ~~((upon the public highways of))~~ within this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. The officer shall inform the person of his or her right to refuse the test, and of his or her right to have additional tests administered by any qualified person of his or her choosing as provided in RCW 46.61.506. The officer shall warn the driver that (a) his or her privilege to drive will be revoked or denied if he or she refuses to submit to the test ((The officer shall warn the driver)), (b) that his or her privilege to drive will be suspended, revoked, or denied if the test is administered and the test indicates a concentration of alcohol in his or her blood of 0.10 percent or more, and (c) that his or her refusal to take the test may be used against him or her in ((any)) a subsequent criminal trial.

~~((Unless the person to be tested is unconscious))~~ (3) Except as provided in this subsection and subsection (4) of this section, the chemical test administered shall be of the breath only. If an individual is unconscious or is under arrest for the crime of vehicular homicide as provided in RCW 46.61.520 or vehicular assault as provided in section 2, chapter (SB 3106), Laws of 1983, or if an individual is under arrest for the crime of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs as provided in RCW 46.61.502, which arrest results from an accident in which another person has been injured and there is a reasonable likelihood that such other person may die as a result of injuries sustained in the accident, a breath or blood test may be administered without the consent of the individual so arrested. ((In such circumstances, the provisions of subsections (2) through (6) of this section shall not apply.

~~((3))~~ (4) Any person who is dead, unconscious, or who is otherwise in a condition rendering him incapable of refusal, shall be deemed not to have withdrawn the consent provided by subsection (1) of this section and the test or tests may be administered, subject to the provisions of RCW 46.61.506, and the person shall be deemed to have received the warnings required under subsection (2) of this section.

~~((3))~~ (5) If, following his or her arrest and receipt of warnings under subsection (2) of this section, the person arrested refuses upon the request of a law enforcement officer to submit to a chemical test of his or her breath, ~~((after being informed that his refusal will result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive:))~~ no test shall be given except as authorized under subsection (3) or (4) of this section. ~~((The department of licensing, upon the receipt of a sworn report of the law enforcement officer that he had reasonable grounds to believe the arrested person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor and that the person had refused to submit to the test upon the request of the law enforcement officer after being informed that such refusal would result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive, shall revoke his license or permit to drive or any nonresident operating privilege, if the person~~ is a resident without a license or permit to operate a motor vehicle in this state, the department shall deny to the person the issuance of a license or permit for a period of one year after the date of the alleged violation or for two years if it is the second such refusal in a five-year period, subject to review as hereinafter provided:

(4) Upon revoking the license or permit to drive or the nonresident operating privilege of any person, or upon determining that the issuance of a license or permit shall be denied to the person, as directed in this section, the department shall immediately notify the person involved in writing by personal service or by registered or certified mail of its decision and the grounds therefor, and of his right to a hearing, specifying the steps he must take to obtain a hearing. The person upon receiving the notice may, in writing and within ten days therefrom request a formal hearing. Upon receipt of such request, the department shall afford him an opportunity for a hearing as provided in RCW 46.20.329 and 46.20.332. The scope of the hearing for the purposes of this section shall cover the issues of whether a law enforcement officer had reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, whether the person was placed under arrest, and whether he refused to submit to the test upon request of the officer after having been informed that such refusal would result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive. The department shall order that the revocation or determination that there should be a denial of issuance either be rescinded or sustained. Any decision by the department revoking a person's driving privilege shall be stayed and shall not take effect while a formal hearing is pending as provided in this section or during the pendency of a subsequent appeal to superior court so long as there is no conviction for a moving violation or no finding that the person has committed a traffic infraction that is a moving violation during pendency of the hearing and appeal.

(5) If the revocation or determination that there should be a denial of issuance is sustained after such a hearing, the person whose license, privilege, or permit is so affected has the right to file a petition in the superior court of the county in which he or she resides, or, if a nonresident of this state, where the charge arose, to review the final order of revocation or denial by the department in the manner provided in RCW 46.20.334.

(6) When it has been finally determined under the procedures of this section that a nonresident's privilege to operate a motor vehicle in this state has been revoked, the department shall give information in writing of the action taken to the motor vehicle administrator of the state of the person's residence and of any state in which he or she has a license.))

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. (1) If, after arrest and after the other applicable conditions and requirements of RCW 46.20.308 have been satisfied, a person submits to a chemical test of his or her blood, breath, or other bodily fluids, or such a test has been administered without that person's express consent as permitted by RCW 46.20.308 (3) or (4), and the test results indicate an alcoholic concentration in that person's blood of 0.10 percent or more by weight, or the person refuses to submit to a test, the arresting officer or other law enforcement officer at whose direction any test has been given shall:

(a) Serve notice in writing on the person on behalf of the department of its intention to suspend, revoke, or deny the person's license, permit, or privilege to drive as required by section 5 of this act;

(b) Confiscate the person's Washington state license or permit to drive, if any;

(c) Issue a temporary license as provided for in subsection (2) of this section to any driver who surrenders a current and valid license; and

(d) Immediately notify the department of licensing of the arrest and transmit to the department of licensing any confiscated license or permit and a sworn report that states:

(i) That the officer had reasonable grounds to believe the arrested person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle within this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs, or both; and

(ii) That after receipt of the warnings required by RCW 46.20.308(2) the person refused to submit, or submitted to chemical testing, or that a test was administered without the person's express consent as permitted under RCW 46.20.308 (3) or (4); and

(iii) That, if a test was administered, the applicable requirements of RCW 46.20.308 were met before administration of the test and that the test was administered in accordance with RCW 46.61.506; and

(iv) That the results of any test administered indicated an alcoholic concentration in that person's blood of 0.10 percent or more.

(2) The department shall provide law enforcement agencies with temporary license forms and written notice statements for use under subsection (1) of this section. Any temporary license issued under subsection (1) of this section shall indicate that it is effective for forty-five days from the arrest or, until the suspension, revocation, or denial of the person's license, permit, or privilege to drive is sustained at a hearing pursuant to section 6 of this act, whichever occurs first. No temporary license is valid to any greater degree than the license or permit that it replaces.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. (1) The department shall suspend, revoke, or deny the arrested person's driving privileges as follows:

(a) In the case of a person who has refused a test:

- (i) For a first refusal within five years, revocation or denial for one year;
- (ii) For a second refusal within five years, revocation or denial for two years.

(b) In the case of a person who has submitted to or been administered a test indicating a blood alcohol concentration of 0.10 percent or more:

- (i) For a first incident within five years, suspension or denial for ninety days;
- (ii) For a second incident within five years, revocation or denial for one year;
- (iii) For a third incident within five years, revocation or denial for two years.

(c) A suspension, revocation, or denial shall take effect when sustained at a hearing under section 6 of this act, or forty-five days after the person's arrest if no hearing was requested, whichever occurs first.

(2) The department shall not grant or reinstate a person's privilege to drive that has been suspended, revoked, or denied under subsection (1) of this section until it has determined the person is eligible for reinstatement under RCW 46.20.031 and 46.61.515 and is otherwise qualified.

(3) For purposes of this section and section 5 of this act, driving privileges include:

- (a) A Washington state driver's license or permit;
- (b) A nonresident privilege to drive; and
- (c) The privilege of a person to apply for a new or duplicate license or permit or to renew a license, permit, or nonresident privilege.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. No suspension, revocation, or denial of a driving privilege under section 4 of this act is effective until the department of licensing or a law enforcement officer acting on its behalf notifies the person in writing by personal service, by certified mail, or by first class mail addressed to that person's last known address of record with the department of the department's intention to suspend, revoke, or deny together with the grounds therefor and allows the person a seven-day period to request in writing that the department provide a hearing as provided in section 6 of this act. The notice shall specify the steps the person must take to obtain a hearing. If no written request for a hearing is postmarked or delivered to the department within seven days from the date of notification, the department shall issue an order effective as provided in section 4 of this act. If a request for a hearing is filed in time, the department shall give the person an opportunity for a hearing as provided in section 6 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. (1) Administrative hearings held to determine the propriety of any suspension, revocation, or denial imposed under section 4 of this act shall be in accordance with rules adopted by the director.

(2) The department shall fix a time, no more than forty-five days after arrest, and a place for a hearing to be held in the county in which the arrest was made that resulted in a report being transmitted under section 3 of this act. The hearing may be set for some other county by agreement between the department and the person. If the hearing is not held and an order issued under section 8 of this act within forty-five days after arrest, the suspension, revocation, or denial under section 4 of this act shall not be imposed.

(3) The department shall give the person at least fourteen days advance notice of the time and place of hearing, but the period of notice may be waived by the person. RCW 46.20.332 and 46.20.333 apply to the hearings. The department shall issue a subpoena upon the request of any party and, to the extent required by department rule, upon a statement showing the general relevance and reasonable scope of the evidence sought. The subpoena may be issued with like effect by the person's attorney of record or the office of the attorney general, and the form of the subpoena in each case may be the same as when issued by the agency, except that it shall only be subscribed by the signature of the person's attorney or an assistant attorney general. Every party has the right of cross-examination of any witness who testifies and has the right to submit rebuttal evidence. Subpoenas issued under this section may be enforced in the manner provided by RCW 34.04.105(5).

(4) With respect to arrested drivers who have submitted to or been administered chemical tests, the department by rule may permit the admission into evidence at the hearing of (a) copies of official reports of persons who possess a valid permit or certificate from the state toxicologist to perform tests or chemical analyses of the blood or breath, as to results of particular tests or analyses performed by that person when the copies have been certified as true copies of the report by the writer of the report, under oath, and (b) certificates of Breathalyzer maintenance operators who possess a valid permit or certificate from the state toxicologist, as to the testing and calibration of Breathalyzers or similar machines by that person. The reports or certificates may be admitted without further proof or foundation as prima facie evidence of the facts stated in them unless the arrested driver has given written notice received by the department not less than seven days before the date set for the hearing that he or she requests that the person administering the test, or the Breathalyzer maintenance operator, be produced by the department at the hearing.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. The scope of the administrative hearing under section 6 of this act shall include:

- (1) With respect to a person who has refused a chemical test, the issues of:

(a) Whether a law enforcement officer had reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle within this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor;

(b) Whether the person was placed under arrest; and

(c) Whether the person refused to submit to the test upon request of the officer after having been informed that such refusal would result in the revocation or denial of his or her privilege to drive and that the person had the right to additional tests.

(2) With respect to a person upon whom a chemical test was administered, the issues of:

(a) Whether a law enforcement officer had reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle within this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor;

(b) Whether the person was placed under arrest;

(c) Whether the applicable requirements of RCW 46.20.308 were satisfied before the administration of the chemical test;

(d) Whether the person either submitted to the test or a test was administered without express consent as permitted under RCW 46.20.308; and

(e) Whether the test indicated a concentration of alcohol in the person's blood of 0.10 percent, or more. The person may challenge whether the testing methods used were in accordance with RCW 46.61.506 and were valid and reliable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. After a hearing held under section 6 of this act, the department shall order that the appropriate suspension, revocation, or denial of privileges be imposed effective ten days after receipt of the order. In the alternative, the department may order that the administrative action be dismissed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) If the suspension, revocation, or denial imposed by the department under section 4 of this act is sustained after a hearing, the person whose license, permit, or privilege is affected has the right to file a petition in the superior court of the county of arrest or the county in which the person resides or, if a nonresident of this state, the superior court of Thurston county, for review of the final order of suspension, revocation, or denial by the department. The petition shall be filed within ten days following receipt by the person of the department's final order, or the right to appeal is deemed to have been waived. The review shall be conducted by the court without a jury, and shall be confined to the record, except that in cases of alleged irregularities in procedure before the department, not shown in the record, testimony on that issue may be taken in court. The scope of the review is limited to that prescribed by RCW 7.16.120, governing writs of certiorari.

(2) The filing of the appeal does not stay the effective date of the suspension, revocation, or denial unless it is stayed by the court after motion and argument. Such a stay may be granted only if the court finds upon the arguments and affidavits presented that there is a reasonable probability that the petitioner will prevail upon the merits of the petition, that the public interest will not be substantially harmed by the stay, and that the petitioner will suffer irreparable harm if the order is not stayed. If such a stay is granted it shall provide that it is effective only so long as there is no conviction of the petitioner for a moving violation or no finding that the petitioner has committed a traffic infraction which is a moving violation during the pendency of the appeal.

(3) The court may affirm the department's decision, remand the matter for further administrative proceedings, or reverse the department's order of suspension, revocation, or denial.

(4) The actual costs of preparing and transmitting the record to superior court shall be borne by the petitioner and awarded by the court to the department if the department's decision is affirmed. The costs shall be borne by the department if the department's decision is remanded or reversed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. When it has been finally determined under the procedures of sections 4 through 8 of this act that a nonresident's privilege to operate a motor vehicle in this state has been suspended or revoked, the department shall give information in writing of the action taken to the motor vehicle administrator of the state of the person's residence and of any state in which the person has a driver's license.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. When the department is required to suspend, revoke, or deny a person's license, permit, or nonresident privilege to drive under either section 4 of this act or under RCW 46.61.515(5), and (1) the department has earlier imposed a suspension, revocation, or denial under the other of those two provisions or is preparing to do so, and (2) each of those two sanctions has been required as the result of civil or criminal proceedings arising from the same arrest, the department shall proceed as follows:

(a) If the civil and criminal sanctions imposed or to be imposed are for the same minimum length of time, the suspension, revocation, or denial imposed by the department is limited to that first imposed and fully effective under one of those provisions;

(b) If the civil and criminal sanctions are of different minimum lengths of time, the department shall impose the sanction of longer duration. If the sanction with the shorter minimum duration has earlier been imposed by the department, the department shall reduce the minimum duration of the longer revocation by the number of days the license, permit, or privilege to drive was actually under suspension, revocation, or denial pursuant to the earlier action by the department.

If a suspension, revocation, or denial of a person's license, permit, or nonresident privilege to drive would have been imposed by the department under section 4 of this act but for the operation of this section, the suspension, revocation, or denial shall be treated as if it had been imposed for the purposes of determining the minimum duration of subsequent suspensions or revocations required under that section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. (1) The director, or his or her designee, shall administer and enforce the provisions of sections 3 through 11 of this act. The director may adopt such rules as he or she deems necessary to carry out the purposes of sections 3 through 11 of this act.

(2) The department shall prescribe and provide such forms as it deems necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of sections 3 through 11 of this act.

Sec. 17. Section 27, chapter 121, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 5, chapter 212, Laws of 1982 and RCW 46.20.311 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The department shall not suspend a driver's license or privilege to drive a motor vehicle on the public highways for a fixed period of more than one year, except as permitted under RCW 46.20.342 or 46.61.515. After the expiration of the appropriate period, the person may make application for a new license as provided by law together with ((an additional)) a reinstatement fee in the amount of twenty dollars, but if the revocation is the result of a violation of RCW 46.20.308, 46.61.502, or 46.61.504, the reinstatement fee shall be fifty dollars. The department shall not then issue a new license unless it is satisfied after investigation of the driving ability of ((such)) the person that it will be safe to grant the privilege of driving a motor vehicle on the public highways, and until ((such)) the person ((shall)) give and thereafter maintains proof of financial responsibility for the future as provided in chapter 46.29 RCW. (1) The department shall not suspend a driver's license or privilege to drive a motor vehicle on the public highways for a fixed period of more than one year, except as permitted under RCW 46.20.342 or 46.61.515. Whenever the license of any person is suspended by reason of a conviction, a finding that a traffic infraction has been committed, or pursuant to RCW 46.20.291, the suspension shall remain in effect and the department shall not issue to the person any new, duplicate, or renewal license until the person pays a reinstatement fee of twenty dollars and gives and thereafter maintains proof of financial responsibility for the future as provided in chapter 46.29 RCW. If the suspension is the result of a violation of RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504 or was imposed under section 4 (1) (a) or (b) of this act, the reinstatement fee shall be fifty dollars.

(2) Any person whose license or privilege to drive a motor vehicle on the public highways has been revoked, unless the revocation was for a cause which has been removed, is not entitled to have the license or privilege renewed or restored until: (a) After the expiration of one year from the date on which the revoked license was surrendered to and received by the department; (b) after the expiration of the applicable revocation period provided by RCW 46.61.515(5) (b) or (c); (c) after the expiration of two years for persons convicted of vehicular homicide; (d) after the expiration of one year in cases of revocation for the first refusal within five years to submit to a chemical test under RCW 46.20.308; or (e) after the expiration of two

The department shall not then issue a new license unless it is satisfied after investigation of the driving ability of the person that it will be safe to grant the privilege of driving a motor vehicle on the public highways, and until the person gives and thereafter maintains proof of financial responsibility for the future as provided in chapter 46.29 RCW. A resident without a license or permit whose license or permit was denied under ~~((RCW 46.20.308(3)))~~ section 4 of this act shall give and thereafter maintain proof of financial responsibility for the future as provided in chapter 46.29 RCW.

(3) Whenever the driver's license of any person is suspended pursuant to Article IV of the nonresident violators compact or RCW 46.23.020, the suspension shall remain in effect and the department shall not issue to the person any new or renewal license until the person pays a reinstatement fee of twenty dollars. If the suspension is the result of a violation of the laws of another state, province, or other jurisdiction involving (a) the operation or physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs, or (b) the refusal to submit to a chemical test of the driver's blood alcohol content, the reinstatement fee shall be fifty dollars.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. There is added to chapter 46.68 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Until July 1, 1984, thirty dollars of any driver's license reinstatement fee paid under RCW 46.20.311 when the suspension or revocation was for a violation involving (a) the operation or physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs, or (b) the refusal to submit to a chemical test of the driver's blood alcohol content, shall be deposited by the department in the DWI impact account, hereby created, of the general fund.

(2) By December 31, 1983, and by August 1, 1984, the office of financial management shall distribute the proceeds of the DWI impact account to the counties for the increased needs of the courts, the prosecuting attorneys, the public defenders, and local law enforcement in handling cases involving driving while intoxicated. To receive a grant from the DWI impact account, a county shall establish, to the satisfaction of the office of financial management, its need for the funds, that a satisfactory effort by the county is being maintained to the extent possible with available funds, and that local resources have been exhausted.

(3) In making grants from the DWI impact account, the office of financial management shall consider the following:

(a) The number of arrests for driving while intoxicated made in the county in the immediately preceding fiscal year;

(b) The percentage of change over the corresponding number for the second preceding fiscal year;

(c) The judicial caseload predicted by the administrator for the courts for the current fiscal year;

(d) Increases in financial support provided by counties for enforcement and conviction relating to offenses involving driving while intoxicated; and

(e) The increase in efforts of law enforcement agencies to arrest persons violating laws against driving while intoxicated.

(4) This section shall expire on August 31, 1984.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. There is added to chapter 46.68 RCW a new section to read as follows:

After June 30, 1984, thirty dollars of any driver's license reinstatement fee paid under RCW 46.20.311 when the suspension or revocation was for a violation involving (a) the operation or physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs, or (b) the refusal to submit to a chemical test of the driver's blood alcohol content, shall be deposited by the department in the highway safety fund for the exclusive use of the department in implementing sections 3 through 12 of this act.

Sec. 21. Section 62, chapter 155, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 27, chapter 47, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.61.515 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every person who is convicted of a violation of RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504 shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than twenty-four consecutive hours nor more than one year, and by a fine of not more than ~~((five))~~ seven hundred fifty dollars. The person shall, in addition, be required to complete a course at an alcohol information school approved by the department of social and health services. If, after completing an alcohol evaluation at the alcohol information school, the convicted person is found to have a serious alcohol problem, the alcohol information school may recommend more intensive alcoholism treatment in a program approved by the department of social and health services. In the alternative, the court may bypass alcohol information school if the court determines that more intensive alcoholism treatment in a program approved by the department of social and health services is appropriate. Standards for approval shall be prescribed by rule under the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW. The courts shall periodically review the costs of alcohol information schools and treatment programs within their jurisdictions. Twenty-four consecutive hours of the jail sentence shall not be suspended or deferred unless the judge finds that the imposition of the jail sentence will pose a risk to the defendant's physical or mental well-being. Whenever the mandatory jail sentence is suspended or deferred, the judge must state, in writing, the reason for granting the suspension or deferral and the facts upon which the suspension or deferral is based. The court may impose conditions of probation that may include nonrepetition, alcohol or drug treatment, supervised probation, or other conditions that may be appropriate.

(2) On a second or subsequent conviction for driving or being in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs within a five-year period a person shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than seven days nor more than one year and by a fine of not more than one thousand five hundred dollars. District courts and courts organized under chapter 35.20 RCW are authorized to impose such fine. The jail sentence shall not be suspended or deferred unless the judge finds that the imposition of the jail sentence will pose a risk to the defendant's physical or mental well-being. Whenever the mandatory jail sentence is suspended or deferred, the judge must state, in writing, the reason for granting the suspension or deferral and the facts upon which the suspension or deferral is based. If ~~((such person))~~, at the time of a second or subsequent conviction, the driver is without a license or permit because of a previous suspension or revocation, the minimum mandatory sentence shall be ninety days in jail and a two hundred dollar fine. The penalty so imposed shall not be suspended or deferred. The person shall, in addition, be required to complete diagnostic evaluation at an alcoholism program approved by the department of social and health services or other diagnostic evaluation as the court designates. If the person is found to have an alcohol or drug problem requiring treatment, the person shall complete treatment at an approved alcoholism treatment facility or approved drug treatment center.

In addition to any nonsuspendable and nondeferrable jail sentence required by this subsection, the court shall sentence a person to a term of imprisonment not exceeding one hundred eighty days and shall suspend but shall not defer the sentence for a period not exceeding two years. The suspension of the sentence may be conditioned upon nonrepetition, alcohol or drug treatment, supervised probation, or other conditions that may be appropriate. The sentence may be imposed in whole or in part upon violation of a condition of suspension during the suspension period.

(3) There shall be levied and paid into the highway safety fund of the state treasury a penalty assessment in the minimum amount of twenty-five percent of, and which shall be in addition to, any fine, bail forfeiture, or costs on all offenses involving a violation of any state statute or city or county ordinance relating to driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor ~~((PROVIDED, That))~~. All funds derived from ((such)) the penalty assessment ((shall be)) are in addition to and exclusive of assessments made under RCW 46.81.030 and shall be for the exclusive use of the department for driver services programs and for a state-wide alcohol safety action program, or other similar programs designed primarily for the rehabilitation or control of traffic offenders. ~~((Such))~~ The penalty assessment shall be included in any bail schedule and shall be included by the court in any pronouncement of sentence.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions contained in chapters 3.16, 3.46, 3.50, 3.62, or 35.20 RCW, or any other section of law, the penalty assessment provided for in subsection (3) of this section shall not be suspended, waived, modified, or deferred in any respect, and all moneys derived from ~~((such)) the~~ penalty assessments shall be forwarded to the highway safety fund to be used exclusively for the purposes set forth in subsection (3) of this section.

(5) The license or permit to drive or any nonresident privilege of any person convicted of driving or being in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs shall:

(a) On the first conviction under either ~~((such))~~ offense, be suspended by the department until the person reaches age eighteen or for ((not less than thirty)) ninety days ~~((PROVIDED, That the court may recommend that no suspension action be taken))~~, whichever is longer. The treatment agency shall forward a copy of the completed diagnostic evaluation and treatment report to the department of licensing before the department may reinstate the person's driver's license. The department of licensing shall determine the person's eligibility for licensing based upon these reports and shall deny reinstatement until enrollment and participation in an approved program has been established and the person is otherwise qualified;

(b) On a second conviction under either ~~((such))~~ offense within a five-year period, be ~~((suspended))~~ revoked by the department for ~~((not less than sixty days))~~ one year. The treatment agency shall forward a copy of the completed diagnostic evaluation and treatment report to the department of licensing before the department may reinstate the person's driver's license. The department of licensing shall determine the person's eligibility for licensing based upon these reports as provided in RCW 46.20.031 and shall deny reinstatement until satisfactory progress in an approved program has been established and the person is otherwise qualified;

(c) On a third or subsequent conviction ((~~under either such offense~~) of driving or being in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs, vehicular homicide, or vehicular assault, or any combination thereof within a five-year period, be revoked by the department for two years.

