There shall also be paid into each guaranty fund the interest received from bank deposits or government securities of the fund, as well as any surplus remaining in any local improvement fund guaranteed hereunder after the payment of all outstanding bonds or warrants payable primarily out of such road improvement fund. Warrants drawing interest at a rate or rates not to exceed the rate determined by the county legislative authority shall be issued, as other warrants are issued by the county, against a guaranty fund to meet any liability accruing against it, and at the time of making its annual budget and tax levy the county shall provide from funds available for road purposes for the deposit in the guaranty fund of a sum sufficient with other resources of such fund to pay warrants so issued during the preceding fiscal year. Every county establishing a guaranty fund for road improvement district bonds or warrants shall prescribe by resolution appropriate rules and regulations for the maintenance and operation of the guaranty fund not inconsistent herewith. So much of the money of a guaranty fund as is necessary may be used to purchase underlying bonds or warrants guaranteed by the fund, or to purchase certificates of delinquency for general taxes on property subject to local improvement assessments, or to purchase such property at tax foreclosures, for the purpose of protecting the guaranty fund. Said fund shall be subrogated to the rights of the county, and the county, acting on behalf of said fund, may foreclose the lien of general tax certificates of delinquency and purchase the property at the foreclosure sale for the account of said fund. Whenever the ~~((governing))~~ legislative authority of any county shall so cause a lien of general tax certificates of delinquency to be foreclosed and the property to be so purchased at a foreclosure sale, the court costs and costs of publication and expenses for clerical work and/or other expense incidental thereto, shall be chargeable to and payable from the guaranty fund. After so acquiring title to real property, a county may lease or sell and convey the same at public or private sale for such price and on such terms as may be determined by resolution of the ~~((board of commissioners or other))~~ county legislative body, and all proceeds resulting from such sales shall belong to and be paid into the guaranty fund.

The remedy of the ~~((holder or))~~ owner of a bond, or warrant in case of nonpayment, shall be confined to the enforcement of any assessments made in such road improvement district and to the guaranty fund. In case the bonds are guaranteed in accordance herewith a copy of the foregoing part of this section shall be plainly written, printed or engraved on each bond issued and guaranteed hereunder.

Sec. 145. Section 14, chapter 390, Laws of 1955 and RCW 54.16.130 are each amended to read as follows:

The commission shall by resolution establish the method of procedure in all matters relating to local utility districts. A public utility district may determine by resolution what work shall be done or improvements made at the expense, in whole or in part, of the property specially benefited thereby; and adopt and provide the manner, machinery and proceedings in any way relating to the making and collecting of assessments therefor in pursuance thereof. Except as herein otherwise provided or as may hereafter be set forth by resolution, all matters and proceedings relating to the local utility district, the levying and collection of assessments, the issuance and redemption of local improvement warrants and bonds, and the enforcement of local assessment liens hereunder, shall be governed, as nearly as may be, by the laws relating to local improvements for cities ~~((of the first class))~~ and towns: PROVIDED, That no protest against a local utility district improvement shall be received after twelve o'clock noon of the day set for hearing. Such bonds and warrants may be in any form, including bearer bonds or bearer warrants, or registered warrants or registered bonds as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act. Such bonds and warrants may also be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

The commission may determine to finance the project by bonds or warrants secured by assessments against the property within the local utility district: Or it may finance the project by revenue bonds, in which case no bonds or warrants shall be issued by the local utility district, but assessments shall be levied upon the taxable property therein on the basis of special benefits up to, but not exceeding the total cost of the improvement and in such cases the entire principal and interest of such assessments shall be paid into a revenue bond fund of the district, to be used for the sole purpose of the payment of revenue bonds.

Sec. 146. Section 1, chapter 12, Laws of 1971 and RCW 54.24.018 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever the commission shall deem it advisable that the public utility district purchase, purchase and condemn, acquire, or construct any such public utility, or make any additions or betterments thereto, or extensions thereof, the commission shall provide therefor by resolution, which shall specify and adopt the system or plan proposed, and declare the estimated cost thereof, as near as may be, and specify whether general or utility indebtedness is to be incurred, the amount of such indebtedness, the amount of interest and the time in which all general bonds (if any) shall be paid, not to exceed thirty years. In the event the proposed general indebtedness to be incurred will bring the indebtedness of the public utility district to an amount exceeding three-fourths of one percent of the value of the taxable property of the public utility district, as the term "value of the taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015, the proposition of incurring such indebtedness and the proposed plan or system shall be submitted to the qualified electors of said public utility district for their assent at the next general election held in such public utility district.

Whenever the commission (or a majority of the qualified voters of such public utility district, voting at said election, when it is necessary to submit the same to said voters) shall have adopted a system or plan for any such public utility, as aforesaid, and shall have authorized indebtedness therefor by a three-fifths vote of the qualified voters of such district, voting at said election, general or public utility bonds may be used as hereinafter provided. Said general bonds shall be serial in form and maturity and numbered from one upwards consecutively. The various annual maturities shall commence not later than the tenth year after the date of issue of such bonds. The general bonds may be in any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act. The resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds shall fix the rate or rates of interest the bonds shall bear and the place and date of the payment of both principal and interest. The bonds shall be signed by the president of the commission, attested by the secretary of the commission, and the seal of the public utility district shall be affixed to each bond but not to ~~((the))~~ any coupons: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That ~~((said))~~ any coupons, in lieu of being so signed, may have printed thereon ~~((a))~~ facsimiles of the signature of such officers. The principal and interest of such general bonds shall be paid from the revenue of such public utility district after deducting costs of maintenance, operation, and expenses of the public utility district, and any deficit in the payment of principal and interest of said general bonds shall be paid by levying each year a tax upon the taxable property within said district sufficient to pay said interest and principal of said bonds, which tax shall be due and collectible as any other tax. Said bonds shall be sold in such manner as the commission shall deem for the best interest of the district.

(2) All bonds and warrants issued under the authority of this ~~((act))~~ chapter shall be legal securities, which may be used by any bank or trust company for deposit with the state treasurer, or any county or city treasurer, as security for deposits, in lieu of a surety bond, under any law relating to deposits of public moneys.

(3) When the commission shall not desire to incur a general indebtedness in the purchase, condemnation and purchase, acquisition, or construction of any such public utility, or addition or betterment thereto, or extension thereof, it shall have the power to create a special fund or funds for the sole purpose of defraying the cost of such public utility, or addition or betterment thereto, or extension thereof, into which special fund or funds it may obligate and bind the district to set aside and pay a fixed proportion of the gross revenues of such public utility, or any fixed amount out of, and not exceeding a fixed proportion of, such revenues, or a fixed amount without regard to any fixed proportion, and to issue and sell revenue bonds or warrants bearing interest at such rate or rates, payable semiannually, executed in such manner, and payable at such times and places as the commission shall determine, but such bonds or warrants and the interest thereon, shall be payable only out of such special fund or funds. In creating any such special fund or funds, the commission shall have due regard to the cost of operation and maintenance of the plant or system as constructed or added to, and to any proportion or part of the revenues previously pledged as a fund for the payment of bonds or warrants, and shall not set aside into such special fund or funds a greater amount or proportion of the revenues and proceeds than, in its judgment, will be available over and above such cost of maintenance and operation and the amount or proportion, if any, of the revenues so previously pledged. Any such bonds or warrants, and interest thereon, issued against any such fund, as herein provided, shall be a valid claim of the ~~((holder))~~ owner thereof only as against the said special fund and its fixed proportion or amount of the revenue pledged to such fund, and shall not constitute an indebtedness of such district within the meaning of the constitutional provisions and limitations. Each such bond or warrant shall state on its face that it is payable from a special fund, naming such fund and the resolution creating it. Said bonds and warrants shall be sold in such manner as the commission shall deem for the best interests of the district ~~((and))~~. The commission may provide in any contract for the construction and acquisition of a proposed improvement or utility that payment therefor shall be made only in such bonds or warrants at the par value thereof. In all other respects, the issuance of such utility bonds or warrants and payment therefor shall be governed by the public utility laws for cities and towns. The revenue or utility bonds or warrants may be in any form, including bearer bonds or bearer warrants, or registered bonds or registered warrants as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act.

(4) Notwithstanding subsections (1) through (3) of this section, any of such bonds and warrants may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

(1) Whenever the commission shall deem it advisable to issue revenue obligations for the purpose of defraying the cost or part of the cost of such public utility or any additions or betterments thereto or extensions thereof, it shall have power as a part of such plan and system to create a special fund or funds for the purpose of defraying the cost of such public utility, or additions or betterments thereto or extensions thereof, into which special fund or funds it may obligate and bind the district to set aside and pay a fixed proportion of the gross revenues of such public utility, and all additions or betterments thereto or extensions thereof, or any fixed amount out of, and not exceeding a fixed proportion of such revenues, or a fixed amount without regard to any fixed proportion, or an amount of such revenues equal to a fixed percentage of the aggregate principal amount of revenue obligations at any time issued against the special fund or funds, and to issue and sell revenue obligations payable as to both principal and interest only out of such fund or funds.

Such revenue obligations shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, be in such denominations, be in such form, either coupon or registered, as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act, or both, carry such registration privileges, be made transferable, exchangeable, and interchangeable, be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places, and be subject to such terms of redemption as the commission shall by resolution determine.

Any resolution or resolutions authorizing the issuance of any revenue obligations maturing in not exceeding six years from the date thereof (hereinafter in this section referred to as "short term obligations") may contain, in addition to all other provisions authorized by this title, and as an alternate method for the payment thereof, provisions which shall be a part of the contract with the holders of the short term obligations thereby authorized as to:

((+)) (a) Refunding the short term obligations at or prior to maturity and, if so provided, outstanding bonds by the issuance of revenue bonds of the district either by the sale of bonds and application of the proceeds to the payment of the short term obligations and outstanding bonds or by the exchange of bonds for the short term obligations;

((2)) (b) Satisfying, paying, or discharging the short term obligations at the election of the district by the tender or delivery of revenue bonds of the district in exchange therefor: PROVIDED, That the aggregate principal amount of bonds shall not exceed by more than five percent the aggregate principal amount of the short term obligations, to satisfy, pay, or discharge said short term obligations for which the bonds are tendered or delivered;

((3)) (c) Exchanging or converting the short term obligations at the election of the (holder) owner thereof for or into the bonds of the district: PROVIDED, That the aggregate principal amount of the bonds shall not exceed by more than five percent the aggregate principal amount of the short term obligations to be exchanged for or converted into bonds;

((4)) (d) Pledging bonds of the district as collateral to secure payment of the short term obligations and providing for the terms and conditions of the pledge and the manner of enforcing the pledge, which terms and conditions may provide for the delivery of the bonds in satisfaction of the short term obligations: PROVIDED, That the aggregate principal amount of the bonds pledged shall not exceed by more than five percent the aggregate principal amount of the short term obligations to secure said short term obligations for which they are pledged;

((5)) (e) Depositing bonds in escrow or in trust with a trustee or fiscal agent or otherwise providing for the issuance and disposition of the bonds as security for carrying out any of the provisions in any resolution adopted pursuant to this section and providing for the powers and duties of the trustee, fiscal agent, or other depository and the terms and conditions upon which the bonds are to be issued, held and disposed of;

((6)) (f) Any other matters of like or different character which relate to any provision or provisions of any resolution adopted pursuant to this section.

A district shall have power to make contracts for the future sale from time to time of revenue obligations by which the purchasers shall be committed to purchase such revenue obligations from time to time on the terms and conditions stated in such contract; and a district shall have power to pay such consideration as it shall deem proper for such commitments.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such revenue obligations may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

In creating any special fund for the payment of revenue obligations, the commission shall have due regard to the cost of operation and maintenance of the plant or system constructed or added to, and to any proportion or amount of the revenues previously pledged as a fund for the payment of revenue obligations, and shall not set aside into such special fund or funds a greater amount or proportion of the revenues and proceeds than in its judgment will be available over and above such cost of maintenance and operation and the amount or proportion, if any, of the revenues so previously pledged. Any such revenue obligations and interest thereon issued against any such fund as herein provided shall be a valid claim of the (holder) owner thereof only as against such special fund and the proportion or amount of the revenues pledged to such fund, but shall constitute a prior charge over all other charges or claims whatsoever, including the charge or lien of any general obligation bonds against such fund and the proportion or amount of the revenues pledged thereto. Such revenue obligations shall not constitute an indebtedness of such district within the meaning of the constitutional provisions and limitations. Each revenue obligation shall state on its face that it is payable from a special fund, naming such fund and the resolution creating it, or shall describe such alternate method for the payment thereof as shall be provided by the resolution authorizing same.

It is the intention hereof that any pledge of the revenues or other moneys or obligations made by a district shall be valid and binding from the time that the pledge is made; that the revenues or other moneys or obligations so pledged and thereafter received by a district shall immediately be subject to the lien of such pledge without any physical delivery or further act, and that the lien of any such pledge shall be valid and binding as against any parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract, or otherwise against a district irrespective of whether such parties have notice thereof. Neither the resolution or other instrument by which a pledge is created need be recorded.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such obligations may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Sec. 152. Section 1, chapter 150, Laws of 1957 and RCW 54.24.200 are each amended to read as follows:

Every public utility district in the state is hereby authorized, by resolution, to create a fund for the purpose of guaranteeing, to the extent of such fund, and in the manner hereinafter provided, the payment of such of its local improvement bonds and/or warrants as the commission may determine issued to pay for any local improvement within any local utility district established within the boundaries of the public utility district. Such fund shall be designated "local improvement guaranty fund, public utility district No.". For the purpose of maintaining such fund the public utility district shall set aside and pay into it such proportion as the commissioners may direct by resolution of the monthly gross revenues of its public utilities for which local improvement bonds and/or warrants have been issued and guaranteed by said fund: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That any obligation to make payments into said fund as herein provided shall be junior to any pledge of said gross revenues for the payment of any outstanding or future general obligation bonds or revenue bonds of the district. The proportion may be varied from time to time as the commissioners deem expedient: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That under the existence of the conditions set forth in subdivisions (1) and (2), hereunder, and when consistent with the covenants of a public utility district securing its bonds, the proportion shall be as therein specified, to wit:

(1) When bonds and/or warrants of a local utility district have been guaranteed and are outstanding and the guaranty fund does not have a cash balance equal to twenty percent of all bonds and/or warrants originally guaranteed hereunder, excluding bonds and/or warrants which have been retired in full, then twenty percent of the gross monthly revenues from each public utility for which such bonds and/or warrants have been issued and are outstanding but not necessarily from users in other parts of the public utility district as a whole, shall be set aside and paid into the guaranty fund: PROVIDED, That when, under the requirements of this subdivision, the cash balance accumulates so that it is equal to twenty percent of the total original guaranteed bonds and/or warrants, exclusive of any issue of bonds and/or warrants of a local utility district which issue has been paid and/or redeemed in full, or equal to the full amount of all bonds and/or warrants guaranteed, outstanding and unpaid, which amount might be less than twenty percent of the original total guaranteed, then no further revenue need be set aside and paid into the guaranty fund so long as such condition continues:

(2) When warrants issued against the guaranty fund remain outstanding and uncalled, for lack of funds, for six months from date of issuance, or when (~~coupons;~~) bonds (~~and/or~~), warrants, or any coupons or interest payments guaranteed hereunder have been matured for six months and have not been redeemed, then twenty percent of the gross monthly revenue, or such portion thereof as the commissioners determine will be sufficient to retire the warrants or redeem the coupons, interest payments, bonds and/or warrants in the ensuing six months, derived from all the users of the public utilities for which such bonds and/or warrants have been issued and are outstanding in whole or in part, shall be set aside and paid into the guaranty fund: PROVIDED, That when under the requirements of this subdivision all warrants, coupons, bonds and/or warrants specified in this subdivision have been redeemed and interest payments made, no further income need be set aside and paid into the guaranty fund under the requirements of this subdivision unless other warrants remain outstanding and unpaid for six months or other coupons, bonds and/or warrants default or interest payments are not made: PROVIDED, FURTHER, HOWEVER, That no more than a total of twenty percent of the gross monthly revenue shall be required to be set aside and paid into the guaranty fund by these subdivisions (1) and (2).

Sec. 153. Section 3, chapter 150, Laws of 1957 as amended by section 19, chapter 156, Laws of 1981 and RCW 54.24.220 are each amended to read as follows:

When a (~~coupon;~~) bond (~~and/or~~), warrant, or any coupon or interest payment guaranteed (~~hereby~~) by the guaranty fund matures and there are not sufficient funds in the local utility district bond redemption fund to pay it, the county treasurer shall pay it from the local improvement guaranty fund of the public utility district; if there are not sufficient funds in the guaranty fund to pay it, it may be paid by issuance and delivery of a warrant upon the local improvement guaranty fund.

When the cash balance in the local improvement guaranty fund is insufficient for the required purposes, warrants drawing interest at a rate determined by the commission may be issued by the district auditor, against the fund to meet any liability accrued against it and shall issue them upon demand of the (~~holders~~) owners of any matured coupons, bonds, interest payments, and/or warrants guaranteed hereby, or to pay for any certificate of delinquency for delinquent installments of assessments as provided hereinafter. Guaranty fund warrants shall be a first lien in their order of issuance upon the guaranty fund.

Sec. 154. Section 6, chapter 150, Laws of 1957 and RCW 54.24.250 are each amended to read as follows:

When there is paid out of a guaranty fund any sum on the principal or interest upon local improvement bonds, and/or warrants, or on the purchase of certificates of delinquency, the public utility district, as trustee, for the fund, shall be subrogated to all rights of the (~~holder~~) owner of the bonds, and/or warrants, any interest coupons, or delinquent assessment installments so paid; and the proceeds thereof, or of the assessment underlying them, shall become a part of the guaranty fund. There shall also be paid into the guaranty fund the interest received from the bank deposits of the fund, as well as any surplus remaining in the local utility district funds guaranteed hereunder, after the payment of all outstanding bonds and/or warrants payable primarily out of such local utility district funds. As among the several issues of bonds and/or warrants guaranteed by the fund, no preference shall exist, but defaulted interest coupons and bonds and/or warrants shall be purchased out of the fund in the order of their presentation.

The commissioners shall prescribe, by resolution, appropriate rules for the guaranty fund consistent herewith. So much of the money of a guaranty fund as is necessary and not required for other purposes hereunder may be used to purchase property at county tax foreclosure sales or from the county after foreclosure in cases where the property is subject to unpaid local improvement assessments securing bonds and/or warrants guaranteed hereunder and such purchase is deemed necessary for the purpose of protecting the guaranty fund. In such cases the funds shall be subrogated to all rights of the district. After so acquiring title to real property, the district may lease or resell and convey it in the same manner that county property may be leased or resold and for such prices and on such terms as may be determined by resolution of the commissioners. All proceeds resulting from such resales shall belong to and be paid into the guaranty fund.

Sec. 155. Section 18, chapter 210, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 65, chapter 195, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 56.16.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever any such sewer district shall hereafter adopt a plan for a sewer system as herein provided, or any additions and betterments thereto, or whenever any reorganized sewer district shall hereafter adopt a plan for any additions or betterments thereto, and the qualified voters of any such sewer district or reorganized sewer district shall hereafter authorize a general indebtedness for all the said plan, or any part thereof, or any additions and betterments thereto or for refunding in whole or in part bonds theretofore issued, general obligation bonds for the payment thereof may be issued as hereinafter provided.

The bonds shall be serial in form and maturity and numbered from one up consecutively. The bonds shall bear interest at such rate or rates as authorized by the board of sewer commissioners, payable semiannually from date of said bonds until principal thereof is paid (~~with interest coupons, evidencing such interest to maturity, attached~~). The various annual maturities shall commence with the second year after the date of issue of the bonds, and shall as nearly as practicable be in such amounts as will, together with the interest on all outstanding bonds, be met by an equal annual tax levy for the payment of said bonds and interest: PROVIDED, That only the bond numbered one of any issue shall be of a denomination other than a multiple of one hundred dollars. Such bonds may be of any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act.

((Such)) The general obligation bonds shall never be issued to run for a longer period than thirty years from the date of the issue and shall as nearly as practicable be issued for a period which will be equivalent to the life of the improvement to be acquired by the issue of the bonds.

The bonds shall be signed by the presiding officer of the board of sewer commissioners and shall be attested by the secretary of such board under the seal of the sewer district, and ~~((the))~~ any interest coupons shall be signed by the facsimile signature of the presiding officer of the board of sewer commissioners and shall be attested by the facsimile signature of the secretary of such board.

There shall be levied by the officers or governing body now or hereafter charged by law with the duty of levying taxes in the manner provided by law an annual levy in excess of the constitutional and/or statutory tax limitations sufficient to meet the annual or semiannual payments of principal and interest on the said bonds maturing as herein provided upon all taxable property within such sewer district.

Said bonds shall be sold in such manner as the sewer commissioners shall deem for the best interest of the sewer district, and at a price not less than par and accrued interest.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Sec. 156. Section 19, chapter 210, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 1, chapter 25, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 56.16.060 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When sewer revenue bonds are issued for authorized purposes, said bonds shall be in bearer form or registered as to principal or interest or both, as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act, and may provide for conversion between registered and coupon bonds; shall be in such denominations, shall be numbered, shall bear such date, shall be payable at such time or times up to a maximum period of not to exceed thirty years and at such place or places one of which must be the office of the treasurer of the county in which the district is located, or of the county in which fifty-one percent or more of the area of the district is located such place or places to be determined by the board of commissioners of the district; shall bear interest at such rate or rates payable at such time or times as authorized by the board of sewer commissioners; shall be executed by the president of the board of commissioners and attested by the secretary thereof, one of which signatures may, with the written permission of the signator whose facsimile signature is being used, be a facsimile and have the seal of the district impressed thereon; and may have facsimile signatures of the president and secretary imprinted on ~~((the))~~ any interest coupons in lieu of original signatures.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds may be issued in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Sec. 157. Section 21, chapter 210, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 2, chapter 25, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 56.16.080 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) In creating any special fund or funds the sewer commissioners of such sewer district shall have due regard to the cost of operation and maintenance of the plant or system as constructed or added to, and to any proportion or part of the revenue previously pledged as a fund for the payment of bonds, warrants or other indebtedness, and shall not set aside into such special fund a greater amount or proportion of the revenue and proceeds than in their judgment will be available over and above such cost of maintenance and operation and the amount or proportion, if any, of the revenue so previously pledged. Any such bonds, and the interest thereon, issued against any such fund as herein provided, shall be a valid claim of the ~~((holder))~~ owner thereof only as against the said special fund and its fixed proportion or amount of the revenue pledged to such fund, and shall not constitute an indebtedness of such sewer district within the meaning of the constitutional provisions and limitations. Each such bond or warrant shall state upon its face that it is payable from a special fund, naming the said fund and the resolution creating it. Said bonds shall be sold in such manner, at such prices and at such rate or rates of interest as the sewer commissioners shall deem for the best interests of the sewer district, either at public or private sale, and the said commissioners may provide in any contract for the construction and acquirement of the proposed improvement that payment therefor shall be made in such bonds at par value thereof.

When any such special fund shall have been heretofore or shall be created and any such bonds shall have been heretofore or shall hereafter be issued against the same, a fixed proportion or a fixed amount out of and not to exceed such fixed proportion, or a fixed amount without regard to any fixed proportion, of revenue shall be set aside and paid into said special fund as provided in the resolution creating such fund or authorizing such bonds. In case any sewer district shall fail thus to set aside and pay said fixed proportion or amount as aforesaid, the ~~(holder)~~ owner of any bond payable from such special fund may bring suit or action against the sewer district and compel such setting aside and payment.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Sec. 158. Section 45, chapter 210, Laws of 1941 and RCW 56.16.130 are each amended to read as follows:

~~(The)~~ Any coupons ~~(hereinbefore mentioned)~~ for the payment of interest on bonds of any sewer district shall be considered for all purposes as warrants drawn upon the general fund of the said sewer district issuing such bonds, and when presented to the treasurer of the county having custody of the funds of such sewer district at maturity, or thereafter, and when so presented, if there are not funds in the treasury to pay the said coupons, it shall be the duty of the county treasurer to endorse said coupons as presented for payment, in the same manner as county warrants are indorsed, and thereafter said coupons shall bear interest at the same rate as the bonds to which they were attached. When there are no funds in the treasury to make interest payments on bonds not having coupons, the overdue interest payment shall continue bearing interest at the bond rate until it is paid, unless otherwise provided in the proceedings authorizing the sale of the bonds.

Sec. 159. Section 4, chapter 58, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. as last amended by section 5, chapter 45, Laws of 1981 and RCW 56.20.015 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to all of the powers and authorities set forth in Title 56 RCW, any sewer district shall have all of the powers of cities as set forth in chapter 35.44 RCW. Sewer districts may also exercise all of the powers permitted to a water district under Title 57 RCW, except that a sewer district may not exercise water district powers in any area within its boundaries which is part of an existing district which previously shall have been duly authorized to exercise water district powers in such area without the consent by resolution of the board of commissioners of such district.

A sewer district shall have the power to issue general obligation bonds for water system purposes: PROVIDED, That a proposition to authorize general obligation bonds payable from excess tax levies for water system purposes pursuant to chapters 57.16 and 57.20 RCW shall be submitted to all of the qualified voters within that part of the sewer district which is not contained within another existing district duly authorized to exercise water district powers, and the taxes to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds approved by such voters shall be levied only upon all of the taxable property within such part of the sewer district. Such bonds may also be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Sec. 160. Section 8, chapter 18, Laws of 1959 as last amended by section 4, chapter 299, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 57.16.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The commissioners may, without submitting a proposition to the voters, authorize by resolution the district to issue revenue bonds for the construction costs, interest during the period of construction and six months thereafter, working capital or other costs of any part or all of the general comprehensive plan. The amount of the bonds to be issued shall be included in the resolution submitted.

Any resolution authorizing the issuance of revenue bonds may include provision for refunding any local improvement district bonds of a district, out of the proceeds of sale of revenue bonds, and a district may pay off any outstanding local improvement bonds with such funds either by purchase in the open market below their par value and accrued interest or by call at par value and accrued interest at the next succeeding ~~((coupon maturity))~~ interest payment date. The bonds may be in any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided by section 3 of this 1983 act.

When a resolution authorizing revenue bonds has been adopted the commissioners may forthwith carry out the general comprehensive plan to the extent specified.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Sec. 161. Section 9, chapter 114, Laws of 1929 as last amended by section 15, chapter 17, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 57.16.050 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A district may establish local improvement districts within its territory; levy special assessments under the mode of annual installments extending over a period not exceeding twenty years, on all property specially benefited by a local improvement, on the basis of special benefits to pay in whole or in part the damage or costs of any improvements ordered in the district; and issue local improvement bonds in the improvement district to be repaid by the collection of local improvement assessments. Such bonds may be of any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act. The levying, collection and enforcement of such assessments and issuance of bonds shall be as provided for the levying, collection, and enforcement of local improvement assessments and the issuance of local improvement bonds by cities ~~((of the first class))~~ and towns insofar as consistent herewith. The duties devolving upon the city or town treasurer are hereby imposed upon the county treasurer of the county in which the real property is located for the purposes hereof. The mode of assessment shall be determined by the water commissioners by resolution. When in the petition or resolution for the establishment of a local improvement district, and in the comprehensive plan or amendment thereto or plan providing for additions and betterments to the original plan, previously adopted, it is provided that the assessments shall be for the sole purpose of payment into the revenue bond fund for the payment of revenue bonds, then the local improvement district shall be designated as a "utility local improvement district." No warrants or bonds shall be issued in a utility local improvement district, but the collection of interest and principal on all assessments in the utility local improvement district shall be paid into the revenue bond fund.

(2) Such bonds may also be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Sec. 162. Section 11, chapter 114, Laws of 1929 as last amended by section 71, chapter 195, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 57.20.010 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When general district indebtedness payable from annual tax levies to be made in excess of the constitutional and/or statutory tax limitations has been authorized, the district may issue its general obligation bonds in payment thereof. The bonds shall be serial in form and maturity and numbered from one up consecutively and shall bear interest at such rate or rates as authorized by the board of water commissioners payable semiannually ~~((with interest coupons attached))~~. The various annual maturities shall commence with the second year after the date of the issue, and shall as nearly as practicable be in such amounts as will, together with the interest on all outstanding bonds, be met by an equal annual tax levy for the payment of the bonds and interest. Only the bond numbered one of any issue shall be of a denomination other than a multiple of one hundred dollars. The bonds may be of any form, including bearer bonds and registered bonds as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act.

The bonds shall not ~~((be issued to run for a longer period than))~~ have terms in excess of twenty years ~~((from the date of issue))~~ and shall as nearly as practicable be issued for a period which will be equivalent to the life of the improvement to be acquired by the issuance of the bonds. The bonds shall be signed by the president of the board and attested by the secretary, under the seal of the district. ~~((The))~~ Any interest coupons shall be signed by the facsimile signature of the president and attested by the facsimile signature of the secretary.

There shall be levied by the officers or governing body charged with the duty of levying taxes, an annual levy in excess of the constitutional and/or statutory tax limitations sufficient to meet the annual or semiannual payments of principal and interest on the bonds upon all taxable property within the district.

The bonds shall be sold in such manner as the commissioners deem for the best interest of the district, and at a price not less than par and accrued interest.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Sec. 163. Section 16, chapter 251, Laws of 1953 as amended by section 72, chapter 195, Laws of 1973 1st ex. sess. and RCW 57.20.015 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The board of water commissioners of any water district may by resolution, without submitting the matter to the voters of the district, provide for the issuance of refunding general obligation bonds to refund any outstanding general obligation bonds, or any part thereof, at maturity thereof, or before the maturity thereof if they are subject to call for prior redemption or all of the ~~((holders))~~ owners thereof consent thereto.

(2) The total cost to the district over the life of the refunding bonds shall not exceed the total cost to the district which the district would have incurred but for such refunding over the remainder of the life of the bonds to be refunded thereby.

(3) The refunding bonds may be exchanged for the bonds to be refunded thereby, or may be sold in such manner as the board of water commissioners deems to be for the best interest of the district, and the proceeds of such sale used exclusively for the purpose of paying, retiring, and canceling the bonds to be refunded and interest thereon. Such bonds may be of any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act.

(4) The provisions of RCW 57.20.010, ~~((specifying))~~ concerning the form and maturities of general obligation bonds and providing for annual tax levies in excess of the constitutional and/or statutory tax limitations shall apply to the refunding general obligation bonds issued under this section.

(5) Notwithstanding subsections (1) and (4) of this section, such bonds may also be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Sec. 164. Section 3, chapter 128, Laws of 1939 as last amended by section 3, chapter 25, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 57.20.020 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Whenever any issue or issues of water revenue bonds have been authorized in compliance with the provisions of RCW 57.16.010 through 57.16.040, said bonds shall be in bearer form or registered as to principal or interest or both, as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act, and may provide for conversion between registered and coupon bonds; shall be in such denominations, shall be numbered, shall bear such date, and shall be payable at such time or times up to a maximum period of not to exceed thirty years as shall be determined by the board of water commissioners of the district; shall bear interest at such rate or rates payable at such time or times as authorized by the board; shall be payable at the office of the county treasurer of the county in which the water district is located and may also be payable at such other place or places as the board of water commissioners may determine; shall be executed by the president of the board of water commissioners and attested and sealed by the secretary thereof, one of which signatures may, with the written permission of the signator whose facsimile signature is being used, be a facsimile; and may have facsimile signatures of said president or secretary imprinted on ~~((the))~~ any interest coupons in lieu of original signatures.

The water district commissioners shall have power and are required to create a special fund or funds for the sole purpose of paying the interest and principal of such bonds into which special fund or funds the said water district commissioners shall obligate and bind the water district to set aside and pay a fixed proportion of the gross revenues of the water supply system or any fixed amount out of and not exceeding a fixed proportion of such revenues, or a fixed amount or amounts without regard to any fixed proportion and such bonds and the interest thereof shall be payable only out of such special fund or funds, but shall be a lien and charge against all revenues and payments received from any utility local improvement district or districts pledged to secure such bonds, subject only to operating and maintenance expenses.

In creating any such special fund or funds the water district commissioners of such water district shall have due regard to the cost of operation and maintenance of the plant or system as constructed or added to and to any proportion or part of the revenue previously pledged as a fund for the payment of bonds, warrants or other indebtedness, and shall not set aside into such special fund a greater amount or proportion of the revenue and proceeds than in their judgment will be available over and above such cost of maintenance and operation and the amount or proportion, if any, of the revenue so previously pledged. Any such bonds and interest thereon issued against any such fund as herein provided shall be a valid claim of the ~~((holder))~~ owner thereof only as against the said special fund and its fixed proportion or amount of the revenue pledged to such fund, and shall not constitute an indebtedness of such water district within the meaning of the constitutional provisions and limitations. Each such bond ~~((or warrant))~~ shall state upon its face that it is payable from a special fund, naming the said fund and the resolution creating it. Said bonds shall be sold in such manner, at such price and at such rate or rates of interest as the water district commissioners shall deem for the best interests of the water district, either at public or private sale, and the said commissioners may provide in any contract for the construction and acquirement of the proposed improvement (and for the refunding of outstanding local improvement district obligations, if any) that payment therefor shall be made in such bonds at par value thereof.

When any such special fund shall have been heretofore or shall be hereafter created and any such bonds shall have been heretofore or shall hereafter be issued against the same a fixed proportion or a fixed amount out of and not to exceed such fixed proportion, or a fixed amount or amounts without regard to any fixed proportion, of revenue shall be set aside and paid into said special fund as provided in the resolution creating such fund or authorizing such bonds, and in case any water district shall fail thus to set aside and pay said fixed proportion or amount as aforesaid, the ~~((holder))~~ owner of any bond payable from such special fund may bring suit or action against the water district and compel such setting aside and payment.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

(3) The water district commissioners of any water district, in the event that such water revenue bonds are issued, shall provide for revenues by fixing rates and charges for the furnishing of water supply to those receiving such service, such rates and charges to be fixed as deemed necessary by such water district commissioners, so that uniform charges will be made for the same class of customer or service.

In classifying customers served or service furnished by such water supply system, the board of water commissioners may in its discretion consider any or all of the following factors: The difference in cost of service to the various customers; the location of the various customers within and without the district; the difference in cost of maintenance, operation, repair and replacement of the various parts of the system; the different character of the service furnished various customers; the quantity and quality of the water furnished; the time of its use; capital contributions made to the system including but not limited to assessments; and any other matters which present a reasonable difference as a ground for distinction. Such rates shall be made on a monthly basis as may be deemed proper by such commissioners and as fixed by resolution and shall produce revenues sufficient to take care of the costs of maintenance and operation, revenue bond and warrant interest and principal amortization requirements and all other charges necessary for efficient and proper operation of the system.

Sec. 165. Section 2, chapter 82, Laws of 1935 as amended by section 2, chapter 102, Laws of 1937 and RCW 57.20.080 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever there shall be paid out of a guaranty fund any sum on account of principal or interest upon a local improvement bond, or on account of purchase of certificates of delinquency, the water district, as trustee for the fund, shall be subrogated to all rights of the ~~((holder))~~ owner of the bonds, or any interest ((coupons)), or delinquent assessment installments, so paid; and the proceeds thereof, or of the assessment or assessments underlying the same, shall become a part of the guaranty fund. There shall also be paid into each guaranty fund the interest received from the bank deposits of the fund, as well as any surplus remaining in the local improvement funds guaranteed ~~((under this act))~~ by the guaranty fund, after the payment of all outstanding bonds payable primarily out of such local improvement funds. As among the several issues of bonds guaranteed by the fund, no preference shall exist, but defaulted ~~((interest coupons;))~~ bonds and any defaulted interest payments shall be purchased out of the fund in the order of their presentation.

The commissioners of every water district operating under ~~((the provisions of this act))~~ RCW 57.20.030, 57.20.080, and 57.20.090 shall prescribe, by resolution, appropriate rules and regulations for the guaranty fund, not inconsistent herewith. So much of the money of a guaranty fund as is necessary and is not required for other purposes under ~~((the terms of this act))~~ RCW 57.20.030, 57.20.080, and 57.20.090 may, at the discretion of the commissioners of the water district, be used to purchase property at county tax foreclosure sales or from the county after foreclosure in cases where such property is subject to unpaid local improvement assessments securing bonds guaranteed ~~((under this act))~~ by the guaranty fund and such purchase is deemed necessary for the purpose of protecting the guaranty fund. In such cases the said fund shall be subrogated to all rights of the water district. After so acquiring title to real property, the water district may lease or resell and convey the same in the same manner that county property is authorized to be leased or resold and for such prices and on such terms as may be determined by resolution of the board of water commissioners. Any provision of law to the contrary notwithstanding, all proceeds resulting from such resales shall belong to and be paid into the guaranty fund.

Sec. 166. Section 3, chapter 82, Laws of 1935 as amended by section 3, chapter 102, Laws of 1937 and RCW 57.20.090 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((Neither the holder nor))~~ The owner of any local improvement bonds guaranteed under the provisions of ~~((this act))~~ RCW 57.20.030, 57.20.080, and 57.20.090 shall not have any claim therefor against the water district by which the same is issued, except for payment from the special assessments made for the improvement for which said local improvement bonds were issued, and except as against the local improvement guaranty fund of said water district; and the water district shall not be liable to any ~~((holder or))~~ owner of such local improvement bond for any loss to the guaranty fund occurring in the lawful operation thereof by the water district. The remedy of the ~~((holder or))~~ owner of a local improvement bond, in case of nonpayment, shall be confined to the enforcement of the assessment and to the guaranty fund. A copy of the foregoing part of this section shall be plainly written, printed or engraved on each local improvement bond guaranteed by ~~((this act))~~ RCW 57.20.030, 57.20.080, and 57.20.090. The establishment of a local improvement guaranty fund by any water district shall not be deemed at variance from any comprehensive plan heretofore adopted by such water district.

In the event any local improvement guaranty fund hereunder authorized at any time has a balance therein in cash, and the obligations guaranteed thereby have all been paid off, then such balance shall be transferred to the maintenance fund of the water district.

Sec. 167. Section 22, chapter 114, Laws of 1929 and RCW 57.20.130 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((The))~~ Any coupons ((hereinbefore mentioned)) for the payment of interest on said bonds shall be considered for all purposes as warrants drawn upon the general fund of the said water district issuing such bonds, and when presented to the treasurer of the county having custody of the funds of such water district at maturity, or thereafter, and when so presented, if there are not funds in the treasury to pay the said coupons, it shall be the duty of the county treasurer to endorse said coupons as presented for payment, in the same manner as county warrants are indorsed, and thereafter said coupons shall bear interest at the same rate as the bond to which it was attached. When there are no funds in the treasury to make interest payments on bonds not having coupons, the overdue interest payment shall continue bearing interest at the bond rate until it is paid, unless otherwise provided in the proceedings authorizing the sale of the bonds.

Sec. 168. Section 9, chapter 236, Laws of 1967 as last amended by section 3, chapter 222, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 67.28.160 are each amended to read as follows:

Such revenue bonds and the interest thereon issued against such fund or funds shall constitute a claim of the (~~holders~~) owners thereof only as against such fund or funds and the revenue pledged therefor, and shall not constitute a general indebtedness of the municipality.

Each such revenue bond shall state upon its face that it is payable from such special fund or funds, and all revenue bonds issued under this chapter shall be negotiable securities within the provisions of the law of this state. Such revenue bonds may be registered either as to principal only or as to principal and interest as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act, or may be bearer bonds; shall be in such denominations as the legislative body shall deem proper; shall be payable at such time or times and at such places as shall be determined by the legislative body; shall be executed in such manner and bear interest at such rate or rates as shall be determined by the legislative body.

The legislative body may also provide that revenue bonds payable out of the same source may later be issued on a parity with revenue bonds being issued and sold.

The legislative body may include in the principal amount of any such revenue bond issue an amount for engineering, architectural, planning, financial, legal, and other services and charges incident to the acquisition or construction of public stadium facilities, convention center facilities, performing arts center facilities, and/or visual arts center facilities, an amount to establish necessary reserves, an amount for working capital and an amount necessary for interest during the period of construction of any facilities to be financed from the proceeds of such issue plus six months. The legislative body may, if it deems it in the best interest of the municipality, provide in any contract for the construction or acquisition of any facilities or additions or improvements thereto or replacements or extensions thereof that payment therefor shall be made only in such revenue bonds.

If the municipality shall fail to carry out or perform any of its obligations or covenants made in the authorization, issuance and sale of such bonds, the (~~holder~~) owner of any such bond may bring action against the municipality and compel the performance of any or all of such covenants.

At such election the ballots shall contain the words "Cancellation Yes," and "Cancellation No," or words equivalent thereto. If at such election a majority of the votes shall be "Cancellation Yes," the said issue shall be thereby canceled and no bonds may be issued thereunder. It shall be lawful for any irrigation districts which have heretofore issued and sold bonds under the law then in force, to issue in place thereof an amount of bonds not in excess of such previous issue, and to sell the same, or any part thereof, as hereinafter provided, or exchange the same, or any part thereof, with the ((holders)) owners of such previously issued bonds which may be outstanding, upon such terms as may be agreed upon between the board of directors of the district and the holders of such outstanding bonds: PROVIDED, That the question of such reissue of bonds shall have been previously voted upon favorably by the legally qualified electors of such district, in the same manner as required for the issue of original bonds, and the said board shall not exchange any such bonds for a less amount in par value of the bonds received; all of such old issue in place of which new bonds are issued shall be destroyed whenever lawfully in possession of said board. Bonds issued under the provisions of this section may, when so authorized by the electors, include a sum sufficient to pay the interest thereon for a period not exceeding the first four years. Whenever an issue of bonds shall have been authorized pursuant to law, and any of the earlier series shall have been sold, and the later series, or a portion thereof, remain unsold, the directors may sell such later series pursuant to law, or such portion thereof as shall be necessary to pay the earlier series, or said directors may exchange said later series for the earlier series at not less than the par value thereof, said sale or exchange to be made not more than six months before the maturity of said earlier series and upon said exchange being made the maturing bonds shall be disposed of as hereinbefore provided in the case of bonds authorized to be exchanged in whole or in part for outstanding bonds.

Washington as the case may be, shall have the right to enter upon and take possession of all the water rights, canals, ditches, flumes, feeders, storage reservoirs, machinery, property and improvements of said irrigation district, and to hold and control the same, and enjoy the rents, issues and profits thereof, until the lien hereby created can be enforced in a civil action in the same manner and under the same proceedings as given in the foreclosure of a mortgage on real estate. This section shall apply to all bonds heretofore issued or any contract heretofore made with the United States, or which may hereafter be issued or made by any district: PROVIDED, That when any such contract made after December 1, 1981, between any district and the United States or the state of Washington covers only the real property in a portion or portions of the district, all payments due or to become due to the United States or the state of Washington shall be paid by revenue derived from an annual assessment upon the real property only in that portion or portions of the district covered by the contract and the real property shall be and remain liable to be assessed for such payments until fully paid and any assessment lien which attaches thereto shall be the exclusive lien notwithstanding other liens provided for in this section. In the event of a contract between the district and the United States or the state of Washington accompanying which bonds of the district have not been deposited with the United States or the state of Washington as provided in RCW 87.03.140 and the contract covers real property in only a portion or portions of the district, the question of whether the district should enter the contract shall be submitted only to those qualified electors who hold title or evidence of title to real property within that portion or portions of the district and in the same manner as provided in RCW 87.03.200.

Sec. 216. Section 22, page 683, Laws of 1889-90 as last amended by section 1, chapter 169, Laws of 1967 and RCW 87.03.260 are each amended to read as follows:

The board of directors shall in each year before said roll is delivered by the secretary to the respective county treasurers, levy an assessment sufficient to raise the ensuing annual interest on the outstanding bonds, and all payments due or to become due in the ensuing year to the United States or the state of Washington under any contract between the district and the United States or the state of Washington accompanying which bonds of the district have not been deposited with the United States or the state of Washington as in this act provided. Beginning in the year preceding the maturity of the first series of the bonds of any issue, the board must from year to year increase said assessment for the ensuing years in an amount sufficient to pay and discharge the outstanding bonds as they mature. Similar levy and assessment shall be made for the expense fund which shall include operation and maintenance costs for the ensuing year. The board shall also at the time of making the annual levy, estimate the amount of all probable delinquencies on said levy and shall thereupon levy a sufficient amount to cover the same and a further amount sufficient to cover any deficit that may have resulted from delinquent assessments for any preceding year. The board shall also, at the time of making the annual levy, estimate the amount of the assessments to be made against lands owned by the district, including local improvement assessments, and shall levy a sufficient amount to pay said assessments. All lands owned by the district shall be exempt from general state and county taxes: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That in the event any lands, and any improvements located thereon, acquired by the district by reason of the foreclosure of irrigation district assessments, shall be by said district resold on contract, then and in that event, said land, and any such improvements, shall be by the county assessor immediately placed upon the tax rolls for taxation as real property and shall become subject to general property taxes from and after the date of said contract, and the secretary of the said irrigation district shall be required to immediately report such sale within ten days from the date of said contract to the county assessor who shall cause the property to be entered on the tax rolls as of the first day of January following.

The board may also at the time of making the said annual levy, levy an amount not to exceed twenty-five percent of the whole levy for the said year for the purpose of creating a surplus fund. This fund may be used for any of the district purposes authorized by law. The assessments, when collected by the county treasurer, shall constitute a special fund, or funds, as the case may be, to be called respectively, the "Bond Fund of Irrigation District," the "Contract Fund of Irrigation District," the "Expense Fund of Irrigation District," the "~~((Coupon))~~ Warrant Fund of Irrigation District," the "Surplus Fund of Irrigation District".

If the annual assessment roll of any district has not been delivered to the county treasurer on or before the 15th day of January in the year 1927, and in each year thereafter, he shall notify the secretary of the district by registered mail that said assessment roll must be delivered to the office of the county treasurer forthwith. If said assessment roll is not delivered within ten days from the date of mailing of said notice to the secretary of the district, or if said roll when delivered is not equalized and the required assessments levied as required by law, or if for any reason the required assessment or levy has not been made, the county treasurer shall immediately notify the ~~((board of county commissioners))~~ legislative authority of the county in which the office of the board of directors is situated, and said ~~((board of))~~ county ~~((commissioners))~~ legislative authority shall cause an assessment roll for the said district to be prepared and shall equalize the same if necessary and make the levy required by this chapter in the same manner and with like effect as if the same had been equalized and made by the said board of directors, and all expenses incident thereto shall be borne by the district. In case of neglect or refusal of the secretary of the district to perform the duties imposed by law, then the treasurer of the county in which the office of the board of directors is situated must perform such duties, and shall be accountable therefor, on his official bond, as in other cases.

At the time of making the annual levy in the year preceding the final maturity of any issue of district bonds, the board of directors shall levy a sufficient amount to pay and redeem all bonds of said issue then remaining unpaid. All surplus remaining in any bond fund after all bonds are paid in full must be transferred to the surplus fund of the district.

Any surplus moneys in the surplus fund or any surplus moneys in the bond fund when so required by the board of directors shall be invested by the treasurer of said county under the direction of said board of directors in United States (~~gold-bearing~~) bonds or bonds of the state of Washington, or any bonds pronounced by the treasurer of the state of Washington as valid security for the deposit of public funds, and in addition thereto any bonds or warrants of said district, all of which shall be kept in the surplus fund until needed by the district for the purposes authorized by law.

Sec. 217. Section 34, page 688. Laws of 1889-90 as last amended by section 22, chapter 129, Laws of 1921 and RCW 87.03.430 are each amended to read as follows:

~~(Upon the presentation of the coupons due to)~~ Whenever interest payments on bonds are due, the treasurer of said county (~~-he~~) shall pay the same from the bond fund belonging to such district and deposited with such treasurer. Whenever, after ten years from the issuance of said bonds, said fund shall amount to the sum of ten thousand dollars, the board of directors may direct the treasurer to pay such an amount of said bonds not due as the money in said fund will redeem, at the lowest value at which they may be offered for liquidation, after advertising in some daily newspaper for such period of time not less than four weeks as the board shall order for sealed proposals for the redemption of said bonds. Said proposals shall be opened by the board in open meeting, at a time to be named in the notice, and the lowest bid for said bonds must be accepted: PROVIDED, That no bond shall be redeemed under the foregoing provision at a rate above par. In case the bids are equal, the lowest numbered bond shall have the preference. In case none of the (~~holders~~) owners of said bonds shall desire to have the same redeemed, as herein provided for, said money shall be invested by the treasurer of said county, under the direction of the board, in United States (~~gold-bearing~~) bonds, or the bonds of the state, which shall be kept in said bond fund, and may be used to redeem said district bonds whenever the (~~holders~~) owners thereof may desire.

Sec. 218. Section 2, chapter 276. Laws of 1961 as last amended by section 1, chapter 83, Laws of 1979 and RCW 87.03.440 are each amended to read as follows:

The treasurer of the county in which is located the office of the district shall be ex officio treasurer of the district, and any county treasurer handling district funds shall be liable upon his official bond and to criminal prosecution for malfeasance and misteasance, or failure to perform any duty as county or district treasurer. The treasurer of each county in which lands of the district are located shall collect and receipt for all assessments levied on lands within his county. There shall be deposited with the district treasurer all funds of the district. He shall pay out such funds upon warrants issued by the county auditor against the proper funds of the district, except the sums to be paid out of the bond fund (~~upon coupons or bonds presented to the treasurer~~) for interest and principal payments on bonds: PROVIDED, That in those districts which designate their own treasurer, the treasurer may issue the warrants or any checks when the district is authorized to issue checks. All warrants shall be paid in the order of their issuance. The district treasurer shall report, in writing, on the first Monday in each month to the directors, the amount in each fund, the receipts for the month preceding in each fund, and file the report with the secretary of the board. The secretary shall report to the board, in writing, at the regular meeting in each month, the amount of receipts and expenditures during the preceding month, and file the report in the office of the board.

The preceding paragraph of this section notwithstanding, the board of directors or board of control of an irrigation district which lies in more than one county and which had assessments in each of two of the preceding three years equal to at least five hundred thousand dollars may designate some other person having experience in financial or fiscal matters as treasurer of the district. In addition, the board of directors of an irrigation district which lies entirely within one county may designate some other person having experience in financial or fiscal matters as treasurer of the district if the board has the approval of the county treasurer to designate some other person. If the board designates a treasurer, it shall require a bond with a surety company authorized to do business in the state of Washington in an amount and under the terms and conditions which it finds from time to time will protect the district against loss. The premium on the bond shall be paid by the district. The designated treasurer shall collect and receipt for all irrigation district assessments on lands within the district and shall act with the same powers and duties and be under the same restrictions as provided by law for county treasurers acting in matters pertaining to irrigation districts, except the powers, duties, and restrictions in RCW 87.56.110 and 87.56.210 which shall continue to be those of county treasurers.

In those districts which have designated their own treasurers, the provisions of law pertaining to irrigation districts which require certain acts to be done and which refer to and involve a county treasurer or the office of a county treasurer or the county officers charged with the collection of irrigation district assessments, except RCW 87.56.110 and 87.56.210 shall be construed to refer to and involve the designated district treasurer or the office of the designated district treasurer.

Any claim against the district for which it is liable under existing laws shall be presented to the board as provided in RCW 4.96.020 and upon allowance it shall be attached to a voucher and approved by the chairman and signed by the secretary and directed to the proper official for payment: PROVIDED, That in the event claimant's claim is for crop damage the claimant in addition to filing his claim within the one hundred twenty day limit and in the manner specified in RCW 4.96.020 must file with the secretary of the district, or in his absence one of the directors, not less than three days prior to the severance of the crop alleged to be damaged, a written preliminary notice pertaining to the crop alleged to be damaged. Such preliminary notice, so far as claimant is able, shall advise the district; that the claimant has filed a claim or intends to file a claim against the district for alleged crop damage; shall give the name and present residence of the claimant; shall state the cause of the damage to the crop alleged to be damaged and the estimated amount of damage; and shall accurately locate and describe where the crop alleged to be damaged is located. Such preliminary notice may be given by claimant or by anyone acting in his behalf and need not be verified. No action may be commenced against an irrigation district for crop damages unless claimant has complied with the provisions of RCW 4.96.020 and also with the preliminary notice requirements of this section.

Sec. 219. Section 3, chapter 276, Laws of 1961 as amended by section 2, chapter 83, Laws of 1979 and RCW 87.03.441 are each amended to read as follows:

The directors may provide by resolution that the secretary may deposit the following temporary funds in a local bank in the name of the district: (1) A fund to be known as "general fund" in which shall be deposited all moneys received from the sale of land, except such portion thereof as may be obligated for bond redemption, and all rentals, tolls, and all miscellaneous collections. This fund shall be transmitted to the district treasurer or disbursed in such manner as the directors may designate. (2) A fund to be known as "fiscal fund" in which shall be deposited all collections made by the district as fiscal agent of the United States. (3) A "revolving fund" in such amount as the directors shall by resolution determine, acquired by the issue of coupon or registered warrants or by transfer of funds by warrant drawn upon the expense fund. This fund may be disbursed by check signed by the secretary or such other person as the board may designate, in the payment of such expenditures as the board may deem necessary. This fund shall be reimbursed by submitting copies of approved vouchers and/or copy of payrolls to the county auditor with a claim voucher specifying the fund upon which warrants for such reimbursements shall be drawn. The warrants for such reimbursements shall be made out by the auditor to the "secretary's revolving fund."

Sec. 220. Section 41, page 692, Laws of 1889-90 as last amended by section 28, chapter 156, Laws of 1981 and RCW 87.03.470 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The board of directors may, at any time when in their judgment it may be advisable, call a special election and submit to the qualified electors of the district the question whether or not a special assessment shall be levied for the purpose of raising money to be applied to any of the purposes provided in this chapter including any purpose for which the bonds of the district or the proceeds thereof might be lawfully used. Such election must be called upon the notice prescribed, and the same shall be held and the result thereof determined and declared in all respects in conformity with the provisions of RCW 87.03.200. The notice must specify the amount of money proposed to be raised and the purpose for which it is intended to be used and the number of installments in which it is to be paid. At such election the ballot shall contain the words "Assessment Yes" and "Assessment No." If the majority of the votes cast are "Assessment Yes" the board may immediately or at intervals thereafter incur indebtedness to the amount of said special assessment for any of the purposes for which the proceeds of said assessment may be used, and may provide for the payment of said indebtedness by the issue and sale of ((coupon)) notes of the district to an amount equal to said authorized indebtedness, which ((coupon)) notes shall be payable in such equal installments not exceeding three in number as the board shall direct. Said ((coupon)) notes shall be payable by assessments levied at the time of the regular annual levy each year thereafter until fully paid. The amount of the assessments to be levied shall be ascertained by adding fifteen percent for anticipated delinquencies to the whole amount of the indebtedness incurred and interest. Each assessment so levied shall be computed and entered on the assessment roll by the secretary of the board, and collected at the same time and in the same manner as other assessments provided for herein, and when collected shall be paid to the county treasurer of the county to the credit of said district, for the purposes specified in the notice of such special election: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the board of directors may at their discretion issue said ((coupon)) notes in payment for labor or material, or both, used in connection with the purposes for which such indebtedness was authorized. ((Coupon)) Notes issued under this section shall bear interest at a rate determined by the board, payable semiannually. Such notes may be in any form, including bearer notes or registered notes as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such notes may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Sec. 221. Section 42, page 693, Laws of 1889-90 as last amended by section 29, chapter 156, Laws of 1981 and RCW 87.03.475 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The board shall incur no debt or liability in excess of the express provisions of this title. It may without an election and levy therefor pay the necessary costs and expenses of organizing and may make surveys, do engineering work, and conduct a general investigation to determine the feasibility of the proposed irrigation project, and may incur an indebtedness therefor prior to levy, which indebtedness on account of surveys, engineering and investigations shall not exceed fifty cents an acre, and shall be assessable against the lands within the district. In cases of emergency, making it necessary to incur indebtedness in order to continue the operation of the irrigation system or any part thereof, the board by resolution may incur such indebtedness not exceeding the amount actually necessary to meet the requirements of the emergency. It may incur indebtedness necessary to carry on the ordinary administrative affairs of the district and if the district acquires an irrigation system before making its first regular annual levy, the board may incur such indebtedness necessary to pay the ordinary expenses of operation and maintenance until the regular annual levy is made.

The board may issue warrants for the payment of any indebtedness incurred under this section, which shall bear interest at a rate or rates determined by the board, and it shall include in its next annual levy for the payment of the expenses of operation and maintenance, the amount of all warrants issued by virtue hereof.

The board may issue as a general obligation of the district coupon or registered warrants in denominations not in excess of five hundred dollars, bearing interest (~~evidenced by coupons payable semiannually at a rate~~) as determined by the board. Such warrants may be registered as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act. Such warrants shall mature in not more than five years and may be used, or the proceeds thereof, in the purchase of grounds and buildings, machinery, vehicles, tools or other equipment for use in operation, maintenance, betterment, reconstruction or local improvement work, and for creating a revolving fund for carrying on such work as in this title provided. The proceeds of the warrants shall be paid to the district treasurer who shall place them in an appropriate fund and pay them out upon warrants of the district. The maximum indebtedness hereby authorized shall not exceed one dollar per acre of the total irrigable area within the district. No warrant shall be sold for less than par. They shall state on their face that they are a general obligation of the district, the purposes for which they are used, and that they are payable on or before maturity. They shall be retired by assessments levied in accordance with the provisions of this title at the time other assessments are levied.

The board may accumulate by assessment a fund to be designated as the "capital fund" to be used for the purposes for which the above warrants may be used. The total of such fund shall not exceed one dollar per acre of the total irrigable area in the district and shall be accumulated in not less than five annual installments. The fund shall not be permanently depleted or reduced but shall be replaced from year to year by assessments on any lands of the district benefited by the use thereof. The reasonable value of all grounds, buildings, machinery, vehicles, tools or other equipment on hand, purchased with such fund, and the revolving fund, if any, derived from such fund, shall be a part of the capital fund.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such warrants may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Sec. 222. Section 11, chapter 162, Laws of 1917 as last amended by section 7, chapter 185, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 87.03.485 are each amended to read as follows:

In the event that the said board shall approve said petition, the board shall fix a time and place for the hearing thereof and shall publish a notice once a week for two consecutive weeks preceding the date of such hearing and the last publication shall not be more than seven days before such date and shall mail such a notice on or before the second publication date by first class mail, postage prepaid, to each owner or reputed owner of real property within the proposed local improvement district, as shown on the rolls of the county treasurer as of a date not more than twenty days immediately prior to the date such notice was mailed. Such notice must be published in a newspaper of general circulation in each county in which any portion of the land proposed to be included in such local improvement district lies. Such notice shall state that the lands within said described boundaries are proposed to be organized as a local improvement district, stating generally the nature of the proposed improvement; that bonds for such local improvement district are proposed to be issued as the bonds of the irrigation district, or that a contract is proposed to be entered into between the district and the United States or the state of Washington, or both, that the lands within said local improvement district are to be assessed for such improvement, that such bonds or contract will be a primary obligation of such local improvement district and a general obligation of the irrigation district and stating a time and place of hearing thereon. At the time and place of hearing named in said notice, all persons interested may appear before the board and show cause for or against the formation of the proposed improvement district and the issuance of bonds or the entering into of a contract as aforesaid. Upon the hearing the board shall determine as to the establishment of the proposed local improvement district. Any landowner whose lands can be served or will be benefited by the proposed improvement, may make application to the board at the time of hearing to include such land and the board of directors in such cases shall, at its discretion, include such lands within such district. The board of directors may exclude any land specified in said notice from said district provided, that in the judgment of the board, the inclusion thereof will not be practicable.

As an alternative plan and subject to all of the provisions of this chapter, the board of directors may initiate the organization of a local improvement district as herein provided. To so organize a local improvement district the board shall adopt and record in its minutes a resolution specifying the lands proposed to be included in such local improvement district or by describing the exterior boundaries of such proposed district or by both. Said resolution shall state generally the plan, character and extent of the proposed improvements, that the land proposed to be included in such improvement district will be assessed for such improvements; and that ~~((coupon))~~ local improvement district bonds of the irrigation district will be issued or a contract entered into as hereinabove in this section provided to meet the cost thereof and that such bonds or contract will be a primary obligation of such local improvement district and a general obligation of the irrigation district. Said resolution shall fix a time and place of hearing thereon and shall state that unless a majority of the holders of title or of evidence of title to lands within the proposed local improvement district file their written protest at or before said hearing, consent to the improvement will be implied.

A notice containing a copy of said resolution must be published once a week for two consecutive weeks preceding the date of such hearing and the last publication shall not be more than seven days before such date, and shall be mailed on or before the second publication date by first class mail, postage prepaid, to each owner or reputed owner of real property within the proposed local improvement district, as shown on the rolls of the county treasurer as of a date not more than twenty days immediately prior to the date such notice was mailed, and the hearing thereon shall not be held in less than twenty days from the adoption of such resolution. Such notice must be published in one newspaper, of general circulation, in each county in which any portion of the land proposed to be included in such local improvement district lies. Said hearing shall be held and all subsequent proceedings conducted in accordance with the provisions of this act relating to the organization of local improvement districts initiated upon petition.

Sec. 223. Section 12, chapter 162, Laws of 1917 as last amended by section 30, chapter 156, Laws of 1981 and RCW 87.03.490 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) If decision shall be rendered in favor of the improvement, the board shall enter an order establishing the boundaries of the said improvement district and shall adopt plans for the proposed improvement and determine the number of annual installments not exceeding fifty in which the cost of said improvement shall be paid. The cost of said improvement shall be provided for by the issuance of local improvement district ~~((coupon))~~ bonds of the district from time to time, therefor, either directly for the payment of the labor and material or for the securing of funds for such purpose, or by the irrigation district entering into a contract with the United States or the state of Washington, or both, to repay the cost of said improvement. Said bonds shall bear interest at a rate or rates determined by the board, payable semiannually ~~((evidenced by coupons))~~, and shall state upon their face that they are issued as bonds of the irrigation district; that all lands within said local improvement district shall be primarily liable to assessment for the principal and interest of said bonds and that said bonds are also a general obligation of the said district. The bonds may be in such denominations as the board of directors may in its discretion determine, except that bonds other than bond number one of any issue shall be in a denomination that is a multiple of one hundred dollars, and no bond shall be sold for less than par. Any contract entered into for said local improvement by the district with the United States or the state of Washington, or both although all the lands within said local improvement district shall be primarily liable to assessment for the principal and interest thereon, shall be a general obligation of the irrigation district. Such bonds may be in any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds as provided in section 3 of this 1983 act.

No election shall be necessary to authorize the issuance of such local improvement bonds or the entering into of such a contract. Such bonds, when issued, shall be signed by the president and secretary of the irrigation district with the seal of said district affixed ~~((and shall be registered by the treasurer of the irrigation district with his seal affixed))~~. The printed, engraved, or lithographed facsimile signatures of the president and secretary of the district's board of directors shall be sufficient signatures on the bonds or any coupons: PROVIDED, That such facsimile signatures on the bonds may be used only after the filing, by the officer whose facsimile signature is to be used, with the secretary of state of his manual signature certified by him under oath, whereupon that officer's facsimile signature has the same legal effect as his manual signature: PROVIDED, FURTHER, That either the president of the board of directors or the secretary's signature on the bonds shall be manually subscribed: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That whenever such facsimile reproduction of the signature of any officer is used in place of the manual signature of such officer, the district's board of directors shall specify in a written order or requisition to the printer, engraver, or lithographer the number of bonds or any coupons upon which such facsimile signature is to be printed, engraved, or lithographed and the manner of numbering the bonds or any coupons upon which such signature shall be placed. Within ninety days after the completion of the printing, engraving, or lithographing of such bonds or any coupons, the plate or plates used for the purpose of affixing the facsimile signature shall be destroyed, and it shall be the duty of the district's board of directors, within ninety days after receipt of the completed bonds or any coupons, to ascertain that such plate or plates have been destroyed. Every printer, engraver, or lithographer who, with the intent to defraud, prints, engraves, or lithographs a facsimile signature upon any bond or coupon without written order of the district's board of directors, or fails to destroy such plate or plates containing the facsimile signature upon direction of such issuing authority, shall be guilty of felony.

The proceeds from the sale of such bonds shall be deposited with the treasurer of the district, who shall place them in a special fund designated "Construction fund of local improvement district number _____."

Whenever such improvement district has been organized, the boundaries thereof may be enlarged to include other lands which can be served or will be benefited by the proposed improvement upon petition of the owners thereof and the consent of the United States or the state of Washington, or both, in the event the irrigation district has contracted with the United States or the state of Washington, or both, to repay the cost of the improvement: PROVIDED, That at such time the lands so included shall pay their equitable proportion upon the basis of benefits of the improvement theretofore made by the said local improvement district and shall be liable for the indebtedness of the said local improvement district in the same proportion and same manner and subject to assessment as if said lands had been incorporated in said improvement district at the beginning of its organization.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, such bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Sec. 224. Section 2, chapter 128, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 31, chapter 156, Laws of 1981 and RCW 87.03.510 are each amended to read as follows:

Such fund shall be designated "local improvement guarantee fund" and for the purpose of maintaining the same, every irrigation district shall hereafter levy from time to time, as other assessments are levied, such sums as may be necessary to meet the financial requirements thereof: PROVIDED, That such sums so assessed in any year shall not be more than sufficient to pay the outstanding warrants or contract indebtedness on said fund and to establish therein a balance which shall not exceed five percent of the outstanding obligations thereby guaranteed. Whenever any bond ((or) redemption payment, interest ((coupon) payment, or contract payment of any local improvement district shall become due and there is insufficient funds in the local improvement district fund for the payment thereof, there shall be paid from said local improvement district guarantee fund, by warrant or by such other means as is called for in the contract, a sufficient amount, which together with the balance in the local improvement district fund shall be sufficient to redeem and pay said bond or coupon or contract payment in full. Said warrants against said guarantee fund shall draw interest at a rate determined by the board and said bonds and ((coupons)) and interest payments shall be paid in their order of presentation or serial order. Whenever there shall be paid out of the guarantee fund any sum on account of principal or interest of a local improvement bond or warrant or contract the irrigation district, as trustee for the fund, shall be subrogated to all of the rights of the ((holder)) owner of the bond ((or interest coupon)) or contract amount so paid, and the proceeds thereof, or of the assessment underlying the same shall become part of the guarantee fund. There shall also be paid into such guarantee fund any interest received from bank deposits of the fund, as well as any surplus remaining in any local improvement district fund, after the payment of all of its outstanding bonds or warrants or contract indebtedness which are payable primarily out of such local improvement district fund.

Sec. 225. Section 15, chapter 162, Laws of 1917 as amended by section 30, chapter 129, Laws of 1921 and RCW 87.03.515 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be lawful for any irrigation district which has issued local improvement district bonds for said improvements, as in this chapter provided, to issue in place thereof an amount of general bonds of the irrigation district not in excess of such issue of local improvement district bonds, and to sell the same, or any part thereof, or exchange the same, or any part thereof, with the ((holders)) owners of such previously issued local improvement district bonds for the purpose of redeeming said bonds: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That all the provisions of this chapter regarding the authorization and issuing of bonds shall apply, and: PROVIDING, FURTHER, That the issuance of said bonds shall not release the lands of the local improvement district or districts from liability for special assessments for the payment thereof: AND PROVIDED

FURTHER. That the lien of any issue of bonds of the district prior in point of time to the issue of bonds or local improvement district bonds herein provided for, shall be deemed a prior lien.

Sec. 226. Section 8, chapter 70, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 87.03.522 are each amended to read as follows:

The bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Sec. 228. Section 3, chapter 161, Laws of 1923 as last amended by section 96, chapter 56, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. and RCW 87.19.030 are each amended to read as follows:

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (2) of this section, such bonds may be issued and sold in accordance with chapter ... RCW (sections 1 through 8 of this 1983 act).

Sec. 272, Section 18, chapter 210, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 155, chapter ... (SHB 390), Laws of 1983 and RCW 56.16.040 are each amended to read as follows:

MOTION

Senator Thompson moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Thompson and Zimmerman to the Committee on Local Government amendment:

On page 4, line 24, after "Sec. 10," strike the remainder of the section and insert "The local government committees of the House of Representatives and the Senate shall cooperate in a study of the provisions of the law related to debt limits, and the issuance and sale of bonds, notes, warrants and other obligations of the state and units of local government. The committees shall report their initial findings and recommended legislation on or before January 1, 1984 and shall submit a final report and any recommended legislation on or before January 1, 1985."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Thompson, I am not opposed to studying--I think it is needed, because there are varying lengths of bonds in this bill. My question would be--why is it necessary, at all, to put this in a law that is going to be printed in every law book in the country and will be dead after the study is made? I would suggest that you strike that section entirely and just a simple floor resolution will take care of the study. It just seems like such a waste to put these studies into the law that is going to be reprinted all over."

Senator Thompson: "Senator Rasmussen, the existence of a year is intended to provide some immediate and connected assurance to the Senate and the Legislature, as a whole, that the Legislature will continue to examine this area. It is not an uncommon practice. It is conveniently now here before us and won't necessitate further action or effort on our part to do what we want it to do."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bluechel, Senators Haley and Fuller were excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senators Thompson and Zimmerman to the Committee on Local Government amendment.

The motion by Senator Thompson carried and the amendment to the committee amendment was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment to the Committee on Local Government amendment:

On page 1, line 16, strike all of line 16.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Senator Thompson, the point that Senator Hayner brought up, I think, is a very valid one. We want to avoid problems with small technicalities, but is the intent of this amendment to deal with the small technicalities? It seems to me that this amendment, by putting it in this way, would open it up to a much wider interpretation. I am worried about legislative intent and I would like a statement for clear legislative intent on this issue."

Senator Thompson: "If that is your purpose to establish by this colloquy the extent to which this language might be applied, I would say it would be applied in a very limited way to, indeed, very minor matters involved in the process which would not do violence to either the intent or requirements of this act."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Rasmussen to the Committee on Local Government amendment.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen failed on a rising vote and the amendment to the committee amendment was not adopted.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Local Government amendment, as amended.

The motion by Senator Thompson carried and the Committee on Local Government amendment, as amended, was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Thompson, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 12 of the title, line 7, beginning with "amending" strike all material down to and including "35.92.080;" on line 9 and on line 18, strike "repealing section 14, chapter 236, Laws of 1959 and RCW 53.34.140;"

On motion of Senator Thompson, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 390, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Thompson, is there anything in this amendment that would destroy the homestead? You remember there was another bill that would put the lien for bond and destroy the homestead protection. Is there anything in this bill that would do that?"

Senator Thompson: "Senator Rasmussen, there is nothing relating to that issue in this measure."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Vognild: "Senator Thompson, I have been pouring through this bill and I have seen references to public utility districts. I find no references to operating agencies. Is there anything in this bill that affects operating agencies--WPPSS, in particular?"

Senator Thompson: "This measure deals with the authority to issue tax exempt bonds and every unit of government that has that authority still has that authority. It does not add any new authority, it simply alters the process."

Senator Vognild: "So, sections 1 through 8 of the bill, then, would also affect bond sales by WPPSS?"

Senator Thompson: "It only affects the process, Senator Vognild--not the authority. If the authority exists previously, the authority will still exist under this bill. The method and nature of the bond instrument is the only thing that is being changed by this bill--from bearer to registered bonds."

Senator Vognild: "One final question, then. In the changing of the way the bonds are issued or at least clarifying--whatever we are doing here--is there anything in any way that affects the people's mandate that WPPSS bonds cannot be sold without a vote of the people?"

Senator Thompson: "Not in any way."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Thompson, section three seems to be the main driver of the amendment and it says 'the state and local governments are authorized to establish a system of registering the ownership of their bonds or other obligations as to the principal and interest, or principal only.' But you go down to sub. (4) and it has a clause in there that I am not able to interpret. It says 'nothing in this section precludes the issuer, or a trustee appointed by the issuer pursuant to any other provisions of law, from itself performing, either alone or jointly with other issuers, fiscal agents, or trustees, any transfer, registration, authentication, payment, or other function described in this section.' You give it to them on one hand and take it away from them with the other. Is that the interpretation of sub. (4)?"

Senator Thompson: "My attention hasn't been directed, particularly, to this section, previously. I don't think that this does what you are suggesting that it does. It takes away authority granted earlier in that section, as I read it."

Senator Guess: "Senator Bottiger seems to have an answer. Would Senator Bottiger yield?"

Senator Bottiger: "I am sure there would be no one here that would dispute the statement that the subject matter we are on is an extremely complicated one. Senator Guess, sub. (4), as I read it and as it has been explained to me, authorizes a municipal corporation to appoint as trustee--say a bank or a bond counsel of some kind--which they do now. To the best of my knowledge, it is a very rare thing that the city or town, itself, keeps the registration of the certificate. It is put in the trustee for the bond. That is done now and I don't see that this changes anything."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 390, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 390, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 02; absent, 00; excused, 01.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having served prior notice, Senator Bottiger moved that the Senate now reconsider the vote by which an amendment by Senator Hemstad to page 1, line 28, to Substitute House Bill No. 336, was adopted by the Senate on April 15, 1983.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Sellar: "A point of parliamentary inquiry. Mr. President, according to Rule 37, a motion to reconsider must be placed on the next working day, if in fact, the body reverts to the proper order of business. On the following working day, following Senator Bottiger's motion, the Senate did revert to the eighth order of business, which was the proper time for the motion. The motion was not put, so I respectfully say that the motion is not properly before us at this time."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, I moved that we reconsider and then I moved that further consideration of the bill be delayed. I believe, as I understand the rule, that we are now back to the bill. We are not on final passage. This is an amendment to that bill."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Sellar, in reply to your inquiry, the President believes that Senator Bottiger's remarks are well taken, in that notice was given and further consideration of the bill was deferred by the Senate. The President believes that this puts the measure in the same position that it was on the day it was being considered."

"The President believes that Senator Bottiger's motion is properly before the Senate."

Further debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, a point of parliamentary inquiry. Do we move now to not adopt the amendment or to reconsider?"

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The question is of reconsideration."

Senator Bottiger: "An affirmative vote, then, would be to reconsider the vote by which the amendment was adopted?"

President Cherberg: "The present motion is your motion to reconsider the vote by which the amendment was adopted."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Bottiger that the Senate reconsider the vote by which an amendment to page 1, line 28, of Substitute House Bill No. 336 was adopted on April 15, 1983.

The motion for reconsideration by Senator Bottiger failed on a rising vote.

MOTIONS

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

(5) The rules and regulations adopted by the council establishing standards for making buildings and facilities accessible to and usable by the physically handicapped or elderly persons as provided for in RCW 70.92.100 through 70.92.160; and

(6) ~~(The thermal performance and design standards for dwellings as set forth in RCW 19.27.210 through 19.27.290. This subsection shall be of no further force and effect when RCW 19.27.200 through 19.27.290 expire as provided in RCW 19.27.300)~~ The rules adopted by the state building code advisory council or its successor establishing energy-efficient thermal and lighting standards for commercial and residential buildings under RCW 19.27.075. Said rules adopted by the council shall supersede RCW 19.27.210 through RCW 19.27.290 only if and when section 2 and section 5 of this 1983 act become law.

In case of conflict among the codes enumerated in subsections (1), (2), (3), and (4) of this section, the first named code shall govern over those following.

Sec. 2. Section 3, chapter 76, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 19.27.075 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) The state building code advisory council or its successor shall have authority to promulgate rules, pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, for the purpose of adopting a state-wide thermal efficiency and lighting code ((to the extent necessary to comply with Title 10, Code of Federal Regulations, section 420.35. Such code shall take into account regional climatic conditions; shall take effect prior to June 30, 1980; and shall be presented to the senate and house committees on energy and utilities at the time it is proposed as a draft rule)).

(2) The state building code advisory council, or its successor, shall:

(a) Review and evaluate the model conservation standards for new electrically heated structures as adopted by the Pacific Northwest Electric Power and Conservation Planning Council;

(b) Develop a draft rule establishing a supplement to the state-wide thermal efficiency and lighting code. The rule shall only apply to electric resistance space heated structures and shall:

(i) Incorporate, to the extent possible, the model conservation standards or measures which will achieve energy savings comparable to the model standards;

(ii) Consider climatic conditions within the state; and

(iii) Be cost-effective for the region and economically feasible for consumers;

(c) Present the draft rule to the committees on energy and utilities of the senate and house of representatives on or before September 30, 1984, for their review and comment;

(d) Adopt the rule, pursuant to chapter 34.04 RCW, and provide for an effective date of June 1, 1985; and

(e) When revising the state-wide thermal efficiency and lighting code, consider and utilize all available energy use data collected by the Bonneville Power Administration from demonstration homes built to the model conservation standards for new electric resistance space heated homes as recommended by the Pacific Northwest Electric Power and Conservation Planning Council.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. The state energy office shall provide the state building code advisory council, or its successor, with such technical and other staff support, as is necessary, for review and evaluation of the model conservation standards and development and adoption of the state-wide thermal efficiency and lighting code.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. Once a building permit application has been submitted for a new structure, the thermal efficiency and lighting code in effect at the time of the application shall remain in effect for the duration of the construction of the structure.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. The legislature declares that it is the intent of RCW 19.27.030 and section 2 of this act to preclude local governments from adopting energy codes or amendments more stringent than the thermal efficiency and lighting code adopted pursuant to RCW 19.27.075. The thermal efficiency and lighting code adopted by the state building code advisory council, or its successor, shall preempt requirements adopted by local governments which exceed the state-wide code. However, local governments may adopt more stringent codes if the following conditions are satisfied: (1) Notice of intent to adopt more stringent codes is given to the state building code advisory council; (2) the planned code changes are demonstrated to be cost-effective to the consumer; and (3) any dispute over cost-effectiveness is submitted to the state building code advisory council for final resolution of the dispute before adoption, except that cities with over one hundred fifty thousand in population and the counties in which they are located are exempted from the submission. The state building code advisory council shall adopt rules regarding filing procedures and dispute resolution processes to carry out this section.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 1, chapter 14, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 19.27.200;

(2) Section 2, chapter 14, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 19.27.210;

(10) Section 10, chapter 14, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 19.27.290;

(11) Section 14, chapter 14, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 19.27.300;

(12) Section 16, chapter 14, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 19.27.310; and

(13) Section 17, chapter 14, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 19.27.905.

(14) The repealers of subsection (1) through (13) of this section and each of them shall be effective only if and when section 2 and section 5 of this act become law.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Williams, the following amendments by Senators Williams and Hemstad to the committee amendment were considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 2, line 36, after "19.27.075." strike the language down to and including "law." on page 3, line 2.

On page 7, line 10, beginning with "(14)" strike all the language down to and including "law." on line 14.

On page 7, line 7, strike "and"

Senator Williams moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Williams and Hemstad to the committee amendment:

On page 6, line 1, after "(2)" strike the language down to and including "consumer" on line 3 and insert "local governments shall enter a finding that code changes are cost-effective to consumers"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hayner: "Senator Williams, the amendment that you want to make will say that local government shall enter a finding that code changes are cost-effective to the consumers. That really is wide open it seems to me. It might be cost-effective over a fifty year period or a twenty-five year period, but I think that consumers are very concerned by additional costs in construction that might be cost-effective over a long period of time, which would hardly be a benefit to them, but not over, maybe, a ten-year period or something reasonable. Don't you think that should be tied down further?"

Senator Williams: "The time period?"

Senator Hayner: "Yes."

Senator Williams: "The cost-effectiveness, basically, on most of the measures that are in the code and projected to be in the new code--most of those are cost-effective in a matter of years--very few years. In fact, most of the changes--most of the recommendations the power council has made, if put into effect now--in eastern Washington would probably become cost-effective within a year. In western Washington, the cost-effectiveness period is a little longer--about four years.

"I am uncertain as to whether we should have a time period. The cost-effectiveness is over--generally--it is related to the mortgage period of the particular facility that is being developed. So, that cost-effectiveness generally runs with the pay-back on the mortgage for those particular improvements. That is the test of cost-effectiveness--not any particular time period."

MOTION

Senator Hayner moved the following amendment to the Williams and Hemstad amendment to the Committee on Energy and Utilities amendment:

On the last line of the amendment, after "consumers" add "over a period of five years"

Debate ensued.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Hayner, and there being no objection, the amendment to the Williams and Hemstad amendment was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Williams, and there being no objection, the amendment by Senators Williams and Hemstad on page 6, line 1, to the committee amendment was withdrawn.

On motion of Senator Williams, the following amendment by Senators Williams and Hemstad to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 6, line 1, after "(2)" strike the language down to and including "consumer" on line 3 and insert "local governments shall enter a finding that code changes are cost-effective to consumers over a seven-year period."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Williams, the following amendment by Senators Williams and Hemstad to the committee amendment was adopted:

On page 7, line 15, of the amendment add a new section to read as follows:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is hereby appropriated to the state energy office from the general fund, for the biennium ending June 30, 1985 the sum of one hundred twenty-three thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to carry out the purposes of this act. In the event that the Bonneville Power Administration or another agency shall reimburse the state energy office for carrying out the purposes of this act, the moneys from such reimbursement shall revert to the general fund."

Renumber the remaining section consecutively.

Senator Bender moved the following amendments by Senators Bender, Hughes, Quigg, Vognild, Bauer, Owen, Jones and Hayner to the committee amendment be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 3, line 18, after "code" insert "subject to the legislative direction and approval requirements of section 2 of this act"

On page 4, line 20, strike everything after "review" down to and including line 21 and insert "and approval"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Kiskaddon: "Senator Bender, to be sure that I understand what this would do if we adopt your two amendments, am I correct that the council would then set up the code and then the committees--the Energy Committees--would then be the ones to approve them--not the entire body? It says here 'present the draft rules to the Committees on Energy and Utilities for their review' and then you would change that 'and approval.' So, is it the committees that will be approving it or are we going to have to wait for a legislative session, so that the whole legislature can approve? It looks like it is just the committees to approve."

Senator Bender: "The intent of the amendment is for the final approval process by the legislature, not by any select group, not by any committee, but by the legislature, as it has been in the past."

Further debate ensued.

At 11:32 a.m., on motion of Senator Bottiger, the Senate recessed until 1:30 p.m.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "Having received the necessary majority, and in accordance with Rule 61, the motion is adopted."

The bill was read the second time.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Clarke: "With all due respect, this is not a suspension of the rules, under Rule 61. This is a suspension of the rules with respect to taking a bill back from third to second reading. Rule 61 has no application. This is a regular suspension of the rules."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "The bill was on third reading, we were returning it to second reading. If it did not require a suspension of the rules, then it would have passed by a simple majority in any case. Under what rule would it not have been necessary to have had a suspension of the rules?"

Senator Clarke: "Mr. President, the suspension of the rules was requested. Under Rule 35--it has to do with suspension of the rules. This has nothing to do with the ten-day situation. It has to do with returning a bill from third reading to second reading and that has always required a suspension of the rules. The ten-day situation has nothing to do with suspension."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, I've looked and it may be Senator Gaspard misspoke when he said 'suspend the rules.' I can't find any rule that says you can't go back from third reading to second. There is a rule talking about three days. This bill has been read--it must be thirty days."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Then, Senator Bottiger, it has been the universal custom in the Senate, for as long as I can remember, that when you want to return from third reading back to second, to move for a suspension of the rule and the rule for suspension of the rules calls for a two-thirds vote. If you are suggesting that the procedure be changed and that it is no longer necessary, under any procedures, to have a suspension of the rules to return a bill from third reading to second, that certainly would be something novel in this Senate."

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "Would Senator Clarke restate his point of order."

Senator Clarke: "The point of order is that a motion to return a bill from third reading to second reading, for purposes of an amendment, requires a suspension of the rule and under Rule 35, the suspension of the rule requires a two-thirds vote."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "Senator Clarke, in response to your point of order, the President is advised, that in the past, the Senate has always used two-thirds to advance the bill unless there has been a suspension of the rule. We have, also by custom, required the same two-thirds suspension of the rules to return a bill from third to second reading. We do that until we reach that point in the process whereby the conditions stated under Rule 61 apply."

"Therefore, the President ruled that it was necessary to have a suspension of the rules and that that suspension could be, in this particular case, made by a majority vote. Therefore, your point of order is not well taken."

Further debate ensued.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Gaspard moved that the Senate reconsider the vote by which an amendment by Senator Kiskaddon to page 1, line 9, to Substitute House Bill No. 117, failed to pass the Senate April 16, 1983.

STATEMENT FOR JOURNAL PROTEST

By Senator Newhouse

April 18, 1983

On April 18, the President Pro Tem, Senator Goltz, ruled that only a majority vote was necessary to return a bill from third reading to second reading. That ruling was clearly in error. Senate Rule 35 clearly states that "...2. A permanent rule or order may be temporarily suspended for a special purpose by a vote of two-thirds of the members present unless otherwise specified herein..." (Emphasis added).

Rule 63 - Second reading and Rule 64 - Third reading, contain no provision regarding return to second reading from third reading and no language regarding the suspension of either of these rules by a majority vote.

The chair made reference to the language of Rule 61 - Reading of Bills, in ruling that only a simple majority vote was necessary to return SHB 117 from third reading to second reading. Rule 61 clearly applies only to the reading of bills on three separate days and has no application when attempting to return a bill to second reading.

I strongly urge and suggest that when the chair and the majority party want to reach a result clearly in violation of the standing rules of the Senate, that they propose a rule change pursuant to the provisions of rule 35.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate returned to the sixth order of business.

Upon the filing of a petition or upon the adoption of a resolution, as the case may be, initiating a proceeding for the formation of a local improvement district or utility local improvement district, the proper board, officer, or authority designated by charter or ordinance to make the preliminary estimates and assessment roll shall cause an estimate to be made of the cost and expense of the proposed improvement and certify it to the legislative authority of the city or town together with all papers and information in its possession touching the proposed improvement, a description of the boundaries of the district, and a statement of what portion of the cost and expense of the improvement should be borne by the property within the proposed district~~((a statement in detail of the local improvement assessments outstanding and unpaid against the property in the proposed district, and a statement of the aggregate actual valuation of the real estate including twenty-five percent of the actual valuation of the improvements in the proposed district according to the valuation last placed upon it for the purposes of general taxation))~~.

If the proceedings were initiated by petition the designated board, officer or authority shall also determine the sufficiency of the petition and whether the facts set forth therein are true. If the petition is found to be sufficient and in all proceedings initiated by resolution of the legislative authority of the city or town, the estimates must be accompanied by a diagram showing thereon the lots, tracts, and parcels of land and other property which will be specially benefited by the proposed improvement and the estimated amount of the cost and expense thereof to be borne by each lot, tract, or parcel of land or other property: PROVIDED, That no such diagram shall be required where such estimates are on file in the office of the city engineer, or other designated city office, together with a detailed copy of the preliminary assessment roll and the plans and assessment maps of the proposed improvement.

For the purpose of estimating and levying local improvement assessments, the value of property of the United States, of the state, or of any county, city, town, school district, or other public corporation whose property is not assessed for general taxes shall be computed according to the standards afforded by similarly situated property which is assessed for general taxes.

Sec. 2. Section 35.43.150, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 and RCW 35.43.150 are each amended to read as follows:

Notice of the hearing upon a resolution declaring the intention of the legislative authority of a city or town to order an improvement shall be given by mail at least fifteen days before the day fixed for hearing to the owners or reputed owners of all lots, tracts, and parcels of land or other property to be specially benefited by the proposed improvement, as shown on the rolls of the county ~~((treasurer))~~ assessor, directed to the address thereon shown.

The notice shall set forth the nature of the proposed improvement, the estimated cost, and the estimated benefits of the particular lot, tract, or parcel.

Sec. 3. Section 35.43.180, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 8, chapter 52, Laws of 1967 and RCW 35.43.180 are each amended to read as follows:

The jurisdiction of the legislative authority of a city or town to proceed with any local improvement initiated by resolution shall be divested by a protest filed with the city or town council within thirty days from the date of passage of the ordinance ordering the improvement, signed by the owners of the property within the proposed local improvement district or utility local improvement district subject to sixty percent or more of the total cost of the improvement including federally-owned or other nonassessable property as shown and determined by the preliminary estimates and assessment roll of the proposed improvement district or, if all or part of the local improvement district or utility local improvement district lies outside of the city or town, such jurisdiction shall be divested by a protest filed in the same manner and signed by the owners of property which is within the proposed local improvement district or utility local improvement district but outside the boundaries of the city or town, and which is subject to sixty percent or more of that part of the total cost of the improvement allocable to property within the proposed local improvement district or utility local improvement district but outside the boundaries of the city or town, including federally-owned or other nonassessable property: PROVIDED, That such restraint by protest shall not apply to ~~((any local improvement by sanitary sewers or watermains and fire hydrants where the health officer of any city or town shall file with the legislative authority thereof a report showing the necessity for such improvement accompanied by a report of the chief of the fire department in the event such improvement includes fire hydrants, and such))~~ any of the following local improvements, if the legislative body finds and recites in the ordinance or resolution authorizing the improvement that such improvement is necessary for the protection of the public health and safety and such ordinance or resolution is passed by unanimous vote of all members present: (1) Sanitary sewers or watermains where the health officer of the city or town, or department of ecology, files with the legislative authority a report showing the necessity for such improvement; and (2) fire hydrants where the chief of the fire department files a report showing the necessity for such improvement.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. The legislature finds that the abandonment of rail lines and rail freight service may alter the delivery to market of many commodities. In addition, the resultant motor vehicle freight traffic increases the burden on state highways and county roads. In many cases, the cost of upgrading the state highways and county roads exceeds the cost of maintaining rail freight service. Thus, the economy of the state will be best served by a policy of maintaining and encouraging a healthy rail freight system by creating a mechanism which keeps rail freight lines operating if the benefits of the service outweigh the cost.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. (1) The transportation commission shall prepare and periodically update a state rail plan, the objective of which is to identify, evaluate, and encourage essential rail service. The plan shall:

(a) Identify and evaluate those rail freight lines that may be abandoned;

(b) Quantify the costs and benefits of maintaining rail service on those lines that are likely to be abandoned; and

(c) Establish priorities for determining which rail lines should receive state support. The priorities should include the anticipated benefits to the state and local economy, the anticipated cost of road and highway improvements necessitated by the abandonment of the rail line, the likelihood the rail line receiving funding can meet operating costs from freight charges, surcharges on rail traffic, and other funds authorized to be raised by a county or port district, and the impact of abandonment on changes in energy utilization and air pollution.

(2) The state rail plan may be prepared in conjunction with the rail plan prepared by the department pursuant to the federal railroad revitalization and regulatory reform act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) The essential rail assistance account is hereby created in the state general fund. Moneys in the account may be appropriated only for the purposes specified in this section.

(2) Moneys in the account may be distributed to county rail districts and port districts for the purpose of:

(a) Acquiring, maintaining, or improving branch rail lines; or

(b) Operating railroad equipment necessary to maintain essential rail service.

(3) County rail districts and port districts may grant franchises to private railroads for the right to operate on lines acquired, repaired, or improved under this chapter.

(4) Moneys distributed under this section shall not exceed eighty percent of the cost of the service or project undertaken. At least twenty percent of the cost shall be provided by the county, port district, or other local sources.

(5) The amount distributed under this section shall be repaid to the state by the county rail district or port district. The repayment shall occur within ten years of the distribution of the moneys and shall be deposited in the essential rail assistance account. The repayment schedule and rate of interest, if any, shall be set at the time of the distribution of the moneys.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. Sections 4 through 6 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 47 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Subject to section 9 of this act, the legislative authority of a county may establish one or more county rail districts within the county for the purpose of providing and funding improved rail freight service. The boundaries of county rail districts shall be drawn to include contiguous property in an area from which agricultural or other goods could be shipped by the rail service provided. The district shall not include property outside this area which does not, or, in the judgment of the county legislative authority, is not expected to produce goods which can be shipped by rail, or property substantially devoted to fruit crops or producing goods that are shipped in a direction away from the district. A county rail district is a quasi municipal corporation, an independent taxing "authority" within the meaning of Article VII, section 1 of the state Constitution, and a "taxing district" within the meaning of Article VII, section 2 of the state Constitution.

A county rail district shall constitute a body corporate and shall possess all the usual powers of a corporation for public purposes as well as all other powers that may now or hereafter be specifically conferred by statute, including, but not limited to, the authority to hire employees, staff, and services, to enter into contracts, to accept and expend or use gifts, grants, and donations, and to sue and be sued.

The county legislative authority shall be the governing body of a county rail district. The county treasurer shall act as the ex officio treasurer of the county rail district. The electors of a district are all registered voters residing within the district.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) A county legislative authority proposing to establish a county rail district, or to modify the boundaries of an existing county rail district, or to dissolve an existing county rail district, shall conduct a hearing at the time and place specified in a notice published at least once, not less than ten days prior to the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation within the proposed county rail district. This notice shall be in addition to any other notice required by law to be published. Additional notice of the hearing may be given by mail, posting within the proposed county rail district, or in any manner the county legislative authority deems necessary to notify affected persons. All hearings shall be public and the county legislative authority shall hear objections from any person affected by the formation, modification of the boundaries, or dissolution of the county rail district.

(2) Following the hearing held under subsection (1) of this section, the county legislative authority may adopt a resolution providing for the submission of a proposal to establish a county rail district, modify the boundaries of an existing county rail district, or dissolve an existing county rail district, if the county legislative authority finds the proposal to be in the public interest. The resolution shall contain the boundaries of the district if applicable.

A proposition to create a county rail district, modify the boundaries of an existing county rail district, or dissolve an existing rail district shall be submitted to the affected voters at the next general election held sixty or more days after the adoption of the resolution providing for the submittal by the county legislative authority. The resolution shall establish the boundaries of the district and include a finding that the creation of the district is in the public interest and that the area included within the district can reasonably be expected to benefit from its creation. No portion of a city may be included in such a district unless the entire city is included.

The district shall be created upon approval of the proposition by simple majority vote. The ballot proposition submitted to the voters shall be in substantially the following form:

FORMATION OF COUNTY RAIL DISTRICT

Shall a county rail district be established for the area described in a resolution of the legislative authority of county, adopted on the day of, 19..?

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. A county rail district is authorized to contract with a person, partnership, or corporation to provide rail service along a light-density essential-service rail line for the purpose of carrying commodities. The district shall also have the power to acquire, maintain, improve, or extend rail facilities within the district that are necessary for the safe and efficient operation of the contracted rail service. A county rail district may receive state rail assistance under chapter 47 ___ RCW (sections 4 through 6 of this act). Two or more county rail districts may enter into interlocal cooperation agreements under chapter 39.34 RCW to carry out the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. A county rail district is not authorized to impose a regular ad valorem property tax levy but may:

(1) Levy an ad valorem property tax, in excess of the one percent limitation, upon the property within the district for a one-year period to be used for operating or capital purposes whenever authorized by the voters of the district pursuant to RCW 84.52.052 and Article VII, section 2(a) of the state Constitution.

(2) Provide for the retirement of voter approved general obligation bonds, issued for capital purposes only, by levying bond retirement ad valorem property tax levies, in excess of the one percent limitation, whenever authorized by the voters of the district pursuant to Article VII, section 2(b) of the state Constitution and RCW 84.52.056.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) To carry out the purpose of this chapter, a county rail district may issue general obligation bonds, not to exceed an amount, together with any outstanding nonvoter approved general obligation indebtedness, equal to three-eighths of one percent of the value of taxable property within the district, as the term "value of taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015. A county rail district may additionally issue general obligation bonds for capital purposes only, together with any outstanding general obligation indebtedness, not to exceed an amount equal to one and one-fourth percent of the value of the taxable property within the district, as the term "value of taxable property" is defined in RCW 39.36.015, as prescribed in Article VIII, section 6 of the state Constitution, and to provide for the retirement thereof by excess property tax levies as provided in section 11(2) of this act. The county rail district may submit a single proposition to the voters which, if approved, authorizes both the issuance of the bonds and the bond retirement property tax levies.

(2) General obligation bonds with a maturity in excess of forty years shall not be issued. The governing body of the county rail district shall by resolution determine for each general obligation bond issue the amount, date or dates, terms, conditions, denominations, interest rate or rates, which may be fixed or variable, maturity or maturities, redemption rights, registration privileges, manner of execution, price, manner of sale, and covenants. The bonds may be in any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds. Facsimile signatures may be used on the bonds and any coupons. Refunding general obligation bonds may be issued in the same manner as general obligation bonds are issued.

(3) Whenever general obligation bonds are issued to fund specific projects or enterprises that generate revenues, charges, user fees, or special assessments, the county rail district which issues the bonds may specifically pledge all or a portion of the revenues, charges, user fees, or special assessments to refund the general obligation bonds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. (1) A county rail district may issue revenue bonds to fund revenue generating facilities which it is authorized to provide or operate. Whenever revenue bonds are to be issued, the governing body of the district shall create or have created a special fund or funds for the sole purpose of paying the principal of and interest on the bonds of each such issue, into which fund or funds the governing body may obligate the district to pay such amounts of the gross revenue of all or any part of the facilities constructed, acquired, improved, repaired, or replaced pursuant to this chapter as the governing body determines.

(2) The governing body of a county rail district issuing revenue bonds shall create a special fund or funds from which, along with any reserves created under RCW 39.44.140, the principal and interest on the revenue bonds shall exclusively be payable. The governing body may obligate the county rail district to set aside and pay into the special fund or funds a fixed proportion or a fixed amount of the revenues from the public improvements, projects, facilities, and all related additions funded by the revenue bonds. This amount or proportion shall be a lien and charge against these revenues, subject only to operating and maintenance expenses. The governing body shall consider the cost of operation and maintenance of the public improvement, project, facility, or additions funded by the revenue bonds and shall not place into the special fund or funds a greater amount or proportion of the revenues than it thinks will be available after maintenance and operation expenses have been paid and after the payment of revenue previously pledged. The governing body may also provide that revenue bonds payable from the same source or sources of revenue may later be issued on parity with any revenue bonds issued and sold.

(3) Revenue bonds issued pursuant to this section shall not be an indebtedness of the county rail district issuing the bonds, and the interest and principal on the bonds shall only be payable from the revenues lawfully pledged to meet the principal and interest requirements and any reserves created pursuant to RCW 39.44.140. The owner of a revenue bond or any interest coupon issued pursuant to this section shall not have any claim against the county rail district arising from the bond or coupon except for payment from the revenues lawfully pledged to meet the principal and interest requirements and any reserves created pursuant to RCW 39.44.140. The substance of the limitations included in this subsection shall be plainly printed, written, or engraved on each bond issued pursuant to this section.

(4) Revenue bonds with a maturity in excess of thirty years shall not be issued. The governing body of the county rail district shall by resolution determine for each revenue bond issue the amount, date, terms, conditions, denominations, maximum fixed or variable interest rate or rates, maturity or maturities, redemption rights, registration privileges, manner of execution, manner of sale, callable provisions, if any, and covenants including the refunding of existing revenue bonds. The bonds may be in any form, including bearer bonds or registered bonds. Facsimile signatures may be used on the bonds and any coupons. Refunding revenue bonds may be issued in the same manner as revenue bonds are issued.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. A county rail district may exercise the power of eminent domain to obtain property for its authorized purposes in the manner counties exercise the powers of eminent domain.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The rule of strict construction does not apply to this chapter, and this chapter shall be liberally construed to permit the accomplishment of its purposes.

Sec. 16. Section 19, chapter 2, Laws of 1983 and RCW 84.52.052 are each amended to read as follows:

The limitations imposed by RCW 84.52.050 through 84.52.056, and RCW 84.52.043 shall not prevent the levy of additional taxes by any taxing district except school districts in which a larger levy is necessary in order to prevent the impairment of the obligation of contracts. Any county, metropolitan park district, park and recreation service area, park and recreation district, sewer district, water district, solid waste disposal district, county rail district, public hospital district, road district, rural county library district, island library district, intercounty rural library district, fire protection district, cemetery district, city, or town may levy taxes at a rate in excess of the rate specified in RCW 84.52.050 through 84.52.056 and RCW 84.52.043, or RCW 84.55.010 through 84.55.050, when authorized so to do by the electors of such county, metropolitan park district, park and recreation service area, park and recreation district, sewer district, water district, solid waste disposal district, county rail district, public hospital district, road district, rural county library district, island library district, intercounty rural library district, fire protection district, cemetery district, city, town, or cultural arts, stadium and convention district in the manner set forth in Article VII, section 2(a) of the Constitution of this state, as amended by Amendment 64 and as thereafter amended, at a special or general election to be held in the year in which the levy is made.

Prior to the sale of the property, if the property is shown on the property tax rolls under unknown owner or if the property contains a residential structure having an assessed value of two thousand dollars or more, the treasurer shall order or conduct a title search of the property to determine the record title holders and all persons claiming a mortgage, deed of trust, or mechanic's, laborer's, materialmen's, or vendor's lien on the property.

At least thirty days prior to the sale of the property, a copy of the notice of sale shall be mailed by certified and regular mail to all defendants in the foreclosure action as to that parcel, lot, or tract and, if the owner is unknown or the property contains a residential structure having an assessed value of two thousand dollars or more, a copy of the notice of sale shall be mailed by regular and certified mail to any additional record title holders and persons claiming a mortgage, deed of trust, or mechanic's, laborer's, materialmen's, or vendor's lien on the property.

In all other respects the procedure for sale shall be conducted in the same manner as property tax sales described in RCW 84.64.080.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "I believe that our cut-off resolution specifies that at 5:00 o'clock is the deadline for passing bills and I was wondering if that means House Bill No. 2 is now dead? According to the clock, it is now 5:01 or 5:02 p.m."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "We have, in the past in many sessions of the legislature, continued beyond 5:00 o'clock on the bills which have been brought before us and working on by the deadline. So, we will proceed with Engrossed House Bill No. 2 and then we will return to Engrossed House Bill No. 753 as the final bill."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

President Pro Tempore Goltz: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Talmadge, the President finds that Engrossed House Bill No. 753 is a measure which makes several minor amendments to the statutes dealing with the formation of local improvement districts by cities and towns.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Thompson and others provides that the cities and towns and counties must permit separate living quarters and detached single family residential dwellings under certain circumstances.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

"Sec. 8. Section 3, chapter 94, Laws of 1970 ex. sess. as last amended by section 1, chapter 211, Laws of 1982 and RCW 82.14.020 are each amended to read as follows:

For purposes of this chapter:

(1) A retail sale consisting solely of the sale of tangible personal property shall be deemed to have occurred at the retail outlet at or from which delivery is made to the consumer but, for purposes of this subsection, a central distribution center at which no orders for merchandise are taken shall not be deemed a retail outlet;

(2) A retail sale consisting essentially of the performance of personal business or professional services shall be deemed to have occurred at the place at which such services were primarily performed;

(3) A retail sale consisting of the rental of tangible personal property shall be deemed to have occurred (a) in the case of a rental involving periodic rental payments, at the primary place of use by the lessee during the period covered by each payment, or (b) in all other cases, at the place of first use by the lessee;

(6) "City" means a city or town;

(7) The meaning ascribed to words and phrases in chapters 82.04, 82.08 and 82.12 RCW, as now or hereafter amended, insofar as applicable, shall have full force and effect with respect to taxes imposed under authority of this chapter;

(8) "Taxable event" shall mean any retail sale, or any use of an article of tangible personal property, upon which a state tax is imposed pursuant to chapter 82.08 or 82.12 RCW, as they now exist or may hereafter be amended: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That the term shall not include a retail sale taxable pursuant to RCW 82.08.150, as now or hereafter amended;

(9) "Treasurer or other legal depository" shall mean the treasurer or legal depository of a county or city."

Renumber the sections consecutively

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Shinpoch: "Senator Gaspard, in the example that you used, does the Bon Marche make retail sales out of the warehouse in Tukwila?"

Senator Gaspard: "No, as I understand it, it doesn't. If they do, they would not qualify for that exemption and the sale made out of Tukwila--from this example--the local sales tax--would then go to the Tukwila area."

Senator Shinpoch: "In your example, they do make sales out of the warehouse in--"

Senator Gaspard: "Maybe I picked the wrong department store."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Ways and Means amendment.

The motion by Senator Gaspard carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Warnke, the following amendment by Senators Warnke and Deccio was adopted:

On page 12, after line 19, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. Section 20, chapter 22, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 35.21.285 are each repealed."

Renumber the remaining section accordingly.

Senator Moore moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Moore, Pullen, Metcalf, Vognild, Zimmerman, Craswell, Hayner, Clarke, Owen, Peterson, Guess, Barr, Hurley, Fuller, McManus, Thompson and Haley:

On page 12, after line 19, add the following new sections and renumber any succeeding sections accordingly.

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. There is added to chapter 82.08 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The tax levied by RCW 82.08.020 does not apply to the sale of precious metal bullion or monetized bullion. For purposes of this section, "precious metal bullion" means any elementary precious metal which has been put through a process of smelting or refining, including, but not limited to gold, silver, platinum, rhodium, and chromium, and which is in such state or condition that its value depends upon its contents and not upon its form. For purposes of this section, "monetized bullion" means coins or other forms of money manufactured from gold, silver, or other metals and heretofore, now or hereafter used as a medium of exchange under the laws of this state, the United States, or any foreign nation, but does not include coins or money sold to be manufactured into jewelry or works of art.

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. There is added to chapter 82.12 RCW a new section to read as follows:

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Shinpoch: "A point of order, Mr. President. I would raise the question of scope and object on the amendment. House Bill No. 72, before us, is a fairly simple bill that cleans up some language of actually making a legislative determination of when taxes should be imposed and shouldn't be imposed, as it applies both to the collection of sales tax and relative to the application of the reduced B & O tax. Then, if the taxes aren't paid--how they go about issuing warrants and those kinds of things. It seems to me like it is a fairly narrow bill and it seems to me that removing sales tax on precious metals is outside the scope and object of the bill."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

At 10:33 a.m., on motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order at 11:53 a.m.

MOTION

At 11:52 a.m., on motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate recessed until 1:30 p.m.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Shinpoch, the President finds that House Bill No. 72, as amended by the Senate, is a measure which deals with the subject of revenue and taxation by modifying the laws dealing with sales, use and B & O taxes and, also, by repealing the special excise tax on hotel rooms.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Moore and others also deals with the subject of revenue and taxation by creating an exemption from the sales and use tax for sales of precious metal bullion.

understand what that means. I would like to have some real clarification on how that does what you want it to do."

Senator Hansen: "Well, at wholesale, where the livestock is slaughtered, would be at the reduced rate, but it wouldn't be at the reduced rate at the retail."

Due to pressing business in the Senate, I inadvertently voted no on EHB No. 399, as I was lead to believe that we were voting on an amendment which I objected to. Had I known that the bill was on final passage, I would have cast a yes vote. I support this bill.

Providing for children and family services.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Granlund moved adoption of the following Committee on Institutions amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature reaffirms its declarations under RCW 13.34.020 that the family unit is the fundamental resource of American life which should be nurtured and that the family unit should remain intact in the absence of compelling evidence to the contrary. The legislature declares that the goal of serving emotionally disturbed and mentally ill children, potentially dependent children, and families-in-conflict in their own homes to avoid out-of-home placement of the child, when that form of care is premature, unnecessary, or inappropriate, is a high priority of this state.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. The department of social and health services shall address the needs of emotionally disturbed and mentally ill children, potentially dependent children, and families-in-conflict by:

- (1) Serving children and families as a unit in the least restrictive setting available and in close proximity to the family home, consistent with the best interests and special needs of the child;
- (2) Ensuring that appropriate social and health services are provided to the family unit both prior to the removal of a child from the home and after family reunification;
- (3) Developing and implementing comprehensive, preventive, and early intervention social and health services which have demonstrated the ability to delay or reduce the need for out-of-home placements and ameliorate problems before they become chronic or severe;
- (4) Developing coordinated social and health services which:
 - (a) Identify problems experienced by children and their families early and provide services which are adequate in availability, appropriate to the situation, and effective;
 - (b) Seek to bring about meaningful change before family situations become irreversibly destructive and before disturbed psychological behavioral patterns and health problems become severe or permanent;
 - (c) Serve children and families in their own homes thus preventing unnecessary out-of-home placement or institutionalization;
 - (d) Focus resources on social and health problems as they begin to manifest themselves rather than waiting for chronic and severe patterns of illness, criminality, and dependency to develop which require long-term treatment, maintenance, or custody;
 - (e) Reduce duplication of and gaps in service delivery;
 - (f) Improve planning, budgeting, and communication among all units of the department serving children and families; and
 - (g) Develop outcome standards for measuring the effectiveness of social and health services for children and families.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. The department shall address the needs of juvenile offenders whose standard range sentences do not include commitment by developing nonresidential community-based programs designed to reduce the incidence of manifest injustice commitments when consistent with public safety.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. The department shall involve a juvenile offender's family as a unit in the treatment process. The department need not involve the family as a unit in cases when family ties have by necessity been irrevocably broken. When the natural parents have been or will be replaced by a foster family or guardian, the new family will be involved in the treatment process.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. The department shall develop a plan in cooperation with an advisory committee of community representatives appointed by the secretary for the implementation of sections 2 through 4 of this act for submission to the appropriate committees of the house of representatives and the senate by November 15, 1983. The plan shall include:

(1) Policies and procedures for the coordinated and cooperative functioning of all units of the department serving children and families which eliminate duplications, inconsistencies, and conflicting rules;

(2) Policies and procedures for the coordinated and cooperative functioning of the department with agencies of local government, schools, courts, and the private sector;

(3) An evaluation of the desirability and feasibility of locating out-of-home placements, treatment programs, and institutions in close geographical proximity to the area or residence of the child and the family;

(4) Priorities for all departmental units serving children and families;

(5) Training initiatives directed toward all departmental units and contractors serving children and families;

(6) Policies and procedures which address the appropriate role of the department of social and health services in fostering services which address the special needs of parents and their young children. The policies and procedures shall pay attention to the unique needs of culturally diverse groups;

(7) Policies and procedures designed to ensure coordination between all departmental units serving children and families and the public schools;

(8) Policies for the evaluation, treatment, and referral of children and families by all departmental units serving children and families;

(9) Procedures for all departmental units serving children and families to use in identifying and meeting the needs of children and families at the local level;

(10) Changes which may be necessary in statutes to permit the full implementation of sections 2 through 4 of this act;

(11) An evaluation of whether the existing organizational structure of the department will permit the full implementation of sections 2 through 4 of this act or whether an alternative organizational structure is more appropriate;

(12) Outcome standards which can be used to measure the effectiveness of social and health service programs; and

(13) Procedures for the establishment of local volunteer oversight groups within each department service area. The oversight group shall be comprised of parents, professionals in the field of children and family services not employed by the department, local government employees in law enforcement or children and family services, and members of other nonprofit organizations participating in children and family services activities.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. This act may be known and cited as the "children and family services act."