(6) In any case provided for in this section, where a driver's license is to be revoked or suspended, ~~((such))~~ the revocation or suspension shall be stayed and shall not take effect until after the determination of any appeal from the conviction which may lawfully be taken, but in case ~~((such))~~ the conviction is sustained on appeal ~~((such))~~ the revocation or suspension ~~((shall))~~ takes effect as of the date that the conviction becomes effective for other purposes.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 22. There is added to chapter 46.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A suspension or revocation of the license, permit, or nonresident privilege to drive that is required to be imposed by the department of licensing under RCW 46.61.515 shall be coordinated by the department with any suspension or revocation which has been imposed by the department following any civil action it may have taken pursuant to sections 3 through 12 of this act arising out of the same arrest, as required by section 11 of this act.

Sec. 23. Section 1, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 as amended by section 13, chapter 61, Laws of 1979 and RCW 46.20.391 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person licensed under this chapter who is convicted of an offense relating to motor vehicles for which suspension or revocation of the driver's license is mandatory, other than ~~((negligent))~~ vehicular homicide or vehicular assault, may petition the court for a stay of the effect of the mandatory suspension or revocation for the purpose of submitting to the department an application for an occupational driver's license. The court upon determining that the petitioner is engaged in an occupation or trade ~~((which))~~ that makes it essential that the petitioner operate a motor vehicle may stay the effect of the mandatory suspension or revocation, notwithstanding RCW 46.20.270, for a period of not more than thirty days and may set definite restrictions as ~~((to hours of the day which may not exceed twelve hours in any one day, days of the week, type of occupation, and areas or routes of travel permitted under the occupational driver's license))~~ provided in section 25 of this act. No person may petition for, and the court may not order, a stay affecting the first thirty days of any suspension or revocation imposed under RCW 46.61.515.

(2) An applicant for an occupational driver's license is eligible to receive such license only if:

(a) Within one year immediately preceding the present conviction the applicant has not been convicted of any offense relating to motor vehicles for which suspension or revocation of a driver's license is mandatory; and

(b) The applicant is engaged in an occupation or trade ~~((which))~~ that makes it essential that he or she operate a motor vehicle; and

(c) The applicant files satisfactory proof of financial responsibility pursuant to chapter 46.29 RCW.

(3) The department, upon receipt of an application and the prescribed fee, may issue an occupational driver's license to any person eligible under this section ~~((for a period of not more than one year which))~~ that permits the operation of a motor vehicle only within the limits established by the court and only when the operation is essential to the licensee's occupation or trade. No person may apply for, and the department may not issue, an occupational license for the first thirty days of any suspension or revocation imposed under RCW 46.61.515.

(4) The director shall cancel an occupational driver's license upon receipt of notice that the holder thereof has been convicted of operating a motor vehicle in violation of its restrictions, or of an offense ~~((which))~~ that pursuant to chapter 46.20 RCW would warrant suspension or revocation of a regular driver's license. ~~((Such))~~ The cancellation ~~((shall be))~~ is effective as of the date of ~~((such))~~ the conviction, and shall continue with the same force and effect as any suspension or revocation under this title.

Sec. 24. Section 1, chapter 5, Laws of 1973 as last amended by section 23 of this act and RCW 46.20.391 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person licensed under this chapter whose driving privilege has been suspended or revoked under section 4(1)(b)(i) of this act or who is convicted of an offense relating to motor vehicles for which suspension or revocation of the driver's license is mandatory, other than vehicular homicide or vehicular assault, may ~~((petition the court for a stay of the effect of the mandatory suspension or revocation for the purpose of submitting))~~ submit to the department an application for an occupational driver's license. The ~~((court))~~ department, upon receipt of the prescribed fee and upon determining that the petitioner is engaged in an occupation or trade that makes it essential that the petitioner operate a motor vehicle, may ((stay the effect of the mandatory suspension or revocation, notwithstanding RCW 46.20.270, for a period of not more than thirty days)) issue an occupational driver's license and may set definite restrictions as provided in section ((25)) 26 of this act. A person aggrieved by the decision of the department on the application for an occupational driver's license may request a hearing as provided by rule of the department.

(2) An applicant for an occupational driver's license is eligible to receive such license only if:

(a) Within one year immediately preceding the present conviction or administrative action the applicant has not been convicted of any offense relating to motor vehicles for which suspension or revocation of a driver's license is mandatory; and

(b) Within five years immediately preceding the present conviction or administrative action, the applicant has not been convicted under RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504, or had a license administratively suspended or revoked under section 4 of this act; and

(c) The applicant is engaged in an occupation or trade that makes it essential that he or she operate a motor vehicle; and

~~((c))~~ (d) The applicant files satisfactory proof of financial responsibility pursuant to chapter 46.29 RCW.

~~(3) ((The department, upon receipt of an application and the prescribed fee, may issue an occupational driver's license to any person eligible under this section that permits the operation of a motor vehicle only within the limits established by the court and only when the operation is essential to the licensee's occupation or trade. No person may apply for, and the department may not issue, an occupational license for the first thirty days of any suspension or revocation imposed under RCW 46.61.515.~~

(4)) The director shall cancel an occupational driver's license upon receipt of notice that the holder thereof has had a driver's license administratively suspended or revoked under section 4 of this act or has been convicted of operating a motor vehicle in violation of its restrictions, or of an offense that pursuant to chapter 46.20 RCW would warrant suspension or revocation of a regular driver's license. The cancellation is effective as of the date of the conviction or administrative action, and shall continue with the same force and effect as any suspension or revocation under this title.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 25. There is added to chapter 46.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In issuing an order staying the mandatory suspension or revocation of a person's driver's license so that the person may apply for an occupational driver's license under RCW 46.20.391, the court shall describe the type of occupation permitted and shall set forth in detail the specific hours of the day during which the person may drive to and from his place of work, which may not exceed twelve hours in any one day; the days of the week during which the license may be used; and the general routes over which the person may travel.

Any restrictions shall be prepared in written form by the department, which document shall be carried in the vehicle at all times and presented to a law enforcement officer under the same terms as the occupational driver's license. Any violation of the restrictions constitutes a violation of RCW 46.20.342 and subjects the person to all procedures and penalties therefor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. There is added to chapter 46.20 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In issuing an occupational driver's license under RCW 46.20.391, the department shall describe the type of occupation permitted and shall set forth in detail the specific hours of the day during which the person may drive to and from his place of work, which may not exceed twelve hours in any one day; the days of the week during which the license may be used; and the general routes over which the person may travel. These restrictions shall be prepared in written form by the department, which document shall be carried in the vehicle at all times and presented to a law enforcement officer under the same terms as the occupational driver's license. Any violation of the restrictions constitutes a violation of RCW 46.20.342 and subjects the person to all procedures and penalties therefor.

The prosecuting, city, or town attorney of the county, city, or town in which a judicial district lies, or the presiding judge of the judicial district, may request the administrator for the courts to designate the district as an enhanced enforcement district and to make assignments under this section. An assignment shall be for a specified period of time not to exceed thirty days. A visiting justice has the same powers as a justice of the district to which he or she is assigned. A visiting justice shall be reimbursed for expenses under RCW 2.56.070.

Sec. 39. Section 17, chapter 232, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 70.48.210 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) All cities and counties are authorized to establish and maintain farms, camps, and work release programs and facilities, as well as special detention facilities. The facilities shall meet the requirements of chapter 70.48 RCW and any rules adopted thereunder.

(2) Farms and camps may be established either inside or outside the territorial limits of a city or county. A sentence of confinement in a city or county jail may include placement in a farm or camp. Unless directed otherwise by court order, the chief law enforcement officer or department of corrections, may transfer the prisoner to a farm or camp. The sentencing court, chief law enforcement officer, or department of corrections may not transfer to a farm or camp a greater number of prisoners than can be furnished with constructive employment and can be reasonably accommodated.

(3) The city or county may establish a city or county work release program and housing facilities for the prisoners in the program. In such regard, factors such as employment conditions and the condition of jail facilities should be considered. When a work release program is established the following provisions apply:

(a) A person convicted of a felony and placed in a city or county jail is eligible for the work release program. A person sentenced to a city or county jail is eligible for the work release program. The chief law enforcement officer or department of corrections shall make all necessary arrangements if possible. A person participating in the work release program may not work in an establishment where there is a labor dispute.

(c) The work release prisoner shall be confined in a work release facility or jail whenever the prisoner is not employed and between the hours or periods of employment unless the court directs otherwise.

(d) The chief law enforcement officer or ~~(his)~~ a designee shall collect the work release prisoner's earnings and from the earnings make payments for the prisoner's board, personal expenses inside and outside the jail, and share of the administrative expenses of this section. Support payments for the prisoner's dependents, if any, shall be made as directed by the court. With the prisoner's consent, the remaining funds may be used to pay the prisoner's preexisting debts. Any balance shall be retained and paid to the prisoner when the prisoner is discharged.

(e) With court approval the prisoner's sentence may be reduced by one-fourth if the prisoner's conduct, diligence, and general attitude merit the reduction.

(f) If the work release prisoner violates the conditions of custody or employment, the prisoner shall be returned to the sentencing court. The sentencing court may require the prisoner to spend the remainder of the sentence in actual confinement and may cancel any earned reduction of the sentence.

(4) A special detention facility may be operated by a noncorrectional agency or by noncorrectional personnel by contract with the governing unit. The employees shall meet the standards of training and education established by the criminal justice training commission as authorized by RCW 43.101.080. The special detention facility may use combinations of features including, but not limited to, low-security or honor prisoner status, work farm, work release, community review, prisoner facility maintenance and food preparation, training programs, or alcohol or drug rehabilitation programs, with or without cost to the prisoners.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 40. There is added to chapter 35.21 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Except as limited by the maximum penalties authorized by law, no city or town may establish a penalty for an act that constitutes the crime of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug, as provided in RCW 46.61.502, or the crime of being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug, as provided in RCW 46.61.504, that is less than the penalties prescribed for those crimes in RCW 46.61.515.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 41. There is added to chapter 36.32 RCW a new section to read as follows:

No county may establish a penalty for an act that constitutes the crime of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug, as provided for in RCW 46.61.502, or the crime of being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug, as provided in RCW 46.61.504, that is less than the penalties prescribed for those crimes in RCW 46.61.515.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 42. There is added to chapter 43.59 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The Washington traffic safety commission shall produce and disseminate through all possible media, informational and educational materials explaining the extent of the problems caused by drinking drivers, the need for public involvement in their solution, and the penalties of existing and new laws against driving while intoxicated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 43. The standing committees on transportation and judiciary of the state senate and house of representatives, with the assistance of the department of licensing, shall conduct a joint study to analyze and evaluate the issues involved in authorizing administrative revocation of the driver's license of a person who operates a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol. The study shall include an analysis and evaluation of other states that have enacted statutes that provide for administrative revocation of driver's licenses, the effects on reducing drunken driving, the cost of implementing and administering such a program, and any impacts on the criminal justice system.

The committees shall submit a report that includes their findings and recommendations, together with proposed legislation, to the legislature before January 1, 1984.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 44. The legislature finds that previous attempts to curtail the incidence of driving while intoxicated have been inadequate. The legislature further finds that property loss, injury, and death caused by drinking drivers have reached unacceptable levels. This act is intended to convey the seriousness with which the legislature views this problem. To that end the legislature seeks to insure swift and certain punishment for those who drink and drive. The legislature does not intend to discourage or deter courts and other agencies from directing or providing treatment for problem drinkers. However, it is the intent that such treatment, where appropriate, be in addition to and not in lieu of the sanctions to be applied to all those convicted of driving while intoxicated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 45. Sections 3 through 12 of this act are added to chapter 46.20 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 46. Sections 2, 3 through 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, and 26 of this act shall take effect on January 1, 1985. The remainder of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect on July 1, 1983. The director of licensing may immediately take such steps as are necessary to insure that all sections of this act are implemented on their respective effective dates.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 47. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Talmadge, I think you did a real good job of working on this bill and also in explaining the committee amendment. I was hoping you could elaborate just a little more, though, on the differences between this committee amendment that you did such a good job on and the senate bill, as it previously passed the Senate.

"I believe you were sponsor of the senate bill dealing with DWI when it previously passed the Senate, which many people on the floor here had quite an interest in. For example, as I recall in the senate bill you sponsored, there was language dealing with vehicular assault. Could you highlight some of the major differences between this Judiciary Committee amendment and the senate bill that previously passed the Senate?"

Senator Talmadge: "I would be happy to, Senator Pullen. Basically, the vehicular assault bill is Senate Bill No. 3106. The House Committee on Judiciary has passed that bill and that will be treated separately. We have also passed Senate Bill No. 3185 relating to an extension of jurisdiction for district court judges to give them some more time to deal with the problems of alcoholism and certain individuals and give them substantially more authority over individuals. That bill will pass separately, also. That was not contained in Senate Bill No. 3107.

"I believe the principal differences in this version from the version that has already passed the Senate involved the occupational driver's license. This body deleted any occupational driver's licenses, but I think we have narrowed the circumstances of occupational driver's licenses substantially in this version.

"Additionally, I think the other major difference would be the administrative revocation system that we have provided for in this bill, with the length and effective date--that was something the House was very interested in and I suspect the other major difference might be in the impact fund that we provide for in this bill. That is a slight difference, also. I think those are the major differences."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Judiciary amendment.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 289, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "I am looking at the summary of the proposed Senate committee amendment, Senator Talmadge, just to be sure just exactly where we are, because this has gone through a lot of changes and this is a very, very lengthy digest in the bill digest. It says 'deferred prosecution remains a sentencing option for the court.' Now in Snohomish County, this has been a way to evade the implied consent law for many years and it has just blatantly been a way to evade it. Are we still leaving it in there? Is there danger that they will continue to evade the law?"

Senator Talmadge: "Well, my first response, Senator Metcalf, would be that you cannot invade the implied consent law by a deferred prosecution. If a person refuses to blow a breathalyzer, they are going to lose their license, under this bill, for one year. It used to be six months, but it will be one year with the passage of this bill. So, they are not going to avoid the implied consent law.

"We retained the idea of deferred prosecution for people who are actually before the court on a charge of DWI and the feeling is that this is a worthwhile kind of option to have in the hands of the court where you have a confirmed, acknowledged alcoholic and so states to the court.

"I know it is controversial, but with the limitations that we have placed on deferred prosecution in House Bill No. 600 last session, it is available once in a five-year period. From what we have been told by many judges, by many advocates, by many alcoholic treatment people--deferred prosecution is worthwhile--it works--it breaks the cycle and it keeps the person out of the system. They don't keep coming back. If it is abused and if it is a problem, we will come back and change it, maybe even eliminate it. For the time being, we thought it best to keep it."

Senator Metcalf: "It has been abused so badly and I have to totally disagree with you when you say it hasn't been used to evade. It has been and I am very concerned about this. Secondly, say occupational licenses may be issued, regardless of whether or not public transportation is available. This is another way that evasion has been used. I am very concerned about that, also. Is that still in the bill?"

Senator Talmadge: "Let me tell you what we do with occupational licenses. As you recall, the Senate just simply eliminated occupational drivers' licenses. The problem would be people would drive without occupational licenses and the people that would drive without would not be obeying the conditions that the court lays down in an occupational license. What we have provided for here is for the first thirty days of the license suspension, the first thirty of the ninety days, on a first conviction, no occupational driver's license is possible. An occupational driver's license is available once in a five-year period and that is it.

"We have laid out very stringent conditions on the granting of an occupational driver's license in this bill and those conditions have to be set forth and have to be retained by the driver and they have to be able to demonstrate that to someone--a law enforcement official--if they are pulled over to the side of the road.

"We think that occupationals may be very worthwhile for people who need to work. The problem with the idea of public transportation being available is that it may broaden occupational license availability rather than narrow it and that was our concern."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 289, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 289, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 01; absent, 01; excused, 02.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McManus, Moore, Newhouse, Owen, Peterson, Pullen, Quigg, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 45.

Voting nay: Senator Metcalf - 1.

Absent: Senator Patterson - 1.

Excused: Senators Fuller, Sellar - 2.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 289, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

STATEMENT FOR THE SENATE RECORD ON ESHB NO. 289

April 13, 1983

I voted against ESHB 289, because I believe the effect of the bill will be far more lenient on drunk drivers than it appears.

Deferred prosecution is still available for misuse under this bill; occupational licenses may now be issued even when public transportation is available; negligent vehicular homicide and negligent vehicular assault are deleted from this bill.

The bill appears to be a long step against drunk drivers, as the public wishes; I fear it may turn out to be a very small step. I hope I'm wrong.

Jack Metcalf

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Rasmussen: "I had delivered to me a beautifully wrapped package. The paper has the stork carrying a baby and I have no new grandchildren. I am informed, though, that the Director of the Office of Financial Management, Mr. Joe Tallor, has just delivered a personally signed copy of the Personnel Book that everybody has been waiting for. He wants us all to have all the information we need to produce good legislation and this is the personnel book that is enclosed in this nicely wrapped package. I think that you are all going to get a copy and all going to use it and I know the press is interested, also."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Thank you very much, Senator Rasmussen. We were all dying from curiosity and we wish to congratulate you upon your public disclosure of this gift."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Shinpoch: "Senator Rasmussen, does it weigh sixteen pounds and six ounces or more?"

Senator Rasmussen: "No, none of my children weighed that much."

Senator Shinpoch: "No record? There was a record in the paper today."

Senator Rasmussen: "Joe Taller told me that the weight was in the appropriations and he would have Jim McDermott take care of that."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 4251 which was under consideration at the morning session.

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the following amendment was adopted:
On page 3, line 7, after "of" insert "not more than"

~~(Such bond shall be in the sum of seven thousand five hundred dollars for a commission merchant or any dealer handling livestock, hay, grain, or straw and a bond in the sum of three thousand dollars for any other dealer. PROVIDED: That the bond for a commission merchant, a dealer acting as a processor, or a dealer in livestock, hay, grain, or straw shall be in a minimum amount of seven thousand five hundred dollars or more based upon the annual gross dollar volume of purchases by, or consignments to the licensee. A dealer in livestock shall increase his bond by five thousand dollars for each agent he has endorsed pursuant to RCW 20.01.090. The bond for any other dealer shall be in the minimum amount of three thousand dollars, or an increased amount based upon the annual gross dollar volume of purchases by, or consignments to, the licensee. The bond for such commission merchant or dealer shall be determined by taking the annual gross dollar volume of that commission merchant or dealer of net payment to growers and dividing that amount by fifty-two and the bond shall be in an amount to the next multiple of two thousand dollars larger than the sum. PROVIDED: That the gross dollar volume used in computing the bond requirements of a commission merchant or dealer handling horticultural products shall be based on the net proceeds due to growers. PROVIDED FURTHER: That bonds above twenty-six thousand dollars shall be not less than the next multiple of five thousand dollars above the amount secured by applying the formula except that when the bond amount reaches fifty thousand dollars any amount of bond required above this shall be on a basis of ten percent of the amount arrived by applying the formula of annual gross divided by fifty-two. Every bond filed with and approved by the director shall without the necessity of periodic renewal remain in force and effect until released by notice from the director when a superseding bond has been issued and is in effect. All such sureties on a bond, as provided herein, shall also be released and discharged from all liability to the state accruing on such bond by giving notice to the principal and the director by certified mail. Upon receipt of such notice the director shall notify the surety and the principal of the effective date of termination which shall be thirty days from the receipt of such notice by the director, but this shall not operate to relieve, release or discharge the surety from any liability already accrued or which shall accrue (due and to become due hereunder) before the expiration period provided for above. Unless the principal shall before the expiration of such period, file a new bond, the director shall forthwith cancel the principal's license. Upon such cancellation the license and vehicle plates issued attendant to the license shall be surrendered to the director forthwith.)~~

However, bonds above twenty-six thousand dollars shall be increased to the next multiple of five thousand dollars.

(5) The bond for a commission merchant or dealer in turf, forage, or vegetable seed or a dealer in hay or straw shall be determined by dividing the annual dollar volume of that commission merchant's or dealer's net proceeds or net payments due consignors by twelve and increasing that amount to the next multiple of five thousand dollars, except that the determination of bond amounts for any portion of dollar volume directly related to proprietary seed bailment contracts shall be computed as provided in subsection (4) of this section. The bond for a new commission merchant or a dealer in turf, forage, or vegetable seed or dealer in hay or straw is subject to increase at any time during the licensee's first year of operation and shall be based on the monthly average of the volume of purchases of any three months of operation.

(6) When the annual dollar volume of any commission merchant or dealer reaches two million six hundred thousand dollars, the amount of the bond required above this level shall be on a basis of ten percent of the amount arrived at by applying the appropriate formula.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Starting on the date a producer delivers any agricultural product to a processor or conditioner, the producer has a first priority statutory lien, referred to as a "processor lien." This processor lien shall continue until twenty days after payment for the product is due and remains unpaid, without filing any notice of lien, for the contract price, if any, or the fair market value of the products delivered. The processor lien attaches to the agricultural products delivered, to the processor's or conditioner's inventory, and to the processor's or conditioner's accounts receivable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. For the purposes of this section and sections 11 through 14 of this act, "preparer" means a person engaged in the business of feeding livestock or preparing livestock products for market. Starting on the date a producer delivers grain, hay, or straw to a preparer, the producer has a first priority statutory lien, referred to as a "preparer lien." This preparer lien shall continue until twenty days after payment for the product is due and remains unpaid, without filing any notice of lien, for the contract price, if any, or the fair market value of the products delivered. The preparer lien attaches to the agricultural products delivered and to the preparer's accounts receivable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. (1) A producer claiming a processor or preparer lien may file a statement evidencing the lien with the department of licensing after payment from the processor, conditioner, or preparer to the producer is due and remains unpaid. NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1)(a) If a statement is filed pursuant to section 11 of this act within twenty days of the date upon which payment from the processor, conditioner, or preparer to the producer is due and remains unpaid, the processor or preparer lien evidenced by the statement continues its priority over all other liens or security interests upon agricultural products, inventory, and accounts receivable, except as provided in (b) of this subsection. Such priority is without regard to whether the other liens or security interests attached before or after the date on which the processor or preparer lien attached.

(b) The processor or preparer lien shall be subordinate to liens for taxes or labor perfected before filing of the processor or preparer lien.

(2) If the statement provided for in section 11 of this act is not filed within twenty days of the date payment is due and remains unpaid, the processor or preparer lien shall thereupon become subordinate to:

(b) A perfected security interest in the agricultural product, inventory, or accounts receivable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) The processor lien shall terminate six months after, and the preparer lien shall terminate fifty days after, the later of the date of attachment or filing, unless a suit to foreclose the lien has been filed before that time as provided in section 14 of this act.

(2) If a statement has been filed as provided in section 11 of this act and the producer has received payment for the obligation secured by the lien, the producer shall promptly file with the department of licensing a statement declaring that full payment has been received and that the lien is discharged. If, after payment, the producer fails to file such statement of discharge within ten days following a request to do so, the producer shall be liable to the processor, conditioner, or preparer in the sum of one hundred dollars plus actual damages caused by the failure.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. (1) The processor or preparer liens may be foreclosed and enforced by civil action in the superior courts.

(2) In all suits to enforce processor or preparer liens, the court shall, upon entering judgment, allow to the prevailing party as a part of the costs all moneys paid for the filing and recording of the lien and reasonable attorney fees.

This penalty does not apply if the applicant furnishes an affidavit certifying that he has not acted as a warehouseman subsequent to the expiration of his prior license.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. An application for a license to operate as a grain dealer shall be accompanied by a license fee of one hundred dollars unless the applicant is also a licensed warehouseman, in which case the fee for a grain dealer license shall be fifty dollars.

If an application for renewal of a grain dealer license is not received by the department before June 30th of any year, a penalty of fifty dollars for the first week and one hundred dollars for each week thereafter shall be assessed and added to the original fee and shall be paid by the applicant before the renewal license may be issued. This penalty does not apply if the applicant furnishes an affidavit certifying that he has not acted as a grain dealer after the expiration of his prior license.