NEW SECTION, Sec. 7. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 8. Sections 2 through 4 of this act shall take effect January 1, 1984.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 9. Sections 1 through 4 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 74 RCW.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Kiskaddon, I notice 'potentially dependent' in the amendment which I am looking at now, which is in the bill--'potentially dependent children in families in conflict in their own home.' Are you proposing that they ask Mary Jane or Joe, in school, did your mother and father have a fight last night and what were they fighting about? How would the Department go about solving that conflict in the home?"

Senator Kiskaddon: "The Department cannot actually solve the problem in the home. For the most part, you don't have to ask the child if there was a conflict in the home. The whole movement of a child in school will begin to show that something is really going wrong in terms of the child in their behavior and response toward life. What we see is more of working, and in essence saying, 'I sense your child is very discouraged and is having troubles here. Is there any way that we could help?' It is that kind of an offer of support that might make it possible for many families that were fighting to do something about it."

Senator Rasmussen: "A further question--if the family refuses that help from the Department, then they will file charges of child abuse or something?"

Senator Kiskaddon: "I don't see that happening, unless someone had actually reported an incident of child abuse."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the Committee on Institutions amendment.

The motion by Senator Granlund carried and the committee amendment was adopted.

The legislature recognizes that license fees obtained from sports fishermen support the majority of the production of these game fish. The legislature finds that commercial operations which benefit from the commercial harvest of these fish should pay a tax to assist in the funding of these facilities. Senator Owen: "No, I couldn't."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Owen, is it the intent of this bill--it speaks of game fish, which could well be any fish. What my question would be, does this bill relate to a fish farmer that would either be selling or buying? I am thinking of--we do have fish farms at the present time raising bass, and they could be from the Columbia or something like that where they receive them. I want the intent made clear that it is not to license the fish farmer when he sells."

Senator Owen: "No, that is correct. This is for the person who buys it and sells it for retail. The fish buyer who is going to turn around and sell it at retail would have to have the buyer's license and, also, pay the excise tax on it."

Senator Rasmussen: "It would not relate in any way to the fish farmer?"

Senator Owen: "It would not deal with bass, anyway--just anadromous game fish. It does not deal with the fish farmer that you are talking about."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Pullen: "With the adoption of the Bottiger amendment on line 7, which states that we shall have until one minute before midnight tomorrow, in order to pass bills, it appears to me that that language is in conflict with Rule 15. That rule states that the Senate shall not adjourn later than 10 p.m. of each working day. It appears to me that there is a serious conflict and I would suggest that the Senate rules, since we have not amended the Senate rules, would supersede."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President and Senator Pullen, I am going to do my best to be out of here by 10 o'clock. That rule can be amended or set aside or suspended by a majority vote. I haven't done it one time this session. I don't intend to do it the first time."

On page 45, beginning on line 27, strike all of subsection (5) and renumber the remaining subsections accordingly.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Lee, do I understand that this is a fifty million dollar add item?"

Senator Lee: "Senator Bottiger, this is not an add-on. This is using the same amount of money, but instead of putting it into various sections, we put it all into the top section and then make the distribution formula under it. It is not an increase in the budget amount."

Senator Clarke demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on adoption of the amendments by Senator Lee to the committee amendment.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Lee failed and the amendments to the committee amendment were not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 21; nays, 26; absent, 01; excused, 01.

Renumber the remaining subsection accordingly.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, I raise the point of order of impugning the motives of members. I let it go once as probably the heat of battle, but I will raise the point of order if that kind of language is used again. Shortly, we will be considering a bank bill and you might keep that in mind."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Guess, please confine your remarks to the issue." Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hayner: "Senator McDermott, I assume that what you are saying is that no school district will be permitted to request, from the state, additional reimbursement for raising salaries earlier than January 1, 1984."

Senator McDermott: "I think, Senator Hayner, the wording of this language in the bill is quite clear. That's precisely what it does. We are putting money in for an average 3.8% salary increase. If a district wishes, from its own sources, to put that salary increase out before January 1, they can so bargain with their teachers. They will, then, not be able to recoup that money from the state. It will not raise their salary base. In the next biennium, we will be where we intended to be."

Further debate ensued.

Senators Bottiger, Bauer and Woody demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

Senator Bluechel demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Barr: "Senator McDermott, I believe we were talking of ninety-four million dollars difference--just the difference between one body's increase and the other--that is about right. Is that true?"

Senator McDermott: "It is my understanding from a casual analysis of this first set of amendments that it was ninety-four million dollars."

Senator Barr: "My question really is then, would you consider this the highest priority and the biggest item of increase in the budget?"

Senator McDermott: "It is awfully late at night to know where you are going with that question, so I am not sure how I ought to answer it. It is the biggest amendment which has been offered here tonight."

Senator Barr: "I assume that the salary increases would be the biggest item of the whole increase then--in the budget? A while ago when I was offering an amendment, I was talking about priorities and I just wanted to know where the priorities lie?"

Senator McDermott: "Senator Barr, in putting this budget together, we tried to take care of human needs first. We wanted people to eat and have a place to live and a hospital to go to when they are sick. That was the highest priority."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 20, 1983

Mr. President:

The House has passed SENATE BILL NO. 3182 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause, and insert the following:

*NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. There is added to chapter 30.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A bank or trust company may purchase for its own account shares of stock of a bank or a holding company that owns or controls a bank if the stock of the bank or company is owned exclusively, except to the extent directly qualifying shares are required by law, by depository institutions and the bank or company and all subsidiaries thereof are engaged exclusively in providing services for other depository institutions and their officers, directors, and employees. In no event may the total amount of such stock held by a bank or trust company in any bank or bank holding company exceed at any time ten percent of its capital stock and paid-in and unimpaired surplus, and in no event may the purchase of such stock result in a bank or trust company acquiring more than twenty-five percent of any class of voting securities of such bank or company. Such a bank or bank holding company shall be called a "banker's bank."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 30.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Sales of federal reserve funds with a maturity of one business day or under a continuing contract are not "loans or obligations" or "liabilities" for the purposes of the loan limits established by RCW 30.04.110. However, sales of federal reserve funds with a maturity of more than one business day are subject to those limits.

For the purposes of this section, "sale of federal reserve funds" means any transaction among depository institutions involving the disposal of immediately available funds resulting from credits to deposit balances at federal reserve banks or from credits to new or existing deposit balances due from a correspondent depository institution.

Sec. 3. Section 30.04.060, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 6, chapter 196, Laws of 1982 and RCW 30.04.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The supervisor, the deputy supervisor, or a bank examiner, without previous notice, shall visit each bank and each trust company at least once in each year, and oftener if necessary, for the purpose of making a full investigation into the condition of such corporation, and for that purpose they are hereby empowered to administer oaths and to examine under oath any director, officer, employee, or agent of such corporation. ((Said)) The supervisor may make such other full or partial examinations as deemed necessary and may examine any bank holding company that owns any portion of a bank or trust company chartered by the state of Washington and obtain reports of condition for any bank holding company that owns any portion of a bank or trust company chartered by the state of Washington. The supervisor may visit and examine into the affairs of any nonpublicly held corporation in which the bank, trust company, or bank holding company has an investment or any publicly held corporation the capital stock of which is controlled by the bank, trust company, or bank holding company; may appraise and revalue such corporations' investments and securities; and shall have full access to all the books, records, papers, securities, correspondence, bank accounts, and other papers of such corporations for such purposes. The supervisor may, in his or her discretion, accept in lieu of the examinations required in this section the examinations required under the terms of the federal reserve act for banks which are, or may become, members of a federal reserve bank or the deposits of which are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. Any wilful false swearing in any examination ((shall be)) is perjury.

Sec. 4. Section 30.04.110, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 1, chapter 136, Laws of 1969 and RCW 30.04.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The total liability to any bank or trust company of any person for money borrowed, including in the liabilities of a firm or association the liabilities of the several members thereof, shall not at any time exceed ~~((fifteen))~~ twenty percent of the capital and surplus of such bank or trust company; but the discount of bills of exchange drawn in good faith against actually existing values and the discount of commercial or business paper of solvent parties, actually owned by the person negotiating the same, shall not be considered as money borrowed by him: PROVIDED, That loans secured by collateral security having an ascertained market value of at least fifteen percent more than the amount of the loans secured, shall not be limited by this section.

Loans or obligations shall not be subject under this section to any limitation based upon such capital and surplus to the extent that they are secured or covered by guaranties, or by commitments or agreements to take over or to purchase the same, made by any federal reserve bank or by the United States or any department, bureau, board, commission or establishment of the United States, including any corporation wholly owned directly or indirectly by the United States.

For the purposes of this section, "capital" includes capital notes or debentures issued under chapter 30.36 RCW.

Sec. 5. Section 2, chapter 194, Laws of 1963 and RCW 30.04.128 are each amended to read as follows:

Any state bank or trust company, stock savings bank, or mutual savings bank may invest in the capital stock of banking service corporations ~~((organized for the purpose of performing or providing mechanical, clerical, or record keeping services for two or more banks))~~. The total amount which any such bank may invest in the shares of such corporations may not exceed in the case of a bank or trust company or stock savings bank, ten percent of its paid in or unimpaired capital and unimpaired surplus, or in the case of a mutual savings bank, ten percent of its guaranty fund. Such a bank service corporation may not engage in any activity other than ~~((the performance of services for banks))~~ those permitted by the bank service corporation act, 12 U.S.C. Sec. 1861, et seq., as amended by P.L. 97-320, and in effect on the effective date of this 1983 act. The performance of any service, and any records maintained by any such corporation for a bank, shall be subject to regulation and examination by the supervisor and appropriate federal agencies to the same extent as if such services or records were being performed or maintained by the bank on its own premises.

Sec. 6. Section 30.04.140, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 2, chapter 133, Laws of 1967 and RCW 30.04.140 are each amended to read as follows:

No bank or trust company shall pledge or hypothecate any of its securities or assets to any depositor, ~~((or creditor;))~~ except that it may qualify as depository for United States deposits, postal savings funds or other public funds, or funds held in trust and deposited by any public officer by virtue of his office, or funds held by the United States or the state of Washington, or any officer thereof in trust, or for funds of corporations owned or controlled by the United States, and may give such security for such deposits as are required by law or by the officer making the same; and it may give security to its trust department for deposits with itself which represent trust funds invested in savings accounts or which represent fiduciary funds awaiting investment or distribution~~((PROVIDED, That any bank or trust company may borrow, for temporary purposes, not to exceed in the aggregate amount the paid-in capital and surplus thereof, and may pledge as security therefor assets of such corporation, not exceeding one and one-half times the amount borrowed))~~.

Sec. 7. Section 30.04.160, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 and RCW 30.04.160 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((When it shall appear to the supervisor that any bank or trust company is habitually borrowing for the purpose of reloaning, he may require such corporation to pay off such borrowed money. Nothing herein shall prevent any bank or trust company from rediscounting in good faith and indorsing any of its negotiable notes, but all such moneys borrowed and all such rediscounts shall at all times show on its books and in its reports. No certificates of deposit shall be issued for the purpose of borrowing money;))~~ No officer of any bank or trust company shall issue the note of such corporation for money borrowed or rediscount any of its notes except when authorized by resolution of its board of directors or by an authorized committee thereof. Violation of any provision of RCW 30.04.140 or 30.04.150 or of this section shall constitute a felony.

Sec. 8. Section 7, chapter 136, Laws of 1969 and RCW 30.04.215 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to all powers ~~((previously))~~ enumerated by this title, and those necessarily implied therefrom, a bank may engage in other business ~~((activity: PROVIDED, That))~~ activities that have been determined by the board of governors of the federal reserve system or by the United States Congress to be closely related to the business of banking, as of the effective date of this 1983 act. At least thirty days before investment in corporations or other entities under this chapter, notification by letter shall be made to the supervisor in accordance with such terms and conditions as the supervisor might establish by rule. A bank~~((which))~~ that desires to perform an activity ~~((which))~~ that is not expressly authorized by ~~((the powers enumerated in))~~ this section(;) shall first apply to the supervisor for authorization to conduct such activity. Within thirty days of the receipt of this application, the supervisor shall determine whether the activity is ~~((and appropriate adjunct))~~ closely related to the business of banking, whether the public convenience and advantage will be promoted, whether the activity is apt to create an unsafe or unsound practice by the bank and whether the applicant is capable of performing such an activity. If the supervisor finds the activity to be ~~((an appropriate adjunct))~~ closely related to the business of banking and the bank is otherwise qualified, he shall forthwith inform the applicant that the activity is authorized. If the supervisor determines that such activity is not ~~((an appropriate adjunct))~~ closely related to the business of banking or the bank is not otherwise qualified, he shall forthwith inform the applicant. The applicant shall have the right to appeal from an unfavorable determination in accordance with the procedures of the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW ~~((as now or hereafter amended))~~. In determining whether a particular activity is ~~((an appropriate adjunct))~~ closely related to the business of banking, the supervisor shall be guided by ~~((whether national banks under federal laws and administrative regulations and rulings have the authority to perform such activity))~~ the rulings of the board of governors of the federal reserve system in making determinations in connection with the powers exercisable by bank holding companies, and the activities performed by other commercial banks or their holding companies. Any activity which may be performed by a bank, except the taking of deposits, may be performed by a corporation, all of the outstanding stock of which is owned by the bank. A bank shall not invest a sum greater than twenty-five percent of its capital and surplus in the capital stock of corporations organized to perform activities authorized by this section.

Sec. 9. Section 30.04.230, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 7, chapter 196, Laws of 1982 and RCW 30.04.230 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A corporation or association organized under the laws of this state or licensed to transact business in the state, other than a bank or trust company, may acquire any or all shares of stock of any bank, trust company, or national banking association. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the merger, consolidation, or reorganization of a bank or trust company in accordance with this title ~~((or to permit a))~~.

(2) ~~Unless the terms of this section are complied with, an out-of-state bank holding company ((the operations of which are principally conducted outside this state to)) shall not~~ shall not acquire more than five percent of the shares of the voting stock or all or substantially all of the assets of a bank, trust company, or national banking association the principal operations of which are conducted within this state.

MOTION

Senator Bottiger moved that the Senate concur with the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 3182.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Sellar: "A point of order, Mr. President. I would respectfully request that the amendment to Senate Bill No. 3182 broadens the scope and object of the bill. The bill as it left the Senate merely repealed two sections of the code that dealt with revolving funds for the Supervisor of Banking. The amendment that came back broadens to the point of really setting up an entirely new system for interstate acquisition of banks and I, respectfully, report to you that the day-to-day operation of the banking and supervisor has nothing to do with interstate banking."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Sellar, the President finds that Senate Bill No. 3182 is a measure which repeals the statutes creating the banking, savings and loan associations and credit unions examination funds.

"The amendment proposed by the House of Representatives, while incorporating the language of the original bill in the House amendment, deals primarily with the subject of interstate acquisition of banks.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken.

"Pursuant to Senate Rule 66, Senate Bill No. 3182 is referred to the Senate Committee on Financial Institutions."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate returned to the first order of business.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Sellar: "Senator Bottiger, this matter has been brought over to us by the House of Representatives, we all know. There are some members on the floor, including myself, that would like an opportunity, at some point in time, to at least offer some amendments to that bill. We were not given that opportunity in committee, I understand, because of the time press. If we follow through with this particular motion and it goes to conference, etc., I assume that there will be no opportunity for amendments to this bill by a member of the Senate. Is that correct?"

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Sellar, I hadn't thought that all the way through, but I guess I would have to say that there would not be—in the general floor action. The only place that there would be would be in a free-conference report where there could be amendments offered. That is the only place that I can think of."

Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, if we vote not to concur with the House amendments and send the bill back to the House, and they vote that they do not wish to recede and send the bill back to us, would it then be in order for someone to raise the question of scope and object, if a motion is then made to concur with the House amendments?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Pullen, if such a situation, as you describe, develops, the President will make the determination at that time."

Further debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, which motion is before the body at the present time?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The motion before the Senate, Senator Rasmussen, is the motion by Senator Moore that the Senate Committee on Financial Institutions be relieved of further consideration of Senate Bill No. 3182, as amended by the House."

MOTION

Senator Rasmussen moved that further consideration of Senate Bill No. 3182, as amended by the House, be deferred until the afternoon session.

Senators Bottiger, Hansen and Moore demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

Senator Rasmussen demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Rasmussen to defer consideration of Senate Bill No. 3182, as amended by the House, until the afternoon session.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Rasmussen failed by the following vote: Yeas, 16; nays, 31; absent, 02; excused, 00.

Voting nay: Senators Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Deccio, Fuller, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McManus, Moore, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Quigg, Shinpoch, Thompson, Vognild, Wojahn, Woody - 31.

Absent: Senators Bauer, von Reichbauer - 2.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Moore that the Committee on Financial Institutions be relieved of further consideration of Senate Bill No. 3182, as amended by the House, and that the bill be placed before the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Moore carried and the Committee on Financial Institutions was relieved of further consideration of Senate Bill No. 3182, as amended by the House, by the following vote: Yeas, 38; nays, 10; absent, 01; excused, 00.

MOTION

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Bottiger, Senate Rule 66 is quite specific on that particular point--in the event a scope and object ruling results in a measure being referred to committee, a motion to ask the House to recede, to insist or to adhere shall be in order on the same day upon which the scope and object ruling resulted in the measure being referred to committee." The President suggests that you move to request the House to recede from the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 3182."

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, I must have misstated it. I move that pursuant to Rule 66, the Senate ask the House to recede from the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 3182."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Mr. President, I am assuming that the purpose of this motion and a vote on it, does not necessarily indicate the position of those voting on the merits of the House amendments, but that the motion that has been made by Senator Bottiger, is simply to afford an opportunity of consideration of the substance of that amendment by conference between the Houses—since it has been ruled beyond the scope and object and not properly before us for consideration at this time. Am I correct, Senator Bottiger?"

Senator Bottiger: "That is correct, Senator Clarke. That is the precedent that we found in 1975. It comes out exactly the opposite of the way you would think."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Fleming: "A point of order, Mr. President. Recognizing that there is probably a two-thirds vote for this issue, does this motion demand a suspension of rules and two-thirds vote?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator, the motion would require a suspension of the rules and a suspension of the rules, in this particular instance, would require a two-thirds vote of the members present."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Talmadge, your explanation sounded quite good, but I just wanted to clarify exactly who gets the attorneys' fees for the prevailing party--against what kind of suits are involved?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, specifically, this is in civil litigation and where an individual prevails in a lawsuit, whether a plaintiff or a defendant, they get their statutory costs. They would not get reasonable attorneys' fees. That is something that is different under our system of justice, but they would get something called a statutory attorneys' fee, which is presently $100. That would be awarded either to the plaintiff or the defendant who prevailed in the lawsuit."

Senator Pullen: "And that is in any civil case?"

Permitting the state employees' insurance fund to self-fund its insurance programs.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Moore, the rules were suspended, Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 620 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Senator Moore, I note on page 3, line 14 of the bill, it says 'any self-insurance program created pursuant to this section shall be subject to the examination requirements of Chapter 48.803 RCW as if the self-insurance program were a domestic insurer.' Is it the intent, in passing this bill, to require such a fund to have the same qualifications as required of other insurance under the certificates of authority, which would be 48.05 or 48.040 (2), which states 'have capital funds as required by this code based upon the type and domicile of the insurer and the kinds of insurance proposed be transacted.'

"Now, my concern, in asking this question and requestion clarification is the qualifications or requirements for capital and surplus similar to that of private insurers--in the event there should be an unfortunate experience, which would deplete the funds. I fear that inevitably there would be a demand on the general fund of the state to make this good, or if not, the injured employee, in effect, would be left holding the bag. That is the reason I am asking--whether it is the intent of this bill to require this fund to have the same safeguards as to capital and surplus as would be required of a private insurer?"

Senator Moore: "Senator Clarke, not being an expert on insurance, I can only assume that what is stated in the bill pertaining to filing reports and being treated--you referred to page 3--"

Senator Clarke: "On page 3, in effect, starting with line 14 and then continuing down through line 29--our requirements as to what the department should do with respect to reports and examinations.' Now, to me, it is not clear from that language whether or not that is intended to include the requirements and safeguards as to capital and surplus, which would be required of private insurers to enter that field."

Senator Moore: "In response, I can only suggest that where it mentions 'the commissioner shall determine the adequacy of the reserves established for the self-insurance program'--I would assume that they were established at the beginning of the program. That is my only response."

MOTION

Senator Guess moved that further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 620 be deferred indefinitely.

Debate ensued.

Senator Talmadge demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "If the motion fails, then is the other motion for reconsideration out of order?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President will ask Senator Bottiger to clarify his motion. The President believes that it means to immediately reconsider."

Senator Bottiger: "I believe once the notice is given, then any body can move that you do it right now and that is what my motion is to 'now consider.'"

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "A vote 'no,' then, would, in effect, be a vote not to reconsider, so the reconsideration issue would then be completely decided by this vote?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Yes, Senator. A vote 'aye' will mean that you have voted to reconsider the vote, a vote 'no' will mean that you have voted not to reconsider."

Senator Clarke: "I still think there is some misunderstanding upon our side as to the effect. In the event the motion by Senator Bottiger should carry affirmatively and be adopted, is that simply a determination that the vote to or not to reconsider would be taken immediately or is that a vote on the reconsideration?"

President Cherberg: "The President considers this a vote to determine whether the bill is alive or you will reconsider it."

Senator Clarke: "Further consideration--so, if the--"

President Cherberg: "This is a vote on reconsideration--not necessarily on the vote immediately."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Bottiger to immediately reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 620 passed the Senate.

ROLL CALL

On page 3, beginning on line 2, strike all of the material down to and including the period on line 3

Senator Pullen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 2, line 20 after "compliance" insert ": PROVIDED, That notwithstanding any other provision of law, a respondent shall be entitled to a trial by jury in any action under this chapter in which monetary damages may be awarded"

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Talmadge, do I understand what you say is that in accordance with the administrative procedures, the case is handled by the administrative law judge? He fines the person a thousand dollars--the person can then go to the superior court and file an action there seeking regress?"

Senator Talmadge: "No, Senator Guess. When a person has that fine imposed against him by an administrative law judge, the Administrative Procedures Act provides that they can appeal to superior court, but they appeal on the record. It is not de novo and it is not before a jury, as I understand. Rather, it is on the record and there are standards for whether or not the factual findings of the administrative law judge are correct and whether the conclusions of law drawn by that administrative law judge are correct.

"I would point out that it is parallel to what we do in a wide variety of cases. Take an example--the Board of Industrial Insurance Appeals and workers' compensation cases--our court has ruled there that the very same kind of mechanism does not violate that worker who was injured the right to a trial jury. If a person files in court and there is a parallel right to file a civil action in court if they want to--they choose not to go through the administrative mechanism--there the right to a trial by jury applies."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Pullen.

The motion by Senator Pullen failed on a rising vote and the amendment was not adopted.

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Talmadge and Hemstad:

"Sec. 3, Section 5, chapter 100, Laws of 1961 and RCW 49.44.090 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be an unfair practice:

(1) For an employer or licensing agency, because an individual is between the ages of forty and ~~((sixty-five))~~ seventy, to refuse to hire or employ or license or to bar or to terminate from employment such individual, or to discriminate against such individual in promotion, compensation or in terms, conditions or privileges of employment: PROVIDED, That employers or licensing agencies may establish reasonable minimum and/or maximum age limits with respect to candidates for positions of employment, which positions are of such a nature as to require extraordinary physical effort, endurance, condition or training, subject to the approval of the director of labor and industries through the division of industrial relations.

(2) For any employer, licensing agency or employment agency to print or circulate or cause to be printed or circulated any statement, advertisement, or publication, or to use any form of application for employment or to make any inquiry in connection with prospective employment, which expresses any limitation, specification or discrimination respecting individuals between the ages of forty and ~~((sixty-five))~~ seventy: PROVIDED, That nothing herein shall forbid a requirement of disclosure of birth date upon any form of application for employment or by the production of a birth certificate or other sufficient evidence of the applicant's true age.

Nothing contained in this section or in RCW 49.60.180 as to age shall be construed to prevent the termination of the employment of any person who is physically unable to perform his duties or to affect the retirement policy or system of any employer where such policy or system is not merely a subterfuge to evade the purposes of this section; nor shall anything in this section or in RCW 49.60.180 be deemed to preclude the varying of insurance coverages according to an employee's age; nor shall this section be construed as applying to any state, county, or city law enforcement agencies, or as superseding any law fixing or authorizing the establishment of reasonable minimum or maximum age limits with respect to candidates for certain positions in public employment which are of such a nature as to require extraordinary physical effort, or which for other reasons warrant consideration of age factors."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Haley: "A point of order, Mr. President. I ask for a ruling on scope and object on this amendment. The bill is about the duties and punishments under an administrative law judge. It would change the name of the commission and the present amendment is an entirely separate subject which would change the ages of people who would have a discrimination case."

Debate ensued.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, further consideration of House Bill No. 555 was deferred.

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate returned to the fourth order of business.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Haley, the President finds that House Bill No. 555 is a measure which deals with the subject of unfair practices within the jurisdiction of the Human Rights Commission by expanding the actions that an administrative law judge may take at an unfair practice hearing.

"The amendment proposed by Senators Talmadge and Hemstad, also, deals with the subject of unfair practices within the jurisdiction of the Human Rights Commission by including the class of persons who are protected from age discrimination.

Nelson, Vander Stoep, Armstrong, Niemi, Pruitt, Mitchell, Dellwo, Braddock, Schoon, Chandler, P. King, Powers, Burns, Ristuben, Johnson, Garrett, Halsan, Tilly, Charnley, Locke, Sutherland, Tanner, Galloway, Holland, Lux, R. King, J. Williams, Long, Miller, Hine and Vekich)

Establishing a maximum initial temperature setting for water heaters.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Williams, the following Committee on Energy and Utilities amendment was adopted:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature recognizes that unnecessarily hot tap or bath water creates an extreme risk of severe burns, especially among the elderly, children, and retarded persons. Annually, numerous persons suffer severe scald burns, some resulting in death, from tap or bath water which is inordinately hot. Excessive tap and bath water temperatures in residential usage is unnecessary for sanitary purposes. Regulation of the setting of water temperatures upon installation can virtually eliminate incidences of dangerous scalding. Further, the legislature finds that projected future shortages of energy in our state could be reduced or prevented by the efficient utilization of existing energy resources. Reducing the temperature settings on thermostats to one hundred twenty degrees Fahrenheit (or forty-nine degrees Celsius) would save energy that is now unnecessarily consumed, reduce homeowners' average utility costs, and promote home safety without any loss of comfort or health.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 19.27 RCW a new section to read as follows:

- (1) "Hot water heater" means the primary source of hot water for a residence.
- (2) The thermostat of a new water heater offered for sale or lease in this state for use in a residential unit, shall be preset by the manufacturer no higher than one hundred twenty degrees Fahrenheit (or forty-nine degrees Celsius) or the minimum setting on any water heater which cannot be set as low as that temperature. Water heating systems may utilize higher reservoir temperature if mixing valves are set or systems are designed to restrict the temperature of water to one hundred twenty degrees Fahrenheit.
- (3) Upon occupancy of a new tenant in a residential unit leased or rented in this state, if hot water is supplied from an accessible, individual water heater, the water heater shall be set by the owner or agent at a temperature not higher than one hundred twenty degrees Fahrenheit (forty-nine degrees Celsius) or the minimum setting on any water heater which cannot be set as low as that temperature. Water heating systems may utilize higher reservoir temperature if mixing valves are set or systems are designed to restrict the temperature of water to one hundred twenty degrees Fahrenheit.
- (4) Nothing in this section shall prohibit an owner of an owner-occupied residential unit or resident of a leased or rented residential unit from readjusting the temperature setting after occupancy. Any readjustment of the temperature setting by the resident relieves the owner or agent of an individual residential unit and the manufacturer of water heaters from liability for damages attributed to the readjustment by the resident.
- (5) The utility providing energy for any water heater under this section shall at least annually, include in its billing a statement:
 - (a) Recommending that water heaters be set no higher than one hundred twenty degrees Fahrenheit or the minimum setting on a water heater which cannot be set as low as that temperature to prevent severe burns and reduce excessive energy consumption; and
 - (b) That the thermostat of an individual water heater furnished in a residential unit leased or rented in this state to new tenants shall be set no higher than one hundred twenty degrees Fahrenheit or the minimum setting on a water heater which cannot be set as low as that temperature pursuant to chapter 19.27 RCW.
- (6) The manufacturer of a water heater under this section which is offered for sale or installed after the effective date of this act shall have a tag attached to the thermostat access plate or immediately adjacent to exposed thermostats. The tag shall state that the thermostat settings above the preset temperature may cause severe burns and consume excessive energy.
- (7) Nothing in this section requires or permits any inspections other than those otherwise required or permitted by law."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Williams, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 177, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Williams, is there anything in the bill which prevents an owner or a person who lives in an apartment from turning down the level of the hot water heater once he or she begins to live in the house or apartment?"

Senator Williams: "As I recall, the language we have in this measure, now, is very similar to the Senate Bill that passed earlier, and as I recall, the answer is 'no.' The resident or owner may change the setting once it has been set."

ROLL CALL

* NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. From April 3, 1982, until September 30, 1984, the annual rent for an existing lease, renewed lease, or release of public tidelands, shorelands, beds of navigable waters, and harbor areas shall be the rent paid on such lease on January 1, 1981, which may be increased up to six percent per year, not compounded, from April 3, 1982 until September 30, 1984. From April 3, 1982 until September 30, 1984, the annual rent for a new lease entered into after January 1, 1981, shall be the rent paid January 1, 1981, for comparable public tidelands, shorelands, beds of navigable waters, and harbor areas leased for similar purposes. From April 3, 1982, until September 30, 1984, such rent on new leases may be increased up to six percent per year, not compounded, from the January 1, 1981 rent paid. The annual rent paid on January 1, 1981, means the actual rent paid on that date including any stair-stepped or other incremental rent payments of the full rental value. Any lessee of public tidelands, shorelands, beds of navigable waters, and harbor areas paying more than the rent permitted under this section shall receive a credit, in the appropriate amount, on future rent owing for such lease or any other leases entered into by the lessee on public tidelands, shorelands, beds of navigable waters, and harbor areas: PROVIDED, That if any such leases terminate prior to the lessee being granted full credit for the overpaid rent, the lessee shall be reimbursed for the remaining overpayment in money. This section does not apply to geoduck harvesting, clam harvesting, or oyster bed leases which are established by a competitive bid process. No rent or fee may be charged if tidelands, shorelands, beds of navigable waters, and harbor areas are used or leased for a dock and are used only for personal recreational use by the upland owner. The department of natural resources shall adopt and implement rules to implement this section, including methods and procedures for establishing rent, within ninety days of the effective date of this act. This section shall have both retrospective and prospective effect. This section shall expire and have no further legal effect after September 30, 1984.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 97, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. section 2, chapter 117, Laws of 1982, section 176, chapter 21, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 79.01.525 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Pullen: "A point of order, Mr. President. It would appear to me that this amendment expands the scope and object of this bill."

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Pullen, the President finds that Engrossed House Bill No. 511 is a measure which authorizes cities and towns to create local improvement districts and impose special assessments to fund programs of aquatic plant control, lake or river restoration, and water quality enhancement.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Rinehart and others limits the rent that the Department of Natural Resources may charge for the lease of public tidelands, shorelands, beds of navigable waters, waterways and harbor areas. The amendment, also, prohibits the Department from charging any rent or fee for such public property if it is used only for personal recreational use by the upland owner.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The amendment proposed by Senators Rinehart, Owen, Moore and Craswell was ruled out of order.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Thompson, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 511, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 511, as amended by the Senate.

SECOND READING

SENATE BILL NO. 3226, by Senators McDermott, Jones and Thompson (by Department of Retirement Systems request)

Modifying provisions on retirement from public services.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3226 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3226 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

Senator Shinpoch moved the following amendments be considered and adopted simultaneously:

On page 12, after line 34, insert:

* NEW SECTION, Sec. 13. There is added to chapter 41.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) A person who established service credit under chapter 41.44 RCW and who became a member of the retirement system governed by this chapter prior to the effective date of this act is:

(a) Entitled to transfer any service currently credited under chapter 41.44 RCW to service credit under this chapter as though it had been earned under this chapter; and

(b) Entitled to reestablish any service originally earned under chapter 41.44 RCW but which was destroyed by withdrawal under chapter 41.44 RCW upon payment of the amount withdrawn plus interest from the date of withdrawal until the date of restoration at a rate to be set by the director. The restoration shall be completed within one year of the effective date of this act or within one year of reemployment if not employed by an employer on the effective date of this act. Credit for reestablished service shall be given as though earned in the system governed by this chapter.

(2) The department is authorized to recompute the benefit of any retiree in accordance with this section if the recomputation results in a larger benefit and shall pay the additional amount retroactively to the date of retirement.

(3) Persons affected by this section shall have the benefit provided by this section or the benefit provided by chapters 41.44 and 41.40 RCW as they existed prior to the effective date of this act, whichever is larger."

On page 26, after line 9, insert:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 25. There is hereby appropriated from the general fund to the public employees' retirement fund $210,000 for the costs resulting from Sec. 13 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 26. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Debate ensued.

Senator Guess: "Senator Shinpoch, I talked to a constituent not long ago. It was after the time of dropping bills in the hopper. He said that he had been into the system, been out of it, then came back and went to work a year ago. He was told that he could buy back in. He wrote to the Department and I believe the closing deadline was about August 1--I think--was when his time would have run out. He wrote to the Department in June and asked them how much he had to put up. He wrote them three other times and never did get an answer from them until after the first of August and they said 'so sorry--the deadline has passed.' Now, would this enable that man to, now, pick that up?"

Senator Shinpoch: "Senator Guess, my judgment is that this amendment would not. As I was reading 32.26, there is an open spot in that. After this amendment, I plan to ask to have the bill set down, because the chairman has another amendment coming and we will get the answer to that question in the meantime."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "It is my impression, Senator Shinpoch, that the circumstance which Senator Clarke described is not the complete story--that in this particular case, these employees were actuarially calculated into the system and other conditions. Maybe, you could elaborate to sort of chill the impression that this was the state backing up one person's erroneous interpretation."

Senator Shinpoch: "Thank you, Senator Goltz. It certainly was more than one person. It was the retirement board. The first thing is that they were considered to be portions of the system. We have, you know, formal reports going out to employees that tell you how much you get when you retire and they have always been calculated in the actuarially funding of the system. They have been a part of the system and we have an actuary's statement to that effect. The actuary had always considered them there, because the retirement system had always said they were there.

"This is a case of a state agency, with the Retirement Board making the judgment of putting people in the system, telling the people that they were covered, telling them how much their retirement would be and then taking that formal document from the state, and then those people retiring would have the rug pulled out from under them. I can understand your concern about a precedent and probably there are a few people on the floor that worry more about a precedent in the pension system than I do. I think this is only fair that we do this. I can imagine the depth of my anger and fury of the impotence of not being able to do anything about something that I had relied on all those years, because the Retirement Board did something erroneous. I think that it is right that we do this."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendments by Senator Shinpoch.

The motion by Senator Shinpoch carried and the amendments were adopted.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, further consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3226 was deferred.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 765, by Representatives R. King and Clayton

Adjusting amount of workers' compensation payable to certain injured workers.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Vognild, the rules were suspended, House Bill No. 765 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Haley: "Senator Vognild, we were talking about the cost of living. Are we conforming to the consumer price index or the newer implicit price deflator in this bill?"

Senator Vognild: "Senator Haley, this bill avoids that problem. It does not address either one. This bill uses an average monthly wage for the state of Washington as of July 1 of each year."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Benitz: "Senator Newhouse, could you tell me which funds will be paying the bill here?"

Senator Newhouse: "Senator Benitz, that makes a rather interesting question, because there are really three funds involved in industrial insurance. The first is the accident fund and that is totally paid by the employer. The second is the medical aid fund and that is shared and it has been relatively small compared to the accident fund over the years. The third fund was started some years ago to increase benefits to those previously injured. You understand that the accident fund and the medical fund are prospective and this increase, with its over a quarter of a billion dollars, is almost entirely to the supplemental pension fund--the third fund.

"Now, at the time this was started, it was relatively small. As I recall, it was felt that nobody would object to a couple of cents per hour, but this is going to be far more than that with a bill like this. There will be a substantial deduction, not just from the employer, but also from the employee--prospective employer and employee--to be paid toward those who have been injured in the past.

"I see some real constitutional problems, if this is challenged sometime in the future. This quarter of million dollars--billion--pardon me--we talk about millions and billions and we get out of step sometimes. A quarter of a billion dollars will be assessed--half against the employees of the future, which doesn't seem quite fair under our industrial insurance system. I think that I would really ask that the Senate take a good look at this. I know that it went through the House. That really doesn't mean much. We had better look at it on our own, because this is a bicameral system. We had better know that what we do is right. I can tell you that this bill, maybe more than any other, shakes up the business community of the state--what are we doing in this area."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of House Bill No. 765.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of House Bill No. 765, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 26; nays, 23; absent, 00; excused, 00.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bender, Bottiger, Conner, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Hansen, Hughes, McDermott, McManus, Moore, Owen, Peterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Shipoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody - 26.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Clarke, Craswell, Deccio, Fuller, Guess, Haley, Hayner, Hemstad, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, Metcalf, Newhouse, Patterson, Quigg, Sellar, von Reichbauer, Zimmerman - 23.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Newhouse: "A point of order, Mr. President. There is a rule of the Senate that says that no member can stand at the bar of the Senate when the roll call is being taken and that was violated in this call and the point is that the Secretary of the Senate seems to have difficulty counting when the majority is suddenly behind."

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

HOUSE BILL NO. 765, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

REMARKS BY SENATOR NEWHOUSE

Senator Newhouse: "Do you rule on my point of order, sir?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The point of order is that the gentleman was here to check as to whether he was recorded properly."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, with a great deal of reluctance, I would call to task Senator Newhouse for his conduct on the floor. There are provisions in both the Senate rules and in Resolutions for the President to discipline a member who becomes disorderly on the floor."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator von Reichbauer: "A point of order. For further reference, Mr. President, could you explain to us if there is a rule against one standing at the bar of the Senate?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Would you repeat your remarks, please?"

Senator von Reichbauer: "Is there a rule, Mr. President, that specifically speaks to one being at the bar of the Senate during the course of a roll call vote?"

President Cherberg: "Yes, there is a rule that prohibits any Senator from being near the bar of the Senate during a roll call."

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 107, by Representatives R. King, Betrozoff, Clayton, Heck, O'Brien, Patrick, Galloway, Hine, Sanders and Mitchell

Allowing specified hospitals and school districts to form self-insurance groups.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Vognild, the following Committee on Commerce and Labor amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 22, after "state" and before the comma insert "or subject to RCW 70.39.150(3)"

On motion of Senator Vognild, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 107, as amended by the Senate, was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Sellar: "I am sorry, Senator Vognild, but that amendment went by me pretty quick. Could you explain to me why a patient in a public or private non-profit hospital should have this saving, but if the same patient is in a profit hospital that he should not have this saving. I don't understand why the nonprofit should have a saving and the profit should not."

Senator Vognild: "Senator, the testimony that indicated that the saving would be passed on to the patient was the push that put this bill through committee. The nonprofit or the private nonprofit would put that on. There is no assurance that the private or profit hospital would have to push that on to their patients."

Senator Sellar: "Is there any basis that says that profit hospitals charge a higher fee than nonprofit?"

Senator Vognild: "Senator, as a matter of fact, in committee I asked the hospitals to supply me with information and data showing that there was a savings to this and that there was a savings passed on. One hospital responded and their response was basically in terms of words and not in data."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed House Bill No. 107, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 04; absent, 01; excused, 00.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McManus, Metcalf, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Pullen, Quigg, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Sellar, Shipoch, Thompson, Vogtild, von Reichbauer, Williams, Woody, Zimmerman - 44.

Voting nay: Senators Bender, Moore, Talmadge, Wojahn - 4.

Absent: Senator Warnke - 1.

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 107, as amended by the Senate, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, I move that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 240 be made a special order of business at 11:58. As we are inundated with amendments to this bill, it is obvious that it would delay the consideration of other important legislation and so by making it as a special order of business, perhaps the proposers of the amendments can condense their number substantially."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Pullen: "A point of order, Mr. President. Senator Bottiger's motion is out of order, because the time he indicated is beyond the limits specified in the rules. The limit specified in the rules is 10 o'clock and he specified 11:58. That is beyond the limit in the rules and, therefore, his motion is out of order."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, the 10 o'clock rule says that if there is an objection at that time and a majority wishes to continue, a majority can continue. We will be here at 11:58, Senator, I can assure you."

Senator Pullen: He has not made such a motion. If Senator Bottiger will, now, make a motion that we go beyond the 10 o'clock limit, that motion would be in order, but it is not in order to specify that we will take up a bill beyond the time limit, Mr. President, that is exceeded as provided in the rules. His motion would be in order if he would, now, move that we go beyond the limit--and suspend the rules--and go beyond the limit of 10 o'clock, but his motion, as of now, is not in order. I would hope that you would rule it out of order, so that he could make the proper motion."

Debate ensued.

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I would think that on Senator Pullen's point of order that Senator Bottiger could set the time for 11:58 and if we are not here, which I am sure we won't be--being the 10 o'clock rule--it will come up in the regular order of business the next time we have a session."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President admires your intelligence and agrees with you, Senator Rasmussen, and so rules. Engrossed House Bill No. 240 will be a special order of business at 11:58."

Voting nay: Senators Bluechel, Fleming, Fuller, Goltz, Haley, Hemstad, Kiskaddon, McManus, Metcalf, Newhouse, Peterson, Quigg, von Reichbauer, Zimmerman - 14.

Absent: Senator Woody - 1.

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 888, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of House Joint Memorial No. 31.

ROLL CALL

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 150, by Representatives Pruitt, Barnes, Fisch, Miller, Fisher, Long, Zellinsky, Tanner, Sommers, Jacobsen, Charnley, Garrett, B. Williams, Kaiser, Ristuben, Wang, Lewis, McMullen, Mitchell, Belcher, Patrick, Johnson, Isaacson, Silver, Rust, McDonald, Todd, Moon, Halsan, Hine, Allen, Dellwo, Lux and Holland

Requiring special reports of campaign contributions over five hundred dollars.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended, Engrossed House Bill No. 150 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "I think it is no secret, Senator Talmadge, that I think this is rather a silly bill. In looking at the language on sub (3), on page 1, it says that 'this notice shall be delivered to the Public Disclosure Commission within twenty-four hours of the time that the contribution is received and it can be delivered by mail.' Now, having had experience with the mails in this state in which mail from my side of the mountains to the Public Disclosure can take two, three, four, five days, how can you possibly comply with that and how can you require it in a reasonable manner?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, you have made clear your feeling that you don't like this bill. If you follow down to subsection (4), however, you will note that the special report may be transmitted orally by telephone to the Commission to satisfy delivery requirements. I suggest that in the case of people in eastern Washington, to be safe, they might like to make that oral transmission to the Public Disclosure Commission and at the same time put the thing in the mail, so that Uncle Sam's postal people can try and get it there as soon as they possibly can. I think you can probably have more assurance that Ma Bell will transmit your message to the PDC."

Senator Newhouse: "Would you, then, say that this law would require that a candidate's committee, in some part of this state where it might require more than twenty-four hours for mail delivery, would be required to make a report by phone or could the Public Disclosure Commission require a telephone report?"

Senator Talmadge: "I think to be safe you would probably want to make that telephone report."

Senator Newhouse: "Safe from what?"

Senator Talmadge: "Safe from any concern that you have violated any of the Public Disclosure Act, Senator."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Talmadge, I might want to vote against this bill, but I never got a $500 contribution in my life for political purposes."

Senator Talmadge: "Then you wouldn't have to worry about it applying to you."

Senator Rasmussen: "Except from my wife. My question, Senator Talmadge, is this, and I am reminded of it because in the Satiacum case where Judge Tanner was representing Satiacum to handle--you have to make a federal report of all checks of $10,000 or money transfers--so they made deposits of $9,999 and didn't have to report it. Now, if I were to get a check for $499, I wouldn't have to report it?"

Senator Talmadge: "Senator, I suspect that we can conjure all sorts of intricacies that would allow us to violate the law or to evade the implications of the law. Basically, I suspect, that people would be a little bit suspicious after the elections were over when the post election report comes in to see a whole range of $499 contributions pop up on somebody's post election PDC filing."

Senator Rasmussen: "Two $250 checks--no body would pay any attention to that?"

Senator Talmadge: "I think people might be paying attention to a couple of $250 checks."

Debate ensued.

Senators Bottiger, Talmadge and Woody demanded the previous question.

Senator Quigg demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on shall the main question be now put.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the demand for the previous question carried by the following vote: Yeas, 25; nays, 24; absent, 00; excused, 00.

The processed salmon shall be fit for human consumption and in a form suitable for distribution to individuals. The division of purchasing shall establish the required percentage at a level that does not discourage competitive bidding for the surplus salmon. The measure of the percentage is the combined value of all of the surplus salmon sold. The department of social and health services shall distribute the processed salmon to economically depressed individuals and state institutions pursuant to rules adopted by the department of social and health services."

On page 46, after line 35, insert the following:

In the event that any person or government agency desires to construct any form of hydraulic project or other work that will use, divert, obstruct, or change the natural flow or bed of any river or stream or that will utilize any of the salt or fresh waters of the state or materials from the stream beds, such person or government agency shall (~~submit to the department of fisheries and the department of game full plans and specifications of the proposed construction or work, complete plans and specifications for the proper protection of fish life in connection therewith, the approximate date when such construction or work is to commence, and shall~~), before commencing construction or work thereon and to ensure the proper protection of fish life, secure the written approval of the ((director of fisheries and the director of game)) department having jurisdiction of the site as to the adequacy of the means ((outlined)) proposed for the protection of fish life ((in connection therewith and as to the propriety of the proposed construction or work and time thereof in relation to fish life, before commencing construction or work thereon. The director of fisheries and the director of game shall designate and authorize certain employees of their respective departments to act in place of themselves by signing written approvals for such designations and authorizations)). This approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. The appropriate department shall grant or deny approval within forty-five calendar days of the receipt of a complete application and notice of compliance with any applicable requirements of the state environmental policy act, made in the manner prescribed in this section. The applicant may document receipt of application by filing in person or by registered mail. A complete application for approval shall contain general plans for the overall project, complete plans and specifications of the proposed construction or work within the mean higher high water line in salt water or within the ordinary high water line in fresh water, and complete plans and specifications for the proper protection of fish life. The forty-five day requirement shall be suspended if (1) after ten working days of receipt of the application, the applicant remains unavailable or unable to arrange for a timely field evaluation of the proposed project; (2) the site is physically inaccessible for inspection; or (3) the applicant requests delay. Immediately upon determination that the forty-five day period is suspended, the appropriate department shall notify the applicant in writing of the reasons for the delay. Approval is valid for a period of up to five years from date of issuance. The permittee must demonstrate substantial progress on construction of that portion of the project relating to the hydraulic permit within two years of the date of issuance. If approval is denied, the appropriate department shall provide the applicant, in writing, a statement of the specific reasons why and how the proposed project would adversely affect fish life. Protection of fish life shall be the only ground upon which approval may be denied or conditioned. Chapter 34.04 RCW applies to any denial of project approval, conditional approval, or requirements for project modification upon which approval may be contingent. If any person or government agency commences construction on any ((such)) hydraulic works or projects subject to this section without ((first providing plans and specifications subject to the approval of the director of fisheries and the director of game for the proper protection of fish life in connection therewith and without)) first having obtained written approval of the ((director of fisheries and the director of game)) appropriate department as to the adequacy of ((such plans and specifications submitted)) the means proposed for the protection of fish life, or if any person or government agency fails to follow or carry out any of the requirements or conditions as are made a part of such approval, ((he)) the person or director of the agency is guilty of a gross misdemeanor. If any such person or government agency ((be)) is convicted of violating any of the provisions of this section and continues construction on any such works or projects without fully complying with the provisions hereof, such works or projects are hereby declared a public nuisance and shall be subject to abatement as such. For the purposes of this section, "bed" shall mean that portion of a river or stream and the shorelands within ~~((the))~~ ordinary high water lines.

For each application, the departments shall mutually agree on which one department shall administer the provisions of this section, in order to avoid duplication of effort. The department designated to act shall cooperate with the other department in order to protect all species of fish life found at the project site. If a department receives an application concerning a site not in its jurisdiction, it shall transmit the application to the appropriate department within three days and notify the applicant.

~~((PROVIDED: That))~~ In case of an emergency arising from weather or stream flow conditions or other natural conditions, the department of fisheries or department of game, through their authorized representatives, shall issue immediately upon request oral permits to a riparian owner or lessee for removing any obstructions, repairing existing structures, restoring stream banks, or to protect property threatened by the stream without the necessity of ~~((submitting prepared plans and specifications or))~~ obtaining a written permit prior to commencing work. Conditions of an oral permit shall be reduced to writing within thirty days and complied with as provided for in this section."

(2) The annual fees for Hood Canal shrimp licenses are:

- (a) For a resident license, five dollars;
- (b) For a nonresident license, fifteen dollars.

(3) Hood Canal shrimp licenses shall be issued only under authority of the director. The director may authorize license dealers to issue the licenses and collect the license fees. In addition to the license fee, license dealers may charge a dealer's fee of fifty cents. The dealer's fee may be retained by the license dealer.

(4) The director shall adopt rules for the issuance of Hood Canal shrimp licenses and for the collection, payment, and handling of license fees and dealer's fees.

(5) Notwithstanding RCW 75.04.010, for the purposes of this section, "resident" means a person who for at least ninety days immediately preceding application for a license has maintained a permanent place of abode within this state and has established by formal evidence an intent to continue residence within this state. All other persons are nonresidents.

(6) Hood Canal shrimp licenses are not transferable.

(7) Upon request of a fisheries patrol officer or ex officio fisheries patrol officer, a person taking or possessing shrimp for personal use in that portion of Hood Canal south of the Hood Canal floating bridge shall exhibit the required license and write his or her signature for comparison with the signature on the license. Failure to comply with the request is prima facie evidence that the person does not have a license or is not the person named on the license.

(8) A person who violates a provision of this section or who knowingly falsifies information required for the issuance of a Hood Canal shrimp license is guilty of a misdemeanor and is subject to the penalties provided in chapter 9A.20 RCW."

Yeas, 23; nays, 25; absent, 01; excused, 00.

Absent: Senator Patterson - 1.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, according to Rule 15, it says 'the Senate shall adjourn not later than 10:00 p.m. of each working day.' It is now past 10 o'clock and pursuant to Rule 15, we must adjourn unless, perhaps, the rule is suspended with the appropriate required number of votes or unless we have been working on a bill, that at 10 o'clock tradition says we shall continue with that bill past 10 o'clock. Since it is now past 10 o'clock and we are not working on any such bill, I would suggest that we are automatically adjourned until 10 o'clock tomorrow."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, obviously, the motion to adjourn which just failed would conversely be a motion to continue to work past 10 o'clock."

Senator Pullen: "No, because he moved to adjourn until 9:30. According to Rule 15, we shall adjourn at 10 o'clock, so unless there is a positive motion to keep us going past 10 o'clock, I would suggest that Rule 15 requires us to adjourn now."

MOTION

Senator Shinpoch moved that Rule 15 be suspended.

Senator von Reichbauer demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Mr. President, it would appear to me that it takes a two-thirds vote to suspend this rule, because Rule 15 is divided into two portions--the first portion, which is an entity unto itself. It is even separated as a separate paragraph. Also, the second paragraph, which is the second portion of Rule 15--I will draw the President's attention to the fact that it says that 'this rule may be suspended by a majority.' The antecedent of that is 'when convening the same day, the Senate shall recess ninety minutes for dinner each working evening.' I would suggest that that being the antecedent to this rule that this rule would apply to that and the other portion of the rule, which is clearly a separate paragraph and a sub-section, would take a two-thirds vote."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator, in reply to your inquiry, it will take a simple majority to suspend Rule 15."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion to suspend Rule 15.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Shinpoch carried and Rule 15 was suspended by the following vote: Yeas, 25; nays, 24; absent, 00; excused, 00.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bender, Bottiger, Conner, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Hansen, Hughes, Hurley, McDermott, McManus, Moore, Owen, Peterson, Rinehart, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody - 25.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Fleming, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 278 and the pending two motions, the first by Senator Guess to reconsider the vote by which the Committee on Natural Resources amendment to page 55, line 15, was adopted by the Senate, and the second by Senator Rasmussen for adoption of the amendment to page 29, beginning on line 12.

On motion of Senator Guess, and there being no objection, the motion to reconsider was withdrawn.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Rasmussen to page 29, beginning on line 12.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen failed and the amendment was not adopted.

MOTION

Senator Metcalf moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 20, line 24, after "possessed" add ", provided that the department shall not prohibit the use of barbed hooks in the taking of or fishing for salmon"

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator von Reichbauer: "Senator Rasmussen, in light of the comments by Senators Sellar and Peterson, would it be your interpretation then--regarding the Boldt decision--that a vote for this amendment would be against the Boldt decision and a vote against the amendment would be in support of the Boldt decision?"

Senator Rasmussen: "No. As I recall Judge Boldt didn't mention anything about barbless hooks. That was dreamed up in the Fisheries Department. I don't know whether Boldt knew one end of the hook from the other, but I read the case and I didn't see any mention of that in there. Maybe, you read a different case, Senator Peterson. I don't know."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Metcalf.

The motion by Senator Metcalf failed and the amendment was not adopted.

MOTION

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 40, after line 35, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 56. There is added to chapter 75.12 RCW a new section to read as follows:

It shall be lawful to take, fish for, land, or possess Dungeness crabs for commercial purposes in coastal, Pacific Ocean, Grays Harbor, Willapa Harbor, and Columbia River waters throughout the year."

Renumber the sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Shinpoch: "A point of order, Mr. President. I would challenge the scope and object of Senator Rasmussen's amendment on page 40, line 35. It really does two things. Number one, it prohibits the Department from enforcing the conservation of a resource which is contrary to those things which we have charged the Department with. It seems to me that it expands the scope and object of the bill."

Debate ensued.

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, further consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 278 was deferred.

President Pro Tempore Goltz assumed the chair.

SECOND READING

HOUSE BILL NO. 89, by Representatives D. Nelson, Niemi, Lux, Isaacson, Rust, Haugen, Hankins, Johnson, Tanner and Brekke

Relieving counties and cities from an obligation to include nuclear attack evacuation plans in their emergency services plans.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Warnke, House Bill No. 89 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Quigg: "Senator Rinehart, a few weeks ago--maybe a month ago, there was a television simulation of, I guess you call it a terrorist event, in Charleston, South Carolina. Somebody had a tug boat with a nuclear bomb in it. As I recall, one of the scariest things that I thought of all of that was the confusion of people trying to get out of town. There were shootings and all kinds of grief as people tried to evacuate. Now, with this bill passing, would Seattle be required to plan for such an event or would that not be the case?"

Senator Rinehart: "Two responses--first of all I don't have a television, so I didn't see the program. Second of all, my assumption is that no plan would reduce confusion in response to the event of a nuclear attack."

Further debate ensued.

Senators Bottiger, Fleming and Shinpoch demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of House Bill No. 89.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of House Bill No. 89, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 31; nays, 17; absent, 01; excused, 00.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bender, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Fleming, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Haley, Hansen, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Kiskaddon, McDermott, McManus, Moore, Newhouse, Owen, Peterson, Rinehart, Sellar, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody - 31.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Benitz, Bluechel, Craswell, Deccio, Fuller, Guess, Hayner, Jones, McCaslin, Metcalf, Patterson, Pullen, Quigg, Rasmussen, von Reichbauer, Zimmerman - 17.

Absent: Senator Lee - 1.

HOUSE BILL NO. 89, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

President Cherberg assumed the chair.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 278, deferred earlier today.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Shinpoch, the President finds that Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 278 is an omnibus measure which reorganizes and makes many substantive revisions to the Fisheries Code.

"The amendment proposed by Senator Rasmussen authorizes persons to take Dungeness crabs for commercial purposes throughout the year.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does not expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken."

The amendment by Senator Rasmussen was ruled in order.

Debate ensued.

Senators Bottiger, Peterson and Fleming demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be adoption of the amendment by Senator Rasmussen to page 40, line 35.

The motion by Senator Rasmussen failed and the amendment was not adopted.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Hansen, the following amendment was adopted:

On page 52, line 21, strike "~~(shall in no way)~~ do not" and insert "shall in no way"

Senator Rasmussen moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 117, after line 23, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION. Sec. 182. It is the intent of this chapter to authorize the private ownership of salmon hatcheries by qualified nonprofit corporations for the purpose of contributing, by artificial means, to the rehabilitation of the state's depleted and depressed salmon fishery. The program shall be operated without adversely affecting natural stocks of fish in the state and under a policy of management which allows reasonable segregation of returning hatchery-reared salmon from naturally occurring stocks.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 183. Unless the context requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Department" means the department of fisheries.

(2) "Director" means the director of the department of fisheries.

(3) "Hatcheries" means salmon propagation facilities including, but not limited to, all equipment, utilities, structures, real property, and interests in and improvements on real property, as well as stream bed clearing and rehabilitation and hatchbox programs.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 184. The director shall designate regions of the state for the purpose of salmon production and develop and amend as necessary a comprehensive salmon plan for each region, including provisions for both public and private nonprofit hatchery systems. Subject to plan approval by the director, the comprehensive salmon plans shall be developed by regional planning teams consisting of department personnel and representatives of the appropriate region. These planning teams shall be formed under section 185 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 185. The director shall assist in and encourage the formation of regional planning teams for the purpose of enhancing salmon production. There shall be a planning team for each of the distinct geographic fisheries in the state: The Columbia river fishery; the Puget Sound fishery; and the coastal waters fishery. Each planning team shall include representation from the department of fisheries, the department of game, treaty Indians, commercial fishermen, sport fishermen, and members of the public concerned with the salmon resource. Each regional planning team shall produce for the review and approval of the director a regional fishery salmon enhancement plan that is acceptable to all interests in the region. The regional salmon enhancement plan shall include the total number of salmon of each species to be produced in the region, the method or methods of enhancement to be employed, the size and location of any hatcheries, and the appropriate distribution of the harvest.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 186. The director or the director's designee may issue a permit, subject to the restrictions imposed by this chapter and the rules adopted under this chapter, to a nonprofit corporation after the permit application has been reviewed by the regional planning team, for the construction and operation of a salmon hatchery.

(1) The application for a permit under this section shall be on a form prescribed by the department and shall be accompanied by an application fee of twenty-five dollars.

(2) A hatchery permit under this chapter is nontransferable. If a permit holder sells or leases a hatchery for which a permit has been issued, the new operator shall apply for a new permit under this section.

(3) A qualified nonprofit corporation has a preference right to a permit under this section if its proposed hatchery is provided for in the comprehensive plan for that region developed under section 185 of this act and the fresh water source exceeds a minimum flow of one cubic foot per second. Any other local nonprofit hatchery corporation approved by the regional planning team has an identical preference right.

(4) No permit under this chapter may be issued for construction or operation of a hatchery on an anadromous fish stream unless the stream has been classified as suitable for enhancement purposes by the director. The director shall undertake to make such classifications in conjunction with the development of the comprehensive plan under section 185 of this act.

(5) Volunteer enhancement programs which are in existence prior to the effective date of this act, if the sponsors of the programs choose to reorganize into nonprofit corporations, shall have preference in the permit process.

(6) During the development of a comprehensive plan for a region, no permit may be issued for a hatchery unless the director determines that such an action would result in substantial public benefits and would not jeopardize natural stocks.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 187. (1) At least thirty days before the issuance of a permit under section 186 of this act, a public hearing shall be held in a central location in the vicinity of the proposed hatchery.

(2) Notice of the hearing shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation once a week for three consecutive weeks, with completion of the notice at least ten days prior to the hearing.

(3) The hearing shall be conducted by the department and shall include a presentation by the permit applicant of a plan for the proposed hatchery, describing its capacity and any other relevant facts which may be of interest to the department or the public. Interested members of the public shall be afforded an opportunity to be heard.

(4) The department shall record and consider objections and recommendations offered by the public at the hearing conducted under this section. The department shall respond in writing, within ten days after the conclusion of the hearing, to any specific objections offered by a member of the public at the hearing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 188. The department shall require, in a permit issued to a hatchery operator under this chapter, that:

(1) Salmon eggs procured by the hatchery must be from the department or a source approved by the department;

(2) No salmon eggs or resulting fry may be placed in waters of the state other than those specifically designated in the permit;

(3) No salmon eggs or resulting fry, sold or transferred to a permit holder by the state or by another party approved by the department, may be resold or otherwise transferred to another person;

(4) No salmon may be released by the hatchery before approval by the department, and, for purposes of pathological examination and approval, the department shall be notified of the proposed release of salmon at least fifteen days before the date of the proposed release by the hatchery;

(5) Diseased salmon shall be destroyed in a specific manner and place designated by the department;

(6) Adult salmon shall be harvested by hatchery operators only at specific locations designated by the department;

(7) Surplus eggs from salmon returning to the hatchery shall be made available for sale or transfer first to the department and then, after inspection and approval by the department, to operators of other hatcheries authorized by permit to operate under this chapter;

(8) If surplus salmon eggs are sold by a permit holder under this chapter to another permit holder, a copy of the sales transaction shall be provided to the department;

(9) The cost of inspections or examinations conducted by the department under this section before the release of salmon, or when eggs are procured from sources other than the department, or to determine the existence of disease, shall be borne by the hatchery owner for which the inspection or examination is conducted; and

(10) A hatchery shall be located in an area where a reasonable segregation from natural stocks occurs, but, if feasible, in an area where returning hatchery fish will pass through traditional salmon fisheries.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 189. (1) If a permit holder fails to comply with the conditions and terms of the permit issued under this chapter within a reasonable period after notification of the non-compliance by the department, the permit may be suspended or revoked, at the discretion of the director, after the regional planning team for the area in which the hatchery is located is notified and granted an opportunity to comment upon the proposed suspension or revocation.

(2) If the director finds that the operation of the hatchery is not in the best interests of the public, the director may alter the conditions of the permit to mitigate the adverse effects of the operation, or, if the adverse effects are irreversible and cannot be mitigated sufficiently, initiate a termination of the operation under the permit over a reasonable period of time under the circumstances, not to exceed four years. During the period of time that the operation is being terminated, the permit holder may harvest salmon under the terms of the permit but may not release additional fish.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 190. (1) Fish released into the natural waters of the state by a hatchery operated under this chapter are available to the people for common use and are subject to regulation under applicable law in the same way as fish occurring in their natural state until the fish return to the specific location designated by the department for harvest by the hatchery operator.

(2) The department may adopt rules necessary to implement this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 191. (1) Before and after permit issuance under this chapter, the department shall make every effort, within the limits of time and resources, to advise and assist applicants or permit holders, as appropriate, in the planning, construction, or operation of salmon hatcheries.

(2) Nothing in this section exempts an applicant or permit holder from compliance with this chapter or from compliance with the rules adopted under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 192. (1) The department shall approve the source and number of salmon eggs taken under this chapter.

(2) If feasible, salmon eggs utilized by a hatchery operator under this chapter shall first be taken from stocks native to the area in which the hatchery is located, and then, upon approval of the department, from other areas, as needed.

(3) The department shall submit to the hatchery owner, in writing, a statement detailing the genetic background, species integrity, migration timing and routing, probable catch contribution, catch competition, stock competition, total pounds available by genetic strain state-wide, landing history per proposed release site, and amount of in-transfer and out-transfer per proposed site, for brood stock.

(4) The department shall not charge for eggs provided by the department to a nonprofit facility under this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 193. A hatchery operator under this chapter who sells salmon returning from the natural waters of the state, or sells salmon eggs to another hatchery operating under this chapter, after utilizing the funds required for reasonable operating costs, including debt retirement, expanding the hatchery's facilities, salmon rehabilitation projects, fisheries research, or for costs of operating the regional planning teams for the area in which the hatchery is located, shall expend the remaining funds on other fisheries activities of the regional planning team. Fish returning to hatcheries and sold for human consumption shall be of comparable quality to fish harvested by commercial fisheries in the area and shall be sold at prices commensurate with the current market.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 194. As a condition of and in consideration for a permit to operate a hatchery under this chapter, an inspection of the hatchery facility by department inspectors shall be permitted by the permit holder at any time the hatchery is operating. The inspection shall be conducted in a reasonable manner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 195. No later than December 15 of each year, a salmon hatchery operator holding a permit under this chapter shall submit an annual report, on a form provided by the department, to the department and to the regional planning team for the area in which the hatchery is located, which includes information pertaining to species; brood stock source; number, age, weight, and length of spawners; number of eggs taken and fry fingerling produced; and the number, age, weight, and length of adult returns attributable to hatchery releases.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 196. Sections 182 through 195 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 75 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 197. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Quigg: "Senator Rasmussen, how will the nonprofit corporation be compensated for its efforts in the hatchery operation?"

Senator Rasmussen: "As they work it in Alaska—they are assigned. The Fisheries Committee took a trip up there to examine this concept and were very impressed with it. They take the fish on a terminal basis, as they do now."

Senator Quigg: "So, they would catch the fish with traditional gear or do they catch them at the hatchery?"

Senator Rasmussen: "The fish are available out in the open for trolling, of course. In Alaska, most of it is done with drift nets or purse seine."

Senator Quigg: "Would there be a landing tax on the fish that returned to the hatchery—these private nonprofit hatcheries?"

Senator Rasmussen: "You would collect the same tax as you would on any other fish that is brought in—yes—and you would have to file the same information."

Prohibiting sturgeon fishing with a set line in the Columbia River or its tributaries.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

Senator Owen moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Owen, Bauer and Zimmerman:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. In an effort to enhance recreational opportunity and improve management of the resource, the director shall pursue the elimination of set line fishing for sturgeon through the Columbia river compact, RCW 75.40.010.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 75.28 RCW a new section to read as follows:

In addition to a set line license, a Columbia river sturgeon endorsement is required to take sturgeon commercially with set lines in the waters of the Columbia river or its tributaries. The annual endorsement fee is two hundred dollars for residents and four hundred dollars for nonresidents.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. This act shall take effect on January 1, 1984."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Owen, what is the present license? I know in the bill that it says 'the annual endorsement fee is $200 for residents and $400 for non-residents.' Can you tell us what the present license is?"

Senator Owen: "Somewhat less than what is in the amendment."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, Mr. President--"

Senator Owen: "I am sorry, Senator Rasmussen, I didn't have the information immediately before me. It is $35, presently."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Quigg: "Senator Rasmussen, what is the season on Columbia River sturgeon? I thought it was year round. Is it a limited season--time wise?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, it is limited by the time when the fish are available and are the proper size. You can't, as I understand it--and I would yield to Senator Owen who is much more familiar with this bill than I--but you can't take them over eight feet and you can't take them less than three feet, as I understand."

Senator Quigg: "That's a pretty old sturgeon, isn't it--when it gets up to eight feet--or in the three to eight foot range? They must be growing all the time to get to be that big."

Senator Rasmussen: "That size sturgeon is protected and if you catch one that size and keep it, you are going to be severely fined, because that is the fish that propagates the little sturgeons."

Further debate ensued.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the rules were suspended, Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 126 was advanced to second reading and read the second time.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hayner: "Senator Shinpoch, I guess one the of the phrases in this resolution that bothers me is on line 18, which says that 'they shall attempt to provide this increased mortgage capital at reasonable rates.' Are you suggesting that it should be lower than the going rate of interest?"

Senator Shinpoch: "I am suggesting that the State Investment Board has constitutional and statutory authority to--I don't think we use the word maximize earnings, but it means the same thing in the State Investment Board. Consistent with that judiciary duty of the State Investment Board, then, the best interest rates that they could provide would if they could package them in such a way--if they sent to the mortgage bankers and said, 'we have this much money at 12% and if you will package these and do all the work on them, we will buy those.' When the going mortgage rates were 13%, well then, the answer would be 'yes.' If they found some way to get the one percent of the responsibility of the costs of that off on someone else, but it has to be consistent with their judiciary responsibility."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Shinpoch, sitting as a trustee on numerous plans that I have been on over the years, we were always cautioned and, especially, under ERISA--and I got off the last one because of ERISA, when it passed. The prudent-man rule always had to prevail. That was in the back of our minds at all times. Now, by this resolution, are you saying that reasonable rates--would that be at less than what the prudent-man rule would tell you that it had to go at?"

Senator Shinpoch: "Absolutely not, but under the prudent-man rule, it might very well be that locking up a long-term 12% might be better than taking a short-term and the prudent-man rule might be more prudent than taking a short-term 13%, as you are well aware. Let me go one step further, because we seem to be worrying about something that the state executive director of the State Investment Board is not worrying about. It is my understanding, with my discussion with him, that this concurrent resolution--this type of thing--is acceptable. You people, including my help, passed this essential resolution last time. We have a report on what they have done. The only thing that this does is change the focus of it from real estate to single family residence."

Debate ensued.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 126.

ENGGROSSED HOUSE BILL NO. 269, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Zimmerman: "Senator McDermott, just for clarification, there is an orphanage in Senator Patterson's district which needs to lease out some of its property to a farmer to provide some needed cash for its operations. They have been classified as an orphanage under RCW 84.36.040 for more than 10 years. They are leasing out more than 51% of the exempt property. If I read the bill correctly, under subsection (1) of section 1, since they have been granted an exemption for more than 10 years, are they not exempt from the penalty provisions of section 1, subsection (1) of Engrossed House Bill No. 269?"

Senator McDermott: "This bill provides that subsection (1) applies if 51% or more of the property has lost its exempt status or if the ownership of the property is transferred. Thus, if less than 51% of the area of the property has lost its exempt status, subsection (1) does not apply. But, if subsection (1) applies, and if the property has been granted an exemption for more than ten years, then taxes and interest shall not be assessed under this bill. As such, an orphanage in the situation that you mentioned would not have the tax and interest imposed against them under this bill."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Owen, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3290 was substituted for Senate Bill No. 3290 and the substitute bill was placed on second reading and read the second time.

On page 1, after line 8, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. From April 3, 1982, until September 30, 1984, the annual rent for an existing lease, renewed lease, or release of public tidelands, shorelands, beds of navigable waters, and harbor areas shall be the rent paid on such lease on January 1, 1981, which may be increased up to six percent per year, not compounded, from April 3, 1982, until September 30, 1984. From April 3, 1982, until September 30, 1984, such rent on new leases may be increased up to six percent per year, not compounded, from the January 1, 1981 rent paid. The annual rent paid on January 1, 1981, means the actual rent paid on that date including any stair-stepped or other incremental rent payments of the full rental value. Any lessee of public tidelands, shorelands, beds of navigable waters, and harbor areas paying more than the rent permitted under this section shall receive a credit, in the appropriate amount, on future rent owing for such lease or any other leases entered into by the lessee on public tidelands, shorelands, beds of navigable waters, and harbor areas: PROVIDED, That if any such leases terminate prior to the lessee being granted full credit for the overpaid rent, the lessee shall be reimbursed for the remaining overpayment in money. This section does not apply to geoduck harvesting, clam harvesting, or oyster bed leases which are established by a competitive bid process. The department of natural resources shall adopt and implement rules to implement this section, including methods and procedures for establishing rent, within ninety days of the effective date of this act. This section shall have both retrospective and prospective effect. This section shall expire and have no further legal effect after September 30, 1984.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 2. No rent or fee may be charged if tidelands, shorelands, beds of navigable waters, and harbor areas are used or leased for a dock and are used only for personal recreational use by the upland owner.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 97, Laws of 1979 ex. sess., section 2, chapter 117, Laws of 1982, section 176, chapter 21, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 79.01.525 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On motion of Senator Owen, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1, after "land;" strike everything through "section;" on line 3 and insert "creating new sections;"

On motion of Senator Owen, the rules were suspended. Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3290 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

Voting nay: Senator McDermott - 1.

Absent: Senator Lee - 1.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3290, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

SECOND READING

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1093, by Committee on Local Government (originally sponsored by Representative Moon)

Funding flood control improvements.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Thompson, the following Committee on Local Government amendment was adopted:

On page 4, line 11 of the engrossed bill, being line 9 of the House amendment to page 4, line 4 of the printed bill, after "it shall" strike "take into consideration" and insert "provide a credit for"

Senator Metcalf moved adoption of the following amendment:

On page 4, after line 4, add "No person shall collect, channel, direct and/or divert diffuse surface waters from, upon and within his own land in an artificial manner such as by bulwark, ditch, underground tile, pipe, culvert or otherwise, onto the land of another without making just compensation to persons injured thereby. For purpose of this subsection, "person" may be construed to include the State of Washington or any of its political subdivisions, in addition to such other definitions as are hereinafter set forth."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Benitz: "Senator Metcalf, could this amendment, in any way whatsoever, effect irrigation water rights at all?"

Senator Metcalf: "I am not an attorney, but it would be my opinion that it would not. I can't see how it would in reading it. It certainly isn't the intent."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Jones: "Senator Thompson, section 8 of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1093 adds a new section to Chapter 90.03 RCW. That section talks about the flow of water over real property causing excessive damages resulting in a tort, nuisance or taking, when the point or nonpoint flow of surface water is increased, or where the natural drainage is altered or interrupted. Does this, in any way, create some sort of a property right, or interest, or cause of action which would not have existed prior to the passage of this bill?"

Senator Thompson: "Section 8 of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1093 is merely a declaration by the legislature that it is in the public interest to impose special assessments, rates and charges on real property to fund public improvements to alleviate the water damages to real property that you mentioned. The part of the section you are concerned with only is a legislative finding, and does not, in any way, create a new property right, or property interest, or cause of action."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1093, as amended by the Senate.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 1093, as amended by the Senate, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 46; nays, 02; absent, 01; excused, 00.

On page 2, line 11, after "the" strike "criminal act" and insert "~~((criminal act))~~ crime"

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to page 2, beginning on line 5, and to page 2, line 11, to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3022.

Senator Talmadge moved that the Senate do not concur in the House amendment to page 3, after line 10, to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3022 and asked the House for a conference thereon.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Senator Bottiger, it has just been suggested that we request a conference. Now, customarily these conferences have been pursuant to joint rules. We have, on several occasions, suggested the adoption of joint rules, which very specifically deal with the methods of handling measures between the House and Senate and appointments of conference and free conference committees. Now, I am assuming that in the absence of rules, we have to go by Reed's Rules which are extremely vague, have nothing to do or no specifications as to the number of conferees, what constitutes a free conference committee and things of that nature. I am simply, again, requesting that we do adopt joint rules if we are getting into a situation where we need conferences, because otherwise, I think, we are in a complete situation of uncertainty."

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Clarke, Reed's, I don't think, is really not that vague or that uncertain. It is true that we have not adopted joint rules. We have some peculiar and unusual problems that have caused that. In this particular situation, these conferees are dealing with nonpartisan matters and I am sure they can operate fairly adequately under Reed's Rules."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Talmadge to not concur in the House amendment to page 3, line 10, to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3022 and to ask the House for a conference thereon.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the Senate did not concur in the amendment and asked the House for a conference thereon.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The President appointed as members of the Conference Committee to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3022, and the House amendment thereto: Senators Talmadge, Hemstad and Hughes.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the Conference Committee appointments were confirmed.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 18, 1983

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3034 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Every manufacturer of motor vehicles sold in this state and for which the manufacturer has made an express warranty shall maintain in this state sufficient service and repair facilities reasonably close to all areas in which its motor vehicles are sold to carry out the terms of the warranties or designate and authorize in this state as service and repair facilities independent repair or service facilities reasonably close to all areas in which its motor vehicles are sold to carry out the terms of the warranties. As a means of complying with this section, a manufacturer may enter into warranty service contracts with independent service and repair facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Motor vehicle" means an automobile, truck, motorcycle, moped, or motor home, if the motor vehicle is used primarily for personal, noncommercial use.

(2) "Nonconformity" means a failure to conform with an express warranty in a manner which substantially impairs the use, value, or safety of the item.

(3) "Buyer" means the purchaser of a motor vehicle, any person to whom the motor vehicle is transferred during an express warranty applicable to the motor vehicle and any other person entitled to enforcement of the obligations of an express warranty by its terms.

(4) (a) "Express warranty" means:

(i) A written statement arising out of a sale to the consumer of a motor vehicle pursuant to which the manufacturer, dealer, or retailer undertakes to preserve or maintain the utility or performance of the motor vehicle as provided in the warranty or provide compensation if there is a failure in utility or performance; or

(ii) In the event of any sample or model, that the whole of the goods conforms to such sample or model.

(b) It is not necessary to the creation of an express warranty that formal words such as "warrant" or "guarantee" be used, but if such words are used then an express warranty is created. An affirmation merely of the value of the vehicle or a statement purporting to be merely an opinion or commendation of the vehicle does not create a warranty.

(c) Statements or representations such as expressions of general policy concerning customer satisfaction which are not subject to any limitation do not create an express warranty.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. If a motor vehicle does not conform to all applicable express warranties and the nonconformity is not the result of misuse or abuse of the motor vehicle by the buyer, and the buyer reports in writing the nonconformity to the manufacturer, and its agent or authorized dealer during the term of the express warranties, the manufacturer, its agent, or its authorized dealer shall, within a reasonable period of time, begin to make such repairs as are necessary to conform the vehicle to such express warranties, notwithstanding the fact that such repairs are made after the expiration of such term or such one-year period. Unless the buyer agrees in writing to the contrary, the motor vehicle must be serviced or repaired so as to conform to the applicable express warranties within thirty days of the written notice of nonconformity. Delays caused by conditions beyond the control of the manufacturer, its agent, or its authorized representative shall serve to extend the thirty-day requirement. When such delay arises, the conforming services or repairs shall be rendered as soon as possible after termination of the conditions which gave rise to the delay.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If the manufacturer or its representative or its authorized dealer is unable to service or repair the motor vehicle to conform to the applicable express warranties after a reasonable number of attempts, the manufacturer shall reimburse the buyer in an amount equal to the purchase price paid by the buyer, less that amount directly attributable to use by the buyer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. It shall be presumed that a reasonable number of attempts have been undertaken to conform a motor vehicle to the applicable express warranties if during the term of such express warranties or during the period of one year following the date of original delivery of the motor vehicle to a buyer: (1) The same nonconformity has been subject to repair four or more times by the manufacturer or its agents; or (2) the vehicle is out of service by reason of repair for a cumulative total of more than thirty days since the delivery of the vehicle to the buyer. The thirty-day period includes each calendar day or portion thereof during which the service shop is open for business, but does not include periods during which repairs cannot be made due to conditions beyond the control of the service facility and does not include periods during which the buyer has been provided with a comparable replacement vehicle by the dealer or manufacturer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. If a manufacturer has established an informal dispute resolution settlement procedure which substantially complies with the applicable provision of Title 16, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 703, as from time to time amended, the provisions of section 4 of this act concerning reimbursements do not apply unless the buyer has resorted to such procedure.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The remedies provided under this chapter are cumulative and are in addition to any other remedies provided by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Sections 1 through 7 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 19 RCW.

MOTION

Senator Hansen moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3297.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Barr: "Senator Hansen, could you make it just a little clearer on how the Department felt they could work with the Criminal Justice Training Commission on this, because I had felt that we should not concur on this amendment. If I could understand just a little bit more, it seems unnecessary for them to have to go through this training. Did they say it would be on a very limited basis?"

Senator Hansen: "Yes, they are already using the criminal investigation on certain portions. You see these law enforcement officers don't pack a gun, they are not out after cops and robbers. They are working with civilized people and if there is a wrong done in insecticides--in pesticides--in livestock, they want the expertise to be able to track it--if there is a ring set up that is stealing cattle--that they have the expertise to do a full investigation."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Hansen that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3297.

The motion by Senator Hansen carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3297.

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "It is not. It is still possible to have a conference. If the House does not recede, you can request a conference."

Senator Hemstad: "Would it be appropriate or is it in order for us at this time to ask for a conference?"

President Cherberg: "You could ask for a conference if the Senate so desired."

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4137 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. It is the intent of the legislature to relieve the department of corrections from unacceptable burdens of cost related to storage space and manpower in the preservation of inmate personal property if the property has been abandoned by the inmate and to enhance the security and safety of the institutions.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(4) "Money" means all currency, script, personal checks, money orders, or other negotiable instruments.

(5) "Owner" means the inmate, the inmate's legal representative, or any person claiming through or under the inmate entitled to title and possession of the property.

(6) "Unclaimed" means that no owner of the property has been identified or has requested, in writing, the release of the property to themselves nor has the owner of the property designated an individual to receive the property or paid the required postage to effect delivery of the property.

(7) "Inmate" means a person committed to the custody of the department of corrections or transferred from other states or the federal government.

(1) As provided in RCW 41.40.170.

(2) An employee not previously retired who reenters service shall upon completion of six months of continuous service and upon the restoration of all withdrawn contributions with interest as computed by the director, which restoration must be completed within a total period of five years of membership service following the member's first resumption of employment, be returned to the status, either as an original member or new member which the member held at time of separation.

(3) Any member, except an elected official, who reentered service and who failed to restore withdrawn contributions, shall now have from the effective date of this 1983 act through June 30, 1984, to restore the contributions, with interest as determined by the director.

(4) Within the ninety days following the employee's resumption of employment, the employer shall notify the department of the resumption and the department shall then return to the employer a statement of the potential service credit to be restored, the amount of funds required for restoration, and the date when the restoration must be accomplished. The employee shall be given a copy of the statement and shall sign a copy of the statement which signed copy shall be placed in the employee's personnel file.

(5) A member who separates or has separated after having completed at least five years of service shall remain a member during the period of absence from service for the exclusive purpose of receiving a retirement allowance to begin at attainment of age sixty-five, however, such a member may on written notice to the director elect to receive a reduced retirement allowance on or after age sixty which allowance shall be the actuarial equivalent of the sum necessary to pay regular retirement benefits as of age sixty-five: PROVIDED, That if such member should withdraw all or part of the member's accumulated contributions except those additional contributions made pursuant to RCW 41.40.330(2), the individual shall thereupon cease to be a member and this section shall not apply.

Retirement benefits shall be suspended during the period of eligible employment and the individual shall make contributions and receive membership credit. Such a member shall have the right to again retire if eligible in accordance with RCW 41.40.180: PROVIDED, That where any such right to retire is exercised to become effective before the member has rendered two uninterrupted years of service the type of retirement allowance the member had at the time of the member's previous retirement shall be reinstated, but no additional service credit shall be allowed:

(b) The recipient of a retirement allowance elected to office or appointed to office directly by the governor, and who shall apply for and be accepted in membership as provided in RCW 41.40.120(3) shall be considered to have terminated his or her retirement status and shall become a member of the retirement system with the status of membership the member held as of the date of retirement. Retirement benefits shall be suspended from the date of return to membership until the date when the member again retires and the member shall make contributions and receive membership credit. Such a member shall have the right to again retire if eligible in accordance with RCW 41.40.180: PROVIDED, That where any such right to retire is exercised to become effective before the member has rendered six uninterrupted months of service the type of retirement allowance the member had at the time of the member's previous retirement shall be reinstated, but no additional service credit shall be allowed: AND PROVIDED FURTHER, That if such a recipient of a retirement allowance does not elect to apply for reentry into membership as provided in RCW 41.40.120(3), the member shall be considered to remain in a retirement status and the individual's retirement benefits shall continue without interruption.

((5)) (7) Any member who leaves the employment of an employer and enters the employ of a public agency or agencies of the state of Washington, other than those within the jurisdiction of the Washington public employees' retirement system, and who establishes membership in a retirement system or a pension fund operated by such agency or agencies and who shall continue membership therein until attaining age sixty, shall remain a member for the exclusive purpose of receiving a retirement allowance without the limitation found in RCW 41.40.180(1) to begin on attainment of age sixty-five, however, such a member may on written notice to the director elect to receive a reduced retirement allowance on or after age sixty which allowance shall be the actuarial equivalent of the sum necessary to pay regular retirement benefits commencing at age sixty-five: PROVIDED, That if such member should withdraw all or part of the member's accumulated contributions except those additional contributions made pursuant to RCW 41.40.330(2), the individual shall thereupon cease to be a member and this section shall not apply.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 41.40 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Those currently employed members who were eligible to recover service earned prior to July 1, 1953, under a retirement system authorized pursuant to RCW 28B.10.400 through 28B.10.430, but who failed to do so, shall have until June 30, 1984, to pay the appropriate employee and employer contributions plus interest, as determined by the director of retirement systems, for such service which was not so recovered.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 4. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator McDermott, the following title amendment was adopted:

On page 1, line 1 of the title, after "service;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 50, chapter 80, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 3, chapter 193, Laws of 1974 ex. sess. and RCW 41.32.500; amending section 16, chapter 274, Laws of 1947 as last amended by section 20, chapter 52, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 41.40.150; adding a new section to chapter 41.40 RCW; and declaring an emergency."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "Senator McDermott, as I understood it in the committee, the impact of this bill on the pension system is 59.6 million dollars. Is that correct?"

Senator McDermott: "Senator Bluechel, over the next twenty-five years, that is correct—that is if there are no contributions from the individuals."

Senator Bluechel: "How many times has the window been opened in the past ten years?"

Senator McDermott: "I haven't the vaguest idea. It sometimes seems like it comes up every year. It really isn't true. I am not sure when was the last time we had the window open. That is why the provisions are in the bill that the window will never be opened again."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Benitz: "Senator Vognild, I note in the summary--it says 'make loans, provide loan guarantees and establish and regulate loan guarantees.' How can we do that without getting the state involved?"

Senator Vognild: "I think every effort was made in the bill to make sure that the state was not involved. This can be a clearing house for federal funds. It can also be a clearing house for money that is dedicated to it by numerous large financial institutions--primarily insurance companies. This procedure has worked well in many other areas."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Vognild, you said this was to provide assistance for small business--one hundred twenty-five million, with a hundred million dollars worth of sales. I didn't quite get that. Is that what you said?"

Senator Vognild: "Yes, Senator, presently, the Department of Commerce and Economic Development--the one that Senator Hayner was talking about--is prohibited from making loans or guaranteeing loans to businesses that do less than one hundred million dollars in annual sales."

Senator Rasmussen: "How about the federal small business loans? I thought that was supposed to be able to help these companies when they had no other place to go."

Senator Vognild: "Senator, I am unable to answer that question. I can merely refer to the testimony we had in committee which indicated that there was no facility--private or public--in the state that could handle assistance to these small businesses."

Senator Rasmussen: "One further question. Then, is it the intention of this new committee to issue bonds and make loans?"

Senator Vognild: "They can receive the money from federal grants. They can receive the money from money committed by major lending institutions. These are primarily insurance companies--and other states have done this."

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order at 8:36 p.m.

There being no objection, the President returned the Senate to the fourth order of business.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 18, 1983

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3034 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. Every manufacturer of motor vehicles sold in this state and for which the manufacturer has made an express warranty shall maintain in this state sufficient service and repair facilities reasonably close to all areas in which its motor vehicles are sold to carry out the terms of the warranties or designate and authorize in this state as service and repair facilities independent repair or service facilities reasonably close to all areas in which its motor vehicles are sold to carry out the terms of the warranties. As a means of complying with this section, a manufacturer may enter into warranty service contracts with independent service and repair facilities.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Motor vehicle" means an automobile, truck, motorcycle, moped, or motor home, if the motor vehicle is used primarily for personal, noncommercial use.

(2) "Nonconformity" means a failure to conform with an express warranty in a manner which substantially impairs the use, value, or safety of the item.

(3) "Buyer" means the purchaser of a motor vehicle, any person to whom the motor vehicle is transferred during an express warranty applicable to the motor vehicle and any other person entitled to enforcement of the obligations of an express warranty by its terms.

(4) (a) "Express warranty" means:

(ii) In the event of any sample or model, that the whole of the goods conforms to such sample or model.

(b) It is not necessary to the creation of an express warranty that formal words such as "warrant" or "guarantee" be used, but if such words are used then an express warranty is created. An affirmation merely of the value of the vehicle or a statement purporting to be merely an opinion or commendation of the vehicle does not create a warranty.

(c) Statements or representations such as expressions of general policy concerning customer satisfaction which are not subject to any limitation do not create an express warranty.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. If a motor vehicle does not conform to all applicable express warranties and the nonconformity is not the result of misuse or abuse of the motor vehicle by the buyer, and the buyer reports in writing the nonconformity to the manufacturer, and its agent or authorized dealer during the term of the express warranties, the manufacturer, its agent, or its authorized dealer shall, within a reasonable period of time, begin to make such repairs as are necessary to conform the vehicle to such express warranties, notwithstanding the fact that such repairs are made after the expiration of such term or such one-year period. Unless the buyer agrees in writing to the contrary, the motor vehicle must be serviced or repaired so as to conform to the applicable express warranties within thirty days of the written notice of nonconformity. Delays caused by conditions beyond the control of the manufacturer, its agent, or its authorized representative shall serve to extend the thirty-day requirement. When such delay arises, the conforming services or repairs shall be rendered as soon as possible after termination of the conditions which gave rise to the delay.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. If the manufacturer or its representative or its authorized dealer is unable to service or repair the motor vehicle to conform to the applicable express warranties after a reasonable number of attempts, the manufacturer shall reimburse the buyer in an amount equal to the purchase price paid by the buyer, less that amount directly attributable to use by the buyer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. It shall be presumed that a reasonable number of attempts have been undertaken to conform a motor vehicle to the applicable express warranties if during the term of such express warranties or during the period of one year following the date of original delivery of the motor vehicle to a buyer: (1) The same nonconformity has been subject to repair four or more times by the manufacturer or its agents; or (2) the vehicle is out of service by reason of repair for a cumulative total of more than thirty days since the delivery of the vehicle to the buyer. The thirty-day period includes each calendar day or portion thereof during which the service shop is open for business, but does not include periods during which repairs cannot be made due to conditions beyond the control of the service facility and does not include periods during which the buyer has been provided with a comparable replacement vehicle by the dealer or manufacturer.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. If a manufacturer has established an informal dispute resolution settlement procedure which substantially complies with the applicable provision of Title 16, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 703, as from time to time amended, the provisions of section 4 of this act concerning reimbursements do not apply unless the buyer has resorted to such procedure.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The remedies provided under this chapter are cumulative and are in addition to any other remedies provided by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. Sections 1 through 7 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 19 RCW.

MOTION

Senator McDermott moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3035.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "Senator McDermott, I was looking over some of the amendments that they had made. I know one of the ones that was of particular interest to members of the committee was to include 'school' and that has been removed. They added 'state and local projects and the parks and recreational facilities.' What I really wanted to know was, I was wondering if adding the word 'local,' which we did not have in our bill, would still cover those school projects?"

Senator McDermott: "I think it is reasonable, Senator Lee, to assume that it could be included. I think the House's feeling was that schools need not be included, since the State Board of Education already has that kind of information in the form of proposals from various school districts. I don't think they felt the need to do that, but it could be done under the use of the word 'local.'"

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, Senator Bender was excused.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator McDermott that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3035.

If such bond becomes fully impaired, a new bond must be furnished at the increased rates prescribed by this section as now or hereafter amended.

MOTION

Senator Vognild moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3088.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Vognild, with this provision that the House has put in, suppose we had a hairdresser from Vietnam or Korea or China or someplace come in and they didn't have a GED, but they were really good at their work--but they didn't have the grade points. Now, what would that do in this case?"

Senator Vognild: "Senator Rasmussen, existing law says that they cannot attend the school unless they have a high school graduation certificate. I believe that this is a real good amendment, because it now says that they may attend school without graduating from high school. Additionally, they may be licensed, now, with a high school certificate or a GED, so from the existing law to the language in this, it extremely broadens it out."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 17, 1983

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3106 with the following amendments:

On page 13, following line 28 insert:

"Sec. 9, Section 3, chapter 137, Laws of 1981 as last amended by ESB 3416, Laws of 1983, and RCW 9.94A.030 are each amended as follows:

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Commission" means the sentencing guidelines commission.

(2) "Community service" means compulsory service, without compensation, performed for the benefit of the community by the offender.

(3) "Community supervision" means a period of time during which a convicted offender is subject to crime-related prohibitions and other sentence conditions imposed pursuant to this chapter by a court. For first-time offenders, the supervision may include crime-related prohibitions and other conditions imposed pursuant to RCW 9.94A.120(5).

(4) "Confinement" means total or partial confinement as defined in this section.

(5) "Convictions" means an adjudication of guilt pursuant to Titles 10 or 13 RCW.

(6) "Crime-related prohibition" means an order of a court prohibiting conduct which directly relates to the circumstances of the crime for which the offender has been convicted.

and shall not be construed to mean orders directing an offender affirmatively to participate in rehabilitative programs or to otherwise perform affirmative conduct.

(7)(a) "Criminal history" means the list of defendant's prior convictions, whether in this state, in federal court, or elsewhere. The history shall include, where known, for each conviction (i) whether the defendant has been placed on probation and the length and terms thereof; and (ii) whether the defendant has been incarcerated and the length of incarceration.

(b) "Criminal history" includes a defendant's convictions or pleas of guilty in juvenile court if: (i) The guilty plea or conviction was for an offense which is a felony and is criminal history as defined in RCW 13.40.020(6)(a); and (ii) the defendant was fifteen years of age or older at the time the offense was committed; and (iii) the defendant was twenty-three years of age or less at the time the offense for which he or she is being sentenced was committed.

(8) "Department" means the department of corrections.

(9) "Determinate sentence" means a sentence which states with exactitude the number of actual years, months, or days of total confinement, of partial confinement, of community supervision, the number of actual hours or days of community service work, or dollars or terms of a fine or restitution. The fact that an offender through "earned early release" can reduce the actual period of confinement shall not affect the classification of the sentence as a determinate sentence.

(10) "Fines" means the requirement that the offender pay a specific sum of money over a specific period of time to the court.

(11) "First-time offender" means any person convicted of a felony not classified as a violent offense under this chapter, who previously has never been convicted of a felony in this state, federal court, or another state, and who has never participated in a program of deferred prosecution for a felony offense.

(12) "Offender" means a person who has committed a felony established by state law and is eighteen years of age or older or is less than eighteen years of age but whose case has been transferred by the appropriate juvenile court to a criminal court pursuant to RCW 13.40.110. Throughout this chapter, the terms "offender" and "defendant" are used interchangeably.

(13) "Partial confinement" means confinement for no more than one year in a facility or institution operated or utilized under contract by the state or any other unit of government, for a substantial portion of each day with the balance of the day spent in the community.

(14) "Restitution" means the requirement that the offender pay a specific sum of money over a specific period of time to the court as payment of damages. The sum may include both public and private costs. The imposition of a restitution order does not preclude civil redress.

(15) "Sentence range" means the sentencing court's discretionary range in imposing a nonappealable sentence.

(16) "Total confinement" means confinement inside the physical boundaries of a facility or institution operated or utilized under contract by the state or any other unit of government for twenty-four hours a day, or pursuant to RCW 72.64.050 and 72.64.060.

(17) "Violent offense" means:

(a) Any of the following felonies, as now existing or hereafter amended: Any felony defined under any law as a class A felony or an attempt to commit a class A felony, criminal solicitation of or criminal conspiracy to commit a class A felony, manslaughter in the first degree, manslaughter in the second degree, indecent liberties if committed by forcible compulsion, rape in the second degree, kidnapping in the second degree, arson in the second degree, assault in the second degree, extortion in the first degree, ((and)) robbery in the second degree, and ((negligent)) vehicular homicide;

(c) Any federal or out-of-state conviction for an offense comparable to a felony classified as a violent offense under subsection (17)(a) or (b) of this section."

On page 1, line 1, following "intoxicated," insert "amending section 3, chapter 137, Laws of 1981, as last amended by ESB 3416, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.94A.030".

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, a point of order. With respect to the House amendment on page 3, line 23, I raise the question of scope and object. Speaking to the point of order, basically, the bill relates to the Budget and Accounting Act and the technical nature of the budget and the authority of the Governor to make variable cuts. Section 2 relates to itemization of expenditures relating to decisions of the federal court and I believe the amendment expands the scope and object of the bill."

Debate ensued.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Talmadge, the President finds that Senate Bill No. 3090 is a measure of limited scope which removes obsolete statutory language from the Budget and Accounting Act.

"The amendment proposed by the House of Representatives requires state agencies to itemize expenditures required to be made pursuant to a federal court order for review by the Legislature.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved, that pursuant to Senate Rule 66, the Senate do not concur in the House amendments to page 3, after line 23; to page 3, line 29; to page 3, line 29; to page 1, line 3; to page 1, line 4; and to page 1, following line 4; to Senate Bill No. 3090 and asked the House to recede therefrom.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "Mr. President, under Rule 66, is that not when ruled out of order, the bill is sent back to the committee of origin?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Bluechel, the Senate has added a proviso. The President will read the entire rule--'A Senate bill passed by the House with an amendment or amendments which shall change the scope and object of the bill, upon being received in the Senate, shall be referred to appropriate committee and shall take the same course as for original bills. In the event a scope and object ruling results in a measure being referred to committee, a motion to ask the House to recede, to insist or to adhere shall be in order on the same day upon which the scope and object ruling resulted in the measure being referred to committee.'

"The President believes that inasmuch as this is the first time in his experience that this has occurred since this rule has been in effect, that Senator Talmadge should make a motion requesting the House to recede from the amendment ruled out of order. Otherwise, the President would have to refer this measure to committee."

Debate ensued.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried and the Senate did not concur in the House amendments to page 3, line 23; to page 3, line 29; to page 3, line 29; to page 1, line 3; to page 1, line 4; and to page 1, following line 4; to Senate Bill No. 3090 and asked the House to recede therefrom.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the Senate concurred in the House amendment to page 3, following line 25, to Senate Bill No. 3090.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

"Sec. 3. Section 16, chapter 175, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 11, chapter 40, Laws of 1979 and RCW 82.38.150 are each amended to read as follows:

For the purpose of determining the amount of his liability for the tax herein imposed each special fuel dealer and each special fuel user shall file tax reports with the department, on forms prescribed by the department, at periodic intervals as shown in the following schedule:

Estimated Yearly Tax Liability	Reporting Frequency
$ 0 - $100	Yearly
$101 - 250	Semi-yearly
$251 - 499	Quarterly
$500 and over	Monthly

The department shall establish the reporting frequency for each applicant at the time the special fuel license is issued. If it becomes apparent that any special fuel licensee is not reporting in accordance with the above schedule, the department shall change the licensee's reporting frequency by giving thirty days' notice to the licensee by mail to his address of record. A report shall be filed with the department even though no special fuel was used, or tax is due, for the reporting period. Each tax report shall contain a declaration by the person making the same, to the effect that the statements contained therein are true and are made under penalties of perjury, which declaration shall have the same force and effect as a verification of the report and shall be in lieu of such verification. The report shall show such information as the department may reasonably require for the proper administration and enforcement of this chapter: PROVIDED, That if a special fuel dealer or special fuel user is also a special fuel supplier at a location where special fuel is delivered into the supply tank of a motor vehicle, and if separate storage is provided thereat from which special fuel is delivered or placed into fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles, the tax report to the department need not include inventory control data covering bulk storage from which wholesale distribution of special fuel is made. Subject to the written approval of the department, tax reports may cover a period ending on a day other than the last day of the calendar month. Taxpayers granted approval to file reports in this manner will file such reports on or before the twenty-fifth day following the end of the reporting period. No change to this reporting period will be made without the written authorization of the department.

If the final filing date falls on a Saturday, Sunday or legal holiday the next secular or business day shall be the final filing date. Such reports shall be considered filed or received on the date shown by the post office cancellation mark stamped upon an envelope containing such report properly addressed to the department, or on the date it was mailed if proof satisfactory to the department is available to establish the date it was mailed.

The department, if it deems it necessary in order to insure payment of the tax imposed by this chapter, or to facilitate the administration of this chapter, shall have the authority to require the filing of reports and tax remittances at shorter intervals than one month if, in its opinion, an existing bond has become insufficient.

The department may permit any special fuel user whose sole use of special fuel is in motor vehicles or equipment exempt from tax as provided in RCW 82.38.075 and RCW 82.38.080(1), (2), (3), and ~~((6)-(8)))~~ (8), in lieu of the reports required in this section, to submit reports annually or as requested by the department, in such form as the department may require.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 18, 1983

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SECOND SUBSTITUTE BILL NO. 3245 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 1. DECLARATION OF PUBLIC POLICIES—PURPOSE. It is declared to be the public policy of the state and a recognized governmental function to assist in making affordable and decent housing available throughout the state and by so doing to contribute to the general welfare. Decent housing for the people of our state is a most important public concern. Interest rates and construction costs have made it impossible for many Washington citizens to purchase their own homes. Older people, disabled persons, and low and moderate income families often cannot afford to rent decent housing. There exists throughout the state a serious shortage of safe, sanitary and energy efficient housing available at prices within the financial means of our citizens. General economic development within the state is also impeded by a lack of affordable housing. The state's economy, which is dependent on the timber, wood products, and construction industries, has been damaged by inadequate investment in housing construction and rehabilitation. The result has been high unemployment and economic hardship affecting the prosperity of all the people of the state, particularly those in the wood products industry.

It is the purpose of this chapter to establish a state housing finance commission to act as a financial conduit which, without using public funds or lending the credit of the state or local government, can issue nonrecourse revenue bonds and participate in federal, state, and local housing programs and thereby make additional funds available at affordable rates to help provide housing throughout the state. It is also a primary purpose of this chapter to encourage the use of Washington state forest products in residential construction. This chapter is enacted to accomplish these and related purposes and shall be liberally construed to carry out its purposes and objectives.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. DEFINITIONS. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Bonds" means the bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness of the commission, the interest paid on which may or may not qualify for tax exemption.

(2) "Code" means the federal internal revenue code of 1954, as now or hereafter amended, and the regulations and rulings promulgated thereunder.

(3) "Commission" means the Washington state housing finance commission or any board, body, commission, department, or officer succeeding to the principal functions thereof or to whom the powers conferred upon the commission shall be given by law.

(4) "Costs of housing" means all costs related to the development, design, acquisition, construction, reconstruction, leasing, rehabilitation, and other improvements of housing, as determined by the commission.

(5) "Eligible person" means a person or family eligible in accordance with standards promulgated by the commission. Such persons shall include those persons whose income is insufficient to obtain at a reasonable cost, without financial assistance, decent, safe, and sanitary housing in the area in which the person or family resides, and may include such other persons whom the commission determines to be eligible.

(6) "Housing" means specific new, existing, or improved residential dwellings within this state or dwellings to be constructed within this state. The term includes land, buildings, and manufactured dwellings, and improvements, furnishings, and equipment, and such other nonhousing facilities, furnishings, equipment, and costs as may be incidental or appurtenant thereto if in the judgment of the commission the facilities, furnishings, equipment and costs are an integral part of the project. Housing may consist of single-family or multifamily dwellings in one or more structures located on contiguous or noncontiguous parcels or any combination thereof. Improvements may include such equipment and materials as are appropriate to accomplish energy efficiency within a dwelling. The term also includes a dwelling constructed by a person who occupies and owns the dwelling.

(7) "Mortgage" means a mortgage, mortgage deed, deed of trust, security agreement, or other instrument securing a mortgage loan and constituting a lien on or security interest in housing. The property may be held in fee simple or on a leasehold under a lease having a remaining term, at the time the mortgage is acquired, of not less than the term of repayment of the mortgage loan secured by the mortgage. The property may also be housing which is evidenced by an interest in a cooperative association or corporation if ownership of the interest entitles the owner of the interest to occupancy of a dwelling owned by the association or corporation.

(8) "Mortgage lender" means any of the following entities which customarily provide service or otherwise aid in the financing of housing and which are approved as a mortgage lender by the commission: A bank, trust company, savings bank, national banking association, savings and loan association, building and loan association, mortgage banker, mortgage company, credit union, life insurance company, or any other financial institution, governmental agency, municipal corporation, or any holding company for any of the entities specified in this subsection.

(9) "Mortgage loan" means an interest-bearing loan or a participation therein, made to a borrower, for the purpose of financing the costs of housing, evidenced by a promissory note, and which may or may not be secured (a) under a mortgage agreement, (b) under any other security agreement, regardless of whether the collateral is personal or real property, or (c) by insurance or a loan guarantee of a third party. However, an unsecured loan shall not be considered a mortgage loan under this definition unless the amount of the loan is under two thousand five hundred dollars.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. BONDS NOT DEBT OF STATE. Bonds issued under this chapter shall be issued in the name of the commission. The bonds shall not be obligations of the state of Washington and shall be obligations only of the commission payable from the special fund or funds created by the commission for their payment. Such funds shall not be or constitute public moneys or funds of the state of Washington but at all times shall be kept segregated and set apart from other funds.

Bonds issued under this chapter shall contain a recital on their face to the effect that payment of the principal of, interest on, and prepayment premium, if any, on the bonds, shall be a valid claim only as against the special fund or funds relating thereto, that neither the faith and credit nor the taxing power of the state or any municipal corporation, subdivision, or agency of the state, other than the commission as set forth in this chapter, is pledged to the payment of the principal of, interest on, and prepayment premium, if any, on the bonds.

Contracts entered into by the commission shall be entered into in the name of the commission and not in the name of the state of Washington. The obligations of the commission under the contracts shall be obligations only of the commission and are not in any way obligations of the state of Washington.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. COMMISSION CREATED. (1) There is hereby established a public body corporate and politic, with perpetual corporate succession, to be known as the Washington state housing finance commission. The commission is an instrumentality of the state exercising essential government functions and, for purposes of the code, acts as a constituted authority on behalf of the state when it issues bonds pursuant to this chapter. The commission is a "public body" within the meaning of RCW 39.53.010.

(2) The commission shall consist of the following voting members:

- (a) The state treasurer, ex officio;
- (b) The director of the planning and community affairs agency, ex officio;
- (c) An elected local government official, ex officio, with experience in local housing programs, who shall be appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate;
- (d) A representative of housing consumer interests, appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate;
- (e) A representative of labor interests, appointed by the governor, with the consent of the senate, after consultation with representatives of organized labor;
- (f) A representative of low-income persons, appointed by the governor with the consent of the senate;
- (g) Five members of the public appointed by the governor, with the consent of the senate, on the basis of geographic distribution and their expertise in housing, real estate, finance, energy efficiency, or construction, one of whom shall be appointed by the governor as chair of the commission and who shall serve on the commission and as chair of the commission at the pleasure of the governor.

The term of the persons appointed by the governor, other than the chair, shall be four years from the date of their appointment, except that the terms of three of the initial appointees shall be for two years from the date of their appointment. The governor shall designate the appointees who will serve the two-year terms. An appointee may be removed by the governor for cause pursuant to RCW 43.06.070 and 43.06.080. The governor shall fill any vacancy in an appointed position by appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term. If the planning and community affairs agency is abolished, the resulting vacancy shall be filled by a state official who shall be appointed to the commission by the governor. If this official occupies an office or position for which senate confirmation is not required, then his appointment to the commission shall be subject to the consent of the senate. The members of the commission shall serve without compensation, but may be reimbursed, solely from the funds of the commission, for expenses incurred in the discharge of their duties under this chapter, subject to the provisions of RCW 43.03.050 and 43.03.060. A majority of the commission constitutes a quorum. Designees shall be appointed in such manner and shall exercise such powers as are specified by the rules of the commission.

(3) The commission may adopt an official seal and may select from its membership a vice chair, a secretary, and a treasurer. The commission shall establish rules concerning its exercise of the powers authorized by this chapter. The rules shall be adopted in conformance with chapter 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. HOUSING FINANCING POWERS. (1) In addition to other powers and duties prescribed in this chapter, and in furtherance of the purposes of this chapter to provide decent, safe, sanitary, and affordable housing for eligible persons, the commission is empowered to:

- (a) Issue bonds in accordance with this chapter: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That this power to issue bonds shall cease to exist on June 30, 1986, unless extended by law for an additional fixed period of time;
- (b) Invest in, purchase, or make commitments to purchase or take assignments from mortgage lenders of mortgages or mortgage loans;
- (c) Make loans to or deposits with mortgage lenders for the purpose of making mortgage loans; and

(d) Participate fully in federal and other governmental programs and to take such actions as are necessary and consistent with this chapter to secure to itself and the people of the state the benefits of those programs and to meet their requirements, including such actions as the commission considers appropriate in order to have the interest payments on its bonds and other obligations treated as tax exempt under the code.

(2) The commission shall establish eligibility standards for eligible persons, considering at least the following factors:

- (a) Income;
- (b) Family size;
- (c) Cost, condition and energy efficiency of available residential housing;
- (d) Availability of decent, safe, and sanitary housing;
- (e) Age or infirmity; and
- (f) Applicable federal, state, and local requirements.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. NO POWER OF EMINENT DOMAIN OR TAXATION. The commission does not have the power of eminent domain and the commission does not have the power to levy any taxes of any kind.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. HOUSING FINANCE PLAN. The commission shall adopt a general plan of housing finance objectives to be implemented by the commission during the period of the plan. The commission shall adopt a plan no later than December 15, 1983. The commission may exercise the powers authorized under this chapter prior to the adoption of the initial plan. In developing the plan, the commission shall consider and set objectives for:

- (1) The use of funds for single-family and multifamily housing;
- (2) The use of funds for new construction, rehabilitation, including refinancing of existing debt, and home purchases;
- (3) The housing needs of low-income and moderate-income persons and families, and of elderly or mentally or physically handicapped persons;
- (4) The use of funds in coordination with federal, state, and local housing programs for low-income persons;
- (5) The use of funds in urban, rural, suburban, and special areas of the state;
- (6) The use of financing assistance to stabilize and upgrade declining urban neighborhoods;
- (7) The use of financing assistance for economically depressed areas, areas of minority concentration, reservations, and in mortgage-deficient areas;
- (8) The geographical distribution of bond proceeds so that the benefits of the housing programs provided under this chapter will be available to address demand on a fair basis throughout the state;
- (9) The use of financing assistance for implementation of cost-effective energy efficiency measures in dwellings.