Sec. 24. Section 6, chapter 124, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 22, chapter 7, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 22.09.060 are each amended to read as follows:

No warehouse or grain dealer license (shall) may be issued to an applicant before a bond or certificate of deposit is given to the department as provided in RCW 22.09.090 ~~((and))~~; No warehouse license may be issued to an applicant before a certificate of insurance as provided in RCW 22.09.110 (have) has been filed with the department.

Sec. 25. Section 7, chapter 124, Laws of 1963 and RCW 22.09.070 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall issue a warehouse license to an applicant upon its determination that the applicant has facilities adequate for handling and storage of commodities and, if applicable, conditioning, and that the application is in the proper form and upon approval of the matters contained ~~((therein))~~ on the application and upon a showing that ~~((such))~~ the applicant has complied with the provisions of this chapter and rules adopted hereunder. The licensee shall ~~((forthwith))~~ immediately upon receipt of ((such)) the license post it in a conspicuous place in the office of the licensed warehouse or if a station license, in the main office at ((such)) the station. ((Such)) The license ((shall)) automatically expires on June 30th((-subsequent to)) after the date of issuance unless it has been revoked, canceled, or suspended ((prior thereto)) by the department before that date.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 26. The department shall issue a grain dealer license to an applicant upon its determination that the application is in its proper form and upon approval of the matters contained on the application and upon a showing that the applicant has complied with the provisions of this chapter and rules adopted hereunder. The licensee shall immediately upon receipt of the license post it in a conspicuous place in its principal place of business. The license expires automatically on June 30th after the date of issuance unless it has been revoked, canceled, or suspended by the department before that date.

Sec. 27. Section 9, chapter 124, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 23, chapter 7, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 22.09.090 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Before any person ~~((shall be))~~ is granted a warehouse or grain dealer license pursuant to the provisions of this chapter ~~((such))~~ the person shall give a bond to the state of Washington executed by the ((warehouseman)) applicant as the principal and by a corporate surety licensed to do business in this state as surety.

(2) The bond required for the issuance of a warehouse license shall be in the sum of not less than ~~((twenty-five))~~ fifty thousand dollars nor more than ~~((five))~~ seven hundred fifty thousand dollars. The department shall, after holding a public hearing, determine the amount ((of the)) that will be required for the warehouse bond which shall be computed at a rate of not less than fifteen cents nor more than thirty cents per bushel multiplied by the number of bushels of licensed commodity storage capacity of the warehouses of the ~~((licensee))~~ applicant furnishing the bond ~~((or at the rate of not less than six percent nor more than twelve percent of the gross sales of agricultural commodities of such licensee, whichever is greater)).~~

~~((2)) The bond shall be approved by the department and shall be conditioned upon the faithful performance by the warehouseman of the duty to keep in the warehouse for the depositor the commodity delivered, and to deliver the commodity to, or ship it for, such depositor, and such additional obligations, including merchandising, as a warehouseman may assume with the respective depositors as defined in RCW 22.09.010(9) as now or hereafter amended; in case a person has applied for licenses to conduct two or more warehouses in the state, the assets applicable to all warehouses, but not the deposits except in case of a station, shall be subject to the liabilities of each. The total and aggregate liability of the surety for all claims upon such bond shall be limited to the amount specified in the bond.~~

(3) The ~~((warehouseman))~~ applicant for a warehouse license may give a single bond meeting the requirements of this chapter, and all warehouses operated by the warehouseman ~~((shall be))~~ are deemed ((as)) to be one warehouse for the purpose of the amount of the bond required under ~~((such section))~~ this subsection. Any change in the capacity of a warehouse or ~~((installation))~~ addition of any new warehouse involving a change in bond liability under this chapter shall be immediately reported to the department ~~((prior to the operation thereof)).~~

(3) The bond required for the issuance of a grain dealer license shall be in the sum of not less than fifty thousand dollars nor more than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars. The department shall, after holding a public hearing, determine the amount that will be required for the dealer bond which shall be computed at a rate not less than six percent nor more than twelve percent of the sales of agricultural commodities purchased by the dealer from producers during the dealer's last completed fiscal year or in the case of a grain dealer who has been engaged in business as a grain dealer less than one year, the estimated aggregate dollar amount to be paid by the dealer to producers for agricultural commodities to be purchased by the dealer during the dealer's first fiscal year.

(4) An applicant making application for both a warehouse license and a grain dealer license may satisfy the bonding requirements set forth in subsections (2) and (3) of this section by giving to the state of Washington a single bond for the issuance of both licenses, which bond shall be in the sum of not less than fifty thousand dollars nor more than seven hundred fifty thousand dollars. The department shall, after holding a public hearing, determine the amount of the bond which shall be computed at a rate of not less than fifteen cents nor more than thirty cents per bushel multiplied by the number of bushels of licensed commodity storage capacity of the warehouses of the applicant furnishing the bond, or at the rate of not less than six percent nor more than twelve percent of the gross sales of agricultural commodities of the applicant whichever is greater.

(5) The bonds required under this section shall be approved by the department and shall be conditioned upon the faithful performance by the licensee of the duties imposed upon him by this chapter. If a person has applied for warehouse licenses to operate two or more warehouses in this state, the assets applicable to all warehouses, but not the deposits except in case of a station, are subject to the liabilities of each. The total and aggregate liability of the surety for all claims upon the bond are limited to the amount specified in the bond.

(6) Any person required to submit a bond to the department under this chapter has the option to give the department a certificate of deposit payable to the director as trustee, in lieu of a bond or a portion thereof. The principal amount of the certificate shall be the same as that required for a surety bond under this chapter or may be in an amount which, when added to the applicant's bond, will satisfy the licensee's requirements for a surety bond under this chapter, and the interest thereon shall be made payable to the purchaser of the certificate. The certificate of deposit shall remain on deposit until it is released, canceled, or discharged as provided for by rule of the department. The provisions of this chapter that apply to a bond required under this chapter apply to each certificate of deposit given in lieu of such a bond.

(7) The department may, when it has reason to believe that a grain dealer does not have the ability to pay producers for grain purchased, or when it determines that the grain dealer does not have a sufficient net worth to outstanding financial obligations ratio, or when it believes there may be claims made against the bond in excess of the face amount of the bond, require a grain dealer to post an additional bond in a dollar amount deemed appropriate by the department or may require an additional certificate of deposit. The additional bonding may exceed the maximum amount of the bond otherwise required under this section. Failure to post the additional bond or certificate of deposit constitutes grounds for suspension or revocation of a license issued under this chapter.

((4)) (8) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this chapter, the license of a warehouseman or grain dealer shall automatically be suspended in accordance with ~~((the provisions of))~~ RCW 22.09.100 for failure at any time to have or to maintain a bond or certificate of deposit, or both, in the amount and type required ~~((herein))~~ by this chapter. The department shall remove the suspension or issue a license as the case may be, when the required bond or certificate of deposit has been obtained.

((5) Any warehouseman required to submit a bond to the department pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall have the option to file a policy of insurance with the department in lieu of the warehouseman's bond. Such insurance policy, before being accepted, shall be approved by the attorney general and the insurance commissioner of the state of Washington if they deem the coverage provided thereby is equivalent to or greater than the coverage for depositors provided by the warehouseman's bond. If such an insurance policy is accepted in place of the bond, such insurance policy, as between the department, warehouseman, and the depositors, shall be treated exactly the same as if it were a bond filed with the department. It is the intention of the legislature in this subsection to have the insurance policy replace the bond, as between the department, warehouseman, and the depositors, for all purposes as though the term bond used throughout the several sections of this chapter were to contain instead the term insurance policy.)

Sec. 28. Section 10, chapter 124, Laws of 1963 and RCW 22.09.100 are each amended to read as follows:

Every bond filed with and approved by the department shall without the necessity of periodic renewal remain in force and effect until such time as the warehouseman's license is revoked for cause or otherwise canceled. The surety on a bond, as provided ~~((herein))~~ in this chapter, shall be released and discharged from all liability to the state accruing on ~~((such))~~ the bond after the expiration of ~~((ninety))~~ thirty days from the date a warehouseman's license is revoked for cause or otherwise terminated or after the expiration of ninety days from the date upon which ((such)) the surety ((shall have)) lodged with the department a written request to be released and discharged((;)), but this provision shall not operate to relieve, release, or discharge the surety from any liability already accrued or ((which shall)) that has accrued before the expiration of the respective thirty or ninety-day period. In the event of a cancellation by the surety, the surety shall simultaneously send ((such)) the notification of cancellation in writing to any other governmental agency requesting it. ((The department shall promptly)) Upon receiving any such request, the department shall promptly notify the principal who furnished the bond, and unless the principal ((shall)) files a new bond on or before the expiration of the respective thirty or ninety-day period, ((file a new bond;)) the department shall forthwith cancel the principal's license.

Sec. 29. Section 11, chapter 124, Laws of 1963 and RCW 22.09.110 are each amended to read as follows:

All commodities in storage in a warehouse shall be kept fully insured for the current market value of ~~((such))~~ the commodity for the license period against loss by fire, lightning, internal explosion, windstorm, cyclone, and tornado. Evidence of ~~((such))~~ the insurance coverage in the form of a certificate of insurance approved by the department shall be filed by the warehouseman with the department at the time of making application for an annual license to operate a warehouse as required by this chapter. The department shall not issue a license ~~((when such))~~ until the certificate of insurance is received.

Sec. 30. Section 13, chapter 124, Laws of 1963 as last amended by section 38, chapter 296, Laws of 1981 and RCW 22.09.130 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every warehouseman shall receive for ~~((storage))~~ handling, conditioning, storage, or shipment, so far as the capacity and facilities of his warehouse will permit, all commodities included in the provisions of this chapter, in suitable condition for storage, tendered him in the usual course of business from historical depositors and shall issue therefor a warehouse receipt or receipts in a form prescribed by the department as ~~((herein))~~ provided in this chapter or a scale weight ticket. Warehousemen may accept agricultural commodities from new depositors who qualify to the extent of the capacity of that warehouse. The deposit for handling, conditioning, storage, or shipment~~((-or handling))~~ of ~~((such))~~ the commodity must be credited to the depositor in the books of the warehouseman ~~((within))~~ as soon as possible, but in no event later than seven days from the date of ~~((such))~~ the deposit. If the commodity has been graded a warehouse receipt shall be issued within ten days after demand by the owner.

(2) If requested by the depositor, each lot of his commodity shall be kept in a special pile or special bin, if available, but in the case of a bulk commodity, if the lot or any portion of it does not equal the capacity of any available bin, the depositor may exercise his option to require the commodity to be specially binned only on agreement to pay charges based on the capacity of the available bin most nearly approximating the required capacity.

(3) A warehouseman may refuse to accept for storage, commodities ~~((which))~~ that are wet, damaged, insect-infested, or in other ways unsuitable for storage.

(4) Terminal and subterminal warehousemen shall receive put through agricultural commodities to the extent satisfactory transportation arrangements can be made, but may not be required to receive agricultural commodities for storage.

Sec. 31. Section 15, chapter 124, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 17, chapter 238, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 22.09.150 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The duty of the warehouseman to deliver the ~~((commodity stored shall be))~~ commodities in storage is governed by the provisions of this chapter and the requirements of Article 7 of Title 62A RCW ~~((as enacted or hereafter amended))~~. Upon the return of the receipt to the proper warehouseman, properly endorsed, and upon payment or tender of all advances and legal charges, the warehouseman shall deliver commodities of the grade and quantity named ~~((therein shall be delivered))~~ upon the receipt to the holder of ~~((such))~~ the receipt, except as provided by Article 7 of Title 62A RCW ~~((as enacted or hereafter amended))~~.

(2) A warehouseman's duty to deliver any commodity is fulfilled if delivery is made pursuant to the contract with the depositor or if no contract exists, then to the several owners in the order of demand as rapidly as it can be done by ordinary diligence~~((:))~~. Where delivery is made within forty-eight hours excluding Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays after facilities for receiving the commodity are provided, ~~((such))~~ the delivery is deemed to comply with this subsection.

(3) No warehouseman ~~((shall))~~ may fail to deliver a commodity as provided in this section, and delivery shall be made at the warehouse or station where the commodity was received unless ~~((agreed))~~ the warehouseman and depositor otherwise agree in writing.

(4) In addition to being subject to penalties provided in this chapter for a violation of this section, if a warehouseman unreasonably fails to deliver commodities within the time as provided in this section, the person entitled to delivery of the commodity may maintain an action against the warehouseman for any damages resulting from the warehouseman's unreasonable failure to so deliver. In any such action the person entitled to delivery of the commodity has the option to seek recovery of his actual damages or liquidated damages of one-half of one percent of the value for each day's delay after ~~((such))~~ the forty-eight hour period.

Sec. 32. Section 17, chapter 124, Laws of 1963 and RCW 22.09.170 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((t))~~ if ~~((written instruction or order is given or furnished by))~~ the owner of the commodity~~((:))~~ or his authorized agent~~((-directed))~~ gives or furnishes to a licensed warehouseman a written instruction or order, and if ~~((such))~~ the order is properly made a part of the warehouseman's records and is available for departmental inspection, then the warehouseman:

~~((a))~~ May accept such deposit of a commodity for the purpose of sale to the warehouseman;

~~((b))~~ (1) May receive ~~((such))~~ the commodity for the purpose of processing or ~~((cleaning))~~ conditioning;

~~((c)) (2) May receive (such) the commodity for the purpose of shipping by the warehouseman for the account of the depositor;~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 33. (1) A commodity deposited with a warehouseman without a written agreement for sale of the commodity to the warehouseman shall be handled and considered to be a commodity in storage.

(2) A presumption is hereby created that in all written agreements for the sale of commodities, the intent of the parties is that title and ownership to the commodities shall pass on the date of payment therefor. This presumption may only be rebutted by a clear statement to the contrary in the agreement.

(3) Any warehouseman or grain dealer entering into a deferred price contract with a depositor shall first have the form of the contract approved by the director. The director shall adopt rules setting forth the standards for approval of the contracts.

Sec. 34. Section 18, chapter 124, Laws of 1963 as amended by section 24, chapter 7, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 22.09.180 are each amended to read as follows:

~~(2) No warehouse receipt issued by any warehouseman as defined in this chapter and no negotiation, transfer, or pledge of any such receipt shall be defeated by reason of the fact that the goods covered by the receipt were owned, in whole or in part, by the warehouseman at the time the receipt was issued.~~

~~(3) Every warehouseman purchasing any agricultural commodity from a depositor thereof shall promptly make and keep for one year a correct record showing in detail the following:~~

(2) In any case where the director determines the shortage creates a substantial or continuing threat of loss to the depositors of the warehouseman, the department may, in lieu of levying a fine or further fines, give notice to the warehouseman to comply with all or any of the following requirements:

(a) Cover ~~((such))~~ the shortage;

(b) Give additional bond as requested by the department;

(c) Submit to such inspection as the department may deem necessary;

(d) Cease accepting further commodities from depositors or selling, encumbering, transporting, or otherwise changing possession, custody, or control of commodities owned by the warehouseman until there is no longer a shortage.

~~((2))~~ (3) If ((such)) the warehouseman fails to comply with the terms of ((such)) the notice provided for in subsection (2) of this section within twenty-four hours from the date of its issuance, or within such further time as the department may allow, the department may petition the superior court of the county where the licensee's principal place of business in Washington is located ((c))as shown by the license application((s)), for an order:

(a) Authorizing the department to seize and take possession of all or a portion of special piles and special bins of commodities and all or a portion of commingled commodities in the warehouse or warehouses owned, operated, or controlled by the warehouseman, and of all books, papers, and property of all kinds used in connection with the conduct or the operation of ~~((such))~~ the warehouseman's warehouse business, and the books, papers, records, and property ~~((which))~~ that pertain specifically, exclusively, and directly to that business; and

(b) Enjoining the warehouseman from interfering with the department in the discharge of its duties as required by this section.

~~((3))~~ Upon taking possession the department shall give written notice of its action to the surety on the bond of the warehouseman and may notify the holders of record, as shown by the warehouseman's records, of all warehouse receipts or scale weight tickets issued for commodities, to present their warehouse receipt or other evidence of deposits for inspection, or to account for the same. The department may thereupon cause an audit to be made of the affairs of such warehouse, especially with respect to the commodities in which there is an apparent shortage, to determine the amount of such shortage and compute the shortage as to each depositor as shown by the warehouseman's records, if practicable. The department shall notify the warehouseman and the surety on his bond of the approximate amount of such shortage and notify each depositor thereby affected by sending notice to the depositor's last known address as shown by the records of the warehouseman.

(4) The department shall retain possession of the commodities in the warehouse or warehouses, and of the books, papers, and property of the warehouseman, until such time as the warehouseman or the surety on the bond shall have satisfied the claims of all holders of warehouse receipts or other evidence of deposits, or, in case the shortage exceeds the amount of the bond, the surety on the bond shall have satisfied such claims pro rata, or until such time as the department is ordered by the court to surrender possession:

(5) If during or after the audit provided for in this section, or at any other time the department has evidence that the warehouseman is insolvent or is unable to satisfy the claims of all holders of warehouse receipts or other evidence of deposits, the department may petition the superior court which authorized the department to take possession, for the appointment of a receiver to operate or liquidate the business of the warehouseman in accordance with law:

(6) At any time within ten days after the department takes possession of any commodities, or the books, papers, and property of any warehouse, the warehouseman may serve notice upon the department to appear in the superior court of the county in which such warehouse is located, at a time to be fixed by such court, which shall not be less than five, nor more than fifteen days from the date of the service of such notice, and show cause why such commodities, books, papers, and property should not be restored to his possession.

(7) All necessary expenses incurred by the department in carrying out the provisions of this section may be recovered in a separate civil action brought by the department in the said superior court or recovered at the same time and as a part of the receivership or seizure action filed under this chapter.

(8) As a part of the expenses so incurred, the department or the receiver is authorized to include the cost of adequate liability insurance necessary to protect the department, its officers, and others engaged in carrying out the provisions of this section:))

NEW SECTION, Sec. 49. (1) Whenever the department, pursuant to court order, seizes and takes possession of all or a portion of special piles and special bins of commodities, all or a portion of commingled commodities in a warehouse owned, operated, or controlled by a warehouseman, or books, papers, and property of any kind used in connection with the conduct of a warehouseman's warehouse business, the department shall:

(a) Give written notice of its action to the surety on the bond of the warehouseman and may notify the holders of record, as shown by the warehouseman's records, of all warehouse receipts or scale weight tickets issued for commodities, to present their warehouse receipt or other evidence of deposits for inspection, or to account for the same. The department may thereupon cause an audit to be made of the affairs of the warehouse, especially with respect to the commodities in which there is an apparent shortage, to determine the amount of the shortage and compute the shortage as to each depositor as shown by the warehouseman's records, if practicable. The department shall notify the warehouseman and the surety on his bond of the approximate amount of the shortage and notify each depositor thereby affected by sending notice to the depositor's last known address as shown by the records of the warehouseman.

(b) Retain possession of the commodities in the warehouse or warehouses, and of the books, papers, and property of the warehouseman, until the warehouseman or the surety on the bond has satisfied the claims of all holders of warehouse receipts or other evidence of deposits, or, in case the shortage exceeds the amount of the bond, the surety on the bond has satisfied the claims pro rata.

(2) At any time within ten days after the department takes possession of any commodities or the books, papers, and property of any warehouse, the warehouseman may serve notice upon the department to appear in the superior court of the county in which the warehouse is located, at a time to be fixed by the court, which shall not be less than five nor more than fifteen days from the date of the service of the notice, and show cause why such commodities, books, papers, and property should not be restored to his possession.

(3) All necessary expenses and attorneys' fees incurred by the department in carrying out the provisions of this section may be recovered in the same action or in a separate civil action brought by the department in the superior court.

(4) As a part of the expenses so incurred, the department is authorized to include the cost of adequate liability insurance necessary to protect the department, its officers, and others engaged in carrying out the provisions of this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 50. (1) When a depositor stores a commodity with a warehouseman or sells a commodity to a grain dealer, the depositor has a first priority statutory lien on the commodity or the proceeds therefrom or on commodities owned by the warehouseman or grain dealer if the depositor has written evidence of ownership disclosing a storage obligation or written evidence of sale. The lien arises at the time the title is transferred from the depositor to the warehouseman or grain dealer, or if the commodity is under a storage obligation, the lien arises at the commencement of the storage obligation. The lien terminates when the liability of the warehouseman or grain dealer to the depositor terminates or if the depositor sells his commodity to the warehouseman or grain dealer, then thirty days after the time of the sale. If, however, the depositor is tendered payment by check or draft, then the lien shall not terminate until forty days after the time of sale.

(2) The lien created under this section shall be preferred to any lien or security interest in favor of any creditor of the warehouseman or grain dealer, regardless of whether the creditor's lien or security interest attached to the commodity or proceeds before or after the date on which the depositor's lien attached under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) A depositor who claims a lien under subsection (1) of this section need not file any notice of the lien in order to perfect the lien.

(4) The lien created by subsection (1) of this section is discharged, except as to the proceeds therefrom and except as to commodities owned by the warehouseman or grain dealer, upon sale of the commodity by the warehouseman or grain dealer to a buyer in the ordinary course of business.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 51. In the event of a failure of a grain dealer or warehouseman, the department may process the claims of depositors possessing written evidence of ownership disclosing a storage obligation or written evidence of a sale of commodities in the following manner:

(1) The department shall give notice and provide a reasonable time to depositors possessing written evidence of ownership disclosing a storage obligation or written evidence of sale of commodities to file their claims with the department.

(2) The department may investigate each claim and determine whether the claimant's commodities are under a storage obligation or whether a sale of the commodities has occurred. The department may, in writing, notify each claimant and the failed grain dealer or warehouseman of the department's determination as to the status and amount of each claimant's claim. A claimant, failed warehouseman, or grain dealer may request a hearing on the department's determination within twenty days of receipt of written notification, and a hearing shall be held in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW.

(3) The department may inspect and audit the failed warehouseman to determine whether the warehouseman has in his possession sufficient quantities of commodities to cover his storage obligations. In the event of a shortage, the department shall determine each depositor's pro rata share of available commodities and the deficiency shall be considered as a claim of the depositor. Each type of commodity shall be treated separately for purpose of determining shortages.

(4) The department shall determine the amount, if any, due each claimant by the surety and make demand upon the bond in the manner set forth in this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 52. Upon the failure of a grain dealer or warehouseman, the statutory lien created in section 50 of this act shall be liquidated by the department to satisfy the claims of depositors in the following manner:

(1) The department shall take possession of all commodities in the warehouse that are under warehouse receipts or any written evidence of ownership that discloses a storage obligation by a failed warehouseman, including but not limited to scale weight tickets, settlement sheets, and ledger cards. These commodities shall be distributed or sold and the proceeds distributed to satisfy the outstanding warehouse receipts or other written evidences of ownership. If a shortage exists, the department shall distribute the commodities or the proceeds from the sale of the commodities on a prorated basis to the depositors. To the extent the commodities or the proceeds from their sale are inadequate to satisfy the claims of depositors with evidence of storage obligations, the depositors have a first priority lien against any proceeds received from commodities sold while under a storage obligation or against any commodities owned by the failed warehouseman or grain dealer.

(2) Depositors possessing written evidence of the sale of a commodity to the failed warehouseman or grain dealer, including but not limited to scale weight tickets, settlement sheets, deferred price contracts, or similar commodity delivery contracts, who have completed delivery and pricing during a thirty-day period immediately before the failure of the failed warehouseman or grain dealer have a second priority lien against the commodity, the proceeds of the sale, or warehouse-owned or grain dealer-owned commodities. If the commodity, commodity proceeds, or warehouse-owned or grain dealer-owned commodities are insufficient to wholly satisfy the claim of depositors possessing written evidence of the sale of the commodity to the failed warehouseman or grain dealer, each depositor shall receive a pro rata share thereof.

(3) Upon the satisfaction of the claims of depositors qualifying for first or second priority treatment, all other depositors possessing written evidence of the sale of the commodity to the failed warehouseman or grain dealer have a third priority lien against the commodity, the proceeds of the sale, or warehouse-owned or grain dealer-owned commodities. If the commodities, commodity proceeds, or warehouse-owned or grain dealer-owned commodities are insufficient to wholly satisfy these claims, each depositor shall receive a pro rata share thereof.