The plan shall include an estimate of the amount of bonds the commission will issue during the term of the plan and how bond proceeds will be expended.

The plan shall be adopted by resolution of the commission following at least one public hearing thereon, notice of which shall be made by mailing to the clerk of the governing body of each county and by publication in the Washington State Register no more than forty and no less than twenty days prior to the hearing. A draft of the plan shall be made available not less than thirty days prior to any such public hearing. At least every two years, the commission shall report to the legislature regarding implementation of the plan.

Prior to December 31, 1983, the commission shall submit the plan to the chief clerk of the house and secretary of the senate for transmittal to and review by the appropriate standing committees. The commission may periodically update the plan. Proposed changes of the plan shall be submitted to the chief clerk of the house and secretary of the senate for transmittal to and review by the appropriate standing committees. This submittal of proposed changes shall occur at least fourteen days before final adoption of the changes by the commission.

The commission shall adopt rules designed to result in the use of bond proceeds in a manner consistent with the plan. These rules shall be adopted and in full force and effect by February 1, 1984. The commission may periodically update its rules.

The commission is not required to adopt a plan or rules for the use of the proceeds of bonds issued prior to February, 1984. This section is designed to deal only with the use of bond proceeds and nothing in this section shall be construed as a limitation on the commission's authority to issue bonds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. GENERAL POWERS. In addition to other powers and duties specified in this chapter, the commission may:

- (1) Establish in resolutions relating to any issuance of bonds, or in any financing documents relating to such issuance, such standards and requirements applicable to the purchase of mortgages and mortgage loans or the making of loans to mortgage lenders as the commission deems necessary or desirable, including but not limited to: (a) The time within which mortgage lenders must make commitments and disbursements for mortgages or mortgage loans; (b) the location and other characteristics of single-family housing or multifamily housing to be financed by mortgages and mortgage loans; (c) the terms and conditions of mortgages and mortgage loans to be acquired; (d) the amounts and types of insurance coverage required on mortgages, mortgage loans, and bonds; (e) the representations and warranties of mortgage lenders confirming compliance with such standards and requirements; (f) restrictions as to interest rate and other terms of mortgages or mortgage loans or the return realized therefrom by mortgage lenders; (g) the type and amount of collateral security to be provided to assure repayment of any loans from the commission and to assure repayment of bonds; and (h) any other matters related to the purchase of mortgages or mortgage loans or the making of loans to lending institutions as shall be deemed relevant by the commission;

(2) Sue and be sued in its own name;

(3) Make and execute contracts and all other instruments necessary or convenient for the exercise of its purposes or powers, including but not limited to contracts or agreements for the origination, servicing, and administration of mortgages or mortgage loans, and the borrowing of money;

(4) Procure such insurance, including but not limited to insurance: (a) Against any loss in connection with its property and other assets, including but not limited to mortgages or mortgage loans, in such amounts and from such insurers as the commission deems desirable, and (b) to indemnify members of the commission for acts done in the course of their duties;

(5) Provide for the investment of any funds, including funds held in reserve, not required for immediate disbursement, and provide for the selection of investments;

(6) Fix, revise, and collect fees and charges in connection with the investigation and financing of housing or in connection with assignments, contracts, purchases of mortgages or mortgage loans, or any other actions permitted under this chapter or by the commission; and receive grants and contributions;

(7) Make such expenditures as are appropriate for paying the administrative costs of the commission and for carrying out the provisions of this chapter. These expenditures may be made only from funds consisting of the commission's receipts from fees and charges, grants and contributions, the proceeds of bonds issued by the commission, and other revenues; these expenditures shall not be made from funds of the state of Washington;

(8) Establish such special funds, and controls on deposits to and disbursements from them, as it finds convenient for the implementation of this chapter;

(9) Conduct such investigations and feasibility studies as it deems appropriate;

(10) Proceed with foreclosure actions or accept deeds in lieu of foreclosure together with the assignments of leases and rentals incidental thereto. Any properties acquired by the commission through such actions shall be sold as soon as practicable through persons licensed under chapter 18.85 RCW or at public auction, or by transfer to a public agency. In preparation for the disposition of the properties, the commission may own, lease, clear, construct, reconstruct, rehabilitate, repair, maintain, manage, operate, assign, or encumber the properties;

(11) Take assignments of leases and rentals;

(12) Subject to any provisions of the commission's contracts with the holders of obligations of the commission, consent to any modification with respect to rate of interest, time, and payment of any installment of principal or interest or any other term of any contract, mortgage, mortgage loan, mortgage loan commitment, contract, or agreement of any kind;

(13) Subject to provisions of the commission's contracts with the holders of bonds, permit the reduction of rental or carrying charges to persons unable to pay the regular rent or schedule of charges if, by reason of other income of the commission or by reason of payment by any department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States or of this state, the reduction can be made without jeopardizing the economic stability of the housing being financed;

(14) Sell, at public or private sale, with or without public bidding, any mortgage, mortgage loan, or other instrument or asset held by the commission;

(15) Employ, contract with, or engage engineers, architects, attorneys, financial advisors, bond underwriters, mortgage lenders, mortgage administrators, housing construction or financing experts, other technical or professional assistants, and such other personnel as are necessary. The commission may delegate to the appropriate persons the power to execute legal instruments on its behalf;

(16) Receive contributions or grants from any source unless otherwise prohibited;

(17) Delegate any of its powers and duties if consistent with the purposes of this chapter;

(18) Exercise any other power reasonably required to implement the purposes of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) The commission shall adopt written policies to provide for the selection of bond counsel. The policies shall provide for the creation and maintenance of a roster of attorneys whom the commission believes possess the requisite special expertise and professional standing to provide bond counsel opinions which would be accepted by the underwriters, bondholders, and other members of the financial community, and which would be in furtherance of the public interest in obtaining the lowest possible interest rates on the bonds issued by the commission. Any attorney may apply to have his or her name placed on the roster, but may not be placed on the roster unless the attorney demonstrates to the commission's satisfaction that the attorney would issue the kind of opinions required by this section.

(2) Prior to selecting an attorney or attorneys to provide bond counsel services, the commission shall provide all attorneys on the roster with a notice of its intentions to select bond counsel and shall invite each of them to submit to the commission his or her fee schedule for providing bond counsel services. The commission shall have wide discretion in selecting the attorney or attorneys it considers to be most appropriate to provide the services, but in the exercise of this discretion the commission shall consider all submitted fee schedules and the public interest in achieving both savings in bond counsel fees and issuance of bonds on terms most favorable to the commission. At least once every two calendar years, the commission shall select anew an attorney or attorneys to serve as bond counsel. However, the commission may retain an attorney for longer than two years when necessary to complete work on a particular bond issue. An attorney previously retained may be selected again but only after the commission has provided other attorneys on the roster with an opportunity to be selected and has made the fee schedule review required under this subsection. In addition to or as an alternative to retaining counsel for a period of time, the commission may appoint an attorney to serve as counsel in respect to only a particular bond issue.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. (1) The commission shall adopt written policies to provide for the selection of underwriters. The policies shall provide for the creation of a roster of underwriters whom the commission believes possess the requisite special expertise and professional standing to provide bond marketing services which would be accepted by bondholders and other members of the financial community, and which would be in furtherance of the public interest in marketing the commission's bonds at the lowest possible costs. Any underwriter may apply to have its name placed on the roster, but may not be placed on the roster unless it demonstrates to the commission's satisfaction that it meets the requirements of this section.

(2) Whenever the commission decides that it needs the services of an underwriter, it shall provide all underwriters on the roster with a notice of its intentions and shall invite each of them to submit to the commission an itemization of its fees and other charges for providing underwriting services on the issue. The itemization shall be by categories designed by the commission. The commission shall have wide discretion in selecting the underwriter it considers to be most appropriate to provide the services, but in the exercise of this discretion the commission shall consider the underwriter's fees and other charges and the public interest in achieving both savings in the total costs of underwriting services and issuance of bonds on terms most favorable to the commission.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The commission shall submit the initial policies adopted under section 9 and section 10 of this act to the chief clerk of the house and the secretary of the senate for transmittal to and review by the appropriate standing committees and the joint administrative rules review committee. By January 1, 1984 the commission shall have adopted policies in the form of rules and regulations under chapter 34.04 RCW. Such rules and regulations may only be changed or revised in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. The legislature recognizes that the demand for mortgage loans for nonrental single family housing will probably greatly exceed the supply of bond proceeds available to satisfy the demand. Therefore, the commission shall adopt rules providing procedures to assure that the bond proceeds available for that kind of housing shall be made available to qualified mortgagors in a fair and equitable manner.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The commission is encouraged to adopt policies which will assure that bondholders will be protected against the failure to make mortgage payments financed under this chapter. Such policies may require, among other things, mortgage insurance.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. RULES FOR ENERGY EFFICIENCY. The commission shall adopt rules providing for financing assistance to implement cost-effective energy efficiency improvements.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. BOND ISSUES—TERMS—ISSUANCE—PURCHASE, ETC. (1) The commission's bonds shall bear such date or dates, mature at such time or times, be in such denominations, be in such form, be registered or registerable in such manner, be made transferable, exchangeable, and interchangeable, be payable in such medium of payment, at such place or places, be subject to such terms of redemption, bear such fixed or variable rate or rates of interest, be payable at such time or times, and be sold in such manner and at such price or prices, as the commission determines. The bonds shall be executed by the chair, by either its duly elected secretary or its treasurer, and by the trustee or paying agent if the commission determines to use a trustee or paying agent for the bonds. Execution of the bonds may be by manual or facsimile signature.

(2) The bonds of the commission shall be subject to such terms, conditions, covenants, and protective provisions as are found necessary or desirable by the commission, including, but not limited to, pledges of the commission's assets, setting aside of reserves, limitations on additional forms of indebtedness, and the mortgaging of all or any part of the commission's real or personal property, then owned or thereafter acquired, and other provisions the commission finds are necessary or desirable for the security of bond holders.

(3) Any security interest created in the unexpended bond proceeds and in the special funds created by the commission shall be immediately valid and binding against such moneys and any securities in which such moneys may be invested without commission or trustee possession thereof, and the security interest shall be prior to any party having any competing claim in such moneys or securities, without filing or recording pursuant to chapter 62A.9 RCW and regardless of whether the party has notice of the security interest.

(4) When issuing bonds, the commission may provide for the future issuance of additional bonds or parity debt on a parity with outstanding bonds, and the terms and conditions of their issuance. The commission may refund or advance refund any bond of the commission in accordance with chapter 39.53 RCW or issue bonds with a subordinate lien against the fund or funds securing outstanding bonds.

(5) The chair of the state finance committee or the chair's designee shall be notified in advance of the issuance of bonds by the commission in order to promote the orderly offering of obligations in the financial markets.

(6) The members of the commission and any person executing the bonds are not liable personally on the indebtedness or subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the issuance thereof.

(7) The commission may, out of any fund available therefor, purchase its bonds in the open market.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. DEBT LIMITATION. The total amount of outstanding indebtedness of the commission may not exceed one billion dollars at any time.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. BOND ISSUES—DISPOSITION OF PROCEEDS—SPECIAL FUND. Proceeds from the sale of all bonds issued under this chapter received by the commission shall be deposited forthwith by the commission in any trust company, savings bank, savings and loan association, or bank having the powers of a trust company within or without the state, in a special fund or funds established for the particular purposes for which the bonds were issued and sold, which money shall not be funds of the state of Washington. Such fund or funds shall at all times be segregated and set apart from all other funds and held in trust for the purposes for which such bonds were issued as determined by the commission. Money other than bond sale proceeds received by the commission for these same purposes, such as private contributions or grants from the federal government, may be deposited in such fund or funds. Proceeds received from the sale of the bonds may also be used to defray the expenses of the commission in connection with and incidental to the issuance and sale of bonds, as well as expenses for studies, surveys, estimates, plans, inspections, and examinations of or incidental to the purposes for which the bonds were issued, and other costs advanced therefor by third parties or by the commission. In lieu of the commission receiving and handling these moneys in the manner outlined in this section, the commission may appoint trustees, depositories, paying agents, and other financial institutions within or without the state to perform the functions outlined and to receive, hold, disburse, invest, and reinvest such funds on its behalf and for the protection of the bondholders.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. BOND ISSUES—SPECIAL TRUST FUND—PAYMENTS—STATUS—ADMINISTRATION OF FUND. All revenues received by the commission including funds received from contributions or grants or in any other form to pay principal of and interest on bonds or for other bond requirements such as reserves shall be deposited by the commission in any trust company, savings bank, savings and loan association, or bank having the powers of a trust company within or without the state, to the credit of a special trust fund or funds. The commission may establish a bond fund or funds, and a reserve, sinking fund and other accounts therein, for payment of principal and interest and for other special requirements of the bonds as determined by the commission. In lieu of the commission receiving and handling these moneys as outlined in this section, the commission may appoint trustees, depositories, paying agents, and other financial institutions to perform the functions outlined and to receive, hold, disburse, invest, and reinvest such funds on its behalf and for the protection of the bondholders. Such revenues and funds, whether received and held by the commission or by others on its behalf, shall not be or constitute public funds of the state of Washington but at all times shall be kept segregated and apart from all other funds.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. LEGAL INVESTMENTS. Bonds issued under this chapter are hereby made securities in which all public officers and public bodies of the state and its political subdivisions, all insurance companies, trust companies in their commercial departments, savings banks, cooperative banks, banking associations, investment companies, executors, trustees and other fiduciaries, and all other persons whatsoever who are now or may hereafter be authorized to invest in obligations of the state may properly and legally invest funds, including capital in their control or belonging to them. Such bonds are hereby made securities which may properly and legally be deposited with and received by any state or municipal officer or any agency or political subdivisions of the state for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds and other obligations of the state are now or may hereafter be authorized by law.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. INTERNAL REVENUE CODE. For purposes of the code:

(1) The legislature reserves the right at any time to alter or change the structure, organization, programs, or activities of the commission and to terminate the commission, so long as the action does not impair any outstanding contracts entered into by the commission;

(2) Any net earnings of the commission beyond that necessary to retire its bonds and to carry out the purposes of this chapter shall not inure to the benefit of any person other than the state;

(3) Upon dissolution of the commission, title to all of its remaining property shall vest in the state;

(4) The commission constitutes the only housing finance agency of the state of Washington; and

(5) In order to take advantage of the maximum amount of tax exempt bonds for housing financing available pursuant to the code, the state ceiling for each of the calendar years 1983 and 1984 shall be allocated in accordance with the following formula:

(a) Eighty percent of the state ceiling shall be allocated to the commission and twenty percent shall be allocated to the other issuing authorities in the state.

(b) The allocation to the issuing authorities other than the commission shall be distributed to such issuing authorities in amounts as determined following public notice by the planning and community affairs agency, or its successor, pursuant to rules promulgated by it. The distribution shall be in response to applications received from such issuing authorities and shall be based on the following factors: (i) The amount of housing to be made available by such applicant; (ii) the population within the jurisdiction of the applicant; (iii) coordination with other applicable federal and state housing programs; (iv) the likelihood of implementing the proposed financing during that year; and (v) consistency with the plan of the commission. On or before February 1 of each year, the planning and community affairs agency shall distribute the state ceiling allocation among such issuing authorities and any unused portion shall be added to the allocation of the commission. However, for calendar year 1983, the distribution shall be made on or before September 1, 1983. After 1983 each issuing authority other than the commission shall confirm its allocation distribution by providing to the planning and community affairs agency no later than June 1 a copy of an executed bond purchase contract or alternative documentation deemed sufficient by the commission to evidence the reasonable likelihood of the allocation distribution being fully used. Any portion of such allocation not so confirmed shall be added to the allocation of the commission on July 1. Prior to July 1, the commission shall provide written notice of the allocation decrease to the affected issuing authority. The reallocation shall not limit the authority of the commission to assign a portion of its allocation pursuant to subsection (5)(c) of this section.

(c) The commission may assign a portion of its allocation to another issuing agency.

(d) For calendar year 1983, the allocations to issuing authorities, other than the commission, shall include bonds issued by the authorities during the first six months of 1983. However, the planning and community affairs agency, or its successor, shall adopt rules to ensure that the total amount of bonds issued by the authorities during the six-month period does not exceed their twenty percent share and that the total amount of bonds issued by any single issuing authority during such period does not exceed twenty-five million dollars.

The rules under this chapter shall meet federal requirements which are a necessary condition to the receipt of federal funds by the state.

The common law doctrine of incompatibility of offices is hereby voided as it applies to persons sitting on the board of directors or the executive board of an operating agency and holding an elective or appointive position on a public utility district commission or municipal legislative authority or being an employee of a public utility district or municipality.

Sec. 2. Section 43.52.370, chapter 8, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 2, chapter 43, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.52.370 are each amended to read as follows:

Sec. 3. Section 2, chapter 3, Laws of 1981 1st ex. sess. as amended by section 3, chapter 43, Laws of 1982 1st ex. sess. and RCW 43.52.374 are each amended to read as follows:

(a) Five members of the executive board shall be elected to four-year terms by the board of directors from among the members of the board of directors. The board of directors may provide by rule for the composition of the five members of the executive board elected from among the members of the board of directors so as to reflect the member public utility districts' and cities' participation in the joint operating agency's projects. Members elected to the executive board from the board of directors are ineligible for continued membership on the executive board if they cease to be members of the board of directors. The board of directors may also provide by rule for the removal of a member of the executive board, except for the outside directors. Members of the board of directors may be elected to serve successive terms on the executive board. Members elected to the executive board from the board of directors shall receive a salary from the operating agency at a rate set by the board of directors.

(c) The governor may remove outside directors from the executive board for incompetency, misconduct, or malfeasance in office in the same manner as state appointive officers under chapter 43.06 RCW. For purposes of this subsection, misconduct shall include, but not be limited to, nonfeasance and misfeasance.

(2) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to mean that an operating agency is in any manner an agency of the state. Nothing in this chapter alters or destroys the status of an operating agency as a separate municipal corporation or makes the state liable in any way or to any extent for any preexisting or future debt of the operating agency or any present or future claim against the agency.

(3) The eleven members of the executive board shall be selected with the objective of establishing an executive board which has the resources to effectively carry out its responsibilities. (6) The executive board shall select and employ a managing director of the operating agency and may delegate to the managing director such authority for the management and control of the operating agency as the executive board deems appropriate. The managing director's employment is terminable at the will of the executive board.

(7) Members of the executive board shall be immune from civil liability for mistakes and errors of judgment in the good faith performance of acts within the scope of their official duties involving the exercise of judgment and discretion. This grant of immunity shall not be construed as modifying the liability of the operating agency.

The operating agency shall undertake the defense of and indemnify each executive board member made a party to any civil proceeding including any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, administrative, or investigative, by reason of the fact he or she is or was a member of the executive board, against judgments, penalties, fines, settlements, and reasonable expenses, actually incurred by him or her in connection with such proceeding if he or she had conducted himself or herself in good faith and reasonably believed his or her conduct to be in the best interest of the operating agency.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Williams moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3266.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Benitz: "Mr. President, recognizing that this is a striking amendment, the question is, then, can any part of it be divided into a separate question on a separate vote?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Benitz, in reply to your parliamentary inquiry, the President believes if the division is constituted between sections, it would be possible--the division would be permitted if it dealt with sections."

Senator Benitz: "Yes, it deals with section 3--the last amendment."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Benitz, the question was divided and the Senate considered section 3, subsection (4), page 8, of the House amendment to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3266 separately.

Senator Williams moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to substitute Senate Bill No. 3266, with the exception of section 3, subsection (4) on page 8.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Senator Williams, the question--it says 'the annual ten thousand dollars limit on the per diem compensation.' Is that ten thousand dollars for each person?"

Senator Williams: "The ten thousand dollars per diem that is referred to in the language is for each board member. However, that has been stricken and they can no longer receive per diem. Per diem no longer exists in terms of anything that the board members can receive anymore. All they can receive is a maximum of five thousand dollars per year compensation, which is classified as income. They must declare it as income. In addition, if they have other travel or any expenses that they can verify, they can claim those kinds of expenses. There is no longer per diem and the ten thousand dollar limit language is stricken from the bill."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Benitz, the negotiations that have been going on the past few weeks with a very secret group of people--and dealing in billions of dollars--and with what will be the residents of this state having to pay the cost of the end result--don't you think that they should be public? Or should they continue to be secret?"

Senator Benitz: "It is my belief that once the temporary decisions have been reached, they should be public, but all of it--'no.' There is a tremendous amount of negotiating carrying on and if it is on the front page of the paper every day, we are going to be in worse shape instead of better. I believe very firmly that once the negotiations have been made, the public should have the right to know. I think you all recognize that there are many things that have to be talked about behind the scenes. Further, if we don't have the opportunity--or the WPPSS people--then one person simply has to go off on the side and that is not the way I would like to have it."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Senator Benitz, when you said public disclosure--maybe that isn't the right wording--do you mean public open meetings or something to do with the public disclosure act?"

Senator Benitz: "The amendment speaks to the open public meeting act--the RCW 42.30. They would be included in that."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Williams that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3266, with the exception of section 3, subsection (4) on page 8.

The motion by Senator Williams carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3266, with the exception of section 3, subsection (4) on page 8.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Vognild, Senator Peterson was excused.

Senator Williams moved that the Senate do concur with the portion of the House amendment to section 3, subsection (4), page 8, to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3266.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Kiskaddon: "Senator Williams, does this board decide financial contracts and financial negotiations, so that every time they get requests for proposals--or those kinds of negotiations--every meeting would have to be done with the press and everybody standing around, reading all the proposals coming in? Is there any place where there could be any confidentiality if someone's proposal of a contract--if it was a competitive bid--or is my competition able to go to the meeting and read my bid in the open with everyone else's?"

Senator Williams: "I'm not an authority on the Open Public Meetings Act, but to the extent that a city council, board of county commissioners or a port district board makes decisions relating to contracts and to the extent that some portions of it may be closed when it relates to confidential material. As I understand it, the WPPSS Board would be acting and have the same powers of exceptions that any other body in the state of Washington would have. Perhaps some other member of the Senate may wish to answer that--Senator Talmadge, perhaps."

REMARKS BY SENATOR TALMADGE

Senator Talmadge: "There are exceptions, Senator Kiskaddon, in the open meetings act. Those exceptions include personnel matters--a contractual matter that may have an impact on the amount of the contract, such as requests for a sale of a piece of real estate, where you would clearly have an impact on the sale value of the property, if it were disclosed publicly that the local government or unit of government was interested in selling it. I think those exceptions are applicable here to the WPPSS board."

Debate ensued.

Senator Williams demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Williams that the Senate concur in the portion of the House amendment to section 3, subsection (4), page 8, to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3266.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Williams carried and the Senate concurred in the portion of the House amendment to section 3, subsection (4) to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3266 by the following vote: Yeas, 23; nays, 21; absent, 02; excused, 03.

Absent: Senators Conner, Moore - 2.

Excused: Senators Hemstad, Peterson, Pullen - 3.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3266, as amended by the House, having failed to receive the constitutional majority, was declared lost.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "What side is prevailing where someone votes 'aye' to pass a bill and the bill fails?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Quite obvious, Senator, the prevailing side is the losing side."

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Hansen moved that the Senate reconsider the vote by which Substitute Senate Bill No. 3266, as amended by the House, failed to pass the Senate.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Hansen that the Senate reconsider the vote by which Substitute Senate Bill No. 3266, as amended by the House, failed to pass the Senate.

The motion by Senator Hansen carried and the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3266, as amended by the House.

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Senator Williams moved that the Senate reconsider the vote by which the Senate concurred in the the House amendment to section 3, subsection (4) to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3266.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Williams to reconsider the vote by which the Senate concurred in the House amendment to section 3, subsection (4) to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3266.

The motion by Senator Williams for reconsideration carried.

MOTION

Senator Williams moved that the Senate concur in the House amendment to section 3, subsection (4) to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3266.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Mr. President, if Senator Williams' motive, now, is or seems to be, in effect, not to concur, should he not withdraw his motion to concur and substitute a motion not to concur, which, if passed, then automatically would, in effect, send it back and ask the House to recede?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Clarke, in reply to your inquiry, that result would be the same either way."

Senator Clarke: "In other words, a negative vote to concur would obviously result to not concur. Then it would go back to the House?"

President Cherberg: "It would result in automatically asking the House to recede. A vote 'no' on concurrence is, in effect, not to concur."

The motion by Senator Williams failed and the Senate did not concur in the House amendment to section 3, subsection (4) to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3266 and asked the House to recede therefrom.

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 1, chapter 50, Laws of 1949 and RCW 26.12.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Each superior court shall exercise the jurisdiction conferred by this chapter and while sitting in the exercise of such jurisdiction shall be known and referred to as the "family court." Sec. 2. Section 9, chapter 50, Laws of 1949 and RCW 26.12.090 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever any controversy exists between ~~((spouses))~~ parties which may result in the dissolution ~~((or annulment))~~ of the marriage, declaration of invalidity, or the disruption of the household, and there is any minor child of the ~~((spouses))~~ parties or of either of them whose welfare might be affected thereby, the family court shall have jurisdiction over the controversy and over the parties thereto and all persons having any relation to the controversy as provided in this chapter.

Sec. 3. Section 10, chapter 50, Laws of 1949 and RCW 26.12.100 are each amended to read as follows:

Prior to the filing of ~~((any action for divorce, annulment or separate maintenance))~~ a family law proceeding, either ~~((spouse or both spouses))~~ party may file in the family court a petition invoking the jurisdiction of the court for the purpose of preserving the marriage by effecting a reconciliation between the parties or for amicable settlement of the controversy between the ~~((spouses)) parties~~ so as to avoid further litigation over the issue involved. In any case where ~~((an action for divorce, annulment or separate maintenance))~~ a family law proceeding shall have been filed, either party thereto may by petition filed therein have the cause transferred to the family court for proceedings in the same manner as though action had been instituted in the family court in the first instance.

The petition shall:

(6) State such other information as the court may by rule require.

Sec. 5. Section 17, chapter 50, Laws of 1949 as amended by section 2, chapter 151, Laws of 1971 (ex. sess. and RCW 26.12.170 are each amended to read as follows:

The hearing shall be conducted informally as a conference or series of conferences to effect the reconciliation of the ~~((spouses)) parties~~ or an amicable adjustment or settlement of the issues of the controversy. To facilitate and promote the purposes of this chapter, the court may order or recommend the aid of physicians, psychiatrists, or other specialists or may recommend the aid of the pastor or director of any religious denomination to which the parties may belong. Such aid, however, shall be at the expense of the parties involved and shall not be at the expense of the court or of the county unless the board of county commissioners shall specifically authorize such aid.

If the court has reasonable cause to believe that a child of the parties has suffered abuse or neglect it may file a report with the proper law enforcement agency or the department of social and health services as provided in RCW 26.44.040. Upon receipt of such a report the law enforcement agency or the department of social and health services will conduct an investigation into the cause and extent of the abuse or neglect. The findings of the investigation may be made available to the court if ordered by the court as provided in RCW 42.17.310(3). (2) If, after the expiration of such thirty day period or the formal conclusion of the proceedings for conciliation, the controversy between the ~~((spouses, in the meantime not having))~~ parties has not been terminated, either ~~((spouse)) party~~ may apply for ~~((divorce, annulment of marriage, or separate maintenance, respectively))~~ further relief by filing in the clerk's office additional pleadings ~~((complying with the requirements relating to divorce, annulment of marriage, or separate maintenance, respectively))~~ or by asking that the pending case be set for trial ~~((; and))~~. (3) The conciliation provisions of this chapter may be used ~~((in regard to post-divorce problems))~~ concerning support, visitation, contempt, or for modification based on changed conditions ~~((; in the discretion of the family court))~~ or for other problems between the parties related to the family law proceeding.

~~((The family court may retain jurisdiction in any proceedings for a longer period than thirty days upon good cause appearing therefor on its own motion for further conciliation or upon application of either of the spouses, but in no event shall retain jurisdiction more than ninety days without the written consent of both spouses filed with the court.))~~

(4) Except as specifically so provided nothing in this chapter shall be construed to repeal, nullify or change the law and procedure relating to ~~((divorce, annulment or separate maintenance, and))~~ family law proceedings. The family court shall, when application for relief is made under this chapter, apply ~~((such laws))~~ provisions governing family law proceedings in the same manner as if the action had been brought thereunder in the superior court, save that the conciliation procedures of the family court shall be applied so far as appropriate to arrive at an amicable settlement of all issues in controversy.

Sec. 8. Section 20, chapter 50, Laws of 1949 and RCW 26.12.200 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever ~~((any action for divorce, annulment of marriage or separate maintenance))~~ a family law proceeding is filed in the superior court and it appears to the court at any time during the pendency of the action that there is any minor child of ~~((the spouses or of))~~ either ~~((of them))~~ party whose welfare may be affected by the dissolution ~~((or annulment))~~ of the marriage, declaration of invalidity, or the disruption of the household, the case may be transferred to the family court for proceedings for reconciliation of the ~~((spouses))~~ parties or amicable settlement of issues in controversy in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

The court shall accept jurisdiction under this section only upon a finding by the court that the acceptance of the case will not seriously impede the work of the court in cases involving children.

MOTION

Senator Moore moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3308.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Goltz: "Senator Moore, is there any sort of home health agency excluded from eligibility under this bill?"

Senator Moore: "No. A major factor in introducing this kind of legislation is that home health care and hospice care are usually less expensive than institutionalization. Every effort must be made to maintain this cost effectiveness. Therefore, we are trying to achieve the widest possible participation of providers, so that there is vigorous competition in this field. This will insure high quality service at a reasonable cost. That's why certification under various other state or federal programs is not required by this bill. The only requirement for home health agencies is that the state's quality standards are at least as tough as the home health certification rules established for such agencies by the federal government."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Moore that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3308.

The motion by Senate Moore carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3308.

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3497 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause, and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. The legislature finds that vehicles using alternative fuel sources such as propane, compressed natural gas, liquid petroleum gas, or other hydrocarbon gas fuels require fire fighters to use a different technique if the vehicles catch fire. A reflective placard on such vehicles would warn fire fighters of the danger so they could react properly.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 46.37 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Every automobile, truck, motorcycle, motor home, or off-road vehicle that is fueled by propane gas shall bear a reflective placard indicating that the vehicle is so fueled. Violation of this subsection is a traffic infraction.

(2) As used in this section "propane gas" includes propane, compressed natural gas, liquid petroleum gas, or any chemically similar gas but does not include gasoline or diesel fuel.

(3) The vehicle identification decal required by the national fire protection association and designed by the national LP gas association shall be required to be displayed on all propane fueled vehicles.

Sec. 3. Section 11, chapter 163, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 1, chapter 176, Laws of 1980 and RCW 46.16.015 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Neither the department of licensing nor its agents may issue or renew a motor vehicle license for any vehicle registered in an emission contributing area, as that area is established under RCW 70.120.040, unless the application for issuance or renewal is: (a) Accompanied by a valid certificate of compliance issued pursuant to RCW 70.120.060, 70.120.080, or 70.120.090 or a valid certificate of acceptance issued pursuant to RCW 70.120.070; or (b) exempted from this requirement pursuant to subsection (2) of this section. The certificates must have a date of validation which is within ninety days of the date of application for the vehicle license or license renewal. Certificates for fleet vehicles may have a date of validation which is within twelve months of the assigned license renewal date.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section does not apply to the following vehicles:

(a) New motor vehicles whose equitable or legal title has never been transferred to a person who in good faith purchases the vehicle for purposes other than resale;

(b) Motor vehicles fifteen years old or older;

(c) Motor vehicles that use propulsion units powered exclusively by electricity;

(d) Motor vehicles fueled exclusively by propane, compressed natural gas, or liquid petroleum gas, unless it is determined that federal sanctions will be imposed as a result of this exemption;

(e) Motorcycles as defined in RCW 46.04.330 and motor-driven cycles as defined in RCW 46.04.332;

~~((f))~~ (f) Motor vehicles powered by diesel engines;

~~((g))~~ (g) Farm vehicles as defined in RCW 46.04.181; or

~~((h))~~ (h) Motor vehicles exempted by the director of the department of ecology.

The provisions of subparagraph (a) of this subsection may not be construed as exempting from the provisions of subsection (1) of this section applications for the renewal of licenses for motor vehicles that are or have been leased.

(3) The department of licensing shall mail to each owner of a vehicle registered within an emission contributing area a notice regarding the boundaries of the area and restrictions established under this section that apply to vehicles registered in such areas. The information for the notice shall be supplied to the department of licensing by the department of ecology. Such a notice shall be mailed to the owner ninety days prior to the expiration date of the owner's motor vehicle license."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 72.01 RCW a new section to read as follows:

As used in RCW 72.01.370 and section 4 of this act:

"Escorted leave" means a leave of absence from a correctional facility under the continuous supervision of an escort.

The superintendents of the state penitentiary, the state reformatory, the state honor camps and such other penal institutions as may hereafter be established, may, subject to the approval of the secretary and under section 4 of this 1983 act, grant escorted leaves of absence to inmates confined in such institutions to:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 72.01 RCW a new section to read as follows:

An inmate shall not be allowed to start a leave of absence under RCW 72.01.370 until the secretary, or the secretary's designee, has notified any county and city law enforcement agency having jurisdiction in the area of the inmate's destination.

Sec. 5. Section 11, chapter 136, Laws of 1981 and RCW 72.09.100 are each amended to read as follows:

It is the intent of the legislature to vest in the department the power to provide for a comprehensive inmate work program and to remove statutory and other restrictions which have limited work programs in the past. For purposes of establishing such a comprehensive program, the legislature recommends that the department consider adopting any or all, or any variation of, the following classes of work programs:

(1) CLASS I: FREE VENTURE INDUSTRIES. The industries in this class shall be operated and managed in total or in part by any profit or nonprofit organization pursuant to an agreement between the organization and the department. The organization shall produce goods or services for sale to both the public and private sector.

The department of corrections shall supply appropriate security and custody services without charge to the participating firms.

Inmates who work in free venture industries shall do so at their own choice. They shall be paid a wage not less than sixty percent of the approximate prevailing wage within the state for the occupation, as determined by the director of the institutional industries division. If the director finds that he cannot reasonably determine the wage, then the pay shall not be less than the federal minimum wage.

(2) CLASS II: TAX REDUCTION INDUSTRIES. Industries in this class shall be state-owned and operated enterprises designed to reduce the costs for goods and services for tax-supported agencies and for nonprofit organizations which assist persons who are poor or infirm. The industries selected for development within this class shall, as much as possible, match the available pool of inmate work skills and aptitudes with the work opportunities in the free community. The industries shall be closely patterned after private sector industries but with the objective of reducing public support costs rather than making a profit. The products and services of this industry may be sold to public agencies and to nonprofit organizations which assist persons who are poor or infirm: PROVIDED, That to avoid waste or spoilage and consequent loss to the state, when there is no public sector market for such goods, byproducts and surpluses of timber, agricultural, and animal husbandry enterprises may be sold to private persons, at private sale. Surplus by-products and surpluses of timber, agricultural and animal husbandry enterprises that cannot be sold to public agencies or to private persons may be donated to nonprofit organizations which assist the poor and infirm. All sales of surplus products shall be carried out in accordance with rules prescribed by the secretary.

Security and custody services shall be provided without charge by the department of corrections.

Inmates working in this class of industries shall do so at their own choice and shall be paid for their work on a gratuity scale which shall not exceed the federal minimum wage and which is approved by the director of institutional industries.

(3) CLASS III: INSTITUTIONAL SUPPORT INDUSTRIES. Industries in this class shall be operated by the department of corrections. They shall be designed and managed to accomplish the following objectives:

(a) Whenever possible, to provide basic work training and experience so that the inmate will be able to qualify for better work both within institutional industries and the free community. It is not intended that an inmate's work within this class of industries should be his or her final and total work experience as an inmate.

(b) Whenever possible, to provide forty hours of work or work training per week.

(c) Whenever possible, to offset tax and other public support costs.

Supervising, management, and custody staff shall be employees of the department.

All able and eligible inmates who are assigned work and who are not working in other classes of industries shall work in this class.

Except for inmates who work in work training programs, inmates in this class shall be paid for their work in accordance with an inmate gratuity scale. The scale shall be adopted by the secretary of corrections.

(4) CLASS IV: COMMUNITY WORK INDUSTRIES. Industries in this class shall be operated by the department of corrections. They shall be designed and managed to provide services in the inmate's resident community at a reduced cost. The services shall be provided to public agencies, to persons who are poor or infirm, or to nonprofit organizations which assist persons who are poor or infirm.

Inmates in this program shall reside in facilities owned by, contracted for, or licensed by the department of corrections. A unit of local government shall provide work supervision services without charge to the state and shall pay the inmate's wage.

The department of corrections shall reimburse participating units of local government for liability and workers compensation insurance costs.

Inmates who work in this class of industries shall do so at their own choice and shall receive a gratuity which shall not exceed the minimum wage for their work.

(5) CLASS V: COMMUNITY SERVICE PROGRAMS. Programs in this class shall be subject to supervision by the department of corrections. The purpose of this class of industries is to enable an offender, placed on probation, to work off all or part of a community service order as ordered by the sentencing court.

Employment shall be in a community service program operated by the state, local units of government, or a nonprofit agency which assists persons who are poor or infirm.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Interstate Corrections Compact.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. The secretary of the department of corrections is hereby authorized and requested to execute, on behalf of the state of Washington, with any other state or states legally joining therein a compact which shall be in form substantially as follows:

The contracting states solemnly agree that:

(1) The party states, desiring by common action to fully utilize and improve their institutional facilities and provide adequate programs for the confinement, treatment, and rehabilitation of various types of offenders, declare that it is the policy of each of the party states to provide such facilities and programs on a basis of cooperation with one another, and with the federal government, thereby serving the best interest of such offenders and of society and effecting economies in capital expenditures and operational costs. The purpose of this compact is to provide for the mutual development and execution of such programs of cooperation for the confinement, treatment, and rehabilitation of offenders with the most economical use of human and material resources.

(2) As used in this compact, unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(a) "State" means a state of the United States; the United States of America; a territory or possession of the United States; the District of Columbia; and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

(b) "Sending state" means a state party to this compact in which conviction or court commitment was had.

(c) "Receiving state" means a state party to this compact to which an inmate is sent for confinement other than a state in which conviction or court commitment was had.

(d) "Inmate" means a male or female offender who is committed, under sentence to, or confined in a penal or correctional institution.

(e) "Institution" means any penal or correctional facility, including but not limited to a facility for the mentally ill or mentally defective, in which inmates as defined in subsection (2)(d) of this section may lawfully be confined.

(3) (a) Each party state may make one or more contracts with any one or more of the other party states, or with the federal government, for the confinement of inmates on behalf of a sending state in institutions situated within receiving states. Any such contract shall provide for:

(i) Its duration;

(ii) Payments to be made to the receiving state or to the federal government, by the sending state for inmate maintenance, extraordinary medical and dental expenses, and any participation in or receipt by inmates of rehabilitative or correctional services, facilities, programs or treatment not reasonably included as part of normal maintenance;

(iii) Participation in programs of inmate employment, if any; the disposition or crediting of any payments received by inmates on account thereof; and the crediting of proceeds from or disposal of any products resulting therefrom;

(iv) Delivery and retaking of inmates;

(v) Such other matters as may be necessary and appropriate to fix the obligations, responsibilities and rights of the sending and receiving states.

(b) The terms and provisions of this compact shall be a part of any contract entered into by the authority of or pursuant thereto and nothing in any such contract shall be inconsistent therewith.

(4) (a) Whenever the duly constituted authorities in a state party to this compact, and which has entered into a contract pursuant to subsection (3)(a) of this section, shall decide that confinement in, or transfer of an inmate to, an institution within the territory of another party state is necessary or desirable in order to provide adequate quarters and care or an appropriate program of rehabilitation or treatment, said officials may direct that the confinement be within an institution within the territory of said other party state, the receiving state to act in that regard solely as agent for the sending state.

(b) The appropriate officials of any state party to this compact shall have access, at all reasonable times, to any institution in which it has a contractual right to confine inmates for the purpose of inspecting the facilities thereof and visiting such of its inmates as may be confined in the institution.

(c) Inmates confined in an institution pursuant to the terms of this compact shall at all times be subject to the jurisdiction of the sending state and may at any time be removed therefrom for transfer to a prison or other institution within the sending state, for transfer to another institution in which the sending state may have a contractual or other right to confine inmates, for release on probation or parole, for discharge, or for any other purpose permitted by the laws of the sending state, provided that the sending state shall continue to be obligated to such payments as may be required pursuant to the terms of any contract entered into under the terms of subsection (3)(a) of this section.

(d) Each receiving state shall provide regular reports to each sending state on the inmates of that sending state in institutions pursuant to this compact, including a conduct record of each inmate, and certify said record to the official designated by the sending state, in order that each inmate may have official review of his or her record in determining and altering the disposition of said inmate in accordance with the law which may obtain in the sending state and in order that the same may be a source of information for the sending state.

(e) All inmates who may be confined in an institution pursuant to the provisions of this compact shall be treated in a reasonable and humane manner and shall be treated equally with such similar inmates of the receiving state as may be confined in the same institution. The fact of confinement in a receiving state shall not deprive any inmate so confined of any legal rights which said inmate would have had if confined in an appropriate institution of the sending state.

(f) Any hearing or hearings to which an inmate confined pursuant to this compact may be entitled by the laws of the sending state may be had before the appropriate authorities of the sending state, or of the receiving state if authorized by the sending state. The receiving state shall provide adequate facilities for such hearings as may be conducted by the appropriate officials of a sending state. In the event such hearing or hearings are had before officials of the receiving state, the governing law shall be that of the sending state and a record of the hearing or hearings as prescribed by the sending state shall be made. Said record, together with any recommendations of the hearing officials, shall be transmitted forthwith to the official or officials before whom the hearing would have been had if it had taken place in the sending state. In any and all proceedings had pursuant to the provisions of this subdivision, the officials of the receiving state shall act solely as agents of the sending state and no final determination shall be made in any matter except by the appropriate officials of the sending state.

(g) Any inmate confined pursuant to this compact shall be released within the territory of the sending state unless the inmate, and the sending and receiving states, shall agree upon release in some other place. The sending state shall bear the cost of such return to its territory.

(h) Any inmate confined pursuant to the terms of this compact shall have any and all rights to participate in and derive any benefits or incur or be relieved of any obligations or have such obligations modified or his status changed on account of any action or proceeding in which he could have participated if confined in any appropriate institution of the sending state located within such state.

(i) The parents, guardian, trustee, or other person or persons entitled under the laws of the sending state to act for, advise or otherwise function with respect to any inmate shall not be deprived of or restricted in his exercise of any power in respect of any inmate confined pursuant to the terms of this compact.

(5) (a) Any decision of the sending state in respect to any matter over which it retains jurisdiction pursuant to this compact shall be conclusive upon and not reviewable within the receiving state; but if at the time the sending state seeks to remove an inmate from an institution in the receiving state there is pending against the inmate within such state any criminal charge or if the inmate is formally accused of having committed within such state a criminal offense, the inmate shall not be returned without the consent of the receiving state until discharge from prosecution or other form of proceeding, imprisonment or detention for such offense. The duly accredited officers of the sending state shall be permitted to transport inmates pursuant to this compact through any and all states party to this compact without interference.

(b) An inmate who escapes from an institution in which he is confined pursuant to this compact shall be deemed a fugitive from the sending state and from the state in which the institution is situated. In the case of an escape to a jurisdiction other than the sending or receiving state, the responsibility for institution of extradition or rendition proceedings shall be that of the sending state, but nothing contained herein shall be construed to prevent or affect the activities of officers and agencies of any jurisdiction directed toward the apprehension and return of an escapee.

(6) Any state party to this compact may accept federal aid for use in connection with any institution or program, the use of which is or may be affected by this compact or any contract pursuant hereto; and any inmate in a receiving state pursuant to this compact may participate in any such federally-aided program or activity for which the sending and receiving states have made contractual provision, provided that if such program or activity is not part of the customary correctional regimen, the express consent of the appropriate official of the sending state shall be required therefor.

(7) This compact shall enter into force and become effective and binding upon the states so acting when it has been enacted into law by any two states. Thereafter, this compact shall enter into force and become effective and binding as to any other of said states upon similar action by such state.

(8) This compact shall continue in force and remain binding upon a party state until it shall have enacted a statute repealing the same and providing for the sending of formal written notice of withdrawal from the compact to the appropriate official of all other party states. An actual withdrawal shall not take effect until one year after the notice provided in said statute has been sent. Such withdrawal shall not relieve the withdrawing state from its obligations assumed hereunder prior to the effective date of withdrawal. Before effective date of withdrawal, a withdrawing state shall remove to its territory, at its own expense, such inmates as it may have confined pursuant to the provisions of this compact.

(9) Nothing contained in this compact shall be construed to abrogate or impair any agreement or other arrangement which a party state may have with a nonparty state for the confinement, rehabilitation or treatment of inmates nor to repeal any other laws of a party state authorizing the making of cooperative institutional arrangements.

(10) The provisions of this compact shall be liberally construed and shall be severable. If any phrase, clause, sentence or provision of this compact is declared to be contrary to the constitution of any participating state or of the United States or the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this compact and the applicability thereof to any government, agency, person or circumstance shall not be affected thereby. If this compact shall be held contrary to the constitution of any state participating therein, the compact shall remain in full force and effect as to the remaining states and in full force and effect as to the state affected as to all severable matters.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 14. The secretary of corrections is authorized to receive or transfer an inmate as defined in the Interstate Corrections Compact to any institution as defined in the Interstate Corrections Compact within this state or without this state, if this state has entered into a contract or contracts for the confinement of inmates in such institutions pursuant to subsection (3) of the Interstate Corrections Compact.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 15. The courts, departments, agencies, and officers of this state and its subdivisions shall enforce this compact and shall do all things appropriate to the effectuation of its purposes and intent which may be within their respective jurisdictions including but not limited to the making and submission of such reports as are required by the compact.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 16. The secretary is authorized and directed to hold such hearings as may be requested by any other party state pursuant to subsection (4)(f) of the Interstate Corrections Compact. Additionally, the secretary may hold out-of-state hearings in connection with the case of any inmate of this state confined in an institution of another state party to the Interstate Corrections Compact.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 17. The secretary of corrections is empowered to enter into such contracts on behalf of this state as may be appropriate to implement the participation of this state in the Interstate Corrections Compact pursuant to subsection (3) of the compact. No such contract shall be of any force or effect until approved by the attorney general.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. If any agreement between this state and any other state party to the Interstate Corrections Compact enables an inmate of this state confined in an institution of another state to be released in such other state in accordance with subsection (4)(g) of this compact, then the secretary is authorized to provide clothing, transportation, and funds to such inmate in accordance with RCW 72.02.100.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Sections 12 through 18 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 72 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

(1) In addition to the other requirements of ((RCW sections 9.41.010 through 9.41.150 as now or hereinafter amended)) this chapter, no commercial seller shall deliver a pistol to the purchaser thereof until ((seventy-two hours shall)):

However, if the purchaser does not have a valid permanent Washington driver's license or state identification card or has not been a resident of the state for the previous consecutive ninety days, the waiting period under this subsection (1)(c) shall be up to sixty days.

(2) In any case under subsection (1)(c) of this section where the applicant has an outstanding warrant for his or her arrest from any court of competent jurisdiction for a felony or misdemeanor, the seller shall hold the delivery of the pistol until the warrant for arrest is served and satisfied by appropriate court appearance. The local jurisdiction for purposes of the sale shall confirm the existence of outstanding warrants within seventy-two hours after notification of the application to purchase a pistol is received. The local jurisdiction shall also immediately confirm the satisfaction of the warrant on request of the seller so that the hold may be released if the warrant was for a crime other than a crime of violence.

(3) In any case where the chief or sheriff of the local jurisdiction has reasonable grounds based on the following circumstances: (a) Open criminal charges, (b) pending criminal proceedings, (c) pending commitment proceedings, (d) an outstanding warrant for a crime of violence, or (e) an arrest for a crime of violence if the records of disposition have not yet been reported or entered sufficiently to determine eligibility to purchase a pistol, the local jurisdiction may hold the sale and delivery of the pistol beyond five days up to thirty days in order to confirm existing records in this state or elsewhere. After thirty days, the hold will be lifted unless an extension of the thirty days is approved by a local district court or municipal court for good cause shown. The seller shall, by the end of the business day, sign and attach his or her address and deliver the original of ~~((such))~~ the application and such other documentation as required under subsection (1) of this section to the chief of police of the municipality or the sheriff of the county of which the seller is a resident. The seller shall deliver the pistol to the purchaser following ~~((seventy-two hours thereafter))~~ the period of time specified in this section unless the seller is notified in writing by the chief of police of the municipality or the sheriff of the county, whichever is applicable, denying the purchaser's application to purchase and the grounds thereof. The application shall not be denied unless the purchaser ~~((has been convicted in this state or elsewhere of a crime of violence, drug addiction, or habitual drunkenness, or is legally judged to be of unsound mind))~~ fails to meet the requirements specified in RCW 9.41.040. The chief of police of the municipality or the sheriff shall maintain a file containing the original of the application to purchase a pistol.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 9.41 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The department of social and health services, mental health institutions, and other health care facilities shall, upon request of a court or law enforcement agency, supply such relevant information as is necessary to determine the eligibility of a person to possess a pistol or to be issued a concealed pistol license under RCW 9.41.070 or to purchase a pistol under RCW 9.41.090. Such information shall be used exclusively for the purposes specified in this section and shall not be made available for public inspection except by the person who is the subject of the information.

(1) The superior courts and the courts of limited jurisdiction of the state may order forfeiture of a firearm which is proven to be:

(a) Found concealed on a person not authorized by RCW 9.41.060 or 9.41.070 to carry a concealed pistol: PROVIDED, That it is an absolute defense to forfeiture if the person possessed a valid Washington concealed pistol license within the preceding two years and has not become ineligible for a concealed pistol license in the interim. Before the firearm may be returned, the person must pay the past due renewal fee and the current renewal fee;

(b) Commercially sold to any person without an application as required by RCW 9.41.090;

(c) Found in the possession or under the control of a person at the time the person committed or was arrested for committing a crime of violence or a crime in which a firearm was used or displayed or a felony violation of the uniform controlled substances act, chapter 69.50 RCW;

(d) Found concealed on a person who is in any place in which a concealed pistol license is required, and who is under the influence of any drug or under the influence of intoxicating liquor, having 0.10 percent or more by weight of alcohol in his blood, as shown by chemical analysis of his breath, blood, or other bodily substance;

(e) Found in the possession of a person prohibited from possessing the firearm under RCW 9.41.040;

(f) Found in the possession of a person free on bail or personal recognizance pending trial, appeal, or sentencing for a crime of violence or a crime in which a firearm was used or displayed, except that violations of Title 77 RCW shall not result in forfeiture under this section;

(g) Found in the possession of a person found to have been mentally incompetent while in possession of a firearm when apprehended or who is thereafter committed pursuant to chapter 10.77 or 71.05 RCW;

(h) Known to have been used or displayed by a person in the violation of a proper written order of a court of general jurisdiction; or

(i) Known to have been used in the commission of a crime of violence or a crime in which a firearm was used or displayed or a felony violation of the uniformed controlled substances act, chapter 69.50 RCW.

(2) Upon order of forfeiture, the court in its discretion shall order destruction of any firearm that is illegal for any person to possess, retention of the firearm as evidence, appropriate use by a law enforcement agency in the state, donation to a historical museum, or sale at a public auction to a commercial seller. The proceeds from any sale shall be divided as follows: The local jurisdiction shall retain its costs, including actual costs of storage and sale, and shall forward the remainder to the state game commission for use in its firearms training program pursuant to RCW 77.32.155. If the court orders delivery to a law enforcement agency and the agency no longer requires use of the firearm, the agency shall dispose of the firearm in a manner which is consistent with this subsection.

(3) The court shall order the firearm returned to the owner upon a showing that there is no probable cause to believe a violation of subsection (1) of this section existed or the firearm was stolen from the owner or the owner neither had knowledge of nor consented to the act or omission involving the firearm which resulted in its forfeiture.

(4) A law enforcement officer of the state or of any county or municipality may confiscate a firearm found to be in the possession of a person under circumstances specified in subsection (1) of this section. After confiscation, the firearm shall not be surrendered except: (a) To the prosecuting attorney for use in subsequent legal proceedings; (b) for disposition according to an order of a court having jurisdiction as provided in subsection (1) of this section; or (c) to the owner if the proceedings are dismissed or as directed in subsection (3) of this section.

Sec. 7. Section 4, chapter 105, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 6, chapter 145, Laws of 1981 and RCW 10.99.040 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Because of the serious nature of domestic violence, the court in domestic violence actions:

(a) Shall not dismiss any charge or delay disposition because of concurrent dissolution or other civil proceedings;

(b) Shall not require proof that either party is seeking a dissolution of marriage prior to instigation of criminal proceedings;

(c) Shall waive any requirement that the victim's location be disclosed to any person, other than the attorney of a criminal defendant, upon a showing that there is a possibility of further violence: PROVIDED, That the court may order a criminal defense attorney not to disclose to his client the victim's location; and

(d) Shall identify by any reasonable means on docket sheets those criminal actions arising from acts of domestic violence.

(2) Because of the likelihood of repeated violence directed at those who have been victims of domestic violence in the past, when any defendant charged with a crime involving domestic violence is released from custody before trial on bail or personal recognizance, the court authorizing the release may prohibit the defendant from having any contact with the victim. If the court has probable cause to believe that the defendant is likely to use or display or threaten to use a deadly weapon as defined in RCW 9A.04.110 in any further acts of violence, the court may also require the defendant to surrender any deadly weapon in the defendant's immediate possession or control, or subject to the defendant's immediate possession or control, to the sheriff of the county or chief of police of the municipality in which the defendant resides or to the defendant's counsel for safekeeping. Willful violation of a court order issued under this section is a misdemeanor. The written order releasing the defendant shall contain the court's directives and shall bear the legend: Violation of this order is a criminal offense under chapter 10.99 RCW. A certified copy of such order shall be provided to the victim.

Sec. 8. Section 7, chapter 145, Laws of 1981 and RCW 10.99.045 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A defendant arrested for an offense involving domestic violence as defined by RCW 10.99.020(2) shall be required to appear in person before a magistrate within one judicial day after the arrest; or

(2) A defendant who is charged by citation, complaint, or information with an offense involving domestic violence as defined by RCW 10.99.020(2) and not arrested shall appear in court for arraignment in person as soon as practicable, but in no event later than fourteen days after the next day on which court is in session following the issuance of the citation or the filing of the complaint or information.

At the time of the appearances provided in subsection (1) or (2) of this section, the court shall determine the necessity of imposing a no contact order or other conditions of pretrial release according to the procedures established by court rule for a preliminary appearance or an arraignment. If the court has probable cause to believe that the defendant is likely to use or display or threaten to use a deadly weapon as defined in RCW 9A.04.110 in any further acts of violence, as one of the conditions of pretrial release, the court may require the defendant to surrender any deadly weapon in the defendant's immediate possession or control, or subject to the defendant's immediate possession or control, to the sheriff of the county or chief of police of the municipality in which the defendant resides or to the defendant's counsel for safekeeping. The decision of the judge and findings of fact in support thereof shall be in writing.

The motion shall be accompanied by an affidavit setting forth the factual basis for the motion and the amounts requested.

(2) As a part of a motion for temporary maintenance or support or by independent motion accompanied by affidavit, either party may request the court to issue a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction, providing relief proper in the circumstances, and restraining or enjoining any person from:

(a) Transferring, removing, encumbering, concealing, or in any way disposing of any property except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life, and, if so restrained or enjoined, requiring him to notify the moving party of any proposed extraordinary expenditures made after the order is issued;

(b) Molesting or disturbing the peace of the other party or of any child and, upon a showing by clear and convincing evidence that the party so restrained or enjoined has used or displayed or threatened to use a deadly weapon as defined in RCW 9A.04.110 in an act of violence or has previously committed acts of domestic violence and is likely to use or display or threaten to use a deadly weapon in an act of domestic violence, requiring the party to surrender any deadly weapon in his immediate possession or control or subject to his immediate possession or control to the sheriff of the county having jurisdiction of the proceeding or to the restrained or enjoined party's counsel or to any person designated by the court. The court may order temporary surrender of deadly weapons without notice to the other party only if it finds on the basis of the moving affidavit or other evidence that irreparable injury could result if an order is not issued until the time for response has elapsed;

(c) Entering the family home or the home of the other party upon a showing of the necessity therefor;

(d) Removing a child from the jurisdiction of the court.

(3) The court may issue a temporary restraining order without requiring notice to the other party only if it finds on the basis of the moving affidavit or other evidence that irreparable injury could result if an order is not issued until the time for responding has elapsed.

(4) The court may issue a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction and an order for temporary maintenance or support in such amounts and on such terms as are just and proper in the circumstances.

(5) A temporary order, temporary restraining order, or preliminary injunction:

(a) Does not prejudice the rights of a party or any child which are to be adjudicated at subsequent hearings in the proceeding;

(b) May be revoked or modified;

(c) Terminates when the final decree is entered or when the petition for dissolution, legal separation, or declaration of invalidity is dismissed.

Sec. 11. Section 16, chapter 172, Laws of 1935 as last amended by section 7, chapter 3, Laws of 1983 and RCW 9.41.160 are each amended to read as follows:

Any violation of any provision of ((RCW 9.41.010 through 9.41.150, as amended, other than those violations specified in RCW 9.41.025 and 9.41.046)) this chapter, except as otherwise provided, shall be a misdemeanor and punishable accordingly. There shall be levied and paid into the general fund of the state treasury a penalty assessment in the minimum amount of twenty-five percent of, and which shall be in addition to, any fine, bail forfeiture, or costs on all violations of this chapter.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. There is added to chapter 9.41 RCW a new section to read as follows:

and the same are herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3782.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Craswell: "Senator Talmadge, subsection (4) of section 4 of the House amendment on page 11 lists the information required on the application for the purchase of a pistol. That listing includes driver's license number or state identification card number. Is that necessary for all applications?"

Senator Talmadge: "No, those numbers have to be recorded only if the applicant uses his or her driver's license or state identification card to establish his or her residency or identity. However, the agency performing the eligibility check is permitted to use the individual's name and other proffered identification to screen for outstanding warrants or other factors indicating ineligibility."

Senator Craswell: "I notice that the House amended section 6 of the bill, allowing forfeiture of firearms under certain circumstances. The Senate bill allowed forfeiture by owners only. The House amendment allows forfeiture by any person. How can the gun owner assert his or her rights to the firearm?"

Senator Talmadge: "The rights of the owner are protected in the three ways set out in the striking amendment on page 15, lines 21 through 30. The firearm will be returned to the owner if it is shown that (1) the owner neither had knowledge of nor consented to the act or omission involving the firearm, or (2) the firearm was stolen, or (3) there was no probable cause to believe an act or omission which could result in forfeiture occurred."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3782, as amended by the House.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3782, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 44; nays, 01; absent, 00; excused, 04.

Voting yea: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McManus, Metcalf, Moore, Newhouse, Owen, Paterson, Peterson, Quigg, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Sellar, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognlid, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 44.

Voting nay: Senator Pullen - 1.

Excused: Senators Clarke, Hayner, Jones, von Reichbauer - 4.

SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3782, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

To this end, an authority shall fix the rentals for rental units for persons of low income in projects owned or leased by the authority at no higher rates than it shall find to be necessary in order to produce revenues which (together with all other available moneys, revenues, income and receipts of the authority from whatever sources derived) will be sufficient (1) to pay, as the same become due, the principal and interest on the bonds of the authority issued to finance the projects; (2) to meet the cost of, and to provide for, maintaining and operating the projects (including the cost of any insurance) and the administrative expenses of the authority; and (3) to create (during not less than the six years immediately succeeding its issuance of any such bonds) a reserve sufficient to meet the largest principal and interest payments which will be due on such bonds in any one year thereafter and to maintain such reserve. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to limit the authorities' power to rent commercial space located in buildings containing housing projects at profitable rates and to use any profit realized from such rentals in carrying into effect the powers and purposes provided to housing authorities under this chapter.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 20, 1983

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3846 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause, and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 7, chapter 42, Laws of 1969 ex. sess. as last amended by section 12, chapter 178, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 46.52.111 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A registered disposer shall take custody of any vehicle or hulk placed in his custody by a law enforcement officer pursuant to RCW 46.61.565 or 46.52.180 and shall remove the vehicle or hulk to the established place of business of the registered disposer where the vehicle or hulk shall be stored, and the registered disposer shall have a lien upon the vehicle or hulk for services provided in the towing and storage of the vehicle or hulk, unless the impoundment is determined to have been invalid. However the lien does not apply to personal property in or upon the vehicle which personal property is not permanently attached to or is not an integral part of the vehicle. The registered disposer shall also have a claim against the last registered owner of the vehicle or hulk for services provided in the towing and storage of the vehicle or hulk, not to exceed the sum of two hundred dollars, unless the removal is determined to be invalid. A registered owner who has complied with RCW 46.52.104 in the transfer of ownership of the vehicle or hulk shall be relieved of liability under this section.

(2) Within twenty-four hours after receiving custody of the vehicle or hulk from the law enforcement officer, the registered disposer shall give notice of his custody to the department of licensing and the Washington state patrol. If a vehicle impounded from private property pursuant to this chapter is in the custody of a registered disposer and remains unclaimed after seventy-two hours, the registered disposer shall without undue delay give notice of his custody to the department. The department shall supply the last known names and addresses of registered and legal owners of the vehicle(s) as the names and addresses appear on the records of the department to the registered disposer on request without charge in those cases where the information was not given to the registered disposer by the law enforcement officer.

(3) Within three days after receiving the names and addresses of the owners from the department or the law enforcement officer, the registered disposer shall send a notice to the registered and legal owners of the vehicle to the last known addresses of the owners as the addresses appear on the records of the department by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested. The notice shall contain a description of the vehicle or hulk including its license number and vehicle identification number and shall state the amount due the registered disposer for services in the towing and storage of the vehicle or hulk and the time and place of public sale if the amount remains unpaid or if possession of the vehicle is not otherwise regained pursuant to RCW 46.52.200. The notice shall not be sent if the registered owner has regained possession of the vehicle pursuant to RCW 46.52.200. If the vehicle is sold pursuant to this chapter, a copy of the notice with proof of mailing shall be retained in the registered disposer's files and available for inspection for a period of three years from the date of sale.

(4) The failure of the registered disposer to comply with the time limits provided in this chapter shall limit the accumulation of storage charges to five days except where delay is unavoidable. The providing of incorrect or incomplete identifying information to the department in the abandoned vehicle report shall be considered a failure to comply with these time limits if correct information is available.

(5) Impounded vehicles shall be redeemed only by the legal or registered owner, a person authorized by the registered owner, or one who has purchased a vehicle from the registered owner, who produces proof of ownership or authorization and signs a receipt therefor.

(6) Any person redeeming an impounded vehicle shall pay to the towing contractor the costs of impoundment before redeeming the vehicle. However, the county, city, or town with jurisdiction over the impoundment may authorize release before payment of the towing or impoundment fees if the owner requests a hearing as to the propriety of the impoundment. The towing contractor shall accept cash, major bank credit cards, certified bank drafts, money orders, and personal checks drawn on in-state banks in payment for these costs. If such a personal check is offered in payment, the person offering the check may be required to show evidence of his or her identity by two pieces of identification which may include a driver's license, Washington state identification card issued by the department of licensing, other credit cards, or similar forms of identification. If the contractor has reasonable cause to believe the tendered check is uncollectible under standards adopted by the county, city, or town with jurisdiction over the impoundment, acceptance of the check may be refused. If the vehicle was impounded at the direction of a law enforcement officer and any personal check or promissory note is subsequently not paid or is dishonored, the drawer of the check or maker of the note shall be liable to the towing firm that has provided service for damages in the amount of twice the towing and storage fees, plus costs and reasonable attorney's fees.

Sec. 2. Section 1, chapter 281, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.52.118 are each amended to read as follows:

Any person having possession or control of real property who finds an abandoned vehicle or abandoned vehicle hulk as defined in RCW 46.52.102 standing upon that property is authorized to have ~~(such)~~ the vehicle or hulk removed by a person properly registered pursuant to RCW 46.52.108. ~~((Such))~~ The vehicle shall be disposed of in accordance with the procedure prescribed in RCW ~~((46.52.111 and 46.52.112))~~ 46.52.119 and section 4 of this act.

A vehicle trespassing on family residential private property or posted private property as defined in RCW 46.52.119 or 46.52.1192 without the consent of the property owner may be impounded immediately in accordance with the procedures set forth in this chapter.

Sec. 3. Section 4, chapter 281, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.52.1194 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any towing firm removing vehicles from private property pursuant to RCW 46.52.118, 46.52.119, or 46.52.1192 shall:

(a) File with the department a detailed schedule of all fees charged incident to the removal and storage of vehicles pursuant to RCW 46.52.119 or 46.52.1192;

(b) Post a copy of the schedule of fees on file with the department in a prominent place at the business location where vehicles are released from storage;

(c) Maintain personnel able and authorized to arrange for the release of any vehicle to its owner on a twenty-four hour basis;

(d) After removing a vehicle from private property pursuant to RCW 46.52.118, 46.52.119, or 46.52.1192, report the fact of removal together with the license number, vehicle identification number, make, year, and place of impoundment to the law enforcement agency with jurisdiction over the place of impoundment, which agency shall maintain a log of such reports ~~(: PROVIDED, That)~~. The law enforcement agency to which the report was made shall provide the name and address of the registered and legal owner, as may appear on the records of the department, to the towing firm removing a vehicle under RCW 46.52.118 through 46.52.1198. The reporting required in this subsection shall include an immediate radio or telephone call to, and a written notification, within twenty-four hours, to such local law enforcement agency;

(e) If any vehicle removed pursuant to RCW 46.52.118, 46.52.119, or 46.52.1192 remains unclaimed after twenty-four hours, send to the registered and legal owner of the vehicle by the end of the next business day a notice by certified mail, return receipt requested ~~(:)~~; (i) Advising that person of the name, location, and twenty-four hour telephone number of the person, tow truck operator, or operator of any storage facility who is empowered or authorized to return custody of any such towed, removed, or impounded motor vehicle ~~(: The notification shall also contain)~~; (ii) providing an estimate of the costs of towing, storage, or other services rendered during the course of removing, impounding, or storing any such motor vehicle ~~(: For the purpose of sending such notice, the law enforcement agency to which the report was made shall provide the name and address of the registered owner, as it appears on the records of the department, to the towing firm removing a vehicle under the provisions of RCW 46.52.118 through 46.52.1198. PROVIDED, That in the event)~~; (iii) containing notice of right of redemption and opportunity for a hearing conducted pursuant to section 4 of this act; and (iv) announcing that the vehicle will be sold at public auction pursuant to RCW 46.52.112 if not reclaimed within fifteen days of mailing of this notice.

(2) If such certified letter has been refused or returned to the sender unclaimed, the notification to the law enforcement agency as provided in subsection (1)(d) of this section shall constitute actual notice to the registered and legal owner (~~PROVIDED FURTHER THAT~~).

(3) The towing company shall give to each person who seeks to redeem an impounded vehicle written notice of right of redemption and opportunity for a hearing, which notice shall be accompanied by a form to be used for requesting a hearing, and a copy of the tow and storage receipt. The towing company shall maintain a record evidenced by the redeeming person's signature that such notification was provided.

(4) The effect of other laws notwithstanding, the costs of towing, storage, or other services rendered during the course of removing, impounding, or storing any such motor vehicle shall not constitute a lien upon the legal ownership of ~~(such)~~ the motor vehicle until forty-eight hours after the notice as provided in this ~~(subsection)~~ section has been received by the local law enforcement agency or owner of the vehicle, at which time the lien may be enforced as otherwise provided by law for the enforcement of towing or storage liens or liens generally (~~AND PROVIDED FURTHER THAT~~).

(5) If the towing firm assesses a fee according to the miles a vehicle is towed, the lien shall be, and the towing firm shall attempt to recover, no more than the fees that would accrue for towing to the nearest storage location of any towing firm.

~~(6)~~ (6) A failure to comply with the provisions of this section or section 4 of this act in regard to any vehicle waives the lien on that vehicle, constitutes a bar to recovery of the charges accrued on that vehicle, and is grounds for the suspension or revocation of the registration of any towing firm registered under RCW 46.52.108 to dispose of the abandoned vehicle (~~PROVIDED THAT~~). However, no storage charges ~~(shall)~~ accrue in any event until written notice as provided in this section ~~(shall have)~~ has been received by the local law enforcement agency or owner of the vehicle.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 46.52 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) Unclaimed vehicles impounded by registered disposers pursuant to RCW 46.52.118, 46.52.119, or 46.52.192 shall be redeemed only under the following circumstances:

(a) Only the registered owner, a person authorized by the registered owner, or one who has purchased a vehicle from the registered owner, who produces proof of ownership or written authorization and signs a receipt therefor, or the legal owner, may redeem an impounded vehicle.

(b) An unclaimed vehicle subject to sale may be redeemed pursuant to RCW 46.52.1196, or by posting a sufficient bond to cover accrued impoundment, towing, and storage charges. The bond shall be held in trust by the registered disposer pending the outcome of a hearing.

(2) Any person seeking to redeem an impounded vehicle under this section has a right to a hearing in the district court for the jurisdiction in which the vehicle was impounded to contest the validity of the impoundment or the amount of towing and storage charges. Any request for a hearing shall be made in writing on the form provided for that purpose and must be received by the district court within ten days of the date the notification provided for in RCW 46.52.1194 was mailed or delivered. If the hearing request is not received by the district court within the ten-day period, the right to a hearing is waived and the legal and registered owners shall be liable for any towing, storage, or other impoundment charges permitted under this chapter. Upon receipt of a timely hearing request, the district court shall proceed to hear and determine the validity of the impoundment.

(3)(a) The district court, within five days after the request for a hearing, shall notify the registered disposer and the registered and legal owner of the motor vehicle in writing of the hearing date and time.

(b) At the hearing, the person or persons requesting the hearing may produce any relevant evidence to show that the impoundment, towing, or storage fees charged were not proper.

(c) At the conclusion of the hearing, the district court shall determine whether the impoundment, towing, or storage fees charged were proper.

(d) If the impoundment is found proper, the impoundment, towing, and storage fees as permitted under this chapter together with court costs and the expenses of the hearing shall be assessed against the person or persons requesting the hearing.

(e) If the impoundment is determined to be invalid, then the registered and legal owners of the vehicle shall bear no impoundment, towing, or storage costs, and any bond or other security shall be returned or discharged as appropriate.

(4) Any unclaimed vehicle not redeemed within fifteen days of mailing of the notice required by RCW 46.52.1194 shall be sold at public auction in accordance with all the provisions and subject to all the conditions of RCW 46.52.112.

Sec. 5. Section 5, chapter 281, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 46.52.1196 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any towing firm removing a vehicle(s) from private property pursuant to RCW 46.52.118, 46.52.119, or 46.52.192 shall release ~~(such)~~ the vehicle to the owner, operator, driver, or authorized designee thereof upon the presentation to any person having custody of ~~(such)~~ the vehicle of commercially reasonable tender sufficient to cover the costs of towing, storage, or other services rendered during the course of towing, removing, impounding, or storing any such motor vehicle(~~(-such)~~). Commercially reasonable tender (~~(to)~~) shall include, without limitation, cash, personal checks drawn on (~~(local)~~) in-state banks with proper identification, and valid and appropriate credit cards(~~(-PROVIDED HOWEVER, THAT)~~). Any person who stops payment on a personal check with intent to defraud a towing firm (~~(which)~~) that has provided a service pursuant to this section(~~(;)~~) or in any other manner defrauds the towing firm in connection with services rendered pursuant to this section shall be liable for damages in the amount of twice the towing and storage fees, plus costs and reasonable attorney's fees(~~(-PROVIDED FURTHER: That every towing firm providing service pursuant to this section shall post a true copy of this section in a conspicuous place upon its business premises: PROVIDED FURTHER: That))~~).

(2) If the owner, operator, driver, or authorized designee thereof (~~(-shall)~~) provides adequate proof of his financial responsibility, employment, and residence in the community to any person having custody of any towed, removed, impounded, or stored motor vehicle, (~~(then)~~) the motor vehicle shall be released without payment(~~(;)~~) with the understanding that such costs shall be paid within thirty days, or shall be recoverable through an action by law.

(3) A towing firm providing service under this section shall post a true copy of this section in a conspicuous place upon its business premises.

Sec. 6. Section 2, chapter 111, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. as last amended by section 19, chapter 178, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 46.52.150 are each amended to read as follows:

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any law enforcement officer having jurisdiction or any person authorized by the director of licensing shall inspect and may authorize the disposal of an abandoned junk motor vehicle. The officer or authorized person shall record the make of such motor vehicle(~~(;)~~) and the serial number or vehicle identification number, if available, and shall also detail the damage or missing equipment to verify that the value of (~~(such)~~) the abandoned junk vehicle is equivalent only to the value of the scrap metal (~~(therein; only)~~) in it.

An abandoned junk motor vehicle is subject to the provisions of RCW 46.52.1194 and section 4 of this act.

Any surplus moneys arising from the disposal of abandoned junk motor vehicle shall be deposited in the county general fund.

Sec. 7. Section 4, chapter 178, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 46.52.190 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) When a vehicle or hulk is impounded pursuant to RCW 46.61.565 or 46.52.180, the governmental agency at whose direction the impoundment was effected shall, within twenty-four hours after the impoundment, mail notification of the impoundment to the last registered owner and the legal owner of the vehicle as shown on the records of the department or as otherwise reasonably ascertainable. The notification shall contain a certificate of mailing and shall inform the registered and legal owners of the impoundment, redemption procedures, and opportunity for a hearing to contest the basis for the impoundment. The notice need not be mailed if the vehicle is redeemed prior to the mailing of the notice or if the registered owner and the legal owner are not reasonably ascertainable.

Upon impoundment of a vehicle pursuant to this section, the law enforcement officer shall also provide the registered disposer with the name and address of the last registered owner and legal owner of the vehicle as may be shown by the records of the department or as otherwise reasonably ascertainable.

(2) The notification provided for in this section shall inform the registered and legal owners that any hearing request shall be directed to the district court for the justice court district in which the vehicle was impounded and shall be accompanied by a form to be (~~(utilized)~~) used for the purpose of requesting a hearing. Any request for a hearing pursuant to this section shall be made in writing on the form provided for that purpose and must be received by the district court within ten days of the date the notification provided for in this section was mailed. If the hearing request is not received by the district court within the ten-day period, the right to a hearing is waived and the registered and legal owners shall be liable for any towing, storage, or other impoundment charges permitted under this chapter. Upon receipt of a timely hearing request, the district court shall proceed to hear and determine the validity of the impoundment.

(3) If the registered or legal owner timely requests a hearing provided for by this section and prevails at the hearing, the unit of government under whose jurisdiction the impoundment was effected shall be liable for any towing, storage, or other impoundment charges permitted under this chapter.

(4) Removal and storage of a vehicle or hulk under RCW 46.52.170 through 46.52.190 or under RCW 46.61.565 shall be at the (~~(owner's)~~) registered and legal owners' expense, except as provided in RCW 46.52.104, 46.52.106, and subsection (3) of this section.

(5) The department may adopt rules providing that the owner's vehicle license will not be renewed or a new vehicle license issued to the owner unless any outstanding removal and storage charges are paid.

Sec. 8. Section 5, chapter 178, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. and RCW 46.52.200 are each amended to read as follows:

When a vehicle or hulk is impounded pursuant to RCW 46.52.170 through 46.52.190 or 46.61.565 and the registered or legal owner has made a timely request for a hearing, the registered or legal owner may regain possession of the vehicle pending the outcome of the hearing by posting a sufficient ((cash)) bond to cover accrued impoundment, towing, and storage charges to be held in trust by the registered disposer ((or such other security as the department may by rule require)).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 16, 1983

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SENATE BILL NO. 3858 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

"Sec. 1. Section 35.13.180, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 4, chapter 332, Laws of 1981 and RCW 35.13.180 are each amended to read as follows:

City and town councils of second and third class cities and towns may by a majority vote annex new territory outside the city or town limits, whether contiguous or noncontiguous for park, cemetery, or other municipal purposes when ((such territory is owned by the city or town)) all owners of the real property in the new territory give their written consent to the annexation.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 35.13 RCW a new section to read as follows:

All unincorporated areas that as of January 1, 1984, lie wholly within the boundaries of any city or town shall be incorporated into, and become part of, the city or town within whose boundaries the unincorporated area lies. Land which is owned by a county and used for the purposes of an agricultural fair under chapter 15.76 or 36.37 RCW or a county park, however, shall not be annexed without the consent of a majority of the members of the legislative authority of the county which owns the land. For purposes of this section, an unincorporated area which is completely bounded by both a state boundary or a body or bodies of navigable water and the particular city or town is considered to lie wholly within the boundaries of a city or town.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 35.13 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A city or town shall not annex territory under RCW 35.10.211, 35.10.217, 35.13.015, 35.13.020, or 35.13.130 if, after the proposed annexation has occurred, any closed plane figure of unincorporated area could be drawn that includes a portion of the boundary of the newly-annexed area so that eighty percent or more of the figure's perimeter is coterminous with any of the annexing city's or town's boundaries. A city or town may, however, annex territory that lies within a corridor of unincorporated territory which existed before the effective date of this act despite the fact that it creates a closed plane figure prohibited by this section if, after the proposed annexation has occurred, another closed plane figure cannot be drawn within the corridor so that a greater percentage of the perimeter is coterminous with the boundaries of the city or town than the perimeter of the original figure. In addition, a city or town shall not annex unincorporated territory if the annexation would result in an area of unincorporated territory being entirely surrounded by a body or bodies of water and the annexing city or town.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. There is added to chapter 35A.14 RCW a new section to read as follows:

All unincorporated areas that as of January 1, 1984, lie wholly within the boundaries of any code city shall be incorporated into, and become part of, the code city within whose boundaries the unincorporated area lies. Land which is owned by a county and used for the purposes of an agricultural fair under chapter 15.76 or 36.37 RCW or a county park, however, shall not be annexed without the consent of a majority of the members of the legislative authority of the county which owns the land. For purposes of this section, an unincorporated area which is completely bounded by both a state boundary or a body or bodies of navigable water and the particular code city is considered to lie wholly within the boundaries of a code city.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 35A.14 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A code city shall not annex territory under RCW 35A.14.015, 35A.14.020, or 35A.14.120 if, after the proposed annexation has occurred, any closed plane figure of unincorporated area could be drawn that includes a portion of the boundary of the newly-annexed area so that eighty percent or more of the figure's perimeter is coterminous with any of the annexing code city's boundaries. A code city may, however, annex territory that lies within a corridor of unincorporated territory which existed before the effective date of this act despite the fact that it creates a closed plane figure prohibited by this section if, after the proposed annexation has occurred, another closed plane figure cannot be drawn within the corridor so that a greater percentage of the perimeter is coterminous with the boundaries of the code city than the perimeter of the original figure. In addition, a code city shall not annex unincorporated territory if the annexation would result in an area of unincorporated territory being entirely surrounded by a body or bodies of water and the annexing code city.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

On page 1, beginning on line 2 of the title, after "towns;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 35.13.180, chapter 7, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 4, chapter 332, Laws of 1981 and RCW 35.13.180; adding new sections to chapter 35.13 RCW; adding new sections to chapter 35A.14 RCW; and declaring an emergency."

and the same are herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Thompson moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3858.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, a point of order. I wish to raise the point of scope and object on this amendment. The bill as originally passed, Mr. President, was an innocuous bill that provided that everybody that wanted to be annexed to the city would sign up and they could be annexed. This new amendment that is on here provided that unilaterally the city can take in any place that they want to. I would suggest, Senator Barr, that your bill has been changed completely over what your intention was at the time you sponsored it. I do raise scope and object. It is completely different with this amendment."

There being no objection, further consideration of Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3858 was deferred.

President Pro Tempore Goltz assumed the chair.

and the same are herewith transmitted.

Mr. President:

The House has passed ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 112 with the following amendment:

On page 1, beginning on line 6, strike all material down to and including "2005" on line 22 and insert ", section 10, of the Constitution of the state of Washington to read as follows:

Except as provided in section 7 of this Article, an appropriate charge back to the recipient shall be made for such extension of public moneys or credit and the same ((shall)) may be a lien against the ((residential)) structure or equipment benefited, or against such other adequate security as specified by implementing legislation that the legislature is hereby authorized to enact.~~

and the same are herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

MOTION

Senator Williams moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 112.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Could someone answer this very specifically? I would like to know just exactly what the House amendment does. It says here, in the digest, that the original bill--the constitutional amendment--allows the state to provide financing for energy conservation and then, the House amendment says the state is excluded from lending its credit to the private sector for conservation purposes. Just exactly who is the one to whom we are lending the credit of the state?"

Senator Benitz: "Mr. President and members of the Senate. The House amendment deleted the 'state' from the constitutional amendment. Thus, the state may not lend its credit to the private sector for conservation purposes. Any county, town, city, quasi municipal corporation or municipal corporation may use public monies or credit to finance energy conservation projects. The word 'state' was taken out of it."

Senator Metcalf: "Continuing then, why do we need a constitutional amendment, if the state is not going to lend its credit? The constitutional amendment says, specifically, that the 'state' may not lend its credit, does it not? Why do we need a constitutional amendment if the state is excluded from lending its credit? That's what the Constitution presently does."

Senator Benitz: "The others are subdivisions of the state and, therefore, we do have to have a change in the Constitution, if they are allowed to do so--the various ones I read to you."

FURTHER POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "I would like to ask another question. Have we ever had a case before where the political subdivisions are lending the credit--lending their credit--separate than the credit of the state? Have we made that distinction before or is this a whole new area where we are opening the door where we can later drive a truck through? What are we doing here?"

Senator Williams: "Senator Metcalf, approximately three years ago--I believe it was--we passed a constitutional amendment just like this for those subdivisions of state government to make conservation loans to the owners of residences--private owners of residences. This, now, simply expands that to allow for the making of those kinds of loans to commercial and industrial owners. The prior constitutional amendment limited that to just the subdivision of state government, but did include state, so we did do it several years ago, when the citizens of this state adopted that constitutional amendment."

Debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Williams that the Senate do concur in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 112.

The motion by Senator Williams carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendment to Engrossed Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 112.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Mr. President, perhaps Senator Quigg would like to answer. He mentioned, in his arguments in favor of this, that the state had loaned its credit to build thermal power plants. Now, we had better be specific with all the talk about WPPSS. What thermal power plants have we loaned state credit to build? Is that the coal-powered plant down there in Centralia?"

Senator Quigg: "Senator Metcalf, the joint operating agency, of course, is the pass-through for the participants and a lot of those participants are public utility districts and they have put the credit of those utility districts up as revenue--not only as revenue--but to a certain extent some property taxing authority as well. It has been a tremendous burden for the ratepayers and, potentially to a much lesser extent, even taxpayers.

"That is something that has come about as we have tried to build our way out of the energy dilemma in which we found ourselves. I think we have seen that is not necessarily the most effective way to handle the problem. This constitutional limit simply puts into policy the realization that maybe conserving energy might be the better way to go at this stage of the game and allows the lending of the credit of these junior taxing districts for that purpose."

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Joint Resolution No. 112, as amended by the House, and the resolution passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 34; nays, 14; absent, 00; excused, 01.

Voting yea: Senators Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Conner, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Haley, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McDermott, McManus, Moore, Owen, Peterson, Quigg, Rinehart, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 34.

Voting nay: Senators Barr, Clarke, Craswell, Guess, Hansen, Hurley, McCaslin, Metcalf, Newhouse, Patterson, Pullen, Rasmussen, Sellar, Vognild - 14.

Excused: Senator von Reichbauer - 1.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 112, as amended by the House, having received the constitutional two-thirds majority, was declared passed.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

"The amendments proposed by the House of Representatives provide that unincorporated areas in cities which are within the boundaries of the city are incorporated as of January 1, 1984, without the consent of the property owners. Also, the amendments provide that cities may not annex property in the future if it would result in an unincorporated area being surrounded by the city.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendments do expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3433 with the following amendments:

On page 10, after line 22, insert the following:

"(9) At no time shall the total outstanding bonded indebtedness of the authority exceed five hundred million dollars."

On page 13, after line 3, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. The authority shall adopt rules to assure that the "prevailing rate of wage," as defined in RCW 39.12.010, is paid on any construction financed under this chapter."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

On page 13, after line 3, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. (1) The authority shall adopt written policies to provide for the selection of bond counsel. The policies shall provide for the creation and maintenance of a roster of attorneys whom the authority believes possess the requisite special expertise and professional standing to provide bond counsel opinions which would be accepted by the underwriters, bondholders and other members of the financial community, and which would be in furtherance of the public interest in obtaining the lowest possible interest rates on the bonds issued by the authority. Any attorney may apply to have his or her name placed on the roster, but may not be placed on the roster unless the attorney demonstrates to the authority's satisfaction that the attorney would issue the kind of opinions required by this section.

(2) Prior to selecting an attorney or attorneys to provide bond counsel services, the authority shall provide all attorneys on the roster with a notice of its intentions to select bond counsel and shall invite each of them to submit to the authority his or her fee schedule for providing bond counsel services. The authority shall have wide discretion in selecting the attorney or attorneys it considers to be most appropriate to provide the services, but in the exercise of this discretion the authority shall consider all submitted fee schedules and the public interest in achieving issuance of bonds on terms most favorable to the authority. At least once every two calendar years, the authority shall select anew an attorney or attorneys to serve as bond counsel. However, the authority may retain an attorney for longer than two years when necessary to complete work on a particular bond issue. An attorney previously retained may be selected again but only after the authority has provided other attorneys on the roster with an opportunity to be selected and has made the fee schedule review required under this subsection. As an alternative to retaining counsel for a period of time, the authority may appoint an attorney to serve as counsel in respect to only a particular bond issue or issues."

Renumber the remaining sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

On page 13, after line 3, insert the following:

"NEW SECTION, Sec. 12. (1) The authority shall adopt written policies to provide for the selection of underwriters. The policies shall provide for the creation of a roster of underwriters who the authority believes possess the requisite special expertise and professional standing to provide bond marketing services which would be accepted by bondholders and other members of the financial community, and which would be in furtherance of the public interest in marketing the authority's bonds at the lowest possible costs. Any underwriter may apply to have its name placed on the roster, but may not be placed on the roster unless it demonstrates to the authority's satisfaction that it meets the requirements of this section.

(2) Whenever the authority decides that it needs the services of an underwriter, it shall provide all underwriters on the roster with a notice of its intentions and shall invite each of them to submit to the authority an itemization of its fees and other charges for providing underwriting services on the issue. The itemization shall be by categories designed by the authority. The authority shall have wide discretion in selecting the underwriter it considers to be most appropriate to provide the services, but in the exercise of this discretion the authority shall consider the underwriter's fees and other charges and the public interest in achieving issuance of bonds on terms most favorable to the authority. The authority may adopt rules setting forth conditions under which an institution of higher education may be permitted to exercise the notice and selection procedures set forth in this subsection. These rules shall require the institution to comply with the provisions of this subsection as if it were the authority and to obtain the authority's prior approval of the selection of an underwriter."

Remember the remaining sections consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly..

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Moore, the Senate refused to concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3433 and asked the House to recede therefrom.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 21, 1983

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3434 with the following amendments:

On page 12, line 15 after "winnings" insert ", taxes, license fees."

On page 12, line 25 following "organization" strike "; and" and insert "~~((and))~~ (d) such event shall not be held on the premises of a licensee, as defined in RCW 66.20.160, more than four calendar days per calendar month; and (e)"

On page 18, line 32 after "organization" and before "as" insert ", which does not discriminate in full membership on the basis of sex and race, and".

and the same are herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Vognild, the Senate concurred in the House amendments to page 12, line 15; to page 12, line 25; and to page 17, line 25; to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3434.

Senator Vognild moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to page 18, line 32, to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3434.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Pullen: "Senator Vognild, would this mean organizations like the Elks, which as I understand it, is a male-only organization, from holding some of these gambling activities?"

Senator Vognild: "Senator Pullen, I can only answer that in my opinion. That is something the courts haven't really decided upon. In discussing this amendment with the proponents of the bill--that is the club representatives--they indicated they would just as soon have it accepted and go with the bill, although they do believe it will probably affect clubs like the Elks. It will very possibly affect some religious clubs that are formed and are part of a church, but the impact will be relatively small and if it proves to be a problem, I presume they will come back and tell us later. I guess it is difficult to argue against anti-discrimination."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Pullen: Mr. President, a point of order. I challenge the amendment on scope and object."

Debate ensued.

On page 3, after line 17, insert the following:

NEW SECTION, Sec. 5. There is added to chapter 70.05 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Each city or town which is part of a county health department established under chapter 70.05 RCW or a combined city-county health department established under chapter 70.08 RCW, or is purchasing health services from a health department under a contract authorized by RCW 70.05.150 or 70.08.090, shall pay such sums to support the operations of such department as are agreed upon by the city or town and the jurisdiction operating the department, in accordance with guidelines established by the department of social and health services in consultation with the state board of health which specify those services or types of services that cities, towns, and counties must provide, and those services which are optional. If no agreement can be reached between the jurisdiction operating the health department and such city or town following a reasonable period of good faith negotiations, including mediation where appropriate, the matter shall be resolved by a board of arbitrators which shall be convened at the request of either party. The board of arbitrators shall consist of a representative of the jurisdiction operating the health department, a representative from the city or town involved, and a third representative appointed by the other two representatives. If no agreement can be reached regarding the third representative, the third representative shall be appointed by a judge of the superior court of the county of the jurisdiction operating the department. The determination by the board of arbitrators of the amount to be paid by the city or town shall be binding on all parties. The cost, if any, of the representative appointed by each party shall be borne by that party. The cost, if any, of the third representative shall be shared equally by both parties.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 6. There is added to chapter 70.05 RCW a new section to read as follows:

If the certified expense is not paid by the city or town within thirty days after the end of the fiscal year, the local health officer shall certify the amount due to the auditor of the county in which the city or town is situated, who shall promptly issue a warrant on the county treasurer payable out of the current expense fund of the county, or in accordance with the procedures of the fiscal agent of the combined city-county health department. Any sums paid in this manner shall be reimbursed by the county auditor out of the money due the city or town at the next monthly settlement or settlements of the collection of taxes and until the certified amount is satisfied and shall be transferred to the county's current expense fund or to the fiscal agent of the combined city-county health department."

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

MOTIONS

Senator Fleming moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3490.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Zimmerman: "A point of order, Mr. President. I challenge this amendment on the scope and object. I think it goes beyond the intent of the bill and, secondly, I see it as a local problem in King County--and between King County and Seattle. I think, perhaps, it is something we shouldn't be dealing with down here at this point."

There being no objection, further consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3490 was deferred.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 21, 1983

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 3520 with the following amendments:

Strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. There is added to chapter 29.10 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Challenges of voter registration filed within thirty days of any primary or election, general or special, shall be administered wholly under sections 2 and 3 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 29.10 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Registration of a person as a voter is presumptive evidence of his or her right to vote at any primary or election, general or special, but a person's right to vote may be challenged at the polls by a precinct election officer and he or she may be required then and there to establish his or her right to vote. Each precinct election officer shall challenge a person offering to vote when the officer knows or suspects the person to be unqualified as a voter.

Challenges may be initiated by a registered voter subject to the following conditions:

(1) Challenges on grounds other than residence may be made at the polls and the person challenged may be required then and there to establish his or her right to vote to the precinct election officers:

(2) Challenges on the grounds of residence alone must be filed not later than seven days before any primary or election, general or special, at the office of the appropriate county auditor. A challenged voter may properly transfer or reregister until three days before the primary or election, general or special, by applying personally to the county auditor.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. There is added to chapter 29.10 RCW a new section to read as follows:

When the right of a person has been challenged under section 2 of this act, the officers conducting the election at the polling place shall require the challenged person to vote a ballot which shall be placed in a sealed envelope separate from other voted ballots. In precincts where voting machines are used, any person whose right to vote is challenged under section 2 of this act shall be furnished with a paper ballot, which shall be placed in a sealed envelope after being marked. The sealed ballots of challenged voters shall be transmitted at the close of the election to the canvassing board or other authority charged by law with canvassing the returns of the particular primary or election. The challenging party must prove to the canvassing board or authority by clear and convincing evidence that the challenged voter's registration is improper. If the challenging party fails to meet this burden, the challenged ballot shall be accepted as valid and counted. The canvassing board or authority shall give the challenged voter the opportunity to present testimony and evidence to the canvassing board or authority before making its determination. All challenged ballots must be determined no later than the time of canvassing for the particular primary or election. The decision of the canvassing board or other authority charged by law with canvassing the returns shall be final. Challenges of absentee ballots shall be determined according to RCW 29.36.100.

Sec. 4. Section 2, chapter 156, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as amended by section 2, chapter 225, Laws of 1967 and RCW 29.10.130 are each amended to read as follows:

Any (~~precinct committeeman, precinct election officer or registration officer~~) registered voter may (~~sign a preliminary~~) request that the registration of another voter be canceled if that voter no longer maintains a legal voting residence at the address shown on his or her registration record. The challenger shall sign a form, subject to the penalties of perjury, to the effect that to his or her personal knowledge and belief another registered voter does not actually reside (and maintain his abode) at the address as given on his or her registration record and that the voter in question is not protected by the provisions of Article VI, section 4, of the Constitution of the state of Washington (PROVIDED, That (1) a precinct committeeman or precinct election officer may only challenge the residence of a voter registered in the precinct wherein such precinct committeeman or precinct election officer serves and (2)). The person filing (~~such~~) the challenge must furnish the address at which the challenged voter actually resides in order to assure that proper notice will be received by the challenged voter.

Sec. 5. Section 3, chapter 156, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 34, chapter 202, Laws of 1971 ex. sess. and RCW 29.10.140 are each amended to read as follows:

All (~~such signed forms~~) challenges of voter registration under RCW 29.10.130 shall be delivered to the appropriate county auditor who shall (~~cancel the registration records of the voters concerned on the thirtieth day following date of mailing or as soon thereafter as is practicable. PROVIDED, That~~) send, by certified mail, a notice of intent to cancel the registration on account of a (claimed change) challenge of residence (shall be mailed by certified mail) to that address at which the challenged voter (actually resides in order to assure that proper notice will be received by the challenged voter) is alleged to reside and to the address of the challenged voter listed on the registration record.

Any voter (~~:~~) whose registration has been so (~~questioned~~) challenged and who believes that the allegation is not true (~~:~~) shall, within twenty days of such mailing (~~or publication~~), file a written (~~protest~~) response with the county auditor. The county auditor shall immediately (~~notify~~) request, by certified mail, the challenger and the challenged voter to appear at a meeting to be held within ten days of the mailing of the request at a place, day, and hour (certain) to be stated in the (notice) request, for determination of the validity of such registration (PROVIDED, That should), if the challenged voter (~~be~~) is unable to appear in person, he or she may file a reply by means of an affidavit stating ~~((therein))~~ under oath the reasons he or she believes ~~((his))~~ the registration to be valid, and ~~((should))~~ if the challenger ~~((be))~~ is unable to appear in person he or she may file a statement by means of affidavit stating the reasons he or she believes the registration to be invalid.

~~((The hearing shall take place at the time and place designated by the county auditor in the event))~~. If both the challenger and the challenged voter file affidavits instead of appearing in person, an evaluation of ~~((such))~~ the affidavits by the county auditor ~~((shall))~~ constitutes a hearing for the purposes of this section.

The county auditor shall hold a hearing at which time both parties shall present their facts and arguments. After reviewing the facts and arguments, the county auditor shall rule as to the validity or invalidity of the challenge. His or her ruling ~~((shall be))~~ is final subject only to a petition for judicial review by the superior court under ~~((the provisions of))~~ chapter 34.04 RCW ~~((as it is now or hereafter amended))~~. If the challenger fails to appear at the meeting or fails to file an affidavit, the registration in question may remain in full effect as determined by the county auditor. If the challenged voter fails to appear at the meeting or fails to file an affidavit and after reviewing the facts the county auditor finds the challenge valid, then the registration shall be canceled and the voter so notified.

Sec. 6. Section 29.65.010, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as amended by section 101, chapter 361, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 29.65.010 are each amended to read as follows:

Any registered voter may contest the right of any person declared elected to an office to be issued a certificate of election for any of the following causes:

(1) For ~~((malconduct))~~ misconduct on the part of any member of any precinct election board involved therein;

(2) Because the person whose right is being contested was not at the time he was declared elected eligible to that office;

(3) Because the person whose right is being contested was previous to the election convicted of a felony by a court of competent jurisdiction, his conviction not having been reversed nor his civil rights restored after the conviction;

(4) Because the person whose right is being contested gave a bribe or reward to a voter or to an inspector or judge of election for the purpose of procuring his election, or offered to do so;

(5) On account of illegal votes.

(a) Illegal votes include but are not limited to the following:

(i) More than one vote cast by a single voter;

(ii) A vote cast by a person disqualified under Article VI, section 3 of the state Constitution.

(b) Illegal votes do not include votes cast by improperly registered voters who were not properly challenged pursuant to sections 2 and 3 of this act.

All election contests shall proceed under RCW 29.04.030 ~~((as now or hereafter amended))~~.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. There is added to chapter 29.81 RCW a new section to read as follows:

(1) No individual, candidate, or political committee may publish or distribute any campaign material that is similar in design or appearance to a voters' pamphlet or candidates' pamphlet published by the secretary of state during the last ten years pursuant to chapter 29.81 or 29.80 RCW.

(2) The secretary of state may recover damages from any individual, candidate, or political committee found by a superior court to have violated the provision of this section. The damages shall not exceed one hundred dollars for each copy of any similar material published or distributed. Any damages recovered under this section shall be transmitted to the state treasurer for deposit in the general fund.

Sec. 8. Section 29.27.060, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 3, chapter 4, Laws of 1977 and RCW 29.27.060 are each amended to read as follows:

When a proposed constitution or constitutional amendment or other question is to be submitted to the people of the state for state-wide popular vote, the attorney general shall prepare a concise statement posed as a question and not exceeding twenty words containing the essential features thereof expressed in such a manner as to clearly identify the proposition to be voted upon.

Questions to be submitted to the people of a county or municipality shall also be advertised as provided for nominees for office, and in such cases there shall also be printed on the ballot a concise statement posed as a question and not exceeding ~~((twenty words or))~~ seventy-five words ~~((in the case of a school district tax proposition))~~ containing the essential features thereof expressed in such a manner as to clearly identify the proposition to be voted upon, which statement shall be prepared by the city attorney for the city, and by the prosecuting attorney for the county or any other political subdivision of the state, other than cities, situated in the county.

~~((Such))~~ The concise statement ~~((shall))~~ constitutes the ballot title. The secretary of state shall certify to the county auditors the ballot title for a proposed constitution, constitutional amendment, or other state-wide question at the same time and in the same manner as the ballot titles to initiatives and referendums.

Sec. 9. Section 29.36.010, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 as last amended by section 76, chapter 361, Laws of 1977 ex. sess. and RCW 29.36.010 are each amended to read as follows:

A voter desiring to cast an absentee ballot must apply in writing to his county auditor no earlier than forty-five days nor later than the day prior to any election or primary: PROVIDED, That an application honored for a primary ballot shall also be honored as an application for a ballot for the following election if the voter so indicates on his application: PROVIDED FURTHER, That a voter admitted to a hospital no earlier than three days before a primary or election and confined to the hospital on election day may apply by messenger for an absentee ballot on the day of the primary or election if a signed statement from the hospital administrator, or designee, verifying the voter's date of admission and status as a patient in the hospital on the day of the primary or election is attached to the absentee ballot application.

Such applications must contain the voter's signature and may be made in person or by mail or messenger: PROVIDED, That no application for an absentee ballot shall be approved unless the voter's signature upon the application compares favorably with the voter's signature upon his permanent registration record.

Sec. 10. Section 29.36.035, chapter 9, Laws of 1965 and RCW 29.36.035 are each amended to read as follows:

The delivery of an absentee ballot for any primary or election shall be subject to the following qualifications:

(1) Only the voter, himself, or a member of his family may pick up an absentee ballot at the office of the issuing officer: PROVIDED, That this subsection does not apply to voters hospitalized on election day who apply by messenger in accordance with RCW 29.36.010 for an absentee ballot on the day of the primary or election.

(2) Except as noted in subsection (1) above, the issuing officer shall mail the absentee ballot directly to each applicant.

(3) No absentee ballot shall be issued on the day of the primary or election concerned, except as provided by RCW 29.36.010, for a voter confined to a hospital on the day of a primary or election.

MOTION

Senator Thompson moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3520.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Newhouse: "It appears to me, Senator Thompson, that you left out the most important--in my mind--and that is the third amendment, section 9, changes the law, so that any registered voter may vote absentee and removes any requirements for an absentee ballot. Is that correct?"

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 23, 1983

Mr. President:

The House refuses to concur in the Senate amendments to ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 289 and asks the Senate to recede therefrom, and the same are herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

Having voted on the prevailing side, Senator Talmadge moved that the rules be suspended and the Senate reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 289, as amended by the Senate, passed the Senate.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Senator Talmadge, did that bill pass the Senate today?"

Senator Talmadge: "No, Senator."

Senator Guess: "I thought you had to have consideration on the same day."

Senator Talmadge: "Mr. President, if I might explain my motion. This is the bill that relates to DWI. The House has not concurred in the Senate amendments to the bill, but they would like to have us add two small sections to the bill. The striking amendment that is on your desk is exactly the same measure as passed the Senate with two small changes that will make the bill acceptable to the House, and so we are going through this procedure to get a new striking amendment to the bill and send it back over to the House in order to get the DWI issue taken care of."

Debate ensued.

There being no objection, Senator Guess withdrew his objection.

Further debate ensued.

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Talmadge that the rules be suspended and that the Senate reconsider the vote by which Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 289, as amended by the Senate, passed the Senate.

The motion by Senator Talmadge carried, having received the necessary two-thirds vote, and the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 289, as amended by the Senate.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended and Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 289, as amended by the Senate, was returned to second reading for purpose of an amendment.

On motion of Senator Talmadge, the rules were suspended and the Senate reconsidered the vote by which the Senate Judiciary Committee amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 289 was adopted.

MOTION

Senator Talmadge moved adoption of the following amendment by Senators Talmadge, Peterson and Hemstad to the Senate Committee on Judiciary Amendment to Engrossed Substitute House Bill No. 289:

Beginning on page 1, line 1, of the Senate Committee Amendment, strike the entire amendment, and insert the following:

*Strike everything after the enacting clause, and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 11, chapter 260, Laws of 1981 and RCW 46.20.308 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who operates a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state (~~shall be~~) is deemed to have given consent, subject to the provisions of RCW 46.61.506, to a chemical test or tests of his or her breath or blood for the purpose of determining the alcoholic content of his or her blood if arrested for any offense where, at the time of the arrest, the arresting officer has reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

The test or tests shall be administered at the direction of a law enforcement officer having reasonable grounds to believe the person to have been driving or in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. ((Such)) The officer shall inform the person of his or her right to refuse the test, and of his or her right to have additional tests administered by any qualified person of his or her choosing as provided in RCW 46.61.506. The officer shall warn the driver that his or her privilege to drive will be revoked or denied if he or she refuses to submit to the test. The officer shall warn the driver that his refusal to take the test may be used against him in any subsequent criminal trial.

Unless the person to be tested is unconscious, the chemical test administered shall be of ((his)) the breath only ((-PROVIDED-That)). If an individual is unconscious or is under arrest for the crime of ((negligent)) vehicular homicide ((by motor vehicle)) as provided in RCW 46.61.520 or vehicular assault as provided in section 2, chapter ...((SB 3106)), Laws of 1983, or if an individual is under arrest for the crime of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs as provided in RCW 46.61.502, which arrest results from an accident in which another person has been injured and there is a reasonable likelihood that such other person may die as a result of injuries sustained in the accident, a breath or blood test may be administered without the consent of the individual so arrested. In such circumstances, the provisions of subsections (2) through (6) of this section shall not apply.

(2) Any person who is dead, unconscious, or who is otherwise in a condition rendering him incapable of refusal, shall be deemed not to have withdrawn the consent provided by subsection (1) of this section and the test or tests may be administered, subject to the provisions of RCW 46.61.506.

(3) If, following his or her arrest, the person arrested refuses upon the request of a law enforcement officer to submit to a chemical test of his or her breath, after being informed that his refusal will result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive, no test shall be given. The department of licensing, upon the receipt of a sworn report of the law enforcement officer that he had reasonable grounds to believe the arrested person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor and that the person had refused to submit to the test upon the request of the law enforcement officer after being informed that such refusal would result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive, shall revoke his license or permit to drive or any nonresident operating privilege. If the person is a resident without a license or permit to operate a motor vehicle in this state, the department shall deny to the person the issuance of a license or permit for a period of ((six months)) one year after the date of the alleged violation or for two years if it is the second such refusal in a five-year period, subject to review as hereinafter provided.

(4) Upon revoking the license or permit to drive or the nonresident operating privilege of any person, or upon determining that the issuance of a license or permit shall be denied to the person, as ~~(hereinbefore)~~ directed in this section ~~((directed))~~, the department shall immediately notify the person involved in writing by personal service or by registered or certified mail of its decision and the grounds therefor, and of his right to a hearing, specifying the steps he must take to obtain a hearing. The person upon receiving ~~((such))~~ the notice may, in writing and within ten days therefrom request a formal hearing. Upon receipt of such request, the department shall afford him an opportunity for a hearing as provided in RCW 46.20.329 and 46.20.332. The scope of ~~((such))~~ the hearing for the purposes of this section shall cover the issues of whether a law enforcement officer had reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, whether the person was placed under arrest, and whether he refused to submit to the test upon request of the officer after having been informed that such refusal would result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive. The department shall order that the revocation or determination that there should be a denial of issuance either be rescinded or sustained. Any decision by the department revoking a person's driving privilege shall be stayed and shall not take effect while a formal hearing is pending as ~~((herein))~~ provided in this section or during the pendency of a subsequent appeal to superior court ~~((: PROVIDED That this stay shall be effective only))~~ so long as there is no conviction for a moving violation or no finding that the person has committed a traffic infraction ~~((which))~~ that is a moving violation during pendency of the hearing and appeal.

(5) If the revocation or determination that there should be a denial of issuance is sustained after such a hearing, the person whose license, privilege, or permit is so affected ~~((shall have))~~ has the right to file a petition in the superior court of the county ~~((wherein))~~ in which he or she resides, or, if a nonresident of this state, where the charge arose, to review the final order of revocation or denial by the department in the manner provided in RCW 46.20.334.

(6) When it has been finally determined under the procedures of this section that a nonresident's privilege to operate a motor vehicle in this state has been revoked, the department shall give information in writing of the action taken to the motor vehicle administrator of the state of the person's residence and of any state in which he or she has a license.

Sec. 2, Section 11, chapter 260, Laws of 1981 as amended by section 1 of this act and RCW 46.20.308 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Any person who operates a motor vehicle ~~((upon the public highways of))~~ within this state is deemed to have given consent, subject to the provisions of RCW 46.61.506, to a chemical test or tests of his or her breath or blood for the purpose of determining the alcoholic content of his or her blood if arrested for any offense where, at the time of the arrest, the arresting officer has reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

(2) The test or tests shall be administered at the direction of a law enforcement officer having reasonable grounds to believe the person to have been driving or in actual physical control of a motor vehicle ~~((upon the public highways of))~~ within this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. The officer shall inform the person of his or her right to refuse the test, and of his or her right to have additional tests administered by any qualified person of his or her choosing as provided in RCW 46.61.506. The officer shall warn the driver that ~~((a))~~ his or her privilege to drive will be revoked or denied if he or she refuses to submit to the test ~~((: The officer shall warn the driver))~~, ~~((b))~~ that his or her privilege to drive will be suspended, revoked, or denied if the test is administered and the test indicates a concentration of alcohol in his or her blood of 0.10 percent or more, and ~~((c))~~ that his or her refusal to take the test may be used against him or her in ~~((any))~~ a subsequent criminal trial.

~~((Unless the person to be tested is unconscious))~~ (3) Except as provided in this subsection and subsection (4) of this section, the chemical test administered shall be of the breath only. If an individual is unconscious or is under arrest for the crime of vehicular homicide as provided in RCW 46.61.520 or vehicular assault as provided in section 2, chapter (SB 3106), Laws of 1983, or if an individual is under arrest for the crime of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs as provided in RCW 46.61.502, which arrest results from an accident in which another person has been injured and there is a reasonable likelihood that such other person may die as a result of injuries sustained in the accident, a breath or blood test may be administered without the consent of the individual so arrested. ((In such circumstances, the provisions of subsections (2) through (6) of this section shall not apply.