(4) The director of agriculture may represent depositors whom, under section 51 of this act, the director has determined have claims against the failed warehouseman or failed grain dealer in any action brought to enjoin or otherwise contest the distributions made by the director under this section.

Sec. 53. Section 37, chapter 124, Laws of 1963 and RCW 22.09.370 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If no action is commenced (~~pursuant to RCW 22.09.360~~) under RCW 22.09.570 within thirty days after written demand to the department, any depositor injured by the failure of a licensee to comply with the condition of his bond (~~shall have~~) has a right of action upon ~~(such)~~ the licensee's bond for the recovery of ~~(all)~~ his damages ~~(suffered thereby)~~. The depositor shall give the department immediate written notice of the commencement of any such action.

(2) Recovery under ~~(such)~~ the bond shall be prorated when the claims exceed the liability under ~~(such)~~ the bond.

(3) Whenever the claimed shortage exceeds the amount of ~~(such)~~ the bond, it ~~(shall)~~ is not ~~(be)~~ necessary for any depositor~~(s)~~ suing on ~~(such)~~ the bond to join other depositors in ~~(such)~~ the suit, and the burden of establishing proration ~~(shall be)~~ is on the surety as a matter of defense.

Sec. 54. Section 42, chapter 124, Laws of 1963 and RCW 22.09.420 are each amended to read as follows:

The department's inspectors shall, at terminal warehouses, have exclusive control of the weighing, inspecting, and grading of the commodities ~~((which))~~ that are included within the provisions of this chapter, and the action and certificates of ~~((such))~~ the inspectors in the discharge of their duties, as to all commodities weighed or inspected by them, shall be accepted as prima facie evidence of the correctness of the above activity ~~((PROVIDED, That))~~. However, an appeal may be taken as provided in RCW ~~((22-09-450))~~ 22.09.780 to the director of the department. Suitable books and records shall be kept in which shall be entered a record of every carload, or cargo, or part of cargo of commodities inspected or weighed by them, showing the number and initial or other designation of the vehicle or boat containing ~~((such))~~ the carload, or cargo, or part of cargo, its weight, the kind of commodity, and its grade, the reason for ~~((such))~~ the grade ~~((:))~~ if of inferior grade, the amount of ~~((such))~~ the dockage, the amount of fees and forfeitures and disposition of ~~((same))~~ them; and for each vehicle or cargo, or part of cargo, of commodity inspected, they shall give a certificate of inspection showing the kind and grade of the same and the reason for all grades established. They shall also keep a record of all appeals, decisions, and a complete record of every official act, which books and records shall be open to inspection by any party in interest. They shall also furnish the agent of the railroad company, or other carrier over which ~~((such))~~ the commodity was shipped or carried, a report showing the weight thereof, if requested to do so.

Where by reason of the absence of records ~~((:))~~ or other circumstances making it impossible or unreasonable for the director to ascertain the names and addresses of all ~~((said))~~ the depositor creditors, the director after exerting due diligence and making reasonable inquiry to secure ~~((said))~~ that information from all reasonable and available sources, may make demand on ~~((said))~~ a warehouseman's or grain dealer's bond on the basis of information then in his possession, and thereafter shall not be liable or responsible for claims or the handling of claims ~~((which))~~ that may subsequently appear or be discovered.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 82.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The tax levied by RCW 82.08.020 does not apply to the sale of precious metal bullion or monetized bullion. For purposes of the section, "precious metal bullion" means any elementary precious metal which has been put through a process of smelting or refining, including, but not limited to, gold, silver, platinum, rhodium, and chromium, and which is in such state or condition that its value depends upon its contents and not upon its form. For purposes of this section, "monetized bullion" means coins or other forms of money manufactured from gold, silver, or other metals and heretofore, now, or hereafter used as a medium of exchange under the laws of this state, the United States, or any foreign nation, but does not include coins or money sold to be manufactured into jewelry or works of art.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 82.12 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The tax levied by RCW 82.12.020 does not apply to the sale of precious metal bullion or monetized bullion. For purposes of this section, "precious metal bullion" means any elementary precious metal which has been put through a process of smelting or refining, including, but not limited to, gold, silver, platinum, rhodium, and chromium, and which is in such state or condition that its value depends upon its contents and not upon its form. POINT OF ORDER

Senator McDermott: "Mr. President, a point of order. I would raise the question of scope and object on this amendment. I am certain that when Governor Spellman made the request that we put in a bill for nonprofit corporations to be exempt from the B & O tax, for the purpose of weatherization of homes and other assistance to low income housing, he did not have the object in mind of a bill to exempt bullion dealers from paying the B & O tax--or the sales tax, excuse me. I think, further, we are here setting a precedent if we allow this amendment to hang, we may have to set the bill down where the whole floor goes to their office and gets their one little amendment to the tax code, so I think this is out of the scope and object."

Debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling on the point of order raised by Senator McDermott concerning the proposed amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3244, the President finds that the Senate is in general agreement that the proposed amendment is beyond the scope and object of the bill and the President, not wishing to be contrary, so rules."

(2) "State agency" shall include any state office, agency, commission, department, or institution financed in whole or in part from funds appropriated by the legislature. It shall also include the Washington state school director's association and the state printer, but it shall not include (a) the state supreme court or any agency of the judicial branch or (b) the legislature or any of its statutory, standing, special, or interim committees, other than at the option of the judicial or legislative agency or committee concerned;

Senator Talmadge moved the following amendments be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 3, line 26, after "schools," insert "Employees' salaries shall be equivalent with salaries for employees in similar classifications as established by the personnel board."

On page 3, after line 26, strike all the material down to and including "association." on line

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

On page 4, line 2, after "chapter" strike "and section 5 of this act expire" and insert "expires"

On page 4, beginning on line 11, after "Sec. 8." strike all the material down to and including "1983." on line 14 and insert "All sections of this act except section 4 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect June 30, 1983. Section 4 of this act shall take effect June 30, 1984."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "Senator Talmadge, one of the things that we discovered in doing the research on a comparable worth bill is that many institutions, particularly those that had people in an exempt status--which figuratively speaking these employees are. They are not under civil service, per se--had, in fact implemented comparable worth, not only in state government, but in institutions of higher education. Do you have any way of knowing the fact that these people have a slightly higher pay scale is because they have implemented such a procedure?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator Lee, I don't know for a fact whether or not they have implemented a comparable worth procedure, but what I can tell you is that, with respect to the executive secretary who is a male, he is the fifth highest paid executive in state government. With respect to the person who has the salary that is in excess of what is a comparable position in state government by 63%, according to the Legislative Budget Committee performance audit, that person is again a male.

"So I don't think comparable worth has to do with those individuals that may, in fact, be out of whack with what would be a comparable salary in state government. I don't think you can attribute that to comparable worth. As to the labor negotiators and their comparison to the Public Employees Relations Commission--labor mediators--I don't know whether or not they are males or females, but we do know that from the LBC performance audit, that their salary is something in excess of 12% greater than what applies to the same position in PERS."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator Talmadge, as I understand it, this agency does use a salary schedule, but it is the SPI salary schedule which operates outside of the framework of the Personnel Board. Is that correct or incorrect?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, I am not sure of that."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Talmadge, we have a lot of quasi-state agencies beyond the one we are talking about. I would like to point out one, which is Metro. The various Metros around the state, in the next coming biennium, will draw on the general fund something in the neighborhood of one hundred and twenty-four million dollars. The salaries that are established by those groups, which are supported out of the general fund--don't you feel then, in this case, that we should apply the same principle to all agencies that draw money from the general fund of the state of Washington?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, you are not talking to one of the greatest fans of Metro. I would be happy to join with you in doing that."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hemstad: "Senator Talmadge, pursuing the lines of reasoning of Senator Patterson, another quasi-state agency is the State Bar Association. Would it be your view, then, that the employees of the state bar be subjected to the same kind of standards?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, I don't know what their salary schedule is over there, but I would be willing to take a look at your amendment to subject them to that."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "Senator Goltz, you injected into the debate something rather interesting to me. Are you saying that the SPI office does not use the same formula that the State Personnel Board does in determining salaries within their organization?"

Senator Goltz: "My understanding is that the SPI office has its own salary schedule and does not come under the State Personnel Board."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Talmadge demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendments by Senator Talmadge.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Talmadge failed and the amendments were not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 18; nays, 28; absent, 02; excused, 01.

Absent: Senators McManus, Sellar - 2.

Excused: Senator Haley - 1.

MOTION

Senator Wojahn moved the following amendments be considered and adopted simultaneously:

Beginning on page 2, after line 25, strike all the material down to and including "transfer)," on page 3, line 10.

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

On page 4, after line 6, insert the following:

"(1) Section 28A.61.050, chapter 223, Laws of 1969 ex. sess., section 2, chapter 125, Laws of 1969 and RCW 28A.61.050:"

Renumber the remaining subsections consecutively.

On page 4, after line 10, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. There is hereby appropriated to the school directors' association from the general fund, for the biennium ending June 30, 1985, the sum of one million twenty thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary to carry out the purposes under chapter 28A.61 RCW."

Renumber the remaining section consecutively.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Guess: "Mr. President and members of the Senate. In view of the fact that the bill--the original legislation--had to do with the motor pool, had to do with the auditing of the employees' salaries and certain other exemptions, takes the bill into the appropriating process and, therefore, I raise the question of scope and object on the amendment."

At 11:24 a.m., there being no objection, the President declared the Senate to be at ease.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Guess, the President finds that House Bill No. 300 is a measure which deals with the School Directors Association and in a very limited way deals with its method of funding by payment of dues by the members of the Association.

"The amendments proposed by Senator Wojahn would change the entire method of funding the Association by appropriating $1,020,000 from the general fund.

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the following Committee on Judiciary amendment was adopted:

On page 4, line 24, after "proceeding" insert "in which there is a request for injunctive relief"

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 458, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Talmadge, you said one thing and the summary of it says another--'actions may be brought in justice court.'"

Senator Talmadge: "District court, yes. Senator Guess, it is now clear that the district courts have jurisdiction up to seventy-five--will have up to seventy-five hundred dollars--in jurisdiction starting July 1, but right now have five thousand dollars jurisdiction to hear these kinds of cases. There is some feeling that they can only be brought in the superior courts, rather than in the district courts, and the feeling was among all the people concerned that district courts should be able to hear these cases in those situations where their jurisdictional limit was not exceeded."

Senator Guess: "Can you clarify for me--in the district court, are they able to have a jury?"

Senator Talmadge: "Yes."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hughes: "Senator Talmadge, since the Attorney General must be served with a copy of the complaint seeking injunctive relief, would a subsequent failure of the Attorney General to appear in the action be construed to indicate a failure to meet the public interest requirement for private actions under Chapter 19.86 RCW?"

Senator Talmadge: "No, since the Attorney General's resources for enforcement of Chapter 19.86 RCW are necessarily limited, many private actions would satisfy the public interest requirement even though there was no involvement by the Attorney General in particular private suits. This section is not designed to require the appearance of the Attorney General to establish the public interest requirement."

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, Senators Craswell and Pullen were excused. The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 458, as amended by the Senate.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Zimmerman: "Senator Vognild, was the subject of 'best final offer' proposed as an amendment--was that considered as far as a rationale for a compromise on this idea of binding arbitration?"

Senator Vognild: "Yes, Senator, surprisingly enough on this one, the port district representative testified in favor of this bill, as did the firefighters involved."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "Senator Thompson, we have used a couple of different terms here--'municipal officer'--is used in the background statement and 'municipal employee' is used elsewhere. Are these elected officials or are they employees of the municipal government?"

Senator Thompson: "The act applies to both."

Senator Lee: "Both to elected officials, as well as those, who in fact are being paid as an employee of a municipal government?"

Senator Thompson: "Yes, they are limited in both categories."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Thompson, when the committee was considering this bill, was any thought given to the possibility of making the exception where there was a sole supplier? I think that would clarify the problem that is being discussed right now--that you could make an exception if there were no other people to provide the service or the goods. I am just wondering whether or not the committee discussed that as a possibility?"

Senator Thompson: "Senator Patterson, the circumstances that almost always--perhaps invariably--apply here are in sole supplier situations. It is rather an embarrassment for a councilman to be involved in providing a local government with something from his own shop, as it were. This is not precedence setting. It has been in law for a long time at two hundred dollars--seven hundred fifty dollars nowadays is not a lot of business. It is really for the convenience of the operation of these municipal governments. It is a highly visible process and in the size of communities that this occurs, you can believe that the citizens know what is going on."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Kiskaddon: "Senator Thompson, I understand that this is limited to certain classes of government. Could you explain to me what size of cities and towns and jurisdictions are actually able to use this provision?"

Senator Thompson: "Senator Kiskaddon, I do not have the bill open before me. I can't answer it. Senator Zimmerman and I recall that it applies to smaller municipalities."

Further debate ensued.

Establishing procedures for moorage facilities to enforce moorage and storage regulations.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Thompson, the following Committee on Local Government was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout sections 1 and 2 of this act.

(1) "Port charges" mean charges of a moorage facility operator for moorage and storage, and all other charges owing or to become owing under a contract between a vessel owner and the moorage facility operator, or under an officially adopted tariff including, but not limited to, costs of sale and related legal expenses.

(2) "Vessel" means every species of watercraft or other artificial contrivance capable of being used as a means of transportation on water and which does not exceed two hundred feet in length. "Vessel" includes any trailer used for the transportation of watercraft.

(3) "Moorage facility" means any properties or facilities owned or operated by a moorage facility operator which are capable of use for the moorage or storage of vessels.

(4) "Moorage facility operator" means any port district, city, town, metropolitan park district, or county which owns and/or operates a moorage facility.

(5) "Owner" means every natural person, firm, partnership, corporation, association, or organization, or agent thereof, with actual or apparent authority, who expressly or impliedly contracts for use of a moorage facility.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. A moorage facility operator may adopt all regulations necessary for rental and use of moorage facilities and for the expeditious collection of port charges. The regulations may also establish procedures for the enforcement of these regulations by port district, city, county, metropolitan park district or town personnel. The regulations shall include the following:

(1) Procedures authorizing moorage facility personnel to take reasonable measures, including the use of chains, ropes, and locks, to secure vessels within the moorage facility so that the vessels are in the possession and control of the moorage facility operator and cannot be removed from the moorage facility. These procedures may be used if an owner mooring or storing a vessel at the moorage facility fails, for more than sixty days after being notified that charges are owing, to pay the port charges owed. Notification shall be by registered mail to the owner at his last known address. If no address was furnished by the owner, the port district, city, county, metropolitan park district, or town need not give such notice. At the time of securing the vessel, an authorized moorage facility employee shall attach to the vessel two readily visible notification stickers. The stickers shall be of a reasonable size and shall contain the following information:

- (a) The date and time the stickers were attached;
- (b) The identity of the authorized employee;
- (c) A statement that if the account is not paid in full within one hundred eighty days from the time the stickers are attached, the vessel may be sold at public auction to satisfy the port charges; and
- (d) The address and telephone number where additional information may be obtained concerning release of the vessel.

If the vessel is the subject of a delinquent moorage account, and sixty days have expired since notification pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, the moorage facility operator shall review its records to ascertain the identity of the owner. The operator shall make a reasonable effort to contact the owner by registered mail in order to give the owner the information on the notification stickers.

(2) Procedures authorizing moorage facility personnel at their discretion to move moored vessels ashore for storage within properties under the operator's control or for storage with private persons under their control as bailees of the moorage facility, if the vessel is, in the opinion of port personnel, in danger of sinking or of sustaining other damage. Reasonable costs of any such procedure shall be paid by the vessel's owner.

(3) If a vessel is secured under subsection (1) of this section or moved ashore under subsection (2) of this section, the owner who is obligated to the moorage facility operator for port charges may regain possession of the vessel by:

- (a) Making arrangements satisfactory with the moorage facility operator for the immediate removal of the vessel from the moorage facility or for authorized moorage; and
- (b) Making payment to the operator of all port charges, or by posting with the operator a sufficient cash bond or other security acceptable to such operator, to be held in trust by the operator pending written agreement of the parties with respect to payment by the vessel owner of the amount owing, or pending resolution of the matter of the port charges in a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction. After entry of judgment, including any appeals, in a court of competent jurisdiction, the trust shall terminate and the moorage facility operator shall receive so much of the bond or other security as is necessary to satisfy any judgment, costs, and interest as may be awarded to the moorage facility operator. The balance shall be refunded immediately to the owner at his last known address.

(4) If a vessel moored or stored at a moorage facility is abandoned, the port district, city, county, metropolitan park district, or town, may, by resolution of its legislative authority, authorize the public sale of the vessel by authorized personnel to the highest and best bidder for cash as follows:

(a) If a vessel has been secured by the moorage facility operator under subsection (1) of this section and is not released to the owner under the bonding provisions of this section within one hundred eighty days after notifying the owner under subsection (1) of this section, or in all other cases, for one hundred eighty days after the operator secures the vessel, the vessel shall be conclusively presumed to have been abandoned by the owner;

(b) Before the vessel is sold, the owner of the vessel shall be given at least twenty days' notice of the sale in the manner set forth in subsection (1) of this section if the name and address of the owner is known. The notice shall contain the time and place of the sale, a reasonable description of the vessel to be sold, and the amount of port charges owed with respect to the vessel. The notice of sale shall be published at least once, more than ten but not more than twenty days before the sale, in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the moorage facility is located. Such notice shall include the name of the vessel, if any, the last known owner and address, and a reasonable description of the vessel to be sold. The moorage facility operator may bid all or part of its port charges at the sale and may become a purchaser at the sale;

(c) The proceeds of a sale under section 2 of this act shall first be applied to the payment of port charges. The balance, if any, shall be paid to the owner. If the owner cannot in the exercise of due diligence be located by the moorage facility operator within one year of the date of the sale, the excess funds from the sale shall revert to the department of revenue pursuant to chapter 63.28 RCW. If the sale is for a sum less than the applicable port charges, the moorage facility operator is entitled to assert a claim for a deficiency.

(5) The regulations authorized under this section shall be enforceable only if the moorage facility has had its tariff containing such regulations conspicuously posted at all moorage facility offices at all times.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Nothing contained in sections 1 and 2 of this act may be construed as a limitation of any rights, privileges, or remedies previously existing under any applicable laws of port districts, cities, towns, metropolitan park districts, or counties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. Sections 1 and 2 of this act are added to chapter 53.08 RCW. The code reviser shall put cross references to sections 1 and 2 of this act in Titles 35 and 36 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Thompson, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 318, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Thompson, the legislation is probably all right, but I am concerned. You have an emergency clause on there and it also provides that you only receive ten days--I think--notice and with that emergency clause on it there may be a lot of boat owners, that you speak of, that don't know anything about what is going on. I am wondering why the need for the emergency clause."

Senator Thompson: "There is sixty days notice and the emergency clause that is on the bill. Senator Rasmussen, is so that this good measure can be put into effect promptly and the moorage operators can begin cleaning up their books."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 318, as amended by the Senate.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Talmadge: "Senator McManus, why would the Department of Social and Health Services hold harmless a physician that conceivably is an employee of local government?"

Senator McManus: "The case that was given here as an example is that a technician was denied recertification by the Department of Social and Health Services, even though a physician who was supervising recommended it. The technician then sued the physician and the physician was without any state assistance or protection in his defense and, therefore, it was felt that this particular authority was required on the part of the department."

Senator Talmadge: "Well, the department has no authority with respect to that physician, other than to certify that physician for this particular program, as I understand it. Wouldn't this responsibility to hold harmless be the responsibility of the local government that employs the physician?"

Senator McManus: "I would, perhaps, defer that question to Senator Haley, who is probably better able to answer it than I am."

On motion of Senator Talmadge, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 855 was deferred.

On motion of Senator Williams, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1011, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Williams, as I read this bill after you have amended it, you took out all the new material, except the part on the last page-- 'The director of general administration shall adopt rules to facilitate private investment in energy conservation measures for state-owned buildings consistent with state law.' Could you explain what that private investment would be? I fail to understand how we can let a private investor in our state-owned buildings."

Senator Williams: "The information that I have, Senator--this language would give General Administration the opportunity to offer some alternative financing measures. They would include shared savings where the investor in the development takes an interest in the value of the energy saved by adopting the energy conservation measure or through municipal leasing where the investor receives ownership of the particular facilities that they might install. Then they would receive a tax credit for that investment and at the end of that period of time, the state would then retain ownership."

"There is another process, too. Basically, it is a tax credit system where private investors can make the improvements, take the tax credits and the state will then, eventually, be the owner of those improvements."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1011, as amended by the Senate.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "A point of parliamentary inquiry, Mr. President. We have a specific rule that says that the maker of a motion can always close debate. That was the rule that we amended very recently and would, in my opinion, supersede by reference other rules that we have on the books. My question is--does that particular rule allow me to close debate, notwithstanding the fact that the motion has been made and successfully passed to cut off debate?"

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Absent: Senators Newhouse, Thompson - 2.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson: "Senator Pullen, we used an hour and a half this afternoon on one bill defeating a series of amendments. We have come back here tonight to work to 10 o'clock, presumably, and now we are flooded with another series of amendments. Is it your intent to continually offer amendments to this legislature and the Senate body? That is what you are doing."

Senator Pullen: "To answer your question, I do not intend to offer the amendment that would delete all of section one. I intend to withdraw that amendment when we come to it. I put that in to allow me to close debate, in case I was cut off. I was cut off so rudely the very first time. Fortunately, I was allowed to close debate, so I am going to withdraw that amendment. However, I think this other amendment to page 1, line 21 is a different issue than the one that was defeated and probably should be considered.

"I would simply add that we have seen, in this whole legislature, some rather poor planning. I don't think I can ever recall spending so many nights in session until 10 o'clock in the whole eleven years that I have been in the legislature. Perhaps, had the planning been a little bit better, we would not have the problem of lots of last-minute amendments."

MOTION

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 1, after "opportunity," on line 21 strike all material down through "state," on line 24 and insert "~~((The legislature further finds that it is necessary to aid Asian-Americans in obtaining governmental services in order to promote the health, safety, and welfare of all the residents of this state:))~~"

NOTICE OF RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Bottiger served notice that he would move to reconsider the vote by which the amendment on page 1, line 28, to Substitute House Bill No. 336 was adopted by the Senate.

MOTION

Senator Bottiger moved that further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 336 be deferred and that the Senate immediately consider House Joint Resolution No. 27.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Clarke: "Mr. President, a point of order. I think Senator Bottiger made two motions. He made a motion to delay consideration of the matter now before the body, which is one motion and then he made another motion. I suggest they should be divided."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The remarks by Senator Clarke are correct, Senator Bottiger. You did make two motions, but first you moved to defer further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 336—at least the President believes that was the intent of your motion. If there is no objection, further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 336 will be deferred."

FURTHER REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "An objection has been sustained."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Bottiger that further consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 336 be deferred.

Senator Bottiger demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Haley: "A point of parliamentary inquiry. Would you explain what we are voting on now?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Haley has requested an explanation of the vote. A vote 'aye' will be to defer consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 336. A vote 'nay' will be to not defer consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 336.

"The Secretary will please call the roll."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Bottiger to defer consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 336 carried by the following vote: Yeas, 28; nays, 20; absent, 01; excused, 00.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bender, Bottiger, Conner, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Hansen, Hughes, Hurley, Kiskaddon, McDermott, McManus, Moore, Owen, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Woody - 28.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Clarke, Craswell, Deccio, Fuller, Guess, Haley, Hayner, Hemstad, Jones, Lee, McCaslin, Metcalf, Newhouse, Patterson, Quigg, Sellar, Zimmerman - 20.

Absent: Senator Wojahn - 1.

MOTION

Senator Bottiger moved that the Senate immediately consider House Joint Resolution No. 27.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Clarke: "A point of order, Mr. President. The point of order is that HJR 27 is not properly before the Senate, because under Senate rules it did not have the required vote to get it out of the Rules Committee. Rule 41 lists the various committees. The Rules Committee is listed as having twenty-one members. The standing committee assignments adopted by the Senate means those twenty-one members. Of those twenty-one members, on the roll call vote with respect to HJR 27, only ten voted in favor of the motion to vote the bill out.

"Rule 45 requires a majority vote of the members of the Rules Committee. The question relates to whether the Lieutenant Governor is a member of the committee. The Lieutenant Governor purportedly cast the eleventh vote in favor of moving the resolution to the floor. Either the Lieutenant Governor is a voting member or he is not. If he is not a member, then his vote cannot be counted under Rule 45. There were only ten valid votes, which is not a majority of a twenty-one member committee. If he is a member, then it is a twenty-two man committee, which requires a vote of twelve to constitute a majority of the votes and only eleven votes were cast.

"Now, the only area where the Lieutenant Governor is given authority to vote is in Article II, Sec. 10 of the Constitution which says 'when presiding, the Lieutenant Governor shall have the deciding vote in case of an equal division of the Senate.' I, specifically, call attention to the fact that this relates to a situation where the Lieutenant Governor is presiding over the Senate and there is an equal vote of the Senate. Now, that is the only specification where there is a right for anyone other than an elected senator to cast a vote as a senator. Now, that right cannot be created or delegated by the Senate, itself, or in any other area than the Constitution.

"It is an extremely important matter for the Senate, in effect, to purport to delegate to someone other than a senator the right to cast a vote. I submit that the majority cannot constitutionally increase their numbers by giving someone other than an elected senator the right to vote in a committee or for any other purpose than that one area granted by the Constitution. For that reason, Mr. President, the matter is not properly before this body."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President and members of the Senate. Many of us have served here for many, many years. At least in my tenure, I have never recalled an occasion when the Lieutenant Governor did not serve as Chairman of the Rules Committee. In addition to the printed word of the Constitution and of the rules of the Senate, we have a long heritage of interpretation of what those rules in the Constitution say. The Constitution describes the Lieutenant Governor as the presiding officer of the Senate and the Constitution clearly says that he shall vote in case of a tie.

"On the Rules Committee, twenty-one Senators serve, plus the Lieutenant Governor, by custom--by long standing custom--recognized irrespective of whether the Democratic party or the Republican party is in control. In the Rules Committee, I cited to Senator Hayner two occasions in the last session--while the Republican party was in control--where two bills were presented to the Senate Rules Committee at which time she had announced a rule that it takes eight votes to report a bill from the Rules Committee. At the beginning of this session, I had announced and asked the Lieutenant Governor to announce that it took eleven votes to report a bill from the Rules Committee.

"On April 1, 1981, there was presented before the Rules Committee, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3459 and in that case, Senator Hayner voted on one side of the issue and I voted on the other. The Lieutenant Governor, on that occasion, voted the same way as I did. The vote was eight to eight. The bill came out of the Rules Committee and was finally enacted into law of this state.

"On March 2, 1982, House Bill No. 905 was before the Rules Committee and on that occasion, Senator Hayner and I both voted on the same side and contrary to the position that the Lieutenant Governor took and there were eight votes to eight votes. In other words, Senator Hayner and I were on the losing vote and the bill came out of the Rules Committee and was acted on by the Senate.

"We have a long-standing custom, in addition to the exact words of the Constitution and the exact words of the Senate rules. Senator Clarke has cited you Rule 45, and I presume he is referring to Sub. 4--'Bills reported to the Senate from a standing committee'--and Rules is not a standing committee--'must have a majority report'--Rules has never had a majority report--'which shall be printed on a standing committee report form and shall carry the recommendations and signed by a majority of the members of the committee.'

"On this particular day, one of the members of the Committee was absent, the vote was ten to ten. The Lieutenant Governor voted and made it eleven votes and the bill reported out of committee based on the custom of the Senate, the history of the Senate, the interpretation by both political parties, the Constitution of the State and our actual rules. I submit to you, Mr. President, that your ruling in Rules was correct and the bill is properly before the Senate."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HAYNER

Senator Hayner: "Mr. President and ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. Senator Bottiger has said that the Rules Committee is not a standing committee. Yet on Rule 41, the following language appears--'the following standing committees shall constitute the standing committees of the senate.' That includes No. 11--the Rules Committee with twenty-one members. Senator Bottiger is now saying that the Rules Committee has twenty-two members. The fact that there may have been some votes in previous times, which we did not challenge, has no bearing upon this particular occasion, because we did challenge it. It does not set a precedent. The facts are very clear in these sections of the rules of the Senate."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: A point of parliamentary inquiry. My point is this--if this is the rule that we are following, suppose, in the Rules Committee, that there were eleven votes against a bill by members of the Senate and ten votes in favor of a bill by the members of the Senate and the Lieutenant Governor cast the eleventh vote in favor of the bill, so that it would be eleven to eleven. Would the bill come out or not come out? I am just trying to interpret what we would do under this circumstance."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In reply to your inquiry, Senator Metcalf, under the precedent established by the Republicans when they were in the majority, it would come out. It would be passed out of the Rules Committee to the Senate Calendar. You will please note the precedent established by the Republicans when they were in the majority."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Mr. President, the question of precedence is not here involved, I respectfully urge. The question is one of authority. We very often have situations where the Senate does not undertake--or do the members of the Senate--to raise points of order. For instance, on questions of scope and object, it is a well known situation that if the point is not raised, then, of course, things go on, but this--to my knowledge--is the first time that this point has been raised upon the floor of the Senate. The question is a very important one, because it involves a question of constitutional law and of whether or not, the Senate can by precedent, endeavor to delegate to someone other than an elected Senator the right to vote.

"Now, the Constitution does grant that right only in one circumstance and that is when the Lieutenant Governor is presiding over the Senate and there is a tie vote of the Senate. I don't care what the precedent has purported to be. The point of order is now and, I think, for the first time raised on the floor of the Senate, that there is no constitutional authority for the Senate to purport to delegate that authority."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FLEMING

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President and members of the Senate. I think we are talking about two situations here. One--you are talking about whether the bill had the right of coming out of Rules upon the ruling of the President and whether, in fact it indeed, had been challenged. That is not the first time that a challenge of that type has been made. It was made one other time that I can recollect and the bill still came out of committee just as this bill did.

"Now, whether this will be accepted as a ruling or how the ruling of the chair might take place as it comes to the floor, then I would suggest that we wait and see what the ruling of the President is, and then if this body feels as though they don't particularly care for that ruling, then they have one other alternative and that is to try and overrule the chair."

REMARKS BY SENATOR GUESS

Senator Guess: "In response to Senator Fleming. If Senator Fleming's memory is as good as he thinks it is--and mine, too, that measure was not challenged. That action took place in the Rules Committee. That bill did not come up here. We did not challenge it on the floor. I just wanted to keep the record straight, if you are thinking about the same bill that I am thinking about."

REMARKS BY SENATOR FLEMING

Senator Fleming: "Just briefly responding to Senator Guess. I did not say that the Republicans made the challenge. I said there was a challenge made before in Rules. I said that we had two situations. You question whether the bill should come out of Rules--the last time there was a challenge that bill did come out of Rules. Now, the question is whether it was challenged here on the floor, that is another question and I spoke to that."

REMARKS BY SENATOR KISKADDON

Senator Kiskaddon: "Mr. President, speaking to the point. I believe that the process that we use is extremely important and the process of having a majority of a committee vote is one of the basic tenets by which we operate. There are other ways that you can get a bill to the floor if it does not come out of Rules. You can have a majority vote on the floor of the Senate to relieve the Rules Committee of a vote, so we do not mean that we have totally locked the bill out. I would urge the ruling not be on precedent. I can recall sometimes, being on a committee where there is not a quorum at the moment--that nobody really calls a point, so we continue. Other times, when it may be important and when there is a focus on the rule, then we definitely follow the rule. I think it is important, in this case, that we do follow the rule which to me would say that the majority of the committee would be the way that you vote out a bill."

REMARKS BY SENATOR NEWHOUSE

Senator Newhouse: "Mr. President and ladies and gentlemen. I am shocked that the majority would claim that less than a majority of a committee has authority to override a majority of that committee--entirely contrary to the parliamentary procedure rules--contrary to the rule of a majority. Eleven is not a majority of twenty-two. If there are eleven--as the Lieutenant Governor has ruled--'yes' votes, including his, and eleven members voting 'no,' that would be less than the majority prevailing--entirely contrary to all the rules of parliamentary procedure.

"The Rules Committee is a standing committee. It does make a report. The report is the calendar and in some rare cases, also, makes a standing committee report in referring a bill to another committee. The Rules Committee is a standing committee of this Senate, and as such, the rules of the Senate apply to the extent that a majority must rule and we cannot do otherwise. We would be doing violence to the democratic system."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The vote was eleven to ten on the measure."

Senator Newhouse: "The question, sir, that you answered, Senator Metcalf, was that if there had been eleven 'no' votes, that your eleventh 'yes' vote would bring the bill out of committee."

President Cherberg: "That was based on the precedent established by your party and that the President indicated, Senator Newhouse."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HEMSTAD

Senator Hemstad: "Mr. President, the troubling nature of the position of the President is illustrated by the query from Senator Metcalf. If the vote is ten Senators in favor and eleven Senators opposed, then the vote cast by the chairman of the Rules Committee would create a tie--not break a tie. The argument of Senator Bottiger has been put forward here that the vote of the chairman would be able to be used like on this floor to break a tie, but it is hard to understand a situation where the vote cast would create a tie and a tie vote would bring the bill to the floor."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator, you evidently did not listen. I said it was based on precedent established by the Republican majority in 1981 and 1982. I agree that it shouldn't have a simple majority to come out."

REMARKS BY SENATOR METCALF

Senator Metcalf: "Thank you, Mr. President and members of the Senate. This issue is very involved and very difficult, because it does relate to the Lieutenant Governor whom we all like and respect, but this is not a 1983 issue. We are acting now to settle this for the next fifty or hundred years and I think that is the critical point.

"In this issue--many political issues are sort of murky, but this one is clear--either there are twenty-one members on the Rules Committee and it takes eleven votes to pass a bill or there are twenty-two members and twelve is the necessary majority.

"I said in the committee, the legislature has done some strange things, but you don't have the power to repeal the law of gravity or the laws of mathematics. In short, right is right and wrong is wrong and everyone here knows what is right on this issue. For myself, there is no power on earth that could make me support such a concept, because it is obviously wrong. If my leadership ever asked me to vote for such a thing, I would laugh in their face. Mark this well--I repeat mark this well--the prerogatives of leadership do not extend to the violation of principle--and a Republican, President Richard Nixon, learned this to his eternal sorrow."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, I think, sometimes we ought to keep in mind that there are certain cases in which a majority of the Senators elected must do something. But there are many, many other cases, in which a majority of those present can do things. For example, we can override a Governor's veto--not on a majority elected, but on a majority present. Now, the question is has there been precedence set to permit the Lieutenant Governor to vote in the Rules Committee. Obviously, he votes every time there is a roll call. Nobody has ever objected--in the twenty years that I have been here--the Lieutenant Governor voting on a roll call. The precedent has been set. There was one member absent--the majority voted and put the bill out."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I just want to assure you that I am going to sustain you on your ruling if your ruling is on precedent, which apparently this is going to be the determination. If it is based on the rules, I wouldn't be able to sustain you and I would hope that you just make it on the precedent. The rules do not sustain--and they are the 1983 rules--and I would suggest that we offer a motion to amend the rules and I certainly appreciate your vote down there in the Rules Committee and would want to keep you in a voting mode, but we should amend the rules in order to continue that. I would hope that our leaders will take that under advisement and so propose in their next motion."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator, the President's Ruling will be based on the action of the Senate."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Mr. President, I respectfully suggest that precedent should not be the force here, for this reason--"

President Cherberg: "The President just stated that the ruling would be based on the action of the Senate."

Senator Clarke: "All right, I am responding to that and you, sir, out of the defence that we have had for you and still have--have hesitated to challenge your rights to many things--which when an issue comes, we may feel that we are forced, because of the importance of the matter before us to raise a question--which we have not raised before. I respectfully submit to you, sir, that the fact that we have not in the past--nor have people on the other side raised the question of your right to vote does not mean that it gives you that authority. We cannot give you that authority. That authority may be given only by the Constitution. The Senate does not have the authority to grant the power to vote as a Senator to anyone other than a Senator."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order presented by Senator Clarke, the President finds that Senator Clarke's remarks are untimely in that Senator Clarke should have raised his objections prior to confirmation by the entire Senate that the President of the Senate is chairman and member of the Rules Committee on the first day of the forty-eighth legislature, January 10, 1983.

"Therefore, the point is not well taken.

"Here, for your inspection, are the minutes of that day, which lists Cherberg, Chairman."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "I respectfully, again, call to the chairman's attention the fact that you are listed as chairman does not in any way infer that you have the right to vote. If you would have read further, you would have, also, seen that the number of members of the Rules Committee is listed as twenty-one and there are twenty-one Senators named as members of that committee.

"It is true that you are named as chairman, but if that naming had, as you infer, given you the right to vote, then of necessity, they would have had to say the membership of the committee was twenty-two, not twenty-one. There is a distinct difference between naming you as chairman, which is an honorary capacity, and giving you the right to vote."

FURTHER RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Possibly, I did not read it in its entirety--'as chairman and member of the Rules Committee.'

"Therefore, Senator Clarke's point is not well taken and the measure is properly before the Senate."

Senator Clarke: "With great regret, I accept the suggestion by Senator Fleming that if we are not satisfied with the decision, that we invoke Rule 32 and I ask that the determination be made under Rule 32--'shall the decision of the chair stand as the judgment of the Senate.' I request a roll call to see whether the majority party is willing to put itself on record as accomplishing this unconstitutional purported delegation."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Speaking to the last comment--in attempting to sustain a whole series of bills that have been enacted into law--and which, under Senator Clarke's comments, could be challenged as constitutional, including the two that passed in the last session, I would urge the body to sustain the decision of the chair."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Commenting briefly--the remarks of Senator Bottiger are entirely uncalled for, because the point was not raised. If the point is not raised and the matter is before the Senate and the Senate considers it and passes the bill, all of the matters that have to do with the preliminary procedures which have been allowed to be unchallenged are regarded and secured by the fact that the Senate has accepted and acted upon the bill, so there is utterly no precedence, whatsoever, to the proposition that it is necessary to vote to sustain in order to ensure the fact that bills passed by this Senate are legal enactments."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MCDERMOTT

Senator McDermott: "Mr. President and members of the Senate. I remember the actions in this Senate over the past two years and I am reminded of a Biblical story. A woman was once brought before Christ by a group of people. They said she was engaged in adultery. Christ looked at them and knelt down and wrote a few things and then stood and said 'let ye who is among us without sin cast the first stone.' Now, if we want to get into calling people unconstitutional, we will never get out of here. Just remember who threw the first stone."

The demand for the roll call was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on shall the decision of the chair stand as the judgment of the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the decision of the chair stood as the judgment of the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 23; absent, 00; excused, 00.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bender, Bottiger, Conner, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Hansen, Hughes, Hurley, McDermott, McManus, Moore, Owen, Peterson, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody - 26.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Clarke, Craswell, Deccio, Fuller, Guess, Haley, Hayner, Hemstad, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, Metcalf, Newhouse, Patterson, Pullen, Quigg, Sellar, von Reichbauer, Zimmerman - 23.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Jones: "Mr. President, I would like a ruling as to how many members there are now on the Rules Committee."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President believes there are twenty-two."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Mr. President, if there are twenty-two members and this matter came before the body with eleven votes only, I submit that it shows on its face that it is not properly before us, and if I am out of order in having talked before making a motion, then, I would move that the bill be rereferred to the Rules Committee under these circumstances. The statement of the President, itself, has indicated that there are twenty-two members on the committee and only eleven voted, including the President, to place it before the body."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Clarke, there were twenty-one members present. The vote was eleven to ten, which in any committee in the Senate would put it out.

"Senator Clarke has made a motion to refer the measure to the Senate Rules Committee."

Senator Clarke: "Speaking to the motion, eleven still is not a majority of a committee of twenty-two and the rules do require a vote of the majority to get the bill out. For that reason, I think it should be rereferred to the Rules Committee."

Senator Shinpoch demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

Further debate ensued.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Clarke, as a matter of information, would you please quote the rule which states that a majority of the members appointed are required to put a bill out?"

Senator Clarke: "Rule 45, I had down here. I will have to find the exact portion. Rule 45, Sub. 4--'Bills reported to the Senate from a standing committee must have a majority report' and so forth. The Senate rules, establishing the committees, established the Rules Committee as a standing committee.

President Cherberg: "Yes, but that doesn't say that it takes a majority of the members appointed."

Senator Clarke: "Sub. 5--'A majority report of a committee must carry the signatures of a majority of the members of the committee.' That is a majority of the members of the committee. Now, it may be true--"

President Cherberg: "Please continue reading, Senator Clarke."

Senator Clarke: "It says--'In the event a committee has a quorum present, a majority of the members may act on a measure, subject to obtaining the signatures of a majority of the members of the committee on a majority report.' Now, Rules Committee is a standing committee and if there is a requirement then they must have the signatures of a majority of the committee. That is what the rule says."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "I would direct Senator Clarke's attention to Rule 53, since the Rules Committee does not have and never has had a majority report to put a bill on the calendar. Rule 53 says--'a majority shall mean a majority of those members present unless otherwise stated.'"

Senator Clarke: "Well that, however, can not overrule the proposition as set forth in Rule 45, which I have just quoted. In any event, the motion is to refer the matter back to Rules Committee where the situation may be clarified and I would request a vote on that motion, please."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Clarke to rerefer House Joint Resolution No. 27 to the Rules Committee.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Clarke carried and the measure was rereferred to the Rules Committee by the following vote: Yeas, 25; nays, 24; absent, 00; excused, 00.

Voting nay: Senators Bauer, Bender, Bottiger, Conner, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Hansen, Hughes, McDermott, McManus, Moore, Owen, Peterson, Rinehart, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody - 24.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Benitz: "I don't know much about this, Senator Peterson, but I know of a case where friends of mine had their property taken by the highway department for a freeway and each time in court, the state has lost, but they are still appealing it and these people still haven't been paid. That is six or seven years back. If they are forced to take the valuation at the time the state took the property, they would suffer immensely. Would that be the procedure under this new law?"

Senator Peterson: "No, I think it would be in the reverse. It would expedite, both for the property owner and the state. Actually, it would expedite the proceedings and the court proceeding and the settlement."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of House Bill No. 183.

POINT OF ORDER

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "On a question of precedent, I think that when a resolution is before us which extends the cutoff date, it would simply add to the efficiency of the body to consider any other similar type measures rather than having to do them by separate resolutions. The body would have the opportunity, then, of considering what they do want and what they do not want to extend beyond the cutoff date. I would suggest as a matter of precedent that this is well within the scope and object."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order presented by Senator Goltz, the President believes that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill, but the President, also, believes that Senator Clarke's remarks have a great deal of merit as to the expediting of Senate business."

It is the intention of the legislature in enacting this chapter to increase the protection afforded the citizens of this state, to ~~((permit a more even administration of justice in the juvenile courts, to rehabilitate juvenile offenders, and to reduce the necessity for commitment of juveniles to state juvenile correctional institutions by strengthening and improving the supervision of juveniles placed on probation by the juvenile courts of this state))~~ require community planning, to provide necessary services and supervision for juvenile offenders in the community when appropriate, to reduce reliance on state-operated correctional institutions for offenders whose standard range disposition does not include commitment of the offender to the department, and to encourage the community to efficiently and effectively provide community services to juvenile offenders through consolidation of service delivery systems.

Sec. 2. Section 2, chapter 165, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 13, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 13.06.020 are each amended to read as follows:

Sec. 3. Section 3, chapter 165, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 14, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 13.06.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Standards shall be sufficiently flexible to ((foster the development of new and improved supervision practices)) support current programs which have demonstrated effectiveness and efficiency, to foster development of innovative and improved services for juvenile offenders, to permit direct contracting with private vendors, and to encourage community support for and assistance to local programs. The secretary of social and health services shall seek advice from appropriate ((county officials)) juvenile justice system participants in developing standards and procedures for the operation of (~~"special supervision programs"~~) consolidated juvenile services programs and the distribution of funds under this chapter.

Sec. 4. Section 4, chapter 165, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as amended by section 15, chapter 141, Laws of 1979 and RCW 13.06.040 are each amended to read as follows:

Any such application must include a plan or plans for providing (~~special supervision of juveniles on probation and a method for certifying that moneys received are spent only for these "special supervision programs"~~) consolidated services to juvenile offenders in accordance with standards of the department.

Sec. 5. Section 5, chapter 165, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 9, chapter 151, Laws of 1979 and RCW 13.06.050 are each amended to read as follows:

No county shall be entitled to receive any state funds provided by this chapter until its application ((s)) and plan are approved, and unless and until the minimum standards prescribed by the department of social and health services are complied with and then only on such terms as are set forth (~~hereafter~~) in this section.

(1) (~~A base commitment rate for each county and for the state as a whole shall be calculated by the department of social and health services. The base commitment rate shall be determined by computing the ratio of the number of juveniles committed to state juvenile correctional institutions plus the number of juveniles who have been convicted of felonies and committed to state correctional institutions after a juvenile court has declined jurisdiction of their cases and remanded them for prosecution in the superior courts, to the county population; such ratio to be expressed in a rate per hundred thousand population, for each of the calendar years 1964 through 1968. The average of these rates for a county for the five year period or the average of the last two years of the period, whichever is higher, shall be the base commitment rate, as certified by the secretary. PROVIDED: That a county may elect as its base commitment rate the average of the base commitment rates of all counties in the state over the last two years of the period described above. The county and state population shall be that certified as of April 1st of each year by the office of financial management; such population figures to be provided to the secretary of social and health services not later than June 30th of each year.~~)

(2) ~~An annual commitment rate shall be calculated by the department at the end of each year for each participating county and for the state as a whole, in a like manner as provided in subsection (1). The annual commitment rate shall exclude commitments that fall within the high risk categories as defined by the department.~~

(3) ~~The amount that may be paid to a county pursuant to this chapter shall be the standard cost of the operation of a special supervision program based upon workload standards established by the department. Payment shall not exceed five thousand dollars per commitment reduction. The "commitment reduction number" is obtained by subtracting (a) the product of the most recent annual commitment rate and population of the county for the same year from (b) the product of the base commitment rate and population of the county for the same year employed in (a).~~

(4) ~~The distribution of funds to a county or a group of counties shall be based on criteria including but not limited to the county's per capita income, regional or county at-risk populations, juvenile crime or arrest rates, existing programs, and the effectiveness and efficiency of consolidating local programs towards reducing commitments to state correctional facilities for offenders whose standard range disposition does not include commitment of the offender to the department and reducing reliance on other traditional departmental services.~~

~~(2) The secretary will reimburse a county upon presentation and approval of a valid claim pursuant to the provisions of this chapter based on actual performance in ((reducing the annual commitment rate from its base commitment rate. Whenever a claim made by a county pursuant to this chapter, covering a prior year, is found to be in error, an adjustment may be made on a current claim without the necessity of applying the adjustment to the allocation for the prior year.~~

~~(5) in the event a participating county earns in a payment period less than one-half of the sum paid in the previous payment period because of extremely unusual circumstances claimed by the county and verified by the secretary of the department of social and health services, the secretary may pay to the county a sum not to exceed actual program expenditures, provided, however, that in subsequent periods the county will be paid only the amount earned; PROVIDED: That the amendatory provisions of subsection (5) of this act may be applied to payment periods prior to May 20, 1971.~~

~~(6) If the amount received by a county in reimbursement of its expenditures in a calendar year is less than the maximum amount computed under subsection (3) above, the difference may be paid to the county as reimbursement of program costs during the next two succeeding years upon receipt of valid claims for reimbursement of program expenses.~~

~~(7)) meeting the terms and conditions of the approved plan and contract. Funds received by participating counties under this chapter shall not be used to replace local funds for existing programs ((for delinquent juveniles or to develop county institutional programs.~~

~~(8) Any county averaging less than thirty commitments annually during either the two-year or five-year period used to determine the base commitment rate as defined in subsection (1) above may:~~

~~(a) apply for subsidies under subsection (1); or~~

~~(b) as an alternative, elect to receive from the state the salary of one full-time additional probation officer and related employee benefits; or~~

~~(c) elect to receive from the state the salary and related employee benefits of one full-time additional probation officer and in addition, reimbursement for certain supporting services other than capital outlay and equipment whose total will not exceed a maximum limit established by the secretary of the department of social and health services; or~~

~~(d) elect to receive from the state reimbursement for certain supporting services other than capital outlay and equipment whose total cost will not exceed a maximum limit established by the secretary of the department of social and health services.~~

~~(9) in the event a county chooses one of the alternative proposals in subsection (8), it will be eligible for reimbursement only so long as the officer and supporting services are wholly used in the performance of probation services to supervision of persons eligible for state commitment and are paid the salary referred to in this section in accordance with a salary schedule adopted by rule of the department and:~~

~~(a) if its base commitment rate is below the state average, its annual commitment rate does not exceed the base commitment rate for the entire state; or~~

~~(b) if its base commitment rate is above the state average, its annual commitment rate does not in the year exceed by two its own base commitment rate.~~

~~(10) Where any county does not have a juvenile probation officer, but obtains such services by agreement with another county or counties, or where two or more counties mutually provide probation services by agreement for such counties, then under such circumstances the secretary may make the computations and payments under this chapter as though the counties served with probation services were one geographical unit)).~~

Sec. 6. Section 57, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 5, chapter 299, Laws of 1981 and RCW 13.40.030 are each amended to read as follows:

Standards proposed for offenders listed in RCW 13.40.020(1) shall include a range of confinement which may not be less than thirty days. No standard range may include a period of confinement which includes both more than thirty, and thirty or less, days. Disposition standards proposed by the commission shall provide that in all cases where a youth is sentenced to a term of confinement in excess of thirty days the department may impose an additional period of parole not to exceed eighteen months. Standards of confinement which may be proposed may relate only to the length of the proposed terms and not to the nature of the security to be imposed. In developing proposed disposition standards between the effective date of this act and June 30, 1985, the commission shall consider the capacity of the state juvenile facilities and the projected impact of the proposed standards on that capacity through June 30, 1985.