~~((3))~~ (5) If, following his or her arrest and receipt of warnings under subsection (2) of this section, the person arrested refuses upon the request of a law enforcement officer to submit to a chemical test of his or her breath. ~~((after being informed that his refusal will result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive.))~~ no test shall be given ~~except as authorized under subsection (3) or (4) of this section.~~ ~~((The department of licensing, upon the receipt of a sworn report of the law enforcement officer that he had reasonable grounds to believe the arrested person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor and that the person had refused to submit to the test upon the request of the law enforcement officer after being informed that such refusal would result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive, shall revoke his license or permit to drive or any nonresident operating privilege. If the person is a resident without a license or permit to operate a motor vehicle in this state, the department shall deny to the person the issuance of a license or permit for a period of one year after the date of the alleged violation or for two years if it is the second such refusal in a five-year period, subject to review as hereinafter provided.~~

~~(4) Upon revoking the license or permit to drive or the nonresident operating privilege of any person, or upon determining that the issuance of a license or permit shall be denied to the person, as directed in this section, the department shall immediately notify the person involved in writing by personal service or by registered or certified mail of its decision and the grounds therefor, and of his right to a hearing, specifying the steps he must take to obtain a hearing. The person upon receiving the notice may, in writing and within ten days thereafter request a formal hearing. Upon receipt of such request, the department shall afford him an opportunity for a hearing as provided in RCW 46.20.329 and 46.20.332. The scope of the hearing for the purposes of this section shall cover the issues of whether a law enforcement officer had reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, whether the person was placed under arrest, and whether he refused to submit to the test upon request of the officer after having been informed that such refusal would result in the revocation or denial of his privilege to drive. The department shall order that the revocation or determination that there should be a denial of issuance either be rescinded or sustained. Any decision by the department revoking a person's driving privilege shall be stayed and shall not take effect while a formal hearing is pending as provided in this section or during the pendency of a subsequent appeal to superior court so long as there is no conviction for a moving violation or no finding that the person has committed a traffic infraction that is a moving violation during pendency of the hearing and appeal.~~

~~(5) If the revocation or determination that there should be a denial of issuance is sustained after such a hearing, the person whose license, privilege, or permit is so affected has the right to file a petition in the superior court of the county in which he or she resides, or, if a nonresident of this state, where the charge arose, to review the final order of revocation or denial by the department in the manner provided in RCW 46.20.334.~~

~~(6) When it has been finally determined under the procedures of this section that a nonresident's privilege to operate a motor vehicle in this state has been revoked, the department shall give information in writing of the action taken to the motor vehicle administrator of the state of the person's residence and of any state in which he or she has a license.))~~

NEW SECTION. Sec. 3. (1) If, after arrest and after the other applicable conditions and requirements of RCW 46.20.308 have been satisfied, a person submits to a chemical test of his or her blood, breath, or other bodily fluids, or such a test has been administered without that person's express consent as permitted by RCW 46.20.308 (3) or (4), and the test results indicate an alcoholic concentration in that person's blood of 0.10 percent or more by weight, or the person refuses to submit to a test, the arresting officer or other law enforcement officer at whose direction any test has been given shall:

(a) Serve notice in writing on the person on behalf of the department of its intention to suspend, revoke, or deny the person's license, permit, or privilege to drive as required by section 5 of this act:

(b) Confiscate the person's Washington state license or permit to drive, if any;

(c) Issue a temporary license as provided for in subsection (2) of this section to any driver who surrenders a current and valid license; and

(d) Immediately notify the department of licensing of the arrest and transmit to the department of licensing any confiscated license or permit and a sworn report that states:

(i) That the officer had reasonable grounds to believe the arrested person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle within this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs, or both; and

(ii) That after receipt of the warnings required by RCW 46.20.308(2) the person refused to submit, or submitted to chemical testing, or that a test was administered without the person's express consent as permitted under RCW 46.20.308 (3) or (4); and

(iii) That, if a test was administered, the applicable requirements of RCW 46.20.308 were met before administration of the test and that the test was administered in accordance with RCW 46.61.506; and

(iv) That the results of any test administered indicated an alcoholic concentration in that person's blood of 0.10 percent or more.

(2) The department shall provide law enforcement agencies with temporary license forms and written notice statements for use under subsection (1) of this section. Any temporary license issued under subsection (1) of this section shall indicate that it is effective for forty-five days from the arrest or, until the suspension, revocation, or denial of the person's license, permit, or privilege to drive is sustained at a hearing pursuant to section 6 of this act, whichever occurs first. No temporary license is valid to any greater degree than the license or permit that it replaces.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. (1) The department shall suspend, revoke, or deny the arrested person's driving privileges as follows:

(a) In the case of a person who has refused a test:

(i) For a first refusal within five years, revocation or denial for one year;

(ii) For a second refusal within five years, revocation or denial for two years.

(b) In the case of a person who has submitted to or been administered a test indicating a blood alcohol concentration of 0.10 percent or more:

(i) For a first incident within five years, suspension or denial for ninety days;

(ii) For a second incident within five years, revocation or denial for one year;

(iii) For a third incident within five years, revocation or denial for two years.

(c) A suspension, revocation, or denial shall take effect when sustained at a hearing under section 6 of this act, or forty-five days after the person's arrest if no hearing was requested, whichever occurs first.

(2) The department shall not grant or reinstate a person's privilege to drive that has been suspended, revoked, or denied under subsection (1) of this section until it has determined the person is eligible for reinstatement under RCW 46.20.031 and 46.61.515 and is otherwise qualified.

(3) For purposes of this section and section 5 of this act, driving privileges include:

(a) A Washington state driver's license or permit;

(b) A nonresident privilege to drive; and

(c) The privilege of a person to apply for a new or duplicate license or permit or to renew a license, permit, or nonresident privilege.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. No suspension, revocation, or denial of a driving privilege under section 4 of this act is effective until the department of licensing or a law enforcement officer acting on its behalf notifies the person in writing by personal service, by certified mail, or by first class mail addressed to that person's last known address of record with the department of the department's intention to suspend, revoke, or deny together with the grounds therefor and allows the person a seven-day period to request in writing that the department provide a hearing as provided in section 6 of this act. The notice shall specify the steps the person must take to obtain a hearing. If no written request for a hearing is postmarked or delivered to the department within seven days from the date of notification, the department shall issue an order effective as provided in section 4 of this act. If a request for a hearing is filed in time, the department shall give the person an opportunity for a hearing as provided in section 6 of this act.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 6. (1) Administrative hearings held to determine the propriety of any suspension, revocation, or denial imposed under section 4 of this act shall be in accordance with rules adopted by the director.

(2) The department shall fix a time, no more than forty-five days after arrest, and a place for a hearing to be held in the county in which the arrest was made that resulted in a report being transmitted under section 3 of this act. The hearing may be set for some other county by agreement between the department and the person. If the hearing is not held and an order issued under section 8 of this act within forty-five days after arrest, the suspension, revocation, or denial under section 4 of this act shall not be imposed.

(3) The department shall give the person at least fourteen days advance notice of the time and place of hearing, but the period of notice may be waived by the person. RCW 46.20.332 and 46.20.333 apply to the hearings. The department shall issue a subpoena upon the request of any party and, to the extent required by department rule, upon a statement showing the general relevance and reasonable scope of the evidence sought. The subpoena may be issued with like effect by the person's attorney of record or the office of the attorney general, and the form of the subpoena in each case may be the same as when issued by the agency, except that it shall only be subscribed by the signature of the person's attorney or an assistant attorney general. Every party has the right of cross-examination of any witness who testifies and has the right to submit rebuttal evidence. Subpoenas issued under this section may be enforced in the manner provided by RCW 34.04.105(5).

(4) With respect to arrested drivers who have submitted to or been administered chemical tests, the department by rule may permit the admission into evidence at the hearing of (a) copies of official reports of persons who possess a valid permit or certificate from the state toxicologist to perform tests or chemical analyses of the blood or breath, as to results of particular tests or analyses performed by that person when the copies have been certified as true copies of the report by the writer of the report, under oath, and (b) certificates of Breathalyzer maintenance operators who possess a valid permit or certificate from the state toxicologist, as to the testing and calibration of Breathalyzers or similar machines by that person. The reports or certificates may be admitted without further proof or foundation as prima facie evidence of the facts stated in them unless the arrested driver has given written notice received by the department not less than seven days before the date set for the hearing that he or she requests that the person administering the test, or the Breathalyzer maintenance operator, be produced by the department at the hearing.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 7. The scope of the administrative hearing under section 6 of this act shall include:

(1) With respect to a person who has refused a chemical test, the issues of:

(a) Whether a law enforcement officer had reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle within this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor;

(b) Whether the person was placed under arrest; and

(c) Whether the person refused to submit to the test upon request of the officer after having been informed that such refusal would result in the revocation or denial of his or her privilege to drive and that the person had the right to additional tests.

(2) With respect to a person upon whom a chemical test was administered, the issues of:

(a) Whether a law enforcement officer had reasonable grounds to believe the person had been driving or was in actual physical control of a motor vehicle within this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor;

(b) Whether the person was placed under arrest;

(c) Whether the applicable requirements of RCW 46.20.308 were satisfied before the administration of the chemical test;

(d) Whether the person either submitted to the test or a test was administered without express consent as permitted under RCW 46.20.308; and

(e) Whether the test indicated a concentration of alcohol in the person's blood of 0.10 percent, or more. The person may challenge whether the testing methods used were in accordance with RCW 46.61.506 and were valid and reliable.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 8. After a hearing held under section 6 of this act, the department shall order that the appropriate suspension, revocation, or denial of privileges be imposed effective ten days after receipt of the order. In the alternative, the department may order that the administrative action be dismissed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 9. (1) If the suspension, revocation, or denial imposed by the department under section 4 of this act is sustained after a hearing, the person whose license, permit, or privilege is affected has the right to file a petition in the superior court of the county of arrest or the county in which the person resides or, if a nonresident of this state, the superior court of Thurston county, for review of the final order of suspension, revocation, or denial by the department. The petition shall be filed within ten days following receipt by the person of the department's final order, or the right to appeal is deemed to have been waived. The review shall be conducted by the court without a jury, and shall be confined to the record, except that in cases of alleged irregularities in procedure before the department, not shown in the record, testimony on that issue may be taken in court. The scope of the review is limited to that prescribed by RCW 7.16.120, governing writs of certiorari.

(2) The filing of the appeal does not stay the effective date of the suspension, revocation, or denial unless it is stayed by the court after motion and argument. Such a stay may be granted only if the court finds upon the arguments and affidavits presented that there is a reasonable probability that the petitioner will prevail upon the merits of the petition, that the public interest will not be substantially harmed by the stay, and that the petitioner will suffer irreparable harm if the order is not stayed. If such a stay is granted it shall provide that it is effective only so long as there is no conviction of the petitioner for a moving violation or no finding that the petitioner has committed a traffic infraction which is a moving violation during the pendency of the appeal.

(3) The court may affirm the department's decision, remand the matter for further administrative proceedings, or reverse the department's order of suspension, revocation, or denial.

(4) The actual costs of preparing and transmitting the record to superior court shall be borne by the petitioner and awarded by the court to the department if the department's decision is affirmed. The costs shall be borne by the department if the department's decision is remanded or reversed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. When it has been finally determined under the procedures of sections 4 through 8 of this act that a nonresident's privilege to operate a motor vehicle in this state has been suspended or revoked, the department shall give information in writing of the action taken to the motor vehicle administrator of the state of the person's residence and of any state in which the person has a driver's license.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. When the department is required to suspend, revoke, or deny a person's license, permit, or nonresident privilege to drive under either section 4 of this act or under RCW 46.61.515(5), and (1) the department has earlier imposed a suspension, revocation, or denial under the other of those two provisions or is preparing to do so, and (2) each of those two sanctions has been required as the result of civil or criminal proceedings arising from the same arrest, the department shall proceed as follows:

(a) If the civil and criminal sanctions imposed or to be imposed are for the same minimum length of time, the suspension, revocation, or denial imposed by the department is limited to that first imposed and fully effective under one of those provisions;

(b) If the civil and criminal sanctions are of different minimum lengths of time, the department shall impose the sanction of longer duration. If the sanction with the shorter minimum duration has earlier been imposed by the department, the department shall reduce the minimum duration of the longer revocation by the number of days the license, permit, or privilege to drive was actually under suspension, revocation, or denial pursuant to the earlier action by the department.

If a suspension, revocation, or denial of a person's license, permit, or nonresident privilege to drive would have been imposed by the department under section 4 of this act but for the operation of this section, the suspension, revocation, or denial shall be treated as if it had been imposed for the purposes of determining the minimum duration of subsequent suspensions or revocations required under that section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. (1) The director, or his or her designee, shall administer and enforce the provisions of sections 3 through 11 of this act. The director may adopt such rules as he or she deems necessary to carry out the purposes of sections 3 through 11 of this act.

(2) The department shall prescribe and provide such forms as it deems necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of sections 3 through 11 of this act.

Upon a showing that the conviction is the third such conviction for the driver within a period of five years, the period of revocation shall be two years. Sec. 17. Section 27, chapter 121, Laws of 1965 ex. sess. as last amended by section 5, chapter 212, Laws of 1982 and RCW 46.20.311 are each amended to read as follows:

Whenever the license of any person is suspended by reason of a conviction, a finding that a traffic infraction has been committed, or pursuant to RCW 46.20.291, ~~((such)) the suspension shall remain in effect and the department shall not issue to ((such)) the person any new, duplicate, or renewal ((of)) license until ((such)) the person ((shall)) pay a reinstatement fee of twenty dollars and ((shall)) give and thereafter maintains proof of financial responsibility for the future as provided in chapter 46.29 RCW. (1) The department shall not suspend a driver's license or privilege to drive a motor vehicle on the public highways for a fixed period of more than one year, except as permitted under RCW 46.20.342 or 46.61.515. Whenever the license of any person is suspended by reason of a conviction, a finding that a traffic infraction has been committed, or pursuant to RCW 46.20.291, the suspension shall remain in effect and the department shall not issue to the person any new, duplicate, or renewal license until the person pays a reinstatement fee of twenty dollars and gives and thereafter maintains proof of financial responsibility for the future as provided in chapter 46.29 RCW. If the suspension is the result of a violation of RCW 46.61.502 or 46.61.504 or was imposed under section 4 (1) (a) or (b) of this act, the reinstatement fee shall be fifty dollars.

(2) Any person whose license or privilege to drive a motor vehicle on the public highways has been revoked, unless the revocation was for a cause which has been removed, is not entitled to have the license or privilege renewed or restored until: (a) After the expiration of one year from the date on which the revoked license was surrendered to and received by the department; (b) after the expiration of the applicable revocation period provided by RCW 46.61.515(5) (b) or (c); (c) after the expiration of two years for persons convicted of vehicular homicide; (d) after the expiration of one year in cases of revocation for the first refusal within five years to submit to a chemical test under RCW 46.20.308; or (e) after the expiration of two years in cases of revocation for the second refusal within five years to submit to a chemical test under RCW 46.20.308. After the expiration of the appropriate period, the person may make application for a new license as provided by law together with a reinstatement fee in the amount of twenty dollars, but if the revocation is the result of a violation of RCW 46.20.308, 46.61.502, or 46.61.504, the reinstatement fee shall be fifty dollars. The department shall not then issue a new license unless it is satisfied after investigation of the driving ability of the person that it will be safe to grant the privilege of driving a motor vehicle on the public highways, and until the person gives and thereafter maintains proof of financial responsibility for the future as provided in chapter 46.29 RCW. A resident without a license or permit whose license or permit was denied under (~~RCW 46.20.308(3)~~) section 4 of this act shall give and thereafter maintain proof of financial responsibility for the future as provided in chapter 46.29 RCW.

(3) In making grants from the DWI impact account, the office of financial management shall consider the following:

year, and by a fine of not more than ~~((five))~~ seven hundred fifty dollars. Twenty-four consecutive hours of the jail sentence shall not be suspended or deferred unless the judge finds that the imposition of the jail sentence will pose a risk to the defendant's physical or mental well-being. Whenever the mandatory jail sentence is suspended or deferred, the judge must state, in writing, the reason for granting the suspension or deferral and the facts upon which the suspension or deferral is based. The court may impose conditions of probation that may include nonrepetition, alcohol or drug treatment, supervised probation, or other conditions that may be appropriate. The convicted person shall, in addition, be required to complete a course in an alcohol information school approved by the department of social and health services or more intensive treatment in a program approved by the department of social and health services, as determined by the court. A diagnostic evaluation and treatment recommendation shall be prepared under the direction of the court by an alcoholism agency approved by the department of social and health services or a qualified probation department approved by the department of social and health services. A copy of the report shall be forwarded to the department of licensing. Based on the diagnostic evaluation, the court shall determine whether the convicted person shall be required to complete a course in an alcohol information school approved by the department of social and health services or more intensive treatment in a program approved by the department of social and health services. Standards for approval for alcohol treatment programs shall be prescribed by rule under the administrative procedure act, chapter 34.04 RCW. The courts shall periodically review the costs of alcohol information schools and treatment programs within their jurisdictions.

(2) On a second or subsequent conviction for driving or being in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs within a five-year period a person shall be punished by imprisonment for not less than seven days nor more than one year and by a fine of not more than one thousand five hundred dollars. District courts and courts organized under chapter 35.20 RCW are authorized to impose such fine. The jail sentence shall not be suspended or deferred unless the judge finds that the imposition of the jail sentence will pose a risk to the defendant's physical or mental well-being. Whenever the mandatory jail sentence is suspended or deferred, the judge must state, in writing, the reason for granting the suspension or deferral and the facts upon which the suspension or deferral is based. If, at the time of a second or subsequent conviction, the driver is without a license or permit because of a previous suspension or revocation, the minimum mandatory sentence shall be ninety days in jail and a two hundred dollar fine. The penalty so imposed shall not be suspended or deferred. The person shall, in addition, be required to complete a diagnostic evaluation by an alcoholism agency approved by the department of social and health services or a qualified probation department approved by the department of social and health services. The report shall be forwarded to the department of licensing. If the person is found to have an alcohol or drug problem requiring treatment, the person shall complete treatment at an approved alcoholism treatment facility or approved drug treatment center.

In addition to any nonsuspendable and nondeferable jail sentence required by this subsection, the court shall sentence a person to a term of imprisonment not exceeding one hundred eighty days and shall suspend but shall not defer the sentence for a period not exceeding two years. The suspension of the sentence may be conditioned upon nonrepetition, alcohol or drug treatment, supervised probation, or other conditions that may be appropriate. The sentence may be imposed in whole or in part upon violation of a condition of suspension during the suspension period.

(3) There shall be levied and paid into the highway safety fund of the state treasury a penalty assessment in the minimum amount of twenty-five percent of, and which shall be in addition to, any fine, bail forfeiture, or costs on all offenses involving a violation of any state statute or city or county ordinance relating to driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. All funds derived from the penalty assessment are in addition to and exclusive of assessments made under RCW 46.81.030 and are for the exclusive use of the department for driver services programs and for a state-wide alcohol safety action program, or other similar programs designed primarily for the rehabilitation or control of traffic offenders. The penalty assessment shall be included in any bail schedule and shall be included by the court in any pronouncement of sentence.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions contained in chapters 3.16, 3.46, 3.50, 3.62, or 35.20 RCW, or any other section of law, the penalty assessment provided for in subsection (3) of this section shall not be suspended, waived, modified, or deferred in any respect, and all moneys derived from the penalty assessments shall be forwarded to the highway safety fund to be used exclusively for the purposes set forth in subsection (3) of this section.

(5) The license or permit to drive or any nonresident privilege of any person convicted of driving or being in physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or drugs shall:

(a) On the first conviction under either offense, be suspended by the department until the person reaches age nineteen or for ~~((not less than thirty))~~ ninety days (~~(- PROVIDED, That the~~

(6) In any case provided for in this section, where a driver's license is to be revoked or suspended, the revocation or suspension shall be stayed and shall not take effect until after the determination of any appeal from the conviction which may lawfully be taken, but in case the conviction is sustained on appeal the revocation or suspension takes effect as of the date that the conviction becomes effective for other purposes.

Any balance shall be retained and paid to the prisoner when the prisoner is discharged.

(e) With court approval the prisoner's sentence may be reduced by one-fourth if the prisoner's conduct, diligence, and general attitude merit the reduction.

(f) If the work release prisoner violates the conditions of custody or employment, the prisoner shall be returned to the sentencing court. The sentencing court may require the prisoner to spend the remainder of the sentence in actual confinement and may cancel any earned reduction of the sentence.

(4) A special detention facility may be operated by a noncorrectional agency or by noncorrectional personnel by contract with the governing unit. The employees shall meet the standards of training and education established by the criminal justice training commission as authorized by RCW 43.101.080. The special detention facility may use combinations of features including, but not limited to, low-security or honor prisoner status, work farm, work release, community review, prisoner facility maintenance and food preparation, training programs, or alcohol or drug rehabilitation programs, with or without cost to the prisoners.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 40. There is added to chapter 35.21 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Except as limited by the maximum penalties authorized by law, no city or town may establish a penalty for an act that constitutes the crime of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug, as provided in RCW 46.61.502, or the crime of being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug, as provided in RCW 46.61.504, that is less than the penalties prescribed for those crimes in RCW 46.61.515.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 41. There is added to chapter 36.32 RCW a new section to read as follows:

No county may establish a penalty for an act that constitutes the crime of driving while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug, as provided for in RCW 46.61.502, or the crime of being in actual physical control of a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or any drug, as provided in RCW 46.61.504, that is less than the penalties prescribed for those crimes in RCW 46.61.515.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 42. There is added to chapter 43.59 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The Washington traffic safety commission shall produce and disseminate through all possible media, informational and educational materials explaining the extent of the problems caused by drinking drivers, the need for public involvement in their solution, and the penalties of existing and new laws against driving while intoxicated.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 43. The standing committees on transportation and judiciary of the state senate and house of representatives, with the assistance of the department of licensing, shall conduct a joint study to analyze and evaluate the issues involved in authorizing administrative revocation of the driver's license of a person who operates a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol. The study shall include an analysis and evaluation of other states that have enacted statutes that provide for administrative revocation of driver's licenses, the effects on reducing drunken driving, the cost of implementing and administering such a program, and any impacts on the criminal justice system.

The committees shall submit a report that includes their findings and recommendations, together with proposed legislation, to the legislature before January 1, 1984.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 44. The legislature finds that previous attempts to curtail the incidence of driving while intoxicated have been inadequate. The legislature further finds that property loss, injury, and death caused by drinking drivers have reached unacceptable levels. This act is intended to convey the seriousness with which the legislature views this problem. To that end the legislature seeks to insure swift and certain punishment for those who drink and drive. The legislature does not intend to discourage or deter courts and other agencies from directing or providing treatment for problem drinkers. However, it is the intent that such treatment, where appropriate, be in addition to and not in lieu of the sanctions to be applied to all those convicted of driving while intoxicated.

Sec. 45. Section 12, chapter 244, Laws of 1975 1st ex. sess. and RCW 10.05.120 are each amended to read as follows:

(Two) Five years from the date of the court's approval of deferred prosecution for an individual defendant, those dockets that remain in the special court deferred prosecution file relating to such defendant shall be dismissed and the records removed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 46. Sections 3 through 12 of this act are added to chapter 46.20 RCW.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 47. Sections 2, 3 through 12, 14, 16, 18, 22, 24, and 26 of this act shall take effect on January 1, 1985. The remainder of this act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect on July 1, 1983. The director of licensing may immediately take such steps as are necessary to insure that all sections of this act are implemented on their respective effective dates.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 48. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected."

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 21, 1983

Mr. President:

The House has passed SUBSTITUTE SENATE BILL NO. 4066 with the following amendment:

Strike everything after the enacting clause, and insert the following:

*Sec. 1. Section 13, chapter 208, Laws of 1941 as last amended by section 3, chapter 18, Laws of 1979 and RCW 31.08.160 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) Every licensee hereunder may lend any sum of money not to exceed two thousand five hundred dollars in amount and may charge, contract for, and receive thereon charges at a rate not exceeding two and one-half percent per month on that part of the unpaid principal balance of any loan not in excess of five hundred dollars, one and one-half percent per month on that part of the unpaid principal balance of any loan in excess of five hundred dollars and not in excess of one thousand dollars, and one percent per month on any remainder of such unpaid principal balance.

(2) Charges on loans made under this chapter shall not be paid, deducted, discounted, or received in advance, or compounded, but the rate of charge authorized by this section may be precomputed as provided in subsection (3) of this section. Charges on loans made under this chapter, except as permitted by subsection (3) hereof, (a) shall be computed and paid only as a percentage per month of the unpaid principal balance or portions thereof, and (b) shall be so expressed in every obligation signed by the borrower. For the purpose of this section a month shall be that period of time from any date in a month to the corresponding date in the next month and if there is no such corresponding date then to the last day of the next month; and a day shall be considered one-thirtieth of a month when computation is made for a fraction of a month.

(3) When the loan contract requires repayment in substantially equal and consecutive monthly installments of principal and charges combined, the charges may be precomputed at the monthly rate on scheduled unpaid principal balances according to the terms of the contract and added to the principal of the loan. Every payment may be applied to the combined total of principal and precomputed charge until the contract is fully paid. The acceptance or payment of charges on loans made under the provisions of this subsection shall not be deemed to constitute payment, deduction, or receipt thereof in advance nor compounding under subsection (2) above. Such precomputed charge shall be subject to the following adjustments:

(a) The portion of the precomputed charge applicable to any particular monthly installment period shall bear the same ratio to the total precomputed charge, excluding any adjustment made under paragraph (f) of this subsection, as the balance scheduled to be outstanding during that monthly period bears to the sum of all monthly balances scheduled originally by the contract of loan.

(b) If the loan contract is prepaid in full by cash, a new loan, refinancing, or otherwise before the final installment date, the portion of the precomputed charge applicable to the full installment periods following the installment date nearest the date of such prepayment shall be rebated. In computing any required rebate, any prepayment made on or before the fifteenth day following an installment date shall be deemed to have been made on the installment date preceding such prepayment. If prepayment in full occurs before the first installment date an additional rebate of one-thirtieth of the portion of the precomputed charge applicable to a first installment period of one month shall be made for each day from the date of such prepayment to the first scheduled installment date. If judgment is obtained before the final installment date, the contract balance shall be reduced by the rebate of precomputed charge which would be required for prepayment in full as of the date judgment is obtained.

(c) If the payment date of all wholly unpaid installments on which no default charge has been collected is deferred one or more full months and the contract so provides, the licensee may charge and collect a deferment charge. Such deferment charge shall not exceed the portion of the precomputed charge applicable under the original contract of loan to the first month of the deferment period multiplied by the number of months in said period. The deferment period is the month or months in which no scheduled payment has been made or in which no payment is to be required by reason of the deferment. In computing any default charge, or required rebate, the portion of the precomputed charge applicable to each deferred balance and installment period following the deferment period and prior to the deferred maturity shall remain the same as that applicable to such balances and periods under the original contract of loan. Such charge may be collected at the time of deferment or at any time thereafter. If a loan is prepaid in full during a deferment period, the borrower shall receive, in addition to the rebate required under paragraph (b) of this subsection, a rebate of that portion of the deferment charge applicable to any unexpired months of the deferment period.

(d) If the payment in full of any scheduled installment is in default more than seven days and the contract so provides, the licensee may charge and collect a default charge not exceeding five percent of the unpaid amount of the installment or five dollars, whichever is less. Said charge may not be collected more than once for the same default and may be collected when such default occurs or any time thereafter. If such default charge is deducted from any payment received after default occurs and such deduction results in the default of a subsequent installment, no charge may be made for the resulting default.

(e) If two or more full installments are in default for one full month or more at any installment date and if the contract so provides, the licensee may reduce the contract balance by the rebate which would be required for prepayment in full on such installment date. Thereafter, charges may be received at the agreed rate computed on actual unpaid balances of the contract for the time outstanding until the contract is fully paid. Charges so collected shall be in lieu of any deferment or default charges which otherwise would accrue on the contract after such installment date.

(f) A licensee and borrower may agree that the first installment due date may be not more than fifteen days more than one month and the amount of such installment may be increased by one-thirtieth of the portion of the precomputed charge applicable to a first installment of one month for each extra day.

(4) No licensee shall induce or permit any borrower to split up or divide any loan, nor induce or permit any person, nor any husband or wife jointly or severally, to become obligated, directly or contingently or both, under more than one contract of loan at the same time, for the purpose or with the result of obtaining a higher rate of charge than would otherwise be permitted by this section. If part or all of the consideration for a loan contract is the unpaid principal balance of a prior loan with the same licensee, then the principal amount payable under such loan contract shall not include any unpaid charges on the prior loan, except charges which have accrued within sixty days before the making of such loan contract and may include the balance of a precomputed contract which remains after giving the rebate required by subsection (3) hereof.

(5) No licensee shall directly or indirectly charge, contract for, or receive any charges or fees except charges authorized by this chapter, the reasonable actual costs paid by the licensee to foreclose, repossess or otherwise realize on the security, reasonable attorney fees and court costs incurred by the licensee and the lawful fees, if any, actually and necessarily paid out by the licensee to any public officer for the transferring of title or for filing, recording, or releasing in any public office, any instrument securing the loan, which fees may be collected when the loan is made, or at any time thereafter. If any payment on a loan is made by check and payment of that check is refused because there was no account or due to insufficient funds, the licensee may contract for and receive a charge in an amount authorized under rule by the supervisor of banking. A bona fide error in the calculation of charges or in the recording of such charges in any statement or receipt delivered to the borrower or in the licensee's records shall not be deemed to be a violation of this chapter if the licensee corrects the error.

Sec. 2. Section 14, chapter 208, Laws of 1941 as amended by section 6, chapter 212, Laws of 1959 and RCW 31.08.170 are each amended to read as follows:

It shall be the duty of every licensee to:

(1) Deliver to the borrower or anyone thereof, if several, at the time any loan is made under this chapter, a statement (~~(--upon which there shall be printed in the English language a copy of subsections (1) and (5) of RCW 31.08.160;))~~ showing in clear and distinct terms the ~~((principal))~~ amount ~~((of the loan excluding charges))~~ financed, the date of the loan, the agreed schedule of payments, the nature of the security, if any, for the loan, the name and address of the licensee, and the ~~((agreed rate of))~~ finance charges. ~~((When charges are precomputed, the statement shall show the amount of the precomputed charge and shall contain a copy of paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (3) of RCW 31.08.160;))~~ The licensee shall provide to the borrower at the time the loan is made a copy of RCW 31.08.160.

(2) Give to the party making any payment a plain and complete receipt for each payment made on account of any such loan at the time such payment is made, or a periodic statement at least once each forty-five days showing such payment, specifying the amount applied to charges and the amount, if any, applied to principal, and stating the unpaid principal balance, if any, of such loan; a receipt shall be given at the time any cash payment is made. PROVIDED, That if the charges were precomputed the receipt or statement need not be itemized, and no receipt or statement shall be required where payment is made by check or money order and the full amount of such check or money order is applied to the loan: PROVIDED FURTHER, That when a default or deferment charge is collected, a receipt or statement shall be given showing the amount applied to the loan and the amount applied to the default or deferment charge;

(3) Permit payment to be made in advance in any amount on any such loan at any time during regular business hours, but the licensee may apply such payment first to all charges at the agreed rate up to the date of such payment: PROVIDED, That when charges are precomputed such payment shall be equal to one or more full scheduled installments;

(4) Upon payment of the loan in full, mark indelibly every obligation signed by the borrower with the word "paid" or "canceled" and release any mortgage and restore all notes and collateral which no longer secures a loan and to which the borrower may be lawfully entitled: PROVIDED, HOWEVER, That in case any such document or obligation is in custodia legis these requirements shall not be applicable; and

(5) Obtain from the borrower prior to making the loan a statement signed by the borrower setting forth the borrower's then current financial condition (~~and containing a statement that the borrower recognizes~~) and describing the penalties and defenses resulting from giving false (~~statement of~~) financial (~~condition~~) information, all on a form approved by the supervisor. A copy of the statement (~~required to~~) shall be delivered to the borrower when the loan is made (~~shall be acknowledged in writing by the licensee and the borrower, and a copy thereof shall be retained by the licensee~~).

and the same are herewith transmitted.

(a) Approval of such application is required to meet the needs of the members of the health maintenance organization and of the new members which such organization can reasonably be expected to enroll; and

(b) The health maintenance organization is unable to provide, through services or facilities which can reasonably be expected to be available to the organization, its institutional health services in a reasonable and cost-effective manner which is consistent with the basic method of operation of the organization and which makes such services available on a long-term basis through physicians and other health professionals associated with it.

A health care facility (or any part thereof) or medical equipment with respect to which a certificate of need was issued under this subsection may not be sold or leased and a controlling interest in such facility or equipment or in a lease of such facility or equipment may not be acquired unless the department issues a certificate of need approving the sale, acquisition, or lease.

~~(4) ((When a hospital has developed a long-range health facility plan, pursuant to RCW 70.38.145 and the proposed new institutional health service is consistent with such plan, an expedited review process shall be instituted by the department as it has been done since the enactment of chapter 70.38 RCW in 1971.~~

(b)) The decision of the department on a certificate of need application shall be consistent with the state health plan in effect, except in emergency circumstances which pose a threat to the public health. The department in making its final decision may issue a conditional certificate of need if it finds that the project is justified only under specific circumstances. The conditions shall directly relate to the project being reviewed. The conditions may be released if it can be substantiated that the conditions are no longer valid and the release of such conditions would be consistent with the purposes of this chapter.

~~((6))~~ (5) Criteria adopted for review in accordance with subsection (2) of this section may vary according to the purpose for which the particular review is being conducted or the type of health service reviewed.

~~((7))~~ (6) The department shall specify information to be required for certificate of need applications. Within fifteen days of receipt of the application, the department shall request additional information considered necessary to the application or start the review process. Applicants may decline to submit requested information through written notice to the department, in which case review starts on the date of receipt of the notice. Applications may be denied or limited because of failure to submit required and necessary information.

(7) Concurrent review is for the purpose of comparative analysis and evaluation of competing or similar projects in order to determine which of the projects may best meet identified needs. Categories of projects subject to concurrent review include at least new health care facilities, new services, and expansion of existing health care facilities. The department shall specify time periods for the submission of applications for certificates of need subject to concurrent review, which shall not exceed ninety days. Review of concurrent applications shall start fifteen days after the conclusion of the time period for submission of applications subject to concurrent review. Concurrent review periods shall be limited to one hundred fifty days, except as provided for in rules adopted by the department authorizing and limiting amendment during the course of the review, or for an unresolved pivotal issue declared by the department.

(8) Review periods for certificate of need applications other than those subject to concurrent review shall be limited to ninety days. Review periods may be extended up to thirty days if needed by a review agency, and for unresolved pivotal issues the department may extend up to an additional thirty days. A review may be extended in any case if the applicant agrees to the extension.

(9) The department or a designated regional health council shall conduct a public hearing on a certificate of need application if requested unless the review is expedited or subject to emergency review. The department by rule shall specify the period of time within which a public hearing must be requested and requirements related to public notice of the hearing, procedures, recordkeeping and related matters.

(10) Any applicant denied a certificate of need or whose certificate of need has been suspended or revoked shall be afforded an opportunity for administrative review in accordance with chapter 34.04 RCW and a hearing shall be held within one hundred twenty days of a request therefor. An administrative law judge shall review the decision of the secretary's designee and render a proposed decision for consideration by the secretary in accordance with chapter 34.12 RCW or remand the matter to the secretary's designee for further consideration.

The secretary's final decision is subject to review by the superior court as provided in chapter 34.04 RCW.

(11) The department may establish procedures and criteria for reconsideration of decisions.

(12) An amended certificate of need shall be required for the following modifications of an approved project:

(a) A new service;

(b) An expansion of a service beyond that originally approved;

(c) An increase in bed capacity;

(d) A significant reduction in the scope of a project without a commensurate reduction in the cost of the project, or a cost increase (as represented in bids on a construction project or final cost estimates acceptable to the person to whom the certificate of need was issued) if the total of such increases exceeds twelve percent or fifty thousand dollars, whichever is greater, over the maximum capital expenditure approved. The review of reductions or cost increases shall be restricted to the continued conformance of the project with the review criteria pertaining to financial feasibility and cost containment.

((#)) (13) An application for a certificate of need for a capital expenditure which is determined by the department to be required to eliminate or prevent imminent safety hazards or correct violations of applicable licensure and accreditation standards shall be approved ((as specified in PL 93-641, section 1527(c)).

Sec. 9. Section 12, chapter 161, Laws of 1979 ex. sess. as amended by section 10, chapter 139, Laws of 1980 and RCW 70.38.125 are each amended to read as follows:

(2) A project for which a certificate of need has been issued shall be commenced during the validity period for the certificate of need.

(3) The department, in cooperation with the ~~((health systems agencies established in the state under the provision of Public Law 93-641)) regional health councils, and the hospital commission((:))~~ in the case of hospital projects, shall monitor the costs and components of approved projects to assure conformance with certificates of need that have been issued. Rules and regulations adopted shall specify when changes in the cost or components of a project require reevaluation of the project. The department may require applicants to submit periodic progress reports on approved projects or other information as may be necessary to effectuate its monitoring responsibilities.

(4) The secretary of the department, in the case of a new health facility, shall not issue any license unless and until a prior certificate of need shall have been issued by the department for the offering or development of such new health facility.

(5) Any person who engages in any undertaking which requires certificate of need review ~~((under RCW 70.38.065(4)))~~ without first having received from the department either a certificate of need or an exception granted in accordance with this chapter shall be liable to the state in an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars a day for each day of such unauthorized offering or development. Such amounts of money shall be recoverable in an action brought by the attorney general on behalf of the state in the superior court of any county in which the unauthorized undertaking occurred. Any amounts of money so recovered by the attorney general shall be deposited in the state general fund.

(6) The department may bring any action to enjoin a violation or the threatened violation of the provisions of this chapter or any rules and regulations adopted pursuant to this chapter, or may bring any legal proceeding authorized by law, including but not limited to the special proceedings authorized in Title 7 RCW, in the superior court in the county in which such violation occurs or is about to occur, or in the superior court of Thurston county.

MOTION

Senator Warnke moved that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 4204.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Wojahn: "Senator Warnke, can you explain to me the effect of the proviso found on page 11, line 2?"

Senator Warnke: "Senator Wojahn, it is intended to ensure that home health-care agencies, hospices and similar facilities, which are started up by existing health-care facilities are reviewed under the certificate of need."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Hemstad: "Senator Warnke, with regard to the sunseting of the State Board of Health, is this merely initiating a process that is normally used there or is it the intention, with this bill, the Board of Health will, in fact, disappear in two years?"

Senator Warnke: "The life of the State Board of Health is extended for two years and the committees will be looking at it. That question will be answered during the 83-85 biennium--on how long they are going to exist."

Senator Hemstad: "Then, the question is open for discussion, rather than the decision already made?"

Senator Warnke: "That's true."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Haley, how much does a CAT scanner--or body scanner to most of us--cost?"

Senator Haley: "They are getting cheaper--somewhere around fifty to seventy-five thousand."

Senator Bottiger: "A body scanner? Isn't a body scanner about a million and a half?"

Senator Haley: "I'm not sure how much it is. We've got a brand new one in Lakewood Hospital, which I looked over carefully. The utilization of this type of scanner is extremely heavy and saves a lot of money in many other ways, so who are you and I to say that it doesn't pay for itself quickly. It shortens the patient's stay, prevents the need for the patient being sent from one hospital to another. I think there are two sides to this question, but many people claim that to go ahead and get a CAT scanner or body scanner in there, in the long run, will save money."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Warnke that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 4204.

The motion by Senator Warnke carried and the Senate concurred in the House amendments to Senate Bill No. 4204.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Senate Bill No. 4204, as amended by the House, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 45; nays, 01; absent, 01; excused, 02.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 23, 1983

Mr. President:

The House has concurred in the Senate amendment(s) to the following listed bills and has passed said bills as amended by the Senate:

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 233.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 667,

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate resumed consideration of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3101 and the pending House amendment, deferred April 23, 1983.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Rasmussen, the President finds that Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3101 is a measure which deals with the Liquor Control Board by clarifying that liquor stores may sell lottery tickets, conforming licensing statutes to a recent United States Supreme Court decision regarding the veto power of churches and church schools over the issuance of licenses, and removing the requirement that a staggered license program be created.

"The amendment proposed by the House of Representatives, also, deals with the subject of the Liquor Control Board by prohibiting the issuance or reissuance of a liquor license to a motor sports facility unless the facility enforces a program to prevent alcoholic beverages not purchased within the facility from entering the facility.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does not expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken."

The House amendment was ruled in order.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Vognild that the Senate do concur in the first House amendment to page 7, line 18, to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3101.

The motion by Senator Vognild carried and the Senate concurred in the first House amendment to page 7, line 18, to Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3101.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Zimmerman: "Senator Vognild, on page 2, where it adds in the lines 'and lottery tickets'--and those places where it adds in this language--is the cost of the administration of the lottery--I assume the costs will be transferred from the Lottery Commission to the Liquor Board--is that in keeping with the percentages that were set up in the original lottery administration, as to how they would be properly divided up?"

Senator Vognild: "Yes, Senator Zimmerman. The changes in the law were actually a technical requirement that the AG requested, so that the Liquor Control Board could legally sell lottery tickets. They receive the same five percent discount as any other retailer of lottery tickets and that defrays the expenses to the Liquor Board."

Having concurred in the House amendment to page 5, line 30, and to the second House amendment to page 7, line 18, on April 23, 1983, the President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Engrossed Substitute Senate Bill No. 3101.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Newhouse, the President finds that Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3224 is a measure which facilitates the use of waste heat and cogeneration by authorizing local governments and special districts to finance the development of heating systems.

"The amendments proposed by the House of Representatives simply add water and sewer districts to the list of special districts which are authorized to develop these heating systems.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendments do not expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is not well taken."

The House amendments were ruled in order.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Williams that the Senate do concur in the House amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 3224.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Senator Haley: "Thank you, Mr. President. I request to speak on a point of personal privilege. We were discussing what the cost of a total body CAT scanner was last evening and I just checked with Dr. Whitney at the Lakewood Hospital about the cost of those things. I thought the members may be interested to know. He says you can buy a used scanner that will get you by, but doesn't produce the best quality of work for one hundred to two hundred thousand dollars. The kind that Lakewood Hospital is currently leasing costs about six hundred thousand and it is first-class and first-rate and will get a small hospital by. He says that a large hospital that has all the attachments comes to about 1.4 million dollars. I thought the members may be interested to know about these costs."

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, for the interest of the members, the one that Allenmore Hospital is currently negotiating to buy is 1.5 million dollars."

MOTION

At 2:39 p.m., on motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate was declared to be at ease.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Pullen, the President finds that Substitute Senate Bill No. 3434 is a measure which increases the amount of money that nonprofit organizations may collect from fund raising activities and allows members of an organization to participate in gambling activities at any chapter.

"The amendment proposed by the House of Representatives limits the tax exemption provided for bingo, raffles and amusement game activities of nonprofit organizations to those organizations which do not discriminate in full membership on the basis of sex or race.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendment does expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The House amendment was ruled out of order.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Vognild, and there being no objection, the motion to concur in the House amendment to page 18, line 32, to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3434 was withdrawn.

Senator Vognild moved that the Senate do not concur in the House amendment to page 18, line 32, to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3434 and asked the House to recede therefrom.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Vognild, that amendment on page 17, line 20-- 'that a voluntary contribution to defray club expenses averaging no more than one dollar per player per hour may be made by the players in a social dice game with a record of such contributions to be maintained by the organization for a period of three years'--I would presume that dollar--say we had ten players in the game rolling dice and we put in a dollar a piece, that would be ten dollars for the house?"

Senator Vognild: "I would agree, Senator."

Senator Rasmussen: "Then, my further question would be, what is the limit on the dice game? There is no record kept of the dice game. It could be--you could roll the dice for ten bucks, or thirty bucks or forty bucks a throw or whatever."

Senator Vognild: "Senator, I am unable to answer that question. The limits are set by the Gambling Commission when they authorize the event."

Senator Rasmussen: "I didn't know that the Gambling Commission was limiting dice. They limit poker games."

Senator Vognild: "They also limit the stakes that can be played at any social fund-raising event."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Vognild that the Senate do not concur in the amendment to page 18, line 32, to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3434 and asked the House to recede therefrom.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shimpoch, the Senate resumed consideration of Substitute Senate Bill No. 3520 and the pending House amendments, deferred April 23, 1983.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling upon the point of order raised by Senator Pullen, the President finds that Substitute Senate Bill No. 3520 is a measure which revises the procedures for challenging voter registration.

"The amendments proposed by the House of Representatives, while including the language of the original bill, authorize the use of absentee ballots by hospitalized persons and prohibits the publication of campaign material that is similar to the voters' pamphlet published by the Secretary of State.

"The President, therefore, finds that the proposed amendments do expand the scope and object of the bill and that the point of order is well taken."

The House amendments were ruled out of order.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

April 23, 1983

MR. SPEAKER:

MR. PRESIDENT:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred Substitute House Bill No. 139, modifying provisions on insurance, have had the same under consideration and we report that we are unable to agree and respectfully request the powers of Free Conference.

Signed by: Senators Moore, Deccio and Bender; Representatives Lux, Wang and Sanders.

MOTION

Senator Moore moved that the report of the Conference Committee be adopted and the powers of Free Conference be granted on Substitute House Bill No. 139.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rasmussen: "Can the President clarify what rules we are operating under that have the powers of Free Conference? I find it hard, Mr. President, to determine how we would handle the powers of Free Conference and whether the bill would have to lie on the table for a certain number of hours until we have had a chance to examine it, if it did go to Free Conference. Mostly, I see no powers of Free Conference anywhere in our rules. If the President has any ideas that would clarify it, it would certainly help."

At 4:15 p.m., there being no objection, the President declared the Senate to be at ease.

The President called the Senate to order at 4:42 p.m.

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In reply to Senator Rasmussen's inquiry, the President finds that Senate Rule 40 states: 'The rules of parliamentary practice as contained in Reed's Parliamentary Rules shall govern the Senate in all cases to which they are applicable, and in which they are not inconsistent with the Rules and orders of this Senate and the Joint Rules of this Senate and the House of Representatives.'

"Therefore, in the absence of Joint Rules, the President is required to consult Reed's Rules. The President finds that Reed's Rule 242 is applicable to the situation to empower the Senate to grant the Powers of Free Conference.

"The President should like to exercise the privilege of stating that the absence of Joint Rules creates many difficulties and is unfair to the legislators and the people of this state."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Moore that the Report of the Conference Committee be adopted and that the powers of Free Conference be granted on Substitute House Bill No. 139.

The motion by Senator Moore carried and the Report of the Conference Committee was adopted and the powers of Free Conference were granted on Substitute House Bill No. 139.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Bottiger, the rules were suspended for Senate Rule 22, subsection (7), as it would apply to Substitute Senate Bill No. 3022, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3253, Substitute Senate Bill No. 3640 and Senate Bill No. 3182.

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate returned to the sixth order of business.

There being no objection, further consideration of Engrossed House Bill No. 392 was deferred.

President Pro Tempore Goltz assumed the chair.

ENGROSSED SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 1093, as amended by the Senate, but without the amendment on page 4, line 13, having received the constitutional majority, was declared passed. There being no objection, the title of the bill was ordered to stand as the title of the act.

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the Senate advanced to the sixth order of business.

SECOND READING

SUBSTITUTE HOUSE BILL NO. 325, by Committee on Ways and Means (originally sponsored by Representatives Sayan, Silver and R. King) (by Office of Financial Management request)

Abolishing certain obsolete funds and accounts.

The bill was read the second time.

MOTION

On motion of Senator Shinpoch, the rules were suspended, Substitute House Bill No. 325 was advanced to third reading, the second reading considered the third, and the bill was placed on final passage.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Shinpoch, other than cleaning up obsolete references and so forth, it would indicate, in reading the summary here, that this would be necessary in order that they may borrow another four hundred million for tax loans. What is the difference with the last four hundred million that they borrowed, and which they made money on, and this four hundred million they are proposing to borrow--that we need a change in the law?"

Senator Shinpoch: "Senator Rasmussen, I don't know what you are reading, but I don't know that this bill has anything at all to do with borrowing four hundred million dollars. It sets up a fund, so that you can track and pay interest, plus principal costs, on short-term loans. It certainly doesn't authorize the borrowing of any four hundred million dollars, as far as I know. I can't find that in here. What section are you reading that in?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Well--'a loan principal and interest fund is established to track and pay interest, plus principal costs for short-term certificates of indebtedness as was the case when four hundred million in one year certificates were sold.' You mean to tell me that the Treasurer's Office has been without a method of tracking. The statements I received on it indicated they made about a million and a half on it--I think it was. That is what I am wondering, why we need to make the change in the law now?"

Senator Shinpoch: "Senator Rasmussen, I don't know what--number one, I guess I don't know what your question is--and the second thing, if I understand the gist of your question, you are saying 'didn't the Treasurer already have some way of tracking and why do you need a better way?' I think you always need a better way and I suspect that what he had was some kind of a manual tracking system and doesn't have that."

The President Pro Tempore declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 325.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Substitute House Bill No. 325, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 47; nays, 00; absent, 01; excused, 01.

Voting yeas: Senators Barr, Bauer, Bender, Benitz, Bluechel, Bottiger, Clarke, Conner, Craswell, Deccio, Fleming, Fuller, Gaspard, Goltz, Granlund, Guess, Haley, Hansen, Hayner, Hemstad, Hughes, Hurley, Jones, Kiskaddon, Lee, McCaslin, McDermott, McManus, Metcalf, Moore, Newhouse, Owen, Patterson, Peterson, Rasmussen, Rinehart, Sellar, Shinpoch, Talmadge, Thompson, Vognild, von Reichbauer, Warnke, Williams, Wojahn, Woody, Zimmerman - 47.

Absent: Senator Quigg - 1.

Excused: Senator Pullen - 1.

RULING BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In ruling on the point of order raised by Senator Rasmussen, the President finds that Engrossed House Bill No. 392 is a measure which allows certain cities and towns to use hearing officers to hold public hearings on the proposed establishment of local improvement districts.

"Pursuant to Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 103, the President finds that Engrossed House Bill No. 392, in its present form, does not fall within the provisions of Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 103 and, therefore, is not properly before the Senate."

Engrossed House Bill No. 392 was ruled out of order.

(1) A member of the retirement system who becomes totally incapacitated for continued employment by an employer as determined by the director shall be eligible to receive an allowance under the provisions of RCW 41.26.410 through 41.26.550. If the department determines that the member is able to return to service, the member is entitled to notice and a hearing. Both the notice and the hearing shall comply with the requirements of chapter 34.04 RCW, as now or hereafter amended.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 18. There is added to chapter 41.32 RCW a new section to read as follows:

The director is authorized to waive RCW 41.32.260(3) to effectuate RCW 41.32.260(4).

NEW SECTION. Sec. 19. Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this chapter.

(1) "Consolidated employer" means the new organizational element formed to perform some governmental function or service for two or more political subdivisions at least one of which is a first class city having its own retirement system. The new organization may be an element of county government or city government or of some other existing political subdivision, or it may be, or be a part of, a newly formed political subdivision.

(2) "New hiree" means someone hired by the consolidated employer who:

(a) Was not employed by any of the combining elements or their political subdivisions at the time of consolidation; or

(b) Was employed by one of the combining elements or their political subdivisions but did not become an employee of the consolidated employer within one year of the date on which the consolidated employer became a legal entity.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 20. This chapter governs the retirement program for individuals whose employment status is altered when two or more political subdivisions enter into an agreement to provide for consolidation of a function of government, the function is to be performed either by one of the participating subdivisions or by a newly created subdivision, and the employees of the participating subdivisions are enrolled as members of more than one Washington public retirement system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 21. All new hirees by the consolidated entity shall become members of the retirement system to which the consolidated employer belonged prior to the consolidation if the employer is a member of a retirement system. If the employer is not a member of a retirement system, the new hirees shall not have a retirement program until the employer joins a retirement system.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 22. If the consolidated employer was an employer-member of one of the state retirement systems prior to consolidation:

(1) The employees of the consolidated employer who were active members of a state retirement system prior to the consolidation shall continue to be members of that system.

(2) Employees who were members of a city public retirement system prior to the consolidation may exercise one of the following options:

(a) Remain an active member of the city public retirement system while employed by the consolidated employer; or

(b) Establish membership in the retirement system provided by chapter 41.40 RCW and either separate and withdraw from the city public system or, if eligible, separate and vest with the city system.

Only prospective periods of qualifying service with a Washington public retirement system may be established under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 23. If the consolidated employer was an employer-member of a city public retirement system prior to the consolidation:

(1) The employees of the consolidated employer who were members of a city public retirement system prior to the consolidation shall continue to be members of that system.

(2) Employees of the consolidated employer who were members of the retirement system provided by chapter 41.40 RCW may exercise one of the following options:

(a) Remain an active member of the system provided by chapter 41.40 RCW; or

(b) Establish membership in the retirement system provided by the city public retirement system and either separate and withdraw from the system provided by chapter 41.40 RCW or, if eligible, separate and vest with that system.

Only prospective periods of qualifying service with a Washington public retirement system may be established under this section.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 24. The following general rules apply in consolidated situations under this chapter:

(1) If the consolidated employer is a member of a retirement system, all employees, otherwise eligible, shall be members of a retirement system.

(2) No employee may be an active member of more than one Washington public retirement system as a consequence of employment by the consolidated employer.

(3) Any person employed by the consolidated employer within one year of the date of activation of the consolidated entity shall be entitled to the options provided in sections 22 and 23 of this act if he or she was an active member of a Washington public retirement system at the time of employment by the consolidated entity.

(4) An employee who is not retired at the time of employment by the consolidated employer may not elect to retire from any Washington public retirement system until he or she has separated from service with the consolidated employer.

(5) No member of any retirement system may become entitled to any benefits or rights under any Washington public retirement system as a result of this chapter except such rights of membership as are covered in this chapter.

(6) This chapter shall be effective retroactive to December 31, 1981, and all time periods specified in this chapter shall run from the dates indicated or December 31, 1981, whichever is the later.

(7) Consolidated employers are required to comply with the laws and rules of any Washington public retirement system whose active members they employ.

(8) Entry into membership granted under this chapter does not constitute a waiver of any other law or rule of any Washington public retirement system including and not limited to eligibility standards for service credit or benefits.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 25. An employee electing under section 22(2)(a) or 23(2)(a) of this act shall have the right to change positions within the structure of the consolidated employer without affecting the employee retirement membership.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 26. It is not the purpose of this chapter to provide relief to any Washington public retirement system or its sponsors when consolidations result in financial injury to any such system. These issues are properly addressed in the negotiations between the interested parties when the consolidation is being planned and executed.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 27. This chapter does not apply to any consolidation which includes any members of retirement systems established by chapter 41.18, 41.20, or 41.26 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 28. Sections 19 through 27 of this act shall constitute a new chapter in Title 41 RCW.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 29. There is appropriated from the general fund to the public employees' retirement fund for the biennium ending June 30, 1985, the sum of two hundred ten thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, for costs resulting from section 14 of this act.

NEW SECTION, Sec. 30. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Lee: "Senator McDermott, this is a question that relates to page 23--the new section, subsection (b)--where we are talking about a person reestablishing their service credit and saying the restoration shall be completed within one year of the effective date of this act, since this is a new section, or within one year of reemployment if not employed--the usual words we have to say. Is this new one year open period for all employees who may not have had or not taken advantage of the buy-back period in the past?"