(b) The secretary shall submit guidelines pertaining to the nature of the security to be imposed on youth placed in his or her custody based on the age, offense(s), and criminal history of the juvenile offender. Such guidelines shall be submitted to the legislature for its review no later than November 1st of each even-numbered year. At the same time the secretary shall submit a report on security at juvenile facilities during the preceding two-year period. The report shall include the number of escapes from each juvenile facility, the most serious offense for which each escapee had been confined, the number and nature of offenses found to have been committed by juveniles while on escape status, the number of authorized leaves granted, the number of failures to comply with leave requirements, the number and nature of offenses committed while on leave, and the number and nature of offenses committed by juveniles while in the community on minimum security status; to the extent this information is available to the secretary. The department shall include security status definitions in the security guidelines it submits to the legislature pursuant to this section.

(2) If the commission fails to propose disposition standards as provided in this section, the existing standards shall remain in effect and may be adopted by the legislature or referred to the commission for modification as provided in subsection (3) of this section. If the standards are referred for modification, the provisions of subsection (4) shall be applicable.

(3) The legislature may adopt the proposed standards or refer the proposed standards to the commission for modification. If the legislature fails to adopt or refer the proposed standards to the commission by February 15th of the following year, the proposed standards shall take effect without legislative approval on July 1st of that year.

(4) If the legislature refers the proposed standards to the commission for modification on or before February 15th, the commission shall resubmit the proposed modifications to the legislature no later than March 1st. The legislature may adopt or modify the resubmitted proposed standards. If the legislature fails to adopt or modify the resubmitted proposed standards by April 1st, the resubmitted proposed standards shall take effect without legislative approval on July 1st of that year.

(5) In developing and promulgating the permissible ranges of confinement under this section the commission shall be subject to the following limitations:

(a) Where the maximum term in the range is ninety days or less, the minimum term in the range may be no less than fifty percent of the maximum term in the range;

(b) Where the maximum term in the range is greater than ninety days but not greater than one year, the minimum term in the range may be no less than seventy-five percent of the maximum term in the range; and

Sec. 8. Section 70, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 13, chapter 299, Laws of 1981 and RCW 13.40.160 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When the respondent is found to be a serious offender, the court shall commit the offender to the department for the standard range of disposition for the offense.

If the court concludes, and enters reasons for its conclusion, that disposition within the standard range would effectuate a manifest injustice the court shall impose a disposition outside the standard range. The court's finding of manifest injustice shall be supported by clear and convincing evidence.

A disposition outside the standard range shall be determinate and shall be comprised of confinement or community supervision, or a combination thereof. When a judge finds a manifest injustice and imposes a sentence of confinement exceeding thirty days, the court shall sentence the juvenile to a maximum term, and the provisions of RCW 13.40.030(5), as now or hereafter amended, shall be used to determine the range. A disposition outside the standard range is appealable under RCW 13.40.230, as now or hereafter amended, by the state or the respondent. A disposition within the standard range is not appealable under RCW 13.40.230 as now or hereafter amended.

(2) Where the respondent is found to be a minor or first offender, the court shall order that the respondent serve a term of community supervision. If the court determines that a disposition of community supervision would effectuate a manifest injustice the court may impose another disposition. A disposition other than a community supervision may be imposed only after the court enters reasons upon which it bases its conclusions that imposition of community supervision would effectuate a manifest injustice. When a judge finds a manifest injustice and imposes a sentence of confinement exceeding thirty days, the court shall sentence the juvenile to a maximum term, and the provisions of RCW 13.40.030(5), as now or hereafter amended, shall be used to determine the range. The court's finding of manifest injustice shall be supported by clear and convincing evidence.

Any disposition other than community supervision may be appealed as provided in RCW 13.40.230, as now or hereafter amended, by the state or the respondent. A disposition of community supervision may not be appealed under RCW 13.40.230 as now or hereafter amended.

(3) Where a respondent is found to have committed an offense for which the respondent declined to enter into a diversion agreement, the court shall impose a term of community supervision limited to the conditions allowed in a diversion agreement as provided in RCW 13.40.080(2) as now or hereafter amended.

(4) If a respondent is found to be a middle offender:

(a) The court shall impose a determinate disposition within the standard range(s) for such offense: PROVIDED, That if the standard range includes a term of confinement exceeding thirty days, commitment shall be to the department for the standard range of confinement; or

(b) The court shall impose a determinate disposition of community supervision and/or up to thirty days confinement in which case, if confinement has been imposed, the court shall state either aggravating or mitigating factors as set forth in RCW 13.40.150 as now or hereafter amended.

(c) Only if the court concludes, and enters reasons for its conclusions, that disposition as provided in subsection (4) (a) or (b) of this section would effectuate a manifest injustice, the court shall sentence the juvenile to a maximum term, and the provisions of RCW 13.40.030(5), as now or hereafter amended, shall be used to determine the range. The court's finding of manifest injustice shall be supported by clear and convincing evidence.

(d) A disposition pursuant to subsection (4)(c) of this section is appealable under RCW 13.40.230, as now or hereafter amended, by the state or the respondent. A disposition pursuant to subsection (4) (a) or (b) of this section is not appealable under RCW 13.40.230 as now or hereafter amended.

(5) Whenever a juvenile offender is entitled to credit for time spent in detention prior to a dispositional order, the dispositional order shall specifically state the number of days of credit for time served.

(6) In its dispositional order, the court shall not suspend or defer the imposition or the execution of the disposition.

(7) In no case shall the term of confinement imposed by the court at disposition exceed that to which an adult could be subjected for the same offense.

Sec. 9. Section 73, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 69, chapter 155, Laws of 1979 and RCW 13.40.190 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In its dispositional order, the court shall require the respondent to make restitution to any persons who have suffered loss or damage as a result of the offense committed by the respondent. In addition, restitution may be ordered for loss or damage if the offender pleads guilty to a lesser offense or fewer offenses and agrees with the prosecutor's recommendation that the offender be required to pay restitution to a victim of an offense or offenses which, pursuant to a plea agreement, are not prosecuted. The payment of restitution shall be in addition to any punishment which is imposed pursuant to the other provisions of this chapter. The court may determine the amount, terms, and conditions of the restitution. If the respondent participated in the crime with another person or other persons, all such participants shall be jointly and severally responsible for the payment of restitution. The court may not require the respondent to pay full or partial restitution if the respondent reasonably satisfies the court that he or she does not have the means to make full or partial restitution and could not reasonably acquire the means to pay such restitution. In cases where an offender has been committed to the department for a period of confinement exceeding fifteen weeks, restitution may be waived.

(2) A respondent under obligation to pay restitution may petition the court for modification of the restitution order.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. There is added to chapter 13.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) A juvenile sentenced to a term of confinement to be served under the supervision of the department shall not be released from the physical custody of the department prior to the release date established under RCW 13.40.210 except as otherwise provided in this section.

(2) A juvenile serving a term of confinement under the supervision of the department may be released on authorized leave from the physical custody of the department only if consistent with public safety and if:

(a) Sixty percent of the minimum term of confinement has been served; and

(b) The purpose of the leave is to enable the juvenile:

(i) To visit the juvenile's family for the purpose of strengthening or preserving family relationships;

(ii) To make plans for parole or release which require the juvenile's personal appearance in the community and which will facilitate the juvenile's reintegration into the community; or

(iii) To make plans for a residential placement out of the juvenile's home which requires the juvenile's personal appearance in the community.

(3) No authorized leave may exceed seven consecutive days. The total of all pre-minimum term authorized leaves granted to a juvenile prior to final discharge from confinement shall not exceed thirty days.

(4) Prior to authorizing a leave, the secretary shall require a written leave plan, which shall detail the purpose of the leave and how it is to be achieved, the address at which the juvenile shall reside, the identity of the person responsible for supervising the juvenile during the leave, and a statement by such person acknowledging familiarity with the leave plan and agreeing to supervise the juvenile and to notify the secretary immediately if the juvenile violates any terms or conditions of the leave. The leave plan shall include such terms and conditions as the secretary deems appropriate and shall be signed by the juvenile.

(5) Upon authorizing a leave, the secretary shall issue to the juvenile an authorized leave order which shall contain the name of the juvenile, the fact that the juvenile is on leave from a designated facility, the time period of the leave, and the identity of an appropriate official of the department to contact when necessary. The authorized leave order shall be carried by the juvenile at all times while on leave.

(6) Prior to the commencement of any authorized leave, the secretary shall give notice of the leave to the appropriate law enforcement agency in the jurisdiction in which the juvenile will reside during the leave period. The notice shall include the identity of the juvenile, the time period of the leave, the residence of the juvenile during the leave, and the identity of the person responsible for supervising the juvenile during the leave.

(7) The secretary may authorize a leave, which shall not exceed forty-eight hours plus travel time, to meet an emergency situation such as a death or critical illness of a member of the juvenile's family. The secretary may authorize a leave, which shall not exceed the period of time medically necessary, to obtain medical care not available in a juvenile facility maintained by the department. In cases of emergency or medical leave the secretary may waive all or any portions of subsections (2)(a), (3), (4), (5), and (6) of this section.

(8) If requested by the juvenile's victim or the victim's immediate family prior to confinement, the secretary shall give notice of any leave to the victim or the victim's immediate family.

(9) A juvenile who violates any condition of an authorized leave plan may be taken into custody and returned to the department in the same manner as an adult in identical circumstances.

(10) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, a juvenile placed in minimum security status may participate in work, educational, community service, or treatment programs in the community up to twelve hours a day if approved by the secretary. Such a release shall not be deemed a leave of absence.

Sec. 11. Section 75, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 71, chapter 155, Laws of 1979 and RCW 13.40.210 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The secretary shall, except in the case of a juvenile committed by a court to a term of confinement in a state institution outside the appropriate standard range for the offense(s) for which the juvenile was found to be guilty established pursuant to RCW 13.40.030, as now or hereafter amended, set a release or discharge date for each juvenile committed to its custody which shall be within the prescribed range to which a juvenile has been committed. Such dates shall be determined prior to the expiration of sixty percent of a juvenile's minimum term of confinement included within the prescribed range to which the juvenile has been committed. The secretary shall release any juvenile committed to the custody of the department within four calendar days prior to the juvenile's release date or on the release date set under this chapter: PROVIDED, That days spent in the custody of the department shall be tolled by any period of time during which a juvenile has absented himself or herself from the department's supervision without the prior approval of the secretary or the secretary's designee.

(2) The secretary shall monitor the average daily population of the state's juvenile residential facilities. When the secretary concludes that in-residence population of residential facilities exceeds one hundred five percent of the rated bed capacity specified in statute, or in absence of such specification, as specified by the department in rule, the secretary may, until June 30, 1985, recommend reductions to the governor. On certification by the governor that the recommended reductions are necessary, the secretary may have temporary authority until June 30, 1985, to administratively release a sufficient number of offenders to reduce in-residence population to one hundred percent of rated bed capacity. The secretary shall release those offenders who have served the greatest proportion of their sentence. However, the secretary may deny release in a particular case at the request of an offender, or if the secretary finds that there is no responsible custodian, as determined by the department, to whom to release the offender, or if the release of the offender would pose a clear danger to society. The department shall notify the committing court of the release. In no event shall a serious offender, as defined in RCW 13.40.020(1) be granted release under the provisions of this subsection.

(3) Following the juvenile's release pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, the secretary may require the juvenile to comply with a program of parole to be administered by the department in his or her community which shall last no longer than eighteen months. Such a parole program shall be mandatory for offenders released under subsection (2) of this section. The secretary shall, for the period of parole, facilitate the juvenile's reintegration into his or her community and to further this goal may require the juvenile to: (a) Undergo available medical or psychiatric treatment; (b) report as directed to a parole officer; (c) pursue a course of study or vocational training; (d) remain within prescribed geographical boundaries and notify the department of any change in his or her address; and (e) refrain from committing new offenses. After termination of the parole period, the juvenile shall be discharged from the department's supervision.

((3)) (4) The department may also modify parole for violation thereof. If, after affording a juvenile all of the due process rights to which he or she would be entitled if the juvenile were an adult, the secretary finds that a juvenile has violated a condition of his or her parole, the secretary shall order one of the following which is reasonably likely to effectuate the purpose of the parole and to protect the public: (a) Continued supervision under the same conditions previously imposed; (b) intensified supervision with increased reporting requirements; (c) additional conditions of supervision authorized by this chapter; and (d) imposition of a period of confinement not to exceed thirty days in a facility operated by or pursuant to a contract with the state of Washington or any city or county for a portion of each day or for a certain number of days each week with the balance of the days or weeks spent under supervision.

((4)) (5) A parole officer of the department of social and health services shall have the power to arrest a juvenile under his or her supervision on the same grounds as a law enforcement officer would be authorized to arrest such person.

Sec. 12. Section 72.05.130, chapter 28, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 8, chapter 217, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 72.05.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The department shall establish, maintain, operate and administer a comprehensive program for the custody, care, education, treatment, instruction, guidance, control and rehabilitation of all persons who may be committed or admitted to institutions, schools, or other facilities controlled and operated by the department, except for the programs of education provided pursuant to RCW 28A.58.772 through 28A.58.776, as now or hereafter amended, which shall be established, operated and administered by the school district conducting the program, and in order to accomplish these purposes, the powers and duties of the secretary shall include the following:

(1) The assembling, analyzing, tabulating, and reproduction in report form, of statistics and other data with respect to children with behavior problems in the state of Washington, including, but not limited to, the extent, kind, and causes of such behavior problems in the different areas and population centers of the state. Such reports shall not be open to public inspection, but shall be open to the inspection of the governor and to the superior court judges of the state of Washington.

(2) The establishment and supervision of diagnostic facilities and services in connection with the custody, care, and treatment of mentally and physically handicapped, and behavior problem children who may be committed or admitted to any of the institutions, schools, or facilities controlled and operated by the department, or who may be referred for such diagnosis and treatment by any superior court of this state. Such diagnostic services may be established in connection with, or apart from, any other state institution under the supervision and direction of the secretary. Such diagnostic services shall be available to the superior courts of the state for persons referred for such services by them prior to commitment, or admission to, any school, institution, or other facility. Such diagnostic services shall also be available to other departments of the state. When the secretary determines it necessary, the secretary may create waiting lists and set priorities for use of diagnostic services for juvenile offenders on the basis of those most severely in need.

(3) The supervision of all persons committed or admitted to any institution, school, or other facility operated by the department, and the transfer of such persons from any such institution, school, or facility to any other such school, institution, or facility: PROVIDED, That where a person has been committed to a minimum security institution, school, or facility by any of the superior courts of this state, a transfer to a close security institution shall be made only with the consent and approval of such court. This shall not apply to the state school for the deaf or the state school for the blind.

(4) The supervision of parole, discharge, or other release, and the post-institutional placement of all persons committed to Green Hill school and Maple Lane school, or such as may be assigned, paroled, or transferred therefrom to other facilities operated by the department. Green Hill school and Maple Lane school are hereby designated as "close security" institutions to which shall be given the custody of children with the most serious behavior problems.

(4) Prepare predisposition studies as required in RCW 13.34.120 and 13.40.130, as now or hereafter amended, and be present at the disposition hearing to respond to questions regarding the predisposition study: PROVIDED, That such duties shall be performed by the department of social and health services for cases relating to dependency or to the termination of a parent and child relationship which is filed by the department of social and health services unless otherwise ordered by the court; and

(5) Supervise court orders of disposition to ensure that all requirements of the order are met.

All probation counselors shall possess all the powers conferred upon sheriffs and police officers to serve process and make arrests of juveniles under their supervision for the violation of any state law or county or city ordinance.

The administrator may, in any county or judicial district in the state, appoint one or more persons who shall have charge of detention rooms or houses of detention.

The probation counselors and persons appointed to have charge of detention facilities shall each receive compensation which shall be fixed by the legislative authority of the county, or in cases of joint counties, judicial districts of more than one county, or joint judicial districts such sums as shall be agreed upon by the legislative authorities of the counties affected, and such persons shall be paid as other county officers are paid.

The administrator is hereby authorized, and to the extent possible is encouraged to, contract with private agencies existing within the community for the provision of services to youthful offenders and youth who have entered into diversion agreements pursuant to RCW 13.40.080, as now or hereafter amended.

The administrator shall establish procedures for the collection of fines assessed under RCW 13.40.080 (2)(d) and (13) and for the payment of the fines into the county general fund.

Sec. 15. Section 74, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as amended by section 70, chapter 155, Laws of 1979 and RCW 13.40.200 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When a respondent fails to comply with an order of restitution, community supervision, penalty assessments, or confinement of less than thirty days, the court upon motion of the prosecutor or its own motion, may modify the order after a hearing on the violation.

(2) The hearing shall afford the respondent the same due process of law as would be afforded an adult probationer. The court may issue a summons or a warrant to compel the respondent's appearance. The state shall have the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence the fact of the violation. The respondent shall have the burden of showing that the violation was not a ~~(willful)~~ willful refusal to comply with the terms of the order. If a respondent has failed to pay a fine, penalty assessments, or restitution or to perform community service hours, as required by the court, it shall be the respondent's burden to show that he or she did not have the means and could not reasonably have acquired the means to pay the fine, penalty assessments, or restitution or perform community service.

(3) (a) If the court finds that a respondent has willfully violated the terms of an order pursuant to subsections (1) and (2) of this section, it may impose a penalty of up to thirty days confinement.

(b) If the violation of the terms of the order under (a) of this subsection is failure to pay fines, penalty assessments, complete community service, or make restitution, the term of confinement imposed under (a) of this subsection shall be assessed at a rate of one day of confinement for each twenty-five dollars or eight hours owed.

(4) If a respondent has been ordered to pay a fine or monetary penalty and due to a change of circumstance cannot reasonably comply with the order, the court, upon motion of the respondent, may order that the unpaid fine or monetary penalty be converted to community service. The number of hours of community service in lieu of a monetary penalty or fine shall be converted at the rate of the prevailing state minimum wage per hour. The monetary penalties or fines collected shall be deposited in the county general fund. A failure to comply with an order under this subsection shall be deemed a failure to comply with an order of community supervision and may be proceeded against as provided in this section.

Sec. 16. Section 62, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 8, chapter 299, Laws of 1981 and RCW 13.40.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A diversion agreement shall be a contract between a juvenile accused of an offense and a diversionary unit whereby the juvenile agrees to fulfill certain conditions in lieu of prosecution. Such agreements may be entered into only after the prosecutor, or probation counselor pursuant to this chapter, has determined that probable cause exists to believe that a crime has been committed and that the juvenile committed it.

(2) A diversion agreement shall be limited to:

(a) Community service not to exceed one hundred fifty hours, not to be performed during school hours if the juvenile is attending school;

(b) Restitution limited to the amount of actual loss incurred by the victim, and to an amount the juvenile has the means or potential means to pay; ~~((and))~~

(c) Attendance at up to two hours of counseling and/or up to ten hours of educational or informational sessions at a community agency: PROVIDED, That the state shall not be liable for costs resulting from the diversionary unit exercising the option to permit diversion agreements to mandate attendance at up to two hours of counseling and/or up to ten hours of educational or informational sessions; and

(d) A fine, not to exceed one hundred dollars. In determining the amount of the fine, the diversion unit shall consider only the juvenile's financial resources and whether the juvenile has the means to pay the fine. The diversion unit shall not consider the financial resources of the juvenile's parents, guardian, or custodian in determining the fine to be imposed.

(3) In assessing periods of community service to be performed and restitution to be paid by a juvenile who has entered into a diversion agreement, the court officer to whom this task is assigned shall to the extent possible involve members of the community. Such members of the community shall meet with the juvenile and advise the court officer as to the terms of the diversion agreement and shall supervise the juvenile in carrying out its terms.

(4) A diversion agreement may not exceed a period of six months for a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor or one year for a felony and may include a period extending beyond the eighteenth birthday of the divertee. Any restitution assessed during its term may not exceed an amount which the juvenile could be reasonably expected to pay during this period. If additional time is necessary for the juvenile to complete restitution to the victim, the time period limitations of this subsection may be extended by an additional six months.

(5) The juvenile shall retain the right to be referred to the court at any time prior to the signing of the diversion agreement.

(6) Divertees and potential divertees shall be afforded due process in all contacts with a diversionary unit regardless of whether the juveniles are accepted for diversion or whether the diversion program is successfully completed. Such due process shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

(a) A written diversion agreement shall be executed stating all conditions in clearly understandable language;

(b) Violation of the terms of the agreement shall be the only grounds for termination;

(c) No divertee may be terminated from a diversion program without being given a court hearing, which hearing shall be preceded by:

(i) Written notice of alleged violations of the conditions of the diversion program; and

(ii) Disclosure of all evidence to be offered against the divertee;

(d) The hearing shall be conducted by the juvenile court and shall include:

(i) Opportunity to be heard in person and to present evidence;

(ii) The right to confront and cross-examine all adverse witnesses;

(iii) A written statement by the court as to the evidence relied on and the reasons for termination, should that be the decision; and

(iv) Demonstration by evidence that the divertee has substantially violated the terms of his or her diversion agreement.

(e) The prosecutor may file an information on the offense for which the divertee was diverted:

(i) In juvenile court if the divertee is under eighteen years of age; or

(ii) In superior court or the appropriate court of limited jurisdiction if the divertee is eighteen years of age or older.

(7) The diversion unit shall be responsible for advising a divertee of his or her rights as provided in this chapter.

(8) The right to counsel shall inure prior to the initial interview for purposes of advising the juvenile as to whether he or she desires to participate in the diversion process or to appear in the juvenile court. The juvenile may be represented by counsel at any critical stage of the diversion process, including intake interviews and termination hearings. The juvenile shall be fully advised at the intake of his or her right to an attorney and of the relevant services an attorney can provide. For the purpose of this section, intake interviews mean all interviews regarding the diversion agreement process.

The juvenile shall be advised that a diversion agreement shall constitute a part of the juvenile's criminal history as defined by RCW 13.40.020(6) as now or hereafter amended. A signed acknowledgment of such advisement shall be obtained from the juvenile, and the document shall be maintained by the diversionary unit together with the diversion agreement, and a copy of both documents shall be delivered to the prosecutor if requested by the prosecutor. The supreme court shall promulgate rules setting forth the content of such advisement in simple language.

(9) When a juvenile enters into a diversion agreement, the juvenile court may receive only the following information for dispositional purposes:

- (a) The fact that a charge or charges were made;
- (b) The fact that a diversion agreement was entered into;
- (c) The juvenile's obligations under such agreement;
- (d) Whether the alleged offender performed his or her obligations under such agreement;

and

- (e) The facts of the alleged offense.

(10) A diversionary unit may refuse to enter into a diversion agreement with a juvenile. It shall immediately refer such juvenile to the court for action and shall forward to the court the criminal complaint and a detailed statement of its reasons for refusing to enter into a diversion agreement. The diversionary unit shall also immediately refer the case to the prosecuting attorney for action if such juvenile ~~((fails to make restitution or perform community service as required by))~~ violates the terms of the diversion agreement.

(11) A diversionary unit may, in instances where it determines that the act or omission of an act for which a juvenile has been referred to it involved no victim, or where it determines that the juvenile referred to it has no prior criminal history and is alleged to have committed an illegal act involving no threat of or instance of actual physical harm and involving not more than fifty dollars in property loss or damage and that there is no loss outstanding to the person or firm suffering such damage or loss, counsel and release or release such a juvenile without entering into a diversion agreement: PROVIDED, That any juvenile so handled shall be advised that the act or omission of any act for which he or she had been referred shall constitute a part of the juvenile's criminal history as defined by RCW 13.40.020(6) as now or hereafter amended. A signed acknowledgment of such advisement shall be obtained from the juvenile, and the document shall be maintained by the unit, and a copy of the document shall be delivered to the prosecutor if requested by the prosecutor. The supreme court shall promulgate rules setting forth the content of such advisement in simple language: PROVIDED FURTHER, That a juvenile determined to be eligible by a diversionary unit for such release shall retain the same right to counsel and right to have his or her case referred to the court for formal action as any other juvenile referred to the unit.

(12) A diversion unit may supervise the fulfillment of a diversion agreement entered into before the juvenile's eighteenth birthday and which includes a period extending beyond the diveree's eighteenth birthday.

(13) If a fine required by a diversion agreement cannot reasonably be paid due to a change of circumstance, the diversion agreement may be modified at the request of the diveree and with the concurrence of the diversion unit to convert an unpaid fine into community service. The modification of the diversion agreement shall be in writing and signed by the diveree and the diversion unit. The number of hours of community service in lieu of a monetary penalty shall be converted at the rate of the prevailing state minimum wage per hour.

(14) Fines imposed under this section shall be collected and paid into the county general fund in accordance with procedures established by the juvenile court administrator under RCW 13.04.040 and may be used only for juvenile services. In the expenditure of funds for juvenile services, there shall be a maintenance of effort whereby counties exhaust existing resources before using amounts collected under this section.

(15) The authority to impose and collect fines under this section shall terminate on June 30, 1985.

Sec. 17. Section 1, chapter 170, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. as last amended by section 17, chapter 299, Laws of 1981 and RCW 13.40.300 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In no case may a juvenile offender be committed by the juvenile court to the department of social and health services for placement in a juvenile correctional institution beyond the juvenile offender's twenty-first birthday. A juvenile may be under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court or the authority of the department of social and health services beyond the juvenile's eighteenth birthday only if prior to the juvenile's eighteenth birthday:

(a) The juvenile court has committed the juvenile offender to the department of social and health services for a sentence consisting of the standard range of disposition for the offense and the sentence includes a period beyond the juvenile offender's eighteenth birthday; or

(b) The juvenile court has committed the juvenile offender to the department of social and health services for a sentence outside the standard range of disposition for the offense and the sentence includes a period beyond the juvenile's eighteenth birthday and the court by written order setting forth its reasons extends jurisdiction of juvenile court over the juvenile offender for that period; or

(c) Proceedings are pending seeking the adjudication of a juvenile offense or seeking a disposition order or the enforcement of such an order and the court by written order setting forth its reasons extends jurisdiction of juvenile court over the juvenile beyond his or her eighteenth birthday.

(2) If the juvenile court previously has extended jurisdiction beyond the juvenile offender's eighteenth birthday and that period of extension has not expired, the court may further extend jurisdiction by written order setting forth its reasons.

(3) In no event may the juvenile court have authority to extend jurisdiction over any juvenile offender beyond the juvenile offender's twenty-first birthday.

~~((3))~~ (4) Notwithstanding any extension of jurisdiction over a person pursuant to this section, the juvenile court has no jurisdiction over any offenses alleged to have been committed by a person eighteen years of age or older.

Sec. 18. Section 61, chapter 291, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. as last amended by section 7, chapter 299, Laws of 1981 and RCW 13.40.070 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Complaints referred to the juvenile court alleging the commission of an offense shall be referred directly to the prosecutor. The prosecutor, upon receipt of a complaint, shall screen the complaint to determine whether:

(a) The alleged facts bring the case within the jurisdiction of the court; and

(b) On a basis of available evidence there is probable cause to believe that the juvenile did commit the offense.

(2) If the identical alleged acts constitute an offense under both the law of this state and an ordinance of any city or county of this state, state law shall govern the prosecutor's screening and charging decision for both filed and diverted cases.

(3) If the requirements of subsections (1) (a) and (b) of this section are met, the prosecutor shall either file an information in juvenile court or divert the case, as set forth in subsections ~~((4))~~ (5) ~~(and)~~, (6), and (7) of this section. If the prosecutor neither files nor diverts the case, he shall maintain a record, for one year, of such decision and the reasons therefor. In lieu of filing an information or diverting an offense a prosecutor may file a motion to modify community supervision where such offense constitutes a violation of community supervision.

~~((3))~~ (4) An information shall be a plain, concise, and definite written statement of the essential facts constituting the offense charged. It shall be signed by the prosecuting attorney and conform to chapter 10.37 RCW.

~~((4))~~ (5) Where a case is legally sufficient, the prosecutor shall file an information with the juvenile court if:

(a) An alleged offender is accused of a class A felony, a class B felony, an attempt to commit a class B felony, assault in the third degree, rape in the third degree, or any other offense listed in RCW 13.40.020(1) (b) or (c); or

(b) An alleged offender is accused of a felony and has a criminal history of at least one class A or class B felony, or two class C felonies, or at least two gross misdemeanors, or at least two misdemeanors and one additional misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor, or at least one class C felony and one misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor; or

(c) An alleged offender has been referred by a diversion unit for prosecution or desires prosecution instead of diversion.

~~((5))~~ (6) Where a case is legally sufficient the prosecutor shall divert the case if the alleged offense is a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor or violation and the alleged offense(s) in combination with the alleged offender's criminal history do not exceed three offenses or violations and do not include any felonies: PROVIDED, That if the alleged offender is charged with a related offense that must or may be filed under subsections ~~((4))~~ (5) and ~~((6))~~ (7) of this section, a case under this subsection may also be filed.

~~((6))~~ (7) Where a case is legally sufficient and falls into neither subsection ~~((4))~~ (5) nor ~~((5))~~ (6) of this section, it may be filed or diverted. In deciding whether to file or divert an offense under this section the prosecutor shall be guided only by the length, seriousness, and recency of the alleged offender's criminal history and the circumstances surrounding the commission of the alleged offense.

~~((7))~~ (8) Whenever a juvenile is placed in custody or, where not placed in custody, referred to a diversionary interview, the parent or legal guardian of the juvenile shall be notified as soon as possible concerning the allegation made against the juvenile and the current status of the juvenile.

~~((8))~~ (9) The responsibilities of the prosecutor under subsections (1) through ~~((7))~~ (8) of this section may be performed by a juvenile court probation counselor for any complaint referred to the court alleging the commission of an offense which would not be a felony if committed by an adult, if the prosecutor has given sufficient written notice to the juvenile court that the prosecutor will not review such complaints.

Sec. 19, Section 9, chapter 155, Laws of 1979 as amended by section 19, chapter 299, Laws of 1981 and RCW 13.50.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) This section governs records relating to the commission of juvenile offenses, including records relating to diversions.

(2) The official juvenile court file of any alleged or proven juvenile offender shall be open to public inspection, unless sealed pursuant to subsection (11) of this section.

(3) All records other than the official juvenile court file are confidential and may be released only as provided in this section and RCW 13.50.010.

(4) Except as otherwise provided in this section and RCW 13.50.010, records retained or produced by any juvenile justice or care agency may be released to other participants in the juvenile justice or care system only when an investigation or case involving the juvenile in question is being pursued by the other participant or when that other participant is assigned the responsibility for supervising the juvenile.

(5) Information not in an official juvenile court file concerning a juvenile or a juvenile's family may be released to the public only when that information could not reasonably be expected to identify the juvenile or the juvenile's family.

(6) Notwithstanding any other provision of this chapter, the release, to the juvenile or his or her attorney, of law enforcement and prosecuting attorneys' records pertaining to investigation, diversion, and prosecution of juvenile offenses shall be governed by the rules of discovery and other rules of law applicable in adult criminal investigations and prosecutions.

(7) The juvenile court and the prosecutor may set up and maintain a central record-keeping system which may receive information on all alleged juvenile offenders against whom a complaint has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.070 whether or not their cases are currently pending before the court. The central record-keeping system may be computerized. If a complaint has been referred to a diversion unit, the diversion unit shall promptly report to the juvenile court or the prosecuting attorney when the juvenile has agreed to diversion. An offense shall not be reported as criminal history in any central record-keeping system without notification by the diversion unit of the date on which the offender agreed to diversion.

(8) Upon request of the victim of a crime or the victim's immediate family, the identity of an alleged or proven juvenile offender alleged or found to have committed a crime against the victim and the identity of the alleged or proven juvenile offender's parent, guardian, or custodian and the circumstance of the alleged or proven crime shall be released to the victim of the crime or the victim's immediate family.

(9) Subject to the rules of discovery applicable in adult criminal prosecutions, the juvenile offense records of an adult criminal defendant or witness in an adult criminal proceeding may be released to prosecution and defense counsel after a charge has actually been filed. The juvenile offense records of any adult convicted of a crime and placed under the supervision of the adult corrections system may be released to the adult corrections system.

(10) In any case in which an information has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.100 or a complaint has been filed with the prosecutor and referred for diversion pursuant to RCW 13.40.070, the person the subject of the information or complaint may file a motion with the court to have the court vacate its order and findings, if any, and order the sealing of the official juvenile court file, the social file, and records of the court and of any other agency in the case.

(11) The court shall grant the motion to seal records made pursuant to subsection (10) of this section if it finds that:

(a) Two years have elapsed from the later of: (i) Final discharge of the person from the supervision of any agency charged with supervising juvenile offenders; or (ii) from the entry of a court order relating to the commission of a juvenile offense or a criminal offense;

(b) No proceeding is pending against the moving party seeking the conviction of a juvenile offense or a criminal offense; and

(c) No proceeding is pending seeking the formation of a diversion agreement with that person.

(12) The person making a motion pursuant to subsection (10) of this section shall give reasonable notice of the motion to the prosecution and to any person or agency whose files are sought to be sealed.

(13) If the court grants the motion to seal made pursuant to subsection (10) of this section, it shall order sealed the official juvenile court file, the social file, and other records relating to the case as are named in the order. Thereafter, the proceedings in the case shall be treated as if they never occurred, and the subject of the records may reply accordingly to any inquiry about the events, records of which are sealed. Any agency shall reply to any inquiry concerning confidential or sealed records that records are confidential, and no information can be given about the existence or nonexistence of records concerning an individual.

(14) Inspection of the files and records included in the order to seal may thereafter be permitted only by order of the court upon motion made by the person who is the subject of the information or complaint, except as otherwise provided in RCW 13.50.010(8).

(15) Any adjudication of a juvenile offense or a crime subsequent to sealing has the effect of nullifying the sealing order.

(16) In any case in which an information has been filed pursuant to RCW 13.40.100 or a complaint has been filed with the prosecutor and referred for diversion pursuant to RCW 13.40.070, the person who is the subject of the information or complaint may file a motion with the court to have the court vacate its order and findings, if any, and order the destruction of the official juvenile court file, the social file, and records of the court and of any other agency in the case.

(17) The court may grant the motion to destroy records made pursuant to subsection (16) of this section if it finds:

(a) The person making the motion is at least twenty-three years of age;

(b) The person has not subsequently been convicted of a felony;

(c) No proceeding is pending against that person seeking the conviction of a criminal offense; and

(d) The person has never been found guilty of a serious offense.

(18) A person eighteen years of age or older whose criminal history consists of only one referral for diversion may request that the court order the records in that case destroyed. The request shall be granted if the court finds that two years have elapsed since completion of the diversion agreement.

(19) If the court grants the motion to destroy records made pursuant to subsection (16) or (18) of this section, it shall order the official juvenile court file, the social file, and any other records named in the order to be destroyed.

(20) The person making the motion pursuant to subsection (16) or (18) of this section shall give reasonable notice of the motion to the prosecuting attorney and to any agency whose records are sought to be destroyed.

(21) Any juvenile to whom the provisions of this section may apply shall be given written notice of his or her rights under this section at the time of his or her disposition hearing or during the diversion process.

(22) Nothing in this section may be construed to prevent a crime victim or a member of the victim's family from divulging the identity of the alleged or proven juvenile offender or his or her family when necessary in a civil proceeding.

(23) Any juvenile justice or care agency may, subject to the limitations in subparagraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection, develop procedures for the routine destruction of records relating to juvenile offenses and diversions.

(a) Records may be routinely destroyed only when the person the subject of the information or complaint has attained twenty-three years of age or older, or is eighteen years of age or older and his or her criminal history consists entirely of one diversion agreement and two years have passed since completion of the agreement.

(b) The court may not routinely destroy the official juvenile court file or recordings or transcripts of any proceedings.

Sec. 20. Section 10, chapter 155, Laws of 1979 and RCW 13.50.100 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) This section governs records not covered by RCW 13.50.050.

(2) Records covered by this section shall be confidential and shall be released only pursuant to this section and RCW 13.50.010.

(3) Records retained or produced by any juvenile justice or care agency may be released to other participants in the juvenile justice or care system only when an investigation or case involving the juvenile in question is being pursued by the other participant or when that other participant is assigned the responsibility of supervising the juvenile. Records covered under this section and maintained by the juvenile courts which relate to the official actions of the agency may be entered in the state-wide juvenile court information system.

(4) A juvenile, his or her parents, the juvenile's attorney and the juvenile's parent's attorney, shall, upon request, be given access to all records and information collected or retained by a juvenile justice or care agency which pertain to the juvenile except:

(a) If it is determined by the agency that release of this information is likely to cause severe psychological or physical harm to the juvenile or his or her parents the agency may withhold the information subject to other order of the court: PROVIDED, That if the court determines that limited release of the information is appropriate, the court may specify terms and conditions for the release of the information; or

(b) If the information or record has been obtained by a juvenile justice or care agency in connection with the provision of counseling, psychological, psychiatric, or medical services to the juvenile, and the juvenile has a legal right to receive those services without the consent of any person or agency, then the information or record may not be disclosed to the juvenile's parents without the informed consent of the juvenile.

(5) A juvenile or his or her parent denied access to any records following an agency determination under subsection (4) of this section may file a motion in juvenile court requesting access to the records. The court shall grant the motion unless it finds access may not be permitted according to the standards found in subsections (4) (a) and (b) of this section.

(6) The person making a motion under subsection (5) of this section shall give reasonable notice of the motion to all parties to the original action and to any agency whose records will be affected by the motion.

(7) Subject to the rules of discovery in civil cases, any party to a proceeding seeking a declaration of dependency or a termination of the parent-child relationship and any party's counsel and the guardian ad litem of any party, shall have access to the records of any natural or adoptive child of the parent, subject to the limitations in subsection (4) of this section.

(8) Information concerning a juvenile or a juvenile's family contained in records covered by this section may be released to the public only when that information could not reasonably be expected to identify the juvenile or the juvenile's family.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 21. Section 7, chapter 214, Laws of 1959, section 203, chapter 141, Laws of 1979, section 94, chapter 136, Laws of 1981 and RCW 72.13.070 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 22. There is added to chapter 13.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Notwithstanding the provisions of RCW 13.04.115, the secretary, with the consent of the secretary of the department of corrections, has the authority to transfer a juvenile presently or hereafter committed to the department of social and health services to the department of corrections for appropriate institutional placement in accordance with this section.

(2) The secretary of the department of social and health services may, with the consent of the secretary of the department of corrections, transfer a juvenile offender to the department of corrections if it is established at a hearing before a review board that continued placement of the juvenile offender in an institution for juvenile offenders presents a continuing and serious threat to the safety of others in the institution. The department of social and health services shall establish rules for the conduct of the hearing, including provision of counsel for the juvenile offender.

(3) A juvenile offender transferred to an institution operated by the department of corrections shall not remain in such an institution beyond the maximum term of confinement imposed by the juvenile court.

(4) A juvenile offender who has been transferred to the department of corrections under this section may, in the discretion of the secretary of the department of social and health services and with the consent of the secretary of the department of corrections, be transferred from an institution operated by the department of corrections to a facility for juvenile offenders deemed appropriate by the secretary.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 23. There is added to chapter 13.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A juvenile offender ordered to serve a term of confinement with the department of social and health services who is subsequently sentenced to the department of corrections may, with the consent of the department of corrections, be transferred by the secretary of social and health services to the department of corrections to serve the balance of the term of confinement ordered by the juvenile court. The juvenile and adult sentences shall be served consecutively. In no case shall the secretary credit time served as a result of an adult conviction against the term of confinement ordered by the juvenile court.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 24. Section 1 of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Senator McManus: "Senator Pullen, I can't speak to whether it will receive first priority. I think if there are funds available that the administration of the department, within their given rules and regulations as formulated by this body, would have the authority to use those funds wherever they felt there was a priority issue. I think what we are talking about here is to the extent that funds are available within the developmentally disabled area."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Fleming: "A point of personal privilege. Mr. President and members of the Senate. I would just like to share a couple of things with you on this point of personal privilege. Last night, Senator Pullen made an indication as if he was being overworked by the number of nights or hours that we were spending until ten o'clock. I realize, sometimes, Senator Pullen talks so long so many times, sometimes his memory gets a little foggy, so I just wanted to share with you some other times--as far as we being in until ten o'clock last night.

"In 1981, on the 92nd day, we worked twelve hours and fifty-five minutes--from 10:30 a.m. to 11:25 p.m. On the 93rd day, we worked twelve hours and twenty minutes--from 10:30 a.m. to 10:50 p.m. On the 94th day, we worked from 10:30 a.m. to 11:30 p.m.--thirteen hours. On the 99th day, we worked from 10:00 a.m. to 12:05 a.m.--fourteen hours and five minutes. On the 100th day, we worked from 10:30 a.m. to 11:00 p.m.--twelve hours and thirty minutes. On the 102nd day, we worked from 8:00 a.m. to 11:58 p.m.--fifteen hours and fifty-eight minutes. On the 103rd day, we worked from 9:00 a.m. to 1:05 a.m.--sixteen hours and five minutes. On the 104th day, we worked from 9:30 a.m. to 3:08 a.m.--seventeen hours and thirty-eight minutes.

"So, Senator Pullen, I want you to understand that working and trying to get things out of the legislature is not new and we have only gone to ten o'clock a few nights. I think Senator Bottiger and Senator Shinpoch have done a pretty good job of managing and getting as much, if not more, good legislation through the legislature in that time period. I don't think that ten hours was that long."

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1035, by Committee on Labor (originally sponsored by Representative R. King)

Authorizing collective bargaining for state patrol officers on non-wage issues.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 1035 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Patterson: "Senator Vognild, I haven't read the bill in detail, but I was looking at the summary and there is no mention as to whether or not there comes a point in time in all matters not relating to salaries and wages. Would there be authority for the state patrol to strike over these other grievances?"

Senator Vognild: "No, Senator Patterson. In fact, there probably is no actual law right now that says they cannot strike. If this bill passes, they will be put under the same provisions of binding arbitration that the other police and fire units are. That provision contains a strong no strike language."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 1035.

The community college district board of trustees shall have responsibility for the final decision as to whether a financial emergency exists, whether a reduction-in-force should occur, or what the magnitude of such reduction-in-force should be. Said tenured or probationary faculty members will have a right to request a formal hearing when being dismissed pursuant to ((~~subsections (1) and (2) of~~)) this section. This recycling project shall utilize ecology conservation corps members in the establishment of recycling collection routes. As a function of this program, the department shall develop and produce, or contract to have developed and produced, a compartmentalized source separation container which may be used within the homes of a community for source separation of recyclable materials such as bottles, cans, paper, and other such materials. A public information process shall be undertaken to inform the residents of a selected community, town, or city, as identified by the director, of the nature of the project. This advisory committee shall monitor the development of the project and advise on various policy matters. These may include the appropriate use of collected funds and the feasibility of involvement of the conservation corps in other elements of the recycling system, such as providing labor to recycling centers for the various tasks associated with recycling, the appropriate disbursement of recycled materials generated through the recycling collection routes, and other matters as they develop. Consistent with its monitoring function, the committee shall assist the director in the development of a report to the legislature discussing the feasibility of the program and any problems encountered, the appropriateness of utilization of conservation corps members in such a community recycling project, generation of funds and costs, and the possibility of expansion of the program on a broader scale. The director shall present such a report to the legislature within two years after the effective date of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The state historic preservation officer shall review the state and national registers of historic places to identify publicly owned historic properties and sites within the state which are in need of rehabilitation or renovation and which could utilize ecology conservation corps members in such rehabilitation or renovation. Any such tasks shall be performed in such a way as not to conflict with the historic character of the structure as determined by the state historic preservation officer.

Conservation corps members shall be made available for tasks identified by the state historic preservation officer in the rehabilitation and renovation of historic sites within the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The director shall develop a position of conservation corps coordinator, who shall be responsible for overall administration of the ecology conservation corps. The primary role of the conservation corps coordinator shall be the pursuit of agreements with other public entities, including federal, state, and local agencies, as well as with private, non-profit, resource conservation-related entities, for the provision of conservation corps services to projects which provide both a meaningful work experience and a worthwhile public benefit. Reimbursement for the cost of providing such services shall be required to the maximum extent possible. However, where such reimbursement is not available, conservation corps services may be provided without cost.

The conservation corps coordinator shall also, to the extent possible, be responsible for selection and retention of personnel and development of agreements with the community college system for provision of basic academic skills. Where other state resource agencies with conservation corps programs established by sections 3, 13, 19, 25, 31, and 37 of this act so request, the conservation corps coordinator may provide community college system coordinative services to these agencies.

(c) Making outdoor and historic resources of the state available for public enjoyment;

(d) Teaching of the workings of natural, environmental, and biological systems, as well as basic employment skills;

(e) Assisting agencies in carrying out statutory assignments with limited funding resources; and

(f) Providing needed public services in both urban and rural settings.

(3) Specific work project areas of the conservation corps may include habitat development, land clearing, construction projects, noxious weed control, brush cutting, reader board construction, painting, cleaning and repair of rearing ponds, fishtrap construction, brush clearance, spawning channel restoration to the extent that such restoration does not conflict with similar projects of the department of fisheries, log removal, nest box maintenance and cleaning, fence building, winter game feeding and herding, and such other projects as the director may determine. If appropriate facilities are available, the director may authorize carrying out projects which involve overnight stays.

(4) The department shall avoid displacement of regular employees of the department.

(5) The director may adopt rules to carry out the purposes of this chapter. The director shall prepare a report concerning the activities of the corps members, costs and benefits of tasks completed, and progress towards accomplishing the purposes of this chapter. (6) The conservation corps shall use the youth employment exchange or, in its absence, other appropriate programs of the employment security department for recruitment of corps members.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. Conservation corps members shall be unemployed residents of the state between eighteen and twenty-five years of age at the time of enrollment who are citizens or lawful permanent residents of the United States. The age requirements may be waived by the department for members with special leadership or occupational skills; such members shall be given special responsibility for providing leadership, character development, and sense of community responsibility to the corps members, groups, and work crews to which they are assigned. Special effort shall be made to recruit minority and disadvantaged youth who meet selection criteria of the conservation corps. Enrollment shall be for a period of six months which may be extended by mutual agreement of the corps and the corps member. The motion by Senator Guess carried and the amendment to the amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Haley moved adoption of the following amendment to the amendment:

Amend the Senate amendment as follows:

Beginning on page 4, line 35 of the amendment, strike all of the material after the colon on line 35 and insert:

"PROVIDED, That eighty percent of the expenditures for conservation corps programs is to be used for residential conservation corps programs, or alternatively, eighty percent of conservation corps personnel are to be involved in residential conservation corps programs."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Haley to the Hughes amendment.