Senator McDermott: "Yes, Senator Lee. When we discussed this bill--this bill was on the calendar and 95 percent of this amendment has been on before. When we discussed this before, I said there is a one year open period. We are opening the window for the last time. You may have remembered that. A couple of people on the floor laughed. What happened is that people are in state service, they go out and draw out their money and they come back and they are young and they don't pay attention or whatever, and finally twenty years later, they decide they would like to buy back their earlier years. We have opened the window, at least as long as I have been here, we have opened the window, I think, three times to let people in.

"This section lets them rebuy that back for a one year period, but it, also, requires and sets up procedures for which everyone who returns to state service will get a certified letter telling them that they have 90 days to buy back in. A copy will be put in their record and from this point forward, there will be no open windows. Everybody will have had an opportunity to buy back. If they didn't, they will have no excuse. This is the last open window--period."

Senator Lee: "One further question. Even though the persons, of course, are putting in their own credit, plus interest--this is the same way the bill was before--there has to be an additional burden upon them--the pension funds themselves, or at least a calculated one, if all of them bought back. It is the only way you could do. Do you recall what the Actuary had to say as far as what the increased demand on the pension funds would be?"

Senator McDermott: "I don't remember the percentage figure, Senator Lee, but he figured everybody who had ever returned to service, and gave us a figure that I remember was something like ten million dollars. I don't think it is going to be that high, but that is what he estimated as a very outside figure."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Haley: "Senator McDermott, is it customary for psychologists to be covered under health insurance? I am not aware of that being an extensive practice. Are you aware of other health insurance coverages including psychologists around in this area or anywhere in the country? I would like to know what the experience is and if you know anything about what the fiscal impact of that is?"

Senator McDermott: "Actually, when I first came to the legislature in 1971, I sponsored a bill to license psychologists in this state. Once somebody is licensed, they can be paid under insurance programs. I remember coming before Big Daddy Day's committee and he said to me 'I've never seen a doctor come and ever testify for anybody except himself.' Actually, I think the costs are a little bit less paying psychologists and psychiatrists, so it is actually a cost saving to allow the LEOFF system to use psychologists."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bluechel: "Senator McDermott, in regard to the open window for a one year period, if I remember correctly in the Ways and Means Committee, the Actuary stated that if everybody participated--we are looking at his best judgment--at a 59.6 million dollar impact, not a ten million dollar impact. Do you have any recollection of that particular bill we were talking about. I believe they said 59.6--that is the figure I have here."

Senator McDermott: "As I said in answer to Senator Lee's question, he figured everybody. The figure was--I don't remember a figure quite that high, but I, also, think he over-estimated the figure. He is more conservative than most actuaries."

MOTION

Senator Metcalf moved the following amendment to the amendment:
On page 1, line 6, strike section 1.

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Metcalf: "Does anybody around here know the judge that we are going to grant a retirement in ten years, instead of twelve? Anyone know the name? I would like to know, specifically, who we are helping. Does anyone know the answer? I can't believe that nobody in the Senate knows the answer to this."

Further debate ensued.

Senator Metcalf demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Metcalf failed and the amendment to the amendment was not adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 22; nays, 24; absent, 02; excused, 01.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

April 23, 1983

Mr. President:

The House has adopted the report of the Conference Committee on SENATE BILL NO. 3182 and has granted said Committee the powers of Free Conference, and the report of the Conference Committee is herewith transmitted.

DEAN R. FOSTER, Chief Clerk

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

April 24, 1983

MR. SPEAKER:

MR. PRESIDENT:

We, of your Conference Committee, to whom was referred SENATE BILL NO. 3182, modifying provisions relating to financial institutions, have had the same under consideration, and we report that we are unable to agree and respectfully request the powers of Free Conference for the purpose of amending Senate Bill No. 3182 and the amendment attached hereto:

Strike everything after the enacting clause, and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. There is added to chapter 30.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A bank or trust company may purchase for its own account shares of stock of a bank or a holding company that owns or controls a bank if the stock of the bank or company is owned exclusively, except to the extent directly qualifying shares are required by law, by depository institutions and the bank or company and all subsidiaries thereof are engaged exclusively in providing services for other depository institutions and their officers, directors, and employees. In no event may the total amount of such stock held by a bank or trust company in any bank or bank holding company exceed at any time ten percent of its capital stock and paid-in and unimpaired surplus, and in no event may the purchase of such stock result in a bank or trust company acquiring more than twenty-five percent of any class of voting securities of such bank or company. Such a bank or bank holding company shall be called a "banker's bank."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 30.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Sales of federal reserve funds with a maturity of one business day or under a continuing contract are not "loans or obligations" or "liabilities" for the purposes of the loan limits established by RCW 30.04.110. However, sales of federal reserve funds with a maturity of more than one business day are subject to those limits.

For the purposes of this section, "sale of federal reserve funds" means any transaction among depository institutions involving the disposal of immediately available funds resulting from credits to deposit balances at federal reserve banks or from credits to new or existing deposit balances due from a correspondent depository institution.

Sec. 3. Section 30.04.060, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 6, chapter 196, Laws of 1982 and RCW 30.04.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The supervisor, the deputy supervisor, or a bank examiner, without previous notice, shall visit each bank and each trust company at least once in each year, and oftener if necessary, for the purpose of making a full investigation into the condition of such corporation, and for that purpose they are hereby empowered to administer oaths and to examine under oath any director, officer, employee, or agent of such corporation. ~~((Said))~~ The supervisor may make such other full or partial examinations as deemed necessary and may examine any bank holding company that owns any portion of a bank or trust company chartered by the state of Washington and obtain reports of condition for any bank holding company that owns any portion of a bank or trust company chartered by the state of Washington. The supervisor may visit and examine into the affairs of any nonpublicly held corporation in which the bank, trust company, or bank holding company has an investment or any publicly held corporation the capital stock of which is controlled by the bank, trust company, or bank holding company; may appraise and revalue such corporations' investments and securities; and shall have full access to all the books, records, papers, securities, correspondence, bank accounts, and other papers of such corporations for such purposes. The supervisor may, in his or her discretion, accept in lieu of the examinations required in this section the examinations required under the terms of the federal reserve act for banks which are, or may become, members of a federal reserve bank or the deposits of which are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. Any wilful false swearing in any examination ~~((shall be))~~ is perjury in the second degree.

Sec. 4. Section 30.04.110, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 1, chapter 136, Laws of 1969 and RCW 30.04.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The total liability to any bank or trust company of any person for money borrowed, including in the liabilities of a firm or association the liabilities of the several members thereof, shall not at any time exceed ~~((fifteen))~~ twenty percent of the capital and surplus of such bank or trust company; but the discount of bills of exchange drawn in good faith against actually existing values and the discount of commercial or business paper of solvent parties, actually owned by the person negotiating the same, shall not be considered as money borrowed by him: PROVIDED, That loans secured by collateral security having an ascertained market value of at least fifteen percent more than the amount of the loans secured, shall not be limited by this section.

Loans or obligations shall not be subject under this section to any limitation based upon such capital and surplus to the extent that they are secured or covered by guaranties, or by commitments or agreements to take over or to purchase the same, made by any federal reserve bank or by the United States or any department, bureau, board, commission or establishment of the United States, including any corporation wholly owned directly or indirectly by the United States.

For the purposes of this section, "capital" includes capital notes or debentures issued under chapter 30.36 RCW.

Sec. 5. Section 2, chapter 194, Laws of 1963 and RCW 30.04.128 are each amended to read as follows:

Any state bank or trust company, stock savings bank, or mutual savings bank may invest in the capital stock of banking service corporations ~~((organized for the purpose of performing or providing mechanical, clerical, or record keeping services for two or more banks))~~. The total amount which any such bank may invest in the shares of such corporations may not exceed in the case of a bank or trust company or stock savings bank, ten percent of its paid in or unimpaired capital and unimpaired surplus, or in the case of a mutual savings bank, ten percent of its guaranty fund. Such a bank service corporation may not engage in any activity other than ~~((the performance of services for banks))~~ those permitted by the bank service corporation act, 12 U.S.C. Sec. 1861, et seq., as amended by P.L. 97-320, and in effect on the effective date of this 1983 act. The performance of any service, and any records maintained by any such corporation for a bank, shall be subject to regulation and examination by the supervisor and appropriate federal agencies to the same extent as if such services or records were being performed or maintained by the bank on its own premises.

Sec. 6. Section 30.04.140, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 2, chapter 133, Laws of 1967 and RCW 30.04.140 are each amended to read as follows:

No bank or trust company shall pledge or hypothecate any of its securities or assets to any depositor, ~~((or creditor))~~ except that it may qualify as depository for United States deposits, postal savings funds or other public funds, or funds held in trust and deposited by any public officer by virtue of his office, or funds held by the United States or the state of Washington, or any officer thereof in trust, or for funds of corporations owned or controlled by the United States, and may give such security for such deposits as are required by law or by the officer making the same; and it may give security to its trust department for deposits with itself which represent trust funds invested in savings accounts or which represent fiduciary funds awaiting investment or distribution ~~((PROVIDED, That any bank or trust company may borrow, for temporary purposes, not to exceed in the aggregate amount the paid-in capital and surplus thereof, and may pledge as security therefor assets of such corporation, not exceeding one and one-half times the amount borrowed))~~.

Sec. 7. Section 30.04.160, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 and RCW 30.04.160 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((When it shall appear to the supervisor that any bank or trust company is habitually borrowing for the purpose of reloaning, he may require such corporation to pay off such borrowed money. Nothing herein shall prevent any bank or trust company from rediscounting in good faith and indorsing any of its negotiable notes, but all such moneys borrowed and all such rediscounts shall at all times show on its books and in its reports. No certificates of deposit shall be issued for the purpose of borrowing money.))~~ No officer of any bank or trust company shall issue the note of such corporation for money borrowed or rediscount any of its notes except when authorized by resolution of its board of directors or by an authorized committee thereof. Violation of any provision of RCW 30.04.140 or 30.04.150 or of this section shall constitute a felony.

Sec. 8. Section 7, chapter 136, Laws of 1969 and RCW 30.04.215 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to all powers ~~((previously))~~ enumerated by this title, and those necessarily implied therefrom, a bank may engage in other business ((activity. PROVIDED: That)) activities that have been determined by the board of governors of the federal reserve system or by the United States Congress to be closely related to the business of banking, as of the effective date of this 1983 act. At least thirty days before investment in corporations or other entities under this chapter, notification by letter shall be made to the supervisor in accordance with such terms and conditions as the supervisor might establish by rule. A bank((- which)) that desires to perform an activity ((which)) that is not expressly authorized by ((the powers enumerated in)) this section(;) shall first apply to the supervisor for authorization to conduct such activity. Within thirty days of the receipt of this application, the supervisor shall determine whether the activity is ((an appropriate adjunct)) closely related to the business of banking, whether the public convenience and advantage will be promoted, whether the activity is apt to create an unsafe or unsound practice by the bank and whether the applicant is capable of performing such an activity. If the supervisor finds the activity to be ((an appropriate adjunct)) closely related to the business of banking and the bank is otherwise qualified, he shall forthwith inform the applicant that the activity is authorized. If the supervisor determines that such activity is not ((an appropriate adjunct)) closely related to the business of banking or the bank is not otherwise qualified, he shall forthwith inform the applicant in writing. The applicant shall have the right to appeal from an unfavorable determination in accordance with the procedures of the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW((- as now or hereafter amended)). In determining whether a particular activity is ((an appropriate adjunct)) closely related to the business of banking, the supervisor shall be guided by ((whether national banks under federal laws and administrative regulations and rulings have the authority to perform such activity)) the rulings of the board of governors of the federal reserve system in making determinations in connection with the powers exercisable by bank holding companies, and the activities performed by other commercial banks or their holding companies. Any activity which may be performed by a bank, except the taking of deposits, may be performed by a corporation, all of the outstanding stock of which is owned by the bank. A bank shall not invest a sum greater than twenty-five percent of its capital and surplus in the capital stock of corporations organized to perform activities authorized by this section.

Sec. 9. Section 30.04.230, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 7, chapter 196, Laws of 1982 and RCW 30.04.230 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A corporation or association organized under the laws of this state or licensed to transact business in the state, other than a bank or trust company, may acquire any or all shares of stock of any bank, trust company, or national banking association. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the merger, consolidation, or reorganization of a bank or trust company in accordance with this title((- or to permit a)).

(2) ~~Unless the terms of this section are complied with, an out-of-state bank holding company ((the operations of which are principally conducted outside this state to)) shall not acquire more than five percent of the shares of the voting stock or all or substantially all of the assets of a bank, trust company, or national banking association the principal operations of which are conducted within this state.~~

(3) As used in this section a "bank holding company" means a company that is a bank holding company as defined by the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1941 et seq.). An "out-of-state bank holding company" is a bank holding company that principally conducts its operations outside this state, as measured by total deposits held or controlled by its bank subsidiaries on the date on which it became a holding company. A "domestic bank holding company" is a bank holding company that principally conducts its operations within this state, as measured by total deposits held or controlled by its bank subsidiaries on the date on which it became a bank holding company.

(4) Any such acquisition referred to under subsection (2) of this section by an out-of-state bank holding company requires the express written approval of the supervisor of banking. Approval shall not be granted unless and until the following conditions are met:

(a) An out-of-state bank holding company desiring to make an acquisition referred to under subsection (2) of this section and the bank, trust company, national banking association, or domestic bank holding company parent thereof, if any, proposed to be acquired shall file an application in writing with the supervisor of banking and pay an investigation fee of five thousand dollars to the supervisor of banking. The application shall contain such information as the supervisor of banking may prescribe by rule as necessary or appropriate for the purpose of making a determination under this section. The application and supporting information and all examination reports and information obtained by the supervisor and the supervisor's staff in conducting its investigation shall be confidential and privileged and not subject to public disclosure under chapter 42.17 RCW. The application and information may be disclosed to federal bank regulatory agencies and to officials empowered to investigate criminal charges, subject to legal process, valid search warrant, or subpoena. In any civil action in which such application or information is sought to be discovered or used as evidence, any party may, upon notice to the supervisor and other parties, petition for an in camera review. The court may permit discovery and introduction of only those portions that are relevant and otherwise unobtainable by the requesting party. The application and information shall be discoverable in any judicial action challenging the approval of an acquisition by the supervisor as arbitrary and capricious or unlawful.

(b) The supervisor of banking shall find that:

(i) The bank, trust company, or national banking association that is proposed to be acquired or the domestic bank holding company controlling such bank, trust company, or national banking association is in such a liquidity or financial condition as to be in danger of closing, failing, or insolvency. In making any such determination the supervisor shall be guided by the criteria developed by the federal regulatory agencies with respect to emergency acquisitions under the provisions of 12 U.S.C. Sec. 1828(c);

(ii) There is no state bank, trust company, or national banking association doing business in the state of Washington or domestic bank holding company with sufficient resources willing to acquire the entire bank, trust company, or national banking association on at least as favorable terms as the out-of-state bank holding company is willing to acquire it;

(iii) The applicant out-of-state bank holding company has provided all information and documents requested by the supervisor in relation to the application; and

(iv) The applicant out-of-state bank holding company has demonstrated an acceptable record of meeting the credit needs of its entire community, including low and moderate income neighborhoods, consistent with the safe and sound operation of such institution.

(c) The supervisor shall consider:

(i) The financial institution structure of this state; and

(ii) The convenience and needs of the public of this state.

(5) Nothing in this section may be construed to prohibit, limit, restrict, or subject to further regulation the ownership by a bank of the stock of a bank service corporation or a banker's bank.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Sections 1 through 10 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

REPORT OF FREE CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

April 24, 1983

MR. SPEAKER:

MR. PRESIDENT:

We, of your Free Conference Committee, to whom was referred SENATE BILL NO. 3182, modifying provisions relating to financial institutions, have had the same under consideration, and we recommend that Senate Bill No. 3182 be amended as follows, and that the amended bill do pass.

Strike everything after the enacting clause, and insert the following:

NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. There is added to chapter 30.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

A bank or trust company may purchase for its own account shares of stock of a bank or a holding company that owns or controls a bank if the stock of the bank or company is owned exclusively, except to the extent directly qualifying shares are required by law, by depository institutions and the bank or company and all subsidiaries thereof are engaged exclusively in providing services for other depository institutions and their officers, directors, and employees. In no event may the total amount of such stock held by a bank or trust company in any bank or bank holding company exceed at any time ten percent of its capital stock and paid-in and unimpaired surplus, and in no event may the purchase of such stock result in a bank or trust company acquiring more than twenty-five percent of any class of voting securities of such bank or company. Such a bank or bank holding company shall be called a "banker's bank."

NEW SECTION. Sec. 2. There is added to chapter 30.04 RCW a new section to read as follows:

Sales of federal reserve funds with a maturity of one business day or under a continuing contract are not "loans or obligations" or "liabilities" for the purposes of the loan limits established by RCW 30.04.110. However, sales of federal reserve funds with a maturity of more than one business day are subject to those limits.

For the purposes of this section, "sale of federal reserve funds" means any transaction among depository institutions involving the disposal of immediately available funds resulting from credits to deposit balances at federal reserve banks or from credits to new or existing deposit balances due from a correspondent depository institution.

Sec. 3. Section 30.04.060, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 6, chapter 196, Laws of 1982 and RCW 30.04.060 are each amended to read as follows:

The supervisor, the deputy supervisor, or a bank examiner, without previous notice, shall visit each bank and each trust company at least once in each year, and oftener if necessary, for the purpose of making a full investigation into the condition of such corporation, and for that purpose they are hereby empowered to administer oaths and to examine under oath any director, officer, employee, or agent of such corporation. ~~((Said))~~ The supervisor may make such other full or partial examinations as deemed necessary and may examine any bank holding company that owns any portion of a bank or trust company chartered by the state of Washington and obtain reports of condition for any bank holding company that owns any portion of a bank or trust company chartered by the state of Washington. The supervisor may visit and examine into the affairs of any nonpublicly held corporation in which the bank, trust company, or bank holding company has an investment or any publicly held corporation the capital stock of which is controlled by the bank, trust company, or bank holding company; may appraise and revalue such corporations' investments and securities; and shall have full access to all the books, records, papers, securities, correspondence, bank accounts, and other papers of such corporations for such purposes. The supervisor may, in his or her discretion, accept in lieu of the examinations required in this section the examinations required under the terms of the federal reserve act for banks which are, or may become, members of a federal reserve bank or the deposits of which are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. Any wilful false swearing in any examination ~~((shall be))~~ is perjury in the second degree.

Sec. 4. Section 30.04.110, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 1, chapter 136, Laws of 1969 and RCW 30.04.110 are each amended to read as follows:

The total liability to any bank or trust company of any person for money borrowed, including in the liabilities of a firm or association the liabilities of the several members thereof, shall not at any time exceed ~~((fifteen))~~ twenty percent of the capital and surplus of such bank or trust company; but the discount of bills of exchange drawn in good faith against actually existing values and the discount of commercial or business paper of solvent parties, actually owned by the person negotiating the same, shall not be considered as money borrowed by him: PROVIDED, That loans secured by collateral security having an ascertained market value of at least fifteen percent more than the amount of the loans secured, shall not be limited by this section.

Loans or obligations shall not be subject under this section to any limitation based upon such capital and surplus to the extent that they are secured or covered by guaranties, or by commitments or agreements to take over or to purchase the same, made by any federal reserve bank or by the United States or any department, bureau, board, commission or establishment of the United States, including any corporation wholly owned directly or indirectly by the United States.

For the purposes of this section, "capital" includes capital notes or debentures issued under chapter 30.36 RCW.

Sec. 5. Section 2, chapter 194, Laws of 1963 and RCW 30.04.128 are each amended to read as follows:

Any state bank or trust company, stock savings bank, or mutual savings bank may invest in the capital stock of banking service corporations ~~((organized for the purpose of performing or providing mechanical, clerical, or record keeping services for two or more banks))~~. The total amount which any such bank may invest in the shares of such corporations may not exceed in the case of a bank or trust company or stock savings bank, ten percent of its paid in or unimpaired capital and unimpaired surplus, or in the case of a mutual savings bank, ten percent of its guaranty fund. Such a bank service corporation may not engage in any activity other than ~~((the performance of services for banks))~~ those permitted by the bank service corporation act, 12 U.S.C. Sec. 1861, et seq., as amended by P.L. 97-320, and in effect on the effective date of this 1983 act. The performance of any service, and any records maintained by any such corporation for a bank, shall be subject to regulation and examination by the supervisor and appropriate federal agencies to the same extent as if such services or records were being performed or maintained by the bank on its own premises.

Sec. 6. Section 30.04.140, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 2, chapter 133, Laws of 1967 and RCW 30.04.140 are each amended to read as follows:

No bank or trust company shall pledge or hypothecate any of its securities or assets to any depositor, ~~((or creditor:))~~ except that it may qualify as depository for United States deposits, postal savings funds or other public funds, or funds held in trust and deposited by any public officer by virtue of his office, or funds held by the United States or the state of Washington, or any officer thereof in trust, or for funds of corporations owned or controlled by the United States, and may give such security for such deposits as are required by law or by the officer making the same; and it may give security to its trust department for deposits with itself which represent trust funds invested in savings accounts or which represent fiduciary funds awaiting investment or distribution ~~((PROVIDED, That any bank or trust company may borrow, for temporary purposes, not to exceed in the aggregate amount the paid-in capital and surplus thereof, and may pledge as security therefor assets of such corporation, not exceeding one and one-half times the amount borrowed))~~.

Sec. 7. Section 30.04.160, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 and RCW 30.04.160 are each amended to read as follows:

~~((When it shall appear to the supervisor that any bank or trust company is habitually borrowing for the purpose of reloaning, he may require such corporation to pay off such borrowed money. Nothing herein shall prevent any bank or trust company from rediscounting in good faith and indorsing any of its negotiable notes, but all such moneys borrowed and all such rediscounts shall at all times show on its books and in its reports. No certificates of deposit shall be issued for the purpose of borrowing money.))~~ No officer of any bank or trust company shall issue the note of such corporation for money borrowed or rediscount any of its notes except when authorized by resolution of its board of directors or by an authorized committee thereof. Violation of any provision of RCW 30.04.140 or 30.04.150 or of this section shall constitute a felony.

Sec. 8. Section 7, chapter 136, Laws of 1969 and RCW 30.04.215 are each amended to read as follows:

In addition to all powers ~~((previously))~~ enumerated by this title, and those necessarily implied therefrom, a bank may engage in other business ~~((activity: PROVIDED, That))~~ activities that have been determined by the board of governors of the federal reserve system or by the United States Congress to be closely related to the business of banking, as of the effective date of this 1983 act. At least thirty days before investment in corporations or other entities under this chapter, notification by letter shall be made to the supervisor in accordance with such terms and conditions as the supervisor might establish by rule. A bank((-which)) that desires to perform an activity ((which)) that is not expressly authorized by ((the powers enumerated in)) this section(;;) shall first apply to the supervisor for authorization to conduct such activity. Within thirty days of the receipt of this application, the supervisor shall determine whether the activity is ~~((an appropriate adjunct))~~ closely related to the business of banking, whether the public convenience and advantage will be promoted, whether the activity is apt to create an unsafe or unsound practice by the bank and whether the applicant is capable of performing such an activity. If the supervisor finds the activity to be ((an appropriate adjunct)) closely related to the business of banking and the bank is otherwise qualified, he shall forthwith inform the applicant that the activity is authorized. If the supervisor determines that such activity is not ((an appropriate adjunct)) closely related to the business of banking or the bank is not otherwise qualified, he shall forthwith inform the applicant in writing. The applicant shall have the right to appeal from an unfavorable determination in accordance with the procedures of the Administrative Procedure Act, chapter 34.04 RCW((-as now or hereafter amended)). In determining whether a particular activity is ~~((an appropriate adjunct))~~ closely related to the business of banking, the supervisor shall be guided by ~~((whether national banks under federal laws and administrative regulations and rulings have the authority to perform such activity))~~ the rulings of the board of governors of the federal reserve system in making determinations in connection with the powers exercisable by bank holding companies, and the activities performed by other commercial banks or their holding companies. Any activity which may be performed by a bank, except the taking of deposits, may be performed by a corporation, all of the outstanding stock of which is owned by the bank. A bank shall not invest a sum greater than twenty-five percent of its capital and surplus in the capital stock of corporations organized to perform activities authorized by this section.

Sec. 9. Section 30.04.230, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 7, chapter 196, Laws of 1982 and RCW 30.04.230 are each amended to read as follows:

(1) A corporation or association organized under the laws of this state or licensed to transact business in the state, other than a bank or trust company, may acquire any or all shares of stock of any bank, trust company, or national banking association. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the merger, consolidation, or reorganization of a bank or trust company in accordance with this title ~~((or to permit a))~~.

(2) ~~Unless the terms of this section are complied with, an out-of-state bank holding company ((the operations of which are principally conducted outside this state to)) shall not~~ acquire more than five percent of the shares of the voting stock or all or substantially all of the assets of a bank, trust company, or national banking association the principal operations of which are conducted within this state.

(3) As used in this section a "bank holding company" means a company that is a bank holding company as defined by the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended (12 U.S.C. Sec. 1941 et seq.). An "out-of-state bank holding company" is a bank holding company that principally conducts its operations outside this state, as measured by total deposits held or controlled by its bank subsidiaries on the date on which it became a holding company. A "domestic bank holding company" is a bank holding company that principally conducts its operations within this state, as measured by total deposits held or controlled by its bank subsidiaries on the date on which it became a bank holding company.

(4) Any such acquisition referred to under subsection (2) of this section by an out-of-state bank holding company requires the express written approval of the supervisor of banking. Approval shall not be granted unless and until the following conditions are met:

(a) An out-of-state bank holding company desiring to make an acquisition referred to under subsection (2) of this section and the bank, trust company, national banking association, or domestic bank holding company parent thereof, if any, proposed to be acquired shall file an application in writing with the supervisor of banking and pay an investigation fee of five thousand dollars to the supervisor of banking. The application shall contain such information as the supervisor of banking may prescribe by rule as necessary or appropriate for the purpose of making a determination under this section. The application and supporting information and all examination reports and information obtained by the supervisor and the supervisor's staff in conducting its investigation shall be confidential and privileged and not subject to public disclosure under chapter 42.17 RCW. The application and information may be disclosed to federal bank regulatory agencies and to officials empowered to investigate criminal charges, subject to legal process, valid search warrant, or subpoena. In any civil action in which such application or information is sought to be discovered or used as evidence, any party may, upon notice to the supervisor and other parties, petition for an in camera review. The court may permit discovery and introduction of only those portions that are relevant and otherwise unobtainable by the requesting party. The application and information shall be discoverable in any judicial action challenging the approval of an acquisition by the supervisor as arbitrary and capricious or unlawful.

(b) The supervisor of banking shall find that:

(i) The bank, trust company, or national banking association that is proposed to be acquired or the domestic bank holding company controlling such bank, trust company, or national banking association is in such a liquidity or financial condition as to be in danger of closing, failing, or insolvency. In making any such determination the supervisor shall be guided by the criteria developed by the federal regulatory agencies with respect to emergency acquisitions under the provisions of 12 U.S.C. Sec. 1828(c);

(ii) There is no state bank, trust company, or national banking association doing business in the state of Washington or domestic bank holding company with sufficient resources willing to acquire the entire bank, trust company, or national banking association on at least as favorable terms as the out-of-state bank holding company is willing to acquire it;

(iii) The applicant out-of-state bank holding company has provided all information and documents requested by the supervisor in relation to the application; and

(iv) The applicant out-of-state bank holding company has demonstrated an acceptable record of meeting the credit needs of its entire community, including low and moderate income neighborhoods, consistent with the safe and sound operation of such institution.

(c) The supervisor shall consider:

(i) The financial institution structure of this state; and

(ii) The convenience and needs of the public of this state.

(5) Nothing in this section may be construed to prohibit, limit, restrict, or subject to further regulation the ownership by a bank of the stock of a bank service corporation or a banker's bank.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 10. Section 30.04.150, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 and RCW 30.04.150 are each repealed.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 11. The following acts or parts of acts are each repealed:

(1) Section 1, chapter 241, Laws of 1981 and RCW 43.19.095; and

(2) Section 2, chapter 241, Laws of 1981 and RCW 43.19.112.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 12. If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of the act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 13. Sections 1 through 10 of this act are necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, and safety, the support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and shall take effect immediately."

In line 1 of the title, after "institutions;" strike the remainder of the title and insert "amending section 30.04.060, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 6, chapter 196, Laws of 1982 and RCW 30.04.060; amending section 30.04.110, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 1, chapter 136, Laws of 1969 and RCW 30.04.110; amending section 2, chapter 194, Laws of 1963 and RCW 30.04.128; amending section 30.04.140, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as amended by section 2, chapter 133, Laws of 1967 and RCW 30.04.140; amending section 30.04.160, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 and RCW 30.04.160; amending section 7, chapter 136, Laws of 1969 and RCW 30.04.215; amending section 30.04.230, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 as last amended by section 7, chapter 196, Laws of 1982 and RCW 30.04.230; adding new sections to chapter 30.04 RCW; repealing section 30.04.150, chapter 33, Laws of 1955 and RCW 30.04.150; repealing section 1, chapter 241, Laws of 1981 and RCW 43.19.095; repealing section 2, chapter 241, Laws of 1981 and RCW 43.19.112; and declaring an emergency."

Signed by: Senators Moore, Jones and Warnke; Representatives Wang and Sanders.

MOTION

Senator Moore moved that the report of the Free Conference Committee on Senate Bill No. 3182 be adopted.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Moore, I would like to get a little of this banking business on the record. There is a statement in this bill--this conference bill--there is no state bank, trust company, or national banking association doing business in the state of Washington or domestic bank holding company with sufficient resources willing to acquire the entire bank, trust company, or national banking association on at least as favorable terms as the out-of-state bank holding company is willing to acquire it.' Do you know what those terms are?"

Senator Moore: "That would depend on each individual situation. The potential buyer of one of our institutions--the buyer happening to be out of state. You know, no two deals are the same, so it would be up to the controller of the currency or our state banking supervisor to determine that."

Senator Rasmussen: "You have no knowledge, yourself, of the terms?"

Senator Moore: "No."

Senator Rasmussen: "This, then, is not a true statement that is in the bill?"

Senator Moore: "I think it is broad and I think it covers it. I do not think that you can define down to each individual deal what may or may not happen."

Senator Rasmussen: "O.K., thank you. Well, if we vote for this, we are accepting this as the gospel--that we know that there is no other way to handle it. The second question would be the newspapers and this is where we get most of our information--some on the radio--that SeaFirst has a one and half billion dollar drawing account from other banks. Do you know if they have attempted to draw on this reserve?"

Senator Moore: "Senator, I do not even know if it exists. You said that you got the information from the newspapers and, frankly, everything that I have ever known about that was published, you know, I took a second look at."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, this is a statement by SeaFirst, itself. The other thing, Senator Moore, in this bill--the application and supporting information and all examination reports and information obtained by the supervisor of banking and the supervisor's staff in conducting an investigation shall be confidential and privileged--the application and information may be disclosed, under Chapter 42, the application and information may be disclosed to the federal bank regulatory agencies.' How would the average citizen get any information to take a bank on--let us say--with that type of secrecy?"

Senator Moore: "Senator, it is not all that secret. If the supervisor of banking, in his discretion, feels that public knowledge is important, he is obligated to divulge that."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, my last question for you, Senator Moore, the Penn Square Bank failure happened six months ago. The federal supervisor of banking--the controller--knew about that and knew about the banks that were involved. Why was not the public made aware of the precarious condition of this bank and other banks?"

Senator Moore: "Senator Rasmussen, I have always favored complete public disclosure. I cannot answer for what the federal government does. I just don't know."

Senator Rasmussen: "Then, let us go to the state banking supervisor. They have no powers to examine banks?"

Senator Moore: "Yes, they do."

Senator Rasmussen: "Then, why were we not told then?"

Senator Moore: "Senator, I do not know."

Senator Rasmussen: "I think that those are questions that we need to have answered. Thank you, Senator Moore."

Senator Moore: "These things are available and can be queried."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Jones: "Mr. President, is our three-minute rule in effect?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "No, Senator, it is not in effect."

Senator Jones: "I had that feeling."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Sellar: "Senator Moore, under the language of the bill, must the appropriate federal agency be involved?"

Senator Moore: "Yes, Senator Sellar, the Federal Bank Holding Company Act of 1956 requires that the Federal Reserve Board approve the transaction. The existing language of Senate Bill No. 3182 further requires that the state supervisor of banking make his findings in accordance with the criteria established by the federal regulatory agencies. In practice, this means that the state supervisor of banking must work very closely in consultation with the appropriate federal regulators."

Senator Sellar: "Senator Moore, will in-state institutions be given information allowing them to make an informed decision as to whether or not they desire to compete for acquisition of the troubled institution?"

Senator Moore: "Yes, Senator Sellar, under section 9, (4) (b) (ii), the supervisor must provide such information to potential in-state bidders to make a knowledgeable finding as required by this sub-section to the effect that there are no bank or bank holding companies within the state willing to acquire the troubled institutions on at least as favorable terms as the offer made by an out-of-state entity."

"Thus, at the appropriate time, information must be shared, while avoiding premature disclosure that could endanger further the troubled financial institution. The supervisor is thereby enabled to properly resolve the emergent situation."

Senator Sellar: "Does the language of the bill ensure that Washington State financial institutions will have an opportunity to match out-of-state offers?"

Senator Moore: "Yes, that is the explicit requirement of section 9 (4) (b) (ii) on page 13. Under the terms of this in-state preference clause, in-state financial institutions which have submitted bids will be given the opportunity to match the terms of the most favorable out-of-state bid, if the out-of-state bid is superior to all in-state bids. If this has not been done, then the supervisor would not be in a position to make a determination under the provisions of section 9 (4) (b) (ii)."

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator McDermott: "Senator Moore, I have read this bill some and particularly section nine, which sets up the conditions under which an out-of-state bank may do certain things. There is nothing that refers to an in-state bank making a bid. My question is, why did the conference committee not consider doing what they did in Alaska, which is to make a door that swung both ways? The bill swings only inward. People can come into the state. I would like to know why did you not allow the door to swing the other way, so that a state bank could go out into another state?"

Senator Moore: "I cannot speak for the rest of the committee. From my standpoint, I wanted to move cautiously. I want to move in the most sensible way possible and it is very possible that we will take this up during the next session. I have no idea, but I don't like violent change."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator McDermott: "Mr. President, the first eight sections of this bill have to do with state banking. It has to do with the various rules and regulations which apply to the supervisor of banking in this state, and section 9, which is the whole reason we are told we are here for, which is the SeaFirst section--that section applies to a national bank--not a state bank. It seems to me that the parliamentary question is, does this bill contain two subjects within a single bill and, therefore, is it unconstitutional under Article II, Section 19 of the State Constitution?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator McDermott, the President has never offered any such opinion, but does believe that, in the final analysis, such a question would have to be answered in court."

REMARKS BY SENATOR MCDERMOTT

Senator McDermott: "Mr. President, will that be entered in the record?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Yes, the Secretary advises so."
Further debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Gaspard: "Mr. President, a point of order. I believe Senator Quigg is violating the Senate Rules when he is impugning the motives of the Senator."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Quigg, would you please confine your remarks to the motion?"

Further debate ensued.

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Senator Moore, you indicated, when questioned by Senator Sellar, that there were provisions in this conference report where other banks--in-state--would have the opportunity to bid. I point out to you on line 9 through line 14 on page 8, that once this body votes on that particular phase--'there is no state bank, trust company or national banking association doing business in the state of Washington or domestic bank holding company with sufficient resources.' That is a positive statement that we will be voting on and it will be part of the law. This is the law that we are passing?"

Senator Moore: "Well, not exactly, Senator."

Senator Rasmussen: "Well, it states that in this law."

Senator Moore: "I beg to differ. If you will look at the remarks, starting on line 11 on page 7 and read through to the bottom, you will see 'the supervisor of banking shall find that: the bank' and so on, and then we come to one, two, three and, I think, if you attach two in the context of (b), you will find that the supervisor of banking shall find that there is no bank in the state that can do the job."

Senator Rasmussen: "The line that you refer to--line 11--refers only to 'an out-of-state bank holding company desiring to make an acquisition' does not refer, at all, to an in-state bank."

Senator Moore: "It is line 7 (4)."

Senator Rasmussen: "Line 7--you are absolutely right--'any such acquisition referred to under subsection (2) of this section by an out-of-state bank.' It refers only to out-of-state banks and I don't know if you are all reading the same line that I am, but you could look at line 7 and line 11 and it only references out-of-state banks. Is that correct?"

Senator Moore: "I think you would need to read the entire section. I don't want to labor it, but I think that it all makes sense when put together and, I think, this is being lifted out of context."

Senator McDermott demanded a roll call and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on the motion by Senator Moore to adopt the Report of the Free Conference Committee.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll and the motion by Senator Moore carried and the report of the Free Conference Committee was adopted by the following vote: Yeas, 34; nays, 14; absent, 00; excused, 01.

Debate ensued.

Senators Zimmerman, Peterson and Rasmussen demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the roll call on final passage of Senate Bill No. 3182, as amended by the Free Conference Committee.

ROLL CALL

The Secretary called the roll on final passage of Senate Bill No. 3182, as amended by the Free Conference Committee, and the bill passed the Senate by the following vote: Yeas, 34; nays, 14; absent, 00; excused, 01.

President Cherberg: "The Senators have the right to compare an enrolled bill with an engrossed bill. How long that takes, I don't know."

Senator Bottiger: "I guess at 4 o'clock in the morning if they haven't found any errors, can the President sign it then?"

President Cherberg: "Yes, the President has signed bills even later than that, Senator."

Debate ensued.

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I would presume that the President doesn't have any authority to sign after midnight tonight. That is the end of the day, even though our clocks are one hour behind. The session ends, as the Constitution provides on the 105th day--that is today--ends at midnight. I would suspect that the President's authority for signing bills for this session no longer exists."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "I would respectfully suggest to the President that that would be a matter for the courts to decide and if the President elects to sign at that time, that is the President's decision to make."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President believes that your remarks are correct. The President, as already indicated, has signed bills even later than that."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, you have signed bills at 4 o'clock in the morning, but not particularly on the last day of a constitutionally set session of 105 days."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Yes, Senator."

Senator Rasmussen: "With people raising a point of order on it?"

President Cherberg: "The President doesn't recall anyone ever raising that point of order at 3 o'clock in the morning, Senator."

Senator Rasmussen: "It could be if somebody raised the point at 12 o'clock midnight. It would be entered in the Journal."

President Cherberg: "Yes, it would, Senator. All points of order are in the Journal."

MOTION

Senator Bottiger moved that Senate Rule 28 be suspended, if the Senators objecting have not examined the document by 2 o'clock in the morning.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rasmussen: "A point of order, Mr. President. I suggest that Senator Bottiger's motion to suspend the rules would be out of order, because I think his motion is untimely."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President believes that the process has already started."

REMARKS BY SENATOR RASMUSSEN

Senator Rasmussen: "Speaking to the point of order. Senator Bottiger, being only one Senator on this floor and not the Holy Ghost, has no right to suspend the rules at any time after the constitutional session ends. Furthermore, he does not have the right to suspend the rule, after it has been invoked."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President believes that Senator Rasmussen's remarks concerning the invocation of the rule are correct--that it is untimely now to try and suspend the rule."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Clarke: "Would Senator McDermott yield to a question?"

President Cherberg: "Senator McDermott does not yield."

REMARKS BY SENATOR HAYNER

Senator Hayner: "Mr. President, it appears to me that a member could certainly be entitled to look at the enrolled bill and compare it, but within a reasonable length of time as set by you. Otherwise, the process could be held up indefinitely on many bills."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President can't find where he has the authority to set the time."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Woody: "I guess I simply need to know if a statement that I heard a short while ago is correct. The statement referenced the necessity for a bill passing both houses and being presented to the Governor's Office by midnight. The inference was that if this body had not passed the bill and approved it by midnight, that we would lose the opportunity to address it in this legislative session."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President suggests that you direct your inquiry to the Secretary of the Senate. It seems an impossibility to be able to deliver all bills to the Governor before midnight."

POINT OF INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Senator Rasmussen, the rule is there for obvious reason to cure and correct mistakes, but would not it be possible for any one member to hold this legislature in indefinite session by simply refusing to consider that and preventing the entire body from adjourning?"

Senator Rasmussen: "No way--in answer to Senator Bottiger's question. There is no way that any one member can hold this body in session. The Constitution is all-powerful in that. The Constitution, as you well know, specifies 105 days and the 105th day ends at midnight tonight--at least that is my understanding."

Further debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "By way of parliamentary inquiry, could we require the Senators to make a report by a specific time by a majority vote?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "If the Senate has that authority, the President is unaware of it."

Senator Bottiger: "There is a rule that permits the Senate to require a committee to report a bill by a specific time."

President Cherberg: "The President believes that fits in the same category as the invocation rule. It is untimely. The Senate, in its wisdom, removed the question of consideration from the rule book and the President can't think of any particular parliamentary move that could have prevented the invocation. If the point had been raised immediately, perhaps the President could have permitted a motion to require them to report to a time certain, but that did not occur."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Guess: "Mr. President, in reading Senate Rule 28, I see no provision in there where it says that any deviation from that must be timely and so I would then go to Rule 48 and ask if the corollary to that rule isn't within the power of the body. The power of the body, as you have said many, many times is that it is up to the body to do anything that it wishes--and it has that power."

"Now, the rule says 'any standing committee of the Senate may be relieved of further consideration of any bill, regardless of prior action of the committee.' Could not that same power apply to a bill that is no more than five pages long being compared? Senator Rasmussen has been one of those who has chastised the speaker, upon occasion, for dillying or dilly dallying--and now we are being subjected. Senator Rasmussen, to a little dilly dallying. The question is, can the will of the majority be thwarted?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President is unaware of any will of the majority at the present time, Senator. The rule does say that 'any standing committee of the Senate may be relieved of further consideration of the bill, regardless of prior action of the committee by a majority vote of the Senators elected'--'the committee'--this is not a committee."

Debate ensued.

MOTION

Senator Bottiger moved that section 1 of Senate Rule 35, requiring a 24-hour notice to amend be suspended.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Fleming: "Mr. President, a point of order. The point of order is that I question a quorum of the Senate on suspension of the rules."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The motion to suspend is non-debatable. The President will recognize Senator Bottiger for explanatory remarks and then anyone else for rebuttal."

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Bottiger to suspend section 1 of Senate Rule 35.

The motion by Senator Bottiger carried and section 1 of Senate Rule 35 was suspended.

MOTION

Senator Bottiger moved that Senate Rule 28 be repealed for a twenty-four hour period.

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Senator Bottiger, from what point--from what time period?"

Senator Bottiger: "Until the end of the session, Mr. President."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bottiger, and there being no objection, the motion to repeal Rule 28 for a twenty-four hour period was withdrawn.

Senator Bottiger moved that Senate Rule 28 be repealed from now until the end of the session.

POINT OF INFORMATION

Senator Rasmussen: "He can suspend the rule after we have complied with the rule, which has already been invoked. There is no basis for suspending the rule when the Senators are already engaged in reading the bill. They are using the rule and they need that. I have to read it myself."

Debate ensued.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: As I understand, we are not on a suspension of the rules."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "In a sense it is, Senator--repeal--suspend--the President doesn't believe there is much difference between repeal or suspend."

Senator Rasmussen: "Yes, there is a lot of difference."

President Cherberg: "Well, I know--"

Senator Rasmussen: "Let me speak to that, Mr. President. The motion to suspend says that you temporarily are suspending the rules. A motion to repeal requires a two-thirds vote or is the same as it is to change the rule, as Senator Bottiger well knows. I can't conceive of anybody that believes in the operation of the rules of the Senate that after you have invoked the rule--any one of you--that then they come and say 'well we are going to repeal it now today, because we don't like what is happening.' You could cut off everything. I can't agree with that at all. I think the only way that you can have an orderly business of the Senate is to observe the rules, work with the rules and try and give--and all rules are adopted so that each Senator has a fair opportunity on this floor to express himself and themselves and to talk about the issues that are important.

"Now, right at this stage of the game, not all of you, because I am sure that most of you do not agree with this. You are very fair about it. You want the rules observed. If you would take a good look at that rule--it was put in there for one purpose--Rule 28. I will just quote from it. I won't read it--'Any Senator shall have the right to compare an enrolled bill with the engrossed bill before the President signs the same.' Now, what would that mean to you? It would mean the same, I think, as I read it, which says 'comparing an enrolled and engrossed bill that comes through here and is amended and changes made'--you want the same thing in there that you have adopted.

"You want that for the enrolled bill, which may get to the Governor tomorrow, the next day or the day after, and it is filed, also, with the Secretary of State. You have to recognize that if you operate without rules or because if somebody steps on your toes—I am going to change the rules. You, obviously, don't want that. You don't want anybody stepping on your rights to represent the people of this state. Your voters sent you down here—not to be sheep or not to fluster—but to state the facts as the rules are laid out and as the Constitution provides. There isn't any question in my mind—"

REMARKS BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The motion is non-debatable. Rebuttal remarks are permitted, but the President believes you have extended your time."

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, it was my understanding that it wasn't a motion to suspend, but a motion to change."

President Cherberg: "You are correct. It was a motion to repeal Rule 28."

Senator Rasmussen: "That is debatable. There is no rule that prohibits you from debating a change in the rules. The only rule that says there is no opportunity to debate is when it is a motion to suspend. Am I correct?"

President Cherberg: "Your point is well taken—yes."

Senator Rasmussen: "I am just trying to go by the rules. There has never been a time that I have tried to evade the rules. I have always worked with them. Those of you who have worked with me in the last thirty-five years in the House and Senate know that—that I am going by the rules."

President Cherberg: "For what purpose does Senator Hayner rise?"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Hayner: "A point of order, Mr. President. I have the distinct feeling that Senator Rasmussen is trying to run the time out on this and I would like to make a point. Mr. President, this Rule 28 was not designed to thwart the will of the majority, even though the time is not in there. Usually, under law, if there is no specific time given, it is a reasonable length of time to inspect the engrossed bill."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President agrees with that statement—a reasonable length of time."

Senator Hayner: "A reasonable length of time. They have had fifteen to twenty minutes already. It is not a very long bill, Mr. President."

President Cherberg: "No, Senator Rasmussen, you have not yielded the floor."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, did the President rule that Senator Rasmussen has a reasonable length of time to present the other side of the motion to repeal the rule?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Would you repeat the question?"

Senator Bottiger: "Does he have a reasonable length of time or can he filibuster beyond 12 o'clock?"

President Cherberg: "According to the rules, Senator Rasmussen has the floor."

Senator Rasmussen: "I was merely explaining what I was trying to do and let me assure you that I would like to go home. I would have liked to have gone home permanently at the end of the session at 12 o'clock, but it doesn't look like it because Senator McDermott is reading the bill and I have to read it after that—before the President can sign it. That is what the rule says. I don't know why you would think—"

President Cherberg: "Under those circumstances, Senator Rasmussen, the President believes that you should yield the floor."

Senator Rasmussen: "I will when I get through telling them what I think."

President Cherberg: "The President believes that you may be practicing dilatory tactics, Senator."

Senator Rasmussen: "No. Have I made any motion or anything that may have delayed the action, Mr. President? There is no three-minute rule and a Senator is allowed to explain his position. I would try and concentrate on the issue at hand."

President Cherberg: "Senator Rasmussen, the President will permit up to five minutes to twelve."

Senator Rasmussen: "That is a long time, Mr. President. It is only five minutes to eleven, now, by our clocks. Thank you, Mr. President. I will try and comply with your wishes."

President Cherberg: "Daylight saving time, Senator."

Senator Rasmussen: "Daylight saving time? Thank you, Mr. President."

President Cherberg: "It is now 11:52. You have less than three minutes, Senator."

Senator Rasmussen: "How could I read that bill in that time?"

President Cherberg: "To complete your comments, Senator."

Senator Rasmussen: "I can complete my comments, but I don't know if I can read the bill in that time. I am a slow reader. I am trying to determine what the body thought they had put in this rule--and that was to make it very clear to all of you, that we don't want dilatory or dilly dallying tactics on this floor. What we do want is the right of the minority preserved, which is the right to use the rules for your benefit and to protect the rights of the people that represent you. That is what we are all here for. If we were to go home and say--'I give up'--that we don't even want to argue the point, that we are not going to obey the rules, there really isn't much use of you coming down for the session.

"I fully believe and I have always believed--and that is why I have worked so hard with those of you that believe in the rules of the Senate. We don't have Joint Rules, unfortunately. Senator Hayner complained about that. She complained that there were no Joint Rules and there aren't any and that is unfortunate. I don't know how to explain that. We didn't have any last session. I couldn't explain that either, but this session, we have a very clear rule that has never been challenged. It is said that you have that right to read that bill. I hope, Mr. President, that nobody on this floor will take advantage of the fact that I can't talk all night.

"I am trying to present those points that, I think, are important to you. I would hope that you recognize that so that I can leave the floor safely, with the knowledge that you are not going to destroy the rules and that I can then go and read the enrolled bill. It is very difficult to read an enrolled bill. I can read the rules and that is all. I would urge all of you to take a good look at the rule, believe what it means, support the Constitution, support the people that voted for you and support general good government, instead of chaos. Some countries operate without rules. We don't want that in this country. It is very important. It is very important that each person have a chance to speak."

MOTIONS

On motion of Senator Bottiger, and there being no objection, the motion to repeal Rule 28 was withdrawn.

Senator Bottiger moved that Senate Bill No. 3182 be brought before the Senate immediately to compare the enrolled bill with the engrossed bill.

Senators Vognild, Bottiger and Peterson demanded the previous question and the demand was sustained.

The President declared the question before the Senate to be the motion by Senator Bottiger that Senate Bill No. 3182 be brought before the Senate immediately to compare the enrolled bill with the engrossed bill.

The motion by Senator Bottiger carried.

REMARKS BY SENATOR BOTTIGER

Senator Bottiger: "Mr. President, I have been informed that the House has compared the enrolled bill with the engrossed bill and found it to be identical and that the Speaker of the House has signed the bill. May I ask if the Secretary of the Senate has compared the enrolled bill with the engrossed bill?"

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rasmussen: "My point of order, Mr. President, is that there is no provision for the Senate to accept the House scrutiny of a bill."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT.

President Cherberg: "Your point is well taken, Senator. The President would like to propose a question. What is the hangup?"

Senator Bottiger: "The motion to direct the President to sign the bill."

Senator Rasmussen: "No way, Mr. President--"

President Cherberg: "The President would like to have his questions answered. What is the hangup on the time--12 o'clock? The President has signed hundreds of bills after 12 o'clock."

Senator Bottiger: "I have no hangups whatsoever, Mr. President. Senator Rasmussen apparently has some."

Senator Rasmussen: "I think it is the height of something or other to seek to demand that the constitutionally elected presiding officer of the Senate--elected in his own right statewide--that he has to accept directions from anybody--that he has to sign anything at any time and I see no reason to accept such a frivolous motion as that and I am shocked. I am absolutely shocked that you could even suggest such a thing as that. I would never do that myself."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Mr. President, with all due respect, you asked the 'hangup,' and I understand that you have signed many bills after the deadline and after sine die. I am trying to avoid a constitutional question, in the courts later which can be obviated if you would sign this bill prior to 12 o'clock. I am concerned about the constitutional section, which I read, that requires a bill to be signed in open session. I am afraid that an argument would be made in court that this open session as an open session terminates at midnight."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The Senate is still in open session and probably will be for several hours."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rasmussen: "Didn't you rule that we were running on daylight saving time? I would call your attention to the clocks at both ends of the chamber, which now indicate that we are now one minute after midnight. One minute after midnight--and this is the President's ruling--he didn't want me to talk for another hour and I didn't blame him. I do call your attention right now, Mr. President, to the time, which is after midnight. The bill has not been signed. There is that question and I didn't raise it, but Senator Clarke raised--the constitutional question here--and that is a very valid question, I am sure. Senator McDermott is here and I have not had a chance to read the bill."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Further discussion is moot at this point, Senator."

REMARKS BY SENATOR McDERMOTT

Senator McDermott: "Mr. President, I would like to have it entered in the Journal that I was only able to read three-quarters of the bill."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Rasmussen: "Under Rule 28, can I now read the bill?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The President believes that you have the right to read it, Senator Rasmussen, but you will have to return it in time, so that the President can sign it in an open meeting. What would you consider a reasonable time, Senator?"

Senator Rasmussen: "Being a slow reader, probably fifteen minutes."

President Cherberg: "Is that agreeable--fifteen minutes?"

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator Deccio: "Mr. President, the session by law is 105 days. Does it mean 105 days of twenty-four hours each? I assume that is what it would mean."

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "That is something for the judiciary to decide, Senator."

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Zimmerman: "A point of order, Mr. President. Under the circumstances of Senator Rasmussen, then, each one of us would have the opportunity to read the bill and we will be here as long as it takes to read and, therefore, we shall figure that we shall be here until late into the night?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Not unless you invoke Rule 28."

Senator Zimmerman: "Under the circumstances, we are allowed to do that?"

President Cherberg: "Senator Rasmussen will have fifteen minutes to read the bill."

Debate ensued.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator McDermott: "Mr. President, my point of order is--could you tell me what time it is?"

President Cherberg: "Starting time?"

Senator McDermott: "Yes, right now."

President Cherberg: "12:05."

Senator McDermott: "A.M.--on the 106th day?"

President Cherberg: "It is later than that now."

Senator McDermott: "Right now?"

President Cherberg: "It is 12:05 a.m."

Senator McDermott: "On the 106th day, then?"

President Cherberg: "It is 12:05 a.m."

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Senator McCaslin: "As a freshman, I am inquisitive as to why Senator McDermott had thirty minutes to read the bill and only read three-quarters of it and we have allowed Senator Rasmussen fifteen minutes to read the bill?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Slim is married to a school teacher."

At 12:09 a.m., there being no objection, the President declared the Senate to be at ease.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator Rasmussen: "Mr. President, I have read the enrolled bill. The enrolled bill said it has passed the Senate April 24, 1983. The President of the Senate is expected to sign the bill April 24, 1983. Mr. President, as a point of order, I raise the point of order that it is now a quarter after twelve. We are beyond the twenty-fourth day and although the President may sign the bill, saying it is the twenty-fourth day, for all purposes in the world--that the Supreme Court looks at--it is the twenty-fifth day and the session has ended as of midnight on the twenty-fourth. So, I will return the enrolled bill to you, Mr. President, with those observations."

SIGNED BY THE PRESIDENT

The President signed:
SENATE BILL NO. 3182.

POINT OF ORDER

Senator McDermott: "A point of order, Mr. President. Could you tell us the time, please?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "The time is 12:16:58, the 105th working day."

REMARKS BY SENATOR CLARKE

Senator Clarke: "Just for the record, that is daylight saving time?"

REPLY BY THE PRESIDENT

President Cherberg: "Yes, that is daylight saving time."