The motion by Senator Haley failed and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted.

MOTION

Senator Williams moved the following amendments to the amendment be considered and adopted simultaneously:

Amend the amendment as follows:

On page 10 of the amendment, strike all of Sec. 10.

On page 35 of the amendment, following line 1, insert a new section to read as follows:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 44. The state historic preservation officer shall review the state and national registers of historic places to identify publicly owned historic properties and sites within the state which are in need of rehabilitation or renovation and which could utilize conservation corps members in such rehabilitation or renovation. Any such task shall be performed in such a way as not to conflict with the historic character of the structure as determined by the state historic preservation officer.

Conservation corps members shall be made available for tasks identified by the state historic preservation officer in the rehabilitation and renovation of historic sites within the state."

Re-number the remaining sections accordingly.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Williams, while we are in the process of adopting-- and rather than waiting and talking in the third reading--in the last two or three lines of that amendment, it says 'conservation corps members shall be made available for tasks identified by the state historic preservation officer in the rehabilitation and renovating of historic sites within the state.' The first question that I would like to ask, where is the money going to come from for that renovation?"

Senator Williams: "Senator, I don't know. I am not a participant in sponsoring this bill or having developed it. The amendment doesn't speak to where those sources of funds will come from."

Guess: "The second question I would ask then--Senator Hughes, would you answer that question?"

Senator Hughes: "Yes, Senator Guess. The budget will reference a total amount of five million dollars for the civilian conservation corps to be broken down by the following basis--thirty-three percent to go to the Department of Ecology; twenty-two percent to go to the Department of Natural Resources; eleven percent to the Department of Agriculture, eleven to Game, eleven to Fisheries and eleven to Parks. These are percentages worked out with the various department heads and they are referenced in the budget."

Senator Guess: "I was curious--if a structure was on the historic preservation list or the natural register and it was, also, owned by a private person, could the employees--the conservation corps members--use state money to rehabilitate that particular structure for and in behalf and to the benefit of the private citizen who lived there?"

Senator Williams: "If I might answer that. My answer would be 'no' to that. The state funds cannot be used for the benefit of private structures--historic structures--owned by private citizens. State funds cannot be used for that."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Clarke, the word "shall" on the first line of the last paragraph of the second amendment was changed to "may."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Hayner: "A point of order, Mr. President. I have some concern about this amendment, because there is some doubt as to how it applies. I would bring up the question of scope and object on this amendment."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, further consideration of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3624 was deferred.

MOTION TO WITHDRAW POINT OF ORDER

On motion of Senator Zimmerman, and there being no objection, the Point of Order raised on April 16, 1983, on the amendment relating to Substitute House Bill No. 359 was withdrawn.

MOTION

At 2:11 p.m., on motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate recessed until 5:00 p.m.

SECOND AFTERNOON SESSION

The President called the Senate to order at 5:00 p.m.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Haley: "A point of personal privilege. I think a complaint is in order about the last two hours that the majority party has kept the minority party sitting around doing nothing on a beautiful Sunday afternoon when it would have been nice to have been home spending time with family. I just hope it doesn't happen again."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate resumed consideration of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3624 and the pending striking amendment by Senator Hughes and the pending amendments to the amendment by Senator Williams, deferred earlier this afternoon.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hayner: "Senator Hughes, in section 44 of Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3624, it states that the state historic preservation officer shall review the state natural register to identify publicly-owned historic property and sites within the state which are in need of rehabilitation or renovation. In the event that these properties are city or county property, I would assume that it is your intention that the state historical preservation officer would confer with those city and county groups to see if they were in accord with whatever was being suggested."

Senator Hughes: "Senator Hayner, I would agree totally and particularly if there is any litigation involved. I would think that would be incumbent upon the officer to do so and that is certainly the intention of this bill."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Hayner, and there being no objection, the Point of Order raised earlier this afternoon on the amendment relating to Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3624 was withdrawn.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendments by Senator Williams to the Hughes amendment.

The motion by Senator Williams carried and the amendments to the amendment were adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Hughes amendment, as amended.

The motion by Senator Hughes carried and the amendment, as amended was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Hughes, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "conservation;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "creating new sections; adding a new chapter to Title 90 RCW; adding a new chapter to Title 77 RCW; adding a new chapter to Title 79 RCW; adding a new chapter to Title 75 RCW; adding a new chapter to Title 15 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 43.51 RCW; adding a new section to chapter 41.06 RCW; and adding a new section to chapter 50.08 RCW."

On motion of Senator Hughes, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3624 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hurley: "Senator Hughes, I have seen some of the improvements in state parks--the trails, the bridges and things like this that we still have existing at this time. I know that all the benefits aren't just visible, but many of those benefits accrued to the workers themselves in many ways. I wonder if you can tell me if there is sufficient criteria in this bill to provide the discipline and the character development and the actual really good clear-cut work experience that some of these young people need."

Senator Hughes: "Thank you, Senator Hurley. I think that anybody who was present at the testimony before the Parks and Ecology Committee could not help but be moved by the very strong statements made by people who are now senior citizens--who were really given a second opportunity. Not to disagree with a single word of Senator Quigg, I think that the private sector, also, should be encouraged to develop a program like that. I would certainly lend my support to that. I think in a time when we have near record unemployment and in some areas of this state we have unemployment rivaling the levels of the depression, it is important that we provide work opportunity.

"Senator Hurley, in this bill, there is criteria for encouragement and advancement in their educational opportunities--for understanding and pursuing actively the efforts to conserve and preserve the resources of this state--the stressing of the importance of high moral character in group activity, so I think that the real benefits, in this state, will accrue for generation after generation. I strongly urge that you lend your support to this."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3624.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Second Substitute Senate Bill No. 3624, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 41; nays, 06; absent, 01; excused, 01.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Hansen, Hayner, Hughes, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McDermott, McManus, Metcalf, Moore, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Quigg, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 41.

Absent: Senator Hemstad - 1.

On page 1, line 10, after "actions" insert "for the sole purpose of determining if the personnel file contains irrelevant or erroneous information"

On motion of Senator Vognild, the following amendment by Senators Vognild and Hayner was adopted:

On page 1, section 2, line 12, after the word "file" add "at the employer's place of business or"

On motion of Senator Vognild, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 446, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Fuller: "Senator Vognild, it says 'every employer shall'--and so on. Does this mean that employers who hire a great many persons on a casual basis will be forced to set up and maintain a personnel file of some kind?"

Senator Vognild: "No, Senator Fuller. What it means is that every employer who does, in the course of business maintain files, must allow the employee to inspect those files. It does not instruct any employer to maintain files if they do not now do it."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 446, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 446, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 30; nays, 18; absent, 00; excused, 01.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 446, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 239, deferred April 16, 1983.

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 239, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Peterson: "Senator Talmadge, I raised the point when we had this bill under discussion--about in small communities where, perhaps, you only have one polling place--would this preclude, for instance, a campaign sign or that type of activity within three hundred feet of the polling place?"

Senator Talmadge: "My answer to that, Senator Peterson, would be 'no.' The reason for that is--first, it applies only to public property, not to private property. The person who had a yard sign in their yard, this bill would not affect that. Secondly, if you use the measurement of three hundred feet from the polling place, itself, as opposed to--say the school building or the church or the community center or where the polling took place--three hundred feet and one hundred feet may be pretty close to a wash."

Senator Peterson: "Then, it wouldn't preclude a yard sign or a sign in a window or something within three hundred feet of the polling place?"

Senator Talmadge: "No, it would not preclude a yard sign. If someone was parked in a parking lot with a sticker on the car, if that was not done for intentionally political purposes, I would suspect that this bill does not affect that either."

Further debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 239, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 239, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 03; absent, 00; excused, 01.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McManus, Metcalf, Moore, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Sellar, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 45.

Voting nay: Senators Hughes, Quigg, von Reichbauer - 3.

Excused: Senator Pullen - 1.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 239, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute House Bill No. 359 and the pending amendment by Senator Moore on page 11, after line 28, deferred April 16, 1983.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Moore.

The motion by Senator Moore carried and the amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator McManus, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 8 of the title, after "18 RCW;" insert "adding a new section to chapter 18.29 RCW;" and on line 12, after "43.24.085" insert "; repealing section 29, chapter 16, Laws of 1923, section 2, chapter 47, Laws of 1969, section 31, chapter 158, Laws of 1979 and RCW 18.29.030; and declaring an emergency"

On motion of Senator McManus, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 359, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Zimmerman: "Senator McManus, in connection with the amendment we did adopt, which deals with the testing of dental hygienists, do you see this as a beginning or an opening of the door to the full licensure beyond what their present scope of licensure does allow and do you see this as sort of an adopting of the bill that we had on the other side of the building?"

Senator McManus: "Thank you, Senator Zimmerman. No, I do not see this as opening the door for dental hygienists to achieve licensure. What this does is take care of some housekeeping that was required that probably should have been done in the House, but it slipped through the cracks and we are doing it here in the Senate. In no way does this detour from what this bill tries to gain, which is to set up this criteria to make it very explicit on what a group has to do to attain licensure from the state legislature."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 359, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 359, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; nays, 01; absent, 00; excused, 01.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 420, by Representatives Niemi, J. Williams and Belcher (by Cemetery Board request)

Changing the calculation of fees for the issuance of certification of authority by the cemetery board.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Vognilid moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Vognilid and Bender:

On page 1, after line 21, insert the following:

"Sec. 2. Section 5, chapter 99, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 11, chapter 21, Laws of 1979 and RCW 68.05.255 are each amended to read as follows:

Prior to the sale or transfer of ownership or control of any cemetery authority, any person, corporation or other legal entity desiring to acquire such ownership or control shall apply in writing for a new certificate of authority to operate a cemetery and shall comply with all provisions of Title 68 RCW relating to applications for, and the basis for granting, an original certificate of authority. The board shall, in addition, enter any order deemed necessary for the protection of all endowment care funds and/or prearrangement trust fund during such transfer. As a condition of applying for a new certificate of authority, the entity desiring to acquire such ownership or control must agree to be bound by all then existing prearrangement contracts and the board shall enter that agreement as a condition of the transfer: PROVIDED, That if the board determines that it is in the public interest it may waive or condition the entity's assumption of those preexisting prearrangement contracts which are for cemetery merchandise or services when the entity seeking the certificate of authority obtains ownership from a federal or state chartered bank, savings and loan association, or credit union which acquired ownership or control of a cemetery through foreclosure of a first lien mortgage or deed of trust pursuant to chapter 61.12 or 61.24 RCW: PROVIDED FURTHER, That a waiver shall not be granted if the bank, savings and loan association, or credit union was a party to or participated in the operation or control of the cemetery authority which incurred those obligations.

Persons and business entities selling and persons and business entities purchasing ownership or control of a cemetery authority shall each file an endowment care fund report and/or a prearrangement trust fund report showing the status of such funds immediately before and immediately after such transfer on a written report form prescribed by the board. Failure to comply with this section shall be a gross misdemeanor and any sale or transfer in violation of this section shall be void."

The motion by Senator Vognild carried and the amendment was adopted.

Providing for the registration of bonds.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

Senator Thompson moved the following Committee on Local Government amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The purposes of this chapter are to permit the state and local governments to conform with registration requirements of federal law which are necessary to exempt interest payments from federal income taxes when the state or local governments issue bonds or incur other obligations and to authorize the establishment and maintenance of differing systems of registering bonds and other obligations as these systems are developed and recognized, which may be instituted, discontinued, and reinstated from time to time. It is further the purpose of this chapter to grant local governments an alternative flexible authority to structure and sell their bond issues and to include a variety of features on their bonds.

This act shall be liberally construed to effect its purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Bond" means any agreement which may or may not be represented by a physical instrument, including notes, warrants, or certificates of indebtedness, that evidences an indebtedness of the state or a local government or a fund thereof, where the state or local government agrees to pay a specified amount of money, with or without interest, at a designated time or times to either registered owners or bearers.

(2) "Local government" means any county, city, town, special purpose district, political subdivision, municipal corporation, or quasi municipal corporation, including any public corporation created by such an entity.

(3) "Obligation" means an agreement that evidences an indebtedness of the state or a local government, other than a bond, and includes, but is not limited to, conditional sales contracts, lease obligations, and promissory notes.

(4) "State" includes the state, agencies of the state, and public corporations created by the state or agencies of the state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) The state and local governments are authorized to establish a system of registering the ownership of their bonds or other obligations as to principal and interest, or principal only. Registration may include, without limitation: (a) A book entry system of recording the ownership of a bond or other obligation whether or not a physical instrument is issued; or (b) recording the ownership of a bond or other obligation together with the requirement that the transfer of ownership may only be effected by the surrender of the old bond or other obligation and either the reissuance of the old bond or other obligation or the issuance of a new bond or other obligation to the new owner.

(2) The system of registration shall define the method or methods by which transfer of the registered bonds or other obligations shall be effective, and by which payment of principal and any interest shall be made. The system of registration may permit the issuance of bonds or other obligations in any denomination to represent several registered bonds or other obligations of smaller denominations. The system of registration may also provide for any writing relating to a bond or other obligation that is not issued as a physical instrument, for identifying numbers or other designations, for a sufficient supply of certificates for subsequent transfers, for record and payment dates, for varying denominations, for communications to the owners of bonds or other obligations, for accounting, canceled certificate destruction, registration and release of securing interests, and for such other incidental matters pertaining to the registration of bonds or other obligations as the issuer may deem to be necessary or appropriate.

(3) The state or a local government may appoint one or more of the fiscal agencies appointed from time to time by the state finance committee in accordance with chapter 43.80 RCW to act with respect to an issue of its bonds or other obligations as authenticating trustee, transfer agent, registrar, and paying or other agent and specify the rights and duties and means of compensation of any such fiscal agency so acting. The state and local governments may also enter into agreements with the fiscal agency or agencies in connection with the establishment and maintenance by such fiscal agency or agencies of a central depository system for the transfer or pledge of bonds or other obligations.

(4) Nothing in this section precludes the issuer, or a trustee appointed by the issuer pursuant to any other provision of law, from itself performing, either alone or jointly with other issuers, fiscal agencies, or trustees, any transfer, registration, authentication, payment, or other function described in this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A local government authorized to issue bonds shall determine for the bond issue its amount, date or dates, terms not in excess of the maximum term otherwise provided in law, conditions, bond denominations, interest rate or rates, which may be fixed or variable, interest payment dates, maturity or maturities, redemption rights, registration privileges, manner of execution, price, manner of sale, covenants, and form, including registration as to principal and interest, registration as to principal only, or bearer. Registration may be as provided in section 3 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. Each local government authorized to issue bonds is authorized to establish lines of credit with any qualified public depository to be drawn upon in exchange for its bonds or other obligations, to delegate to its fiscal officer authority to determine the amount of credit extended, and to pay interest and other finance or service charges. The interest rates on such bonds or other obligations may be a fixed rate or rates set periodically or a variable rate or rates determined by agreement of the parties.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. Where bonds are issued by the state or a local government as physical instruments, the bonds shall be printed, engraved, lithographed, typed, or reproduced and the manual or facsimile signatures of both a designated officer and chairperson of the governing body or chief executive shall be included on each bond.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The proceeds of any bonds issued by the state or a local government may be used to pay incidental costs and costs related to the sale and issuance of the bonds. Such costs include payments for fiscal and legal expenses, obtaining bond ratings, printing, engraving, advertising, establishing and funding reserve accounts and other accounts, an amount for working capital, capitalized interest for up to six months, necessary and related engineering, architectural, planning, and inspection costs, and other similar activities or purposes.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Sections 1 through 7 of this act shall be deemed to provide a complete, additional, and alternative method for the performance of those subjects authorized by these sections and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other state laws. Whenever bonds and other obligations are issued and sold in conformance with sections 1 through 7 of this act, such issuance and sale need not comply with contrary requirements of other state laws applicable to the issuance and sale of bonds or other obligations.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. Sections 1 through 8 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 39 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. The local government committee of the house of representatives shall study the provisions of law related to the issuance and sale of bonds, notes, warrants, and other obligations by local units of government, and shall report its findings and any recommended legislation to the house of representatives on or before January 1, 1985.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. There is added to chapter 43.80 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) The fiscal agencies designated pursuant to RCW 43.80.110 and 43.80.120 may be appointed by the state or a local government to act as registrar, authenticating agent, transfer agent, paying agent, or other agent in connection with the issuance by the state or local government of registered bonds or other obligations pursuant to a system of registration as provided by section 3 of this 1983 act and may establish and maintain on behalf of the state or local government a central depository system for the transfer or pledge of bonds or other obligations. The term "local government" shall be as defined in section 2 of this 1983 act.

(2) Whenever in the judgment of the fiscal agencies, certain services as registrar, authenticating agent, transfer agent, paying agent, or other agent in connection with the establishment and maintenance of a central depository system for the transfer or pledge of registered public obligations, or in connection with the issuance by any public entity of registered public obligations pursuant to a system of registration as provided in chapter RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act), can be secured from private sources more economically than by carrying out such duties themselves, they may contract out all or any of such services to such private entities as such fiscal agencies deem capable of carrying out such duties in a responsible manner.

In addition to the issuance of bonds and warrants in payment of the cost and expense of any local improvement, any city or town may also issue and sell installment notes payable out of the local improvement district fund. Such installment notes may be issued any time after the thirty day period allowed by law for the payment of assessments of any district without penalty or interest, and may bear any denomination or denominations, the aggregate of which shall represent the balance of the cost and expense of the local improvement district which is to be borne by the property owners therein.

Application of local improvement district funds for the reduction of the principal and interest amounts due on any notes herein provided to finance said improvement shall be made not less than once each year beginning with the issue date thereof. Appropriate notification of such application of funds shall be made by the city or town treasurer to the registered payees of said notes, except those notes owned by funds of the issuing municipality. Such notes may be registered as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act. Such receipts shall first be applied toward the interest due on the unpaid balance of the note, and any additional moneys shall thereafter apply as a reduction of the principal amount thereof. The tabular payment record shall, in addition to the above, show the unpaid principal balance due on each installment note, together with sufficient space opposite each transaction affecting said note for the manual signature of the city's or town's clerk, treasurer or other properly designated receiving officer of the municipality, or of any other registered payee presenting said note for such installment payments.

The defaulted installment interest certificate so issued shall be redeemed for the face amount thereof with any available funds in the local improvement guaranty fund.

Whenever at the date of maturity of any installment note issued pursuant to this section, there are insufficient funds in a local improvement district, due to delinquencies in the collection of assessments, to pay the final installment of the principal due thereon, the note shall be redeemed with any available funds in the local improvement guaranty fund for the amount of said final installment.

All certificates and notes issued pursuant to this section are to become subject to the same redemption privileges as apply to any local improvement district bonds and warrants now accorded the protection of the local improvement guaranty fund as provided in chapter 35.54 RCW, and whenever the certificates or notes issued as herein provided are redeemed by said local improvement guaranty fund, they shall be held therein as investments thereof in the same manner as prescribed for other defaulted local improvement district obligations.

Notwithstanding any other statutory provisions, local improvement installment notes authorized by this section which are within the protection of the local improvement guaranty fund law shall be considered legal investments for any available surplus funds of the issuing municipality which now or hereafter may be authorized to be invested in the city's or town's local improvement districts' bonds or warrants and shall be considered legal investments for all national and state banks, savings and loan institutions, and any and all other commercial banking or financial institutions to the same extent that the local improvement district bonds and any coupons issued pursuant to the provisions of this chapter have been and are legal

Any such local improvement installment notes may be transferred or sold by said city or town upon such terms or conditions and in such manner as the local governing body of said city or town may determine, or may be issued to another fund of the city or town: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the same shall not be sold at less than par plus accrued interest.

The maximum purchase price to be paid for said bonds or warrants shall be fixed by the municipality, and may from time to time be changed but shall never exceed fifty percent of the face value of the bonds, interest payments, interest coupons, or warrants: PROVIDED, That no warrants shall be issued payable from the revolving fund unless there is sufficient cash in said fund available for payment of such warrants.

If any of the revenue from any tax or surcharge authorized by this or any other chapter shall have been pledged to secure the payment of any bonds as herein authorized, then as long as that pledge shall be in effect the legislature shall not withdraw the authority to levy and collect the tax. Any municipality is authorized to pledge for the payment or security of the principal of and interest on any bonds issued for authorized public transportation purposes all or any portion of any taxes authorized to be levied by the issuer, including, but not limited to, the local sales and use tax authorized pursuant to RCW 82.14.045, as now or hereafter amended. Such general obligation bonds may be authorized in any total amount in one or more propositions

Such bonds may be issued in one or more series from time to time out of such authorization but at no time shall the total general indebtedness of the metropolitan municipal corporation exceed five percent of the value of the taxable property therein, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015. The metropolitan council shall create a special fund or funds for the sole purpose of paying the principal of and interest on the bonds of each such issue, into which fund or funds the metropolitan council may obligate the metropolitan municipal corporation to pay such amounts of the gross revenue of the particular utility constructed, acquired, improved, added to, or repaired out of the proceeds of sale of such bonds, as the metropolitan council shall determine and may obligate the metropolitan municipal corporation to pay such amounts out of otherwise unpledged revenue which may be derived from the ownership, use or operation of properties or facilities owned, used or operated incident to the performance of the authorized function for which such bonds are issued or out of otherwise unpledged fees, tolls, charges, tariffs, fares, rentals, special taxes or other sources of payment lawfully authorized for such purpose, as the metropolitan council shall determine. The principal of, and interest on, such bonds shall be payable only out of such special fund or funds, and the owners ~~((and holders))~~ of such bonds shall have a lien and charge against the gross revenue of such utility or any other revenue, fees, tolls, charges, tariffs, fares, special taxes or other authorized sources pledged to the payment of such bonds.

Such revenue bonds and the interest thereon issued against such fund or funds shall be a valid claim of the ~~((holders))~~ owners thereof only as against such fund or funds and the revenue pledged therefor, and shall not constitute a general indebtedness of the metropolitan municipal corporation.

Each such revenue bond shall state upon its face that it is payable from such special fund or funds, and all revenue bonds issued under this chapter shall be negotiable securities within the provisions of the law of this state. Such revenue bonds may be registered either as to principal only or as to principal and interest as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act, or may be bearer bonds; shall be in such denominations as the metropolitan council shall deem proper; shall be payable at such time or times and at such places as shall be determined by the metropolitan council; shall bear interest at such rate or rates as shall be determined by the metropolitan council; shall be signed by the chairman and attested by the secretary of the metropolitan council, one of which signatures may be a facsimile signature, and the seal of the metropolitan municipal corporation shall be impressed or imprinted thereon; ~~((each of the))~~ any attached interest coupons shall be signed by the facsimile signatures of said officials.

The metropolitan council may also provide that revenue bonds payable out of the same source may later be issued on a parity with revenue bonds being issued and sold.

The metropolitan council may include in the principal amount of any such revenue bond issue an amount to establish necessary reserves, an amount for working capital and an amount necessary for interest during the period of construction of any such metropolitan facilities plus six months. The metropolitan council may, if it deems it to be the best interest of the metropolitan municipal corporation, provide in any contract for the construction or acquisition of any metropolitan facilities or additions or improvements thereto or replacements or extensions thereof that payment therefor shall be made only in such revenue bonds at the par value thereof.

If the metropolitan municipal corporation shall fail to carry out or perform any of its obligations or covenants made in the authorization, issuance and sale of such bonds, the (~~(holder)~~) owner of any such bond may bring action against the metropolitan municipal corporation and compel the performance of any or all of such covenants.

Nothing in this chapter shall prevent a city or town from funding or refunding any of its indebtedness in any other manner provided by law.
